Eight Red Casualties in Bloody Prison Disorders

KOJE ISLAND, Korea, (AP) — Eight red prisoners were killed and 17 wounded in bloody incidents at United Nations prisoner of war camps on riot-torn Koje Island and on the Korean mainland yesterday and today.

Prison camp authorities said no U.N. personnel were killed or wounded in the outbreaks.

The killings raised the toll of reported deaths from violence to 245 prisoners. The Army said 115 of these died at the hands of fellow prisoners after drumhead trials in compounds dominated by hard-core communist POWs.

Four North Korean prisoners were killed and three wounded today when a 15-man POW work party attacked two U.S. and two South Korean guards on Koje.

Three Korean civilian internees were killed and 13 were injured yesterday in a brawl among captured personnel moved recently from Koje Island's massive prison camp to a new compound at Yogchon, 60 miles north of Pusan, temporary South Korean capital.

• • •

ONE NORTH KOREAN prisoner was killed and another wounded yesterday by bullets from a U.S. soldier's automatic rifle, fired accidentally during a guard change in compound 66 on Koje.

The accidental shooting took place two hours after about 100 U.S. and British troops raided the compound — holding 2700 North Korean officers and 650 enlisted red orderlies—and destroyed their headquarters and dispensary shacks. The U.N. guard troops went in with fixed bayonets. They used tear gas bombs but fired no shots. There were no casualties.

An official Army statement said: "In self-defense the guard opened fire on his assailant and killed him. In the fracas one other POW was killed and five were wounded. Two of the wounded died later at the hospital. No Americans were hurt."

COMMUNIST DISORDERS IN BRIEF

TOKYO—Two killed as police open fire on 300 communist demonstrators who disregard warning to halt advance on police line, reds hurl bottles of acid and stones; rioting seen as show of strength by communists to mark anniversary of red rioter's death in 1949; three newspapermen among injured; police arrest nearly 100.

KOREA—Eight communist prisoners killed and 17 wounded in two days in bloody incidents at U.N. prisoner of war camps on riot-torn Koje Island and on Korean mainland. No U.N. personnel killed or wounded in latest outbreaks, which raised toll of deaths from violence to 245 prisoners since last Feb. 25.

FRANCE — Police cars patrolled Paris streets in force to guard against any outbreak of communist rioting stemming from jailing of Jacques Duclos, currently the country's No. 1 communist leader. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, whose arrival from Korea sparked bloody rioting on Wednesday, succeeded Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as SHAPE commander. Ridgway voiced western determination to resist aggression.

GERMANY—East zone communists worked at the job of putting additional barricades between their area and Western Germany, underscoring red resentment against the signing of the peace contract with Western Germany. In Berlin the Soviet sector offered to restore telephone service to West Berlin, but only on lines that would be controlled by the communists. West zone postoffice officials said no.

Heavy Fog Fails To Discourage Beach-Goers

LOS ANGELES, May 30, (AP)—The beaches got their usual heavy Memorial Day crowd today, despite a heavy morning fog. The weather bureau says more of the same sort of weather is coming up.

There were drizzles this morning, enough to give Los Angeles a trace of rain for the third straight day. But officially, May looks likely to go down as a month without measurable rainfall. For the next five days, the bureau said, no storms are in sight and the familiar night and morning low clouds will continue.

Anaheimers Arrive From Korea Today

Several Anaheimers are among the 4193 Army veterans who are scheduled to dock in San Francisco today from Korea. Those from Anaheim who have been aboard the Navy Transport Gen. M. C. Meigs are Sgt. Vernon G. Dunton, 837 S. Philadelphia; Cpl. Wendell W. Ledbetter, 851 S. Resh, and Cpl. James R. Maxwell, 125 S. Walnut, and M/Sgt. John F. Weir, 130 W. Adele.

PARIS, (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower disclosed today he will shed his uniform next Tuesday but still will refuse to campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

INGLEWOOD, (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver told a Memorial Day audience here today the United States must continue international cooperation and aid to combat communism.

Othello Dabbs Dies In LB Hospital

Othello B. Dabbs, 70, a native of Arkansas, resident of California 42 years, 1089 E. La Palma ave., died yesterday morning at the Bixby Knoll hospital, Long Beach, after a brief illness.

He is survived by his wife Vada C. Dabbs, two daughters, Mrs. E. B. Yeargam of Bakersfield and Mrs. M. V. Cowdrey of Encino, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. John Moneyhon of Austin, Tex.; four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Jack W. Wilson To Be Ordained Here Tomorrow

Jack William Wilson, born and reared in Anaheim, will take his Ordination vows next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a ceremony in the First Presbyterian church. Jack was born in Anaheim in 1924. After graduating from the local high school he attended Fullerton Junior college. Here he continued his studies until 1944 when he answered the call of his country to serve in the navy during World War II.

Upon being released from military service he resumed his college work at Redlands University from which he graduated in 1948. From there he entefed the San Francisco Theological Seminary, from which he graduated last month with a Bachelor of Divinity Degree. Mr. Wilson, his wife and two children, will move to Tenino, Washington, where he will serve as minister of the Community Presbyterian church.

The service next Sunday afternoon will be conducted by the Rev. Gordon A. MacInnis, moderator of the Los Angeles Presbytery and minister of the Calvary Presbyterian church of Wilmington. He will be assisted in inducting Mr. Wilson into the office by the Rev. Charles C. Griffin, minister of First Presbyterian church of San

300 Workers Create Farm In 23 Hours

MOSES LAKE, Wash. (AP) — A piece of desert was turned into a complete farm in less than 23 hours yesterday to show what happens to a desert when modern engineering goes to work.

The farm-in-a-day symbolizes the hope of the new settlers of the million-acre Columbia Basin project, receiving its first irrigation water from the Columbia river this spring.

It took some 300 volunteers 22½ hours to complete the seven-room house and till and plant 110 acres of land that up till now has held only sagebrush.

Michael Straus, reclamation commissioner who presided at the "first water" ceremony, termed the irrigation water "waters that free men have harnessed to keep them free and insure their future."

Donald Dunn, 30, Marion, Kansas, farmer who was flooded off his own farm last summer, was presented with the house, tax free. He and his wife spent the night there. Their two young daughters, however, had to be put to bed at the home of friends before the house was finished.

Dunn, a veteran of World War II was chosen by the Veterans of Foreign Wars as the most worthy to receive the $75,000 farm, completely stocked with livestock, farm equipment and full pantry shelves.

Nation Mourns Its War Dead On a Troubled Memorial Day

A large audience of Anaheimers mourned the war dead this Memorial Day at services sponsored by patriotic organizations at the Anaheim cemetery. Chaplain J. Rex Smith of the Navy, from El Toro, was the principal speaker. The salute was fired by a detachment of El Toro Marines.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation mourned its war dead this Memorial Day, and in the American tradition, hid its grief in quiet family picnics and roaring sports spectacles.

The capital was the focal point but observance spread across the width and breadth of the country. It skipped across the oceans and was noted, too, wherever in the world America's war dead lay.

In the Orient, where Americans still fight and keep casualty lists, the message was:

"We best honor our fallen comrades by our devotion to the great causes for which they died and for which we continue to battle."

Such was the Memorial Day statement in Tokyo by Gen. Mark Clark, the new supreme Allied commander in the Far East. His thoughts turned to Korea, where United States and other United Nations troops are engaged with communist forces, he added:

"It is here that we meet the test of America's determination to protect a defenseless people from the brutality and terrorism by which the forces of communism have degraded and enslaved millions of human beings."

At home, shops and offices were empty. The workers and their families paid tribute to their war dead and then relaxed for the holiday.

The national pastime, baseball, claimed hordes. All 16 major league teams scheduled afternoon double-headers and the minor leagues followed suit.

There were Memorial Day programs at race tracks, such as Belmont Park's topped by the $50,000-added Suburban Handicap. There were track meets—for instance, New York's IC4A outdoor championships, the Marines' 1952 all-corps championships at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and the annual Big Ten track and field meet at Ann Arbor, Mich.

And there was the 500-mile auto race held each year at the Indianapolis speedway.

At Arlington, Va., across the Potomac river from Washington,

Primary Gets Hotter, Record Vote Predicted

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The tempo quickened today in the California presidential primary campaign, but the largest number of voters ever qualified for a primary perhaps had an improved idea of which national convention delegates favored which candidate.

Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio is not entered in the June 3 race. But his California backers for the first time urged support of the slate of Republican delegates nominally pledged to Rep. Thomas Werdel of Bakersfield.

Supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower renewed their backing of the only other slate in the GOP race—that pledged to Governor Warren.

On the Democratic side, the split grew deeper between the camp of Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Democrats for other candidates — particularly W. Averell Harriman and Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. Nonbackers of Kefauver are lined up behind a slate nominally pledged to Attorney General Edmund G. Brown.

In Sacramento, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan predicted a 68 per cent turnout—or a vote of 3,600,000 (M). It would represent the biggest response to any California primary.

Registration totals 5,383,521 — 2,995,768 Democrats and 2,192,556 Republicans.

• • •

FOLLOWING an attack on what he called a small group controlling the state's Democratic party, Kefauver chose California for his first major plunge of the campaign into foreign policy.

In a Memorial Day address prepared for delivery at Inglewood, Kefauver outlined a six-point program of international cooperation and opposition to communism resembling that of the Truman administration.

Hubbard S. Russell, chairman of the California Taft-for-President committee, coupled his support of the Werdel ticket with an attack on Governor Warren and his policies.

Paul G. Hoffman, national chairman of the advisory committee of "Citizens for Eisenhower," said he is convinced Warren is not in the race in an effort to deadlock the convention.

LATEST PIN-UP STORY—"Is that what all the fuss was about?" six-month old Joanne Cecily Stone of Reading, Pa., seems to be thinking as she gazes wide-eyed at a safety pin removed from her trachea in a delicate two-hour operation recently. Little Joanne is shown with her mother shortly after being returned safely to her home. Doctors had to close the pin in the infant's throat before extracting it. (AP Photo)

Police Seek Three More Suspects In Bridgford Meat Robbery Case

Anaheim police today revealed the names of three more men implicated in the Dec. 8 robbery of a load of meat from the Bridgford Meat Packing Co.

Anaheim officers have been sent to San Francisco to pick up Robert J. McGovern, a suspect in the case. Other law enforcement agencies are searching for Roy Wiltsie, alleged leader of the crew that carried out the theft; Charles Richard Bocock, and James W. Drake, who was named as the former Bridgford refrigerator engineer who "fingered" the job from the inside.

Bocock, last reported in Imperial Valley, is said to have fled east upon hearing of the breaking of the case. The whereabouts of Wiltsie and Drake have not been reported.

Two suspects in the case, John William White, Glendale, and Irving Shulman, North Hollywood, have been arraigned in Anaheim city court and will appear for preliminary hearing June 23 at 10 a.m. According to Police Chief Mark Stephenson, they are suspected of having been the "fences" in the deal, arranging for sale of the stolen meat.

Bocock is said to have driven the truck in which the meat was transported.

Arril H. Eggertson, plant night engineer who was bound and imprisoned in a truck during the robbery, reported two masked, armed men pulled the job.

People on the "inside" in solving the case, are high in giving credit to Anaheim Police Chief Mark Stephenson, who refused to let the case cool off although several discouraging "dead ends" were encountered.

Here Are the Local Candidates Seeking Your Vote in the June 3 Election

Following, in very abbreviated, thumb-nail sketch style, are the men who seek political offices that will most directly represent the will of people in this area. The Gazette presents them for the study of the voters in the June 3 primary election.

OSCAR KNAPPE of Escondido is seeking election to Congress as representative of the 28th district. A businessman and avocado rancher, he stresses a Christian anti-corruption stand and promises to bring efficiency to the office if elected. In 1949 he represented small and independent businessmen in Washington, D.C., and has served as special investigator to the district attorney and U.S. Marshal in San Diego. He is active in church and service organizations.

• • •

"SEND A MAN to Congress (28th district) with experience—not to get it," is the campaign slogan of Frank Linnell, Newport Beach city judge. Active in civic, business and fraternal affairs, Linnell has 30 years as attorney and judge behind him. He is an independent, he says, and is not obligated to any pressure groups.

• • •

YOUTHFUL representation in Congress is desirable, according to John A. Steiger of Oceanside, candidate for 28th District representative, sa. that a member of Congress may give the best of the prime years of his life to service of the people. Steiger has developed his own realty and insurance business in Oceanside.

• • •

ENTERED IN the race for the 28th District Congressional seat, James B. Utt, Santa Ana attorney, has been campaigning on the basis of extensive experience in civic and governmental affairs.

• • •

ONLY REGISTERED Democrat running for the 28th District Congressional seat is Lionel Van Deerlin, 37, of Escondido. He has cross-filed on both tickets. An ex-newspaperman and OPS public relationist, Van Deerlin has taken a decided stand against corruption in government, warning that all bribes offered him, if elected, will immediately be made public.

• • •

REDUCTION of the role in individual lives played by government, reduction of taxes and the rescue of the United States from the United Nations are planks in the platform of David Farrell, president of Contour Chair Shops Corp., Santa Ana, who is running for Congressman from the 28th District. An 8th Air Force pilot in World War II, Farrell was shot down over Germany and held captive for two years.

• • •

WITH 12 YEARS in the state capitol behind him, Sam L. Collins of Fullerton, speaker of the Assembly, is stressing experience and capitol know-how and knowwho in his campaign for state senator to occupy the seat vacated by Clyde Watson of Orange. Governmental groups on which he has served include the State Board of Public Works, University of California Board of Regents, Joint Interim Highway committee and the Joint Interim Agriculture committee.

• • •

RANCHER, businessman and civic leader, John A. Murdy of Huntington Beach is seeking election to the State Senate to replace Clyde Watson of Orange, who will not run for reelection. Murdy is campaigning on a platform calling for restoration of confidence in government through uncompromising honesty and integrity on the part of elected representatives. He would cut taxes and institute a program of strict economy and efficiency in the government, if elected, his platform states.

• • •

LEROY E. LYON now serving as a lieutenant in Naval Intelligence, is an attorney and is seeking election as representative from the 28th District. He was a member of the Kaesong truce talk team under Adm. Joy and has been active in Republican party affairs in Orange county. He was a member of both state and county Republican central committees, was general counsel to the executive board of the State Young Republicans and served as Sen. Nixon's campaign manager in 1950. He holds degrees in geology, economics and law. He is due for release from the Navy in November.

• • •

TWICE ELECTED to the County Republican Central committee and once its chairman, Glen E. McCloud is now seeking election to the State Assembly from the 75th District. He is a veteran of the Pacific war, serving at Pearl Harbor when the Japs first attacked and later with Adm. Bull Halsey's task force. He has always been active in civic affairs here, is an Elk, Mason and Shriner.

• • •

FRANK ROSPAW is seeking election as California Assemblyman from the 75th District. He has owned and edited the Placentia Courier since 1928, acquiring it after moving from Yorba Linda, his first home in California. He came west from Illinois in 1923. Not previously a candidate for public office, Rospaw has served in Placentia on various city and civic groups. He has always been a newspaperman and always a Republican.

• • •

• • •

INCUMBENT THIRD District county supervisor is Ralph J. McFadden. He is running for reelection, emphasizing his many (40) years of experience in civic affairs, in private life a mining and civil engineer. McFadden has been on the following governmental groups: County Highway commission, Anaheim City Council, Joint Outfall Sewer board of directors, board of directors of Orange County Water district, and the Harbor commission. He is a past president of Orange County Farm Bureau and the Associated Chambers of Commerce. He was once superintendent of the Anaheim Union Water Co.

• • •

EDWARD FAULKNER, successful businessman and rancher and active in civic and fraternal bodies in West Orange county, is a candidate for supervisor from the Third district of the county. His platform calls for measures to take care of the water shortage, increasing cost of county government, expansion of the county sanitation system, needed highway development, stronger representation for the district and bet-

CANDIDATE from Anaheim for the judgeship of new Anaheim-Fullerton municipal court is John Shea, justice of the peace of Anaheim Township. A resident of the area since 1923, Shea has been in practice here since 1946, following four years of Army service in the infantry. He worked his way through FJC, USC and Loyola to obtain his law degree and has served as Anaheim city judge and city attorney. He is very active in local civic, service, charitable and fraternal organizations.

• • •

LLOYD VERRY, incumbent Fullerton justice of the peace, is seeking election as judge of the Anaheim-Fullerton municipal court. A resident of Fullerton 21 years, he has been engaged in law practice that length of time and has also served as deputy district attorney of Orange county. He has held many offices in various civic, [illegible]

Who are our candidates . . .

Everyday we are asked this question:

"Who is the Gazette going to endorse for offices in the coming primary election?"

You can rest assured that the policy-makers of this paper prefer certain candidates over others—for our own personal and business reasons.

But, by the same token you, the reader, should prefer certain candidates over others—for your own personal and business reasons.

We ask ourselves:

Who are we to be telling you how to vote?

Your situation in the world may be entirely different from ours. Your conception of political matters may be different—and probably better—than ours.

What you want out of the candidates and government may not be exactly the way we see it.

So, we ask ourselves:

Who are we to be telling you how to vote?

* * *

WE SORT OF chuckle when newspapers print sample ballots and say vote for this fellow and this proposition. (That usually defeats them!)

If you ferret out the guy on the newspaper who is showing you how to stick 'em, you'll probably find out that he knows considerably less about it than you do, and is influenced by all sorts of personal prejudices.

So, we are not going to tell you how to vote.

Besides, is it right in a democracy made up of intelligent, mature people, to presume to tell them how to vote?

Doesn't that sort of defeat the purposes of the secret ballot?

* * *

SO, JUST because we happen to have access to a newspaper—able to reach thousands of people—we should not set ourselves up as the know-it-all come election day.

We may prefer certain candidates, and once in awhile it slips out—but . . .

We earnestly suggest you make up your own mind on the candidates . . . weigh their abilities to perform public services for you . . . and vote the way you believe is best for you.

Don't listen to anybody else.

Make up your mind yourself. When you do the government and all of us will be better off for it.

PRESTWICK, Scotland (AP) — Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, seeking his third title, and young Harvie Ward of Tarbor, N.C., gained the semi-final round of the British Amateur golf championship today with one-sided victories. Stranahan walloped Chas. Carlow of Scotland, 8 and 7, while Ward prevailed over fellow countryman, Jim McHale of Philadelphia, 6 and 5.

Car Racing Drama to be Presented Tonight in '500 Miles of History'

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD — It's always been my belief that the height of real-life drama is found in watching the 33 sleek, streamlined racing cars roaring at more than two-mile-a-minute speed around the oval track at the Indianapolis Speedway — as they were doing today. That feeling, however, was dispelled somewhat after I had a long distance chat with Tom Hanlon, in Indianapolis, Ind. Tom is as much of an authority on the leadfoots and their cars as you'll find in the radio business anywhere—he's made auto racing a hobby from the time, as a 15-year-old, he planned on moulding a career as a race driver. He's a close friend of most of the drivers in today's Memorial Day race and he's there, putting the finishing touches on "500 Miles of History," a half-hour program which will be aired on the west coast at 8:30 p.m. over CBS stations.

Getting back to drama, for a moment, Tom told me that while it was exciting to watch the speeding buggies, the real drama of the race takes place in the pits. There, the drivers who are forced out of the race temporarily for refueling, a tire-change or a brake check-up are biting their nails with impatience to get back—to try and make up the time lost, knowing that a car standing still never won the big race. He also told me of one other moment almost the equal of the pit-stops when it comes to drama. That's the drivers' meeting, held the night before the race.

Tom explained that each year there are always some rookie drivers who qualify for the auto classic and to them, the event is the biggest, and perhaps the most fearful thing of their life. Wilbur Shaw, general manager of the Speedway (a three-time winner of the big race), calls all the drivers together to explain all rules and regulations, and to instruct the rookies to be most careful going into the first lap.

Shaw says they'll think they're riding the tail of a tornado when all 33 cars go into the first turn, full barrel, all bunched together. Tom says the shivers go up and down his spine when he hears the talk by Wilbur Shaw, who finishes by telling the drivers to leave the names of their next of kin with him . . . just in case.

Sounds like "500 Miles of History" with Tom Hanlon from KNX-CBS will be a lot of dramatic and exciting entertainment.

DOWN TV-RADIO WAY . . . Errol Flynn recently purchased 13 acres of land at Apple Valley where he plans to start building this summer. He wants to call his new place, "Flynn Inn." However, officials of AV (for publicity reasons) would like to have it called "Errol Flynn's Inn." Flynn now in Jamaica can't be checked for his decision.

JIM WALSH ALMOST WINS A TIGHT GAME

Hollywood's Jim Walsh is a sad pitcher today. His fast ball was working almost perfectly against Oakland in a Pacific Coast league game last night.

Not a single Acorn reached base for 5⅓ innings. Then Lenny Neal looped a single. Going into the ninth frame, Walsh was working on a one-hit shutout.

His mates had put together three singles and a fly for a run in the second canto.

In the ninth, the roof fell in. The Acorns piled up four runs—all unearned—to capture the ball game, 4-1. The last three counters came on Tookie Gilbert's homer, his seventh.

Inn, Furniture Teams Win City League Games

In the City league games played at City park last night, Los Alamitos-Parkway Inn nine retained their hold on first place in the cities' national league by downing Koopman's Furniture 2 to 1 in a thrilling battle that wasn't decided until the sixth inning. In the second game of the night's double-header, Cypress V.F.W. broke a 5-to-5 tie in the top of the seventh inning to defeat the hustling "Cyclone" youngsters.

In the Parkway-Koopman game Bill Mattei, Parkway second baseman, drew a base on balls, advanced on Gabriel Vasquez' infield single, then scored as Raul Sanchez singled to right field. Koopman's Carrol Steele tied it up when he in turn drew a free pass and scored on an outfield error. "Pingo" Zamarripa led off with a single for Los Alamitos in the bottom half of the sixth. Bill Baca bunted and was safe when no one covered first. Gabriel Vasquez again singled to drive in the winning run. Koopmans put men on but couldn't score in the top half of the seventh.

Cypress V.F.W. collected but four base hits, yet they combined them with six walks, a hit batsman, and three "Cyclone" errors to cross the plate six times, which was exactly what they needed to win. "Chuck" Sanders scored the winning run in the seventh as he was safe on a fielder's choice, advanced and scored on a wild pitch and two passed balls. W. E. Jefferies led Cypress at the plate with two of their four hits.

The "Cyclone" nine garnered eight hits, three of these being by Dave Garcia. Ben Lamas collected two in four trips to the plate. Joe Juarez tripled in the sixth and then scored on a wild pitch to tie the ball game. Garcia opened the seventh with a single but was forced at second. Aranda filed to left and Joel Esparaza grounded out, third to first, to end the game.

Human beings blink their eyes at different rates, ranging from 25 or more times a minute to about one a minute.

White Temple Is Victor Over Grace Lutheran

In the only Church league game to be played last night White Temple defeated Grace Lutheran 13 to 4 at LaPalma park.

Bud Stahlman, White Temple leftfielder, singled, doubled and tripled in three official trips to the plate, driving in five runs and scoring twice himself. White Temple scored six runs in the third as 11 men came to bat. Billy Herman led off with a single, Bud Stahlman doubled, Hubert Duncan singled, Ira Webber singled, Jack Paulus was safe on an error, Duane Duncan grounded out, Billy Herman walked and Rel Schmitt was safe on a fielder's choice. John Heying grounded out, Jack Meade safe on a fielder's choice. Everyone had a part in the game as the entire Methodist lineup scored at least one run.

Grace Lutheran scored in the third when Eberhart, Dupins and Davies crossed the plate. Third baseman Mason hit a three-run homer in the seventh for the other tallies.

ALICE MARBLE HERE

Anaheim's Recreation department announced today the sponsorship of a tennis clinic featuring Alice Marble, one of the nation's best tennis players and coach. Miss Marble will be at the City park tennis courts the afternoon of Saturday, June 14. The clinic is free of charge.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N.C., each with a two-under par 68, today led the 40th Western Open Golf tournament. But no one is ready to pick the winner in the 72-hole $15,000 competition.

REPUBLICANS OF ORANGE COUNTY!

Some Candidates have large campaign funds; all have the eager desire to be elected. One advertises he was twice in the State Assembly but never mentions defeat for re-election to that office or defeat for City Council of Santa Ana in 1947!

DO YOU REALIZE a Vote for a San Diego County Man is a VOTE for that County to have TWO Congressmen and Orange County NONE? Reason: Because San Diego County has another district all within its borders!

Do not be confused by last-minute claims of Candidates.

Nominate a Man who has the experience and the qualifications to serve you honestly, faithfully and ably—a Man who has practiced law for thirty years, who knows the ways of Congressmen, Judges and Politicians and can get things done for YOU.

Your Senator—and YOU

Orange county must deal with state government through its legislators.

If they are strong, then Orange county is strong, and can get what it requires.

If they are under group control, as well as being mediocre, then Orange county is in a sorry spot.

This campaign for election of a State Senator offers just that choice to Orange county. Free representation, or group control. Strong and able representation, or inexperienced mediocrity. The voters have their choice.

If they want strong and able representation, then they will choose Speaker Sam L. Collins, who has been rightly called "one of the five top men in state affairs".

If they want a Senator free to represent ALL of them, and under no obligation to any pressure group,then they will choose Sam L. Collins, who has fought pressure groups in the Legislature throughout his career.

* * *

Pressure groups now trying to seize control of Orange County's Senate seat will not succeed despite the huge sums they are spending for newspaper space and otherwise to win control. The people see this evidence before them, and will rebuke the attempt at the polls.

Besides being Speaker of the Legislature the last 12 sessions, Sam Collins is a member of the State Board of Public Works, and the Board of Regents, University of California; vice-chairman of the important Joint Committee on Highways, and member of the Joint Committee on Agriculture.

Moreover, he is free and uncontrolled.

No practical voter will give up that advantage.

Young Entertainers Featured in Show For Hospital

John Faessel, local talented juvenile magician, assisted by his sister Joan, entertained in the wards last Sunday afternoon at the Corona Naval hospital in Corona. The show was sponsored by the Anaheim unit of the Veterans of foreign wars who also furnished oranges, apples and home-made cookies for the boys there.

Patients as well as the hospital personnel gave John and Joan a big hand, and stated they thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

JANICE PULLMAN will be installed honored queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 5 at a meeting on June 14 in Masonic Temple. Miss Pullman, popular Anaheim High school student, has also been named editor of the school annual for next year.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout troop 53 of Benjamin Franklin school spent an overnight at Fullerton Scout House last week.

Highlight of the trip was the nature hike, where leaves and flowers were collected, identified, and later mounted. This qualified the girls, in part, for the second rank badge for which they were working. After the nature hike there was a butterfly hunt with some specimens captured to add to the troop's mounted collection. The girls cooked their own meals and prepared their bedrolls. Leader, Mrs. M. D. Hilgenfeld, was assisted on the overnight by Mrs. H. G. Dewey.

The troop held its Court of Awards at Mrs. M. Hilgenfeld's home. Each girl made and issued her own invitation. The troop made cookies and served them with ice cream to their mothers and friends present. For part of the program each girl told the guests of one phase of the eleven fields covered during her scouting year. The rest of the program consisted of the Court of Awards with Mrs. Norbert De Cock acting as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Girls in this troop are: Judy Brownell, Rosemary Dalley, Sherry Cabot, Leni Dorman, Carolyn Dugdale, Karen Elliott, Marjorie Hilgenfeld, Diane Johnson, Sandra Kelsey, Marcia Kolker, Patsy Murray, Jane Murray, Barbara Summa, and Beverly Wilson.

Mrs. G. F. Kolkler is assistant leader for troop 53.

The girls are looking forward to a dinner party with their leaders and their mothers to be held at the Golden Drum Stick restaurant in Long Beach. The dinner meeting will complete this year of Scouting.

Mission Tour For Pupils Of Savanna

The fourth grades at Savanna school were taken to San Juan Capistrano Mission by their teachers Mrs. Ruth Milner and Mrs. Lois Jewell.

At noon the 50 boys and girls enjoyed box lunches at Capistrano State park and hiked along the beach to Dana Point gathering shells.

Mrs. Donal A. Yonts and Mrs. John Adams accompanied the group.

Memorial Day

D.C., memorial and wreath-laying services were expected to set attendance records.

President Truman sent a wreath to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in the Arlington National cemetery. Wreaths in the behalf are also being placed at three other monuments—the Unknown Civil War soldier, Confederate Memorial and Spanish War Memorial.

The Arlington services at 10 a.m. (EST) in the Memorial amphitheater just behind the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier are traditional. The Marine band played and more than two score veterans organiaztions participated this year.

* * *

SINCE THE first American fell in the Revolutionary War, about a million men have died of battlefield wounds or disease. They died at many places—at Saratoga, Chapultepec, Chancellorville, Manila, Chateau Thierry, the Bulge, the Chosin Reservoir.

Some of them—and many who lived through the wars to die in peace—are buried in the 85 national cemeteries. Those so interred now total 560,000 and the Army, which maintains the cemeteries, is beginning to worry about a time when it can care for no more.

There are 76,448 graves at Arlington. Officials say that, at the current rate, no space will be left in its 420 acres by 1969.

Timed for Memorial Day, the American Legion announced it will wage a "quiet war" against communism, using books as ammunition. National Commander Donald Wilson of Clarksburg, Va., said the campaign will work this way:

No funds will be solicited. Books against communism will be donated by Legion posts to schools and libraries. Each book will bear the legend, "In memory of (here the name of an American killed in Korea), who made the supreme sacrifice fighting communism in Korea. That all men may continue to enjoy the blessings of freedom."

JOHN A. MURDY
Answers "Slander" Charge

May 29, 1952

Mr. Sam L. Collins,
Fullerton, California.
Dear Sir:

Before me is your letter dated May 29, 1952, which you have released to the daily papers in Orange County.
Since the beginning of this campaign, I have said repeatedly that the important issue facing the Nation and the State of California in this election year was restoration of confidence in the hearts and minds of the people in their government and in those who represent them in public office. That is still the important issue in this campaign. Unfortunately, efforts have been made to influence the voters of Orange County in making that decision for themselves. They have been subjected to advice and communications from certain lobbyists in Sacramento who have interceded in your behalf. No professional lobbyists are taking part in my campaign. I am placing my trust in the judgment of the citizens of Orange County.
Much is made in your letter to me concerning the editorial in the Costa Mesa Globe-Herald entitled, "Time to Speak Out." I need not remind you that I have no control over the editorial policies of the Costa Mesa Globe-Herald or any other newspaper.
I fail to understand, however, Mr. Collins, why, at this time so late in the campaign, you wish to make so much of an issue about the things that were said about you in the Collier's Magazine article entitled, "The Secret Boss of California." Will you mind telling the voters of Orange County why you failed to make an issue of the things that were said about you at the time the article was published? Are the statements made about you in that article more objectionable now during an election campaign than they were at the time of publication?
I want you to know that neither I nor anyone connected with my campaign has indulged in any improper tactics. The unfounded threats made by you in your letter to me have no more effect upon me and my determination to fight for good government than, in my humble opinion, the pressure and letters of your lobbyist friends from Sacramento have made upon the good citizens of Orange County.
My friends and I have fought a clean, hard fight against you for weeks. We are pulling no last-minute rabbits out of the hat, and we suggest that you follow the same policy. We face the verdict next Tuesday with great confidence that the right cause will win, deeply grateful for the fine, courageous support which has come to us from every corner of the county.

Very truly yours,
JOHN A. MURDY.

NEW YORK (AP)—Ever hear of a man being made a buck sergeant in the American Army by popular demand?

Father Frank Woods, an Irish priest who spent 17 years as a missionary in Korea, holds that unique honor. He also holds the American Medal of Freedom, awarded for his work with front-line troops.

"But every G.I. in Korea should have been given it before me," he said yesterday before boarding the liner Mauretania for his native Ireland. He sailed with five other Far East missionaries to attend the election of a new head of their order, the Columban Fathers.

Father Frank, a ruddy-faced, graying man of 48, became the best-known chaplain in Korea as a result of his legendary battlefield exploits.

Shortly after the U.S. troops landed in Korea, the stocky priest volunteered his services. Because he was a non-citizen, he was told he couldn't be put on Uncle Sam's payroll as a chaplain.

That made no difference to Father Frank. More than a year he served without rank or pay with the Second Battalion of the U.S. Second Infantry Division, an outfit that saw some of the hardest fighting of the Korean campaign.

Carrying a rifle himself for his own protection, he went on dangerous patrols to act as interpreter. He gave the last rites to hundreds of American wounded men. He became the most popular man in the division.

* * *

ONCE, AFTER a fire fight, he called on a wounded Korean in a rice paddy to surrender. To his startled surprise 70 fully-armed, unwounded Korean soldiers hiding in the paddy rose to their feet, their hands lifted.

Division officers finally began to worry about Father Frank. They didn't want to lose him.

"They watched me like hawks," he said. "They wouldn't allow me to go on patrols any more, or even to get up-front."

After a year of combat duty, Father Frank returned to his Korean parish. Before he left the division he happened to comment that he thought being a sergeant in the American Army was about the finest job in the world.

The next day an order was posted on the headquarters bulletin board unofficially promoting him to the rank of "buck sergeant." Every soldier in the company immediately signed his name to the order, and Father Frank at last had rank—by popular demand.

The priest says he wants to return to Korea and would like to rejoin the American Army he adopted nearly two years ago.

"They are good fighters," he said slowly. "I have no hesitation in saying that. With them I saw mankind at its best. Charity predominates in the lives of men who share the buddy system in war.

"It was rough, tough and dangerous—but I'd go back tomorrow if I could."

Father Frank feels that the arrival of American forces in Korea saved "civilization and Christianity there" from communist destruction.

"They are on the frontline of Christianity today," he said. "Beyond their patrols there is no Christianity except underground."

BERLIN, (AP) — The Russian sector offered to restore telephone service to West Berlin today but only on certain lines that would be controlled by the communists and thus open to tapping.

PUSAN, Korea, (AP) — Eleven persons have been arrested on charges of conspiring to assassinate President Syngman Rhee and other South Korean leaders, the home ministry announced today.

PASADENA, (AP) — "Melodies in Flowers" will be the 1953 Parade of Roses theme, it was announced yesterday by William H. Nicholas, Tournament of Roses association president.

Fred J. Tangeman, West Hollywood organist, submitted the title which was chosen from more than 6000 entries in a statewide contest.

White Temple Methodist

"Magnificent Obsession," the story that made Lloyd C. Douglas famous, will be presented as a three-act play Sunday evening by the M.Y.F. Footlighters at the regular seven o'clock service at White Temple Methodist Church. The popular novel has been dramatized by Frank Vreeland, and will be presented through arrangement with Walter H. Baker, Inc.

This represents the final production for this season by the Footlighters, who have already done "The Tinker" at Christmas time and "The Cup of Trembling" for Easter.

Major leads in the drama are played by Bill Davis and Myrna Lewellyn, with a supporting cast including Mary Dougherty, Don Brummet, Chuck Wiggins, Drusetta Martin, Mary Lou Love, Gordon Schwacofer, Roy Casey, Judy Belle Wicker, Nancy Ater, and Joe Dougherty. Rev. Frank E. Butterworth is the director. "This play," he states, "is a far cry from our recent Biblical production, 'The Cup of Trembling,' but represents our desire to train our youth in strong religious chacacterizations in both ancient and modern settings."

At the 10:50 a.m. morning service, Rev. Butterworth will preach on "Looking Out the Window of the Upper Room"; a Pentecost Sunday message.

Christian Science

How the Christ, Truth, uncovers and destroys error will be discussed in the Sunday Bible lesson in all Christian Science churches on the subject "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." The Golden Text is from Isaiah (59:19): "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him."

This Christly promise is recorded by John in Revelation (3:20,21), "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The destruction of the claims of mortal mind through Science, by which man can escape from sin and mortality, blesses the whole human family" (p. 103).

REV. WILLIAM DUERR
(Vesper Speaker)

Santa Ana Pastor Is Final Speaker In Zion Vespers

Completing a series of outdoor vespers in Anaheim City park, the Rev. William Duerr of Santa Ana will speak Sunday on "Has Christianity Failed?" The vespers begins at 6 p.m.

Rev. Duerr graduated from Concordia Theological Seminary in 1936 and served in Beaufort, Mo. until coming to Santa Ana. He is pastor of Trinity Lutheran church. He also served at one time as a Lutheran Evangelistic trailer missionary, and at present his mission endeavor includes service as executive secretary of the Mission Expansion department of the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod.

The Rev. John Geisler, associate pastor of St. John's Lutheran church in Orange, will be liturgist for the Sunday vespers.

Walter Koch of Santa Ana will direct the Orange County Chorale Union in presentation of an outstanding concert of sacred music.

The public is invited.

First Baptist

"The Responsibility of Belief" is the message of Rev. Bob Kevorkian at the 11 a.m. service of the First Baptist church, Broadway at Citron. When one claims a belief in God there is an automatic response that is necessary on his part if he is to be consistent. Many individuals live self-contradictory lives, thinking themselves to be logical but living in an unconscious paradox. What are the necessities which go with belief? The morning worship will close with the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

"Do You Have Influence?" is the subject of the 7:30 p.m. service. Many people feel that their lives belong to themselves and consequently can do with them as they wish. There is definite evidence to prove that this point of view is a disastrous one and has no valid foundation. We as moral creatures are responsible for the influence we exert, and we must make certain that our point of view is consistent with God's opinion.

MORE ABOUT . . .

Juan Capistrano; the Rev. Robert Burns McAulay, minister of First Presbyterian church of Orange; the Rev. Paul Clover Cox, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church of Redondo Beach, and the Rev. Stanley Frederick George, minister of the Presbyterian church of La Crescenta and former minister of the local church. The Rev. Howard S. Congdon will deliver the sermon; the Choristgr, Crusader, Chapel and Chancel choirs of the local church will present music under the direction of Mrs. George W. Sloop, Jr., minister of music. Mrs. William J. Talevich will be organist.

The unique condition of Mr. Wilson's ordination is that it is the first to be conducted in the local church in its entire eighty-two years. This seems rather proper, however, for the young man has many firsts to his credit. Ordained as an elder at eighteen, he was the youngest ever to be so acknowledged by his church. He was the youngest ever to be called to serve on the Session of the local church. He was also probably the youngest person ever called to direct the choir of his church.

AUHS ANGLES

By JOANN FAUST
