

Federal Aid For Fremont School Appears Certain

Virtual Assurance Grant To Be Made is Given by Congressman

Anaheim elementary school district is almost certain to receive government aid through the Public Works administration for the construction of the new John C. Fremont school. It was learned here this week.

News that funds would probably be forthcoming came directly from Congressman Harry R. Sheppard. The school board, however, has had no official notification that the grant requested more than a year ago will be made. M. A. Gauer, superintendent, told the Gazette.

Federal Assurance
Belief that Anaheim will receive the grant, Sheppard said, is based upon the assurance of the federal government given to Sheppard and Congressman Butler of New York, heads of a congressional bill which sought to earmark $300,000 of the relief bill for WPA, that projects on which bond issues have been voted would be completed under original plans of government loans.

In the list of projects allowed to receive aid was that of the Anaheim school. "I feel quite sure that the federal approval for completion will be forthcoming in the near future. We have the President's assurance of this," Sheppard said.

Teachers Resign
The school board has received recent communications from Sheppard and from Senators McAdoo and Johnson, Gauer said, but none gave definite assurance the grant would be made.

The resignations of three teachers were received and accepted by the board of trustees at its meeting last Tuesday, Gauer announced. Those resigning are Miss Melva Roquet, Miss Ann Rheigans and Miss Maxine Harris. All are to be married, the superintendent said.

At the same meeting, the board accepted the resignation of Miss Alice Gates. Miss Gates taught here three years ago.

Four teachers in the Anaheim elementary system will receive pay increases as the result of Governor Merriam's signing the new minimum pay for teacher law. The new minimum is $1,120 per year, Gauer declared.

Vacancies Not Filled
It is not determined yet whether the other two vacancies caused by the resignations will be filled. The board will not take action until it is learned whether a re-arrangement of teachers will fill the needs, the superintendent said.

Arthur H. Shipley, re-elected to office last Friday, was sworn into office by President Earl E. Mann. The board also agreed to a lease with the Rimpau estate for use of a building located at 224 S. Lemon street to store school equipment.

Nelson will open next fall on September 13 and close on June 10, it was decided.

School Trustees Return to Board

The personnel of the board of trustees of Anaheim union high school was unchanged as the result of the election held last Friday. Both Robert C. Cawthon and Floyd L. Benson were returned. Ted R. Siems was the unsuccessful candidate.

In the election for elementary school trustee Arthur H. Shipley was re-elected. His only opposition was the writing of the name of Leo J. Sheridan, city councilman. Shipley was given 105 votes.

The race for the two positions on the high school board was close with Benson receiving 494 votes, Cawthon 421 and Siems 380. The defeated candidate is a member of the elementary board in the Central school district.

Varnish was discovered and used by the Egyptians 1000 B. C., the speaker said. It was made from Congo gum.

Among the localities furnishing products for paint Atwood listed China, Argentina, France, Italy, Belgium, Turkey, Utah, Canada, India and Norway.

Explains Process
The speaker also explained briefly the manufacture of paints, declaring there about six different types of mills are used in the work. Oceanade, he said, is one of the two localities in the world which furnished the proper type of rock for one of the mills.

George W. Reid reported to the group that the problem of painting and closing hours for stores throughout southern California has not yet been settled.

The survey will be made under the direction of City Engineer E. P. Hapgood and will be ready for presentation in two weeks.

At the same time the engineers will also study the problem of chlorination on section two as the present chlorinator is reported to have served its usefulness.

Reconstruction of section two of the line was the principal matter discussed last evening because of the absence of Santa Ana representative, Joseph P. Smith. The board discussed possibilities of obtaining WPA aid on the project and also talked about its usefulness.

Ground Broken For Ebell Club Building Today

New Clubhouse to be Built on Site of Old Helena and Cypress

Ground was broken this morning for the new clubhouse to be constructed by the Anaheim Ebell club at the corner of Helena and Cypress streets.

Ground breaking ceremonies were held in the city park and at the site of the new structure with about 100 members of the club present.

To Start in Fall
Construction of the new building is expected to start next September and the club hopes to have completed shortly after the first of next year. Cost of the structure has not been determined as no bids have been called for.

The clubhouse will be built on lots measuring 90 feet by 154 feet and will face on Helena street. Plans call for a large room which will be a combination auditorium and banquet hall, with a large platform at one end. This room, exclusive of the platform will be 25 feet by 48 feet and will be connected by means of folding doors with a lounge room at the front of the building. The auditorium will be about 320 persons and the lounge 110 persons.

Fine Building
Also included in the plans are a large kitchen, a kitchenette, powder room, dressing room, check rooms and vestibule. Along the southern edge of the building will be a terrace of about 10 feet in width. Future plans call for the building of a fence along the end of the lot and installation of a patio next to the terrace.

Furnishings in the building will be modern and complete. A maple floor will be laid in the lounge auditorium while the floors in the kitchen will have linoleum on the floors. Walls wherever possible will be of Celotex. The heating unit will be of the air-force design providing a complete change of air throughout the building every three minutes.

Architect for the structure is Stanley Falkenstein, a native of Anaheim, with offices in Los Angeles.

Mrs. H. A. Johnston presided at the ground breaking program in the park and Mrs. A. P. M. Brown said in charge at the site of the new building. Ground was turned by many of the pioneers members of the club and past presidents.

Among those who took part in the park program were Miss E. Kate Rea, Mrs. Ida Dutton, Mrs. A. C. Pearson, Mrs. T. S. Grimshaw, Mayor Charles H. Mann, George W. Reid, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Architect Falkenstein, and Mrs. F. S. Grimshaw. The Anaheim Ebell club was founded in 1907. McFadden Speaks To Kiwanis Club

The question of changing the supreme court is the most momentous problem which has confronted the American people in the past 100 years, Thomas L. McFadden, Anaheim attorney, told members of the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon.

The question is not a political one, McFadden said, it is a moral nature. To change the court would be to change the present form of government.

It is changing it in any other way would open the way to dictatorship in this country, he added. Leonard Vincent was program chairman for the day and presented McFadden.

Experiment to Relieve Traffic Snarls Planned

Let Turns Will Be Banned
On Two Intersections
at Rush Periods

In an effort to relieve the congested condition of traffic at the intersection of Center and Los Angeles street and Center and Lemon streets, during the peak hours the police department will shortly place "no left turn" signs at these intersections.

This action will be taken as the result of the recommendation made by the city's police commission to the city council last Tuesday evening.

Experimental Move
Placing the signs during times of heavy traffic will relieve the congestion at the two intersections and speed up travel along Center street, it is hoped. It was pointed out that the move is an experimental one at the present time and if it proves as successful as the police commission believes it will be probable that a city ordinance will be established to prohibit left turns at the intersections during heavy traffic.

It was pointed out that police cannot prohibit motorists from making left turns at the corners while the signs are posted during times of heavy traffic. However, urge that Anaheim residents cooperate to the fullest extent with the police during the experiment.

Limit Suggested

The police commission also recommended that a two-hour parking limit be established on South Claudia street between Broadway and Santa Ana street as a protection to residents of that area.

A third recommendation was that the water department be responsible for the inspection, repair, painting and climbing of the city's fire hydrants.

Bids, for disintegrated granite were received by the council Tuesday evening and referred to the public improvement committee for recommendation. Bids submitted by the city of Anaheim for 25 cents per ton; Reynolds Gravel Service, Orange, 14 cents per ton; Los Angeles Department of Public Works, $1.00 per ton with a 20-cent reduction for cash, and Foster Sand and Gravel company, Fullerton, 81 cents per ton.

A resolution was passed providing for a temporary relief fund to be established for three months at a salary of $120 per month.

In an effort to curtail the sale of liquor, the council Tuesday evening passed a resolution to the effect that the council write a letter to Diswell L. Pierce, secretary of the board of equalization pointing out that the state has 49 liquor establishments in Anaheim. Of the total 25 are on sale, 18 off sale only, one wholesale and off sale only, and one wholesale and two manufacturing only.

50 YEARS AGO
(HAPPENINGS TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE ANAHEIM GAZETTE)

50 Years Ago
June 12, 1887
There has been quite a wood famine for a number of years past, and the supply arriving daily by team from the mountains is not sufficient for any length of time. It is now seen that the trees of the mountains that the gum tree or eucalyptus would be the most profitable and easy to raise. There are now but few large groves in this vicinity. — Mr. McDermott's in Orange, that on the ranch of R. D. Curtis and the old Hanover south of town, although many gum trees can be seen lining our streets and surrounding the majority of homes. Many new groves are now being planted which in the course of five years will be worth a high price. An acre of gum trees being worth as much as an acre of vineyard, if not more.

Another great convenience in this respect is that we will have our gum at home. The oak supply being hauled from 12 to 15 miles, gum wood grows rapidly and gives as steady a heat as oak and further it will cost no more than 4 or $5 a cord, while oak now costs $8 and 9.

A gum tree requires but little care and when cut down will soon sprout new shoots which produce as vigorous trees as when first planted.

One of J. C. Sledge's cows stopped a bullet with her leg the other day, the result of some bad marksmanship firing at a target and missing it.

Mr. W. W. McFadden has been appointed Deputy Grand Councilor of the order of Chosen Friends for District No. 3, which comprises all of Los Angeles county east of San Gabriel river.

The alphaphum bridge put in by A. E. White near the Bitter place is a great improvement on the old wooden bridge which formerly did duty there.

Then headed by the Crowthers cadet band and a company of high school cadets, they marched to the stand where services were held. Rev. Markel offered an invocation and after the Fullerton Union high school Glee Club had rendered a selection follows H. Knowlton recited Lillian's Gettysburg address. This was followed by the decoration of graves. Rev. Frank Dowling delivered the oration and Rev. C. R. Moore pronounced the benediction. At the close of the exercises all joined in singing "America."

The Ruhman building on North Los Angeles street, has sunk several inches at its northwest corner as a result of digging a sewer trench in the alley north of the structure. A new concrete foundation will be installed and meanwhile Mr. Ruhman is consulting an attorney regarding an action in court for damages.

Herminie Fosseck was through with his eight-hour day, having begun sprinkling at 5 o'clock. He filed the tank before going home in order to get a flying start on the morrow.

The fact that the Christian Science denomination has 2781 branches was cited, and Miss M. Rosamond Wright, manager of the department of branches and practitioners, reported further for the year, "Good growth in our movement is shown through the organization and recognition of 59 new churches and societies as branches of The Mother Church, and six new university organizations. California employers subject to the Unemployment Reserves act for the first quarter of 1937 have until midnight, June 15, to pay contributions.

This announcement was made recently by Carl L. Hyde, executive director of the state department of employment.

Hyde said that after June 15 interest penalties will take effect. Interest of one percent a month is charged on delinquent contributions.

proof of work well done, of progress throughout the movement—give evidence of obedience to principle, and bear witness that the truth of Jesus demonstrated is again understood and made manifest on earth today.

Judge Frederick C. Hill, chairman of The Christian Science board of lectureship, reported 3216 lectures had been delivered during the year ended April 30. Of these lectures, 53 were given in Africa, 54 in Australia, seven in Hawaii, China, Japan and Manila, one in the City of Mexico, eight in Bermuda, Canal Zone and West Indies, 242 in Great Britain and Ireland, 129 in Continental Europe and Scandinavia, and 2722 in Canada, the United States and Alaska.

The press has been very generous in contributing space for the publication of lecture reports, Judge Hill declared.

Edward L. Ripley, church treasurer, expressed gratitude for the increased individual activity accomplished by members of The Mother Church and added that "in disbursing the funds so generously contributed for flood relief, excellent service was rendered by the committees on publication and the various relief workers."

New Pullman to Carry Names of Historic Value

After baffling travelers for many years, Pullman car nomenclature will stand-revealed as a model of historical simplicity when a new train, the "Forty-Niner", makes its appearance on the Southern Pacific company.

For Californians, at least, these names will need no explanation for they loom large in the state's next month.

Instead of carrying the usual toques - twisting, eye - resting history. Nor should older travelers experience much difficulty in associating them with times and events brought to mind by the mention of "Forty-Niner".

You should regard a strike as drama and enjoy it as much as possible. You're going to pay for it.

names, the Forty-Niner's equipment will be christened Danah Lake, Angels Camp, Gold Run, James, Marshall, Captain John Sutter, Joaquin Miller, Advance and Progress, according to F. S. McGinnis, passenger traffic chief for the Southern Pacific company.

The Valencias raked Bruce Harnois for 11 hits in gaining a 7 to 0 victory.

HYPOCRISY IN CALIFORNIA

A notable example of political hypocrisy is found in the recent action of the California legislature in passing a revenue bond bill to promote public ownership of businesses. It is said that the bill's backers consisted of a "clamorous minority."

The California Constitution, adopted in 1879, requires a two-thirds vote by a governmental unit to authorize issuance of general obligation bonds. The new bill permits almost any agency of government or an agricultural association to issue revenue bonds for electric, gas or water plants, or for telegraph, telephone and transportation service, by a bare majority vote. The Constitutional stricture against this is avoided by a clause in the bill which provides for a "different kind of obligation," and fits the schemes into districts and other agencies which were unknown when the Constitution was written.

Thus the basic law of the State is subtly circumvented. Even so, there might be justification for this if the people were able to get out of a public business the way they got into it—by a majority vote. However, the writers of the bill invoked the aid of the Constitution to prevent that by requiring the two-thirds vote before an enterprise can be discontinued! The idea back of this is certainly obvious enough—under pressure of a momentary enthusiasm, the voters of a city or county might give a majority to a proposal to put their government into business. Then it would be practically impossible for them to get out of it in case the enterprise proved a fiasco.

The sponsors of the bill can't justify it as a needed measure to promote something for which there is strong popular demand. During the past few months, there have been four special elections in California cities—San Francisco, Tulare, Fresno and Oroville—on various measures to put these communities into the power business. In every case, substantial majorities voted no.

This incident has national significance in that it reflects the ambition of politicians throughout the land to destroy heavily taxed private enterprise and replace it with tax-free, publicly subsidized government enterprise in furtherance of a socialistic program. In their attempts to do this they are willing to sacrifice Constitutional safeguards.

VITAL TO PROGRESS—

Strange as it may seem, recovery has progressed to the point where consumer demand has very nearly outstripped the capacity of American industry to produce. Unless industry is able to finance a vast expansion program, the danger of price inflation is said to be serious.

The only way industry can finance such a program, is by widespread sale of securities. This must be done through the nation's security exchanges where the public may purchase and sell shares in industry and thereby participate in the fruits of industrial progress.

Stock exchange officials, realizing their vast responsibilities to the investing public, have cooperated diligently with the government in establishing rigid requirements for the listing of corporate securities and in adopting stiff trading regulations.

However, there is a potential danger that stringency of government rules and regulations may be carried too far. America is still young, still has vast, untapped resources and virtually unlimited potential opportunities for new industry. If industrial growth is stunted by shutting off the flow of capital through free security markets, national growth will be like wise stunted. A reasonable degree of speculation is essential to development of new industry. In fact, President Gay of the New York Stock Exchange, while holding no brief for casual, uninformed speculation, recently pointed out that "regulations which lay a deadening hand upon the exercise of legitimate speculative undertakings will, in the long run, act more to the detriment of the public than to its protection."

THE TIMID DOLLAR—

Charles R. Gay, President of the New York Stock Exchange, recently said:

"The government is, or should be, 'of the people, by the people, for the people.' To me this means just one thing—all the people. If government, through legislation, favors one class as against another, a vicious circle is created around which class pursues class in an effort to secure selfish advantage. For the worker it must create means to guarantee the right to work, the right of the individual to work out his own destiny. To the business man it must guarantee freedom, subject to considerate and just regulation, to continue to make his contribution to the upbuilding of the country, the maintenance of that high standard of living which has been our pride, and to realize adequate profits.

"To capital it must guarantee the right to seek employment in productive enterprise subject to fair taxation but not confiscation. Capital is timid; it is elusive. Representing the savings laid up against the 'rainy day' it may not take undue risks, and if through too great taxation the 'game is not worth the candle' capital will disappear into hiding and thus restrict the productive efforts of business and worker."

The most dismaying development of recent years has been the promotion of class feeling and class hatred, which has found its reflection in dangerous and malicious class legislation. Should this feeling spread far enough, democracy would be doomed. Private enterprise would be doomed. And the United States, as we know it, would be doomed.

THE MARCH OF TIME

Prepared by the Editors of TIME The Weekly Newsmagazine

150 RICH MEN—
WASHINGTON—At his press conference one day last week, President Roosevelt told newsmen a tale of uncharted practices, of rich men who had avoided taxes by hiring high-priced lawyers to find loopholes in the law. On his desk were numerous case histories provided by the treasury department:

One man had incorporated his yacht and transferred to the corporation a block of securities, the income from which escaped being taxed some $50,000 a year because it went to pay the "losses" of the corporation from which he "chartered" the yacht at fees which fell far short of paying its $100,000 a year upkeep. Another rich man incorporated his family in Bermuda, paid his salaries to all its members including a 12-year-old child. A retired military officer with royalties of $2,000,000 a year from an invention transferred his patent rights to a corporation formed in Bermuda, took out papers for Canadian citizenship, then wired to ask whether he could still collect his retired pay from the U. S. Pointing out that some of these schemes were legal or technically legal, but that all were immoral, Franklin Roosevelt said he would ask a congressional investigation.

Unable to say exactly how much revenue the treasury had thus lost, the President did say that the practice had been growing for several years and had lately become much worse than about 150 of the very rich were engaged in it, that the names of these tax-dodgers would be revealed only in the congressional investigation to come.

House ways and means committee Chairman Doughton seized the opportunity to blame on wealthy tax-dodgers the whole $400,000,000 shortage in revenues from the estimate in the President's last budget message. But since this would have taken 8,000 millionaires wiggling out of $50,000 in taxes each, his theory soon perished. Politicians then suggested that Franklin Roosevelt was having a periodic attack of book-theft, that 150 rich men could do much to make the country forget New Old Men, that the wages and hours bill he proposed last fortnight plus a red-hot new hunt for malefactors of great wealth might enable the President to regain some of the popularity he had lost on the supreme court issue.

CHINESE EARS—

WASHINGTON—Pondered by the U. S. customs bureau last week was a problem that had never before arisen—Was it legal to import Chinese ears from China?

Were they dutiable? How should they be shipped?

If the troublesome ears were to be transported with the customary Chinese between each pair, the problem might have been passed on to the immigration service; but the ears were to be imported unattached. Hence Customs officials thumbed many documents, consulted the public health service and the post office department, finally decided that Chinese ears—or any unattached human ears—might be imported free of duty in refrigerated packages, but could not be sent through the mails.

Power of the Chinese ear question was Ely Lilly & Co., which had arranged to buy in China three pairs of ears needed in its Indianapolis laboratories for experiments in plastic surgery by Shanghai-born Dr. Ko Kuei Chen, Lilly's famed pharmaceutical research director.

Said Dr. Iago Galdston of New York's Academy of Medicine: "There is no reason to import ears from another country. There are enough ears here now and, aside from that, all ears are alike whether American or Chinese."

CLIPPER & CAVALIER—
HAMILTON, Bermuda—Only 22 miles long, the looped chain of low coral isles of Bermuda seem a tiny target for a plane flying the 783-mile span of water from New York to Hamilton, Bermuda; but at 16,000 feet a pilot can see 30 miles on a clear day, can still spot his goal even if he misses it by that great a navigational error. Without any error, however, Pan American Airways' four-motored Sikorsky flying-boat "Bermuda Clipper," manned by a crack crew of eight under Captain Harold E. Gray, last week soared straight to Bermuda from the U. S. in 4 hr. 45 min. on the first test flight of this long-touted airway.

Meanwhile, Imperial Airways' four-motored flying boat "Cavalier" reversed the route, fought winds which helped the "Bermuda Clipper" reach Pan American's Port Washington, N. Y., base in 5 hr. 49 min. after a brief detour over Manhattan's skyscrapers. When the Cavalier's Captain William Neville Cumming, dressed in doggy blue uniform and carrying kid gloves, was asked if he had brought a clean shirt, he replied: "Oh, I say, I'm going back to-morrow."

V. F. W. Session - Attended by 200

District Conclave Is Held Here Last Sunday at K of P. Hall

A plea that veterans give close attention to the problem of Americanism among citizens was made by Department Commander George P. Imback at the meeting of the 21st district council of Veterans of Foreign Wars held here last Sunday.

About 200 members of the organization attended the session which was held in the K. P. hall with Grover Walters of Fullerton presiding. Delegates were present from Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

The veterans voted to send the council's delegates to the state department convention at Oroville on June 27 without instructions regarding candidates office.

Reports are given

Other speakers at the conclave were Charles Gavin of San Francisco who is quartermaster adjutant and Hugh Harris of the Saville liaison officer. Gavin reported on the finances of the state department, revealing them to be in good condition. He also reported that the "buddy poppy" sale held recently had been a success.

Harrell discussed hospitalization and the combined efforts of all veterans groups in providing care for the disabled and ill.

Officers Attend

Other distinguished members of the organization present at the session were J. Fleming of Pasadena, senior vice commander; R. G. Taggart, of Bakersfield, junior vice commander; W. L. Wilson, San Francisco, chief of staff; V. V. McCurdy, Los Angeles, department inspector; R. L. Wolfe, Corona; J. W. Wagner, San Bernar-

Los Angeles Camps - to Be Opened Soon

Travel into the mountain regions of California should reach a peak this season that hasn't been approached in many years, if the advance demand for accommodations at Los Angeles municipal camps is any indication, according to the National Automobile club.

Registrations of individuals and families planning trips and vacations at Camp Seely in the San Bernardino mountains and Camp High Sierra in the Sierra region began this week at the recreational bureau. The season at these popular camps starts June 28 and closes September 8.

Trailer Rental Service Started

Trailer homes may now be rented at national parks, according to the National Automobile club. The service covers Yellowstone, Glacier, Grand Teton and Rocky Mountain national parks and adjoining national forests. It will be extended to all the adjacent national parks if it proves a success.

The Western Trailways service of Chicago has provided a fleet of ultra-modern trailer homes, fully equipped for two to four persons, all ready to attach to cars at various terminals adjacent to entrances to the parks. Tours may rent the homes on wheels for as little as $3 per day for two persons, enjoy their vacation and leave the trailer at a convenient terminal on the way out. A deposit of $25 is collected, which is applied against rental when the vehicle is returned.

Each home has a complete change of linen, cooking and dining facilities, refrigerator, flush toilet and sleeping accommodations for four. All are equipped with electric brake control and a specially-designed universal draw-bar and hitch which enables easy couplings to cars. Radios, electric fans and other special accessories are available at slight additional cost.

County Receives Federal Payment

General Reimbursement Pays $16,202

Checks totalling $16,202 have been received during the month of May in partial federal reimbursement of old age security and blind aid paid out by Orange county, it has been learned from Welfare Director Jack W. Snow. This brings reimbursement from state, federal and miscellaneous sources up to $185,745 already this fiscal year.

Under present legislation the state and federal governments pay their shares of old age security, blind aid and orphan aid only out of the funds to clients, Snow said. The federal government reimburses the county on a monthly basis while the state reimburses the county semi-annually.

Emergency legislation now awaiting the governor's signature will make it possible for the county to ask for state and federal funds quarterly in advance, Snow pointed out. It is not known whether the bill will be signed soon enough to be effective during the present quarter.

Reimbursements so far claimed by the county this year are shown as $98,116.49 from the federal government, $88,852.82 from the state and $10,775.54 from miscellaneous sources, such as the repayment by clients of relief advanced. Reimbursements from the federal and state governments will amount to approximately 72 per cent of all funds paid out locally for approved old age security cases, leaving the county to provide 28 per cent of the total outlay.

Lemon Growers to Convene on June 18

The pruning and treatment of frost injured lemon trees will be the theme of the annual lemon growers field day that will be held Friday, June 18, at 9:30 o'clock. This is probably the principal orchard problem before the lemon growers at the present time," says Farm Advisor H. E. Wahlberg. "Judging from the stream of inquiries on the subject that have recently been directed to his office. An opportunity will be given in the field demonstration to see young and old trees of various degrees of frost injury and recommended pruning operations will be explained."

The demonstration tour will start at the S. M. Smith orchard, one mile west of La Habra, near Central avenue and La Mirada street.

Milk Sale Drive to Be Held This Month

In a nationwide effort to aid dairy farmers in the marketing of their products, the National Association of Chain Drive Stores will launch a milk drive June 12 and extend the campaign through July 10, it is announced by the California Chain Stores association.

Cooperating with the chain drive stores will be the National Chain Variety stores. It is expected that independent stores will join in the drive.

Ninth in volume of milk production California has grown steadily in importance in the branch of the farming industry. Los Angeles county sales area in the southern California field is the third largest in the United States in dairy products. In that area alone, it is pointed out, there are 1240 dairies with a total cow population of 60,000.

SIZING 'EM UP

A prominent citizen of Orange county, and a former county official, spent most of his time at Sacramento observing legislative operations. He is a man in whose judgment this writer has a good deal of confidence. He made this general summary of the personnel of the legislature:

At the beginning of the session about one-third of the legislators went to Sacramento with ready heads and conservative viewpoints. About one-third had radical notions but brains enough to consider matters from a broad point of view and to give up such notions of their own as were shown to be impractical. The other third were crazy to begin with and stayed that way.

The first group were steadily increased by additions from the second group, the observer said. By the time the session was well under way the swing was toward greater conservatism, and much crackpot legislation was killed.

In the first group was placed Thomas Kuchel of the northern Orange county district. In the second group were placed Assemblyman Watson of the south end and Senator Westover, Orange county's representative in the upper house.

On the whole, Orange county need not be ashamed of its showing at Sacramento. It was not expected that three new men would do much like that.

WELFARE AND POLITICS

Court house politics have pretty generally settled down around the welfare department. An occasional stir here and there in other quarters sometimes has a political taint, but the real pressure is put on the relief office. The San Joaquin supervisor at once assumed control of the welfare department, and makes it his principal duty to run it. It already has been used to pay political debts and scores.

On the part of the public, the chief political pressure comes from those groups who are looking for help from the public treasury. The relief supervisor lends

Official Sanction Given Beach Rodeo

Long Beach's second annual rodeo which will be given two afternoons, Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27, at Lomita Riding club on the Bryant ranch near Hathaway and Anaheim streets, east of Signal Hill, has qualified for membership in the Rodeo Association of America and will be given under the rules and conditions imposed by that organization, according to word received recently from Fred S. McCargar of Salinas, secretary of the association. Nearly all current titleholders of the greatest rodeos of the west will participate.

Sponsored by the Long Beach Mounted Police patrol, the rodeo already has attracted much attention. Inquiries have been received from rodeo fans as far away as Arizona and northern California.

One hundred and fifty cowboys and cowgirls, including most of the titleholders in the events, will be on hand, and several carloads of wild mustangs, bucking broncos, wild Brahmas bulls, calves, steers and miscellaneous livestock will be wheeled to the show ground for the programs which will begin each afternoon promptly at 2:30.

A sympathetic ear to all comers, holding office hours in the supervisors' room much of the time.

Month's Reports Made To Council

Department Heads Review Activities During Last 30 Days

Reports of the activities of the various departments of the city government were made Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the city council.

City Treasurer Charles Boege reported a total of $199,122.03 in the treasury. Of the total $152,407.22 is in the general fund and $46,714.81 in the special gas tax fund.

Delinquent taxes collected in May amounted to $625.34, while current taxes collected were $104,22. Taxes collected since November 1 total $74,913.58.

Receipts in the public service department last month were $22,032.11.

Forty six cases were handled in the city court and $812 collected in fines. Twenty-five persons paid fines, 16 were sent to jail for failure to pay fines, four cases were juveniles and one was a felony.

Arrests by the police department totaled 44 of which 22 were drunks, 11 drunk drivers, three grand theft suspects and the remainder miscellaneous.

Anaheim's sewage flow was 30,357,100 gallons or 25.48 per cent of the entire flow for sections two, three, four and five.

Five fire alarms were answered with no damage reported. Three were grass fires and two were automobiles.

The welfare department spent $23.56 and made 126 home or office calls. Aid was rendered to 10 families.

feasibility of reducing the size of line from 27 inches and 30 inches to 24 inches and 27 inches, or lower.

Nothing definite was decided, due largely to the uncertainty whether Orange will remain in the district. That city has recently decided a decision on its application to the state board of health for permission to construct its own reclamation plant.

Repairs Required

The consensus of opinion of the board members was that the part of section two, which has been designated as poor should be rebuilt as soon as possible regardless of federal aid or what is to be done with section one. Several expressed the opinion that if an agreement on section one cannot be reached with Santa Ana the best action would be to forget the rebuilding of that line or to lay a parallel line.

Grover Walters reported on the inspection trip of the ocean end line which has been recently repaired. He declared that a thorough inspection failed to reveal any signs of leaks in the line.

It is the present plan to remove the sheet piling on the ocean end but to leave the trestle in place. No figure on cost of the repairs was given.

CASE DROPPED

Everett Henderson was freed Tuesday by City Judge Frank Tausch when he appeared for trial on a petty theft charge. He was released when the complain was withdrawn.
