COLONY QUIPS

The following comes under the heading of "Why the Editor Left Town" and comes to us from a valued subscriber:

Somebody sent the editor of the Poketown Tribune a few bottles of home brew. The same day he received for publication a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. Here are the results:

"William Smith and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm, one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses on her breast and two white calves before a background of farm implements too numerous to mention, in the presence of about seventy guests, including two milch cows, six mules and one bobsled. The Rev. Mr. Jackson tied the nuptial knot with 200 feet of hay rope, and the bridal couple left on one good gang plow for an extended trip, with terms to suit purchasers. They will be at home to their friends, with one good baby buggy and a few kitchen utensils after ten months from date of sale, to responsible parties and some fifty chickens."

When your congressman notes your interest in the vast and sometimes incomprehensible UNRRA and takes the time to write you a detailed letter and send you one day's proceedings of the Congressional Record on the subject, which takes you four hours to absorb, you wonder how he finds time to so well post himself on so many vital issues about which his constituents can only have an inkling.

—o—

One thing a weekly newspaper man never will be able to understand is why 19 out of 20 holidays always manage to fall on Wednesday and Thursday. And the one which don't fall in the middle of the week come on Sunday, which is sometimes a day off for us anyhow. Isn't there such a thing as a Monday or Friday holiday?

—o—

This week the press of California saw advertising history made. Doctors ponied up the money to advertise California Physicians Service in every paper in the state, and simultaneously launched a weekly radio drama for the same purpose.

"If the medical profession is to survive," said John Hunton, executive secretary of the California Medical association, "we must let the people know that the best health care in the world is available here and now under the voluntary system!"

An age-old advertising jinx is broken, mayhap, by the home town doctor!

—o—

While a hot contest is brewing, our operative reports that Assemblyman Sam L. Collins of Fullerton has a big edge to win that coveted spot—Speaker of the Assembly—when the state legislature reorganizes in January. And Senator Harold L. ("Butch") Powers of Eagleville looks like the new top man—President Pro Tem—in the Senate. Both men are GOP'ers.

—o—

Uncle Sam's revenue collectors, our spy advises, have a list of all the big wagers won in the S. F. and L. A. betting marts on California's primary election—just in case anybody tries to skip his winnings in computing his income tax!

—o—

You'll probably see your congressman around town this summer, no matter what's on the griddle back in Washington. Of this state's 23 congressional seats, 13 are still to be contested in November—and if Congress doesn't take a recess, the gentlemen with contests will take one anyway.

—o—

Hoppy Harold Ickes nearly brought the world to an end the other day. In his column he said, "The pretense of infallibility assumed by most commentators has always irritated me. In my salutatory as a columnist I announced that if I ever made a mistake, I was going to admit it." This from Hal is a world-shaking statement, but the old globe really did shake when Ickes went on to admit that he had made a mistake. Of course, most of the rest of the column was devoted to explanation that it wasn't much of a mistake, and really not Harold's fault. In fact, by the time we reached the end of the column we were doggoned near convinced that the whole thing was a conspiracy on the part of the U. S. Navy to get poor old Harold in bad with himself.

Farm Head Says Case Bill Veto To Be Felt Here

Charging presidential legislation now under consideration in Congress is both "inadequate and temporary," H. T. Brewer, president of the Associated Farmers of Orange county, in a statement issued today, declared defeat of the Case labor bill will be felt "right here in Orange county."

Terming legislation "under consideration in Congress is inadequate and temporary," Brewer asserted, "its effectiveness would be limited to one year at the most. If the Case bill is attached to as a rider, the Case bill would die with it at the end of the year."

Declaring that it would be no coincidence that the measure would die just before the election season, Brewer said, "we need full-time legislation, not stop-gap measures. The outlawing of abusive labor tactics should be for all time, not temporary."

Warning association members they should write their congressmen and senators, urging support of adequate, long-range legislation instead of hasty, "temporary" measures like those proposed by the administration" Brewer said losses from work stoppages would continue to mount "if we are inactive as voters."

Wages and man-hours lost by non-strikers because of other stoppages cannot even be estimated, but the totals would be astronomical, he said.

Teacher Reverses Old Custom; Brings Pupils the "Apple"

Thirty-three young 'uns of the George Washington elementary school lined up at the soda fountain at Jackson's Drug store on the corner of Emily and Center streets last Friday morning, each to receive an ice cream cone of any flavor, purchased by their teacher.

Said Miss Aletha Macy, 201 East Broadway ,teacher of the second grade school group: "I know this is a reversal of the old custom of the students bringing teacher an apple but this is their first lesson in public relations—buying something of their own across the counter. And then, they were such good children this term!"

The ice-cream buying spree was a reward for the tiny second-graders as school closed last week.

Army Vets Warned June 30 Too Late

Army veterans with dependents, this week were warned they must re-enlist before June 30 to take advantage of dependency benefits under the current re-enlistment in grade program, army recruiting officials at Santa Ana said.

After July 1, enlisted men must return to service within 20 days after discharge in order to retain their rating.

Nylon Sale Here Marked By Calm

Milady got her nylons last Tuesday morning. At least some did.

A queue over 300 strong, including young and old women, and several young and old men, lined up outside the J. C. Penny department store on Center street waiting for the firm's doors to open at 9:30 a. m.

In 45 minutes the approximate 300 or so persons cleared as many pairs of 45 gauge nylon hose at $1.20 a pair from the shelves of the store and the quest for nylons ended.

Attaches at the store could give no prediction as when the next shipment would arrive but then can you blame them for not giving out secrets.

One woman, told that a nylon sale was in progress down the street, looked up and asked, "so what?" "Nothing," we replied, "but nylons sure make 'she-lions' out of some women."

HOLLYWOOD FLYER

Heading the brilliant array of three-year-olds slated to go postward in the $25,000 Cinema Handicap over a 1 1/16 mile distance at Hollywood Park Saturday, June 22, is C. V. Whitney's Burra Sahib, recent winner of the $25,000 Will Rogers Handicap at the Inglewood track, and one of the most promising colts now in training.

Flier Narrowly Escapes Death

A brush with a 11,000-volt power line made sparks fly but Justus Warner Critchfield, 50-year old pilot of 1211 E. Santa Ana street, miraculously escaped death last Saturday after the propellor of his plane snapped electric wires as he practiced dead-stick landings near Crescent and Western avenues.

Sighting the death-laden wires when he was but 50 feet from them Critchfield opened the throttle of the plane and attempted to climb over the power lines but the propellor snapped the volt-loaded line and it wrapped around the propellor shaft.

Unharmed Critchfield was able to bank the plane and successfully pilot it back to the Fullerton airport.

The power line break cut off current to the Knott's Berry place, plunging it in darkness for several hours.

Air Arrival Of Entries Feature L. B. Dog Show

Scintillating highlight of the eleventh annual dog show, scheduled to open Saturday at the Long Beach municipal auditorium, is the air-flight arrival of 25 championship St. Bernards from San Francisco.

Marking the first time in dog show history that competing dogs have ever been flown from distant cities to the judging ring, shipment of the pure-bred canines in a specially chartered plane marks a new high in the dog show world.

The huge dogs entered by members of the St. Bernard club of the Pacific coast, are expected to arrive at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and parade from the airport to the judging ring in the auditorium.

Doors will be open to the public at 8:30 a. m. and close at 10 p. m. during the two-day show which ends Sunday night. More than 1,500 dogs have been entered in the affair, first post war show to be held since the war's end.

Some 25,000 spectators are expected to attend the show, the west's largest and the nation's third largest dog show of its kind. More than $5,000 in cash prizes and trophies will be awarded winners.

Judging will be done by a slate of internationally known dog authorities and all contestants will be benched on the day they are judged. The show is sponsored by the Harbor Cities Kennel club.

Anaheim Man Gets Probation On Arson Charge

Ordered to pay $5 a month for two years, Jonas Clerk, 47, of 916 N. Lemon street, was placed on probation for 10 years when he appeared before Judge Kenneth E. Morrison in Santa Ana Superior court last week to answer a charge of arson.

Clark attributed a fire he set at his home the result of a domestic quarrel. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Two other complaints filed last week by Dist. Atty. James L. Davis included a manslaughter complaint against Manuel Venegas Bracamonte and an assault with a deadly weapon charge against Joseph Lara Torres.

Bracamonte allegedly was driver of an auto that figured in a collision at La Palma and Dale avenues, west of Anaheim, May 1, resulting in the death of Madeline Huddleston. His case was continued until June 21.

Torres was charged with stabbing Felix R. Leos following a drinking party quarrel. He pleaded not guilty and trial by jury was set for July 22.

See Slight Gain In County Aid

More than 3,000 persons are receiving county aid it was revealed this week as the California Taxpayer's association in its weekly report, stated Orange county's aid and welfare budget expenditure was 38 per cent of its $5,452,646 for the present fiscal year.

Expenditures up to April this year were $2,055,525, the association said. Aid to the needy aged was set at $1,851,330, the largest item in the county's welfare and aid budget.

The association's figures revealed 3,196 persons were receiving aid as needy aged in the county; 106 were receiving aid as needy blind; 252 children were on the aid to dependent children rolls; and 140 persons were receiving general county relief.

This figure showed a slight increase over the previous fiscal year's period when 3,146 people received aid as needy aged; 83 as needy blind; 210 as dependent children; and 88 on general county relief.

ACP Payments Deadline June 30 Warns AAA

Farmer participants in the 1945 agricultural conservation program were warned this week that June 30 would be the last day to file application for payment in connection with soil and water conservation practices.

The warning was voiced by Stephen Griset, chairman of the Orange County Agricultural Adjustment Agency at Santa Ana, who reminded participants in the program, they must sign and return their application to the county office on or before that date.

Farmers who have not received their application should contact the Orange county office immediately, Griset said.

Approximately 36,000 formers in the state are eligible for the payments. Of this number an estimated 1,363 are in Orange county, he added.

Meanwhile the Orange county AAA office also announced federal assistance in the school lunch program has become permanent. Legislation legalizing the program was signed and adopted by the conference committee of the senate and house and passed by both bodies.

Presidential signature was affixed to the measure June 4.

Griset said applications in large numbers were being received for next year's program from schools which had not previously participated in the program.

Also announced this week from the county AAA office was news to the effect numerable species of farm pest life have been collected and are enroute to the Bikini Islands for the "Operations Crossroads" atom-bomb test project slated to take place the end of this month.

Seed, insects, mold, plant and animal disease organisms have been assembled by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to study the atom bomb after-effects on such subjects.

They will be exposed at 25 stations at various distances from the center of the explosion and flown back immediately after the test for examination by USDA scientists.

The training program will set up courses for stewardesses, passenger agents, reservation agents, ticket agents, traffic representatives, mechanics and counselors.

Prior to joining Western, Utter served as personnel supervisor at Lockheed Aircraft corporation and principal of the Lowell joint school district, Whittier.

Quarantine 2000 Dogs In County Rabies Epidemic

Nearly 2,000 dogs were under quarantine in West Orange county this week as health officers discovered 23 rabid dogs and reported three Buena Park children are receiving Pasteur treatment after being bitten.

Local police said yesterday one dog was picked up here in the eastern section of town last week and turned over to health authorities, who after examination of the dog's head, reported it was rabid.

No reports of persons bitten by dogs have been made here in the last few days, they said.

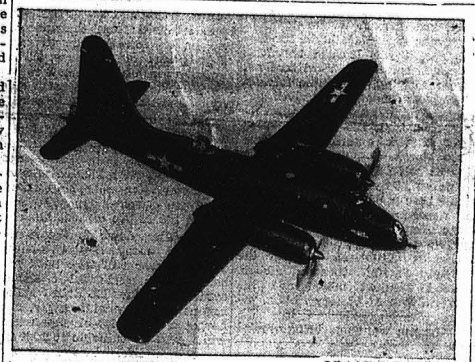

Meanwhile county authorities stepped in Monday putting a dog quarantine into effect, affecting an approximate 2,000 dogs in Buena Park, Westminster, Midway City and the west end of Santa Ana.

A house-to-house check instituted Monday served notice on all dog owners in the epidemic area that their pets were under quarantine.

Dr. Edward E. Russell, county health officer, designated Dr. John H. Bower as officer in charge of measures to control the epidemic.

Early this week health officers were reported making a close inspection of the La Habra area.

Owners violating the quarantine order were warned they would be subject to arrest. Dr. Bower said the quarantine will be maintained until the danger is over.

THE TWAIN MEETS—IN RECORD-BREAKING TIME!—A new east-west speed record was set by this new Navy Neptune patrol bomber, a two-motored Lockheed P2V, when it sat down at Burbank Field, Calif., 9 hours 23 minutes and 2 seconds after its take-off from Floyd Bennett Field. This sliced 39 minutes off the previous best speed, despite poor flying conditions that forced the plane 150 miles off course. The Neptune was piloted by Commander Thomas D. Davies, of Chevy Chase, Md., and carried three naval crewmen and two civilian passengers.

COUNTY FAIR OPENS TODAY; HORSE SHOW UNDERWAY FRIDAY

A panorama of the agricultural and industrial wealth of Orange county will be on display during four fun-packed days of the annual county fair and horse show opening today in the Santa Ana Municipal Bowl and former army headquarters building on West Eighth street.

The fair, with Mrs. James Irvine as general manager, is sponsored by the Assistance League of Orange county. Proceeds will be used for the establishment of a county-wide cancer clinic. The fair will run through Sunday.

Hundreds of attractions have been arranged in the huge buildings formerly occupied by the Army Air Forces. The buildings are jammed with displays and exhibits, while huge tents accommodate other exhibits in open areas on the grounds.

The annual horse show, three day feature of the fair, opens tomorrow. Entries from many other states as well as all parts of California will be represented. The finest horses in the county will compete for $7500 in premiums and a full show is promised each day for visitors.

The horse show is set for 7:30 o'clock Friday, 1:30 and 7:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and 1:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Classes to compete include three and five-gaited saddle horses, pole mounts, hunters, jumpers, hackney ponies, harness ponies, roadsters, draft horses, stock horses, trail horses, children's mounts, Arabians, Morgans, American saddle horses and palominos.

A huge street parade of nearly 400 of the county's finest saddle horses at noon Saturday, will wind from Eighth and Flower streets through the Santa Ana business district and return to the Municipal Bowl. Many premiums have been arranged for the entries, with the judging to be at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at Eight and Flower streets.

Elaborate plans have been made for the hobby show, to be viewed in the main building of the fairgrounds, with the Orange County Railroad club to display its model trains in addition to displays by the amateur radio club, the county camera club and the Southern California Coin club. An additional feature will be a display of rugs, afghans, bedspreads and tablecloths. These entries and others are in charge of Mrs. Dan Marshall of Anaheim.

Today will be devoted to junior farmers with a gigantic tent to be placed in front of the main building to house the large number of entries of breeding cattle, swine, sheep chickens and rabbits. The youngsters will have their own judging ring. Young farmers and members of the 4-H and Future Farmers of America clubs of Fullerton, Newport, Garden Grove, Orange, Puente, Pomona and Norwalk, are among those placing entries. In addition, 16 booths in the main fair building will accommodate their home economics and other exhibits.

Previously unrevealed secrets of modern warfare will be displayed for the first time in the United States. Ultra-secret weapons and equipment will be exhibited all during the fair. Tanks, heavy artillery, searchlights and other equipment will be shown by another army unit.

The flower show, for which an overwhelming number of entries have been received, will be staged in the former officer's club. For this show alone, a total of $1350 in premiums has been offered.

Phineas Missing; Staff Saddened At Disappearance

Phineas Lacertilia is missing! Member of a huge family and well known throughout the country, Phineas was last seen in the Gazette office last Friday morning, sunning himself in the rays of the early morning sun, streaming through the open door.

Over the week-end however, Phineas disappeared and all efforts to trace him have proved futile. A constant companion in the editorial and business offices of the newspaper, Mr. Lacertilia or as we more affectionately called him, "Wart-head" would conduct himself in a most dignified manner.

Unless flies would light right in front of his nose where he could flick his tongue out and knock them over, he made no effort to run them down.

Oh, didn't we tell you? Phineas is a stray lizard that strolled into the office sometime ago.

Auto-Truck Mishap Kills One; Injures Two From Anaheim

An auto-truck collision at Ninth street and Lampson Road in Garden Grove late Tuesday killed one man and injured three others, including two from Anaheim, one a nine-year old boy.

Dead was Ellis B. Lawrence, 66 of Garden Grove. He died at Orange hospital from injuries received when he was thrown from his auto after collision with a truck driven by Craig Thomas Dobkins, 36, route 4, box 215, Anaheim.

John Virgil Dobkins, 9, son of the elder Dobkins, received slight injuries as did Jack Kerischstein, 42, brother-in-law of Lawrence.

All were sent home after receiving emergency treatment, Garden Grove police reported.

At an inquest Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, a coroner's jury termed Lawrence's death as accidental and recommended installation of a traffic signal at the intersection to prevent further accidents.

IT CAN BE DONE— WITH YOUR HELP

Your attendance at the Orange County Fair and Horse Show today and every day until Sunday will be a contribution immeasurable in terms of money. For with your attendaance goes the realization that you too are helping leaders and workers of the Assistance League establish a county-wide cancer clinic.

The bane of human existence, this terrifying disease has done more to create misery and unhappiness than any other. Ignorance, improper care and inadequate medical attention lend to the further insidiousness of the disease.

These humanitarians — their time and effort contributed over the years with no compensation and little praise and recognition— today seek your assistance.

Help them put their show across. Make it a success. A success for them means victory for you too. For tomorrow you may have need of medical attention for yourself, or some loved one who has been stricken with the nation's number one malady.

During the five years of warfare, these women members of the Assistance League staged a warfare of their own on our home front against disease, the suffering of wounded returned from overseas and to banish war-created misery and unhappiness by doing for others.

Monies realized from the show—if a profit should be realized—will be divided between the league and the county if it is over $2,000. Money the League receives will go into its general treasury fund for the establishment o fa county-wide cancer clinic.

Help them realize that ambition!

"Kilroy Was Here" New Radio Show

"Kilroy was Here," a radio program presenting a combined musical and dramatic cross-sectional view of a typical service man's travels during the war, replaces the student contest series, "Peck's Bad boy," which has been discontinued until the fall school term convenes. Donald D. Britton, co-owner of the Radio Electronic Engineering company, sponsor of the program, is emcee and author of the summer show.

Broadcasting 8:30 o'clock each Saturday evening over station KVOE, Santa Ana, "Kilroy Was Here" is dedicated to all "ex" and present G.I.'s The series will continue for a three month period, being replaced by the fifth broadcast in the student contest series, "Peck's Bad Boy" when school opens next fall.

During the first "Kilroy Was Here" program, the versatile Kilroy began as an army man, and then served with the United States Navy. Included in the musical compositions was "A-Doin' What Comes Naturally," an Ozark sond, dedicated to all present and "ex" boatswain mates.

A special to the Gazette from Sacramento says the entire Republican state ticket has been nominated. The candidates are: Governor Newton Booth, Lieut. Governor Romualdo de Pacheco, secretary of state Drury Malone, supreme judge (short term) A. C. Niles, (long term) Rhodes, comptroller James Green, treasurer, Bachi, surveyor General B. Gardner, attorney general J. F. Love, clerk supreme court Grant Taggart, superintendent of schools W. H. Bolander, state printer T. A. Springer, harbor commissioner J. A. Mc Glyn.

On Tuesday last a social convention was held at the grand ranch of Ashcroft & Pryor, at San Juan Capistrano and at which Santa Margarita, San Luis Rey, Las Flores and Anaheim were represented by delegations, old and young, male and female. Preparations were made on a magnificent scale, and the gathering of the parties at noon was the signal for the beginning of a good time, which ended not until fourteen hours later. At night there gathered beneath the hospitable roof of Senor don Juan Abila a fine array of the beauty and aristocracy of the lower country, including the beautiful young lady from Santa Margarita, whose name we have forgotten. Dancing—with native, American and Spanish, was the order of the occasion and it was late when the guests departed for their homes. The next day the festivities were transferred to the residence of Senor don Juan Foster at Santa Margarita, thirty miles below and we judge from numerous telegraph dispatches received from that place, that they are still being continued—and long may they continue.

The new dwelling house of Phil Davis & Bro. now being constructed on the site of the building lately burned on Center street, is to be two stories in height, and in other dimensions 50 x 75 feet. It is to be of the composite cottage style of architecture, and intended to eclipse in beauty and convenience the building lately destroyed by fire.

C. Tustin announces that he will give six large lots to any society offering to build a church at his town, and will donate $100 toward building material.

An active exertion is being made to raise enough money by subscription to purchase a fire alarm bell for Anaheim.

The grapes in the vineyards at Anaheim are now about the size of hazelnuts, and where not infested with grasshoppers, have a very healthy appearance.

Deputy Assessor Jennings has completed his real property assessment and has turned his rolls into the assessor's office. The total county assessment will probably be what it was last year—ten million dollars. The personal property shows a decrease in places as compared with last year.

Prof. Frantz and Frank Eastman have returned from their circus trip, having forsaken the glamors of that sort of existence. The Professor is of the unalterable conviction that traveling with the circus is not all that it is cracked up to be. He jumped the show at Denver, after a period of luminous red fire exhibition stretching from San Bernardino across Arizona and New Mexico and to the Colorado capitol. He disposed of the ostriches for $200, and will in the future content himself with settling down to the humdrum of every day existence. The Professor will take back his barber shop and will abandon ostrich training. He didn't make a mint of money while away, but he got a whole lot of experience which will be valuable to him in his future life. The Professor was the feature of the show as long as it lasted. He wore, when driving his trained ostriches in the hippodrome, a pair of green silk trousers with gold fringe, red top patent leather riding boots, red silk cap, white shirt and diamonds throwing a flashlight big enough to be on the assessment roll.

Plez James is said to be about to start a five cent restaurant in Los Angeles, together with a 5 cent lodging house. One of the 5 cent restaurants in that city feeds as many as 2700 people daily, so it is said, and the proprietor's profits amount to upwards of $350 per month. A substantial meal is given consisting of a plate of soup, a piece of meat, bread and potatoes. For breakfast the bill of fare is a piece of bread, one boiled egg and a cup of coffee. Our informant tells us one would be surprised to see apparently well-to-do people frequenting these cheap eating houses.

Jonathan Bixby has sold to the Bixby Land Company 3337 acres at Alamitos. There is a good deal of sugar factory discussion nowadays out toward Alamitos.

The yearly readjustment of postoffice salaries leaves that of our worthy postmaster just what it was last year—$1300—the increase in the business of the year being a few dollars inside the amount necessary for a raise.

The importance of Yorba Linda as an avocado growing section was emphasized at a meeting of the Yorba Linda farm center Wednesday evening at the Murry Horn home. With the industry still in its infancy in that section, it was pointed out that climate and soil conditions make Yorba Linda the equal if not the superior of the hill section of the San Gabriel valley where the avocado leads in fruits grown.

ELIZABETH KIRSCH-GEORGE GOETZ WED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Gowned in an exquisite white net gown, Miss Elizabeth Regina Kirsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kirsch of this city, became the bride of George Richard Goetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Goetz of Beaumont, Texas, in formal rites solemnized at St. Boniface Catholic church last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, the Rev. Father Henry Gross, of that church, reciting the nuptial Mass.

The young couple plighted their troth kneeling on a white satin covered bench before an all-white altar flanked with ferns and tall baskets filled with snapdragons and gladioli with cathedral candelabra casting a soft glow over the setting, witnessed by more than 350 immediate family relatives and close friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a dainty bouquet of white carnations surrounding a single white orchid.

Enchanting the bride's loveliness was her full length veil caught to a sweetheart hat, falling in soft folds over her gown which was fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full length skirt, en train.

Maid of honor was her sister, Patricia Kirsch, wearing a formal gown of pink net of similar design to the bridal gown. She also wore sweetheart styled hat of matching tone and carried a colonial bouquet of delicate pink carnations.

Sisters of the bridegroom, Wilma Goetz and Margaret Goetz, both of Beaumont were her bridesmaids. They were attired in formal gowns of identical design and matching hats. Both carried colonial bouquets of white and pink carnations.

Petite flower girls were the little Misses Anne Marie Karcher and Joan Heinz, both cousins of the bride. They were identically dressed in floor length frocks of white net over blue.

Serving as best man was Carl Heinz, cousin of the bride. Edward Heinz, John Heinz, Edward Taubach, also cousins of the bride, and Edward Stoffel, served as ushers.

Preluding the ceremony, Bob Heinz and Mary Jane Stephenson sang "On This Day," "Ave Maria," "Our Lady of Providence," "Panis Angelicus" and "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy," with Mrs. A. F. Faust at the console of the organ and playing the traditional wedding marches.

Guests greeted the newlyweds following the ceremony with the bride's mother choosing for the occasion a brown and white ensemble. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white carnations.

In an atmosphere of white gladioli and spring flowers, the reception was held at the spacious Kirsch home and garden, 837 South East street. Presiding at the guest book were Miss Kai Koenig, Miss Mary Catherine Stehley and Miss Lyle Burrows.

Following the reception, more than 185 immediate family relatives and close friends, attended a wedding dinner at the Elks club at 1 o'clock. The long banquet tables were graced with arrangements of white gladioli.

After cutting and sharing the first piece of their wedding cake, the young couple left for a ten day honeymoon after which they will make their home in Beaumont, Texas.

The bride is a native of Anaheim, attended local schools and is a graduate of Marywood Catholic high school for girls.

Her bridegroom is a graduate of St. Anthony's high school and an alumni of St. Edward's university.

Camp Time Nears For Girl Scouts

California sunshine sparkling on mountain lakes; the tangy scent of wood smoke from camp fires; the crunch of pine needles underfoot—all this comes to mind as summer vacation approaches and Anaheim Girl Scouts look forward to varied camp programs as do scouts throughout the country.

Camp Le Roy is open to all intermediate and senior Gir Scouts and to Brownies who will be intermediate scouts in the fall. A convenience for those who stay home, is the day camp, Camp Flicker in Irvine park, which will be attended by many Brownie and intermediate scouts.

Camp site of Camp Le Roy is situated in the Angeles national forest area above Sierra Madre, only 35 miles from Anaheim. Elevation is 3,000 feet.

Camp periods will be from June 24 to July 1 and from July 1 to July 8.

The varied recreational and educational program, to include arts, crafts, hikes and sports, planned by the large staff of experienced leaders, and the adequate facilities of the camp promise to combine for a highly successful vacation event to be long remembered.

All activities will be supervised. A Red Cross life guard will be on duty during all swimming periods and a registered nurse present at all times.

Camp chairman are Mrs. Willian Bushman of Anaheim and Mrs. A. M. Williams of Fullerton. Miss Adah Wilcox is camp director.

Closer to this city, realistic camp life will emanate from Camp Flicker in Irvine park where all the fun of out-door living will be found with the exception of the "bed roll."

Many typical activities are plann by the group of competent counsellors.

Camp convenes for a six day session in two three-day periods from July 16 to 18 and 23 to 25.

A trained first aid expert will be on duty at all times and transportation will be provided by a bus leaving the Anaheim Girl Scout house, 210 South Citron, at 9:15 o'clock in the morning and returning to the house at 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. William Bushman is camp chairman and Mrs. George Kohlenberger, camp director.

Beginning next Wednesday, dances to swing bands will feature Paul Garcia, his trumpet and orchestra. Other bands will be announced in the future.

The teen-age meeting has been changed to Wednesday evenings instead of Tuesdays and will continue as the regular meeting night after the fall school term opens.

Junior Hi-Jinks members will continue to meet every Friday night at 7:30 as they did during the school term. Discussions of future plans and games and dancing to record music plus refreshments from the Canteen bar highlight these meetings.

Future Plans, Reports Head B. And P. W. Meet

Discussion of a traffic safety movement in Anaheim and reports by committee chairmen revealing Business and Professional Women's club activities headed the second meeting since the installation of new officers, at the home of Mrs. Olive Shoemaker, new president, Wednesday of last week.

The safety debate mainly concerned traffic intersections in the immediate business section of Anaheim, particularly that at North and Los Angeles streets.

Mrs. Shoemaker reported the results of the county council meeting on May 31 at Sam's Fish House in Seal Beach when Laura Bettes, retiring president, entertained retiring presidents-elect of the various counties of B. and P. W. clubs.

During the delightful affair, Carolyn Weber of Laguna Beach assumed the duties of president for 1946-47.

Among the reports presented was a discussion of England's national health program in comparison to that of this country, by Mary Heinlein, health chairman.

The Mexican American movement was suggested as a club project for the year by Eleanor Ashleigh, vice-president, committees were appointed to consider the plan.

Highlight on the club calendar is the dinner meeting scheduled for next Wednesday at the Parker House. Speakers for the occasion will be E. Fern Stewart, state recording secretary, who will report on the recently held state convention and E. W. Moeller, secretary of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce who will give the highlights on "Beautification of Anaheim Plan."

The quarterly southern district B. and P. W. meeting at Fullerton on July 21 was announced.

Recent activities of the club following the installation of officers include the dinner meeting at the Parker House, when members were honored guests with Lawrence Myer, professor of languages at Fullerton junior college showing colored pictures of the European war zone with narrative discriptions and evaluations; and a card shower given for Maude Ford and Mary Coons, both confined to hospitals in Los Angeles and Anaheim, respectively.

YOUR Sunkist REPORTER

How to Build a Market

ATLANTA—Just how does the Exchange go about building up a market? What do you do to make an ordinary market into a big one?

You can get a pretty clear insight into this by studying the way the Exchange has built up its lemon business here in Atlanta.

The methods used here are, generally speaking, the same that are successfully employed by Sunkist sales offices everywhere. The results seem a little more startling than in some places, because the Atlanta lemon business has been developed by the Exchange practically from scratch.

When the Sunkist sales office was established here in 1921, lemon sales for the whole Atlanta District were less than 100 cars a year.

Today they've been built up to more than 1200 cars a year.

Credit for carrying out this job goes chiefly to J. W. Litton, Sunkist District Manager here from 1921 to 1945. Though Litton has moved to the managership at Memphis, your reporter has had a good chance, the last couple of days, to learn about his work from his successor, T. A. Thomas, who is ably carrying on where he left off.

First thing Litton did was to carry out the basic Exchange policy of gaining the confidence of the jobbers through a long-range program of sales service, and fair dealing.

You can't do that in a hurry. Produce jobbing is a rough-and-tumble competitive business. Jobbers are cagey people! But if they find, through long day-to-day experience, that you're being square with them, they become very loyal.

Litton learned the jobbers' preferences, and tried to get each one the lemons he liked best. Like other Exchange managers, he inventoried each jobber's stock every day. Before the boxes in any jobber's warehouse dwindled too low, he'd have another car on track ready for him. He never lost sales by letting a jobber forget lemons and run out of them.

Well, the usual thing happened—the jobbers found the Exchange did as good a job for them as they could do for themselves. After a while if you asked an Atlanta jobber who his lemon buyer was, he'd say—"Lemon buyer? Jack Litton's my lemon buyer."

Next objective was to build up outside points into carlot markets. Through encouragement of outside jobbers—keeping lemons before their minds—getting them to step up their orders—the Atlanta sales staff increased the carlot markets in the district eventually to 44.

At the same time, dealer service men worked the territory, and year by year succeeded in changing the habits of retailers.

Today, dealers in this territory price lemons by the dozen, even in winter. In summer they sell 'em by the bag full. They've learned to advertise them—not only for cold lemonade, but for colds, food uses, and laxative—and so get the most benefit from Sunkist national advertising.

Lemons now sell well here the year 'round—in keeping with the Exchange policy of making lemon sales as independent of weather as possible, maintaining maximum volume at all seasons.

This report has to do only with lemons, and only with one district. But the same kind of thorough, intensive market cultivation is carried on for all varieties—and in all 57 Exchange districts. It's a primary reason for the tremendous growth of citrus sales through the years—and for the greater return which Exchange fruit normally commands.

Next report in this paper one week from today.

Bad Check Charge Lands Poker Room Habitue in Prison

Ora C. Penny, 54-year old ex-convict whose penchant for Gardena poker rooms assertedly led to writing bad checks was sentenced to San Quentin prison last week by Judge Kenneth E. Morrison on three charges of issuing worthless checks.

Judge Morrison sentenced Penny, alias F. A. Ferguson, on three counts and ordered two of the sentences to run concurrently and the third consecutively.

Penny, who confessed to defrauding southern California merchants of nearly $4,000, in a police confession asserted his bad check writing was due to visits to Gardena poker rooms in which he lost considerable sums of money.

A two-timer, Penny had served time in Kentucky for armed robbery and had been convicted of forgery in Nevada.

The three counts upon which he was sentenced involved passing three $25 checks in Fullerton.

Garden Grove Site of New Firm

Formation of a new company to be equipped with quick freeze apparatus and modern handling equipment in Garden Grove was announced here this week following announcement of the sale of the Bean Growers association, first cooperative bean warehouse in California.

Mrs. John P. Hayhurst, manager of the new cooperative, said the fast growth of the quick-freeze industry was one of the principal factors in the Orange county sale and dissolution of the association.

Meanwhile, C. Edward Reifsteck, secretary of the Southern California Frozen Food Council, reported this week, the industry expects to reach its predicted volume of a billion pound pack this year.

"A slight improvement is apparent in the equipment situation and many distributors are now getting display cabinets as rapidly as deliveries can be made by manufacturers," he said.

Walnut Growers Get Moth Warning

Walnut growers this week were urged to begin treatment of walnut trees for codling moth worm in all districts of Orange county except certain coastal areas.

Roy Black, deputy agricultural commissioner, issuing the warning, said moth emergence has continued low for several weeks with no outstanding peak yet reached.

Slowness of emergence of the moth this year was attributed to the extended period of cool weather that has embraced the walnut growing area in Orange county, Black said.

Moth eggs are being discovered in abundance in all areas away from the coast, Black said, and described the use of DDT as inadvisable since it is still in the experimental stage. Use of DDT was discouraged due to the shortage of nicotine necessary to control walnut aphids which have demonstrated a tendency to increase heavily after use of the chemical.

Formula for a recommended material to use was given as follows: 5 pounds of basis arsenate of lead and one-quarter to one-third of a pound casein spreader, for each 100 gallons of spray.

Last week's flight marked the first commercial service between the two nations since Pearl Harbor.

County Man on State Committee

A statewide small harbor development committee to work in promoting a series of small vessel harbors and refuges along the California coastline, includes Willis Warner of Orange county, as member of the group's board of supervisors.

The committee was appointed by Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, chairman of the California Chamber of Commerce's statewide natural resources committee.

The committee was named following requests of groups of yachtmen, powerboat owners, commercial fisheries, boatbuilders, and city, county and port officials, that the state chamber create a group to coordinate establishment of small harbors and assist local communities in harbor projects.

Where little children cry from hunger—

SOMEWHERE, halfway across the world, two little children cry bitterly from hunger. Children cannot understand the why of hunger—they know only the gnawing pain, the piteous weakness. A heartbroken mother listens helplessly.

Their only hope—and the hope of millions like them—is that Americans will not be complacent in a starving world . . . that you will share the abundance that is yours.

You are pledged to "Share a Meal Every Day," to help supply starving people with fat and wheat products. But the need for all foods is so desperate that you're asked to do more . . . to give money to buy food, or give food in tin cans, and to give generously!

Where the food you give will go. Contributions of canned foods will be distributed free in war-devastated countries on the basis of greatest need.

Why food must be in tin cans. Food in tin cans can be handled safely for distant shipments and travel over difficult roads.

Why the need is so desperate. The battles that brought us victory scourged most of the countries that fought as our allies. The worst drought in fifty years followed the war. Crops failed throughout Europe and Asia. 500,000,000 men, women, and children are hungry and starving.

WILL YOU GIVE THAT THEY MAY LIVE?

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO!

1. GIVE MONEY.

More food can be obtained for a given amount of money when it is bought centrally and in large quantities. Send cash, money order, or check to your local Emergency Food Collection Committee or to Lee Marshall, Executive Director, 100 Maiden Lane, New York 7, N. Y.

2. GIVE FOOD IN TIN CANS.

Leave at any Emergency Food Collection depot.

Urge your church, club, or organization to participate!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Proverbs and reads, "The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens." The question "Is the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject.

A Bible selection from Zephaniah reads, "Seek ye the Lord, . . . seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's answer." Matthew's Gospel relates that when Jesus "was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause." "The manifestations of evil, which counterfeit divine justice, are called in the Scriptures, 'The anger of the Lord.' In realty, they show the self-destruction of error or matter and point to matter's opposite, the strength and permanency of Spirit."

Bank Dividend Up 25 Per Cent; Due June 29

A cash dividend of $1.00 per share for the current semi-annual period, or at the annual rate of $2.00 per share on all common stock outstanding has been declared, it was announced this week by the directors of Bank of America.

This represents an increase of 25 per cent over the 80 cent dividend paid in the previous semi-annual period, directors said.

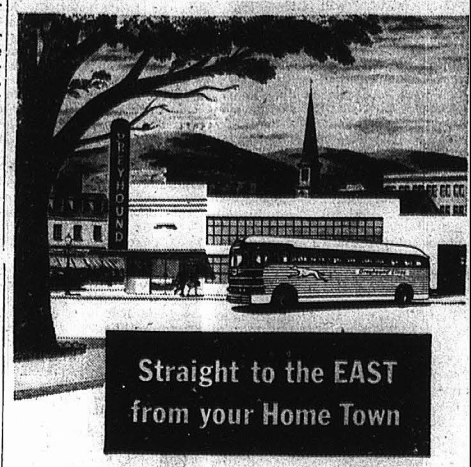

At the same time the directors declared the regular semi-annual dividend of $1.00 on the convertible preferred stock at the regular annual rate of $2.00 per share.

Dividends on both common and preferred are payable June 29 to stockholders of record June 15.

President L. M. Giannini reported that after recent preferred stock conversions aggregating approximately 385,000 shares, the original 600,000 shares of preferred have been reduced to about 20,000, and as a consequence, board directors issued a call for the redemption of the remaining outstanding preferred shares, effective July 31, 1946. The right to convert each preferred share into approximately one and one-third shares of common stock will expire June 30.

GREYHOUND

WILL YOU GIVE THAT HE MAY LIVE?

• The best years of his life, the rest of his life, await him. But he needs food to keep alive.

Of course you have already pledged to "Share a Meal Every Day" to help starving people, but the need for all foods is so desperate, that you're asked to do more—to give money to buy food, or give food in tin cans. Give as your own heart says you must . . . generously.

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO!

1. GIVE MONEY. More food can be obtained for a given amount of money when it is bought centrally and in large quantities. Send cash, money order, or check to your local Emergency Food Collection Committee or to Lee Marshall, Executive Director, 100 Maiden Lane, New York 7, N. Y.

2. GIVE FOOD IN TIN CANS. Leave at any Emergency Food Collection depot.

Urge your church, club, or organization to participate!

• The terrible emptiness of not having enough to eat drove these children out early in the morning. They are hopefully waiting for food.

Millions of children are sick from hunger. Many will die before help can reach them. But you can help save many thousands of others. Their only hope is your generous help.

Will you GIVE that they may LIVE?

Yes, you've pledged to "Share a Meal Every Day" to help starving people. But the need for food is so desperate you're asked to do more—to give money to buy food, or give food in tin cans, and to give generously.

Where the food you give will go. Contributions of canned food will be distributed free in war-devastated countries on the basis of greatest need.

Why food must be in tin cans. Food in tin cans can be handled safely for distant shipment over difficult roads.

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO!

1. GIVE MONEY. More food can be obtained for a given amount of money when it is bought centrally and in large quantities. Send cash, money order, or check to your local Emergency Food Collection Committee or to Lee Marshall, Executive Director, 100 Maiden Lane, New York 7, N. Y.

Veterans Urged to Record Discharge

A warning to record discharge papers was given all discharged veterans in this area this week by Arthur E. Mills, special services representative of the Orange County Veterans' Service Center at Santa Ana.

Once original discharge papers have been lost, destroyed or mutilated, there is no way to obtain copies of them, Mills warned.

Veterans who have lost their original papers should apply for a "certificate in lieu of lost discharge," he said.

Servicemen were advised to record their papers at the recorder's office, Hall of Records, Santa Ana.

Army Recalls POW Pickers

Their removal bemoaned by citrus packing plant maangers 758 prisoners of war were ordered moved from Garden Grove yesterday by army officials for repatriation to Europe.

The men were to be taken to a point of embarkation, army officials announced.

Chiefly Austrians, the men had been brought to Garden Grove to work under contract with Citrus Growers Inc., a combine of packing plant managers, who were hard-pressed for sufficient pickers.

Under command of Capt. Hugh Erwin, the prisoners had picked 186,974 boxes of fruit during their work period from June 2 to June 15, packing plant spokesmen said.

George Graham, manager of the Citrus Growers, last night said, "this will leave us awfully short of help. We desperately need more men in the groves and everyone who wants to work can have a job."

Arrival of 1500 Mexican National to augment the present 1300 now at work is expected in the near future, he said, but their arrival is uncertain.

Old Timers To Meet June 30

Expected to attract several thousand persons, the annual reunion of the Old Timers at Irvine park on June 30, the first get-together of the group since pre-war days, will be an old-fashioned picnic with everyone bringing his own lunch.

President of the Old Timers is County Coroner Earl Abbey, who is chairman in charge of arrangements for the affair. Aiding him on the arrangements committee is Elmer Burns, secretary, W. B. Williams, Bill Jones, William Hale and William Schumacher.

All county residents are welcome, committee members said. Chief guests will be the old timers themselves, including folks born in California, or at least fathers or grandfathers of native sons and daughters.

Council Okehs Meter Purchase

Purchase of 475 parking meters for the city's proposed city ordinance authorizing parking meters neared reality as the council, in session, earlier this week authorized purchase of that many meters.

The meters will be installed, according to the proposed plan of E. P. Hapgood, city engineer, on Center street between Olive and Helena streets; on Clementine from Chestnut to Center streets; on Los Angeles street from Broadway to Chartress streets; and on Claudina, Emily and Philadelphia streets from Center to Chartress streets.

Arrest Two In Seizure of Slot Machines

Seizure of two slot machines in a gasoline station at Lincoln and Manchester boulevards in county territory here last night resulted in the arrest of two men and confiscation of the "one-arm" bandits, police reported today.

Booked on possession of gambling machines were Charles Chapman, of 518 South Illinois Ave., owner of the station and Oliver C. Victor of 921 North Helena street, an employe.

The men were arrested by Deputy Sheriffs N. D. Williams and Carl Pryor, who asserted they had played the machines and that both of them paid off in coins.

Both men were released on $50 bond pending arraignment June 28 in Anaheim justice court.

Pump Efficiency Lowers Water Cost

Irrigation costs materially reduced due to increased efficiency of pumping plants and more uniform distribution of water, have aided innumerable Orange county farms keep down irrigation overhead, W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, said here yesterday.

By checking occasionally on the ratio of power consumption to useful work done, it can be determined whether repairs are in order as well as to learn the quantity of water that is being pumped, Cory said. This latter information is valuable as it is then possible to determine the quantity of water that is being applied at each irrigation.

Frequent use of the soil auger, prior to, and following an irrigation is a means of checking whether an irrigation is necessary or not, and whether the water has been applied to a uniform depth, he said.

Irrigation costs may also be lowered in many instances by two or more neighbors joining in together in the operation of a pumping plant.

Departure time from this city will be at 7 o'clock in the morning.

Mexican National To Be Deported

A 34-year old Mexican National, arrested by local police in Olive during a routine investigation in connection with a German Luger pistol found on a man arrested earlier this week, was turned over to federal authorities at Santa Ana for deportation to Mexico, police reported yesterday.

Identified as Perciliano Valles Rodarte, police said his failure to produce a draft card led to their suspicion that he had illegally entered the country. Rodarte admitted he had been in the United States two years, one year of which was in California and one month in Orange county.
