Shortage of Paper Bags Felt Here

That old shopping bag will soon have to come out of its hiding place, that is, if the present shortage of paper bags becomes more acute, and grocers' associations say it will.

Grocers in Southern California have asked their customers to save paper sacks and return them for further use since the shortage is becoming more and more severe. The grocers say the shortage is caused by two things—Hitler and the national defense program.

The Scandinavian countries are supplying Germany with 500,000 tons of paper pulp, that which used to go to the United States.

Thirty per cent of the pulp that formerly went into the manufacture of paper bags is being consumed by military and defense industrial needs. Increasing defense payrolls are also swelling purchases of foodstuffs, thus increasing the normal domestic demand.

One large local bag and paper corporation in Southern California has closed down because it is unable to obtain the pulp supply.

A statement was made at the offices of the Southern California Retail Grocers association that all members have been requested to ask their customers to save their shopping bags and to use them over and over again to eliminate the use of smaller bags.

Medical Men Laud Anaheim Hospital On Grand Opening

Completely Renovated, Building Now Ready to Accommodate 20 patients

Medical men from all sections of Southern California voiced their approval of the new Anaheim hospital at 116 N. Claudina St., which had its grand opening last Saturday and Sunday. Hundreds of members of the medical profession as well as the general public attended the opening.

Non-sectarian in its management, the new hospital brings to Anaheim a long needed asset. Completely modernized from the kitchen and nurses' annex on the basement floor to science's newest presentation for doctors in the surgery, the entire building has been air conditioned.

Bed accommodations for 20 patients have been established with additional space for more if an emergency demands.

A staff of decorators and planners, supervised by J. Hilgenfeld, representative manager from the Good Samaritan Hospitals, Inc., sponsors of the hospital, have introduced color, cheer and comfort, yet retain hospital perfection.

The installation of the latest inventions in the electrical world will give every aid to the needs of practicing physicians, with the cold "surgeon's light" augmenting the perfection of the overhead illumination in the surgery, obstetrical and tonsilectomy operating rooms.

Oranges May Boom Again If Experiment Succeeds To Make Fruit Good Wine Base

Here's good news to the orange grower! Maybe—

Dr. W. B. Cruess of the University of California started experiments with three boxes of valencias as a base for wine.

Although there have been previous and unsuccessful attempts to convert oranges into a palatable wine that will hold its color and flavor, recent advances in chemistry may bring about a revision of the old method of manufacture, according to the Doctor.

YMCA Annual Fund Goal Set at $3900

A campaign goal of $3900 for the coming year was set last week when members of the finance committee of the YMCA met in the hut on S. Philadelphia St., with M. A. Gauer, chairman, presiding.

Boney's team includes Captains L. M. Pickel, Glenn Hipes, William Kinard, Ted Payne, Rev. Don Earl Boatman, Mrs. Walter Ward and Bob Quast.

Invite Young Stamp Collectors to Club

Young stamp collectors are invited to attend the regular meeting of the Orange County Philatelic Society to be held in the Y.M.C.A. building at 407 S. Philadelphia St., tomorrow (Thursday) night at 7:30, where they will be given a packet of worth-while stamps to add to their collection.

The society, which meets the first and third Thursdays of each month, welcomes all stamp collectors and their friends to attend their meetings, which usually include various versions of exhibits, contests and auctions. Entertainment and refreshments usually follows each meeting.

The suggestion that Dr. Cruess make a careful analytical check of the chemical properties of the Valencia as a base for wine came from Robert Hays, new secretary of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce.

Should a profitable method of making wine result from the experiment it undoubtedly would bring new industry to Orange county and at the same time supply a new market for oranges.

The parents didn't ask for change when a son, James Warren Doller was born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Doller of 726 N. Kuchel Predicts Defeat of Olson At Next Election

State Senator Thomas H. Kuchel keynoted for 200 delegates the two-day convention of the California Council of Republican Women, Southern division at Santa Barbara Friday night by branding the administration of Governor Olson "a political nightmare" and predicting Californians will rid themselves of it at next year's election.

Attending from Northern Orange county were Mrs. Frank Rospaw of Placentia, Mrs. M. E. Beebe, Mrs. Lotus H. Loudon and Mrs. Henry Kuchel of Anaheim.

Introduced by Mrs. Edith W. Van de Water, state president and by Mrs. Katherine Niehouse of San Diego, southern division president at a banquet, Senator Kuchel said in part:

"The people of California in next year's state election will march shoulder to shoulder to the polls and rid themselves of the hideous political nightmare that has been with them since the present Olson administration came into power. "Seizing upon the fashionable political platform of patriotism, the Governor has followed a consistently radical pathway all during his tenure of office. And now, joyously announcing that the state deficit will be wiped out in the present biennium, he conveniently forgets his demands of two years ago that state taxes be increased. "All our people rejoice that Governor Olson signed a bill last spring which prohibits any Nazi, Fascist or any Communist from holding any public office in this state. But some of us remember that two years ago we passed an almost identical bill which Governor Olson hurriedly vetoed. The kind of man we need as chief executive in this state is one who will not wait until the threat of Nazism, Communism and radicalism."

"We want a Governor who will stand up for America every day of his life. We intend to elect that sort of a man next year. Our bounden duty as Republicans is to choose one of them in our primary election and then, with the assistance of those of all other parties who abhor the Olson follies, elect him as our Governor."

Government Seeks Improvement of County Airport

Deal to Exchange Land For Federal Assistance Offered Supervisors

The federal government will contribute $250,000 in exchange for another 160 acres at the Orange county airport, so it can be doubled in size and developed into a Class A field, it was disclosed late last week as negotiations opened for acquisition for needed land.

Col. John H. Pirie of Moffet Field, who with Maj. Floyd Hopson of the army base conferred with supervisors and President James A. Tucker of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce, said that his branch of service already has received tentative commitment from the civil aeronautics authority that federal funds of up to a quarter-million dollars will be provided for development of the field.

He said that heavier runways than now in service at the county airport will be needed for the fast and heavy army planes. A six-inch pavement, instead of the four-inch, will be required.

Plans already are being drawn for addition of a 1300-foot strip along the west side of the present 140 acre field for a cross-runway which will be at least 2500 feet long and thus provide all-weather use of the field.

The CAA would, besides paying the costs of paving the new runway, supply funds for adequate field lighting, including border lights and landing lights for night arrivals of planes.

Orange county's contribution to this would be the acquisition by purchase, or lease, of the property needed. It is owned by James Irvine, who once before declined to permit expansion of the field. He will not object to this expansion now, it was reported, in the necessity of government insistence.

Supervisors said that the land might be leased for $20 per acre per year, or $2300 yearly for the total land needed.

SILZES RETURN FROM SIX WEEKS IN THE EAST

"We're not worried about the war between Russia and Germany. We're worried about our own national debt." That was the consensus of opinion expressed by bankers, brokers and businessmen in Washington and New York when they were asked by Anaheim visitors, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Silze of 119 E. North st., recently.

The Silzes with their children, Jacqueline and Billy, returned last week from a six week trip in Eastern United States and Canada in which they travelled over 9500 miles by car.

Combining business with pleasure, the Silzes' first stop was in Washington D. C. where the children were allowed to be present at a session of the Senate. They also visited the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Nation's capitol. Here the Anaheim people talked with many business men and women. The general opinion was that Germany, like Japan in China, would in time be assimilated in Russia, no matter how far the Russian armies are pushed back. The worry of the people in business does not extend across the seas but is in our own country regarding our indebtedness, and what will follow the defense boom.

From Washington, the Silze family traveled through the New England states, into Montreal, Nova Scotia and then down the Atlantic coast. They heard an interesting story at the Baltimore seaport where torpedoed ships were being repaired. It was said that a merchant marine carrying a water cargo to Africa and five days out to sea, was torpedoed during the night. The crew got out the lifeboats and paddled around until daylight. As soon as the sun shone through, the ship, unsunk, stood solidly a mile from them. They went aboard and continued their voyage to Africa with their water cargo.

They left it at the Dark Continent, and returned to Baltimore, still aboard the torpedoed ship. There was, however, only 17 inches more of the ship to go into the water before it would have sunk.

Because of the Silzes' interest in the citrus industry, they traveled south to Florida and examined the canning plants in that state. It was reported there that the grapefruit crop for this year will be smaller and that the orange crop is normal but will be later. The Silzes noticed that the canning industry is not as advanced as in southern California but that there is a closer cooperation between companies and not so much competition.

Turning their headlights toward the west, the Silzes motored through the gulf states, stopping at Mobile, New Orleans, Houston, Carlsbad Caverns and Bryce and Zion National Parks. In Kansas, they also noticed that the mid-western farmers are opposed to our giving any materials away to the allies or to conquered nations.

In Canada, instead of waiting until the end of the year to collect income and other taxes, the government is collecting each month.

As for weather, the Silzes enjoyed "smooth sailing" until they reached Texas, where they encountered a thunder storm.

DAR Members Read Books About Army At Regular Meeting

Members of the Mother Colony Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met for a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Gibbs, 929 E. Center St., Friday afternoon to make a study of "Our Army" under the direction of Mrs. Charles Pearson.

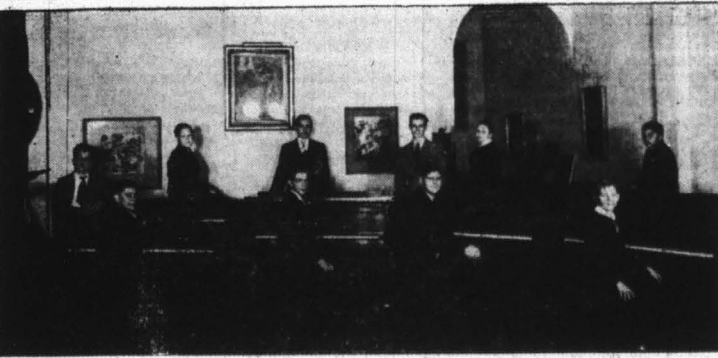

Mrs. Pearson, the Vice-regent, presided as Mrs. Albert Karlen, Regent, was out of town. Following the flag salute, the Chaplain, Mrs. Frank Gibbs, read an interesting article on founders day. October 11 marked the fiftieth year since the first DAR chapter was organized in our State. This in turn was followed by an appropriate prayer for guidance in the years to come.

Books studied during the afternoon included "What the Citizens Should Know About the Army" by Harvey S. Ford; "West Point Today" by Kendall Banning; "The Ramparts We Watch" by George F. Elliot; "The United States Army in War and Peace" by Oliver Spaulding; "The Unpopular History of the United States by Uncle Sam Himself"; and "Military Medals and Insignia of the United States" by J. McDowell Morgan.

Each book used yielded some particular thought for future consideration and are recommended to the public.

After the meeting was adjourned, light refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Elenora A. Parker.

Seek happiness for its own sake, and you will not find it; seek for duty, and happiness will follow as the shadow comes with the sunshine.—Tryon Edwards.

WAKE-UP AMERICA!

Defense is America's first job today. Yet Americans must not become so preoccupied with it that unknowingly they lose the very liberties they are arming to defend.

It's time that America awoke to the fact that in the midst of this emergency when "speed, speed and more speed" is imperative in defense production, various labor groups are trying to establish restrictions and controls that are completely alien to our American way of life. Under threat of tying up production they are setting themselves up as little Caesars to dictate liberty or the lack of it to a growing number of American citizens. And slowly, systematically they are succeeding. Here is a case in point.

Today the country is arming to preserve all freedoms—Free speech included. Yet free speech is denied by labor unions to many working to defend it. In one manufacturing company turning out equipment for the army, non-union employees are prevented by the union contract from speaking freely at their work. This is what the contract specifies, "... hostile remarks about Local 248, particularly at on insulting its members or officials, directing special attention to the buttons of rival organizations by pointing to them in front of others and similar acts of an aggressive nature against Local 248, particularly when performed by persons known for their antagonism to Local 248, have been found to interfere with shop discipline to justify layoffs, or, if necessary, discharges, according to the circumstances." Such is the order that the union has imposed upon the company. In effect it amounts to a denial of the right of free speech. In effect the union has rewritten a part of the Constitution.

If such a case were unique it would be cause enough for grave concern. But it is not unique. It is one of a long series of steps that labor has taken to increase its control in this emergency.

In the dictator countries loss of freedom was progressive. It began in small and inconspicuous ways. First it was denied to a few people, then to more, then to an entire nation. The same thing can happen here.

School to Receive Share of $9,512 For Student Help

NYA funds totalling $9,512 for the part-time employment of needy high school students have been allotted to the following Orange County high schools: Santa Ana Senior and Francis Willard Jr., in Santa Ana, Marywood Catholic at Anaheim, Anaheim Union, Brea-Olinda at Brea, Capistrano Union at San Juan Capistrano, Fullerton Union, Garden Grove Union, Huntington Beach Union, Laguna Beach, La Jolla Junior at Placentia, Newport Harbor Union at Newport Beach, Orange Union, Tustin Union, and Valencia Union at Placentia.

This amount is in addition to the allotment of $14,175 to Fullerton Junior College announced last week by Robert Wayne Burns, Administrator of the NYA for California.

Motorists to Feel Effect of Defense Tax by Next Year

Motorists will begin to feel the effects of the new federal taxes on motor vehicles when they first pay the $5 tax next year. J. Allen Davis, general counsel for the Automobile Club of Southern California, offers the latest information on the taxes to clarify the requirements for Southern California motorists.

The new tax is imposed by Chapter 33A of the Federal Revenue Act of 1941. It calls for the payment of $5 by the registered owner yearly for the use of motor vehicles upon highways. It will not apply prior to February 1, 1942. On new vehicles first used after July 1, the tax is to be prorated to the next June 30.

Payment of the tax will be evidenced by a suitable stamp or some other device to be determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Manner of collection will be prescribed later; such rules have not as yet been published.

When tax is past due and remains unpaid, the registered owner is guilty of misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not more than $25 or imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both. Failure to have and display the "paid up" device will also be a misdemeanor.

The tax does not apply to the use of motor vehicles by the United States, state, territory, or District of Columbia.

Ernie DuBois Still Reads the Gazette

The following letter was received here this week by Fusileer Bill Wallop. Ernie DuBois will be remembered by many friends here in Anaheim and from the tone in which he writes one would surmise that he still has a soft spot in his heart for his old home. (Editor's Note).

DEAR "FUSILEER BILL" While reading the Anaheim Gazette, I noticed some friends and you had met.

For breakfast at your new home in the Fullerton Hills, and your partners agreed to help foot the bills. The menu sounds quite familiar to me.

I've eaten your breakfast at Idyllwild, you see, With John and August helping serve the meal. Brings back memories, You know how I feel. We sure had grand times.

I do recall, At Anaheim and Idyllwild, a good gang all. We all did our share of what should have been work. It was made such fun, No one would shirk.

"Fusileer Bill" for you that's a new name. But you have had plenty along with your fame. Developed from your years of plugging for water, And your untiring efforts to create laughter.

Getting back to the breakfast, "Fusileer Bill" I'm certain all present had more than their fill. Here in San Diego, Away from you all, I miss you good fellows, this is no stall.

I'd liked to have been to your Breakfast party, To talk to the gang and eat a meal hearty.

I trust must be boys remember me yet; I keep up on their "doins" reading The Anaheim Gazette.

ERNIE.

Phoenix Company Rejoins M. O. D.

The Libbey Fruit Packing company, Phoenix, through its president, Frank Brophy, announces reaffiliation with the Mutual Orange Distributors, and states that the Arizona Citrus Sales company has been dissolved.

The Libbey company backs the widely known "Sweet-N-Juicy" brand of grapefruit. This brand, with the widely known C-V brand of desert grapefruit packed by the Coachella Valley Citrus Association, Mecca, Calif., which the M.O.D. now markets, makes a combination that commands top prices.

D. C. Hartle, for several years foreman of the Puente Mutual Citrus Association, and more recently manager of the Yuma-Mesa Fruit Growers Association at Yuma, Arizona, has been appointed manager of Libbey's packing operations. It is expected that the house will pack 400,000 boxes of citrus fruit this season.

MWD Will Supply Water for Army Camps in South

Army Posts Contract for Supply With District Board of Supply Needs

Assurance that vital military defense preparations now in progress at March Field and Camp Haan are to proceed unimpeded by a shortage of water for the thousands of troops in training at these camps was given today when preparations were set underway to supply these two military reservations with soft and filtered water from the aqueduct of the Metropolitan Water District.

When the army authorized the building of Camp Haan and the enlargement of March Field more than a year ago, temporary arrangements were made to secure water from underground basins in that general vicinity. Use of this water, however, was protested by the people in the San Bernardino and Orange county areas, who pointed out that the diversion of water from the proposed basins would seriously deplete the limited supply upon which thousands of acres of citrus land now depend, and have long standing water rights.

Completion of the Metropolitan aqueduct in 1941 made available an abundant new supply of water for Southern California, and steps recently were taken by the army to obtain the water required to maintain the two military centers, scheduled soon to be further enlarged to accommodate additional troops.

Following action of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District in approving a contract for sale of aqueduct water to the two army posts, bids are to be opened on October 21 by the construction quartermaster at Camp Haan for the building of a ten-mile pipe line that will deliver water to the army camps from Lake Mathews, the principal storage reservoir of the giant Colorado river aqueduct, and now holds about 34-billion gallons of Colorado river water. Water from this huge basin is scheduled to be flowing into the two camps by February 1.

Water delivery works to be built by the army to tap the water supply of the Metropolitan aqueduct will include besides the pipe line a reservoir and a pumping plant, the water from Lake Mathews to the higher elevation of the military reservations. It has been indicated that the army camps will require service up to the eight million gallons of water a day, and the supply is to be soft and filtered.

Legislation adopted in the state legislature, it was pointed out by Chairman Whitsett, enables the district to make aqueduct water available for federal and state use.

Boy Scouts Assist In Distribution Of "Fag Bags"

At a meeting at Camp Irvine last night, "fag bags" were issued to some 65 Orange county boy scout troops under the supervision of Harrison E. White, for distribution in Orange County.

Norman J. Farrell, forest supervisor of the Cleveland National Forest, states that "fag bags" have probably accomplished more in the way of fire prevention during the present fire season than any other one item. Thousands of the bags have been distributed in the Los Angeles, San Diego, and San Bernardino County areas and it is hoped the distribution in Orange County will reduce the number of man-caused fires as successfully as they have in other locations.

White states that "fag bags" represent a real contribution to forest fire prevention, and he is proud of the fact that his troops will be able to serve the National interest by aiding in the distribution locally.

These little red bags offer a convenient way in which to carry cigarettes while in the mountains and are a constant reminder to the habitual smoker that smoking is confined to places of habitation and posted areas, or "fag" stations.

To disregard the welfare of others is contrary to the law of God; therefore it deteriorates one's ability to do good, to benefit himself and mankind.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Fullerton Trounces Pasadena J. C. 7-6

The finger was pointed at the "team to beat" in the Eastern conference for the 1941 junior college football championship last week when Ed Goddard's Hornets, 1940 runners-up, defeated Pasadena 7 to 6, before a capacity crowd Friday night in the Fullerton stadium. Pasadena is the team that the week before trounced Santa Ana Jaycee, 20 to 7.

Fullerton scored its touchdown and added the extra point in the second quarter. First the Hornets smashed down to the Pasadena's 2-yard line where Pasadena held Evans' kickoff and was taken back to Pasadena's 21. A couple of line plays yielded three yards. From the 18 Bill Lewis passed in to the end zone to Gene LaShell. Al Foster kicked goal, adding the point that proved the difference between a win and a tie.

Pasadena also made its touchdown, in the third quarter, on a pass. Evans tossed 24 yards to End Jack Simson and he ran from the 30 to Fullerton's 23. Another Evans heave to End Vic Lauricelli was caught on the 5 and run over. Ross Winton's try for point was wide.

Fullerton was inside Pasadena's 10 on two other occasions, once after a 50-yard pass from Lewis to La Shell. Except for its touchdown thrust, Pasadena was never inside Fullerton's 35. The Hornets rolled up 322 yards to 183 and 7 first downs to 6.

Attendance was unofficially estimated at 10,000. It was a larger crowd than witnessed last year's Santa Ana-Fullerton thriller on Thanksgiving Day.

Farm Income Exceeds Costs

Harvest of the largest avocado crop in the history of the California industry was concluded in September. The new crop is expected to be 10 to 20 per cent larger. September prices for oranges were the highest in three years. Size of the current Valencia crop has been exceeded only once. Walnut harvest is in full swing, with yields and quality good in most southern counties. The wine grape crop is short and prices are higher than last year.

These facts are emphasized in a monthly review of Southern California agriculture prepared by the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce and published yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

For the first time in 21 years, national farm prices in September exceeded the prices, interest, and taxes paid by farmers. Southern California farmers shared these benefits.

"With the main offices of co-operative and independent firms handling the largest fruit and vegetable business in the world located here, Los Angeles has for years been the shipping and receiving center of the richest agricultural area in the nation," the review states. This area includes the ten Southern California counties.

"Second only to New York in fruit and vegetable shipments," the review continues, "Los Angeles ships to other parts of the United States an estimated volume of more than 125,000 carloads of produce each year."

Review of WPA For Six Years Period Shown

New Roads Lead Project With Park Improvements And Construction Next

Enough highway construction by the WPA in Orange county to build a road from Santa Ana to beyond Santa Barbara is disclosed today in a progress report of the Southern California administrator's office covering a six-year period from July, 1935, through June, 1941.

The report shows a total of 185.1 miles of highway, roads and streets were built in the county in addition to 54.7 miles of rural roads, 78.8 miles of urban streets and alleys, and 51.6 miles of park roads.

A small city of 7794 could sit in the seven stadiums, grandstands and bleachers built and improved in the county, according to the report, which also lists construction and improvement of 19 parks covering a total area of 811 acres.

Tennis players of the county are enjoying use of seven new courts built by WPA during this period. Other outdoor recreational facilities listed in the report include improvement of school playgrounds and four athletic fields, and construction of a horseshoe court and a swimming pool, two wading pools and a band shell.

Golfers are digging divots over nine new holes added to a golf course in the county as a WPA project.

In the field of public utilities and sanitation WPA projects were responsible for construction and improvement of three electric power plants, 25.9 miles of water mains and distribution lines; 35.7 miles of storm and sanitary sewers and 427 manholes and catch basins.

Prevention of forest fires in the county was aided by construction and improvement of 60.5 miles of firebreaks, fire and forest trails.

Untold damage was probably avoided by extermination of nearly 2,000,000 rodents by WPA over the six-year period, while water erosion was combatted by construction of 30,900 feet of retaining walls, and revetments of 680 control dams in the canyon areas.

One of the more important projects listed in the report was construction of a wharf, adding 8000 feet of waterfront with a total area of 20,000 square feet.

Orange county improved more than three times as many acres as was done in Los Angeles county. Total, other than road, airport or mosquito control work is 11,308 acres, as compared to 2946 acres in the neighboring county.

EBELL SECTION HEARS TALK ON ORCHIDS

H. J. Rapella, grower of orchids from Los Angeles, was the guest speaker at the Anaheim Ebells club's home and garden section meeting Monday afternoon at the Ebells clubhouse.

Before Mr. Rapella's talk, a musical program was given by Herbert Horn, concert pianist and teacher of Anaheim. He offered numbers from the works of Shostakovich, Ravel and Prokofiev, Liszt and Mendelssohn.

"Experiences of Gathering Orchids in Venezuela" was the subject of Mr. Rapella's speech. His interesting description was illustrated by pictures of the South American countries.

Mrs. A. P. M. Brown and Mrs. H. E. Remillard were presented with a lovely orchid by the speaker, since he drew their names from the attendance list.

Leader of the section is Mrs. George Greder, who introduced the speaker and invited the guests to enjoy tea in the lounge.

Tea hostesses were Mrs. Albert Raymond and Mrs. D. Jerry Youngs aided by the tea committee which included Mrs. C. O. Lewis, Mrs. M. W. Marten, Mrs. L. M. Pickel and Mrs. Les Herron.

TO DISCUSS REGULATIONS

Sponsored by the Northern Orange County Credit bureau, a discussion of installment regulations will be explained to members, employees and friends at the Anaheim Elks clubhouse tomorrow (Thursday) by M. McRitchie, of the Federal Reserve bank in Los Angeles. The meeting is called for 7:30 p. m., at which time McRitchie will explain the new regulations and answer any questions on the subject.

Musical Concert
Planned by Club
For Blind Benefit

Under auspices of the Fullerton Lions, who will use the proceeds to aid in the purchase of a "Seeing Eye" dog for some deserving blind person, two nationally-known concert artists, Genevieve Wiley and Joseph Leonard, are to appear on a benefit program Wednesday evening, Nov. 5, in the Fullerton union high school auditorium.

The Fullerton club has been promised county-wide aid from other Lions in offering the concert at popular prices, it was announced by George (Duke) Osborne, president of the service club.

Miss Wiley, soloist, and Leonard, pianist, both are blind.

She is a graduate of the Indiana School for the Blind, where her record in the study of piano, harmony and musical theory was considered outstanding. Vocal training followed with Southern California instructors. Blind since early childhood, Leonard made his concert debut in 1922. He is a graduate of the famed Stern Conservatory in Berlin, Germany.

Both have appeared in Hollywood Bowl concerts as well as on stages throughout the United States and abroad. They are residents of Los Angeles.

Tickets are now on sale in Fullerton and may be obtained from any member of the Lions club. They also will be available at the door Nov. 5. The union high school auditorium seats 1,800, and the Lions anticipate a near-capacity crowd for the benefit.

Aid to the blind is one of the major objectives of Lions International, and the Fullerton club is furthering this program, Osborne explained. The Lions already have donated many white canes to the poor-sighted and pairs of glasses to needy youth. The Nov. 5 concert is the biggest undertaking of the service club since it was reorganized in Fullerton three years ago, President Osborne said.

among the special rooms included in the new set up.

The reception room at the front of the building has been finished in cream and blue and richly furnished.

Now in the process of landscaping are the grounds surrounding the hospital, with the north area leveled ready for planting of lawn and flowers.

The runways for the reception of patients at the rear of the building, where a county ambulance service has been maintained, have been surfaced.

According to Manager Hilgen-dorf, the new hospital was ready to accept patients early this week.

NEW TAXES HIT
CONSUMER IN EVERY ITEM

Editors Note:—New federal taxes which strike again at the pocketbooks of Mr. and Mrs. Consumer and bring added grief to every branch of the retail and wholesale trade, today leave both groups stumped as to the amount of tax on various articles. Through the courtesy of Secretary John M. Johnston of the Anaheim chamber of commerce who compiled the figures, the Gazette will endeavor to enlighten the general public on everyday articles carrying an increase in tax. Taxes on more remote times will not be shown.

Insurance policies have been taxed four cents instead of the usual three, while cigarettes receive an added eight percent raise. Retailers of liquor show a tax increase of 10 percent.

Gasoline, which for sometime has carried a majority of the tax burden, has raised from a one cent to a cent and a half tax and lubricating oils have been raised from four cents to four and a half cents per gallon.

The tax on safe deposit boxes has been raised to 20 percent instead of the usual 10 percent.

Another auto accessory which has been hit hard by the new rate are tires, whose previous federal tax of two and a quarter cents has been raised to five cents.

Entertainment will run higher than ever as cabarets, roof gardens, etc., now have to charge a 5 percent tax for admission, refreshment, service and merchandise. Nor will it help to hide away at the Elks clubhouse, for a tax equivalent to 11 percent of any amount paid as dues or membership fees to any social athletic or sporting club or organization is charged if such fees amount to more than $10 a year.

Automobiles come in for their share with a five percent tax, while tractors pay seven percent. A tax of 10 percent has been imposed upon radios, phonographs, records and musical instruments. A tax in a like amount has been made on refrigerators, refrigerating apparatus, air-conditioners and on all parts and accessories.

Automatic lighters will become more and more popular with the imposition of a tax on the lowly match of two cents per 1000 matches, except in the case of fancy wooden matches which have been stained, dyed or colored; then the tax is five and a half cents per 1000.

For telephone, telegraph or radio telephone messages, where the charge is more than 24 cents, a tax of five cents for each 50 cents, or a fraction thereof, is the result.

Taxes on installment buying, together with many others, will be outlined briefly next week.

Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Speaker Scheduled
On Forum Program

In the third of a series of discussions on national and international problems, Capt. Paul Perigord, professor of French civilization at U.C.L.A., will address the Fullerton public forum in the Fullerton high school auditorium next Thursday, Oct. 23, on "Lessons from the Tragedy of France." The discussion will begin at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

The forum is a part of the adult education program of the Fullerton junior college which over 800 usually attend.

The following week Ashley Simms, noted explorer, traveler and lecturer, will address the forum on "What is Happening in Central America?"

Armistice Parade
Theme to Depict
National Defense

Orange county's annual Armistice day celebration in Fullerton November 11 will present a practical demonstration of its "National Defense" theme with the participation of a variety of army units, it was announced by Arch Cooke, who will manage the event for Fullerton American Legion post, host for the occasion.

Invitations of veteran, civic and fraternal groups throughout the county have been sent out from Fullerton Legion post and already entries of floats have been announced from many communities. In this connection, Cooke pointed out that any patriotic organization which did not receive an invitation is invited to participate and may contact him at his office, 122 E. Commonwealth ave., Fullerton. Following the custom of many years, a memorial service will be conducted Monday, Nov. 10, at the Fullerton union high school stadium to which the public is invited. A special feature will be added to this program following the memorial service.

This will be a demonstration of anti-aircraft guns and searchlights co-ordinating with a listening post. The actual demonstration with two guns and control equipment will be staged in the stadium while searchlights spotted at points surrounding the city are to pick out a high flying army plane on which the guns will be trained. Batteries of anti-aircraft artillery from Camp Haan will stage this feature of the program and will appear in the parade on the following day.

Santa Ana Jaycee
To Meet Berdoo

Still in high spirits over a 53-0 drubbing handed the reputedly strong Sacramento Athletic club last week, Santa Jaycee Dons this week knuckled down in preparation for their first conference tilt against San Bernardino on the Indian field Friday night.

The tomahawk squad has not shown any exceedingly great power so far this year, falling 13-6 before a smashing air attack by Stockton gridders two weeks ago, and playing out a scoreless tie with Santa Monica last Friday night. The Dons won a 20-6 game in the last fall against the beach team. The only game in the win side of the San Berdoo ledger is a 26-13 beating handed Citrus.
