Chinese Frontline Before a 100,000

U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea (AP)—Chinese front-line defenses appeared to be crumbling in the west today before an offensive of 100,000 United Nations troops.

Battered reds retreated northward in some sectors. Some hills were completely abandoned after days of bitter fighting. Elsewhere only die-hard rear guards delayed U.N. troops.

Soldiers of nine United Nations moved forward cautiously for limited gains.

Late in the day reds launched back with counterattacks in efforts to recapture some abandoned hills. Elsewhere:

1. The air over northwest Korea flamed with three jet battles involving 220 planes. It was the greatest number of jets ever reported in action on one day. The Fifth Air Force reported one red jet shot down, two damaged. It said all Allied jets returned from the first two battles, but didn't say how they fared in the third.

2. Allied troops lashed forward on each side of heartbreak ridge in a revival of warfare in the mountainous east. U.N. infantrymen advanced 1000 yards to the west of the ridge while a tank patrol shot up reds on the east.

3. Reds were silent on Gen. Mat-

(New D. Ridgway's invitation to pick a new site in no-man's-land to renew disrupted cease-fire talks. Red Korean political officers were quoted as saying there would be no negotiated truce in Korea in the near future.

Frontline dispatches from the western front reported these major gains Friday in the third day of the drive:

1. The U.S. Third Division took a key hill in the center of the line—without firing a shot.

2. Just south of the Third, the U.S. First Cavalry Division beat off a series of pre-dawn counterattacks Chinese trying to recapture one of the hills.

3. The British Commonwealth division made gains of up to a mile and a half in the sector reaching from Yoncheon seven miles south to the 38th Parallel. They fought off one red counterattack late in the day.

Freighter Sinks Off Atlantic Coast Today

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. (AP)—The freighter Southern Isles broke into halves and sank early today. It carried a crew of 24 men. Hours afterward the Coast Guard reported seven men rescued and five bodies sighted.

Coast Guard headquarters here said the Steamship Charlotte Lykes radioed she rescued seven of the Southern Isles' 24-member crew and had sighted the five bodies.

The Southern Isles broke into pieces about 200 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras, N.C. The Charlotte Lykes, about one hour's steaming time from the stricken ship, rushed to the scene.

The Coast Guard said the Navy mine sweeper Fitch had left Charleston, S.C., with a physician aboard and should reach the search area late this afternoon.

The Navy also sent a PTV Lockheed Neptune plane to help in the hunt.

The cause of the Southern Isles' break-up was not immediately known. She was traveling rough waters, a residue of a hurricane which blew along this coast only yesterday. The Southern Isles, a 2000-ton vessel was owned by the Philadelphia-Norfolk Steamship Co., of Wilmington, Del. It is a former landing ship, tank (LST), designed for carrying supplies and personnel in military amphibious landings.

Having voted to go part of the way toward meeting Mr. Truman's requests on the Capehart amendment, the Senate next week will take up two other points raised (Continued on Page 8)

BATTLE CREEK, MICH. Oct. 5—DESCRIBES MIXUP IN KOREA
The story of an apparent air-ground mixup in Korea that resulted in death or wounds for an estimated 40 American soldiers was told here by Pvt. Peter K. Pivato, 22, of Cleveland, shown at Percy Jones General Hospital. Pivato said his left hand was blown off by a 50 caliber bullet from an American plane that strafed his company's position. Allied Soldier Tells How U.N. Plane Killed American Troops in Korea

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP)—A hospitalized Korean war veteran says that a strafing Navy plane shot off his left hand and killed or wounded an estimated 40 other members of his rifle company.

The account of an apparent mixup came from Pvt. Peter K. Pivato, 22, of Cleveland. He arrived at Percy Jones General Hospital here yesterday after being flown back from Japan.

The soldier's story has been denied by a qualified source of the Far East Naval Command. The source said that the command had no planes in the area at the time described by Pivato.

A confidential report, however, has been sent to the Secretary of the Navy in Washington, this source said.

Pvt. Pivato, a husky 175-pounder, said the incident occurred on hill 882, near Kumcha in Eastern Korea, shortly after noon on Sept. 9.

His company (Co. F, 25th Infantry Division) had taken the hill earlier, he said, and was resting after "moon chow."

A Navy Corsair fighter, one of a group of four that had been strafing nearby hills, suddenly made one pass at his company's ridge he said. The ship fired 50 caliber bullets, he said.

One slug, he said, struck his left arm near the wrist, almost severing his hand.

"Maybe 40 other GIs were wounded or killed," he said.

Pivato was philosophical. "It's just one of those things that happen in a war," he said.

A pattern-maker's apprentice before he entered the army, Pivato was married 23 days before he left for overseas last April 30. His bride, Maryann, lives at 1331 W. 85th St., Cleveland.

Lopat Squares Series Play With Giants, Allows Only Five Hits

(WORLD SERIES (Second Game) Giants — 000 000 100-1 5 1 Yankees — 110 000 010-3 6 0

NEW YORK (AP)—Steady Eddie Lopat squared the World Series by edging the New York Giants 3-1 with a five-hitter in the second game, watched by 60,018 fans at Yankee Stadium.

GI McDougald's first-inning single following two bunt singles off loser Larry Jansen and an error gave the Yankees a run in the first. Joe Collins added the second with his 310-foot homer into the right field seats in the second. Lopat himself knocked in the final run with an eighth-inning single off reliever George Spencer.

Lopat was hard pressed to escape from a seventh inning situation when the Giants scored their lone run. Singles by Monte Irvin and Whitey Lockman and a walk to Wes Westrum loaded the bases with only one out.

Pinch hitter Billy Rigney's fly to deep right let Irvin score easily from third. Another pinch hitter, Ray Noble, failed Manager Leo Durocher, when he lofted an easy pop foul to Yogi Berra for the final out.

From Collins' homer in the second to Bobby Brown's leadoff single in the eighth, Jansen and Spencer retired 16 Yankees in order. But they never could overcome that early Yankee lead.

Traces the club's magic across the Harlem River to the Polo Grounds tomorrow for the third game. They'll play the fourth and fifth in the National League Park Sunday and Monday. If a sixth and seventh are necessary they return to the Stadium Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dean, Atomic Official, Advocates Using Bomb When Advantageous

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gordon Dean, top U.S. atomic official, said today the United States has atomic weapons which can "cancel out" on the battlefield "any numerical advantage" of an enemy and that it need not hesitate or fear to use them.

Without indicating whether he had the Korean war specifically in mind, Dean said of the use of tactical atomic weapons:

"I think that when a situation arises where in our carefully considered judgment the use of any kind of a weapon is justified, we are now at the place where we should give serious consideration to the use of an atomic weapon, provided it can be used effectively by the military standpoint and that it is no more destructive than is necessary to meet the particular situation in question."

The Atomic Energy Commission chairman presented this bold new picture of American atomic power in an address prepared for a Founder's Day gathering at the University of Southern California.

Lt. Col. Mattis Awarded Medal

WITH THE 21st TRANS. MEDIUM PORT IN KOREA—Lt. Col. Michael C. Mattis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mattis of 861 South Park St., Anaheim, named on duty with the 21st Transportation Medium Port in Korea, was recently awarded the Soldier's Medal for heroism.

Col. Mattis performed the heroic action when he was serving his tour of duty as commanding officer of Outpost Number One of the 7th Transportation Medium Port, and subsequently was presented with the award by Brig. Gen. Joseph J. Twitty, Neward, N. J., commanding officer of the 2nd Engineer Special Brigade in Korea.

On Aug. 14, Col. Mattis saw smoke rising from a hatch of an ammunition ship being unloaded in the harbor of the port which he commanded. Manning a small boat, he went out to the ship and discovered that a parachute flare had exploded in its hold, which contained approximately 575 tons of flares, bombs, and other types of ammunition.

In spite of the danger and with complete disregard for his own personal safety, Col. Mattis went into the smoke-filled hold and removed the burning flare.

Others, inspired by their commanding officers' gallant action and great courage, joined in the fight to extinguish the fire, thereby saving the ship and averting possible destruction to a large area.

Child's Strangulation Death Subject of Police Inquiry

Death of Marlene Kay Clark, 15 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Clark, Jr., of Casa de Santa Ana Veterans' Housing Project in Santa Ana, was being investigated today by Santa Ana police.

The baby, according to a coroner's autopsy late yesterday, strangled while strapped in her high chair during her mother's absence from the apartment.

How long the young mother, Betty Jean Clark, 19, had been absent, was the question which interested police, they said. Although Mrs. Clark told them she had stepped outside momentarily to summon her two young sons, Kenneth and Michael, to lunch, they were informed by a neighbor, Mrs. Robert P. Pierce, that Mrs. Clark had come to Mrs. Pierce's apartment about 8 a.m. and did not go back to her own apartment and baby until 12 noon.

Marlene, strapped in her high chair with an army belt, had strangled on regurgitated food, according to the autopsy report.

Her mother, returning to the apartment when her younger sister, Ann Howard, 14, came to have lunch with her, seized the baby and ran back to Mrs. Pierce's apartment crying for her to call help.

The World Series

It's on again—the greatest sports show in the world! More Americans thrill to the play by play action of baseball's autumn climax than to any other sports event on the year-round calendar, pro or amateur, be it boxing, football, track, basketball, tennis or what not.

Just why baseball is so indisputably the national game may defy complete analysis, but it does have several natural advantages in the competition of public interest. The drama of pennant competition, running 154 games from April to October, is a year-round spring to fall, gives baseball fans a longer show than any other sports provides. The game combines in near-perfect degree a balance between team play and individual effort. Baseball's most exciting maneuver, the infield double-play, requires flawless co-operation—while at bat, or on the mound, each man is strictly on his own.

Another—and by no means the least—asset of baseball is public confidence in the integrity of clubs and players. Not in more than a generation, since the Chicago "Black Sox" threw a world series for gamblers in 1919, has scandal besmirched the game. Baseball has never had a scandal of the magnitude of the "Black Sox" case, but the game has been highly publicized. The point where a baseball man leaves himself open to suspicion of crookedness is his point of departure from organized ball—and his point of no return.

For the first time, this year, television has given millions of Californians grandstand seats for the series. They'll enjoy what they see all the more—in this year when exposure of moral laxity are so common in sports and other news—for knowing that it is played on the square.

We were favored with a call yesterday from Rev. J. A. Van Allen, who is on his way to Westminster for the purpose of organizing a Methodist Episcopal church at that place. He has just arrived from Montana with the intention of locating with us. He will preach at Westminster on Friday and will be assisted by Rev. A. E. Hough, presiding elder.

The Literary society was completely deserted on Monday evening. The eloquence of our amateur debaters had no power to draw the crowd from the seductions of the Japanese tumblers and the painted clown of the 10 allied shows.

The circus train on the trip here from Livermore made over 50 miles an hour on many portions of the road.

The Great International and 10 allied shows of Cooper, Bailey & Company gave a great performance here on Monday when the whole population turned out to see their monster menagerie of rare wild animals, including the best of elephants, the tallest giraffe in the world, the lion, hippopotamus, etc. The grand street parade with the genuine stamp piano. The gorgeous temple of Juno, the three bands and the glittering chariots and tableaux cars. The amphitheatre with seats for 10,000 spectators (1500 reserved cushioned opera chairs) seemed to be filled, and everybody enjoyed the bareback riders, the acrobats, the jugglers, the 10 clowns, the performing animals. The troupe left at 1 o'clock in the morning for San Bernardino. They have their own cars, said to number 42.

The schooner Phil Sheridan, now discharging lumber at Anaheim Landing, will load with about 200 tons of corn.

D. J. Sorenson leaves for San Francisco this morning on a visit. He takes with him specimens of fruit dried at the Alden works of Heiman and Sorenson. We hope he may be successful in establishing a big trade.

General Sherman arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon. No public reception was tendered him, as he had decided to accept a similar proposed demonstration at San Francisco.

Joseph Holman had received an illustrated postal card from William Schwencik, who has arrived at Bremen. The card bears a colored photograph of the city hall or Rathaus, of that city, a helmeted figure, and a building. Holman remembers the building and its neighborhood well, having resided in that city during her young days. Schwencik writes that he spent some time viewing the sights about the Rathaus as well as the Rathaus itself.

August Backs and Conrad Stucke have returned from Los Angeles where they were engaged for several weeks in building a house. August visited his sister, Mrs. Knapp, in Oxnard, before his return, and reports that the town is enjoying a boom. The sugar factory gives employment to several hundred hands and lots which on his first trip three years ago could be purchased for $150, now command two and three thousand dollars.

M. L. Rogers is taking up Christian Science for his rheumatism. His initial experience with this method of curing disease was obtained a year and a half ago, when, on the advice of an eastern friend, he adopted that means of curing his ailment. He was relieved entirely and not until a few weeks ago did it reappear. Now he is after it again, with Christian Science, and says he has no doubt of being ultimately entirely cured.

FB NETS 30 CENTS

Funeral services were held in Santa Ana last night for the victim of a period of quiet, the victim being Robert V. Wooster, 1801 W. 18th st., Santa Ana, and the pants burglar himself. The burglar got only 30 cents out of Wooster's pants for his night's work.

Entry to the Wooster home was gained through the unlocked back door. Wooster found his pants thrown in the front yard this morning. Police found a clothing rack near a corner of the house.

THE WASHINGTON WEEKLY GO-ROUND

WASHINGTON—Several times in the past 12 months Secretary of State Acheson has told President Truman it might be expedient for him (Acheson) to resign. Each time the President has vigorously objected. Today, however, Acheson has changed his mind. He is planning to stay on as Secretary of State for the remainder of Truman's term.

He has even talked privately to friends about joining the President in a political campaign—if the Republicans nominate him. Acheson says he is ready to hit every white step in the country to let the voters what Acheson's election would mean to American foreign policy—especially the chaos it would bring to our Attitude. Fact developments against communism.

Acheson's more buoyant frame of mind is due of course to the avalanche of praise following from San Francisco; also the fact that the American public had a chance to see on television and realize he was an adroit master of difficult diplomatic parley, not a stuffy old bird.

The barrage of past criticism, however, has made Acheson sensitive, sometimes lonely. At the Ottawa conference, someone told him that while he may not be popular in the United States, he has 14,000,000 votes in Canada—having a population of 14,000,000.

"Sometimes I think," replied the Secretary of State with a touch of sadness, "that all my support comes from outside the United States."

It isn't always that a preacher sees his sermon bear immediate fruit. But some time ago, John L. Peters, a professor of Religion at Oklahoma City University, preached a sermon at St. Luke's Methodist church which got the people of Oklahoma City so aroused that they are beating Congress in putting some one important part of U.S. foreign policy.

"Before the war," Professor Peters told his congregation, "Kagawa, sometimes called the Christ of Japan," wrote to Americans: 'Send us thousands of your sons and daughters now, for we will send us men thousands of them as soldiers later. We would not do the first. We were forced to do the second.'"

The FBI's next report will show a big jump in crime this year. Pennsylvania's Senator Ed Martin, one of the most conservative Republicans in Congress, is a personal defender of President Truman. "Harry Truman," says the GOP Senator, "is a grand fellow, and I only wish to be with him on our side."

Martin got together occasionally to talk over World War I days at the front. "The National Association of Manufacturers' publication, an editorial giving Senator McCarthy a big kick in the back. American parents who have lost sons in Korea are giving consideration today to the problem of whether the atom bomb could be used advantageously in that theater.

Some have also wondered whether, if atom bombs had been employed some time ago, their sons might not have been spared death gallantly, trying to take "pride" in being "one of a thousand Korean kill points."

Current reports say that Americans are still trying to take those same old harmless hills in the same old infantry way. It's the walk-up-under-fire way.

I found one account of this action on Page 15 of a leading American newspaper, and it was something of a shock to find it so near to the home—lose-lips-and-gain-busts-and-say-beautiful copy.

The previous 14 pages hadn't mentioned Korea. The story on Page 15 that did take up the situation on that forgotten peninsula had to do with a three-division Allied attack. That is roughly 50,000 men in combat, more than stormed "Omaha Beach" in Normandy.

And who cared? Only those who tried to take the hills, and the folks who weeks from now will be notified of the casualties.

We talk of peace and build for peace, and yet at the same time warfare is our way. It is a small pause for thought to realize we won the enormous American west from the Indians without even a dream of a three-division attack.

We then even have a three-division army? Who cares now? The Indians are calm.

But, as I recalled, more than a year ago, when the United Nations police action in Korea was regarded as a "preliminary call, an alarm that raised the idea that we might end the whole nonsense by dropping a string of atom bombs.

Well, to those who cried no sense, I still recall saying, "Wait until we have had 50,000 casualties." That got a big laugh at the time. But today we have had more than 80,000 combat casualties in Korea, and that is no figure to sneer at.

I spent six bitter months there and saw some of those men—became casualties, from fighting and frostbite.

Some of the American deaths were preventable. I cannot but feel some from the failure of the atom bomb. I mean the atom bomb.

Last week a U.S. Senator said it was possible to mass and produce atom bombs now at a price that would make a single atom bomb less expensive than a tank.

Atom bombs even a year ago were so plentiful that they could be given away. They are available.

The moral arguments against the employment of them in combat are so popular throughout the world that no military authority has had the courage to defend them.

Yet, President Truman, who ordered two atom bombs dropped on Japan in the last war, said his decision saved American lives—and Japan. He said he would do it again to gain the same goals.

Naturally, some of the relatives of the 80,000 American casualties in Korea are wondering if a few secret test drops of our big atom bomb, before, might save a man going up a few Korean hills.

There is also the possibility that a few volunteered atom bombs might impress some of the more thoughtful members among the Red Chinese volunteers in Korea.

Colonist's Seek First Win of Season Tonight at La Palma Against Citrus

ANAHEIM Colonists met La Palma tonight against Citrus in their third game of the season and second at home, but after a night they won't be seen in the park until the next to last game of the season, Nov. 9, against Newport.

ANAHEIM started their season out at the park and lost a close decision (7-8) to Redlands, last year CIF semi-finalists and Citrus Bell League Champions.

Following the week the Blue and gold journeyed to Ontario where they took their second loss (23-6) while displaying a miserable showing on offense.

Prior to the Chaffey game the local mobsters felt and acted as though they were a great team because they matched powerful Redlands touchdown for touchdowns.

Chaffey then smashed them around and in general made the Colonists look rather foolish trying to play football.

Now the Colonists return to Anaheim before heading out on a weekly or maybe weekly road trip and they will try to start out on the right foot tonight by chopping the Citrus from Citrus down to size.

Citrus has a 1-1 win-loss record, winning their season opener over a rather weak California Junior Republic eleven, then the following week the Orange and Lemon clad gridgers were blanked by the Norsemen from Downey.

While Anaheim sticks to the T-formation the Cougars run the majority of plays from T, but on occasion will grid out a play from the single-wing.

Leading coach Doug Mercurio's team is left-handed quarterback Dick Richardson who passed for the Bee team last season. He was the only one who helped ruin Sam Keith's Anaheim Bees (13-0).

He relies on hard-running Vincent Veto, left halfback to get the needed yardage on the ground and he usually helps with the greatest gusto.

Their chief problem will be how to stop red-hot Lenny Kolb from passing and Jim Roberts, Aaron Perella and Ira Webber from running for long and come.

Army Ace Leads Pack in Pistols

SAN FRANCISCO, AP—Army Sgt. Huelien Benner of Fort Knox, Ky., leads the field in the defense of the national pistol championship goes into the third and final round today.

Benner boosted his two-day aggregate score to a commanding 574 points yesterday by capturing first place in the 25-caliber competition with 874 out of a possible 900 points.

Ex-national champion Harry Reeves of Detroit was second. His aggregate score is 1781. Third-place Offutt Pinion of Whidbey Island, Wash. has 1745.

Gloria Norton of Woodland, Calif., upped her lead in women's competition with a two-day aggregate of 1145. Lucille Campbell of Winter Haven, Fla., is eighth with 1071 and Margaret Culbertson of Pasadena, Calif., third with 1070.

The Woodland pistol woman smashed two of her own national records by boosting her slow-fire record from 189 to 193 and the women's 38-caliber aggregate from 858 to 863.

Rams Favored To End Brown Hex Sunday

LOS ANGELES UP—The first time in their six-year history, the Cleveland Browns probably will go into a game Sunday on the short end of the betting odds.

The Los Angeles Rams are favored to trim them by three points—mainly because of the injuries Clevelanders have suffered.

As coach Paul Brown put it: "We have a 33-man squad and exactly one-third of it is in no condition to play."

Among the most seriously hurt are tackle Chubby Crig, linebacker Tony Adamle and center Hal Herring. They may miss the game.

Quarterback Otto Graham's left-hand still is swollen from an injury picked up in last Sunday's loss to the San Francisco 49ers, 24-10.

Norman Van Brocklin got the call to start at quarterback for the Rams, replacing a still gimpy Bob Waterfield.

Los Angeles placed injured defensive halfback Herb Rich on the inactive list for at least 30 days and brought back a rookie, formerly of San Jose State college, Marvin Johnson, who tried out with the Rams last summer.

Bruins Mix with Broncos Saturday

LOS ANGELES UP—Coach Henry R. (Red) Sanders hopes to get his UCLA Bruins on the winning path tomorrow at the expense of Santa Clara, and critics of football think he will succeed.

Beaten off by a strong intercollegiate foe, Texas A & M and Illinois, the Sandersmen should find the going tough but easier against the invading Broncos.

Santa Clara, coached by Dick Gallagher, has been defeated by Oklahoma A & M and Washington State touch of the touchdown parade Friday night at Spokane. The Home Cougars, a hard-scooting outfit, are favored.

Sunday's big ones will pit Minnesota against California at Berkeley and Southern California Trojans against Washington Huskies at Seattle.

The Minnesota Gophers and the Bruins will be meeting for the first time in the history of the game in two contexts of the new season, is unscathed. It rates as the coast's powerhouse and generally is acknowledged to be stronger than last year's championship outfit.

Game time: 2 p.m. Pacific Standard time.

Tartars Roll To 59-0 Win

COMPTON UP—Joliet Junior college's football team came all the way from Illinois only to be stomped last night by Compton college 59-0.

The visitors were never inside the Tartars' 20 yard line and were completely outclassed by Compton power.

Tartar right half Roy Hiram broke a record high of 52 yards and a touchdown in the game's most spectacular play. Herman Stokes and Charles Ham made two touchdowns each.

Fullerton Braves In Tough Tussle At Pasadena, 7:30

Swinging into the third week of competition the Sunset League teams, on the whole, will be going down in class to do better in what they hope will be a victorious week end all around the league.

ANAHEIM (0-2) hosts Citrus (1-1) tonight where they should find their first win of the season. Also looking for their first season victory will be Santa Ana (0-2) traveling to Chaffey (1-1), and Newport Harbor (0-2) who plays host to Lynwood (1-1).

Orange (2-0) will be going all out to make it three straight at the expense of Riverside (1-1) while Huntington Beach (2-0) will try to keep its winning streak alive against Downey.

Fullerton (2-0) seems to draw the toughest assignment; when they journey to meet South Pasadena (1-1). Santa Ana was the only team to beat the Indians last season, besides Compton in the CIF finals and they were the only T-formation team to beat a Dick Spaulding team.

Superior League teams have only a 50 per cent record against all comers thus far in the season, but this figures to change after the weekend battles.

Here are the standings so far this year of the Sunset League teams and their winning record against other competition:

Fullerton	2	0
Huntington Beach	2	0
Santa Ana	0	2
Newport	0	2
Anaheim	0	2

Local High School Teachers Return from Extensive Vacation Trip Through Mexico

Mexico, the exotic and romantic vacation land of many Anaheim families, was visited recently by a teacher of foreign languages at Fullerton high school, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Myers. Mr. Myers is formerly of Anaheim.

During the seven week trip they covered 4300 miles across smoky highways, where gasoline was plentiful, food and accommodations satisfactory, and experience exciting.

They traveled south along the new Central Highway, opened just last year, and visited scenes of historical and literary fame. They stopped at Queretare, where the Mexican Independence movement was first plotted; San Miguel Allende, birthplace of one of the heroes of Independence and now the location of the finest art school in Latin America; Delores Hidalgo, where priest Miguel Hidalgo gave shout of Independence from the parish church Sept. 15, 1810, which is celebrated as Independence Day by all Mexicans; and Guanajuato, one of the first cities to be captured by Independence forces, later a fortress held by Spaniards here against Independence armies. The building is now a national monument. For 10 years the Spaniards hung in iron cages, at each of the four corners of the building, the heads of the four outstanding Independence leaders.

Arriving in Mexico City, the couple joined Mr. and Mrs. Philip Engstrom, teacher at Anaheim Union high school, and traveled on to Taxco and Cuernavaca with them.

Later the Myers visited within

Home-Makers' Forum

By JOAN B. WHITE
Gazette Home Economist

Anaheim's largest food markets, Safeway and Alpha Beta Stores, have as yet received no governmental notification that ceiling prices on beef are to be advanced to price tags at these markets remain the same.

Since a considerable portion of the home-maker's shopping dollar is spent for meat, she is always on the lookout for the best buys. A glance at the specials this week reveals that pork offers good value in roasts, steaks and chops as well as miscellaneous cuts such as spare ribs and smoked shoulder butts. These last are round rolls of solid meat that are packed in a vacuum casing and might be taken for some sort of sausage. Instead it is a tasty main dish that may be gently simmered for a boiled dinner or sliced and fried for a hurry up supper.

Beef is a bit scarce this week, but since it is the nation's favorite will appear on the weekly menu most thrifflly as hamburger, boiling beef, and "made" dishes. We have found that round steak, given a few whacks with the butcher's special tenderizer, can be successfully broiled if it is given a coating of salad oil first to prevent dryness and then broiled slowly at least six inches from the broiler flame. Sirloin tip is another form of steak that fits into the average budget and makes good eating if broiled as above.

Any time is turkey time now that the small Bellville variety have been perfected to meet the needs of the average family. These birds have been specially priced for the week end, meaning Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at Alpha Beta and Safeway stores. Averaging between five and eight pounds, already for the oven as purchased, they are simply delicious when stuffed and broiled or when broiled and fried or broiled. The fresh cranberry cake has reached our markets, too, just in time to accompany the noble bird to your table.

Cranberries make a nice accompaniment for baked ham as well, and since sweet potato time is here too, a company menu is planning itself. Safeway offers good value in skinned hams, either whole or half. The price per pound is comparatively low and it is well to bear in mind that a ham cuts to better advantage than any other meat. The following sweet potato and pineapple soufflé is excellent with ham either hot or cold.

SWEET POTATO AND PINEAPPLE SOUFFLE
3 cups mashed sweet potatoes
3 tablespoons table fat
1/2 teaspoon salt

Mrs. Milo Tiedstrom, chairman; Mrs. Betty Ball, Mrs. Floyd Burrows, Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mrs. F. H. Schroeder, Mrs. J. W. Truxaw, Mrs. J. A. Wood, Mrs. A. H. Reiswig, Mrs. William Ireton.

1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 beaten egg yolks
1/2 cup crushed pineapple
2 stiffly beaten egg whites

Combine the ingredients in the order given and bake in a small baking dish at 350 degrees for about 40 minutes.

Our remaining suggestion for a money saving main dish is last but by no means least. Alpha Beta presents Janine brand chicken chop suey at regular price, and then offers crisp Chinese style noodles to go with it for one cent more. That combination serves three generously, and if you are a chop suey fan, you will relish this dish.

NO SUPPORT FOR POTATOES
For the first time in recent years, the government has withdrawn its protection for potato farmers who, being human, promptly planted some other crop instead of potatoes. You have guessed it, potato prices are right high now. After some quick figuring, many a housewife is turning from the potato to the canned goods shelf where she finds good buys in one pound cans of whole potatoes, peeled, cooked and ready for salad, for frying, for creaming or whatever other use she has for them.

Frozen French fries are another form of potato that fits into the average budget and makes good eating if broiled as above.

Altar Society Card Party Set

With Mrs. Frank Braddock presiding, Altar Society of St. Boniface church commenced plans yesterday for the card party to be held in the parish hall Tuesday evening.

The meeting was preceded by a delicious dessert of home made cake and coffee, with Mrs. William Pollsant, Phoebe Kiester and Don May as hostesses. The tables were beautifully decorated in large yellow dahlias and red berries.

Chairmen selected for the November meeting are Mrs. Henry DuBoise, Joe Ricker and M. P. Thaxton.

Reports from committee chairmen were in order. Mrs. Ernest Ganahl who made a brief report on the National Council of Catholic Women which met in the Matre Dei High school in Santa Ana on Tuesday presented Mrs. F. Ortiz who discussed at length the origin and advancement of the NCCW.

An outstanding event of the meeting was the presentation of letters, making them honorary members, to Mrs. Lena Kirsh and Mrs. J. L. Gates, who are retiring from an active 46 years of duty to the Altar Society. The secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Kannard presented them each with a corsage of baby white dahlias, which was given by the president.

Father Dee spoke on the greatness of the work of this organization and commended Mrs. Kirsh and Mrs. Gates for their long and faithful services.

Mrs. John Larson of ways and means announced that the cedar chest has been filled with choice household linens and included in this selection is a beautiful all wool blanket and a pair of fine wool pillows. Ladies of the Altar Society will be at the doors of the SQR store on Saturday with tickets on this chest. The display of this chest is in the east window of the SQR store.

The committees chosen by the ways and means, for the card party on Tuesday evening are: Decorations, Mrs. L. Bagotti; refreshments, Mrs. H. Carter, C. Allee, J. Allee, U. Bauer; Tallies, Mrs. D. Clark, Al. Brunel, A. Armentrout; Prizes, Mrs. Joe Antonio; Table and Hostess, F. Braddock, E. Calnon, K. Cain, Frances Backs.

Winners of prizes for games were Mrs. H. Dickinson and Mrs. Boyd Johnson.

Attending were Miss June Johnson, Miss Bertha Ruch, Miss Margaret Flanagan, Mrs. Frank Mauchman, Mrs. Henry Ruch, Mrs. Paul Ruch, Mrs. Lowell Fickler, Mrs. W. G. Larsen, Mrs. H. P. Anderson, Mrs. Adolf Westerhold, Miss Carol Sivall and Miss Betty Manning.

To braise lamb shanks in the oven cover them and bake at a moderate (350°) temperature for an hour and a half. You'll need to brown the shanks first in a little shortening, then season them and add a couple of cups of water along with a cup of diced carrots, a cup of diced potatoes, a half cup of diced celery, and a half cup of diced onion. Use four lamb shanks for this amount of liquid and vegetables.

To cook fresh tongue cover it with cold water; add one and a half teaspoons salt to each quart of water. Bring it to a boil and simmer until tender—it will take from one to one and a half hours. Be sure to allow the tongue to remain in the liquid until it is cool enough to handle; then remove the outer skin.

Keeping the natural drainage and leaf deposits under the trees, and excess water and soil away are the best insurance for long-lived trees.

Japanese Cedars are satisfactory lawn trees, where their pyramidal symmetry make them good for outdoor Christmas trees, though they do lack the spreading lower branches usually thought of as belonging to a Christmas tree. They also make good trees for a hedge effect and have been used as street trees.

Julius Krogen as a pastime is retired from the building business several years ago, the dwelling of typical French Normandy design stands rugged and rustic, already charmingly mellowed by the elements.

The long, low house, nestled behind protective shrubbery on a 15 x 120 foot lot combines oak wood boards and bats with stucco to form a practically weathertproof exterior made especially pleasing to the eye with touches of (Ing-

The spacious interior offers a perfect setting for antique treasures gathered from every part of the Scandinavian countries by Mrs. Krogen on her periodic visits here. It was Julius Krogen who designed the handsome formal living room, the adjoining separate dining room, compact kitchen, two bedrooms, and the typically Norwegian fireplace room, and it was Mrs. Krogen who arranged their quaint authentic decoration.

Ann Kroger's name is synonymous with superior home decoration in Anaheim for the owners and operates the highly successful Bluebird Drapery and Decorating shop here. It is therefore especially interesting to see the way in which she has chosen to decorate her own home.

Child Dies in County Hospital

A race against death ended in tragedy last night when Mr. and Mrs. Peter Roman's child died 40 minutes after being admitted to Orange County hospital.

When the child began to choke and show signs of strangulation at their home, 1032 N. Olive st., the parents bundled him into the car and sped to the hospital, regarding a red light on Center st. The car was observed by two Anaheim police officers who immediately gave chase.

Simultaneously the cars arrived at the hospital where the child died 40 minutes later. An autopsy was performed to determine the cause of the child's death.

called an ambulance. They found the baby on the floor in the living room, apparently breathing faintly. Ambulance attendants arrived and attempted artificial respiration and a fire dept. rescue squad also attempted resuscitation. A physician reached the apartment the afternoon and pronounced the child dead. The father, employed in Fullerton, was called home.

Deputy coroner, Roger Burnham, ordered the autopsy, and upon the receipt of the report from the autopsy and from police, indicated that an inquest probably will be held.

Mrs. Clark has a jail record, it was disclosed today, having been sentenced to 15 days in the county jail on Sept. 27, 1950, for petty theft. She had taken two Bird of Paradise plants with her when she moved out of a rented property at 500 S. Artesia, Santa Ana.

WSSC Members Visit Industries

Members of the WSSC of Wesley Methodist church of Anaheim yesterday combined a visit to the Goodwill Industries plant in Santa Ana with celebration of the 35th wedding anniversary of their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. McKinley Walker.

Nineteen members of the group, headed by the president, Mrs. Wayne Clark, held a business meeting in the Goodwill building in the morning, and served a pot-luck lunch there at noon, the being featured by a huge, decorated cake in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Walker. Goodwill Industries staff served ice cream.

After lunch, the visitors were escorted on a tour of the Goodwill workshops and store, where household castoffs are repaired and refinished by Goodwill's physically handicapped employees. Mrs. Laura Rontro of the Goodwill staff conducted the party through the plant, explaining the work and objectives of the agency.

On Wednesday, Goodwill Industries was host to a similar WSSC group from a church on Balboa Island.
