COLONY QUIPS

—o—

Here's an idea. Frank J. Fogarty, who operates a small grocery at Westminster comes up with a plan that might be copied in southern California. The idea comes from New York where many meat markets refuse to open their doors until they can buy and sell meat at the proper price, thus doing away with black markets. If such a plan were started here it might react on some of our packers, who are accused of selling their supplies to Black Market operators rather than legitimate marketeers.

Did you ever have an idea and start to make some plans out of it and after developing the whole thing start looking around for a mental yardstick to measure the brain storm by? Well we ran into one the other night. Rev. John Saville, rector of St. Michaels Episcopal church, was talking on the 73rd birthday of his church. He asked all the assembled congregation to relay any ideas they happened to get for the betterment of the church to him. He then said: "Test any idea you may have by this yardstick, 1. Is it for the benefit of others; 2. Is is for the glory of God?" There is your yardstick. You can twist the philosophy back of it and use the same thought in almost any spot. Try it some time.

Americana. This is "I Am an American" week and one sometimes wonders in these hectic days of strikes, walkouts, ceilings, inflation and confusion, whether the veterans of World War II all believe it is such a hot idea. Decisions of great moment are being made daily by public officials in Washington and elsewhere in the world and one wonders just for what are we striving. Because voters are disinterested in going to the polls, does it mean they are disgusted or that they have lost faith? And yet that is the only way we can register our approval or disapproval of what our chosen representatives are doing. A comic on the air summed it up in a short sentence: "Truman plays the piano while Congress fiddles and Jimmy Byrnes!"

—o—

Now it is proposed—at least in the comic strips—to transmit odors over the radio. Aren't some of the programs bad enough the way they are?

—o—

Nero might not have fiddled so gayly while Rome burned if he had to pay two or three of Petrillo's boys to stand by.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE PICNIC IN LA PALMA PARK SATURDAY

La Palma park Saturday afternoon will be the scene of a Democratic committee picnic in which notable guest speakers from throughout the state, including Attorney General Robert Kenney, Will Rogers, Jr., and Ellis Patterson will be presented to the assemblage.

Nineteen tables have been reserved for the affair being sponsored by the Orange County Democratic Central Committee.

Farm Heads Meet On 'Frigerator Car Spoilage Peril

Meeting to combat the present acute shortage of refrigerator cars, threatening a major portion of southern California's perishable food crops with spoilage, members of the southland's agricultural committee, will gather in Los Angeles May 28, in an attempt to extricate growers from a perilous situation, it was announced this week.

Joy. G. Jameson, of Corona, chairman of the State Chamber of Commerce Southern Agricultural committee, said the present critical shortage of railroad refrigeration cars would be the main business on the committee's agenda.

The meeting follows on the heels of figures recently released stating that 11,000 cars alone would be required to haul the cantaloupe crop which is due to start harvesting in less than three weeks.

CAN IT HAPPEN HERE?

KKK Cross Burns Here; Police Investigate

Police today were investigating the burning of a fiery cross on the lawn of the home of Albert O. Brunet at 727 S. Philadelphia street, last night during wh..h a huge "K" was scrawled in red paint on the sidewalk.

No witnesses were available today who may have seen the incident but neighbors in the area told police and Gazette reporters the heavy tramp of "many men" were heard running from the scene after the cross was discovered.

Discovery of the flaming cross, about four to five feet high and reconstructed of heavy lumber wrapped in burlap, was made by Mr. Brunet's wife as the couple were seated in a breakfast nook in the home at 8:30 o'clock last night.

Neighbors told the Brunet's they heard the heavy tramp of what seemed like a number of men or youths running east on South street to orange groves on Olive street, where police believe they may have fled in an auto.

Desk Sergeant E. G. Sherman said every effort was being made to apprehend those responsible for the affair and an investigation by Chief Mark Stephenson was under wa ytoday.

Anaheimers were shocked to learn of the incident which puts the city in a poor light, especially in view of the fact last Sunday marked commencement of the "I Am An American" week.

Let us hope last night's affair was the work of vandals if anything, and not the work of those smitten with hate and prejudice.

Annexation Gives Population Boost

Charles Griffith, city clerk, yesterday reported a two-day special census of East Anaheim was completed by Charles W. Clark, federal census director, adding 239 persons to the city's new population, boosting it to a total of 12,897.

Addition of the new population increase was co-incident with a letter from the secretary of the state certifying the recent election in which East Anaheim was annexed to the city. Official annexation date was May 13.

Population count in the annexed area added a total 239 persons, boosting Anaheim's population count to its new high of 12,897.

Orange County Ranks Fourth As 10 Counties Amass Produce Record

Topping all previous records for the eighth successive year, the total value of farm products in 10 southern California counties passed the three-quarter billion dollar mark for the first time with Orange county ranking fourth, it was learned this week.

News of the establishment of the new mark came with the release of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Department's annual report, showing Orange county ranking fourth among the 10 counties with a total of $92,436,162 in produce.

Ranking southland crop was oranges with an F.O.B. value of $177,514,500, the report stated, with dairying placing second with a milkfat value of $86,350,500.

Livestock and crops in the 10 counties were valued at $803,969,440 last year, an increase of 10 per cent over the previous year.

Crops tonnage which amounted to 7,782,200 in 1944, jumped to 8,006,800 last year. Each of the 10 counties had a number of crops which brought in more than a million dollars each in that county alone.

While gross returns are the highest on record, the report stated, net returns to growers were not as large in proportion. This was attributed to high wages, maintenance expenses and material costs, all of which set new records.

Totals for the counties are: Los Angeles, $206,614,735; Kern, $111,019,917; San Bernardino, $93,242,218; Orange, $92,436,162; Riverside, $64,855,565; Imperial, $62,138,075; Ventura, $55,868,734; San Diego, $51,805,921; Santa Barbara, $46,236,033; San Luis Obispo, $24,752,080.

Tax Increase Faces Business Men Here

An increase in business license fees faced Anaheim business and professional men beginning July 1 as the city council, in adjourned session, last Tuesday night, held first reading of a new city ordinance boosting city business license costs.

To become effective during the present fiscal year period, the ordinance must be passed at the next meeting of the council. A 30-day period must elapse before the ordinance goes into effect.

Chief difference between the proposed old city ordinance is, instead of a flat rate for a business license, a business will be subject to a tax on gross receipts over certain figures.

The present $18 tax remains on all business but if the gross receipts total more than $25,000, the tax rate jumps to $25. Gross receipts of $50,000 or more, boost the tax to $35. Over $100,000, $40; over $150,0000, $45; and $200,000 or more, $50.

The base $18 tax must be paid by July 1, 1946 but business men do not have to pay the increased tax on gross receipts until July 29, 1947.

Under the new ordinance business men must submit a yearly report with a complete record of gross receipts. If not satisfied that a submitted report is correct the city council has the authority to appoint an auditor to inspect the business man's books.

Rabies Warning Is Issued Here

A warning to Anaheimers of rabies was again issued by Robert Spencer, local poundmaster and keeper of the north Olive street shelter, due to the exposure of several county dogs by a rabid dog he killed May 8 on East street in Santa Ana.

Spencer had a call May 1 on a sick dog, answering the description of the dead dog, near Caltone on North Lemon street. "If this is the same dog, he had eight days of freedom in Anaheim to do his dirty work," Spencer said.

Supervisors at the Health Department county laboratory at Santa Ana, Doctors Edward L. Russell and John H. Bower, said examination of the dog's head confirmed the suspected condition.

Several dogs are now in quarantine for three months at the Anaheim pond on North Lemon street and three other dogs have been disposed of, that were thought to be infected, by permission of their owners.

Orange County Property Tax Collections Are Up 16 Per Cent

Showing a 16 per cent increase over the 1944-45 fiscal year, the Orange county property tax bill, including school and special districts stood at $6,601,672 for the current fiscal year, the California Taxpayers' Association reported this week. Previous total was $5,707,449.

The association in making public its report, said, levies by the city governments in the county were not included in its study.

Property taxes levied for the current fiscal period totaled $2,002,474 as compared to the previous year's $1,798,097, the association said.

School district levies showed a half-million dollar boost, amounting to $3,707,503 as compared to $3,128,595 and special district levies amounted to $891,895 for the current fiscal period as compared to $780,757 last year.

"Preliminary review of proposals in many communities indicates that higher budgets, with resultant higher tax levies, are in prospect unless citizen demand brings about a well defined economy approach to local governing boards," the association stated.

"Tax bills for the coming year will skyrocket," the tax group warned, pointing out local government budgets for 1946-47 on which tax bills reach property owners in November will be based, are already in process in many communities.

Prominent State Leaders Endorse Thomas H. Kuchel

Grace S. Stoermer, well-known civic leader, president of the Business and Professional Women's club of Los Angeles, past president of the Women's Division of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and past grand president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, is among the many leaders in various organizations who are rallying behind the candidacy of Thomas H. Kucheell for State Controller, an office he is holding at this time, being appointed by Governor Earl Warren, following the death of the late Harry B. Riley.

In speaking of Controller Kuchel's record, Miss Stoermer said: "His experience of nine years in the state legislature has given him an insight necessary to handling the duties of this important post. He is a veteran of World War II."

Burke Riley, son of former State Controller Harry B. Riley and an assistant to his father at the time the latter died last February, this week threw his support in the June primaries to State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel.

Riley revealed that he had been urged to enter the June primaries and make the race for the office his father so successfully administered, but said he turned down the suggestion because he believed it would be 'trading" on his father's name.

"But," commented the younger Riley, "I guess some people do not have the same moral scruples. A Harry E. Riley from Southgate and of whom I never heard is

Hoskins Gets Top Postal Spot

Louis H. Hoskins of Anaheim was elevated to president of the state postmasters group at their convention held at Hoeberg's resort in Lake county last week, it was learned here today.

The three-day convention meet was attended by 16 delegates from Orange county and was represented by groups from throughout the state. An invitation from the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce for the next state convention to be held at Long Beach was accepted and June 10 through 12 were designated as the meeting dates of the convention.

Hoskins, who served four years in various grades of the vice-presidency of the state group was elected to the state position at the closing sessions of the convention.

The convention bid was offered through Mr. and Mrs. David Olmstead of Corona Del Mar, manager of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, who made the trip to offer the invitation for the next state meeting.

Postmaster Michael D. Fanning of Los Angeles brought an invitation from that city's chamber of commerce but convention delegates accepted the Long Beach offer, leaving Los Angeles free to bid for the national convention for next year.

The group's national convention will be held this year in October at Miami, Fla.

Postmaster Herb Kenny of Balboa, president of the coast association, pledged the cooperation of his organization in entertaining

Court Settles Weisel Estate

The will of Peter J. Weisel of La Habra was admitted to probate, last week, after Superior Court Judge Raymond H. Thompson of Santa Ana ordered a surety bond of $250,000 posted.

Peter John Weisel, Jr., of La Habra, son of the late La Habra orange and avacado grove owner, was named as executor for the estate.

No provision was made in the will for the widow, Mrs. Louise Weisel of La Habra, since she will receive one-half of all community property.

All of the deceased's separate and bulk community property is to be divided equally among two sons, Jeter, Jr. and Robert Owen Weisel of Beverly Hills, and two daughters, Mary Elizobeth Newton and Louise Weisel Heartt of La Habra.

Individual bequests of $3000 were made to five brothers and sisters or their heirs.

Two sisters, Adela Larsen and Josephine Krastel are deceased. A surviving brother, Fred Weisel and two sisters, Elasa Dresser and Flora Hittscher were listed as heirs.

A nephew, Victor and three nieces, Anita Weisel, Helen and Grace Houck, receive $1500 each. Frank Van Volin will be given a $5000 bequest.

Voter Registration Hits New High in State; 76,934 Here

Termed the largest primary voter registration in the history of the state, figures released this week revealed Democrats leading voter registration and a total of 76,934 registered voters in Orange county.

Announcement of the huge registration was made by Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state, who reported current voter registration for the primary election June 4 is 362,312 greater than the previous high registered during the 1942 primary.

Total registration at this time, Jordan said was 4,113,608.

In Orange county, Democratic voter registration totaled 36,423 while Republicans totaled 37,367. Miscellaneous registration totaled 217 and 268 registered under the prohibition party. A total of 2,659 voters declined to state party affiliation, Jordan said.

Jordan said throughout the state Democrats have majorities in 53 counties with Republicans ranking in the remaining 5. Los Angeles county leads the state in voter registration with San Francisco county placing second.

Funeral Today For A.B. Masterson, Sr

Funeral services for A. B. Masterson, Sr., are being conducted today (Thursday) at o'clock from the chapel of Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary with the Rev. R. L. Morrison of the Church of Christ of Anaheim, officiating. Burial will be in Anaheim cemetery.

Born in Molton, Alabama, Mr. Masterson was 63 years old at the time of his passing. He had lived in California for eighteen years, the entire time being spent in Anaheim, and died at the family home at 1007 East Broadway street, Anaheim, on Sunday, May 19.

Surviving are his widow, Ophelia Masterson of the home; two sons, A. B. Masterson, Jr., of Bellflower, and Carlos Masterson of Las Vegas, Nev.; one daughter, Mrs. Wyell Byers of Canyon, Texas; four sisters, Mrs. Minnie Collier of Bell, Calif., Mrs. Vivian Hawas, Mrs. Minnie Duncan and Mrs. Johnny Nidfer, all of Oklahoma; two brothers, Travis Masterson and Vinnette Masterson, both of Oklahoma, and seven grandchildren.

QUOTES of the week

"I don't intend to tell my age now after keeping it secret for 43 years!"—Congresswoman Clare Luce, Conn.

AUHS War Dead Tribute to Be Held Wednesday

An impressive Memorial Day service honoring the 27 Anaheim Union High school students who made the supreme sacrifice for their country, during World War II, will be presented on the school's front campus around the flag pole next Wednesday morning. Gold star parents of these students have been invited to attend as special guests.

A firing squad from Major Murphy's cadet corps school will fire the traditional three volleys and a buglar from the band will sound taps. Completing the ritual, twenty-seven members of the Colonial Co-Eds, campus service organization, will place wreaths around the flag pole as the honor role is read.

Introducing the program will be the high school band under the direction of William Cook. Bill Steichen, student body president, is chairman in charge of the arrangements.

Thatcher Child Killed By Train

Thomas Owen Thatcher, 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thatcher of route 3, box 336, near Placentia, was killed last Saturday, May 18, by a Santa Fe train while out playing with one of his brothers. According to available information, the two children were playing by the railroad tracks near an open culvert.

Telling his brother he would go to the other side of the track and call to him through the culvert, Thomas crossed the tracks. Shortly afterward a train passed and, the brother waiting for Thomas' return, finally went to see why he didn't call to him as he planned. The little body was found near the track with the face badly mangled, his sweater torn off and he was crumpled into a heap beside the tracks.

Thomas was a student at the Bradford avenue school in Placentia. He was born in Haynes, California.

Surviving other than his parents are five brothers, George in the U. S. Navy, Richard Raymond, Charles and Keith, all of the home; three sisters, Jacqueline of Simi, Calif., Margaret and Joan of the home, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thatcher, Sr., of Arizona.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday from the chapel of Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary at 2:30 p. m. with the Rev. David Morken, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church in Fullerton, officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn cemetery at Compton.

Fred Marshes Injured Sunday In Auto Crash

The serious injury of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, 300 North Janss street, Anaheim, resulting from a traffic accident last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, 15 miles northwest of San Diego, was learned with regret by their many friends here.

The couple were on their way home after visiting with Mrs. Marsh's son, Lester Schwarger and his wife for the week-end when the incident occurred. A car traveling at a high rate of speed toward San Diego had a blow out, careened wildly into the opposite lane, crashing head-on with the Marsh vehicle. Occupants of both cars were taken to the Mercy hospital in San Diego for treatment.

Marsh, associated with the Pacific Lighting Corporation of Anaheim, sustained a cracked rib, concussion of the brain and a broken collar bone. Mrs. Marsh's pelvic bone was broken in three places.

Just prior to press time today word was received here that Mr. Marsh and his wife were both in improved condition and coming along nicely.

Anaheim friends are wishing both a speedy recovery.

Sunday Worship To Be Attended By Legionnaires

Legionnaires of Anaheim Post 72, American Legion will assemble Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church for a memorial worship in reverence to the service dead of this nation's two greatest wars.

Announcement of the pre- Memorial Day ceremony was made at the third Monday-in-the-month meeting of the post in the city hall basement.

Cmdr. E. C. Westenkuehler, said the Rev. Howard S. Congdon, pastor of the church and World War II veteran, extended the invitation to the post. Reverend Congdon formerly was a lieutenant commander in the Navy's famed "CB's" construction corps.

Members of the post, wearing their legion hats, will assemble outside the church at 10:45 and march in a body into the church at the commencement o fthe services.

Milton H. Kohne, adjutant-finance officer of the post announced the Anaheim legion unit now has a total of 394 members, including more than 100 veterans of the second World War. At the post's next meeting, June 3, in the Elk's hall, all new members will be initiated into the Legion at a public ceremony to which friends, relatives and wives of the members are invited.

A uniformed Legion team from Riverside, composed of young veterans of the recent holocaust, will conduct the membership ceremonies, Commander Westenkuehler said.

It was also announced at the post's meeting that a nomination of new officers for the ensuing year will take place on June 20.

Monday night's meeting featured short talks by veterans service center officials who attended the post's meeting from Santa Ana.

J. E. Mellon of the United States Veterans' Administration gave a brief talk on medical facilities available to World War II veterans for service and non-service connected disabilities, stressing that any veteran who felt he was entitled to a pension for physical disability, should file a claim with the Veterans' Administration immediately.

Mellon pointed out that since Pearl Harbor, approximately 325,000 veterans have been admitted to veterans' hospitals and their agencies for the treatment of disorders. The average age for servicemen admitted was about 25 years, he said.

He said any veteran desiring medical treatment has only to file a claim with the administration and during such time as the claim is being examined by administration officials, he will be eligible for medical treatment

Kuchel Warns Against Undue Optimism Over State Cash Excess

Cash excess of more than 160 million dollars in the General Fund, termed the largest in the state's history with but one exception, were revealed this week as State Controller Thomas T. Kuchel announced increasing revenues were continuing to swell the state treasury.

Controller Kuchel reported that as of April 30 there was a cash excess of $166,697,292 in the General Fund and termed it the largest excess in the history of the state with the exception of the $173,628,772 excess attained on August 30 last year.

This amount was immediately reduced after that date however, Kuchel pointed out, when $114,151,490 was transferred from the General Fund to special reserves and other funds in accordance with statutes enacted by the 1945 legislature.

These transfers included $90,000,000 to the Post War Unemployment and Construction Fund; $11,651,490 to a sinking fund to provide for interest and redemption of General Fund obligations bonds; $500,000 to the Postwar Employment Reserve; and $12,000,000 to the State Highway Fund for postwar projects.

Kuchel said the continued increase in General Fund revenues within the eight months following the transfer of the $114,151,490 from the fund following its all-time high, came within $6,931,480 of restoring the amount transferred.

As an indication of the rate at which revenues are continuing to flow into the state treasury, Kuchel said that since his appointment to the office of State Controller by Gov. Earl Warren on February 11, 1946, following the death of former controller, Harry B. Riley, the General Fund cash excess has increased $57,888,325 to its present level, an average increase of $19,296,108 per month.

Warning against undue optimism in the light of the revealed figures, Kuchel said, "it should be continually borne in mind that the General Fund cash excess, at any time, represents the condition at that moment, and is no indication that the trend may not assume an opposite direction overnight."

He further added, "unsettled economic conditions in this nation and throughout the world should lead us to be conservative in planning for the future; and the state's present excellent condition should be regarded with satisfaction only as a margin of safety that has been built up against the time when adverse conditions create heavier drains on the state treasury."

General Fund revenues deposited in the state treasury during the first 10 months of the present fiscal year, totaling $297,951,434, represented a 25.59 per

BUY ONE, WON'T YOU!

Friday and Saturday a humble nation will honor its disabled veterans and the boys who have been left behind on foreign shores, sleeping in eternal rest.

For a quarter of a century Amercans have been purchasing the red, imitation poppy, immortalized in the poem "Flanders Field," symbolizing the shedding of this nation's youth's blood on foreign shores.

Today those foreign shores are not in Europe alone. They extend now to many unnamed islands in the Pacific wastes; the atolls of Okinawa; the Aleutians; Tarawa; and desert sands of Africa.

And tomorrow and the next day the memory of those boys who died in bleak, utter loneliness will not be entirely forgotten if we'll purchase a "paper" poppy.

For the funds derived from their sale goes to the aid of our disabled war veterans and to the widows and orphans of those gallant dead.

Bring new hope into the hearts of our bed-ridden fighting men and help gladden the spirit of thousands of widows and orphans —buy a poppy!

KEEP THEM SAILING!

Yesterday was National Maritime Day. Authorized by Congress and proclaimed by President Truman, it marked this nation's halfway milestone in its conversion from global war to global trade.

Prior to the war, Maritime Day was the anniversary of the sailing of the first trans-Atlantic steamship from the United States in 1819 and was dedicated to the creation of a Merchant Marine adequate for our foreign and domestic commerce, and capable of supporting our armed forces in war.

After 1940 the day was dedicated to the great drive for ships, and more ships. As we got the ships, the day was dedicated to manning and operating them to deliver the supplies needed to win the war.

Both jobs were done, with your help, and the help of the brave, youthful crews that manned them.

Now today our country's maritime commission faces the tremendous task of putting into effect the late President Roosevelt's directive calling for the preparation of a "bold and daring plan" to preserve our postwar Merchant Marine.

Today our task is to weave a network of domestic lines spanning the world bringing the lavish gifts that a benevolent God has bestowed upon us, to other nations not so fortunate.

Today we have some 6000 vessels, most of them built since those fateful days in 1939 when government's foundations felt the first stirrings of an awakening war god. Today that monster of human destruction has been chained, for how long remains only for time to tell.

Our government today seeks to keep our shipbuilding skills alive. To meet deficiencies now existent the Maritime Commission will provide parity payments to make up the difference in construction costs to offset the competitive cost of low-wage foreign competition.

Already under this program 17 vessels are nearing completion; plans for a dozen more have been completed and construction on some of them is slated immediately.

IN THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

75 Years Ago

We have heretofore spoken of the importance of county division, and urged that ways and means be taken to effect the desired end—desirable on account of convenience and economy. The county affairs as they have been managed for years, display nothing but an expensive monopoly, which is unjust to every man south of the San Gabriel. By our enormous taxes we foot the extravagant bills of officers that we have no voice in putting forward for election, as well as fat perquisites to a host of their extravagant relatives. County property is retained exclusively in the city of Los Angeles (an item referred to is the county fire hose), and now our neighbors, fearing we are to obtain a division, have through their board of supervisors, issued $25,000 in county bonds for the building of a court house. More than one-half of this sum must now be footed by the people of the San Gabriel; while if the county had been divided at the last session of the legislature, we would have been saved that expense, and with less than half the amount could have built a suitable court house at the new county seat wherever it would have been located.

The vineyardists of Anaheim contemplate organizing a private wine company in order to make large and direct transactions. The New York Wine and Fruit reporter contains the following about our wines: "After all has been said it must be clear to the unprejudiced that the future of the California wines will be a great one, and that the young giant will before long, with few exceptions, not only compete with, but at a later day will outvie the best foreign wines. For the especial use of the invalid the California wine is now beginning to displace the European of the same grade, as physicians place more confidence in the purity and genuineness of the native product than in foreign wines, which are generally much more expensive and rarely unadulterated.

At the meeting of the city trustees Saturday night it was resolved to revoke the right of way of the Anaheim Railroad Company through the city. The ground alleged for the action was that the city did not own the streets, but that they belonged to the water company. On motion the salary of the city clerk was reduced from $12 per month to $8 per month.

There will be eleven graduates from the city schools at the close of the term on the 18th. Schools will be out for the summer vacation on the 12th, but the ninth grade will continue in school until the 18th. The graduates are Theresa Fay, Ella and Alice Warner, Ava Evans, Julia Abbey, Minnie Champlin, Stephen Rimpau, Waldo Brown, Will Hack and Archer Fay. The program for commencement exercises has not as yet been completed, but the custom of holding exercises in the opera house will probably be adhered to. All of the graduates will probably attend the Santa Ana high school.

Sam Federman has achieved distinction in Los Angeles—he has succeeded in having the name of Sand street changed to California street, and now they are thinking of running him for mayor. It takes an Anaheim man to rattle up the dry bones of the ancient Angelic town.

Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock a heavy Scotch mist prevailed, and people with straw hats thought of going home for their unbrellas. This is the most remarkable season climatically in the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Mrs. Rogers entertained the ladies at progressive euchre at her residence in East Anaheim Friday afternoon. Mrs. Melrose was awarded the first prize, Mrs. McKinley the second and Mrs. Perdomo the consolation. Light refreshments were served and after an afternoon of pleasurable association the party dispersed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Christ, the afternoon of the 12th.

Seale's delivery horse, having been kept on a diet of too much oats, took it into his head to spin around the block on Tuesday afternoon, and tore out the back yard, dragging the delivery wagon after him and leaving a cloud of dust in his wake. He spun around in front of Dr. Lee's and turned towards the school house and around to Center street and thence into Los Angeles, where he was caught by Nick Hugo who ran across the street and stayed the mad animal in its flight. No damages.

One of the most enjoyable gatherings of the season was the progressive euchre party given by Misses Jessie and Winifred Melrose at their home on Friday evening. Miss Olga Zens and Gilbert Landell were awarded the first prize and Miss Stella Lewis and Gus Langenberger the boobies. Refreshments were served after the game.

Adequate Labor Available Here For Food Processors, Says USES

Southern California food processors need fear no serious labor shortage despite a record year harvest, it was learned here this week when Raymond Krah, state director of the United States Employment Service, reported an adequate labor supply will be available to process all crops.

Packing and shipping of navel oranges have been completed, Krah said, and reported work was progressing satisfactorily in Orange county on the processing of 14,000 acres of sugar beets grown in the Imperial and Kern county areas.

Companies dealing in seasonal foodstuffs have been contacted as to the number and type of workers needed, Krah said, and barring unforseen difficulties adequate labor will be available.

This year's 14,000 acres of sugar beets represented a 5,000 acre increase over the amount raised last year, he said.

The increased acreage has made it necessary to start sugar refinery operations three months earlier than usual with other refineries opening at a later date depending upon the maturity of the crops.

Krah said adequate numbers of workers are currently seeking employment for the harvest of Valencia oranges of which 235,000 acres are now ready for harvesting.

Next biggest demand for help he pointed out would be in the apricot industry where a crop reported to be 40 per cent greater than last year's, will soon be ready. Canneries are expected to open about June 20 when the apricots will be ready for processing, he said.

Aaron Offerle Laid to Rest

Funeral services were conducted last Monday afternooon for Aaron A. Offerle, 72 of Placentia, who died early Friday morning at St. Joseph hospital after an extended illness, from the Hilgenfeld chapel at 2 o'clock with the Rev. A. L. Horn, pastor of the Salem Evangelical church, officiating, assisted by Rev. E. Burgi, former pastor.

A native of Illinois and a resident of California for 14 years, he had made his home in Fontana for 10 years and had been staying with his niece, Mrs. E. H. Brunemier of Placentia, for the last four years.

Surviving is one brother, Fred Offerle of Geneseo, Illinois; many nieces and nephews, three of whom live in California, Mrs. Alice Steckwell of Anaheim, Mrs. Lora Butzbach of Placentia and Fred E. H. Brunemeier.

Burial was in Anaheim cemetery.

George Odgers Is Buried Here Today

George Odgers, 69 years old, passed away at the House of Bethesda on Manchester avenue, north, this week. He had been a resident of Los Angeles until establishing his residence at the House of Bethesda about a month and a half ago.

Only known survivor is a brother in Detroit, Mich., who is enroute here to take charge of the body. Funeral services are awaiting his arrival.

Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary had charge of the body and later released it to the W. A. Brown mortuary in Los Angeles.

Jobber Speaks His Mind

SYRACUSE—Nothing like a trip like this to teach a feller the homely facts of life in the produce business.

Went over to Utica yesterday with Tom Smith, Exchange Sales Manager for this district. Beautiful drive down the Mohawk Valley, along the old Erie Canal.

Visited a large, finely equipped jobbing house. Then called on another successful jobber—typical produce man, hard-handed, hard-headed, very blunt-spoken. It was he who added to your reporter's education.

This jobber happened to drop the remark that he always preferred to handle Sunkist to any other California citrus fruit.

"Why?" your reporter asked.

"Saves time," he answered.

"How do you mean—saves time?"

"If it's Sunkist, I don't need to waste any time talking."

Your reporter must have looked sort of puzzled, because the jobber began all over again.

"Look," he said. "I've got twenty or more different items to sell." He indicated with a wave of his hand the array of crates, baskets and boxes looming in the dim recesses of the warehouse behind him.

"Citrus fruit is the biggest. But I've got lettuce, celery, spinach, broccoli, peas, carrots, cabbage, cauliflower, potatoes — everything. And every day I've got just so many hours to sell all these things. Right?"

Your reporter nodded.

"Now suppose I've bought a car of California oranges, and a half car, maybe, of lemons, but not from the Exchange. Let's say they're just as good as from the Exchange."

"Okay."

"Okay. A customer calls me on the phone and wants six boxes of oranges and a box of lemons. I say, 'Sure, Joe, I've got some good ones for you.'

"'Sunkist?' he says.

"If it was Sunkist, all I'd have to say is 'Yes.' Just one word! But instead I say, 'Well, no, Joe.' And then I start in. I have to explain that it's not Exchange fruit but it's just as good . . . 'Oh, yes, Joe. Top grade. Fancy stuff—sweet—juicy. Sure, Joe. Beautiful fruit!' And so on, and so on . . .

"Oh, I sell it all right, but generally for less money, and I've wasted lots of valuable time. I've taken ten times as long as I should. And I haven't started yet on the lettuce, celery, cauliflower or any of those things.

"It's that way with every phone call. And it's that way with the truckers from up in the country—every morning they come in and look over my stuff. If my California oranges aren't from the Exchange, they call me over and say, 'What's this off-brand you got?' Or they just walk out and buy from somebody else.

"You see? When someone asks you, 'Sunkist?', it's money in your pocket if you can answer with one word—just one word . . . 'Yes!'"

That name Sunkist, which the Exchange growers, through their own cooperative organization, have built up over the years, has the same standing with the trade as it has with the public. Seems foolish, if your fruit is up to Sunkist standards, not to give it the advantage that name carries. In the years ahead it will mean money in your pocket if you do.

Next report from Atlanta in this paper two weeks from today.

73rd ANNIVERSARY OF ST. MICHAEL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH OBSERVED MONDAY

In recognition of the 73rd milestone in the history of St. Michael's Episcopal church of Anaheim, members gathered for an impressive birthday celebration in the spacious Ebell clubhouse last Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock honoring all the Sunday school teachers. Mason Henry was in charge of the program arrangements and master of ceremonies for the occasion.

During the evening, following a delicious pot luck dinner, Ernest Zitzmann, whose resignation as church secretary where he served for the last 27 years was received with regret.

He was presented by parish members with a beautiful silver dish inscribed with his name, the date, and the inscription, "Twenty-seven years of faithful service." The presentation was made by Frank Garrett, senior warden.

Highlight of the dinner, which was served at tables decorated with artistic arrangements of spring flowers, was a huge white-frosted birthday cake furnished by the St. Agnes Guild members.

Rev. John Saville, pastor of St. Michael's Episcopal church, presented the birthday message to the group of more than a 100 persons.

A large cast of entertainers were featured on the varied musical and dramatic program. Norma Jean Tews gave two clever readings. Tommy and Lee Wright presented two accordion duets. Several beautiful vocal interpretations by the popular Mozart Girls Choir of Anaheim Union High school, under the direction of Miss Ruth Swanson, were enjoyed. Mrs. Joe Thompson and Miss Ruth Phelps, Anaheim High school instructors, dramatized a one-act play. Two tap dance numbers were given by Lois Smith who has studied dance in New York City and Terry Kilduff and Jane Mason played two piano selections.

It was revealed that memorial stained glass windows will be given to the church by the T. K. M. Smith family. Sketches of the design were displayed to the group. Stained glass windows will also be presented to the church by T. W. Jackson and his son, Earl and by Millard Parks.

Delightful prelude for the evening was community singing, led by Mrs. Leonard Daigle, conductress, and Mrs. Ada Welch, accompanist.

Decorations for the affair were by the Service League, while Terry Kilduff and Michael Mann were in charge of the stage arrangements.

Special guests introduced during the evening were Rev. Jack Hatter of Santa Ana and Chaplain Chandler Crawford of the Naval Air Station (LTA), Santa Ana.

Sunday school teachers who were the honored guests, included Mrs. Warwick, Mrs. Robert Rossberg, Mrs. Ada Wilcox, Miss Margaret Pibel, Mrs. Ronald Brandon, G. William Davis, Mrs. Howard Krus, Mrs. Leo Maley, Mrs. Ted Kuchel, Mrs. Leonard Daigle, Mrs. Willard Olding, and Miss Gertrude Anderson and Mrs. Otis Culbertson, both Sunday school secretaries.

Mrs. Martin Gets Treasury Award

Distinguished honors came to Mrs. Lenoir Martin, director of the Richards-Martin School of Dancing, 719 North Los Angeles street, when she received a silver plaque last Friday, sent by Fred M. Vinson, secretary of the treasury, Washington, D. C., in appreciation of her work on programs backing the nation's war bond drives.

Betty Davis, former president of the famous Hollyood Canteen, sent a lovely parchment in black and red to Mrs. Martoin three weeks ago complementing her on the service given there by her and her talented students last July.

A group of more than 40 young artists from the Richards-Martin school appeared on many big bond drive programs in Los Angeles including those sponsored by the May Company and the United Nations, Mrs. Martin revealed.

To View Famous Styles in N. Y.

Mary Millerick, owner of the Mary Millerick Shop, 220 East Center street, plans to leave on a month's trip to New York City, starting next Wednesday via the Silver Chief. She will reside at the Hotel Astor and attend the annual style show presented at Hotel Waldorf, an outstanding highlight in the world of fashion.

Resuming again for the first time since the war, this occasion will mark the premiere of the show as an international affair with both French and American creations to be on display, Miss Millerick revealed. She promises much news worth attention to all style enthusiasts upon her return.

Miss Kuchel Takes First Tour

On one of her first public appearances, Miss Karen Christine Kuchel, petite eight-weeks old daughter of State Controller and Mrs. Thomas Kuchel, was a young visitor at the Mary Millerick shop last Monday afternoon. She was accompanied by her mother and grandmother, Mrs. A. I. Mellenthin.

Her father, well known in Orange county as "Tommy" Kuchel, is running for the position of State Controller, the seat he now holds following his appointment this year by Governor Earl Warren to fill the vacancy left by the late Harry B. Riley.

Miss Kuchel is a vivacious little brunette boasting of big blue eyes and a ready smile.

Hoblits Give Birthday Party

A beautiful angel food cake topped with tiny lighted candles and pink decorations followed by the presentation of a large box filled with gaily wrapped presents, climaxed the week-end birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Robert Sidney of Los Angeles, when she and her husband were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoblit, 217 North Berkeley avenue, Fullerton, last Saturday and Sunday.

After a delicious dinner Saturday evening, the Hoblits and their petite daughter, Ronnie and the Sidneys spent an enjoyable evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant, 111 North Balcolmn street, Fullerton.

Sunday morning activities began with a lively tennis game between Mrs. Hoblit and Mrs. Sidney and concluded with a festive dinner party served at a large table spread with a powder blue linen cloth and set with silver service, colorful birthday napkins and pastel rose china. A single white rose arranged in a modernistic plastic vase was the unique centerpiece.

Among her presents Mrs. Sidney received a lovely pearl and gold pin and earring set from Mrs. Hoblit and Mrs. Bryant.

A succession of comical gifts accompanied by cards inscribed with original verses, advertisements and catch pun phrases, included a box of soda, toothpicks, a wooden picnic set, matches, king-size cigaretts, safety pins, a thimble, soup, "two" nuts, a nail file, playtime relics, a cork, grapenuts and Rit.

Colored slides of Catalina island and Hawaiian island scenes, card games and converation were featured during the evening.

Sidney is a recently returned veteran, having served as a lieutenant in the Marine corps for more than two years. He spent six months overseas on Oahu in the Hawaiian island group.

Those enjoying the affair with the Sidneys and the Hoblits included Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and their daughter, Charlene; Harold Morris and Grace Thompson.

Tea Honors Bride-Elect

In a lovely atmosphere of pink and white roses arranged throughout the spacious home of Mrs. Frank R. Miller, Jr., 901 North Lemon street, Mrs. Jeanette Davis was feted by a pre-nuptial tea, given in her honor by Mrs. Charles D. McConnell, mother of her groom-to-be, recently.

More than 40 immediate relatives and close friends enjoyed the buffet style tea served in the soft glow from lighted pale pink tapers gracing the large table and which was spread with an exquisite ecru-toned lace cloth and set with silver service. Dainty frosted cup cakes topped with pink cupids were served.

At the beginning of the affair, little pink nosegay corsages were presented to each feminine guest.

Wedding date for the young couple was revealed to be June 7 at the Cappila de San Antonio, 101 highway and Manchester boulevard.

The bride elect, Mrs. Davis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hastings of route 4, box 354, Anaheim. Her fiance, J. W. McConnell, resides at 1144 West Santa Ana street, this city.

Those assisting Mrs. McConnell with the party arrangements included Mrs. Frank Miller, Jr., Mrs. Darlene Caraway, Mrs. Alleda Miller and Mrs. Bruce Crego.

Church Young People Enjoy Business-Social

The Salem Evangelical Youth Fellowship members met for the May business social at the home of Albert Ramm on West Broadway street last Monday evening with Lorraine Pannier presiding over the short business meeting.

Games were played during the remainder of the evening under the direction of Miss Christine Fischer. Ted Peter won all the honors.

Delectable refreshments were served at the conclusion of the affair. Hostesses included Misses Dorothy Link, Beverly Holbaugh and Christine Fischer.

The June meeting of the group will be a progressive dinner at the homes of various members with details to be posted in the social hall of the church, it was announced.

Taylor-Tschann Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Taylor of West Ball Road, Anaheim, announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to William S. Tschann, son of Mrs. Eda L. Tschann of this city.

Following their wedding, scheduled for June 21, the young couple plan to make their home in Long Beach. Both are alumni of Anaheim Union High school. Tschann served in the army for more than three years, mostly on Avores island.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Nominating Group Tuesday

Election of a nominating committee to choose the candidates for American Legion Auxiliary election of officers, highlighted the regular monthly meeting last Tuesday night at the Legion hall clubrooms in the basement of the local city hall with Mrs. Margaret Boysen, president, named as chairman.

Main feature of the business meeting was the discussion of the Poppy Day sales which will begin tomorrow, Friday, with members selling the symbolic paper flowers reminiscent of Flanders Field, throughout the city.

Nominating committee members to assist Mrs. Boysen include Mesdames Audrey Starr, Alice Schey, Norma Dodge and Ida Duncan. The election of officers will be held during the next regular meeting, July 16.

Reports from the committee visiting the auxiliary's "adopted" T. B. ward, C 1, at the Corona Naval hospital May 15, revealed that bath towels, bath robes, waste baskets, hand knitted and crocheted afghans, and quantities of oranges, avacados and applies had been given.

The group also delivered a new radio to the veterans, a gift from the Girls League of Brea Olinda High school.

It was revealed that the American Legion auxiliary members would attend the traditional memorial church service scheduled for 11 o'clock this Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church of Anaheim this year, en masse.

A cordial invitation has been extended to all local patriotic organizations to attend the special yearly affair with the request that all members meet in front of the church at 10:30 o'clock.

Credit Women's Orientation Study Well Under Way

Chapter 2 of "Retail Credit Fundamentals," an official publication of the National Retail Credit Association, was discussed by the Northern Orange County Credit Women of Anaheim and Fullerton at the regular monthly meeting, May 14, at Mother's Kitchen.

Carroll Prentiss of Anaheim reviewed the chapter which discussed the applying of credit and cashing of checks.

REV. HUMPHREY GIVES LAST SERMON SUNDAY

This Sunday will mark the final sermon of the Rev. Guy Humphrey at the Christ Church at Helena street and Broadway, it was learned this week.

Serving as pastor of the church while the Rev. Albert J. Casebeer has been in army chaplain service, the Reverend Humphrey and his wife are awaiting word from Washington, D. C. as to their assignment in missionary work.

The Sunday evening service at the church will feature a special speaker.

St. Joseph Alumni Former Sisters Enjoy Reunion

A farewell reunion party honoring the Dominican Sisters of Laguna Beach, formerly of St. Joseph's Academy of Anaheim was attended by more than 200 academy alumni at the Sacred Heart convent school of Laguna Beach last Sunday afternoon. The sisters will leave for Cuba soon.

During casual teatime hours many old friendships were renewed. Musical featuure was vocal interpretations by Mrs. Ray Fisher and Mrs. Olga Peltzer accompanied by Mrs. Stephen Gallagher at the piano.

A beautiful kodak and several rolls of film were presented to Sister Imelda and to Sister Rose by former academy students. Presentation was made by Lt. Col. Michael Mattis with Sister Rose graciously accepting the farewell gift.

According to a church census in 1940 there were 65,501,594 church members in the United States, divided among 250 denominations and 244,319 churches.

The population of the city of Washington, D. C., was 61,000 at the outbreak of the Civil war. Latest figures place its population at more than 665,800.

Howard in Race For Sheriff's Post

Floyd W. Howard

Floyd W. Howard, recently discharged Marine Corps major and veteran of the first World War, was reported storming Orange county after making formal announcement he was candidate for the sheriff's office in the June 4 primary.

Offering two decades of experience in criminal investigation, Howard, was discharged from the Marine Corps March 13 this year after four years military service. During his recent military role he served as security officer of the plant protection program in West Coast shipyards and the Western Pipe and Steel Co. of Los Angeles.

Howard was chief of police at Santa Ana for eight years from 1931 to 1939 and also served as chief of the criminal department of the sheriff's office for an additional four years.

He has been a resident of Orange county for the past 25 years and during the first World War he served as an enlisted man for 27 months.

His son, Jack Howard, also is a veteran of World War II.

Anaheim Vet Enroute Home

Word was received here this week that Sgt. Joe J. Kelty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Kelty of 1105 E. Water street, Albany, Oregon, is enroute home to the United States for discharge.

Sergeant Kelty, whose wife, Bernardine and their son, David, reside here at 1101 N. Palm street, will arrive in the states from the 5th Replacement Depot Disposition Center near Manila in the Philippine Islands.

Entering the army in June 1944, Sergeant Kelty was sent overseas and stationed in Manila last August where he served with the 1387th Corps of Engineers. He is authorized to wear the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon and the World War II Victory medal ribbon.

Judge Knight Santa Ana Guest Next Wednesday

Superior Judge Goodwin J. Knight of Los Angeles county bench, who is candidate for lieutenant governor of the state, will be guest at a general county-wide banquet rally May 29 at 7 p. m. at Santa Ana Masonic Temple, it was announced yesterday as the general committee for his campaign was named.

William K. Lindsay of Santa Ana will be chairman of the sponsoring committee of volunteers, drawn from various cities and communities of the county.

The jurist was guest Wednesday at a luncheon sponsored by Pro-America at Santa Ana Ebell clubhouse, when other speakers were the six candidates for sheriff of Orange county and Earl W. Stanley of Newport Beach, candidate for the Assembly, 74th district of the south county area.

Locally, the campaign committee includes George Graham, as local chairman; and he asked that reservations be made by calling Anaheim 2537 before May 27.

Don Martinson Elected AUHS President Tues.

The tabulation of ballots following the spirited voting by Anaheim Union High school students for next term's officers, revealed Don Martinson to be elected president with Bill Kellogg, his runner-up.

Lynn Bolick won the vice-presidential seat. John Jackson was chosen as the safety and welfare head. In the student officer run-offs held May 14, Virginia Casey was elected secretary of records.

Richard Hoffman is the sophomore class president for 1946-47 and Corda Lee Nelns, vice-president.

Greta Kunz was elected president of the Girls League and Shirley Osborne chosen as vice-president.

Secretary of girls' athletics, Barbara Carpenter, and new secretary of the student body treasury, Barbara Hein were both elected during the run-offs.

Team 1 won the contest for song leaders during the preliminary election. It includes Barbara Hein, Patsy Jorder and Shirley Miller.

Uncontested yell leader team members are Sam Bogoshian, Barbara Carpenter, Laurel Lee Kenyon and Ed Stringer, also chosen May 14.

GUY PITNEY IMPROVES FROM SERIOUS ILLNESS

Guy Pitney, popular photographer with studios in the Kraemer building on East Center street, was returned to his home last Saturday from Fullerton Cottage hospital where he underwent several blood transfusions earlier in the week. About two weeks ago he had a tooth pulled and infection set in, causing hemorrhaging and loss of a quantity of blood. His condition for several days was quite serious. Friends are glad to know he is recuperating.

Infant Son of R. J. Smith Passes

Joseph A. Smith, nine month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Smith, passed away on Friday, May 17, at St. Joseph hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, following an illness of but a few hours.

Surviving are his parents; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Smith of 308 South Los Angeles street, Anaheim, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Simpkins of Opelika, Alabama.

The Angel Mass was recited at St. Mary's church in Fullerton on Wednesday morning at 9\o'clock. Arrangements were in charge of Hilgenfeld mortuary with burial in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Resident in East Plans Future Home in Anaheim

"We enjoy reading the Gazette," states Mrs. John Lorencki of La-Salle, Illinois in a letter to this office, "and are getting more and more acquainted with your beautiful city. Lets hope it won't take too many years before the housing situation improves, since we are still planning to make Anaheim our future home."

Mrs. Lorencki visited this city several years ago and was so impressed with the beauty of Anaheim and Orange county that she is looking forward to the time when she can make her home here.

DRIVER CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER IN TRAFFIC DEATH

Driver of the automobile involved in collision with the one in which Mrs. Irma Cassmeir of Anaheim was killed last April 1, was found guilty of misdemeanor manslaughter in Santa Ana Superior Court last Monday after 48 minutes deliberation by a jury of seven women and five men.

The defendant, Julius Avalon Moran was accused of felony manslaughter but the jury returned the verdict on the reduced charge.

Following the verdict, Superior Judge Raymond H. Thompson set May 31 as the date for probation hearing and pronouncement of judgment.

The one-day trial was the aftermath of the fatal accident last April on Manchester Blvd., west of La Palma avenue., in which Mrs. Cassmeir, a passenger in an auto operated by her brother-in-law, Howard Belz of Santa Monica, was killed when the two machines, one driven by Moran collided.

Moran testified in his own behalf concerning details leading to the collision.

Vet Joins Brother, Open 'Sinker' Shop

New addition to Anaheim's shopping center is Spooner's Do-Nuts, a modern shop at 114 South Lemon street, specializing in the one-hole delicacy "made on the spot" and delicious coffee. Co-owners and operators of the establishment are Paul E. and Taze B. Spooner.

True "Spoonerism" is found in the gay red and white neon sign which is decorated with two love birds perched in a circle in its upper corner and inscribed "Spooners Do-Nuts."

Both Spooners are natives of California. Taze Spooner received his discharge from the Army three months ago after serving for eight months in Yokohama, Japan. Paul Spooner was formerly employed in Santa Ana.

Sugar Ration Plan Changes Friday

Ed Poehlmann, southland ration chief for the Office of Price Administration, announced this week, members of the armed forces on furlough may be issued sugar rations for leaves up to 120 days.

The new amendment becomes effective tomorrow, he said. Formerly, furloughed military personnel were issued regular sugar ration books when their leaves were for 60 days or more and were required to surrender the ration book upon expiration of the leave period.

Men on leave for less than 60 days were granted furlough rations, Poehlmann pointed out. The new action, he said, provides uniformity and relieves service personnel of the necessity of obtaining ration books when the leave period does not exceed 120 days.

Over seven hundred long tons of cane sugar is produced in the United States annually.

About three-fourths of the world's supply of coffee is produced in Brazil.

RED CROSS APPEALS TO LOCAL SEAMSTRESSES

The Anaheim chapter of the American Red Cross, 142 East Center street, has issued an appeal for aid in creating urgently needed sweaters, kit bags and hospital garments for veterans in hospitals. Even a small amount of donated time will be appreciated it was announced. Bedside bags, kits and slippers may be made in the home. Office hours are from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. daily except Saturday.

Veterans! You can now re-enlist in grade in the Regular Army within three months after discharge. Good until July 1, 1946.

Your Active Help is Needed Now!

Recent labor union activities in Orange County and throughout the State and Nation emhasize the need for eliminating the forces of coercion and compulsion in labor relations.

The entire membership of this council has pledged its full support to Johnny Walker, who heads the Yardbirds World War II Veterans Political Association, in sponsoring an initiative constitutional amendment dealing with labor relations. This amendment to the California State Constitution, if and when passed, will definitely outlaw the involuntary closed shop, and curb all jurisdictional disputes.

FULL TEXT — PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

A new Section 1-B is hereby added to Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of California to read:

Section 1-B. To protect freedom of choice by the individual employee; to encourage and protect peaceful and harmonious relations between employers and employees; to eliminate strikes and work stoppages resulting from jurisdictional disputes between labor organizations; to diminish the causes of industrial strife and aid in the production of goods and services for all of our people;

(a) It shall be unlawful for any two or more persons, by agreement, combination or concert of action, to coerce or compel, or attempt to coerce or compel, any employee, against his will, to become or remain a member of any labor organization; or any employer, against his will, to require any employee to become or remain a member of any labor organization.

Nothing herein shall prohibit an employer and a labor organization, which is the collective bargaining representative of his employees, from voluntarily agreeing that all persons thereafter entering the employ of the employer shall be or become members of such labor organization.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any two or more persons, by agreement, combination or concert of action, to coerce or compel, or attempt to coerce or compel, any employer, against his will, to recognize or bargain with a labor organization as the collective bargaining representative of any of his employees, wherever procedures are created by law for the designation of such representative and such labor organization has not been so designated in accordance with such procedures.

Nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with free collective bargaining, as protected by prohibitions against coercion herein set forth. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit an employee voluntarily becoming or remaining a member of a labor organization.

Any person injured or threatened with injury by violation of any of the provisions hereof shall be entitled to injunctive relief therefrom in a proper case, and to recover any damages resulting therefrom in any court of competent jurisdiction.

As used herein, "labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or any agency or employee representation committee or plan, in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

As used herein "person" means any person, association, organization, partnership, corporation, unincorporated association, or labor organization.

This section is self-executing and shall supersede all provisions in conflict therewith; legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but no law shall limit or restrict the provisions hereof.

If any of the provisions hereof, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held invalid, the remainder of this section, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Yardbird Veterans Now War On Union Coercion

From Los Angeles Times, May 12, 1946

Coming into the ascendency in the California political field is the Yardbird Veterans' Political Association.

Its specific endeavor at present it to obtain voter signatures sufficient to place on the ballot a proposal to amend the California Constitution.

The amendment would free a worker from being compelled or coerced into a union by either a union promoter or an employer. It would require that when an employer bargains collectively with a union the union must represent a majority of his employees to qualify for the bargaining right.

Not Antilabor

"We want it understood," said Johnny Walker, head of the association, "that we are not fighting unions or labor. On the contrary, we hope to deliver a blow against those influences in unions which have caused so much hardship in this country, especially to the unions' own members, through Fascist tactics of a minority and through unnecessary jurisdictional strikes that have resulted in so much materials shortages."

Toured War Fronts

The organization is an out growth of Original Yardbirds formed at Ft. MacArthur to put on the Army musical play, "Hey, Rookie!" that ran in Belasco Theater for eight months in 1942-43. It raised $351,000 for Ft. MacArthur athletic and recreation fund. Walker was its leader.

Under orders from the War Department, it went on a 120,000-mile entertainment tour of war fronts over the world with the Yanks.

In January, Walker incorporated the augmented organization in Sacramento. He said:

"How many times while the war was on did you hear the remark, 'Wait till the boys come home! They'll take care of some of this!'

"Well, we're home. This is a political voice for some of us and our families.

"It is directed only against unscrupulous control of unions and should be welcomed by every honest union man."

178,000 signatures of qualified voters in California are needed at once.

The time in which to qualify the above proposed constitutional amendment is extremely short. All signatures must be in before June 7th. To assist these veterans in getting this amendment on the Fall Ballot, we urge all citizens in Orange County who believe in peaceful labor relations and equal protection for the rights of employers and employees to sign the petitions now being circulated throughout the County — or better still, help secure signatures from business associates, friends, relatives and neighbors.

We have an ample supply of petitions on hand, with spaces for 100 signatures. Call at our office today, or phone Santa Ana 6424. This is your opportunity to work hand in hand with the Veterans of World War II in outlawing the involuntary closed shop and curbing jurisdictional disputes.

New Location Plans Approved By YMCA Board

The unanimous agreement of the YMCA board members in favor of proceeding with the present campaign to raise funds for an extensive building program to create adequate facilities for the growing organization, was the main point of business at the last meeting, May 14, at the local headquarters, 407 South Philadelphia street, with M. A. Gauer, chairman, presiding.

Paul Bakenhus and Warren Ashleigh were appointed as delegates to select a site to be presented for group approval at the board meeting next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Plans have been formulated for the construction of a large modern building designed for a varied and extensive "Y" program for Anaheim. Oscar Renner and Mr. Gauer were chosen to investigate the obtaining of the new site and Frank Kellogg was delegated to dispose of the present site.

Gra-Y Friendly activities were reported upon by Ted Payne who announced the pow-wow plans, an event held last Friday and Saturday at Irvine park. The outdoor camping trip was complete with games, plenty of food and unique campfire programs.

Wilbert Bonney, chairman of the Anaheim Junior Hi-Y, reviewed past club events and again announced the southern California round-up to be staged in Fullerton next Saturday. More than 500 boys are expected to attend from throughout the southland. Swimming in the Fullerton and Anaheim pools and competitive sports will be featured on the all-day program among other attractions. He also announced that the "brotherhood" contest was now well underway. Winner will be chosen as the one tion of peoples from other naexcelling in picture identifications from pictures and from international motion picture study. A loving cup will be awarded to the winner by George Ballew, who is also presenting another cup to the group boasting the highest percentage of members enrolled at Oceola this summer.

Improvements at Camp Oceola, described by Bonney and Payne revealed that new spring cots have been installed in all the cabins, and that repairs have included the construction of improved plumbing facilities and the reshingling of camp building roofs.

Activities of the seven boys' and two girls' Mexican youth clubs were announced in a report given by Luis Sandoval. He related the plans for sending 40 delegates to the Mexican-American Movement youth convention which took place last Saturday and Sunday at Pacific Palisades.

Counselors who have signed up for Camp Oceola to date are Rev. Howard Congdon, Paul Demaree, Jack Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Bose, Walter Schmitt, Robert Gregg, Charles Frank, John Knutzen, Ted Payne, M. A. Gauer and Wilbert Bonney. Immediate registration of all those interested in attending was urged by the group. The three camping periods will be from June 28 to July 5; July 5 to July 22, and July 29 to August 5.

"The spirit was good, the food excellent and the talks very fine," Warren Ashleigh said of the Men's pre-Easter meetings which boasted of an average attendance of 77 persons during the four programs.

Closing prayer for the board meeting was conducted by Rev. Hayden S. Sears, pastor of White Temple Methodist church.

Evans, Fox 'Cop' Angler Prizes

Anglers from all over the state competed in the annual registered casting tournament staged in La Palma park under the sponsorship of the Anaheim Izaak Walton club last Sunday.

An estimated crowd of more than 1,500 viewed the contests and latest exhibits of modern post-war sporting equipment. General chairman of the gala event was Roy Maybee.

Culinary highlight coming in the middle of the all-day session was a delux barbecue dinner enjoyed by more than 350 persons with Bud Paschall as chef for the occasion.

Competition ran high in the seven fly casting events before the huge enthusiastic audience.

Winners from this vicinity included among the sixty casters Charles Evans of Anaheim taking class C in the five-eighths accuracy plug contest and Roy Fox of Garden Grove with a 136 foot trout-fly cast taking class A.

Anaheim merchants donated the desirable and useful post-war prizes of household appliances and sporting equipment.

WOMAN SPECTATOR STOPS WRESTLING SHOW

An irate woman spectator temporarily stopped the wrestling matches last night at the Orange County Athletic Club when she tossed a bag of popcorn at the referee hitting him in the head.

Attempting to have the woman arrested, the referee, Pat McKee, veteran ex-wrestler, threatened to walk out on the match between Danny McShain and "Gorilla" Ramos, main eventers, afterward claiming he would take the matter up with Governor Warren or someone else in authority.

McShain took two out of three falls, subduing Ramos with a facelock in five minutes in the second fall and in 3:28 with a body press.

The production of Angora wool is estimated at about 24 million pounds annually.

More Fair-Show Plans Revealed By League

Outstanding among county events will be Orange County's Fair and Horse show, scheduled for Santa Ana Municipal Bowl June 20, 21, 22 and 23. It will be the most elaborate, the largest and most successful in the history of the affair announced leaders of the Assistance League of Orange county, sponsor of the fair, which is designed to raise funds for the establishment of a county-wide cancer clinic.

More than twice the space is available for exhibitors than has been in previous years, due to the use of Army Air Force buildings at the West Eighth street site of the Western Flying Training Command headquarters. In addition, tents will be erected for other exhibitors and a large outdoor area also incorporated.

Already the best line-up of entries since the fair's origination has been arranged for the horse show which is slated for Friday evening, June 20, Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon. Entries are expected from all over California and others are anticipated from the eastern states, members of the show committee stated.

One of the centers of the show this year will be the former AAF headquarters building, a two-story structure with scores of exhibit rooms. Spaces for the displays are going rapidly.

Agricultuural and horticultural exhibits will be featured in the building, with the county's vast production displayed in every form for the benefit of visitors. Various units of the Grange, the Farm Bureau, Junior Farm Bureau and other organizations will also present exhibits.

Another feature will be a hobby show, for which dozens of entries have been received. Citrus packing houses will display their products and compete for premiums, while a complete section will be devoted to by-products of the citrus industry.

Premier day of the show, June 20, will be devoted to junior agriculturists of southern California, with Future Farmers and 4-H club members from other counties as well as Orange competing for premiums. The youths will display their own farm and home economics projects in a tent to be situated adjacent to the headquarters building. Hundreds of entries, mainly cattle, swine, sheep, chickens and rabbits, have been assured for the junior fair division.

For the first time, the event will be thrown open to commercial exhibits, where manufacturers may show their equipment to the visitors. This will not only include farm machinery, but also boats, airplanes and other recreational merchandise, fair officials announced.

Another building, the former Officer's club, will house a record-breaking flower show, which is being sponsored by the Orange, Huntington Beach and Newport Harbor auxiliaries of the Orange County Assistance League. More than 700 county women are already making plans to enter their floral arrangements, it was revealed.

Also tentatively scheduled is a vast parade of the county's finest riding horses

THE ELLIOTT FOR SHERIFF COMMITTEE

"It's Time for TIPTON!"

After 8 years it is time to elect a vigorous executive with the moral and physical courage to perform the duties required of a sheriff. WALTER E. TIPTON is by far the most qualified man for this important post.

TIPTON'S PROGRAM

Here, briefly is the Tipton Plan regarding the reganization and operation of the Sheriff's Office:

1. To operate the Sheriff's Office on the sound, fundamental principles of successful business.
2. To employ only such persons as have the ability and the will to honestly serve the interests of the people as a whole.
3. To protect the innocent with the same fervor that is expended in the pursuit of the guilty.
4. To guarantee that both majorities and minorities shall have equal right to security under the law.
5. To enforce all the laws without fear or favor and with no regard for the personality or position of an offender.
6. To provide adequate protection for the rapidly expanding rural areas of Orange County where crime is known to have increased and remained unchecked in the past.
7. To immediately create a Juvenile Division adequately staffed and charged with the responsibility of delinquency prevention.
8. To deal with both convicted and non-convicted persons within the confines of the County jail, without pampering on the one hand or mistreatment on the other.
9. To coordinate the work of the Sheriff's office with the work of other related departments, to avoid duplication of effort and to guarantee efficiency.
10. To actively cooperate with public school officials and other community leaders to curtail delinquency and crime and to promote general security and justice.

THE LAW vs. Union Tactics

Illegal Picketing Won't Produce Bread—

We want assurance for the immediate future that re-occurence of vandalism and flouting of law by Hoodlums in the name of Unionism will not retard the reconversion of Orange County.

Goons and Strong Arm Methods Produce No Butter—

. . . market no oranges, ship no products, develop no trade and are contrary to the American way of life.

Jurisdictional Fights Between Rival Union Heads are Ruinous to Recovery—

Reconversion must be slow and difficult at best, but when un-American and illegal methods are used by Union heads to enforce their will on a free American people, we feel that right thinking and courageous operation of the Sheriff's office is the first step in the correction of this evil.

(signed) FLOYD W. HOWARD

We are all faced with this growing threat to our American way of life . . . We have all seen rival union heads wreck business, destroy property, take human life . . . Our protection as always is courageous law enforcement . . . We have always had the laws, we have always had men with the courage of their convictions . . . Floyd Howard is such a man . . . With (18) years of continuous and uninterrupted law enforcement work, the last four years of which were in the service . . . We ask American thinking Orange County Citizens for their support.

Leonard J. Winney Passes On After Long Illness

Leonard James Winney, born in Wisconsin on April 17, 1861, one of fourteen children, passed away last Thursday, May 16th, at the age of 85 years and 29 days. Being a very active man during his life, his health became bad about a year and a half ago and since August he had been confined to the Anaheim Lutheran hospital.

Coming to the vicinity of Anaheim in 1900, he engaged in ranching until late years. He came from Redlands where he was employed with the Southern California Edison Company for several years. Mr. Winney had been a resident of California since 1893 and saw the progress of his adopted state through the early part of the century, being active in the settlement of the community in which he lived.

Left to mourn his passing are two sons, W. A. Winney of Stanton and A. L. Winney of Anaheim; five daughters, Mrs. Rena Wheeler, Mrs. Mae Suiter, Mrs. Alice Blough, all of Anaheim, Mrs. H. H. Eden of Bellflower, and Mrs. Marie Robinson of Fullerton; twenty grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. O. R. Owen of Anaheim and one brother, Grant Winney of Hutchinson, Kansas, the latter being confined in a veterans hospital where he is seriously ill.

Carrying out his wish, pallbearers were his grandsons. For the service, Mrs. Walter Ross was soloist, singing "In the Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross," favorite hymns of his wife, who preceded him in death twenty-seven years ago.

Funeral services were conducted from the chapel of Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with the Rev. H. G. Schmelzer bringing the last message to comfort the hearts of the survivors. Interment was in Anaheim cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends who have been so thoughtful in their kindness to our father, the late Leonard J. Winney.

L. J. Winney family.

AUHS Graduation Speakers Named

James Friis has been chosen as valedictorian and Earl Fleischman has been selected as salutatorian for the coming Anaheim Union High school commencement exercises of 1946, scheduled for June 18, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the city park's Greek amphitheater.

Student commencement speakers include Jerry Franks, student vice president; Wanda Reinhart, Friis, Rojene Sherman, and Dorothy McCoy. As members of the California Scholarship Federation, Lambda Sigma, Miss McCoy, Miss Reinhart and Friis, have the distinction of bein gthe only three members of the senior class belonging to that honor society.

James Friis is the son of City Attorney and Mrs. Leo Friis, 600 North Clementine street. He is a member of the Colonist Knights, school Toastmasters, Y-Raggers, Hi-Y and Lambda Sigma. He has won honors in music for his pipe organ and percussion interpretations, having been sent for the last two years as a representative to the All Southern California symphony orchestra, which is composed solely of talented high school musicians. This year's concert program was presented recently in Santa Barbara.

A brilliant student, Earl Fleischman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fleischman, route 2, box 1040, has devoted his efforts entirely to scholastic study. He is a member of the school honor society.

Rev. James Whitcomb Brougher, Jr., of Glendale, will be the main commencement speaker, it was announced.

Lucius K. Benefiel Taken by Death

Funeral services for Lucius King Benefiel of 1266 76th street, Los Angeles, were held from the chapel of Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary this morning (Thursday) at 10 o'clock. Interment was in Anaheim cemetery.

Mr. Benefiel was born in Indiana 93 years ago and had been a resident of California for the past twenty-six years, coming to this state in 1920. He passed away at the home last Tuesday, May 21.

Surviving are his widow, Mary of the home; three daughters, Mrs. Rena Moon of San Pedro, Mrs. Beulah Gunn of Great Bend, Kans., Mrs. Ethel Thompson of Anaheim; 12 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God welleth in you?" This question from I Corinthians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these Bible selections from the Psalms: "O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary . . . My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips." And from I Corinthians, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? . . . therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit. Man is the expression of Soul."

Parker House Cafe Opens New Room

A new dining room with a seating capacity of 85 persons to augment the present dining facilities of the Parker House Cafe at 122 E. Center street, will open today.

Glenn E. Eustis and Vern F. Cruzen, partners operating the restaurant, acclaimed as one of the finest in town, announced the new addition was intended primarily to provide a family dining room with a home atmosphere.

Stressing the fact diners would find a comfortable, homey aura surrounding the quarters, the partners emphasized no intoxicating beverages are served on their premises.

"We want our patrons to enjoy this place as much as they would their own home," said the partners.

Work was started on the new wing to the present restaurant last week they said and at a late hour yesterday both partners predicted it would be completed before morning today.

A neutral wall paper adorned with a simple tree design covers the walls from the ceiling to a level about six feet above the floor and is set off with a green-paneled border surrounding the entire dining room.

Entrance to the kitchen is made at the rear of the new wing and lavatory facilities flank the east wall. The new dining room before its renovation formerly served as a banquet room for the restaurant proper. Seating arrangements will provide for couples and there will be a majority of four and six seater tables.

Eustis and Cruzen have been managing the Parker House Cafe since February of this year.

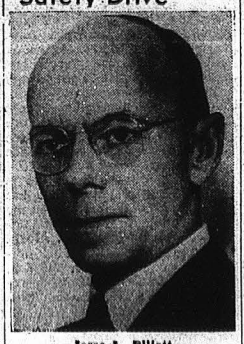

KENYONS VACATION IN LAS VEGAS WITH FRIENDS

Paula Kenyon, owner-manager of Paula's Flower Shop, 166 West Center street, returned to work last Monday morning refreshed from a week-end trip to Las Vegas with her husband, Lawrence Kenyon. Leaving by car Saturday, the Kenyons were joined in the desert oasis by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fishback of Whittier for an informal get-together.

ST. AGNES GUILD TO INSTALL OFFICERS MONDAY

Installation of officers for the ensuing year will highlight the St. Agnes Guild meeting next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The St. Michael's Episcopal church group will meet in the church for the ceremony with Miss Gertrude Anderson as installation chairman. The regular business meeting, to be held in the rectory, will follow, Mrs. Robert Rossberg, president, announced.

Sheriff Elliott Opens Vigorous Safety Drive

Jesse L. Elliott

Acting on President Truman's request that safety on the roads and highways of the nation, be impressed upon all citizens, Sheriff Jesse Elliott of Orange county, Patrol Chief E. Raymond Cato, Captain Henry C. Meehan of the California Highway Patrol and all chief of police in Orange county have embarked upon a vigorous campaign to stress this appeal of the Chief Executive of the United States.

More people are killed and maimed every year than in some of the greatest battles of history by careless and thoughtless drivers on our roads and highways throughout the United States. Sheriff Elliott said, "Orange county is no exception. Fatal accidents in Orange county have doubled this year according to Earl Abbey, coroner of the county.

The Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis and other service clubs are cooperating in every way to make the program a success. Sheriff Elliott said, "If we can only save one child's life, the effort of carrying the President's appeal for safety on our roads would be worth ten times the expense and time expended to impress the citizens of the seriousness of the careless and thoughtless driving of automobiles.

"No matter how well the traffic engineers build our roads and install safety devices, no road is any safer than the caution people use in driving on these roads."

Captain Meehan once said at a service club, "The best safety device ever invented, was made by God when he made a careful driver."

When you enter your car tomorrow morning try to be a little more careful than usual. Step a little lighter on the foot throttle. It may be the means of saving a life.

Prominent State Leaders Endorse Thomas H. Kuchel

running for State Controller and using the phrase 'your state controller' on some of his campaign literature. That sounds to me like an attempt to hoodwink the voters into believing they still are voting for my father.

"I would not run for Controller because I feared I would be trading on my father's name and because I believe sincerely that the man who should be elected to that office is State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel. Mr. Kuchel in truth is your state controller. He was appointed on my father's death. He is a trained public official. He is a man with whom my father worked and who had my father's complete confidence.

"I know that my late father, who had the confidence of California's voters, would back Thomas H. Kuchel to the limit as I am backing him and I know that my father would be the first to resent the attempt of any other candidate to trade on a family name."

An open letter signed by Mrs. Annie (J. H.) Ganey, member of the Democrat State Central Committee, and received here early this week, lent its weight to the vast number of supporters for Kuchel.

Her letter, addressed as follows:

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL DEMOCRATS

I hereby endorse the candidacy of Thomas E. Kuchel (pronounced Kee-kl) for State Controller, and urge all democrats to work for, and vote for, THOMAS H. KUCHEL.

Mr. Kuchel was appointed State Controller upon the death of Harry B. Riley.

A man by the name of Harry E. Riley, (no relation to the deceased Harry B. Riley, former State Controller) of South Gate is a candidate for this office on the Democratic ticket. He was registered as a Republican until March 25, 1946, when he changed his registration to Democrat, and the next day filed as a Democratic candidate for State Controller. (I have in my possession photostatic copies of registration records in support of this statement.)

Fellow Democrats, do not be misled; vote to keep THOMAS H. KUCHEL State Controller.

Mrs. Annie (J. H.) Ganey
Member Democrat State
Central Committee.

Jeff Cravath, another well-known Californian, football coach of USC Trojans, whose team was conference champion for 1945, has also come out for the full support of Controller Kuchel. He is a long time friend of Kuchel.

"Politics is not my game," stated Cravath, "but I want to get active in the political picture long enough to help retain my good friend, Tom Kuchel, as our State Controller. I am particularly alarmed at the report that statewide polls show that one of Mr. Kuchel's opponents, a Mr. Harry E. Riley, is receiving support from voters who apparently believe him to be the former Controller, Harry B. Riley, recently deceased, as there is such a close similiarity in their names.

"I believe that it is important that our voters know the true facts in electing a man to the state's most important fiscal office. This new Riley is in no way related to the former public servant, and has never had experience in the Controller's department. He is in the electrical business, I understand.

"On the other hand," continued Cravath, "Mr. Kuchel is experienced as our present Controller, and has had nine years experience in the state legislature. I have known him since college days and have followed closely his professional career since then. I have always admired his seriousness of purpose and his ability. I can personally recommend him to the people of California as a square shooter who plays the game fair, and who is well qualified to handle our financial affairs."

Thomas H. Kuchel has been controller since the death of Harry "B." Riley on Feb. 4, 1946, being appointed to this responsible position by Governor Warren, who knew Kuchel for his sincerity and honesty in his past duties as state senator and who, he believed, was qualified to perform the important duties as state controller.

Among the five opponents running against Kuchel is a man with a name very similar to the late controller, this man being Harry E. Riley, a salesman in the electrical business, who states he is an engineer although he shows no occupation on the ballot. It has been reported he is distributing misleading literature which would lead the voter to believe he is the Harry "B." Riley who, until his death in February, was controller for almost eight years.

Obviously past experience as an electrical salesman or even an electrical engineer is no qualification for this important office. The state controller in addition to being responsible for the proper and legal expenditure of every dollar of state money, is a member of 17 state boards and commissions. Years of experience in state government are necessary to qualify a man for this post—and for almost 30 years the holders of this office have gone to it with experience in state government similar to that of Thomas H. Kuchel.

So far as is known, Candidate Harry "E." Riley is not violating any law by this campaign which is misleading to the voters. The ethics of the situation are another matter!

500 Throng 4-H Club Fair at Farm Bureau

The 4-H Club Fair of Orange county, annual agricultural highlight, held last Saturday at the County Farm Bureau building in Santa Ana, was witnessed by more than 500 visitors throughout the day. Supervisors of the event were the Junior Farm Bureau members. H. W. Longfellow and Mabel C. Stone of the Extension Service, Santa Ana, are club advisors.

Individual judging of projects as well as judging contests were conducted in the forenoon.

The afternoon program included the introduction of special guests who included A. J. Schutte, president of the Orange County Farm Bureau; Mrs. Lillian Osterman, chairman of the Home Department of the Farm Bureau; Cecil Marks, County Farm Bureau secretary; Roy Edwards, county key banker, representing the California Bankers Association; H. E. Wahlberg and Miss Frances Liles of the Agricultural Extension service; Frank Rayburn, president of the junior Farm Bureau and all county 4-H Club leaders.

F. F. Palmerlee, vice-president of the Santa Ana Bank of America and Don Stewart of the bank's livestock department were honored guests. The Bank of America provided the ribbons for the fair winners.

Club demonstrations featured the day's program with the club from Garden Grove winning the first award by their demonstration of the proper handling of rabbits. Other teams receiving honorable mention represented the Orange Park Acres 4-H Club demonstrating the construction of a rabbit self-feeder and the Loara club demonstrating the latest method of egg grading.

Members of the 4-H clothing group were introduced by their leaders. The girls maniquinned their own creations which were designed after the latest fashions this year.

The 4-H Club council was in charge of the day's program with Foster Warwick, leader of the Loara group, acting as program chairman and master of ceremonies.

Entertaining feature of the afternoon program was a legedermain performance by Kenneth, Santa Ana YMCA secretary.

Judges of the club exhibits included Jimmie Benson, Rose Pelouse and Ruth Humphrey, clothing; A. G. Stevens, livestock; W. M. Cory, poultry; Jack Bryant, rabbits, and Alex Pelouse, vegetables.

Death Sun. Takes John Freeman

Kuchel Warns Against Otimism

cent increase over revenues collected during the corresponding 10-month period last year, Kuchel said.

The major portion of the increase occurred in the General Fund's share of retail and use tax collections, Kuchel said, which increased $41,575,584 over the same period last year.

Kuchel pointed out that of this amount, only $17,066,018 was due to greater collections this year, and that the remainder of the total increase was a technical one resulting from the fact that last year, 20 per cent of the sales and use taxes were earmarked for the Postwar Employment Reserve, whereas this year no such earmarking has been done since the statute requiring it, became inoperative after June 30, 1945.

Other revenue increases reported were as follows: inheritance taxes, $4,010,911; bank and corporation franchise taxes and corporation income taxes, $3,838,614; insurance companies taxes, $2,047,956; liquor taxes and licenses, $1,781,097; and miscellaneous revenues, $7,470,740.

Kuchel reported General Fund expenditures for the first 10 months of the present fiscal year amounted to $279,200,373. These were partially offset, he pointed out, by county relief loan payments totaling $2,340,494 which brought expenditures down to an increase of $16,024,689 over the same period last year.

The increased expenditures occurred in the apportionments to counties for elementary schools which previous figure was upped $11,406,639 and the University of California, which increased $2,907,980 over the same period last year.

Increase in the elementary school apportionments, Kuchel said, was due primarily to 1945 legislation which increased the rates used in determining apportionments.

Sunday Worship To Be Attended By Legionnaires

from any doctor associated with the California Physicians Service plan.

Cost for such treatment during the time the claim is being considered, he said, is borne entirely by the Veterans' Administration.

Doctors Llewellyn Wilson and Lloyd Burrows, commenting upon Mellon's address, advised post members it was only necessary to supply doctors with the servicemen's serial number in order to obtain medical treatment while the claim was under consideration.

Commander Westenkuehler next introduced Ben Lieberman, chairman of Orange county veterans service center at Santa Ana who in turn introduced Herman J. Sheffield, head of the center's education division.

Sheffield described educational benefits available to all World War II vets under the present GI bill of rights and also stressed the availability of the state's own educational benefit which allows pre-war resident servicemen a lump sum of $1,000, issued at the rate of $40 a month for the furtherance of education.

He said this state educational subsidy is available at any time during the veterans life but cannot be collected while receiving educational benefits under the federal bill.

Post members also learned the state loan limit was upped to $7,500 this week for veterans desiring to build or purchase their own home and veterans of World War I who obtained government grants for building purposes learned they would soon be notified of a reduction in interest charges on loans as the government pushed interest rates down from 5 per cent to 3 per cent.

Edwin J. Dailey, former Navy veteran, once more back in his role of an insurance salesman, advised members on the advantages of the present GI insurance eight-year term policy.

He pointed out several disadvantages of the present insurance program, namely: refusal of the government to pay the face value of the policy in a lump sum upon the death of the insured but this fact was further amplified by Mellon who said the veterans' administration recently announced lump payments of such policies would soon be forthcoming.

Post members also learned that veterans have now been given second choice priority immediately after the federal government on the purchase of surplus war materials.

The meeting closed with a short open forum during which questions were answered by veterans officials and others connected with the veterans bureau.

Post Chaplain P. S. Arnold held the invocation at the commencement of the meeting during which the entire post membership recited the preamble to the Constitution of the United States.

HONOR THEM

THEIR names are engraved deep in the hearts of families and friends — names like yours and your neighbor's — names from all "sides of the tracks" — names that bring to mind every nation around the globe. They are the heroes who died in battle during World War II, achieving that great Victory in Europe whose anniversary we observe this day. It is for us the living to remember, along with their names, that for which they died . . . a way of life rich because of its four freedoms — from fear and want, of speech and worship.
