Crooke Lauds GG Growers

REDLANDS—High praise for courage shown by citrus growers during the most severe winter ever experienced in the Garden Grove area since citrus became a major crop was expressed today by Howard Crooke, manager of the Garden Grove Orange cooperative at that organization's annual meeting.

Over 150 growers attend the meeting held at Knott's Berry farm following a turkey dinner served at noon. President of the board John W. Crill presided. Other board members who served during the past year were William F. Holve, Charles O. Brisco, William Fleischman, Charles A. Gillman and Walton L. Long.

Temperatures which dropped as low as 17 and 18 degrees last winter brought severe damage to much of the fruit causing an estimated drop of 40 per cent of the crop. Thirty per cent of the fruit that remained on the trees was so severely damaged it was difficult to salvage any packable fruit, Crooke reported.

"Facing such a condition, the packing house found it necessary to gear its operations to a salvage basis on much of the crop," the manager explained. "This was accomplished by extensive field cutting to determine the amount of frost damage in order to segregate shippable fruit from juice fruit. Samples of each delivery of fruit were taken at the packing house in order to determine how best to handle it," he said.

"Although this method served to increase operating costs, it

Reds May be Withdrawing to Await Political Developments in the U.N.

WHERE ALLIES BOMB REDS—Blast symbols show where Allied power bombed military targets throughout North Korea today. Ground action was limited to patrol activity in Yoju and Yongwol areas (arrows). Allied Naval Vessels Blast Inchon As Patrols Find Opposition Missing

INTERNATIONAL AT A GLANCE
By the Associated Press

KOREAN FIGHTING FRONT—Failure of U.N. forces to meet serious enemy opposition in northward probings leads to belief Chinese communists may have pulled back to await political developments in U.N., leaving only North Korean red patrols south of Han river around Seoul.

WASHINGTON—West Big-Three plans talk soon to map specific issues they want to discuss should Russia agree to their latest bid for Big-Four conference on world problems. Western diplomats in Moscow say new notes sent to Kremlin don't narrow differences between Russia and West on what should be discussed, but tone of messages gives hope parley can be arranged.

LAKE SUCCESS — Asian-Indian bloc presents fourth bid for peace settlement in Korea to U. N. Political committee without mentioning cease-fire. Indian delegate to argue it should take precedence over U. S. demand red China be branded by U. N. as aggressor.

PARIS — Gen. Eisenhower leaves for Iceland and Canada for more Atlantic Pact army talks before returning to Washington to report.

TOKYO, Friday Jan. 26, (AP)—United Nations naval vessels today shelled Inchon, the port for Seoul, amid mounting speculation that the Chinese reds were withdrawing from their Han River line south and southeast of the Korean capital.

The Allies abandoned Inchon Jan. 4. There were no details on the bombardment of dock and harbor facilities by a U. N. naval task force.

Elsewhere in the west action reports were lacking, but in central Korea a red-hunting armored patrol late Thursday reentered Hoengsong. They found the snowy town devoid of reds.

There was mounting speculation that the Chinese reds had quietly pulled out on the central and western sectors. United Nations patrols elsewhere on the front encountered only a relatively few red Koreans.

It was the second straight day Hoengsong was entered by a U. N. patrol. AP Correspondent Tom Stone reported the reds had fled. Hoengsong is 10 miles north of Wonju and 33 miles south of Parallel 38.

There was no enemy contact Wednesday night except for a minor patrol clash near Yoju, 40 miles southeast of the abandoned South Korean capital of Seoul.

A few Korean reds were encountered in the same general area, north of Kumyangjang and Inchon.

U. S. intelligence officers said the apparent absence of red troops in force south of the Han river, which twists around Seoul, may mean the Chinese have made a large scale withdrawal to the north.

There was speculation that the Chinese are awaiting political developments in the United Nations, meanwhile using red Koreans to patrol the no-man's land into which U. N. patrols have been poking all week.

But Allied air power gave the reds no rest far behind the lines. Warplanes plastered military targets throughout North Korea. The town of Chinchon was wrecked.

OAKLAND TREMOR

de SEVERSKY

Maj. de Seversky To Talk at SA

Brigadier General Stanley Riddernof, former commanding officer of the El Toro Marine base and a long-time friend of Major Alexander P. de Seversky will introduce the famous air authority at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening, when he will speak on the Jane Tucker Town Hall Forum lecture platform at Santa Ana high school auditorium.

de Seversky will cover the important role that aviation has played in our defense program. He is one of the world's best known authorities on air power. Miss Tucker stated that this is without a doubt one of the finest, most timely speakers it has ever been her pleasure to bring to Orange county.

Interest in the lecture is mounting and it is believed that the famous airman will pack the Santa Ana high school auditorium.

"Even those who disagree with my concept," says Major de Seversky, "must acknowledge that today our greatest need is for a definite overall strategy. There is perilously little time for America's leaders to decide how and where to apply our strength."

His thesis is that America can maintain peace, or achieve vic-

Tip Nipped Plot To Kill LA Judges

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A plot to kill four Los Angeles judges, a former judge and former district attorney has been nipped by a tip, Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz announced today.

The sheriff identified the plotter as Arthur Emil Hansen, now in San Quentin prison after his conviction in 1938 on a charge of killing two attorneys, Irving Hancock and R. J. McLaughlin.

Marked for death, the sheriff said, were Superior Judges Charles W. Fricke, Arthur Crum and Frank G. Swain, Municipal Judge Lewis Drucker, attorney and ex-Superior Court Judge Isaac Pacht and former District Attorney Buron Fitts.

The sheriff said the plot was uncovered after a tip to Thad Brown, deputy Los Angeles police chief, and investigation disclosed that Hansen had offered a fellow convict $10,000 to commit one of the murders. The victim was not identified.

Hansen, the sheriff said, told the other convict he would take care

Anaheim Industrial Task Forces To Hold Organization Meetings

Organizational meeting times of industrial task groups set up yesterday in the industrial mobilization meeting of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce were announced today by E. W. Moeller, manager of the Chamber.

Machine shop group will meet tomorrow at 5:15 p.m., in the Chamber of Comerce office, 136 N. Los Angeles st., under the temporary chairmanship of Oscar F. Schultz.

Sheet metal fabricating group will meet with Temporary Chairman George Logan Monday noon in the Kwikset Lock co., cafeteria.

Plastic, rubber and electronics group will meet Monday noon in the Chunking Cafe, 327 E. Center st., with Temporary Chairman N. S. Von Rohr of Stoner Rubber co., presiding.

Woodworking group will meet at 7:30 p.m., Monday in the offices of Ganahl Lumber co., 501 E. Center st. Ernest Ganahl is temporary chairman.

All Anaheim persons interested in prime or sub-contracts for government war work are asked by Moeller to attend the task force meetings to elect permanent chairmen and get the groups organized for immediate action.

Permanent chairmen elected at the group meetings will form an executive committee of the commodity production groups, according to Moeller.

It Was Cool Today —After Yesterday

It was cool and breezy in downtown Anaheim this afternoon—provided, of course, that you were comparing this afternoon's temperature with yesterday's.

Actually, the mercury went to record heights for the second straight day with a reading of 82 degrees at 2 p.m. It was the hottest Jan. 25 in Anaheim history.

This was still seven degrees

Sanitation Dist. Once More Warned To 'Get Rolling'

Directors of the county sanitation districts, in another session last evening, made progress in finding out why they haven't made progress.

They were warned again by Special Counsel Emerson J. Marks that unless the sewerage program "gets rolling soon it will not roll at all." That statement was made when Mayor Allen Mandy of Santa Ana, a director of District 1, remarked that he'd like to see the project start rolling pretty soon.

Marks also advised the directors last night that the "whole thing will be off" if the appellate court should enforce the limited participation plan which sets a tax-rate ceiling in District 2, 3 and 7. A test case, using District 7, will be brought in the court soon.

No buyer could be found for the sewer bonds if there is a legal tax rate limit in any of the districts, Marks stated.

The limited participation plan, providing for a limit of 10 cents tax rate in Districts 2 and 7 and 12 cents in District 3, was a "gentlemen's agreement" with the agricultural areas when the districts were formed. Such a tax limit, it was found, might not raise sufficient revenue to finance the program, though district officials feel that no such difficulty would be encountered. It would, however, scare bond buyers away, said Marks.

If the court decision releases the districts from the limited participation tax ceiling, District 7, or any other district, could be required by the courts to raise

Garden Grove Ikes Hold First Meeting

With various state and county leaders of the Izaak Walton League in attendance, including John O'Kane, state conservation director and acting executive director and Clinton Flynn, secretary of the league's county council (both from Anaheim), the new Garden Grove chapter of the league held its first meeting last night at Garden Grove Grange hall.

Acting-secretary E. J. Tobias, announced that the chapter is already nearing its goal of 100 members, 93 having signed for membership.

A committee consisting of Chairman William Farris, Ralph Hill, C. R. Weber, Bud Hughes and La Verne Reastsnyder, was appointed to present a slate of nominees for office at the next meeting.

The charter will be kept open for the signing of charter members until after that meeting, it was announced. Time and place of the meeting have not been set.

Meanwhile Donald Pannier, former president of the Anaheim chapter and one of the organizers of the new chapter, will continue to serve as temporary chairman.

O'Kane addressed the group, explaining the league is not primarily a sportsmens' club but a dedi-

Mistake Delays San Diegans, So Anaheim Elks Initiate Selves

Lloyd Verry, Anaheim Elks Exalted Ruler, and the Exalted Ruler of the San Diego Lodge, got together in Orange a few weeks ago and planned a visitation of the San Diego Lodge to the Anaheim Elks to initiate Anaheim's new lodge members.

Between the time they discussed the event, up to yesterday morning, there was a slip-up. The fact that there had been a misunderstanding became clear out of the chaos. The San Diego fraternal order had arranged to visit their local brothers a couple of weeks from last night. Result of the melee—Anaheim initiated its own new members.

Installed last night as members of the Elks lodge were Lewis E. Diherce, H. B. Chmielewski, Richard A. Harding, Wilbur G. Herman, Paul E. Kirkpatrick, George S. Klein and Keith Mahoney.

Two men were re-introduced into the club, Fred Davis of Dixon, Illinois, and Alfred A. McCaslay both rejoined the Elks order last night.

Over 300 attended the dinner, initiation and program given last night. Elks band entertained with several selections followed by a skit in preview of the Elks Minstrel show to be presented Feb. 2 and 3 at the Anaheim high school auditorium.

Members voted to sponsor the Fullerton sea-scouts last night. Previously sponsored by the Fullerton Rotary club, the scouts were, up to the present unsponsored by any civic group.

All Elks and their guests were invited to attend a dance at the Elks club this Saturday night, starting at 9 p.m. Admission will be $1.50 a couple.

Coogan Fined, Ruled off Liquor

BEVERLY HILLS (AP) — No liquor for one year, the judge said in granting probation to one-time child-actor Jackie Coogan, 36, on misdemeanor drunk driving charges.

Coogan, who pleaded guilty in police court yesterday, was fined $150 and ordered not to drive his car for 90 days except on business. Coogan also must pay the damages to a parked car with which he collided Jan. 18.

44-Hour Week, Wage, Price Freeze Urged in Anti-Inflation Struggle

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Marriner S. Eccles today urged a 44-hour work week, "without overtime pay," a general wage freeze and limited price controls as anti-inflation measures.

Eccles, a member of the Federal Reserve Board and chairman until deposed by President Truman three years ago, gave his ideas to the Senate-House Economic committee at Capitol hearings.

His testimony came while the Economic Stabilization agency was reported working on general price and wage freeze orders, expected to be issued in the next 24 hours. They may come late today but more probably some time tomorrow.

Eric Johnston, stabilization administrator, went over the proposed order in an hour's session with the cabinet-level defense mobilization board. His aides told reporters the group had approved them unanimously.

Adding pressure for swift government action was a rise in its cost of living index to a new peak.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that on Dec. 15 its index was at 178.4 per cent of the 1935-39 average. This was a rise of 1.6

Formula Failure Foils Freezes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement over formula for controlling wages was reported today to be holding up government orders for a general price and wage freeze.

In midafternoon, a spokesman for the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) and the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) told reporters no general freeze orders would be issued today. He said no decision had been made on when to issue them.

However, other officials indicated they expected the orders tomorrow.

Innocent Plea Given by Cook

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—William E. Cook, Jr., admitted slayer of six persons, today pleaded innocent to charges of murder and kidnaping of the Carl Mosser family of Atwood, Ill.

Cook was arraigned before U.S. District Judge Stephen S. Chandler and his court-appointed attorneys complained Cook would not cooperate with them in preparing his defense.

Attorneys Gomer Smith, Sr. and John Connolly, Jr., asked Chandler again to explain to Cook that they were appointed to represent him and not the U.S. government.

The attorneys said if they couldn't get the Joplin, Mo., ex-convict to cooperate, they would ask for another hearing and withdraw.

The 23-year-old man is charged on five counts under the Lindbergh law with kidnaping and murdering the five members of the Carl Mosser family.

Cook was indicted yesterday. Trial was set for March 12.

Palm Springers To Visit Lions

Local Lions club will entertain the Palm Springs Lions club tomorrow night at a joint meeting. They will meet at 7 p.m., for dinner with local entertainers accenting the evening's fun.

President Warren Schutz, Anaheim and President McCann from Palm Springs will both preside over the meeting.

Tortoise or Hare Superior on Court? Bradley, Oklahoma Aggies Settle It

NEW YORK (AP)—Oklahoma A & M and Bradley will decide tomorrow night who deserves a higher national basketball rating—the turtle or the hare.

Hank Iba's Oklahomans (16-1) rate ahead of Forrest Anderson's Braves (18-2) in this week's Associated Press rankings, A & M third and Bradley fourth in the country.

Iba uses a deliberate, pattern offense that depends heavily on opponents' mistakes to score, and he supports this with a strict defense. His five consistently leads the country in team defense.

Anderson uses the fast break, sharp passing and constant shooting to overpower the opposition. Bradley ranks third nationally in team offense at 76.5 points a game.

NC State Ineligibles

At Raleigh, North Carolina, State backers found that three of the team's stars aren't eligible for the NCAA tournament—if the Wolf-pack gets that far.

The ineligibles are forward Sam Ranzino, center Paul Horvath and guard Vic Bubas.

Somebody discovered three seasons of varsity play is the limit in deciding eligible players for the national championship tournament.

N.C. State (18-3) currently leads the southern conference.

Iowa Involved

Two other developments off the court overshadowed last night's skimpy basketball schedule: A report Iowa players may be "mildly involved" with a reported parlay card ring, and a story by the New York Herald Tribune saying most college presidents are polled favor letting their teams play in public arenas.

Paul Brechler, Iowa athletic director, said he is checking a possible link between Iowa players and a reported Davenport, Iowa, parlay card organization.

Did Not Share

He declined to name one or two players who he said may be "mildly involved." It is believed, Brechler said, the players may have taken parlay cards to Davenport and left them there for distribution.

"We have reason to believe the players did not share in the profits or hand out the cards themselves," Brechler said.

He added there is no evidence the players tried to throw any games or control the score.

The Herald Tribune said 36 of 46 collegiate presidents whose teams play in Madison Square Garden have no major objection to playing in arenas not controlled by competing schools.

Skimpy Results

The newspaper had asked the presidents if they are considering a change in policy as a result of the recent Manhattan college bribe attempt.

Dayton (13-3) avenged an early season defeat by trouncing Eastern Kentucky, 76-60; Georgetown (D.C.) whipped Navy, 58-55; Chicago Loyola edged Western Michigan, 50-48, and Seton Hall dropped Texas Wesleyan, 71-56, in last night's schedule abbreviated by semester exams.

Statistics Show Powerful Defense, Not So Potent Free Throw Mark

Unofficial statistics compiled today showed very few surprising facts about the Colonists—Sheldon Welch and Ronnie Bevins still lead their teams in scoring and both teams still smell at the free throw line— but it did reveal that a team needn't play ball-possession basketball to still throw up a pretty good defense.

This shocker was unearthed when it was revealed that Bill Junstock's Bees, winner of 15 of 17 games this year, have allowed only 462 points to be tallied against them this year. That's an average of only 27.5 points per game to the opposition.

Once Over 40

This has come from fairly steady defensive play throughout. The Bees have allowed an opponent to top the 40-point mark only once this year and they lost that one in grand fashion, blowing to Glendale Hoover in the Bonita tournament. They have, meanwhile, made 728 points of their own, averaging 42.8 per game.

The varsity needn't run and hide because of its defensive record. Despite their inability to win more than two of their last six games, the Colonists have coughed up only 744 points in 20 games, an average of 37.1. They, on the other hand, have averaged 48.7, making 974 points while running up the enviable record of 16 victories and four losses.

Even at Line

A glance at the figures, however, will show that most of these victories have come from field goals as the combined efforts of the two teams from the free throw line has failed to even break them even. The varsity is just over the .500 mark, making 192 of 377 for 51 per cent. The Bees are just where they were two weeks ago with 41 per cent on 105 conversions out of 255 attempts.

As far as the individual rundown is concerned, Welch and Ron Faulkner continue to run far ahead of the remainder of the scorers, while Bevins has made a smiliar runaway in the B race.

Individual Leaders

Welch is high in three departments—scoring, 215, field goals 91 and free throws attempted, 65—while Faulkner leads in free throws made, 35 and is tied with Dennis Denny for the most fouls committed, 52.

Bevins gives away the leadership in only one department, personal fouls, to Augie Huesca with 48. He is tops in scoring, 179, free throws attempted and made 35 of 60 and in field goals, 72.

SC 'Eliminates' Brown, Crisler

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Southern California still is without a football coach but Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns and Fritz Crisler of Michigan have been eliminated from consideration.

Dr. Fred C. Fagg, Jr., president of SC, issued a statement last night saying that in fairness to Crisler and Brown and in order to "preclude embarrassment to them through further speculative use of their names, I am state that they are no longer under consideration for the position."

Dr. Fagg did not say who is being considered, but some of the sports writers took his statement to mean the field has been narrowed to Don Faurot of Missouri and Bowden Wyatt of Wyoming.

Willis O. Hunter, director of athletics at SC, was not empowered to sign Brown, it was learned, although alumni pressure was exerted upon him to negotiate with Brown and Crisler.

Braven Dyer of the Times says that SC couldn't get Crisler "for reasons which are apparent to all who have been close to intercollegiate football for any length of time. Crisler is very happy where he is."

March of Dimes Benefit Alumni Game May be Testing Ground for Rameriz

Although he hasn't said that he would (he hasn't said he wouldn't, either) Colonist Coach Sam Keith may give Anaheim fans an indication of what is to come in the second half of the Sunset league race when he trots his Colonists out to meet an alumni group for the benefit of the March of Dimes next Tuesday night.

The "preview," if any, will be in the person of Ed Rameriz, hitherto ineligible forward. With no eligibility rules governing Tuesday night's game, Keith may be tempted into throwing Rameriz into the fray in search of some game experience.

RAMERIZ

He officially becomes eligible with the opening of the second semester at Anaheim high school, and thus will not be used in a league game until the Colonists face Huntington Beach on Feb. 2.

Should he be given his test by fire in the alumni game, it will be a worthy one since he will be pitted against talent that may be assumed to be superior to that he will face in the Sunset league.

He'll face for example, three established college stars in Hugh Faulkner, Jerry Schmitz, and Don Liebhart of the Pepperdine Waves. And the games in back of them are Jim Schmitz, Don Calaway, Gil Henning, Henry Siefkin, Lloyd Trapp, Don Hall and Minard Duncan.

Tuesday ordinarily would be an "off" night for the Colonists between the close of the first round and the opening of the second in league play, but they are offering their services to aid in the March of Dimes campaign.

PCC Through in Rose Bowl?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pasadena's Tournament of Roses association may seek the support of the deep South if the Pacific Coast conference votes next month to abandon its tieup with the Rose Bowl football game.

Paul Zimmerman, sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, said today that he has learned from "most responsible sources" that there is a grave danger that the PCC will quit the New Year's classic.

He said four northwest members of the conference — Idaho, Washington State, Oregon and Oregon State—were in favor of junking the Rose Bowl pact at a PCC meeting in Riverside earlier this month. California, too, is "cold" on the game, Zimmerman added, and that UCLA and Stanford are likely to support Cal. Washington, he said his sources inform him, may support the California schools. Southern California favors continued support of the Rose Bowl.

Rube Samuelson, sports editor of the Pasadena Star News, said the tournament committee is "most optimistic that it will continue in partnership with the Pacific Coast conference."

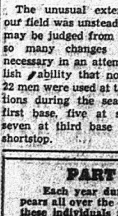

Meyer Claiming No Pennant for 1951 Pittsburgh Club, But Says that Rookies, Rickey Will Help Boost Team

(This is the fourth of a series of 16 stories written by the major league managers for The Associated Press under their own bylines telling how their team shapes up for 1951 and sizing up the other clubs)

By BILL MEYER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates give promise of being a much improved club in 1951.

Not only will we be strengthened in all departments, but our biggest gain will be in the all-important matter of team spirit and ambition. Also the inspiration that any club must get when it comes under the influence of such a master builder as Branch Rickey is bound to benefit it. Already he has inspired every man on the club with new zeal.

KINER

I think that unsteadiness in the infield was the main weakness that prevented the Pittsburgh club from making a better showing than it did in 1950's pennant race. A leaky infield cost us a lot of games, and caused the work of the pitching staff to look worse on paper than it actually was.

The unusual extent to which our field was unsteady and erratic may be judged from the fact that so many changes were found necessary in an attempt to establish ability that no fewer than 22 men were used at the four positions during the season—five at first base, five at second base, seven at third base and five at shortstop.

The fact that many more runs were scored against us than against any other club in the National League might be attributed by any one reading the averages to weak pitching. The truth of the matter is that in numerous instances the pitchers were not to blame. It was not until Danny O'Connell joined us in mid-season at shortstop that we got anything like steadiness at that important post.

We lost our best infield bet for 1951 when O'Connell was called to the colors. However, we think we have a good new shortstop in Bobby Thomson, from the Sally League. Besides, there is a chance that Stan Rojek will succeed in his attempt to pull a comeback to the peak form he has not shown since 1948. Bob Dillinger (third base) is practically certain to be better than he was last fall. Pete Castiglione (infielder) a boy who will give us hustle and spirit no matter where we place him. Danny Murtaugh (second base) still has a lot of value in addition to his fighting heart. And we have, and may add some more, further material of a helpful nature that promises a better infield than in 1950.

Better catching is one thing that we need for 1951. We have a good chance of getting it before the season starts. No doubt our main strength is our outfield, one of the best in the majors defensively and always a power on offense. We have a potential star in Gus Bell, a fine young player and others who will back up our mighty Ralph Kiner, one of the most feared sluggers in baseball.

The rookies from whom we expect help in 1951 are Bob Friend, a coming pitching star who spent part of last year with Indianapolis; Con Dempsey, a winning pitcher with San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League for three straight years and shortstop Thomson, who is said to have big possibilities. Dale Coogan (first baseman), Bell, Tom Saffell (ouifielders), Jack Phillips (first base) and Eddie Fitzgerald (catcher) and we may find one or two helpful men among Harry Fisher (pitcher), Grunwald and Dale Long (first base). Jack Merson (second base) and others, not to mention the fine promise of an able veteran returning to the majors in the person of outfielder George Metkovich. Also don't forget Pete Reiser. Imagine what he could mean to us if he were to return to his old form? He is still under 30, you know.

We have lost two good men in the military draft. They are O'Connell and pitcher Bill MacDonald. Of course, there is a chance we may lose some others. Coogan, I hear, is awaiting call.

On account of the draft possibilities and consequent lineup changes, the various clubs in the National League, as well as in all leagues, could not be sized up now with any degree of accuracy. But my opinion would be that, barring any unforseen turn of events, Brooklyn and Philadelphia would be the teams having the best chances to finish on top. In the event of a heavy war draft, St. Louis would seem likely to have more strength left afterward because of the advanced age of most of its regular players.

Tomorrow—St. Louis Browns.

Nettles Again Tops Scoring

Just where he started off the Sunset League season, Newport's Armand Nettles was back on top of the league scoring race today.

Nettles swished 21 points in Tuesday's game against Orange to replace teammate Glenn Griffith as the league leader. Nettles has 64 points in four games, while Griffith has 63 in five.

Santa Ana's Ray Babcock, who was tied for the lead two weeks ago and who fell to third last week, retained that spot as he scored 18 points at Anaheim. He has 54 points, one less than Griffith.

With the exception of Sheldon Welch, Anaheim's representatives slipped badly on Tuesday. Ira Webber, Welch and Ron Faulkner were rated fourth, fifth and sixth last week but while the Grape moved up a notch from fifth to fourth, the other two toppled to seventh and eighth.

The "select circle," consisting of players who have scored at least 30 points in league play, was limited to 13 players. Newport, Huntington Beach and Anaheim each landed three among the leaders, with Fullerton and Santa Ana having two each. Orange failed to place among the leaders, Ernie Alcantar being its highest scorer with 28 points.

Johnson to Scout For Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics have announced the signing of Judy Johnson, of Marshalltown, Del., as a scout.

Little Change Likely Among Sunset Teams

Chances looked mighty slim that there would be any great changes in the Sunset league standings this weekend, with the possibility of Anaheim grasping sole possession of third place as the outstanding possibility..

The Colonists should be an overwhelming choice to trample winless Orange in that game and that should be enough to move them up since Huntington Beach, currently tied with Anaheim, is not picked to win over Newport.

A win in that game for the Oilers, however, would not be a distasteful one, since it would again put the Colonists back into the thick of a four-team Sunset league race. Either way, as long as they win, the Colonists will gain tomorrow night.

In the other league game, Fullerton travels to Santa Ana to open a five-game home stand for the Saints that will see every league team play there until the season's finale with the Indians at Fullerton.

Changes are certain to be made in the Bee standing, however, since Santa Ana and Fullerton, currently tied for fourth place with Newport, fight it out between themselves. Newport will probably topple back to the cellar with the loser of that game at the hands of Huntington Beach.

The winner of the game, meanwhile, will probably climb into a third-place tie with Orange, since the Panthers will be prohibitive choices to lose to the undefeated Colonists. The Panthers, however, have sprung some surprises this year, their most notable being the winning of the consolation round of the Orange county tournament in early December.

To do so, though, they will likely have to score more than the 22.5 points that Anaheim has allowed four opponents to average this year.

PART TIME TAX EXPERTS

Each year during the income tax filing season there appears all over the country the part time "Tax Expert." Usually these individuals follow lines of endeavor during the rest of the year which have no remote connection with either tax recording or accounting. Usually armed with a dollar tax book and with little or no more knowledge of the complex tax structure than the persons whom they serve, they offer low rain prices and "big refunds." Having no regular place of business, they escape the normal overhead of the established professional man who maintains an office for the convenience of his clients. When the figures are returned, they are gone and the taxpayer must leave his problems with the Bureau of Internal Revenue alone.

For your protection against the possibility of unqualified persons preparing your income tax returns, look for the State of California Board of Accountancy Permit, or check by mail or phone with the State of California Board of Accountancy, 145 South Spring Street, Los Angeles 12, California, telephone Madison 6-1818.

This information is submitted by the Anaheim Committee of Public Accountants and Certified Public Accountants in the public interest.

Mlkvy Still Tops Nation's Scorers

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Mlkvy of the Temple Owls still leads the individual scorers in the nation's major college group but Sherman White of Long Island university slowly is closing the gap.

Mlkvy scored 398 points in 14 games through Jan. 20, the National Collegiate Athletic bureau reported today, giving him an average of 28.4 a night. In the same number of games, White has scored 380 points for a 27.9 average.

For the previous week, NCAB figures showed Mlvky with a 28.7 average, followed by White and Jimmy Slaughter of South Carolina, each with 25.8.

Slaughter dropped into a third place the this week with Mark Workman of West Virginia, both averaging 24.6.

Washington and Lee's Joe Handlan took the lead in free throw shooting accuracy, with an average of 97.2 on 96 completions in 100 tries. He displaced last week's leaden George Bill of Auburn, who dropped to fourth with 84.2 per cent. Ted Owens of Oklahoma is second with 86.8 per cent, followed by Bill Brooks, Davidson, 84.8 per cent.

Other leaders retained their places. Cincinnati's Larry Siegfried leads in field goal percentage with 62.2; Charley Darling of Iowa is tops in rebounds with 19.8 per game and Bill Walker of Toledo, leads in assist, with 7.8 per game.

VALUABLE INFORMATION is given P-TA members at the adult P-TA information course now being conducted at Benjamin Franklin school auditorium by Mrs. Conan Gray. Concerning parliamentary procedure, leadership, state policies, membership and other legislative data, the course is received with enthusiasm by all women interested in club work. Gathered for the session at 9:30 this morning are, left to right: Mrs. Jack Kearns, Mrs. William Rickel, Mrs. Sam Loard, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. George Kohlenberger, Mrs. Harry Dugdale, Mrs. W. G. Head and Mrs. Roy Dargatz.

Repair of Household Articles Discussed At Anaheim Home Department Meeting

An interesting demonstration on cake decorating was presented to members of Anaheim Home department Tuesday when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Carl Flugge.

Mrs. C. F. Gilbert of Silverado Canyon, whose culinary artistry is well known throughout the area, showed the different processes involved in creating designs for birthdays, weddings and other special occasions. She decorated a cake for Mrs. M. L. Bose who is celebrating her birthday this month.

"The Care and Repair of Household Equipment" was the project for the day and was under the leadership of Mrs. D. Durdrs and Mrs. A. Hartelt. Among the tasks they demonstrated were the splicing and repair of electric cords and the sharpening of knives. To supplement the project Mrs. Durdrs read an original poem.

Announcement was made of the regional meeting at Hemet on Jan. 27 and of the February meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Hein with rug and furniture cleaning as the topic of the day.

Members will make a layette to be presented to a needy family. In a discussion of plans for the coming year it was voted to conduct several discusisons on atomic preparedness and civil defense.

Guests attending Tuesday were Mrs. D. Rhodes, Mrs. H. Babcock, Mrs. D. Holliday, Mrs. O. Small, Mrs. H. Stark and Mrs. J. D. Brittain. Thirty members were present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. A. Peters, Mrs. G. Surh, Mrs. T. Musch and Mrs. L. Hamann. Mrs. Leonard Bose presided over the business session.

Victor Zuniga, 10942 Rose ave., veteran of World War II, who had been in bed helpless with arthritis since March of last year, was sent to the Long Beach Veteran's hospital in Oct. Yesterday he drove to the post office and walked in unaided. He has been dismissed from the hospital entirely.

The next meeting will be the fourth Thursday evening in February at the home of Mrs. Arthur H. Smith, 6741 East Ball rd.

Mrs. Bessie Rouland Honored at Birthday Party in Son's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rouland, 9375 S. Hansen, entertained last night at a delightful birthday party in honor of Mr. Rouland's mother, Mrs. Bessie Rouland.

Highlight of the evening was a long distance telephone call to the honoree from her daughter, Mrs. Hubert Helmle of Springfield, Ill.

Pinochle was the diversion of the evening followed by the serving of a delicious salad, cake and coffee by the hostess.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Schultz and Mrs. R. L. Schultz of Anaheim and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurst of North Long Beach.

Birthday Party For Dick Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Martin, 1440 E. Center st., entertained with a birthday dinner party Tuesday evening in Mr. Martin's honor.

Mrs. Addie Koontz, 80, of Southgate, baked the birthday cake. After the gifts were opened, moving pictures were shown that were taken by Mr. Martin's daughter and son, Velma and Clyde Martin, while on vacation, touring the U.S. and Canada.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Martin of Santa Ana, Mr. Clayton Hutchings of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cope of Orange, and Miss Velma Martin of Belmont Shore.

Woodrow Garys Honored at Post Nuptial Party

A reception and post-nuptial shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Gary, nee Bonnie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Jones, 6801 E. Ball rd., who were married in Las Vegas, Jan. 14. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. D. Gary of Downey.

Buffet supper was served to 85 guests who suprised the couple at the West Anaheim Fire Station. Clyde Finley, brother-in-law of the bride, who is chief of the station, and Mrs. Finley of 7461 E. Ball rd., hosted the party with the bride's parents.

A pink and white motif of streamers with wedding bells suspended from the ceiling and arrangements of gladiolas, stock and asters, a three tierred wedding cake and pink tapers formed an attractive setting.

Oout of town guests were Mrs. Alice Jones of Long Beach, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman of Norwalk and Mrs. E. Hadewig of Fullerton, aunts and uncles of bride; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pitoni, cousins from Fullerton.

B-PW's Cancel Plans For Easter Party In Emergency

During the short business session of the social meeting of Business and Professional Women's club last night at Ebell clubhouse, the group decided not to hold the Easter party as planned earlier this month, the decision being due to the press of civilian defense work now starting and other classes and preparations being made for future study. All efforts of the members are being put to defense work and the participation in the various community, state and national drives.

Guest speaker for the evening was a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Dick Morley, who outlined the plans now underway in the Infantile Paralysis drive and told of some events to come in the near future.

A number of members are planning to attend the district meeting at Coronado in the near future and following the meeting, the committee practiced on a skit which they will present.

Hostesses for the evening were Florence Tullar, Esther Newland and Norma Nipper.

Honor Authors at Beta Sigma Meet

On a recent evening, members of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met at the home of Louis Miller.

Anna Claire and Mildred Manerhan were welcomed back from their recent tour of South America. They had many interesting experiences to relate. Colored movies and slides will be shown at meetings later in the year.

After the regular business meeting conducted by the president, Eloise Smith, the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Louise Miller, who presented members who gave their impression of the "most beautiful spot." They included such places as the evergreen freshness of Oregon in summer, Lake Tahoe, clouds and sand dunes on the desert, sunset on the blue Pacific and the airview of Southern California on a clear evening.

Ann Engbretson showed colored slides of a vacation that she and her husband had spent in camping at Sequoia and Yosemite this past summer.

The president reported on the Southern California Council Breakfast held at the Ambassador Hotel on Sunday, Jan. 21, 1951. Presentation of a scholarship grant was made to Miss Helen O'Rourke to graduate in June from the Department of Sociology at the University of Southern California.

The hostess chapter, Beta Zeta of Los Angeles presented Irma Glenn, popular organist and honorary member of Xi Gamma.

The meeting specially honored the following authors: Charles Carson, great-grandson of Kit Carson and author of "King of Prairies;" Frank Cunningham, who wrote "Red Rock II," the story of a war dog; Anne Fisher, International honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi, and author of "No More a Stranger," and "It's-a Wise Child."

Eileen Sheila Hill tells of her life in "Invisible by Day." She is the newly elected president of the Pasadena branch of the National League of American Pen Women; Harriet Hinsdale, a script writer at Warner Brothers Studio, wrote "Be My Love;" Dorothy B. Hughes, mystery writer, wrote "The Fallen Sparrow," "Ride the Pink Horse," and "The Candy Kid;" Joseph Joel Kieth, internationally known poet and author; Stella Terrill Mann, author of "Change Your Life Through Prayer,' and several other similar books.

Members present, other than those mentioned, were: Kay Fancher, Beulah Hineman, Alice Myers, Josephine Chance, Helen Cohn and Audrey Vail.

A delicious dessert and coffee were served during the social hour that concluded the meeting.

Ralph Stephenson of Medford, Ore., brother of Police Chief Mark Stephenson is visiting in Anaheim.

Presbyterian Is 'Oldest, Richest'

"Oldest and richest" are adjectives to use when speaking of the local Presbyterian church. During the fiscal year of 1950, net returns came to about $51,000, it was reported at the annual business meeting last night. This fabulous return was accomplished with the total of 823 membership at the present.

Another little known act is that the Presbyterian church was organized in Anaheim March 6, 1870, making it the oldest church in this vicinity. The present church building is 25 years old and one of the ivy-covered edifices that Anaheim people point out with pride.

A new bulding is being erected next to the church and a report on its progress was made by Harry M. Peterson, chairman of the executive committee in charge of the new building. He stated that it should be completed by late May or early June.

Frank Gibles, member of the executive committee, reported that the corner stone laying ceremony would be conducted on a date near the church's 81st anniversary.

Meeting last night recorded the largest attendance in the annals of local Presbyterian history.

Congregation meeting was presided over by Rev. Howard S. Congdon, as moderator. Corporation meeting was presided over by Charles H. Holiday, president of the group.

Elections were held for the Elders and the Board of Trustees. Elders elected to serve on session were Charles A. Holiday and Elmer Hall. Returning to office are Eldon Paddock, Kenneth L. Hueler and Albert H. Kirchmann. New members of the Board of Trustees are Carl Miller, Sid Hammond, William Drake and Page Vincent. Returning members are Charles H. Holiday, Carl P. Tompkins and Calvin Maxwell.

Meeting was held in the church social hall. Dinner was served by the January Parish Group headed by Mrs. Forrest Simonton and Mrs. Willis Hollowell.

Navy Sends Pugh To Whidby Island

Earl W. Pugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Pugh, sr., of 149 No. Lemon st., was recently transferred to Whidby Island, Washington.

Pugh enlisted in the Navy November 2, 1950. After taking his induction tests during boot training, he was transferred to the Navy air corps at Whidby Island, as airman apprentice.

He graduated from AUHS in 1950. While in school he majored in mathematics and spent his remaining time in extra-curricular activities such as football, baseball and water polo, getting letters for each.

Eighteen-year-old Pugh started at Fullerton Junior College this fall. Jan. 13 he was switched to the Navy Air Corp, where he expects to stay for 10 weeks.

Farmer Getting 51 Cents from Each Dollar Spent on Food by Consumers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The farmer is getting about 51 cents out of every dollar consumers spend for food, Agriculture Department officials estimated today.

This compares with 46 cents before the war started in Korea and with a peak of 54 cents in 1945. In the depression period of the '30's, the farm share dropped as low as 32 cents.

This increase in the farmer's share, officials said, means prices of farm products have gone up more during the past seven months than have margins charged by food processors and distributors.

Retail prices of a typical quantity of food—described by the Agriculture Department as the "family market basket" — have gone up about 6.3 per cent since the Korean hostilities began.

As a unit of measure, the market basket contains quantities of farm food products equal to the annual average purchases of a family of three consumers in the 1935-39 period.

This quantity of food was priced at about $653 before the Korean war. By early this month, it had jumped to $694—an increase of $41. This price, however, was below the record of $713 reached in July, 1948.

A rough and tough situation . . .

Now that red China an... the United Nations have rebuffed and rebuked each other in the matter of a Korean cease-fire, we are facing a showdown.

And why must there be a showdown? Because Washington and other Western powers have reached the conclusion that communist China doesn't want peace.

Moreover, there is a widespread feeling that any further display of hesitation by the democracies might invite further aggression.

The showdown will of course be initiated through the peace organization. It is an ugly and dangerous situation, but because of that very fact it must be dealt with promptly.

The United States is pressing for U. N. condemnation of red China as an aggressor. Such action would, in the natural course of events, be preliminary to the application of punitive sanctions against the guilty government. This presumably would involve economic sanctions and perhaps a blockade of Chinese territory at the outset. If that didn't work, something more drastic would have to be considered.

Undoubtedly the proposal of punitive measures will meet opposition in the U. N. Obviously the entire Soviet bloc will vote against sanctions, and India also would register disapproval, in view of Prime Minister Nehru's strong stand against naming China an aggressor, and yesterday, demanding a seven-nation conference—including communist China, to seek a settlement of the Korea-China problem.

Nehru takes the position that such condemnation would absolutely preclude a peaceful settlement of the controversy. More than that, he holds that the Chinese replies to the U. N. cease-fire proposals aren't a flat rejection. Yesterday Nehru's government said it had received a "reassuring" message from Peiping re: a cease-fire.

Nehru's attitude reminds one rather forcibly of the old Chinese proverb that he who rides a tiger finds it difficult to dismount. As citizen of the land which produces the fearsome Bengal tigers he knows will that while they may be made to obey by force it's difficult to tame them.

It is, indeed, a rough and tough situation.

Victoria, the Queen of England, died at Osborne house, Isle of Wight, on Tuesday morning. The end of this career, never equalled by any woman in the world's history, came gently while the white-haired Bishop of Winchester prayed beside her and as with bowed heads almost every descendant of her line was gathered about the great four-posted bed, upon which lay the aged figure of the woman, who as a fair young girl began to rule over England in 1837. The wheels of the world were jarred when the announcement was made.

Miss Ida Neill and George T. Beazley, both of Santa Ana were married in Fullerton on Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. Beazley, father of the groom. After a short honeymoon in Los Angeles, the young couple will be at home to their friends at the Neill residence in Santa Ana.

While in the East she will purchase for her firm in this city the latest and most stylish creations in ladies wearing apparel.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller of Los Angeles are rejoicing over the birth of a son on Sunday, January 17. His name is Edwin Louis Jr., and he weighed eight pounds. L. E. Miller, city councilman, and proud grandfather, is receiving the congratulations of his many friends on the happy event.

Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON — Glamor girl of the underworld is handsome Virginia Hill in whose home racketeer Bugsie Siegel was murdered. Like most of the top boodlums, Virginia, now Mrs. Hans Houser, files an interesting income tax showing revenue from unexplained sources.

In 1947, for instance, Virginia reported that her income was a flat $16,000 from "wagers on various sporting events." She cut this income down by claiming her brother, Charles Hill, and her mother, Margaret Hill, as dependents and in the end paid Uncle Sam a tax of $1,270.29. This was rather small considering the trips this lady took all over the U.S.A. and Europe and the extravagant way she spent money.

The year previous, Miss Hill was a little more affluent and received an income of $23,870 from "wagers on various sporting events."

Other tax returns run just about the same, with the revenue always from the same source, except that in 1942 she attributed her $18,000 income to "winnings from bets on races." In that year she also deducted a $1,100 contribution to the Jewish Old Ladies Home in Los Angeles.

The history of the glamor-girl friend of boodlums may give some insight into her sources of income. Born in Lipscomb, Ala., on Aug. 26, 1916, she attended public school through the 8th grade, and in 1933 went to Chicago as a waitress and girl about town. From 1933 to 1941 Virginia oscillated between Chicago and New York, sometimes stopping at the Madison hotel in New York where she met Joe Adonis and Frankie Costello.

It was through them that she met Bugsie Siegel.

$11,251 Hotel Bill

After the war, Virginia took some deluxe trips to Paris in 1947 and to Mexico City in 1949 where she lived with a gay caballero named Juan Romero. She has also lived in Beverly Hills, and the Waldorf-Astoria and the Biltmore in New York, and once owned a home on Sunset Island No. 1 at Miami Beach.

That her reported income does not entirely jibe with her income-tax returns is indicated by the fact that her hotel bill at Sun Valley, Idaho, between Jan. 4 and Feb. 24, 1950, totalled $11,251.39. She paid it off in $100 bills.

At Sun Valley she first met ski instructor Hans Houser, a German national whom she married in 1950. Previously she had married L. O. Griffen in 1938, but this was annulled in 1939. Later she married Carlos Valdez Gonzales in Mexico City. This also ended in divorce.

Most interesting thing about Miss Hill's and other income-tax returns made by underworld figures is that little effort is made by the Treasury to check them. Obviously, such checking is difficult, for most transactions are in cash. But the lady who can afford a hotel bill of $11,251 obviously has an annual income considerably larger than $10,000 to $20,000.

4-H Clubs for Asia

America's famous 4-H clubs will become a weapon in the desperate fight against communism in Asia. Young farmers from southeast Asia will be brought to this country to study the 4-H clubs and adapt them to their own countries.

The idea came to Allen Griffin, ECA's Far Eastern chief, during a recent tour of Indo-China, Siam and Burma. Later he told Washington colleagues: "If the young people of Asia become interested in better farming, they will be a powerful ally in the drive to raise the standard of living. I think 4-H clubs for Asia can help accomplish this."

Another aspect of the program Griffin brought back is to train young Asiatic farmers in Oriental agriculture at the University of Hawaii.

Enthusiasm Greets White Temple's 'High School Daze'

"High School Daze," newest dramatic production of the MYF Footlighters at White Temple Methodist Church, was greeted with enthusiasm last night at the first performance. Another performance will be given tonight at 7:30 in Wesley hall of the church. The public is invited.

The comedy drama tells the story of a scheming teen-ager's plans to sabotage a campus vampire, and is convincingly portrayed by a cast including Mary Jo Duncan, Jean Bastian, Judy Bell-Wicker, Hart Hessel, Nancy Ball, Don Brummet, and Roy Casey. Brummet made a hasty replacement for Loren Herman, taken ill with flu after dress rehearsal. The play is directed by the Rev. Frank E. Butterworth, pastor.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California's June in January warm spell will end tomorrow, the Weather Bureau says.

The mercury climbed to 84 here yesterday and to 89 at Long Beach, breaking all January heat marks there.

San Gabriel and Thermal tied for the nation's highest temperatures, with 91.

Santa Ana Police Seek Robbers Whose Haul Includes Falsies

Two burglaries in the Santa Ana business district last night, both evidently the work of the same operators, engaged the attention today of Santa Ana police, who at the same time announced solution of three other burglary cases, by the act of the burglar in returning the stolen property, including a $600 gun collection of Keith K. Killingsworth, 2056 Bush st.

One of the three solved burglaries had been reported by the 15-year-old burglar himself, he also being the "victim." He told police a ½ horsepower motor, worth $10, had been stolen from him. The low price attracted suspicion, so the youth raised the price he said he had paid for the motor, and then got into deeper entanglements.

He finally appeared at Killingsworth's home yesterday, with the missing collection of rifles, shotguns and ammunition, which had been taken from a storehouse at the rear of the Killingsworth garage.

Solved at the same time was the burglary of the Leo E. Millings garage, at 2016 Bush st., where an electric motor worth $20 was taken.

Burglars last night broke through the rear doors of the Hecox Millinery and Lingerie shop, 220 N. Broadway, and the Broadway Florist shop of Mrs. Elizabeth Macre, at 222 N. Broadway. They took nothing at the flower shop, but at the lingerie shop they made off with three dozen pair of nylons, three nighties, four white slips and—a dozen pair of falsies. Loss estimate was $70.75.

Six Mexicans in a brown sedan, seen peering into the store windows along that block at store closing time in the evening, were suspected of taking the falsies, etc. A cash bank deposit left in the bank book in the shop was not molested.

Discussion Panels Scheduled by P-TA

Parents whose children are of school age are invited to learn of "Writing and Speaking in the Elementary School" Tuesday evening, January 23, when Chapman-Wilshire P-TA members sponsor the third of a panel discussion series at Wilshire School auditorium.

Featured will be Mrs. Howardine Hoffman, serving as panel leader. The meeting, open to all who are interested without charge, begins at 7:30 p.m.

Next Week's discussion will be on "Arithmetic in the Elementary School," it was announced.

OBLONG VIEWS

FROM AN EGG-SHAPED HEAD

By WALDO HUNTER

IN THE LIFE span of every man there comes that dangerous period when the system goes through subtle rearrangement and mysterious forces exert powerful influences. You know what I am talking about. It is that fateful time when the man of the house is seized with that uncontrollable urge to lay bricks. Two of the most envied tradesmen in the world are the locomotive engineer and the brick mason. We all would like to have their jobs just for a day. A scant few of us can have the opportunity to run a locomotive, but by gadfry we CAN lay bricks. Or can we?

Scanning my back yard with a liverish eye early one Sunday morning I fell suddenly ill with brick fever. In Southern California you just don't amount to anything if you don't have a patio to pile old boxes, buckets, wash tubs and such on, and a patio we needed and a patio we would have. But it would not be built out of new brick, and danged if I was going to pay out $2.85 an hour for a union brick mason. Anybody with a glimmer of intelligence could lay bricks. If Winston Churchill could, why couldn't I?

(I add here that the "Sunday contractor" who tries to lay bricks is displaying symptoms of arrested mental development. He is not fooling anybody. He is in reality taking up again where he left off playing with blocks at the age of 3½)

But a patio I must have, and none of this business of paying those scalpers $250 for it when I could pick up materials here and there dirt cheap and provide my own labor. I finally located a pile of some 2000 mouldering old bricks, most of them broken in twain, which the tearful owner sacrificed to me for $7.50. They crumbled at the touch, but they had that aged look which my wife allowed would impart a sort of old mission look to our establishment. In Southern California, you know, women want everything to look antique but themselves. My helpmeet figured the patio would add value to the diggings, but if the loan officer at the Pasadena First National knew what has been done to that property to the name of brick masonry, he would do a back flip out of his leather-panelled office suite, toot sweet.

It took four days (at $1.50 per day trailer rental) for me to haul those ancient bricks to my hacienda, and figuring time, gasoline, oil, tire wear and such, the bricks cost upward of 6 cents each. I could have had new ones delivered for a little more than 4 cents, but who wants to haggle over a matter of $20 when he is, in his own way, beating the union labor costs and the high costs of materials?

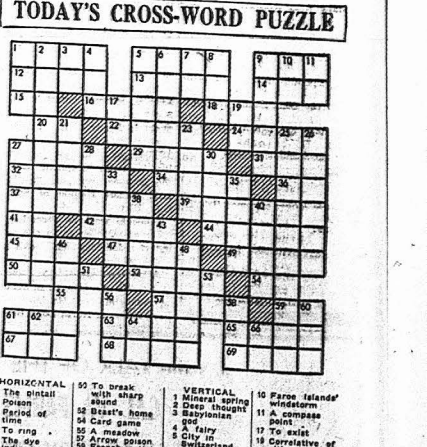

The poor old gentlemen from whom I had pried these priceless bricks had told me that they were out of an old church edifice at Long Beach and had been thrice blessed, so naturally I thought that eminent success would crown my venture. The day for the start of the project dawned clear and bright, and I slapped the first trowel of mortar down at 11 a. m. on a Sunday morning when by all rights I should have been IN church, not trying to rebuild one. It was an auspicious occasion, and people had come from as far away as 17½ feet to witness the laying of the first brick. But as that brick was laid, a nimbus cloud ominously hid the sun, and I shoulda knowed.

As the "work" progressed, any number of bedeviling exigencies arose to plague me. The bricks just didn't want to cooperate. They wouldn't line up in orderly rows. They sagged and leaned; they broke, chipped and crumbled into dust at my touch. The mortar was at first too thin, then too lumpy, and finally it hardened into something of the consistency of babbit, but not before one of the neighbor's little boys had eaten a fair ration. Someone had broken glass bottles in the sand, someone else had snitched my $2.75 brick hammer. Visitors dropped in from Sioux City.

As the morning wore on the back yard became a litter of chipped bricks, cement sacks, broken trowels, sand, empty beer cans and other building materials. By this time the neighbors were openly scoffing, and veiled hints were dropped that someone should get in touch with the county building inspectors. Egged on by hovering bystanders, my espousa suggested as early as 2 p.m. that I knock off on this frightful creation and start tinkering with her sewing machine instead. But I held grimly on and by 6 p.m. had created something with all the classic lines of a dynamited root cellar.

Pay a union bricklayer $100 to build me a patio? Not me. I'm just a little nuts!

of the other five when he was released—and at each killing would leave the print of one finger so that when all were dead, police would have a complete set of the prints of one of his hands.

Chief Brown said the ex-convict who tipped the plot gave him a letter which Hansen had asked be printed in a newspaper. In part it read:

"You shall get one print each time one of these ... ... bites the dust. And when the last one on this list is checked off with his own blood, you will have five prints of my right hand—enough to convict me on.

"Who am I? When you get all of my prints you will know. In the meantime, just call me the 'Emancipator,' The Protector of the Public."

Brown said the investigation spiked any chance Hansen might have had of going free at his parole hearing set last Tuesday.

Wimberly to Open New Gasateria In Cypress Friday and Saturday

Wimberley's Gasateria, 5131 E. Lincoln ave, Cypress, a serve yourself and save type of service station, will hold its official opening to the public tomorrow and Saturday.

The owner, F. E. Wimberley, is a familiar service station figure in Anaheim, having operated a station at Ball rd., and 101 Hwy., for 20 years. He has been a resident of Anaheim for the past 30 years and now makes his home at 710 S. Philadelphia st.

Wimberley's Gasateria will carry complete lines of quality gas, oil, accessories and tires. Wimberley stated that only quality merchandise will be carried and cut prices will prevail on items not fair-traded.

Miss Elsie Gunther, for the past eight years general manager at the Ball rd., station, will transfer to the new Cypress establishment to help Wimberley. The Ball rd., station will be operated by Wimberley's partners, his mother, Mrs. Ella S. Wimberley and his brother, Wilbert.

Also helping on the new station will be M. N. Wimberley of Bellflower and Rex Taylor of Cypress.

All construction at the new Gasateria was done by Wimberley himself, with the exception of electrical and plumbing installations, which were done by Cypress Electric co., and Murphy Plumbing co.

The Gasateria will be open from 6 a.m., to 9 p.m., daily and from 7 a.m., to 9 p.m., on Sunday.

Balloons and candy will be given away free to children attending the opening, Wimberley said.

The Railroads RESPECT...

The Union Leaders seek to REPUDIATE...

this agreement!

What is the TRUTH?

At various stages in the present dispute with the brotherhoods of railroad operating employees

... the railroads agreed to arbitrate. The union leaders refused.

... the railroads accepted the recommendations of President Truman's Emergency Board. The union leaders refused.

... the railroads accepted the White House proposal of August 19, 1950. The union leaders refused.

Finally an Agreement was signed at the White House on December 21, 1950. Now the union leaders seek to repudiate the Agreement.

The railroads stand ready to put the terms of this Agreement into effect immediately, with back pay at the rates and dates indicated.

The Agreement is given in full below.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Washington, D. C.
December 21, 1950

1. Establish 40 hour week for yardmen with increase of 23 cents effective October 1, 1950, and additional 2 cents effective January 1, 1951.

2. Set aside 40 hour week agreement until January 1, 1952, and establish 6 day work week for yardmen. Effective with the first pay roll period after 30 days from the date of execution of the formal agreement, yardmen required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be paid overtime rates except engineers who shall receive straight time rates for the 7th day. This does not create guarantees where they do not now exist. On and after October 1, 1951, three months' notice to be given of desire to go on 40 hour week. Provide for consideration of availability of manpower and 4 cents per hour if and when the 40 hour week actually becomes effective.

3. Settle rules for 40 hour week and 6 day week.

4. Grant yard conductors and brakemen other rules such as daily earnings minimum, car retarder operators and footboard yardmasters as recommended by Emergency Board No. 81.

5. Settle following rules:
Initial Terminal Delay (Conductors and Trainmen)
Interdivisional Runs
Pooling Cabooses (Conductors and Trainmen)
Reporting for Duty
More than One Class of Service
Switching Limits
Air Hose (Conductors and Trainmen)
Western Differential and Double Header and Tonnage Limitation (Conductors and Trainmen, all Territories)

6. Read men to receive 5 cents per hour increase effective October 1, 1950, and additional 5 cents per hour increase effective January 1, 1951.

7. Quarterly adjustment of wages on basis of cost of living index (1 point to equal 1¢ per hour. First adjustment April 1, 1951. Base to be 176).

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.

9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate.

Effective February 1, 1951, overtime at time and one-half shall accrue after 220 hours have been worked. The basic monthly salary to be paid for the 205-hour month shall be the same as that now paid for the 225-hour month. Except that four dollars and ten cents ($4.10) shall be added to the present monthly rate effective January 1, 1951.

10. In consideration of above, this agreement to be effective until October 1, 1953, and thereafter until changed or modified under provisions of Railway Labor Act. Moratorium on proposals for changes in wages or rules until October 1, 1953, as follows:

No proposals for changes in rates of pay, rules or working conditions will be initiated or progressed by the employees against any carrier or by any carrier against its employees, parties hereto, within a period of three years from October 1, 1950, except such proposals for changes in rules or working conditions which may have been initiated prior to June 1, 1950. Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet with Doctor Steelman on or after July 1, 1952, to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote, the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote.

11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.

The usual protections for arbitraries, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.

The foregoing will not debar management and committees on individual railroads from mutually agreeing upon changes in rates, rules and working conditions of employees covered by this agreement.

"Columbia River County," the colorful chronicle of a great river, will be presented on Jan. 29, in the Anaheim Union High school auditorium as the second in the adult education program's spring forum series.

Presented by Francis R. Line, the film covers Canada, including Banff and Jasper National parks; Kootenay and Yoho National parks; The Big Bend Wilderness country and Revelstoke parks. In the United States the colorful motion picture follows scenic routes which cover Lakes Roosevelt and Chelan, the Mt. Hood country, Columbia river highway and the fabulous Oregon coast.

The picture is the story of Francis and Helen Line's 1400 mile journey from the Columbia source to the sea. They walk, canoe, go by bus and mountain train, travel by snow, side-wheeler, ferry, motor boat, grain barge, ocean liner, car, streamline train and airplane. Narrated expertly by Mr. Line, the film covers every aspect of the country.

Forum programs start at 7:30 p.m.

Sanitation

enough taxes to pay the bond interest and retirement payments, Marks said.

Mayor Mandy suggested that there might be legal complications anyhow, in stretching out the payments from the sanitation districts to the Joint Outfall System cities and sanitary districts for their present sewerage facilities. It is estimated that under the so-called Tucon plan of sale and purchase, which all parties have in general agreed, Districts 2, 3 and 7 would pay their share over a period of years, while the other districts pay cash. That plan was provided in the engineering report of former District Engineer Vinton Bacon.

"That means that the taxpayers of Santa Ana will be financing the taxpayers of Districts 2, 3 and 7," said Mandy. "Maybe there's some legal snags in that." Marks said he didn't think so. It is estimated that District 7 would require 17 years to complete payments, District 2 and 3 about eight years, under their tax rate limits.

The joint agreements on purchase and sale of the sewerage facilities from JOS however, are still waiting for word from the bond expert, Attorney James Beebe of Los Angeles, member of the firm that will pass upon the legality of the bond proceedings before the bonds can be sold. Beebe has been retained by the sanitation districts to pass upon the agreements, Marks said last night that he had written three letters to Beebe and tried all day yesterday to reach him, without success.

Somebody wanted to know whether Beebe knows that $553,000 allocated by the state to the county and turned over by the county supervisors to the sewerage program, may be forfeited if action isn't taken on the project soon. It was explained that Beebe knew about that.

Details of the $553,000 weren't clear to all directors, so Chairman Willis Warner of the county supervisors explained that to claim the $553,000, the districts must have their project and allocation papers complete and filed with the state by next Dec. 31, and then must have the sanitation program completed, all bills paid and a report filed with the state by Dec. 31, 1952. That, said Warner, means the districts must hurry it up, as estimates have placed the time required to build the system at two years.

Anaheim Gazetteer

by JOHN S. NEUBAUER

. . . Withhold not good from them to which it is due.—Prov. 3:27.

NEWSCOMMENT —There are cattle rustlers in Anaheim! Thieves stole a 200-pound heifer calf from a pasture near Frank Campos' home. The old west lives again—and not on the television screen entirely, either!

CAROUSEL — Bobby Mulkey, the lady cop who played ball for Marion (Shorty) Hill's Buena Park Lynx, wants to trade her badge for a Marine's uniform. She's already made application to enter the service. . . . Mrs. Genevieve Dummond is the young lady who knows the answers—most of them, anyway. The Chamber of Commerce office secretary was stumped the other day when a feminine voice on the other end of her phone asked: "How long does it take to get a Mexican divorce in Tiajuana?" She didn't know. I don't either. Do you?

LOCAL ANGLES—Mrs. Stella Crowley, the draft board coordinator, disclosed that 185—including a goodly number of Anaheimers—were inducted to the armed forces yesterday . . . Speaking of the draft, reminds one that the Boston Braves' Del Crandall is still marking time. He doesn't know when, where or what to do. . . . If Jack Salvesen—Anaheim's Herb Salvesen's nephew doesn't make the grade because of a sore arm, look for him to be kicked upstairs into a swivel-chair position. Jack is qualified to hold it. . . . Dale Glick, he's the Placentia Unified Schools principal, disagrees with Frank Rospaw, the eminent Placentia publisher. Glick says kids can spell, but like some of their elders are prone to make mistakes due to carelessness. . . . We'll buy that.

HERO — Sgt. Antonio Villela, 37, has been awarded the bronze star for heroism beyond the call of duty. It would have been a fitting honor for a great soldier had it not been awarded posthumously. It is because there are such noble men as Antonio Villela that America is great.

ET CETERA—Ray Berney got the word t'other day. The Cone Chevrolet salesman expected it. He was on the reserve list . . . Incidentally, LeRoy Clark, the marine officer, was the auto concerns first salesman to leave. He is—and has been—on duty in Japan with the Marine Air Wing . . . . Robert Wallace, the rural route carrier, would like to know who the party was who crashed into his jeep. Have you ever stopped to realize how many miles these rural route carriers drive in the course of the year delivering mail without having any serious accidents. They're to be congratulated for being some of the finest drivers on the highways and byways of the nation. . . . Edgad Gahan, Edison service man in the suburban Anaheim area, has been awarded a 25-year pin. During his quarter of a century with the company, he hasn't had so much trouble as he has now—the kids are shooting up the power meters.

STORYETTE — T/Sgt. George McGlumphey, the army recruiter in this area, is a jovial, good natured little Irisher. He umpires baseball games in his spare time and so consequently invites a lot of good-natured kidding. "Say, sarge," one of his hecklers said, "hows this recruitin' business?" . . . There was a merry twinkle in the old sarge's eye. He smiled, cocked his head and replied: "Pretty good. Why?" . . . "Oh, I was just thinking, that if they'd let the draftboards handle enlistments men like you could be released for active duty." . . . To which another of the sarge's friends added: "They ain't that bad off yet!"
