The Temptation

To go out of doors in rough weather is not strong, but we are, many of us, compelled to face rough weather frequently. Disease which arise from a chill are peculiar to no season of the year. This is true, therefore there should be in the closet of every household—what? Not an unsolicited stimulant, absolutely devoid of anything but an excitive action, but a tonic combining, in the effective form of an invigorant and an alterative, the quality of defense against changes of weather. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has three or four properties that no other article of its class possesses. Not only does it relieve the complaints which it eventually cures, it fortifies the system against the bad effects of changes of temperature, fatal to the unprotected, as shown in the deadly form of "la grippe." It produces a radical change in the wasted and enfeebled. Languishing, painstakingly liable to be attacked by it, and it tends to provide against the danger resulting from the impoverished condition of the blood and a disordered state of the liver or bowels.

Sugar Profits.

The American Sugar Refining Company of San Francisco has declared a dividend of 2½ per cent on common stock. The earnings of the company for the current year are estimated at $17,000,000. The profits of the company this month have been unusually large, owing to the active demand and increased price. Since the advent of cholera in New York the Sugar Trust has advanced its prices 7-16c, while raw grades have been put up only 3-16c, thus giving the Trust an increased net profit of 1c. On the basis of the meltings, this is equal to an additional profit of $32,000 per day. The reason for the advance is that no German beet sugar is likely to be shipped while the epidemic is in existence in Germany. There can be no evil but somebody is benefited. The presence of cholera has imposed a taxof $32,000 per day upon sugar consumers alone in this country. In many other ways profits will be secured because of the advent of the dreaded disease.

Saved From Deathby Onions.

There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. Fifty cents. Sold at Reil's drug store.

THE NEW PARASITES.

WILL THEY PROVE TO BE PEST DESTROYERS, OR ARE THEY FAILURES?

There has existed a difference of opinion among the horticulturists of Southern California as to the value of the new parasites for red and black scale recently introduced from Australia by Prof. Koebele. A meeting of the orange growers of the several citrus growing counties of Southern California was held in Los Angeles on Friday last for the purpose of thoroughly inspecting the orchards in which the new parasites have been established with a view to deciding upon the best course to pursue regarding them. Some sixty horticulturists were present at the inspection, and after a thorough examination of the premises where the parasites had been established, the following report was made:

FRUIT GROWERS' REPORT.

The fruit growers, representing the counties of Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino, assembled in Pomona for the purpose of making a careful investigation of the present outlook and future possibilities of the predaceous insects that have been sent over by Albert Koebele, from Australia, through the efforts of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, and the California State Government beg leave to submit the following report:

That we not only commend, but warmly indorse, the efforts of the State Board of Horticulture in its endeavor to introduce beneficial insects to prey upon all noxious insect life at present infesting our orchards and gardens; and that we appreciate and shall help every legitimate effort to colonize parasitic insects to prey upon those at present so injurious to our trees and their products. Nevertheless, we deprecate the circulation of the glowing accounts that have been sent abroad by the State Board touching these ladybirds, as being premature and injurious to horticulture, inasmuch as they are at variance with the facts and deceptive to the fruit growers. Information from official source, in order to be valuable, should be reliable and based upon scientific research.

That on September 23, 1892, we made a careful examination of three of the orchards in which have been placed for a period of five to ten months colonies of the new Australian ladybirds (orcus chalybeus, orcus Australasiae and leis conformis) said to be effective parasites of the red scale (aspidiotus aurantii) the black scale (lecanium olae) and of the woolly aphis of the apple. The first orchard visited was that of Albert F. Kercheval, on Lemon street, near Los Angeles. This is one of the oldest orchards in Los Angeles county, and is infested with the red scale. In this orchard has been placed a grand total of 442 of the steel-blue ladybirds (orcus chalybeus) said to be effective parasites of the red scale, in different colonies during a period of about five to ten months. The trees (orange and lemon) upon which they were liberated, contain a sufficient supply of food in the way of red scale, were well protected from winds, and afforded every condition calculated to favor the parasite and their multiplying. A painstaking endeavor to find evidence of the ladybirds being established resulted in finding larvae, pupæ, beetles, and their eggs, but only in comparatively small numbers. A survey of surrounding trees failed to reveal any evidence to prove that the parasites in the beetle state had spread to any extent. To all intents the parasites have made no appreciable inroads on the scale; not even on the two trees on which colonies have been liberated. Mr. Kercheval, who has watched the orcus chalybeus very carefully, gives it as his opinion that they have made no "showing," or the red scale since their advent in his orchard. The second orchard visited was that of Samuel McKinley, on Wilmington avenue. In this orchard were placed, on May 14, 1892, a colony of 170 of leis conformica, a ladybird said to be effective in eating the woolly aphis of the apple. The apple orchard of Mr. McKinley is well protected from winds, and some of the trees, especially the one upon which the ladybirds were liberated, were well supplied with aphis for food. Nevertheless, the net result here was just about nil. A search of many trees failed to show up a single specimen larvae, pupæ or beetle, and none of the eggs. The third grove visited was that of William Niles on Washington street. This is also an old orchard, badly infested with red and black scale, which has not been sprayed or fumigated for the past six years. In this grove Prof. Coquillett liberated a colony of 540 orcus chalybeus on the 14th day of May. The evidence of their being "established" in this orchard is discouraging in the extreme. Out of the entire 540 colonies, only three larvae, pupæ or beetles were to be found, while batches of eggs were equally scarce; still, larvae, pupæ, eggs and beetles were discovered. The examination here was very thorough. Some of the workers climbed into the tops of the trees on which the parasites had been liberated to make critical and minute observations, but with out any encouraging results. A careful inspection of surrounding trees failed to reveal the presence of the ladybirds in any stage of development.

According to Prof. Koebele's statement, these parasites have but three generations each year, and that each female, after mating a deposit of about 250 eggs, would, if all hatched, produce that number of perfect insects. Allowing that the ladybirds in transit were one or two days injured, and that many of them had already deposited their eggs before being shipped, now there surely ought to be a sufficient number of healthy insects to have bred and multiplied by this time in sufficient numbers to establish colonies in our orchards and proved their capacity to eat the scale. Unless they multiplied rapidly since, if Mrs Koebele is correct, they have but two generations a year, and the scale four and five. It is at once obvious that they never will be efficacious in the way red and black scale as the vedalia on the white. If only 25 per cent of the grand total of parasites that have been received had paired and each female had produced 250 eggs, and 75 per cent of these had hatched and bred again, we should now have had sufficient to have made some progress in determining their value and their capacity to clean out trees of the red and black scale. As it is they have not shown either the capacity to breed or to eat the scale that the twice stabbed ladybird (chilocorus bivulnerus) has shown.

That in view of the above facts (which any one can verify for himself) we cannot hold out much encouragement to the fruit growers so far as these predaceous insects are concerned. Though not pronouncing them a failure, we cannot on the other hand pronounce them as effective on red and black scales as the vedalia on white. We suggest that they be given every care and attention in the orchards where they have been placed in the hopes that they will yet become established in the broad sense, i. e., as effective parasites. Mr. Koebele says it will require four and possibly five years until they multiply in sufficient numbers to not only stock all the orchards of Southern California, but free them of the red and black scale. He estimates that by next April or May there will be sufficient to colonize many orchards. Let us hope he is correct in his statements, but we fear that hope is vain. In the mean time we advise that the fight against injurious insects by artificial means be continued with vigor; and particularly do we endorse the movement by which the counties shall make a uniform and general cleansing of all infected trees by fumigation at cost to the growers. We entreat all owners of scale infected trees to support a united and general warfare against injurious insects all along the line.

The Coming Monetary Conference.

A London dispatch says that both Gladstone and Harcourt, the new Chancellor of the Exchequer, are opposed to any change in England's currency. They are averse to any discussion on the part of the international monetary conference of any proposition affecting the currency of the British Empire. If anything needs to be done to relieve the strain of the monetary system of India, they believe it should be done without conference or agreement with the United States.

This is not pleasant news for the friends of bimetallism in this country. One result of the opposition of the British Ministry to the purposes of the conference will be the suspension of silver coinage in India. That dependency of the British Crown cannot long continue on a silver basis with silver at a discount of 30 per cent unless there is hope that the British Government will do something to restore silver to its former commercial ratio to gold. If this news from London is true, the conference will be confronted with the proposition to fix a common ratio for gold and silver, while England and her commercial allies remain on a single gold standard. It is a matter of much doubt if the conference will seriously entertain the proposition. The vast national debts of the several European countries are influences against any change in the currency which may cause a decrease in the purchasing power of money. Except in France the national bonds are largely held by the class who live upon fixed incomes. To all such it is a matter of some importance that the gold standard be maintained.

It is understood that a plan will be submitted to the conference by Dr. Adolph Soetbeer of Vienna for the extension of the use of silver as money without making it a full partner with gold as a measure of values. Dr. Soetbeer's plan is to retain the gold standard and to coin silver at a ratio of twenty to one, to be legal tender among individuals and corporations only up to the weight of 2681 grains troy—about $10 41 of our money—but receivable by the government conversed to an unlimited amount. The plan may have some merit as a stay to the decline of silver, but will receive little support from the advocates of bimetallism. It recognizes gold as the true measure of value, a point which bimetallists most strenuously combat. The silver problem will not be settled until silver is recognized as the equal of gold upon some agreed ratio. It is of less importance what that ratio may be than that it should be universally accepted.

Girls Ride A la Clothespin Now.

Even those dear, modest daughters of Mrs. Grundy are now beginning to rub their eyes with a look not all dismay, but mixed with a certain envy, when they see a happy, vigorous sister canter by on the cross saddle, so universally called "man's saddle." And one inquisitive maid asks: "What kind of a suit do they wear? How can one make the things? And when mounting, dismounting, or walking, aren't they dreadful?" No, dear; they can be much more graceful than the ordinary habit, and there is room for individual taste.

One young woman, a frequent rider, and one who in California takes many long exploring tours, has made a very full skirt, about twice the volume of an ordinary gathered skirt, and this she folds under her on the saddle so as to allow on either side an ample covering to the foot. This she has found to be invaluable, as it "stays put" and cannot fly about in the breeze.

Another young Californian has succeeded in having made a most comfortably neat and picturesque suit, the skirt—of rather light-weight green cloth—being simply two skirts, the regulation divided article, only much fuller, and of course, made to just clear the ground. This is the nearest approach to the horrifying idea of trousers! When viewed from either side the rider looks very tall and sylph-like, as the skirt hangs straight down and clings. There should be riding trousers under this.

But the palm for grace, comfort and inconspicuousness, is awarded to a maiden, who spending some time in Boston and wishing to go properly on horseback and take riding lessons, was transported to a ranch in the beautiful mountains of the golden West, presented with a four-year old broncho of bucking fame, and told "to ride." She adopted the Jennes-Miller cycle suit for her pony, and is the envy of all the girls when on excursions, as they sit screwed all out of harmony, and cannot dismount to drink out of mountain streams because it is so much trouble to climb back to their perch again. In detail this suit is comprised—a full trousers, perhaps three feet in circumference at the bottom, and reaching to the heel. Over these the skirt, which gains in being pleated instead of gathered, and is of heavy cloth, weighted, and not very full. In front and back it is divided, and each side hemmed up three-fourths of the length, and when the four corners are turned in when on the horse, or they fall under naturally, and the effect is that of a pretty pleated skirt more fan-shaped than the one previously mentioned. In walking, should the wind catch it it is never awkward, and the under divided skirt mingles with it so that no one would ever divine the nature of it. With these sensible skirts you are not obliged to wriggle into the still corsetted bodice, but any manner of making the upper portion of the garment may be adopted, provided it is long-waisted, and has a slender, trim effect.

A Good Amendment.

A correspondent desires a contemporary to express its opinion of the desirability of voting to adopt Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 5, which is to be passed upon by the people at the coming election. It can best do this by quoting the original section of the Constitution (Section 31, Article IV.) and place along side the proposed amendment. Section 34, as it now stands, reads as follows.

SEC. 34. No bill making an appropriation of money, except the General Appropriation bill, shall contain more than one item of appropriation, and that for one single and certain purpose to be therein expressed.

The proposed amendment reads as follows:

SEC. 34. No bill making an appropriation for money, except the General Appropriation bill, and the Deficiency bill for the appropriation of money exclusively devoted to the support of the General Government and State institutions, shall contain more than one appropriation, and that for a single and certain purpose to be therein expressed. When the Deficiency bill is presented to the Governor, he may object to one or more items, while approving other portions of the bill. No officer of the State shall have power to incur any deficiency except in the case of actual necessity, and then only upon the written authority, first obtained from the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General. Any deficiency incurred in violation of this provision shall be void, and the Legislature shall not have the power to appropriate money to pay the same.

As will be observed this provision is designed to place the Deficiency bill upon the same plane as the General Appropriation bill. Deficiencies are now supposed to be created by and with the advice and consent of the State Board of Examiners, but in fact they are usually forced upon that body by careless management in State institutions. The power conferred upon the Governor of vetoing any item of the Deficiency bill and the prohibition against deficiencies being created, except on the written consent of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney General being first obtained, is good legislation which may be safely endorsed by every citizen. It is impracticable to prohibit deficiencies altogether, but this places the responsibility for them where it belongs and where it is likely to be exercised with some sense and discretion.

A Little Girl's Experience In A Light-House.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Prescott are keepers of the Government Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and have with them a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit visited her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones"—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at W. M. Higgins' drug store.

The San Diego County Fair has been in progress at Escondido during the past week. The fruit, stock, and all departments were well filled, and the races, though few in number, received a full list of entries. A new and what was undoubtedly an interesting and instructive feature was the establishment on the grounds of a complete voting place, with judges, commissioners, booths, ballots, etc., complete, just as will be established in every voting precinct of the State in November under the new State law of elections. Each booth was supplied with printed instructions to the voter, each voter was supplied with one ballot, and an election, for the instruction of the voter, was carried on during each day of the fair. Each night the vote was canvassed and all ballots illegally cast were thrown out, as such will have to be in November. These illegally marked ballots were conspicuously posted, together with the reason why each particular ballot was thrown out, so that voters, by studying the mistakes made in the sham election, may avoid them in November.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "La Grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on the Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with Sick Headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50 cents, at W. M. Higgins' drug store.

As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

She—"Do you dance?" He—(facetiously) "No, I gambol." She—"Indeed! Do you ever win enough to pay the fiddler?"

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

If the hair is falling out and turning gray, the glands of the skin need stimulating and color-food, and the best remedy and stimulant is Hall's Hair Renewer.

THURSDAY.....SEPTEMBER 29, 1892.

A. G. BOOTH of the attorney firm of Gunnison & Booth of San Francisco, who have been selected by the intending purchasers of the irrigation district's bonds to examine into the legality of the formation of the district, has been in Los Angeles during the week, looking over the documents filed in the matter, and subjecting them to investigation. On Monday he reviewed the proceedings of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors in the matter of the preliminary steps taken to form the district, and on Tuesday he reviewed the actions of the district Board of Directors. Yesterday he went to Santa Ana to review the proceedings of the Superior Court regarding the suits that had been brought against the district, and will probably be ready to make his report by the end of the week. So far as can be learned Mr. Booth has found all papers in thorough legal form and the affairs of the district in satisfactory condition.

Simultaneously with the examination into the legal status of the district is the examination into the water facilities by Col. Alberger, who in company with Engineer Kellogg has since Monday last carried on his investigation here. The Colonel, we understand, finds everything in excellent shape, and, together with Mr. Booth, will doubtless make a favorable report upon the district.

It could not well be otherwise, for the Anaheim Irrigation District stands admittedly at the head of the irrigation districts of the State. We have more improvements here, necessitating a lesser rate of taxation, and better water facilities, than probably any other district. Again, there is no suspicion of the speculative wild-cat era here, but on the contrary evidences of substantial progress and prosperity, so that the foreign money-lender may have all confidence in the security of his loan and the manner of the appropriation of the funds at hand. There is no better irrigation district than ours. The pity is that the bonds were not disposed of long ago. Probably they would have been had different counsel prevailed, but now that the securities are at last about to be disposed of, that fact is pleasant news enough for one day. Without doubt all documents will be found in satisfactory condition, and the water facilities the equal of any, and without doubt, also, favorable reports will be speeding to London within the week. Than let the bonds be sold and the work of further developing the district begin.

SAN DIEGO is in the midst of its discovery day celebration. The city has within her gates more distinguished visitors than ever before in her history, from the ranking Admiral of the navy down to United States Senators, the Governor and others of more or less distinction. Yesterday the formal landing of Cabrillo was represented, and a great procession was organized immediately afterwards. This was reviewed by the distinguished visitors, after which there was an invocation by Vicar-General Adam and an address of welcome by the Mayor, responded to by the Governor. This was followed by a programme of literary exercises, and in the evening the time-honored banquet held the boards at the Hotel del Coronado. This morning will be given over to an Indian fiesta, and this afternoon a reception on board the war ships Baltimore and Charleston. This evening a ball at Coronado, a search light exhibition by the war vessels, open air concerts, etc. To-morrow occurs the vaquero tournament, in which 150 cowboys and 75 Mexican vaqueros will participate, to be followed by excursions to outside points of interest.

WHILE our friends of the beautiful bay and climate city are reveling in the pleasures incident to the Cabrillo day celebration, we of Orange county are not far behind them in the matters that go to make up the quota of life's pleasures and enjoyments. Our County Fair is now in full blast at the grounds across the river, and such crowds of happy and enthusiastic spectators as have gathered in attendance upon it never before came together. Our County Fair is undoubtedly away the best of the various county fairs held this year throughout the State. To-morrow we have the soul-inspiring spectacle, the Silkwood-McKinney race, probably the greatest race ever scheduled west of the Rockies. McKinney holds the coast record for the three best heats in harness, made at Stockton last Friday—2:14—2:16—2:14¼. Silkwood's record is nominally 2:18¼, made two years ago, since which time he has very materially improved. Silkwood's time is a sealed book to horsemen. Some declare he can go in 2:10, and on the other hand a dispatch from Stockton says that McKinney, during a private speed test there last week, went around the mile in 2:09. The race promises to be one of the turf events of the year, and will doubtless be witnessed by the largest crowd ever assembled at the track.

WE learn on good authority that the rumor that prevailed last week to the effect that Fred D. Smith of Buena Park was ineligible to the office of County Clerk, is entirely erroneous. Mr. Smith, we are informed, has resided in California for something like five years, and therefore the question as to his ineligibility on account of an insufficient term of residence is untenable. Mr. Smith is a very capable and energetic young gentleman and if elected to the office will make an excellent officer.

THE Supreme Court has denied a writ of mandate to F. S. Jennings of San Diego, requiring the Governor to call a special election for State Senator in the Fortieth, or San Diego district. Senator Streator of Riverside was elected two years ago to represent San Bernardino and San Diego counties in the State Senate. Since the reapportionment, the people of the latter county, having been formed into a Senatorial district by themselves, claim to be without representation in the upper house. Jennings' petition was therefore brought before the Supreme Court, but that tribunal has rightly decided that Streator holds over. Should Seymour be elected, San Bernardino county will have two Senators at Sacramento, while San Diego will have none.

THREE thousand two hundred and four acres subscribed to the co-operative sugar factory! That was the record up to last evening. Deeds to 1,700 acres have been handed into the corporation, and now the work of putting up the factory will begin. We will have the factory up and running in time for next season's beet crop. Our people are to be congratulated on the auspicious turn of affairs.

Fullerton.

Mr. Sherman is having a Woodmanse geared wind-mill put up at his place on Orangethorpe avenue.

Rev. Holcomb is back from conference, but he does not as yet know who will be appointed to this charge.

J. F. Davis, our good-looking and genial station agent, is having a good deal of work done on his house, and is fixing things up in style.

Mr. Mears is said to contemplate erecting a cottage on his place soon.

Mr. Ymbert says that he will soon build a fine house on his ranch. When he does we shall expect to see another bachelor turn benedick.

Mrs. Schulte had the misfortune to have a runaway as she came to town one day last week. Fortunately she was not seriously hurt.

Mrs. S. F. Daniels is enjoying a visit from a cousin from Texas.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church has been revived after a long summer's sleep.

The ball given by Bob Hargrave last Friday night was not very well attended, although those who were present expressed themselves as having had a very good time. What is the matter with Fullerton? The people do not go to church in overwhelming numbers, the political "speech making" fail to draw a large crowd, and balls are poorly attended. Fullertonites must be "stuck" on staying at home.

Fullerton does not need to clean up on account of the cholera scare. We have an institution right in the municipal limits that will knock out a cholera microbe in the first round. We refer to the highly odorous hog-pen kept in their back yard by our enterprising meat men. A poor cholera germ who wanders over near here will have to fumigate himself and hold his nose, if he wishes to escape with his life.

Rumor has it that R. Wisser contemplates starting a saloon over here. Fullerton must be a thirsty town if it takes four saloons to run it. If the saloons keep on coming we will soon have one for each inhabitant. The more saloons, the more business, so some say.

Buena Park.

President Baldwin of Pomona College occupied the pulpit of the Congregational Church Sunday last.

Next Sunday, October 2nd, will be "Rally Day" in the Sunday School. The exercises will occupy the school hour from ten to eleven. Rev. J. W. Phillips will preach at eleven o'clock; subject, "The Divine in Christ."

Rev. Dr. Elliott lectured before a very appreciative audience on Monday evening.

Mrs. Hosac, Mrs. Clacius and Mrs. Benham of Los Angeles are guests of Mrs. James Whitaker. Mrs. Hatlin of Los Angeles is visiting at Mrs. Richard Archibald's.

Robt. Bryden was seen at the scales of Whitaker & Ray with two fine colts, one yearling weighing 1,060 lbs. and one sucker 690 lbs.

James A. Whitaker is in Los Angeles disposing of some fine horses.

The Park may forestall Anaheim with a sugar factory after all. Hurry up Anaheim.

BUENA.

Columbus Day.

The Committees to act in the matter of the Columbus Day entertainment met in the Water Company's office on Monday evening.

There were present the school committee —Messrs. Grogan, Rust and Barr; and the citizens' committee—Messrs. Hunt, Federman and Garwood.

The committees organized by selecting as Chairman, B. V. Garwood, and Secretary, C. O. Hunt. Dr. Ballard declined to serve and E. J. Pellegrin was substituted.

After some discussion of the matter in general it was decided that the schools will give entertainments in their rooms in the forenoon of Oct. 21st, under the special direction of teachers and principal, to which the public will be invited. In the evening a general programme will be executed in the Opera-house, corresponding very closely with the official programme. E. J. Pellegrin was appointed to act as chairman of the music committee and to select his own assistants.

A committee was appointed to secure funds to pay for rent of hall, children's badges, etc. No effort will be spared to make the affair a success. The committee held another meeting last evening, and further announcements will be made in due time.

A complaint of a sensational nature has been filed in the Los Angeles courts. The title of the case is Lena Crandell vs. Carl W. Bilinger, a prominent member of the German colony. The plaintiff alleges that she was married to the defendant in Los Angeles, December 19, 1886. She lived with him as his wife until June of this year, and they have a child, a boy named Max, who is now three years old. In the month of June Mrs. Bilfinger learned that her husband then had a wife living in Germany, named Henrietta, and that his marriage with his first wife still remained in full force and effect. After she learned this fact she immediately left the defendant and ceased to live with him as his wife, and took their child with her, which she has since supported. She charges that the defendant was married at the time of her marriage to him, and that his first wife is still living at Uttieg, in the kingdom of Bavaria. She asks that the marriage be annulled and that provision be made for the maintenance and education of the child by defendant; also, that the custody of the child be awarded to her. In case the allegations are sustained it may be that the defendant will find criminal charges of bigamy staring him in the face.

Fruit Shipments.

—The shipments of green fruit from this State eastward by the Southern Pacific Railroad this season amount to the very respectable total of 2,960 carloads, with a prospect of 700 more going forward before the close of the season. This will make a total of 88,840,000 pounds of fruit. So far eighty more fruit trains have gone East than up to the same time last year. The railroad company receives $1 25 per hundred pounds for hauling these 88,840,000 pounds of green fruit to Chicago. This is equal to a total of $1,110,500. Yet the business has not been a profitable one, owing to the necessity of hauling great quantities of ice in the refrigerator cars and of hauling the cars back empty. The figures are astonishingly large, however, and if added to those of the Santa Fe company, would make a still more surprising showing. They prove that the green fruit shipping business of California is creeping up very rapidly.

That Postoffice Petition.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—Last Sunday I learned that on the previous day a report was started and given wide circulation that I was the instigator of a petition to have Mrs. Bates removed from the postoffice. Although a lie of most infamous conception and glaring absurdity, and scarce worthy of notice, yet the publicity given it demanded an investigation and denial in this way. When traced the petition and its signers vanished into hearsay, and the origin of the lie was located in a conversation between two men in a certain restaurant on Los Angeles street; said conversation being alleged to have been overheard by the proprietors of said restaurant, who withheld the names of the parties. I hereby invite any person who claims having seen any such petition to come forward and make himself known, if he has not so utterly lost his sense of fairness as to compel and permit these restaurant people to shield him in the malicious falsehood. And since I have been so kindly reminded re kicking against the present administration of the postoffice, I desire to say that, as one of the largest individual patrons of the office in the city, I consider Mrs. Bates and her assistant to be thoroughly efficient, careful and accommodating in the conduct of the office, and I have never noticed anything that could give any one cause for complaint. Yours truly,

STEPHEN E. KIEFER.

Mabel Cummings.

—Little Mabel Cummings, the thirteen-year-old stepdaughter of D. Edson Smith of Santa Ana, whose mother is dead, and who was some weeks ago committed to the Whittier reform school on Smith's petition, will be spared the indignity of going to the State reformatory. R. E. Hewitt of Santa Ana has filed with the County Clerk a petition praying to be appointed guardian of the little orphan. All good citizens will rejoice at Mabel's good fortune, as the little girl is deserving of a home, and there is no reason for her being sent to Whittier, save that, as reported at Santa Ana, her stepfather wishes to shift the responsibility of caring for her. It is said Smith kept Mabel in the field hoeing crops the livelong day and otherwise ill-treated her. It is well that she has at last found a friend and protector.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Trustees Endorse the Irrigation Bonds.

Transactions of the Honorable Board at Yesterday's Session—The Populites Meet on Tuesday Evening—Sport Wetzel and the Corporal's Guard—Social and Personal News.

There was no quorum at the meeting of the City Trustees on Tuesday evening, and the meeting went over until yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when there were present Trustees Littlefield, Pellegrin, Schindler and Witte. Absent, Trustee Rust.

The committee appointed to purchase hose for the Fire Department reported that the Goodyear Rubber Company would furnish hose for one dollar per foot, with 10 per cent discount, making the cost 90 cents per foot. The committee was granted further time to get other samples and prices.

The committee on purchasing oil for street lamps reported that they had received proposals from Isaac Lyons and Gus Davis, the former offering to furnish oil at 16 cents per gallon, and the latter at 15½ cents per gallon, and enter into a contract to furnish oil for six months at that price. No action was taken, and the committee was continued to further investigate the oil question.

The special committee on examination of the boiler at the city water works reported that Engineer Schindler pronounced the old boiler good for three or four weeks yet, and that if a new boiler were purchased within that time, it would not be advisable to spend any money on the old one. The Baker Iron Works reported that it would take five days to repair the old boiler. A twenty-five horse-power steel boiler costs $343 on board the cars in Los Angeles; thirty horse-power, $405.80; and forty horse-power, $486. A heater for the boiler will cost $130. Mr. Littlefield introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The boiler of the City Water Works has given out and become unsafe, and incompetent to pump the necessary water to supply the city with water, it is now a matter of urgent necessity that a new boiler be immediately procured, and therefore be it

RESOLVED, That a forty (40) horse-power steel boiler be bought of the Baker Iron Works, to cost $1450 on cars; also a heater, costing $130; and it is further resolved that the action of this Board of Trustees, instructing the Clerk to advertise for boiler, be rescinded.

The resolution was seconded by Trustee Pellegrin and carried unanimously. The boiler and heater will cost $616. Previous efforts to procure a forty horse-power steel boiler and heater had resulted in obtaining $950 as the lowest price for the same.

The Chairman was instructed to make the purchase of the boiler and heater at once.

The committee on safety of tank frame reported and were instructed to put in necessary timbers to insure the safety of the same.

Request of Clark Minor and H. C. Gade to move their nursery office from Los Angeles street to Center street, between the Federman and Hart buildings. The board decided that such matter should be presented in writing.

The Clerk was instructed to notify the Southern Pacific Railroad to immediately repair the railroad crossing on Santa Ana street, as said crossing is unsafe. Adjourned.

The board at a special meeting held on Monday morning passed the following resolutions endorsing the sale of the bonds of the Anaheim Irrigation District:

WHEREAS, The Board of Directors of the Anaheim Irrigation District have agreed to sell $300,000 of the bonds issued by said irrigation district, and

WHEREAS, The proceeds of the sale of said bonds will be used for the purpose of improving our irrigating ditches and constructing reservoirs in which to store the vast quantity of water that annually goes to waste during the winter seasons, and

WHEREAS, The completion of said improvements will furnish an ample supply of water sufficient to thoroughly irrigate all of the lands within the Anaheim Irrigation District not now irrigated under our present system, and

WHEREAS, The bringing of said lands not now irrigated, under a thorough irrigating system, will be, in addition to our already large and prosperous community, of great public benefit, and

WHEREAS, When said improvements are completed and carried out, the agricultural and horticultural productions of this district will be greatly increased in quantity and value, and the lands not now irrigated will be increased thereby in value equal to the lands now under irrigation, and

WHEREAS, The completion of the improvements contemplated will stimulate immigration and be the means of inducing large numbers of settlers to make their homes in our community, and

WHEREAS, The people residing in the Anaheim Irrigation District are in favor of and desirous that said bonds be sold and said improvements completed;

Now therefore, be it resolved by the Board of Trustees of the City of Anaheim:

First. That the best interests of the public require that the said bonds be sold; that the proceeds thereof be used to complete as soon as practicable the improvements necessary to put the lands embraced within the Anaheim Irrigation District under a thorough system of irrigation.

Second. That the officials in charge of said Anaheim Irrigation District be requested to use every effort to forward the sale of the bonds of said irrigation district, and make every endeavor to complete the contemplated improvements as soon as possible.

Third. That this resolution be spread upon the records of the Board of Trustees of the City of Anaheim, and that the same be published in the ANAHEIM GAZETTE and the Anaheim Journal, newspapers of general circulation in the City of Anaheim.

Fourth. That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the Honorable, the Board of Directors of the Anaheim Irrigation District.

WM. A. WITTE,
President of the Board of Trustees of the City of Anaheim.

I, Max Nebelung, Clerk of the City of Anaheim, do hereby certify that this resolution was adopted by the Board of Trustees of the City of Anaheim on the 26th day of September, 1892, by the following vote:

Ayes—Trustees Witte, Pellegrin, Rust and Littlefield. Absent—Trustee Schindler.

MAX NEBELUNG,
Clerk of the City of Anaheim.

The Populites.

C. F. Bennett of Tustin, People's candidate for the Assembly, and Dr. Head of Garden Grove, "calamity howler" for the State Senate, addressed a small audience at Kroeger's Hall last Tuesday evening. Preceding the meeting, the Santa Ana fife and drum corps performed operatic airs in the street. Mr. Walker acted as chairman of the meeting and made a model presiding officer. Mr. Bennett was the first speaker. He gave most of his attention to the silver question and Wall and Lombard streets. He said both the old political parties were under the control of Wall street and the London thoroughfare, and that if things were not speedily righted there would be something drop that would resound from the Androscoggin to Chula Vista. Mr. Bennett said he had been a Democrat all his life, had been to the war, to Nebraska and Oklahoma and had to pay twenty-five cents for a two-cent postage stamp at the latter place during the boomers' rush two years ago. He had voted the Democratic ticket for twenty-eight years, and wanted to see the political changes which the people demand come about without bloodshed or the use of the bayonet, and predicted a peaceful revolution of the people on the issue now engrossing their attention.

Dr. Head in his speech referred to the silver, land and transportation planks in the People's party platform—the three great issues which he said are now absorbing the attention of the people. He referred to the labor question and Homestead, and said that when workmen went on strike the militia were called out to shoot them down. Which is not so. The militia was called out to protect property. Every man's property should be protected from riotous pillage and anarchy. Dr. Head said that no man could be elected to office in this State if the Southern Pacific Railroad were against him, that if freights were too high, that landholdings were too large, and that there was a gradual centralization of wealth that threatens one day to disrupt the country. He quoted the late Senator Ingalls as saying that the Government was a failure, after Ingalls was beaten for United States Senator.

Dr. Wall, Populite candidate for County Treasurer, was present, but did not speak. The Doctor was one of the patent twilight syndicate, and could probably deliver a very entertaining lecture on scale parasites.

Sport and the Corporal's Guard.

Sport Wetzel failed to put in an appearance at drill last Thursday evening, and Capt. Browning detailed Corporal Abbey to sally forth with a guard in quest of him. Sport was found engaged in playing domino whist at the Commercial. At sight of the blue coats he lovanted, legging his flight Mexicowards. Abbey marched his men around the block, and Sport having in the mean time returned, the guard executed a flank movement on his person—with no better success than had attended the first attempt to take him. Sport evaporated again at sight of the bayonets, going over fences and other obstructions in his path with an agile deftness that was beautiful to see. At this point, the guard having been absent from the armory beyond the stipulated length of time, Capt. Browning, feeling that some direful disaster had befallen them, decided to move the company to their rescue. He came upon the squad, who reported all hands alive and well, but no Sport in sight. The company deployed in front of the stable, and on call the missing soldier emerged from the barn. Sport explained that he could not conveniently leave the barn, and later he was left in his glory with Billy Berdrow, who was also engaged in exploring the recesses of the stable.

Having rescued the squad, the troops marched back to the armory, and if Sport is not on hand to-night at drill he is liable to get himself disliked. He has armed himself with a piece of rubber hose to defend himself with, but it is entirely probable that if the Captain goes after him again this evening Sport will be impaled upon a bayonet and borne triumphantly back to the armory.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah A. Wilson died at the residence of J. A. Vail at Fullerton yesterday morning at half-past seven o'clock. She was born at Yarmouth, Mass., January 12, 1808, and was thus in the eighty-fourth year of her age. At an early day she moved with her parents to Meadville, Penn., and on June 3, 1823, was married to Rev. J. S. Wilson. In 1853 the couple moved to Iowa, where Mr. Wilson died April 20, 1873. In the spring of 1885 she moved with J. A. Vail's family to this State, and had resided with the family at Fullerton. She succumbed to old age, after having been confined to her bed for five weeks. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Mr. Vail's residence in Fullerton. Services at the Fullerton Presbyterian Church at 10:30. The sorrowing family have the sincere condolence of all who know them in their sad bereavement.

Our old friend Jack Hutchinson, who pulls the Tustin train through town to Whittier and Los Angeles every morning and back again in the evening, and who has been off on his annual vacation in the mountains during the week, dropped in to see us on Tuesday afternoon and found us looking well. Jack's engine is laid up for repairs, but the only repairs found necessary are painting and renumbering the old machine. The engine used to be Number 1, but under the new numeration is No. 1171. Jack got more work out of it than many an engineer with a big engine, but he holds his weight well nevertheless. He weighs 298 in the shade and is full of cactus thorns and poison oak from his trip to the mountains. His side partner, Jim Culp, conductor of the train, is laid up at Tustin with measels, but will be over to pay a visit to Anaheim before election day. Both gentlemen will one of these days go into the orange raising business here, and will become valuable acquisitions to our society. Mr. Hutchinson returned to his home in Tustin in the evening. As we went to press last evening the reports from Mr. Culp's bedside were that he was improving.

—Pellegrin & Landell will open the amusement season at the Opera-house to-morrow evening, presenting Duncan Clark's female minstrels. This company comes highly recommended, and will doubtless be greeted with a large audience. The following flattering notice regarding them is taken from the Cincinnati Enquirer of September 30th: "Duncan Clark's monster combination tested the capacity of the People's theatre last night. The house was uncomfortably filled, and the show made a distinct hit from the start. The novelty of the attraction is sure of crowded houses everywhere, and Cincinnati amusement patrons are not slow in recognizing the merits. The management is to be congratulated on their successful opening in our city."

—J. E. Ford of this city, State Organizer of the Fraternal Aid Association, last week organized a council of the order at Orange, with a membership of seventy-seven. The council is the first to be established in California. The following officers were elected: W. H. H. Clayton, Past President; A. Meacham, President; Mrs. Ella Frederick, Vice President; Wm. Paramore, Secretary; Mrs. A. W. Craddick, Treasurer; Dr. E. Humphrey, Chaplain; Dr. W. B. Wood, Medical Examiner; W. F. Lemon, Guide; Mrs. L. M. Tilford, Observer; Mrs. Thomas, Sentinel; S. S. Hemphill, W. M. Scott and W. H. H. Clayton, Trustees.

—The Supervisors on Monday opened bids for the purchase of $2,000 of Yorba school bonds, as follows: Orange County Savings Bank, $2,050; Mrs. Adele Browning of Anaheim, $2,025; M. K. Luber of Los Angeles, $2,153; W. m. R. Staats of Pasadena, $2,076.60; W. W. Cochran of Los Angeles, $2,060; Commercial Bank of Santa Ana, $2,000. Mr. Luber's bid was accepted.

Misses Hannah and Lauretta Smith wish to announce that they, assisted by Mrs. R. E. Glasscock, a fashionable modiste, late of Kansas City, have opened dressmaking parlors at the residence of their father, W. J. Smith, on Orangethorpe Avenue. Charges reasonable, and perfect fit guaranteed. 8s1m

—Wommer and Halpin have been given the contract to grade and gravel Hermine street.

—Next Saturday is Yom Kippur. Cahen's and Federman's stores will be closed during the day.

—Female minstrels at the Opera-house tomorrow evening. All the baldheads up in the front row.

—Joe Hatfield has gone into the bill posting business, and has put up a new bill board on the old Planters' Hotel corner.

—The Ladies' Industrial Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Hill this afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock.

—Good music will be furnished at the hop at the Del Campo to-morrow night, and a pleasant time is anticipated.

—Roy Adams has moved with his family to Mrs. Parker's cottage on Center street, near Broadway.

—The fumigators are at work in the French orchard at Placentia, and are waxing fat boarding at Capt. Wagner's household.

—The Prohibs have decided to make no nomination for State Senator, and will probably throw their strength to Dr. Head, the Populite.

—Sunday and Monday the weather was uncomfortably warm, but on Tuesday the temperature moderated, and we have since been enjoying delightful weather.

—The estate of W. C. Jenks, deceased, of which Judge Pierce has been appointed executor, was appraised last Friday. The effects will probably be sold at public auction shortly.

—The Schindler building on Centes street, occupied by The Timo Lynch Company, has been given a new coat of paint. The interior of the building is very much beautified in consequence.

—Mons. Cahen sent up the tri-color on Thursday in commemoration of the battle of Valmy and of the centenary of the proclamation of France as a republic. Viva la Republique!

—J. C. Sheppard of Fullerton has a walnut tree three years old from the seed, the trunk of which is now twenty-three inches in circumference. We would be pleased to hear from any one who can beat it.

—Landlord Helmsen is doing quite well. He is feeling better than ever, and has just laid in a new pair of shoes for the winter. The landlord is all right, even if he will vote for Cleveland and Lacy.

—When John Wagner started from his ranch at Placentia for town last Tuesday morning the sun was shining brightly, but when he reached town he found things pretty well enveloped in fog. This is one of the eccentricities of the glorious climate.

—The engagement of a prominent young business man of this city and one of the charming society belles of Placentia is shortly to be announced, so the gossips say. The many friends of the happy couple are anxiously awaiting the time to extend their felicitations.

—The Walter Maben string of racers arrived in town Sunday afternoon, en route to the Santa Ana races. They were domiciled at Everharty's stable over night, and left for the race track on Monday morning. The Chino string of horses passed through town last Thursday afternoon.

—There was a rumor on the streets last evening to the effect that Haman Husaman would elope with one of the lady minstrels to show at the Opera-house to-morrow evening. Haman says 'taint so, but he has heard that the ladies will wear tights and he's going to get in the front row.

—Mr. Capitain informed us yesterday afternoon that the number of acres subscribed for the co-operative beet sugar factory reached 3,204—204 more than enough. Deeds to 1,700 acres have already been enfeured, and everything is going on satisfactorily. This insures the erection of the refinery.

—City Clerk Nebelung has distributed through the mails several hundred copies of a pamphlet issued by the State Board of Health on the restriction and prevention of cholera. The pamphlet should be read attentively, and meanwhile lookyard should be put in a thorough state of cleanliness.

—Jesus Molino, who killed a Mexican named Ruiz at Santa Ana a couple of weeks ago by a stab thrust in the temple, has been acquitted, Justice Marks holding that the act was done in self-defense. The details of the fight will occur to our readers. Molino is not so badly injured as was at first supposed, and is rapidly recovering from the shots received from Ruiz's pistol in the fracas.

—Clarence Smith is out of luck. He made up a batch of apple cider a few days ago, and before he could drink it up it spoiled on his hands. Clarence said it was fine while it lasted, and he wouldn't have had it spoil for a whole lot. He will try it again next year, and if he sees the order getting ready to spoil he will invite all his friends out to head it off.

—A meeting will be held at Keiser's Hall next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of forming a Turn Verein here. Already fifty names have been secured to the preliminary prospectus, and a permanent organization will probably be effected at the meeting on Sunday. We have good timber among our young men to form an A No. 1 Turn Verein, and as the management of the same is in experienced hands the movement will no doubt be eminently successful from the start.

—The Democratic County Central Committee met at Santa Ana last Saturday for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Assembly in place of Ray Billingsley, declined, but the committee decided to defer action in the matter until next Saturday, at which time they will agree upon the nominee. They will probably endorse Bennett, the People's party nominee.

—The semi-annual target shoot of Company G took place last Friday at the range under direction of Inspector Deracott of Pasadena. Only thirty-seven out of the fifty-four members turned out, an unusually low percentage, but this was unavoidable, as many of the guardsmen are away and others are ill. The score made was below the average. Some of the boys couldn't shoot at all.

—Col. Robinson, who has decided to go into the hotel business here, is endeavoring to prevail upon Messrs. Ruhmann and Boege to erect a brick building on their lot on Los Angeles street. If erected the building will probably be three stories in height, and will be one of the finest edifices in the county. Col. Robinson has been in the hotel business before, and would no doubt meet with conspicuous success here.

—The uncommon sight of a lightning storm enveloping Catalina island was witnessed by our citizens one evening last week. Thunder storms and lightning on the desert, toward the East, are of common occurrence, but the phenomenon has rarely been observed in the west. The horizon was banked with a mass of jet black clouds, from which the lightning zigzagged unceasingly. The residents of the island must have enjoyed a most beautiful sky panorama.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Anaheim Co-operative Sugar Beet and Land Company will be held on Saturday evening, Sept. 1st, at 8 p. m. sharp, at Kroeger's Hall, for the purpose of organizing and considering other important business. Everybody interested is requested to be present.

—While Brer Baker was in town the other day he paid Isaac Lyons a very high compliment in saying that his store was the finest he ever saw in the county—laid away ahead of anything they had at Santa Ana. Brer Baker also said that Harker's harness store was the finest in Southern California, not even excepting Los Angeles establishments.

—G. W. Sponable of Fullerton raised some Kelsey plums that weighed one pound each. He also has two bunches of pampas grass from which waagathered in one season 1,130 plumes. Mr. Sponable also had some Moorpark apricots of which it took only four to weigh a pound. They contained eleven per cent of sugar. If you wish to see them go to the World's Fair at Chicago.

—The County Fair, which opened at Santa Ana on Tuesday evening, has proved to be quite successful and has attracted large crowds. The races have been good, fast time has been made and there have been many thousands of people out to see them. To-morrow occurs the great McKinney-Silkwood race, which will be the turf event of the year. The sporting editor hates to go against his county horse, but is compelled to give the tip that McKinney will win.

—The work of grading and graveling Hermine street and putting in sidewalks from Center to Chartres street, was begun on Monday. The property owners along the street are doing the work, which will cost them about $475. The contractor's price had been $825. The property owners are availing themselves of the law which provides that they may do street work at a price not to exceed that bid by the contractor.

—The Board of Directors of the co-operative beet sugar corporation met in regular session on Tuesday and discussed matters in connection with the enterprise. The full board was present, and everything relating to the enterprise was found to be in satisfactory condition. About 2,900 shares are now subscribed or spoken for, including 600 from the Stearns Rancho Company. Deeds are now being gathered up, and the work is going on satisfactorily. At present there is only about one hundred shares lacking, and they will probably be secured before the week is over.

—Mr. and Mrs. Tuffree, assisted by their charming daughters, Misses Neta and Nellie, hospitably entertained a number of their friends at their home on the Buena Vista Rancho last Friday evening. The time was very pleasantly spent in dancing and social converse. Several piano solos by the Misses Tuffree were capitally rendered and their violin and guitar duets were much appreciated. At a late hour the party disparsed, all voting the Colonel and his estimable family the best of entertainers.

—Jake Yaeger has been up to the Santiago mines and reports everything in satisfactory condition. The Santiago Mining Company have put in a new concentrator, and have recently given a contract for new work in the mine. The Blue Light Mining Company have just put in a complete mill and concentrator, and are carrying on operations on a large scale. Both companies will take out large bins of ore this season and will go on developing the mines until one day they will probably strike a bonanza. The ore assays handsomely, and there is but little doubt that there are rich deposits of ore in the mountains.

—Sports in town were all torn upon Sunday over the report that George Betts and Prof. Bernard would meet and have it out that afternoon "to a finish." Several were so fortunate as to be given a tip on the go, but those favors were very sparsely distributed. It was learned in the evening that the two boxers had engaged in a friendly bout of four rattling rounds for points, and that another contest between these two experts is not at all out of the question in the near future. It would make a very interesting go to a finish.

—Nick Bittner brought up the news on the street car last Wednesday evening that Agent Darling, the good-looking representative of the S. P., had received word over the wires that Evans and Sontag had been captured. Our informant vouchsafed the information that the first thing the robbers asked for was to ask for protection, and they doubtless got it. But on investigation it was found that the report was only one of Darling's wicked jokes, and that the robbers had not been taken at all. But why should they ask for protection? Ask Bill McKinley, or go down to the depot and see Darling about it.

—The waters of the Santiago creek will shortly flow out upon the San Joaquin ranch, which will be irrigated from one end to the other and pass into orchard cultivation. Men and teams are at work excavating a ditch which will be thirteen miles long, and circle around the base of the San Joaquin hills. The Santiago creek will be dammed up in the canyon narrows, and the water will be led into the ditch by a system of ditches to all parts of the ranch. The dam will be sixty feet wide at the base, 120 feet high and 355 feet long, and will be built of masonry in a substantial manner. Twenty thousand acres of land will be brought under irrigation.

—The Board of Supervisors have fixed the rate of taxation for the current year at $1.30 on the $100 of property valuation. The school tax rate on the $100 is as follows: Anaheim, 10 cents; Buena Park, 35 cents; Centralia, 70 cents; Chico, 30 cents; Delhi, 45 cents; El Modena, 90 cents; El Toro, 20 cents; Fullerton, 22 cents; Fairview, 65 cents; Garden Grove, 52 cents; Miguel, $2.30; Orange, 20 cents; Santa Ana, 21 cents, special 25 cents, total, 46 cents; Tustin, 10 cents; Westminster, 40 cents; Yorba, 12 cents. The Auditor's report shows that Orange county contains 429,502 acres of land, which with its improvements is valued at $10,060,190.

T. Harry French, nephew of our townman Judge J. S. French, is now in San Francisco managing the Lillian Russel Opera Company, and he is expected to be in Los Angeles next week. He will probably pay a visit to this city to look at his orchard, which he purchased some years ago while out here with the Little Lord Fauntleroy troup. Mr. Frenchbikes there is no such country as this for oranges, lemons, and walnuts, and has invested quite largely here. The Judge will probably have several boxes at his disposal during the operatic season and will doubtless invite his friends to go to Los Angels with him to see the fair Lillian.

A full line of canning outfits, tents, hammocks, etc., just received from the East at Lyons' store. Go and see them. jn2-tf

Go to Lyons for tool and grain sacks.

Frank Schaumburger, who has been seriously ill for a couple of weeks past, is improving and will soon be out again.

Ralph Blair is clerking in Cahen's store during the illness of Frank Schaumburger. Ralph makes a bonanza ideal counter jumper.

Mrs. Sorenson and family have returned to this city from Cajalco and have taken up their residence in the Crowther cottage on Los Angeles street.

Mrs. Korn and Miss Marie Horstmann returned on Monday from their visit to San Francisco. Mrs. Korn's health has been improved by her northern trip.

George Heffner attended the banquet at the Coronado Hotel last night. He was engaged in slinging biscuits and pate de foi gras. George looks forward to a steady job in the dining room of the big hotel.

Barney Levy, the noted Prohibitionist lecturer and commercial traveler, was in town one day last week, just in from El Paso. Barney has many friends here who are always glad to see him.

J. E. Drucks, representing a large flouring mill in Portland, Oregon, was in town one day last week on his way to Escondido, where he went to investigate the wheat crop, with a view to starting a mill there.

Harry Sherwood, who used to play the trombone in the city band, but who has been in the northern part of the State for some time past, returned yesterday, en route to Santa Ana, where he arrived last evening to join Robinson's circus band.

Coroner Ely and family left on Tuesday for San Diego to be in attendance at the Cabrillo celebration. The day was the fifteenth anniversary of the Coroner's wedding. They will put up at the Coronado Hotel, and will remain until after the celebration.

Freddie and Joe Backs are attending business college in Los Angeles. They go up on the morning train and return in the evening. After school hours and before the train leaves in the evening, the boys go over to the ball park and take in the baseball game.

W. H. Lehmann, Democratic candidate for Tax Collector, was in town one day last week and dropped in to see us. His political announcement appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Lehmann is making a careful canvass of the people, and informs us his chances of election are excellent and improving.

Secretary Garwood went to Los Angeles Tuesday, taking with him the documents in the matter of the establishment of the irrigation district, which were submitted to the Board of Trustees requesting the bond issue. There is no doubt that the papers will be found legally accurate, and that a satisfactory report of the condition of the district will be made.

Messrs. A. Langenberger and B. J. Parry went to Los Angeles on Thursday last to witness the inspection of the orchards in which the new parasites for red scale had been placed. There is quite a bit of difference between the views of the State officials and the Commissioners of the southern part of the State regarding the efficacy of these parasites in the extermination of scale. The report of the inspection of the Los Angeles orchards will be found printed on the first page.

Col. George Taylor, the portly Adonis of the Santa Ana Abstract Company, was in town on Saturday on a trip that combined business for his company and pleasure for himself. The Colonel informs us that he has to come to Anaheim to have a good time—and he likewise picks up a bit of business here every time he comes over. The advertisement of his Abstract Company will be found in another column.

Frank Hilmer, who has been absent from Anaheim for two years past, during which time he has resided in Fresno and also in Arizona and New Mexico, returned on Monday afternoon for a short visit. Frank is now in the butcher business in Fresno, and is doing well. He has grown to be extremely good looking while away, and is now engaged in rolling up a fortune. His many friends here are glad to see him back again, and it has been one continual round of handshakes since he arrived in town. He leaves for his home in Fresno to-day.

Dan't Baker, the tall Sycamore of the raging Santa Ana Standard, was in town on Monday afternoon and called in to see us. Dan't says political matters are quiet at the county seat, but that the boys will try to arrange for another hanging bee during the fair to make things interesting. Santa Ana is losing her grip—no murders, no shooting scrapes or banging bees in a month or two. Dan't will take in the McKinney-Silkwood race to-morrow afternoon, and has the price of a year's subscription that says Willitts' ring will win the race.

Col. W. G. Alberger of San Francisco, who has been selected by the intending purchasers of the irrigation district bonds to make an examination of the water facilities of the district, together with obtaining such other data for use by the bond buyers as may be necessary to effect the sale, arrived in town on Sunday evening to begin the prosecution of his work. On Monday morning, in company with Engineer Kellogg, he began his examination of the district, and has continued the work during the week. At present it cannot be said what the nature of his report will be, but we hazard the statement that it will be entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Mr. Fowler came up from San Diego on Monday and took his departure on Tuesday afternoon for San Francisco, where he goes to submit to a second operation of the superior maxillary, or upper jaw. He has confidence that the operation will be performed successfully, and hopes to be back in Anaheim in the near future. Mr. Fowler is making preparations for the erection of a commodious residence on his walnut tract below town. His many friends hope that he may be speedily restored to health, and be permitted to return and resume work in connection with the establishment of the beet sugar refinery.

"When I came to this country," said a merchant recently, "I was a lad fresh from old Ireland. My first home was with friends in Cambridge. In one of my walks, before I had been here a week, I came across a queer, old fashioned house that interested me immensely. I described it to my friends, and learned that it was the home of the poet Longfellow. That increased my interest.

"The next day I went again to the queer house and stood gawkily looking at it and at an old gentleman sitting in the yard. I stared so long that the old gentleman noticed it, and coming to the fence asked me what I was looking at. I told him that I wanted to see the man who lived there, because I had read his works in the schools of Ireland.

"The old gentleman asked me what I knew about Longfellow's writings, and I told him I knew enough about one poem to repeat every word of it.

"When he heard that he asked me to come into the house and recite the poem to him. I went in and repeated 'The Village Blacksmith' without making a mistake. That pleased my listener, and putting on his hat he asked me to walk with him. He said that I should have something that many people had asked for and tried in vain to get.

"He stopped under a big tree and said: 'This is the tree under which that poem you recited was written. The village smithy was under this tree.'

"Then the aged poet marched up and with his own hand broke off a branch of that famous tree and gave it to me."—Boston Herald.

Cups Used by Tea Tasters.

The teacups used by tea merchants in tasting tea are made especially for the purpose of the finest French china and have no handles or saucers. The teas are carefully weighed out and placed in the cups, when boiling water is poured on them. Tea tasters nowadays depend more upon the odor than the taste of teas and some of the most expert do not taste them at all, but rely entirely upon smelling them.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Country Boys Make Good Soldiers.

Within a year past the recruiting flag has been hung out in many of our New England towns and villages by officers of the regular army detailed for the purpose of gathering volunteers to fill up the ranks of Uncle Sam's forty regiments of infantry, cavalry and artillery. Once recruiting stations were maintained only in big cities like New York and Boston, but the material secured there was not of the best. Secretary Proctor had an idea that the country youth were better qualified, morally, mentally and physically, for a soldier's life than the dregs of our floating urban population, and under his direction recruiting parties, each headed by a commissioned officer, were sent into rural New England, New York and some portions of the west.

The experiment is said to be working admirably so far as the welfare of the army is concerned, though the officers do not enjoy the necessity of moving from one town to another, drumming up recruits as a commercial traveler drums up trade. The new system of enlistment and the various minor reforms have had a marked and instantaneous effect upon the character of the army. The soldiers are happier and more contented, and desertions are fewer than they have been for many years.—Boston Journal.

Some Population Statistics.

In 1850 the states and territories west of the Mississippi river had an aggregate population of 1,720,344, and the country west of the Missouri, excluding Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri, had a population of only 132,597; in other words the population of the vast region west of the Missouri in 1850 was not as large as the population of Omaha is today.—Edward Rosewater's Omaha Address.

Deadhead Fiends.

The condition of mind which follows the receipt of a free pass has always formed a most mysterious study to me. A perfectly normal and well balanced brain has been turned topsy turvy in a minute by the receipt of a free pass and never seemed to regain its equilibrium. There is no spectacle in the world more common than that of the man who takes the manager out to dinner, treats him to the most elaborate affair that he can buy and then falls into a condition of infantile delight when he receives the pass for which he has been working. Ordinary persons will buy no end of champagne for a theatrical man if they think there is such a thing as a pass in sight. They struggle and scheme and work for it, and apparently the monetary side of it never forces itself upon their judgment.

Why a man will spend ten dollars in treating another in order to procure for nothing seats which he could have bought for three dollars is a mystery. It is said that after a man has once seen a play from a deadhead seat, he can never witness a performance afterward from a seat which he has purchased. After the habit is once formed the victim is forever afterward irresponsible.—Blakely Hall in Brooklyn Eagle.

Salvation Army Women Go Alone.

In the course of a talk by Mrs. Ballington Booth somebody asked her if the Salvation women did not need escorts in going about the city's notorious quarters as they do, and she told him, "No; it would take too much time to protect the escorts." The women are fearless and are almost never molested.—New York Times.

THE FACT

That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

during the past 50 years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for don't be induced to purchase any of the worthless substitutes, which are mostly mixtures of the cheapest ingredients, contain no sarsaparilla, have no uniform standard of appearance, flavor, or effect, are blood-purifiers in name only, and are offered to you because there is more profit in selling them.
