COUNTY DIVISION.

The following Petition is being circulated for signatures throughout the proposed new County of Orange.

PETITION.

To the Honorable the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

The undersigned taxpayers or qualified electors of the proposed new County of Orange, respectfully petition your honorable bodies to take favorable action upon a bill entitled "an Act to create the County of Orange," and in support of this petition call special attention to the following facts: The proposed new county, bounded on the Northwest by the New San Gabriel River, on the Northeast by the Puente and Santa Ana range of hills, on the Southeast by the San Diego county line and on the Southwest by the Pacific Ocean, in length 60 miles and in breadth 30 miles, will contain ample territory, to wit, 1800 square miles or 1,152,000 acres of land; ample population, to wit, 1600 voters or 8000 people, and ample wealth, the assessed valuation of the property within its limits being $6,000,000. Its creation will leave the county of Los Angeles, of which the proposed new county is now a part, with ample population—over 24,000 in fact, and the lines of the new county will in no case pass within 15 miles of the present county seat, while the new county will have 3000 more population than required by the Constitution for the creation of a new county. The object of attempting to create the new county is to lessen taxation, decrease cost of litigation and promote the comfort and convenience of all. In a spirit of exact justice and fairness, the location of the county seat is left to the vote of the electors of the proposed new county. The proposed new county has direct communication with San Francisco and other points by rail and from two ports by steamer, and the interests of its inhabitants, social and commercial, are separate and distinct from those of the northern part of the present county. For which reasons your petitioners pray immediate and favorable action upon the said bill. And your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

7 deg. below; at Stapleton, 8 deg. below.

"The thermometer at various points along the Harlem and New Haven Railroad in Westchester county, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, marked from 4 deg. to 11 deg. below zero. On the high ground at Hastings it went as low as 12 deg. below zero.

"At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer in front of Levering's drug store, Jersey City Heights, stood at 10 deg. below zero, and at 9 o'clock the thermometer be- side the Sheriff's office registered 1 deg.

below zero. The car drivers facing the wind looked like snow images with the frost en- crusting their eye-brows and beards and the snow in frozen cakes attached to their great coats. Many water pipes were frozen so that it was impossible to get water in many of the houses in Jersey City. The boiler in the kitchen of Mr. Jas. Horning at 23 Brinker- hoff street was frozen up, and when fire was started in the range the boiler exploded, shattering the range and tearing a hole in the wall. Julius Horning was struck in the face by a flying piece of the boiler and se- verely injured.

"The temperature in this city yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Hudson's pharmacy, was: 3 A. M., 1 deg. below; 6 A. M., 2 deg. below; 9 A. M., 1 deg.; 12 M., 1 deg.; 3:30 P. M., 5 deg.; 6 P. M., 4 deg.; 9 P. M., 4 deg.; 12 M., 2 deg.

"There were great crowds on the lake in Central Park early yesterday afternoon, but the cold soon thinned them out. When ears were frozen the police rubbed on snow and said the sufferers home. There were very few skaters in the evening."

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 30.—To-day the weather is the coldest since Jan. 18, 1875, when the thermometer reached 5 deg. below zero. To-day at sunrise the mercury marked below zero, took a rapid decline, until 7 o'clock this morning it marked 5 deg. below zero.

It was reported still lower in various parts of the city; but this was the official report of the United States Signal Office. At 10 oclock this morning it had risen to zero. At Wilmington, Del., it touched 8 deg. below.

Reports from exposed places along the Blue Ridge, in the Lehigh and Schuylkill region, showed an average temperature of from 14

deg. to 22 deg. below; the latter being reported at Lehighville, Pa. In the same region, most of the country roads are blockaded by snow, and the farmers are pulling down the fences and driving through the open fields on account of the snow drifts making the roads impassable.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 30.—The weather here to-day is the coldest since Jan. 18, 1875, when the thermometer reached 5 deg. below zero. To-day at sunrise the mercury marked below zero. The snow lies very thick on the ground and sleighing is very fine. James Johnson, an aged colored man, was found frozen to death near Allen's Station, nine miles from the city, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. A faithful dog was found on his body and had to be removed by force.

THE NEW COUNTY.

It is not the purpose of our people to secure county division by any unfair means or through any false representations. There are reasons enough to entitle this part of the county to a divorce without distorting facts or resorting to any questionable practices. Since the petition for division was printed, we have ascertained that the statement of the assessed valuation of property in the proposed new county is incorrect. In writing the petition, the amount was estimated at $600,000, but an inspection of the Assessor's books shows that the actual amount of assessed property in Orange county is as here given:

Town of Anaheim, $288,000
Stearns' Ranches, Los Alamitos, Mission Viejo and Trabuco Ranches, 757,296
Los Angeles and San Diego R. R., 270,000
Various owners, 284,794
Total, $1,000,000

At the rate of taxation now exacted ($1.50 on the $100 assessed valuation) the revenue of the new county from taxes would be $600,000. The county government bill which the Legislature is now considering, and which we have information will most likely pass, grades the counties down to the fifth class, and fixes the salaries of the officers in each. Orange county would be a fifth-class county, and it is computed that with the low salaries allowed officials in that class of county, the annual expenditures of Orange county would not exceed $100,000. The preliminary work of organizing the new county would of course involve extra expenditures during the first year. But it should be borne in mind by those prone to exaggerate this feature, that the contest for the county seat between the two spring towns will be sharp, and we doubt not that in the eagerness to secure the prize, the new county will find thrust upon it donations of land and buildings which will reduce by thousands of dollars the first year's expenses.

This county division agitation has its impulse from higher motives than mere office-seeking. It proceeds from a long-felt and deep-rooted conviction that the southern part of the county would be more prosperous if given a distinctive name and accorded its proper place at the head of the semi-tropical counties of Southern California. The very name proposed, "Orange," has a charm about it that will arrest the attention of Eastern people whenever they hear it mentioned or see it in their newspapers. It is, moreover, susceptible of proof that in the management or mismanagement of county affairs, this part of it has been ignored. This probably would have happened in a measure under the best of management, for the county is too large, too unwieldy, too diverse in interests to be legislated for and managed by one set of officials.

The problem of what to do with Grant is in a fair way to be solved. Gen. Logan has introduced a bill in the Senate to place General Grant on the retired army list. The bill was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. It provides that as a recognition of the services of the ex-General and ex-President, the President be authorized to appoint him, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to the retired list, and when he shall consider that an emergency has arisen requiring Grant's services in active duty, to assign him to any command commensurate with his rank.

The news which comes daily from the Emerald Isle is dispiriting enough, although there are some humorous phases to the agitation going on in that unhappy country. For instance, a telegram the other day conveyed the intelligence that "the batteries of artillery stationed at Dublin are prohibited from marching into the adjacent country for exercise without an escort." It would appear to the non-military reader that the soldiers of Her Majesty's batteries must be very timorous fellows to require an escort (presumably of policemen) to protect them and their cannon from the onslaughts of the pitchfork-armed Irish peasantry.

A BILL has been introduced in Congress which has some features which ought to commend it to the favorable consideration of our law-makers. It proposes a constitutional amendment that all civil officers of the United States, except Judges of the Supreme and Interior Courts and officers whose duties are temporary, shall hold office for four years; that Congress may provide for the election by the people of postmasters and other officers, whose duties are to be performed within the limit of any State, such offices to be subject to removal by the President on other than political and religious grounds.

SARCASTIC GROVE JOHNSON, of Sacramento, has introduced a bill in the Senate providing that all punishments for murder, except that committed in the perpetration or attempt to perpetrate arson, rape, robbery, burglary or mayhem, be abolished, except as hereinafter provided. Section 2 provides that the murderer's life shall be forfeited to the second degree of the person murdered. Section 3 permits the relatives of the second degree to take the murderer's life at any time within two years after the discovery of the murderer. If the relatives be aged, crippled or females, they shall have the privilege of employing other persons to take the life of the murderer. Mr. Johnson's bill is incomplete, in that it does not give the poor murderer even the slight chance of escape which was vouchsafed to slayers in olden times. He should provide a City of Refuge, to which the murderer could turn after having done his bloody work, and within the walls of which he would be sheltered from the Avenger. This City of Refuge might be located at Los Angeles, a proceeding which would doubtless appease the wrath of the press of that city. If the State Hospital, the Normal School or a Mint be not established in accordance with their demands,

A crisis is evidently approaching in Mormon affairs. The vigorous terms in which President Hayes referred to the polygamists in his last message, together with the well-known views of President-elect Garfield, augurs an enforcement of the laws against the bigamous Saints. The recent action of Governor Murray of Utah confirms the drift of things. George Q. Cannon was re-elected Congressional delegate at the November election. He is one of the apostles, and has four wives. Allen G. Campbell, the defeated Gentile candidate for delegate, protested against the issuance to Cannon of a certificate of election, chiefly on the grounds that he is not a citizen of the United States and that he is a polygamist. The protest was made to the Governor, it being incumbent upon him to issue a certificate of election. The Governor heard arguments in the case and has given a decision adverse to Cannon, and has issued a certificate of election to Campbell. This is the first important victory ever won by the Gentiles in Utah, and great is their rejoicing. Cannon will of course appeal to the House of Representatives, but it is a foregone conclusion that he will meet with no sympathy.

JOHN F. SWIFT, one of the Commissioners sent to China to negotiate a treaty with the authorities of that country, has arrived in San Francisco. He sums up the work of the Commission in the following terms: "All that diplomacy can do has been done. It has untied the hands of Congress, and the matter of Chinese immigration is in the control of our government. Under the immigration treaty Congress can regulate the immigration of Chinese by putting a capitation tax on the Chinese arriving here; can levy a yearly or monthly tax for allowing them to labor; can say how many may come yearly or per month; can fix the number that may be in the country at any one time, and can suspend immigration for two, three, or even five years. In short, Congress can regulate the immigration just as it sees fit; and also can terminate the residence of the Chinese laborer when it is deemed necessary."

The Debris Bill is a measure unjust in itself, but becomes more unbearable by the way in which its provisions have been carried out. There was a well-grounded suspicion at the time of its passage by the last Legislature, that there was "money in it" for somebody. Who that "somebody" will perhaps be made known if the present Legislature takes favorable action upon a bill introduced in the Senate to appoint a special committee of five to investigate the debris work, the manner of letting contracts, the amount of money expended, and the price paid. The introducer of the bill, Glascock, gave as one reason for his action that it was currently reported that the State has paid 40 cents per cubic yard for which individuals only pay 6 cents a yard.

Gen. J. F. Miller was elected U. S. Senator on Tuesday by the California legislature, the vote standing: Miller 69, Wallace 44. There were several scattering votes. The Nevada legislature has elected Jim Fair U. S. Senator. John Sherman was nominated on Tuesday for U. S. Senator from Ohio by the Republican caucus.

THE REASONS WHY

The People of the South-Eastern Part of Los Angeles County Want County Division.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—There has long been a well-grounded cause of complaint in the southern part of the State of California, and the middle portion of the State got everything and this part nothing. All of the public moneys are expended in the middle part of the State, while the claims of the south are ignored. Our part of the business seems to be confined to voting and paying taxes.

This is precisely the position that the south-eastern part of the county of Los Angeles bears to the central portion;—we vote and pay taxes, and get little in return. If county officers or representatives to the Legislature are to be elected, those who reside in the central part of the county are sure to be nominated and elected. If a man in this section is nominated for any position, he is sure to be defeated. Persons living in the southern extremity of the county are obliged to travel from 60 to 70 miles to reach the county seat; and in consequence whenever any of our people are obliged to visit the county seat as witnesses or jurors, their expenses are greater than their pay and mileage. If the county was divided the county seat would be located on the Santa Ana river, in or near the center of population of the new county, and four-fifths of the inhabitants would be able to leave home in the morning, drive to the county seat and drive home again in the afternoon, and thus save time and avoid the heavy expenses to which they are at present subjected.

The proposed new county will be 60 miles long by 30 miles wide, and contain 1,800 square miles or 1,152,000 acres of land, of which one-third is hill or mountain land, suitable for pasture, and two-thirds arable, one-half of which is irrigable. This territory is capable of supporting a large population. At present it contains over 8,000 people, of whom 1,900 are voters. The assessed valuation of property is in round numbers $4,000,000, and the amount of tax paid this year for State and county is $600,000, $26,000 of which is State and $54,000 county tax. Without any increase of taxation we could take our share of the present county debt, and with an economical administration of our county affairs we could easily pay our expenses, provide a sinking fund, and soon extinguish our debt. With our population and assessed valuation of property, we would be stronger than one-half of the counties in the Fourth Congressional District. We have the requisite territory, population and wealth; we are of full age and set up for ourselves and manage our own affairs. We have our own railroads and sea-ports and are commercially independent of the rest of the county. The people of this section are unanimously in favor of division, and the only opposition to the separation will come from the remainder of the county, who from selfish motives wish to continue to keep us tributary to them. Small, compact counties such as this will be, can be managed much more economically than large ones. The criminal element of this section is very small, and the trials of criminals will add but little to our expenses.

We wish to dissolve partnership with the balance of Los Angeles county, not from a feeling of animosity or from a wish to injure those whom we desire to cut loose from—who are abundantly able to take care of themselves,—but simply from a desire to better our own condition and avoid the loss of time and heavy expense to which we are now subjected. This alone is a sufficient reason for the division if there were none other.

Murder at El Monte.

On Tuesday night about 8 o'clock, the agent of the railroad company at El Monte, Mr. Tinker, was awakened by his wife who told him there was somebody trying to break into the house. He arose and looked out of the window, and recognized a man by the name of Henry Hunt, who, on hearing a noise in the house, desisted and walked over to the hotel. Tinker followed shortly afterwards, found Hunt in the barroom of the hotel, and instead of openly accusing him of trying to commit burglary he made numerous innuendoes in regard to somebody being a rascal, etc. Hunt left the barroom in a few minutes, but he had scarcely got into the street before Tinker placed his hands on Hunt's shoulder and said, "You are my prisoner." Instead of submitting, Hunt turned upon Tinker and gave him a thorough beating, dragging him into the hotel during the struggle. A man named Geo. W. Gillis stepped up and, laying his hand on Hunt's shoulder, told him not to beat the man any more—that he had beaten him enough. Without a word, Hunt drew a revolver and fired at Gillis, inflicting a mortal wound. He also fired two shots at Tinker, both taking effect but only inflicting slight wounds. Hunt sprang out of the door and ran down the road, before the half dozen men in the hotel could interfere. They fired several shots after him, but apparently without effect.

It seems that Hunt, who came to the Monte six weeks ago, has been suspected by the citizens of committing several depredations in the neighborhood. They asked Sheriff Rowland to send a detective to endeavor to secure evidence against Hunt, and to arrest him if he proved to be the guilty person. In response, the Sheriff drove to El Monte on Tuesday morning with Gillis (an ex-police officer of Los Angeles), leaving him there at the hotel, while the Sheriff himself continued on to his Puente ranch. Hunt probably had an inkling of Gillis's business, and supposed when the latter interfered in the affair with Tinker, he was about to arrest him. Gillis was shot through the stomach and expired about six o'clock on Wednesday morning. He leaves a wife and three children.

After the shooting, Hunt escaped into the willows and proceeded to the Rancho where he stole a horse from M. F. Tyler and continued his flight southward. He was pursued by a number of officers, and on Thursday evening he was captured at a stage station on the San Joaquin rancho, about fourteen miles from Santa Ana. The officers came up with Hunt on the road, but passed him without giving any sign that they recognized him. They rode forward to the station, and when Hunt rode up they covered him with their guns and he surrendered. He was taken to Los Angeles forthwith, passing through Anaheim during Thursday night. Hunt is a noted Arizona desperado, and recently broke jail at Prescott, where he was imprisoned for participation in a stage robbery.

Tinker officiated as agent at the Anaheim railroad depot during Mr. Darling's absence a couple of weeks ago.

The officers who effected the capture of Hunt were Isbell of Orange and Dunlap of Rancho.

Speedy Retribution.

[Los Angeles Express, Jan. 11.]

Last Sunday afternoon while Miss Mary Shaw, a young lady about sixteen or seventeen years of age, with her youngest sister, Mamie, and Emma Doyle, all residents of "the Willows," on the Carrizo rancho, were on their way to Sunday School, they were set upon by a young Mexican who rode upon horseback, and dismounting, quickly seized one of the smaller girls. The child screamed and struggled to release herself, and Miss Shaw, who at first had started to run away, returned to her rescue. By her aid the girl succeeded in breaking the fellow's grasp, leaving in his hand a cuff and a portion of her dress sleeve. Upon the escape of the smaller girl, the Mexican laid hold of Miss Shaw, throwing her violently to the earth and dragging her into the willows by the roadside. The two other girls ran with their utmost speed to the schoolhouse, to give the alarm.

Upon their return, Miss Shaw was found in the bushes nearly denuded, her clothing being cut from her person with a knife. She had suffered a severe bruise and a possible dislocation of the left shoulder, and it is said that her arm and two ribs were broken. The brute had also ravished her.

Mr. Teal and another young man named Garrison swore out a warrant for the arrest of the perpetrator of the crime and gave immediate pursuit, capturing him, still on horseback, late in the afternoon, somewhere in the vicinity of Wilmington. He proved to be Victor Miranda, about 16 or 17 years old, a resident of Florence, who had been at work some time hawking corn for Mr. Bailey on the Carrizos. Miranda at first denied any knowledge of the offense, but afterward confessed his guilt. As Mr. Teal and his companion were on their way to this city they were surprised by six masked men, who leveled shotguns at them and compelled them to deliver up their prisoner. It was at first thought that the party were friends of Miranda, whose purpose was to rescue him from the law, but it now proves that, after obtaining possession of him, they took him to Mr. Shaw's house, where he was confronted by the injured girl and identified, after which they took him into the bush and hanged him.

The body, still hanging, was discovered by Mr. Hayes yesterday. Coroner Nadeau received notice this morning to go down and hold an inquest.

The injured girl, at last reports, was in a high fever, but she will doubtless recover.

To the Taxpayers of Anaheim:

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS OF the Board of Trustees of the Town of Anaheim, I have prepared for publication the following brief statement of the financial transactions of the Board from the 1st day of May, 1890, to the 31st day of May, 1891, inclusive. The expenditures during that period have been—
Maintenance and purchase of water works, $ 925.67
Maintenance and repairing streets, 156.25
Building bridges and repairing same, 236.97
Current Expenses, 153.16
Interest on loan, 142.40
Total, $1,715.39

The sum of $236.56 was expended in the purchase of the water pipe running along Anguine Street and side streets, which makes the cost of running the water works during the eight months 1890-91—which sum includes the salary of the engineer $ 700.00
The only other salaries paid by the Town is that of the Clerk, $60.25 (per month), the Marshal, $65 (per month) and the Assessor, $60 (per year).
The item of current expenses includes such accounts as Justice's fees, Marshal's fees for arrests, printing, stationery and blank books, blankets for jail rent, of the Fire Company's truck house, $5 (per month), contribution towards purchasing hose, (52) and other minor items.

The indebtedness of the town on the 31st day of May 1890, was about $1254. This sum has been paid, which makes the disbursements for the past eight months $2009.29. There is at the present time no outstanding claims against the Town, and there is a balance in the Treasury of 2500, which sum will be expended in improving the streets. The Trustees desire to call attention to the fact that the streets, for the past year or eighteen months, have been in better condition than they ever were before; that new bridges have been built wherever necessary and old bridges kept in thorough repair; and that the condition of the Town generally has been better than during former years.

Taxpayers of the Town of Anaheim will find in our advertising columns a statement of the financial transactions of the Board of Trustees for the past eight months.

The Board of Supervisors will fix the water rates for the various irrigating companies in the county at the regular meeting in February.

Contemplating a change in business, the publisher of the Downey Courier offers the printing material, etc., for sale, or the same will be leased to a responsible party.

A petition to the Legislature is being circulated throughout the county for signatures, praying for the enactment of a local option law.

Mr. Joe Holmen has moved into his new store, and will hereafter keep a full line of groceries, in addition to his usual stock. See advertisement.

Anaheim has two brass bands and another being organized. The Gazette says but very little about them as it is in the habit of suppressing anything tending to discourage immigration. — Riverside Press.

Governor Perkins has appointed J. M. Griffith and L. H. Titts as Directors of the Sixth District Agricultural Society in the place of Governor Downey and L. J. Rose whose terms of office have expired.

The completion of the Southern overland route will be celebrated by a grand excursion from the East to Los Angeles and San Francisco. The fare for the round trip to this city will be about $40.

Our Democratic contemporary, the Los Angeles Herald, has started a General Jackson boom by a two-column panegyric in last Saturday's issue. It is rather early to make up a ticket for 1894.

Mr. D. W. C. Cowan will this season plant twenty acres of his land in vineyard. He will plant a great many varieties of vines, but the Malvoise will be in the majority.

There are some cold places in Arizona, and that's a fact. At Benson, on the morning of the 9th instant, the thermometer indicated 1 degree above zero. It snowed at Denning on the same day.

J. C. McClure was arrested in the northern part of the county a few days ago, charged with poisoning a lot of sheep belonging to Mary Connelly, of Green Meadows District. He was held for trial with bail fixed at $500.

Mr. Leopold Cohen leaves for Tombstone, A. T., to-morrow, where a business opening awaits him. Mr. Max Cohen goes to-morrow to Downey, having accepted a position in Schlemmer's store. Mr. Isaac Cohen will remain in Anaheim.

The case of Francis Mora, Roman Catholic Bishop of the Southern California diocese, vs. Jesus Rumez, involving title to a portion of the rancho San Juan Capistrano, was tried in the United States Circuit court on last Friday and Judge Sawyer took it under advisement.

During the week about two hundred names of citizens of Anaheim have been subscribed to a petition asking Congress to revoke the act granting to the railroad company lands in the Mussel Slough district, because the company have failed to comply with the terms of the act in building their road.

Deputy Sheriff Huber returned from San Francisco yesterday, bringing with him T. Gostrom, who is wanted here to answer a charge of embezzlement. It appears that Gostrom, who was then Captain of a schooner, in October, 1879, was entrusted with a cargo of barley, shipped by Mr. Morrison, of Wilmington, which he was to sell at San Francisco and remit the proceeds to Mr. Morrison. He sold the barley, but, instead of remitting the amount received, he levanted and kept out of the way until a few days ago, when he was captured by the San Francisco police. — Herald.

A land sale of considerable local interest was consummated last week. The following is an extract from the report of the transactions of the County Recorder's office last Saturday: Arcadia B. de Baker (former wife of Abel Stearns) and Robert S. Baker, her husband, to Moses S. Hopkins, of Sutter Co., interest in tract recorded in book 9, page 624 of deeds; also 1/4 of contract, book 38, deeds, page 351; and also 1/4 of contract, book 61, deeds, page 371; all said contracts being made to Alfred Robinson, as trustee, and relating to the ranchos Los Coyotes, La Habra, San Juan Cajon de Santa Ana, La Balsa and La Balsa Chica; $110,000.

Notice.

To owners of Carriages, Buggies and Spring Wagons:—Business in which I am interested in the Eastern Cities demanding my personal attention, I shall discontinue my work in Anaheim within a few months. Parties desiring their vehicles painted are respectfully requested to call at my shop as soon as possible and contract for the same. L. E. FINE, Lemon St., Anaheim.

—There was a large attendance at Kroeger's hall on Saturday night, in response to the call for a meeting to discuss county division. Mr. B. Dreyfus was chosen Chairman. It would not, in our opinion, be good policy to make public all that was said by the several speakers. It is enough to say that the proceedings were harmonious, every motion being carried unanimously. After Mr. Montgomery had explained the provisions of the bill to create the county of Orange, discussion was had as to the proper preliminary steps which should be taken to secure its passage. The following resolutions were adopted in the order given: Resolved, That the bill prepared by Mr. Montgomery be adopted, and that it be sent to Sacramento in care of a messenger who shall remain there and urge its passage. Resolved, That Mr. B. Dreyfus be selected as messenger. Messrs. Miles, Montgomery and Barham were appointed a Finance Committee to solicit funds to defray the necessary expenses, and they were authorized to employ solicitors to circulate the petition for county division. Before adjournment a large sum was subscribed for the purpose stated. Mr. Dreyfus went to Sacramento this morning, various causes having contributed to delay him. A meeting of citizens was held at Santa Ana on Wednesday night, at which the question of county division was thoroughly discussed. The meeting resolved that it was the sense of the residents of that section that county division was necessary, and that they would use all honorable means to secure division. Mr. James McFadden was selected to go to Sacramento to co-operate with Mr. Dreyfus in securing the passage of the bill.

The Masquerade Committee have arranged to procure from the Delmonico Club and Union Hall, San Francisco, a lot of designs and decorations for the Hall, and it is safe to say that the hall will present a brilliant appearance. Three hundred and fifty invitations have been sent out, and there is no question that the attendance, both of makers and spectators, will be larger than at any previous affair of the kind given in Anaheim. An elegant supper will be provided for guests.

The Santa Barbara Press says boastfully: "The city of Santa Barbara is entirely out of debt, and the delinquent taxes at this time do not amount to one hundred dollars. This speaks well for the promptness of the taxpayers, and volumes for the management of the city fathers." Anaheim can make a better showing. The town is out of debt, has several hundred dollars in the treasury and the delinquent tax list foots up about twenty dollars.

At the first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Los Angeles Farming and Milling Company, held in San Francisco on the 10th of January, the following officers were elected: For Directors, Isaac Lankershim (President), William Scholle (Treasurer), Louis Sachs, Levi Strauss, S. Lipman, E. F. Bunnell, and I. N. Van Nuy; for Secretary, S. L. Langer.

A Los Angeles fruit seller is astonishing the people of that city by selling cantaloupes grown in Anaheim. It may be well to explain that they were harvested late in the season and stored until the present time. It is possible that Anaheim may in a year or so send peaches in mid-winter to our sister city. Mr. Hollegren has a peach tree now in full bloom.

Capt. Berry, of the City of Pekin, has presented to his friend Capt. A. S. Ferguson of Anaheim thirty-six small camphor trees, which he has planted on his farm north of town. It is believed that these trees will grow thrifty here, as they do well in some parts of Japan where it is much colder than in Southern California.

Mr. Fred Hartung has purchased the forty acres known as the Cullen vineyard, the consideration being $3000. Mr. Theodore Hartung and family will reside upon the place, and the vineyard, which has been very much neglected of late years, will receive careful culture.

A man may be a good bank President and at the same time be an infernally bad speller. At a "Spelling Bee" in Los Angeles Mr. Slauson approved himself the worst speller in the class and got the prize therefor—a pasteboard watch.

The Messrs. White now combine wagon making with blacksmithing, as will be seen by their advertisement. They are painstaking, efficient workmen, and are building up a large trade.

The widow of the late F. P. F. Temple, who was married about six weeks ago to a man young enough to be her son, got a divorce from her husband on Monday.

Those who want their carriages and buggies painted should heed the warning given to-day by Mr. L. E. Fish. He is compelled to return East soon to finish some unsettled business.

Bundy & McFadden of Santa Ana have a local notice in to-day's paper. They have a large stock of goods in their line and are working up a fine business.

Ten cents will buy a great many nice things at the American Cash Store. See advertisement.

Parties are engaged in gathering statistics for, and canvassing for subscribers to, a county directory.

WAREHOUSE, STABLE, SHELVS AND COUNTERS

WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION THIS AFTERNOON AT 2 O'CLOCK. COHEN BROS.

—About two or three months ago, Messrs. Decker, Sparks, Petty and others, with their families, left Artesia for some point in New Mexico, traveling in their own teams and taking with them all their household goods. The relatives of one of the party received information a few days ago of a terrible tragedy which had happened to the emigrants. It appears that the company kept together until they arrived at a point on the borders of New Mexico where there was so scarce that it sold for fifteen cents a gallon. This and other discouraging circumstances induced Decker and others of the party to return towards Arizona, but Sparks and Petty determined to push forward to the place where they had decided to locate. When within fifteen miles of the place, they were surrounded by Indians and a siege was maintained—men, women and children. Sparks was accompanied by his wife and two children and Petty had a wife and grown up daughters. There are a great many rumors in regard to the matter, but the above version appears to be the true one. Mr. Oliver Sparks was a highly-respected man and his death will be greatly deplored by a large number of friends. He was a member of the Anaheim Lodge A. O. U. W. Mr. Petty was likewise well known in the Artesia settlement, where, it is said, he has some relatives.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the lower Court in the suit of I. W. Lord against Goodall, Nelson and Perkins. The plaintiff claimed damages for goods shipped by him on the Ventura which was wrecked while proceeding from San Francisco to Los Angeles some years ago. The decision is in the favor of the defendants, the Court holding that section 4289 of the Revised statutes of the United States exempted owners of vessels from all liability where damages occur through the negligence of the master, but without the knowledge or privity of the owners.

A new lodge of A. O. U. W., to be known as Southern California Lodge No. —, was organized in Los Angeles Tuesday evening by D. G. M. W. Irving A. Dunahorn. Twenty-five members were present and initiated and the following officers elected and installed: H. R. Brown, P. M. W.; G. Q. Stewart, M. W.; J. Hannon, Foreman; R. G. Cunningham, Overseer; W. H. H. Russell, Recorder; J. W. Haverstick, Financier; J. J. Woodworth, Receiver; J. H. Burke, Guide; A. Rimpau, I. W.; R. Y. Templeton, O. W.; Dr. W. Lindley, Medical Examiner; H. C. Austin, L. Harris, B. W. Kleinman, Trustees.

A resolution of the City Council to close the saloons on Sundays was defeated on Saturday night by a vote of 11 to 3. The question was raised by Mr. Spence that there was a State Law that covered the case, and that as the City License to sell liquors did not specify the day on which sales should be made there would be complications and needless expense in the matter which should be left to the State. The opinion of the City Attorney was also given that the city could not succeed in a suit to enforce the ordinance. — Los Angeles Commercial.

Mr. A. Langenberger has at his store a petition which all wine makers are requested to sign. It asks Congress to repeal the recent law which prohibits the sale of brandy to go on the market with its distinctive stamp, thus guaranteeing its purity. Under the present system, rectified mix all sorts of vile compounds with grape brandy and place it on the market under the latter name, thus bringing discredit upon it.

Mrs. Bessie Lawrence, assisted by Prof. Arrevalo of Los Angeles and a number of her pupils, will give a vocal and instrumental concert at Kroeger's Hall in about two weeks. The proceeds of the concert will be made public in a few days, as well as the programme for the evening.

Mr. M. A. Mendelson has added the business of Commission Merchant to that of merchant tailor. He represents a wealthy firm of San Francisco, and is prepared to purchase largely and pay liberally for the articles which he enumerates in his advertisements in to-day's paper. Give him your patronage.

Gen. Banning, we learn, has commenced driving piles for the depot of the Wilmington and Redondo Island Railroad Company. It is supposed that the Directors will be Paul Jones, T. Leggett, and Capt. Henry Chase. Major Downing will be Superintendent. — Herald.

Frank, better known to old residents of Wilmington as "Pat," Murray, died at Prescott on Monday, the 7th inst., of pneumonia. Murray was a very well known resident of this county at one time.

Rsv. W. McKay has gone to try the sea air at Santa Monica, exchanging pulpits with his brother, who will preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The three-year old daughter of Mr. N. H. Mitchell fell from a table on Saturday and broke her arm. The little sufferer is getting along very well.

Mr. B. F. Seibert has been elected to represent Anaheim Lodge No. 55, A. O. U. W. at the session of the Grand Lodge, which convenes in San Francisco on February 1st.

Mr. W. A. Morrison has purchased the blacksmith shop on Center Street from Mr. Tim Boege, and will take possession on the 1st of February.

BUNDY & McFADDEN

Of Santa Ana have one of the largest and best selected stocks of Hardware to be found in Southern California, consisting of Builders' Hardware, Doors and Windows, Paints and Oils, Glass, Wall-paper, etc. Also a large and well selected stock of Stores and Tinware, Wagon Material, Blacksmith supplies, Planing Powder, Furs, Miners' Picks, Pick Handles, Drill Steel, etc. We are getting our goods direct from Eastern manufacturers which enables us to sell at greatly reduced prices. Nails, 24 per bag. Galvanized Barbed Wire, 14 cents per lb. Painted Barbed Wire, 15 cents per lb.

The Supreme Court has held in the case of the Park Canal and Mining Company vs. Hoyt that although an appropriator may be entitled to the flow of a stream of water unimpeded, the water above his ditch is not his personal property. The evidence in the case tended to prove that the Park company owned a ditch dug for the purpose of conducting water from the Cosumnes river to Squaw Hollow creek, and also of another ditch leading from Squaw Hollow creek at a point below the Cosumnes ditch. Hoyt diverted water from Squaw Hollow creek at a place below the two ditches. It was in evidence that at all times when the water was taken by Hoyt there was not sufficient water in Squaw Hollow creek ditch. But there was no evidence as to the quantity of water then running from the Cosumnes river into Squaw Hollow creek. If this was the case, says the Court, it is clear that an action for the value of the water, as personal property, cannot be maintained. The natural bed of Squaw Hollow creek required an artificial conduit to the extent, and only to the extent, that the waters of Cosumnes river flowed through it. The water brought to Squaw Hollow creek by the Cosumnes river ditch alone, if any water can be so considered, can be considered the personal property of the Park Company.

Geo. F. Sylvester, the noted secedman, has a double-column advertisement in to-day's paper. He is one of the most reliable men in the business and worthy of patronage.

Mr. J. W. Shanklin was in town on Wednesday and through his efforts the financial difficulties of the Cajon Irrigation Company were settled and the position of insolvency was withdrawn from court.

Riverside Citrus Exhibition.

Fruit-Growers of Southern California:—

The Third Annual Exhibition of Citrus and Semi-Tropical Fruits grown in California will be held at Riverside, San Bernardino county, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 9, 10 and 11, 1881.

The Executive Committee would respectfully direct the attention of the fruit growers of Southern California to the great value of these annual meetings. Through them an excellent opportunity is given for the comparison of fruits, and the methods of cultivation. We therefore solicit the assistance of all in making this exhibition a greater success than any held heretofore.

We would also respectfully suggest that the best specimens of the citrus fruits grown be preserved for exhibition, especially of all new varieties.

In order to make the comparison of lemons of more practical value, we would recommend that all fruit intended for comparison be packed upon the same day, say the 25th day of January, 1881, and kept in a dry, cool place until needed, as it has been found in former experiments that the quantity and quality of the acid is much improved by keeping the lemon a few weeks before using.

As specimens of the new crop of Malaga raisins will be on exhibition for comparison with those made in Southern California, we would urge all interested in this industry to be present, and to bring samples of their raisins with them.

A Joint Committee together with the previous list will be shortly published.

Famous Men of Muscle.

Among the Greeks the successful athlete was crowned with laurels and loaded down with wealth and honors.

Milo six times won the palm at both the Olympic and Pythian games. He is said to have run a mile with a four-year old ox upon his shoulders, and afterward killed the animal with one blow of his fist, and ate the entire carcass in one day. So great was his muscular power that he would bind a cord around his head and break it by the swelling pressure of the veins. An ordinary meal for Milo was twenty pounds of meat, as much bread, and fifteen pints of wine.

Polydamus of Thebes was of colossal height and prodigious strength, and it is said, alone and without weapons, killed an enormous enraged lion. One day, it is recorded, he seized a bull by its hind feet, and the animal only escaped by leaving the hoof in the grasp of the athlete.

The Roman Emperor Maximus was upward of eight feet in height, and, like Milo of Crotona, could squeeze to powder the hardest stone with his fingers and break the leg of a horse by a kick.

While a prisoner in Germany, Richard I accepted an invitation to a boxing match with the son of his jailer. He received the first blow, which made him stagger; but recovering, with a blow of his fist he killed his antagonist on the spot.

Topham, an Englishman, born in 1710, was possessed of astonishing strength. His arms, hollow in the case of ordinary men, were with him full of muscles and tendons. He would take a bar of iron, with its two ends held in his hands, place the middle of the bar behind his neck, and bend the extremities by main force until they met together, and bend back the iron straight again.

The famous Scanderberg, King of Albania, who was born in 1414, was a man of great stature, and his feats of sword exercise have never been equalled. On one occasion, with his cimeter, he struck his antagonist such a blow that it forced cleaved him to the waist.

Maurice, Count of Saxony, was especially noted for the surprising muscular power of his hands. On one occasion, needing a cork-screw, he twisted a large iron nail round into the required shape with his fingers, and opened half a dozen bottles of wine with it. Another time he picked up a number of horseshoes and with his hands snapped them in two as readily as if made of glass.

If history is to be believed, Phyllus of Crotona could jump a distance of fifty-six feet.

Strutt, an English authority on games and amusements, speaks of a Yorkshire jumper named Ireland whose powers were marvelous. He was six feet high, and at the age of 18 leaped, without the aid of a spring board, over nine horses ranged side by side.

"Nurseryman" writes to the Colusa Sun as follows: Our orchards are more or less affected by the woolly aphid. I have had much success with strong tobacco water. Take an old paintbrush and use the tobacco water as a paint, and rub the parts of the tree where the white down or web is formed so as to break the web, and the strong decoction, or fruit tobacco, will destroy them. Go through your orchard once a week, and be thorough, and you won't find much, if any, the third time you go to apply the mixture. This fall being so dry it has been a good time for them to spread, as they do not work in the cold, wet weather. I hope that our orchardists, or every one who has an apple tree, will try this or use other means so as to destroy this pest.

George Eliot's Romola.

A timely interest is given, by the death of the author, to the new edition of her masterpiece, "Romola," just issued by the American Book Exchange, New York. It shows her work at its best and strongest, and at the same time gives the reader the opportunity to acquire a lasting familiarity with the scenes and society of medieval Italy. It is one of the few really great historical novels of the world. It is issued in a handy and beautiful form, extra cloth binding, simple but rare elegance and taste in design, and like the other issues of the "Literary Revolution" its cost is almost nominal, viz. 32 cents. It is one of a series intended to form a library of classic fiction, which will include one representative and characteristic work of each of the great authors who have won lasting fame in the realm of fiction. Life is too short and too full of work to permit the reading of off that is beautiful and valuable in these creations of the imagination, but even very busy people can find time to read one book by each of the score of authors who have won immortal fame and place in the affections of the people. Not to be acquainted with them is to be ignorant of much that is most important and most interesting in the history of nations and of men. Not to possess them is to be deprived of most fruitful and profitable sources of enjoyment. Among those issued or nearly ready are: Scott's "Ivanhoe," Bulwer's "Pompeii," Irving's "Knickerbocker," Cooper's "Mohicans," "Tom Brown at Rugby," "Adventures of Don Quixote," and "Hilda," a Romance of Ancient Egypt. Full catalogue of standard publications will be sent on request, by the American Book Exchange, Tribune Building, New York.

HAIR RENEWER.

Has been in constant use by the public for over twenty years, and is the best preparation ever invented for restoring GRAY HAIR to ITS YOUTHFUL COLOR AND LIFE.

It supplies the natural food and color to the hair glands without staining the skin. It will increase and thicken the growth of the hair, prevent its falling out, and falling off, and thus insure permanent baldness.

It cures itching, eruptions, and dandruff. As a HAIR DRESSING it is very desirable, giving the hair a silken softness which all admire. It keeps the head clean, sweet and healthy.

THE BEST

OF ALL

LINIMENTS

FOR MAN OR BEAST.

When a medicine has faithfully done its work in millions of cases for more than a third of a century, when it has reached every part of the world, when numerous families, everywhere, consider it the only safe and reliable remedy for all ailments, it is pretty safe to call such a medicine

THE BEST OF ITS KIND.

This is the case with the Mexican Mustang Liniment. Every man brings intelligence of a valuable horse saved, the agony of an awful cold or burn subdued, the horrors of rheumatism overcome, and of a thousand and one other blessings and cures performed by the old reliable Mexican Mustang Liniment.

All forms of the most dangerous diseases are speedily cured by this.

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment.

It penetrates the muscles, membrane and tissue, to the very bone, banishing pain and curing disease with a power that never fails. It is a medicine needed by everybody, from the ranchero, who rides his over the solitary plains, to the merchant prince, and the woodchopper who splits his log with the axe.
