GOOD MAN CALLED; LEADER IN FIELD.

The condition we refer to as death has called M. F. Ihsmen, publisher of the Los Angeles Examiner. Death has hovered over the nationally known newspaper man for some months, and although he put up a courageous fight, death came out victorious, but only in claiming the tabernacle of flesh that a big heart and soul and a brilliant mind inhabited. Even death cannot take the victory of Mr. Ihsmen's great work in the newspaper field and in the public's welfare.

Mr. Ihmsen was one of those men whose personality inspired confidence. No man ever went to Mr. Ihmsen in a discouraged state of mind and left in the same condition. Those who knew him best say that Mr. Ihmsen was a man whose daily life embodied the creed "not for myself alone." There may be better things that can be said of a man than that but we cannot at this moment recall anything that we ourselves would rather have said after we experience the Great Adventure.

BIG PAPER SPEAKS; THE BALL IS ROLLING.

The New York World, spokesman for President Wilson during his two terms, and considered the most powerful democratic newspaper in America, asks "Why Postpone Disarmament?" Along the lines that nearly all newspapers are following now, the World believes it expedient and meritorious to begin disarmament proceedings at once.

In an editorial last week, the World says:

"The way to bring about a reduction of naval armaments, according to Representative Patrick H. Kelley of the house naval affairs committee is to persist in increasing armaments. Speaking ostensibly for President Harding, he says that the United States must complete its 1916 big navy-building program before agreeing to any disarmament policy. Then, as he foresees the world situation—

"There will be a reduction of armament, and when that reduction comes America will still be the equal under this program of every other sea power, and that makes for peace. When America and the great English-speaking empire, Great Britain, can go out upon the seas of the world as equals, there will be but few questions that intelligent statesmanship cannot dispose of.'

"As matters stand today, the United States and Great Britain are already supreme in naval armament. To spend hundreds of millions more on naval building programs will not change that condition, but it will only insure needless waste which neither nation can afford. It would continue the fatuous policy that leads to bankruptcy.

"The alternative is for the United States to initiate a movement for the reduction of naval armaments by agreement among the three great naval powers, the United States, Great Britain and Japan, as the Borah resolution proposes. It means a naval holiday, to begin at the earliest possible moment, not at some indefinite and remote period. It means that the United States, for its own and the common good, shall take the lead now in reduction of armaments, not withhold the proposal while challenging other nations to keep pace with it in the race for naval competition."

We do not believe we will read Lansing's book on the peace negotiations nor bother to read Col. House's book on the same subject. What's the use of wasting time to decide how dead a dead thing is or trying to decide why it died when everybody knows.

Good natured people are in the minority maybe, but what we want to get off our minds is, why do meat markets try to sell you pork chops when you want a rib steak?

CHAMBER COMMITTEE NAMED TO FOLLOW UP ANAHEIM COMMITTEE REPORT ON COUNTY'S ENGINEER

Ways and Means Committee Met in Santa Ana Yesterday to Pro Rate Costs of Investigation By Anaheim Committee.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE MEETS THIS EVENING

The Ways and Means committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce met yesterday in Santa Ana to discuss a plan for pro-rating the cost among the 19 Chambers in the county, of the special auditing committee of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce for the work of investigating the office of the county engineer.

It was decided to communicate with the secretaries of the 19 Chambers of Commerce with the end in view of obtaining the membership of each so that the cost can be prorated in proportion to membership.

Announcement was made yesterday by Elmer E. Johnson of the appointment of the committe authorized at the Fullerton meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county to make an investigation of the charges against the offices of County Engineer J. L. McBride and Auditor W. C. Jerome. The charges were made in a report filed by a committee of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce.

The personnel of the committee is as follows: Dr. P. R. Reynolds, Santa Ana, first supervisorial district; H. A. Lake, Garden Grove, second district; S. C. Hartranft, Fullerton, third district; D. Eyman Huff, El Modena, fourth district; W. G. Mitchell, Tustin, fifth district.

The committee will assemble in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Santa Ana tonight to outline their mode of procedure.

LEGISLATURE ACCOMPLISHES BIG THINGS DURING SESSION CLOSED EARLY THIS WEEK; A SUMMARY

SACRAMENTO, May 5.—Reorganization of the state government and of corporation taxes, defeat of the "blue Sunday" legislation and of movie censorship, and presentation of a clean bill of health to the state railroad commission were some of the things accomplished by the session of the legislature which just adjourned.

Although the session stretched Friday, April 29, into a 96 hour day and crammed through scores of bills at the last moment, many more died without ever having a chance at really serious consideration. Briefly, here are some of the most important things the legislature did:

Investigated the state railroad commission and gave it a "clean slate". The investigating committee toured the state and decided that what had been done couldn't be helped.

Adopted the King tax bill, raising the tax rates on corporation. This measure was the most bitterly fought measure of the entire session, charges, counter-charges, and fist-fights entering into the contest.

Killed the bill establishing a state board for chiropractors.

Held hearing for one whole month on the state budget. After everything had been thrashed out, the legislature adopted the budget as presented and declared confidence in the budget board.

Killed in committee the Purkitt bill which would have prohibited the ownership of more than 2000 acres of farming land but amended it.

Killed the Dennett "Blue Sunday" measure, which was fostered by the barbers' union of the state.

Killed the Eden "movie censorship" bill on the floor of the senate. The measure was also called a "blue law."

The Hurley and Colburn censorship measures for moving pictures was tabled in committee. The former included censorship of vaudeville acts, the letter put censorship on advertising and bill posters.

Passed the Wright prohibition enforcement act after the "wets" failed to write in a clause putting the bill up to vote of the people.

Put over for a special session the Boggs bill calling for re-apportionment of the state. San Francisco opposed the bill, because under the 1920 census that district loses legislative representation and Los Angeles gains.

Put "teeth" into the redlight abatement act by amending it to provide that places closed by lower courts shall remain closed until the higher courts shall reverse the lower court's decision.

Passed the complete program of the ex-service men, with the exception of the bonus bill. Measures passed established a Veterans' Welfare Board, which will have control of the funds realized by the $10,000,000 bonds issue which has yet to be voted upon by the people. From this bond issue will be loaned money to former servicemen for the building of homes and purchase of farms. A vocational training appropriation of $500,000 was also made.

Passed the Eden bill requiring proponents of initiative measures to file a true statement of expeditures in behalf or against the measures.

Killed an attempt made by Assemblyman Hornblower to prevent alleged "profiteering" in rents. Hornblower's bill established a court in which those believing they were being overcharged for rent could make a plea for reduction.

Forgot all about the daylight savings act and the Rush bill calling for the revival of horse racing in the state.

Voted down a measure by Senator W. E. Duncan that would have made insanity a cause for divorce. A "divorce trust" in Bakersfield is said to have openly supported the measure.

Lost the Inman anti-Japanese fishing bill in the assembly, but both houses voted for the Parker measure restricting Japanes language schools.

Adopted a program of principles declaring in favor of the alien land law, and favoring further restriction of Japanese immigration.

Voted down the Scott boxing bill, after it had been amended down from 15 to 4 rounds. The measure was to have established a veteran's boxing commission.

Passed the measure preventing "labor spies" being used by corporations.

Killed in senate committee "wet" resolution to congress when the "wets" couldn't reach an agreement among themselves as to which one they wanted voted out.

Killed the measure granting Alameda county tide lands in connection with the proposed naval base at Vallejo fought the measure, succeeding in killing it in the assembly committee.

Passed the Sample measure prohibiting trust companies from engaging in practice of law or giving clients legal advice.

Killed measure establishing an eight hour day for street car men.

Killed in the senate the measure granting San Francisco control of its harbor. Opponents of the measure claimed state operation of the harbor was necessary because many counties in the interior depended on it being free from municipal politics.

Killed the Green bill which would have prevented school teachers from teaching the history of the amendments to the U. S. constitution.

Killed the measure providing that candidates shall declare their party affiliations and preventing a candidate receiving the endorsement of more than one party.

Exonerated Justices Hart and Burnett of the third district court of appeals of charges of erroneous decisions as charged by a Stockton attorney.

Killed an attempt to divide the state as proposed in a bill by Assemblyman W. F. Beal of Imperial county.

Refused to act on a new motor vehicle act, which would have raised the license charges of automobiles.

Passed the Saylor bill prohibiting the hanging of boys under eighteen years of age.

INTERPRETER IS NOW AN ATTORNEY

Charlie Carrillo, Orange county Spanish interpreter today blossomed out into a new role, that of a lawyer.

Carrillo appeared as counsel for the defense of Dolores Avalos, charged with failure to provide. The testimony of Mrs. Avalos was heard, in which she declared that her husband beat her and that after she was forced to leave him, he refused to give her any money for the support of herself and their six children. Avalos declared that she took $200 with her before she left and that he had established credit for her at a nearby store, but that she refused to use it

After two hours of testimony, the case was dismissed and nearly everyone in the case gave a good bit of fatherly advice to nearly everyone in the courtroom.

Charlie is now being congratulated on keeping his client out of jail, and is being advised to open a law office.

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Warning of a storm at sea off the Southern California coast was given in a message from San Francisco to the local weather bureau today.

Eliasen, producer for the Screenogram, will meet the young ladies at the Herald office who are to participate in the motion picture, "Miss Valencia," which is to be produced over Southern California as a means of exploiting the California Valencia Orange show here May 17 to 22.

Miss Tressa Strickland of Orange, who will take the part of "Miss Valencia," was in conference with Mr. Eliason yesterday. It is expected the young ladies will be kept busy all day tomorrow, weather permitting, to work out the costumes and scenes.

There will be seven young ladies in the picture, and perhaps more. The name of the winner of the scenario has not yet been announced, although it is believed it will be known when Mr. Eliason arrives in Anaheim tomorrow morning to begin work on the picture.

JOB PRINTERS IN WEEKLY MEETING

RESERVE SEAT SALE FOR CHAUTAUQUA AT HENDERSON'S

Work of clearing the lot on Emily and Center streets where the Chautauqua will hold forth beginning Saturday night for a 7-day period was started yesterday and today it was in shape for the big tent that will be erected. The rain came along just as the work was completed and aided materially in settling the dust so that sawdust can be laid.

Reserved seats can be obtained at the office of the Henderson Realty Company. Those who buy season tickets will have to have seats reserved.

"Work and save, labor like the devil and save like misers," is the key to the European situation, says Tom Skeyhill, who brings the last word to America in his lecture, "The Babylonian Finger," to be offered on the fourth night of the Chautauqua. Since October 1920, Skeyhill has been factfhunting in the heart of Soviet Russia, gathering first hand material of actual conditions in the most talked of country on earth at the present time. He has interviewed the most prominent Russian officials and visited the political, economical, and sociological centers, direct from the laboratory of new civilization, searching through France, Germany, Checho Slovakia, Poland, Letvia and Esthonio, Russia. Deflate inflated currency and inflated deflated supplies, and then and not until then will all be well, a declaration made by Skeyhill upon his careful study. The Polish mark, normally five to the dollar, is now six hundred and fifty to the dollar, and still soaring.

As indicated by the title, Skeyhill's lecture will deal with the new message which the Russian Revolution has and is "writing on the wall."

Mrs. Martin with the $1000 Cinderella Slipper will be in Anaheim tomorrow at the Hotel Valencia and the S. Q. R. Store where she will meet any girl over 18 years of age who would care to compete for the golden slipper.

IHMSEN'S FUNERAL WILL BE TOMORROW IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Funeral services for Maximilian Frederick Ihmsen, vice-president and publisher of the Los Angeles Examiner, will be held tomorrow morning in St. Basil's Catholic church.

Ihmsen, a journalist of national reputation, died in his home here yesterday after an illness of a year. He was 53 years old.

He began his newspaper career as a reporter for the Pittsburgh Leader. Later he became Washington correspondent for the Pittsburgh Post. In 1898 he was made political editor of the New York Herald, of which he later became city editor.

WIFE FREED OF CHARGE OF MURDERING HER HUSBAND TODAY

CHICAGO, May 5.—Mrs. Thomas Rowland was free today of the charge of murdering her husband, prominent dentist. The corcner's jury late yesterday decided that Mrs. Rowland shot her husband in self defense and therefore was not guilty of murder.

Irene Malloy, the girl the doctor was alleged to have been infatuated with, was at the inquest and sat across the table from the woman whose husband she loved.

SAYS PLANT IS TO MAKE CITRUS POWDER

Orange and lemon powders are to be manufactured at a plant located in Los Angeles, announces the Granite Springs Estates, Inc., a New York concern that has entered the California field.

George H. Proctor, president of the company, who is now in Los Angeles, states that his company is contracting for oranges and lemons that are below the marketable size or grade, at $30 a ton for lemons and $40 for oranges, on a basis of co-operation with citrus growers who associate themselves with his enterprise.

Proctor states that the plant in Los Angeles will produce 5,000 pounds of citrus powder and 600 pounds of flavoring extracts daily.

BIRTHS IN STATE INCREASE; DEATHS SHOW A DECREASE

SACRAMENTO, May 5.—The number of births in California in 1920 broke all previous records, according to a final tabulation announced today by L. E. Ross, director of the bureau of vital statistics of the state board of health. The births exceeded the deaths for the same period by more than 20,000, the tables showed.

In 1919 there were 56,521 births in the state and 45,991 deaths. Last year there were 67,198 births and 47,124 deaths.

Based on California's population as contained in the 1920 census, the birth rate for the year reached the highest point on record, 19.3 for every thousand inhabitants. The death rate of 13.5 per thousand, Ross said, is the lowest since 1909.

In addition to the low death rate the infant mortality rate is low, according to Ross, who placed it at 75 per thousand inhabitants. There were 5,043 deaths of children under one year old. Infant mortality was lowest among the Chinese and Japanese and highest among the Indian children, the report shows.

HOFFMAN GIVEN PERIOD IN JAIL

A. H. Hoffman of Orange was sentenced yesterday to six months in the county jail for obtaining money under false pretenses.

The sentence was given by Justice of the peace Cox. The complaint originally charged the crime of embezzlement. Hoffman pleaded guilty to the felony charge and asked for probation, which was denied.

The charge was reduced, however, from a felony to a misdemeanor and the justice court penalty was imposed.

ULTIMATUM DEMANDS GERMANY DISARM AS AGREED IN TREATY MAY 12TH DAY FOR FINAL WORD

PREPARE TO OCCUPY RUHR BASIN ON MAY 12TH

LONDON, May 5.—The allies today served Germany with an ultimatum demanding acceptance of their reparations terms by May 12. The allies will proceed on May 12 to occupy the Ruhr valley and to take other military and naval steps if Germany does not accept unequivocally, according to the ultimatum.

Occupation of German territory will continue as long as Germany refuses to fulfill the conditions laid down by the allies.

The note, signed by members of the supreme council and handed to German Ambassador Sthamer shortly before 11 a. m. today stated that the allies will proceed immediately with preliminary measures for occupation of the Ruhr valley.

The detailed financial demand, prepared by the reparations commission it was stated, will be handed the German mission in Paris by tomorrow. It prescribes the time and the methods of discharging the German debt which totals about 6,750,000,000 pounds.

Within the six days following receipt of the reparations, Germany is called upon to declare her determination to execute her obligations without reserve or condition.

The same demand was made with regard to the offering of guarantees for the debt. Renewed demands were made for disarmament of Germany, soldiers, trial of war criminals and for carrying out other obligations incurred in signing the Versailles treaty.

BERLIN, May 5, 12 M.—The allied reparations ultimatum was received here today. Foreign Minister Von Simons immediately took the note before the foreign committee of the reichstag. He informed the members of the allied demands and they at once began discussing them.

The complexion of a new German cabinet to supplant the one just resigned, was to be determined today at a meeting of the reichstag's foreign committee.

It was believed the ministry will be coalition. Majority socialists showed a desire to avoid responsibility for the grave decision which must be made soon in regard to reparations.

The reparations negotiations led up to the resignation of Chancellor Constantine Fehrenbach, Foreign Minister Von Simons, and their colleagues. The Silesian situation where the Poles now are fighting the Germans was the minor cause.

President Ebert has asked his ministers to remain in office until another cabinet can be formed. It is believed Gustav Strossman, leader of the people's party, will be asked to head, the ministry.

DR. SUE AMACK FOUND GUILTY OF ILLEGAL PRACTICE

Miss Sue Amack, Anaheim Chiropractor who was on trial for practicing a method of healing without a state license, was found guilty late yesterday afternoon. The jury deliberated for 27 minutes.

The jury was composed of William M. Belding, W. D. Barke, J. M. Marsh, Lizzie Warner, A. Chapman, Fannie Lacy, Joseph Pollock, M. A. Kaufbaer, Anna Hill, Mary Tillotson, C. L. Johnson and Nellie Tedford. Miss Amack was represented by Lou Guernsey of Los Angeles.

Miss Amack will be sentenced Saturday morning by Superior Judge Williams.

INHERITANCE TAX BIGGEST IN COUNTY

What is said to be the third largest inheritance tax recorded in Orange county was filed in the office of the county clerk here today by J. N. Anderson, county inheritance tax appraiser.

The estate is that of O. H. Greenwald, who died last February. Mr. Greenwald left property valued at $256,187.42, the inheritance tax of which will be $6491.42 less five per cent if paid within six months or plus ten per cent if not paid within 18 months.

The entire estate, after deducting all expenses of the deceased's last sickness and funeral expenses, amounted to $156,887.42, the entire amount being given to Norman B. Greenwald, minor son of Mr. Greenwald.

MARRIAGE HABIT CAUSE OF GRIEF

James Marshburn, colored, of Los Angeles, who confessed recently to a bigamy charge was granted a probation Wednesday by Judge Williams.

Marshburn was sentenced to ten years in the state penitentiary, and is to be under probation for two years. If at the end of the two years, he has a record of good behavior, he can change his plea to not guilty, and the pending sentence will be dismissed.

An amusing incident came up when the sentence was being given. Marshburn was asked how many times he had gone to the altar, and admitted he had been married three times.

When the sentence was passed Judge Williams told him that one of the terms of probation was that he "get out of the marriage habit."

RESERVES ARE TO TAKE A CRUISE

There will be a Naval Reserve cruise Sunday, leaving San Pedro at 9 a. m., probably going to Catalina or Eagle boats 12 and 34. Return will be made about 5 p. m. These trips count for sea duty both for confirmation of rate and retainer's pay.

Incidentally, reservists who are not receiving retainer's pay or back pay will get set aright by seeing either Lieut. J. B. Bile or Ensign F. C. Westgate who are in charge of all Orange county reserve officers. There are about 40 naval reservists in Anaheim.

BOYS' BIKE RACES TO BE HELD SATURDAY

An event of real interest to the bicycle fans of this section is that of the Kern Cycle Co., who announces that their third annual bicycle race, open to all boys from this section, is to be held Saturday.

The event includes races of many kinds, long distance, relay, and many others. Many handsome prizes are given to the contestants which are well worth winning.

It is expected that the entries this year will far surpass those of previous years, as the event is now so well known that it is looked forward to by most of the fans of this country.

WILL SUBDIVIDE ACREAGE HERE FOR HOMES

W. P. Quarton, J. L. Clayes and H. W. Comstock have purchased the seven acres of the old Langenberge estate on North Lemon street, Anaheim.

The property was bought of Henry Siemers. The purchasers plan to subdivide the tract into forty-five lots each 50 by 155 feet in size.

The Langenberger estate is just north of the new twenty-acre city park site and it is considered that it will make an attractice subdivision. Plans call for much wider parking than those in other parts of the city.

Clementine street will be continued through the tract. The forty-five lots will face on Lemon street and on both sides of Clementine.

J. N. Monroe of Taft is registered at the Johnston-Wickett clinic.

COLONEL HOUSE GIVES TRIBUTE TO HIS FORMER CHIEF

NEW YORK, May 5.—Col. E. M. House shows himself as an intense admirer of former Premier Clemenceau in his foreword to "What Really Happened at Paris," the story of the Peace Conference, 1918-1919, by American delegates. He says:

"There were great and complex characters at this gathering of the world's foremost men, and there is a wide difference of opinion as to their purposes and their mental and temperamental equipment. Statesmen, soldiers, men of the sea, artists, financiers, and writers of all kinds and sorts touched elbows with one another. The settlements to be made were interwoven with every human interest, and brought the best from every land to participate in or advise as to the final adjustment.

"There were sons who towered above their fellows, and these became centers of groups from which policies and opinions radiated. Wilson, Clemenceau, Lloyd George, Orlando, Paderewski, Venizelos, Smuts, Makino, and Wellington Koo were among the statesmen having distinct and enthusiastic followers. Clemenceau stands out the clearest-cut figure of them all. No doubt or mystery surrounds him. He fought in peace as he fought in war, openly, intelligently, and courageously for his beloved France. No one in that notable gathering had so well within grasp the gift of accomplishment. He inspired the affection of many—the admiration of all.

"Paderewski and Wilson had about them something of romance and spirituality lacking in others. The one had gathered together the fragments of a broken kingdom and had moulded it into a virile and liberty-loving republic. He came as the spokesman of an ancient people whose wrongs and sorrows had stirred the sympathies of an entire world. This artist-statesman awakened the congress to do justice to his native land, and sought its help to make a great dream true. His fervored eloquence brought about the renasence of Poland, and added new luster to a famous name.

"Wilson, on the other hand, had aroused the conscience and aspirations of mankind, and when he stood at the peak of his influence and power, there was never a more commanding figure, for he was then the spokesman of the moral and spiritual forces of the world. His work at Paris was tireless and unselfish, and it was not until he returned to America to render an account of his stewardship that disaster overtook him and wrecked the structure built in co-operation with our allies with such painstaking care."

The volume is edited jointly by Col. House and Dr. Charles Seymour, professor of history in Yale university, and comprises contributory articles by Americans who took leading parts in the work of each department of the conference, including Herbert C. Hoover, Thomas W. Lamont, Samuel Gompers, Admiral Henry T. Mayo, General Tasker H. Bliss, James Brown Scott, Cass. H. Haskins and Robert H. Lord.

NEGRESS IS NOT AT ALL WORRIED OVER HER VAST FORTUNE

DALLAS, Tex., May 4.—A negress sat in a tumble down shack in the negro quarter on Hill street here today and stolcally refused to get excited over the battle involving millions attorneys are waging about her claims to oil lands.

Lillie Gussie Taylor, the negress, who explains to visitors that her "health is poorly and ah ain't no great hand to talk nohow," merely shrugged her shoulders when reporters told her she had won her suit in the Louisiana state supreme court and established her title, insofar as state courts are concerned, to what her attorneys declared is the biggest producing lease in the great Homer, La., oil fields.

The land, about three miles from the town of Homer, had already produced about $5,500,000 worth of oil.

A suit pending in the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans will complete establishment of her title if she wins it, her lawyers said, and will probably make her one of the richest negresses in the world.

"Ah ain't got this money yit," she reminded friends today who sought to plan for her what to do with "all that money." She punctuated the remark with a cough and drew a ragged shawl about her shoulders and huddled closer to the dim flame of the oil lamp that, behind drawn blinds, flickered its rays about the darkened room and reflected from what was once a red rug.

The woman's fight for fortune centers about land in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana, that she once abandoned as worthless, lawyers declared. The exact amount of money Lillie will realize if she wins will be hard to estimate. The lands are variously estimated worth from $8,000,000 to $15,000,000. Her lawyers, finding her in poverty, accepted the suit on a fifty-fifty basis—getting half of the winnings. She has also disposed of a part of her share in the claims, it was announced.

MARKETING WILL BE NEW COURSE

(Farm Bureau Bulletin)

State universities and colleges of agriculture are making prompt response to the recent appeal made by President J. R. Howard of the American Farm Bureau Federation, asking that courses be established to train young men in the various phases of co-operative marketing.

President Howard has received replies from over thirty colleges. All express the keenest interest in such courses. Thirteen give definite assurance that such courses will be established. Twelve report that they already offer such courses. Three of the latter express a hope of improving the courses now offered. Only two colleges have replied negatively. These give "lack of funds" as the reason.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba.—Fort William and Port Arthur lead all points on the American continent in the amount of wheat handled in 1920, according to a report issued by the grain commissioner.

The next war won't be fought in the air. It will be fought, as usual, in the tax assessor's office.

The rich nations will survive, but we need some arrangement that will permit the survival of the flattest.

BOWED LEGS WILL BE GIVEN SINGER SURPRISE HUBBY

CHICAGO, May 5.—Short skirts and bowed legs make a poor combination. So Mrs. Edna Hodges, wife of Jimmy Hodges, and prima donna in her husband's musical comedy, is having her legs straightened. Her legs were broken by Dr. Max Thorek at the American hospital here.

For six weeks Mrs. Hodges will be forced to stay in bed and another six weeks will be spent on a wheel chair. Mrs. Rebeca Newcomer of Williamsport, Pa., mother of the patient, was with her daugater during the operation. Hodges is in Norfolk.

"I am going to give my husband the surprise of his life when I get out of here," she said. "I am going to get my picture in a one piece bathing suit."

A nurse told Mrs. Hodges she had lost color during the operation.

And with a large crop of high-grade oranges ready to pick. Owing to the splendid condition of trees there is also a very heavy setting for next season.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

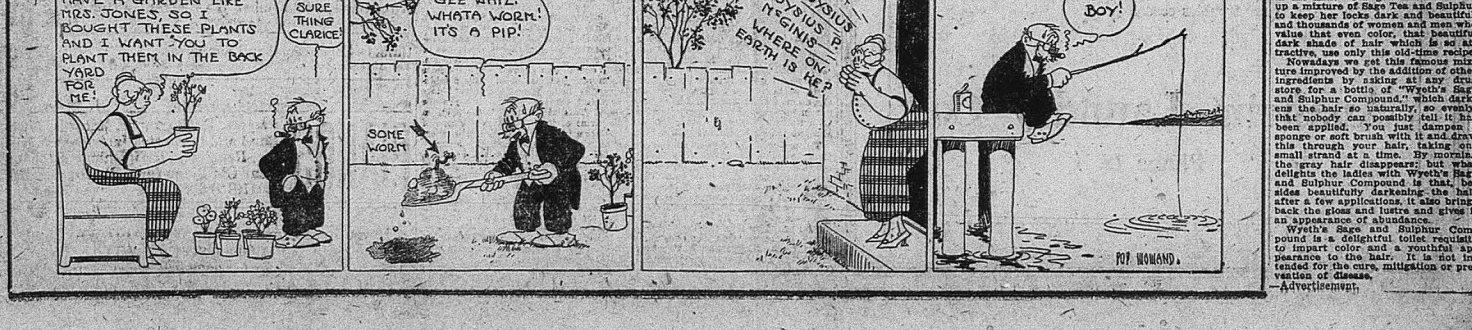

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even color that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Four of the council men voted for holding the election, while Councilman Rollin Marsden voted against the proposal. Marsden held that the present reservoir, which has a capacity of five million gallons, was sufficient for present needs.

Present plans call for another reservoir. Marsden declared that with increased pressure from pumps the present reservoir would be sufficient to care for the demands of the city.

If the bond issue is voted the money will be appropriated for the drilling of new wells, the installation of new pumps, larger mains and extensions of mains.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va.—"For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation so that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I decided to try it, and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women."—Mrs. BERTHA LIERING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Liering's experience. Remember this, for over forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring health.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and in very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Talks About Building

If you are not a home-owner today you have a choice of two courses of action.

You can continue to pay rent. The country is short thousands of homes and until people like you build homes for themselves rents will continue to advance. You can pay the increases and suffer the inconveniences and uneasiness of renting—on a gambling chance that later on your home will cost a few dollars less than now.

You can buy or build a home. Building costs have been reduced. A substantial part of every payment—paid like rent—goes to reduce your indebtedness. These amounts, which, otherwise, you would be paying your landlord, will more than offset any probably further reductions in building costs for some time to come, and in a few years will make you a home-owner.

We believe there are many good citizens in this community whose best interests demand that they build a home for themselves. If you are one of them we should like to talk it over with you personally. Our friendly, unbiased counsel and assistance are at your disposal; without obligation, of course.
