

Now and Then

By The Editor

IMMORAL DRESS; DANGEROUS GROUND.

A question naturally arises when one reads resolutions passed in Santa Ana by the Women's Missionary Society of Southern California as to whether the society's resolutions are going to have the desired effect in the matter of "immodest wearing apparel of young women." The question that comes to mind is whether or not "resulting" is going to make young girls put on more clothes. Furthermore, why confine the resolution to young girls? There are thousands of women who cannot be classed as young girls (though many of them try to act like young girls) who wear as few clothes as possible to remain "within the law."

At the first place, we are inclined to think that if the older women will cover their chests and limbs to a point where modesty may make itself heard, the young girls will fall in line. Young girls are merely "apeing" the older girls.

The question arises as to the reasons for immodest dress, or what is called "style" gowns. The Missionary Society should go to the fountain head, we believe, in the matter of correcting the dress that is too short at both ends. These dresses were invented by men who make a business of changing styles and the more radical the change, the more money these men make.

Women modelers, known as dress-makers until they become wealthy and adventurous, did not invent the peek-a-boo waist, the diaphanous skirt and the abbreviated dress. They were all conceived by men who present the season's styles. These men are the ones the Missionary Society should work on.

Eventually women, followed by young girls who "ape" them, will keep something to themselves. They will go on as the women of the former generations did, by leaving something to the imagination. A modestly dressed woman is a joy to behold. An immodestly dressed woman is the object of comment and the comment is not always of the kind that the average man would care to hear used in reference to his wife, sister or daughter.

The average man knows how nature showed womanhood, so there is no need for women to try to further enlighten the men. Talcum powder and dress will not offend women who dress modestly. If it offends those who are ultra-stylish, we should worry. It will be well for women to remember always that a modest woman is a joy forever to the average man.

WICKED EXTRAVAGANCE; COSTLY HONORS.

It is said that every time a gun is fired on the great battleships of the American fleet, it costs the government (meaning the taxpayers) the sum of $1,000. In New York last Monday, some 50 salutes were fired in honor of President Harding, and some of them were fired within half a mile of a hospital where human beings are suffering. We wonder how long President Harding is going to allow $50,000 to be wickedly wasted every time he gets within sight of a battleship or a fleet of battleships.

In the matter of paying honors, any man who is elected President of the United States has been honored enough to list the average man to the end of his days, and the useless and wicked waste of money in firing monster cannons to honor a President is as criminal as it is silly, especially at this time when the American people are lining up to join the military business to the deepest depths of the sea and operate an efficiently economical government.

Again we read in dispatches today that "purchase of real estate valued at more than $4,000,000 for army supply bases was proposed in a bill which the House Military Committee ordered favorably reported."

All those in favor of diverting that $4,000,000 to erecting homes for the aged, for orphans and for totally disabled ex-service men say "aye." If you say "aye," say it so it will be heard or read in Washington, where a group of politicians is trying to bring about "comedy" by spending billions for machinery to fight imaginary wars.

Anaheim's orange show was more than its most enthusiastic supporters hoped. It is not only an annual institution, it is a nationally known institution.

CITY BOND ELECTION BE HELD ON JULY 19, VOTE ON ISSUE OF $160,000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Voters Will Decide Whether City Will Erect New City Hall and Extend Sewer and Water Service To Newly Developed Sections

TWO VOTING PLACES ARE DESIGNATED IN CALL

The city trustees at their meeting last night accepted an ordinance for first reading calling a bond election for Tuesday, July 19, at which time the people will vote upon the proposition to incur a bonded indebtedness for $160,000 for municipal improvements.

There will be only two polling places, one of which will be at the Pacific Improvement Co. building on North Los Angeles street, and the other at the recorder's room in the old city hall building. The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 7 p. m. The bonds require a two-thirds favorable vote to carry and provide for erection of a city hall, the extension of the sewer and water systems and for the purpose of a portable pump for the fire truck. The ordinance will be passed at the next meeting and the notice calling the election was ordered printed in the Daily Herald.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC CO. BLOCKS TRAFFIC 35 MINUTES

Trustees Backs of the public improvement committee made complaint to the board of trustees last night that the Southern Pacific freight crew switching cars on the west side a few evenings ago, permitted a blockade of Walnut street for 35 minutes. The trustee says this is an injustice and that steps should be taken to prevent its recurrence. A state law provides that no street shall be blocked by a railroad train for a longer period than seven minutes.

The matter was referred to the city attorney for investigation, and also to the city manager who was requested to ask the railroad officials to give the complaint their immediate consideration.

REQUEST DENIED
The request of Mr. Janies, through J. H. Eneart, to repair a frame building on North Low Angeles street, was denied, as the alterations were not considered fire proof. In future this is going to be the council's attitude regarding all requests for frame work requiring inside the fire limits.

MAIL BY STAGE IS PLAN AFTER MOTOR TRAIN IS DROPPED

Owing to the discontinuance of the motor train service between Los Angeles and Anaheim by the Southern Pacific, mail will be served by stage, distributing at Downey, Buena Park and Norwalk.

This announcement was made today by the Railway Mail service in Los Angeles and will be effective Wednesday, June 1, when the motor train of the Southern Pacific will be discontinued.

ANAHEIM FIRM WON DECISION THURSDAY

On exhibition of documents showing that a carbonating plant was to be installed in the Anaheim Brewery, Judge Z. B. West decided Thursday that the Anaheim firm is not obliged to pay for the apparatus.

Charles Jacobowitz, Brooklyn manufacturer, brought suit against the Anaheim Products Company to force the defendant company to accept delivery and pay for a carbonating plant. The Anaheim firm refused to accept the plant on the ground that it was defective.

BURGLAR TAKES OFF GROCERY SUPPLIES

Entering the store room of the Rock Bottom store at Fourth and Rock streets, Santa Ana, a burglar carried off a quantity of sugar, flour and other groceries.

H. B. Kelley, manager of the store, who reported the theft to the police department, said that it is impossible to give an estimate of the loss until an inventory can be made.

The culture of the Slav is slowly developing into a germ culture.

DR. HUHNS GIVES WAY TO TEARS IN COURT

Local Chiropractor Given 60 Day Sentence for Practicing Profession

GOES TO JAIL JUNE 1ST

Refusing an offer of probation made by Superior Judge Z. B. West, because the terms would compel her to give up her practice of chiropractic, Alice Huhn, Anaheim chiropractor, was sentenced this morning to sixty days in the county jail.

When the sentence was pronounced Miss Huhn broke down and cried bitterly. She was assisted from the court room by her friends who were present. Court officials attempted to persuade her to accept the probation offer, but she refused to give up her practice.

When asked if there were any reason why sentence should not be pronounced, she replied that she did not think that chiropractors should be punished for practicing without a license when the medical board refused to grant them permission.

The judge asked her if she could pass the examination required of drug practitioners, and she answered in the affirmative. She stated however that she had never wasted her time in taking the examinations as she was convinced that she would be refused a permit.

"The minimum sentence that I can impose upon you is sixty days in the county jail, since you refuse to pay a fine," J. W. will be glad, however, to grant you probation," said the judge, before passing sentence.

"If that means that I am required to give up my practice, I will certainly refuse it."

She was then formally given the minimum sentence, and was told that she could have until June 1 to prepare herself for her jail term.

VERDICT IS GIVEN MRS. SICKNER IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Because of injuries which she sustained when she was struck by an automobile driven by C. D. Russell on the San Diego boulevard at Capistrano, Mrs. Josephine May Sickner was awarded damages of $1,000 by the jury.

Mrs. Sickner was walking along the road at night and Russell is said to have driven into her. She was confined to the hospital for several weeks and is said to still retain injuries from the accident. The amount of damages named in the complaint was $15,250.

Printing the names of draft evaders is a good idea, but unfortunately the shortage of paper prevents the names of tax dodgers.

JUANITA IS AGAIN

READY TO DIVORCE;
SOUL MATE IS LAZY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Juanita Miller daughter of Juan Miller, the poet of the Sierras, is of the opinion that this soul mate stuff is all right in the pale light of an April moon with romance all over the place.

But in the cold gray dawn of the average week day, when there's wood to cut and fences to mend and the yard to rake—well, that's another tale.

Juan, Juanita's "lily love," turned out to be a little less than ideal. Juanita says and she is disillusioned both as to heart and body.

"I'm going to get a divorce on grounds of cruelty and non-support," she declared tearfully. "I still love him, but I'm not going to live with him. He won't work."

All Juan does is mope about in the eucalyptus groves, carrying paper cutters, the bride of a month declared. This practice has taken the edge off her love and put it on her disposition.

RULES FOR CAMPERS ADOPTED BY CITY TRUSTEES

The board of trustees last night adopted rules governing the Cypress street park camping grounds, relating to sanitary conditions and putting a time limit for people to observe. The place is free to all for one day, but a fee is charged those who care to stay longer.

Each person will be granted the privilege of staying two weeks during the year. Light, water and gas for cooking purposes is furnished for one day only. The camping grounds for tourists is growing into popular favor. The Elk tract bonds furnished by W. T. Wallop were accepted. These bonds are furnished to guarantee the installation of the proposed improvements, consisting of putting down sidewalks and curbs.

O'DAY NOW ASKING FOR ACCOUNTING

U. S. Glaze, Milton McMillan, the First National Bank of Fullerton, the Standard Bank of Fullerton and the First National Bank of Anaheim were defendants today in a suit brought by J. W. O'Day and his wife, to demand an accounting.

Through his attorneys H. F. Cruzan and A. D. Laughlin, the O'Days assert that a contract was entered into with Thomas Harroun and McMillan, in which all agreed to take a 124th interest in quartz mining land near El Toro.

Each share was to be purchased at $500; the payments to be deposited in the banks of Anaheim and Fullerton, and that the money was to be spent in location work and surveys.

O'Day claims that approximately $8,000 was deposited and that the defendants are now drawing out the money for their own use. He asks the court to issue an injunction to restrain the defendants from distributing any more of the funds from the banks, and he further requests that an account be given of the disbursements already made.

Attorneys for the plaintiff will ask for the injunction on June 3.

O'Day was examined last Monday on an embezzlement charge made by McMillan, but action was dismissed on motion of C. N. Mozely, who was prosecuting the case.

MAYOR REPORTS RE- CENT CONFERENCE

Mayor Wm. Stark, who at the last meeting of the board, was elected as a delegate from this city to attend the Water Conservation Convention held at Sacramento several days ago, reported last night the convention was largely attended, and the deliberations were very instructive and enlightening. Gov. Stephens presided at the meeting.

EX-MINISTER WITH TWO COMPANIONS BURIES GREAT STORE OF GROCERIES NEAR ORANGE ANTICIPATING THREE YEAR DROUTH FORECASTED IN HOLY BIBLE

ORANGE SHOW IS DISCUSSED BY CHAMBER

Financial Statement Will Be Ready Within Short Time Says Show Chairman

NEXT YEAR'S SHOW

Ten of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce met for the regular weekly luncheon at the office at noon today, not having been in session since May 6, with the exception of an extraordinary meeting with the editors of Southern California last Friday at Oyster Loaf.

Herman Stern, chairman of the executive committee of the orange show, stated that it will be some days before the final bills against the organization have been received and paid, so that no definite balance sheet can be exhibited at this time. The board, on motion of Mr. Camp, seconded by Mr. Adams, and unanimously carried, voted thanks to the executive committee and other officials whose efforts were responsible for the successful show and those present received a unanimous feeling amongst the public, of similar satisfaction, to the way everything was carried out.

Mr. Eyrahard conveyed his special thanks for the fidelity with which the committee carried out its obligations regarding a clean show, especially with regard to its holding on Sunday, May 25.

Dates for the show next year were discussed, but no action was taken. It was decided to retain the carrying out of the next show under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and a meeting will be held soon to receive final reports and recommend what shall be done to start things for 1922. One thing was decided, and that next time the arrangements will be begun at least six months earlier than this year.

HOSPITAL PLAN

Regarding the proposed hospital for Anaheim every director present promised to meet at the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday, May 2, at 7:30 to formulate definite plans.

The American City Bureau, which is giving Anaheim Chamber of Commerce a membership campaign to begin in June, telegraphed for a list of the members so that they can have the contract recommended from the New York office. Mr. Ross, chairman of the committee on industries, reported that there are several very interesting plans on foot on which no report can be made at this early date.

EARL ABBEY WANTS TO GET HIS LOT AS AGREED UPON

Earl I. Abbey, clerk of the superior court, department 2, better known as "In" Abbey because of his oil activities, named himself as plaintiff today in an action against Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spaulding of Taft.

Abbey asserts in the complaint that the Spauldings, who were joint owners of a lot in Huntington Beach, and that they agreed to sell the lot to him for $4000, through their agent, T. B. Talbot.

It is further stated in the complaint that Abbey said the agreed sum minus initial payment of $100, and the interest, and that the defendants have now refused to accept payment and threaten to sell the lot to another party.

Because of the refusal to convey the title of the property in question, Abbey asserts he is damaged to the extent of $10,000.

A loose mouth usually indicates that the owner is tight.

Sheriff Jackson Called to Site Where Food Stuffs Were Buried Only to Find That Men Had Bought and Paid For Huge Amounts of Canned Goods, Rice, Etc.

MEN FOUND TO BE ENTIRELY WITHIN THE LAW

Declaring that the Bible convinced them that three years of drouth were coming in the near future, three men last night explained to Sheriff C. E. Jackson why they buried over two tons of food stuffs and groceries in Santiago canyon.

A Mexican going to work on a ditch being constructed by the Anaheim Union Water Company near Sulphur Slide, saw the trio working in a pasture about 100 yards from the road.

Seeing that they were burying boxes and cans in the ground, he reported what he had observed to William T. Wallop, head of the Anaheim Water Company and in charge of the ditch construction.

Wallop reported the matter to the sheriff's office. On investigation, it was found that over two tons of wheat, beans, rice, and canned goods, hermetically sealed in crude oil and asphaltum, were concealed in the ground.

The articles were packed in boxes and in large tin containers. They were buried several feet deep, covered with corrugated iron and packed down with dirt and grass.

Two automobiles and a truck were required to bring the unmarked boxes to the sheriff's office. Another hole was found later in the day, and the contents were brought in, filling another auto.

By 7 o'clock in the evening the authorities had discovered the identity of the three men. Accompanied by Lester Corwell, Arthur Davis, coroner or deputy sheriff, Sheriff Jackson called at the home of one of the three near Orange.

Recognizing the officers, the man, whose name is withheld by the authorities, said that he knew the purpose of the call and that he could explain the entire situation to their satisfaction.

He exhibited receipts bills amounting to several hundred dollars from several grocery stores nearby, for the food found buried. Considering all these, it was found that the bills were all genuine.

When asked his reason for the strange action, he replied that the Bible had convinced him and his partners that a three-year drouth is coming.

The matter had been talked over between the three parties, and they had decided to take the precaution to avoid going through a possible three years siege of hunger.

The man has been visiting near Orange for several months. He is a former minister, who came to California for his wife's health. The other two members of the "preparation party" are all workers living near the same locality.

Sheriff Jackson stated this morning that he had never been "convinced" with a similar situation, and that he was so peculiar. He declared that on the first examination he was convinced that a huge cache of foodstuffs had been unearthed. A few minutes talk with the examiner demonstrated that the entire affair was a "hoax board."

The owners of the buried treasure came to the office of the sheriff this morning and started out with their possessions again. It is thought that they will make a second attempt to secrete the food where it will not be found.

BILLY KNOTT-GIVES VOICE TO THREAT; AMBULANCE READY

Manager Billy Knott is. He is, yet he is Knott, manager of the Anaheim Elks baseball team. Outside of that he is Knott, the most "pep" of the pop among baseball fans. He has tried several times to play with the team, but good judgment has always prevailed and Knott has not played. Knott used to be a barber, but graduated and is now the fanciest meat cutter in Stroup's market.

The above is by request. The main event in this article (which is paid advertising from the first line to the end of the first paragraph) is the fact that on Sunday, May 29, A. D. 1921, William Russell's "all-star" baseball team will meet the Anaheim Elks baseball team on the Fullerton field.

Two hundred husky voiced fans are going to accompany the Russell players, all attached to Russell's movie studio in Los Angeles. Manager Knott of the Anaheim team, speaking of the crowd coming with Russell, said today, "I ain't nothin'." We have no more fans going over to root for us as we are going to get a permit from the supervisors to rope off the route.

Hughes will pitch for Anaheim and Callan will stop what Hughes throws. Salveson will be ready to go in the box when Hughes gets tired of striking out Russell's imaginary home-run kings.

(Note)—Manager Knott called the editor of the Herald today and said that if the Herald did not give a good write-up announcing the game for Sunday, he would be compelled to "lick the editor." We claim exemption—whipped enough when "we" were a kid. Furthermore, said Knott has no more fans going over to root for us as we are going to get a permit from the supervisors to rope off the route.

Contemplating disability as a result of the exposure of Knott, the Anaheim Herald will "not" publish a newspaper on Monday, May 30, A. D. 1921.

The calm and placid Sunday you read about isn't Billy.

CIVIL WAR RELICS AT GOLDEN STATE BANK ON DISPLAY

Echoes of the Civil War are heard to when one views the display of war relics in the display window of the Golden State National bank. Monday being Decoration Day, the national holiday when all living honor the war heroes of the '60s, is brought to mind in the window display.

The war relics were the property of Sergeant C. S. Troutman of Company O, Sixth Iowa Infantry, who undoubtedly did some heroic deeds, for in the window display is a sword captured by Troutman from a Southern officer.

Other souvenirs of the war are displayed, bullets, and the like. Also interesting is a copy of the Vicksburg Daily Citizen of Thursday, July 2, 1863, which was printed on wall paper. A New Testament that shows hard usage is also displayed, as well as the cap revolver carried through the war by Sergeant Troutman.

An old style picture of the battle of Shiloh April 6, 1862, is also displayed and compared to present day war pictures, is displayed a relic. Photographs of the period of the Civil war, showing Sergeant Troutman in civilian dress and military garb are a part of the display. A stuffed, human eagle is background.

Mr. Troutman is a resident of Anaheim and has been here some years. He is an active and interested member of the local Post of the Grand Army of the Republic and will participate in the Memorial day services conducted by the Post at Anaheim cemetery. Mr. Troutman tells many interesting incidents during the war between the states.

Europe wouldn't remember gratitude so well if she would interest itself in battling aviators.

It wasn't the league idea America objected to, but the idea of a league that sacrificed laid heads.

LADY LOSES PURSE; OFFERS A REWARD FOR ITS RETURN

Did anyone find a lady's black leather purse, lined with blue silk? And did it have a bank book and a check in it? And was there a bunch of keys in it? There were no cough-drops or safety pins or anything like that in it, but there are some valuable keys and papers and the owner wants it as soon as possible and will pay a reasonable reward for its return.

The owner is assistant to the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Anaheim, one of the most active and successfully operated Chambers of Commerce on the face of the earth. In the purse which the young lady left in a local restaurant last night there is nothing of interest to anyone else except a small amount of money.

The finder will please act quickly, and the loser will do the same.

HATTFIELD SUES HARTFIELD FOR ALLEGED INJURIES

A damage suit to collect $5000 from Bernard Hartfield, Anaheim Jeweler, was filed in the county clerk's office this morning by R. Hattfield, fruit peddler, for damage alleged to have been inflicted in an automobile collision, said to have occurred last October.

Hattfield claims that the defendant, Hartfield, drove his car into a horse and wagon owned by the plaintiff, and damaged the wagon and driver to the extent of the amount named.

The accident occurred at the corner of Center and Emily streets in this city, the complaint says.

SUB-CHASER GOING TO BALBOA DURING COMING HOLIDAY

United States Submarine Chaser No. 208, in command of Lieut. House of Santa Ana, will make a visit to Newport Harbor on Saturday afternoon, remaining over Sunday and Monday (Decoration Day), according to assurances which have been received. The sailormen always like to go to Balboa and a round of entertainment is being planned for them, with dancing every afternoon and evening during their stay, including Monday, at the Balboa Pavilion, which will be headquarters for the ship's crew.

Submarine chasers have become a more or less common sight in Newport Harbor, and now people are looking forward to the time a few months hence when torpedo boats and destroyers will be able to enter.

Comment on Today's News By HENRY JAMES

That strikes are spreading in Russia seems to be confirmed. In that land of serene happiness, where, as the world is assured, the workman finds a veritable heaven, and the unwashed and unshorn reign supreme, the toiler is getting unreasonable as to demand a sustaining ration of bread. NEWPORT BEACH IS BEING IMPROVED; SEWER SYSTEM

Actual construction work on the new $360,000 sewer system, contract for which was recently let by the Newport Beach city trustees, is under way with assurance that no time will be lost in carrying the project to completion.

A great many miles of pipe will be used on the job, some of it as large as 20 inches in diameter, and one of the big items of the job is the making of this pipe. Cement pipe will be used, as cement pipe has been found to be most satisfactory, and some of this pipe laid in Paris 300 years ago is still in use.

The pipe-making machinery arrived in Newport Beach this week, and is being installed on a tract on Central avenue at the old gas plant site. Bent Brothers will make the pipe, starting within a few days, and about two weeks later the crews of the Thos. Harvey Company, sewer contractors, will be on the ground to begin digging ditches, laying pipe, making proper connections, etc.

The big street paving program laid out for Newport Beach has been held up, pending the construction of the new sewer system, inasmuch as the streets and alleys must be torn up while the pipe is being laid. As soon as the sewer system is completed, in the course of a few months, and the legal angles of the project smoothed out, a program of street paving will start that will result in the paving of practically every street in the Newport, East Newport and Balboa districts.

The new sewer system is planned to be sufficient to provide for the needs of the city for twenty-five years to come and ample to provide for a very considerable growth during that time.

MISS SCHUMACHER QUEST AT SHOWER

Miss Vera O'Rourke was hostess last night to the Chat en Soir. The time was passed sewing, and at music. During the evening Miss O'Rourke announced to Miss Frances Schumacher that the girls were sure she would be in need of string in her married life, so she was given the end of a string to wind.

After several minutes of this strenuous work she found an electric toaster at the end of the string, a gift from the girls.

Ices and dainty cakes were served by the hostess. The members present were Mrs. H. K. Boyd, Mrs. Ruth Ward, Misses Frances Schumacher, Evelyn and Lillian Desryse, Valie I'emmer, Mrs. Emma O'Rourke and Mrs. Z. Lane.

REBEKAH DELEGATES RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Mrs. Gladys Llewellyn, Ida DeViney, Rosa B. Van Horn and Messrs Bird V. Beebe and John Ohme have returned from Oakland and Santa Rosa where they met to attend the convention of the Rebekah assembly and the Knights of Pythias lodge. While in the north Mrs. Van Horn visited friends at Marysville where she was entertained elaborately by four generations of her family. It seemed good to her to be among her old friends once more. The ladies report a wonderful time at the Rebekah assembly and returned to their local lodge with interesting reports of the trip and meetings. The total mileage of the trip ran close to 1080 miles. The trip was made in Bird V. Beebe's car.

MRS. GRIGGS HOSTESS TO PASTIME CLUB

The Pastime Club members were guests yesterday of Mrs. C. A. Griggs. In the card game Mrs. Markes scored high, Mrs. Morse second, and Mrs. McClellan third. A social hour was enjoyed following the games, during which light refreshments were served.

The ladies present were Mesdames Morse, Markes, C. F. Grim, H. Tufrey, Normandie, Schneider, Dr. James, Ledy, McClellan, Hoskins, S. Johnson, and the guests of the afternoon, Mrs. Ida Williams and Mrs. J. B. Root.

MID-NIGHT CLUB AT HANSEN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen were hosts last night to the Mid-Night Club. The time was passed at cards with the ladies losing to the men in the three month's contest, which will mean a dinner served to the men on June 19. Many plans are being schemed for a good time on that date. Following the games a dainty two course luncheon was served to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Houts, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Martindale and Walter Hansen and Miss Bate.

JUNIOR Y. P. A. TO HAVE MEASURE PARTY

The Junior Y. P. A. of the Evangelical church is planning a jolly time for all of their friends this evening in the bungalow at the rear of the church. As the guests enter the door they will be measured and charged one cent per inch of their height. Other features of interest will be staged, also. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and see what the young people have in store for them.

CHORAL SOCIETY PLANS GOOD TIME

The M. E. Choral society met last night at the church and enjoyed a good practice. There were thirty members present to arrange for the special Memorial Sunday music. Following the rehearsal a short business meeting was held at which it was decided to have a 6 o'clock basket dinner at the church next Thursday evening.

At this time a monthly business meeting will be held and collection of dues will be taken. Every member is requested to be present.

AL FUN CLUB GUESTS THURSDAY

Mrs. Fred Marsh entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of the Al Fun Club. Cards were enjoyed and Mrs. Merton Skinner received the prize of the afternoon. Light refreshments were served at 5 o'clock to the following guests: Mesdames M. C. Goff, Edgar Hartung, O. A. Mullinix, E. L. Olmstead, A. B. McCord, Merton Skinner, Leo Sherridan, Wm. Locke, J. Sellinger and the guests of the club, Mrs. Harry Sears and Mrs. H. E. W. Barnes.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Two magistrates, a man and a woman, laid down a number of rules today to eliminate the devastating influence of selfish actions in married life. Agreeing that half their cases of marital troubles take their result from a lack of domestic "fifty-fifty," the magistrates outlined their remedies as follows:

WOMAN'S IDEA

Magistrate Jean Norris, the first woman magistrate of New York City, says:

1. That the wife get her husband hot meals. Down with delicatessen affairs night after night.
2. Friend husband should dry the dishes where there is no maid.
3. Husband should take wife out at least two evenings a week and wife should allow husband to rest at home other evenings.
4. Wife should pay rent, grocery and butcher bill before she decks herself out and refreshes her home.
5. "In-laws," especially mother-in-law, should not visit the home on holidays and Sundays.

MAN'S VIEW

Magistrate John Koehndorfer would sentence a selfish husband to one or a combination of the following:

1. To prepare the breakfast every morning.
2. To wash the dishes in the evening.
3. To take care of the children one hour a day.
4. To have one evening out a week.
5. To take the family out every Sunday, to church in the morning, and for a walk in the afternoon.
6. To buy candy and fruit for the wife and children once a week.
7. To allow the wife to handle the family finances.
8. To start a savings bank account.
9. To refrain from asking his wife to wait on him, but on the contrary, wait on himself.
10. To repeat every day once at least the promise he made his wife—that he would love, honor and cherish her—when he married her.

Uncle Sam is on the outside looking in because Europe is on the inside looking out for herself.

When statements in any part of the world begin to run about in circles and make queer little yapping sounds one knows that a note has arrived for Mr. Hughes.

Compromise: The act of handing out rain checks.

YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings.

Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs.

Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

RAISES THE QUALITY — LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Cake

THE FURRY-FOOTS SURPRISE THE BIRDS

By JOHN BARTON (Copyright, 1931, by The Associated Newspapers)

THE herons can afford to be fools, because they haven't any enemies to speak of except the terrible goosawk and he's mighty careful to catch them alone. But their poor little kilddeer cousins have learned a lot of sense because everybody picks on them.

While Maltie Kitten and the skunk were cooking their heads over her eggs the unhappy little bird who had laid them flew far off. She just couldn't bear to see them eaten. Her mate came winging up as fast as he could when he saw her circling and crying. "Oh, dee-dee-dear!" she sobbed. "My nest is spoiled, and the chicks were stirring in their shells. I'll have all that weary work of sitting right over again."

From where they flew he couldn't

"And if ever a little bird like me can do anything for you—" he tried to finish.

make out the little gray shape of the kitten. But he could see the white-striped back of Thunderpaws the Skunk and the tip of his wavy tail as he marched along. They were coming so close to Maltie's cabin they could see the cat's hole where they would crawl in. "That's the fellow who did it!" Kilddeer clapped his little beak. "Well, he won't get away—without a good piece of my mind!"

My, but he was angry! His mate watched his wings go flitting off most as fast as the buzzers on a fly. But right over their nest they stopped; he put on his feather brakes so hard he almost turned a tail-rip, like Chalky Jay when he hit the branch in the dusky dark. He felt as if he had hit something. For his eggs were there—He cut a feathered caper that brought his mate "skimming the wind" as the fliers call it. "Kilddeer—ee—er!" she squawked with joy as she cuddled them again. "My eggs! But, why aren't they gone? Why—why—those nice good Furry-foots left them on purpose! How—who ever heard—Kilddeer, you were going to give them a piece of your mind. You just go do it now. Right off. Flap a wing!"

And Kilddeer did it. In seven pats of Maltie's paw he was hovering over them, humming out his thanks. "And if ever a little bird like me can do anything for you—" he tried to finish.

"My tail and whiskers," said Thunderpaws. "If this sort of thing keeps up we'll all be helping each other here like we do at our own pond."

"Oh, that's nothing," mewed Maltie, flicking an ear to show how little it was. "Only now were to be neighbors we might as well be friends. I've come home again to stay."

"Not in the cabin!" fluttered Kilddeer. "You mustn't go there! No! No!"
