Roads to Romance Assn. Reveal Plans For Two-Day Outing at Diamond Bar

With spectacular plans being rushed to completion for the second annual roundup of the Roads to Romance association, that will be held at the Diamond Bar ranch in Brea Canyon on May 5 and 6 many Anaheim horselovers, and those who thrill to the romance and traditions of the old time west, are planning on attending. Last year 2,000 participated in the event and an elaborate program has again been planned under the picturesque slogan, "Travel the Trails of the Pioneers." Invitations have been issued to every horseman in Orange, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Imperial and San Diego counties.

The two day celebration will open at one o'clock on Saturday afternoon when the grand entry parade will be staged and will be followed by the quarter horse show. This will include the showing of various horse classes in hand, boot, stake and old clothes races and steer cutting. The evening entertainment will feature a full course Spanish dinner and an evening of fiestas and fun on the range with campfires, music and old fashioned dances.

Plenty of accommodations for overnight guests will be provided with guests bringing their own bedrolls to sleep outside under the stars. Sunday morning will open with a typical ranch breakfast and a call to saddles for a ride over beautiful, scenic trails. Sunday noon there will be a big pit barbecue. The outing will be climaxed with a big rodeo.

The Diamond Bar ranch is ideally suited to the occasion according to those planning the affair. William A. Bartholomae, jr., host for the occasion, is also making extensive preparations. The ranch is a part of the old Rancho San Jose de Abajo and at one time was a station of the renowned Butterfield stage line. The pioneer Vejar family lived there in a pretentious adobe home.

Howard Irwin of Fullerton is president of the association and its officers and directors include Ernest Spencer of Santa Ana, vice president who represents Orange county, and DeWitt Hutchings, Riverside county; Senator Ed Fletcher, San Diego county; Leo E. Honrath, San Bernardino county; B. M. Graham, Imperial county and Supervisor Willy. Thomas A. Gregory of Long Beach is treasurer and Dave Olmliam A. Smith, Los Angeles counsted, manager of the Long Beach municipal auditorium, is secretary. Directors include James A. Baker of Anaheim and Willard Smith of Orange.

The Sunday rodeo will be a C. A. A. rodeo and will include foremost professional cowboys of the west who will vie for points to be counted in placing the championships at the end of the season.

Reservations can be made with David Olmsted, care of Municipal Auditorium, Long Beach 2, California.

Report on USO Housing Project Is Submitted

Monthly report for March for the USO Housing project shows that 60 applications were made by service men and women stationed at nearby bases and that Mrs. M. P. Thaxton, head of the project, was able to secure housing for 25 of those applying.

She explained that the drop in applications and placements was due to the fact that there was less troop movement than usual and consequently service people already placed remained here and there was not the usual turnover of vacancies. Knowing that all those desiring to make application could not be placed Mrs. Thaxton was forced to turn down numerous people making application by telephone.

There are now 85 navy families living in Anaheim and practically all of them are from the Los Alamitos base. There are also 40 marine families in Anaheim as well as a number who are stationed at other nearby bases.

Each month she receives many applications from service men just returned from overseas who want to find homes so that their families can be with them. The demand is growng all the time and there is also a great increase in demand from civilians. Many of the latter are wives of service men who formerly made their homes in Anaheim before joining their husbands in other sections of the country. When the men go overseas the wives want to come back to their home town to await their husbands' return.

William Claussen was elected vice-president of the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon and will fill out the balance of the club year. The office was made necessary when the club recently incorporated. Meeting was held at the Elks clubhouse with Paul Bakenhus, president, presiding.

Directors Elected For Rotary Club

Rotarians elected directors to serve at the beginning of the new fiscal year that starts on July 1, last Monday when they met at the Elks clubhouse. They are LeRoy Ater, Ronald Brandon, George Graham, Hank Walsworth and Earl Woodward.

George Hedstrom, president, appointed John Dwyer chairman of the USO party that the club will sponsor at the Santa Ana Y.M.-C.A. Aksel Oas reported on progress of the United Clothing drive while Chad Bolick reported on progress of the drive at the high school.

T. M. Elliott, speaker of the day, talked on China and said that during this period of fighting years China has made much progress in schools, railroads, radio, highways and agriculture and has made a great change in her thinking habits.

He pointed out that Japan only controls certain spots in China and has failed in her conquest because China's economic center rests in the control of the farmers rather than in the industrial cities. He said that the communists there are more democratic than the ones in Russia and that the bad feeling between the communists and the central government is of long standing. The communists of China are more of a state-socialist government while the central government is more fascist, he said.

1944 Agriculture Survey in County Shows Increase

The annual 1944 crop report made last week by County Agricultural commissioner D. W. Tubbs, reveals that the gross farm income for the year was about $3,000,000 less than the record breaking 1943 year. Gross income in 1944 was $84,514.160 and in 1943, $87,482,360. Principal decrease was in orchard crops and of this the largest percentage of drop was in citrus. Total income for orchard crops was $80,934,965 against $64,593,660.

Tubbs reported that the gross production from numerous crops show a slight decrease although an outstanding exception was in avocados which doubled 1943 income and walnuts which nearly doubled in per-acre production. Increases were also shown in animal industry, apiary and nurseries. Livestock returns showed an increase of about $700,000, mostly in beef and dairy cattle, turkeys and sheep. Chickens, rabbits and swine showed a slight decrease. Nursery stock income showed an increase of approximately $90,000.

Field crop income showed a drop of $16,000; truck crops a loss of $180,000 and bees showed an increase of $27,000.

In summarizing the situation Tubbs disclosed that there were several reasons for the decrease in farm income including reduced acreage, manpower shortage, lack of sufficient pest control, supplies and farm equipment. Since all items of expense were increased he believed that the net income of farmers was no doubt considerably lower than in previous years.

He disclosed that the 1944 acreage under production was 154,231, including 79,838 in orchards with 76,000 acres in citrus; 11,504 in truck crops and 62,889 in field plantings. He said the 1943 planting was 158,685, about 800 acres less than in 1942. The total orchard yield for the past year was $60,965,000, of which $58,480,750 was from citrus, principally valencia oranges, lemons coming second and navel oranges third.

RETURN FROM NEW YORK

Miss Lois Ellen Smith and her mother, Mrs. T. K. M. Smith of 711 South Dickel street, returned to Anaheim last Saturday from New York. Miss Smith, ballet dancer, has just completed a season with the Ballet International in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West of North Zeyn street had as their dinner guests Tuesday evening Rev. Thomas L. Burden, and his sister-in-law Mrs. Ruby Griffith.

Seabee's Wife Has True Premonition Of Husband's Wounds at Iwo Jima

Meyer Berger, war correspondent for the New York Times has written a series of articles for that paper describing the evacuation of our wounded from Iwo Jima and in the article, printed April 6, he has described O. L. "Chuck" Chandler, former employee in the parcel post department of the Anaheim postoffice. Chandler, a navy seabee, lost his right arm during the bloody fighting and is now in a northern California hospital. His wife is there with him.

Some kind hearted man from New York City read the article and sent it to Louis Hoskins, postmaster, asking him to put it in the hands of Chandlers' family. He wrote, "I think likely that the family of the man would be glad to have it for their scrap book so I am taking the liberty of sending it to them in your care."

The writer told how the wounded felt and acted and thought on the hospital ship as they were homeward bound and following is a part of the vividly written account:

"There was little killer talk anywhere in the wards. It was as if they would rather forget that part of their lives. This was as true of the amputees as of the less seriously wounded.

"Many of the patients fixed family photographs in the mattress springs above their heads, where bunks were tiered, and stared at them for hours, anticipating the moment of reunion. A tall blond bosun's mate from Anaheim, Calif., could not keep his eyes off a large colored photograph of his wife and their two children. He fished an airmail letter from the bag beside his cot, passed it over to the marine beside him, a youngster who had lost his right leg on Iwo and said, "Read that."

The letter was from the bosun's mate's wife. Part of it said, "Gee, honey, I dreamed last night that you came home. It was wonderful, but your right side has been hurt. But was I so glad to see you? I'll say. You came in and we met at a dock or a depot and you kissed me. You told me you had been on a small island, and then you left to get your bags. Then I noticed you were wounded."

"The letter was dated Feb. 17, 1945 from the California town where the bosun's mate had been a mail carrier. It had been written three days before a Japanese mortar tore off his right arm, almost to the shoulder.

"The other amputation cases in the ward expressed their wonder over such wifely premonition. It reminded them of somewhat similar incidents they had heard at home from their mothers."

Stanley Proctor Convicted of Draft Violation

Stanley Russell Proctor, 19, of Anaheim was sentenced last week to two years in federal prison for failure to report for induction into the armed forces.

A member of Jehovah's Witnesses he claimed that as a member of the gospel he was not subject to military service. Tried in federal court he was convicted in a jury trial.

Council Finds Delinquent Taxes Greatly Reduced

In 1934 delinquent taxes in the city of Anaheim amounted to $28,000 but this amount has now been reduced to $475.73 it was revealed Tuesday night when the city council met in regular session at the city hall to hear and accept monthly reports from the various municipal departments.

At the same time it was reported that $1,340.92 in unsecured personal property tax has been collected and deposited to the account of the city treasurer. The outstanding balance still to be collected amounts to $11,149.30 and will be delinquent after April 20.

City expenditures from March 15 to April 1 amounted to $62,977.64 and of this amount $11,601.01 was spent on construction work on section 3 of the joint outfall sewer. The cities construction expense was 39.38 percent or $4,568.48 Flow of sewage from the several cities and sanitary districts of sections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 produced a total of 45,322,500 gallons or 33 percent of the total flow of 158,052,100 gallons.

The city purchased 38,940,100 gallons of water from the Metropolitan Water District. Water pumped by the city amounted to 224,800 gallons while the total water pumped and purchased was 39,164,700.

The water level in the city wells on April 1 was 107 feet and two inches, the highest it has been since 1929.

City Treasurer A. G. Tuma reported the balance in the general fund was $32,943.18 and the total fund in the treasury is $140,362. Receipts collected from the public service department were reported at $36,325.

Mrs. Mona Price of the city welfare department reported that $4,80, or an average of 16 cents per day, was spent on relief during March.

The fire department answered three calls during the past month. Principal fire damage was at Johnson's grocery store at 421 North Olive street. The fire oc-

New Plan For Ration Stamps Now in Effect

A new plan now in effect for validating food ration stamps will make Mrs. America's marketing and meal planning easier. Both blue stamps and red stamps will become good on the first day of each calendar month. Formerly, red stamps were always validated on a Sunday—at the beginning of a four-week or five-week rationing period. But now, five new blue stamps and five new red stamps—a total of 50 points in each color—will become good the first day of every month for buying meats and fats and processed foods. Budgeting of points should be easier under the new set-up. Instead of 50 red points one time and 60 another—depending on the length of the rationing period—you'll have the same number each month—50. All red and blue stamps expire on the last day of the fourth month after their validation.

Here's an item that should ease the ache in the family sweet tooth. More candy bars—the nickel kind—will be available soon. Candy manufacturers are now setting aside fewer of their five-cent candy bars for the armed forces than formerly, 35 percent instead of 50. Of course, candy makers will get less sugar in the next three months, so the increase won't be as large as it might have been. Still, candy counters should be better stocked.

No praise can be too great for the unsung heroes of the home front fight against inflation—the volunteer workers on war price and rationing boards. They are doing their part to insure the fair distribution of scarce commodities—to hold the line against price rises which, if left unchecked, would start prices upward in a disastrous inflationary spiral.

Dates Set For YMCA Summer Camp Program

Summer camp dates for the Y.M.C.A. were determined on Monday evening when the board of directors met at the Y.M.C.A. building with M. A. Gauer, president, presiding. A report regarding the beach district, including Huntington Beach, Newport Beach and Laguna Beach, was heard and board members are now seeking a man to fill the full-time position of executive secretary there. Reports were heard on various recent activities of the Y.M.C.A. and discussion was held on a number of future plans.

Present at the meeting were M. A. Gauer, Frank Kellogg, Ted Payne, Oscar Renner, Wilbert Bonney, Paul Bakenhus, Paul Demaree, Charles Pearson, Edward Jordt and Gerald Patton.

Citrus Shipments Up Slightly Over Last Week With Prices in Same Range

The marksting division of the citrus exchange, in their latest report, announces that the demand for Orange County fruit continues to exceed the supply for Navels and practically all cars are selling at ceiling. The volume of sales is limited to current arrivals with the prorate for next week slightly up. It is doubtful if shippers can fully ship the demanded volume.

During the past five weeks Exchange shippers have been unable to ship the prorated amount because of interference of weather and the shortage of packers.

The lemon market is sharply up this week and many markets are getting full ceiling on 432s and larger with prices generally stronger on 490s.

The average price last week was a little higher and a great deal higher than three years ago.

The picking season for Valencia oranges only a few weeks off, growers, packing houses and the Citrus Exchange are prepared to take care of the increased volume of production that is apparent at this time. Quite a lot of fallen fruit is prevalent in some orchards and due to circumstances, the officials expect to find a large proportion of small fruit that will bring under the ceiling prices. The current citrus crop is expected to exceed the harvest of last year.

War Souvenirs Now on Display In Downtown Store

Do you want to see a German BYF rifle or a Nazi daggar, a butter dish from Holland or exotic costume jewelry from Egypt? A large group of war souvenirs are on display in the window of Helen's Gift Shop on West Center street and were loaned by Mrs. Cloyd L. Young of Anaheim who has received them at various times from her husband, a corporal in the U.S. Army and now fighting in Europe.

Included in the group is a wooden bullet used by the Germans, uniform insignias from many different nations, church relics from France, lace doiles from Holland and coins from many countries.

Sgt. Ray Middleton Killed in Action In Germany

Another Anaheim man, Sgt. Rex Middleton, has paid the supreme sacrifice for his country it was disclosed last week when his mother, Mrs. Barbara Woodward of Rt. 1, Box 184, Anaheim, was notified of his death by the War department. He was killed while fighting with infantry forces in Germany.

He enlisted in the service two years ago and went overseas shortly after a Christmas leave spent here. Prior to his enlistment he was employed at the Long Beach plant.

Having lived in Anaheim since he was six years old he attended local schools, graduated from the Anahem Union High school and attended Fullerton Junior college.

Girl, 7, Inherits Citrus Grove

Brenda Lou Browning, 7-year-old granddaughter of the late Victor A. Browning of Anaheim, who died several weeks ago, has inherited a nine-acre orange grove between Euclid Ave., and Brookhurst road it was revealed early this week when the will of the deceased was filed for probate in superior court.

The balance of his estimated $80,000 estate was left to Brenda Lou's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Browning. Included in the estate are $9,500 in war bonds and about $50,000 in stocks, shares and promissory notes.

Good Response Made Toward Clothing Drive

The local sponsoring committee of the Allied United Clothing drive met at the Chamber of Commerce early this week to discuss further plans for pushing the drive that is being held throughout the nation this month. Anaheim's quota is figured on the basis of 5 pounds per person of usable, practical clothing.

Committee members are now making a survey of the various depots to see how great the response is to this worthy war-time enterprise. Indications so far are that the residents are thoroughly behind the effort.

Depots in which to deposit clothing are the chamber of commerce building, postoffice lobby, all schools and churches, the city garage on South Los Angeles street and the Fabian's hardware store on East Center street.

The mens' service clubs in the city are thoroughly behind the move. Committee members are Aksel Oas, E. W. Moeller, Norbert E. Faessell, Al Raymond, Charles Pearson and Lee Fabian.

LEAVE FOR MEXICO CITY

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallop left yesterday for a vacation in Mexico City and expect to be gone several weeks.

Lions Club Plans Theater-Dinner Party for April 26

Wives of Lions club members will enjoy a social occasion with their husbands on April 26 when a dinner and theater party will be held at Padua Hills near Claremont. Plans for the affair were disclosed last Friday when the Lions club met in regular weekly luncheon session at the Elks clubhouse. Thayer Chapman, president, presided.

Wayne Griggs, former secretary of the club, was at the meeting and told briefly of the nine months trip he has just completed with the Merchant Marine. He promised to give a more complete description of the around the world trip at a future meeting.

City Engineer E. P. Hapgood spoke on the engineering and political problems involved in the Metropolitan Water District. He was introduced by Charles Pearson, program chairman.

Settle Sewing Machine Problem County Officials

Anaheim chapter of the American Red Cross as well as other chapters in the county, are at long last to get some greatly needed sewing machines. The sewing machine problem that has long troubled county officials was finally settled last week and as a result the Aanheim chapter has been apportioned four old WPA sewing machines.

The apportionment was recommended by Chairman Willis H. Warner and the board of supervisors. According to the final decision the Northern Orange County chapter at Fullerton will get 21; Southern Orange County chapter at Santa Ana, 27; the Anaheim chapter, 4 and the Orange chapter, one.

The sewing machines were purchased by the county for the WPA sewing projects and the Red Cross chapters have wanted them for some time but because of conflict between the state law and OPA regulations on sale of public property they could not be released. The matter finally came to a head several weeks ago and the board of supervisors finally determined to lend them to the Red Cross chapters instead of having them lie idle any longer.

Anaheim, located in the richest spot on earth, "In the Heart of the Valencia Orange District," is widely known for its beautiful parks, fine schools and churches, and for its other civic improvements and the stability of its citizenship and its business institutions. When you plan your future home of contentment, the one-stop answer is Anaheim!

RUSSO-JAPANESE PACT

Tokyo must have known it was inevitable. All the straws in the wind pointed in one direction—the wrong direction for Tokyo. If Hirohito and his henchmen were clinging to the hope that they still could gain a victory, that hope is now as badly sunk as the Hon. Japanese Navy.

Although the peace treaty with Russia still runs until April 24, 1946, it ceased "running," for all practical purposes, with the announcement from Moscow that the treaty has "lost its meaning." Actually, the treaty has been "limping" for the past three or four years, since Hitler marched into Russia and the Japs attacked us.

How soon actual conflict will break out is a matter of conjecture. Neither the Russians nor the Japs are likely to allow the technicality, that the treaty does not expire until 1946, to stop them from attacking each other if, and when, they decide to do so.

By going to war with Tokyo, Stalin would have a good deal to gain now that Germany is tottering on the brink. It would give him a strong voice in the final Pacific peace settlement; it would hasten the defeat of the only nation which poses a serious threat to Siberia; and it would square accounts for the Jap trickery in the Russo-Japanese war of 1904.

Early in the war many of our arm-chair strategists thought Russia should have joined us against the Nips in order to give us air bases close to the Japanese homeland. If Stalin had done this it would have weakened his fight against Hitler, and there is no guaranteed that his Siberian forces were strong enough then to have prevented the Japs from capturing the Siberian air bases.

Now both the Russians and ourselves are in a position to gain the greatest advantage from Soviet participation in the far Eastern fight.

PAN-AMERICAN DAY

Pan-American Day—April 14—has taken on an added significance in the light of the approaching United Nations Conference in San Francisco.

The recent Chapultepec agreement whereby the nations of the Western Hemisphere (now including Argentina) agree to act together against any aggression on these two continents, does not run counter to the aims of worldwide cooperation. On the contrary, it has set up a model of international agreement wherein all nations, large and small, are accorded the same rights and considerations. It is a model, incidentally, which might well be followed to a greater degree in the United Nations Organization.

When this day was first set aside by former President Hoover in 1930, its purpose was then, as now, to foster better understanding and closer cooperation between the peoples of North and South America. This purpose has been attained to a substantial degree.

Pan-Americanism contributed in no small way to the splendid manner in which our southern neighbors are aiding us in opposing the Axis. Now, even Argentina has come back into the fold, thus re-establishing complete hemispheric solidarity.

This 15th anniversary of Pan-American Day the 21 Republics can look back upon encouraging progress and can look forward to greater achievements in their political, cultural and economic relations.

MacARTHUR "TOPS"

We are glad to see that General MacArthur was named as the supreme commander of American Army forces in the Pacific.

His excellent strategy in leading American forces back to Bataan makes him deserving of this assignment. This action of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has removed all fears of the General and his admirers that he was to play only a secondary role in the final drive on Tokyo.

MOSTY POLITICS

From the volume of talk being generated in Washington about Government financial aid to small business after the war, the casual observer would gather the impression that banks rarely make loans to small enterprises and that unless the Government does it, it won't be done.

This, of course, is not so. Actually, thousands of loans are made daily to the hundreds of thousands of small businesses which are so important to the nation. Last year, as an example, in one month alone, the statewide branch banking institution of California made 20,000 unsecured loans for industrial and commercial purposes, aggregating $96 million. Of these, 13,000 were loans to small businesses amounting to $61 million. The large companies of today were the small ones of yesterday. Probably in most cases, part of the funds to get started as well as money to expand came from banks.

Decades ago bankers were considered "aloof." But that aloofness—real or fancied—has long since vanished, especially since the development of branch banking which has brought banking services virtually to the door of the corner grocery, the small shop and even to the home.

Bankers have made it clear that they are redoubling their efforts to help those businesses which have a legitimate need, but do not fully qualify for a loan under ordinary requirements.

So, next time we hear of a need for vast Federal lending to aid small businesses, let's put it down as 99 per cent politics, and one per cent economics.

Income of County Residents Reaches New Heights for '44

The total income of all civilian residents in Orange County during 1944 was more than twice as large as in 1939, according to a research report released here today by the Southern California office of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

The report, which was prepared by the State Chamber's research department, estimates that individual incomes in Orange County in 1944 totaled $177,798,000, compared with $73,691,000 in 1939. This is a gain of $104,097,000. Totals for 1942 and 1943 respectively, were $125,919,000 and $157,912,000.

After the collection of income and social security taxes, there was left for disposal by Orange County civilians $159,289,000 in 1944, compared with $72,335,000 in 1939, the report estimates. Total disposable individual incomes in the county are placed by the report at $81,980,000 in 1940, $100,465,000 in 1941, $120,441,000 in 1942, and $141,473,000 in 1943.

The difference between total incomes and total disposable incomes in Orange County set forth in the report was $18,509,000 in 1944 compared with $1,356,000 in 1939. This reflects the higher income tax collections by which Orange County civilians are helping to support the war effort.

April 18—1895

The Chamber of Commerce of Anaheim grows apace, and now numbers fifty members within its organization. A meeting will be held in the near future for the purpose of organizing on a permanent basis. The benefits to be derived from an organization of this kind are manifold, and it is of the utmost importance that our citizens lend a helping hand to fostering the enterprise. The time is now well advanced for our wide-awake and progressive citizens to bestir themselves and plan our city in the front rank of progress. Time and energy expended in this way will be amply repaid, and it rests with our people to see that our advantages are not neglected.

The completion of our electric light plant was fittingly observed by our citizens last Thursday evening. The news of the celebration had been heralded throughout the county and the immense throng in attendance joined in the celebration with a true patriotic spirit. Excursions from the surrounding towns centered here and at 8 o'clock in the evening fully 2,500 people thronged our city. A brass band headed our Chamber of Commerce and citizens in general on their march to the Santa Fe depot and on the arrival of the special train from the county seat, the citizens of that city and elsewhere were cordially received and tendered the hospitality of our city. The festivities were held in the Opera house which was filled, many being unable to gain admittance. The electrical display was a grand sight to behold. Mr. W. J. Fay presided at the meeting and Mr. Richard Melrose was introduced as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Charles Lorenz, the oldest original pioneer, "pressed the button" and the flood of brilliant electric light was turned on.

The Fiesta committee have selected the following young ladies to represent Orange county in the parade tomorrow: Miss Cora Lewis, Goddess of Orange county; maids, Miss Mable Niekey of Santa Ana, Miss Cora Wilbur, Orange, Miss Nora Stone, Placentia, Miss Lauretta Smith, Fullerton, Miss Nellie Tuffree, Anaheim, Miss Irene Fleming, Brookshurst. The float was also a feature in the parade held last evening.

Miss Elise Aubert's horse took a notion into his head last Friday evening to run away while she and two children were driving. In making the turn from Palm St. into Santa Ana one of the front wheels bacame detached and the occupants were precipated violently to the ground. A few bruises were sustained by Miss Aubert about the head but she has now recovered.

John Everharty has been engaged lately in setting a tract of 21 acres of land west of town to budded Washington navels. The stand looks well, and some day mine host will have the pleasure of basking in the sunshine under his own orange tree.

George Heffner and his sister have been visiting with their father at Ensenada, where that gentleman is conducting a merchandise business. The family have been viewing the Le Fiesta sights in Los Angeles the past week.

Ben Porter has taken up a tract of land in the Soquel Canyon and has stocked the place with horses and cattle on pasture. Ben is a rustler and expects to get rich in his new undertaking.

Charlie Albright came over from Downey last Wednesday and stayed until the next day to witness our electrical display in the evening. He is located at Downey for the present but will return here with his family in about three months.

In a few days the electric cars will run every fifteen minutes between Pasadena and Los Angeles, making the trip in forty-five minutes.

Michael Neipp has beautified his Commercial Hotel property by chopping down the weeds aligning the porch on the west.

The heated weather has arrived and Druggist Derge has started up his soda fountain.

Haster Estate Willed to Widow And Children

Thomas Haster, prominent Anaheim citrus rancher and nurseryman, who passed away on March 29, has left his large estate, valued at $20,000 annual income, to his widow, Annie K. Haster and his two children, Richard P. Haster and Mrs. Marjorie Joan Balmer. His will was filed for probate last week in superior court.

A 100-acre ranch property will be divided between the three beneficiaries. The will provides that 40 acres will go to the son, 30 acres to the daughter and the remainder to his widow.

The federal government has acquired more than 34 million acres of land during the war (exclusive of tracts taken over by the Defense Plants Corporation) for which more than half a billion dollars was paid.

(More 50 Years Ago)

It is rumored that all the saloons in Santa Ana will discontinue business after June 1, owing to the stringency of liquor ordinance No. 192, known as the Pomona ordinance.

Company G goes to Los Angeles this morning to be in readiness to participate in the La Fiesta parade tomorrow.

The property owners along Center street should see that the unsightly weeds are removed.

Water is 50 cents an hour this month and plenty of it.

Mr. Daniel Haladay and wife of Santa Ana were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bradford in Placentia last week.

Red Cross Sec'y Fractures Hip In Home Accident

Mrs. Katherine Wheeler of 503 North Lemon street, secretary at the Anaheim chapter of the American Red Cross, suffered a fractured hip and a shoulder dislocation Wednesday of last week when she slipped in her kitchen as she turned from the sink to a nearby cupboard. The accident occurred about six o'clock as she was preparing dinner.

She was taken immediately to the Anaheim Lutheran hospital where she is now resting easily. She is looking forward to a quick recovery and hopes to be back at her post before too many weeks. One of the hardest and most faithful volunteer workers at the Red Cross, it was only late in February that she became office secretary. She makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Emma Karlen.

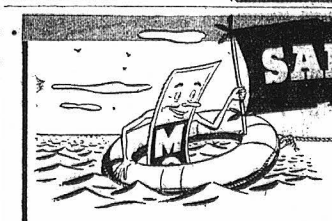

A newspaper is the history for one day of the world in which we live, and with which we are consequently more concerned than with those which have passed away and exist only in remembrance.—Bishop Horne.

PARENTS OF LOCAL MAN HAVE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT PICO HOME

When Will and Sade Arns were married on April 10, 1895 in Iowa there wasn't a wedding ring and there weren't any orchids for in that long ago bride's didn't always wear wedding rings and orchids were a luxury that very few enjoyed. Last Sunday though the bride of 50 years was presented with an old fashioned gold wedding band as a mark of love and esteem from her husband when they celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home on Pico and two of their sons, Earl Arns of Anaheim and Harry Arns of Norwalk presented their mother with a corsage of three golden orchids fashioned with golden net and ribbon streamers.

Daughter of the honored couple, Mrs. Dora Phelps was here for the great occasion from her home in Missouri as was another son, Paul and his wife of Utah. Two other sons, S/Sgt. Ralph Arns, stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky and William Ray Arns, USN, stationed at San Diego, were unable to be present, but sent telegrams of congratulations and gifts.

Sunday afternoon an open house was held at the honored couple's home and throughout the afternoon hours scores of friends came to call Guests were received by Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. DeWitt Marsh of Iowa who is a neice of the honored couple. The home was a veritable flower garden as a result of the many beautiful floral gifts sent Mr. and Mrs. Arns. Mrs. Paul Arns assisted in serving refreshments of homemade ice cream, cake and hot beverages.

At 6:30 o'clock in the evening a fried chicken dinner was served by Mrs. Earl Arns and Mrs. Harry Arns and 47 members of the immediate family and close friends were seated at the long table that was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Napkins, lettered in gold, bore the words, "Sade and Will, 1895-1945." Lighted tapers and beautiful flowers in golden tones completed the table appointments.

While these affairs were held two days before the actual anniversary that was on Tuesday the day itself was also remembered. Tuesday morning the honored couple and other members of the family attended Tom Brenneman's "Breakfast in Hollywood" after which they enjoyed an anniversary luncheon at a Hollywood cafe. In the afternoon they attended a radio audience participation program, "What's Doing Ladies." In the evening the Moose Lodge in Whittier gave a party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arns.

$36,000,000 WORTH OF HAY?

Ordinarily, $36,000,000 isn't hay in any man's language.

But this time, it represents the "hay" a lot of smart Americans set about to rake in while the sun was shining. Before the war, Back in 1935.

Yes, in March, 1935, these shrewd investors bought up $27,000,000 worth of U. S. Government "Baby Bonds". . . the same bonds that grew up into War Bonds the day the Japs took a poke at Pearl Harbor.

And today, they're collecting $36,000,000 . . . which is $4 for every $3 they laid on the line 10 years ago!

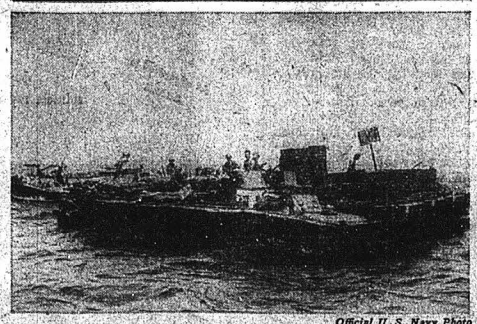

We mention this just to show you that when your government urges you to "give $3 and get $4" we mean exactly that!

All of which makes it mighty worth while for you to hang onto the War Bond you already have until they mature. And to grab as many more War Bonds as you can possibly afford to buy!

You'll be doing your fighting men a favor, to be sure. But the biggest favor is the one you'll be doing yourself in the peacetime days yet to come!

KEEP FAITH WITH OUR FIGHTERS . . .
BUY WAR BONDS FOR KEEPS!

Republican Women Hold April Luncheon Session

Concluding a talk on the many problems that face the nation Mrs. Edith Vanderwater of Long Beach, past state president of the Republican Women's club, stressed the fact that the people continue to demand freedom of speech, press and religion as they are the most fundamental precepts of democracy and the only way in which democracy can be kept alive.

Her interesting talk was given last Friday afternoon when the local Republican Women's club met at the Parker House for luncheon and business session. She was introduced by Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, president of the Anaheim council.

Others who spoke were Mrs. John Kyle of Long Beach, president in charge of the southern division of the state club and Mrs. B. A. Arnold, newly elected president of the Orange County council. Mrs. Arnold discussed future plans of the club and Mrs. Kyle answered numerous questions pertaining to the work of the group.

Girl Reserves Have Swiss Program And Plan For Future

Senior Girl Reserves enjoyed a novel program on Tuesday evening when they met at the White Temple Methodist church. Built around the theme of Switzerland the president, Roberta Norland, called the meeting to order by ringing a Swiss cowbell after which the girls joined in singing a group of folk songs.

Jean Wilson and Betty Hilton told about the life and customs in the country and illustrated the talks by showing large size pictures. Betty also exhibited several native costumes and showed numerous souvenirs from Switzerland. The program was concluded with the two girls giving a pantomime on the famous William Tell story. Special music was played by Roberta Norland, violinist. At the refreshment hour goat's milk and cheese crackers were served.

During the business session a committee was appointed to work on the ritual service and includes Leona Schwartzbach, chairman, Doris Koontz and Ruth Demaree.

The junior Girl Reserves met and planned for a beach party that will be held soon and also discussed ways of raising money for a war bond that will go towards the Y.M.C.A. building fund. Devotionals were led by Dorothy McCoy and the evening was concluded with playing charades.

Anaheim Teacher Weds Airforce Sgt. At Church Rites

A number of Anaheim friends and Beta Sigma Phi sorority sisters attended the recent marriage of Miss Helen Motley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Motley, Santa Ana and Staff Sgt. John Zima of the U. S. Army Air Forces Western Flying Training Command. The marriage was solemnized at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Santa Ana with Rev. John Ashley officating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white marquisette and lace and floor length veil. Her bridal bouquet was of white sweetpeas centered with an orchid, the latter becoming a corsage for her travel costume.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. James C. Bartlett who wore blue marquisette and lace and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas.

Sgt. Louis Martinez was best man and ushers were Sgt. Joseph Wolfe and Pvt. Robert Firth.

A dinner for the bridal party followed at Danigers after which the couple left for a northern honeymoon. Upon their return they will make their home in Culver City where Sgt. Zima was recently transferred.

Mrs. Zima has been teaching in the Anaheim elementary school system during the past year.

Womens' Church Council Plans May Luncheon

The Anaheim Women's Church Council completed plans on Monday for a Fellowship luncheon that will be held on Friday, May 4 at the Presbyterian church. At this time Dr. Graham Hunter of Fullerton, representative at the recent Cleveland, Ohio conference on Dumbarton Oaks, will talk on what that conference and the coming one at San Francisco mean to Christian women.

Theme for the meeting will be "our town's responsibility in a world comradeship." The council is also planning to place emphasis, at future meetings, on how the churches can serve members of the armed forces and their families; new frontiers including the study of the American Indian; fair employment practices; a citizens committee to study and improve race tensions; a welcome and contact with students from foreign countries who are studying in our institutions of higher learning and enemies within our town.

Mrs. Harry Burden was appointed chairman of reservations and the hostess committee. A woman from each church will work with her and make reservations among her own members and also serve as a hostess at the meeting.

The luncheon will be served by the Presbyterian ladies under the leadership of Mrs. Anna Beebe and Mrs. Harry M. Peterson and Mrs. D. Fenner Chambers were appointed co-chairmen for the decorations and table appointments. Mrs. M. Miller will have charge of the special music; Mrs. A. L. Horne will open the meeting with a devotional service and the affair will be concluded with a litany service given by Mrs. Al Casebeer.

Mrs. Gerald Patton, president of the council, presided at the meeting.

POULTRY PASTURES

As economy of production will continue to be essential in poultry, it might be well to consider earmarking some of the farm's good pasture for this spring's crop of chickens. It has been proved that chicks and growing pullets can make good use of pasturage and that a clean range with a good growth of succulent fresh forage is the cheapest way to provide such necessary vitamins as A, D and G.

Wedding Anniversaries of Two Couples Recall Memories of Their Early Days

The following story is the first in a series of feature articles that will appear in the Gazette from time to time and will be based on the idea of "know your neighbor and friend." (Ed. note).

(By Helen Grafton Hineman)

"Mr. and Mrs. Al Erickson gave a party to their friends Saturday in honor of their eighth wedding anniversary. Five hundred was indulged in by the guests. Mrs. George Hamler and Al Nowatney winning the first prize and Mrs. Louis Kroeger and Herman Schindler the second. Supper was served to seventeen persons at midnight." (Printed in the Anaheim Gazette on April 15, 1920.)

The above social occasion occurred just 25 years ago in Anaheim and the hosts at that time had only been married a short eight years. They were really just starting out on the long road that lay ahead of them and their dreams were those of all young married couples—a home, children, security and happiness together.

This week, on April 9, they had their thirty-third wedding anniversary together and in keeping with the rest of their lives they celebrated it quietly and were able to look back on the road that had once stretched so far ahead of them. In doing so they found that their lives had been that of an average American family. They have had their measure of happiness and their measure of sorrow and now they are looking forward, some years hence, to celebrating their golden wedding anniversary as they have seen their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamler, do.

April is a "wedding anniversary" month in the family for last week on April 2 Mr. Erickson's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hamler of 315 West Chartres St., celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamler were married in Moline, Illinois in 1887 and moved to Anaheim in 1910. He entered the real estate business and became prominent in civic and social activities. Among other activities he served as city trustee for two terms and she was a member of the Ladies Euchre club that was founded in 1887. They had only one child, a son who lost his life at Seal Beach in 1918 in an heroic effort to save another man from drowning. In 1937 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a large dinner party at the Elks clubhouse and were the third couple in their family to do so. Mr. Hamler's parents had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and so had his brother and sister-in-law. Now Mr. Hamler is 83 years old and his wife will reach the same age this summer.

Mr. Erickson came to Anaheim in 1910 to be near his aunt and uncle, but in 1912 went back to Burlington, Iowa to claim his bride. They returned to Anaheim shortly after their marriage and established their home on North Clementine street. That year Mr. and Mrs. Hamler were celebrating their silver wedding anniversary.

By the time Mr. and Mrs. Erickson had their eighth anniversary party they had two children, Jack and Marjorie. Shortly after World War I they realized the second of their dreams—that of having their own home. Together they planned and built it and it was a proud, happy day when they moved to 200 North Helena street where they have lived ever since.

Another happy event occurred in 1926 when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Erickson, and his sister, Miss Edith Erickson moved to Anaheim and established their residence across the street from them. Now his parents have passed away and his sister, employed at Weber's Book Store, has her own apartment on the family property.

Sorrow entered their lives in 1928 when their son, Jack passed away after an extended illness but in 1931 another son, Jim, was born to them and now he is an energetic, fun-loving student at St. Boniface school. His sister is Mrs. Alfred Smith of San Diego, mother of two-year-old Kathleen. Kathleen's father is in the U. S. Navy and is stationed in the southern city.

Since the early 1930's Mr. Erickson has been employed in the Anaheim municipal water and light department. When he first came to Anaheim he had his own clothing business, but after several years sold out and went to work for the Ganahl and Grimm Lumber company where he stayed until he went to work for the city. For the past 32 years he has been a volunteer member of the city fire department and, in point of service, is the oldest member in the department.

County Men in 185th Infantry Help Free Islands

Because of the number of Anaheim and county men fighting with the 185th Infantry regiment of the 40th division, now fighting in the Philippine Islands, local residents will be interested in the following dispatch that tells how the 185th regiment is doing its share in the liberation of the Islands.

The first battalion of the 185th to enter Iloilo, Panay was commanded by Lt. Colonel Leonard E. Echols of Santa Ana. Four other Santa Ana men were on the field staff of the regiment which assisted in planning the assault and participated in the surprise landing in Panay, March 18. They were Maj. Kermit H. G. McCoy, Maj. Gerald K. Sick, Capt. Ray O. Busch and Capt. Roswell I. Berkheimer.

Under the direction of the field staff, the 185th captured Manchurriso airfield and many populated places in addition to entering Iloilo. The city was captured just two days after landing of assualt troops near Tigbauan on the south coast of Panay. The push toward Iloilo began at Molo, a township 2½ miles to the west, where the Japs had established a garrison in the convent of Beatero del Smo Rosario.

Col. Echols personally directed the attack to destroy the garrison and to liberate more than 500 Filipino civilians who had taken refuge in the Catholic church nearby.

Civilians, jamming the sidewalks by the thousands, greeted the liberators with resounding cheers and shouts in a victory demonstration which rivaled that extended to troops entering Manila.

Col. Echols and his men are veterans of 51 continuous days of fighting on Luzon, where the 40th division annihilated more than 6000 Japs.

Invasion of Panay marked their second combat amphibious operation in 68 days. They landed Jan. 9 at Lingayen gulf in the initial invasion of Luzon.

WAFFLE SUPPER

Members of the high school league of the White Temple enjoyed a waffle supper last Sunday evening in the dining hall at the church. The supper was followed by a devotional service and a recreational hour. Ruth Demaree is president and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Held are advisors.

Assistant at St. Boniface Church Is Transferred

Rev. Michael Galvin, assistant at St. Boniface Catholic church for the past four and a half years, has been transferred to St. Clemens' parish at Ocean Park, the assignment having become effective this week.

He is succeeded by Rev. John Hill who has been transferred here from St. Mary's parish at Santa Maria.

The assignments were disclosed last week following the Catholic Archdiocesean Council meeting held on April 2. Another assignment of interest to local residents was the disclosure that Rev. Charles Kevin Keane, who celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in St. Boniface on March 18, has been assigned to St. Paul's parish in Los Angeles.

It was with regret that church members saw Rev. Galvin depart for his kindliness and untiring energy had won him many friends. He was chaplain of the Anaheim Council of Knight's of Columbus and spiritual advisor to the Y.L.I.

State Income Tax Due Mon., April 16

Franchise Tax Commissioner clarifies time for filing California Personal Income Tax returns. Since the time for filing under the law, that is, April 15, falls on Sunday, the Commissioner has ruled that returns may be filed not later than midnight the following day, Monday, April 16.

HAVE YOU FILED California Personal Income Tax return?

If single, and your net income after the recognized legal deductions for taxes, and similar expenses amounts to two thousand dollars or more, you must file not later than April 15. Married couples are allowed an exemption under present law of thirty five hundred dollars, and must file if the net income reaches that amount.

If the gross sum of five thousand dollars or more is earned, the California tax authorities will expect you to file, even though the net income is less than your exemptions, and even though no tax inures. Some misunderstandings may be apparent as to the requirements of the California Income Tax. If in doubt contact nearest office, but in case you are liable do not fail to file.

Information returns for those employed will by law disclose the earnings and the California tax man will be looking for delinquents if the return is not completed when due. Penalties add materially to the tax. The tax rate, after exemptions, is 1% on the first $10,000.00.

Elton R. McCoy Given High Masonic Honor

A high ranking local Mason was accorded signal honor today when Potentate William G. Paul of Al Malaikah Temple of the Shrine announced that Elton R. McCoy, well known Anaheim and Fullerton business man, would serve during 1945 as Potentate's Ambassador to this community within the jurisdiction of Al Malaikah.

The Potentate's Ambassadors serve under direction of Virgil F. Frizzel, First Ceremonial Master, who lives in Altadena. Serving with Frizzell, besides McCoy, are Ben S. Bauman of San Luis Obispo, in charge of the northern district; Charles A. Brown, of Huntington Park, directing the Los Nietos Valley district; Ted R. Carpenter of San Bernardino, San Bernardino and Riverside Counties; and O. A. Riley of Ventura, the Ventura County district.

In addition to the four supervising ambassadors, seventy nobles of Southern California were thus honored.

Calif. Civilian Income Reaches All Time High Peak

Preliminary estimates indicate that 1944 per capita civilian income in California reached an all-time high of $1,532, an increase of 107.9 per cent over the average of $737 for 1939, according to a survey report released here today by Harrison S. Robinson, president of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

This is an increase of $67 over the California average of $1,465 in 1943, according to the report. The 1943 per capita civilian income for the United States as a whole was $1,032, having risen to that figure from $537 in 1939, the report states.

The report, which was prepared by the State Chambers' research department, estimates that 1944 individual civilian incomes in the state totaled $12,521,000,000 compared with $5,013,000,000 in 1939. This is a gain of $7,058,000,000. Totals for 1942 and 1943, respectively, were $8,842,600,000 and $11,247,300,000.

After the collection of income and social security taxes, there was left for disposal by California civilians $11,217,564,000 in 1944, compared with $4,920,000,000 in 1939, the report estimates. Total disposable individual incomes in the state are placed by the report at $5,447,193,000 in 1940, $6,724,529,000 in 1941, $8,457,947,000 in 1942 ,and $10,076,456,000 in 1943.

THE BIG THREE might meet in Berlin eventually — but what about accommodations?

Farm Gardens Are Vital to Victory

"The farm garden is one of the most important cogs in our huge food-production machine," writes War Food Administrator Marvin Jones in the current COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. "Their importance is easy to see when we consider that the nation's 18,500,000 gardens produced probably two fifths of all the fresh vegetables grown last year.

"As this is written the Russian Army is pushing nearer and nearer to Berlin, and our own forces are penetrating the West Wall of Germany. No one can say how long the Germans can hold out. But we do know that the defeat of Germany will not diminish the need for food production this year.

"When the war in Europe is over we can redouble our efforts against Japan. There will be no opportunity for a letdown in food production in 1945.

"Farm gardens relieve the burden on wartime transportation, especially when combined with a sound plan for home food preservation. It will help relieve the problem of labor for canning plants at a time when there are not enough workers to go around for all of the plants supplying materials and equipment for war. Even with everyone doing his best we will not produce enough canned vegetables for all our needs unless farm families help relieve the strain by growing and canning as much food as possible."

Jake Proctor on Leave of Absence

Jake Proctor, city editor and business manager of the Anaheim Gazette for the past eighteen months, is on a leave of absence from his duties with Orange county's oldest newspaper, and is living in Sunset Beach where he and Mrs. Proctor have purchased a business.

While with the staff of the Gazette, "Jake" made many friends among the business people and the townspeople in general. He was an active member of the Lions club, a member of the Chamber of Commerce and a worker with the recent drive for Red Cross funds as well as other civic enterprises.

Development of Roads in New Plan

Development of approximately 31 per cent of the rural and urban state highway mileage of Southern California to modern freeway and limited access standards will be permitted by legislation now pending, it is revealed in a report issued by the California Major Highway Development Committee. The legislation to authorize and finance this development is sponsored by the Committee, which is composed of representatives of five state-wide organizations.

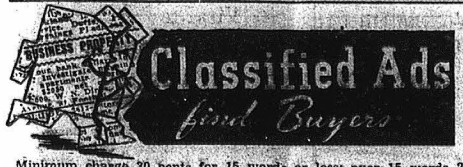

The Committee's report shows that of the present total of 4,886 miles of State highways in Southern California, 1,512 miles will be improved to limited access or freeway standards. Of the 1,512 miles of modernized highways, 1,178 will consist of limited access roads through rural areas, following for the most part major routes to the north and east, connecting with interstate routes. A total of approximately 283 miles will be allocated to the Los Angeles metropolitan area, comprising 44 communities, for freeway construction; and the metropolitan San Diego allocation will be about 52½ miles. These allocations have been determined on a basis of area and population, with equal weight given to both factors.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TEXT

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question is the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from Jeremiah: "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise."

A Scriptural passage from Luke relates that a ceturion sent the elders of the Jews unto Jesus "beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant. . . . And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying . . . Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof: . . . neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed." And Jesus "said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Disease is an experience of so-called mortal mind. It is fear made manifest on the body. Christian Science takes away this physical sense of discord, just as it removes any other sense of moral or mental inharmony." "The sick are not healed merely by declaring there is no sickness, but by knowing that there is none."

Native Sons To Have Combined Meet at Beach City

Instead of a regular monthly meeting in April members of the Mother Colony chapter, NSGW will journey to Huntington Beach tomorrow night, Friday, to meet at Memorial hall with the Santa Ana and Huntington Beach chapters. A 7 o'clock dinner will precede initiation services for membership candidates from the three chapters.

William D. Williamson of San Francisco, grand president and his staff of grand officers will initiate the candidates.

The local Mother Colony chapter is now making plans for the celebration of its second anniversary and the affair will be held on May 1 and will be in honor of the junior past president, Edward P. Backs. Committee of arrangements include Frank Salveson of Fullerton, chairman, S, James Tuffree and R. H. Kuhns of Placential, Gerard Callens and Leonard Schwacofer of Anaheim.

CHURCH SCHOOL PARTY

Next Wednesday evening a dinner will be held at the White Temple Methodist church for officers and teachers of the church school. Members are asked to remember the date and to plan on attending.

If you own a business in Anaheim you can't afford not to advertise in The Gazette.

GUEST SPEAKER AT CHURCH

Chaplain Arthur F. Glasser will be the guest speaker at the service at Salem Evangelical Church Sunday evening at 7:30. Chaplain Glasser has recently returned from combat duty with the First Division Marines out in the South Pacific. He is here for a short time before returning overseas and is the Senior Chaplain of the Roosevelt Naval Operating Base at Terminal Island. His record out on the Islands has been particularly outstanding. He built many churches, held services under enemy fire, in jungle swamps, in fox-holes, aboard ships of all sorts, and organized many Bible classes. The public is invited to attend the service.

Capacity Crowd Expected at Youth For Christ Meet

The second in the series of Youth for Christ meetings will be held this Saturday night at the Anaheim Union High school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. Well pleased with the large attendance of 850 young people who attended last weeks' meeting it is anticipated that the auditorium will be completely filled this week, Rev. P. G. Neumann, director, stated today.

Principal address will be given by Jack McArthur, youth speaker who has appeared on many of these programs on the west coast. Rev. and Mrs. Don Mollough from Portland, Oregon, will render a group of sweet melodies on 32 cowbells and Woody Rood of Montebello will be the song leader. Mrs. Louise Foss will play the organ while Mrs. Ruth Rood and Mrs. Helen George will accompany at the piano.

Of particular interest to the city's young people will be the appearance of Lt. Bill Ross, son of Mrs. Juanita Ross, who returned to Anaheim last week on furlough from the Army Air Force. He has just completed 144 combat missions in the south Pacific as a night fighter pilot. On one of those missions, while flying alone at 15,000 feet he found added proof of the power of God and he will briefly tell of this personal experience.

Lt. Ross was former president of the youth council at the First Presbyterian church and was an outstanding football player at Anaheim Union High school and Fullerton Junior college. Former Coach Richard Glover named him on his all-time first string team.

First Lt. William A. Stevens of Santa Ana, nephew of Mrs. B. F. Chaplin of 820 North Topeka St., was memorialized as representative of all Santa Anans killed in action last Saturday night when a special program was broadcast over station KMPC. Lt. Stevens, U. S. Marine Corps, met death on March 1 following wounds sustained in action at Iwo Jima.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stevens of 616 North Birch street, Santa Ana, formerly of Anaheim, were notified last week of the honor to be paid their son.

Sgt. Ray Booher Awarded Second Oak Leaf Cluster

Sgt. Ray G. Booher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Booher of Lincoln and Manchester Blvd. has been awarded the second oak leaf cluster to the Bronze star that he previously received, it was disclosed this week through an announcement made by the army public relations department. He is fighting with the 30th infantry division on the western front.

Last February his parents were notified that he had been wounded on January 12 while fighting in Belgium and was in a hospital recovering from a thigh wound.

His twin brother, S/Sgt. Roy Booher was killed in action last fall while fighting in Belgium.

The family came to Anaheim four years ago from Kentucky.

Facts on Navel Crop Movement

Called on L. H. Wohlwend—who became Sunkist general sales manager on T. H. Powell's retirement the first of this year—and asked how the navel crop was moving.

Of the entire tree crop of Southern California navels, (31,500 cars) 60% had been picked by April 1st. About 8,500 cars remained to be shipped under the prorate. This compares with 7,529 cars left to ship on the same date last year.

The crop is moving out very steadily now, at the rate of 7½% of the total crop each week. If it continues to move under the present plan, navels will be finished about May 15th.

* * *

Asked Wohlwend how come interstate shipments are behind last year's: 8,500 cars still to ship now as against 7,529 a year ago.

"There are three reasons," he said. "First—this year's crop matured later than last year's. Second—the East had some terrific weather this winter, which slowed the movement into Eastern markets.

"Third—the government, in order to get snow-bound traffic unsnarled and allow war materials to go through as fast as possible, placed actual embargoes on produce shipments at various times. On two occasions no car was allowed to leave a packinghouse for three days. There were also embargo periods when fruit was allowed to roll only as far East as Chicago."

* * *

At mention of the embargoes your reporter pricked up his ears, hoping to get a dramatic story of fruit cars stalled in snowdrifts and Sunkist officials frantically trying to locate them. "Must have created a terrible mess, those embargoes," he said.

Wohlwend smiled and shook his head. "No! In the first place, when traffic congestion began to develop, the Orange Prorate Committee began to reduce shipments, so that by the time conditions got really bad, movement of fruit was very light.

"Furthermore, the Exchange has 56 sales offices, manned by its own people, covering the entire United States and Canada. When an Exchange Association couldn't ship into the Eastern states it had every market in all the rest of the U.S. and Canada to choose from. And it had, as always, complete information on market, weather and traffic conditions in every area, which come in constantly by teletype to the central sales office here, and from here are relayed by teletype to all Sunkist District Exchanges throughout the citrus belt.

"So every Exchange packinghouse manager knew just where he could ship his fruit and where it would bring the best prices. And he had the help of the Sunkist Traffic Department, long experienced in meeting such emergencies, to see that his cars arrived okay! These everyday Exchange services greatly reduced our troubles."

According to word from the Navy department he was killed on Feb. 27. He had been in service since last June and had been overseas since last November.

He was serving with the Fifth Marine division and was wounded late in February.

The family was saved a great deal of anxiety as they received a letter from him, telling of the nature of his wounds, just before being notified by the Navy department. He was wounded in the left arm and side but the bullet missed the bone so that he is anticipating a quick recovery.

Anaheim Airman Distinguishes Himself in Action

15TH AAF IN ITALY—S/Sgt. Franklin E. Ausburn of Route 2, Anaheim, has just flown his 35th combat mission with a veteran 15th Army Air Force heavy bombardment group stationed in Italy.

To reach their targets, Sgt. Ausburn and his crew have had to fly missions of eight and nine hours duration, at altitudes of more than four miles, through a numbing cold where the temperature reached thirty to fifty degrees below zero. Often when they arrived at the targets, they had to repel aggressive attacks from desperate and determined enemy fighters, and had to make their bombing runs through heavy, intense and accurate flak barrages. Penetrating deep into enemy territory, Sgt. Ausburn has participated in attacks against Axis-held rail and communications centers, oil fields and refineries, airdromes and aircraft factories and other vital targets throughout the Balkans and southern Europe. There may be "milk-runs" somewhere but, from his own personal knowledge, Ausburn can aver that they aren't in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations.

Sgt. Ausburn, an armorer gunner, is a graduate of Anahejm Union High school. A former assembler for the Douglas Aircraft Co. in Santa Monica, Cal., he entered the service at Santa Ana Army Air Base, Oct. 27, 1943, and attended the AAF Armament School, Lowry Field, Colo., and the AAF Aerial Gunnery School, Harlingen, Tex. He holds the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters, and is entitled to wear the EAME campaign ribbons with one bronze battle star and the Distinguished Unit Badge. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Ausburn, live at the above address.

Lt. Calvin Twiggs Awarded Second Oak Leaf Cluster

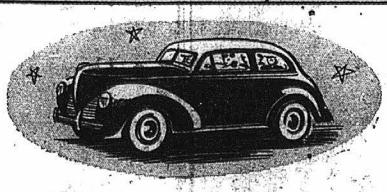

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION, England — Second Lt. Calvin N. Twiggs, son of James E. Twiggs of Anaheim, has been awarded the second Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" while serving as a B-17 Flying Fortress co-pilot in the 401st Bomb Group commanded by Lt. Colonel W. T. Seawell, Pine Bluff, Ark.

The citation accompanying the award reads: "For exceptional meritorious achievement while participating in a number of combat missions over Germany and Nazi-held territory. The courage, coolness and skill shown by Lt. Twiggs, on all these occasions reflect the highest credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

A daughter was born Easter weekend at the Fullerton General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Egger of North Claudina St., Anaheim.

Crew Members Tell Of Last Mission Of Lt. Albert Criss

The love and respect with which crew members held Lt. Albert Criss, who was killed in action over Dortmund, Germany on January 28, has been revealed to his wife, Mrs. Helen Criss of Huntington Park and his father, Charles A. Criss of 512 East Center street, through a number of letters that they have received from the crew.

It was on his twentieth mission over enemy territory that he was killed and death occurred just 15 seconds before the bombs were dropped. He was hit by a piece of flak that came through the window at the side where he was stationed. The flak passed through his neck and bounced off the armor plate on the side where one of his men, Lt. Calvin Niemi was sitting. Lt. Niemi immediately administered first aid and did everything possible to save his life, even to administering sulpha drugs, but, according to the doctors at the base, he died instantly without suffering any pain.

Lt. Criss was command pilot on the fatal trip and as such was ranking officer of the force which was leading several squadrons of the 453rd air group. Had he survived the mission he would have risen to the rank of captain.

The touching letters from the crew members told how he had been with them for over ten months; how he was a conscientious worker and how he was highly regarded by his superior officers and loved by his men.

He was buried in an American army cemetery in lovely, historical Cambridge, England, but because the heaviest snowstorm of the winter was falling on the day he was buried the members of his squadron were unable to attend.

Lt. Criss had been in the air service 28 months and had been overseas for seven months. After only a few more missions he would have been eligible to return to this country. He attended Anaheim schools and has left many friends.

Lt. Richard Efker Back in U. S. After 40 Air Missions

Lt. Richard Efker, U.S. Army Air Force navigator, formerly of Anaheim, is at present at the Santa Monica Redistribution center awaiting reassignment following a long tour of duty in the Pacific theater of operations. He flew on 40 missions over Truk, Chici Jima, Wake, Saipan, Iwo Jima and other hot spots. He has had many close calls and the crew of his plane is credited with downing three enemy planes.

His mother, Mrs. Clara Efker lived in Anaheim until recently but is now residing in Santa Ana with his wife, Charlotte. Lt. Efker attended Anaheim schools and graduated from Anaheim Union High school.

Lt. E. H. Bryant Sent to Texas For New Course

Lt. E. H. Bryant, U.S. Army Air Force, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Bryant reside at 902 North Topeka St., left last week for Waco, Texas where he will take a six week's instructor's course. At the conclusion of it he will return to Minter Field, Bakersfield where he has been stationed since last January when he returned from overseas duty.

His wife and 14 month-old son will visit with his parents while he is in Texas. Upon his return they will again go to Bakersfield where they have established their home.

Cpl. Brings Word Of LaVerne Singer, Prisoner in Japan

One Anaheim mother was made very happy this past week with a happiness that only a mother could know who had had no word from her soldier son in almost a year. Floyd "LaVerne" Singer son of Mrs. James Singer of North Lemon street has been a prisoner of the Jans since the fall of Bataan and it has been seldom that he has been able to send word to his aging mother.

Early last week Mrs. Singer arrived in Los Angeles from a five month visit in Streeter, Illinois with another son and she stopped over in Los Angeles before returning to Anaheim for a few days visit with an old friend. While there she enjoyed a surprise visit from Col. Fred Stone her son's "Buddy" who had just arrived in the southland following his release from a prison camp in Manila. He told her then how he and LaVerne had promised one another that the first one to get back to the United States would look up the other one's family. Because of that promise Cpl. Stone had made a quick short visit down here from San Francisco and as soon as he had told Mrs. Singer about her son he returned to the northern city.

Cpl. Stone and LaVerne were friends at the 4th Air Base in the Philippines and they succeeded in escaping together from Corregidor so that at the time of the infamous March of Death they were still reported as "missing in action." It was later that they were captured and interned in the Manila prison camp.

They bunked together in the camp until 1943 when LaVerne was transferred to a different camp in the Philippines. At the time Cpl. Stone last saw him in 1943 he was in good health and weighed 160 pounds, more than he had ever before weighed. The two men worked hard, bought food and sold it to other internees. On May 6 of last year Singer was transferred with another group of prisoners to the Fukukun prison camp on Honshu Island, Japan. Mrs. Singer received a card telling of his transfer but has had no further word of him since that time.

Clarence W. Lemke Takes Naval Course In Engineering

Lemke, fireman second class, USNR, of Route 3, Box 251, Anaheim, Eleventh Naval district officials revealed this week. Lemke is enrolled in the basic engineering school for eight weeks intensive training, after which he will be assigned to new duty.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemke.

FIRST USE OF FIRE BOMBS

The initial use of incendiaries by aircraft occurred during the German Zeppelin raid on London in 1915, when one airship dropped 90 fire bombs.

Sgt. Bates Shuping Awarded Bronze Star Medal

AT A 12TH AAF P-47 BASE IN ITALY—For meritorious performance of duty in direct support of combat operations, Staff Sgt. Bates S. Shuping, a flight chief in a 12th Air Force P-47 Thunderbolt group, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal. His wife, Dorothy, lives at 1002 Cross St., Madera, Calif. He is the son of Mrs. Beulah L. Shuping, 445 N. Olive St., Anaheim, California.

Sgt. Shuping was graduated from John Dewey Vocational High School, Long Beach, and was employed by the O.C.S. Mfg. Co., before entering the army, February, 1942. He attended the Boeing School of Aereonautics in Oakland.

Overseas since October, 1942, Sergeant Shuping has seven bronze battle stars on his theater ribbon for the campaigns of Egypt-Lybia, Tunisia, Sicily, Italy, France, Germany and Northern Italy. He also wears the Good Conduct Medal and the Distinguished Unit Badge

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson enjoyed a visit from their son John last week, the first they have had with him in over a year for he has been stationed at Martha's Vineyard off the Massachussetts coast with a night fighter's squadron. He has been enjoying a leave in San Diego with his wife and also visited in Long Beach with his grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Jackson who formerly lived in Anaheim.
