Filing on Odle Murder Delayed

Formal filing of a murder charge against John Odle, 35, for the alleged slaying of his divorced wife, Mrs. Arville Odle, 52, has been delayed for several days, it was announced by the District Attorney's office today. The defense counsel, O. A. Jacobs, being at present engaged in the trial of a case at Bakersfield. The authorities agreed to Jacobs' request to hold off filing of the charge for the present. The defense waived its constitutional right for an arraignment within 48 hours after arrest.

In view of impending federal prosecution Coroner Earl R. Abbey, said today that there would probably be no inquest.

Meanwhile, funeral services for Mrs. Odle were set for Wednesday at 10 a.m., in the Winbigler chapel, Santa Ana, in charge of the Rev. Charles H. Brady, Episcopal minister of Orange. The service will be private and will be followed by private cremation in Fairhaven Cemetery.

Mrs. Odle, who was shot down last Saturday in the Davis stationery store, 104 East Fourth street, where she was employed, was a native of Oklahoma and had lived in Santa Ana 27 years. She was a member of the Santa Ana Eastern Star and since her separation from Odle had lived with her daughter Mrs. Susan Wilde, Santa Ana.

Dixie Lee Denies Rift With Bing

HOLLYWOOD, May 9 (AP)—Dixie Lee Crosby, once a singer herself, lifted her voice today to back up crooner husband Bing's denial of a rift in their marriage. "If Bing says there is nothing to it, there is nothing to it," Dixie told the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner by telephone from the Crosby home in Carmel. "If anybody thinks differently they can take it from there."

The singer's attorney, John O'Melveny, said yesterday "there are some strained relations" in the 20-year marriage, and brother Larry Crosby added: "We hope it is a separation and not a divorce." Crosby, from Paris, said that he had received a letter from his wife a few days ago and "everything was all right then." Dixie said she had been hearing regularly from Bing since he went to Europe several weeks ago.

She admitted that she and Bing had employed attorneys to aid them out certain financial matters, including trust funds for their four sons. "Whenever you get money, there are problems," she explained. "A (Continued on Page 2)

CHINESE REDS RELEASE LONG BEACH NAVY MAN

TOKYO, May 9 (AP)—The Chinese communists broadcast today they are releasing two American sailors from whom they extorted "spy confessions" after 18 months in prison.

The official Peiping radio said the two airmen, E. C. Bender and W. C. Smith, will be deported. It gave no details.

Marine Master Sgt. Elmer C. Bender, Cincinnati, and Navy Chief Electrician William C. Smith of Long Beach, were forced down Oct. 19, 1948, on a flight from Tsingtao, then a U. S. naval base. They have been held incommunicado. The Reds stiffly rejected all efforts to obtain their release.

They "Confessed"

The communist radio broadcast this statement by Gen. Hsu Shih-yuh, commander of the Shantung military district:

"It was not until lately that Bender and Smith, influenced by our magnanimous policy toward prisoners, began to confess . . ."

The history of communism is full of similar "confessions," obtained after long imprisonment. The broadcast gave this account: Smith and Bender said the "objective of the flight was to recon-

50 CANDLES ON THEIR WEDDING CAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Archie Henry of 885 S. Lemon street observed their golden wedding anniversary last Saturday. The Anaheim couple were married in 1900 at the Christian Church. —(Gazette Photo)

Archie Henrys Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Fifty wonderful years of married life were observed Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Henry of 885 South Orange street. They were married on May 6, 1900 at the Christian Church and have lived their married life in this city since that date.

A golden wedding anniversary dinner complete with a wedding cake and miniature bride and groom was held at the Dorothy Wade restaurant on East Center street. Attending were 15 guests—all members of the immediate family. Mr. Henry was unable to attend. Mrs. Henry received a gold glove ring, presented by her granddaughter, Kathleen.

Anaheim Gazette
May 10, 1950

"Archie Henry and Miss Ida L. Bever were married at the Christian Church on Sunday morning, May 6 at 6 o'clock. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the popular young couple and after the ceremony the newly-wedded pair were congratulated by all. Later the guests were invited to Kistler's restaurant where a beautiful wedding supper was participated in."

Mr. Henry was born in Anaheim on Christmas Eve, December 24, 1889. His father, the late Captain Alexander Henry, settled here in the late 60's. He died in 1929. The captain was one of the 76 survivors of the "charge of the light brigade" in the Crimean War, fought between England and Russia in 1854 and '56. George Henry, grandson of Alexander has the kills and saber that his illustrious grandfather wore in that famous war. Captain Henry owned a vineyard here and at one time operated three wineries.

School Trustee
Mr. Henry was long active in civic affairs in the community. He was a trustee of the high school in 1910 and served as trustee of the Loara school for 20 years. All of the Henry children—four sons—were born at the family ranch on West Lincoln. The (Continued on Page 2)

Truman in Blast at Gov't Critics

Says Privilege; Greed Obstacles To Development

By Ernest B. Vaccaro
CASPER, Wyo., May 9 (AP)—President Truman pledged today a fight to push development of the West over the opposition of "reactionary forces."

The 13 car presidential train pulled into this Rocky Mountain oil center shortly after 7 a.m. The chief executive quickly was surrounded by a light-hearted crowd of children and adults as he took a six-block stroll through the streets.

In his speech prepared for delivery here, Mr. Truman blasted at "privilege and greed" as the main obstacles to western development. He pointed to the new Kortes dam, 60 miles south of here, as an example of government enterprise which will be a source of "wealth and strength for the people of the world."

The president scoffed at those who cry "socialism" and "regimentation" at such government efforts toward water and land resource development.

Overflow Crowd
The president spoke to an overflow crowd in the Natrona County high school auditorium which seats 1600.

Among those on the platform were Secretary of Interior Chapman, Reclamation Commissioner Michael Strauss and the Andrew Kortes family for whom the Kortes dam was named.

In the audience was Victor Johnson, staff director of the Senate Republican campaign committee, who has been following the president across the country to check up on the president's talks.

He was met at the station by two of his World War One companions, Gilbert Housely, an auto dealer, and James F. Hook, state director of Veterans' employment. Mr. Truman served with these men when he was a lieutenant in (Continued from Page 2)

Spotlight on Industry at Kiwanis Meet

"Solution to the over-taxed Euclid Trunk sewer line is obviously the immediate construction of the Magnolia trunk," said E. G. Gillespie, addressing the Kiwanis-Industrial Day luncheon meeting at the Elks club today.

The former chief sanitary engineer of the state of California declared that the future of Anaheim and Orange county is integrated in the expansion of the existing sewage facilities.

Open house at Kwikset Locks, Inc., and at the Anaheim Citrus Fruit Association rounded out the day's program as Civic Progress Week moved into its second day. Gillespie was introduced by Nelson Launer, general manager of the Orange County Joint Outfall Sewer system. Guest speakers included Clyde Nickle, general chairman of the week; E. W. Moeller, manager of the Chamber and Warren Ashleigh, president of the C. of C.

Santa Fe Cuts San Diego Run On One Daily

LOS ANGELES, May 9 (AP)—The Santa Fe Railroad announced today it will cut its San Diego-Los Angeles service to one train a day and abandon its San Bernardino-Los Angeles passenger run for duration of a firemen's strike. Present San Diego service is five trains daily. The lone one remaining tomorrow will leave Los Angeles at 12:45 p.m. and San Diego at 4:30 p.m. The San Bernardino local cancelled normally leaves at 6:30 p.m.

On the transcontinental run, only the Chief and a mail-express train will run, the railroad said. Four of the road's crack trains operating between Chicago and California have been cancelled, effective today. They are: No. 23, The Grand Canyon, to Los Angeles and San Francisco, and No. 21, The El Capitlan, No. 17, The Super Chief, and No. 3, The California Limited, all to Los Angeles.

Acheson in London for Aid Talks

LONDON, May 9 (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin met today to discuss ways of winning the cold war. Acheson came by plane from Paris, where he talked yesterday with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and agreed that the United States would give military and economic aid to keep warring Indochina out of the communist column.

Acheson and Schuman also were reported in agreement on giving more political and economic freedom to Western Germany by easing the occupation law under which the Big Three control their German ex-enemies. One of the problems the U. S. and British ministers were to examine was similar to that of Indochina—the communist uprising against Britain in Malaya, source of much of the world's rubber and tin.

Big Three
While Bevin and Acheson will discuss these problems together, most major decisions probably will await the arrival of Schuman for the three-day Big Three meeting beginning Thursday.

The trio's forthcoming talks are described as the most important since the war. They are marked by a great change in western diplomatic attitudes.

Previous conferences have been held either with the Russians present or with the West still hoping that Kremlin concessions might ensure peace.

The belief is widespread now that the cold war is a lasting condition and that there is no short-cut to a settlement with Russia. The result is expected to be new strong policies aimed at winning the cold conflict for the democracies.

YMCA BUILDING—Architects sketch of the proposed $80,000 YMCA Building to be built within the next six months on S. Citron is pictured above. Plans were approved at a Y Board meeting last evening. Architect is Harold Gimeno.

$80,000 YMCA Building Plans Approved; Seek More Funds

Acceptance of building plans and architect's sketch for the proposed $80,000 YMCA Building, to be erected on S. Citron street was made last evening by the YMCA board. With the acceptance, the board started immediate steps for conducting a fund-raising campaign to raise an additional $40,000 necessary before construction could start.

The plans as submitted by R. L. Rayburn, consultant of Bras call for the erection of a building comprising 10,000 square feet and including an all-purpose room capable of seating 450 people; recreation room; lounge; five club meeting rooms; office space; kitchen; dressing rooms and showers. A patio and outdoor grill are also contemplated.

Authorization was made to start preparation of the working plans from which building bids could be figured. The board meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demaree, West Sycamore street with the Demarees and Dr. and Mrs. Edward Jordt entertaining. Forty board members and their wives attended the buffet supper which preceded the regular business meeting.

Members of the YMCA Building Committee include: Mel Gauer, chairman; Walter Taylor; Ted Paine; Bob Quast; Paul Demaree; Tommy Thompson; Mrs. W. E. Whitman; Mrs. Warren Ashleigh; Mrs. Marion Pickel.

Elks' Prexy to Call On Local Lodge

Robert J. Craine, president of the California Elks Association, will address members of the Anaheim Elks Lodge and visitors from other parts of the Southland Wednesday night, according to Warren L. Ashleigh, secretary-manager of the Anaheim Lodge. Craine's speech is scheduled for 8 p.m. A dinner, starting at 6:30, will precede the state Elks president.

Craine's speech will be two-fold, Ashleigh said. The association president will present a digest of the state Elks' program with emphasis on how local lodges can work with it, and he will conclude with a Mother's Day observance. The Elks band will offer special Mother's Day music for the meeting.

Among the guests Wednesday night will be Harry D. Riley, vice-president of the California Elks Association.

Exalted Ruler Lloyd Verrey of the Anaheim Lodge will preside over the meeting.

LOS ANGELES, May 9 (AP)—Memorial Services will be held tomorrow at the University of California at Los Angeles for Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, Provost, who died Saturday.

Private funeral services were held yesterday at Laguna Beach, where the noted educator died of a heart attack. He was 67.

Prior to coming to UCLA in 1944, Dr. Dykstra was president of the University of Wisconsin.

Two Killed In Accident At Newport

County traffic accidents resulted in death for two and injuries for three more yesterday.

Two were dead as a result of a collision between a motor scooter and an automobile at Newport Boulevard and Albert Place in Costa Mesa at 7:17 p. m. yesterday.

George Lee, 34, 1640 Newport Boulevard, Costa Mesa, operator of the scooter, was killed instantly and his passenger, Dorothy Jean Russell, 30, 15622 South Quigley Lane, Santa Ana, died four hours later at the Santa Ana Community hospital.

According to the California Highway patrol, driver of the automobile, William E. Havens, 22, was making a U turn at the intersection when Lee's scooter struck the side of the car. Lee and Miss Russell hurtled through the air and struck the pavement.

Both bodies are at the Grauel Mortuary, Costa Mesa, pending an inquest.

Jerry Miller of Forest Home, driver of a car which ran into a ditch and struck a power pole on Tustin Avenue, south of Taft Avenue near Olive suffered major injuries. Accident occurred at 4:25 p.m. yesterday.

Also seriously injured in the wreck was Robert Martin, 23, of Redlands. Norvall McGregor, 21, of San Bernardino, escaped with minor injuries.

The three were taken to St. Joseph hospital.

Settle $20,000 Traffic Suit

Settlement out of court ended litigation of a $20,000 Anaheim traffic case in superior court yesterday, just as the suit was ready for trial before a jury. Superior Judge Raymond Thompson approved a $3000 compromise in favor of William D. Clark, 19, Fullerton, who had sued, through his father, J. B. Clark, for more than $20,000 damages.

Suit was based on injuries received by young Clark last July 31 when the car in which he was a passenger went off the pavement and struck a tree on Placentia avenue near South street, at the edge of Anaheim. The car was being driven by Gary Kemp, 16, of Fullerton. David H. Krueger, of Whittier, owner of the car, was named defendant in the suit.

Merchants' Day On Wednesday; Meeting Tonite

"The Future Belongs to Us" will be the topic of a talk to be given this evening by John Strgnahan, public relations consultant for the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce, at the Fremont School auditorium, starting at 8 p. m.

It will be an open meeting and a kick-off for tomorrow's Retail Merchants Day—the third special day of Anaheim's Civic Progress Week.

On Wednesday, the retail merchants will have four orange juice stands on downtown street corners for thirsty shoppers. Eight high school co-eds are scheduled to serve as hostesses.

Highlight of the day will be the selection of the oldest mother, the youngest mother, and the mother with the most children. Mother's may enter contest by registering at any Anaheim store tomorrow. Winners will receive electrical appliances at Friday's luncheon meeting of the Lions.

Baseball Flashes
BOSTON, May 9 (AP)—Mel Parnell pitched the Boston Red Sox into a first place tie with Detroit today by whipping the Tigers, 6-1, with the help of homers by Bobby Doerr and Walt Dropo. Virgil Trucks was the losing pitcher.

CHICAGO, May 9 (AP)—Lefty Johnny Schmitz stopped the New York Giants with three hits today, 6-0, as Chicago took the series finale. Manager Leo Durocher, second baseman Eddie Stanky and pitcher Sheldon Jones were thumped out of the game during a seventh inning argument.

Garden Grove Man New MOD Supervisor

N. F. (Bud) Moore, 11432 Paloma street, Garden Grove, has been employed by Mutual Orange Distributors as resident supervisor in the packing service department in Orange County.

Moore's employment was effective May 1.

The new supervisor has had wide experience in citrus inspection, having previously worked as an inspector in the standardization department in Orange County.

Since 1924

Moore has been engaged in citrus farming in Orange County since 1924. In 1931 he became associated with the Leffingwell Co. as an entomologist, a position he held until 1945. At that time he joined the staff of the county standardization department.

He is married and has one son, Ainsworth, who is employed as an entomologist with the Leffingwell Company.

Moore's work with MOD will include Orange County houses as well as Chula Vista and Whittier associations. H. Bolen Davis is chief supervisor of the MOD packing service department.

the 129th Field Artillery and they matched his old Army pace of 120 steps a minute in a walk through clear, brisk air.

The president had gone no more than 100 yards from his car when he had picked up a chattering, laughing escort of some 300 youngsters and oldsters, who trotted behind him, beside him and so close in front of him that secret service men had to shoo away some of the bolder ones so the chuckling chief executive wouldn't tread on their heels.

Backs Brannan

This struck the same informal, folksy note that marked yesterday's progress through Nebraska where he told an agriculture-minded audience at Lincoln that the controversial Brannan Farm plan would help assure "peace and prosperity for ourselves and the world."

Throughout yesterday, he continued to talk to large and apparently happy trackside crowds in the same chatty, neighborly fashion that marked his successful vote appeal of 1948.

Like at Pacific Junction, Iowa, yesterday where he told them he wanted them to look at their "hired man" to see if he is the same fellow who came out "looking for votes two years ago."

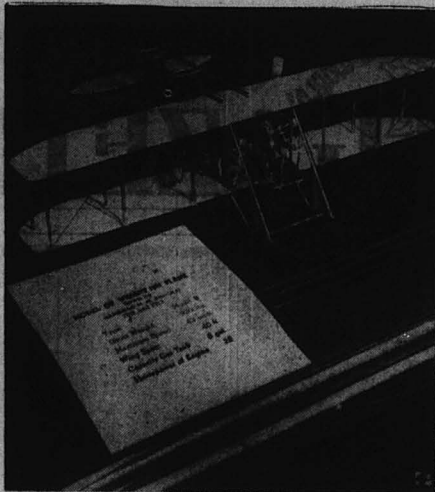

He added that he was 66 even if they thought he didn't look it.

Mr. Truman revived the old "Teapot Dome" scandal at Casper, contrasting the philosophy of "Teapot Dome" with that behind the construction of the Kortes dam.

The solemn note he sounded in speeches yesterday in Illinois and Iowa, where he warned the Midwest that a return to "isolationism" could bring on "a third world war," crept into his Casper talk.

"We are engaged in a world-wide struggle to bring lasting peace to the world," he said. "In that struggle we are being opposed by a cynical imperialism which asserts that freedom and democracy are soft and incapable of strong action."

U.S. Marines were called upon to quell a riot in Massachusetts State Prison back in 1924.

Wilbur Smith's Talking Wins Speech Trophy

Wilbur Smith, of Santa Ana Toastmasters No. 15, won the Optimal Trophy at last night's regular meeting of the Anaheim Toastmasters Club. Meeting was held at the Mother Colony House.

Smith spoke on "Job Training by Toastmasters."

Other speakers included Don Dunkin who spoke on "Subsistence of Terminal Islands." Earnest Wooster, Santa Ana No. 18, "What You Get for Your Taxes," and Louis Taylor, "It Happens Every Day."

Toastmaster of the evening C. J. Stillson presided over the exchange speakers meeting. Invocation was given by Al Holive.

Dr. Fred Rusch presented the table topic entitled, "Veteran, Take Off."

Grammarian for the evening was Earl Smith. Other officials were: Ed Wright, General Evaluator; Royal Marten, Time Keeper.

Assignments for next week, according to Ed Wright, secretary, are: table topic, Page Vincent; Toastmaster, Marion Pickel; Evaluator, Robert J. Allen; Grammarian, Lewis Taylor; speakers Knutzen, Huber and Wright. Meeting will be held at 6:30, Mother Colony House.

20-30 Club Sees Movies

Movies of the Di Giorgio farm labor squabble highlighted last night's regular meeting of the Anaheim 20-30 Club at Mother's Kitchen, according to publicity man Rod Cookus. President Wilton Collier presided. Burl Gist was program chairman.

Guests for the occasion were Phil Adams and Roger Pannier. Evening discussion included the coming 20-30-sponsored Spade Cooley program, slated May 29 in the high school auditorium. The program is a benefit affair designed to raise funds for summer recreation. The two-hour show will feature Spade and his television cast. Tickets are $1.25 for adults, 75 cents for the kiddies.

Also considered was the annual 20-30 picnic, set this year for May 21. The Anaheimers will sponsor the La Palma Park outing. 20-30 representatives from 10 cities in this area will attend. Main event is a softball series.

Wilbur Herman will handle the refreshments, Rod Cookus the softball and Al Mittman the registration.

Ask $31,776 Damages in Anaheim Crash

Damages aggregating $31,776 were demanded in a superior court action on file today, based upon an Anaheim traffic crash in which Frank Levin and his wife, Ruth, claimed personal injuries and other damage. Named as defendants were Frank S. Garrett, owner of the car which collided with the Levin machine; Donald S. Garrett, and Ruth Irene Garrett, said to have been the driver.

The collision took place at the intersection of Los Angeles and North streets, Anaheim, last November 23.

According to the complaint on file, Levin was driving north on Los Angeles street and stopped at the traffic signal at North street. The Garrett car struck the rear of the Levin car, it was stated.

Mrs. Levin suffered a snap injury to her neck, which affected her left arm, causing pain and numbness, and severe shock to the nervous system, it was claimed. Her husband suffered a back injury.

Plaintiffs ask $25,000 general damages for Levin, $5000 for his wife, $1185 for Mrs. Levin's medical costs, $400 for household help, $95 for Levin's medical expenses and $96 for car repairs.

Chinese Reds Release Long Beach Navy Man

"The Shantung military headquarters has decided to confiscate the airplane, an L-5."

"Since Bender and Smith have confessed their repentance they are being released and deported in line with the policy of the Chinese people's (communist) liberation army toward prisoners."

The broadcast said communists had released four captured U. S. airmen last year after Vice Adm. Oscar C. Badger, then commander of the U. S. Western Pacific fleet, "admitted their mistakes in a personal letter and guaranteed that no similar occurrence would happen again."

LONG BEACH, May 9 (AP)—There'll be some surprises waiting for U. S. Airman William C. Smith when he gets home from his Chinese red ordeal.

First will be 18-month-old Patrick. Smith knows he has one son, Michael, two years old. But, says his wife Ruby, "I don't think he ever got my letters telling him about Pat."

Then the airman will have to help his wife fight eviction from the little home she bought last year. One of the reasons the family faces eviction: Smith's signature is lacking on the legal papers. Hearing on the matter has been set for Sept. 12.

Mrs. Smith said she never doubted her husband was still alive, because "Smith told me once: 'If I die, I'll come back to you—you'll see me.'"

"Well," Mrs. Smith told a reporter today, "Smith never came back to me."

Call McCarthy 'Soviet Type' Propagandist

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—Senator Benton (D-Conn.) today called Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) "a very talented propagandist of the Soviet type."

In a speech defending the State Department against McCarthy's charges of communist infiltration, Benton said of McCarthy:

"He doesn't argue, he doesn't answer, he doesn't reason."

"He hits and runs."

Benton is a former Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs. In that post, one of his jobs was to keep check on Soviet propaganda and direct United States information agencies.

He told the Senate: "Senator McCarthy knows he can count on a vague distrust of the State Department and like the communist propagandist he is doing his best to exploit it by any and every means."

McCarthy was not in the Senate chamber while Benton was speaking.

One of those witnesses—Fredrick Vanderbilt Field—has formally denied that he was in contempt of congress in refusing to answer some of the questions put to him.

Winnipeg Hit Hard as Red River Rises

WINNIPEG, Man., May 9 (AP)—The steadily rising Red River today drove hundreds more Winnipeg residents from their homes, engulfing part of a residential suburb and threatening to sweep over other sections of this prairie metropolis.

With 200 square miles of southern Manitoba already under water, the flood already was the "most catastrophic ever seen in Canada," said Vice-Admiral H. T. V. Grant, chief of Canada's naval staff. More than 12,000 persons have been driven from their flooded homes.

Police sirens shrieked and loudspeakers blared through suburban streets as the city's army-bossed flood control headquarters ordered every family out of low-lying danger areas.

But in the city's heart risk to the business district was considered by most experts to be remote, despite reports of a new flood crest building up in rain-swollen Red River tributaries in northern Minnesota and North Dakota.

Organize Two Junior Hi-Y Clubs for Eighth Grade Girls at Fremont School

Two Junior Tri-Hi-Y Clubs for 8th grade girls have recently been organized at Fremont School, and plans for the remainder of the year as well as summer activities have been completed, according to Mrs. Nan Moore, Girl's Work Secretary of the YMCA, under whose supervision these new clubs will operate.

So far the girls are known as the "Afternoon Jr. Tri-Hi-Y" and the "Evening Jr. Tri-Hi-Y." Names for their clubs will be chosen in the near future. The groups meet each Monday afternoon or evening, at the Church of Christ, Broadway at Helena.

Temporary Officers
Temporary officers have been chosen, and have been busy planning their calendar of events. Both clubs are planning a swimming party at the school pool. The evening club has been formally inducted into membership, girls of the Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y presiding at the ceremony.

Officers for the evening group include Mary Lou Casebeer, president; Pat Santi, vice-president; Yvonne Flits, secretary; Mary Sue Dunne, treasurer; Charlyn Schmidt, Sgt. at arms; and Ann Betts, worship chairman. Afternoon club officers are Carol Kirk, president; Donna DeLeske, vice-president; Dorothy Addy, secretary; Marilyn Hemphill, treasurer; Bobbie Downs, worship chairman, and Nancy Plaisted, Sgt. at arms. Permanent officers will be chosen this month, and will be formally installed at a joint installation of Tri-Hi-Y officers and women's advisory board officers, at the Ebell club on Tuesday evening, May 23.

One of the most important events for these girls is a pot-luck dinner to which all 8th grade girls in the rural schools have been invited. The program will feature Mrs. Whittington, dean of girls at the high school who will speak to them on problems they will face on entering high school next year. Their calendar of events will also include some type of money raising event to help on the expenses to Camp Oceola this summer. A trip to Orange county park for horseback riding, and a campfire party with the Jr. Hi-Y club are also anticipated.

Both clubs are enthusiastic and plan to meet during the summer to keep their membership in touch with each other. These girls will form the nucleus for the new freshman Tri-Hi-Y clubs when the school year opens next fall.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y Honored at Formal Reception

One of the loveliest events of the graduating season was the recent formal reception honoring the Tri-Hi-Y girls of the Senior Class, given by the Women's Advisory Board of the YMCA. The spacious home of Mrs. John A. Wood, on East Santa Ana street was the setting for the festivities, and was made lovely with spring flowers, roses, and soft candlelight. Both the hostesses and the honorees were dressed in pastel formal gowns, adding to the beauty and dignity of the evening.

Mrs. W. E. Whiteman, president of the woman's board greeted the girls, and commended them for their loyalty to the high ideals of Tri-Hi-Y throughout the years of their high school life, and expressed her hope that their connection with YMCA would continue on the college campus or in whatever field of activity the years ahead might hold.

Mrs. Nan A. Moore, girls work secretary spoke briefly to the girls, urging an evaluation of their past experiences, and a definite laying of pattern for the years in their immediate future.

"Eight Men of Song"
Program for the evening was presented by Mr. George W. Burt of the Fullerton high school and junior college music department, who introduced his "Eight Men of Song," their accompanist and master of ceremonies. They included Roger McCandless and Charles Daugherty, tenors; Wesley Reed and Tommy Connors, 2nd tenors; Jack Albright and Walter Redpath, baritone, and Delbert Elliott and Wayne Clark, bass. Their master of ceremonies was Jim Dwinell, and accompanist, Warren Pee. The boys sang two groups of numbers, interspersed by piano specialties presented by their accompanist. Impromptu selections were presented later informally, during the refreshment period.

The tea table was beautiful with a centerpiece of roses and candlelight. Ladies of the woman's board poured.

Senior girls attending included Pat Berry, Jackie Whiteman, Beverly Curtis, Betty Jo Simmons, Betty Siems, Carol Hochull, Eleanor Scheerer, Della Horn, Genevieve Kirk, Jewel Walker, Donna Lynn Stuard, Bonnie Friis, Mary Jean Starr, Mildred Harling, Joan Spencer, Holly Fitz, LaVonne Hettshusan, Pat Jones, Janet Parra, Eloise Biefield, Janice Schamp and Phyllis Rogers. Unable to attend were Carol Reed, Catharine Lucas and Mary Whitney. Members of the women's board attending included Mrs. W. E. Whiteman, Mrs. A. Dayton Smith, Mrs. Harry Nutt, Mrs. Charles Pannier, Mrs. Tommy Thomason, Mrs. Harwood Larson, Mrs. William Llewellyn, Mrs. Harry Fox, Mrs. Al Casebeer, Mrs. Roma Ryan, Mrs. John A. Wood, Mrs. Maybelle Spencer and Mrs. Warren Ashleigh.

C. H. Lawrence's 25th Anniversary

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lawrence, 820 South Philadelphia street, honored their Sunday afternoon with a surprise party celebrating the couple's silver wedding anniversary.

A large three tier wedding cake had been made for the occasion, and decorated according to the memory of guests who had attended the couple's wedding in Los Angeles, May 9, 1925. The original rignature bride and groom were again used to top the wedding cake.

The table was centered by a beautiful wedding bouquet of white roses, similar to that carried by Mrs. Lawrence 25 years ago.

Guests congratulating the honorees were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Verdieck, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hutz, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herzog, and daughters, all of Los Angeles; Mr. Henry Verdieck of El Centro, Mr. and Mrs. John Cupo of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Goodnoe, of South Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Svogar, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffel and family, of Anaheim.

During the afternoon, messages and gifts were received from those who were unable to attend, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Verdieck and family of Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Bowman, of Long Beach; Mrs. Margaret O'Hara, Mrs. Gladys Allens and Miss Mary Elzy, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Dahlman on Trip to Germany

Mrs. Louise Dahlman, 14611 Olive road, who left last night by plane for a three month trip to Europe, was recently honored by two going-away parties.

Wednesday evening, her niece, Mrs. Helen Clark, entertained at a family dinner.

Members of the Anaheim Garden club gave a surprise shower at Mrs. Dahlman's home, Sunday evening, at which time they presented her with many practical gifts for her trip.

Mrs. Dahlman expects to arrive in Ireland, May 10, leaving the same day for Hamburg, Germany, where she will be met by her husband's brother, Mr. L. Ehlers of Bremen. After visiting with the Ehlers in Bremen, she will go to Lubeck, British zone, to visit with relatives and friends. If time permits, she hopes also to travel through Norway and Sweden.

Doris De Witt Is Honored at Nuptial Shower

Miss Doris De Witt, Anaheim, was the honoree at a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower, Sunday morning, given by Mrs. Rollie Parker of this city, and Mrs. Monte Montgomery, at the Montgomery home in Garden Grove.

The gift table was centered by a large maypole, with streamers cleverly arranged over the gifts. Refreshments were served on coffee trays, upon which individual old fashioned bouquets had been placed.

Guests who honored Miss De Witt were, Miss Joan Jackson, Miss Betty Simms, Miss Joan Ball, Mrs. De Witt and daughters Joan and Paula, Miss Marilyn Gorham, Mrs. Ben Frances, Miss Bette Palomares, Miss Jennie Monnig, Mrs. Orlo East, Mrs. Vera Palomares, all of Anaheim, and Mrs. Andrew Saez of Orange.

Miss De Witt's marriage to Philip Henry, of Fullerton, will take place May 27, at St. Boniface church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. De Witt, 125 South West street.

We are Proud... Modestly

We are modestly proud of the very first issue of our daily Gazette yesterday. The ingredients of a good newspaper were there: home news, general news, and merchandising messages.

We say we were only "modestly proud" because we will be bigger and better as our planned program of operations unfolds. This is only a start, we hope to grow stronger, with a better-looking paper, better headline arrangements and styles, and better pictures.

But, above all, we hope to deserve the confidence which our new subscribers and our advertisers have given us.

Yes, we had advertisements—the backbone of a newspaper. We hope you looked them over carefully, and that you will continue to look them over carefully.

We know you'll find Anaheim merchants now have a wider, bet-

Civic Progress Week...

And that leads right into Civic Progress Week, which Anaheim is now observing.

Civic Progress Week should present the citizenry an opportunity to think a little about what goes with Anaheim: what the city as a unit is doing for the economic (and cultural and spiritual) betterment of the people? What lies ahead? How can we improve on the past? What course is Anaheim definitely following in this tremendously important migration to California? What about a clear cut program of civic progress?

Well, is Civic Progress Week answering that for you?

We are confident the City Council and the Chamber of Commerce know there are important civic programs which must be outlined, accepted, AND EXPLAINED TO THE PEOPLE, so that everybody will find his spot to push for Anaheim. And, we feel the City Council and Chamber of Commerce are capable of presenting good plans and carrying them to completion—with necessary alterations as progress dictates.

So, why is there the apparent confusion, and in some quarters, almost complete ignorance of what lies ahead for Anaheim?

Well, let's face it. A good, steady, easily understood information program is needed. The people must be informed about Anaheim's civic progress. They must have the facts of a brief, clear cut program in their hands so they can arrive at informed conclusions as to where the city is headed.

If that had been done, we feel there would not have been the flare of tempers, the confusion, Anaheim.

Construction work on a new central county office building for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, to be erected on the west side of Lemon street between Cypress and Charters streets, at a cost of $270,000, will be started during the summer months and is scheduled for completion late this fall, according to announcement by E. A. Beard.

Miss Edith Fay favored those present by singing several songs in her usual good voice. During the evening refreshments were served.

One of the prettiest sights to be seen in Orange county is Tim Boege's vineyard in the west end.

The vines are luxuriant and the tract is now at its best, so far as appearances go, and gets much favorable comment from passers by. John Eyemann's vineyard on Sycamore is also one of the picturesque bits of landscape hereabouts. His vines are very handsome specimens of verdure and give promise of an abundant crop.

Boyle Says Butte Ain't the Same, But It's Better

By HAL BOYLE

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Once a bartender in this copper mining capital of America got into an argument with an unfriendly customer.

Before the bartender could end the discussion he found it necessary to bite off the fellow's ear. He rose and flipped the ear on the bar and announced:

"The next round is on the house. Drink up, everybody."

This tale is typical of the old Butte. But it is also typical, in a way, of the new Butte.

For Butte is still one of a half dozen men's towns left in the United States. It is a free-and-easy town, where they give you change in clinking silver dollars instead of paper bills.

It is an man's town where they take a stranger at his word until his acts prove him a liar.

This might be because this is a Far West melting pot of 50 nationalities, and in a town like that the only way you can judge anybody is by the simple standard: "Is he a good guy?"

It might also be because miners, coming up from daylong work under temperatures ranging up to 110 degrees, don't want to hear any guff as they drink their boilermakers—a whiskey shot chased by beer.

The basic fact remains that the atmosphere of this wide-open town is friendly—they like you until you start trouble. But if it's trouble you want, you can get it here from every direction of the compass.

Copper comes from sweat, and sweat comes from muscle, and there is a lot of muscle in a miner. And when a miner uses his muscle against flesh instead of hard rock he can raise a mighty bruise, and quickly change the silhouette of a man with buck teeth.

But there isn't so much ear-chewing and face-stomping hereabouts as there was in the old days. There is a sign outside Butte now that advises tourists:

"She was a bold, unashamed, rootin', tootin', hell-roarin' camp in days gone by and still drinks her liquor straight."

But civilization has come to the bad, mad, glad copper camp. A half century or more ago most of the miners were single men and lived in boarding houses. Now most are married and have their own homes.

There used to be 800 to 1,000 prostitutes who, paid $5 a night to rent cribs in the red light district. Today there are probably less than 50 doing a subdued unglamorous business.

More miners now would rather go square dancing or help their kids with their homework.

Butte is a changing town. It still takes pride in its ribald past—and there's plenty of it left—but it also is proud of its growing civic responsibility. You don't hear anyone bragging anymore that it has more dead men in its cemeteries than live men listed in the town directory.

It's a great place yet for a fight or a frolic, but Butte is slowly taming down—or growing up. You know what the folks are proudest about today?

"It's our high school band," several told me. "It's the best damn band in the country—150 pieces. A lot of other cities ask to hear our kids play—Pasadena, Portland, Washington. All we have to do is pass the hat, and in no time at all we can raise $20,000 or more to send them. Everybody chips in."

Grubby men lined up at the bars fork over as quickly as the people at the country club. Butte's even talking of bringing Toscanini out here—so he can lead some kids who really know music.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

EARL G. WATERS

SACRAMENTO, (WNS)—Since legislators voted themselves pensions amounting to as much as three-fourths of their salary, some former members have taken an interest in serving at least one more term.

At the June primary elections five ex-legislators will seek to return to office. Only two of these voluntarily retired from the legislature.

One who would benefit most by the return from the standpoint of the legislative retirement plan is Charles W. Lyon.

seeking election from the 59th assembly district in Beverly Hills.

Lyon was first elected an Assemblyman from Venice in 1914. Four years later he was elected from Los Angeles and served there for 12 years, returning to the Assembly in 1932. He became Speaker of the Assembly in 1943 and served in the same capacity in 1945. He retired from the legislature in 1946 to seek the office of lieutenant governor.

With 32 years service in the legislature Lyon would be eligible to draw the maximum three-fourths retirement pay of a member of the legislature if he can return for one more session. This would amount to $225 per month for life after he reaches the age of 65. Lyon is now 63. A return like that these days is equal to the average return on an investment of at least $50,000.

Another legislator who is seeking to return is the colorful former attorney General Robert W. Kenny. In 1938 he gave up his post as a Los Angeles Superior Court judge to run for the state senate and served one term there before becoming attorney general. He is now seeking to unseat Los

Outside of the legislature, an interesting comeback is being attempted by former Santa Clara County Sheriff William Emig. Forced out of office in Santa Clara County as a result of a conviction which landed him in the county jail, Emig is now seeking to return to the office of Sheriff, only this time he is running for election in Santa Cruz County.

Colony Quips

The phenomenal success and acceptance accorded the Gazette's entry into the daily field yesterday has been truly miraculous and one of the most heartening things that has ever happened to us in this newspaper. We are very humble in the sight of this coincidence and hasten to assure everyone that we will all do our utmost to merit your good will. In fact good will is our stock in trade.

We wish to welcome our ever-widening circle of new readers into the family and make them part of the charter members of our first ten thousand club. This is not as ephemeral as it sounds for we are well on our way and growing faster than we ever expected to.

Our field is the same as it has always been, that of the small community newspaper which is Angeles Senator Jack W. Tenney.

Up in Mendocino County former Senator George M. Biggar, defeated in 1946 by Burt W. Busch, will seek to return at Busch's expense. Biggar served in the Assembly from 1930 to 1934 at which time he was elected to the Senate. He also would receive the maximum retirement pay if re-elected.

D. Jack Metzger of Red Bluff, a Senator from 1934 to 1942, is seeking re-election in opposition to the incumbent Senator Louis G. Sutton of Maxwell elected at a special election in 1944.

Former Assemblyman Walter R. Hinton who served one term, 1940-48 will seek re-election from Burbank. He is running against Everett G. Burkhalter who defeated him two years ago.

Outside of the legislature, an interesting comeback is being attempted by former Santa Clara County Sheriff William Emig.

Forced out of office in Santa Clara County as a result of a conviction which landed him in the county jail, Emig is now seeking to return to the office of Sheriff, only this time he is running for election in Santa Cruz County.

more concerned with Anaheim than any other spot on earth.

But we have said all that over and over and this was supposed to be about the reception of our first issue. Frankly, we did not know the sheet had that many friends. But the calls came in from folks we know and from hundreds we did not know—but do now. It was very encouraging and we are very humble.

If this sound, a bit disjointed you are absolutely right—it is and we are too. But the great number of well-wishers has taken our typewriter's breath away, making us feel like a guy who has just stepped out of a jet plane after acting a new record. We don't know whether we landed back in Anaheim or on the moon.

We have been dodging drops of paint, chunks of glass, goals of plaster, tons of dust and other things too numerous to mention for the past week or so in order to get a face lifting job done here at the Gazette office. We found some things that seemed to date back to 1870. We hasten to add that they were inanimate objects and the conductor of this column was not one of them although we have been called inanimate by some of his enemies.

We have a lot of new sound around here that make it very difficult to take much of a nap. Those darn teletypes keep at it with never a let up and although we have them sound conditioned or something the noise is so new to this little country plant that our sista just dies aching. We have often had visitors ask how we stood the noise of the teletypes and press as all going at the same time. That was an easy one: they make music. The kind of music a press makes is the kind that pays the bills and buys the groceries. That kind of music makes it much easier to relax into that siesta. But this new clackety-clack sound is like somebody pounding heels out of a typewriter and keeping at it with never a lull. That is not the way we use this one.

We have to stop to think every once in a while. You don't believe it? We surely do think about how nice it would be to go fishing, away on a trip, or just to have a night of fancy in the midst of a little siesta. And then some raucous voice says "where is that lousy column?" and we start up the old typewriter. But those lousy teletypes just keep rolling along so that we just can't sleep. Those things are gadgets that we are not used to and after a few weeks we will be so used to them that the old siesta will not be disturbed.

Renner said today that a special fleet of Red Shield trucks will be available to answer calls to pick up salvage. He relayed a message from Brigadier Fred Ohm, manager of the Army's center, who told of the continuous need for discards to keep the Salvation Army program of self-help operating.

"Needy veterans and non-veterans alike are receiving humanitarian assistance from the Salvation Army social service center," Brig. Ohm said. "In order to continue, we must have large quantities of castoff materials for collecting and refurbishing. The public can help us give thousands of men a new start in life by telephoning Anaheim 4631 and requesting a Red Shield truck to stop at homes or offices to pick up unwanted articles."

The Mailbag

TO THE EDITOR: Congratulations to the Anaheim Daily Gazette. Your brave new venture will bear the watching with pride of all of your fellow publishers of Orange County and Southern California.

It is no small undertaking for even an organization with the age of yours. It takes no small amount of courage to step into daily publication from one of the most respected and substantial weekly operations in our state.

We all wish you well and look forward to seeing the first edition of your publication on May 8th. May it prosper and grow for even longer than the 80 years tallied on the books to date.

Again, best wishes, congratulations, and at the same time condolences for the many fine things you personally will miss in performing your community duty with your Anaheim Daily Gazette.

Salvation Army Sets June 5-10 Salvage Week

Target of a week-long campaign sponsored by the Salvation Army social service center in this area will be unwanted furniture, clothing, shoes, appliances, and miscellaneous articles. Salvage Week in Anaheim has been set for June 5 through 10, according to the drive's general chairman, O. H. Renner.

Renner said today that a special fleet of Red Shield trucks will be available to answer calls to pick up salvage. He relayed a message from Brigadier Fred Ohm, manager of the Army's center, who told of the continuous need for discards to keep the Salvation Army program of self-help operating.

Box-Wise PCL Chiefs Offer Coffin Report in Battle Against TV

By JIM HUBBART
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pacific Coast League club owners have some new and lethal ammunition today in their battle to exterminate what they call the No. 1 crowd killer, television.

The first available 1950 figures on baseball video audiences were released yesterday, the report is amazing. In many respects it's frightening—unless you're in the television business.

For example: The Los Angeles-San Diego series at Wrigley Field April 4-8 drew 102,057 week-day onlookers, only 4.6 per cent of whom were actually at the ballpark.

The figures are from the current tele-report on the Los Angeles television audience, published by Coffin, Cooper & Clay, Inc. It is compiled in much the same way as radio's Hooper rating. In fact, clubowners already are calling it the "Coffin rating," for reasons obvious.

The Coffin measurements treat only of telecasts in the Los Angeles area, but might also be of interest to San Francisco, the west coast's second video hotspot. Here are some of the findings:

A Sunday doubleheader between Portland and Hollywood April 2 appeared on about 173,300 TV sets. The crowd at Gilmore Field numbered 9269 paid.

The April 3 twin bill between the Angels and Padres lured only 2083 through the turnstiles. But 232,300 citizens saw it on television. The TV audience on week nights for that series averaged 97,300. Attendance at the park average 4757.

PCL clubs resume hostilities tonight, meeting by decree of an oddly concocted schedule, the same foes they met two weeks ago. Two are cross-town rivalries—Oakland at San Francisco and Los Angeles at Hollywood.

Sure fire crowd pleasers in the pre-TV era, these intramural arrangements are suffering this season at the box office. Attendance figures in their previous meetings this year show a considerable drop from 1949.

Boxing Disputes Ended in Houston
Houston School Board today abolished boxing matches as a means of settling schoolboy disputes.

Dr. Henry A. Peterson said that although boxing is recognized as a sport the schools are responsible for the children and that no other sport places such emphasis on knocking the opponent unconscious.

Dr. C. M. Taylor suggested the board would face this problem from children if boxing gloves are removed; "They'll settle their arguments with rocks."

Rolfe's Hustling Bengals Gain American Chiefs' Awe
Rival big league managers are beginning to talk about Red Rolfe's hustling Detroit Tigers with a great deal of respect.

Baseball men who previously had regarded the Tigers as "just another first division club," are openly giving the Bengals a good chance to win the American League flag.

Casey Stengel, skipper of the New York Yankees is the latest to climb aboard the Detroit bandwagon. Not that he thinks his Yankees won't repeat.

"Detroit is the best looking club we've faced thus far," he said yesterday following the Tigers' 7-1 triumph over his world champions.

"They're going to be tough, you can bet on that. Especially when (Hal) Newhouse comes around. I don't like to talk about players on other clubs. But that (Art) Houtteman looked like the best pitcher in the league out there today."

Houtteman, 22-year-old right-hander blanked the Yankees for eight innings, but let up in the ninth after his mates had given him a 7-0 lead. It was his fourth triumph against only one loss.

The Tigers today were leading the league. Although tied with Boston in games won and lost, the Tigers lead the Red Sox by 64 percentage points. They've won 10 of 14 starts while the Sox have won 13 of 20.

Compton Hosts U. of Mexico
COMPTON, May 9 (AP)—The Compton College track squad plays host to the University of Mexico here tonight on the Ramsaur stadium oval.

The Tartars will be heavily favored in this third annual meeting with Mexico. Arriving here last week with a small assemblage of 15 performers, Mexico will be weakened by the absence of Carlos Monjes, Alberto Vera and Alejandro Bobadilla—national champions in the 400 meters, javelin and 1500 meters, respectively. They stayed home with their books.

Musial Hits .453 so far, Eyes 4th Title

NEW YORK, May 9 (AP)—Stan Musial is off to a fast start in his bid for a fourth batting crown.

The classy St. Louis Cardinal outfielder—first baseman, who hopes to become the first National leaguer since Bill Terry to hit .400 or better for a season, is 53 points above the magic figure.

Including games of Sunday, Stan is banging away at a .453 clip with 24 hits in 53 times at bat. Terry batted .401 for the New York Giants in 1930.

Close on Musial's heels is Andy Pafko, Chicago's hard-hitting outfielder, with .439.

Wes Westrum, sophomore catcher of the Giants is third with .389, three points higher than Philadelphia's Dick Sisler. Cateher Joe Garagiola of the Cards is fifth with .378.

Dodger Jackie Robinson, last year's batting champion is sixth at .356. Two points below is Sam Jethroe, negro rookie outfielder of the Boston Braves. He is followed by Johnny Hopp of Pittsburgh, .340.

Tied for eighth, ninth and tenth at .333 are Tommy Glaviano, Cardinal third baseman; Alvin Dark, Giant shortstop and Don Mueller, outfielder of the Giants.

Yankees' Tarzan Mapes Paces American League Swatsmen

CHICAGO, May 9 (AP)—The top ten batters in the American League are clicking at .366 or better—a fast pace led by Cliff (Tarzan) Mapes, New York Yankee outfielder, and Cateher Jim Hegan of Cleveland.

Through Sunday's games, Mapes had authored .406 with 18 blows in 32 times at bat. Hegan had .405.

They were followed by Don DiMaggio of Boston with .389; Larry Doby, Cleveland, .386; Paul Lehner, Philadelphia, .382; Tommy Henrich, New York, .379; Phil Rizzuto, New York, .375; Al Zarilla, Boston, .370; Gerry Coleman, New York, .367, and Ed Stewart, Washington, .366.

Seven Boston players dominated the specialized section. Vern Stephens led in runs batted in with 23 and was tied with Don DiMaggio for most hits, 28. Johnny Pesky had the most runs, 22; Ted Williams the most homers, 7; and Bobby Doerr shared the three-bagger lead with Henrich, three. Zarilla was tops in doubles with eight.

The seventh Red Sox in the parade was Chuch Stobbs who shared pitching honors with a 2-0 record with Detroit's Virgil Trucks, Philadelphia's Bob Hooper and St. Louis' Joe Ostrowski.

Cleveland's Bob Lemon led in strikeouts with 19. Bob Dillinger of Philadelphia and Herb Adams of Chicago headed the base stealers, each with two thefts.

The big question was whether the newly phrased "open to all" membership regulation could muster a majority vote Friday. One southern director was quoted as telling the others: "We had to leave the north once before. Maybe we'll have to do it again."

Bowling Congress Shaken Over Race Question

COLUMBUS, O., May 9 (AP)—An internal battle over its white male membership restriction is about to shake the 50-year-old American bowling congress to its foundations.

That was the consensus today as the grapevine whispered the results of last night's opening confab of the ABC executive directors.

The big fight—and everyone seems certain there will be one—is scheduled Friday. About 400 delegates from all parts of the U.S. and Canada have the power to overrule or refuse to approve any actions of the directors.

The big question was whether the newly phrased "open to all" membership regulation could muster a majority vote Friday.

One southern director was quoted as telling the others: "We had to leave the north once before. Maybe we'll have to do it again."

BRITISH TO ENTERTAIN U.S. WORKERS

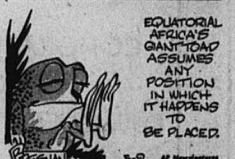

SALISBURY, England (AP).—American workers and their families visiting England will be entertained in the homes of British workers under a scheme introduced by the Salisbury trades council. The council has its own "personal ambassador" to the United States. He is Reginald A. Pitt, a scientist who was born in Salisbury but now temporarily living in Baltimore. Pitt agreed, on a recent visit home, to publicize the council's plan in Salisbury, Md.

Social and Club Activities

Piepenbrinks Give Shower For Daughter

Mrs. George Marshall, of Long Beach, was honored at a baby shower, Saturday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink, 560 South Dickel street, Anaheim.

Mrs. Robert E. Smith, of this city, assisted Mrs. Piepenbrink with the hostess' duties. The living room of the home was prettily decorated with ceramic booties and baskets filled with flowers.

During the evening, games appropriate to the occasion were played with prizes going to Mrs. Lee Greggs and Mrs. Smith.

Refreshments of dainty sandwiches, individual cakes iced in pink and blue booties, ice cream and coffee were served to the 12 guests from Long Beach and Anaheim.

Spring Dance At Marywood

The sophomores and freshmen of Marywood central Catholic high school held their spring dance in the school social hall Friday evening from 8 to 11.

"Garden Gaiety" was the theme, well-carried out by the artistic decorations of the committee whose chairman was Miss Placida Bagdon of Orange. Straw hats with satin streamers were filled with spring flowers and hung as wall lanterns. Japanese lanterns suspended from strings of colored lights furthered the garden theme. Rustic garden benches and the garden gate entrance completed the setting.

Tallys with stenciled flowers were the work of Mary Jean Bushman, Anaheim; and Imogene Larson; Bertita Melendez, San Salvador; and Lyda Cannoto, Artesia.

The favors of flower-filled yellow plastic cornucopias were produced by Alberta Simeon and Joanne Carter.

The refreshment table was most attractively arranged by the chairman, Joan Polle. On a white linen cover were two gay pottery punch bowls in a setting of fern and marguerites.

The main point of interest was the beautifully adorned and illuminated shrine of the Blessed Virgin, who as Mary Queen, resigned over the dance.

Tri-Hi-Y Holds Mother-Daughter Tea at Demarees'
The spacious living room and patio of the Demaree home on East Sycamore was the scene of a lovely party on Sunday afternoon, when the members of the Tri-Hi-Y Clubs honored their mothers at a Mother and Daughter tea. The hours had been set as 3:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon.

Incidental music was provided by Genevieve Bradley and Marilyn Schimming, who presided at the grand piano throughout the afternoon. Leaders of the Freshman and Sophomore clubs received at the door during the first hour, and presidents of the two clubs presided at the tea table. Junior and Senior leaders received during the latter half of the afternoon, with their club presidents pouring during the same time.

Receiving from 3:00 to 4:00 were Miss Phyllis Herman, Mrs. Orlo Fast and Mrs. Roger Harlow. Miss Gretchen Decker, president of the Freshman Tri-Hi-Y served punch and Miss Rosemary Poyet of the Sophomore club poured tea.

In the receiving line from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. were Miss Ruth Demaree, Miss Jerre Homan, and Mrs. Ross Walker, Jr., serving during this time was Miss Mildred Harling, President of the Senior club, and Miss Bonnie Smith, president of the Junior Club.

Miss Jackie Whiteman, president of the Tri-Hi-Y Council presided at the guest book throughout the afternoon.

More than 100 mothers and daughters attended the event.

Love-Powell Nuptial Rites

TRADE SALUTE—Dr. Emil Landolt, Mayor of Zurich, Switzerland, and master of one of city's trade guilds, raises his goblet in salute during a Spring festival guild parade.

212 South Rose street, and Charles H. Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powell, of Bellflower, were married recently in the home of the Rev. Harold Schilke.

The double ring ceremony, was the first wedding rite performed by Rev. Schilke, since establishing his residence in Anaheim as the new minister of the Bethel Baptist church.

White roses, dutch iris and wedding bells had been cleverly arranged to decorate the living room of the Schilke home.

A reception for immediate members of the family was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple plan to make their home in Bellflower, after returning from a honeymoon trip to San Francisco.

Open House at County Hospital Friday, 2-4 p.m.

All citizens of Orange county are invited to attend open house and inspect the Orange county general hospital, Friday, May 12, between 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. This reception, sponsored by the board of supervisors, will be in celebration of National Hospital Day and of the opening of a new obstetrical ward.

National Hospital Day has been celebrated each year since President Warren G. Harding gave his approval to the idea in 1921. May 12 was selected because it is the birthday of Florence Nightingale, "The Lady of the Lamp."

Founded in 1914, the Orange county general hospital has experienced many growing pains and adjustments in its attempt to keep pace with the rapidly increasing population of Orange county. From a small beginning it has gradually grown into an institution with a daily census of approximately 400 patients.

Every kind of disease found in Orange county is treated there. Each of the seven ages of man is well represented. Between the premature baby in the incubator to the nonagenarian in the geriatrics ward stretches a considerable period of time and a vast array of ailments.

The board of supervisors and the hospital director especially desire that the taxpayers of Orange county become familiar with the hospital and the scope of its work. Visitors are requested to drive in the main entrance of U.S. Highway 101 approaching the hospital from the east entrance. Parking attendants will be stationed near the main entrance to direct visitors to the parking areas as close to the main building as possible. Visitors are requested to enter the front door where hostesses will greet you and assist you to student nurses who will conduct a planned tour of the buildings and grounds. The conducted tour will end at the hospital library where light refreshments will be served.

Present Choral Festival at Greek Theatre

Announcement was made today that a choral festival comprising over 700 voices from 25 church choirs in Orange county will be presented June 4 in the Greek Theater at the Anaheim City park. This event is sponsored by the Orange county chapter of the California Choral Conductors Guild and was originally scheduled for May 7. Because of the larger number of singers than previous estimates indicated it was necessary to secure larger facilities.

Howard Swan, head of the music department at Occidental College, will conduct the performance while Dr. C. Harold Einicke of Santa Ana will accompany. Wesley Marquart of Orange heads the festival committee and states that this event is open to the public.

If You Hit the Bottle on the Road Don't Breathe a Word to Patrol

SACRAMENTO, May 9—(AP)—

Mints and breath beautifiers may fool the 'missus, after you've had a couple. But don't try the same technique on the highway patrol.

In its campaign to curb drunk driving in California, the patrol has devised six different tests for detecting tipsy motorists.

They are:
1. The Romberg test—Usually on the spot. A motorist is made to walk the white line in the road; stand on one leg; bring his fingers to his nose and perform other coordination exercises.

2. The drunkometer—better known as the balloon test. The driver must whoosh air from the bottom of his lungs to fill the balloon. In a laboratory, the air is let out of the balloon into a chemical which shows the alcohol content of the blood.

3. The screen test—like a movie hero, the driver performs in front of a motion picture camera. But the "set" consists of a special room with a white stripe on the floor. The driver is put through the paces of the Romberg test.

4. and 5. The fluid tests—samples of the driver's blood and urine are taken to determine alcohol content. Neither of these can be made without the motorist's consent.

6. Examination by a medical doctor.

Several states have a uniform driving test—usually one of the first three described above. In California, the kind of test to be given in each area is determined by the district attorney and Clayton Hess, assistant education officer for the patrol, appraises the balloon test as the best all around device to measure drunkenness.

In experiments, he said, it was possible to determine with a high degree of accuracy exactly how many bottles of beer a subject had downed.

The penalty for drunk driving in California is covered by two state laws:

Prison and fine may be imposed if the driver injures another person while drunk.

Jail and fine may be imposed if the driver is even driving while drunk.

McCoy Starts Campaign for School Supt.

Taking personal charge of his campaign for County Superintendent of Schools, John H. McCoy, former director of Santa Ana college, today started a leave of absence from his present duties as public relations counsel for the Fluor Construction Co., of Los Angeles.

He decided to take leave of absence rather than campaign on company time, "in fairness to the Fluor company," he said.

"I'm just as surprised as other people that so many employees of the County Superintendent of Schools' office are permitted to engage in campaign work while on the taxpayer's payroll," McCoy said. "If that falls within their regular duties, it is all the more reason to demand that economy measures be introduced in the county schools department."
