OBLONG VIEWS

(From an Egg-Shaped Head)

By WALDO HUNTER, P.S.B.

Thanksgiving, 1953.

What is there to be thankful for?

Pull up a cactus and set a spell. Just for the novelty of it, we'll enumerate a few things.

1. Good, red Burgundy wine in hollow stem glasses.
2. Beautiful women.
3. Song.
4. The wherewithal, under a beneficent economic system, to provide food fit for a potentate for a table in a laborer's home.
5. Thankful for the opportunity to assail the "book-burners", and at the same time thankful that, under our Constitution, they are free to pursue their course however perverse it may be.
6. Freedom to worship our God in any way we choose, at any time of our choice.
7. A row of rugged old eucalyptus trees standing stark and handsome against the sunset.
8. Marilyn Monroe.
9. The warmth of hearth and home, and the knowledge that the law of the land precludes the eventuality of heavy boot-steps on the front porch heralding the approach of beetle-browed police officers come to yank you away without due cause.
10. Health, and a comfortable sense of well-being and accomplishment.
11. A good wife with laryngitis.
12. Ability to slap the side of a peanut-vending machine with better than average results.
13. Thankful to live in a country where irresponsible senators can make asinine statements without fear of immediate liquidation.
14. For a country where irresponsible citizens can do the same.
15. For Marilyn Grable.
16. For the ineffably delicious privilege of getting up out of a chair, walking to the TV set and turning it off.
17. For public education of the masses (us) despite the fulminations of such bigoted old snapdragons as that baffled character over in Santa Ana who wants our fair land reduced to a state of peasantry and lordship, with him as one of the lords. (He sent his kid to a public-supported college).
18. For the quick, genuine smile of a little boy or girl.
19. For the convenience of the telephone (although we couldn't get one installed until six months after our initial application).
20. For the privilege to pass, unchallenged, from one state to another in this wondrous land.
21. For 17-year-old apple jack.
22. For Marilyn Russell.
23. For humming industry and lush fields.
24. For the exquisite pleasure of standing on a street corner and damning the President, free from the fear of being ventilated later by a burp gun.
25. For a feeling of well-placed faith in the military establishment composed of free men determined that their country shall remain free.
26. Thankful, at this particular time, that you don't happen to be a turkey.
27. That you live in a land where, even though at the commission of a crime all evidence points to your guilt, vast efforts will be made in your behalf to make absolutely certain that there shall be no miscarriage of justice.
28. Thankful that the mare-tail hair-do is on the way out. The right to look like the nether-most extremity of a horse lies strictly, and traditionally, in the male's field of endeavor.
29. For pure, effulgent, unadulterated sunshine. (Hollow laughter).
30. For a country where the rights, the privileges, the liberties of minority groups are given at least a smidgin of consideration.
31. Thankful for the right to go to the polls and vote out a bunch of self-centered politicians, supplanting them with a different bunch.

For these things, then, we are thankful.

Amen.

Non-Red Oath Test Case Won By Coast College

Orange Coast Junior college won the first skirmishes in the legal dispute over its discharge of Henry Clinton St. John, mathematics and physics instructor who refused to say whether he is a communist.

Superior Court Judge Robert Gardner overruled St. John's demurrer to the school board petition and denies his motion to require the school district to pay the teacher's salary pending the final determination of the right of the district to dismiss him.

The court gave St. John and Atty. A. L. Wirin of the American Civil Liberties Union 10 days to file an answer to the action by the school.

Whether the ruling will be appealed at this time or whether Wirin will wait until after trial of the case was not learned at once. Wirin, during last Friday's legal arguments, had indicated the Civil Liberties Union will appeal the case to the highest courts in the land, seeking a full test of the constitutionality of the new state law requiring teachers to say under oath whether they are members of the Communist party.

St. John was discharged last month after he twice had refused to swear that he was "not knowingly" a member of the party. He demanded a court hearing which was initiated by the school district through the county counsel's office.

Wirin contended the requirement was a form of class legislation and violates both the federal and state constitutions because it singles out teachers to take a special form of oath. He also charged it singles out a specific political organization and that the oath exceeds the California constitution's oath requirement.

Dep. Counsels Stephen K. Tamura and George Holden cited many instances of the California and U. S. Supreme Courts which they contended upheld the right of a governmental agency to require anti-communist oaths.

Church Women Plan Gift Event

Mrs. Walter Knigge, president of the Christian Life Guild of Zion Lutheran church, has announced her group will send gifts to 30 patients in the women's ward of Orange County General hospital at Christmas time. They also plan to invite residents of the Lutheran Home for the Agen to members' homes for dinner on December 13.

With Mrs. Hal Johnsen as chairman, members will be hostesses at the Santa Ana Service Center during the afternoon and evening of Dec. 14 and will furnish cookies and sandwiches for the occasion.

A Christmas party for the guild will take the place of a December meeting.

James A. Baker New MOD Prexy

JAMES A. BAKER

James A. Baker, Anaheim, was elected president of Mutual Orange Distributors at the 48th annual meeting of the marketing cooperative held in Redlands Nov. 23. W. B. Merchant, Woodlake, was elected vice president. John M. Van Horn was re-elected secretary and L. Roy Handley was elected assistant secretary at the reorganization meeting of the board of directors, which followed the general business session of the annual conclave.

Baker, who has been president of the Anaheim Cooperative Orange Association, a member of Mutual Orange Distributors since 1926, has been a member of that organization since 1919. He was first elected to the central board of MOD as director in 1939 and was elected vice president in 1946.

A former school teacher, Baker has served a total of 31 years on elementary and high school boards in the Anaheim area. He was, for a number of years, superintendent of schools in La Habra, retiring in 1926. As a member of the board of Anaheim Union High School, he twice filled the post of president. On his retirement from that board in 1951, he was serving his second term as chairman of the board.

Woman Dies in Head-on Crash At Beach City

Orange county racked up its 129th traffic fatality of 1953 Sunday night when Nancy Brower Sheppard, 23, Pasadena, was killed in a head-on collision on Coast Hwy. in Huntington Beach.

Driver of the other car was Dr. L. A. DuMouchel Sr., 47, San Clemente chiropractor.

Investigating law officers said DuMouchel crossed the center line, colliding with the Sheppard automobile.

DuMouchel and Mrs. Sheppard's husband, James Carroll Sheppard III, 24, were admitted to Hoag Memorial Hospital, Presbyterian, for treatment of injuries.

Another motorist, Fred A. Horton, 40, of Downey, suffered minor injuries when his automobile crashed into the wreckage of the other two cars.

Mrs. Sheppard was dead on arrival at the hospital. She was the daughter of the president of the Occidental Life Insurance Co. of California. She and her husband were married in 1951 while both were seniors at Stanford University. He is a mechanical engineer.

Fire Destroys Huge Warehouse In Santa Ana

A fire that erupted without warning Tuesday morning destroyed a block-long double warehouse at 727 Stafford St. in Santa Ana and the blaze was kept from spreading to other buildings only after a bitter fight by Santa Ana firemen.

The warehouse, owned by the Pacific Freight Lines, was a total loss along with contents that a company spokesman said may be valued as high as $100,000.

Firemen fought the blaze in constant danger as it threatened to engulf a 100,000 gallon storage plant of the Standard Oil Company of California.

A Standard spokesman said at least 100,000 gallons of gas, oil and other petroleum products were stored on the grounds at 1016 Santiago St. The company garage was damaged by flames.

Anaheim Guard Unit Called to Aid Wave-Lashed Colony

Anaheim's Company K, California National Guard, moved into wave battered Surfside Colony Monday night after some 31 residents were forced to flee their homes.

Guardsmen were sent out to help clean up debris left in the wake of savage waves that have mercilessly pounded the little community for several days.

Three families left their homes Monday when the structures were in danger of collapsing under the pounding breakers. Others moved when sanitary facilities failed due to the waves' action on the community sewage system. Gas and electric facilities were also damaged by the breakers.

Homes from 110 Surfside St. west on Row B were empty because of the lack of sewage, gas and electrical facilities. Row C, further inland, has its own sewage line and residents were remaining in their homes although they were keeping a close watch on the threatening ocean.

The Small Business Administration announced that Orange and Los Angeles counties may borrow emergency funds for repairs made necessary in Seal Beach and Surfside Colony in Orange county and in Redondo Beach in Los Angeles county.

Under the Small Business Act of 1953, the agency received the authority formerly held by the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to receive application from companies and individuals.

However, Surfside residents apparently weren't much interested in the offer of emergency funds.

Anaheim's Population Set At 22,158 In New Census

A 28 per cent population increase in Anaheim in the past 18 months was shown in the latest census figures which reported 22,158 persons made their homes in the city as of Oct. 20.

City Clerk Charles Griffith, who received the report from the director of the Bureau of Census in Washington, D. C., said Anaheim's population as of April 17, 1952, was 17,256. There were 14,523 people in the city limits during the 1950 census.

The latest special count revealed there are 338 more females in the city than males. Of the total population, 10,910 are males and 11,248 females.

White population for the city stands at 22,085 with 10,861 of these males and 11,224 females. In the non-white category there are 49 males and 24 females for a total of 73 persons.

Total number of dwellings as of last month was 7072. City officials say dwellings now under construction in Anaheim and those scheduled in the near future will house a population of approximately 30,000.

Deed Presented for Proposed Hospital Site in Sunny Hills

Deed to property in Sunny Hills for the proposed St. Jude Hospital was presented Monday to the Sisters of St. Joseph in ceremonies held on the site where the hospital is to be built.

The event also heralded the opening of a $750,000 fund drive for the building of the hospital on the property located between Fullerton and La Habra.

Presentation of the deed was by Dr. William T. Bovee, president of the North Orange County Hospital Association. The Rev. Mother Felix, head of the Order of St. Joseph in Orange county, accepted for her organization.

Among those present for the ceremonies were the Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer of the Los Angeles Diocese of the Catholic church; Harvey E. Stonehouse, La Habra, general chairman of the fund drive; Fullerton Councilman Cecil Crew and Mayor Charles Pearson of Anaheim.

Stonehouse made a brief address which was followed by remarks by Crew. A prayer of dedication was offered by Msgr. O'Dwyer.

When completed, the hospital will represent an investment of some $2,000,000. The fund drive to begin this week, will end in February, according to the announcement.

Edward S. Hawkins has been named Anaheim chairman for the drive. Vice-chairman is Harry I. Horn.

Valencia Market Order Program Hearing Slated

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announces that a proposed marketing agreement and order program for California and Arizona Valencia oranges will be considered at a public hearing to be held beginning at 10 a.m. Dec. 7 in room 330, Federal Building, 312 N. Spring St., Los Angeles.

Proposed by Sunkist Growers, Inc., it is similar to Order No. 14 under which the handling of California-Arizona navel oranges is now regulated.

The proposed marketing agreement and order would authorize the issuance of volume regulations limiting the shipment of valencia oranges and allocation of such limitation among handlers on the basis of their tree crops. The program also provides for the issuance of size regulations.

The Mutual Orange Distributors has proposed that authority to issue internal quality regulations be added to the program.

If sufficient evidence is developed at the hearing to support the proposal, or appropriate revisions, and the Secretary of Agriculture approves the program, the order will then be submitted to a referendum vote among growers of valencia oranges in California and Arizona.

Copies of the notice of hearing containing the proposal and proposed amendments to it will be mailed shortly to all known handlers of California-Arizona valencia oranges. Copies of this notice also are available at the office of M. T. Coogan, field representative, fruit and vegetable branch, room 1005, 1031 S. Broadway, Los Angeles.

County Eighth in Mineral Products

Orange county is responsible for nearly one-eighth of the mineral production of the entire state of California, according to Bernard W. Jordan, manager of the Anaheim branch of Security-First National bank. Quoting data appearing in the current issue of the bank's "Monthly Summary of Business Conditions", Jordan stated that the county ranks fifth among the 58 counties of the state in the value of its mineral output.

Production was valued at $97,006,000 in 1951, the latest year for which complete figures are available. The leading minerals, in order of importance, were: petroleum, $81,907,000; natural gasoline, $6,889,000; natural gas, $4,294,000; sand and gravel, $1,112,000; liquefied petroleum gases, $434,000; and stone, $201,000. Salt and clay were also produced in commercial quantities.

The $95,524,000 total for petroleum, natural gas and related items put Orange county in fifth position among the counties of California in value of oil well products.

The banker also pointed out that the value of Orange county's mineral production in 1951 was 415 per cent more than in the prewar year 1939. For the state as a whole, the gain was 241 per cent.

Old Timer Looks to Gazette For 75-Year Birth Notice

"Am I 75 years old?

The Anaheim Gazette was recently asked this question by George P. Hull, formerly a resident of Anaheim. Mr. Hull and his wife, Laura, are now residents of Stockton, California. Mr. Hull is one of the oldest active members of the typographical union. He is a printing press operator by trade. As is natural, he thinks in terms of newspapers, talks printing and has a wide range of interesting stories about his experiences in his professions. When he was asked for evidence indicating his date of birth, at the time he filed his application for monthly Federal Old Age Insurance benefits, in Stockton, it was natural for him to think of the most important news story in his life.

Although still working, Mr. Hull knew he was either 74, 75, or 76 years old. He wasn't sure of the year of his birth. For some time he had been printing information about the monthly payments of Federal Social Security made to eligible workers when they reached age 75. He could make use of the insurance paid for by him and his employers in past years. He could continue working, too.

First, he had to prove he was 75. When he was born no records were kept, as they are today. His grandfather, John Fischer, was a member of one of the first 50 families to colonize in Anaheim. The town of Anaheim was named after Anna Fischer, his aunt, one of the first white women settlers in this area. His father, also George Hull, started a winery in Anaheim using local Indians as employees.

Mr. Hull knew his name was printed in the Anaheim Gazette, one of the oldest newspapers in California. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Henry Kuchel, wife of the former publisher, the old records were checked. Under the column heading, "Births," were the simple words, "at Anaheim Landing, Sunday, October 23, to the wife of George Hull, a son"—these words in news print in the Anaheim Gazette, published October 28, 1876.

An official certification of this original newspaper item, by Garrett W. List, manager of the Santa Ana office of the Social Security Administration, was good evidence that George Hull was 75 years old. The certification was transferred to the Stockton office. It is now a part of Hull's claim file. As a result, Hull and his wife will be paid monthly Federal Old Age Insurance benefits for the rest of their lives.

According to Mrs. Kuchel, this is the first time records of the Gazette have been used as evidence of anyone's date of birth. She said, "it isn't easy to look through all the old Gazette newspapers. I hope we will not be asked to do this as a regular service to the old-timers of Anaheim. Fortunately for Mr. Hull, I remembered some of his family history. I am glad the Gazette could help him."

FOR ONE DOLLAR

a television set brings you

one hundred hours of entertainment!

Your electric meter is today's biggest "bargain counter"!

If we knew how many hours a day your family spends enjoying television, we could tell you how long it takes to spend a dollar for that purpose. One cent's worth of electricity operates your set for about one hour—so you won't have spent that dollar until you have seen one hundred hours of programs. In most families, that means several weeks of entertainment.

This is an example of the low cost of your electric service. All the electricity used in your home costs only pennies per day.

MRS. EVERETT LIVINGSTON

Miss Janet Isbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Isbell of 807 Sycamore ave., became the bride of Everett L. Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston of Brush, Colorado, in an evening wedding at Bethel Baptist church on November 16. The Rev. Berthold Jacksteit officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was exquisitely gowned in nylon tulle over slipper satin with appliques of Chantilly lace and accents of seed pearls. A tiara of seed pearls held an illusion of fingertip veil, and the bride carried a white Bible with an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and ferns decorated the church and many tall candles lighted the way as the bride was preceded down the aisle by matron of honor, Mrs. Frank Hoar and bridesmaids, Mrs. Bill Beeman and Miss Ruth Andre. The attendants wore identical gowns of copper colored tulle over taffeta of chapel length with lace boleros and matching mitts. Candle lighters clad in yellow nylon tulle over taffeta were Miss Wanda Isbell and Miss Betty Hopper.

Miss Mary Jacksteit, as flower girl, was a miniature replica of the adult bridal attendants. Ring bearer was Erik Olson, a lifelong friend of the bride's family.

David Phillips attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Donald Isbell, the bride's brother; Kenneth Vertrees and Paul Poor.

At the organ was Miss Esther Leschner and soloist was Miss Marjie Webber.

Three hundred guests attended the wedding reception which followed the ceremony, in the church social hall. Besides parents of both bride and groom, Mrs. Jessie Morse, maternal grandmother, was in the reception line. Miss Dallas Bowen played the vibraharp while Mrs. Ray Bradley, Mrs. Leonard Justus and Miss Joella Wiseman assisted with serving.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston, groom's parents, and brother, Cecil, of Colorado; his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brady of Stockton, Kan.; and Mrs. S. E. Olson and son, Erik, friends of the bride's family, from Reno, Nev.

Following a honeymoon in Palm Springs, the newlyweds will make their home in Anaheim.

75 Years Ago

Gen. John C. Fremont is in Los Angeles on his way to Arizona, of which territory he has been appointed governor. He informs us that he will remain in Los Angeles a few days to rest before leaving for his trip to Arizona. In company with Judge Carrillo, Gen. Fremont visited his old headquarters in Bell's block, where he says there is little change. He recognized the spot upon which the battery was located. In other respects the changes in the locality where 30 years ago early in his career so many exciting events took place. Gen. Fremont is a man of barely medium height of spare frame of distinguished appearance. His face is surrounded by a thin fringe of whiskers which is now gray but in early years was probably black as the raven's wing.

You have your own private WASHDAY SUN
when you buy an AUTOMATIC GAS CLOTHES DRYER

Only gas dries clothes so fast—costs so little to run

You laugh at the weather when you own an automatic gas clothes dryer because it enables you to wash clothes day or night, rain or shine. Your clothes always dry soft and fluffy, too—never stiff and harsh. There's less wear on your clothes . . . no sun-fading . . . no wind-frayed hems.

There's also less wear on you because an automatic gas clothes dryer takes all the drudgery out of clothes drying. Your work is reduced to tossing rinsed laundry into your dryer, setting the control for storage-dry or ironing-damp and removing the dried laundry minutes later. Many pieces, like towels, are so wrinkle-free they require no ironing.

Visit a dealer or your Gas Company. Select your automatic gas clothes dryer now.

Insist on an automatic GAS clothes dryer because gas outsells other types here for 3 very important reasons:

1. Gas dries clothes faster than any other fuel—faster even than sunshine.
2. Gas costs so little—dries clothes for less than 2¢ per dryer-full.

The FARMERS CORNER

by Allen F. Mather
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

The recent "upset" win by the Democrats in Wisconsin has a second story within it that should be of more than passing interest.

For a week or so following the election the Democrats danced in the streets, hailing it as the greatest thing to happen since 1948, while Republicans sank into something approaching shock.

People, however, are notoriously short memoried and as happy an occasion as it seems to the New Dealers today and as disastrous as it must seem to the Republicans, when the next general election time rolls around you may be sure it will have passed into political limbo.

Real Significance

The real significance of the election other than the obvious—that the Ninth Wisconsin, for the first time since its formation in 1931, sent a Democrat to Congress—lies in the hope it holds for those who preach the very vital need for a realignment of our parties.

Nowhere has the absurd nature of our present-day political labels been better demonstrated than in this Wisconsin election.

Weird

Here is a congressional district which has been officially listed as Republican since 1944.

Yet the man who held the office, the late Congressman Hull, was about as far from being Republican as a person can get—still, he wore the label. He was a Progressive as long as that party lived in Wisconsin—turning to the Republicans only when his own outfit was dissolved in 1944. During his subsequent years in office his record shows he voted 24 percent of the time with the Republicans.

Frazier-Lemke

Why not His district, the Ninth Wisconsin, encompasses considerable marginal farm lands where a certain amount of economic distress is inevitable. This makes fertile ground, however, for those who wish to capitalize on social unrest. Indeed, some of the counties in this district are referred to locally as Frazier-Lemke counties. Moreover, it houses the Wisconsin headquarters of the Farmers Union.

Hull's secretary, a man named Sanderson, five years ago took time off to campaign on the Democratic ticket for the United States Senate. Senator Wiley, a Republican, gave him a licking and sent him back to the cover of the Congressman's office.

To give the absurd story a further twist, the Democrat who won the recent election actually campaigned on the late Republican Hull's record. Fathom that!

May Help

Consequently, one can only conclude the election of a Democrat in the Ninth Wisconsin has no significance as far as national "trend" is concerned, though one can understand the politicians trying to make something of it.

But it should point up the need of getting actual Republicans under the GOP banner and actual Democrats under the flag of the New Deal. This would cure them of their current checkered existence.

If it does that it will have helped a lot.

Live Steamers Hold Meeting In Placentia

The Tri-County Live Steam club held a recent meeting at Ralph Bury's Northern Pacific headquarters in Placentia. Fourteen miniature engines toured the elaborate four-track main line which is automatically controlled by a system of switches operated at a central point.

Among the tiny steamers were two Northern type, three Hudson types, one Prairie and one 0-8-0 switcher, as well as 50 railroad cars. Many more were on display. The novelty of the afternoon was a three-foot steam tug boat, radio controlled, capable of traveling ten miles per hour while pulling four people in a row boat on the water.

Those attending the meeting from Anaheim were Charles Myers, George Vandenburg and grand-daughter, Warde Erickson and Eugene Cranston. Other members enjoying the meet were Charles Stump of Long Beach, W. K. Cline of Venice, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Schmidt and two children of Fullerton, and V. C. Grandma Peterson of 601 S. Lemon st. did it again! for the fourth successive year, she won a trophy at the Hallowe'en Breakfast for her original costume in keeping with the "Out Of This World" theme, entitled "Mars Hallowe'en Queen of 1953!" It was an intricate creation of orange and black tulle, handsomely trimmed with gold braid.

"I am only 66 years old," says grandma, "and hope to try again next year. Taking part in community affairs helps keep me young. And I do love Anaheim, the city of good living."

Grandma Peterson takes off twice a year to visit a daughter in Kalispeel, Montana, and a son in Tacoma, Washington. In the meantime she keeps busy with Sunday school and missionary work.

VERY BEST FRUIT CAKE

It is not a minute too soon to bake your holiday fruit cake. The following recipe makes a five pound cake and is the result of extensive experimentation by home economists at the University of Minnesota.

Ingredients:

¾ lb. citron
¼ lb. lemon peel
¼ lb. orange peel
½ lb. candied cherries
½ lb. nutmeats
½ lb. dates
½ lb. candied pineapple
½ lb. raisins
¼ lb. dry cocoanut, finely cut
½ lb. shortening
½ cup sugar
½ cup honey
5 eggs
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
6 tablespoons fruit juice

Shred the peel, halve cherries, nutmeats and dates. Cut pineapple ize of almonds. Dredge fruit thoroughly with ¼ cup or more of flour. Sift remaining flour with dry ingredients. Cream shortening and sugar and add honey. Stir in well beaten eggs. Add dry ingredients and fruit juices alternately.

Pour batter over fruit until all fruit is well covered. Line oiled tin with 3 layers of waxed paper, and let ½ inch of paper extend above all sides of the pan. Pour batter into the pan lightly. Do not flatten. Bake at 250 degrees or about four hours.

It is recommended that a pan containing 2 cups of water be put in the bottom of the oven while the cake is baking.

P.O. Supervisors Examination Held

Recently over 50,000 United States postal clerks and carriers voluntarily took part in the largest competitive examination ever held by the Post Office department. This examination was to select qualified employees for promotion to supervisory positions.

This is the first phase of a new program set up recently by Postmaster General Summerfield to assure that future promotions of employees for promotion to supervisory positions will hereafter be made on the result of impartial competitive examinations. The plan also includes training courses for employees who are ambitious and sincere and want to qualify for advancement.

The examination for the Anaheim post office was held at the high school and taken by 14 employees of the local office, it was announced by Postmaster Louis T. Hoskins.

The following took examination: Albert W. Blair, Crawford W. Brown, Theodore R. Corliss, Joe deSteiguer, Andrew P. Ference, Theodore B. Fischback, Wm. Geiger, Clair H. Liebhart, Walter A. Miller, Charles F. Pannier, Cecil N. Peterson, Floyd S. Peterson, Elme F. Simms, and Richard H. Sisson.

Local Women on 'Are Ya Listenin?'

Keen hearing, concentration, good memories and fast shorthand won two Anaheim women an assortment of merchandise prizes on the morning program "Are Ya Listenin'?" over KBIG, the Catalina station. They were Mrs. F. G. Novak, 106 N. Larch St. and Mrs. Betty Johnson of 930 N. Helena, Anaheim.

Disc jockey Stu Wilson broadcast a challenge to his listeners to write him an accurate list of all his announcements and musical numbers during the two-hour show.

Successful Dinner

The fund raising ham dinner recently sponsored by the Katella Parent-Teacher League was a big success, according to Mrs. Walter Moore, finance chairman. The net profit was $207.64. Approximately 300 guests were served, and the donation of an electric blanket went to Wallace Jeannerett.

Demonstration on Gift Wrapping

Mrs. James Auest of Mercury Stationers arranged to have Stan Beldman, representative of Scotch tape manufacturers, demonstrate gift wrapping for the Magnolia Study club which met in the home of Mrs. Guy Clark last. Wednesday.

Co-hostess was Mrs. Lester Moffitt. Mrs. Fanny Weaver, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Auest to the 23 members who answered roll call.

Mrs. Ada Felbaum, vice-president, presided at the meeting and gave a special greeting to Mrs. Olin Cramer who, following a serious automobile accident, has not been able to attend club meetings for the past five months.

Announcement was made that the next regular meeting will be the annual Christmas party held in the home of Mrs. Esther Bensen of Orange Rd. Dec. 16.

Frozen foods will not discolor upon defrosting if they are packed in tin cans and then defrosted by placing the unopened tin can in warm water.

Plant Personnel Shares Profits

Kwikset Locks, Inc. this week deposited a total of $108,530 in the "Deferred Profit-Sharing" fund for employees of the company, each eligible employee receiving $257.29 in his account.

The Anaheim lockset manufacturing firm deposits a portion of its profits to an annuity fund which accumulates for individual Kwiksetters and is paid to them upon retirement, termination of employment, total disability, or it is paid to a beneficiary upon death of an employee.

In addition, Kwikset has accompany-paid pension plan and recently gave each employee a "Cash Profit-Sharing" check for $110.24, representing a portion of company profits for July, August, and September 1953. In the previous quarter each employee received $171.60 in cash.

Cash Profit-Sharing is paid quarterly; Deferred Profit-Sharing is deposited with a trustee annually

Kwikset also has announced that more than $100,000 in extra earnings has been paid to employees under the company's new "Incentive" plan, which enables them to develop their skills on the job so they may earn extra wages within regular working hours. Incentives earnings have averaged about $250 per person.

Dr. Kenneth Heuler returned to his office on Monday following a business trip to San Francisco.

It took 23 years to install the first million; yet 20,000,000 telephones have been installed in the United States since 1946.

50,000,000 Telephones Now Serve the Nation
In the West alone, more than 6,000,000 telephones are at work

1. America's 50 millionth telephone went into service in the White House office of President Eisenhower just a few days ago. Yet, only 77 years ago, America's telephone system consisted of little more than a wire strung through an attic in Boston. Today telephone service binds together the great nation it helped to build. In the 77 years since its invention, the telephone has become an important part of the American way of life . . . a means of chatting with friends . . . an indispensable tool of commerce . . . a vital link in our vast chain of defense.

3. In the Pacific West we've added telephones even faster than the nation as a whole. Since January, 1946, Pacific Telephone alone has added over 2,225,000 telephones. This has nearly doubled the number at work. We've also improved equipment to make your telephone serve you better.

2. About 5,300 telephone companies serve the United States. Of these, more than 200 are located in the Pacific West. Working together they have made the world's best telephone service available at a reasonable price . . . well within the means of nearly everyone.

Pacific Telephone

Each telephone we add makes yours more valuable

Each time a new telephone is installed, your telephone becomes more useful. For each new telephone means you can call more people. More can call you. Thus, every day, your telephone service increases in value, while it remains low in cost.

...and heaven (well, almost) for parents who travel with children.

Children love to ride on S. P. trains because it's fun. And parents like to travel on S. P. because they can relax and enjoy themselves—thanks to the special children's services we provide.

For instance: If baby's bottle needs warming, your Pullman porter or Coffee Shop steward will cheerfully get it done. And for the junior gourmet, we have a wonderful Children's Menu with specially prepared meals and moppet-sized servings. Mom and Dad can share their regular meals with their children, too — we'll gladly furnish extra plates and silverware.

On most of our trains, little fellows under 5 ride free. Older little people, from 5 through 11, ride for half fare when accompanied by a grown-up. (On a few of our trains, there is a small reserved seat charge that applies to anyone big enough to occupy a seat.)

Meantime, we've been thinking about your comfort, too. Chair Cars on Southern Pacific's streamliners were built with just that in mind. No-glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms.

We baby your freight, too— And S. P.'s gentle freight handling doesn't cost much, either. On an average, we move a ton of things for only 1.45 cents a mile. We have more miles of line serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. So, for fast, efficient and dependable freight service—whether carloads or l. c. l.—call our nearest agent.

RV Mirror Law Effective Jan. 1

According to a new provision of the vehicle code every motor vehicle registered in California after Jan. 1, 1954, must have a rear view mirror which reflects to the driver a view of the highway for a distance of at least 200 feet to the rear of the vehicle, Commissioner B. R. Caldwell of the California Highway Patrol pointed out today.

"This new section of the code, enacted by the legislature at the last session, clarifies legal requirements pertaining to rear view mirrors by making such equipment compulsory," Caldwell commented.

"The former provision called for such rear vision mirror in the event that the vehicle was so constructed or so loaded as to interfere with the driver's view to the rear.

"This new provision will add importance to the law requiring the driver of any vehicle to dim his headlights when approaching within 200 feet to the rear of any car during hours that lights are required, since every vehicle will have a mirror to reflect the blinding light from bright beams," he added.

GOP Women Hear Talk by Senator

Senator John A. Murdy gave a resume of business before the California State Legislature when he addressed a meeting of the Anaheim Republican Women's club at the YMCA.

He said there are problems never faced by previous governing bodies because of the tremendous influx of population, coupled with the fact that 65 per cent of the state budget is frozen by the constitution and laws passed by the voters.

President Mrs. James Carter presided at the meeting and reported on the recent convention of the California Council of Republican women held in Los Angeles at which Mrs. Lester Ferrell of Anaheim was elected third vice-president.

The local club's legislative study group invites interested women to meet with them on the fourth Tuesday of each month, according to Mrs. A. P. Mitchell who opened her home to the group in October.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Republican club is held on the second Tuesday of the month but there will be no meeting in December. Election of officers is slated for Jan. 12.

VARIETY MEATS

Variety meats are rich sources of vitamins and minerals, particularly Vitamin A, and the B vitamins. It is a nutrition-wise homemaker who includes a serving of liver or tongue in her weekly menu. Beef liver, particularly, can be prepared in many appetizing dishes. French fried liver is a favorite with the younger generation, but liver and bacon, liver loaves and braised liver with vegetables are other suggestions.

The belief that some people can change themselves into animals is found in all parts of the earth.
