

ANAHEIM GAZETTE

VOL. VI.

ANAHEIM, CALIFORNIA, MARCH 18, 1876.

NO. 27

LIGHTNESS OF HEART.

All men should cultivate a disposition of cheerfulness and lightness of heart in the pursuit of their various avocations, and should school themselves to look upon the sunny side of every question, encountering all things with quiet equanimity. The daily wear and tear of the mental and physical systems is infinitely more serious in him who works with discontent than it is with the man who rises above petty vexations and trivial annoyances, so as to treat all with composure. The mind has more to do with this thing we call bodily fatigue than is usually supposed. Take the school-boy "creeping like snail, unwilling, to school," and subject him to any considerable exertion in which he does not willingly interest himself, and he will soon be broken down with real and genuine exhaustion, while on the other hand, if you will put into his hands a gun and start him hunting, he will range the woods and climb the hills, and strain every muscle, all day, without feeling wearied at all. The horse or dog trained in fox hunting will race over every kind of ground with unflagging energies, when the same efforts without the stimulant of their spirits being enlisted, would break them down in half the time. A grain of sand or other slight impediment may cause a mighty engine to damage itself and do inferior work, and the same is true with regard to the marvellously intricate machinery which constitutes the human organism. Let every man tread the inevitable path with a will, and if he has been in the habit of viewing it with discontent, he will find that disinterested spectacles are great magnifying glasses; that however "stale, weary and unprofitable" the world is, it is probably the best the majority of us will ever get, and so we should make the most of it.

YESTERDAY we dropped into water a piece of the white heart-shaped candy, such as generally has some love-motif upon it, in order to practically test how much of it was sugar. When, six or eight hours afterward, we looked at it again, we found that a large portion of the piece had not dissolved or quit its former heart-shape, but was still at the bottom of the glass like so much mud. Now it is certain that all the sugar which had entered into the ingredients of that candy was held invisibly in solution by the water; and the conclusion was forced upon us, that what remained at the bottom was foreign matter which had no business in the candy or in the human stomach. We were prompted to this experiment by the recollection of having once read that large quantities of white earth or, as it is called, alba terra, are annually imported from Ireland and elsewhere for the manufacture of some kinds of candy, and that there are "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" in its making, of which the thoughtless consumer does not dream.

WE called upon Mr. Hinson, who was treasurer of the former City Government, and asked him to furnish us the amount of payments shown in his books to have been made by the city. We were kindly given the following data. His official records embrace from Sept., 1870 to July, 1872. During that time, the expenditures recorded on his books reach the sum of $2,527.99. He has on hand, in his official capacity, $30.79 belonging to the city. The city warrants unpaid, amount to $360. The property of the city corporation consists of the jail and lot, the chairs, table, desk, etc., and an interest in the utensils of the Hook and Ladder Company. This statement is made that the people may judge for themselves as to what the former incorporation cost, and to correct the impression that it amounts to even much more than it appears to have really done; and, in that regard, it is but a mere matter of justice to the gentleman officially connected with the former incorporation that we should give the facts shown by the books.

WE saw yesterday half a dozen boys badgering a Chinaman, who was passing down Los Angeles street; and were the more impressed with the hoodlums of their actions, by the good humor with which John bore their kicks and rudeness. If the men would only exert themselves in the all-important matter of the repelling of the Chinese wave of immigration with as much zeal of hostility as that which animates the gamins of the streets, one very serious political peril would soon cease to annoy reflective people.

CALIFORNIA LANDS AND PEOPLE.

It is estimated that of the lands of this state, 60,000,000 acres are fitted for the purposes of grazing and agriculture—23,000,000 consist of mountains, clothed very extensively with heavy timber—10,000,000 of plains and deserts altogether unproductive at present—3,000,000 of swamp and overflowed land; and the balance of 4,000,000 acres, is covered with lakes, rivers and other permanent water. What an imposing panorama of natural advantages does this summary afford! When we consider the actual population and the improvements, made by the hand of man, in this state, and compare them with what might be and will be, the present pales before the brilliant future. The capability of development in every way, and the immense area of territory which will be some day the home of prospering millions, proves that California is in the babyhood of its destiny—but that infancy is the infancy of Hercules, who strangled monsters while still in his cradle. California is like a magnificent banquet table covered with every luxury, at which there are sitting a few hundred bloated dyspeptics, who have eaten so ravenously of the central dish (land), as to have spoiled their digestions without enjoying their appetites, and they still tug at the dish to pull it nearer to them, and keep off the rank and file. At other parts of the table there are other choice dainties, some of which have near them men who attempt to discourage those manifesting a disposition to approach, and in many other cases some of the richest viands have not been noticed, but nearly always it is found that those who perseveringly and skillfully endeavor to get their share, receive it. Many, however, stand away with their backs against the wall and swear at everything Californian, and say, "We came here thinking that this was a free-lunch table, where all we had to do was to eat, drink and be merry, and now we find that we have not only to encounter some difficulty in getting at the good things, but we have to carve it ourselves, and do such a country to—anyhow."

GOVERNMENT LANDS.

We have good reason to believe that there is much more good government land open to settlement for homesteads and pre-emption, than the people in charge of the land office in Los Angeles will disclose. We have good reason to believe, and do firmly believe, that they observe a systematic policy of reticence about giving information, when applied to for it by men wishing to become bona fide settlers; and that they do this for the purpose of extorting pay for information, to furnish which is their official and paid duty. We believe that they can be bought by the highest bidder as easily as one may purchase a horse at auction. It seems now to be the order of the day to bring to light the malfeasances in office of those clothed with a little brief authority, and while all are watching the developments from Washington, we will remind them that nice love to nibble the forbidden cheese, as well as the full grown rats, and that while gigantic fraud has been running its course in the centre of government, the pigny footsteps of some of our local talent have been bent in the same direction. This is written without animosity to any one, and merely on the principle enunciated by Sydney Smith when he said, in speaking of some impostor he was denouncing, "I hunt him not for glory, but for utility as a Dutch burgomaster hunts a rat in a German dyke, for fear he may flood a province." We know that this article will cause a denial, since that is always the resource of a malefactor before and even after conviction, and we are prepared to receive it with quiet contempt. If they adopt the reasonable plan of refuting these charges by making us prove their correctness or pay the penalty, we will do our best to unearth the full extent of the "rotteness in Denmark."

A Benicia man, the other night, dreamed that he was the chief of the Moctezcas, and getting up in his sleep he procured a large cheese knife, gave an ear-piercing whoop, and removed his wife's hair with as much neatness and dispatch as if he had been a persecuted Jew man from his birth. It was a fortunate thing for his wife that her hair was hanging on the back of a chair and not on her head.

Santa Ana Items.

Regular Correspondence of the GAZETTE.
Mr. C. E. French informs us that he will be a transient guest of Dr. Ellis, of Anaheim, until his residence is finished, which is to be erected near Santa Ana. Mr. Evans, the contractor, showed us the plan of the house, which he drafted, and it bids fair to rival the palatial residences of Messrs. Layman, Palmer, Fruit and Andrews. At the same time, he showed us the draft or plan of the new $5,000 school house, which has been adopted by the Board of Trustees. It will be a model of architecture, and will prove of great use, as well as an ornament to our town. The building will be 43x51 feet in size, two stories in height, each story containing two rooms, each room 23x32 feet in the clear. The tower from base to summit will be 70 feet in height. Our trustees cannot be too much praised for their discrimination in selecting Mr. Evans' model over all other competitors. It is to be hoped that they will be equally as fortunate in their selection of a builder.

Mr. Silver, your eloquent pleader before the bar, was in town on Saturday, waiting for a Chinaman, who falling to put in an appearance, he telegraphed to know the reason why, and received for reply that there were not enough officers in Anaheim to bring him, which disgusted our friend, who declared that he was going to Orange, where they had officers not afraid of a Chinaman.

Deputy Sheriff Barham was also in town on Friday, and created quite a panic among some of our squatters. He says that he is going to Orange, where they had officers not afraid of a Chinaman.

By the way, our believers in Douglas assert that the reason that Thom & Ross are so virtuously indignant about people squatting on the Rancho Lomas de Santiago, is that they have been retained by Irwin, Flint & Co. "I wonder if that ain't it?"

R. R. Darby, formerly Supt. of Public Instruction of Yolo County, has bought property here, and proposes to make this place his home. He says he was in Anaheim on Thursday, and it snowed and hailed while he was there, and he wanted to know if we had such things here. We told him, and that we thought he must be mistaken, as the Gazette didn't say anything about it.

We would advise some of the would be "blue-blooded" of this part of the country to pause, as their genealogy might be traced back as far as some of the "F. E. V.'s" were to a penal colony.

Bishop Mosser informs us that the public school of Newport started last Monday; S. McPherson, teacher.

We have examined a synopsis of Mr. McConnell's Bill, regulating the practice of medicine and surgery in this state. That the community at large should demand a law protecting them from charlatans and pretenders, is an undoubted fact. That the bill, in its provisions, should not bear with as heavy a hand on the honest, educated practitioner as on those who have neither spent money or time to acquire a medical and surgical education, is also a fact. By one of its provisions, it requires a holder of a diploma to pay as much for its examination as they do of a man the Board of Examiners have to examine, who is not a holder of a diploma, and who has to pass or ought to pass before them, as rigid an examination as the diploma holder. We do not see how it can be so provided for, what constitutes a respectable medical college? We find of several men in this state, who are practicing medicine who obtained their diplomas in diploma mills in Philadelphia, viz: Paine's "University of Philadelphia," and Buchanan's "Medical College of Philadelphia." Those who charters were revoked by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1869 because they were convicted of selling diplomas for money.

Will respectable practitioners, graduates of respectable colleges, have to stand on the same level with these men? The best argument we have seen in favor of the bill is that all the quacks, homeopaths, eclectics and pretenders of all kinds are renouncing against it. Imperfect as the bill seems to us now to be, for the above reasons and the fact that the public should be protected from these vampires who prey upon poor, credulous humanity, we are in favor of the passage of the bill.

Santa Ana, March 13th, 1876.

The charming contrast of colors in the different shades of the green hills and plains and the snow-covered Sierra Madre, which crowns our landscape, create an impression of beauty, upon the most prosaic mind. Our mountains are more imposing than the pyramids. Napoleon said to his soldiers in Egypt, "Forty centuries look down upon you from those pyramids," and no doubt the poor fellows temporarily forgot their hardships in embarrassment at being gazed upon by so many centuries, but we say to ourselves, "Grizzly bears look down upon you from those mountains" and look at the thought affrightedly around to see if there are any Henry rifles handy.

Nero fiddled while Rome was in flames; and the Los Angeles Herald exults over the fall of Col. Tom. Scott's application for aid in the Texas Pacific Railroad. History will repeat itself. Santa Monica Outlook.

Los Bozias Grant.

The Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Post, writing under date of February 25th, has the following in reference to the Los Bozias grant:

It is shown by records in the land office that in 1754 Governor Pedro Fages made concession of lands contained within certain metes and bounds, May 22, 1824, Governor Jose Figueroa confirmed the application and issued the grant. As is the case with all these Mexican grants, neither the original claimant nor even his grantees, have any interest in the case now. The son and son-in-law each presented the claim before the Land Commission, and the courts finally decreed to them and their assigns one-half each. The portion represented by Yorba was filed before the Land Commission October 20, 1852, confirmed by them September 26, 1854. By the United States District Court February 17, 1857, appeal was dismissed March 4, 1858. Survey was made of the whole grant, and this undivided half was patented June 19, 1874. The other half of the undivided controversy was filed before the Land Commission November 6, 1852, rejected by them February 13, 1855, but Judge Ogier confirmed it February 17, 1857. In the survey 38,400 4-100 acres were taken. The original papers call for the channel of the Santa Ana river as its eastern boundary, but the Santa Ana river as it runs now, and makes it run forty or fifty years ago. In that space between where the Santa Ana river ran in 1854 and where it runs today, are 35 sturdy farmers with well cultivated farms, and who are now the owners of the land. The survey was made to conform to the original bed of the Santa Ana river.

HOW IT STANDS.
The question of survey is upon appeal before the Land Office. Latimer and Morrow for the land-claimants and Thom and Ross for the solid yeomanry of the land. The Commission has today substantially decided that he cannot go back of the contradictory decree of the court in the undivided one-half; that the settlers should have made objection to the former survey, under the act of 1850 falling in that, they are now estopped. It can now be seen that the Secretary of the Interior, but will probably meet with the same decision there. We have carefully looked into the matter, and can find no fault with the latter survey. The decree of court, final survey, approval and patent to a whole grant, of which this is only an undivided one-half, affords a question which is not from all others in the whole State.

The settlers will now have to settle with the grant owners or commence an action in equity before a competent court. The case is now before the Supreme Court of the United States, which will probably decide in favor of the settlers.

The Committee of Investigation of the Commercial Bank report the assets, including cash, at $51,449.96; liabilities, $37,409.05; in gold, currency, $2,108.43. The total stock subscribed, $1,020,000. Cash paid, $114,742; stock notes, $21,374; net liabilities, two dollars and a half per share.

Two hundred thousand dollars of Los Angeles county 8 per cent. bonds have been placed here at par. These are the subsidy bonds issued to the Southern Pacific Railroad.

A large fire broke out in Dock Square last evening, and destroyed two blocks and considerable stock. Loss, $80,000. A more serious conflagration was avoided by the desperate exertions of the firemen. The fire originated in the fourth story of No. 20, occupied by Lappen & Co., wood and willow dealers, whose loss of stock is $20,000. The flames spread to the adjoining buildings. Various stores were damaged by fire and water.

Advices from Selavonian sources report that the Turks were defeated on Monday. Losses, 1,000 killed and many wounded. Count Andranis has instructed Baron Rodick to proceed again to the insurgent army.

Great excitement prevails in Brussels over the discovery of an extensive falsification of the National Bank there. It appears that six million francs have been embezzled by clerk in the bank. A man of respectable appearance, supposed to be the guilty party, was arrested to-day on the steamer City of Paris, at Queenstown, as the steamer was ordered leaving for New York.

The Mark Lane Express to-day says that English wheat is firm; supply small; old sales closed at a shilling advance on the week.

SACRAMENTO, March 11. The Assembly met at 11 A. M., the Speaker in the chair.

The bill incorporating the town of Anaheim, Los Angeles county, was considered under suspension of the rules and passed.

Assembly bill preventing hogs or goats from running at large on lands in the State was ordered engrossed.

Archer, from the Committee on Corporations, reported back to the House the Assembly bill incorporating the city of San Diego, stating in his report that the Committee had found it impossible to adjust the local differences involved, and therefore recommended a reference to the delegation from San Diego. The bill was so referred.

Berry, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the Senate bill

BY TELEGRAPH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11. A petition signed by the Mayor, Eugene L. Sullivan, Horace L. Davis, A. S. Halliday, and other prominent citizens, has been presented to James L. McKim, asking him to allow the laying of the corner stone of the monument to Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner," on the Fourth of July next, at Golden Gate Park.

Judge Drivdale to-day refused to grant a divorce to Geo. H. Mixon against his wife, Sarah. The plaintiff says that his wife is eternally truant, and was irritating the life out of him. The Judge ruled that these were not good grounds for legal separation. This is the first decision on these points and henceforth the point that there is no law preventing a man being taken to death will be firmly established.

LONDON, March 11. The Times correspondent of the Times calls attention to the change made in the title of the Chief of the Cabinet in the official list of the ministry. M. Du Omarre is announced as President of the Council, not Vice-President, which has been the title of his predecessors. The correspondent continues: President McMahon will henceforth govern constitutionally and will no longer preside over the cabinet. The correspondent continues: The cabinet will be composed of men to whom his having assisted in framing them.

Some journals advocate the holding of an International Exhibition in Paris in 1878.

WASHINGTON, March 10. The Executive, Legislative and Judicial appropriation bill contained a provision abolishing the office of Superintendent of Internal Revenue, which meets with the unanimous approval of the officers of the Government.

BROOKLYN, March 10. The attorneys for Rubenstein have everything prepared to make application early next week before the Supreme Court for a writ of error and a stay of proceedings. The brother of Sarah Alexander, the murdered girl, has received a letter from his aged father in Russia, urging his son to make a sacred vow not to rest until the murderer of his daughter is punished, and offering to supply him with the necessary funds.

The Union League Club, claiming to represent and believing they truly express the sentiments of Republican voters, declare that in view of the recent exposure of corruption and fraud in the administration of public affairs, the welfare of the Republic, as well as of the country, demands a searching and thorough investigation of the conduct of every branch of the public service, to the end that all corrupt parties may be brought to light and that all who have abused and betrayed their public trust, may be exposed and punished. That the exigencies of party as well as the country, at this time, demand a President who shall be deservedly recognized as a reformer as well as a Republican.

The Committee of Investigation of the Commercial Bank report the assets, including cash, at $51,449.96; liabilities, $37,409.05; in gold, currency, $2,108.43. The total stock subscribed, $1,020,000. Cash paid, $114,742; stock notes, $21,374; net liabilities, two dollars and a half per share.

Two hundred thousand dollars of Los Angeles county 8 per cent. bonds have been placed here at par. These are the subsidy bonds issued to the Southern Pacific Railroad.

A large fire broke out in Dock Square last evening, and destroyed two blocks and considerable stock. Loss, $80,000. A more serious conflagration was avoided by the desperate exertions of the firemen. The fire originated in the fourth story of No. 20, occupied by Lappen & Co., wood and willow dealers, whose loss of stock is $20,000. The flames spread to the adjoining buildings. Various stores were damaged by fire and water.

Advices from Selavonian sources report that the Turks were defeated on Monday. Losses, 1,000 killed and many wounded. Count Andranis has instructed Baron Rodick to proceed again to the insurgent army.

Great excitement prevails in Brussels over the discovery of an extensive falsification of the National Bank there. It appears that six million francs have been embezzled by clerk in the bank. A man of respectable appearance, supposed to be the guilty party, was arrested to-day on the steamer City of Paris, at Queenstown, as the steamer was ordered leaving for New York.

The Mark Lane Express to-day says that English wheat is firm; supply small; old sales closed at a shilling advance on the week.

SACRAMENTO, March 11. The Assembly met at 11 A. M., the Speaker in the chair.

The bill incorporating the town of Anaheim, Los Angeles county, was considered under suspension of the rules and passed.

Assembly bill preventing hogs or goats from running at large on lands in the State was ordered engrossed.

Archer, from the Committee on Corporations, reported back to the House the Assembly bill incorporating the city of San Diego, stating in his report that the Committee had found it impossible to adjust the local differences involved, and therefore recommended a reference to the delegation from San Diego. The bill was so referred.

Berry, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the Senate bill concerning the office of District Attorney of the county of San Bernardino, and authorizing the Board of Supervisors of San Bernardino to levy a tax to pay a debt contracted by building a court house in said county, recommending the passage of both bills.

A bill for the relief of James V. Marshall, the discoverer of gold in California, giving him the sum of $150 per month during his life, was passed by a vote of 43 yeas to 33 nays. Lamborn voting no, and McConnell aye.

The bill for the relief of General J. A. Sutter, giving him an annuity of $250 per month, was ordered engrossed by a vote of 35 yeas to 23 nays.

McConnell's bill enabling the trustees of Spring school district, in Los Angeles county, to raise a sufficient sum by taxation to furnish the necessary additional school facilities for said district, and authorizing the corporation of the city of Los Angeles to issue bonds for building a main sewer in said city, and to provide for their payment, were passed under suspension of the rules.

Adjourned until Monday at 11 o'clock.

In the Senate yesterday, Laine's bill requiring personal signatures to all newspaper articles, was taken up. The introduction made a lengthy argument in its favor, after which it was placed on the file for Monday.

The bill which provides for a State Detective Force was considered at length, McGarvey strongly opposing it.

Edgerton reported the bill and it was passed. It provides for the appointment of a Chief of State Detectives, at a salary of $3,000 per annum, and two deputies, at $1,800 each. Detectives are to pursue criminals in all possible ways and have the power of Sheriffs and Constables throughout the State.

In the Assembly, Archer introduced a resolution that no bills be introduced in the Assembly after the 20th day of March. Laid over one day.

A dispatch from Red Bluff says that guns were fired there night before last in honor of the Governor's veto of Lewis's Tahoma Academy bill. This was Lewis's measure by which future generations were to bless his name, according to a local newspaper.

The intelligence has reached here that Grand Island levee is broken, and the fine crops there will be destroyed. At recess to-day, Farley, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, had not reported on the Archer bill. As he has been absent all the morning, it is presumed he is at work on his report.

WASHINGTON, March 11. The bill admitting New Mexico passed the Senate by 35 yeas to 15 nays.

The Grand Jury of the District of Columbia have dropped the contest of Belknap's case, for the present, at least, because they have not sufficient evidence on which to base an indictment. If they take it up again, it will be on newly discovered evidence.

The Committee on War Department Expenses met this forenoon, but there being no witnesses in attendance they adjourned till Monday.

Cassell and Berry, of Philadelphia, will be examined to-day.

The following telegram was agreed upon at a Cabinet meeting to-day, and has been sent from the War Department:

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, March 10. Commanding General of Department of Texas, San Antonio:—

The Acting Secretary of War directs that you prevent any revolutionary movement from our side, and also all military expeditions in aid of the revolutionists, and all violations of neutrality; also, arrest and disarm any troops who may cross from Mexico. Acknowledge the receipt of this. (Signed) EDWARD TOWNSEND, Adjutant General.

Santa Monica Items.

The Santa Monica Outlook has the following:

We notice that our citizens generally continue to plant and improve their grounds.

The range of the thermometer for the past week has been from 43 to 89 degrees.

An effort is being made to raise funds to build an Episcopal church in Santa Monica. The subscription list, we understand, will be headed by a liberal gentleman with the handsome sum of $250. We have also heard of others who will give liberally. The church edifice is to cost about $4,000.

There are $400,000 in treasure in the vaults of the Bank of England, and if Cooper were alive to-day he might exclaim once more: "England, with all thy vaults I love thee still!"

"There" said a young man to his companion from abroad as they were walking along Kearney street yesterday, "see that fellow there? Three months ago he came to this town, without a cent, and he is a capper for one of the biggest gambling halls in this place, and his face is as good as gold at any bank. He'll be a Supervisor of an American city, if they don't send him to the Penitentiary before his time."

"Your visits remind me of the growth of a successful newspaper," said Uncle Jabez, leaning his chin on his cane, and glancing at William Henry, who was sweet on Amelia.

"Why so?" inquired William Henry.

"Well, they commenced on a weekly issue to be twice weekly, and now become daily, with a Sunday supplement."

"Yes," said William Henry, bracing up, "and after we were married we will issue an extra."

"Go—h—h," said Angelina, and then they went out for a stroll.

One of the great features of the Philadelphia Exposition will be the engine in machinery hall. It will supply the power for all the machinery in a building covering seventeen acres of ground. It has the capacity of 2,500 horse power, and will cost when completed, $750,000. American mechanics will be proud to show that engine to their European neighbors.

The San Luis and Santa Maria Valley Railroad Company has mortgaged its road, including wharves, rolling stock, franchises, etc., to William F. Babcock and John Rosefield, of San Francisco, for the sum of $120,000, payable August 1st, 1877. The rate of interest is 10 per cent. per annum, payable monthly. If default is made in the payment of any one month's interest, and it remains unpaid three successive months, foreclosure may be made in accordance with the terms of the contract. The mortgage covers 21 pages of legal cap.—San Luis Obispo Tribune.

A casual acquaintance—One made at a railroad snaphop.

When a certain woman in town speaks of her "late husband," you must not say that she is a widow. Her husband is living, but he never comes home until midnight.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen," said the showman, "just step this way. Here's the 'orned hunk,' and here's the 'lick,' and the 'hunk'."

Why is a dishonest bankrupt like an honest poor man? Because both fail to get rich.

The most magnificent coat ever known to man of the six hundred and fifty-eight soldiers who were discharged during the war on account of losing their voices, exactly six hundred and fifty-eight of them regained their voices within forty days after their discharge, and some of them within forty minutes.—Detroit Free Press.

He got home about half past two on Wednesday morning, and after entering the house with much more effort than if he had been a burglar, standing thoughtfully and gravely with a bank vault, through the intercession of a nitro glycerine cartridge, placed his watch outside the door to be blacked, and put his boots under his pillow, after carefully winding them up. His wife burst into tears and remarked reproachfully: "O, Reuben! you have forgotten your pledge, and have been drinking again." "O, no, my dear," he replied sleepily, "your 'simplification'! Wazzinton's birthday yesterday, byer dawn's early light, fader of his country, and all that sort of thing. Feller had some cherry brandy made from 'dentical cherry tree Wazzinton cut with his ill hash. Wat was patriot like me? I do, eh? Centennial!—O, no, my dear, I do."

Feller offered me some cherry brandy. I cannot tell a lie: I took it in my ill lumber. "Rah! Feller Wazzinton's banister. 'My country, 'tis of thee, and he fell into a sweet sleep, with his hat on and his necktie under his right ear."

"The Cow.—If civilized people were ever to lapse into the worship of animals, the cow would certainly be their chief goddess. What a fountain of blessing is a cow! She is the mother of beef, the source of butter, the original cause of cheese, to say nothing of shoes, hats, top hats, and upper leather. A gentle, amiable, ever yielding creature, who has no joy in her family affairs which she does not share with man. We rob her of her children, that we may rob her of her milk, and we only care for her that the robbery may be perpetuated.—Household Words.

"LET THE PEOPLE ARISE IN THEIR MIGHT."

The Greek term from which we get the word idea, means a man who does not vote at elections; and the phrase "he does not know beans" has a somewhat similar origin, though by no means used to designate a man of bewildered and smoky mind, who has not clearness of mental vision about anything. A word or a phrase is the crystallization of a thought and the meaning conveyed to the reflective mind by these two derivations is a very speaking one. To the Greeks it was paradoxical for a man to be other than foolish if he took no interest in the affairs of public life, and he who had not enough manhood and individuality about him to entertain decided opinions in politics was thought to be incapable by nature. Homer calls words "winged." This simple one idea is full of interest and suggestiveness, as is full of significance as an egg is meat—it is like a Balaamian soul in a Lilliputian body.

It is the duty of every good citizen and conscientious man to do all that lies with reasonable exertion in his power to counteract that which is evil in the public concerns and to auxiliatize that which is worthy.

It was the custom in Rome, in the days of its national integrity, to decree intines of great peril, plenipotentiary powers upon the consul during its continuance, and this decree was always made with the injunction that he exert himself, "the republica nili quid detrimenti esset,"—lest the State should suffer some sort of harm. A citizen of a government like ours, every institution of which is subject inherently to abuse, and the more especially because of the money-worshipping tendencies of the times—a citizen of a republic, the finest theories of which are based upon an impossible Utopia—should feel this same injunction pressing upon him, and should recognize it as a constant obligation to see that so far as he can prevent, to detriment befall the land.

If all worthy men would look from political lethargy and restlessly bestir themselves in the cause of the right—earnestly apply themselves to the task of winnowing the wheat from the chaff of professional politicians—the flush times of these fleshpots—the chariot-wheel would cease as they would retire before descending men, as quickly as the Indian sinks into obscurity and oblivion before the advancing wave of the superior white race. Then merit and not grog-house popularity and money, would win the day. The fable of the fly and the chariot-wheel says that once a fly perched himself upon the hub of the wheel, and as he sat there, going onward rapidly he exclaimed in the pride of his heart, "Oh what an admirable creature I am! What a dust I raise and how fast I go!" The wheel overhead and the slopiness and repelled, "Know, insignificant little creature, you are but a trivial and a useless thing, and have no part in the deeds you arrogate to yourself!" Let the mass of the people in elections and in the influence they daily exert, strive continually for good men and true, and the change will soon be felt. The black sheep that creep in will be weeded into good behavior and the people, asserting their manhood, will show the world that corrupt officials are not fair representatives of the public sentiment, and our countrymen in Europe will no longer feel the national shame which English newspapers say now causes the Americans there to hang their heads.

Let us publish today the fact of the Legislature having granted to Jas. Marshall and Gen. J. A. Sutter for every month of their lives the respective sums of one hundred and fifty and $250. The giving of these large pensions is an unjustifiable piece of Don Quixotism. It is easy to make Fourth of July speeches and pass Buncombe resolutions about such men but the offering of opportunity for school-boy declamation, is no reason why the people should be heavily taxed to support the subjects of it. The question resembles that which arose when long ago the Greeks and the South American republics supplicated the armed intervention of the United States authorities in their favor against the governments whose sway they were striving to shake off. This occasion called forth a great deal of flowery rhetoric and many a studied gesture and fanciful quotation; but John Randolph of Roanoke, together with others, declared that however appealing the circumstances were to them as individuals, they had no right, as representatives of the great body of the people, to embark in such utter knight-errantry, and the assistance was refused. So far as these two gentlemen are concerned, they may be men of a thousand virtues, without the legal and logical aspect of the affair being altered in the least.

We are glad to see in the San Bernardino papers the announcement that the woolen mill there is nearly completed, the material being all on the ground. It will be operated under the superintendence of Mr. Sacriste.

A CENTENNIAL REPRESENTATION.

The people of California should not hide their light under a bushel. There is an opportunity for some of our farmers to advertise the magnificent resources of this locality without expense on their part of a dollar. The following explains itself and we recommend that it be given special attention:

LAND OFFICE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, SAN FRANCISCO.

The Land Department of the Southern and Central Pacific Railroad companies are preparing to place on exhibition at the Philadelphia Centennial specimens that will illustrate the products of the railroad land and other lands on this coast. Agents of the company are requested to forward such specimens as they can conveniently obtain.

Contributions from farmers, mine superintendents and others, are gladly received, and due credit will be given for all articles so furnished which are placed on exhibition. Samples of articles enumerated below will be of special interest.

Grains of all kinds, both the kernel and the sheaf, with stalks of full length, including roots.

Fruits of all kinds, fresh, preserved in alcohol, and dried.

All kinds of vegetables will be required in due time, of the crop of 1876. Almonds, walnuts, etc., giving the age of the tree and kind of soil.

Castor beans, olive oil, with specimens of the oils, hemp, cotton, ramie, soy root and lupine.

Tobacco and hops.

Wool, goat hair, fur and skins.

Specimens of the products of the localities from which they were taken, and remarks on their adaptability to different products.

Minerals, ores, coal, peat, clay, borax, salt, etc.

Building stone, brick, cement, etc.

Wines, brandies, etc.

Shells, fossils and antiquities.

All specimens should be marked with the name of the locality and full address of the owner, and should be accompanied, if possible, by a short description. It would be of especial interest if with specimens of grain or other agricultural products there be sent a description of the kind of soil where the same were grown, the mode of cultivation, the time of planting and harvesting, the yield per acre, etc.

The cooperation of all who feel interested in making a successful exhibition of this kind is respectfully requested.

B. B. THOMAS, Land Agent.

NOTE: The attention of agents on the Los Angeles division is called to the above circular, and their cooperation in the objects set forth is expected. They are hereby authorized to forward free such articles or samples as they may collect.

Consoling the letter to S. P. R. Co., care of B. B. Redding, Land Agent, San Francisco, via Wilmington, per Goodall, Nelson & Perkins, S. Line.

E. E. HEWITT, Sup't.

ON the 10th, in the course of the debate in the State Senate, upon the Signature bill, Mr. O'Conner having the floor, Mr. Lewis, of Tehama, said:

"I wish to propose a question to the Senator from Nevada."

O'Conner—"Propound ahead."

Lewis—"Did the Senator ever know such a radical set of newspapers as we have in California?"

O'Conner—"I will answer the Senator. I consider the press of California as able and as honorable as that of any other state in the Union."

This insulting language on the part of Lewis with regard to the newspapers of the State, is a strong reminder of the old English couplet,

"No thief did ever the labor draw, Without a word of the law."

This man Lewis (with a little l) has been notoriously exposed by the newspapers of the State as being shamefully destitute of moral principle; and has been shown to have, in two cases, been guilty of attempting rape. No wonder then that he feels bitter towards those who have caused the finger of scorn and contempt to be pointed at him. The press is the expression of the public voice. While there are individual cases of unscrupulous and dishonest abuse of its powers, those instances are the rare exceptions, not the rule. In uprightness and propriety of action, lies not only its duty, but the essential to all permanent success. The prosperity of a newspaper is a cardinal corrupt, can never be more than transient, spasmodic and unnatural, and bears the same relation to a newspaper in moral health, as the withering, contorted action of a corpse under the influence of galvanism, does to the steady, composed existence of a living body.

It has been said that the civilization of a household can be correctly estimated from the quantity of soap which is used in it. The advancement of a community can certainly in this way be measured by the excellence of its schools, and the importance which the public mind attaches to them. To be negligently and saving in that, is like giving your children mouldy flour to make their bread, because it costs less than the good—is like poisoning the fountain from which they drink. The minds of even grown-up persons are much wrought upon and influenced by their surrounding. No money will be wasted in erecting large and spacious buildings, and in furnishing them with all the scientific and literary apparatuses which will contribute to making attractive the studies in which the children are engaged. With the proper appliances, a competent teacher can make chemistry and natural philosophy more absorbing than any romance, and more wonderful than any fairy tale.

THE INTELLECTUAL AND THE MORAL.

The utter downfall of Belknap through his dishonesty of administration and the well-known fact that the majority of the officials at Washington are quaking, last the specter of investigation next lay bare their rotteness, should increase in the minds of the people at large the apprehension of the dignity of virtue and the transient character of that gratification which is bought at the price of one's rectitude. Anything which invests villainy with merited contempt, and elevates the people's appreciation of the beauty of moral excellence, is a thing of public good—the thousands that have been wrung from the tax payers by these penitents, will have been well spent if they have gone to purchase that valuable lesson. The people should awake to the fact that "what glitters is not gold," and that nothing is so grand as not to pale its brilliancy when brought in contrast with the superior dignity of simple, upright manhood. Well indeed would it be if all could realize that there is no satisfaction, no happiness, so great as that which springs from self approving conscience. In the midst of his integrity-bought splendor the possibility of these revelations must have hung over Belknap's head like the sword of Damocles, and made his life what Shakespeare calls "a golden sorrow." Mental brilliancy is the gift of nature, and not the product of a man's own will; but no man's worth, the far more admirable quality, is attainable by all. A chaotic mass of instincts and impulses are inherited by a man when he comes into the world, just as a shapeless block of marble is given to the sculptor—from these each must produce the statue. This is the great life-work—the intellectual qualities are of but secondary importance, as the pedestal, upon which the representing statue—the moral—is to be placed, and while the loftier the pedestal, the more attention is attracted to both, the real quality of the statue is in no way dependent upon it.

Apportionment of State School Fund.

The County School Superintendent has apportioned the State School Fund to the several school districts of Los Angeles county, as follows:

| District.              | School Fund. |
|------------------------|--------------|
| Alameda.....           | $ 834 32    |
| Anaheim.....           | 1,584 58     |
| Artesia.....           | 181 06       |
| Azusa.....             | 280 12       |
| Bog Dale.....          | 1,182 30     |
| Bolsa Grande.....      | 431 16       |
| Cajon.....             | 181 06       |
| Calhoun.....           | 955 22       |
| Chahuenga.....         | 982 56       |
| Duarte.....            | 450 06       |
| El Monte.....          | 1,013 72     |
| Elizabeth Lake.....    | 142 36       |
| Flower View.....       | 380 46       |
| Garden Grove.....      | 181 06       |
| Green Meadows.....     | 544 26       |
| La Brea.....           | 372 62       |
| La Puente.....         | 989 02       |
| Little Lake.....       | 181 06       |
| Los Angeles.....       | 12,865 92    |
| Los Nietos.....        | 1,002 02     |
| Malibu.....            | 483 76       |
| Malibu.....            | 505 28       |
| Newport.....           | 877 22       |
| Ocean View.....        | 411 66       |
| Old Mission.....       | 861 62       |
| Palmdale.....          | 2,300 46     |
| Panorama.....          | 532 56       |
| Rowland.....           | 1,467 58     |
| Santa Anita.....       | 1,107 32     |
| San Antonio.....       | 857 72       |
| San Dimas.....         | 384 37       |
| San Fernando.....      | 1,029 32     |
| San Gabriel.....       | 1,125 32     |
| San Jose.....          | 955 22       |
| San Juan.....          | 1,022 22     |
| San Pasqual.....       | 376 56       |
| San Pedro.....         | 1,185 32     |
| Silver Lake.....       | 1,014 92     |
| Sylmar.....            | 435 06       |
| Temple.....            | 1,008 32     |
| Verona.....            | 385 72       |
| Wilmington.....        | 1,107 32     |
| Wilmington.....        | 1,064 42     |
| Total School Fund..... | $17,844 52  |
| Library.....           | 2,155 00     |
|                        | $20,000 52  |

The amount apportioned to the Los Angeles County, as follows: Artesia, Cajon, Flower View, Garden Grove and Little Lake, each $31; Los Angeles, $12,865 92; and all other districts $20 each.

THOS. A. SAVON, County School Sup't.

Downey City Items.

The Los Nietos Valley Courier furnishes the following items:

It really seems as if our rainy season is to be a long one. Tuesday night it poured down all night, Wednesday was a rainy day and Thursday the clouds occasionally threatened rain.

Section second provides that "Each of said Supervisors shall receive the same compensation for services rendered under this act, as is now paid him for the performance of the other duties of his office."

What advantage there is to be gained by having five road commissioners in this county instead of one, as formerly, may be apparent to the author of the bill, but it is certainly not very clear to ordinary comprehension. A man is or ought to be chosen to the office of Supervisor on account of his ability to legislate upon the affairs of the county. Hereafter candidates for that office must not only be competent to legislate upon county affairs, but must also be skilled in road making.

Not is the requiring of two such opposite duties from the same man, the most objectionable feature of the bill. This law opens a bonanza for fraud and corruption to any Supervisor who is willing to develop it. Each supervisor district is a small principality in itself, with hundreds of miles of road in it. The bill provides that the Supervisor shall receive the same pay for services as Road Commissioner, that is, he paid him for the performance of his duties as Supervisor. The pay of a Supervisor is $2 per day and 20 cents mileage one way. Every time the Commissioner visits any part of his district to superintend work, he can collect mileage. As there is no limit fixed to the amount of travelling he is to do, he can put in all his time traveling, if he chooses to, and collect mileage for it. It is the duty of the Board of Supervisors to pass upon all bills and accounts for road work, bridge building, etc. In the discharge of their duties as Supervisors, they must pass on their own bills presented for services rendered while acting as Road Commissioners. It is more than likely that every male between the ages of 21 and 30 shall pay a road poll tax of $2. The Road Overseer is to collect this tax, and pay it over to the County Treasurer. For collecting this tax, he is to receive 15 per cent, or 30 cents of the two dollars. Under the old law, the persons subject to this tax could work it out on the roads; under the new law they are compelled to pay it in money. This is unjust; many of our farmers who live on county roads can put in their tax in work much better than they can pay it in money, and as they are especially interested in keeping the highways in good repair, the work they would do would be better done than under the contract system that will prevail now.

The man who drafted this law might better have employed his time in discussing States Rights, concurrent resolutions, press gag laws, or some of the many important measures of like nature, that have engaged the attention, and consumed the time of the present Legislature.

Take this law, all-in-all, it is a bad one, and the sooner it is removed from the statute books, the better for the people of the county.

J. M. GUINN.

On Saturday afternoon, Lindsey introduced into the Senate a bill to amend the Act separating the office of Auditor from that of County Recorder, and to regulate official salaries in the counties of Fresno, Tulare and Kern. Passed.

The motion to reconsider the passage of the detective bill was defeated. The county of San Diego was struck out of the list of counties for which the act of amending private property in San Bernardino and San Diego counties, and it then passed.

WASHINGTON, March 13. Postal changes have been made in the following offices: Discontinued—Montevideo, San Diego county, California; Wambaw, Tulare county, California. Postmasters appointed—D. French, at Poway, San Diego county, Cal.

WASHINGTON, March 14. Timothy A. Phelps has arrived here to oppose Wigginton's bill, which provides for judicial proceedings on the question of the correctness of the Pulgas rancho survey.

Francis L. Cooley was to-day appointed Gauger for the First District of California.

SACRAMENTO, March 11. In the Senate, the Archer bill and other bills on the same subject were made the special order for Thursday at 11 A. M.

Piercer's bill for limiting the grounds for divorce was amended by striking out section 6, and was passed by a vote of 25 to 11.

McGee's bill for amending the law relating to the sale of land, and Congress to prevent discrimination on fares and freights, was, on motion, referred to the San Francisco delegation.

Shirley's bill appropriating $200,000 for the erection of workshops and prison buildings at San Quentin, passed under a suspension of the rules.

McGee's bill for amending the law relating to the sale of land, and Congress to prevent discrimination on fares and freights, was, on motion, referred to the San Francisco delegation.

The following bills were passed: The Assembly bill providing for the distribution of school moneys in the State.

The Senate bill appropriating $200,000 for rebuilding the work-shops and prison buildings lately destroyed at San Quentin.

The bill regulating contracts on behalf of the State in relation to building, making it a felony for contractors to exceed the amount of money appropriated in their operations.

In the Assembly, the following bills were passed: An Act to incorporate the city of San Luis Obispo; an Act amending the City and County of Los Angeles to provide for the sale of the property of San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara, approved March 15, 1874.

A bill introduced by McConnell, authorizing the Mayor and Council of the City and County of Los Angeles to issue bonds for the purpose of providing funds for the erection of public houses. Referred to the delegation.

San Francisco, March 13. The House of Representatives reported against Mr. Young's amendment relative to the constitutionality of any State from appropriating money for the support of sectarian schools, Swan, McConnell, Arner, Hayne, Jenkins, and Crutch, signing the majority report.

We have imported this week 43,428 lbs. of general merchandise.

Yesterday morning ice of considerable thickness was found in this locality.

Dr. Cochran, of this place, has been sent to the Napa Insane Asylum, under the charge of his brother. It is not true, as reported, that he attempted to kill one of his children.

The Doctor's malady is of a mild type, and with proper medical skill it is hoped that he may be fully restored to reason.

Our exports for the present week have consisted of 1,321 bbls. corn, 312 bbls. 50s spuds, 5,283 lbs. 140s barley, 13,441 lbs. 36s sks beans, 4,294 lbs. merchandise, 335 lbs. Total, 18,588 lbs.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific railway will start on its pleasant mission on or about the 15th instant, and pay employees two months wages.

A spelling match took place last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. E. J. Baldwin. It will happen every two weeks. We suggest Ekaterinburg, Michilimackinac, Machyneth.

The numerous friends of Mr. Perkins the enterprising tobacco grower, will be glad to know that he is still improving, and we hope to see him about in a few days.

It is estimated that California produced in the past season, 20,000 boxes of raisins. The United States import about 900,000 boxes annually, so it will be seen that there is no likelihood of overabundance of raisins in California.

Mr. Benjamin Gunning some time since presented the report of the city of Liverpool with $294, upon which a wag wrote, "A good B. Gunning."

The Baltimore man's flying machine is not an overwhelming success. Virginia has refused to let it pass in the case of the grave; but a German chemist has obtained ferrocyanide of tetrahydrazine by saturating ferrocyanide of potassium with tetrahydrazine hydrate—and that is some consolation anyhow.

A profane young man describing the looks of a newly-arrived M.C. from the Far West, as he appeared at Washington depot, says: "He looked as if he had come all the way across the continent on the hurricane deck of a mule."

A Memphis prisoner, who hated to see two lawyers disgrace the courtroom by fighting, walked out, and was unfortunately enough to get lost. He has not been heard of since.

In speaking of a clerical friend who possesses a very rubicund countenance, some one said, the other day: "I don't think he drinks; in fact, I know he does not, for he has told me so; but he probably sleeps in a bed with very red curtains."

BY TELEGRAPH.

SACRAMENTO, March 12.

On Saturday afternoon, Lindsey introduced into the Senate a bill to amend the Act separating the office of Auditor from that of County Recorder, and to regulate official salaries in the counties of Fresno, Tulare and Kern. Passed.

The motion to reconsider the passage of the detective bill was defeated. The county of San Diego was struck out of the list of counties for which the act of amending private property in San Bernardino and San Diego counties, and it then passed.

WASHINGTON, March 13. Postal changes have been made in the following offices: Discontinued—Montevideo, San Diego county, California; Wambaw, Tulare county, California. Postmasters appointed—D. French, at Poway, San Diego county, Cal.

WASHINGTON, March 14. Timothy A. Phelps has arrived here to oppose Wigginton's bill, which provides for judicial proceedings on the question of the correctness of the Pulgas rancho survey.

Francis L. Cooley was to-day appointed Gauger for the First District of California.

SACRAMENTO, March 11. In the Senate, the Archer bill and other bills on the same subject were made the special order for Thursday at 11 A. M.

Piercer's bill for limiting the grounds for divorce was amended by striking out section 6, and was passed by a vote of 25 to 11.

McGee's bill for amending the law relating to the sale of land, and Congress to prevent discrimination on fares and freights, was, on motion, referred to the San Francisco delegation.

Shirley's bill appropriating $200,000 for the erection of workshops and prison buildings at San Quentin, passed under a suspension of the rules.

McGee's bill for amending the law relating to the sale of land, and Congress to prevent discrimination on fares and freights, was, on motion, referred to the San Francisco delegation.

The following bills were passed: The Assembly bill providing for the distribution of school moneys in the State.

The Senate bill appropriating $200,000 for rebuilding the work-shops and prison buildings lately destroyed at San Quentin.

The bill regulating contracts on behalf of the State in relation to building, making it a felony for contractors to exceed the amount of money appropriated in their operations.

In the Assembly, the following bills were passed: An Act to incorporate the city of San Luis Obispo; an Act amending the City and County of Los Angeles to provide for the sale of the property of San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara, approved March 15, 1874.

A bill introduced by McConnell, authorizing the Mayor and Council of the City and County of Los Angeles to issue bonds for the purpose of providing funds for the erection of public houses. Referred to the delegation.

San Francisco, March 13. The House of Representatives reported against Mr. Young's amendment relative to the constitutionality of any State from appropriating money for the support of sectarian schools, Swan, McConnell, Arner, Hayne, Jenkins, and Crutch, signing the majority report.

We have imported this week 43,428 lbs. of general merchandise.

Yesterday morning ice of considerable thickness was found in this locality.

Dr. Cochran, of this place, has been sent to the Napa Insane Asylum, under the charge of his brother. It is not true, as reported, that he attempted to kill one of his children.

The Doctor's malady is of a mild type, and with proper medical skill it is hoped that he may be fully restored to reason.

Our exports for the present week have consisted of 1,321 bbls. corn, 312 bbls. 50s spuds, 5,283 lbs. 140s barley, 13,441 lbs. 36s sks beans, 4,294 lbs. merchandise, 335 lbs. Total, 18,588 lbs.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific railway will start on its pleasant mission on or about the 15th instant, and pay employees two months wages.

A spelling match took place last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. E. J. Baldwin. It will happen every two weeks. We suggest Ekaterinburg, Michilimackinac, Machyneth.

The numerous friends of Mr. Perkins the enterprising tobacco grower, will be glad to know that he is still improving, and we hope to see him about in a few days.

It is estimated that California produced in the past season, 20,000 boxes of raisins. The United States import about 900,000 boxes annually, so it will be seen that there is no likelihood of overabundance of raisins in California.

Mr. Benjamin Gunning some time since presented the report of the city of Liverpool with $294, upon which a wag wrote, "A good B. Gunning."

The Baltimore man's flying machine is not an overwhelming success. Virginia has refused to let it pass in the case of the grave; but a German chemist has obtained ferrocyanide of tetrahydrazine by saturating ferrocyanide of potassium with tetrahydrazine hydrate—and that is some consolation anyhow.

A profane young man describing the looks of a newly-arrived M.C. from the Far West, as he appeared at Washington depot, says: "He looked as if he had come all the way across the continent on the hurricane deck of a mule."

A Memphis prisoner, who hated to see two lawyers disgrace the courtroom by fighting, walked out, and was unfortunately enough to get lost. He has not been heard of since.

In speaking of a clerical friend who possesses a very rubicund countenance, some one said, the other day: "I don't think he drinks; in fact, I know he does not, for he has told me so; but he probably sleeps in a bed with very red curtains."

The New York Sun says that Mr. Drew has been in Wall street for about thirty years past, and that he dates the beginning of his financial misfortunes to the loss of a million dollars in the Southwestern, two or three years ago.

The Washington special to the Herald says there is the best authority for saying that it was the intention, Saturday evening, of Ex-Secretary Belknap to send in to the House of Representatives a request for investigation into his official discharge of duty in the disbursement of more than $4-00,000, and that the various officers of the subordinate departments he examined to show his honesty in this particular, but a change of programme has been decided on, and the request will not now be sent in.

CINCINNATI, March 15. The Tribune's Washington special says that the Massachusetts people are terribly exercised over the failure to nominate the President.

The nomination of Richard Henry Dana as Minister to Great Britain. Some years ago Dana was employed to edit the International Law, which for some years had been edited by Gov. William Beach Lawrence, of Rhode Island, and when the work appeared, it contained some of Lawrence's notes verbatim. Lawrence commenced suit for piracy of copyright in the United States Court, and obtained a verdict in his favor. He now comes here and has obtained a decision from the Supreme Court not to vote in favor of Dana's confirmation.

MARKET REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16. FLOUR—Local trade supplied with best city extras in jobbing lots at 65¢ 6 25.

WHEAT—Good shipping $1 85; fair $1 80; choice milling $1 90; 92 1/2.

BANLEY—Continues quiet in feel, but demand for brewing is very moderate; good feed, $1 25; hay, brewing, $1 30; 35; Chaffers, $1 25; 10 1/2.

POTATOES—Good to choice Potatoes $2 12 1/2; 22 1/2; ordinary Humboldt, $1 80; 6 10.

CORN—$2 20 25.

GREENBACKS—Buying, 88¢; selling, 88 1/2.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15. The following is stated as the contract between Flood & O'Brien, of the Consolidated Virginia and California Mining Companies. They propose to sell twenty million dollars worth of silver bars to be supplied at the Carson Mint, and to take in payment, the same amount of gold contained therein, and five or four and a

Anaheim Gazette

SATURDAY, MARCH 11, 1876.

CHURCH MEETINGS.
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Rev. J. M. Ellis, Pastor. Regular services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning for practice in Congregational singing and for Bible study on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Rev. W. S. Neale, Pastor. Regular services every Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Kleinigkeiten.

From Tuesday's Daily.

—The Wilmington train yesterday had 29 cars.
—Large quantities of eggs are being shipped from the depot.
—Gold was quoted yesterday in New York at 114.
—The State School Fund appropriation for this district is $1,541.65.

—Don Juan Forster, of Santa Margarita, was in town yesterday evening.
—Col. Sanford we beg his pardon, we should have said General—was in town yesterday.

—The Los Angeles papers report a squaw turning up dead there from excessive drinking.

—The Republican says a Mr. Hurd has bought land near Anaheim for an English colony.

—There are said to be some very costly stallions in the Foster band which is going East.

—The first drove of cattle of the season have just been started by Mr. Forster from Santa Margarita.

—Mrs. Ellis succeeded in obtaining an artesian well, of five inches flow, on the Coyote ranch a few days ago.

—Mr. George Haws will take a respite from his troubles, by a twenty days visit to the county jail. He departs to-day.

—The attendance at the Presbyterian services Sunday, in the morning and a night, was nearly up to the full capacity of the building.

—The public will see by the telegram in to-day's issue that the bill, incorporating Anaheim, has passed and become a law.

—Attention is called to the statement in the editorial column to-day, with regard to the financial status of the quondam city government.

—The attorneys of the trustees of Temple & Workman obtained a judgment yesterday of over $200 in the District Court, against Mr. Ledyard.

—How large a percentage of lambs have you raised? is the prevailing question now. Some of our sheepmen are boasting of immense increase this year.

—The sheep men report their sheep as thriving finely in this charming weather. Many are now engaged in shearing and are anxious to get the clip into market.

—Many farmers near here are now making preparations for the planting of alfalfa. It is probable that this is the most favorable year for it that we will have for a long time.

—There is nothing more agreeable to an editor than accessions to the subscription list—a pleasure, by the way, which we have enjoyed quite frequently within the last few weeks.

—The Chinese evidently weary in well-doing in the matter of the Sunday School. Only seventeen were there last Sunday. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present.

—Some young ladies, while navigating in Mr. Korn's buggy, yesterday afternoon, had the misfortune to capsize the craft, making so much of a wreck as to render blacksmiths bills an inevitable consequence.

—The Forbes Bros., of Los Angeles will stock the ranches of San Marcos Guajone and Buena Vista, in San Diego county, with about 6000 head of sheep, making a total of about 12,000 sheep on those ranches.—San Diego Union

—The train did not come down from Los Angeles yesterday morning. This was owing to something being out of order on the Santa Fernando route. Our road may be excellent in some respects, but in irregularities it can beat any railroad that ever sold a ticket.

—A citizen of Anaheim was yesterday "fighting his battles o'er again" in the narration, to some interested listeners, of adventures which once befell him among the Indians—hostile ones, not such as passed through town yesterday who looked as mild and inoffensive as a bushy man at a frolic.

—Why can we not have rows of trees on each side of all the streets. Lombardy poplar or Eucalyptus would be admirable for the purpose and in a very few years, grow so as to be a charm and delight, and such a feature as would attract visitors and increase the local attachment of the inhabitants of the town. The peculiarly rapid growth of the Eucalyptus and its anti-malarial qualities recommend it powerfully for this use.

—A gang of Indians passed through town yesterday, making a legira from some locality. They had all their household goods upon a rude cart with wheels made from the hewn sections of a tree and drawn by oxen with the yoke strapped to the horns, in the ancient style. They looked as repulsive as human degradation could make them. Several men and squaws were riding on miserable little ponies, and several of the women were walking, their papposes on their backs. They passed quickly and quietly through the streets and were soon lost from sight, typifying the brief and evanescent character of their national existence, and the unnoticed part they play in the eyes of the world.

—Freight for the following persons was received at the depot last night: H Mayman, 33 joints pipe; C E French 4 bolts sulphur; I Cohn, 2 cases groceries; H Sommerfield, 15 cases groceries; S Ritchey, 2 cases chairs; R H Dibble, 1 well-ring; Anderson & Co, 1 pkg cast-ings; C Tustin, 21 joints pipe; R Strong 40 joints pipe R Sam, 12 saks vegs; F & J Backs, 1 cast; N A McDonald, 70 lb R ties.

—We saw yesterday a wagon newly from Hill's Blacksmith and Wagon-making Shop which would reflect credit upon the skilled workmen of a city. It was a model of shape and strength.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 2 bolts castings, 115 lbs; 2 bolts sheep pelts, 200 lbs; 119 lbs ham and bacon, 1.50 lbs; 1 box butter, 100 lbs; 1 cask wine, 500 lbs; 2 buckets eggs, 70 lbs.

—Real estate transactions were lively in town yesterday. Mr. Jordan purchased from Mr. Josephson the lot at the corner of Glen and Broad ways; also an acre of land from the vineyard of John Kneipe, on Centre street.

—Freight for the following persons was received at the depot last night: P, 6 pkgs mds; E C Delaven, 2 cases household goods; J W Anderson & Co, 7 cases groceries; M A Mendelson, 1 case dry goods; J W, 11 bble iron; T J H, 6 pkgs mds; C & W, 30 pkgs gro; R H Dibble, 1 pkg hardware; J Bennerichied, 4 pkgs mds; F & J Backs, 1 pkg matting; C Mossman, 1 pkg mds; J W Anderson & Co, 11 pkgs mds; R & Margolis, 4 pkgs gro; J Bennerichied, 6 stoves; P 25 pkgs groceries; C & W 47 pkgs groceries; Davis Bros, 3 pkgs mds; F & J Backs, 1 pkg mat; P Mason, 1 pkg plank; Gildmaier, one egg box; D Bros, 21 pkgs groceries; R Michel, 1 case cigars; Anderson, 4 egg boxes; French, 2 chairs; H H Messenger, 3 pkgs desk; H Sommerfield, 51 pkgs flour; I Lockhart, 1 box mds; J C Edwards, 1 pkg books; Beebe, 1 c mds; A & Co, 15 saks flour.

—New PATENTS.—Through Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, San Francisco, we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: S. D. Field, S. F., electro-magnetic regulator for steam engines; S. D. Field, San Francisco, electrical switches and cut outs; P. B. Horton, San Francisco, saddle tree; C. Mea, Florin, Cal., wheels for vehicles; J. C. Milliken, Santa Cruz, Cal., adjustable mold board saws; F. Oppenheimer, San Francisco, vehicle seat; I. Sweet, San Francisco, clothes line; H. Von Haverbeke, San Francisco, shoe; S. H. Cowles, Sacramento, Cal., quartz mills; G. E. Hopkins, W. T. rotary cultivator.

—We were favored yesterday with a call from Mr. Charles Leford, who has recently taken charge of the Tivoli Gardens near the depot. Mr. Leford is a new-comer among us, bringing with him the highest testimonials as to worth and capability, and a single trip to the Gardens cannot fail to convince the most skeptical that under his efficient management, that beautiful spot will soon become one of the most popular resorts in the county.

—The following patents were received in the United States Land Office, in Los Angeles, on Monday, and await owners, viz: Francisco Anstoy, Abram C Bronson, Domingo Batz, Thomas J Davies, Ciriazo Estrada, Fleming Franklin, James M Griffin, William Howard, Francisco Huarte, H A Hammer, Albert H Hoyt, Simon W Elder, Juan M Marron, Asher E Marcy, Jesus Moreno, Frank Rivera, Artemus W Rice, Frederick Schmidt, William F Thompson, Joseph Will, C H Wheeler.

—In a communication received from "R" of Tustin City, we find the following: "A school meeting was held on Friday, March 10th, for the purpose of getting the voice of the people of Sycamore District as to whether they were satisfied with the present school and its teacher, as a majority of the Board of Trustees were opposed to him. A unanimous vote showed that the patrons of the school were entirely satisfied, there being thirty-nine votes for and none against.—Everything in our section looks fine, and the prospect for a good crop was never better."

—A meeting of Gas consumers, which was held in Los Angeles, Saturday night, resulted in the passage of resolutions condemnatory of the excessive price of gas there, $7 per 1,000 feet, and declaring that $4.50 was ample, and binding themselves to begin on the 1st of April to use oil lamps and dispense entirely with gas until the demanded reduction in the price of gas was made.

—Ex-Governor Pio Pico withdrawing from the bond of Los Angeles City Treasurer Mellus, and he failing to replace him by a security satisfactory to the Mayor, the office became yesterday vacant, and a special session of the Common Council was called for yesterday evening to appoint his successor. Their action is not yet known.

—A report is circulated that a lady was inhumanly and brutally treated by her husband in a certain vineyard, in presence of truthful witnesses. Such things are a disgrace to humanity, and had better be stopped, if the persons do not wish to have their names published, if not worse. Our people will not tolerate such brutality.

—The undertaker at the funeral of Mrs. Fruit, which took place yesterday at Santa Ana, was so unfortunate as to have his team run away with the hearse, and to be himself thrown under the wheels. He is not thought to be badly hurt.

—The fellow who raised a row at the Anaheim Hotel yesterday, came up for trial, at four o'clock, before Judge Clark and pleaded guilty, was remanded to jail, to appear for sentence to-day at nine.

—The Revolutionary documents, some of which we published, putting them for the first time in print, have, as we are informed, been sold for the sum of $500.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: Two boxes eggs, 180 lbs; 4 saks potatoes, 450 lbs; 151 sacks rye, 20,105 lbs; 2 bales sheep pelts, 180 lbs.

—Words fall the sheep men in describing the fatness of their bands and their satisfaction at the grazing.

—A Chinaman was killed at San Fernando tunnel on Tuesday.

—Mr. John Bush brought into town yesterday a four-horse load of wool.

—Mr. Wm. Hunter was in town yesterday looking as hearty as ever.

—A whale 90 feet long was washed ashore near Santa Monica a few days ago.

—Jos. Huber, Jr., has been appointed City Treasurer of Los Angeles in place of J. J. Mellus.

—The suit of Hen Lee comes up in the District Court in Los Angeles this morning at ten o'clock.

—In the case of Askin vs. Wilson in the District Court, the judgment, went for the defendant.

—There was a large gathering at the social dance, given by Mr. John Gwin, on Tuesday night.

—Dr. Cox, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of F. & A. M., of San Francisco, paid us a visit yesterday.

—Martin's face was shining to-day as he explained to us how fine a thing it was to be "a father of a bouncing boy."

—The U. S. patent for the town site of San Juan Capistrano was received in the U. S. Land Office in Los Angeles yesterday.

—Mr. Langenberger is having a large number of Mission vines dug up, substituting for them, Muscat cuttings.

—A slight altercation took place on the street yesterday afternoon between two parties, both of them old enough to know better.

—Mr. Fred Rimpaa has found an article of lady's wearing apparel which the owner can have by applying and proving property.

—We are informed that Dr. Harlin has purchased from Mr. Cowan, five acres of land, adjoining his beautiful orange and lemon orchard.

—A trip among our vineyards yesterday afternoon, gave evidence of the fact that the prospects of a large yield were never better than at present.

—Mr. T. J. Askins passed through town yesterday with a fine lot of rams of the Guinier stock of Mgrinos, which he intends using with his band of sheep this season.

—A Los Angeles paper claims 1,249,999 as the number of brick on hand in that city. There are in Anaheim two yards, both owned by one gentleman, which have now on hand, 1,200,000.

—The Los Angeles papers speak of incendiaries' tracks being found, at different places, in the shape of slow matches which had been used in abortive efforts to set some houses on fire.

—The case of Frankel vs. Wing Chung, has just been decided in the County Court in favor of the plaintiff. It seems that the white man had a shirt in the hands of the Chinaman and when attempting to take it, without having presented his wallet, he was assaulted by John and one of his "friends."

—The jury in the case against J. R. McCauley, for murder, brought in, yesterday a verdict of not guilty, owing to a verbal irregularity in the indictment, the name of the deceased not being put in it correctly. The District Attorney made a motion that he be recommended to jail to await indictment by the next Grand Jury.

—Mr. Thomas Shelly called at our office last evening, and requested us to notify all parents to warn their children against climbing on his truck, as he would not be responsible for any accidents. It seems that the children are in the habit of climbing on the truck and are exposed to considerable danger of being run over, having boxes fall on them, etc., and cannot always be seen by the driver.

—We have received a postal card from "A Constant Reader," who wishes to know if the county officers were installed on March 4th. They were installed on the 1st Monday in March (6th) and are as follows: Don David Alexander, Sheriff; F. P. Temple, Treasurer; R. Hudson, District Attorney; C. E. Miles, Recorder; A. W. Ryan, Assessor; N. Kremer, Tax Collector; C. W. Gould, Auditor; T. A. Saxon, School Superintendent; T. J. Ellis, Surveyor; Dr. Kurtz, Coroner; Pedro Carillo, Public Administrator.

—We are informed that Hammel & Denker say they are ready to commence the work of building the street railroad, as soon as a willingness to buy some certain portion of the stock is manifested by outside parties. They propose to organize a stock company and issue 100 shares of $100 each, making a capital of $10,000, which will, it is estimated, cover everything. It is proposed, at first, only to lay the track from the depot, along Center street, to the Planter's Hotel corner; and so it would not be necessary for stockholders to pay up in full for some considerable time. The project commends itself, as a means of building up our future city.

—This is St. Patrick's day.

—Col. Chase, of the Coast Survey, is in town.

—The schooner May Queen left Anaheim Landing yesterday afternoon.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 1 car-load brass, 20,000 lbs.

—One of the stages at the depot last night narrowly escaped being run against by the cars.

—Mr. L. M. Holt, Secretary of the Mutual Aid Association, of Los Angeles, was in town yesterday.

—We learn that the Presbyterian Sunday School has ordered about seventy-five books for their library. They will be forwarded from Troy, N. Y.

—An accident happened to Mr. Winger, in Los Angeles the other day, by which he was thrown from a wagon. At last accounts he was going around looking very sour about it.

—The junior member of the firm of P. Davis & Bro. was uncommonly happy yesterday. There is a little item in the birth column that will explain something of the cause.

—A splendid artesian well has been struck on Mr. Bancroft's ranch. Three distinct streams of water were found within 220 feet of the surface, showing that there is no lack of water in that section.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot yesterday morning: 1 box eggs, 115lbs; 28 saks spuds, 3,010 lbs; 2 saks spuds, 190 lbs; 1 box butter, 135 lbs; 5 saks spuds, 620 lbs; a trunk and 1 chair, 305 lbs.

—We are assured that we may count upon the establishment of a race course here, in the near future. We hail it gladly as precursor of the many other good things in the way of improving innovations.

—The appearance of Anaheim and the surrounding country will soon be even more beautiful than at present. When the vineyards and Lombardy poplars and other at present leafless trees, clothe themselves with foliage, it will hardly be recognizable as the same place as before.

—Mr. Tyler tells us that he will ship free of charge all contributions of grain, curiosities, &c. &c., which our people may wish to forward through the railroad authorities to be exhibited at the Centennial. We published yesterday the circular of B. B. Redding, with regard to the matter.

—We heard yesterday a remark to the effect that the speaker longed for the coming of the maturity of the grapes. A grape-season spent in Anaheim is indeed a thing to be remembered. No place of our own or foreign lands can excel it in the attractions it then offers to a lover of grapes.

—The following freight was received at the depot night before last: Andrus & Parker, 1 keg liquor; L N Harmon, 1 case mds; L Ut, 2 pkgs sundries; Davis Bros, 3 saks flour; W Wilson, 1 bbl crockery; C & W 1 pkg sundries; W M Anderson, 1 chest; I Cohn, 15 pkgs mds.

—We received yesterday numerous calls from citizens of Santa Ana, some of whom came over for the single purpose of paying their subscription to the GAZETTE. We are always glad to see our Santa Ana friends, especially when on so praiseworthy an errand, and we are pleased to hear of the general prosperity of the community there.

—At an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Commercial Bank, yesterday, the following directors were elected: A. H. Wilcox, M. S. Patrick, S. H. Mott, H. Mabury, H. M. Johnson, J. Lankenshaw, O. S. Witherby and E. F. Spence. Subsequently at a meeting of the Directors, M. S. Patrick was elected President, and E. F. Spence, Cashier.

—Freight for the following persons was received at the depot last night: H Blanken, 3 c liquors; J W Layman, 10 lbs sundries, Anderson & Co, 3 c sundries; Gildmaier, 1 box mds; Jose Serano, 1 bath tub; J G Mitchell 1 sak alfalfa; T C Hull, 3 pkgs sundries; Tim Crowley, 1 pkg paper; H Weston, 2 pkgs sundries; F Conrad, 1 cigsars; Davis Bros, 6 pkgs sundries; C & W, 50 pkgs sundries.

—Our genial and popular friend, W. L. Tyler, showed us yesterday a very handsome present which he has recently received from the Los Angeles Lodge of the Knights of Pythias. It consists of a large solid ornament to be worn upon the regalia, the helmet, the shield, and the crossed battle-axes being gold, the remainder silver. The intrinsic value of the gift must be $100 but it is chiefly prized by Mr. Tyler as an expression of that good will which all his acquaintances feel for him.

—When the telegraph was invented, admirers of Shakespeare saw prophecy in the words he put in the mouth of the spirit Puck, "Will put a girdle around the earth in forty minutes." If Monsignor Dupanloup succeeds in having John of Arc canonized, the great poet will again be made a prophet, for he makes the Dauphin say, "John la Fosse shall be France's saint."

—This is St. Patrick's day.

—Col. Chase, of the Coast Survey, is in town.

—The schooner May Queen left Anaheim Landing yesterday afternoon.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot to-day: 1 car-load brass, 20,000 lbs.

—One of the stages at the depot last night narrowly escaped being run against by the cars.

—Mr. L. M. Holt, Secretary of the Mutual Aid Association, of Los Angeles, was in town yesterday.

—We learn that the Presbyterian Sunday School has ordered about seventy-five books for their library. They will be forwarded from Troy, N. Y.

—An accident happened to Mr. Winger, in Los Angeles the other day, by which he was thrown from a wagon. At last accounts he was going around looking very sour about it.

—The junior member of the firm of P. Davis & Bro. was uncommonly happy yesterday. There is a little item in the birth column that will explain something of the cause.

—A splendid artesian well has been struck on Mr. Bancroft's ranch. Three distinct streams of water were found within 220 feet of the surface, showing that there is no lack of water in that section.

—The following freight was shipped from the depot yesterday morning: 1 box eggs, 115lbs; 28 saks spuds, 3,010 lbs; 2 saks spuds, 190 lbs; 1 box butter, 135 lbs; 5 saks spuds, 620 lbs; a trunk and 1 chair, 305 lbs.

—We are assured that we may count upon the establishment of a race course here, in the near future. We hail it gladly as precursor of the many other good things in the way of improving innovations.

—The appearance of Anaheim and the surrounding country will soon be even more beautiful than at present. When the vineyards and Lombardy poplars and other at present leafless trees, clothe themselves with foliage, it will hardly be recognizable as the same place as before.

—Mr. Tyler tells us that he will ship free of charge all contributions of grain, curiosities, &c. &c., which our people may wish to forward through the railroad authorities to be exhibited at the Centennial. We published yesterday the circular of B. B. Redding, with regard to the matter.

—We heard yesterday a remark to the effect that the speaker longed for the coming of the maturity of the grapes. A grape-season spent in Anaheim is indeed a thing to be remembered. No place of our own or foreign lands can excel it in the attractions it then offers to a lover of grapes.

—The following freight was received at the depot night before last: Andrus & Parker, 1 keg liquor; L N Harmon, 1 case mds; L Ut, 2 pkgs sundries; Davis Bros, 3 saks flour; W Wilson, 1 bbl crockery; C & W 1 pkg sundries; W M Anderson, 1 chest; I Cohn, 15 pkgs mds.

—We received yesterday numerous calls from citizens of Santa Ana, some of whom came over for the single purpose of paying their subscription to the GAZETTE. We are always glad to see our Santa Ana friends, especially when on so praiseworthy an errand, and we are pleased to hear of the general prosperity of the community there.

—At an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Commercial Bank, yesterday, the following directors were elected: A. H. Wilcox, M. S. Patrick, S. H. Mott, H. Mabury, H. M. Johnson, J. Lankenshaw, O. S. Witherby and E. F. Spence. Subsequently

|                    |                                   |                                             |                     |                                |           |                                  |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------------|
| Abraham Davenport. | Baker was as good as his word. He | out by the sheriff, every day for these two | About Housekeeping. | Walter Savage Landor's Freaks. | Grafting. | How the Queen Opened Parliament. |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------------|

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

[illegible]

deathless by pure lives and tranquil hallowed. "I'll tell you how to keep them."
"Well, how?"
"If your bill amounts to thirty dollars,
make it thirty-three and a few odd cents,
by increasing some of the items. He will want the surplus knocked off, which you can afford to do; then he will pay it, and think you just the man for him."

"And a sad error it would have been,
Henry. In any future matter of this kind,
I hope you will be perfectly frank with
me. I have much more accurate knowledge of the condition and standing of people than you can possibly have."
The son promised to do what his father said, and, some time, revisits to time Bridget does the housework. Of course there are exceptions; still, I think there is too little attention paid to teaching girls when young the rudiments of housekeeping. It will do no one any harm to know how to do all kinds of work, and we live in an uncertain age, when riches take to themselves wings and

had taken an alarm in defence of religion and liberty." He returned to England in a few weeks, without seeing service in the field. But this escape, perhaps, was of service to him in the composition of his tragedy of "Constant Julia," a work not unworthy of the author of "Gehir."
He died about this time and completed three or four plays, which were published posthu-

green wood, and a kind of grafting, called this kind of grafting is called her-becomes. Many evergreens can be grafted in the ordinary way, but the pines only succeed with herbaceous grafting, and the same may be said of some nut-bearing trees. Ornamental trees of various kinds are propagated by grafting, especially such as Juniperus, Pinus, Thuja, Abies, Princes of Wales, luteo cheire, were raised and barked and handkerchiefs wove
in the air gave a right loyal pretence
The state carriage was drawn by six magnificent cream-colored horses, gar-decorated with blue and gold. The princession went at a walking pace from the first step to the last, and there was over the fresh earth and the heaven of noon. A horror of great darkness, like the night in days of which the Norland saga tell. The twilight of the Gods. The low-bunging was black with ominous clouds save where its rim

"You lost him, then, because you wouldn't abate anything from a tree bill?"

"I did."

"Thank you. But suppose my bill should be twenty-ah, or seven, or eight; what then? I couldn't knock off the odd dollars then for the purpose of making an Wander. "You're not abated, and his attention Miss Leonard when they met in society, because coldly formal. The sweet young girl, whose feelings had really been interested, felt the change, and was for a time unhappy, but in a few months she recovered herself, and was again bright and cheerful as usual.

fly away so easily that it is sometimes convenient to be able to take care of oneself.

Hardly any two work alike. Some cook splendidly and require an abundance to cook with, while others will make a good deal of nothing. Some are painfully neat. They keep their rooms years later. His house was the best, and the purchase of Llanthony Abbey, an estate upon the border of Wales. He said the estate which had already fallen to the family was somewhat paler than the weeping black, ash, and poplar, form elegant specimens when grafted upon a stock eight or ten feet high. Among ornamental trees a shrub of the kind is resorted to as difficulty in seeing the Queen as she was on her way, bowing to her subjects. Both the royal ladies looked well, although the Princess was somewhat paler than usual. The Queen wore as head-dress a diamond tiara. In the state carriage she sat the Princess Beatrice, facing her Mother-in-law. In carriages which preceded that the master's side from the red hell below.

Birds ceased to sing, and all the barn-yard
frolic
Roosted, the rattle at the pasture bars
lowed, and looked homeward; bat on leather wings
Flitted abroad; the sounds of labor died;
The plowman and mowman, with all ears
even sum."

"No. In that case you must add on until you get above thirty."
"And fall back on that."
"Yes. It will be knocking off odd dollars, which he will think clear gain."
"That would be hardly honest."
"Hardly. But you must do it or lose the order," said

One day, one year after his leisurely caution to his son, in regard to Miss Leonard, Baker happened to pass along a street where he had not been for some months.
Just opposite a large, new, and beautiful house, to which the painters were giving their last touches, he met a friend. As they passed, Baker said—

shut up for fear of sunlight and flies, and every step is light for fear of dirt. The dog and cat have a pinched, far-away look, as if they meditated suicide; and it is a real relief to step into another house where, perhaps, things are not in half as good order, but you are not afraid of putting them out of place.

entry of 2400; more
rowed for improvements; in all about 280,000 was expended. "Lanthorn," he wrote long afterward, "is a noble estate.
It produces everything, be herbs, carrots and money. It is about eight miles long,
and I planted a million of trees on it with great difficulty, while some of the I lived there little more than eight months old, built a house, to pull it

the most rapid means of propagation;
sometimes a variety cannot be multiplied
by cuttings, but can be grafted upon some related stock that will grow rapidly. The choice species of climata, now so much prized as ornamental climbers, take root before whose own equipment walked to the marshes, gate footmen and young men of the guard. Within the House of Lords
the scene was one of dazzling splendor
the scarlet of the peers' robes, the stars

"I hear the doom-blast of the trumpet shatter
 The black sky, that the dreadful face of Christ Might look from the rent clouds, not as He looked
 A loving guest at Bethany, but stern
 As justice and incorable law.

Wawble, in the old State House, dim as gloom,
Sat the laughers of Connecticut,
Trembling beneath their legislative robes.
"It is the Lord's great day!" Let us adjourn,"
"Come read, and then, as if with one accord,
My eyes were turned to Abraham Davenport,
Who sat above Abraham with his bearded pole
well satisfied, imagining that he had made
a saving of one dollar and ninety cents.
The not over-scrupulous tradesman laughed in his sleeve, and kept his customer.
Having withdrawn his support from Leonard, it was the candid opinion of Mr. Baker that he was "going to the house like that."
"Oh, yes, he is, and a half a dozen more
like it, if necessary."
"Leonard!"
"Certainly. Why he is worth at least
ence in people, is it not true that good housekeeping is an accomplishment?"
"By whom?" Baker looked surprised.
"By old Leonard. You know him."
"Impossible! He's not able to build a house like that."
"Oh, yes, he is, and a half a dozen more
like it, if necessary."
"Leonard!"
"Certainly. Why he is worth at least cut him his trees, poached his game, in-sulted him at his own door, and menaced him with violence. One of them had threatened some mischief; Landor posed
a hand-bill accusing him of meditating
a felony; was prosecuted for libel and cast in damages. He was not on good terms with his neighbors. He applied or one of the pereskias. Successful grafting of the apple upon the maple, the rose upon the black currant, and the like, is impossible, although instances of it are often narrated.—Appletons' American Cyclopedia, revised edition.

(Old Maids)

against the ermine of the royal robe.
Slew a long tulle veil and small diadem, and a crown of diamonds and rose-moon crown, with the riband and star
the Garter and the Victoria and Albert order. A necklace of diamonds gleamed in the light, and on her breast blazed the planet the historic Koh-i-noor diamond
in front of her Majesty, and between it

The intolerable hub.

"This will may be
The Day of Judgment which the world
awaits;

But it is so or not, I only know
My present duty, and my Lord's command
To occupy till life come. So at the past
Where He hath sent me in His providence,

drops," as he expressed it, about as fast as a man could go. He often passed the shop, but rarely saw a customer.
"No wonder," he would say to himself,
"A man like him can't expect and don't deserve custom."

In the eyes of Mr. Baker, the very grass seemed to grow upon the pavement between the shop door and the window

ers and make ornamental unguis-es who do the most generally have the most time. It is those women who will turn around all day in a half bushel that have no time.

Calculate your work so as to get it done.
Do not be forever fretting at nothing.
Be neat, but not so neat as to make everybody stare. Be tidy, but not too tidy; let your things look well, but not showy.

"You must be in error."
"No. His daughter is to be married next month to an excellent young man,
and this house has been built up is to be furnished as a marriage present."

"Incredible! I thought he was going,
or had gone, to the dogs long ago."

in vain to the Lord Lieutenant of the county to be appointed on the commission of the peace, although there was no
magistrate within ten miles of him.
Within three years from the time of the purchase Lander was thoroughly disgusted. He would sell it, if he could,
for less than half of what it had cost him.

When a lady reaches thirty years and remains unmarried, she begins to be spoken of as an "old maid" in such a manner and tone as to indicate something of contempt, carrying with it an idea that if she had been of any account she would not have remained single. All of us can

Duchess of Edinburgh and Princess
the Princess of Wales; the Prince Beatrice stood close to the Queen's right hand; the Princess Louise occupied a high position on the left, and other members of the royal family surrounded her.
Throughout the reading of the invitation speech the Queen sat motionless on the throne

"Cheer up, for me, to meet him face to face—
No faithless servant frightened from my task,
But ready when the Lord of the harvest calls!
And therefore, with all reverence I would say
To God do his work, we will see to ours.
Bring in the candles," And they brought them in.

"Going to the dogs, and no wonder," Baker would say to himself, as he went
by. He appeared to take a strange interest in watching the gradual decay of "Leonard!" The friend could not help laughing aloud. "He goes to the dogs. Oh, no! There isn't a man in his trade who does so good a business, as little show as he makes. Good work, good prices, and punctuality are the cardinal virtues of his establishment, and make all substantial.
How in the world could you have taken any discomfiture from a beautiful nature and a love for a beautiful mind to be and art, and never allow your nature to come so warped that you cannot think of anything but your housework. Real,
love, by no means for the first time. "I have found," he wrote to Sutherland, "a girl without a sixpence and with very few accomplishments. She is pretty,
and in the meanwhile he would leave England and go to France. Hence arose a new and still worse trouble. Three years before he had suddenly fallen in
love, by no means for the first time. "I
have found," he wrote to Sutherland, "a
girl without a sixpence and with very few accomplishments. She is pretty,
look back with very kindly memories of those who were old maids when we were in our early teens; of their obliging disposition; their handiness in sickness; how indispensable they were at gatherings, at singing schools, at tea-parties and picnics;
there was not a social gathering of
any kind, nor any enterprise put on foot, threw, scarcely raising her eyes, and never varying the gravely persuasive pression of her countenance.

No Diffidence.

The day had been set, and the young man was happy. When his father had to business he collected together all

"The old man's making signs," said the mechanic's fortunes. One day a Albeit with husky voice and shaking hands,
 An act to amend an act to regulate
 The shade and dewlike fisheries. Whereupon Wise and well-spoken Abraham Davenport, Straight to the question, with no figures of speech
 Save the nine Arab signs, yet not without the mechanic's fortunes. One day a mercantile friend said to him—
 "Do you know anything about this Leonard?"
 "Why?" asked Baker.
 "Because, he wants to make a pretty large bill with me."
 "On time?"
 "I don't know, but such has been my impression for some time," replied Baker, who felt exceedingly cut down on account of the mistake he had made, and particularly so in view of the elegant house and a hundred thousand dollars,
 which might all have belonged to his son.
 "I have been falling into such an such a notion!"
 graceful, and good-tempered — three things indispensable to my happiness."

The shrewd, dry humor natural to the Irish, his awe-struck colleagues listening all the while.

Between the pauses of his argument, To hear the thunder of the wrath of God Break from the hollow trumpet of the cloud.

And here he stands in memory to this day, So kind of heaven, a muted Jew. All weep

"Yes, on the usual credit of six months." "Don't sell to him. Why, the man is going to the dogs, at railroad speed." "Indeed?" "Yes, I'm looking every day to see him close up. He might have done well, for he understood his business. But he's so unaccommodating, and I might say, in time, he made a bad thing of it. He was an egregious error about old Leonard." Most of the remedies for freckles are poisonous and cannot be used with safety. Freckles indicate a defect in digestion, and consist in deposits of some carbonaceous or fatty matter beneath the scarf-skin. The diet should be attenuated and should be of a nature that the bowels and kidneys will do their duty. Daily

He made up his mind to reside in France; he had made up her mind to the contrary. He disliked to have any talk about it; she would talk of nothing else. He begged her not to drive him to distraction; she retorted that things had come to a fine pass if he must never be contradicted, and finally called him an

When there is work to be done in the church, they enter upon it with alacrity, and with so intelligent and hearty co-operation, which compels our esteem. "They are the jewels of my church," said an eminent and gifted divine; "more useful than their married mates, because they have more time." There is no cause they value that is not the better for

"George! dearest George!" she exclaimed, as she entered the parlor and seized his hand. "Arabella, I am here to do my duty," he said as he rose up. "What's the matter?" she asked. "Haven't you heard of—of my father's failure?" he inquired, his face

German Home Life.

Against the background of unnatural dark, insulting to his customers, that he drives the best of them away. I used to make large bills with him, but haven't dealt at his shop now for some time."

In everything the German is controlled. He is controlled in his love-makings and parryings; he is controlled in the utterance of his opinion; he is controlled in his goings out and his comings in. The journalist is liable at any moment to fine and imprisonment; the caricaturist to arrest; of liberty of the press there can be nothing. The German is controlled in his bathing, with much friction, should not be neglected, and the Turkish bath taken occasionally, if convenient. If the exact cause of freckles was known a remedy for them might be found. A chemist in Munich, observing the bleaching effect of mercurial preparations, inferred that the growth of a local parasitical fungus was the cause, who would be surprised to know that in so doing they have merited the epithet of "bleachers."

Too Yocco.—Clergymen in these days seem to be esteemed very highly for their growing baldness. I have seen a man having an old maid in it. Let them have their respectful and deferential attentions wherever we meet them, and thus compensate them in small part for the slighting manner in which they are treated by a mouth knowing what had become of him.

Two Yocco.—Clergymen in these days seem to be esteemed very highly for their growing baldness. I have seen a man having an old maid in it. Let them have their respectful and deferential attentions wherever we meet them, and thus compensate them in small part for the slighting manner in which they are treated by a mouth knowing what had become of him.

"Why, yes, dear George, and what of it?"

"Aren't you—won't you—that is—"

"I'm glad of it—that's all!" she cried.

"You are!"

"Of course I am: I was talking to my father, and he said if your father

[illegible]

"Let me see"—said the cashier before he left the bill—"twenty-seven dollars and forty-six cents. Twenty-five I will pay you. There, receipt the bill, and I'll hand you."

But Leonard took his head down and said "No." He deducted a cent from the bill, Mr. Baker. Every article is charged at our regular price.

"Oh, yes, you can. Just make it where and made his purchase. It happened that Mr. Leonard had a very pretty and very interesting daughter, on whose education the mechanic had bestowed great pains; and it also happened that Baker had a son, who, in most things, was a 'chip of the old block.' Particularly was he like his father in his would stand glowing through Sunday afternoons at the heaps of gold, venture at last his florin or his dollar, retire into his workshop world on Monday a disillusioned man—bacon. Conscience touches even the follies and flirtations of the young. Late, in a northern capital garrisoned by Prussian troops, an ardent gentleman and a cow-eyed husband parts of sulpho-carbide or zinc, twenty-five parts of distilled glycerine, twenty-five parts of rose-water, and five parts of scented alcohol, and is to be applied twice daily, for four half an hour to an hour, then washed off with cold water. Protection against the sun by veiling and other means is recommended, and in addition, a good deal of oleum, camellia party, and "about" the city. The grand and joyous promenades. One of the attractions of Paris is the cleanliness and tidiness of its streets. If a person throws into the street even a bit of paper, the house in which he is fined, if he cannot be found. The streets are swept by hand in the very early morning, and everything offensive is removed, and carried away.

"What is the standard?" asked the

"Why, he says I stole two hogs and twenty-five dollars, even money. Here it is." And Baker counted out the cash.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Baker, I cannot afford to do anything. If you'll only lend me twenty-five dollars, your bill would have been just that amount. I would not have added a cent beyond what is due, nor can I take anything less than my great love for money; and scarcely had he reached his majority ere he began to look about him with a careful eye to a good matrimonial arrangement, by which plenty of money would be secured.

Adelaide Leonard, on account of her beauty and accomplishments, was much caressed, and mingled freely in society.

young man or man of position, some mild persuasion.—Herald of Health.

—

QUIN DODDERA.—One quart of corn meal, a tablespoonful of lard, two eggs, a tablespoonful of salt; scald the meal with the lard in which it is boiling water, and add a little milk and the eggs beaten up.

—

thousand ways annoyances are put upon him if a person is found begging a policeman on the spot to take the individual to court.

And then so much is done to protect the poor by preventing frauds. The laws of Paris are so framed as to constitute a strong persuasion of honesty on the part of the poor, and of obedience and subordi-

sent to jail."

"And didn't you steal two loaves?"

"I did."

"And didn't you go to jail?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, then, how can it be a sin for him to say so?" asked the captain.

"Well, I just want this town to be due." "Then you won't deduct the odd money?" "I cannot, indeed." "Very well." The manner of the customer was changed. He was evidently offended. "The bill is too high by just the sum I asked to have stricken off."

Young Baker had met her frequently, and could not help being struck with her beauty and grace.

"There's a chance for you," said a friend to him one evening.

"Miss Leonard?"

"Yes."

"She's a charming girl," replied the prayer, beat Evelina, do not say what you have seen." Evelina promised, and the imprudent maiden returned at once to the ball-room. But lo! next day the story, with various embroideries, was circulating through all the Kaffes, and behold! the day after the ardent lieutenant was summoned to an irate general's presence.

(beaten light); beat very hard for ten minutes; make them thin enough with cold milk to drop off the spoon and retain their shape in boiling lard; serve hot; have the lard boiling hot when you drop them in.

APPLE JELLY.—Cut the apples in quarters, and wash them in cold water. Dis-of trashiness than the plated from genuine ware by distinguishing the words "imitation" placed where the customers cannot fail to see it. If a grocer is detected selling adulterated articles, he is heavily fined, his name and place of business is published at his own expense in the official journal, and he is compelled to remove in his store for a specified time.

HERE SPECIAL ATTENTION.—A brilliant recent evening raised Professor Tyant upon the subject of his rambling essay on the "Evolution of Lard." Many

A SINGULAR SCENE.—The Irish take fire easily—especially in their enthusiasm for their public favorites. The great O'Connell was so popular in Ireland that he was once cheered loudly by a funeral procession which he happened suddenly to meet.

HER SPECIAL ATTENTION.—A brilliant recent evening raised Professor Tyant upon the subject of his rambling essay on the "Evolution of Lard." Many

But, no matter, I can pay it."

"Then you mean to insinuate," said the mechanic, who was an independent sort of a man, "that I am cheating you out of two dollars and forty-six cents?"

"I didn't say so."

"But it is plain that you think so, or you wouldn't have asked an abatement."

"I wonder if her father is worth anything!"

"People say so."

"Indeed!"

"Yes. They say the old fellow has held up something quite handsome; and as Adelaide is his only child, she will of course get it all."

"Young man," said his stern Vorsteher, glooming down upon him in grim regulation wrath, "you are transferred to depot duty on the frontier; there you will have ample time to reflect on your indiscretion." And forth, like a ball from the cannon's mouth, behold our gay young militaire shot over the frontier! Hear ters. Do not care or cote and, tip-top, he was off.

Ascending the mountain road between quarter into clear water, and up the hill to the summit, he was met by Dublin and Glencallen, in company with an English friend, O'Connell was met by a funeral. The mourners soon recognized him, and immediately broke into a vociferous hurrah for their political favorite, much to the astonishment of the Sassenach; who, accustomed to the solemn, pure flavor of the apple.

A LEFT-HANDED DIABOL on North Hill, ran out, yesterday afternoon, to a chain pump (viz., a bucket of water. He made some ments to a stranger, who, in reply, said: "The great mistake a scientist didn't deny the importance. Encouraged thereby, he pursued the subject with the firmness of discovering what special attraction could have conquered a man who has long resisted the fascinations of the

"Is she prettier than other ladies have sent?" he asked.

If you consider my charges just, you wouldn't dispute them."

"Oh, never mind, never mind! we'll not waste words about it. Here's your money," said Mr. Baker; and he added another five dollar bill to the sum he had laid down. The mechanic receipted the account and gave the change, both of which he pocketed.

"I was told," said Mr. Baker, "that after this young Baker exceedingly attentive to Miss Leonard, and made considerable inroads upon her heart. He crossed even as far as to visit regularly at her house, and was meditating the avowal of his attachment, when his father said to him one day—

"What your lady was that I saw you

LEMON PIE.—The juice and rind of one lemon grated into one cup of water, one cupful of loaf sugar, the yelks of two eggs, three tablespoonfuls flour. Frothing—beat the whites of two eggs, add four tablespoonfuls white sugar, spread on the pie, and bake lightly in the oven.

and inglorious decorum of English funerals, was not prepared for an outburst of Celtic enthusiasm on such an occasion. A remark being made on the oddity of a political hurrah at a funeral, it was replied that the dead man would have doubtlessly cheered lustily, too, if he could.

ill-statured remarks about me making pumps wrong side to and commenced to grind. He turned, and turned I, and ground, and ground, and stopped and rested, and talked softly to himself, and ground again, and kicked the pump, and took off the lid and looked down into the cistern, and put on the lid and set down to think.

"No."

"Is he wittier?"

"No."

"Is she more cultivated?"

"No."

"What then is her particular charm?"

"She has less dynamic force," said Professor.

when his customer turned away, he took a small package from under a petunia plant, and then turned away and left the shop without another word.

"It's the last bill he ever has against me," muttered Baker to himself, as he walked away. "If that is his manner of treating his customers, he'll soon go to the dogs."

It was downright insulting, and when the woman will stand that day and tell how she was treated, she will

with on the street yesterday, tomorrow!"

"Her name was Leonard."

"The daughter of old Leonard in — street!"

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Baker looked grave, and shook his head.

"Do you know anything about her?"

THE winding up of the going part of the great clock at Westminster, London, takes the minutes, the weight of the pendulum being six hundred and eighty pounds; but the winding up of the striking parts—the quarter part and hour part—takes five hours each, and this has to be done twice a week. The contract cost

WASHINGTON PRIZE.—One cup of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter, four tablespoons sweet milk, one-half tablespoonful of soda, one teaspoonful cream of tartar, one cup flour. Bake in two layers, with jelly, fruit or cream between.

WIND POWL PRIZE.—The shell should be

A WASHINGTON lady is said to be making both ends meet by charging ten dollars and went, and kicked the pump aside, and then hung that bucket, as innocent of moisture as an independent political reformer is of truth. And there came a woman to the back door, and a voice felt like a falling star, "Turn that crack the other way, you stupid thing, or you

THE incidents game of three months has worked such havoc in the rural districts out West, that the State of several States is now being considered measures for the suppression of the evil. The Iowa House has passed a bill, which will annihilate the game another, mean less from a vulgar mechanic. "Mean to insultate? Humph! Yes, I did mean to insultate," said Mr. Baker involuntarily quickened his pace. "He'll lose a good customer," he continued to himself. "I've paid him a great deal of money, but it's the last dollar of mine he ever handles."

asked the son.

"Nothing about her, but I know that her father is going to the dogs as fast as ever a man went."

"Indeed! I thought he was very well off."

"Oh, but I've been looking to see his shop shut up, or to hear of his being sold."

winding up the clock is $300 a year. The error of the clock amounts to only about one second for eighty-three days in the year, and there is probably no other clock in the world of which the same can be said.

A watch of "1"—Putting it in shape.

branded like a duck for a pig, larded with anachorism, and seasoned with pepper, salt, and sweet herbs; put a good quantity of better into the pig, and finish like all others.

You can make money with one hand, but it takes two to hang on to it.

how much he has improved in his penmanship. There may be some satisfaction in this, but we don't think it is worth ten dollars." Narratious Herald.

Concern claims—Your wife's shopping bills.

the Stearns, who is staying with her sister at Springfield, Ill., accepts every one with "How, you don't believe me because, do you?"

the Stearns, who is staying with her sister at Springfield, Ill., accepts every one with "How, you don't believe me because, do you?"

mounts their livery to fine and important, and conferring upon candidates, and other persons, in public conveyances, or in the public rans, authority to arrest candidates, with or without a warrant.

_____

