The Anaheim Turners rather captured the works at the Los Angeles Turn Fest on Saturday and Sunday.

Upwards of 200 Turners and their friends from this city boarded the Santa Fe on Saturday and Sunday to attend the Turn Fest.

The diplomas for "turning" were presented by the district teacher, M. L. de Julian, and in addition only breathers were given to the winners.

When it comes to the interior arrangement, especially of the second story, as we say, the criticism of the action of the Supervisors is most severe.

These figures throw an interesting light upon the action of the Turners Three. But it is not too late to save the country from being fastened with this undesirable courthouse.

THE unpleasant "Santa Ana" weather prevailing on Sunday and Monday while somewhat disagreeable to those of the community who have to be outdoors, was nevertheless of inestimable value to the walnut growers.
