WHIP-STOCK DRILLING—Diagram shows whipstock method of well drilling to be employed on 7 acre oil lease granted by the city last night. From central site, exploratory drilling may be done in any direction or in any depth.

Council Approves City Lands for Test Oil Wells

Steele Petroleum Co. of Phoenix, Ariz., was granted a lease last night by Anaheim city council to seven acres of city-owned land as sites for drilling an estimated 18 to 22 oil wells of the "whipstock" type.

Harold S. Cook Jr., of Los Angeles, representing the Steele Co., said 300 acres of additional land have been leased and other leases are to be acquired, if possible, in the vicinity of the city-owned leases, which are located near the settling pits and pistol range in the northern industrial section of Anaheim.

Two acres of the lease lie between Kern and Pat 41st, near the Essex Wire Corp. plant and the other five acres are located on Olive st., and the Santa Fe tracks, north of Julianne st., where the pistol range is located.

In the event the wells are productive, the lease provides that the city is to get a two per cent override plus one-sixth royalty. If the drills are unsuccessful, the city will have the right to take over the wells for pumping water, provided

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Anaheim Fire Chief Ed Stinger was given permission last night by city council to attend the convention at Portland, Ore., Aug. 7, 8, 9 and 10, of the Pacific Coast Inter-Mountain Assn. of Fire Chiefs, and to take his annual vacation from Aug. 1 to 15.

Magnolia Sewer Line Goes on Rocks; Problem: Who's Going to Pay for 'em

Magnolia Trunk Sewer line is on the rocks, but who is going to pay for the rocks?

VCK Construction Co., one of the concerns laying the Magnolia Trunk sewer, through its attorney, Roscoe R. Hess of Los Angeles, contended last night by letter to Anaheim city council that it is apt to be stuck for payment for rock being laid beneath the Magnolia sewer sections to provide a solid bed. They said the contract under which they are working specifies that such a rock bed is to be laid only where the supervising engineer orders it in writing, but such written orders have not been forthcoming, and the rock has been laid on verbal orders.

City Administrator Keith Murdoch told the council that Nat Neff, engineer in charge of the sewer construction, had reported wasteful use of rock, in some cases to provide a dry footing for the construction workers where seepage had made a muddy slough of

Governor Signs Bill Setting up Municipal Court

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Governor Warren signed bills today establishing municipal courts in two Orange county districts.

One court bill will cover the cities of Fullerton, Anaheim, La Habra, Brea and Placentia.

The other embraces Orange, Tustin and Santa Ana.

Each of the two judges will receive a salary of $9000 a year under the bills by Assembly Speaker Sam L. Collins (R-Fullerton).

Don Suydam to New C of C Post

Don Suydam, who has been associate secretary of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce since July 1, 1950, will leave Anaheim August 1 to become manager of the Ridgecrest Chamber of Commerce.

Ridgecrest is the shopping center for the Naval Test station at Inyokern, on the border of Inyo and Kern counties.

Before coming to Anaheim, Suydam was assistant manager of the Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce and served as its manager of the Better Business Bureau and Convention bureau.

He began his chamber of commerce work as statistician for the Kern County Chamber of Commerce in 1943.

Mrs. Suydam and their two children will leave Anaheim with Mr. Suydam on August 1.

McCracken Tells Jury Story of How Patty Hull Died in Cabin

SANTA ANA, July 25—Henry Ford McCracken declared today that the 10-year-old child he is charged with kidnapping and murdering died accidentally.

For the first time since his arrest the day after Patricia Jean Hull disappeared May 19, the 34-year-old guitar player and sex offender publicly broke his silence.

He took the stand in his own defense, promptly admitting not only that he escorted Little Patty from a movie matinee near her Buena Park home but that he took her to his motel cabin nearby.

The state charges him with brutally killing her in the cabin, then taking her body 34 miles and burying it in a shallow mountain grave, where it was found five days later.

McCracken's version of how Patricia died was that "she fell off a table in the cabin, hit her head on a broken jelly glass, and bled to death."

Coroner's autopsy surgeons have testified that Patricia may have bled to death but that there were three skull fractures, any one of which could have caused death, and 15 deep gashes in all in her head.

McCracken, seemingly choked up with emotion, stared straight at his attorney, George Chula, never at the jury, as he told his story from the witness stand.

He said Patricia and some other girls were in the movie theater when he went in about 2 p.m. May 19 and sat behind them. He claimed that after an introduction he moved forward and "the little girl followed me." He claimed she "struck up a conversation," suggesting that they show each other where they lived after the show.

He said he and Patricia left the theater together and "she ducked her head so she would not be recognized from her home (a half block away) and walked toward where I lived."

He said that after he and the girl got to his cabin "I just talked to her."

Then, he said, she scampered up on a table when a car drove up nearby, and fell off the table.

"She climbed on the table, knocked over a jelly glass and it broke," McCracken testified. "She climbed the screen and as she did, it fell. It rocked the whole cabin."

McCracken was asked what he saw then. He replied: "I saw a lot of blood. I got scared. I hollered for help. I tried to hold her for help but nothing would come out (sic). I got weak and went into the bedroom and fell on the floor. I finally got up."

McCracken further testified the Man Charged with Molesting Own Step-Daughter

CLIFFORD A. RUSSELL, 45, was arraigned in Anaheim Justice Court yesterday on charges of molesting his 13-year-old step-daughter on June 21.

Russell, a former clothing salesman in Anaheim and a resident of Garden Grove, married Mrs. Pearl Russell three years ago and soon after, it was learned, began molesting his step-daughter.

He is now in the Santa Ana jail awaiting for his hearing, set for July 27 at 3 p.m. in the Anaheim Justice Court. Pearl Russell, Oceanview, was subpoenaed as a witness yesterday. Russell's bail is set at $2000.

Woodpecker Blamed In Death of Man

ALHAMBRA (AP)—The death of James David Bain, 29, was blamed today on a woodpecker.

Bain, a telephone poleman, fell 57 feet from a pole. Police said the spike on which he fell was weakened by a bird's pecking. His home was at 1318 Vista st., San Gabriel.

Republicans Agree On 'Get Acheson' Through Salary

WASHINGTON (AP)—At a sharply split party caucus, a majority of House Republicans agreed today to support a plan aimed at striking Secretary of State Acheson off the federal payroll.

The decision to pursue the "get Acheson" drive through the medium of the State Department appropriation bill was taken by a standing vote of 71 to 33.

More than 90 Republicans either did not attend or refrained from voting.

The majority approved a motion to support an amendment to the State Department money bill.

Party leaders said the amendment still to be drafted would not designate Acheson by name but would specify that no federal pay could go to any "policy-making" department head who, at any time during the five years preceding appointment, belonged to a business or law firm that represented a foreign government.

Acheson's law firm once represented Poland.

A previous plan to ban any official was discarded on the grounds that it would hit many more men than Acheson.

Rep. Phillips (R-Calif.), sponsor of the amendment, told newsmen it would be offered late today or tomorrow. He said it would embody the principle that the "policy making heads of a major department" should be "perfectly clear of any suspicion of previous obligation to or representation of a foreign government."

It may, he said, suggest that in case of any doubt the name of such a department head should be submitted to the Senate for reconfirmation.

Since Acheson already has been

Business License Deadline July 31

License Collector R. W. Long warned Anaheim businessmen today that only five days remain in which to renew city business licenses before they become delinquent and a 10 per cent penalty is added. July 31 is the deadline, he said, and there will be no exceptions.

Approximately 30 per cent of the city licenses are still outstanding, he said. The License Department in City Hall will be open Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon for the convenience of late licensees.

GLEN E. MC CLOUD
Glen E. McCloud Will Seek Post Of Assemblyman

It was announced today that Glen E. McCloud, long active in Orange county Republican circles, will seek the post of Assemblyman from the 75th district at the next primary election to be held in June of 1952.

McCloud, who has recently resigned as chairman of the Orange county Republican Central committee, will file for the post to be vacated by Speaker Sam Collins, who has announced his candidacy for the post of State Senator being vacated by Clyde Watson of Orange.

A native of Heaven, Calif., McCloud has lived in Orange county for 34 of his 35 years and has been prominent in political circles for the past several years.

He is a Navy veteran of more than six years, having been called to active duty in 1940. Assigned to the Pacific Fleet, McCloud was promoted to Warrant Officer in 1943. He holds 12 service ribbons including the Presidential Unit Citation and 15 battle stars for engagements in which he took an active part.

Bids Opened on New Bridge for Coyote Creek

County supervisors late yesterday opened nine bids on the contract for building a 4 lane bridge of concrete and steel over Coyote Creek on Orangethorpe blvd. at the L. A. county line.

The bids which varied as much as $90,000 were taken under advertisement and were referred to county road commissioner Harold Sprenger, who will recommend a selection next Tuesday.

Lowest bid was $179,753, which was well under cost estimate of $188,000. Low bid was submitted by E. & J. Corp. of Beverly Hills. High bid was $259,243.

Reds Reportedly Propose 'Acceptable' Compromise in Troop Withdrawal Snag

WASHINGTON (AP)—The communists were reported today to have offered a compromise in the Korean cease-fire talks under which withdrawal of foreign troops would not be discussed until after an armistice.

Indications are that this proposal will prove acceptable to the United Nations command.

The Reds heretofore have insisted that the issue of pulling foreign troops out—U.N. forces and Chinese Reds—should be on the program of armistice talks.

11-Year Old Cowboy Rustler' Corralled; Turned over to Mom

Santa Ana police late yesterday nabbed a young "rustler" aged 11, who had collected his Wild West outfit from various Santa Ana stores without benefit of cash transactions, said officers.

He was a two-gun man, with belt holsters and gun, and the Fringe drug store, Fourth and Broadway. He was carrying a pair of cowboy boots, from the Famous department store, Fourth and Bush sts., while riding on a cowboy hat at the Newberry store, Fourth and French sts., where he was apprehended.

The two guns were not mates. He had lost one and replaced it with another from the Thrifty drug store, Fourth and Spurgeon sts., he told police.

The "badman" was turned over to his mother.

Vetterli Receives 6 Year Sentence in Espionage Inquiry

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Clarence Vetterli, former AUHS journalism teacher, was sentenced today to six years imprisonment for giving perjured testimony in an espionage inquiry.

The 41-year-old instructor at El Camino Junior college was convicted by a federal court July 12 on two counts: that he lied when he said he didn't know that Ignacy Witczak was a communist spy; that he lied when he denied giving money for a Japanese-American's trip to Tokyo in 1941 to work against the Japanese military clique.

Vetterli gave his testimony in 1949 before a federal grand jury. Witczak, named as a communist agent during the Canadian atom spy probe in 1946, has since disappeared. The government charges that he and Vetterli were associates here 10 years ago.

British Consider New Proposal for Iran Settlement

LONDON (AP)—British government leaders huddled today over an Iranian plan for reopening talks between the two nations on their bitter oil nationalization dispute.

Informed sources said a cabinet session will be held tomorrow on the new turn in the crucial row.

Iran's terms for renewing oil negotiations were sent here yesterday along with suggestions by American negotiator W. Averell Harriman, who has been consulting for more than a week in Tehran with Iran's government leaders.

A British embassy spokesman in Tehran said today Britain wants the Iranian government to "relax its interference" in operations of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian oil company before reopening of talks.

The spokesman said the Iranians should show proof of good will and a willingness to "give and take" in the negotiations by curbing their interference in the operations of the oil fields and the AIOC refinery at Abadan, where production has slowed to a comparatively trickle.

Informed sources in Tehran said the Iranian proposal was vaguely worded and that a British negotiating mission was not likely to come to Tehran without firm assurance the Iranians are ready to discuss the details of practical operation of the oil fields.

An American embassy spokesman in the Iranian capital said Harriman felt his talks had made real progress.

Informants here said Iran has offered to talk over a new oil deal, if Britain accepts nationalization of her billion-dollar Anglo-Iranian oil company holdings.

Little could be learned on specific details of Harriman's talks, but one source in Tehran said the U.S. trouble shooter was considering a flying trip to London to press for a compromise agreement.

The U.S. spokesman there said Harriman was "very well satisfied" over the meetings so far with Premier Mohammad Mossadegh and other Iranian leaders.

Sycamore Street Improvement Voted

Anaheim city council last night voted approval of a project for the improvement of E. Sycamore st. from Anaheim cemetery to Placentia ave. Orange County road department is to do the work. Anaheim will pay one-half the cost, which will amount to $916.63.

Authorization to advertise for bids for the improvement of S. Palm st., as soon as plans are approved by the county was voted by the council. City Engineer George Holyoke said the repaving should begin within the next month, approximately.

Colorado Police Chief Arrests Kristy; Confesses Killing Stepdaughter in L.A.

STERLING, Colo. (AP)—Chief of Police O. L. Walker said he arrested today a transient who gave the name of Frank Walker Kristy and that the man signed a statement involving himself in the death of his stepdaughter, Betty Jean Hansen, near Burbank, Calif., July 5.

The FBI has sought Kristy on a fugitive warrant alleging murder. Kristy, according to Chief Walker, said he came to this northern Colorado town Tuesday, spending the night in a city park and that he began work as a painter this morning. Walker, in plain clothes, talked with him while at work, noting identification marks described in an FBI placard, and turned in uniform for the arrest.

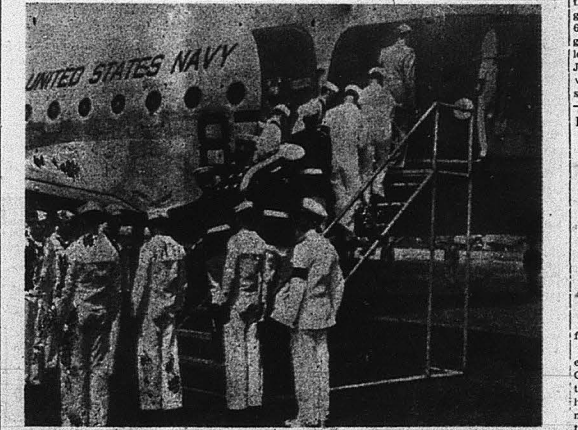

The statement signed by Kristy, 47, Walker said, recited that he had quarreled with his wife rearing his love for his stepdaughter and after threatening his wife with a revolver, he and the girl left in his car. Between Burbank and Newhall, the statement continued, Kristy and the girl quarreled and insisted that they return for her clothes.

The statement continued, Walker said, that Kristy drew an automatic revolver, and remembers only that "the gun went off" and "he rolled down the hill."

After that, according to Walker, Kristy drove to Salt Lake City, throwing the gun away on the desert and after a stay at Denver came to Sterling.

The placard said he will be surrendered to the FBI, Walker said.

Walker said he considered the identification of Kristy as positive.

Here We Go Again, Toledo's Cagers In on Scandal

NEW YORK UP—Three players from the University of Toledo's crack basketball team were involved in the giant college basketball scandal, district attorney Frank S. Hogan said today.

Toledo thus became the sixth major college power to be brought into the mushrooming scandal—the biggest in college history. Nineteen players from four New York schools—CUNY, Manhattan College, New York University and Long Island U., and six from Bradley already have been named in connection with the gigantic expose.

Entries for Annual Legion Tourney Arriving Daily

Anaheim's Annual American Legion Baseball Tournament, which will be getting underway in two weeks, has started to receive entry lists from teams all over Southern California.

Rated as one of the top Legion Tournaments in the United States, the local tournament committee recently announced the entry list of the first few teams to sign up.

Teams sending in lists this week were Post teams from Los Angeles, Anaheim, Santa Ana, San Pedro, San Bernardino, Pasadena, El Monte, El Sereno, Crenshaw, South Gate, Sawtelle, North Hollywood, Woodrow Wilson of Long Beach, Maywood, Wilmington, Lakewood of Long Beach and a team from Santa Maria.

The opening round of competition will start August fifth and the finals will be held three weeks later, August 26. Certain teams around the country seem reluctant to enter their teams in the tourney as a result of entry rules.

Some teams near by, such as Fullerton, seem to be hanging back waiting to see what the rules committee does about athletic eligibility. As in the past certain teams have played athletes that were not eligible, but no one protested and the team got away with it.

Fullerton and other teams can't see entering a team only to be beaten by a powerhouse from a different district playing boys not eligible to participate. But the feeling prevails: what can you do about it? How will Anaheim know if one of their opponents uses a junior college athlete from Long Beach City College or one from Los Angeles City College or from Compton?

If Anaheim wouldn't protest the game no one else would, unless by chance. It's a tricky situation and one that will take lots of thought because teams such as Fullerton attract large numbers of spectators from all over as a result of their winnings ways.

However, Fullerton isn't the only winning team in the country and the Tournament can progress along nicely, if not better, without them. At any rate, it will be interesting to see what coach Bucky Walters and his Post-142 team does.

July's best buys in foods include the dairy products, milk, cream, cheese and eggs and high on the list also are fish, frying chicken, bacon, picnic hams, cold cuts and the variety meats such as liver, kidney and heart. So says the U. S. Department of Agriculture which bases this choice on seasonal availability.

These trends which make for economical good eating are apparent right here in Anaheim. One has only to look at the advertised food specials of our leading markets to be assured. Safeway guarantees the flavor perfect frying chickens that are frosted to insure freshness. Meaty pieces of the golden brown fried fish makes a sumptuous meal hot at dinner or cold for a picnic lunch.

You will find Safeway's beef liver to be excellent and easy on the pocketbook. Extra delicious when teamed with crisp bacon or fried onions.

Good old bacon and eggs makes a fine summer main dish at any meal of the day. Alpha Beta is featuring these twins along with the biggest selection of cheese in town, and these items are going like hot cakes.

FARM FRESH
The warm weather plays havoc with fresh fruits and vegetables when they are not handled just right. Wilting produce has impaired flavor and the vitamin loss is tremendous. To be just right the quality must be high in the first place, and it must receive expert handling from farm to table. You will find only the very best produce at Alpha Beta markets and it is kept farm fresh. Treat it right when you get it home and prepare for a heap of good eating.

Elberta freestone peaches are here at last and those big Klondike watermelons that are so famous for flavor. The new crop of Astrachan apples are dandy for all purpose cooking, and vine ripened cantaloupes, bell peppers and Utah type celery are not to be slighted.

QUICK AND EASY
During this lovely weather, the less time spent in the kitchen, the better. Whether you want a cake, pie, cookies or some other desert delicacy, you will find just what you want at Hadley's bakery. No fuss, no bother, and no dishes to do! Hadley's takes pride in the use of only the finest ingredients and each and every pastry is dependably oven fresh.

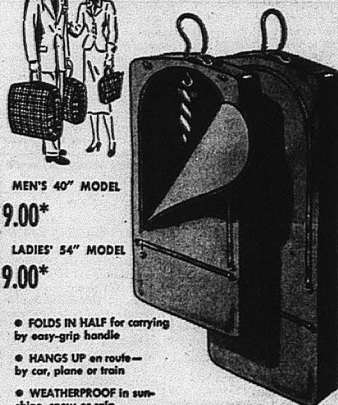

With the dessert question solved, we can work backwards to other quick meal aids. How about this line up for the pantry shelf—solid pack tuna for hearty salads, pork and beans in tomato sauce for the protein part of lunch, a variety of canned soup for "something hot," packaged gelatin and puddings so easy to prepare.

Canned meats and meat spreads are very handy to have also. In place of the ever popular hamburger, Alpha Beta offers canned corned beef which can be chopped and formed into patties.

CORNEB BEEF PATTIES
1 12 oz. can corned beef
1 No. 2 can whole kernel corn
1 egg
½ cup dry bread crumbs
1 teaspoon dry mustard
Few drops Worcestershire

Art Aragon in Decision Over John Gonsalves

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Art Aragon of Los Angeles and Oakland's Johnny Gonsalves gave Olympic auditorium fight fans plenty to cheer about last night as Aragon slammed his way to a split decision in 10 rounds. Aragon weighed 139½ and Gonsalves 137½.

The Los Angeles lightweight built up an early lead and in the fifth had Gonsalves on the ropes for a three count while 9000 fans yelled themselves hoarse. It looked as though Gonsalves wouldn't weather the bombardment as Aragon punched his head and body. Referee Mushy Callahan waved Aragon to a neutral corner and began his count.

The plucky Gonsalves came back fighting. He was carrying the attack to Aragon as the fifth ended and more than held his own the rest of the way. Judge Joe Stone gave Gonsalves the fight by one point, but referee Callahan gave pieces. Pit the cherries. Cut apricots in pieces. In a double boiler, melt the fat and stir in the flour. Next add in the pineapple juice, sugar, lemon juice and the slightly beaten egg. When smooth, set aside to cool. Fold in one cup cream, whipped, and the drained fruit. Chill until firm and serve on a bed of lettuce.

USC Still Winning

BERLIN (AP)—The all-victorious touring American track and field team moved on to Vienna today after winning its fourth straight track meet against German athletes six events to four.

American victories and performances included 110-meter hurdles, Dick Atlesley, Southern California; 15.3, shot, Pat Parry O'Brien, Southern California; 53 ft. 7 in. and pole vault, Walter Jensen, Southern California, 13 ft. 10 in.

PSYCHOLOGICAL ILLNESS

SINGAPORE (AP)—A local man, perspired and turned purple. Then, he became sick with fear and he left his place of business.

Back home he called a doctor. But first he took a bath. He sighed with relief when the purple was washed away by the shower. Today, the man reconstructed his day's activities in search of an explanation. It came: in a chemist's shop a fan had blown dust in his face. The dust had been gentian violet powder. The heat of the day did the rest.

Multi-Blessed Event Shower at Calvary Baptist Church Tuesday

When Hulda Miller, as general chairman, planned to entertain nine expectant mothers of Calvary Baptist church, she planned a clever shower honoring all of the young matrons at one time.

Approximately 50 women gathered at the beautifully decorated church social hall for the affair which feted Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mrs. George Butler, Mrs. Robert Fox, Mrs. Bonnie Gedney, Mrs. Callie Johnson, Mrs. Melvin Killigbeck, Mrs. Helen St. Clair, Mrs. Earl Williams and Mrs. Greg Beale. Mrs. Beale, unable to attend, was represented by her mother, Mrs. Davis.

Chairs decorated in pink and blue crepe paper were set apart for the honored guests with baskets of matching flowers arranged throughout the hall. A tea table set with silver service and bouquets of pink carnations and blue cornflowers centered the room.

Gifts were wrapped in baby paper with a rattle attached to each identical package. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Mike Porter.

Miss Carol Jane Rutledge sang "The Love of God" and Mrs. Bernice Athy presented each honoree with a clever corsage of baby pants and safety pins. Gift presentation was by Mrs. Kevorkian.

Marquita Dixon Has Birthday Party

Miss Marquita Dixon was feted last Friday evening on the occasion of her 17th birthday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dixon, invited seven of her girl friends over for a hamburger fry in the patio of their home.

Attending the get-together were: Ann Lou Daly, Madelyn Dunneagan, Helen Weir, Diane Cash, Carlene Korn, Gwen Keithly, all of Anaheim; Glenn Sue Bryant of Covina and honoree, Marquita Dixon.

Symphony Band To Play at Idyllwild Concert

A program of special interest to all will be presented at the Atwater Kent Bowl at Idyllwild next Sunday, July 23, at five o'clock. The Pomona Community Symphonic Band of 50 pieces under the direction of Stanton Selby will play a varied program of works for wind instruments.

In addition to the numbers for the band the program will feature several outstanding soloists who will present songs and ensemble numbers.

There will be no admission charge for the concert but a fee-will offering will be received for the 1952 scholarship fund for the Idyllwild Summer High School Chorus. Ten scholarships have already been raised from the concert in the Atwater Kent Bowl this season for the 1952 chorus, and it is expected that the goal of 15 will be reached before the series of concerts closes August 12th.

Howard Anderson And Family Visit Parents in Anaheim

First Lt. and Mrs. Howard D. Anderson of Sacramento recently flew to Lansing, Michigan where they took delivery on a new automobile. Enroute home they visited relatives and friends and stopped at Yellowstone, Bryce and Zion National Parks.

In Anaheim they picked up their two children who had been staying with Lt. Anderson's family. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Anderson, a brother, in Long Beach, who have recently welcomed a new son into the family. Timothy Edward was born Monday night at Harriman Jones clinic in Long Beach. The E. D. Anderson's have another son, Mike, and a daughter Pat.

Betty Saunders Tells Betrothal To Bob Pecor

Pvt. Robert J. Pecor, son of Mrs. H. J. Kreisler of 8212 S. Gay st., Cypress, who is taking basic training at Sheppard Air Base in Wichita Falls, Tex., is engaged to Miss Betty Saunders, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Saunders, 10772 E. Broadway.

Both young people attended Anaheim high and Fullerton Junior college. Betty was well known as a dancer who studied at Martin's studio and is now working with a ceramic studio in Santa Ana.

Soldier Writes of German Occupation

Miss Donna Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jennings of 7062 E. Orange ave., has received word from her fiancé, Glenn Rogers, that he has moved to Hanau, Germany, from Muenchen. He says that the 4th Division of the 20th Infantry, to which he is attached is quartered in four story modern barracks and that the German KPs are feeding them very well, in fact they are quite comfortable and happy, they even have coffee and cigarettes. The German people do not have coffee. Rogers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Rogers of Cypress.

Agnes Zinda Fetes Institute Deputies

Agnes Zinda, who was 1911 District Deputy for the year just concluded, entertained institute deputies of District 17 recently with a lovely dinner party in her Carrizo ave. home.

Attending were: Helen Krom, Grand Director; Evangeline Mentle, San Diego; Sadie Winan, San Diego; Erika Boles and Dorothy Hart, Oceanside; Ruth Deen and Margaret Young, Santa Ana; Monica Ryan, Long Beach; Alberta Hammer, Fullerton; Ann Hennessy, District Deputy of San Diego, and Adeline McBride, Elsie Benner and Mary Ellen Grady of Anaheim.

Pavement mutterings...

The corner of the neat phrase on the Anaheim Gazette is none other than Waldo Hunter, the "Doling View" columnist.
Today, just for fun, this column is going to try to out-corn Waldo and present:
Street corner sayings of a pavement Plato:
(Editor's note: This is NOT a regular feature of this newspaper!!!)
The thinnest thing in the world is flattery... and the hardest to see through.

Marriage maxim: Never tell a wife to do anything unless she already has decided to.

There is more nourishment in lean truth than a fat lie.

A man is like a railroad train. He never gets anywhere unless he's got something to go on.

Children tend to say "thank you" when you gave them a penny. Now they ask, "what's it for?"

If misery really loves company, why doesn't everybody today throw a party?

One way to keep from hating anybody is never to love anybody. Bore you as try!

It is better to be a butterfly on a grave than the stern name beneath.

The trouble with life is that you can't enjoy it twice. It's so hard to enjoy it once.

An educated snob shows the power of mind over manners.

The surest way to give your wife insomnia is to start talking in your sleep.

IN THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

From the Files of Anaheim Gazette

By MRS. HENRY KUCHEL

75 Years Ago

Charley Look and Mah Lee, both representatives of the flower Kingdom, had a dispute on Thursday evening over a game of gin, or some other gambling amusement, and as the row was becoming serious, our giant officer Barham stepped in upon the scene. He succeeded in capturing the principals by shooting them with a club. Justice Bailey summed up them as benignly of old, and mildly relieved each of them ten dollars silver, for disturbing the peace and dignity of the good town of Anaheim.

A beautiful rainbow in the southeastern horizon attracted the attention of our citizens last evening.

Sidewalks seem to be all the rage just now and Center street received a few touches yesterday, which will excite the gratitude of our weary printers who are obliged to walk along the street after midnight. If those gentlemen who leave wagons, mowing machines etc. on the sidewalks were obliged to leave a lighted lamp after midnight and stumble along over the carelessly left obstacles, they would be a little more careful of their property and considerate of the poor type.

In a conversation with Mr. Heilmann yesterday we were informed that work on the fruit dryer is progressing as fast as labor and money can push it ahead and that it will without doubt be in readiness to experiment with this year's crop of fruit. There is no doubt that it will be a source of great profit to this vicinity and deserves every encouragement.

All our hotels have availed themselves of the new ice agency, and the train brought to each a package. We don't like mint juleps.

Yesterday the carpenters commenced laying the sidewalk around the Planter's hotel. This is a step in the right direction, and will be appreciated by the pedestrians.

The thermometer in the Anaheim hotel yesterday registered 92 degrees.

THE MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON—For about two days last week, President Truman was on the verge of losing his defense mobilizer, Charles E. Wilson, who, whether you like him or not, has done a masterful job of speeding up production.
The crisis over Wilson came about as a result of the Kansas-Missouri flood, and an amazing boner pulled by the White House.

What happened was that Wilson had urged the president to survey the flood areas then on the insistence of Mr. Truman, Wilson also went along. The defense mobilizer argued that he was busy in Washington with 101 different things, but finally acceded to the president's wishes.

On the trip, the president made several statements to Kansas and Missouri crowds that he was giving chief mobilizer, Charles E. Wilson, the man who knew more about production than anyone else in the USA, the job of getting the flood areas back on their feet. And on the plane en route to Washington, the president also promised to Wilson that he was to be entrusted with this important extra work.

One thing that impressed both Wilson and the president on the trip was the effect of the flood on national defense. For instance, the new channel which the flood cut through Kansas City freight yards caught 8000 boxes, 5000 of them loaded. Also, Kansas City's cattle pens, where a large segment of the nation's cattle go to market, had been washed away. So the president, talking to Wilson on the plane, told him to shoot the works.

Truman flew to Red River, where a little tired from the long day and having enjoyed Kansas City's traditional liquid hospitality—due no doubt to the water shortage, the president went forward in the plane and went to bed.

Wilson, however, sat up until 1:30, when the plane landed, going over flood rehabilitation plans with his chief assistant, Alfred Howes, whose home is in Wichita, Kansas, and who is thoroughly familiar with that area.

Next morning, following out his presidential instructions, Wilson called a meeting of all cooperating mobilization agencies. He called it for 9 a.m., despite the fact that he hadn't landed until 1:30 and he was crumpled for a car at the airport, while Gen. Lewis Pick and the top brass went off in limousines.

At the 9 a.m. meeting, Wilson explained the performance of the flood problem, said that the president had placed him in charge and started a three-hour survey of the Anaheim lodge was held the same evening. Mr. Champlin is 73 years old and is a charter member of the Anaheim lodge which was established in 1872. He joined the order in New York and for 50 years has been a member in good standing. In honor of his long and useful career in the order, the Odd Fellows presented him with an elegant easy chair, a receipt for five years due from the lodge and a purse of money, while Symamore Rebekahs presented a head rest for the chair. Mr. Champlin came to Anaheim in 1869 and is a worthy and respected member of the community.

Mrs. F. A. Backs entertained the Elysian Bridge club at an all day meeting last Friday, at her cottage at Balboa. A very delightful luncheon was served at noon after which the ladies enjoyed their usual game of bridge.

County Assessor James Sleeper was seen yesterday looking for his old-time friends. Sleeper has been assessor of Orange county for 16 years and the voters are going to keep him on the job, because he has made a record for efficiency, integrity and devotion to the public interest that few men can boast. He has lived in Orange county for 38 years. He has seen the Santa Ana river full of water, the hills green and the new highways paved, and he knows the bearing of property values. His assessments have been uniformly fair.

A BULL OF ANOTHER COLOR

Hal Boyle

HOT SPRINGS, S. D. (AP)—Buffalo hunting today is easier than it was in the old days—for every body except the buffalo.
They bagged one near here the other day. And the verdict of a number of reservation Indians who went along for the ride was this:
"We used to do it better before the Paleface came."
The hunt was held in Wind Cave National park, on whose rolling grasses across the largest buffalo herd in the world grazes. Some 150 Sioux Indians came here from their Pine Ridge reservation as a side show attraction at the "Miss South Dakota" beauty pageant.

One of their rewards was to be the carcass of a fresh-killed buffalo, the meat they love best. Their leader, Chief Ben Chief, president of the Sioux tribal council, and three of his braves were invited to the hunt. Clad in tribal regalia, they mounted their steed—a two ton wrecker—and gravely rode to the scene. There two national park rangers already had needed an old bull from the herd.

One ranger dismounted from a small pick-up truck, knelt and fired at close range with a high-powered rifle. The bullet thudded against the buffalo's skull as it hid behind a granite boulder. He shook his head, and looped across the hills.

The rangers pursued him in the truck, dismounting time after time to fire at him. But the bullet dodged. Several braves began to skin him with steel knives.
"In the old days we used stone knives," said Chief Ben Chief. "We still have some—but we forgot to bring them."
"Skinning a buffalo is hard work," said another Indian, natty in a new green cowboy hat.

As the skinner hacked the tough hide from the old bull a group of Indian braves, squaws and young boys on one side of it pranced and stomped in an ancient hunting dance to the music of a tired White Man's drum. On the other side of the old bull a young Indian boy sang modern hillbilly songs to the spectators who had paid 50 cents each to enter the camp.

A young white girl about 12 years old looked at the bloody buffalo—only five hours removed from life and green grass—and said disappointedly to another girl:
"I thought they were going to chop off its head with an ax."
"Yes, buffalo hunting is changed."

Alleged King Pin Of Nation's Crime Indicted by Senate

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Costello, named by the Senate Crime Committee as the top man in the nation's underworld, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on a charge of contempt of the Senate.

Gambler Joe Adonis (Joe Doto) and confessed bookmaker Frank Erickson were indicted on the same charge.

The indictments stemmed from their refusal to answer questions at the widely-publicized crime committee hearings in New York last March.

Costello was indicted on nine counts. Adonis on 18, and Erickson on 14.

The maximum penalty on each count is a year in prison and a $10,000 fine.

7 Year Old Boy Tumbles into Cemetery Grave

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—David McElshone, 7, was chasing butterflies in East Cedar Hill cemetery when he suddenly found himself at the bottom of a 14-foot grave.

His cries were drowned out by traffic on a nearby busy street. That is, until about 20 minutes later, when Christina, a year-old sister belonging to Patrolman Edwin Clare happened by the grave yesterday.

Christina's barking attracted her owner. Clare summoned help and David was hauled up by a nearby fireman and shaken up but unharmed.

School Patriotic Contest Won by Ex Red's Daughter

WESTMINSTER (AP)—Ellen Chambers, whose father once was a courier for communist spies, has won a high school essay contest on "What America Means to Me."

Whittaker Chambers, now a Carroll county farmer, was the state government witness in the government conviction of Alger Hiss, former State Department official.

The 16-year-old Ellen, who graduated from Westminster High in June, won the contest conducted by a Veterans of Foreign Wars post. She received a VFW citizenship award.

PHYSICIANS INCOMES TOLD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Physicians in private practice in this country in 1949 had average net income before taxes of $11,058, and those in big cities didn't make as much as those in medium size communities.

Flood Work, Now Under Control, Rolls Southward

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)—The devastating midwestern flood headed for the south today, but minus the punch that caused an estimated $10,000,000 damages in Kansas and Missouri.

The Mississippi river registered 41.8 feet here yesterday morning. It was still at that point several hours later. The predicted crest was 41.9 for some time last night but the next official reading to be made at 9 a.m. (EST) today.

Army engineers and weather bureau officials don't expect further damage as the flood crest heads for the Gulf of Mexico. High, strong levees keep the river in check the rest of the way.

Body of Admiral Arrives Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, naval aviator, makes his last landing today.

A four-engine transport, carrying the body of the chief of naval operations and joint chiefs of staff member, was bound for Washington from Naples where Sherman died suddenly of a heart attack on Sunday. He was 54. Old, high-ranking shipmates of the man who rose from a navy fighter pilot to the status of admiral and statesman assembled to be present for the scheduled arrival of the funeral plane at National airport.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP UP

NEW YORK (AP)—Church membership in the United States rose to 85,705,280 in 1950, a record-making 55.9 per cent of the population.

The total membership was up 2,650,887 over the previous year.

Tickets Going Fast for Performance Of Lord's Puppets Here on July 30

Tickets are going fast for the performance of Daniel Lord's and his internationally famous puppets which will be seen on the stage of the Fremont school auditorium on July 30. It is announced today by Earle Jackson and Joe R. Thompson, co-chairmen of the event.

The public appearance here of Lord's puppets is filled with action and color and is entertaining equally for adults and children.

Mr. Lord's puts his marionettes through all sorts of entertaining routines. There are dancers, musicians, clowns, trapeze performers, even an underwater extravaganza.

Mr. Lord is practically a one-man crew when it comes to governing the many movements of the puppets, handling the lighting effects, playing the music, and manipulating the stage props.

One of the most fascinating parts of the show is watching Mr. Lord's handle all the details of staging his puppet show. In addition, he explains the action on the stage and, at times, helps out the marionettes by singing their parts.

The show was brought to Anaheim because it had been enjoyed by members of several local clubs who had featured the production; the members thought it should be brought to the general Anaheim public.

General admission price is 50 cents. The time is 7:30 p.m. The date is July 30. And the place is Fremont school.

Tickets may be purchased at the door on the night of the performance or may be obtained in advance at Jackson's Drug store or from members of the St. Michael's congregation.

Paul's Sandwich Shop Now Open For Business

Now open for business is Paul's Sandwich and Mail shop, located at 900 North Los Angeles st., Anaheim. The business is operated by Paul Czapl, well known Anaheim chef, and Mrs. Czapl.

The new establishment is specializing in hamburgers, barbecued sandwiches, and French fried shrimp. In addition, a complete fountain service is offered. Czapl has been a chef in Anaheim for the past six years and before locating here was in the Army for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Czapl own their own home at 818 South Palm st.

Objectionable Odor Suit Filed Against Anaheim Industries

Notification was given Anaheim city council last night by District Attorney James L. Davis that objections to odors emanating from industrial plants in northern Anaheim have been filed with his office against the following firms: Anaheim Citrus Assn., Essex Wire Corp. of California, U. S. Industrial Chemicals, Inc., and C. W. Wise and Sons, who operate a cow-feed dehydrator.

Councilmen expressed surprise that the matter hadn't been handled through local officials and asked City Attorney Preston Turner to contact the DA with a view to having the matter transferred to local authorities.

It pays half the cost of the well casing installed.

Terms of the lease provide that the City of Anaheim may designate the site of any drilling on the lease. A variance will have to be sought by the company and granted by the city before drilling operations can begin.

Cook estimated that 12 to 16 wells will be drilled in the five-acre plot and six in the two-acre piece. He asked that the lease provide specifically that only one well may be drilled to ten acres of land, which would indicate 30 wells to be drilled on leases held at present by the company.

Initially, Cook explained, any oil produced will be pumped into camouflaged storage tanks on the well-site, and then hauled off by tank truck. Later, he said, other methods would be used if production warranted it.

Only one drilling derrick at a time will be erected on the site, Cook said, thus doing away with the danger of unsightly horizons in Anaheim such as clutter the Huntington Beach, Long Beach and Santa Fe Springs oil producing areas. In addition, drilling will be done electrically and will not be audible beyond a distance of 70 feet. Pumping equipment is to be used, and one pumping rig will serve all of the casing, dispensing from one "whipstock."

He was elected to the Republican Central Committee in 1948 and led the field of 12 candidates for the six positions open on the ballot. McCloud is one of three Central Committee members ever to be named chairman, who lives north of the Santa Ana river.

In previous political campaigns, McCloud has been active in the elections of Sen. Knowland; Sen. Nixon; Congressman Phillips; Gov. Warren, and Lt. Gov. Knight. He has also campaigned for three unsuccessful Republican Presidential candidates.

Glen McCloud was active on recent committees working on Congressional reapportionment in which Orange county joins in the 28th Congressional district with a portion of San Diego county. The district now embraces more than 325,000 persons and gives Orange county two-thirds of the population of the district. The reapportionment was recently passed by the State Legislature and signed by Gov. Earl Warren.

McCloud's entry into the race for assemblyman has been firmly endorsed by retiring Sen. Clyde Watson, who publicly has praised the young Northerner. Orange county man for his efforts toward building honest government in county, state and national levels.

A graduate of the Anaheim and Fullerton schools, McCloud resides at 720 N. Topoka st. in Anaheim. He is an active member of the Elks club and has taken a leading role in many civic affairs aimed at the improvement of his city, county and district. He is presently employed by the Southern California Edison Company.

truce, once established, is not broken.

The communists have served notice that they intend to insist on a buffer zone between the opposing armies along the 38th Parallel. Ridgway's orders are to get a buffer zone along the present battle line, which generally is north of the parallel.

In the earlier stages of the negotiations on what should be discussed in arranging an armistice, the reds tentatively accepted the idea of close observation and inspection. But authorities here say they actually are committed to nothing and may resist the idea of United Nations or other members of an inspection team looking over their forces.

Diplomatic officials say these two issues mean it may still be many days, or even weeks, before an actual armistice is achieved.

confirmed by the Senate. The only doubtful that the "yes" vote would be from office would be to impeach him. It can hold up his pay, but that wouldn't throw him out of office.

The decision of the GOP conference is not binding on the members. Individuals still can vote the way they feel.

But refusal of so many of them to support the amendment made it doubtful that the DA with the drive would succeed unless it gained heavy Democratic support.

Dog Leash Law For City Goes Under Study

Study which may eventually lead to a dog "leash law" in Anaheim will be undertaken by City Administrator Keith Murdoch on instructions from Anaheim City Council following the reading of two letters and a petition from irate property owners who objected to the city's many footloose canines.

Anaheim's present leash ordinance applies only to dogs in the city's parks. Licensed dogs are permitted to roam at will through the city, immune from the dog-catcher's activities, while unleashed dogs are picked up wherever they are found.

The protesters, many of them dog-owners, objected to the damage unleashed dogs do to flower beds, lawns, etc. and to the fact that they are free to molest pedestrians and bicyclists.

Murdoch was instructed to inquire how other cities have handled the problem and present possible solutions to the council at a future meeting.

Plea of Guilty Filed by Contino

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Accordingist Dick Contino, who got "panic claustrophobia" on $8,500-acre Fort Ord, Calif., spent last night in a 5 x 8 foot county jail cell.

Contino, at 21 a $4,000 a week earner, entered a surprise plea of guilty at his draft evasion trial yesterday. He told Federal Judge Michael J. Roche he is now ready to go into the army.

"I know I can be a good soldier—a very good soldier," he said. Murdoch was instructed to inquire how other cities have handled the problem and present possible solutions to the council at a future meeting.

"This" started in April. One day late, Contino reported at Fort Ord. He quickly passed an army psychiatric test. Next day, he fled in his convertible. Arrested weeks later, he explained his flight: "Everything was behind a fence. It made me sick all over."

Four Servicemen Hurt in Crash

Two marines and two coast guard personnel were injured at Santa Ana boulevard and Flower st., Santa Ana, at 2:55 a.m. today when James P. Kennedy, 18, Camp Pendleton marine, fell asleep at the wheel of his car while traveling south on the boulevard.

When he awoke he saw a car driven by Thomas H. Edwards, 19, Los Angeles, 200 feet away. Kennedy's car skidded 140 feet and crashed head-on into the Edwards car, police reported.

Injured were both drivers and their passengers, Robert F. Kelly, Camp Pendleton marine, in Kennedy's car, and Ronald M. Conforti, coast guardman, New Orleans, in the Edwards car. All received lacerations on their faces and hands. Kelly and Edwards received leg injuries, and Conforti suffered a shoulder injury. All were taken to El Toro marine base dispensary.

COUNTY'S FEDERAL DEBT

Orange county's citizens' share of the federal debt has grown to $368,419,000, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce reported today. Assessed valuation of taxable property was set at $437,123,000.

Mrs. Sallie Scott of Long Beach visited in town during the week, the guest of Mrs. Cohen.

Optimist Clubbers To Fete Soap Box Drivers Tomorrow

With Anaheim Soap Box Derby "aces" as honored guests, the Anaheim Optimist club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night at 7 o'clock at Mother's Kitchen.

Program will be presented by the Santa Ana Valley Kennel club, with E. E. McHenry as program chairman.

packed courtroom by saying that his landlady, Mrs. Earle Buequet, came into the cabin while the girl lay dead in the kitchen and accused him of killing the child. He then became frantic, he said, and then beat her many times over the head with a broken flatiron that he had accidentally pulled off a shelf.

He went to the other room of the cabin and when he returned to the kitchen a few minutes later, there was no sign of the landlady, he said.

Since Mrs. Buequet, in her testimony for the prosecution made no mention of such an incident, there was speculation that McCracken's defense may contend that McCracken, who spoke in a halting voice and repeatedly referred to his mental confusion during the time in the cabin, had a hallucination regarding the landlady and was actually beating Fatty's head with an iron, without knowing it. That would account for the 13 deep scalp wounds found when her body was discovered five days later.

McCracken said he then argued with himself about the situation. "I can't go in there," he said, he told himself. "But I've got to go in."

The defendant said he got hold of her foot and dragged her to the sink. He said he cried to the child, "I hope to hear you talk to me. But she didn't answer."

He said he bathed her head in the sink.

Thus, McCracken sought to explain to the jury of six men and six women that the child had come by her head wounds accidentally.

He also sought to explain that the child's body had been washed thoroughly before she was buried.

McCracken said, "I took her body to the bed while I cleaned the kitchen up. She bled while on the bed."

A bloody bedspread identified at McCracken's was found buried near the body of the little girl.

He referred again and again to pains in his head and a sick feeling at the time, also lapses of memory when he talked to the child as if she were alive.

Finally, he placed her body behind and under the bed because he had a date with his girlfriend, Mrs. Pearl Fisher, and left the cabin to keep it. He failed to find her and later borrowed the auto of Lee Stradley to locate an amplifier for his guitar so he could play at Stradley's cafe. He said he decided to take the little girl for a ride with him. So he went to his cabin, wrapped her body in the yellow bedspread, which later was found near her grave in Live Oak Canyon, and placed her in the rear seat of the auto with a towel wrapped around her head and another cloth placed under her head.

Leaving the cabin, he apparently suffered another mental lapse, he indicated, and caused considerable traffic disruption by his driving. After failing to find a friend at a Santa Ana hotel, where he expected to borrow an amplifier, he purchased gas for the car. Then he suddenly realized, he indicated, that Fatty was dead and that he must dispose of the body. So he procured a shovel at the home of his parents in Santa Ana and drove to Live Oak Canyon where he had to work on a county road and gang the preceding summer where he had to serve sentence for a sex offense.

At that point and before he described details of the burial, court adjourned for the noon recess. McCracken was to resume his testimony this afternoon.

His attorney, G. Chula, told the jury, in the opening defense statement, before McCracken took the stand, that McCracken was innocent and the truth would come out. He referred to McCracken as "that poor boy" and a "poor, ignorant, pathetic, moron." He is "picked at like a sick chicken," Chula said.

Chula pledged himself, if McCracken is acquitted, to personally file sexual psychopath proceedings against McCracken and have him put away in an institution from "one year to life, probably life in this case."

EXPECT STEADY GAIN
IN ISRAELI POPULATION
JERUSALEM (AP)—Time will tell and another census, Z. Sharet, secretary to the Israeli government, predicted in a public meeting here that in 10 years from now the State of Israel will have a population of 3,000,000 against the present number of 1,400,000 of whom he expects 250,000 to live in Jerusalem.

After the speech, reporters asked for Sharet's notes on his predictions. They were put in an envelope, sealed, inscribed "Open on May 11, 1961" and put in a safe in the prime minister's office.
