Colony Quips

While there is as yet no hint of fall in the air the rosy hue or should we say smell of the coming football season can be discerned by many, at least by the ones who are getting anxious. We note that even the big mets are giving football a little space. Of course the Times has been booming up their pro game, wait there, it should be pro-exhibition. And with all the ballyhoo, which smells like the wrassling school of promotion, the gate, take, sucker list, or whatever else you want to call it has been on the downgrade. With the frantic attempts to make the suckers think that the old 'college try' permeates these pro-exhibitions the feeling still grows that the contest part of these shows is closely akin to grunt and groan kind. And if you think there is much of a contest in any professional wrestling match then you had better get to the nearest psychiatrist and lay your money down for an extended course of treatment. If the treatment takes then you will be in much better shape to evaluate the pro-football racket or sport we had better say so as not to be libelous. If it is true that executives of a great newspaper like the Times are also on the payroll of the pro racket, we mean sport, then how in the world can a reader be sure of getting a true picture of what is going on? Isn't is reasonable to suppose that perhaps the best side of the picture given or at least the one that will draw the most suckers through the gate?

There are, in the area covered by this newspaper,, probably a dozen schools, state and private, of higher education, all of whom field pretty good teams in the fall and they are covered fairly well during the season. There are two pro teams and scarcely a day goes by all spring and summer that they do not get a story if only to tell of Joe Whozis, all dis-or-dat, who has just been signed on. Perhaps we in the south don't know any better or don't know any better what to look or hope for. At least, we know that is what is dished up for us by the LA press. In the Bay area it is entirely different. Articles appear all the time that you can sink your teeth into. If you are from the south they make you mad and if from the San Francisco area they blow up your ego. In either case it is a whole lot better than the hogwash dished up down here. Dyer and Hyland get off a good one once in a while but have to cover too much 'must' stuff. Al Wolf would be a baseball expert anywhere. Zimmerman should be back in the mid-west that he longs for. What we need in southern California are more writers who are prejudiced about this area. Those who will give the old 'college-try' in their writing and either make you glad or mad. How long do you think the Bay area folks would stand for a writer who said that SC or UCLA were fine loveable institutions? Till about half the edition was off the press. The writers up there mention their local schools with awe and reverence and their readers answer with an amen or Allah and believe it—because they want to. There are too many Johnny-come-latelys writing to too many of the same and a lot of us natives don't like it. Guess we will just have to subscribe to the SF Chronicle. There is a real paper with a real sports section.

The east Center street chapter of Jolly Boys International cashed in on one of their dividends this week and dessert was enjoyed by all through the courtesy of Tom Henry, the bill being paid by Joe Hurst. The deal was put over—'er—we mean consumated in this fashion: Joe Hurst complained of a wasp's nest at home and Tom Henry offered to liquidate the offenders if Joe would buy the dessert. At the time there were four Jolly Boys at the table and Joe readily agreed and a contract was entered into after Joe had carefully counted four of his fingers. Next came a practical demonstration of mental telepathy for within fifteen minutes the congregation had increased to fifteen. Tom beamed and Joe glowered or something. But the real pay-off came the next day when the club found out that Joe had three wasp nests to liquidate instead of one. Tom did the job and has taken the matter of extra compensation up with his attorney. Who can tell, there might be another piece of pie in it for the Jolly Boys.

Former Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes is certainly putting in some hard licks against President Truman's program, calling it a socialistic welfare state and predicting that we all will soon become economic slaves to big government, That is what many of us have been hollering for a long time. Jimmy just became aware of the picture and then when he was not top-dog anymore.

It will be open seven days a week, 24 hours per day. Manager of the market which features produce from farmer to consumer is Gene Edwards. Les Coggin is supervisor.

City Holds Slight Edge As Shoe-String Battle Enters Final Day

The city of Anaheim entered what may be the final skirmish of the battle of the shoestrings holding a slight edge in the proceedings to date.

Yesterday Judge West ruled that the council's determination of the property was sufficient and that the petition of the property owners for annexation was conclusive.

He ruled that the council could reconvene and vacate an adjournment to complete unfinished business.

Thus the action of Anaheim's council has been upheld to date and the attempts of Attorney Blodgett representing Meiser to contest the action point by point have been defeated.

The city of Anaheim is expected to rest its case today but it is anticipated that Blodgett will attempt to offer evidence as to whether the property in question is uninhabited and if it is contiguous to the city of Anaheim.

Depending upon the rulings of Judge West it is possible that the lengthy litigation which had its origin last September may come to a final conclusion today.

Anaheim has been represented by City Attorney Preston Turner and assisted by S. B. Kaufman and Claude Ownens.

Anaheim Lasses Reign At 4th Celebrations

"Anaheim, Anaheim, Everywhere it's Anaheim . . ."

The opening words to the featured song of the Community Chest benefit show presented in May were never more true than over the Fourth of July when two local beauties were selected to reign over celebrations in Huntington Beach and Santa Ana.

Priscilla Orman, 17, of 607 North Zeyn street won the bathing beauty contest at Huntington Beach Friday evening and was crowned by western star Hoot Gibson.

Down Santa Ana way, Paula Doretti of 327 South Olive street was "Miss Skyrocket" at the giant fireworks celebration held in the municipal bowl.

Crowds of over 100,000 were reported to have attended the three-day celebration at Huntington Beach. It was the 46th annual "Fourth" observance for the beach town.

At Santa Ana an estimated 6,000 people witnessed the fireworks display sponsored by the Santa Ana Firemen's Benevolent association.

Crowds, parades, pyrotechnic displays, stupendous events—but when it came to fair lasses—it was still Anaheim!

Anaheim Banker Named to State-Wide Commission

R. Foster Lamm, president, Southern County Bank, Anaheim, has been appointed a member of the Commission on Agriculture of the California Bankers association, according to an announcement by H. V. Alward, president of the association and vice-president, Bank of California N. A., San Francisco.

As a member of thecommission, Mr. Lamm will take an active part in the program of the California Bankers association to help member banks serve the needs of agriculture in an effective manner. The association's extensive 4-H Club, Future Farmer, and Young Farmer programs are also under the supervision of the commission.

Legion Post Names Officers

New officers headed by Dr. Paul S. Arnold were named by the Anaheim American Legion Post No. 72, at the election held in the city hall club rooms Tuesday night.

Other officers chosen to serve with Commander Arnold who succeeds Dave Proud, include Milford Johnson, first vice-commander; J. E. Anderson, second vice-commander; Maj. Charles A. Schmitt, adjutant; William Morris, chaplain, and Louis Marquez, sergeant-at-arms.

On the board of directors are William Webb, Richard Gay, L. N. Wisser and Henry DuBois.

Installation ceremonies for the new officers will be held at the next regular meeting slated for Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock, July 18, in the city hall club rooms. The uniformed 40 et 8 team from the Long Beach Legion post will be in charge of the ritual.

Coffee comprises about one-fourth of the coffee from Nicarauga.

Speed Artist Gives Police Merry Chase

In the short course of three hours, James Harvey Osborne, 7272 Orangethorpe, managed to garner charges of driving while intoxicated in the county and received citations for reckless driving, speeding, racing and ignoring boulevard stops within the city of Anaheim.

He will appear in city court, Saturday morning on traffic violations and will be arraigned in justice court July 18 for driving while intoxicated.

Osborne alledgedly twice led Anaheim police down Center street, speeding in excess of 70 miles per hour and running all stop signs. On both occasions officers reported they lost him at Manchester at a speed in excess of 90 mph.

Other officers assisting in the chase throughout northern Orange county were the California Highway Patrol, the Sheriff's department and the Fullerton police.

Finally at 5:45 a. m., the highway patrol stopped Osborne at Manchester and Western. He posted $50 bail on traffic violations in Anaheim city court and $250 bail with justice court.

Amend Orange Marketing Order

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today, following approval by growers in a referendum, amending the California-Arizona marketing order program. The amended order becomes effective November 1, 1949.

Principal amendments provide for (1) the marketing by handlers of early maturity or short-life oranges of a percentage of such fruit equal to the percentage of total fruit to be marketed by all handlers; (2) regulating the handling of oranges marketed within the states of California and Arizona; (3) the addition of provisions permitting the issuance of size regulations; and (4) increasing the committee administering the program to eleven members by the addition of four handler members, and setting up grower committee representation by districts insofar as practicable.

76% Favor

In a referendum held during the period March 7 to April 5, 1949, these amendments were favored by 76 per cent of the fruit represented in the voting, and by 74.6 per cent of the number of persons participating in the voting. This official referendum result includes the ballots cast by cooperative marketing associations for their members who did not withdraw for voting purposes. The Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act specifies that the Department must permit cooperative associations to vote for their members.

If cooperative associations had not voted for their commercial house members, the tabulation shows that 72.3 per cent by volume of production would have favored the amendments.

With handlers of only 67.5 per cent of the oranges signing the marketing agreement, an order with a marketing agreement could not be issued since California citrus marketing agreements require approval by 80 per cent of the handlers. However, an amended order without an agreement has been issued in accordance with the law.

Parking Meters Relocated on Center Street

A six man crew started relocation of parking meters along Center street this week in compliance with an order of the State Highway department.

Practically all of the 266 meters on the city's main stem have to be moved in the change from diagonal to parallel parking.

The relocation will result in a loss of 113 parking stalls leaving 153 still available.

Workmen started at Olive and today were in the 100 block of East Center. It is expected that the job will be completed in two weeks.

LEAVE FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS CENTER

Anaheim Naval Reservists Spend 4th in Honolulu

George R. Hibers, 108 East Broadway; Pete La Borde, Route 3 and Franklin P. Morris, 205 North Lemon, celebrated the Fourth of July in Honolulu while on the all Naval Reserve Cruise to the Hawaiian Islands.

The Navy provided them with a tour of the island and a big hula show at the Recreation Center at Pearl Harbor. All ships were in full dress for the holiday and Honolulu celebrated Independence Day like any other American city.

The Naval Reservists from Anaheim left Long Beach, California, with 1000 other Reservists on June 25 aboard three destroyers and will return on July 14. While in Honolulu, the Reservists have been visiting the famous beach of Waikiki, Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Iolani Palace, the museums, gardens and beautiful countryside.

School Boards Name Officers

Heading the Anaheim elementary board of trustees for the coming school year will be Herbert H. Stabbert who replaces Harry Fox who did not seek re-election in May.

Seated as a board member in the vacancy left by Fox was Mrs. Tom Henry. John P. Mary, Jr., was chosen secretary to fill president Stabbert's old position.

Robert Cawthorn was again re-elected president of the high school district board as both boards met for reorganization.

James A. Baker was again named secretary at the high school board meeting while other members are Henry T. Walsworth, Arthur Shipkey and E. M. Cone.

Following election of officers, the elementary board continued discussion of plans for the district building and expansion program.

Official notice was received of the approval of plans for the new Thomas Jefferson school on South street, and the additions to Horace Mann school by the State Division of School Planning. The next step required before construction may begin is approval by the Division of Architecture.

Notice of intention to sell two homes located on the new South street school site was given by the board. One is a four-room bungalow while the other is a five-room frame house. With the balance due on acceptance, 20 per cent of the amount bid must accompany each bid, the board stated.

All bids for the two structures must be in by 4:30 p.m., August 2, in the board office at Fremont Junior high school.

Lemcke Considers Resigning As JOS Engineer to Accept Texas Position

Ewald Lemcke

Ewald M. Lemcke is today seriously considering tendering his resignation as engineer of the Orange County Joint Outfall Sewer.

A special meeting of the Sanitation Districts held last evening in Santa Ana to appoint a general manager and chief engineer failed.

The JOS presented a strong recommendation that Lemcke be appointed to the post and that a firm of consulting engineers be employed.

Three Favor

Sanitation Districts 2, 3 and 11 comprising the cities of Anaheim, Orange, Fullerton, Huntington Beach, Brea, Placentia, La Habra and unincorporated areas of northern Orange county went on record as approving the recommendation.

Favoring to defer action until the report of A. M. Rawn, general manager of the Los Angeles County Sanitation District as to recommendations for the position of manager and the consulting VS staff engineers could be heard were districts 1, 5, 6 and 7. These districts include the cities of Santa Ana, Newport Beach and the southern Orange county area.

Texas Firm Seeks

Lemcke has been offered a position as assistant to the Chief Engineer of Fish Constructors, Inc., of Houston, Texas, who are going to build and operate a natural gas line from Texas to New York.

Lemcke reported that he has until Friday, July 8, to accept the position.

City's Fireworks Displays Confined to Domestic Scene

Anaheim police spent a relatively quiet Fourth of July weekend with most of the "fireworks" confined to the domestic scene.

Local officers were called in on four domestic exhibitions all involving the papas of the households. First call was in front of the City Hall where an early celebrator was beating up his wife on Saturday night.

On the next evening (Sunday) officers responded to a complaint of another papa breaking up the family's furniture. Upon arriving on the scene, the papa proceeded to smash another chair for the benefit of the law who had not witnessed the prior havoc.

But the first actual fireworks came when Independence Day was just forty-five minutes old with a beaten daddy coming to the station reporting that his son was giving him the once over.

Shortly after noon the cops, who were becoming weary of playing the role of domestic referees, entered on the scene where a father was giving his daughter a rough time.

There were a few firecrackers exploded on the day set aside for sunburn and picnics. Shortly after midnight on the Fourth the Stables cafe reported a car making like Chicago bootleggers—passing the rear entrance and tossing explosives into the place.

A gang of boys duplicated the feat by entertaining motorists at Palm and Center with the same sortof tactics—tossing the miniature bombs at passing cars.

Other activity was confined to the four-legged variety with police receiving calls on a cat who wouldn't come out, a howling dog and a lost Shetland pony.

Southland Plymouth Model Plane Meet at Santa Ana This Weekend

Headquarters for the Southern California Plymouth Model Plane Meet was moved to this city as final preparations were completed for the staging of the southlands largest model plane competition at the Naval Air Station, Santa Ana, July 8-10.

Robert Holland, 1943 national model champion who is contest director of the event, indicated that over 300 contestants have registered for the meet with entries being received from such distant points as Santa Barbara, Imperial and Blythe.

Free Flight Event

Entries indicated that interest is centered in the free flight gas event in which tiny models with wing spans ranging up to 7 feet will climb aloft powered by miniature gasoline engines. Limited to a motor run of 20 seconds, the midget craft remain in the clouds for periods as long as 30 minutes by soaring in rising air currents.

According to Holland, the speed events have also enjoyed a heavy registration. In these contests tiny piston engine, and jet engine powered planes will race at speeds which may exceed 150 miles an hour. Of the control line type, the diminutive craft fly in a circle on steel lines and are guided by a "pilot" who transmits his control to the plane through the lines.

Indoor Models Rate High

Indoor models also rate high in the interest of the contestants? These models, which are very light, weighing but a fraction over a tenth of an ounce for a model of three foot wingspan, will be flown in the gigantic 180 foot ceiling blimp hanger located on the field. Contestants will be shooting at a world mark of nearly 30 minutes in the indoor stick model event.

A total of 31 events is scheduled for contestants in four age groups, novice, junior, senior, and open, with special awards set up for the best all around modelers of the meet. The top novice or junior, and the outstanding senior will be awarded $500.00 scholarships to accredited schools of their choice.

Win Detroit Trip

The best 15 contestants in the four contestant classes will be given expense paid trips to Detroit where they will compete in the Third International Model Plane Contest scheduled there later this year. In addition, 93 trophies will be awarded to winners of the 31 events.

Two hundred southern California Plymouth dealers have joined forces to sponsor this event. Full information including a complete schedule of events is available at any Plymouth dealer.

Formerly in Great Britain certain qualifications of rank of property were required of those who killed game.

Charge Congress Disregard Of Fruit Fly Peril

Sacramento, (WNS)—Astonishing disregard of the peril U. S. Agriculture is facing in connection with the oriental fruit fly was charged to Congress by senator Fred Weybret of Salinas.

He asked the California legislature to adopt a resolution calling the attention of Congress to the seriousness of the problem and the need for immediate federal aid to prevent the invasion of the oriental pest in the United States.

The senator recently journeyed to the Hawaiian Islands, in company with assemblyman George Clarke of Planada and officials of the California Department of Agriculture, to investigate the widespread damage to agriculture being done by the fruit fly.

Inspection Inadequate

He reported that in excess of 1200 mainland airplane departures per month are being inspected monthly in the islands by 46 U. S. agricultural agents attempting to cover eight airports on four different islands. He said only two cars were provided for the inspectors.

"The cost of supplying adequate inspection, supplies and other facilities to control the pest in the islands and work towards stamping the fruit fly out would be negligible compared to the potential damages that could result if this pest gets a foothold in the mainland," Weybert declared.

Elks Leave for National Confab

Four affiliates of the Anaheim Elks Lodge No. 1345 will attend the national Elks convention to open Sunday, July 10, and continue through July 14, in Cleveland, Ohio, Warren Ashleigh, secretary-manager of the local lodge announced today.

Delegates at the annual event, will include local Anaheim Exalted Ruler Leavitt Ford; Frank Mattox, past exalted ruler, Anaheim member R. H. Sisson and Faye Lewis, past grand exalted ruler.

Next regular meeting of the Anaheim lodge will be Wednesday night, July 27, beginning with 6:30 dinner. The Orange lodge will be guests at this occasion. Only meeting in August will be the fourth Wednesday, August 27.

Washington Sees Red

The big splotch of red ink on the Federal books is being matched by a flock of red faces in Washington. The deficit of $1,811,00,000 with which Uncle Sam wound up the 1948-49 fiscal year is three times larger than President Truman's estimate and is bigger even than that predicted by his critics.

From now on the verbal battle will rage as to who is responsible for the deficit. The President will blame the 80th Congress for cutting taxes and the Republicans will blame the administration for not cutting down on expenses.

In the meantime the national debt of a quarter trillion dollars which costs us about $5 billion annually in interest charges will be on its way upward again, and John Q. Citizen will have a still-heavier federal mortgage hanging over his head.

One especially significant phase of the financial story from Washington is this: the government collected less revenue this past year than in any of the preceding five years. So, it isn't merely a matter of rising expenditures but of falling income which account for the shortage.

Public pressure will probably force the adoption of economies with some trimming both of the military budget and the foreign aid outlays. Certainly, the citizens won't go for higher taxes. Most of them agree they're too high right now.

At any rate, the financial honeymoon which the administration has enjoyed in the past couple of years is over. From now on it's going to be tough to make ends meet.

Hawaii Needs Help

The rejection by the Hawaii longshoremen of the 14-cent hourly wage increase recommended by Governor Stainback's fact-finding board gives rise to the possibility that the strike may drag on indefinitely.

For more than two months now the people of the islands have been struggling along under near-desperate conditions. They have needed help urgently. Now, with the end of the strike apparently in the dim future, that need becomes more pressing than ever.

President Truman has said that he is helpless in the matter, but if this is correct, Congress is not helpless to pass emergency legislation which would give him the power to obtain a court injunction against the strike under the Taft-Hartley law. Certainly there is some means of meeting the situation and it's high time that Congress took action.

The half million citizens of Hawaii have had more than their share of abuse. During the war they were kicked around shamefully and since then they have twice been all but economically strangled by dock tie-ups. There is a limit to what they can stand or what they should be expected to endure.

Again we say that Congress should act at once. If the lawmakers go home without taking action it will be a disgraceful exhibition of indifference to the welfare of half a million people—people who are as much entitled to consideration as any of us living on the mainland:

Our Money Seems To Be Running Out

The Government of the United States has many more things to watch and give attention to than in former times. So far, our country has met every challenge with bags of gold. Evidently the Russians have measured the wealth and influence of America— and that's the reason these Communists and warmongers have persisted in calling us a capitalistic nation.

Well, that isn't anything to be ashamed of, especially in view of the fact that we are 100 per cent honest in our efforts to establish peace throughout the world. We haven't any concealed desires to rob any part of Europe, and we are willing to forgive enemies in former wars and take them to our bosoms as co-partners.

Right now the world actually seems heading towards peace. If that goal is ever reached the credit for such achievement must go to the United States. Right at the present moment the Communists are "behaving a little better."

This cold war that the Russians have been carrying on certainly has had a bad effect in the United States. Unless Russia plays fair with the United Nations and quits its efforts to grab new lands that belong to other people there will be another outbreak. If there is the United States will have to play its part.

Despite all the difficulties in the affairs of the world there is a 50-50 chance that the peace of the world is peeping out behind the Iron Curtain.

Russian Bear Tracks

The Congress has been urged to initiate military and financial support for a number of European nations. In the meantime the Marshall Plan has been active—even though it is tremendously expensive.

Every few days we have "encouraging news" to the effect that Russia is "backing down" and "getting reasonable." As a matter of fact it continues to be our enemy.

Congress is inclined to disagree with the President while he picks ambassadors to countries that have not relaxed their communist practices.

The best men in the Senate insist on rejecting the Russian loving cup. According to the records there isn't very much chance that world conditions will get better for a long time.

Molotov Faces East

The puzzle about V. M. Molotov's removal as Soviet Foreign Minister last March 4 is becoming less puzzling. Molotov (his name means "the hammer") has been given the assignment of pounding the Chinese communists into line with the Kremlin's brand of Marxism. At least, that is the report from eastern Europe.

If the report is true—and there is a general inclination to feel that it is—it indicates the importance of thefar east in Moscow's scheme of things. Successful "cooperation" between the Chinese reds and the soviets would extend the Kremlin's influence to within easy striking distance of the Philippines, southeast Asia, India, Pakistan and Burma, and bring it much closer to troubled Indonesia. About half the world's population lives in this general area.

Moscow wants to be sure, it is said, that the Chinese reds don't stray from the fold as Marshal Tito has. The tremendous advantages already gained by the Soviets through the success of the communists will be nullified if the top red leaders aren't kept in line. And it's pretty well known that Stalin has been worried about keeping them in line.

Much of Molotov's work, therefore, will be to harmonize the ideological views of the Politburo and the Chinese communists, also to coordinate the overall Russian plans for social and economic, as well as political, cooperation in China.

Meantime, the western powers have their worries, too. They are seeking ways of preventing all Asia from falling under the hammer and sickle. Within another year the center of the cold war may have shifted from Europe to the far east. That is the great battleground of the future.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bolsa Chica Wharf and Forwarding company, held on Monday, the following officers were elected: John Fischer, president; D. W. Fields, vice-president; W. R. Oldim, secretary; Richard Heiman, treasurer. The articles of incorporation prepared by H. Hamilton were approved and ordered filed with the county clerk. Four bids for the construction of the wharf were opened, the bidders being Gay and Dougherty, T. G. Sorenson, A. M. Hansen and J. P. Sheldon. Messrs. Gay and Dougherty were awarded the contract. Their bid for $30,000 being the lowest offered. The time for completing the wharf has been extended to December.

We were shown on Thursday last a mammoth orange grown on the vineyard of Mr. Hartung. The orange, which measures eighteen inches in circumference was pendant from a small branch on which were six smaller oranges. The tree from which it was taken is only five years old and is scarcely five feet tall. Mr. Fred Hartung has sent the orange to Washington territory, where it will no doubt prove a source of infinite wonderment to those dwellers in a northern clime.

Twelve hundred goats were driven through town on Monday enroute to Guadalupe Island. They were the property of Lanstrum and Rogers, who are extensively engaged in raising of the Cashmere goat.

Downey City is now quite a thriving place at the terminus of the Anaheim branch of the railroad. There are some twenty houses including all classes of country business stores. The new Odd Fellows building is rapidly nearing completion.

On Tuesday the enclosed lot on Los Angeles street adjoining the Presbyterian church was sold to Mr. James Furness. We understand that he will immediately proceed to the erection of a large shop and engage in the manufacture and sale of furniture, etc. Four hundred dollars was the price paid for it.

It would be a good idea for everybody to "make a night of it," on the night of the 22nd, The scientist Parkhurst, avers that on that evening, the tail of the comet will encircle the earth and the result will be signalized by a brilliant meteoric display.

Rev. W. A. Knighten of Orange will preach in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8. No services will be held in the Episcopal church.

Immediate need for dock facilities for lumber shipments soon to come into the harbor, as well as future requirements, caused the board, it was added, to authorize the preliminary expenditure. J. L. WASHINGTON AS SEEN

By Congressman JOHN PHILLIPS

This being 4th of July week, I suppose I should wave the flag and let the eagle scream. Frankly, the eagle doesn't feel like screaming, at least not with joy and pride. He's having too many of his tail feathers pulled out in the 81st Session. Instead, I'll make a letter out of material I intended to put in the Congressional Record, but I had to go to a committee meeting (the Palm Springs Indian Bill was reported out) and while I was there, the Thursday session adjourned.

I can't include all the copy I would have used. The gist of the matter is the resolution passed around, among Republican members, for signatures, asking the President to cut all appropriations from 5 to 10 percent, thus presumably bringing them inside the income of the Federal government.

It has an appeal, until you analyze it. Of course, even a 10 per cent cut wouldn't bring the budget figures for next fiscal year, which the President would cut, back to those of the present fiscal year. The real objection, and the reason I deelined to sign the paper, is that our party, the Republican party, has been the outspoken supporter of this unique form of government known as the Republic a form so strong that for 160 years it has withstood the political, economic and social storms, although every other nation in the world has changed its government at least once in the same time.

We say that this strength lies in simplicity; in checks and balances; in protecting freedoms; in the division of responsibility between the three branches, the legislative branch makes the laws, the executive branch carries out the laws, and the judiciary, by a 5 to 4 decision, tells us what they mean!

When we circulate a petition asking the President to do work exclusively given to Congress by the Constitution, we suggest we are unable to do that job ourselves. Yet who criticizes the President when the executive branch encroaches on the legislative branch? Could it be the Republicans? We criticize thousands of regulations, which have the effect of laws we dislike the creation of a maze of bureaucracies by executive orders we say harsh words when a treaty is called an agreement, because an agreement, even if it reads as a treaty would read, doesn't have to go to the Senate for confirmation we particularly dislike deficit spending.

Last Thursday was a red letter day in our history, or a black letter day. We passed a bill by a margin of 43 votes, the housing bill, which "authorized and directed" the Treasurer to pay up to $19 billions on the demand of an appointed, not elected head of a government agencq, without review or approval of the Congress, through any of its committees. The same day some of the Republicans signed this petition I am writing about, which says in effect, we are unable to do the budgeting job which is ours under the Constitution. It is still our job. The 80th congress, for the only two years in a continuous list of deficits since 1932, kept the expenditures inside the income. It can be done. This session we are back again to deficit spending.

I could suggest that if you want to see a log-rolling at its best, just give one man dictatorial power to decide whether money appropriated in any of the 435 Congressional Districts shall be left in or taken out in applying the 5 per cent cut!

I rise to remark that my name is one of the 64 not on the petition..

California Last Week

(Western News Service)

The Governor expressed himself as pleased over the progress of the bill which liberalizes disability insurance payments by giving an additional $8 per day for 12 days for hospital care, and not so pleased over failure of the senate to bring the anti-slot machine bills out of committee; planned to take his family to Santa Monica for a vacation where he will spend several days after the legislature is over; signed the child care center bill keeping these open for another year, before the closing deadline June 30.

The Legislature: Wound up six month of activity with its principal accomplishments being the passage of a billion-dollar plus budget, a refusal to impose new taxes on the people, and adoption of the measure permitting colored oleomargarine to be sold in stores, a bill which has been before it in one form or another for at least twenty years. The legislature did not enact Governor Warren's program as submitted last January in his message to the solons, nor any part of the program with the exception of the liberalization of disability insurance, and allowance for continuance of the commission on organized crime. The Governor had some cuts in the budget he submitted to the legislature, but the total cuts were only a small percent of the total budget. His health insurance program was blocked for the third successive session and his recommendations for new taxes on cigarettes and liquor were killed.

The Departments with the close of the legislature are ready to resume normal activities, and already some are starting work on the 1950-51 state budget.

Two or three sites for the proposed boys' recreation club currently are beign studied by members of the Anaheim service club.

Congraulations were extended during last week's meeting to the boys work committee for their backing of the Optimist baseball team for youths between the ages of 17-21, which has won its two initial games this season. Speaker for the occasion was Sheriff Glazier of the Los Angeles county sheriff's office who discussed "Crime Prevention." Sheriff Glazier emphasized that youth programs are instrumental in reducing juvenile delinquency and crime. The return in such investments, which appeal to vivid young imaginations and direct activities of energetic youngsters in the constructive channels, is found in the reduction of cost to the taxpayer for detention and criminal institutions, he said.

Favors of a miniature bride for Miss Heil and of bridesmaids for the other 20 guests were created by Mrs. N. Gibson, mother of the hostess. Also present was Mrs. Julius Heil, the bride-elect's mother, of 630 South Palm street.

Home Nursing Class Popular

Well attended by county men and women were home nursing classes for mother and baby care, conducted by the Southern Orange County chapter of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. Arthur Wade, home nursing chairman. The course was completed this week at the Santa Ana chapter headquarters, 1104 West Eighth street.

Among students attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Longford of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Ralston of Buena Park and Mr. and Mrs. George Grupe of Fullerton, in addition to a number of Santa Ana and beach city residents.

Through lecture and demonstrations, the classes were taught by Mrs. Gertrude Andrew, registered nurse. The handling of a small infant was practiced with a life-like doll. The limited knowledge of the students on prenatal and postpartum care of mother and baby was evidenced by the type of questions posed in class, Mrs. Wade stated.

Lemcke Considers Resigning as JOS Engineer

the cities of the county in successfully approving the $8 million sanitation bonds came about on June 15 when five of the engineers of sewerage survey bitterly criticized the disbandment of the survey by Willis Warner, general manager and chairman of the board of supervisors.

The five-page, now famous, letter was signed by Vinton Bacon, Fred V. Bennett, Fred H. Dierker, Walter E. Brelje and Charles A. Sweet.

Charge Lack of Progress

They charged a complete lack of progress since Warner's appointment as general manager and declared his action would strip the sanitation programs of all experienced engineers.

JOS Moves

At a special meeting of executive board of the JOS held last week the board maintained that the cities and sanitary districts are the present owners and operators of a successful sewerage system and that their interests are being over-looked in the present trend of thinking among some of the sanitation district boards.

It was the opinion of the board that since the JOS must continue to operate their system for a minimum of two years and possibly longer and since they will be paying for this operation as well as in any new construction, it was felt they should express themselves more positively in the developing of a future policy.

From this the JOS made their recommendation for Lemcke and employing consulting engineers instead of a staff of engineers.

IT'S A BOY!

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Correa, Route 5, Anaheim, last Thursday at the Orange county hospital. The infant weighed seven pounds and 12 ounces.

"Let us, as sportsmen, observe to the letter the regulations which our state and Federal agencies assure us are necessary for the preservation of our fish and game, even though this may involve substantial sacrifice on our part."—Glenn L. Martin, airplane manufacturer.

Bethel Baptist Keeps on Top

Bethel Baptist kept atop of the heap tied for first place in the Church League last night by trouncing Calvary Baptist, who has yet to win one, 15 to 0.

Paul Jungkeit and Lee Mims each got three hits for the winners. Jungkeit homered in the second with one on.

Bethel Baptist scored two runs in the first inning on two walks and a single by Paul Jungkeit and Lee Mims. In the second they scored two runs on a double by Marvin Hartmann and Junkeit's homer. In the fourth they scored four runs on a single by Bill Acton, M. Hartmann, Lee Mims, Doc Ausburn, Stark and a double by Jungkeit. In the sixth they scored six runs on two errors, a walk and singles by Lee Mims and E. Remland and a double by P. Remland.

St. Boniface Wins

St. Boniface knocked one of the 5 teams tied for first place out of the top rung last night when they beat Grace Lutheran 4 to 3.

Grace Lutheran grabbed the lead in the second inning when they scored 2 runs on a double by Delmar Martens, and singles by Crawford and Hedrick. In the fourth inning they scored their third run on singles by Crawford and A. Westerhold.

St. Boniface scored one in the bottom half of the fourth inning on two walks and a single by Bill Steinborn, then in the fifth they scored three runs, enough to win the game, on a walk to Francis Patin, a single by Gil Martinez, to put two men and then a single by Ray Heinz, which got away from the left fielder to score all three men.

New Poultry Pubs Available at Farm Advisor's Office

Two new publications have come from the University of California College of Agriculture, both concerning the poultry business. Either or both may be obtained free from the county farm advisor's office said W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor.

Belton of agricultural engineering. It gives detailed information on the various kinds of poultry houses used in California, with construction details, photographs, sketches and blueprints.

The other publication, Circular 147, discusses The Chicken Business in California, the authors being Arthur Schultis and W. E. Newlon of the agricultural extension service. The authors base their information on studies made over a period of years. A special chapter is devoted to those who are desirous of starting a poultry business.

Traffic Deaths Increase One Over the Fourth

Sacramento (WNS)—Traffic accidents deaths in California over the Fourth of July holiday weekend increased one over 1948, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

There were 25 persons killed on the highways this year, the patrol said almost complete reports from all counties showed, while last year, for the same holiday period, 24 persons died in accidents.

The patrol said there were 343 reportable accidents on the highways last week-end, with 588 persons injured.

Drunken driving decreased slightly, with 131 arrests this year as compared to 136 in 1948. Other arrests, including speeding, however, rose sharply, with 4,535 citations against 3,041 last year.

At the same time, the State Division of Forestry said the Fourth of July proved to be one of the safest in history from the standpoint of fires.

With thousands of persons traveling California's mountainous areas, there were no major fires reported for the week-end in any part of the state. To the department, a major fire is one involving 500 acres or more.

Two fires, one in Monterey and another in Sonoma counties were reported but they remained under 160 acres and were rapidly extinguished. The only other casualty was acreage in Mendocino county which is under the protection of the United States Forest Service. This too was brought under control a short time after fire fighting crews arrived on the scene.

The United States, Great Britain, and Germany lead in the production of steel.

Plans for Annual Snowbird Flight Near Completion

Final arrangements for one of the outstanding small boat races in the world, the "Flight of the Snowbirds," are rapidly drawing to a close and it is anticipated that this year's event, the 14th Flight, will be more spectacular than ever. The scene of the annual flight is Newport Harbor and this year is scheduled for July 31st.

According to Hay Langenheim, executive secretary of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, the sponsoring organization for the annual race, it is expected that over 150 of the little cat-boats will be entered.

Select Committee

At a recent meeting of the general committee for the 1949 Flight, headed by Chairman John Daniell, the following men were placed in charge of various phases of the vent: Board of Referees (Entry Qualifications and Protests)—Richard Fenton, J. M. Webster, John Daniell. In charge of Patrolling—Harbor Master Russell Craig. Committee Boat and Trophies—Sandy MacKay. Patrol Judge—Commodore Frank Simpson. Judge of Starts—Commodore Cass Smith. Judge of Finishes—Commodore Cliff Chapman. Patrol Judge—Commodore William Crosby. and Harvey Somers in charge of Publicity Boats.

30 Awards

Over thirty beautiful awards will be made at the trophy presentation which is scheduled to be held immediately behind the Balboa Pavillion at 6:30 p. m. on the day of the race, July 31st, 1949. The presentation has been placed in the capable hands of Frank Linnell as Master of Ceremonies.

The starting gun for the race is at 1:30 p. m. on that day and all skippers between the ages of 6 and 96, boys and girls, are invited to participate in this grand spectacle.

Entry Blanks

Entry blanks may be obtained at the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, Newport Harbor Yacht Club, Balboa Yacht Club, Lido Isle Yacht Club, J. A. Beek's office, McNally and Valley Boat Landings, or the Harbor Master's Office, and it is essential that all entries be turned in as far in advance of the race as possible so that Skipper Badges may be furnished each entrant.

Members of the General Committee in charge of this year's Flight of the Snowbirds include J. M. Webster, H. B. Stewart, Earl G. Corkett, Ray Loomis, Converse Wurdemann, W. A. Berls, Thomas B. Rutter, Warner B. Gates, Commodore Cliff Chapman, Mayor Dick Drake, J. A. Beek, Russell Craig, John Daniell, Sandy MacKay, Andrew Brown, Kenneth Wilson, Dr. W. T. Mooney and George Michaud.

Rifle Range Work Progresses

Completion of the new city rifle range off North Olive street in the industrial tract was accelerated as members of the Associated Rifle clubs of Anaheim donated their time and efforts last Thursday night in an energetic work party.

Construction of the backstop is nearing completion. The workers continued building the shack for which a reinforced tin door has been made by Hugh Kelsey in his metal shop.

Among those present were Chas. Watters, construction chief; Major Ralph Comstock, commandant of the local high school cadets; Glen Hein, Police Officer Norbert DeCook; Bob Williams, Gene Stevens, Ted Anderson, Charles and Gene Waldo and Bob Mason.

Date of the next work party and tools needed will be announced by the riflemen in the near future.

WALKING NEAR TRAFFIC

In walking near traffic, a little carelessness can kill you, warns the Public Safety Department. Alert pedestrians never step off a curb without taking a good look up and down the street, never walk against the lights at intersections, and never walk with their backs to oncoming traffic when walking along the open highway. Alert pedestrians stay alive.

SAFETY ON THE HIGHWAY

Safety on the highway depends a lot on common courtesy and common sense, declares the National Automobile Club.

Sugar and sugar exports form a large part of the exports from the Philippines.

Arrogant Aragon Meets Baby-Face Jones at Legion

Peace is won'erful!

With the white dove lazily gliding over the Southland fistic scene, comes announcement that Art Aragon, idol of the gallery fans will meet Harold "Baby-Face" Jones, the southpaw dandy from Detroit in a ten-round main event Friday night at the Hollywood Legion stadium.

This is the first blessing of peace noted since the Southern California Managers association and the Hollywood Legion stadium have signed the truce ending the hostilities which supposedly were over television.

Jones is the boy who upset the apple-cart at Olympic recently, when he had Enrique Bolanos, in quite a sweat in a scheduled "warm-up."

Bolanos, who according to press releases, is the world's number one contender for the lightweight crown is supposed to meet Champion Ike Williams for charity one of these days.

To keep in shape his managers matched him with Jones who proceeded to knock the whooping 'ell out of Bolanos—having him on the verge of a knock-out in the ninth. Bolanos eventually emerged the battered victor in a decision which was hotly contested by eight bi judges.

Aragon has proved to be a most capable baby-sitter—having rocked six charges to sleep in nothing flat thus far this year. But Baby-Face Jones throws them from the port-side and has no cause to be frightened by Arrogant Art.

In fact folks—Friday's event at the Peroxide Palace should be a natural.

"By development of new environment, more game and fish can be produced each year at less cost than any other method yet found."—Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, president, Wildlife Management Institute.

Optimists; Legion In Twin Bill at La Palma Tonite

The Optimists and the American Legion will engage in another night doubleheader this evening (Thursday) under the lights at La Palma park.

In the first game starting at 7 p.m. the local Legionnaires will play the Whittier Legion nine and in the second game the Optimists will tangle with the Pacific Clay Products junior aggregation.

The Optimists are still batting 1.000, having won the two games played thus far. In their first outing they nipped the Long Beach Elbees and last week knocked over a highly touted Costa Mesa Merchant team, 10-6.

Vic Ruedy's Legion boys didn't fare as well, losing to Santa Ana 6-4.

On Saturday at 2 p.m. the Legion Juniors will make their second appearance when they tackle the Santa Ana juniors.

Ike Walton Charter Trips Begin Today

First in a series of 16 Izaak Walton charter boat trips began today (Thursday) when a group of 12 local fishermen left for the albacore-rich waters on "Happy Landings," charter craft out of Norm's Landing, Newport Beach.

This series of charter trips during the albacore season was organized by Bill Wallop, now on vacation in Colorado.

In view of the many albacore flags evident over the three-day July 4th holiday at nearby beaches, the party left here with high hopes of nabbing limits of the deep sea fish.

TROUT FISHING GOOD

Trout fishing on the lakes in the Marble Mountains of Siskiyou county has been very good during the past few days.

TROUT ANGLERS TAKE LIMITS

Trout anglers have taken many limits lately on Nelson Creek and along the Middle Fork of Feather River in Plumas county, according to the National Automobile club. Their luck has been only fair on Bucks Lake in this same area.

Collins Sponsors $1 Million State Olympic Fund

Sacramento (WNS) — Creation of a $1 million fund to enable the holding of the 1952 Olympic games in California has been approved by the state finance committee.

The fund would be provided in a measure authored by Assemblyman Sam L. Collins of Orange county. The money would be repaid to the state from the proceeds of the Olympic Games if they are held here and otherwise would revert to the state's general fund if unused.

LOCAL PLUMBERS CAN FISH, TOO!

Robert Quast and a group of his plumbers proved their piscatorial skill over the July 4 holiday by catching 12 big albacore during a charter boat expedition out of Port Orange. The largest catch weighed 16 pounds while the runt of the bunch tipped the scales at 11 pounds.

SPORT FISHING EXCELLENT

Sport fishing has been excellent during the past few days in the waters around San Clemente Island. Limit catches of large white sea bass, yellowtail, barracuda, and halibut have been brought in to the piers along the coast of Orange county.

SALMON ANGLERS HAVE LUCK

Salmon anglers have been enjoying some first-rate sport recently in and near Humboldt Bay in Humboldt county, according to recent reports. While they have been taking numerous fair sized fish inside the bay and between the jetties, they have been taking some very large fish just outside the entrance near the Whistling Buoy.

SMALLMOUTH BASS FISHING GOOD

Smallmouth bass fishing has been good during the past week along the lower parts of the West Branch of the Feather River, the Middle Fork of the Feather River, and the Feather River around Oroville in Butte county, reports the National Automobile club.

Golf Teams Tee Off Sat. at Rancho For U. S. Public Links Championship

The Harding Cup, emblematic of inter-sectional team supremacy, will be at stake on Saturday, July 9, when 33 three-man golf teams battle over the new Rancho municipal golf course in Los Angeles in the first competition of the 24th United States Public Links Golf Championship, to be played July 9 to 16.

Originally presented in 1923 by President Harding, the trophy has been won by southern California teams on five occasions.

Match Play

The entire field of 210 competitors in the public links tournament go into action next week, with match play for the individual title starting Monday, July 11, on Los Angeles city's newest golf course. The tournament plan calls for single 18 hole matches Monday and Tuesday, two 18 hole matches on both Wednesday and Thursday, and 36 hole contests Friday and Saturday.

Bob Bissett, El Toro Marine, registered from the Willowick golf course will see action in the second quarter on Monday, meeting Jack Bielak of Milwaukee.

Bob Roux, son of Willowick's golf pro, Art Roux, will tee off at 1 p.m. in the third quarter playing Don Kop of Honolulu.

The tournament winners thus must play six 18 hole contests and two 36 hole battles in six days.

Practice Rounds

Players, assembled from the nation's public courses, have been engaging in practice rounds at Rancho all week and finding it a very tough proposition. Par is 71 and tees as used for the tournament next week will provide 6800 yards of fairway.

Official dedication ceremonies for the beautiful new course take place this Friday, July 8, at 4 p.m. Mayor Bowron, members of the Los Angeles City Council, President Maurie Luxford of the City Recreation and Park Commission, and other city officials will participate in the program marking completion of work on the first new 18 hole course constructed anywhere in the metropolitan area in the past fifteen years.

Harding Cup

For the Harding Cup team competition, southern California will be represented by Billy Donovan, Loyola University, senior and basketball star who led the local qualifying round; Larry Bouchey of Inglewood, finance company employee, and Don Caulkins of Inglewood, a golf course maintenance superintendent.

Other strong threesomes include Spokane delegation of Al Mengert, Alvin Gustafson and Carl Funseth; the Pittsburgh team of Andrew Szwedko, holder of the individual crown in 1939, Michael Szwedko and John Pasikowski; and the Milwaukee team of Ted Levenhagen, Dick Levenhagen, and Jack Lemcke.

Assembly Refuses To Restrict 'Low-Fare' Air Lines

Sacramento, (WNS)—The State Assembly has refused to endorse a request that the Civil Aeronautics board force uncertificated "low fare" air lines to live up to the same safety laws that regulate regular scheduled lines.

The house refused passage of a resolution proposed by assemblyman Richard Dolwig, South San Francisco. It met a storm of opposition led by San Bernardino assemblyman L. Stewart Hinckley.

Hinckley contended it would drive many small lines operating solely within the state feeder routes, out of business. He said they now are required to maintain minimum safety regulations as are the large airlines. According to Hinckley, the move was an attempt to force the smaller operators to invest large amounts in needless safety equipment.

Dolwig argued the recent crash in Washington state, by an uncertificated carrier is reason enough for government tightening of safety regulations.

Southland Enjoys Monopoly Of Orange Market

Anybody in the United States wanting an orange must look to southern California from now until October.

That's because the southland is, for all practical purposes, the only commercial supplier of summer oranges, now that the navel crop is ended and mid-state Valencia shipping is wound up, according to the end-of-June agriculture report of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

California orange shipments last month were under June volume of recent years, and prices eased. But for lemons the picture brightened. June lemon shipments exceeded May figures as eastern heat upped lemonade demand. Exports were 10 per cent of normal.

June weather was generally ideal for agriculture, the chamber report said, although dry winds in some areas caused concern. Dry-farmed crops suffered from continuing subnormal rainfall conditions. Farm labor supply was ample, but not plentiful. Citrus picker shortages eased.

Livestock prices fluctuated, with a mid-month break following declines in eastern markets. National reports indicate increased meat supplies are expected later in the year, the report said.

Lions to Visit KwiKset Plant

Anaheim Lions will tour the KwiKset Locks plant, 516 East Santa Ana street, this city, tomorrow (Friday) beginning with luncheon in the KwiKset cafeteria, club president Joe Critchfield stated.

Discussion of the Lions' International convention, July 17-21, at Madison Square Gardens, New York City, will head the short noon business session. The local group will be represented at the conclave by Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield.

Install Officers

Zone chairman Warren Ashleigh, also president of the Chamber of Commerce, and secretary-manager of the Elks lodge here, acted as installing officer for the annual ladies' night program for the Fullerton Lions, Tuesday at the Fullerton Moose lodge. In addition to the newly elected officers, he seated three new members of that city. Approximately 100 persons were served at the banquet meeting.

New Bulletin on Soil Analysis Now Available

Do you know what kind of fertilizer to buy?

Do you know that you can not usually find out what fertilizer to use by having your soil analyzed?

These questions are discussed in a University of California circular which was revised in April of this year. The circular is entitled "Fertilizers, Soil Analysis, and Plant Nutrition." W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, says copies are available at his office, 1104 West 8th street, Santa Ana.

The bulletin tells you what mineral elements crops need, how the plants get these from the soil, how to choose a fertilizer, whether to use manure or commercial fertilizer, and the value of organic matter in your soil. Last, but not least, it tells you why soil analysis does not usually help the farmer.

Solons Snag Loan Agency Insurance Deal

Sacramento, (WNS)—A move to force from committee the bill barring loan agencies from requiring borrowers to carry insurance with "favored" insurance companies was successful in the assembly.

Present practice, according to proponents of the bill, is for loan companies lending money on property to force the borrower to carry insurance with a company owned by the loaning agency or affiliated with it. Senator George Miller drafted the bill banning the practice.

Assemblyman Robert Condon, also of Contra Costa, led the fight to withdraw the bill from the assembly finance and insurance committee. The committee, earlier in the session refused to move it from their files with a do-pass recommendation.

Chief opposition has been from representatives of insurance companies. However, Condon argued that the measure is so important to all citizens of the state that it should be taken from the committee and brought to the floor for a full scale hearing.

Annual Library Report Shows Wide Circulation

A total of 131,647 books of which 76,374 were adult volumes and 55,273 juvenile books circulated at the Anaheim Public library during the year ending June 30, it was disclosed in the forty-seventh annual report, as presented by Miss J. Elizabeth Calnon, librarian.

Of the adult books circulated 45,458 were fiction and 22,223 non-fiction, while 9,093 magazines were checked out. Circulation per adult book averaged three, while juvenile circulation averaged five. Average circulation per card holder was 14 for adults and 23 for juveniles.

Last year's comparative figures showed striking similarity to all of those listed in the 1949 report.

New adult books added to the library shelves totaled 1,361, while in the junior library 577 books were added.

During the year, 539 adults became new card holders while 380 additional cards were issued to juveniles bringing the total number of adult card holders to 5,124 as compared to last year's total of 4,771, and juvenile card holders to 2,312, as compared to last year's 2,131.

This year's financial receipts, including the June 30, 1948 balance of $11,177.27, totals $44,702.89, which amount also includes the $1,075.48 exacted in fines, $150 memorial fund and $399.98 collected for book rent.

Expenditures, including $308.65 for binding, $4,740.65 spent for new books, and $22,357 paid in salaries during the year, totaled $30,318.46 leaving a June 30, 1949, balance of $14,384.43.

Varied Year

Several new innovations highlighted the year including book reviews given by Mary Greer Scarborough who discussed new volumes of the month. Due to enthusiastic approval and good attendance at her programs, she will continue them during the coming year, it was announced.

Among the many gifts received by the library were the A. E. Schumacher Memorial shelf of western books given by his brothers, sisters and their children; projected books and projector presented by the Lions Service club for the enjoyment of bedridden invalids; memorial films given by the American Legion Auxiliary. Godey prints presented by Mrs. Blanche Paget and Mrs. Anna B. Camp; an album of records for the Junior library through courtesy of Mrs. Ruth M. Newkirk, and gifts of many memorial books. Thanks to all donors was evtended by the library staff.

Junior Library

More than 600 children completed the summer reading program, "The Gold-Seekers of 1948," and received their bags of gold nuggets. A party given in their honor in October completed the summer activities, although the story hours continued through much of the year with an average attendance of 65.

Twenty-three picture book appreciation hours for small youngsters were presented during the winter months. Classes were held for Girl Scouts who wished to earn their Book Finder and Bibliophile badges while troops from Broadway elementary school cleaned books to earn their Community badge.

Katella school youngsters made regular class visits to the Library while books were sent once a month to the Zion Lutheran and St. Boniface parochial schools.

National Book Week

With exhibits of new books, the Anaheim public library celebrated National Book Week. Eighteen classes from the elementary schools visited the library and heard talks about books at this time while many adults better acquainted themselves with the facilities offered. Authoress Margaret Leighton talked to the children on writing books and displayed her hand-made dolls. The Susan Lafaucherie Guild of St. Michael's Episcopal church met at the Junior library to hear a discussion on new picture books.

Ivan Elmore, Anaheim roofing contractor, and a party of four aboard his craft "SunksumDo," nabbed a total of 39 albacore over the Independence Day holiday. The largest fish caught tipped the scales at 17½ pounds while the smallest weiged in at ten pounds.

BECOMES EPISCOPAL CHURCH LAY-READER

Terry Kilduff, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kilduff of this city, recently was presented to the rector, the Rev. John K. Saville, as a lay-reader at St. Michael's Episcopal church and in the Diocese. The presentation was made by Tel Kuchel, Junior warden. Young Kilduff was given a lay-reader's medal by the Altar Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranyold Healy, 9642 South Walker street, Anaheim, became the parents of a baby daughter who arrived Wednesday of last week at Fullerton General hospital.

BLUE RIBBONS

An eight-pound, nine-ounce baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Rodriguez, 1147 Perry street, Anaheim, Friday, at the Orange County hospital.

On "Being Ourselves"

For nearly two centuries we Americans have been doing as we please—buying and selling as we like—just freely "being ourselves."

We are still doing so. And that's a more wonderful privilege than we realize—one we want to keep. Few people anywhere else in the world can any longer do—or have—what they want.

But we have been abusing this privilege—neglecting our selfish duty—just not intelligently "being ourselves" in our own best interests as individuals and as a nation. We have not been gaining—and acting on—the additional wisdom and prudence needed to match the growing opportunities and responsibilities of our freedom.

To keep free enough to go on "being ourselves" and living well, we must master economic truth. We must learn that a large part of our wants—and even of our apparent needs —can be, and sometimes should be, postponed. We must have the moral courage to act accordingly—to put off such buying and save when values get bad in good times, to use our income and savings to buy with confidence when values get good in bad times.

We have just come through an excessive boom in which too many of us were "being ourselves" with stupid and reckless abandon—first diluting our money and then needlessly bidding against each other to cut the value of our money further. We are now in a mild deflation—our first step in imposing on our free selves the correction that we were certain sooner or later to want to—or to have to—make to our previous excesses.

We Americans are mighty lucky to be thus still free enough to have ups and downs. Wherever dictators, socialists, or "planners" rule, there are of course no booms—just one long bust.

But we don't need to force our booms up as high or let our busts go as low as we have been doing. We don't need to be frightened or puzzled about what to do.

If we had just recognized last year and earlier that we were in a big boom—and then had prudently restrained our buying while adding to savings for use when the money would buy more—we would not only have sawed off the costly peak but would have lots more money to spend now.

If even now we will just calmly recognize that we are undergoing a correction of our own excesses—we can make this recession shorter and shallower, can turn sales and employment back upward sooner. Management and employees can do it by pitching in with more creative thought, interest, skill, care, and effort in our work, while having the confidence to use income—and some of the savings we did make—in taking advantage of the bigger values now being made available.

False prophets are again in full cry against such true and tried and honestly practical principles. Too many are out again with fresh hopes of plundering our system and enslaving us to centralized control. They are trying to get us to adopt as a cure the "something-for-nothing" schemes that would reduce incentive, lessen competition, raise costs, damage savings, discourage buying, deepen unemployment, and prolong this recession.

Just our monkeying with these very same ideas stretched out our last depression by ten long years. We were printing money, raising costs, and controlling each other, when we should have been keeping our money honest and competing with each other under the inspiration of worthwhile incentives to get costs down and values up—to achieve the only kind of "supply-and-demand" situation in which our free citizens will furnish the sales that make the jobs.

Phony ideas made our last war frightfully costly beyond any need; further inflated the recent post-war boom that had already been made inevitable by excessive money printing and by false teachings from high places. These are the false collectivist theories that have made beggars and slaves of people everywhere to just the exact degree they have embraced these theories.

In contrast to any such bankrupt and discredited scheme, sound thinking people are now advocating and practicing a dynamic, realistic, honest program of progress toward more sales and jobs. Enlightened companies are expanding and improving facilities. They are offering more attractive products, lowering prices, selling harder. They are urging that all concerned—employer and employee, company and union—put more thought, interest, skill, care and effort into getting a bigger value to the customer.

Well informed people know that about 95% of the public still has the income and savings for buying in sufficient volume to put the unemployed back to work just as soon as products and prices can be gotten attractive enough. We are all meanwhile for every proper and needed public relief to those relatively few who are unemployed.

As long as we have our freedom, we'll continue to have our ups and downs—because we will be wanting to be free to change, wanting to be able to act one way for a while and then act another way for another while. But we can level out these ups and downs—cut off the peaks and fill in the valleys—if we will only have the sense and character to shun the false and embrace the true. Let's do just that this time!

Let's all get busy making more and better things at more attractive prices for others—so we as buyers can then confidently expect more and better things at more attractive prices from everyone else. That's the way to get back to good times the quickest. That's the way to be able to go on "being ourselves" to our own best interest as individuals and as a country.

Cities; Counties To Get Increased Liquor Fee Funds

Sacramento, (WNS)—A speed-up procedure in the state board of equalization will result in increased allocations to cities and counties of liquor license fees, officials of the board have announced.

For the fiscal year 1949-50, the allocations will be 45 per cent greater than past allocations, or approximately $11,888,000, the board said.

Increase in the appropriation for this one year, it was stated, is a result of speed-up of procedure through improved accounting methods, to permit future distributions to include liquor license fees earned more nearly to the date of apportionment.

As a result of the procedural change, cities and counties will receive earnings for a 14-month period in the present fiscal year.

Appropriations are made in October and April, the board said, and in the future, such appropriations will include earnings thro' the month of August for October, and through February for April. Cities and counties receive 100 per cent of the license fees collected by the board.

"HANK" SAYS . . .

With the need for recruits for the regular Army mounting, a new two-year enlistment program has been opened by the recruiting Service which is applicable only to those men who have not had previous military service, and will impose the same reserve service obligations as the 21-month enlistments authorized under the Draft Act.

Service benefits of good pay, advancement, free room, board, clothing and a thirty day vacation each year, with better than full pay, will apply, but no choice of assignment will be allowed. All men enlisting for two years will be assigned as the needs of the service dictates.

At the nd of their two-year enlistment, the men will be placed on an active Reserve status, and will serve for a three-year period of Reserve duty.

The Army also authorized a more liberal choice of assignment for a three-year enlistment of men who had no previous service. These are, infantry, field artillery, coast artillery, armored cavalry or corps of engineers.

Current choice assignments for men with previous military service in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps are open today to qualified applicants by the regular Army. Included in the selections offered to veterans are the airborne, the fast east command, or one of the following arms or services of the regular Army—armored cavalry, chemical corps, corps of engineers, corps of military police, field artillery, infantry, medical department, ordnance department, quartermaster department, signal corps or transportation corps.

How 'safety-circle' driving cuts down accidents

"Know your safety-circle!" is an important lesson taught Standard of California drivers...and perhaps it can be helpful to you.

Your safety-circle is the distance you need to meet an emergency situation—a car stopping suddenly ahead, for example. Our drivers get a special test which tells them exactly how fast they react, but in general, it takes the average person a full second to see a hazard, think what to do and act. So, driving on a clear road, at 30 miles an hour, you should stay at least 7 car lengths behind the car ahead; when you drive 45 miles an hour, stay behind 13 car lengths.

More than 5,000 Standard drivers have studied this and many other safety principles in our Driver Training Program, besides passing thorough visual examinations. Last year, they drove 41 million miles with an accident rate 60% lower than the national trucking fleet average.

Senate OK's $2 Million For State College in County

Sacramento, (WNS)—The Senate has adopted a bill appropriating $2,125,000 for a state college to be established in the area of Orange county, and the southeastern portion of Los Angeles county.

The measure was sponsored in the Senate by senator Clyde Watson, Orange. It originally was introduced in the assembly by assembyman Ralph C. Dills, Compton.

The bill provides the funds out of the post-war employment reserve for acquisition and improvement of a site, construction of buildings, and the purchase of furnishings and equipment for the college.

It also provides that any site acquired under provisions of the Act shall be acquired subject to the provisions of the property acquisition act. One of these is that it must have approval of the state public works board.

Cancer Research Center Needs Southland Support

"Memorial Cancer Research Center will be built just as rapidly as the people of Los Angeles and the West want it built," said Dr. Elizabeth Mason-Hohl, secretary-treasurer of the Cancer Prevention Society, Inc.

"Already we have received sufficient assistance to enable the society to buy property at West 3rd Street and Loma Drive. We want to go ahead this year and complete construction of the first unit—research laboratory and clinic—which will make it possible for us to enlarge the scope of our service in the cause of cancer control."

The public is invited to become identified with the fight against cancer by contributing to the building fund.

Los Angeles City Social Service commission has issued a card for the 1949-50 fund campaign to Cancer Prevention Society, Inc., management of which is vested in the executive committee who will direct the campaign.

The current campaign goal is $350,000 to build the first unit. Contributions should be sent to Cancer Prevention Society, Inc., 2628 West 8th street, Los Angeles 5, California.

State Seeks to Acquire Spanish Land Grant Papers

Sacramento, (WNS)—California wants Spanish Land Grant records returned to the state, according to a resolution recently approved by the assembly.

Land grant papers, on which hinge ownership of most of the land in California are now in the national archives, Washington, D. C. A resolution drafted by Senator Fred Weybret, Salinas, asks the chief federal archivist to return the papers to the office of California secretary of state, Frank Jordan.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Sacrament" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from Matthew: "Thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

It is recorded in The Acts that Peter urged the people on the day of Pentecost, "Repent, and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. . . . . Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: . . . And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; . . . There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Jesus established in the Christian era the precedent for all Christianity, theology, and healing. Christians are under as direct orders now as they were then, to be Christlike, to possess Christ-spirit, to follow the Christ example, and to heal the sick as well as the sinning."

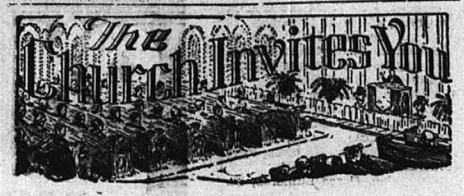

Cordell Hull, Secretary of State during World War II, drafted the first U. S. income tax law.

Divorce Bill Clears Assembly

Sacramento, (WNS)—The uniform divorce bill has cleared the state assembly and went to the Governor's desk for signature.

Authored by senator Thomas Keating, San Rafael, the bill will outlaw obtaining easy divorces in other states. It provides that divorces obtained in other state jurisdictions will not be in force in California if the person obtaining the divorce lived in California for 12 months prior to the out-of-state divorce and resumed residence in the state within 18 months after the decree was granted.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Sanchez, 204 West Center street, Placentia, Friday at Fullerton General hospital.

Since by nature man is spiritual, he is incurably religious. He may be alien to the church and to its customs, but he usually believes in God and accepts the value of religion as a force in life. This is true because he is in a world governed by orderly forces, revealing an infinite mind. As he grows in wisdom or suffers distress or danger, he moves toward the Supreme Being. Since we need to deepen our spiritual life, why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

—Rev. D. Carl Yoder.

Our Preacher Says

D. Carl Yoder

We need to cultivate trying to get the other fellow's point of view. His point may be wrong but it ought to be understood; he may be selfish, but before accusing we need to know it before we can help him. However, standing in the other fellow's shoes for a moment puts an entirely different light on the matter and helps us to be less selfish. By this plan we may apply effectively the Golden Rule.

The Christian religion releases such powerful energies that nothing can overcome them.—James.

Disability Checks Total $33,638

During the month of June benefits amounting to $33,638.86 were received by people in Orange county area who were eligible to receive benefits under the California Department of Employment's disability insurance program, according to V. L. Hetzel, Long Beach district manager of the program.

"The average weekly benefit rate paid by the Long Beach office to individuals unable to perform their usual and customary work is $22.79," said Hetzel. "The weekly benefits range from $10 to $25 and they are based on the highest amount of wages paid to the worker in any quarter of his base period. The 'base period' is established by the date a claim is filed and is ordinarily the first 12 of the preceding 16 to 18 months, depending upon the month during which the claim is filed."
