WEATHER TALES.

Bijah's Story, the Reporter's Story and the Old Man's Story.

[From the Detroit Free Press.]

As the reporters sat around the stove waiting, Bijah spoke up and said:

"There's half an hour to spare, and I move that we all tell a story."

It was agreed, and biting off another piece of liquorice he began:

"Talk about cold weather! You ought to pass one Winter in Arizona. In the Winter of 1870, which the natives called an open Winter, the weather was so cold that coffee froze on the stove while we were getting breakfast. We had to take a maul and wedge to split butter open, and potatoes put into a red-hot oven to bake, would freeze in less than five minutes.

"Didn't all the live stock in the country freeze to death?" queried one of the circle.

"Well, some did, but we saved a good many horses and cattle. It was a great deal of trouble. We had to pack each animal in a box, cover him with cotton-batting and fur, and then build fires all around the boxes. Even then some of the horses were so frostbitten that their hoofs dropped off, and the poor animals had to be taken up on sheets and taken down into the valleys when Spring came. Some of you may think I'm lying, but the man who says so wants to come down behind the tannery and say it—yes he does. I've lived in this world too long to have any young men cast slurs on my statements."

A REPORTER'S STORY.

After Bijah had been assured that every body in the circle placed the most implicit confidence in his story, a reporter cleared his throat and said:

"I never had much to do with cold climates, but I know how it is in Africa. When I was reporting on the African Dogstar, the leading morning paper in that country, six men had to stand and fan me as I wrote. One day two of the six got into a fight, and the heat was too much for the other four. It melted this left arm right off, you see, and my right leg was saved only by the greatest exertions. I know it looks like a big story, but if any of you doubt my word I'll give you the names of several respectable parties in Africa who can be addressed. But that wasn't called hot weather—not a real hot day. When the sun got to melting the types in the cases, door-knobs dissolved, and awning frames burned like straw, then we had to stay in doors and look out for ourselves. I know of several instances where parties taking aim at rabbits had the barrel of the gun melt before they could fire a shot!"

AN OLD MAN'S STORY.

There was an old man there from St. Clair, a stranger in the city, who had heard of the doings of the Central Station Court, and had come in to see for himself. He had listened very attentively to the other two stories, and after taking a long breath he commenced:

"Gentlemen, you may observe that I am an old man. My locks are as white as the driven snow, my limbs are weak, and it is evident to any of you that I have not long to stay in this world. I speak of this because it doesn't seem likely that I, so near the grave, would tell a lie for the sake of telling a story. No, no; I shall speak nothing but the solemn truth. I was going to speak about snow. The winter I lived in California was a poor winter for snow. There was a great complaint that the crops would be frozen out, and a great many farmers were down-hearted. I was over in Los Angeles County one day hunting, and while going across a plain I came upon a circular hole in the snow, with a ladder leading down. Filled with curiosity, I descended. I went down 267 feet by the tape-line, and then struck the tops of trees. One hundred and fifty feet further down I came upon a village. Sleighs were dashing about, business going on, and everybody looking for a thaw."

HIS HONOR

Came in while the circle were pondering over the story, and the warrant being ready, a poor lone chap was brought out. He was the sole prisoner, and he had called and asked to be sent up.

"Sir, do you suppose I can hoof it down here on a cold morning and open court on one prisoner?" demanded his Honor.

"I'm sorry sir, and as soon as I can strike a job I'll pay all the costs," replied the prisoner.

"Well if you want to go up, I suppose I'll have to send you; but you can't expect to have the cushions put into the Black Maria. Well here you go, and here I go. The boys will load you up."

After the Maria had gone Bijah went softly to the old man and whispered:

"Now do you really mean to say that the snow was as deep as that?"

"Do I" replied the man; "why I didn't strike the deepest spot; I landed on a hill! I suppose the snow was one hundred feet deeper in some of the valleys!"

"And you thinking of coming to Detroit to live?" asked Bijah.

"No."

"I'm glad of that. This town is only big enough to support one great liar, and if you thought of coming here I'd have to move!"

Colonel M. Eyre, Jr., has just imported from the East, along with a lot of fancy poultry, a pair of light brown ferrets, for the benefit of the rats at his poultry ranch. These animals, besides being good for rats, are also said to exterminate squirrels, a quality that should particularly commend them to the California farmer.—Napa City Register.

A REMARKABLE STUMP.—Some thirty or forty years ago there stood in the Lug Meadows, near Morton, a little north of Hereford, England, two very large oaks, about a hundred yards apart. They were massive and lofty trees, and known by the names of "Adam and Eve." They had, however, suffered greatly from storms, had lost many branches, and were perfectly hollow. During a violent storm, "Adam" was completely blown down, and lay for some years after in the meadow. "Eve," too, lost her top, and the whole of her remaining branches, leaving nothing but her immense hollow trunk. This trunk now measures twenty-five feet eight inches in circumference, at five feet from the ground, and thirteen persons are said to have taken tea within it; twenty-one grown sheep, too, have been counted as they came out of it.

When the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway was made, the line included "Eve" in its boundaries, and its hollow bole was at once appropriated as a residence by an economical navvy. The top was evenly sloped off and thatched, as it still remains; a brick fire-place was built in a low opening on the south side, with a chimney beside it, a door was fitted to the east side, and thus it was converted into a "family tenement, compact and convenient." For many months after the line was opened for public traffic this hollow bole actually formed the only residence of the station master. It then became the lamp-room, and was used for this purpose for fourteen years. "Eve" has now been dead for five years, and since 1869 her noble hollow bole has been converted into a stable for a donkey.

A STARTLING METAMORPHOSIS.—Some one who has been viewing the Siamese jugglers says: "One trick which Minhman performed was a very superior version of the mango-tree feat of the Indian jugglers. He took an orange, cut it open, and produced a serpent. This he took down into the audience, and borrowing a robe from one, cut the snake's head off and covered it with the robe. When the robe was lifted again a fox was in place of the snake. The fox's head was cut off, two robes borrowed, and when they were raised, there was a wolf, which was killed with a sword. Three robes and a leopard appeared; it was slain with a javelin. Four robes covered a most savage looking buffalo, that was killed with an axe. Five robes covered in part, but not altogether a lordly elephant, who, when the sword was pointed at him, seized Minhman by the neck and tossed him violently up. He mounted feet foremost, and finally clung by his toes to the capital of one of the columns. Tepada now leaped from the stage and alighted upon the elephant's shoulders. With a short sword he goaded the beast on the head, until shrieking, the unwieldy animal reared upon his hind feet, twined his trunk about one of the great columns, and seemed trying to lift itself from the ground and wrap its body around the great pillar. The music clashed out barbarously. Norodom flashed forth a dazzling firework of some sort, and the elephant had disappeared, and Tepada lay upon the stage writhing in the folds of a great boa constrictor and holding up Minhman upon his feet.

LOCKING-UP THE TOWER.—The locking-up of the Tower of London is carried out nightly at eleven o'clock. As the clock strikes that hour the yeoman porter, clothed in a long, red cloak, bearing a huge bunch of keys, and accompanied by a warder carrying a lantern, stands at the front of the main guard-house, and calls out, "Escort Keys." The sergeant of the guard and five or six men then turn out and follow him to the outer gate, each sentry challenging as they pass with "Who goes there?" the answer being "Keys." The gates being carefully locked and barred, the procession returns, the sentries exacting the same explanation and receiving the same answer as before. Arrived once more at the main guard-house, the sentry gives a loud stamp with his foot and asks, "Who goes there?" "Keys." "Whose keys?" "Queen Victoria's keys." "Advance Queen Victoria's keys and all's well." The yeoman porter then calls out "God bless Queen Victoria." To which the guard responds, "Amen." The officer on duty gives the word, "Present arms," and kisses the hilt of his sword and the yeoman porter then marches alone across the parade and deposits the keys in the Lieutenant's lodgings. The ceremony over, not only is all egress and ingress totally precluded, but even within the walls no one can stir without being furnished with the counter-sign.

AN ARAB LEGEND.—King Nimrod one day caused three urns to be placed before his three sons. One of the urns was of gold, the other of amber and the third of clay. The king told his eldest son to choose among the urns that which appeared to contain the treasure of the greatest price. The eldest chose the vase of gold on which was written 'Empire;' he opened it, and found it full of blood. The second chose the amber vase, on which was written 'Glory;' he opened it and found it filled with ashes of men who had been famous on earth. The third took the remaining vase of clay; he opened it, and found it empty; but in the bottom the potter had written the name of God.

"Which of these vases weighs the most?" demanded the king of his court. The ambitious replied, the vase of gold; the poets and conquerors, the vase of amber; the sages answered and said, the empty vase, because that a single letter in the name of God weighs more than the entire globe.

Petaluma has subscribed $190,000 to the San Rafael and Petaluma Railroad. A preliminary survey of the line has been commenced.

A GHASTLY JOKE.—Some years ago, when cannabalism was in vogue among the South Sea Islanders, an English man-of-war put into one of the Fiji group. Among the party who went ashore, was an assistant surgeon named Ben. Johnson—a fat and perverse person, who was always quarrelling with a young midshipman named Manners. There were two boats, and as the surgeon, who had wandered off from the party when they landed, had not rejoined them when they were ready to go to the ship, they put off without him, but left one of the boats so that he might follow. The captain was annoyed and a little alarmed at their reappearance without Johnson, and instantly dispatched a fresh boat's crew, under Manners, in search of the missing officer. They found his body in the midst of a number of savages, who were just preparing to devour him, but who fled at the sight of the sailors. The poor fellow was not half cooked. A grave was soon made for the undone remains of the unfortunate Johnson, while Manners set up a board to mark the spot, upon which he managed to cut a single sentence with his penknife, unobserved. The captain was shocked on hearing of the dreadful occurrence, and determined to go ashore and take a last look at the resting-place of the ill-starred officer; but when he got a glimpse of the epitaph or inscription on the board he was constrained to turn away to hide his face from all present—for there, in large letters and deeply cut, stood the sentence, "O, rare Ben Johnson."

A MATRIMONIAL SOCIETY.—An attempt has been made in Philadelphia to organize a matrimonial help society similar to those established in Europe. The society is to be divided into divisions, each division containing one thousand members. The divisions are to be sub-divided into three different classes, according to the ages of the members, and the amount of monthly assessments. The society proposes to accept any lady or gentleman, between the ages of fifteen and fifty years, of a respectable character and a good repute, as a member, upon paying the initiation fee and monthly dues, according to the class entered. On the expiration of one year members become beneficiary, and on getting married they receive a sum of money adjusted to them in the rules. Each member is assessed for every marriage that occurs in the division to which he belongs for the benefit of the member getting married, or in case of death for the benefit of his heirs.

HORTICULTURAL ORNAMENTS.—"One of the prettiest objects I have ever beheld," writes a correspondent, "is a spruce cone filled with sand and grass-seed which sprouted and grew out of the scales. It is now as large as a cocoa-nut with the husk on, and of the most vivid green color. The grass grows with a luxuriance that is remarkable. To produce this charming specimen, the cone was baked in a stove oven till the scales opened out equally. It was then carefully filled with equal parts of sand and grass-seed, a string tied to the top, and the whole suspended in the dark, in a jar, with water enough to come half way over the cone. In a week it was placed in the sunlight, when the seed sprouted rapidly, and in a month filled a gallon jar completely. It has been taken out and hung in the window. Every morning it is thoroughly soaked in milk-warm water."

Talmadge gives a recipe for keeping times hard: Let everybody talk depressingly. When anyone fails in business, put it all in the papers. Let business men keep up perpetual complaint. Let us have occasional editorials inciting bread riots, and political speeches on the wrongs of the laboring classes. Let everybody prophesy a hard winter, a very hard winter, an awful hard winter. Let us all talk down instead of up. Let us take no account of the fact that flour is cheap, and that the harvests are large, and God is good. We shall in this way be able to take another faggot from the poor man's hearth and knock another pane of glass out of his window, and hinder the manufacturer from employing him. All together now—ministers, editors, capitalists and laborers—let us give a long, deep groan, and keep it going till next spring, and the times will be as hard as we could reasonably expect.

S. M. B. Haley, a professional borer of artesian wells, estimates that there are 1,000 wells of this kind in San Francisco, some good and many indifferent in quality. The artesian wells at the Palace Hotel yielded every drop of water which has been used in the construction of that colossal edifice. The Grand, Occidental, and Lick hotels have artesian wells, as have also a number of manufacturing establishments. A number of artesian wells which have just been sunk beyond the Mission Woolen Mills, and near the creek, have a very strong flow yielding from 4,000 to 6,000 gallons of water an hour.

There are 133 convicts in the Nevada State Prison, which Governor Bradley says in his message is an increase of nearly 100 per cent. over the previous two years. He does not, however, put this fact down to the discredit of the State, but attributes it to greater vigilance in the detection and more earnest zeal in the prosecution of criminals. A greater number of arrests and convictions take place now than ever before.

An old farmer gives it as his candid opinion, after many years of observation and experience, that the arrival of a circus will do more towards enforcing the Fourth Commandment than a dozen Sunday-schools.

Three men have been badly, possibly fatally, injured by the fall of a staging in the Palace Hotel.

Anaheim Gazette

GEO. C. KNOX .... EDITOR.

SATURDAY......JANUARY 16, 1875.

EVERYTHING was created for some good purpose, even the much-abused mosquito. And Dr. Samuel W. Francis is the man who has found out all about for what purpose the mosquito was created. He says that the liquid, injected hypodermically by it, contains the principal of quinine, and was sent by Providence as an antidote to the fever which arises from marshy and mosquito-infested districts.

THE President advised in his last annual message that the number of Justices in the United States Supreme Court be increased. This idea meets with considerable opposition however; and it has been suggested that "other and more practical means of lessening the burdensome duties" of the Bench be adopted. As, for instance; considering a set of clients as banditti, and turning them over to the tender mercies of Sheridan.

GENERAL, Chief Engineer, and Mr. Dodge of Iowa who, when he was wanted to testify before the Credit Mobilier No 2 Investigating Committee, gave evidence of the appropriateness of his name, by living in a Pullman palace-car in a cañon on the Pacific railroad, is at Washington again. And as his object appears to be to tell Congress what he knows about railroads generally, and the Texas and Pacific in particular, it has been suggested that he include in this information what he knows about the aforesaid Credit Mobilier.

RESOLUTIONS, protesting against the change in school text-books made by the State Board of Education, were adopted by Sacramento Grange at a recent meeting. It has been suggested that each and every Grange take the subject in hand, and by united action practically annul the edict of the School-board by postponing the change until the Legislature can afford relief. It is a question of dollars and cents—this change of school-books, affecting the pocket of every Granger more or less directly. And we believe that the above idea is well-conceived and worthy of consideration.

AMONG some of the prominent men of the United States who regard the military interference in Louisiana as the establishment of a precedent, hostile to the continuance of a Republican form of government, are Secretaries Fish, Jewell and Bristow, of the Cabinet, Wm. Cullen Bryant, by age and excellence the head of the American literary world, Wm. M. Evarts, a jurist of world-wide celebrity, and Thurman, of Ohio, one of the few U. S. Senators, who has never had his fair fame called in question, and an acknowledged leader in the Senate. Among the supporters of the Administration are Attorney-General Williams, who spells public expenses l-a-n-d-a-u, and Ben Butler who—but then everybody knows Bottled-up Ben.

CAPT. W. T. GLASSELL, whose health has for some time past been much impaired, contemplates an extended trip along the Central Pacific Coast, and is now engaged in winding up his business matters in order that he may enjoy to its full extent the rest, which he finds necessary to the re-establishment of his health. As the agent of Messrs. Glassell & Chapman, the original owners of the tract of land, now known as the Orange settlement, Capt. Glassell has contributed in a large measure to building up this section of the county, and we know of no man, prominently before our community, whose loss will be more severely felt. We trust however that this loss will only be temporary, and that our future may yet be benefited by his good counsel and experience.

SUPERINTENDENT PECK has furnished us with a copy of the apportionment of the County School Fund, which we publish in our local columns. This apportionment has been made upon the basis of the actual number of census children in each school district and provides funds for the support of a teacher for each one hundred children and fractional hundred over fifteen. A good illustration of the workings of this system can be found by comparing the two school districts of Santa Ana and Anaheim. Both districts are entitled to the same amount of money, the first having 216 census children, and the other a few less than 300. In Santa Ana 25 children in daily attendence is a very large estimate, whilst in Anaheim the average for the entire school year of 1874 was 120. These are not exceptional instances of the injustice, which is inflicted by this method of apportioning the school funds; they can be found in almost every school district in the county, where the American element preponderates. However, the fault must not be laid to the door of our worthy Superintendent of Schools, who is only discharging his duty according to the letter of the law. It must be ascribed to its proper source, and must be numbered among the many other unwise acts of our late Independent Legislature.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAYS.

It is rumored that the Texas & Pacific Railway relief bill, now in the hands of a Congressional Committee, will cause to be made several important changes in the original route, which will affect seriously the future interests of San Diego, and to some extent those of Los Angeles county also. A certain section of the bill authorizes the Texas & Pacific Company to purchase or lease the property and franchise of any other corporation now authorized to construct a railroad over any portion of the route from the Colorado river to San Francisco. This evidently refers to a possible purchase or lease of the Southern Pacific Railroad and strongly indicates that the first objective point on the Pacific Coast will be San Francisco. Another and accompanying bill, introduced by Houghton, authorizes the "Southern Pacific Company to connect its main line with the branch from Tehachepa Pass to Los Angeles by constructing a railroad and telegraph line from a point on the branch road near San Bernardino, via Cajon Pass, to a point near the boundary line between Kern and San Bernardino counties." This clause of the bill, to which we refer, shadows out the main San Francisco line of the Southern Pacific Railroad, the purchase of which is contemplated by Col. Scott, as passing directly from the Colorado river to the present terminus of the Southern Pacific in Kern county; whilst the Southern Pacific, retaining possession of the Soledad and Cajon Passes by means of a branch line, making a detour through Los Angeles county, effectually shuts off the Union Pacific Company or any future railway organization from an approach to any point on the Pacific Coast. This little programme, if successfully carried out, will kill three birds with one stone: It will monopolize all the trans-continental routes, except the Northern Pacific; it will place the Union Pacific Railroad at the mercy of the Central Pacific; and it will prevent the Pacific Mail Steamship Company from competing with the new China and Japan line of steamers, either at San Francisco, San Diego or Wilmington.

As far as we can see, there is only one "if" in the way of the accomplishment of the project, which has been briefly outlined above. And that obstacle is the Los Angeles & Independence Railway. The western terminus of this road is on the shore of the Pacific Ocean, and its eastern terminus will, no doubt, be Callville on the Colorado river, connecting thence by a projected and partially completed railway with the Union Pacific at Ogden. Its active friends are the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, the Union Pacific Railway and its own President, Senator Jones, of Nevada. And to this number should be added entire Southern California; for without its services and active opposition the Southern Coast counties stand in a fair way to be more completely placed under the power of a monopoly than was ever any other portion of the State.

SCHOOL BOOK CHANGES.

The recent meeting of the State Board of Education was one to which a great deal of public attention had been attracted, and the results of which cannot fail to create great dissatisfaction on the part of the people. The chief fight centered upon the change of Readers. Bids were submitted by A. L. Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco, J. Morton & Co., of Louisville, Kentucky, and Wilson, Hinkle & Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, the publishers of McGuffey's Readers now in use. Bancroft's bid which was accepted, was as follows: They agree to supply the Pacific Coast series of Readers for use in California for the following prices: First Reader, 20 cents; Second Reader, 35 cents; Third Reader, 55 cents; Fourth Reader, 60 cents; Fifth Reader, $1; these prices to hold good in San Francisco for the space of four years after the adoption of the books, and also agree to make a reasonable discount in favor of the trade. The firm will exchange any of the books of the series for any of McGuffey's series, without additional cost, provided the books offered for exchange are in serviceable condition for continued use in schools, and accompanied with certificates from the teachers of the various schools that each book sought to be exchanged is the property of the person offering it, and was used in the school designated in each certificate. They also agree to establish one or more depots for supplies in each county of the State and that each depot shall be kept open for the sale and exchange of books until such time as the use of the books becomes mandatory. Prof. Bolander, State Superintendent, made a vigorous resistance to the change. He read the following section of the school law: "If no proposals are received as required in the preceding section, or if the books proposed to be furnished are inferior in contents, or in binding, paper, typography or press work, or to be sold at a higher retail price than the books already in use, then the books already in use must be continued in use." He claimed that the Pacific Coast Series were inferior in contents, in binding, in paper, and higher priced than McGuffey's, and read remonstrances from a number of Granges, in which all protested against the change as being unwise, unjust, injudicious, and entailing a heavy and unnecessary expense on the people of the State. After several hours of heated discussion a vote was had with the following result: For the change: Messrs. Allen, Denman, Kelly, Kennedy, and Lynch. Against the change: Messrs. Crawford, McMeans, Bolander and Booth. Prof. Bolander had spread upon the minutes a protest against the change as contrary to law. The Spencerian system of penmanship was adopted. The present system of mathematics was continued. Monteith's geography was thrown out and Cornell's substituted.

LAND SALE.

CENTINELA COLONY!

6 Miles from Los Angeles.

The Home of the Orange and Lemon!

AUCTION SALE

—OF—

Town Lots

—AND—

5, 10, 20, and 40 acre Farms.

Will Commence on

Monday, Feb. 15, 1875,

At 12 o'clock, M.,

And continue FIVE DAYS. The sale will take place on the Rancho. Parties desiring to purchase SHOULD BE ON THE GROUND a few days prior to the sale, in order to EXAMINE THE PROPERTY.

Title.

United States Patent.

Situation.

"Centinela," with the addition of the "Sausal Redondo," contains 25,000 acres. The boundary of the Rancho commences three and a half miles from the city limits of Los Angeles, and extends to the Pacific Ocean.

Topography.

"Centinela" is made up of one broad, level, fertile valley of over twenty thousand acres, and beautiful, fertile rolling hills near the Ocean.

Soil.

The soil is an exceedingly fertile loam, and is, without exception, the richest and most productive in Southern California. Its vicinity to the ocean insures a crop without irrigation. Excellent wheat has been raised for the last two years upon the hills adjoining the ocean. This wheat field contains 1,000 acres and covers the lightest soil upon the Rancho. There is no alkali or barren land.

Semi-Tropical Fruits.

There are a few bearing orange and lime trees upon the Centinela, and the fruit they produce is of the largest and finest quality. There is an orchard containing 6,000 orange trees three years old, and 1,700 almond, lime and lemon trees. The almond, lime and lemon trees will bear fruit in 1875. The orange trees will bear in five years. There are 7,000 three year old orange trees in the nursery near the orchard. Fig, pepper and gum trees grow without irrigation. The entire orchard can be taken care of by three men with six horses. The orchard will be kept undivided by the Company, to save the expense of each shareholder having a few trees to take care of. Each share will entitle the owner to about 15 trees in the orchard and about the same number in the nursery. The almond, lime and lemon trees will yield an immediate return. In five years each orange tree will produce $20 per annum, or $300 per share for those now planted. There are flowers in the garden in bloom every day in the year.

Sheep.

A flock of about 14,000 sheep will be kept undivided to save expense to the shareholders. This will give about 30 sheep to each share. The sheep will produce an increase and wool over $2 each, yearly, over expenses. They will be grazed upon outlying and unsold lands of the company. The "no fence" law is in force in Los Angeles county.

Climate.

The climate of the "Centinela" is without exception the finest and most equable in the world. It varies but little throughout the year. The mean temperature is about sixty degrees. The mercury falls but little below sixty degrees in winter, and rises but little above sixty degrees in summer. You sleep under one pair of blankets and with your bed-room window open every night in the year.

Agriculture.

The soil of the "Centinela" is admirably adapted for all kinds of grain, vegetables and fruit.

Water.

The Centinela creek rises upon the Rancho and runs through the northern portion of the tract. It affords an abundance of clear spring water. The source of the Centinela creek consists of several natural artesian springs, showing that artesian water can be obtained by boring.

The Town.

A square mile is laid off at an eligible point on the tract, with lots 25x140, avenue 100 feet, and streets 80 feet wide. A stream of water can be brought in so as to supply every lot with crystal, cool, sweet water.

Provision will be made for a College and Farm school.

A large lot will be set apart for each religious denomination. A block will also be given for the erection of a large hall by the different Fraternal, Grange and Temperance societies.

Fare.

Parties desiring to visit the land should take steamer from San Francisco to Los Angeles; fare, $12. By inquiring at Temple & Workman's bank, in Los Angeles, they will be directed to the Rancho. Apply to

WM. H. MARTIN,
GENERAL AGENT,

California Immigrant Union, 534 California Street, San Francisco, between Montgomery and Kearney streets, to TEMPLE & WORKMAN, Bankers, or Gen. SHIELDS, Los Angeles, or O. L. ABBOTT, Corresponding Secretary State Grange Immigrant Aid Association, Santa Barbara.

P. S.—A second sale will take place on the Rancho, commencing on Monday, the 8th of March, 1875.

Further particulars will be furnished by the officers and directors of the Centinela Land Company, of Los Angeles who are: F. P. F. Temple, President; F. P. Howard, Vice President; J. S. Slauson, Los Angeles County Bank, Treasurer; J. M. Griffith, of Griffith, Lynch & Co.; Gen. J. H. Shields; O. W. Childs; D. Freeman, on the Rancho; W. H. J. Brooks, Secretary.

Postponement.

AT a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Centinela Land Company, January 5th, 1875, it was

RESOLVED, That owing to to the inability of the surveyor to complete the surveys and prepare the necessary maps of the subdivisions of the Centinela Ranchos it is expedient to adjourn the sale of the lands of the company from the 18th day of January until the 15th day of February, 1875.

By order, W. H. J. BROOKS, Secretary.

—Conrad is building an addition to his saloon, which has been leased to Menzel. A bagatelle table will be added to the furniture. Menzel opens to-night with a free lunch.

—Heald's College Journal for January contains a list of students who graduated at the last term. Among those mentioned we find the name of Fred. Rimpau, of Anaheim, a whilom type-slinger on the GAZETTE.

—The artesian well on Mr. Chapin's farm in the Lone Tree settlement is now down 189 feet. Artesian water was obtained at a depth of 180 feet but the flow was light, and it was thought advisable to go deeper in search of a larger stream.

—We had the pleasure of a call yesterday afternoon from Prof. Chas. Snyder, who came to us with a letter of introduction and commendation from our esteemed friend, Rev. W. H. Hill, of Los Angeles. It is the intention of Prof. Snyder to give a musical and literary entertainment during the coming week.

—Mr. Wm. Pridham, Superintendent of the Southern Division of Wells Fargo & Co's Express, will make purchases or fulfil any commissions in Los Angeles that may be entrusted to him free of charge. Express freights between Anaheim and Los Angeles have been reduced from $2 00 to 75 cents per 100 pounds.

—Among our Los Angeles friends, out on the first train from that city, were Brodrick and Dr. McDougal, Wm. Pridham of Wells Fargo & Co, and last but not least, genial "Joe" Huber, who by-the-bye, came down expressly to have inserted that double-column "ad" of Swigart & Huber's tin establishment.

—The farmers, living in the proposed Cajon Water District, met in Enterprise Hall on last Saturday in accordance with the call which had been made. As they had had already petitioned, however, to be organized under the Bush Act, they adjourned to meet at the polls on the sixth day of February.

—We would call the attention of our news-agents to the circular of Jno. J. Valentine, General Superintendent of Wells Fargo & Co's Express. It states that arrangements have been perfected by the Express Company, whereby newspapers can be carried at the same rates as are charged by the United States Postal authorities.

—Preaching at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday-school at 10 A. M. At the conclusion of the morning service there will be an ordination and installation of elders. Topic in the evening, "The trial of Christ before every man".....Divine service will be held at Enterprise Hall at 11 A. M. by Rev. Mr. Loop of San Gabriel.

—It is not an extraordinary sight to find ripe walnuts in our walnut orchards at this season of the year. But what is a rare sight, and what can be now seen in Mr. Langenberger's garden on Sycamore street, are green walnuts just forming from the bud. And the thermometer calls for thirty-eight degrees below zero in some of the Eastern States.

—At a meeting of the First Presbyterian Church, held last Sabbath after morning service, the Church decided to adopt the term service of elders, instead of services for life. The term of office will be three years. The following arrangement was adopted for this election: Mr. P. C. McKinnie, the present elder was chosen for three years, Mr. Alex. Bailey for two years, and Mr. Jas. B. Raine for one year; subsequent elections to be for three years.

—We had been under the impression hitherto that John Gilpin was an Englishman, but it is not so; he is a Down-East Yankee, and he's at present in Anaheim. He came full tilt down Centre street on Thursday afternoon, holding on to the knob of his saddle in the old approved style, and opposite the hotel his gallant steed exhausted feil. Why he, the said John Gilpin, didn't get his brains knocked out is too easy a conundrum to put to an intelligent public; everybody knows the answer.

THE FIRST TRAIN.—According to announcement the first regular train over the Anaheim Branch of the Southern Pacific Railroad made its appearance at Anaheim Depot a short while after eleven o'clock on Thursday morning. And ready to receive visitors and guests, who were expected, were quite a number of private turnouts, whilst the regular coaches from the livery stables were on hand to accomodate the travelling public. Owing to the fact, not having been known in Los Angeles that on Thursday would be the first regular trip, the number of sight-seers was not so large as it might otherwise have been. However enough came to show that railroad communication with this section was an item of interest elsewhere, and Centre street for a couple of hours put on quite a metropolitan appearance. We understand that there will be an excursion train from Los Angeles on to-morrow week.

Plain Questions for Invalids.
Have the routine medicines of the profession done you no good? Are you discouraged and miserable? If so, test the properties of the new Vegetable Specific, Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, already famous as the finest invigorant, corrective and alterative, that has ever seen the light. Dyspeptics and persons of bilious habit should keep it within reach, if they value health and ease.

THAT FIRE.

A touching story is told of a woman whose husband, a sea captain, was unconverted, and for whose eternal welfare she had been, during long years, agonizing in secret prayer. They spent their lives happily together on the ocean, rich in each other's love, and enjoying both the stormy and the sunny moods of the waters, and sights and scenes of many lands. He respected the piety of his wife, but she could not persuade him to share with her the possession of that pearl from the signet ring of the All Father, which is the only amulet of safety on either the waves of time or of eternity; the only passport "through the gates into the city; the only assurance of anchorage by the shore of the crystal sea." Feeling a strong "impression" that it was important for him to take part himself in religious exercises, she proposed that instead of her both reading the Bible and leading in prayer as she had been accustomed to do, he take the lead in the reading portion of the exercises. He cordially acceded to the request. Soon the light of "that fire," which has been the breaking of the morning of eternal life to many millions of souls, burned on that floating family altar often far at sea, but alway drifting nearer and nearer to "the throne that is high and white." The years passed brightly on then; how brightly, those only can know, who have learned by a blessed experience patiently to labor, and to pray till the promise of Him who has said, "ask and ye shall receive," is fulfilled. As the orders for husband, and then for wife, came, to "heave anchor" for the long voyage, "that fire" on the altar had made all things ready.

Christian wives, mothers, sisters, the call may be at midnight for unconverted husbands, sons, brothers, to "go out and meet the Bridegroom." It may be that some of you can profit by this beautiful example. "He reads and I pray," were the words in which she described the hallowed means she took to put the hand of a dear one on the "clew line" that led him out to the light, and through the pearly gate. The memory of "that fire" on the family altar in the home of the days of youth has been the "light in the window" for many a wanderer, whose feet were swiftly speeding to "outer darkness." The clods of the valley may cover the graves of father and mother, but they cannot curtain from the memory the sweet and holy influences of "that fire." Woe be to us if we fail to kindle it or to keep it burning.

Sherman's opposition to allowing California gold note banks to increase their circulation up to 90 per cent. of their deposited bonds is based solely on the conviction that the margin of security proposed is not sufficient to secure holders of their circulation.

The people of New Hampshire are not proud, but seem perfectly willing to allow the janitor of the State-house to use the basement of that structure for a hennery, and he is accordingly doing a flourishing business in the poultry line.

An energetic lady in Olwein, Iowa, laments her inability to vote. "Why if I were a man," she said recently "I'd go to the polls if I had to be laid on a feather bed, placed on a stone boat, and hauled by a blind ox with one leg broken, but I'd vote! But what's the use of talking?"

DR. RADWAY'S
SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES; SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumous Discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins. Price, $1.00.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent

BEVERLY, MASS., July 18, 1869.

DR. RADWAY:—I have had Ovarian Tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the Doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried every thing that was recommended; but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it; but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for twelve years. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, and one box of Radway's Pills, and two bottles of your Ready Relief; and there is not a sign of tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel better, smarter, and happier than I have for twelve years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish it if you choose.

MEDICAL

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

The Great Renovator

A certain cure for Rheumatism and Mercurial affections, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Liver and Kidney complaints, Female Weakness, and all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood.

Contains no Mercurial or Poisonous Substance.

THE strongest will find this preparation a searching cure. It may be taken by the most delicate with impunity, and the remarkable success attending its use warrants the proprietors in claiming it as the Most Reliable Blood Purifier in use.

Its gentle action renders it remarkably efficacious in Dyspepsia and Constipation, giving the organs the assistance needed and imparting a tone and strength that soon dispenses with artificial aid.

Put up in quart bottles. Sold by all dealers.
