ORANGE SHOW READY FOR BIG OPENING

Now and Then

By The Editor

ANAHEIM'S SHOW; A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

Tomorrow morning the California Valencia Orange show will be officially opened by President Harding, who will "discuss" the matter over long distance telephone with the officials of the show and talk personally with his sister, Mrs. E. E. Remsberg, of Santa Ana, who will be one of the honor guests of the officials. The opening of the show by President Harding will mark the first time a President has officially declared an exposition open by long distance telephone and this alone will give Anaheim a great and lasting amount of publicity.

The gentlemen who have been working day and night to make the show a success have already been rewarded. Interest is keen all over Southern California and it seems a certainty that the 100,000 admission tickets ordered will be used within the six days the doors of the show will be open to the public.

Unusual harmony and concerted effort has been shown by the men in charge of the orange show and they have displayed marked ability in assembling features to interest and entertain the thousands who will find their way to the big tent.

A PIN HEAD; LOST EFFORT.

A man in Kentucky, after destroying over 3,000 pins and wasting three and a half years, has succeeded in inscribing the Lord's prayer on a pin head. There are 65 words of 254 letters and it is necessary to magnify the pin head 398 times in order to read the prayer.

We may be dense and we may not appreciate the things we should, but if there is anything in that man's work of the past three and a half years that will do him any good or be rest of the world, we fail to realize its importance.

Men who direct their efforts toward accomplishing something that means nothing are not doing the world any good. We have never been able to realize why men died and men suffered in an effort to reach the north and south poles. Peary reached the north pole, but so far, we have heard of nothing it has accomplished for the world.

Thousands upon thousands of dollars have been spent in efforts to reach the poles and many lives have been sacrificed. The latest foolhardy thing, in our opinion, is this man who spent three and a half years to inscribe the head of a pin with the Lord's prayer. The Lord's prayer, known to most of us by heart, deserves a larger place than on the head of a pin, if it is to be inscribed in a manner that consumes such a great length of time.

Many of these things men do remind us of a child trying to catch fish with a pin on a string hung in a water bucket.

MILLS OF JUSTICE; THE EYES OF THE WORLD.

People who transgress, eventually pay the price. Any man or woman who cares to take the time to delve into the past will find that for every transgression, he or she has paid a price. We find that we reap as we sow, although we are not always paying in kind for things we do against the laws of God and man.

A woman now being held in Honolulu is charged with the murder of four husbands and a brother-in-law. Whether or not she is guilty, remains to be seen. It is charged that she poisoned all four husbands at times when they were ill and were being attended by physicians. It is alleged that she put poison in their medicine and that attending physicians issued death certificates, thinking their patients had died from the disease being treated.

The woman declares she believes she is a typhoid carrier, because all her husbands died of typhoid fever. All of her husbands were carrying life insurance in various sums.

We hope this woman is not guilty of the outrages crimes charged. If she is guilty, she should pay the price by spending the balance of her days where she cannot acquire husbands and later acquire life insurance funds by the process of eliminating the husband from among those present on this earth.

The most careful criminals eventually slip and then the web they have been weaving around themselves is tightened and their outlook becomes very gloomy.

FRANCE THREATENS TO WITHDRAW IF GREAT BRITAIN CONTINUES ANTI-POLISH ATTITUDE LLOYD GEORGE

Premier Briand Refuses to Meet Lloyd George Until He Obtains Vote of Confidence From Chamber Clothing Him With Utmost Power

WANTS DETERMINING VOICE ON CONTINENT

UPPER SILESIA UTTERANCES

Premier Lloyd George: "The peace of Europe is threatened by the situation. The Germans have a right to use their forces to preserve order."

Premier Aristide Briand: "France could not remain neutral if German forces entered Silesia."

Adalbert Korfanty, Polish leader: "Anarchy will reign if Poland is given less than she demands. If the Germans come they will be slaughtered."

PARIS, May 16.—Premier Briand will threaten France's withdrawal from the entente if Great Britain persists in her "anti-Polish" attitude. Briand refused to meet Premier Lloyd George until he has obtained a vote of confidence from the chambers of deputies, permitting him to exert the utmost pressure.

Briand and Lloyd George probably will hold a private interview at Boulogne after the chamber meets Thursday. Lloyd George asked for the conference to settle the differences of the two countries in the Upper Silesian controversy.

It was predicted here that the meeting will be of the stormiest nature, Briand being thoroughly aroused over Lloyd George's statement before the house of commons, a statement made without consulting French interests.

Briand will demand that France be supported in her plan to keep the rich coal lands of Silesia away from the Germans. He will go further and demand that France have the determining voice in settling all continental matters involved in the Versailles treaty.

SCHOPPINITZ, Upper Silesia, May 16.—"Anarchy will reign up Upper Silesia if Germany is permitted to send troops into the country," Adalbert Korfanty, Polish leader, declared today in an interview, with the United Press.

"The Germans will be slaughtered if they advance," he declared. A division of Upper Silesia, giving Poland less than she claims will result in anarchy."

Korfanty said he planned to retire as soon as the allies reach a decision regarding Upper Silesia.

"But if the decision is not just," he declared, "if it does not give Poland the territory marked by the Korfanty line anarchy will follow."

Korfanty's trial led the correspondent a long chase through the mountainous Silesian country. His followers everywhere gave misleading directions. Some said he was at the front, actively commanding the Polish insurgents. Others said he had gone to Paris to negotiate directly with the allies.

Korfanty was far from being the corpulent, content man who represented Poland prior to the plebiscite. He was nervous and thin, clearly worried by the attitude of Great Britain as made plain last Friday by Premier Lloyd George.

"We don't intend to fight the allies" he said. "We will demobilize at Pless and Rybnik if they want us to. "But the Germans will be slaughtered if they attempt to counter attack on us."

Korfanty complained that the allied troops had not aided him. The Italian and British forces could clear the situation immediately if they would side with the Poles, he said.

Korfanty's shabby aide de camp, General Doliva, echoed his chief's words.

"We'll stand for nothing less than a just decision," he said. "We won't consider the award of this little Southeastern section of Upper Silesia as a just decision. If they try that——" his threat was not completed.

NO INSURANCE COLLECTED BY WIFE

Woman Charged with Slaying Four Husbands Tells Of Her Innocence

WILLING FOR TRIAL

HONOLULU, T. H., May 16.—Mrs. Lydia Southard, held as an alleged feminine "Bluebird," charged with the murder of four husbands and a brother-in-law, today held firmly to her claim that she was a natural typhoid carrier and that her husbands died of typhoid fever contracted from her.

"After I am proven innocent I will sue my accusers on the mainland for damages," she declared in an exclusive statement for the United Press.

"I never had typhoid fever myself, but I am convinced that my husbands contracted it from me. Scientists say I can be a carrier without being affected. As to my collecting insurance policies when my husbands died, I never collected any, although I had some due me. There was some talk after my last husband died and that was why I had an inquest then."

Mrs. Southard asked Chief of Detectives Arthur McDuffie what kind of poison she was charged with using.

"Why, I understand it was the kind they kill weeds with," McDuffie answered.

"They'll have to prove that," Mrs. Southard commented.

Mrs. Southard refused to attend religious services in the jail yesterday.

"I don't care for that sort of thing," she told the jail matron. The matron is kept with her constantly. Mrs. Southard now eats and associates with the other women prisoners and is given the liberty of the jail. Yesterday she signed a statement formally waiving extradition.

RUNAWAY GIRLS ON INCREASE IN U. S.

CHICAGO, May 16.—Blame for runaway daughters was placed squarely upon the shoulders of parents today by Mrs. Alice Clemons, Chicago's famous police woman.

Mrs. Clemons issued a warning to the nation's parents to prevent their girls from leaving home. Girls, suffering from a spring restlessness, are disappearing in greater numbers than ever before, she said. Two hundred cases of missing girls have been reported to Chicago police this spring.

GREENFIELD, Ind.—Charles Nye tried to catch some speeders as they whizzed through here by grabbing the extra tires on the rear of the auto. It is thought he will recover.

LA FAYETTE, Ind.— J. H. Shock, principal of the Jefferson high school, was shocked when girl students rolled down their stockings and showed the dimples in their knees. He sent them home.

And what does it profit a man to impress the neighbors and live in terror of bill collectors.

STILL NEED ROOMS FOR VISITORS AT THE ORANGE SHOW

Have you a room you can spare to rent to someone who will be here this week attending the orange show? If so, telephone to J. W. Whitaker, chairman of the information committee. His number is 539.

"We want to list all the rooms we can get," said Mr. Whitaker today, "so that we can care for our visitors. It is hoped those who have spare rooms, whether they make a practice of renting them or not, will make them available during this week."

A great many have listed their rooms, according to Mr. Whitaker, but there is a demand for more.

WOMAN JURORS WILL TRY WOMAN WHO KILLED MAN

CHICAGO, May 16.—The date of the trial of Mrs. Cora Orthwein, pretty affinity slayer, charged with killing Herbert C. Zeigler, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. executive will be set today.

Mrs. Orthwein is to appear in court in company with her attorney, Ben Short. The defendant, who is charged with manslaughter, was well-known in Chicago's night life before the tragedy. Her luxurious apartment on the "Gold Coast" was the frequent scene of many gay parties.

Following the death of Ziegler, Mrs. Orthwein told police, "I loved Herb, and I killed him."

She will ask freedom on the ground of self-defense, claiming that Zeigler, in a drunken frenzy, broke into her apartment after she left him at a drinking party in a cabaret.

The state charged she killed Ziegler after he told her that he was going back to his family and give up the old life.

Prosecuting Attorney Heth announced that he will attempt to get a woman jury to try Mrs. Orthwein.

"Men juries always acquit affinity-slayers," said Heth. "I am anxious to see what the reaction of a woman jury would be."

EIGHTEEN ARE SEEKING NATURALIZATION IN SANTA ANA

Eighteen aliens who desire citizenship in the United States are being examined today before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams. Nine Germans are included in the number and will be the first naturalization hearing since America's entrance in the world war, in which Germans have been given consideration.

Joseph Yager, a German from Fullerton, was one of the first to come up for examination. His application was denied because of the fact that he registered in the draft questionnaire as an alien enemy. His first naturalization papers have been cancelled and he was told that he would be obliged to go through the process of naturalization again.

SEEKING $3714 AS DAMAGES TO WIFE IN BOAT ACCIDENT

Alleging that Alvertta Sleeper of Redlands received injuries to the extent of $3,714.75, H. E. Sleeper will appear as plaintiff in a civil suit against the Balboa Land and Water Company.

It is asserted in the complaint, that Mrs. Sleeper was taken to visit the United States torpedo boat "Tarbell" on the passenger boat belonging to the water company, and that due to the carelessness of the man in charge of the ferry, suffered painful injuries that have made her an invalid.

It is also stated in the complaint that Mr. Sleeper was prevented from working for some time due to the fact that the accident necessitated spending a great deal of time caring for his wife.

LAST STRAW

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The validity of the prohibition amendment was reaffirmed by the supreme court today.

THRIFT DRIVE HERE IN MARCH BRINGS FORTH MANY INQUIRIES

When Anaheim observed President Harding's inauguration with a thrift campaign on last March 4th, it was declared Anaheim would receive great publicity over the country, and it has, through the agency of the motion pictures taken during the day.

Today, the First National bank of Anaheim received a letter from Wm. M. Smith, president of the Mitchell National bank of Mitchell, South Dakota, asking the local bank officials how the drive was accomplished and asked what results were obtained.

H. H. Benjamin, cashier of the First National bank will write to President Smith of the Mitchell National bank today and tell him that the thrifty people of Anaheim and the banks, aided by the Anaheim Herald did the work, and that 898 new accounts were opened in the various banking institutions of the city.

Mr. Benjamin will also tell him of the co-operation of the principals of the schools, the Chamber of Commerce, the business and professional men, the band and the kiddies. It was estimated March 5th, the day after the drive ended that $50,000 had been deposited in savings accounts during the day of the drive.

DAMAGE SUIT NOW BEING HEARD IN SANTA ANA COURT

The suit of Noel Newton, who seeks to recover damages for $8,321.95, from A. N. Cox of Los Angeles for injuries it is alleged his wife received in an automobile collision here in November, 1920, is being heard today before Superior Judge Z. B. West.

According to the complaint Cox is responsible for the accident by driving across the intersection at Grand avenue and Seventeenth street, Santa Ana. Newton asserts that due to Cox's alleged careless and reckless driving, the accident occured, and due to the accident, Mrs. Newton has suffered great pain, nervous shock and bodily injury.

BILLIARD PARLOR TO OPEN TOMORROW

Carl Vanatta and T. L. Hoag have completed arrangements for the opening of their new place of business tomorrow, the V. & H. Billiard Parlors, in the basement of the new Kroeger building, West Center street.

The proprietors are both well known young men of this town and they have installed modern, up-to-date equipment.

Tomorrow evening they have planned a most interesting program for the benefit of their patrons.

COX SAYS "GIVE 'EM A CHANCE" SPEAKING OF THE REPUBLICANS

NEW YORK, May 16.—"Let 'em alone—for the present."

This sums up the attitude of James M. Cox, democratic leader, toward the republican administration, as given in an exclusive interview with the United Press here today.

Cox is in favor of giving the administration a chance to "make good."

"The country had enough of political sabotage during the last term of President Wilson," he said. "There will be plenty of time for the democrats to perform the function of an opposition party after the republicans have had an opportunity to demonstrate their capacity for running the government."

Cox made it plain that he did not wish to assume the role of a critic of the present administration. The only statement he would make regarding American representation upon the Supreme Council, Council of Ambassadors and reparations commission was that "it is impossible for us to keep out of it."

BIG TENT HOUSES DISPLAYS RIOT OF COLOR, SEETHING WITH MEN PUTTING LAST TOUCH ON EXHIBITS

Success of Show Assured by Popular Interest Being Shown by Thousands in Anaheim, Orange County And Southern California in General

PHONE MESSAGE ARRANGED WITH HARDING

The California Valencia Orange Show, at the hour of going to press, is as nearly finished, as is possible at this time, and all concessionaries and exhibitors will be working all night to have everything ready for the big ceremony by long distance phone from Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock.

A strict rule, barring all visitors until the opening of the show is being enforced for the reason that exhibitors cannot put in the finishing touches if any disturbances are permitted.

All day Sunday, Mr. Lewis, radio superintendent of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, Los Angeles, was busy perfecting all wires over which the President's message will come. He spent several hours, talking to Chicago and intermediate points. The enunciation of the second operator, put on at Chicago, was so clear that it sounded like one from the Valencia hotel. The lady was talking into a desk phone at Chicago office, and reported that the weather was overcast and a low temperature prevailed at Chicago. She said that she wished she was in California among the orange groves. Salt Lake reported bad weather but the line was very clear and the voice could be heard quite distinctly. Officials of the company in San Francisco and all the principal points where the engineering corps of the company is maintained were listening on the line and many local people listened in with great interest. It is stated that the President's message over this long distance line will involve the use of many scores of persons, and the work here has taken four solid days. As this is the first time such a message has ever been sent, since the perfection of the trans-continental long distance telephone, the scientific world is on the qui-vive and the story will receive unlimited publicity.

The full load of electricity, excepting on the sides of the racks, was carried out for a few moments last night and the users of electricity in Anaheim noticed the fact perceptibly. The view from the gangway through which visitors enter the exposition is an entrancing manner, and pictures the human idea of fairyland probably as comprehensively and beautifully as ever was attempted anywhere. Several who visited the Chicago Auto Show recently held and which was said to have furnished the finest exposition decorative scene ever put on in the United States, enthusiastically declared that for its size, the California Valencia Orange offers even greater charm to the eye.

In the industrial department, an auxiliary bandstand has been constructed under the direction of Chairman H. E. W. Barnes of the entertainment committee so that crowds in both ends of the exposition will be held, and there will not be the constant shifting of people which has been experienced at other shows, much to the chagrin of industrial exhibitors. In this particular the California Valencia Orange show will stand out in exposition history. At 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, A. W. Reeves will call on Howard Gates for a beautiful bouquet to be carried by Mrs. Remsberg, of Santa Ana, the President's sister. Mr. Reeves will then call for Mrs. Remsberg in an automobile, provided by the Studebaker agency and bring her to the expositions gates at 9 o'clock. Within a few minutes after this time, the Los Angeles correspondents of Selznick, Kinogram, Fox, International and Pathe motion picture weekly will rehearse the ceremony to be carried out by President Harding from Washington. The visitors who will be privileged to hear the President will be seated at an 80 foot table provided for that purpose, and place receivers at their ears so that photographers can have every assurance of getting what they want of this novel ceremony. Representatives of all Los Angeles papers will be on hand to make still pictures.

Dr. Bessica Raische reports that about 300 ballies will be registered and there will be plenty of doctors and nurses on hand who will examine and score them. Parents are requested to bring their babies in, plenty ahead of the appointment hour. The afternoon programs will be well worth while and all mothers who possibly can stay are requested to do so. There will be all attendants necessary to take care of the children that mothers wish to leave in their care for which a nominal charge will be made. The program will be followed very closely.

PROGRAM

10 a.m.

Opening of exposition by Warren G. Harding, President of the United States. The President will open the show by long distance telephone from Washington, 1 o'clock, eastern time, which corresponds with the opening hour printed here. His message will be received by Charles C. Chapman, honorary president of the show, Mrs. E. E. Remsberg of Santa Ana, sister of the President, and Wm. Sark, mayor of Anaheim, and immediately announced to the waiting assemblage.

This is the first time in the history of the world that an exposition has been opened by a chief executive, impelling his own voice over more than three thousand miles of telephone wire. The President has kindly volunteered to perform this function, thru the courtesy of Hon. Samuel Shortridge, U. S. Senator from California, and Hon. Phil D. Swing, congressman from this district.

1:00 p.m.

Opening exercises of the exposition to be held in citrus department. Address of welcome by Hon. Tom McFadden, chairman of committee on reception and entertainment. Responses by prominent Californians.

2:00 p.m.

Opening of amusements, the Valencia Joy Zone.

3 to 4 p.m.

Concert in grandstand, citrus department, by Harry Green's Famous Marigold Gardens (Chicago) orchestra, interspersed with vocal instrumental and vaudeville numbers.

6:30 p.m.

Concert, Anaheim Municipal Band.

7:30 p.m.

Orchestral program; 9:00, vaudeville.

LOS ANGELES MAN GIVES HIMSELF TO SHERIFF JACKSON

Charles H. Freshman, drove up to the sheriff's office this morning in his Ford coupe and requested that he be allowed to go to jail.

He said that the federal court in Los Angeles had sentenced him to nine months in jail and had told him to come down to Santa Ana. He was told that his commitment papers would be sent later.

The officials at the sheriff's office seemed a bit surprised at the method in Los Angeles of sending a criminal to jail but after some deliberation, took him in.

FORGERY CASE IN COURT YESTERDAY

The trial of the case of the People vs. Jack Rudolph will start tomorrow morning in Superior Court.

Rudolph is charged with cashing three worthlsss checks, one on the First National bank of Santa Ana for $64.50, and the other two for $48.50 each.

The first was signed Henry Bickman, and made payable to Fred Schader. The second was on the First National bank of Orange and the name of W. S. Stanley was signed to the check, and was made payable to C. A. Willard. The third was made to B. A. Ward and was signed by R. L. Collins. The complaint alleges that Rudolph forged the names on the three checks.

SAVINGS ACCOUNT IN LOCAL BANK IS FORGOTTEN

Here is a good story, a true one too, and it has nothing to do with fish or fishing. This is a narrative of a woman who thought she had $15 and will find that she has $107.83 and may have more.

In January, 1906, Mrs. H. H. Pierce, who lives in Pomona deposited $15 in the American Savings bank in Anaheim. In October, the same year, Mrs. Pierce withdrew the $15. Later the same month, she deposited $53 and the next month, deposited $11 more, but failed to bring or send her pass-book with the deposits and also when she withdrew the $15 in October.

Today, officials of the American Savings bank received a letter from Mrs. Pierce, asking them if she still has $15 to her credit, and in the envelope enclosed the pass-book showing the $15 deposit in January, 1906, over 15 years ago.

A letter will go to Mrs. Pierce this afternoon telling her that there is a balance of $107.83 to her credit as a result of the $53 and $11 deposits in the fall of $1906, the difference between the total of the two sums, $64, is interest accrued since 1906. If Mrs. Pierce leaves the balance 30 days longer, $2 will be added to that sum as interest.

"It should be a lesson to people," said Mr. Benjamin, cashier of the First National today, "that it doesn't do a bit of harm to forget you have a balance in a savings bank. But better still, it is good to keep adding to the balance and keep forgetting to withdraw the funds until such time as necessity compels it."

CITY AND COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kellogg, Mr. Schneider of Van Nuys motored to Anaheim yesterday to spend a short time with relatives.

B. Daniel of Redlands was the week-end guest of the Valencia while in Anaheim on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Young of Los Angeles visited in Anaheim over the week-end.

Rudolph Swartzbaugh visited his mother at Baldwin Park Sunday.

HARRY PEARSON IS MAYOR OF BAYARD, A NEBRASKA TOWN

Many of the friends of Harry Pearson, formerly of Anaheim, and now a merchant of Bayard, Neb., will be glad to hear of his election as mayor of that town. Mr. Pearson has been in that follow but a few years and has gained the respect and admiration of the business men and people of that community.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pearson of this city were in that city at the time of the election. They stopped over for a visit on their return from an eastern trip. They returned to Anaheim recently.

It is estimated that 2,200,000,000 herrings are landed in the British Isles during one season.

GRIFFITH LUMBER CO. COMMENDS MEN IN NEW COMPANY

A. C. Bowers, president and manager of the Griffith Lumber Company, has retired from active management of the company and in a letter ringing with sincerity commends the new owners of the Anaheim branch to the people of this city.

In a letter to the people of Anaheim and vicinity today, Mr. Bowers pays high tribute to Henry M. Adams, for many years manager of the Anaheim lumber yard of the Griffith Lumber Company.

The letter speaks for itself:

"Owing to the desire of the writer to retire from active business life, the stockholders of the Griffith Lumber Company have decided to sell their five yards, and we feel confident that it will be gratifying to our customers to know that the Anaheim business has been sold to its present manager, Henry M. Adams and Elmer Bowers, son of the writer.

"Mr. Adams has been a loyal and efficient employee of the company for the past twenty years or more, as manager of the Anaheim yards, and we are very sure that his many friends will be pleased to know that our company in recognition of his many years of faithful service, has selected him to continue the business on the same high plane of service and fair dealing which we have maintained since 1886.

"Mr. Bowers, who becomes a partner of Mr. Adams, has also put in about twenty years service in the general office of the company in Santa Ana, and he is a thoroughly trained lumberman, and has imbibed his conception of proper busines methods and practice from the Griffith Lumber Company.

"These two men will give their undivided attention to the management and development of the new firm, Adams-Bowers Lumber Co., and we bespeak for them the same liberal patronage and friendships which we have so greatly enjoyed and appreciated in our many years of business in Anaheim.

HAYWARD SAYS WILL RETURN TO STATES

LONDON, May 16.—William D. Haywood will return to the United States to serve his twenty year sentence in Leavenworth prison, he declared today.

The I. W. W. leader, whose disappearance brought bitter criticism from his associates who were also under sentence for hampering the nation's war activities, announced he will return after the third internationale and other conventions have been held in Moscow. Haywood's bondsmen will not suffer loss, he said.

"Here is my story," he continued.

"On March 3rd, I retired to the home of friends in New York. Three weeks later I arrived in Moscow. I shall remain here for the convention of the Third Internationale and other meetings, I will return to the United States without question. If I cannot return before my bond is cancelled, the government may have its equivalent of a pound of flesh which friends deposited for my appearance. But my bondsmen will not suffer financial loss from the cancellation of the bond.

DRIVING RULES IN FORCE ON STAGES

A bulletin recently issued by F. D. Howell, assistant general manager of the Motor Transit Company, should be observed by every motorist. Although intended for the instruction and guidance of the Motor Transit drivers, the rules and explanations given therein should prove of interest to every motor car owner.

The recent order appears as follows:

1. Reduce speed before approaching curve.

2. Release brakes before entering curve.

3. Roll into curve freely at reduced speed; as soon as car has accommodated itself to curve, open throttle and pick up speed.

It can be plainly seen that by observing the above instructions that safety in rounding a curve is not only certain, but the life of the motor car is lengthened, the strain on the driving gear, differential is greatly decreased and the wear and tear on tires is greatly reduced through sane driving.

All times we suspect that "can't" in Germany is a state of mind.

Readjustment will be a painless operation if we are careful to put the accent on the "just."

THIRTY LOTS WILL SOON BE PLACED ON MARKET

Another tract will be opened soon in Anaheim and a number of very desirable lots will be put on the market. This new tract is an annex to the Zeyn street tract and is located between Lemon and Los Angeles streets and south of North street. Zeyn street will be opened and connected with North street and there will be about 30 lots of about 52 feet front each, and no doubt the small number available and its unique location will make them quick sellers.

The steady and speedy growth of Anaheim and its wonderful development in every direction determines the value of real estate, especially so in residence lots, for it creates a big demand and therefore makes the ownership of property a safe and profitable investment. Climate and location in evergreen Orange county, the oil, orange and walnut industries are only a few of the contributing factors, which enter into its development.

Building permits tell the story in a way that cannot be successfully controverted and the permits issued in Anaheim are leading in Orange county. The Golden State Realty Co., in whose hands the exclusive sale of the new addition has been placed believes that all of these lots will be sold in a very short time.

The American Legion is determined to make a fight in the sixty-seventh congress to obtain vocational education for widows and orphans of men killed in France, according to John Thomas Taylor, vice-chairman of the Legion's national legislative committee.

Vocational education for widows and orphans of ex-service men who died overseas during the war was provided in the Kenyon bill passed by the United States senate at the last session of congress. The same bill, introduced by Representative Fess of Ohio in the house did not pass, but was favorably reported by the house committee on education, with, however, the provision for vocational education for widows and orphans stricken out. Senator Kenyon has reintroduced his bill, with the widow and orphan education feature included. The American Legion is backing the Kenyon bill.

There are approximately 14,000 widows and 18,000 orphans of America's war dead. If the government were to provide vocational education for all of them, the cost would be $122,000,000, an estimate based upon the present cost of vocational education, as given by the federal board for vocational education, which is $125 a month per man for maintenance and $35 per month for books, equipment, tuition and incidentals.

SENATOR BORAH IS PREPARED TO TELL WHAT HARDING SAID

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Borah is prepared to give the senate today a message from President Harding on disarmament.

Borah's message, the result of a conference with Harding some time ago, will be given, he said, if Senator Poindexter, in charge of the navy bill, will tell the senate just what Harding said to him about the timeliness of an international disarmament conference.

Poindexter and Senator Hale of Maine recently announced after calling on Harding that the president had strongly intimated that he considered the present an inopportune time to press the disarmament resolution.

"I have not given my talk with the president publicity," said Borah, "because I did not think it was intended for congress."

Harding told Borah, it is understood, that he is strongly in favor of the principle of disarmament and, according to available information, did not intimate that he opposed action now on Borah's proposal for a conference on reduction of naval armament, participated in by the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Supported by King, Utah, a democrat, Norris, Nebraska, and Kenyon, Iowa, republicans, Borah is making one of the bitterest fights of his career in the senate. He and his colleagues hammer away at the economic angle of the disarmament question.

SPORT MODEL NASH CARS SOLD GOOD DURING WEEK

The May Motor Company has two sales of sport model Nash automobiles to report this week, C. C. Winslow of Anaheim and F. E. Chambers of Huntington Beach being the purchasers.

The Nash sport model is very popular with the motoring public, as is evidenced by the many recent sales.

SAYS FRENCHMAN HAS GOOD CHANCE AGAINST DEMPSEY

Paris, May 16.—Johnny Coulon, former bantam weight champion, thinks that Georges Carpentier "has a good chance" to beat Jack Dempsey. "I have seen enough of Carpentier to form a very good opinion of him," Coulon said here today. "In some ways he is better than any boxer in the world, and I have seen most of the good ones in my time. Carpentier has more science than any living fighter and has innumerable little tricks that no other boxer possesses. Carpentier also packs a terrific punch that will knock out any living man if he lands it. Of course he is lighter than Dempsey, but if he gets his punch over the champion will go down and stay down. I discovered that Carpentier has one tremendous asset possessed by no other figater I have ever seen. He can hit a tremendous blow while poised on the balls of his feet—that's something that every fighter in history has wanted to do and couldn't."

CHICAGO.—A strike threatens to completely tie up operation of the Waupaca-Green Bay railroad. Its four employés do not want their wages cut and ask the railroad board for help. The road is ten miles long.

HUPMOBILE

Prices Reduced

—Effective immediately, Hupmobile prices are reduced $210 on Open cars, and $315 to $340 on Closed cars.

—The Five-Passenger car and the Roadster are now $1765; the Sedan, $2810; the Coupe, $2725; all prices f. o.b. Anaheim, war tax to be added.

—What this reduction actually means is an increase in Hupmobile value that is worth far more than the revision in price.

—The truth is that at its new price, and with its well known economy, low repair costs, long life, and high resale value, the Hupmobile stands forth today as the best buy in the motor car market.

—This revision represents the rock bottom figure at which the high quality of the Hupmobile can be maintained.

PIONEER LADY HONORED WITH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koehler of Lincoln avenue entertained Sunday at a picnic at Laguna Beach in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Koehler's mother, Mrs. Chisholm of Los Angeles. In the evening they attended the Fairyland threatre.

Mrs. Chisholm told her friends a story of her former days in California, bringing in the pioneering trip on horse back fifty-five years ago. They located at Los Nietos at that time and Laguna Beach was the first beach town they ever visited. She was quite surprised at the wonderful change in the place but is still able to locate the old camping grounds where she and her husband spent many happy hours.

Those present were Mrs. Chisholm and grandson Amar Vassar of Los Angeles, Mrs. Meivil of Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hollingshead and daughter of Brea, Clara Keister, Helen Lund, Walter Kohlenberger, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koehler and family.

MR. BARNETTE GIVEN SURPRISE

Charles Barnette of 900 East Center street was given a surprise Saturday night when a group of friends visited him in honor of his birthday anniversary. Cards, music and out of door games were played throughout the evening.

Later refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Holditch, Mrs. Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetmore, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCormick, Miss Edna Cloup, Mrs. Carl Baldwin, Winifred and Josephine Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cosart of Orange, Mrs. Wetmore of Utah, Mrs. Lizzie Hennig, Louis Hennig, Mrs. Frank Wetmore, Sr. Mr. Earl Petit of Fullerton, Mr. Baker, Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Will Brunig, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hardesty and Mr. and Mrs. C. Barnette.

BRIDE TO BE HONORED WITH DINNER

Miss Alice Grimshaw was hostess Saturday afternoon to a nicely appointed luncheon in honor of Miss Dorothy Garrison, who will become the bride of Mr. Arnold EnEarl in June. The decorations for the occasion were in yellow and green with little yellow nut cups to match. The place cards were in bridal designs in different pastel shades.

Covers were laid for Misses Dorothy Garrison, Ruth Coons, Emma Owens, Lillis Johnston, Hazel Rainey, Mesdames F. H. Garrison, W. T. Wallop, Robert Hamlan, and Walter J. Ross.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent with music, games and sewing for the bride. Mrs. Walter Ross sang and was accompanied by Mr. Askin. A very delightful time was also enjoyed in hearing the bride's plans for the future.

MISSOURI PICNIC HELD SATURDAY

The Missouri picnic held Saturday at Bixby Park, Long Beach, was a great success. A large representation from different parts of Orange county was present.

From Anaheim were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Abernathy. Mrs. Abernathy's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Joplin. They report a very good time which was spent with games, races, picnic lunch and get acquainted time.

OLD ANAHEIM RESIDENT MARRIES

Joe Gibson of Anaheim gave his friends a surprise last Saturday when he returned from Santa Monica with a bride. Mr. Gibson, it seems, had kept this a secret, as none of his friends knew of the event.

They were married Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian manse at Santa Monica. They returned to Anaheim immediately. Mr. Gibson is an employe at the oil fields.

INFORMAL DINNER PARTY YESTERDAY

An informal dinner party was enjoyed yesterday at the home of Mrs. Vic LaMont when a few friends dropped in to spend the afternoon.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs Chester Harrison, Mrs. L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bonnat.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATES WHITSUNDAY

St. Michaels church was crowded yesterday to its capacity when the Sunday of the Episcopal churches of Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana met for their annual rally and marched into the church with their banners.

After a short service in which the school joined in heartily, Rev. Geo. Swan of Pasadena delivered an instructive and an interesting address for both old and young on the meaning of Whit Sunday and the churches' birthday. A special offering was taken for the children's home.

MR. AND MRS. CORDES SURPRISED

The friends of Mr. John Cordes heard of his return from a honeymoon Saturday and stealthy made their way to his home and let loose a blare of noises from horns, tin pans, rattats and other noise making machinery. At first the groom would not appear but later found it best to greet his friends.

Light refreshments were then served followed by cigars. Music and songs were the amusement during the remainder of the evening. There were about 25 present.

MR. AND MRS. SEEMAN CELEBRATE

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Seeman, pioneer residents of Anaheim since 1882, will celebrate their sixtieth anniversary with a service tonight in the Evangelical church with Rev. F. H. Doescher presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. Seeman were among the first members of the church and have been zealous workers during their membership. Thursday afternoon the ladies of the church will also celebrate this anniversary with a luncheon at 2:30. Every member of the church is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Mr. Seeman was born July 16, 1837, at Schleswig, Holstein, Germany, and came to Iowa while a boy. Mrs. Seeman, formerly Dora Krumwelde, was born October 15, 1844, at Hanover, and came to this country when an infant. They were married at St. Andrews, Iowa, in 1861. Twelve children were born to them, of which eleven are living. They are Mrs. Dora Hansen, Pasadena; Henry Seeman, Covina; Alonzo Seeman, Eureka; Mrs. Ella Hickcox, Los Angeles; Mrs. Hannah Tremaine, Brea; Jerry Seeman, Brea; Mrs. Rose Schulz, Los Angeles; Wm. Seeman, Barrohs; Ben Seeman, Park, Colo.; Ida Sisto, Los Angeles; Mrs. Weatherwax, Taft.

B SHARP CLUB ENJOYS PARTY

The boys department of the B Sharp Music Club met at the home of Mrs C A McCullah on Saturday afternoon The first number on the program was the old fashioned game "musical chairs" As each boy lost his chair, he performed his number on the piano The enthusiasm of the game helped the pupils to forget the usual embarrassment and self-consciousness that boys are quite sure to feel The following program was rendered:

"The Princess Sleeps" (Pfeiffer): "Bird Song" (Mae Aileen Erb) Cecil Horowitz

"Minuet," (Dvorak) Leslie Dozier.

"The Honey Bee," (Mae Aileen Erb) "Song of the Clock" (Octavia Hudson) Robert Craffee.

"The Whip-Poor-Will," (Theodore Dutton) Leslie Fulsom.

"America," (Jessie Gaynor) Rodney Chamberlain.

"Waltz (Krogman) Everett Idlor.

Trio, "March Streabogg," Beebe Fay, Everett Idlor, Rodney Chamberlain.

March (Krogman) Donald Hasler).

Cecil Horowitz of Garden Grove received the prize for having secured the highest grade of efficiency during the past quarter. An exciting game of ball followed, refereed by Robert Brown, after which the hostess served ice cream cones. The boys were delighted with the whole afternoon and unanimously voted for "boys' recitals." The following were guests of the club: Mrs. Thompson and sons, Robert and Richard, Mrs. J. C. Idlor and daughter Ruth, Mrs. Hasler, Mrs. Horowitz, Max Knox, Alfred Davis and Robert Brown.

WINNIPEG, Man.—A mule is not a horse and that settles it, according to a ruling of the Manitoba court of appeals. City authorities therefore must reimburse Thomas Pople to the extent of $100. Pople was forced to pay the $5 horse tax when he sold 20 mules.

BABY SHOW WILL BE ONE OF THE FEATURES DURING WEEK

Interest in the Baby Show in connection with the Valencia Orange show tomorrow seems to be increasing by leaps and bounds. At first it was thought that the baby show would be but a small affair, but present indications are that it will be the biggest thing of its kind ever given in Southern California and will be one of the main attractions of the orange show. Women have registered their babies by the hundreds, while merchants have donated prizes lavishly, all being anxious to do whatever they could to make the baby show a grand success.

The direction of the show has been in charge of a committee of women of whom Mrs. E. J. Horsley, Mrs. Garnett, Mrs. H. A. Johnston, Dr. Bessica Raiche, Mrs. Jackson, and others have been untiring workers.

A committee of ladies from various parts of the county will act as hostesses, about five different ladies being present each day, whose duties it will be to meet the people who come in, take them around to the different exhibits, demonstrating same, give out government literature on child welfare life, take charge of the programs, and look after the comfort of the people in generaly. A matron has been secured who will be in constant attendance at the rest room in order to make the women and children feel at home. Also, a sand pile where the kiddies can dig to their hearts' content, has been provided. Likewise, there will be a nursery with trained attendants who will take charge of the children while the mothers are looking over the exhibits in the larger tents.

The following prizes have been offered by the local merchants:

Sweepstake prizes, best boy under 5 years, engraved silver loving cup, $25, by Johnston-Wickett clinic.

Sweepstake prize, best girl under 5 years, engraved silver loving cup, $25, by Anaheim Laundry.

Best Japanese baby, $5 savings account, First National bank.

About fifty blue and silver ribbons will be awarded to babies who are quite fortunate enough to secure one of the above prizes.

The interior of the tent has been gaily decorated and around the sides will be numerous exhibits by local merchants and others. The Red Cross have sent a full display including first aid boxes, milk exhibits, dental hygiene, salvage and shop reconstructed garments and many health service posters.

There will also be a school exhibit from the public school and numerous beautiful posters made by the young ladies of the high school and grade schools have been placed in the windows of the local merchants. Beautiful booths have been installed displaying all kinds of children's clothing, toys and everything pertaining to child life.

The show will be open from 10 o'clock each morning when the judging of the babies will begin, until the Orange show closes in the evening during the week.

Mothers are invited to bring their babies for examination whether they have sent in a coupon or not.

The program for tomorrow afternoon at the baby show is as follows:

Music, children's records on phonograph.

Exhibition by kindergarten children, Citron school, Anaheim.

Demonstration of washing and dressing a baby, Mrs. D. C. Cowles, Fullerton.

"Development and Necessity of Baby Welfare Work," Mrs. Julia E. Saunby, Tustin.

Care of the teeth, with tooth brush drill by school children, Dr. J. E. Waters, Anaheim.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE LACKING IN ANAHEIM

People of Anaheim who appreciate the work of the Salvation Army who care for "down and out" men and women and children whose parents cannot or will not support them are asked to come forward and give of their worldly goods so that Anaheim will go over the top in making its quota of $2,500.

According to W. P. Webb, of the local committeemen, Anaheim has fallen down so far in getting the quota.

"We do not want to go out and beg for money for this great organization," said Mr. Webb. "During the war, they did enough to guarantee their everlasting support by the people of this country. I hope those who are in a position to do so will make their gifts to E. E. Smith, cashier of the Golden State National bank, treasurer of our local committee."

Nearly every other community in the state, according to word received today, made its quota last week.

CIVIL SERVICE TO CUT OUT TEMPORARY JOB HOLDERS

SACRAMENTO, May 16.—A decrease in the number of positions in the state held under temporary appointments, is predicted in the biennial report of the civil service commision to Governor Stephens.

The report states that of the 6752 persons in the state employ December 1, 1920, a total of 3011 were employed under temporary authorization, pending civil service examinations.

"The changes in business conditions is seen in the industrial world, particularly, and the number of those applying to take examinations for skilled and unskilled labor positions is showing material increase, which we hope will result in a corresponding decrease in the number of appointments under temporary authorization," says the report.

The civil service commission has jurisdiction over 93 departments. The department employing the largest number of persons is the highway commission with a personnel of 775.

Four departments have on employe each. These are the dental surgeon, guardian of Marshall monument, port officer, San Pedro, and port warden, San Francisco.

The motor vehicle department has 249 employes; the board of harbor commissioners, 451; the department of engineering, 434; Napa state hospital, 381; Stockton state hospital, 314.

Panama got licked and demands a million indemnity. She must have some German in charge of foreign affairs.

Europe must learn that one can't make a hymn of love out of a military march by changing the needle.

There is something about this talk of repealing the excess profits tax that reminds us of kicking a dead lion.

EIGHT MEMBERS ENTER GRACE CHURCH BY CONFIRMATION

A service of unusual interest was held in Grace Lutheran church yesterday when eight members of the Sunday school were received into full communicant membership by the rite of confirmation. After a short opening service the young folks marched in a body to the altar, confessed their faith and upon bended knees received the blessing. The beautiful song "Jesus Be Our Guide" was then sung by the class whereupon each one received a certificate of membership. The class consisted of the following members: Emma Heinsman, Ella Brenner, Edna Gutzman, Herman Heinze, Alfred Schimming, Lloyd Larson, Ernest Reutch and John Bargsten.

This is the second class confirmed in the church since it was dedicated in the fall of 1919. During that time the congregation has enjoyed a steady growth and a large audience assembled yesterday to witness this latest Pentecostal addition to membership. Besides these young folks a family of six was also received yesterday.

Today Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Peters will have "open house" in the newly built parsonage. It is expected that a large number of the members and friends of Grace congregation will visit at the parsonage this afternoon and evening. A special program has been arranged for this evening at which the Luther League will serve refreshments.

ONE SOLDIER HERE FOUND FOR RED CROSS BUREAU

Last week, the Anaheim Red Cross carried on a campaign all over the country to get information of neglected ex-service men or those who are entitled to government aid and are not receiving it.

In Anaheim, J. H. Whitaker, chairman of the home service committee, got busy in response to a telegram seeking such information and found only one instance in the city. The name and address of this ex-service man was immediately sent to the San Francisco headquarters.

TAKE STURGEON IN IRRIGATION DITCH

MERCED, Cal., May 16.—Another fish story, said to be actual fact this time by folks who consumed the steaks, is being told by Merced people to every person who ever angled or who is kin to anyone who has done so.

A sturgeon, which looked as big as a snark to the bewildering eyes of exploring small boys, was taken from an irrigation ditch near here. After being hauled from the water in an exhausted condition by men to whom the boys cried "fish" and killed by a well-aimed bullet the fish was found to weigh 300 pounds.

The steaks consumed furnished the piece de resistance to nearly half the families in Stevinson county and started an epidemic of story telling, which bids fair to outlive the memory of the big sturgeon itself, according to the cynical comment of non-followers of Ike Walton.

YORBA LINDA NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran of Valley View boulevard west of town are enjoying a visit from Mr. Cochran's aunt and uncle from Whittier.

Messrs. Al and Ed Brain and the Kuchel brothers, who have been working for the G. P. here since last summer, have been transferred to Huntington Beach and have already left.

The Burnison well south of town, which was expected to be a part of the new development around Yorba Linda, has not as yet given any real showing to make it what they thought it was, but it isn't given up yet. This will be quite a disappointment, if it proves to be a dry hole.

Mr. Fee has had an attack of pleurisy, but is feeling better again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohannon's son who returned here and gave up the navy on account of ill health says he is feeling somewhat better. He was stationed off the coast of Maryland, and couldn't stand the climate there.

Mr. Murry Hoine who moved from here to Huntington Beach three years ago will return to Yorba Linda again to make his home here.

J. W. Briggs of Bisbee, Arizona, who has been a guest at the Rice home for three weeks or more, has returned to his home.

The Barton Bedtime Stories

THE BIG MARSH IS A QUEER PLACE!

By JOHN BARTON
(Copyright, 1921, by The Associated Newspapers)

MALTY KITTEN stared at Thunderpaws and Thunderpaws stared back at Malty Kitten. Then they both stared at the fish that lay between them. The skunk spoke first. "It's a fish, all right—but marsh fish seem just about as pretty as marsh manners." And by that he meant it wasn't pretty at all. They'd spoken to two of the Marsh-folk, and one of them had run away, while the other had run right at them—till he saw there would be two of them to fight. That was the mink who left this fish behind him.

"Are you sure?" asked Malty, sniffing cautiously. "It hasn't any scales and it smells like an agleworm."

"But it has fins," explained Thunderpaws. "And whiskers! A fish with whiskers!; It has 'em, all the same. See here?" He raised the hairy-looking things that grew on the fish's mouth and chin with his paw. There was one sticking out by each eye, too, exactly as a cat wears them, but we call them barbels on a catfish. For a catfish is just what this was.

Malty didn't know that, though. He'd never heard of them before. Thunderpaws had, of course, but he'd never seen one because they don't come into the nice fresh spring water of Dr. Muskrat's Pond. They'd rather grub about on a soft muddy bottom like you find in a marsh. Didn't he tease Malty? "Meet your namesake, Mr. Cat," said he. "They say he looks like you. Aren't you pleased to know what you look like?"

Malty wasn't a bit pleased. He was disgusted. He said it was an insult to call such a looking thing as that after his family. But he felt better after he'd taken a taste of it. It was so rich and delicate he scraped its very bones with his raspy little tongue. "Oh-oh!" he breathed fatly, after a while. "The sun's getting up. We'd better be hustling along. Lucky thing we haven't seen anything of the foxes.

Good reason why. The foxes had crept past them while they were eating, but the minute they scented cat on the wind they made off as fast as they could go. The one cat-fight they had when they killed Malty's mother was enough for them.

Thunderpaws looked up and saw the queer, lumpy nests of the herons in the Heron's Roost, outlined against the sky, with the stilty-legged shapes of the birds who were perched below them. "Queerer and queerer!" he exclaimed. "Did you ever see such looking things? Let's go over there and see what they are."

"Sure," agreed Malty. "I'll find out about them. Trees like that aren't any trick at all to climb." So off they set around the end of the water that washes the feet of the cat-tails!"

News Notes of the Oil Fields

The Standard Oil Company, the discoverer of what now looks like California's biggest oil field, continues the heaviest developer of the new field. On the original Huntington A property No. 3 at 2750 is testing for water and will be on production in a few days. A-5 is held up temporarily with a fishing job at 2970. A-7 is cleaning out at 2800. A-8 is being cemented through the perforations at 2610, and in so doing considerable difficulty was encountered, the well wanted to flow. A-9 had water trouble and was recemented. A-10 is drilling in sandy shale at 2450, and A-11 is rigging up to drill.

On the Huntington Beach property No. 2 stands cemented at 2805 and will be the next producer. B-3 stands cemented at 2150. B-4 is a rig. One well is drilling on the C property, that is No. 1 at 2000 feet. D-1 stands cemented at 2325. E-1 also stands cemented, the depth being 2067. On the famous Bolsa Chica lease two wells will soon be spouting. No. 2 is testing out at 2384 for water, and No. 3 is cleaning out at 2100.

The Standard's Surf well is still in the experimental stage, and at 2760 a series of tests are being conducted. The water has been shut off. Torrance No. 1 is standing cemented at 3875. The Jones Community well at 2600 is drilling and is beginning to show a little oil.

At Buena Park attention is being focused upon the Petroleum Midway. This company is putting lumber on the ground for a rig and will begin operations soon.

The Union Oil Company's San Juan Capistrano well, O'Neil No. 1, is drilling at 4120, the formation still continues a nice brown shale, but seems to carry no oil. The outlook for this test well is beginning to look a little doubtful.

At 2780 feet the La Costa Oil Company drilling a wild cat well 35 miles north of San Diego claims to have struck the first real showing of oil in San Diego county. A. V. Hauschild, drilling superintendent of the company, stated that at 2780 a sufficient showing had been struck to warrant the setting of pipe. Gas pressure was strong enough to blow the water out of the bailer on coming to the top. Hauschild resents the information of the U. S. Geological Survey which states that the greater part of San Diego County is overlaid with granite and that the possibilities for oil are small. He claims he will show things different soon.

The Mission Valley Oil Enterprise, the first concern to use a rotary in San Diego county, is now drilling at 1000 feet and is making splendid progress.

The Oceanside Oil Company has been compelled to slow its work on acount of pipe trouble at 1700 feet.

Faith in the future of the Richfield district has kept development work up steadily since the discovery well came in two years ago. The Amalgamated was one of the first companies to get into the field and still has four wells drilling. Breen No. 2 in the conglomerate at 1025, Page No. 1 in the same formation at 3725, Potter No. 2 stands cemented at 3200, and Bayha No. 1, a new well, is drilling at 400, clay.

Starting off with the intention of going deeper if necessary the Dependable Oil Trust spudded in and started drilling a 20 inch hole. Located just across the road from the Petroleum-Midway's Richfield No. 2, the outlook for the Dependable is good.

The Fullerton Oil Company's Anaheim Union No. 1 is now drilling at 4550. At this depth the formation is a nice brown sandy shale, and is showing more oil and gas than at any time since the well started drilling. The Fullerton expected to finish at 4200 or 4300, but did not get the rich sands found by the Standard on the Kraemer No. 2 property.

Drilled to 4527 the General Petroleum's Group 2-1 failed to produce oil on a production test made early in the week. Instead the well made salt water. It is the plan now to plug back and test out shwings that were noted on the way down. Group 3-1 is at 2150 in sticky shale, and 4-4 is making hole in shale at 3000. Davis No. 1 came in doing 160 barrels gross, about 50 per cent of the production seems to be water. Hugo No. 1 continues to hold up at 500 barrels and is the wonder well of the Olinda group. Preparations are being made to redrill and deepen Stern No. 3, now at 3475. Stern No. 4 is producing 340 barrels and shows no sign of falling off.

The Harrington-Dumas Oil Company is not entirely satisfied with the way its No. 1 is acting and has decided to drill the well deeper. It will be necessary to get out some 4 inch pipe before the redrilling starts. Little difficulty is expected in getting the hole in shape.

Drilling at 3285 in sandy brown shale the Placentia-Pacific Oil No. 1 is showing lots of gas. Drilling is going nicely.

The Placentia Oil Company is still tied up with a fishing job at 2850. However, some progress is being made and it is believed the hole will be cleared in a few days.

The Petroleum Development Company redrilled, cleaned out and have Bradford No. 1 back producing at 500 barrels. The well was redrilled and cleaned out to 4117. Bradford No. 3 is showing oil in the shale at 4180. Bradford No. 4 is drilling in the conglomerate at 2740. No. 5 is testing water at 3911, and No. 3 on the Brandford Bros. lease has been recemented at 3107. Community still stands cemented at 4342. Richfield No. 2 at 2900 is in shale and sand.

Drilling on the Richfield-Yorba No. 2 is now at 3343, and a production string, 8 inch pipe is going in. With 200 feet of oil sand drilled through, a nice well is expected. Yarnell No. 9 is going ahead at 1850, and No. 10 is making hole in brown shale at 3000. Lumber is going on the ground for Isaacs No. 2. On the Krug property No. 1 is held up temporarily with a fishing job at 2760. No. 2 is drilling in shale at 2500. No. 3 at 1675 is in black shale and No. 5 just started shows 1000 feet of hole. No. 5 built, and No. 6 is getting the material on the ground for the rig. Consolidated No. 1 is fishing out lost tubing and Consolidated No. 2 is pumping, making a temporary production of 45 barrels.

Man About Town

By CHARLES KUCHEL

—The people of Anaheim and all their good friends have cause to feel proud and signally honored to have the president of the United States ready to converse with them over the transcontinental telephone system, extending greetings and wishing them well during the grand Valencia Orange show ready to blaze forth. There is only one thing that could have been better, and that is it would have been glorious to have the president here in person. But of course that would have been asking too much of him. Anyhow the people are happy and glad awaiting the president's call by wire to felicitate them upon this auspicious occasion. You bet, there's nothing too good for Anaheim.

—Frank Davis has been stepping high these days, all on account of receiving word from Seattle telling him that his grandson, Ray Steele, aged 13 years, struck out 22 men in a ball game, pitching to an automatic umpire. The lad is said to have the make-up of a Walter Johnson. Frank says he does not intend to buy a rubber bat, although the cap he wears is quite flexible. A chip off the old block.

—During the ball game at Fullerton a few days ago between the local Elks' nine and Tom Mix's aggregation of stars, the famous movie idol pulled a thriller. Besides holding down the initial sack Tom is a bear at the bat. When the umpire called a strike on him during the game, which Tom insists went wild, he turned around and swung heavily with his right on the ump's balcony. The latter hit the earth with a resounding thump, but bounced up and swung at Tom's dome. The latter ducked beautifully, and sent his left over at his adversary, but he aimed high and fanned the air. The puffing umpire again reached for Mix with a haymaker, but the latter bobbed his head again and escaped the deadly thrust. It was getting lively and the ball park cop was ready to jump in and march the combatants off to the cooler when Mix picked up the prespiring referee and swinging him high over his head let the man fall several feet away. But in calling the umpire—who must be an acrobat—lit facing Tom and arising quickly, stuck out his mit for a hand shake with Tom just as the policeman was about to take a hand himself. All this went for the usual admission fee, no war tax added, but the ball game, the boys say, was just ordinary. Tom is the gent who put mix in mixer.

—The other morning when a young man had finished his breakfast at a local restaurant and had just paid his check to the cashier, he stood near the door momentarily waiting for some one. He was dressed in his working clothes and was ready to begin his day's work. A demure little waitress was busily engaged in serving a number of patrons their early morning meal, but she found time between orders to rush around the counter and over to where the young man stood, and for a brief moment there was a fond embrace and a loving kiss. "Goodbye, daddy," the little lady said, and they parted. The manly young man smiled and went on his way light hearted, while his helpmate resumed her duties, stepping lively to make up for the brief time lost, and all was well. And upon each other morning this little loving drama is enacted, and two hearts are made happy. May their love remain always the same.

—Fred A. Backs, Jr., has held the responsible position of secretary of the Anaheim Savings, Loan and Building association for twenty-one years. He has seen the meritorious organization grow from an ambitious embryonic enterprise into one of the most solid and successful home building concerns in the state. This co-operative project has been instrumental in many ways in providing homes for men and women, and has been ever ready in providing ways and means for them to save money. This organization's methods of home building proves the fallacy of paying rent, because the small monthly sum exacted to become a member and stockholder amply provides for the erection of a home and makes a man independent. The person who pays rent now could easily obtain this privilege at about half of what he now expends to live under another man's roof. The loans made by this organization last year amounted to $213,000, a loan averaging about $3,000. Seventy-three loans were made during the past year and 54 new residences have been built, while many older ones have been repaired. The association's total loans now amount to $350,000. So great is the demand for money in this prosperous organization for new home buildings that the directors have been put to an anxious test to meet all of the demands. One of the city's anchors.

—Walter Neipp, one of the Standard Company employes at the Los Angeles street filling station, says reliable statistics place the amount of gasoline used by the touring public in January at one million gallons a day. This applied to Southern California alone, and it is estimated that a like amount of gasoline was used in the month of February. The weather during these months was more or less chilly, compared to the usual balmy air now enjoyed in this glorious Southland. Now that the atmosphere is more sublime Walter is trying to figure out the quantity of gas used daily. When everybody awheeling goes.

—Now that the city trustees have launched another bond issue for civic betterments it would be well for the citizens and taxpayers to back them up in their laudable undertaking. The trustees are really servants of the people, are reputable citizens, and are looking out for the city's welfare. The funds asked for will be expended so that the city may keep abreast of the times, and in realty all the improvements contemplated are necessary. Help yourself by helping them.

—This is baby show week and it behooves the managers of the commendable infant display to have a prize for each child as every mother is expecting her baby to win. Can't see how they can lose.

—A talented young woman, who has a reputation as a designer of parks, which extends into the confines of several states, made an interesting and instructive discourse on parks before the city council a few evenings ago. The young lady made known her knowledge of how to perpetuate nature's gifts in the great outdoors, while making over a modern play ground for a busy world, in such a convincing manner, that the councilmen sat in profound mien, even though they had a large volume of important municipal affairs to attend to. They seemed so impressed with the lady's views of beautifying the landscape that they no doubt would have excluded all other demands for their attention and made the evening one especially devoted to the park question. Their visitors told how easy it was—by deftly arranging a tree ornamentation here and an astestic flower display there—to make the kitchen door of a rural abode just as inviting as the front portal. (Here a trustee looked up and said he considered his kitchen the best room in the house.) The young lady has made a life study of designing recreation playgrounds and possesses a technical knowledge along these lines that amply qualifies her to talk authoritatively upon the subject. Upon taking her leave it was plain to be seen that the trustees would not turn a stone to prevent this talented designer from securing the contract to plan the local park which is rounding into shape. Chivalrous councilmen.

INDIANAPOLIS. — Albert Russell permitted thieves to loot his room four times without complaint. But on the fifth visit last night they took nearly everything he possessed and he said it was time something was done about it.

The underlying cause of all wars is the shake-up that occurred at the Tower of Babel.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.
