ECONOMIC PLANTS FOR CAL-

IFORNIA.

The horticultural journals are apt to devote themselves too entirely to a few leading products, and harp too much upon one string.

After the great staples of the leading grain and fruits have been named, there is apt to be an astonishing lack of information about the minor products, so valuable in the aggregate. But, bearing in mind the characteristics and variety of California's climate and soil, even the most bald list read from the pages of the druggist's circular, may possess

a significance. If Californians will turn their attention to the naturalizing of many of these neglected products, which less-famed lands now have a comparative monopoly, the result cannot but be a pleasant one.

The new era of small farms, pleasant homes, and brains applied to horticulture is leading thoughtful persons towards this effort to succeed with new products. The following named plants possess an economic value, and may be expected to thrive within the limits of this State.

The distilling of essential oils from leaves,

flowers, etc., presents attractive features.

Several varieties of eucalyptus and pit-toponium, besides the jasmynes, styrax, patchouli, lemon-grass, cetrovella, and many other plants, numbering in all about fifty species, are grown for this purpose. Helio-trope by distillation yields a costly oil. Jasmignone can be grown on a large scale. The tuberose attains great perfection in parts of this State. Rosemary, thyme, violets, origanum, and many other flowers are worth a trial for this purpose. Peppermint also might be grown.

In quite another department the atropa, belladonna, a perennial and medicinal herb would thrive here. Caraway and coriander, and the almost endless variety of herbs and plants used to flavor food, or as condiments, deserve a mention.

Among interesting fruits and nuts not yet

grown here, are two of Australian origin,

the Herbert Vale cherry and the Queensland

nut. The trees bear young and are handsome. Both fruits are pronounced of great utility. China offers the whampoo, litchi, and other fruit and nut bearing trees. And it might be asked, why is not the Paraguay tea tested, also the inga dulcis and the star-apple? India has many fine timber trees, well adapted to the needs of this Coast. The table-lands of Africa probably contain many plants not yet known to science, but sometimes to be acclimated in California gardens.—Bulletin.

Professor Taylor of the Agricultural Department has been making some interesting experiments with naphthalene as an insecticide, and reported the results at a recent meeting of the District of Columbia Horticultural Society. He says: "If seeds, grains, dormant plants, vines, etc., be placed in the light of a small quantity of the naphthalene

it then be covered, in a few hours any insect that may infest them will be asphyxiated." The Professor exhibited a jar containing some Egyptian corn, which two years ago had been received from California, and which, when received at the Department, was alive with small beetles. The noise of their gnawing was distinctly heard. Of course the seeds would be destroyed unless the insects were. A small quantity of the naphthalene was mixed with the seed and very soon the noise ceased, the vermin being</

Kleinigkeiten.

The P. C. S. S. Co's schedule for May is published to-day.

Miss Mary Farlow has been committed to the Insane Asylum from Los Angeles.

Geo. C. Freeman has been appointed a Notary Public, to reside at Santa Ana.

"El Molino," the old Keweenaw place at San Gabriel, has been sold to Mr. Mayberry of San Francisco for $36,000.

We keep in stock receipt books, order books and note books, well printed and strongly bound. All kinds of job printing done in an artistic manner and at low prices.

Judge Sepulveda and Judge Myrick—the latter of the Supreme Court—spent a few hours in town on Monday, and expressed themselves as delighted with the place.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the residence of Mrs. B. Dreyfus on Wednesday May 4th at two o'clock p. m. A full and prompt attendance is requested.

N. E. Hunt has been granted a divorce from Chas. E. Hunt. Mary S. Hunt was divorced on Tuesday from Wm. F. Hunt and on the same day was married to E. T. Mills of El Monte.

The 8 to 12 Club gave their first party on Friday night of last week. Those who were fortunate enough to be present expressed themselves as delighted with the initial party.

Victor Montgomery Esq. has been appointed general agent for Los Angeles and San Diego counties for Jeff. Davis' book, "The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government."

The card of Mr. H. J. Stevenson, Surveyor, is published to-day. Mr. Stevenson's long residence in this county, and his knowledge of the various tracts of land, makes quite a demand for his professional services.

Preaching may be expected Sunday morning by Rev. S. B. King in the Presbyterian Church, and every Sunday morning hereafter unless otherwise advertised. Rev. Mr. Brier is also expected to be present and take part in the services to-morrow morning.

Mr. Allen Lawton has decided to take a well-earned vacation and will leave for Racine (Wisconsin) and other points East on Monday. We hope the two months which will intervene before his return will be crowded with pleasant incidents.

It is not true that Supervisor Egan is the author of the following:
A dashing young girl of San Juan
Who belonged to the very best ton
Said: "When I met a wife
You can bet my sweetest life
There'll be style 'till you can't rest put on."

Becoming alarmed at the determination of the GAZETTE to secure the Branch Normal School at Anaheim, the Finance Committee "rattled" around lively and succeeded after a mighty effort in getting together the $8000 with which to pay the mortgage which covered the site selected.

The question to be discussed at the meeting of the Anaheim Lodge A. O. U. W. on next Monday evening is: "Weighed, That the assassination of Lincoln is a crime." Affirmative, Messrs. Alms, Melrose and Ferguson; Negative, Messrs. Bauer, Sorenson and Guinn.

Rev. J. A. Emery has gone to San Francisco to attend the Episcopal Convention which meets in Trinity church on May 4th. The services at St. Michael's church to-morrow will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Hill, who will officiate in the morning and evening at the usual hours.

For the first time, we believe, Decoration Day (May 30th) will be observed in Anaheim. There are several Union soldiers interred in the cemetery at this place, and the Santa Ana Post of the G. A. R., assisted by the ex-soldiers living in this vicinity, will conform to the beautiful custom in vogue all over the Union of decorating the graves of soldiers with flowers and wreaths.

Mr. C. A. Norman had his thumb torn off at the first joint on last Friday. He was leading a horse, the rope being wrapped around his hand. The animal became fractious and pulled back, with the result stated. Mrs. Dr. Higgins sewed on the detached piece of thumb, (it was practically detached, being only held by a strip of skin) and the member will probably soon be as well as ever.

Los Angeles having "taken the cake" for having the most pure and spotless real estate agent, now has a man whom it is ready to enter on the lists as to "cheek" with any book agent, lightning rod conductor or newspaper puff solicitor. This man is a common larceny thief. He was tried twice by a jury of twelve men. His guilt was plain and undoubted, but the first jury disagreed; the second convicted him. He was furnished free of expense by the county with an attorney to defend him and a shorthand reporter to report his case. He testified in both trials on his own behalf, and on the conclusion of the last trial he insisted on his attorney procuring for him his fee as a witness. If there is anybody to match him, let us hear who he is and what he has done.

The following is an extract from the proceedings of the Board of Town Trustees at their meeting on Wednesday:

The Board met in accordance with the requirements of Section 4 of the Charter and canvassed the votes cast at the election on Monday, the 25th instant, with the following result:

Total number of votes cast 128. For Trustees—B. Dreyfus 116, F. A. Korn 120, D. W. Fish 101, H. Werder 55, D. W. C. Cowan 75, D. E. Miles 77, B. F. Seibert 53, E. A. Saxton 30. For Assessor, J. P. Zeyn 130. For Clerk, R. Melrose 131. For Marshal, R. M. Barham 130. For Treasurer, Theo. Skimpan 128. For Justice of the Peace, A. Bailey 129, Wm. Clift 6.

The Clerk was ordered to issue certificates of election to the following:

Trustees—B. Dreyfus, F. A. Korn, D. E. Miles, D. W. Fish, D. W. C. Cowan. Assessor—J. P. Zeyn. Clerk—Richard Melrose. Treasurer—Theodore Skimpan. Marshal—R. M. Barham. Justice—Alexander Bailey. Mr. E. A. Saxton introduced a resolution to establish the width of sidewalks and to encourage the planting of trees on the outer edge of such sidewalks. It provides, as an incentive and inducement to the planting of trees, that "all persons planting and protecting such trees shall be entitled to a remission of town taxes on an amount equal to three dollars for each tree so planted, each year, for three years from the time of such planting."

The new Board will meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and effect an organization. The regular monthly meeting will be held on next Wednesday at 3 o'clock p. m. At the election last year 110 votes were cast—25 votes less than this year.

The nocturnal wailings of a convention of Thomas cats or the shrill yelpings of a pack of worthless dogs are exasperating enough to a tired individual trying to woo "the balm"; and the unwelcome sounds have been energetically condemned in every country under the sun. But where, except in Southern California, could one expect to find his rest disturbed by the twitterings of that kind of songsters, the mocking bird? And yet it often happens in Anaheim that a mocking bird will perch itself near one's bedroom window and trill forth his mocking imitation of other birds by the hour. The songs of the feathered beauty, so sweet at other times, lose half their charms when poured into the ear of a drowsy individual, yet the people who would throw their last look at a cat or dog have not the heart to "shoo" the mocking bird away, but suffer him to pour out his flood of melody until he stops, exhausted.

Mr. Albert Rimpan who, though so long a resident of Los Angeles, is looked upon by our people as being one of themselves, was united in marriage on Monday evening to Miss Woodworth, one of the fairest of all the fair ladies of Los Angeles. If the union proves one half as happy as all the friends of the young couple wish, there will not be a happier pair in all Christendom. A city paper thus speaks of the ceremony: "A large and brilliant company last night attended the marriage of Albert Rimpan and Miss Rosie Woodworth of this city. The services were conducted at the Cathedral, on Main street, by the Rev. Father McNamee. The attendants of the bridal party consisted of Mr. Clarence Rhodes, Miss Woodworth, sister of the bride; Joe Woodworth and Claudia Rimpan; Ed. Rimpan and Matilda Rimpan."

A new schedule went into effect on the railroad on Tuesday. No change was made in the time of arrival and departure of the Anaheim train, however. But mail from Anaheim and all points south reach Los Angeles twenty minutes after the departure of the Eastern train, and therefore remains in the post-office in that city for twenty-four hours. It is to be hoped that Postmaster-General James will soon finish his investigations into the "Star route" swindles so that he may turn his attention to rectifying such comparatively petty frauds as the one of which we now complain.

The remark is often made that the vineyards never looked better than they do this year. If the exemption from strong winds continues for a few weeks, allowing the new shoots on the vines to become somewhat toughened, the critical period will be about passed. It is noticeable that the grapes are not forming as thick on the bunches as they did last year—that is, there are fewer on a bunch, but the grapes promise to be much larger.

We had a call on Sunday from our friend Mr. George B. Griffin, the gentleman whom, during the past year or two, has talked occasionally to the readers of the GAZETTE, in the column set apart for correspondents. Mr. Griffin came direct from Tampico via New Orleans, where he has been surveying the bar in furtherance of Capt. Exa's scheme. He contributes to-day a few notes of his trip through New Mexico and Arizona.

The Anaheim Branch of the Irish National Land League, at their meeting on Sunday, adopted a resolution requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their best endeavors to have the case of Michael Boynton investigated by the proper authority. Boynton is an American citizen now confined in prison by the British authorities on suspicion of being connected with the troubles in Ireland.

The Last Week.

All the goods remaining unsold at the Merchant Tailoring Emporium on next Saturday will be packed up and shipped off. Rather than do this, I will sell my stock of clothing, goods, furnishings, etc., at less than cost, as it will not pay me to pay freight charges. I don't want the goods; I want the money, and anybody with money can get greater bargains at my store than they ever dreamt of. I mean business.

A well known merchant of Los Angeles received the following letter from an Eastern correspondent, which he gave to the Express for publication:

BALTIMORE, April 12, 1881.
Dear Sir: I have done my level best to ship goods by the new route—Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroads—but I see a note in your leading newspaper that, though passengers are being carried, the new road, no freight is being received. It is simply a scheme of Jay Gould's to continue all freights over the Central Pacific. I went direct to the main office of the Pennsylvania Railroad. They say they will receive freight but give bill of lading only to St. Louis, and, of course, if the goods were lost west of there, there would be a fight over recovery for them. I then went to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad office. They are receiving goods for some points this side of Los Angeles, but at shipper's risk. Through bills of lading are not given. Such being the case, I was, of course, compelled to ship your goods as before.

You Southern Californians will have to hold an indignation meeting and insist on the railroads carrying your freight the cheapest and quickest way, now that the road is completed.

Mr. L. Pelanco has given the editor of the Los Angeles Herald a specimen of orange brandy, of his own manufacture. The editor says that "as brandy it is not a success, as it lacks both body and flavor and is strongly impregnated with fusil oil. We have no doubt, however, but that, with age and the elimination of the oil, a pleasant beverage might be made from it." The orange brandy of France is described as a delicious beverage, its cost only preventing it from coming into general use. The time will yet come when the wind-falls and surplus oranges will be utilized in making wine.

The Anaheim GAZETTE publishes a list of the number of vines planted in and around that flourishing town, this Spring. The total amounts to 461,000 cuttings, of which we observe a large portion is made up of Black Malvoise; with Zinfandel, Berger, Muscat and Mission to fill out the grand total. This is about the same amount planted there last year, and shows the steady, onward progress of viticulture in Los Angeles county.—Commercial.

Rev. F. W. Voegelien of San Jose will preach at the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, May 31, at 8 o'clock in the evening, in the German language. An English address will also be made. All are invited to attend.

Stop That Cough.

If you are suffering with a Cough, Cold, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Consumption, loss of voice, tickling in the throat, or any affection of the Throat or Lungs, use Dr. Kiso's New Discovery for Consumption. This is the great remedy that is causing so much excitement by its wonderful cures, curing thousands of hopeless cases. Over one million bottles of Dr. Kiso's New Discovery have been used within the last year, and have given perfect satisfaction in every instance. We can substantiate any statement that this is really the only cure for throat and lung affections, and can cheerfully recommend it to all. Call and get a trial bottle free of cost, or a regular size for $1.00. For sale by A. Langenberger, Anaheim. Wholesale by Redington & Co., San Francisco.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning? The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford to run the risk of a cough if you know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold last year. It relieves Coughs and all kinds of Skin Eruptions. Mothers, do not be without it. One of the Czar's Escapes.

[San Francisco Post]

"When one considers the innumerable attempts made upon the life of the late Czar," writes our special correspondent at St. Petersburg, "the wonder increases that he escaped so long. Some of the most ingenious plots have been hitherto carefully hushed up by the members of the Imperial household. Among many infernal machines employed by the Nihilists, the American apple pie was much used. Four times in one week did the Lord Chamberlain detect this dreadful viand among the dishes on the royal table, where it had been placed by some unknown hand. On another occasion the Czar was groping about the pantry in the dark, endeavoring to get a snack of something before turning in. He took a mouthful of the first thing he came across, when he was seized with a sudden faintness. He was found in the morning lying unconscious, with a San Francisco doughnut clutched in his right hand. The Emperor was revived with difficulty, but to the day of his death was cursed with chronic dyspepsia. But to return to the revolting subject of pies. About a month before his death the Czar was invited to attend the picnic of the United Order of Buttonhole Workers at Seadger's Park, on the other side of the Neva. After playing Copenhagen for seven or eight hours, as is customary, the Czar was offered some suspicious looking lemonade and the usual kiln-dried picnic sandwiches, which he prudently declined. Noticing this a baffled Nihilist approached, and after walking carefully round the Emperor, said to him with assumed respect:

"Your Majesty wears light pants, I perceive."
"As you see," replied the Emperor.
"Is not that correct?"
"Precisely," exclaimed the conspirator, "but it is the custom for wearers of light pants at picnics to sit down on a pie."

"Is the custom imperative?" asked the Czar, gloomily.
"Absolutely, sire. It is a matter of tradition."
"Then let a pie be produced."

This was instantly done, the great American cemetery crowder being placed on a stump in front of the Czar.

"Is it vitally necessary that it should be a blackberry pie?" said the Dictator of All the Russias, dividing his coat tails with a shudder.

"As you say, sire."
"But I don't exactly understand," hesitated the despot. "Suppose you sit down first, just to show me how."
"I—your Majesty?" stammered the conspirator; "I—I—er—you see my trousers are old and black—they have been half-soiled—it would be no—"

"Squar!" roared the autocrat, suddenly whipping out his revolver. The miserable wretch sat down with a groan, and instantly after vanished through the tree tops. The pie had been loaded with nitro-glycerine. "I knew it," muttered the Emperor, and calling together his Privy Council with a dog whistle, he took the next car for the ferry.

Why Women Are Not Masons.

The question is often asked, why cannot women be Free Masons? A bald-headed Nevada orator, living among the sage-brush, far away from all womankind, ventures to answer it, as follows: "Women sometimes complain that they are not permitted to enter the lodges and work with the craft in their labors, and learn all there is to be learned in this institution. We will explain the reason. We learn that before the Almighty had finished his work he was in doubt about creating Eve. The creation of the living and creeping thing had been accomplished, and the Almighty had made Adam, who was the first Mason, and created for him the finest lodge in the world, and called it Paradise No. 1. He caused all the beasts of the field and fowls of the air to pass before Adam, for him to name them, which was a piece of work he had to do alone, that no confusion might thereafter arise from Eve, who he knew would make trouble if she was allowed to participate in it, if he created her beforehand. Adam being fatigued with his first task, fell asleep, and when he awoke found Eve in the lodge with him. Adam being Senior Warden, placed Eve as the pillar of beauty in the south, and they received their instructions from the Grand Master in the east, which, when finished, she immediately called the craft from labor to refreshment. Instead of attending to the duties of her office as she ought, she left her station, violated her obligation, and let in an expelled Mason, who had no business there, and went around with him, leaving Adam to look after the jewels. This fellow had been expelled from the Grand Lodge, with several others, some time before. Finding that Eve was no longer trustworthy, and that she had caused Adam to neglect his duty, and had let one in whom he had expelled, the Grand Master closed the lodge and turned them out, setting a faithful Tyler to guard the door with a flaming sword. Adam repented of his folly, went to work like a man and a good Mason, in order to get reinstated again. Not so with Eve! She got angry about it and commenced raising Cain. Adam, on account of his reformation, was permitted to establish lodges and work in the degrees, and while Eve was allowed to join him in his works of charity outside, she was never again permitted to assist in the regular work of the craft. Hence the reason why a woman cannot become an inside Mason."

The influence of sewage on potable waters is again being discussed. Herr R. Emmerich makes an original contribution to the subject. He has for a long time daily drunk from a half to one liter of water from one of the Munich brooks which receives sewage of every kind; he has satisfied himself that there were cases of typhoid in some of the houses which drained into the brook. No bad effects having followed the consumption of this beverage, Herr Emmerich invites other experimenters to pursue investigations similar to his own. The same observer, however, finds that sewage water produces death in rabbits when injected subcutaneously in quantities of from 6 to 60 cc, rabbits of a similar size being killed by the injection of 200 cc. of distilled water. The injection of the residue from the evaporation of 500 cc. of sewage water produced strong convulsions and death in rabbits. He proposes that suspected water may be examined by injecting 40 to 80 cc. under the skin of a full-grown rabbit; if no rise of temperature greater than 1 degree occurs, or if death does not quickly follow the injection, the water would probably be uninjurious to human beings drinking it.

It has often been asked "What's in a name?" In our opinion there is a great deal in a name. Few people will dispute the fact that our politics is sadly degenerating of late. And yet we are not obliged to hunt far to find the solution for this state of things. Take some of the names which have lately loomed up in politics! First came one Hickenlooper, who ran on the Republican ticket for Lieutenant-Governor in Ohio, with Charley Foster. What hope was there for sound, honest government with a Hickenlooper heading the Republican hosts? Gen. Hancock's star of course paled its ineffectual fires. In our own State we had Beerstecher, and the fiasco of the Railway Commission is, in our opinion, largely referable to that ill-omened name. Next comes one Riddleberger, whom Macbaine has been trying to make Sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate. Hickenlooper, Beerstecher and Riddleberger! What wonder that, with such a malign conjunction of political patronymies, the country is going steadily to the dogs?—[Los Angeles Herald.]

Some of the remedies for disease sought out by modern medical science are peculiar. Fuchsin—a bright aniline dye—was, not long since, recommended in Bright's disease, and now we have nitro-glycerine as a remedy for certain chest affections. It is given in doses of fifteen drops of a one per cent. alcoholic solution, and is also sold in tablets for prevention of emaciation and the relief of neuralgia, headache, etc.
