In and About "The Orange Capitol of the World"

If some of the merchants could be on this end of the telephone when we get something in the paper wrong, they would never let the Gazette go to press without their own ad in the paper. They would be convinced that "Everybody reads the Gazette."

✣ ✣ ✣

There is a lot of fuss being made about this young crooner, Frank Sinatra. They say his marriage to Nancy is a success and they now have two babies. But their marriage won't be a success very long if about ten million foolish women who are trying to make Frank lose his head and his happy home can break it up.

The political fortunes are smiling on Orange county this year if the voters will take advantage of the opportunity to elect two of its citizens to the high offices they have already announced for. At one election Orange county can jump into the forefront of political prestige, if we will vote and work for our own candidates for United States senate and the California state senate, respectively. Justus Craemer, publisher of the Orange Daily News, orange grower, and presently member of the State Railroad Commission, will seek the nomination for the U. S. senate. He is eminently qualified for the office he seeks and already has many years of political experience to his credit. Serving as secretary in the governor's office, as deputy director of the State Department of Public Works, as State Building and Loan commissioner, and as Railroad Commissioner, he has gained an insight into the affairs at Sacramento and Washington that few men have ever had the opportunity to attain. Capable and dependable from every standpoint, Orange county and the state at large has a chance to send a young and vigorous, yet thoroughly seasoned representative to the U. S. senate with a prospect of keeping him there long enough to become a power in the national political picture.

On the same ballot Orange countians will have an opportunity to keep its own native son, Lieut. Thomas H. Kuchel, in the state senate for another four-year term. After two terms as state assemblyman, Senator Kuchel is finishing four years in the senate. As one of the younger members of the state legislature he has already become a powerful figure at the state capitol. Possessed of an unusual personality he wins his way into the hearts of his colleagues and gathers support for any measure he champions. The political spot light follows the district that sends capable young men to its legislative halls, and keeps them there. It takes time to grow into political influence and Tommy Kuchel has arrived at his political majority after giving eight years of his youthful vigor to the service of his state. He has reached the stage in his career when his political influence will gather momentum all the faster. A statesman in the making, Tommy Kuchel is Orange county's hope for future statehouse influence. The next four years, most of which we may presume will be the post-war period, will no doubt be the most important era in the history of this state. It will be another history-making period and a time when young, capable and experienced men, such as Senator Tommy Kuchel, will be needed to guide the destiny of California as it develops into the greatest industrial metropolis in all the world. As for me and all my friends, we're going to help re-elect Tommy Kuchel to the state senate, and send Justus Craemer to Washington.

I am about to make up my mind to start again, for the fifth time, to try to read 'Les Miserables all the way through. Trying to read those two volumes all at one time seems like an endless task. But there isn't anybody who can intrigue you like Victor Hugo. I believe he had the keenest mind of any of the old writers; and Pearl Buck is the smartest woman writer of them all. She probably wonders herself why she ever married a missionary, but if she hadn't she never would have gone to China, in which case you probably would never have heard of Pearl Buck. Anyway she has another husband now and is doing right well.

Russia is afraid Germany is receiving some of the merchandise we ship to Spain, a non-beligerant country, through Spanish traders. That is one of the frailties of international customs during war time. Russia probably knows that is what is happening, but we also know that Japan is receiving merchandise, including gasoline to bomb us with, that we are sending to Russia, supposedly to keep Russia in the war against Germany. Russia is not at war with Japan, although she would like to be, therefore she trades and barters in merchandise with the Japanese. In return, through Russia, we are receiving merchandise made in Japan out of vital materials that are not allowed to be used here except in war industries. It's a crazy business, this international custom thing.

I am in receipt of an air mail letter dated "North Africa, December 31, 1943, Prisoner of War Camp No. 129," from my young friend Capt. Sequoyah A. Perry. He was formerly court clerk at Pryor, Okla., and learned of my having left there to come to California when he read about it in a Tulsa paper that arrived in Africa. Capt. Perry was a reserve officer and was called to active duty three years ago. He stated in his letter that he had been overseas about a year. His letter states that he has learned a lot about international affairs which we will talk about when the war is over. I imagine this country will largely be run by the soldiers who come back from this war because they'll be a lot smarter than those of us who stayed at home.

If you're open for propositions and are wondering what would be a good business to go into, well, I wouldn't know what to advise you, except if you want to get rich you'd better stay out of the newspaper business. I once knew some Greek boys who ran a shoe shine stand who didn't do so bad. They rented a strip of ground six feet wide and 40 feet deep between two buildings over which they fixed a roof attached to the two walls. Finally the owner notified them they would have to move as he planned to remodel the adjoining building to cover the strip of ground they were using. They tried to buy the 6x40 feet of ground and their last offer was $60,000 cash. That was when shoe shines sold for a nickel. I knew another man who started a second-hand store with two cases of empty used fruit jars and $10 in money in a small town in Oklahoma. After 12 years he sold out and came to California with $39,000 cash in his pockets. I recently sold a newspaper that I owned for ten years during which time the salary I was able to take from my own business was $20,000 less than I was making before I went into business for myself, but the merchants in my town thought I was getting rich off of their (non) support. If you want to make money sell some thing that nobody needs that will retail for five or ten cents. Or, better still, use your own judgment.

Orange County's Candidate For U. S. Senate Makes Formal Announcement

Justus Craemer's hat is in the ring for U. S. Senator!

Mr. Craemer, Orange county publisher and grower, and member of the State Railroad Commission, made known his decision in a letter sent to the publishers of nearly 200 California newspapers who had urged that he become a candidate, and who had pledged their support of his candidacy.

In his letter to publishers—copies of which were sent to the chairmen of all Republican county central committees—Mr. Craemer wrote, in part as follows:

JUSTUS CRAEMER

"Your generous offer of support, if I should become a candidate for United States Senator, is sincerely appreciated. I am deeply grateful for the response which has come from you and many of the other newspapermen in California since a committee of my publisher friends sent out a letter in my behalf.

"While my public announcement of candidacy will not be made for some days, I want you to know that I have weighed the matter carefully and have reached my decision.

"I will be a candidate for U. S. Senator—and with your support, and that of a host of other good friends who believe as we do, I am confident we will win."

Orange grower and publisher of the Orange Daily News, Mr. Craemer's farming and business experience has given him a keen insight into California's rural problems. On the other hand, his public career—including service as a secretary in the governor's office, as deputy director of the State Department of Public Works, as State Building and Loan Commissioner, and in his present capacity as a member of the State Railroad Commission—has brought him in close contact with the business and industrial problems of the entire state.

Firing one of the opening guns in the Craemer-for-Senator drive, the San Bernardino Daily Sun-Telegram, in a recent editorial, focused attention on the broad appeal which Mr. Craemer's candidacy will have to California voters. The editorial is reprinted on another page in this issue of The Gazette.

When Cortez R. Hoskins of this city recently disposed of a valencia grove on Ball road just west of Highway 101, to F. E. Birtcher and Dr. Charles D. Samuels of the Agricultural laboratory on Highway 101, the property did not remain long in the hands of its new owners.

For they recently sold it in turn to D. M. Holsinger of Yucaipa, thereby making some $8,000 on the deal. For Hoskins sold the acreage for approximately $52,000, while the Yucaipa purchaser is reported to have paid $60,000. The grove comprises 20 acres of mature, full bearing valencia trees.

Council Considers City's Varied Financial Reports

Beginning with the announcement that warrants and demands for the city of Anaheim reached the total of $22,299.46 for the period of Jan. 15 to 31, a succession of figures claimed attention of city council Tuesday night.

City Treasurer A. G. Tuma's report showed a general fund balance of $60,555.77, with all funds in the treasury totaling $127,489.62.

Business license collections have been excellent. The total amount due the city from this source of revenue is $4,290.50 for the period of Jan. 1 to July 1. Of this sum, $4,068.28 already has been collected, leaving only $166.50 in outstanding delinquent licenses.

The same healthy condition is shown in the first installment of city taxes, of which only $370.41 remains unpaid. The second installment on the 1943-44 tax total of $14,559.69 is now payable and will become delinquent on April 20, Tuma pointed out.

Rating of General Achieved By Selling War Bonds

Making the swiftest advance in rank among the hundreds of enlistees in Anaheim's Third Army of retail salespeople, is Sue Adkins of the Stop 'N Shop market at 344 West Center street, who is

GEN. SUE ADKINS

Anaheim's first full general in the Third Army.

General Adkins won her gleaming stars by selling $5000 worth of bonds as she purveyed fresh fruits and vegetables in Hart's produce department of the market. Since making the rating she has advanced to the point where she not only duplicated her achievement, but is well on the road to winning her stars for the third time.

Her nearest competitors are Betty Shore and Margaret Simpson, both of the J. C. Penney store, who have achieved general's rating with its four stars, and nearing their record is Mrs. Henry Funk of the Funk Confectionery store, now a lieut. general with only a few sales to go to make her general's rating.

Two major generals are listed, Ella Harris and Mrs. Elsie Rymer, with newly appointed brigadier generals named as Mrs. Joe Sowder, Katherine Miller, Larry Bardock and Mrs. Lizzie Knight. Among ranking colonels are Alice Funk, Helen Osborne, Anne Schaafsma, Iona Hohler and Ethel Nesmith, while those who have attained the rank of major include Wilma Key, Karen Jensen and Doris Desch.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hilleary and Rose Stegall are lieutenants, while marching along in the ranks of sergeants, corporals and privates first class are Helen House, Mildred Bostick, Joyce Ryan, Lorraine Benning, Arlowine Kroeger, M. Chapman, George Yearout, Ernest Sercy, Viola Vegar, Ray Denny, Mrs. W. R. Ward, Mrs. L. R. Pomeroy, Eddie Yungbluth, Mrs. M. R. Harrison and Virginia Gatewood.

With the city fully two-thirds of the way toward meeting its goal in War Bond sales, and the Fourth War Bond drive with only a few days to go, indications are that activity on the part of this great Third Army, will see many rapid advances in officer personnel.

Orange Co-Op Head Presides At Annual Meeting

County Has Share In Apportionment Of Gas Tax Funds

State Controller Harry B. Riley today apportioned $83,225.40 in gasoline tax money to Orange county as part of a $11,540,428 distribution for the quarter ending last December 31. Orange county's share was computed on the basis of a motor vehicle registration of 66,270.

Controller Riley said the apportionment was $1,664,098 or 12.60 per cent less than that for the corresponding quarter last year.

Riley distributed one-third of the $11,540,428 to the counties, and deposited the balance of $7,693,619 in the state highway fund. From the latter amount, the Division of Highways will allocate $1,923,405 to be expended for highway construction and maintenance within cities of California, and the balance of $5,770,214 remaining in the highway fund will be expended on the state highway system.

Senator Thomas H. Kuchel To Seek Re-Election To Post

(By Jake Proctor)

Senator Thomas H. Kuchel, who returned to his navy base at San Francisco after attending the special session of the state legislature last week, has authorized the announcement that he will be a candidate for re-election in the coming campaign.

Orange county friends of the dynamic young senator, now serving as a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy, have been urging him to make the race and voluntary offers of support have come from all quarters, since Senator Kuchel will not be able to make a personal campaign. With the assurance of many of his friends in both political parties that they will carry on the campaign for him while he remains at his post in the navy service, he has consented to have his name filed as a candidate for re-election to the office.

LT. SEN. THOS. H. KUCHEL

Leaving his law practice in Anaheim June 1, 1942, Senator Kuchel volunteered his services to the armed forces and entered the navy as a lieutenant (j. g.). During his first year in the service he won the promotion to full lieutenant, which rank he now holds. Stationed at San Francisco he has been permitted to attend the legislature on leave of absence from the Navy. It is understood here that if re-elected he will be granted leave to attend the full session of the legislature when it convenes.

Lieut. Kuchel was first elected as assemblyman in 1936, and re-elected in 1938, which office he held until 1940 when he was elected state senator for the four year term.

When it became apparent that he would be needed for military duty in spite of the fact that he would not be subject to the draft on account of his office, Senator Kuchel put his growing law practice on the shelf, submerged his personal ambitions and volunteered his services to the prosecution of the war. He was accepted by the Navy and was commissioned as a lieutenant, junior grade, reporting for duty on June 7, 1942, five days after he was married to Miss Betty Mellenthin of Santa Ana. Being stationed at the San Francisco naval base has made it possible for them to live in that city where they are keeping house until the time comes when they can return to their home in Anaheim. For a time he was stationed at San Pedro and at Washington, D. C.

Due to his popularity throughout Orange county, and to the splendid record he has made as assemblyman, and as state senator, political leaders here predict his re-election to the latter office. They point out that this district could not afford to pass up an opportunity to retain in office a young man of Senator Kuchel's caliber, whose political prestige and strength at home and at the state capitol, has developed by leaps and bounds.

Even though he is now serving in the U. S. Navy, it is expected that he major portion of his four-year term will be after the war is ended. With his experience and known qualities, and the possibility that the war will end long before his term of office expires, political leaders point out that it would be an unwise step not to send him back to the senate, since he has definitely decided to enter the race, even though by remote control.

A native of Anaheim and a member of one of the first families, Lieut. Senator Kuchel, is the son of the late Henry Kuchel, pioneer newspaper publisher, and Mrs. Kuchel, who with her older son, Theodore B. Kuchel, still operate the Anaheim Gazette which has been published by the family since 1875. He is a graduate of Anaheim Union high school, University of Southern California and USC law school and is a member of Phi Kappa Psi, college fraternity. At the time he entered the Navy he was chairman of the Republican State Central committee, an honor never before held by a man of his years.

His popularity, however, is not with republicans alone and he polls a heavy vote from the democratic and non-partisan ranks.

Friends of the young senator are already busy in his behalf and plan to render him the service of carrying on his campaign while he serves the country as a member of the U. S. Navy.

WE BOUGHT EXTRA WAR BONDS 4TH WAR LOAN

Secretary Morgenthau's keynote for the 3rd War Loan is still the text of the 4th War Loan. Listen:

"Before the last shot is fired, a lot of lives are going to be lost and a lot of billions spent. The more American dollars are spent, the less American blood is going to redden foreign soil."

We look back at what we thought was "sacrifice" and find it small. But the end is not here—yet. American boys are still going overseas. The guns which take their lives have not ceased firing.

Is there anyone anywhere in this community, which has been free of the noise of battle, who will not find it possible to buy one more Bond than he has planned? Is there anyone who cares about a Boy who is somewhere overseas who will not say that this is the time to send the word along: "We are backing you up with everything we have."

CRAEMER FOR SENATE

(From San Bernardino Sun)

The time has come for consideration of the men who are available to be selected by their fellow citizens for leadership in the affairs of the nation.

Among other offices to be filled at this year's election in California is that of United States senator. The term of Senator Downey is expiring.

California Republicans are ready to consider the names of a half dozen leaders in various activities as opponents of the record of Mr. Downey.

Included in the list of names most frequently mentioned is that of Justus F. Craemer of Orange county. He needs no introduction to Californians who take the time to follow the careers of the active leaders in the affairs of this state.

It is only natural that the people of San Bernardino county—as one of the important rural counties of California—should be looking for a man who understands the rural problems of this state, a man who has developed in that environment but has gone on in public understanding of all of the state's diversified interests—urban as well as rural, industrial as well as agricultural.

Justus Craemer fits that description of the ideal candidate for United States senator, as many citizens of San Bernardino county view the political pattern that is developing.

From the newspaper publishing field and citrus grower in Orange county, where he established himself as a young man 35 years ago, Mr. Craemer turned to public service. He served California as a governor's secretary, deputy director of public works, state building and loan commissioner, and finally as a member of the state railroad commission of which body he is now a member and of which he has been chairman.

There are few Californians who know California as intimately as he knows it. He knows every corner of it and most of its complex problems. He knows rural California because it was there he began his life's work. He knows urban California because of his work as a railroad commissioner in the industrial affairs of this state. There is perhaps no Californian better informed regarding a wide range of interests. He is a man of tremendous energy, young enough to have the vim of youth and old enough to have mature judgment.

California needs the services of the kind of a senator Mr. Craemer would be.

These lines are written with the idea they should be added to others that are being printed throughout California, urging that Mr. Craemer make his decision to enter the Republican primary and become an active candidate for United States senator.

RATION WRINKLE

On February 27 a new wrinkle will be added to the ration program. And for a time a new wrinkle may be added to the forehead of the American housewife. On the 27th, ration tokens will make their debut.

They will come in two colors—red and blue—red for meat, butter, etc., and blue for processed foods. Each token will be good for one point. These dime-sized chips are being introduced as a means of saving paper, labor and money, and of providing a better method of making change in ration points.

They may seem a bit cumbersome and annoying at first, but they will help make your present ration book last two years instead of a few months.

This new system will also be somewhat trying to your chain or independent food retailer until he gets accustomed to it. So if things don't go smoothly right off the bat, don't blame him. Just remember, this is war.

Two billion tokens have been manufactured, but the OPA warns that they must be kept circulating if we are to have enough for normal business needs.

These new ration chips may get mixed up with the small change or the street-car tokens in the housewife's purse, but eventually she will develop the technique of picking them out. Their color should help make them distinguishable.

The answer to the whole problem is, let us all work harder for victory and hasten the day when ration tokens will be—just souvenirs.—Calif. Progress Review.

CALIFORNIA CONSTRUCTION JOB

Some whose calculations point to a more or less lengthy depression period following on the heels of the war will find practical solace in observations heard at the recent conference of Pacific Advertising Association.

"Advertising will cause us to want better homes after the war, better clothes, food, autos, transportation and streets," Colonel Alexander R. Heron told the ad men. "That's what is constructive; it raises our sights."

The problems due in the months following the war will tax the capacity and ingenuity of every community. Plans in the making now for the necessary rebuilding of business the nation over, for the conversion of industry, for the rehabilitation of the wounded and the reemployment of war workers and service men will prop and bolster the entire national economy in those months to come.

Planners of California's post war projects will carry one of the greatest loads, for here the tremendous new population of workers and their families will be augmented further by thousands of out of State service men looking for jobs. The obligation to be laid on California's shoulders will be an enormous one.

Advertising which "raises our sights" and builds popular demands will play a major role in the reconstruction program that steers the nation back to solid ground when the final battles are won and the men come home.—Leone Baxter.

RAYMOND CLAPPERR

The American press and the American people have suffered a real loss in the death of Raymond Clapper, who was killed in a plane crash during the invasion of the Marshall Islands.

By the highest standards of his profession, he was a fine newspaperman. He was fair, courageous and responsible.

At the age of 51 he had spent 28 years in newspaper work and had traveled hundreds of thousands of miles in gathering news first hand. He was "on the job" to the very end.

25 Years Ago

February 13, 1919

Playing perfect football and going through San Diego's line with ease the Fullerton high school eleven defeated the Southerners on Saturday afternoon at San Diego by a score of 20 to 13. The game, one of the most bitterly contested of the season, was marked by considerable ill feeling on the part of San Diego.

Coach Culp and Assistant Allen, were overjoyed at the victory. Fullerton now has a claim to the championship of Southern California. Other teams leading their leagues are Santa Monica, Inglewood, and Redlands. Santa Monica and Inglewood meet this week and the winner will meet Redlands, Fullerton will meet the winner. The playing of the Fullerton team Saturday which won for them the championship of the Orange league, stamps it as one of the best, if not the best in Southern California. The Fullerton team consisted of Almon Goodwin, right end, Fred Gale, right guard; Albert Hetebrink, left end; Arch Hawkins, right half back. George Meiser, right tackle, Ted Kuchel, center, Roy Hale, left tackle, Coleman Travis, quarterback, John Hawkins, fullback, Earl Stogsdill, left halfback and captain.

At the end of the first half the score was, Fullerton 13, San Diego 6. At the end of the game, with the score 20 to 13 in our favor, Fullerton was within three yards of the San Diego goal line. Thirty seconds more would have given Fullerton another touchdown. Immediately after the game the San Diego eleven left the field and failed to show up at the hotel in the evening. When the visitors left for home Sunday morning Syril Tipton, assistant San Diego coach was the only San Diego man gentlemanly enough to show up and admit his men were outclassed and decisively beaten.

Fullerton held a great celebration Monday in honor of the team.

Many families in this section of the county (among them the editorial family) were anxiously awaiting news over the telephone Saturday evening, but it was not until 8:30 p.m. that the phone call came from San Diego and there was the familiar voice of the Kid. "Hello, Hello, we wopped them, twenty to thirteen, San Diego was never in it, Good Night." Then the Kid hung up. Then the news was flashed to a score of different places in this section, Fullerton, Placentia, La Habra, other points.

Messrs. Ahlborn and Bayliss of the board of trade tree committee, have completed plans for shading the streets of Anaheim, and will present the same to the city trustees tonight. The plans do not contemplate a universal tree for the city, but provide that only one variety of shade or ornamental tree shall be used on a street. They have been in consultation with the Fullerton park commissioner and give him credit for valuable ideas. They agree with him that a palm should be used on Los Angeles street and the boulevard to correspond with the Fullerton tree on the same street.

Leo Sheridan has received a letter from Earl Crist who is still in France awaiting orders to return home. He states that Paul Nicolas has entirely recovered from his wound and returned to his regiment.

Oliver Hill has the cigars up that we will get five more inches of rain this month, dating from the 10th. Oliver is a good weather prophet and looks like a winner.

Peter Neipp arrived here last week after an absence of four years spent in the northern part of the state. Pete had the misfortune to break his left hand a few weeks ago, which he is carrying in a sling, but he says he doesn't care as long as he has one good mit left. Pete sees many substantial improvements here, but is surprised to learn that everybody's on the water wagon here.

The Four-Four's Whist club was entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Yungbluth, the hostess serving a seven o'clock dinner. Mr. F. A. Backs and J. W. Wallop won the prizes at the card game.

In the death of Pierre Nicolas, which occurred at his home near Fullerton Monday, Orange County loses one of its best known citizens. Influenza was the primary cause of his death. Mr. Nicolas was a native of this section being born here 37 years ago. Besides his wife, who was the former Miss Kate Backs, he leaves a brother Paul and three sisters. The funeral will be held this morning at Backs & Terry's chapel, after which the remains will be taken to Los Angeles where services will be held in the Plaza church.

Rainfall during the storm which visited this section the first of the week measured .92 of an inch at Anaheim, making 7.43 for the season.

John Kemper, who has been fighting in France, reached his home here last week, wearing a wound stripe. He was gassed near Verdun October 1st and has been confined to a hospital much of the time since that date. He was discharged at Camp Kearney last Wednesday.

February 15, 1894

There was no quorum at the meeting of City Trustees Tuesday evening when the important matter of granting the Southern Pacific Railroad a franchise to operate its tracks in Santa Ana and Olive streets was to come up for consideration. A draft of the ordinance granting the franchise had been prepared and was submitted to Mr. Sroufe for his approval. This will be forwarded to headquarters and as soon as both parties agree as to the nature of the franchise the board will probably pass the ordinance and the work of changing the railroad tracks up town be put actively under way.

Samuel Parrett has purchased thirty-six acres near this city belonging to Maude R. Mercerean of Anaheim and J. Frank Mercereau of New York for $3,300, and has sold to the former property at Santa Ana for $2,500.

Work on the new Germain packing house, being erected by the Santa Fe company at the depot on Orange street opposite the fruit dryer, is being pushed rapidly along, and it is expected it will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks. The building will have a frontage of 200 feet on the railroad tracks.

The Cemetery association has appointed Thursday, March 1st as the day for planting trees and shrubbery. The cemetery grounds have been enlarged north and west, and it is desired that the premises be beautified as much as possible. A cordial invitation is extended to all good people to join with the association on that day and do what they can to beautify the city of the dead.

Isaac Lyons, our popular merchant, has returned from a visit of a couple of weeks in San Francisco and has brought with him a large assortment of trunks, valises and satchels as well as stocking up his dry goods and boot and shoe lines. He visited the Fair while in the city and pronounces it a wonderful exhibition.

The Entre Nous club held its regular semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mr. A. W. Whitaker of Buena Park on Monday evening. After making arrangements for the social hop to be given by the club on Feb. 23 a musical program was enjoyed. At a late hour the party boarded Lewis' bus which was in readiness and started on its homeward journey.

The Commercial Hotel has an elegant new three-seated carriage to meet trains with, and we notice it pretty well filled with passengers since the sugar factory is a go.

The "Chalmongro" medicine company have been giving free shows at the opera-house during the week. The stereopticon pictures are not at all bad, and the show is fully up to the average free medicine show.

In Mass War-Plane Production—
GAS IS ESSENTIAL

THE EXPLOITS of U. S. war-planes returning home, even though riddled by enemy gun fire—testify to the rugged, lasting qualities that have been built into them by American methods of mass-production. In Southern California airplane plants, the precision control of gas plays a vital role in making such performances possible.

"Hmmm..." you say to yourself, "so natural gas is a vital war fuel... in turning out planes faster and better. But how does that concern ME?"

You see, natural gas is doubly "essential" these days—

In your home, gas is as much needed now as ever. And it's a "must" fuel in Southern California's rushed war plants: because of the precision control, the economical, quick heat, the cleanliness and flexibility that gas alone can supply.

But—the Government has asked you to conserve all fuels—and that includes the gas you use at home. So, it's doubly important that you use gas wisely in heating your home this winter. Don't waste it.

Of this you may be sure: the lessons that are being learned of the adaptability of gas in war industry today, will make your home more modern, even more thrilling tomorrow.

How you can help CONSERVE GAS for the war effort

When you save gas for heating—you conserve fuel needed to speed victory. So don't waste heat; turn off the gas before leaving for the day. Avoid over-heating. Shut the doors of unused rooms. Close outside doors.

THE MAGIC FLAME THAT WILL BRIGHTEN YOUR FUTURE...

GAS

Young Couple Wed At Quiet Rites

Occurring Tuesday evening in Fullerton was the quiet but pretty wedding at which Miss Miriam Brubaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Llewellyn, Anaheim Route 3, Box 100, became the bride of Paul Mack Clawson of the U. S. Navy.

Wedding vows were exchanged before Judge Halsey I. Spence. The bride, wearing navy blue accessories with her trim tailleur in medium blue pin stripe, was attended by Mrs. Daniel G. Riedle of Fullerton, who wore a dusty rose jersey frock. Daniel Riedle, coxswain 3/c in the Navy, served as best man.

For the present the new Mrs. Clawson will remain in her girlhood home and has returned to her duties at the Jackson Drugstore fountain. Her bridegroom has resumed his post at Roosevelt Naval base, San Pedro. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clawson of Kalamazoo, Mich., he has been in the Navy for four years, and has seen service at Pearl Harbor and in both North and South Pacific theaters of war. He wears two stars, signifying participation in Naval engagements one of which was the Battle of Attu.

Wedding Occurs In Parsonage Home

The Rev. Thomas L. Burden, pastor of White Temple Methodist church, conducted the quiet wedding service on Tuesday evening in the parsonage, at which Miss Florence Agnes Pack, 208 Ellsworth avenue, became the bride of Hozy Lee Patterson of the 414th Air Base Squadron at SAAAB.

Mrs. Marie Pack, a sister-in-law of the bride, was her attendant. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland M. Patterson of Oklahoma. His bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pack, live in Arkansas.

Business and Entertainment Are Balanced In Ebell Club's February Program

Especially praised for her versatility, Miss Leonore Oakleigh, guest artist for Monday afternoon's meeting of Ebell club also was acclaimed for the wisdom which led her to build her program on a foundation of cheerfulness in trying war days when audiences need the light touch rather than the somber, in their entertainment.

Miss Oakleigh's introduction by Mrs. C. M. Wethered, program chairman, rounded out a full afternoon which began with the mid-day luncheon and informal program. Mrs. Emma Karlen and Mrs. C. O. Lewis were chairmen responsible for the tempting menu and Mrs. L. E. Middleton and Mrs. Robert Kennedy supervised table decorations.

Members of Ebell-sponsored Girl Scout Troop No. 9 with their leaders, Betty Coleston and Anna Clair Mauerhan, were honor guests as were members of Girl Scout Council, introduced by their commissioner, Mrs. Arthur Roquet.

Music, camp songs and table stunts were provided by the visiting Scouts, after which Miss Nancy Hargrove of Anaheim, Girl Scout executive, now high in the state organization, gave an inspiring talk on the importance of cooperation with Scout work. With so many varied activities needing aid and direction, she suggested that interested women might offer their services according to individual talents in nature study, music, handcraft and similar subjects.

When Mrs. Paul H. Demaree called the formal club session to order at 2 o'clock, announcements indicated the scope of club work. Most important perhaps, was the fact that Miss Lena V. Rowe and Mrs. George W. Salisbury, presiding at the War Bond table, sold a total of $4,000 in bonds during the afternoon.

In connection with bond sales, Mrs. L. E. Middleton found ready response from members when she asked for volunteers to serve at three Ebell booths each Thursday.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer announced the cake sale which Ways and Means committee will stage Saturday in the J. C. Penney store. This committee has been divided by its chairman, Mrs. Clyde Nichols, into five groups to raise funds for the year's expenses. Group 2 is conducting a paper drive among members. They are asked to deliver their paper to the south side of the clubhouse on Feb. 28, in readiness for the regular pick-up on March 1.

With introduction of Miss Oakleigh, members turned from business to sheer entertainment. Vivacious and sparkling, the guest artist proved that she has been rightly called a "one-man theater." With dramatic monolgues as her chosen field she presented a succession of entertaining characterizations, all of them showing the stamp of originality.

Her movie actress in "Hollywood at Home"; her Portuguese mother in "Maria Arada"; her pseudo art critic in "Surrealist Exhibit," and her shopper preparing for a home visit in Iowa in "Bonnie Bumpus" all were hilarious.

Striking contrast was offered by her interpretation of Catherine of Aragon in Shakespeare's "King Henry, the VIII." There she combined dignity and beauty in the trial scene, and added depths of pathos and a fine sense of drama in the exile.

Mrs. Wethered read the brief introductory passages to the two Shakespearean dramatizations.

Miss Twinem Gives Fine Talk At Church Tea Event

Aware of the keen interest felt by the community in Miss Marguerite Twinem's experiences as a prisoner of the Japanese, and her return to her homeland aboard the steamer Gripsholm, the Women's Society of Christian Service of White Temple Methodist church opened its meeting Tuesday afternoon to the general public, with Miss Twinem as special guest speaker.

Response was so enthusiastic that the audience taxed the capacity of Wesley hall, where the pleasant affair was given setting. Miss Twinem, introduced by Mrs. Paul Davidson, president of the hostess society, held the fascinated attention of her audience as she described life in the internment camp where she was held in China.

Her six years of missionary work in the Orient, was under auspices of White Temple church and of Long Beach First Methodist church.

Instead of harrowing the feelings of her audience with horror tales of her internment, she thrilled them with a sense of uplift as she described the splendid spirit of cooperation between the interned prisoners. She spoke of methods used to maintain a high morale in the face of the deprivations to which they were subjected, and described her trip through China when she was chosen as one to be repatriated, and was sent to Shanghai to board the Japanese liner, Pei Maru. She described the difference in feeling when passengers were transferred to the Gripsholm in Portugal.

Miss Twinem's speaking engagements have been few, since she has been in need of complete rest since her return in December to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest F. Twinem, 219 East North street. Friends were happy to greet her informally during the tea hour concluding her Tuesday speaking appearance. In the meantime they had enjoyed also a musical interval when Betty Fackiner Rees sang "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," accompanied by Vera Jean Hilbers.

Mrs. E. G. Havard was chairman of the tea committee which included Mesdames Melvin Mungerson, Arthur Osborn, George Graham, Paul Demaree and Charles Rinehart.

Mrs. F. F. Twinem and Mrs. Harry Jayne were asked to preside at the beautifully appointed table where delicate pink camellias glowed in the radiance of pink and white tapers.

SACRAMENTO VISIT IS CONCLUDED

Concluding an enjoyable six-weeks' visit in Sacramento, Mrs. Fred A. Backs has returned to her home, 317 North Philadelphia street. She was a guest in the capital city of her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. Duncan Power. Mrs. Power will be remembered as Miss Florence Backs. Major Power is stationed at Mather Field.

Kiwanis Heads For 1943 Honor Past Lt. Governor

Those fine associations that prevailed throughout 1943 between the seven Kiwanis clubs of Division Four and the lieutenant governor of the division, Harry I. Horn, prominent member and past president of Anaheim Kiwanis, again came to the fore last Friday evening.

For having resigned presidential authority to their several successors, immediate past presidents of the clubs felt that time was ripe to express to their co-worker and lieutenant governor, a measure of appreciation for his faithful services during the year.

To this end they planned a dinner party out at Knott's Berry Place with Mr. and Mrs. Horn as special honor guests. Thomas E. Gore of Riverside, immediate past district governor of the Calivada district, and Mrs. Gore also were invited, with wives of the seven club past presidents rounding out the guest roster.

Taking lead in plans for the affair were Ewald Lemcke of this city and David Carmichael of Santa Ana. The dinner itself was one of those which have made the Berry Place famous from coast to coast. Sufficient entertainment during the after-dinner interval was found in the resume of the past year's work in the Calivada district as given by Past Governor Gore.

He paid high tribute to the work of Lieut. Gov. Horn and the latter voiced his appreciation of this and of the dinner courtesy. At the same time he asked for continued cooperation with his successor in the division post, Alvah C. Earley of La Habra.

Sharing the enjoyable evening with the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Horn, were Mr. and Mrs. Gore of Riverside and the immediate past presidents of the seven host clubs, with their wives. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Lemcke of this city, Mr. and Mrs. David Carmichael of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steffensen of Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. George Bellis of Buena Park, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin of Whittier, the Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Goodell of Newport Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brower of La Habra.

Native Californian Passes Suddenly

The sudden passing on Monday morning of George H. Hansen at his home, 1122 Diamond street, was a shock to family and friends who had believed that he was well on the way to complete recovery after a succession of operations.

Mr. Hansen, a native son of Orange county, was born in Placentia 65 years ago and had lived almost continuously in this community. Only recently he had undergone several operations, but seemingly had recovered his normal health to the point where he had resumed work.

Complaining of a slight illness a few days ago, he complied with his physician's instructions by returning to bed, but it was not believed that his illness was of a serious nature, so that his family was not prepared for the suddenness with which death came.

Sorrowing friends gathered yesterday afternoon in the Hilgenfeld chapel where the Rev. Ray Ragsdale, pastor of Fullerton Methodist church, conducted funeral services. These were followed by cremation.

Mr. Hansen is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bertha L. Hansen of the home; two sons and a daughter, Robert P. Hansen of Sacramento, Ernest V. Hansen of Marysville, and Mrs. Dorothy Bosley of North Hollywood. Other close relatives include a brother and two sisters, Charles Hansen and Mrs. Christine McFarland, Placentia, and Mrs. Anna Head of Santa Ana, together with one grandchild.

Long Time Resident Called By Death

Summoned by death Tuesday in an Orange rest home where she had been taking treatment, Mrs. Sophie Hansen concluded a long, full life of 83 years. She was born in Rusthoff, Germany, and came to California in 1887 and to Anaheim just six years later, living here during the remainder of her life. The family home was at 10 West Center street.

The Rev. Thomas L. Burden of White Temple Methodist church, conducted funeral services this morning in the Hilgenfeld chapel and Anaheim chapter OES of which Mrs. Hansen was an active member, was in charge of the graveside rites at Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hansen is mourned by one daughter, three sons, seven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a host of friends. Her children are Mrs. Alice Speheger of Torrance, Theodore, Walter and Elmer Hansen of this city

NO ONE INJURED IN CAR COLLISION

Property damage alone resulted from a minor accident occurring Tuesday at the Los Angeles street and Broadway intersection. Cars driven by John Updyke, Route 3, Box 308, and by L. F. Pomeroy, 626 North Zeyn street, were damaged, but each driver agreed to be responsible for his own repairs.

Navy Mothers Plan All-Day Sewing

Navy Mothers' club members have been reminded of the change in meeting place for their important all-day sewing meeting next Wednesday, Feb. 16. For instead of staging the event in the Thaxton home, it will be held in American Legion clubrooms, the usual meeting place of the club.

Navy Mothers will assemble at 10:30 a. m. with all the essential equipment for sewing, and will devote the remainder of the day to this type of work for their boys in Navy hospitals. Their only interruption will be the covered dish luncheon at noon, for which each Mother will contribute a dish and provide her own table service.

Boys of the club's adopted ward at the Norco hospital are to have a happy reminder of the season next Monday, when they will receive boxes of home-made candy as valentines. Sugar and butter or butter substitute, is being provided by the club to all members who will make candy for this purpose. The filled boxes are to be left either Saturday or Sunday, and certainly not later than 11 o'clock Monday morning, either with Mrs. H. H. Heckman, 519 East Chartres, or Mrs. M. P. Thaxton, 116 North Resh street.

With their many activities, the Navy Mothers are also working faithfully in the Fourth War Bond campaign, and give each Monday and Saturday to taking over booths in various stores.

Local Soloist Will Be Featured With Musical Arts Club

Albert M. Cranston, 206 South Rose street, whose rich voice makes him in demand at Southland musical events, including work in both opera and motion pictures, will have a prominent part in the program which Orange County Musical Arts club will stage Friday night.

With Wilma Watts as his accompanist, Cranston will sing "Old Man River" (Jerome Kern), "Goin' Home" (Dvorak) and "Kingdom Am a-Comin'" (Evans).

The program, which is to be given in Santa Ana YWCA, 105 East Fifth street in that city, will begin at 8 o'clock and will be open to all music lovers. It is being arranged by Mrs. J. C. Hamil.

Other artist members of Musical Arts who will participate include Miss Dempsey Pride, Miss Audrey Maag and Whitford L. Hall, vocal soloists; and Lewis Miller, who will provide both 'cello and piano numbers.

County Will Have Investigation Of Job Stabilization

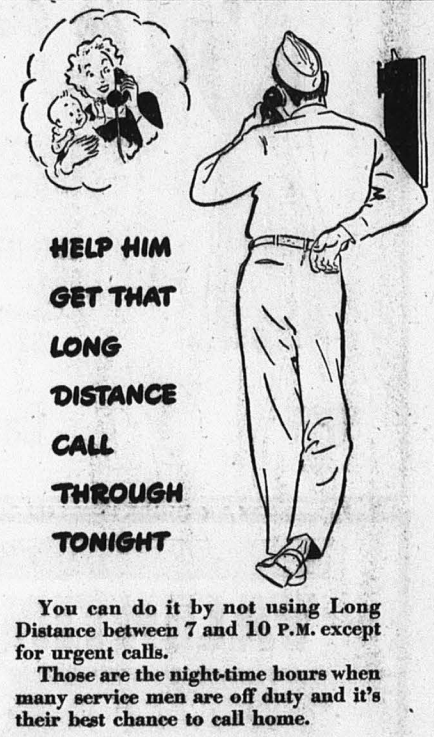

In accordance with an announcement made in Los Angeles by H. R. Harnish, Southern California Manpower director, a large scale investigation into Pacific coast industry compliance with employment stabilization, employment ceiling and 48-hour week regulations will start immediately, with Orange, Los Angeles and San Diego counties to be among the first in which surveys will get under way.

At the same time investigations will be started in the San Francisco bay area, the Portland-Vancouver area and the Seattle-Tacoma-Bremerton area. Such surveys will be under trained inspectors of the wage-hour division of the Department of Labor.

In the Southland area, investigations will be conducted by John A. Sellern, wage-hour division manager for Southern California and Arizona. Serious violators of the regulations will be cited to appear before a management-labor committee board.

A secondary purpose of the investigations will be the acquainting of both industry and labor with basic regulations of War Manpower Commission regulations.

Historic Business Building Has Change In Ownership

Although a change in ownership, the first in almost 70 years, has been effected in the business building at the southwest corner of Los Angeles and Chartres streets, there is no change in the type of business occupying the building, nor in the business administration of the purchasers, the Smith-Reafsnyder Furniture company.

By the business deal recently announced, the Smith Reafsnyder company becomes the owner of the building, purchasing it from the heirs of the late Ferdinand A. Backs, pioneer resident of the city. The company is composed of Charles Smith, his son, Harold Smith of the U. S. Army; Ray Reafsnyder and his brother, Wayne Reafsnyder, of the U. S. Army.

The history of the building is interwoven with the history of Anaheim's development. In all the years since its construction 67 years ago it has housed a furniture business. For the first two score years the business was operated by the Backs family, who then disposed of it to Albert Graham.

Graham in turn sold to A. J. Riutcel and the late Roy Wethered who operated the furniture store for some eight years. Upon the death of Wethered, his interest was purchased by Charles Smith and the store name was changed to the Riutcel-Smith store. Upon Riuctel's retirement five years ago, his interest was purchased by the Reafsnyder brothers of Garden Grove, and the present firm name adopted.

The partnership of four remains unchanged despite the demands of their country upon two members of the firm. Harold Smith is a radio instructor at McClellan Field, Sacramento. Wayne Reafsnyder, enlisting for navy service, is now stationed at Camp Farragut, Ida.

Present plans embody a few changes in the huge building, beginning with a complete painting of the exterior. Some remodeling of the two main floors and mezzanine, which with a large basement, comprise the store space, will be carried out from time to time, building regulations permitting.

CHIROPRACTORS HOLD ALL-DAY SESSION

Dr. Henry C. Vogt of this city was among 10 or more Orange county chiropractors who attended an all-day session of Southland chiropractors held Sunday in Los Angeles Biltmore hotel. Among special events was the address by Dr. A. S. Cameron, recognized authority on diseases of the heart, and motion pictures illustrating such diseases.

VISITS SON

Mrs. Emily Olney and daughter, Nancylee, spent Sunday in Huntington Park at the home of her son and family.

Clubwomen Enjoy Session With Federation Head

Anaheim clubwomen in attendance Friday at Fullerton Ebell club's Reciprocity Day program complimenting Mrs. Earl B. Shoesmith, president of California Federation of Women's Clubs, were enthusiastic about the charm and personality of their state leader, as well as the hospitality of their sister clubwomen.

Invitation had been issued to all club presidents of the county, as well as to county, district and state federation officers, to meet Mrs. Shoesmith, in the Southland from her San Leandro home, and take part in the reciprocity event.

Those in attendance from this city included Mrs. Leo J. Friis, county chairman of legislation; Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, county chairman of conservation of defense products and national resources; Mrs. Albert J. Janzen, Las Amigas Study president; Mrs. Charles Schweinfest, Mrs. C. E. Austin and Mrs. J. E. Baker.

Mrs. A. M. Edwards, president of the hostess club, and her officers were joined in hostess responsibilities by Mrs. Albert Launer, treasurer in both state and district federations.

After a musical interval featuring a group of solos sung charmingly by Mrs. W. Jackson Scott, Mrs. Shoesmith gave the principal talk of the afternoon, the keynote of which, was willingness to serve.

With due recognition of the present era of stress, she dwelt on the manner in which groups and individuals are working together to preserve the ideals of a peaceful democracy. She besought a continuation of this cooperation among all club groups, in the troublous reconstruction days to follow the close of the war, that they hight not lose sight of the main goal, and might retain quickness of perception as dangerous elements arise to threaten the goal of lasting peace.

Anaheim clubwomen were interested in the cooperative action taken by the Fullerton Ebell in placing its clubhouse at the disposal of the government for the duration, to be used as one of the sorely needed nursery schools. Possession will be given on March 6, after which club sessions will be held in the assembly room of Fullerton City library.

January Enlistees In Navy Include Nine from Anaheim

Nine Anaheim youths were included on the list of 51 Orange county 17-year-olds who enlisted in the U. S. Navy during the month of January, according to F. A. Cochran, recruiter in charge of Orange County Navy Recruiting Station in Santa Ana Federal building.

Local enlistees were Duane R. Carpenter, Charles J. Chapman, Henry L. Cundiff, Lee R. Dedic, Rollyn E. Johnson, Donald E. Organ, Vincent P. Pietrok, Robert W. Richard and Edward D. Worshum.

Other North Orange county recruits on the list were Victor J. Stoneburner, Paul Keele and Charles E. Dryden, Fullerton; Percy H. Anglin and Carl W. Hartog, Buena Park; Donald M. Renken and Richard E. Peabody, La Habra; Glenn R. Harrod, Uncus M. Seen and John R. Wilson, Brea.

Santa Ana produced the highest number of recruits, 16 altogther. Others enlisted from Orange, Huntington Beach, Laguna Beach, Balboa Island, Stanton, Costa Mesa, Midway City and Westminster.

Cochran pointed out that there is an exceptionally good opportunity at present for qualified young men to be enlisted as seamen first class for training as radio technicians. Youths of ... who are proficient in mathematics and physics, with some knowledge of electricity, radio and shop practice are urged to investigate the new program.

Young men in the voluntary enlistment age bracket now in their senior year at an accredited high school or preparatory school, may join the Navy now and remain in school until graduation, Cochran stated. They would be placed on inactive duty until graduation when they would be called to active duty.

You bet we're buying War Bonds on the Santa Fe

Troop trains . . . hospital trains . . . trains loaded with tanks, planes, guns, and food, bring us pretty close to the war.

We see lots of them on the Santa Fe.

Already over 9,000 of our employes are in the armed forces.

That's why we railroad folks know how important it is to buy War Bonds and keep on buying them.

Approximately 50,000 of our people are buying War Bonds through the payroll deduction plan to back up our armed forces, as well as to save for peace and the future.

The Santa Fe Railway has purchased large amounts of Government securities—and that policy will be continued.

If you were "Workin' on the Railroad" these days, we believe you, too, would buy an extra War Bond during this 4th War Bond Drive.

But no matter where you do work, let's ALL back the attack!

Dance Emsemble Featured On County Artist Series

Anaheim and other North Orange county patrons of the annual artist series under sponsorship of Orange County Musical Arts club, are anticipating the next event of the series for Feb. 21, when Mia Slavenska, her dance ensemble will be presented in Santa Ana high school auditorium.

Successive programs of the series have offered artists of world fame, and each year the course has been arranged by its sponsors to include a dance program by popular request. In selecting Mia Slavenska, the program committee felt fortunate in being able to secure an artist of such caliber.

For Slavenska was formerly the leading prima ballerina with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, highly acclaimed not only for the grace and perfection of her work, but as the most beautiful ballerina of our time. She left the Ballet Russe only recently to head her own company, which includes her co-star, David Tihmar and the full ensemble.

Her programs are composed of dances for which the artiste herself created the choreography, based on the music of Chopin, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Johann Strauss, Debussy, and the folk dances of her native Yugoslavia.

The program for her Orange county appearance will begin promptly at 8:15 on Monday night, Feb. 21. The majority of Anaheim patrons have their season tickets so arranged that their seats are already reserved for them. Others may secure reserved seats as usual at Santa Ana Book store.

North County Thespians Will Appear In Next Santa Ana Community Play

Anaheim interest is running high in the forthcoming production by Santa Ana Community Payers of "George Washington Slept Here," because a local Thespian, Herman R. Hoch, whose home is on Route 3, has a prominent role in the comedy.

In fact the Players' organization, which has functioned for the past 20 or more years, might well extend its name to Orange County Community Players, for in addition to the Anaheim member of the cast, the leading role, "Newton Fuller," will be played by Wayne Holt of Garden Grove; the juvenile leads, "Madge" and "Steve," by Anabel and Douglas Phillips of Fullerton, and a minor role by Jerry Pearlman of the Marine Base of El Toro.

"George Washington Slept Here," made doubly famous by Jack Benny's screen version, is to be presented for three nights, Feb. 17-19 in Santa Ana Ebell clubhouse, 625 French street.

Rehearsals are of almost nightly occurrence in the Santa Ana home of the J. H. Virnigs, whose young son Jerry takes the mischievous youngster's part in the play. In this gas rationing era, the north county players have to make the trip to rehearsals by the convenient bus system.

The role enacted by Hoch in the play is that of "Mr. Prescott," the choleric landlord, and the Players' director, Gladys Simpson Shafer, feels that she has gained a fine character actor, matched by the work of another newcomer to the local boards, Howard Chadwick of Santa Ana as "Uncle Stanley." Both meet stiff opposition in character acting from Harry Brackett, veteran member of the association, in the role of "Mr. Kimber," the odd-jobs man on the country place.

Playing opposite Garden Grove's Wayne Holt in the feminine lead of "Annabelle Fuller" is Lula Brackett, also noted for many roles with the Players.

The two juveniles from Fullerton, Anabel and Douglas Phillips, are well known young pianists of the community and will have prominence tonight on the recital program of the Margaret J. Buttree Studio.

Seal Sale Returns Show County Nears High Record

While there may be a few Anaheim residents who have not yet got around to making their Red Cross Christmas Seal returns, the record for the area is extremely good, according to Mrs. Homer G. Ames, district chairman.

For her figures show that returns for Anaheim district total $3,352.49, a gratifying advance of the quota set tentatively at $2,250. The sale of bangle pins to local school children netted $149.80 which increased the entire county fund for such sales to $659.21.

If dilatory patrons of the annual seal sale would hasten to make their returns, it would enable Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association to join the ranks of similar California groups whose Seal Sale receipts reached the $25,000 mark. The sum of only $143.93 is needed to bring the association its admission to this select group.

Dr. Robert Burns McAulay, Seal Sale chairman, reported that receipts from the 1943 sale now total $24,856.07, and since returns continue to come in daily at the main office, 112 West Fifth street, Santa Ana, he has every reason to believe that they will soon reach the $25,000 mark.

"This record sale, more than $8,000 ahead of the 1942 sales, will make possible the most pretentious program we have ever been in a position to finance," Dr. McAulay said. "Every cent can and will be expended to advantage to meet the increased tuberculosis threat offered by war conditions.

Salvage Committee Has Successful Waste Paper Drive

Twelve tons of waste paper! That is the amount collected on Anaheim's first city-wide collection of paper, under direction of the city's Defense Salvage committee.

This initial collection was made on the first day of the month, and results have just been announced by A. L. Raymond, chairman of the committee. At the same time he suggested that some of the paper may have been missed since there was a slight misunderstanding as to just where it was to be placed for collection by the city trucks.

However collections will continue as long as the paper is so badly needed in the war effort, and householders are asked to conserve all such waste products in readiness for successive pick-ups on the first day of each month.

Instructions are to place the paper just where trash is usually placed for the regular pick-ups. It should be set out early, as trucks start out on their rounds at 8 a. m., and paper set out after that hour may be overlooked.

Newspapers and magazines should be tied in bundles about a foot in height. Cardboard cartons should be flattened out and tied in bundles of similar height, while loose papers should be placed in cartons and tied securely so they will not blow away.

Those who have papers they wish to dispose of between collection dates may leave them at the city yard on South Los Angeles street where storage space has been obtained. This space is for the benefit of those in the rural areas also, although the trucks do not go outside the city limits, so rural residents must deliver their own donations. Ranchers have been reminded that paper bags in which fertilizer is delivered, may be turned into the salvage committee as well as any other paper.

Salvage committee members expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation given by Anaheim citizens, and for that of city officials and employees who made the collection possible. With this general cooperation they expressed belief that each succeeding month will see an advance on the 12 tons collected on Feb. 1.

WAR BONDS purchased today will save scores of lives.

Orange Co. Council Of Rotary Will Meet Here Tonight

Anaheim Rotarians will be hosts tonight in Elks clubhouse, to the Orange County Council of Rotary clubs, with dinner at 6:45 p. m. Final plans for entertaining the council were made Monday when Paul H. Demaree presided over the weekly meeting in Elks club.

Melbourne A. Gauer, program chairman, introduced Paul O. Sampson, nationally known dietician-lecturer of St. Louis, Mo., discussed "Food and its Relationship to Health."

Asserting that 85 per cent of all ill health may be traced to improper diet and faulty eating habits, the speaker stated that the majority of rejected men in early days of Selective Service, were found unfit for military duty because of physical troubles directly due to faulty diet.

"The average man pays scant attention to food combinations," he stated, pointing out that "It is remarkable what simple, wholesome foods will do for human beings if given a chance." Overconsumption of refined sugar is a principal fault of the American diet he said, declaring that this country's annual consumption reaches 125 pounds per person, where a half pound of sugar a week or 26 pounds a year is sufficient for each adult.

Of special interest in this citrus area was the speaker's contention that the habit of using orange juice and feeding the pulp to livestock results in the latter getting the bulk of valuable vitamins. The average sliced orange contains 1,200 vitamins, he explained, while juice from the same orange has only 600.

President Demaree named Robert Boney as chairman of the local delegation which will attend the Rotary district conference in Los Angeles Elks club, April 17 to 19. During the business session, Demaree also extended the club's congratulations to the Rev. T. L. Burden on his birthday anniversary.

Anaheimers Attend County Republican Central Committee

Third supervisoral district was well represented at last night's meeting of the Republican Central committee in Daniger's cafe, Santa Ana, where committeemen shared a 6:30 dinner as prelude to a busy session.

Anaheim was represented by Victor Loly, Edward P. Backs and M. E. Beebe. From Buena Park was Art Dukes, and from Fullerton, Judge Raymond Thompson and Howard Irwin.

Chairman Gordon X. Richmond of Orange presided over the business session during which he named a financial committee to include W. B. Williams, Sam Bowman, Victor Loly, Howard Irwin, L. Beasley, N. T. Edwards, and A. B. Rousselle. Judge Thompson tendered his resignation from the committee and Glenn Wooley was named to take his place. No action was taken to fill the vacancy created by the recent death of Mrs. Weaver of Orange.

Assemblymen Sam Collins and Clyde Watson gave short talks on accomplishments of the recent legislative session in Sacramento, which both declared to have been marked by a fine cooperative spirit. Both announced that they would be candidates to succeed themselves in their present offices.

Attention was called to the combined August and May primary dates set for May 16, and the fact that prospective candidates must file their intentions by March 7, if their names are to appear on the ballot.

A letter was read from U. S. Congressman John Phillips, expressing optimism regarding chances for a Republican victory this fall. The U. S. Senatorial race was discussed, and it was pointed out that it has narrowed down to Justus Craemer, Fred Hauser, Bancroft and Bonnelli, other possible candidates having withdrawn.

An announcement that met with general interest was that the Orange county committee may have opportunity to send a delegate to the Republican National convention. Choice centered on Chairman Richmond with Mrs. Horace Stevens of Tustin as alternate.

SEASON'S RAINFALL REACHES 8.28 INCHES

Tuesday's rainfall of .18 inches in the Anaheim area boosted the season's total to 8.28 inches as recorded by V. W. Hannum, city power plant superintendent. The first rain of the season fell on Sept. 25.

Interest Grows In Coming Election Campaign As Secretary Releases Data

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Feb. 9—Frank M. Jordan, Secretary of State and California's chief election officer, has released official copies of the consolidated election calendars for 1944.

By enactment of war-time legislation at the special session of the State Legislature and which passed both houses without a dissenting vote, the May 2 Presidential Primary and August primary are consolidated and will be held on May 16. The General Election remains the same, November 7.

By reason of consolidating the two primaries, men in the armed forces will be given a better opportunity to cast absentee ballots. This will give 56 days before and after the Primary Election to have the ballots distributed and returned for counting and 76 days for the General Election.

Secretary of State Jordan pointed out California taxpayers will be saved an estimated $2,225,000 by the consolidation and that 8,610,000 man hours for clerks inconducting the election also will be saved. The consolidation will also mean the saving of 800,000 absentee ballot envelopes and almost 3,000,000 sample ballot envelopes as well as many tons of paper.

In event Congress should enact legislation in conflict with California's legislation, the federal statute would have precedent as provision for such a situation was made by the special legislative session, Jordan declared.

The first change in the new calendar brings the filing and declaration of intention to judicial offices from May 22 to 26 up to Feb. 7 to 11.

Filing of nomination papers for presidential candidates begins on Feb. 7 and continues until March 7 instead of Feb. 28 to March 23.

The first day for filing nomination papers, other than for presidential delegates, is Feb. 16 and the last is March 7 instead of Feb. 28 to March 23.

Under the new act the last day for candidates to the file their affidavit as presidential delegates is March 11 instead of March 28.

Applications for absentee ballots will be accepted by the County Clerk or Registrar of Voters from April 6 to May 11 instead of April 12 to April 27.

The deadline for returns on absent voter ballots is June 1 as compared to May 8.

Franklin Children Cleverly Enact PTA Days of Yore

Plans over which children of Benjamin Franklin school's third grade have been bubbling with enthusiasm for the past few weeks, reached fruition yesterday afternoon, when Franklin P.-T. A. celebrated with its Founders' Day program, and the children illustrated the association history with a clever playlet, "Founders' Day."

The sketch, arranged by Miss Beryl Kennedy, third grade teacher, was prelude to an inspiring talk by Mrs. R. W. Marvin, state radio chairman. Introduced by Mrs. L. E. Middleton, Founders' Day chairman, Mrs. Marvin's message was on "We Pledge to Maintain Our Founders' Ideals."

When the playlet was presented, the stage was divided, one half picturing a present-day Founders' Day with its candle-lighting ritual and a discussion of Anaheim's first meetings of the association. As this discussion progressed, the second half of the stage presented those early founders in one of their first sessions.

All the roles were played by third grade pupils, who entered into the plan with special zest. Present day association leaders were the Franklin P.-T. A. president, Mrs. Emory Simon, played by Shirley Pannier; Mrs. Milton Kohne, played by Marlene Stewart; Mrs. Marvin by Glenda Mungerson; Mrs. Harry I. Horn by Georgia Ellis; Melbourne A. Gauer by Kevin Stanton; Miss Ruth Williams of the Franklin staff, by Janet Larson; Mrs. E. C. Westenkuehler by Patricia McKee, and Mrs. Melvin Mungerson by Patsy Wood.

Rivaling them in the skill of their portrayals were the children representing the Founders themselves. Shirley Ranker appeared as Miss E. Kate Rea; Barbara Horn as Miss Elenora Parker; Sandra Johnson as Mrs. Lemon; Darlene Fritz as Mrs. Pamelia H. Mills; Barbara Simonton as Mrs. Spencer, with the roles of "The Man" and "George" played by Joe Critchfield and Donald Coulter.

Rounding out the program features, Mrs. Simon introduced her predecessors in the presidency, presenting each one with a pretty flower corsage. Present were Mesdames John R. Gledhill, L. N. Wisser, R. W. Marvin, R. C. Hein, E. C. Westenkuehler, W. H. Bonney and E. H. Kersten.

In the business session, Mrs. Simon named Mrs. T. W. Stuard as chairman of a nominating committee to choose the coming year's officers. Serving with her will be Mrs. Milton Kohne, Mrs. Walter Taylor and Miss Ruth Williams.

Third grade pupils won the treat in the room count of mothers present. This grade also figured prominently in last Thursday's War Bond sales, having sold $110.65 of the school total of $456.85 in bonds and stamps.

Plans for the school "Party Night" on Feb. 24 in the auditorium, were announced by Mrs. Stokes, and Mrs. Kohne announced that Dr. Harry Rimmer, noted scientist and archaeologist, will be guest speaker at the March meeting.

Second grade mothers were hostesses at the tea hour which closed a memorable afternoon. They centered the table with a Founders' Day cake whose decorations in association colors of blue and gold were complemented with shining yellow tapers. Mrs. Marvin was delegated to cut the cake, and the Misses Ruth Williams and Beryl Kennedy presided at the tea urns.

OVER FOUR MILLION WORKERS PAY TAXES

With hundreds of employees of the staff of Collector of Internal Revenue Harry C. Westover busy counting withholding tax returns, a tabulation made at the close of business last Saturday night shows that 52,000 employers in the ten Southern California counties have filed copies of wage and withholding tax receipts given to 2,061,000 employees.

Approximately 47,000 employers' returns were yet to be counted. These returns should involve another 2,000,000 employees.

Glad News Arrives Of Safety Of Lieut. McCloud

There wasn't a happier home in the whole nation today than that of the G. E. McClouds, 729 North Topeka street, where official communication from the War Department, last night, announced that First Lieut. Kenneth McCloud, formerly reported as missing in action over Guadalcanal, was found to be safe and sound.

Lieut. McCloud, who is flight leader, was picked up safely, the War Department states, although his parents are not aware of whether his P-38 was shot down or not.

The McClouds have every reason for pride in their hero sons, for Lieut. Kenneth McCloud's three brothers are all in active service. Glenn, Jr., a pharmacist mate with the U. S. Navy, was recently assigned to Pensacola, Fla., after three years active duty in the South Pacific.

Another son, Howard McCloud, is with the Army Engineers, now serving in India, and the fourth, Quartermaster Donald McCloud, is now at Norfolk, Va., after three years with the Navy, 24 months of which was in active service in the North Atlantic area.

WATER LEVEL HIGH IN CITY WELLS

Despite this city's consumption of 35,617,600 gallons of water during the month of January, as reported by V. W. Hannum, power plant superintendent, the water level in the city wells on Feb. 1 stood at 115 feet 7 inches, a good four feet higher than on the corresponding date a year ago.

ANAHEIM MARINE WOUNDED IN ACTION

Official notification from the Navy department has reached Mrs. Henry E. Ellis of this city, that her husband, Cpl Henry E. Ellis was wounded in action in the South Pacific area. Cpl. Ellis was one of two Orange county men on the Navy's latest list of Marine Corps casualties. Pvt. James P. Kelso of Newport Beach was reported as killed in action.

She Frees a Marine To Fight!

Anaheim Landing Residents Are Given Until March 1 to Move Their Homes

Spring moving day, long the bugaboo of landlords and tenants alike, will get underway on a big scale at Anaheim Landing, where at least 175 families must move from that area by March 1, to make way for the Naval Ordnance Depot which the government will erect there.

A conference of Army and Navy officials with Orange and Los Angeles county officials was held last Friday in Long Beach, at which time the situation was discussed. Willis Warner, chairman of Orange county supervisors, and Highway Engineer A. A. Beard were among those conferring with Col. Charles T. Leeds, consulting engineer with the U. S. Army, and W. T. Tiencken of Washington, D. C., government land acquisition and condemnation expert.

According to government officials, condemnation proceedings already have been filed in federal court, and all civilian residents in the 2500 acre tract must be gone by March 1. At least 275 homes will be involved, a hundred of them of the summer cottage type.

There were intimations that the Navy may aid evicted residents by relocating and possibly by moving their houses. Any plans to relocate the houses in the Seal Beach area, seemed doomed to failure, since Seal Beach building restrictions would prohibit many of the homes because of their type of construction.

Boundaries of the ordnance base were set forth by the visiting officials, and information was clarified on the matter of re-routing of Coast Highway and Pacific Electric tracks.

Early reports were to the effect that both would be routed inland above the east end of the area, and then return to the coastline. Under present plans as outlined Friday, both the highway and the P. E. tracks will cross a narrow corridor which will provide the Navy access to the sea. The P. E. tracks will cross this corridor on a trestle, and the highway will be changed for approximately 200 feet.

Industrial harbor plans under consideration for this area before any knowledge of the plans for the ordnance depot, apparently must remain at a standstill. Orange county officials were told that a separate entrance would be necessary to the inland waterway area since the Navy's entrance could not be utilized.

Lions Take World Tour With Oldest U. S. Navy Man

Last Friday was "Navy Day" at the Lions club noon luncheon meeting, the session being opened by singing "Here Comes the Navy," led by Warren Ashleigh. Guest of honor for the occasion was Chief Boatswain's Mate George "Sandy" Sanderson, oldest active member of the United States Navy, who was the speaker. He was accompanied by F. C. Cochrane, chief navy recruiting officer for Orange county, who was introduced by Lotus Louden, and who in turn introduced the speaker.

The 82-year old veteran of the sea who enlisted in the navy when he was 20 years old and is now serving through the fifth major war. He was an active sailor for 42 years and was placed on the inactive list after World War No. 1. When this war broke out the seaitis set in, he said, and after a trip to Washington where he pleaded with the secretary of war to be taken back into the service in spite of his years, he was given a post with the recruiting service.

Briefly he gave an account of his travels around and around the world, through four different wars and many other hair-raising episodes. He was aboard the battle ship Oregon when that vessel practically annihilated the Spanish fleet in Manila waters. His travels and experiences would fill a book and his impromptu speech was highly enjoyed by the Lions.

Also present at the meeting was another member of the navy, Ph.M. 1c. Everett Granere, home on leave from his station in South America. He left last Sunday on the return trip. He was formerly with the Hilgenfeld Mortuary and was a guest of Lion Sam Hilgenfeldt. He gave an interesting account of the rubber growing industry and of the experimental work being done there by Henry Ford, and the Goodrich and Firestone rubber companies.

A letter to the club from Frank Fitch now in the armed forces in England, was read, and also a letter of thanks from the teachers of handicapped children of the county for the Christmas tree party given by the Lions for the crippled children of Anaheim.

President Fran Elliott presided at the meeting and a large attendance was present.

SURPLUS ARMY VEHICLES TO BE RELEASED SOON

With the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department designated by the Budget Bureau as an agent to dispose of some surplus government items, word has reached the Automobile Club of Southern California that this division is preparing to release large quantities of goods soon.

First among these items will be an estimated 11,000 Army trucks, 1939 models or older. Various departments of the government will be given first chance at the trucks and the remainder is to be sold under the government competitive bidding system.

It is also reported that about 5,000 new passenger automobiles, 4,000 new motorcycles, 1,000 used passenger cars and some used motorcycles may be released soon, although one source stated that these may be distributed to car dealers through bids to the various army service commands.

Accident Victim Dies In Hospital

Saddening the hearts of Miss Nettie Driver and her 91-year-old mother, Mrs. Arabell Driver, 547 South Clementine street, was the death early this morning in Los Angeles General hospital of their sister and daughter, Miss Isa Driver, as result of a tragic accident occurring in that city early Wednesday morning.

Meager reports which reached the Anaheim mother and daughter, indicated that Miss Driver was standing in a loading zone toward which an automobile was directly headed. In seeking to avoid it, she apparently stepped into the path of an oncoming streetcar, and was injured so seriously that her death resulted this morning.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Hilgenfeld mortuary.

Miss Driver, born in Kansas in 1885, came to California some 20 years ago, and has been employed in Los Angeles. In addition to her mother and sister living in this city, she leaves one brother, Clyde C. Driver of North Hollywood.

Marine Corps Women's Reserve Observes First Anniversary of Its Founding

Commemorating the date of Feb. 13, 1943 when the Women's Reserve of the U. S. Marine Corps was established by an Act of Congress and Lieut. Col. (then Major) Ruth Cheney Streeter appointed commandant, members are celebrating their first anniversary by setting aside the current week as Marine Corps Women's Reserve week.

In assuming her duties a year ago, Lieut. Col. Streeter called for enlistment of young women who would, as she expressed it, "Show the smartness and snap which characterizes the men of the Marine Corps." Over 14,000 women have responded during the year, and are now stationed at every Marine base and station in the United States.

Their commanding officers have been unanimous in declaring that they have proved efficient, intelligent, and amenable to military discipline. Moreover, and this is a record of which all are proud, each individual enlistee has released a Marine to fight on some one of the scattered battlefronts of the world.

Since many of the Marine Corps bases, camps, stations and air fields are situated in Southern California, countless young women who have enlisted, have been fortunate in being stationed near their homes.

Fifty percent of the Marine women's personnel has been assigned to duties with the division of aviation. They have rigged parachutes, instructed pilots in blind flying, and given them landing and take-off instructions.

Others have become electricians, carpenters, plumbers and welders. They have taken office jobs of typing, filing and making muster roll cards, and have filled posts in mess halls, airplane hangars and radio rooms.

WASHINGTON

As Seen By
CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

Congress first heard of UNRRA when Governor Lehman resigned, and Charlie Poletti, the lieutenant-governor, took office. Some people said that was political. I wouldn't know; I don't know much about politics. Lehman had a record of good administration. He became chairman of a United States committee to discuss relief for occupied countries.

The next step was the United Nations Conference on Food and Agriculture at Hot Springs, Virginia, May 18 to June 3, 1943. No member of Congress was allowed at the conference. Judge Marvin Jones, who became its chairman, had extended an informal invitation, in a hearing before the House Committee on Agriculture, but when two members of Congress tried to attend, they were stopped by Military Police and turned away. No representative of the press or radio was allowed at the conference.

The newspapers carried such items as they could discover, among them an enthusiastic approval of collective farming by one of the representatives of the Soviet Union, who had been made the chairman of the conference committee on agriculture. Subsequently the Department of State published a report on the conference which left Congress wondering principally what had been omitted; a state of mind in which Congress has found itself more than once after world conferences attended by representatives of this nation.

One member of Congress said on the floor of the House that his analysis of the conference recommendations was that the United States would be committed to a production which might return the "dust bowl" to the same conditions from which we rescued it painfully in recent years. Remember that Congress up to this point had no official information regarding this predecessor of UNRRA.

On November 9, the representatives of these same 44 nations met with some eclat at the White House where they all (including President Roosevelt) signed an agreement establishing the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. It must have been a nice party, but still Congress (which is supposed to have some part in legislative matters in the United States) had no official knowledge of what was going on.

I say "official." Lots of Congressmen have friends, surprising as it may sound, and some people in the executive branch of government still believe in the Constitution. By the first of November, information was coming to us informally.

Not all of it was comforting. I asked for a list of all employees of the Office of Foreign Rehabilitation Operations prior to November 9th. That was the name of Governor Lehman's first organization. I received a list of 304 employees. This was only a committee to organize. There was one salary of $10,000; 1 of $9000; 14 of $8000 each; 59 between $5000 and $8000; 25 between $4000 and $5000; 54 between $3000 and $4000, and 157 under $3000, of which 53 were clerks at $1800; 14 at $1620; 4 at $1440 and 3 at $1320, the lowest salary paid. All these salaries were increased by the 15% act, even the highest salaries were increased $435 each per year, the maximum increase possible.

The names were more interesting than the salaries. I will continue the comments next week.

MARKET OWNER HAS MINOR OPERATION

FLOWERS EXPRESS EDITOR'S SYMPATHY

While on a business call Tuesday in this city, Charles M. Vernon, editor-owner of the Yorba Linda Star, took the opportunity to secure a quantity of unusually fine camellias in softly vivid colors. These he sent to Mrs. William Allen White in Emporia, Kans., as an expression of sympathy in the recent death of her husband, one of the nation's most fearless and most highly respected newspapermen.

All-Military Rites At Altus Field Of Local Interest

Military in all its details was the wedding on Sunday, Jan. 30 in Altus, Okla., at which Lieut. Glenn E. Bercot of this city, won the hand of a charming army nurse, Lieut. Kathryn E. Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wood of Wellsboro, Penna.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Bercot of South street have received details of their son's wedding, which took place in the post chapel of Altus Army Air field. Chaplain Eugene A. Tremblay, who conducted the nuptial mass in which the young couple exchanged vows and rings, is a nephew of Charles Tremblay of 408 South East street.

Both young people were in regulation dress uniforms as were their attendants. Lieut. Wood carried an ivory-bound prayer book, the gift of her bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Bercot. She also observed bridal traditions with her bridegroom's gift of a locket as the "something new," a beautiful old Rosary, and a wisp of a blue handkerchief, borrowed for the occasion.

Her honor maid, Lieut. Lois M. Reeser, and her bridesmaids, Lieuts. Zelna Rawley, Charlsie F. Biggs and Dell Marie Turner, are nurses at the station hospital, and like the bride are officers in the Army Nurses corps.

Lieut. Bercot had the assistance of his brother officers, Lieut. Clyde F. Hays as best man; Lieut. Orloff W. Meck, William Klepinger and Henry Bresadola as ushers.

American and Christian flags were crossed above the altar where gladiolus blossoms and snapdragons were massed against green palms flanked by seven-branched candelabra.

Sgt. Jack Goode of the 737th Army band played the wedding marches of tradition and a program of bridal music including Schumann's "Romance," the "Intermezzo" of Mascagni, "Liebestraum" (Liszt) and others. Mrs. Eldon Driscoll of Altus sang "O Promise Me" (DeKoven) and the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria."

Lieut. Bercot and his bride spent their honeymoon in Oklahoma City. Lieut. Bercot, a native son of Anaheim, went through Anaheim schools and then majored in business administration in Fullerton junior college.

He was employed by a Los Angeles firm when he entered the Air Corps in Oct. 1941. He trained at Fort Worden, Wash., and received his commission in March a year ago, at Miami, Fla., since when he had been stationed at Altus Field.

Plea Is Made For the Blind By State Chairman

LOS ANGELES—Setting forth that the needy blind of California are living now on the same amount of public assistance that was granted them in 1929, fifteen years ago, George H. McLain, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Citizens' Committee for Old Age Pensions, has written a letter to Governor Warren requesting that consideration of the case of the dependent blind be included in the Governor's call of a special session of the State Legislature.

In the 15 years that have elapsed since 1929 the cost of food and other necessities of the blind has almost doubled and "the condition of many of these afflicted people is pitiful," the letter to Governor Warren asserts, and continues:

"You are doubtless aware of the desperate situation of the 6428 dependent blind of California. They have received no consideration in the shape of definite action since 1929, when they were granted aid in the amount of $50 a month. This amount persists in spite of the cost of living, and the fact that the dependent blind must pay for such services as they require."

McLain concludes by expressing belief that "the members of the Legislature would be glad to have the matter brought before them."

Joining with the Citizens' Committee in its appeal is the California Council for the Blind, Oakland, of which Dr. Newel Perry is president, and other blind guilds of the State. Date for the holding of the second special session of the Legislature has not yet been announced by the Governor.

Orange County Has 65,480 Registered Motor Vehicles

An apportionment of $5,767.17 for Orange county was announced today by Gordon H. Garland, Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

This amount covers Orange county's share of registration fees collected by the Department for the last six months of 1943 and brings the total apportioned to the County from this source for the entire year up to $96,827.69. It is based on a fee paid registration for the year of 65,480 vehicles.

Director Garland announced the total apportionment for the entire state for the year is $8,708,494.22. It is based on fee paid registrations of 2,9944,572. Despite gasoline and tire rationing registrations for the year fell only 3.2 percent or 97,580 vehicles while funds apportioned dropped only six-tenths of 1 percent. Twelve Counties showed substantial gains over 1942 both in vehicles and funds apportioned because of war activities. These were Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside, San Joaquin, San Mateo, Solano, Sonoma and Stanislaus.

Garland announced that despite increased duties due to the war, departmental expenditures for the year were reduced $647,850.48 or 8.2 percent. Although expenditures were curtailed in all divisions of the Department, the volume of business handled did not decrease in the same proportion, he said.

Fee paid registrations for Orange County for the year were divided as follows: Automobiles 56,300; pneumatic trucks 4,278; motorcycles 513; solid trailers 111; pneumatic trailers 4,278.

WARNING AGAINST "PAPERLEGGERS" ISSUED BY WPB

"Paperleggers" are shipping at least 2,000 tons of salvaged paper per month out of southern California, to the detriment of Southland paper users, Zack J. Farmer, War Production Board General Salvage chief, estimated today.

Warning all newspapers, community salvage chairmen, and others engaged in paper salvage drives to check and to find out where their shipments are going, Farmer said buyers for Eastern firms have appeared here and are diverting considerable paper from this territory.

Farmer revealed that Southland mills hoped to build up a stockpile sufficient to keep operations running smoothly, but that they had been using the salvaged paper about as fast as it comes in. One firm last November expanded its storage space enough to hold a quarter million dollars worth of waste paper, but so far has been able to stockpile almost none.

Newly Seated Judge Faces Competition For Position

Seated early in January on the Orange county superior court bench, Judge Raymond Thompson of Fullerton will face competition for that post in the May primary, since Dist. Atty. James L. Davis of Santa Ana has filed his declaration of intention to be a candidate for the post. Judge Thompson was appointed to the bench to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Judge G. K. Scovel.

Presiding Superior Judge Franklin G. West also filed his notice of intention this week as a candidate to succeed himself for a second six-year term. Indications point to his being alone in the field.

The campaign season opened this year earlier than usual because of action by the state legislature to abandon the usual August primary by moving it up to the May 16 presidential preferment primary. In Orange county this action affects all justices of the peace and two county supervisors in addition to the two superior court judgeships.

Supervisors James A. Baker of this city representing the third supervisoral district, and Fred C. Rowland of Santa Ana, first district, whose tenures as members of the county board of supervisors both expire this year, have the period between Feb. 16 and March 7 to file their declarations.

Both have indicated that they will be candidates to succeed themselves, and as yet no other candidates have announced their intention of entering the race although there seems to be a general opinion that others will file.

Abandonment of the August primary by legislative action was in order to give the soldiers the voting privilege. Otherwise there would be insufficient time between the August primary and the November election date.

WPB Sets Quota For New Buses During Next Year

In permitting the manufacture of a limited number of buses in 1944, the War Production Board has given further recognition to the importance of highway transportation in the war effort, according to Arthur M. Hill, president of the National Association of Motor Bus Operators.

WPB has set a tentative quota of 6,960 integral type buses to be built for civilian use in the next twelve months. Indications are that 1700 will be allocated for intercity service.

Mr. Hill stated that more than 4,000 of the nation's 22,000 intercity buses are over eight years old, the life expectancy of such vehicles. Although highway buses are now carrying triple the number of passengers of any pre-war year, no new equipment has been made available for over-the-road use since 1942 and there is an acute need for replacements.

Many buses are being driven 10,000 to 12,000 miles a month to meet wartime transportation demands. Older models are kept operating only because the industry has developed more intensified methods of maintenance, repair, and conservation.

While the number of new buses promised the intercity lines is far less than the annual requirments in peacetime, even the limited quantity will help by replacing the carriers which have reached the point where overhauling and repair work is impractical for dependable operation.

DAR Announces Meetings For Next Two Months

The Southern Council of the California State Society, Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Tuesday, February 15, at 11 o'clock at Patriotic Hall, 1816 South Figueroa, with Mrs. Frank E. Lee, State Regent, presiding.

The call to conference has been issued throughout the state by Mrs. Frank E. Lee, State Regent, Daughters of the American Revolution. The 36th Annual State Conference, D. A. R. of California, will open Tuesday evening, March 14, at 8:00 p. m., and continue through Thursday the 16th, at the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles. The conference is called for the purpose of receiving reports of the state officers, state chairmen and chapter regents, and for such other business as may be brought before it.

MONTANA PICNIC REUNION

Wallace Tanner, president of Montana association of Southern California, calls every one from the Silver State to an all-day picnic February 20, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles. General features and a hearty good time are assured. Open registers, badges, coffee will be provided.

Kiwanis To Hear World War Hero At Coming Meeting

Paul Bakenhus as chairman for next Tuesday's program for Kiwanis club, aroused interest at this week's meeting by his announcement that Capt. Fuller of New Britain and Coral Island fame, would return to the club for a talk next Tuesday. He will relate some of his experiences as pilot of a Flying Fortress in South Pacific engagements with the Japs.

This week's Kiwanis meeting in Elks club, with President Frederick Robins presiding and Joe Sowder as program chairman, was likewise an outstanding event. For Sowder introduced one of Orange county's best known leaders of youth movements, Judge Kenneth E. Morrison of Santa Ana, in observance of National Boy Scout week.

Judge Morrison's talk was keynoted by his assertion that the Scout movement is one of the best means of combating juvenile delinquency. His own work not only with Scouts but with youth in general, has long been recognized. During the course of his talk he announced that Boy Scouts of America now boasts a membership in excess of a million youths.

The talk was an excellent introduction to Anaheim's annual financial drive on behalf of the Scout movement, which started this week. Particularly interested guests at the luncheon were members of Kiwanis Scout Troop No. 74, and L. E. ("Tex") Middleton, president of the North Orange County Boy Scout council.

New members inducted with appropriate ceremonies by William P. Webb, were William Schumacher and Earl Dahlman.

Secretary Jordan Gives Information On Soldier Voting

Requesting all California newspapers to give publicity to information on the matter of voting by those in the armed forces, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan has expressed the opinion that such publicity will be valuable, since readers may advise their relatives in overseas service, on rules governing absentee voting.

Jordan has explained that the federal government will provide cards to those voters absent from their home precincts, by means of which they may apply for ballots. However he has emphasized the importance of prospective voters designating their party affiliations in addition to answering all questions contained on the cards.

This is important, Jordan stated, since if party affiliation is not included and the applicant has not previously registered to vote, he will receive only a nonpartisan ballot.

In order to vote each absentee applicant in the armed forces must forward the government-provided card to Secretary of State Jordan. Or he may write the county clerk of the county in which he previously resided, requesting an absentee voter's ballot. In Orange county he would address County Clerk B. J. Smith, Santa Ana.

Action already has been taken by the state legislature to continue the usual August primary with that of the May 16 presidential preferment primary. This was done in order to make the soldier vote possible as otherwise there would not be sufficient time between the August primary and the November general election.

Figures Given On City's Sewage Flow

This city's flow of sewage during January reached a total of 40,799,600 gallons, or 36.6 percent of the total flow of 131,803,300 gallons for Sections 2 to 6 inclusive of the Joint Outfall Sewer and Waste Water Disposal company.

These figures were quoted by Ewald Lemcke, maintenance engineer, for council members Tuesday night. At the same time he stated that the Fullerton flow showed a sharp decrease since Hunt Brothers closed down, that city's flow recording 25,775,800 gallons or only 23.3 percent of the total.

Warning Against Bogus Check Artists Issued By Chief of Police Wilder

With several suspects in the large fictitious check ring said to be operating in the Southland, now taken into custody, and the dragnet out for others, Chief of Police Teed L. Wilder has issued a pertinent warning to all of Anaheim's retail merchants.

Pointing out that merchants have cashed a number of commercial and government checks for persons other than the lawful owners, and in many cases have lost considerable sums of money by accepting checks with forged endorsements, he urges them to refuse to cash such checks where they may be uncertain of the identity and right of the person presenting them.

"Before cashing ANY check, ask yourself this question," Chief Wilder urges: "If this check is returned because of a forged endorsement, can I locate the forger and recover my loss?"

The warning is given as one of the police department's services to the public, and in co-operation with the "Know Your Endorsers" campaign of the U. S. Secret Service, Treasury Department.

Two of the men assertedly affiliated with the fictitious check ring, have been turned over to authorities in Southland cities after questioning by Fullerton and Santa Ana police. They are Ted Walsh, who was released to San Diego authorities for prosecution on charges of passing six worthless checks in that city, and Samuel Woolchow, who went to Long Beach to answer to similar charges.

In both cases officers stated that checks were made out as salaries and were drawn on such well-known firms as Libby, McNeil and Libby, the Kraft Cheese Co., and the H. J. Heinz Co.

Other suspects held in custody in Santa Ana include James Deza and John Griffin. They were returned to this county from Oklahoma City where the asserted head of the ring, Thomas German, jumped bail and has not yet been apprehended.

Many Men Volunteer for Service With Coast Guard's Port Security Force

Although approximately a hundred men from the Anaheim-Fullerton area already have enlisted for service with the Volunteer Port Security Force of the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve, the need is still so urgent that Ensign Wallace of the U. S. Coast Guard will be at chamber of commerce Saturday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. to enlist other recruits.

This community's quota was originally set at 52 men, but with new recruits signing all the time, present indications are that it will far exceed a hundred men. Jack Gledhill, who has been one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the service, has been signing recruits almost daily at his service station.

Men between 25 and 65 years of age who are not in 1-A draft classification are eligible. Their duties are to aid in the protection of Newport Harbor where they are asked to serve from eight to twelve hours each week at a time best suited to individual business activities.

While serving at the harbor, volunteers are provided with regulation uniforms and take their meals with the Coast Guard stationed at the port. While on duty, they are actually a part of the Coast Guard. Enlistment is for the duration, but all obligations automatically cease when the war ends. This, as has been pointed out by Gledhill, differs from the regular military enlistment, which is for six months after the war.

Gledhill himself, who not only is on recruiting duty here from time to time, especially on Saturdays, stands duty at the harbor base each Monday from 6 p. m. to 2 a. m. This Coast Guard Marine base is located on what used to be known generally as Collins Island in the bay.

Among Anaheim men already sworn into the service or applying for enlistment in addition to Gledhill, are Dr. Paul S. Arnold, Jack F. Burry, J. C. Callahan, Jack Corn, Bennett J. Dean, Franklin Davis, George J. Englebert, Lewis A. Fisher, Leavitt A. Ford, Everett W. Griggs, Lawrence Gubin.

Arnold Howard, Dolph Kelsey, L. E. ("Tex") Middleton, John R. Montanc, F. B. Morley, A. L. Raymond, Harry W. Saulsbery, A. L. Sipple, John C. Smith, C. A. Sweet, R. R. Wilson, Oliver D. Lewis, Howard H. West, Edgar Brown, Marion Caracausa, Robert B. Gregg, Robert Truxaw, Stewart J. Fletcher, and many more.

OIL TEST SLATED FOR BUENA PARK

Some 200 landowners in the vicinity of Buena Park are awaiting with much interest the projected exploratory drilling for oil on a block of a thousand acres located southeast of that community.

Martin I. Smith of Santa Monica recently leased the acreage for one year with a two-year extension when added rental is paid. He expects to be able to interest drillers in the field's possibilities, in which case test drilling may start within the next few months, it was said.

Panhellenic Meets Monday Evening

Members of North Orange county Panhellenic society are anticipating their postponed meeting as an event of Monday evening in Fullerton, with Valerie Lohman and Joyce Harris as co-hostesses in the A. J. Lohman home, 628 West Fern Drive. The party will be a dessert bridge, to which members are asked to bring their scissors.

FINGERPRINT ASSN. MEETS FRIDAY

At least one representative of Anaheim police department in the person of Chief Teed L. Wilder, will be in attendance Friday night at the meeting of California association of Fingerprint Officers to be held in Santa Monica. Entertainment will start with a 7:30 o'clock turkey dinner followed by the showing of two late Navy combat pictures.

MINNESOTA PICNIC

George A. Judson, president of the Minnesota association, announces the all-day winter picnic of the "Gophers," February 19, in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

A fine address with music will lead the attractions. Badges, coffee, county registers and general hospitality assure a welcome to all.

W. W. PARKER IS HOME FROM HOSPITAL

After almost two weeks of treatment in St. Joseph hospital, Orange, W. W. Parker was able to return today to his home, 904 North Zeyn street. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are proprietors of the Parker House, 122 East Center street ,the former Marigold cafe.

WAR BONDS are the means of preventing ruinous inflation.

Special Census For Orange County To Be Started Soon

Headquarters for the special wartime census of Los Angeles and Orange counties, announced several days ago by the United States Bureau of the Census and the President's Committee for Congested Production areas, will be maintained at Room 506, Spreckels Building, 714 South Hill street, Los Angeles, under arrangements completed by Census Bureau representatives.

Organization of a staff of employes to assist in the taking of the census is the first order of business now, according to Elijah B. Lewis, field representative of the Census Bureau, who is in charge of the project. Members of the staff, which will include several hundred enumerators, are to be recruited through the U. S. Employment Service office.

Immediately after a sufficient staff has been recruited and trained, crews of enumerators will be sent out to list all dwelling places in the two counties. From these lists, experts of the Census bureau will then select, by scientifically proved methods, a basic sample of dwelling units whose inhabitants are to be enumerated. These units will be chosen from the complete listings of dwelling places at designated intervals. The enumerators, as the census takers are called, will then visit each of the selected dwelling units to obtain the number, age, sex and other characteristics, including employing and marital status of the residents.

LAW VIOLATIONS SWELL CITY FUNDS

January was a banner month in Judge Frank Tausch's court, as proven by his monthly report to the city council Tuesday night. Of approximately 175 cases brought before Judge Tausch, fines and penalties were assessed on 139 cases, netting $4696 for the city's coffers.

Violations of city ordinances brought in the larger sum of $3181, with $1505 collected for violations in the motor vehicles department. One hundred and seven violators paid their fines and were released; 18 were remanded to the county jail and 14 to juvenile court.

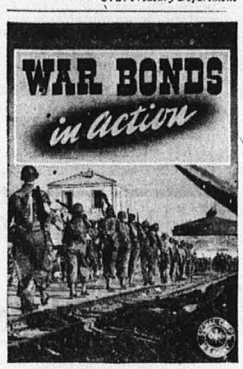

Not all the victories are on our side; not all the losses are our enemy's. Here you see barrel upon barrel of good American fuel going up in smoke after a Jap strafing.

The boys cannot be replaced but the material can—that is, if all real Americans do their utmost in the war effort and buy War Bonds.

Make your dollars work for victory: Buy More War Bonds.

U. S. Treasury Department

When you buy War Bonds your money goes into action at once. Where, we may never know. Maybe, as shown above, to equip a company of American Rangers marching up a railroad somewhere on the Mediterranean. Whether they come back depends upon the equipment we send.

Give your dollars action: Buy More War Bonds.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Beans

So long as a soldier can eat and think up disparaging names for his equipment the Army will do all right. Food is either "beans," or "chow."

"Chow" may consist of a well cooked meal or if circumstances demand our fighting men have learned to subsist on "Ration K," the concentrated food that all of them carry into battle.

With millions of men and women in the services it will require a lot of War Bond buying on our part to keep them happy.

U. S. Treasury Department

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Mosquito Bar

Among the casualties returning to the United States from the Solomons are men who have lost their hearing, not from injury, not from shock, but from attack by insects upon men who have been without mosquito bar protection.

We'll never know how many lives this mosquito bar has saved and you probably never will know just how much good your purchases of War Bonds have done, but you should know that regular and increasing purchases are necessary.

Army Man Arrives For Unexpected Visit With Cousins

A first meeting between cousins was enjoyed Sunday in the John R. Gledhill home, 411 North Emily street, where Sgt William Holl of Milwaukee, was an unexpected guest. Sgt. Holl, who is stationed at an Arizona Army post, had been detailed on a mission to San Bernardino, and took the opportunity to come to Anaheim to meet his unknown cousins.

Miss Lilly Gledhill was the only one of the home's young people joining her parents in welcoming the visitor. Melvin Gledhill, aviation machinist mate 2/c at Los Alamitos Naval Air base, was not home for the day, and Seaman 2/c Jack Gledhill, Jr., who returned to Navy duty after a holiday visit home, is again on the aircraft carrier Saratoga somewhere in the Pacific. In a letter reaching his parents early this week, the young man said that it would probably be many months before he would again see his home and family.

OAK LEAF CLUSTER FOR AIR HERO

A ninth Oak Leaf Cluster has been added to the medals of one of Anaheim's distinguished air heroes, Lieut. A. R. ("Bob") Rimpau, one of seven Southland members of the 12th Bomber Command to be so honored, according to a late release from the War Department.

Lieut. Rimpau, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rimpau of West Broadway, was decorated for heroism in the Mediterranean war theater where he piloted his Flying Fortress on half a hundred or more missions. Since return to the United States he has been stationed at the Spokane Army Air Depot.

LOCAL MAN NOW WITH UNIT IN BRITAIN

Pvt. Willard H. Kimbrel whose Anaheim address is listed as on Route 3, is reported to be one of two Orange county Army men now undergoing training in England with a U. S. Army Field Artillery unit. The second man is Cpl. William H. Siefert of Santa Ana.

They are members of a highly specialized crew training in preparation for invasion with a unit employing 155-millimeter howitzers. Both men had preliminery training at Desert Training Center, Calif., before going overseas.

WINS COMMISSION

Upon completion of his course at the Army Air Forces Training Command school at Yale university, Aviation Cadet Stanley Holditch, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Holditch of Placentia, won his commission as a second lieutenant.

Rated as a technical officer in Communications, Lieut. Holditch will be assigned to a tactical unit of the Army Air Forces. He studied at California Institute of Technology prior to enlistment with the AAF.

STAFF SGT. WATTS IN JAP PRISON CAMP

Through a misunderstanding of a telephone conversation, the Gazette in a recent story on Anaheim community war heroes missing in World War engagements, stated that the young widow of Pvt. Douglas Shaw, reported as having died in the Philippines, lives in Buena Park.

The error was that the former Miss Betty Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert M. Wells of Buena Park, is the wife of Staff Sgt. Thomas E. Watts, now a prisoner of the Japs in the Philippines. Pvt. Shaw, the nephew of the B. W. Shaws of Buena Park, was not married.

Staff Sgt. Watts was in the Air Corps and was taken prisoner and first reported as missing in action. But Mrs. Watts had two cards from him in early December, stating that while he was taken prisoner, he escaped any serious injury and that he was in fairly good health, so the family feels much reassured as to his welfare.

MEMBER OF SUB CREW IS HOME ON LEAVE

If any of Jack Kenney's many friends are interested in learning how many Jap vessels and submarines have been sent to the bottom of the Pacific by the U. S. submarine, of whose crew young Kenney is a member, they may consult the back of his leather jacket where each sinking is carefully chalked up.

Kenney, who is gunner mate 3/c on a submarine, arrived Monday for a 30-day leave, which he is spending with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kenney of Anaheim, and his wife and baby daughter, Karla, in Santa Ana. Karla is just two months old, and this is the first time her proud father has seen her, since he has been absent from the mainland for eight months.

A graduate of Anaheim schools, Kenney entered the service last April and had his boot camp training at Camp Farragut. He applied for submarine duty and was immediately assigned to one of Uncle Sam's most famous submarines, which has taken part in innumerable engagements in the Pacific area.

Victim of Oil Fire Is Home From Long Hospital Stay

Happy to be in Anaheim again after more than four months spent in St. Vincent's hospital, Los Angeles, J. M. Casey returned Saturday to his home, 313 East Adele avenue.

Long an employee of the Standard Oil company, Casey was one of the unfortunate victims of a bad oil field blaze at Huntington Beach on Oct. 12. He was rushed immediately to the hospital where specialists administered the spray treatment so successfully used now by the military forces. This treatment was applied to serious arm and leg burns, but plastic surgery was necessary for his face burns. Fortunately his eyes were saved.

Mrs. Casey remained in Los Angeles to be near her husband during his long hospitalization. During this time he received his 25-year service pin from Standard Oil.

His return home was in good time for the pleasant celebration given his birthday anniversary on Tuesday, by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morley, 501 North East street, who called members of the family together for the informal affair. Also he had the pleasure of seeing his grandson, Gordon Morley, who arrived unexpectedly Saturday for an over-night stay, from Rankin Field, Tulare, where he is now having preliminary flight training with the Army Air Corps.

Toastmaster Plan Ready to Launch For Study Course

Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, has been selected as appropriate Washington Birthday date for Anaheim Toastmasters to launch their eight weeks' course in public speaking, with a dinner event to be held in the Parker House.

As outlined by Charles Greenwood, general chairman, the course will provide a condensed study of fundamentals of public speaking, with instruction to be given by advanced members of the local club. It will be open to all men interested in developing or improving their speaking ability, who may enroll merely by contacting one of the club members.

The date for opening the study course was selected at the weekly meeting of Toastmasters club Tuesday night, under direction of President Richard Clowes. Dr. C. O. Patterson introduced the table topic of "Should We Continue to Have an Electoral College or Adopt the Direct Vote Method" which met with lively discussion.

In the speaking program with John Knutzen and Donald Schneider as critics, Royal Marten received the Patterson trophy for his talk on "What Price Children?" Second place and the Demaree cup went to Earl Smith whose subject was "Abraham Lincoln." Other speakers introduced by P. H. Pendleton, toastmaster of the evening, were Paul Demaree on "Calship" and Leonard Schwacofer on "Orange Blossom Time."

Farm Advisor Observes Citrus Auction In East

Returning from a 5,000-mile trip east via Chicago, Cleveland, and New Orleans, Farm Advisor, Harold E. Wahlberg, reports intensive activities and heavy travel in all parts of the country he traversed.

At Chicago, Wahlberg visited the citrus auction and the wholesale and jobber markets where California, Texas and Florida citrus fruits were sold and distributed. Both California and Florida oranges were selling in the auction at approximately a dollar below ceiling prices. A similar situation was observed in the Cleveland auction and markets.

In Cleveland, the Farm Advisor attended a session of the Ohio Vegetable Growers association, and was invited to speak on California vegetable production problems. Here he also met with the National Laymen's committee of which he is a member and delegate from California.

On his return trip, Wahlberg met his son, Ensign Brent Wahlberg at New Orleans, where he had just been assigned to a new LST ship at the Algiers U. S. Naval station.

The farm labor situation was found acute in all areas visited by the farm advisor. Japanese were used in several areas of the northern states and German prisoners were engaged in Texas.

Radio Program To Feature Farm Problems For 1944

Robert S. Huston, secretary of the Los Angeles County Agricultural War Board, is the Noon Farm Reporter's scheduled guest for Thursday, February 17.

Secretary Huston will review the recent meeting of the War Board Chairman with representation from the eight Southern Counties extending from Santa Barbara to Imperial. The meeting was also attended by chairman of the "triple A" committees.

Huston will discuss with the KFI Noon Farm Reporter the many programs and "headaches" looming in 1944 for farmers in general. He will include in his discussion the new gas allocation program for farmers, the crawler-tractor outlook, the new truck situation, protein meals, the continuance of the Commodity Credit Corporation and the Canadian Wheat picture.

The Noon Farm Reporter is presented by Clear Channel Station each day, Monday through Saturday, at 12 noon as a public service feature.

Farm Bureau Holds Labor Survey; Few Men Available Now

The "Agricultural Extension Farm Labor Office" staff is making a study in an endeavor to anticipate the farm labor requirements for the approaching crop season, according to Geo. R. Wells, manager of the office located at 1622 N. Main street, Santa Ana. While the growers in the county were quite successful in getting their last year's crops harvested without significant loss, Wells points out that with the expanding theatre of war in the Pacific coupled with the continued drafting of men from agriculture, the farm labor office and the farmers of Orange county are looking ahead to ascertain what the labor situation may develop next season.

At present, says Wells, the farm labor situation is fairly balanced although his office now has a number of openings in agriculture when men of all ages can secure employment, both seasonal and steady.

One of the greatest needs confronting placements now, to enable a farmer to secure year round help, is that of housing facilities, according to Wells who further states that a good percentage of applicants for work desire steady employment and are willing to accept most any kind of work providing they and their families can be housed on the farm. In order to encourage adequate housing facilities on farms for workers, the War Production Board will issue priorities for materials to be used in such construction and the amount a grower is authorized to spend is placed at $1,000 in any one calendar year.

At this season of the year, Wells states, the demand for workers is low, however he points out at this present time there are a number of unfilled openings in many different activities such as dairy work, general ranch help, removing of trees mostly walnuts, bee industry, lemon picking and navel orange picking.

Orange county farmers are invited to call in at the new location of the farm labor office at 17th and Main streets, Santa Ana, and register their future needs with the office. It will facilitate the planning and procurement for 1944, says Wells.

Placentia Orange Exchange Manager Honored By Club

Harry O. Easton, manager of the Placentia Orange County Exchange, is the new president of the District Exchange Manager's club, succeeding Frank R. Hill of Santa Paula. The organization is made up of the managers of the twenty-five Sunkist district exchanges throughout California and Arizona.

For many years manager of the Placentia Mutual Orange Association, Easton's citrus experience in Orange and Riverside counties extends over a period of 38 years.

A. H. Kirchmann, manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange, is a member of this Sunkist group.

WAR BONDS will guard against a post-war depression.

Reliable information to the California Fruit Growers Exchange from London indicates that the only substantial imports of fresh citrus fruits to Great Britain in 1943 were from Southern Africa and the million boxes received were only a third of the 1942 total.

Name Processors' Prices On Canned Grapefruit, Juices

Processors' prices setting maximums on the 1944 pack of canned grapefruit juice, grapefruit segments, orange juice and blended orange and grapefruit juice have been set by the Office of Price Administration. These are effective at once on Florida and Texas stocks, with OPA planning to name similar maximums on the California and Arizona 1944 packs at a later date.

With the exception of canned grapefruit segments, two sets of maximum prices were announced —one to apply on sales to government procurement agencies and the other for civilian channels. Canned grapefruit segments will this year be sold only to the government, therefore a single price scale was set on this item.

These prices, as named by OPA, have the approval of the War Food Administration and the Office of Economic Warfare. Cannery f.o.b. prices on Florida and Texas packs (which offer an indication as to where Pacific Coast prices will likely be set) are:

Orange juice, per dozen cans, No. 2 size, natural (unsweetened) fancy, $1.70; standard, $1.675; off grade or substandard, $1.60. Sweetened-fancy, $1.725; standard, $1.675; off grade or substandard, $1.625. Maximums on government sales are 5 cents less per dozen cans of the No. 2 size.

Orange and grapefruit juice blended (50 per cent of each) per dozen cans of No. 2 size: Natural (unsweetened) - fancy, $1.555; standard, $1.505; offgrade or substandard, $1.455. Sweetened-fancy, $1.580; standard, $1.530; offgrade or substandard, $1.48. Maximums on government sales are 5 cents less per dozen cans.

Canned grapefruit segments (sold only to the government) per dozen cans of No. 2 size: sweetened, fancy, $1.61; choice, $1.56; standard or broken, $1.51.

Telegram of Mayor Brings Reply On Mexican Treaty

Commanding the immediate attention of Senator Sheridan Downey in Washington, D. C., was the formal protest which Mayor Charles A. Pearson sent to Senators Downey and Johnson and to President Roosevelt regarding the proposed Colorado River treaty with Mexico, diverting to that country double the previous allowance of water from the project.

Mayor Pearson wired his protest to Washington on Monday, following the plan of other California cities of the Metropolitan Water district. Senator Downey's telegram, read to the city council Tuesday night, said: "Am doing all possible interests California re Colorado River Project."

In his message to Washington, Mayor Pearson protested the draft treaty with Mexico on the grounds that doubling the amount of water formerly used by that country would impair the rights of those who contracted here for the water. The Boulder project's storage was for beneficial use exclusively within the United States, he pointed out.

Urging that the treaty protect water contracts made under the Boulder Project act, he asked that Mexico's rights in excess of 750,000 acre feet per annum be made secondary thereto.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

California's farm labor housing problem — one of agriculture's major headaches, particularly in areas where large numbers of workers are needed for comparatively short periods to harvest seasonal crops—may be at least partially solved after the war, if a practical plan can be worked out to move and utilize emergency housing units now located in war production centers.

Admittedly, there are many wrinkles to be ironed out, however, if such a program is to be carried out successfully, one being the question of moving costs. In one experiment already undertaken, it was found that it cost $1200 to move war housing units from Indiana to Iowa—and such moving costs might make the program prohibitive, unless the government agreed to sell the housing to farmers for approximately the same amount that wrecking companies would bid.

There have also been suggestions that such war housing units might be knocked down and rebuilt for $700 or $800 each—a less costly plan, perhaps, than moving whole houses intact.

Assistant State Director of Agriculture Lyman Lantz, who has made a comprehensive survey of the situation, but whose studies are still incomplete, reports that farmers definitely want first option to purchase the demountable war housing and dormitories built at San Diego, Vallejo, Richmond and other such crowded war centers when the government is ready to sell them.

From Langdon Post, regional director of the Federal Public Housing Authority, comes the statement that approximately 15,000 demountable housing units will be available after the war—about evenly divided bewteen the northern and southern ends of the State. He also believes that the two best uses for them will be on or adjacent to farms, or in national parks.

From Assistant Agriculture Director Lantz comes the added statement that a State-wide checkup has uncovered a demand for 23,000 housing units in farming areas, or considerably more than the total of units available. This demand, of course, is predicated on the assumption that means can be found to purchase and move the buildings at prices farmers or farm organizations can afford to pay.

The demountable houses have one to three bedrooms, a kitchen and living room in each unit, with all necessary plumbing fixtures.

Mr. Lantz asks that farmers who need housing for either permanent or seasonal workers, and who have any thought of buying some of the war housing units, write to the State Department of Agriculture for further information.

One plan that has been suggested is that such houses be reconstructed on lots either on or adjacent to farms, where they would be available to workers who wish to purchase housing for themselves and families. In many cases, it might be feasible to sell enough land with the houses to permit farm workers to have small subsistence farms of their own, which would have a tendency to stablize farm workers and would aid in solving the migrant problem.

Still other growers are said to be interested in developing permanent community farm labor settlements, while others are interested in having adequate housing on their own properties to care for both seasonal and permanent workers.

It is not possible at this time, Mr. Lantz declares, to decide on all the details of a program for using the war housing units, but cooperation of Federal and State agencies has been promised in working out a practical plan, with the Chief of the Bureau of Immigration and Housing and members of the State Reconstruction and Re-employment Commission indicating a desire to be helpful. Officials of the National Planning and Housing Association, also have given general approval of the program. All of these, with representatives of the Statewide farm organizations, are actively at work as a Committee perfecting the details of plans for effective utilization of this demountable housing.

FHA LOAN APPLICATIONS CONTINUE TO INCREASE

January number of applications to finance and build new housing under the Title VI. program of the Federal Housing Administration showed a 20 per cent increase over the December volume, and was over ten times that for January 1943, John E. McGovern, director, Southern California District, FHA, announced today.

Walnut Growers Meet Today

Orange county walnut growers are attending a county-wide meeting today, Feb. 10, to consider labor saving devices in the orchard for the coming year. This special meeting was called by Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg, and Chas. Van Wyk, chairman of the walnut growers department, to show motion pictures of the latest development in mechanical walnut shakers and harvesting equipment that were taken last season in Southern California orchards. E. R. Serr, walnut specialist, and J. P. Fairbank, agricultural engineer of the Extension Service, were to be present to discuss and describe labor saving devices for the walnut orchard. The new boom type of shaker will be shown.

Geo. Wells, Farm Labor Recruitment and Placement manager, is to discuss the farm labor situation and outlook for Orange county, and explain the survey of farm labor now under-way in the county.

The meeting is being held at the Farm Bureau headquarters, 353 South Main street, Orange.
