Trap for Tourists

The desert city of Twentynine Palms is highly overrated and is considered a "tourist trap" by the Gazette's "Ongoing Viewer" who spent the week end there. The column is on Page 4 today.

Seven Smashed to Death, 22 Injured In Freakish Bus Crash on Bay Bridge

11 Airmen Hurt As Crippled B-29 Crashes, Burns

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Quick action by McCall Air Force Base fire crews today was credited with saving the lives of 11 airmen aboard a crippled Hawaii-bound B-29 which crashed, broke in two and burst into flames right after takeoff last night.

But a civilian fire fighter, Ray Merrill, 58, Rocklin, clamped over a dead of a heart attack as he stood by with other firemen waiting for the disabled craft to land.

The plane had radioed it was coming back in.

The B-29 had been in the air 11 minutes from its 11:02 p.m. takeoff. Why it turned back was not announced. An Air Force base is investigating.

One airman, Lt. Richard Mace, 25, (10626 S. Van Ness ave.), Los Angeles was hurt seriously. Base information officers said he is in the infirmary with a severe spinal injury.

The 10 others came out of the wreck with only scratches, bruises and somewhat stunned. The 11 airmen were a replacement crew destined for Hickam field, Hawaii. The firemen managed to extinguish the fire in seconds after the craft smashed into the end of the runway, spun, ground looped, broke in two and burst into flames.

The ship carried a full load of gasoline, estimated at 7000 gallons. The fire crews used high pressure foam to douse the flames.

OAKLAND (AP)—Seven persons were smashed to death and 22 others injured—most of them seriously—in an incredibly freakish bus disaster just before dawn Sunday.

A Greyhound bus careened off a ramp on the Oakland end of the Bay bridge and plunged 40 feet to railroad tracks below.

It lay crumpled upside down with moaning and screaming passengers trapped inside for nearly two hours.

Of the 29 persons aboard only Air Force Lt. John R. Haber, 24, of Camp Stoneman, Calif., was able to walk away from the hospital after treatment for minor cuts and bruises.

Twelve of the injured were reported in critical condition.

In an almost unbelievable sequence, the wreck started when a passenger car knocked a huge chunk of concrete onto the road way less than three minutes before the ponderous bus dove into sight from the opposite direction.

The loaded bus, inbound for the Oakland bus depot after a night run from Salt Lake City, smashed the concrete block, blew a tire and went out of control. It ripped out a section of the stout retaining rail and fell into the darkness below.

The impact as the bus landed was so violent that its top was washed down to seat level. And every seat was beaten to the floor, as it struck by a giant hammer.

People who reached the wreckage immediately after said it appeared that nearly all of the passengers were knocked unconscious, that those who died probably never knew what hit them.

The injured, trapped under the crumpled roof, moaned in pain. Then, as some passengers regained their senses, there was terror and screams.

It took an hour and 40 minutes for rescuers to extricate the 28 passengers and the driver.

Bus driver, Vane E. Elshire of Sacramento, was one of the dead. Highway patrolmen here could recall no accident that ever had

Atomic Explosion Heard in Big Bear 225 Miles Distant

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A medium-sized atomic bomb exploded over the Nevada desert yesterday, and rumble were heard more than 200 miles away.

The bomb, dropped from a B-29, outlasted the morning sun for a few seconds. The time was 7:20 a.m. PST.

It was the second after-dawn nuclear test put on by the AEC after much delay because of weather and various operational difficulties.

Unlike the pallid baby blast last Monday, yesterday's detonation caused a rumble heard as far away as Big Bear, 225 miles away, and St. George, Utah, 135 miles off. An aviator flying at about 11,000 feet over Kaibab forest, Utah, reported seeing the flash some 200 miles distant. It also was widely seen in Las Vegas and other southern Nevada communities, but was felt by comparatively few persons. There was no damage reported.

The AEC reported finding a small amount of radiation in the Beatty-Lathrop Wells area, about 35 miles southwest of the Yucca Flat test site, but it was termed "unharmful to humans, animals or crops."

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Oct. 25.—ATOMIC CLOUD RISES ABOVE DESERT.—To observers on a mountain peak 50 miles away, this is how yesterday's atomic explosion looked. The pillar of smoke with the mushroom top is rising from the desert at Yucca Flat, where an Air Force B-29 apparently dropped a bomb that exploded some 1000 feet above ground. Pfc. Imants Rasins Is UN Truce Guard

ADVANCE UN HEADQUARTERS, Korea (AP)—Pfc. Imants Rasins, 127 Philadelphia st., Anaheim, Calif., is helping guard the United Nations delegates to the military armistice conference at the Advance Headquarters, near Mun-san.

He is a member of the 7th Division's 17th Infantry Regiment combat team which was selected for the honor guard assignment following its successful assault on Bloody Ridge.

During the drive against the highly-fortified communist position east of Kumhwa, an entire communist division was disabled by the 17th.

Rasins, an assistant gunner for 60-mm mortar, entered the Army nine months ago, and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He has been in Korea four months and has earned the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with one campaign star.

Rasins' parents are natives of Latvia. Before entering the service Rasins was employed by Fred Villa's Upholstering Co.

Reds Charge Hill as UN Soldiers Burn

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea (AP)—Screaming Chinese communists three times today charged an Allied-held hill made southeast of Kumsong but failed to regain the positions Allied forces took three days ago.

A frontline dispatch said the pre-dawn attacks kicked off in company strength at 1:30 a.m. (11:30 a.m. Sunday EST) and built up to battalion size three hours later.

Whooshing mortar fire pounded Allied infantrymen as the Reds rolled down a slope facing the U. N. held hills on the Central front.

On the western front Allied forces sloped forward as much as 1200 yards.

In the east they seized a hill and gained up to 1000 yards after turning back three separate night attacks.

Collins told newsmen it would "not be practical" to pull Allied troops out of Korea immediately if agreement on an armistice is reached at the Panmunjom negotiations.

He said the South Korean army "needs our help for some time to come."

"We want our men home as soon as possible, but it would not be done immediately."

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—One of four big yellow balloons marking this new armistice conference site exploded yesterday and burned 13 American soldiers.

Orange County Road Budget Set At $3,826,000

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The State Highway Commission's budget for 1952-53, calling for expenditure of $103,430,000 on California's highways over a period of twelve months, points out how this state's road money is spread.

It also points to the growing cost of rights-of-way acquisition, for close to a fifth of all the money to be expended on relieving California's over-congested highways must be spent for land on which to put the roads.

In other words, the Commission will expend close to $72 million for actual construction, and better than $31 million for rights-of-way acquisition.

And out of the money appropriated, $45 million will be expended on freeways, leaving $27 million for expenditure in 38 counties with thousands of miles of needed improvements.

Needless to state, some of the counties with congested traffic are going to be somewhat unhappy when they find there is insufficient money to take care of their problems.

Orange county's share of the road money will amount to $3,826,000, to be spread out on five small road projects and rights-of-way acquisition.

Rights-of-way will cost $2,145,000. Projects include an overflow bridge at Dana Point over San Juan Creek at $46,000; replacement of eight cul-de-sacs on Route 64 to the Riverside county line at $85,000; 2.8 miles of grading, paving from Huntington Beach Blvd. to Garfield ave. at $330,000; and grading, paving and structures on 2.3 miles on Finley ave. in Newport Beach to 20th st. in Costa Mesa at a cost of $700,000.

Chamber Presidents Inbited To Meeting

Presidents of Chambers of Commerce are being invited to attend a meeting sponsored by the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county to attempt to find a solution to the impasse over sewerage disposal plans in the sanitation districts of the county.

Stan Ridderhof, Associated Chambers president, said, "Today we find the Sanitation Boards of Orange county stalemated again, and the need to start construction is urgent beyond words. We need action—we need harmony—we need a better understanding and we need it now."

The meeting is set for noon, Nov. 5 at the Balboa Bay Club, 1601 Coast Hwy., Newport Beach. Luncheon will be served at $1.50 per person.

Stage All Set for Annual Anaheim Hallowe'en Fete

All roads lead to Anaheim, Hallowe'en capital of the world, Wednesday, for the biggest and best celebration ever staged in Southern California.

And in Anaheim all roads lead to La Palma park stadium, where under the lights, the most lavish, colorful parade extravaganza will pass in review. Musical parade will be 25 bands, the dazzling artistry of 48 floats, brilliant masterpieces of costuming, handsome horsemen and their gaily caparisoned mounts.

... the sparkle and thrill of a circus parade magnified a hundred times ... all this a tremendous outdoor show on one big evening.

Full Parade
Spectators at La Palma park stadium will be treated to the full parade, the introduction of Miss Slick Chick and all the visiting dignitaries; see the presentation of all the awards and in addition before the parade enters the arena they will see a great outdoor show. Featuring is the death defying, spine chilling performance of the "Aerial Keenans" on the 125 foot "swaying Pole," the unparalleled gyrations of the internationally famous Pina Troupe, Art La Rue and his comedy clowns, Dick Lewis and Co., and the Black Bros., outstanding masters of knockabout.

Leo Carillo "Mr. Parade, himself" one of Anaheim's own "Favorite sons" who has gained fame in pictures, radio and television, will be Grand Marshal of the huge parade. Following in sparkling array will be six full divisions, each comprised of 30 entries. The divisions are built around separate themes, such as "Helter Skelter," "Traditional Hallowe'en," "Hallowe'en of 1931," "Hallowe'en Comedy" and the Grand Finale, a spectacle of unsurpassed brilliance.

Galaxy of Glamor

List of Opti-Kop Victims Growing

True to the edict of the Optimist Jamboree committee, it just isn't safe for a man to walk peacefully along Anaheim streets these days without sporting at least a two week's growth of beard or conspicuously wearing a "Smooth-Fuzz" button. Saturday the blue coated Keystone Kops were swarming throughout our downtown streets. A clean shaven gent had to step lively in order to dodge these enthusiastic collectors of revenue.

Lady tax collectors gave each culprit a fine and a winsome smile as she pinned on the coveted Hallowe'en badge that granted its wearer immunity from further indignations for the balance of Anaheim's National Hallowe'en celebration.

OptiKops on duty Saturday included Tom Yellis, Harwood Larson, John Ardaiz and Jeff Palin. Lady clerks and cashiers were Opal Walter, Florence Jerrel of the V.P.W. and volunteers Nadine and Betty McIntyre.

Tickets for the Costume Carousel Breakfast, at which the OptiKops will be doing their obnoxious best and which will feature the legal-bagging attendant upon the Kangaroo Kauri, are still available at the Chamber of Commerce office for $1.50 per person. It is expected that the limit of 1850 tickets will be sold by breakfast time, 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Junior Chamber members, who will make up the serving gang for the breakfast, are wanted to be at City Park, ready for duty, not later than 6 a.m.

ANAHEIM CUB SCOUTS entertained parents and friends at a mass meeting at the Pike club Friday night with sketches of songs and limelight acted out with hand puppets which they had made. Big Jim Mitchell Vs Baron Leone Tonight at OCAC

Wrestling champion, Baron Michele Leone is due for a brand new ring experience at the Orange County Athletic Club tonight where he meets Jim Mitchell, the "Black Panther" whose greatest offensive ring asset is his billy goat head butt.

The "Panther" has cooled more opponents than a little bit with his famed head-cracker. Unless the Baron has a head harder than the rock of Gibraltar or his flowing bobbed hair offers sufficient cushion to soften the "Panther's" head-butts, he's apt to be cooled out.

The scramble is for two out of three falls, 60 minutes. But the odds weren't to be denied as they held the Colonists for the remainder of the game to walk off the field with a 13-7 win and hold a share of first place.

In the first quarter after an exchange of punts the Oilers drove from the Anaheim 48 to the one yard line and scored a touchdown.

First match of the four-event card will bring out Hardballed Hardy and Cowboy Bob Clay in their second quarter and started on their own 48. In 19 plays they scored again on a seven yard pass play to make the score 13-0.

Prize Play of Game: Walker came into the game in the third quarter and put the Oilers back into the game with his prize play, but it just wasn't enough as the rest of the Colonists were just plain indifferent to the Oilers' efforts.

Next week the locals run up against Fullerton and from all indications they are slated for another rough struggle. The game will be played on the local field Friday night, the same field the Oilers have maintained their previous defeats and their only setback in the year.

Anaheim Tennis Players Edge By Fullerton

Anaheim tennis players yesterday defeated the Fullerton Tennis Club for the second time in two weeks in a return match played on the Fullerton courts.

The margin of victory was so close that the decision was not reached until the final two matches in the afternoon when Anaheim's double teams took the last rounds for a nine to seven win.

The local netters had thrashed the Fullerton netters 13-7 in their first inter-city competition several weeks ago on the Anaheim City Park courts.

Results were as follows, with Anaheim players being named first: Men's Singles—Julian Martinez def. Dave Hanson 3-6, 6-1, 6-3; Floyd Baker lost to Marvin Easton 6-4, 6-2; Bob Simon def. Colonist Varsity Clinches Second Spot in Loop; Seeks Top Slot Friday

Anaheim's varsity football team secured a second spot in the Sunset League and gave themselves a fighting chance for the loop title with Fullerton by edging Huntington Beach Friday night in the Beachcombers field by the score 48-20.

It was the second straight victory for both Anaheim and Fullerton. Anaheim last week rolled over Santa Ana by the score 28-0 while the Indians were walloping the Oilers 48-20. Friday night at Newport Fullerton blanked the Sailors 41-0.

The Fullerton victory marked the Warriors 14th league victory in a row while the Oilers lost in their 14th straight league loss. In the other league game on last week, Santa Ana bounced back from their Anaheim defeat to hand Orange their first loss of the season, 20-14.

Kelly then started to run his right, stopped, turned, kept his feet for two defenders, but managed to throw the ball to Loup Lyle Bass in the end zone for six more points and the lead returned to Anaheim's team, where it was to stay.

The final score came after only two minutes left in the game. Johnny Herrera scored when he crashed over night guard for 12 yards and the score 11 was the score that completely insured the Anaheim victory.

Browns, 49'ers Win Pro Games

NEW YORK (AP)—A missed punt after a touchdown, rare among the professionals, could have cost the New York Browns in their quest of the American Conference title in the National Football League.

The missed punt came yesterday and permitted the Cleveland Browns to reach the Giants in the American Conference standing. The league champions won 14-13 for their fourth victory in five games. It was the Giants' first setback after winning three straight.

While Ray Maas missed the try for the extra point after the Giants' second touchdown, Lou (The Toe) Groza converted twice for the Browns.

The Chicago Bears took undisputed possession of first place in the National Conference, beating Detroit's Lions 28-23. A game loss of the Bears, tied for runner-up honors with 3-2 records, are Los Angeles, San Francisco and Green Bay.

The three-way deadlock came about when San Francisco's wildcat Green Day edged the winless New York Yanks, 28-27, on three last-quarter touchdowns and Fred Coers' field goal with only 11 seconds left.

The Washington Redskins edged Philadelphia, 27-23, to go into tie with the Eagles for third place in the American Conference. Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cardinals, 28-14, in the other American Conference game.

Tigers Lose Three Games, But on Top

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Although each has lost three games, Pasadena College and Redlands University will be contending for first place in the Southern California Conference football race when they collide next Saturday night.

Oxy, which absorbed a 27-0 lacing from Fresno State last weekend, has won one and lost none in league play. Redlands, which knocked off Pomona, 14-0, is tied for second place with Pomona and Whittier, at one win and one defeat.

Redlands' Charles (Lucky) Luciano and Jack Price were the main performers in Redlands' triumph over Pomona. Luciano scored one touchdown on a 12-yard run, and Price led the game in the fourth quarter with 22-yard scoring pass to Bunny Gillette.

Here he is again

In his 77th year Winston Churchill resumes career of British destiny.
He picks up where he left off in 1945, when Britain basked in the flush of victory over Germany. Many called him the architect of that victory.
But he was turned out, and now after more than six black years the people have recalled the old captain to his command. He is going back to 10 Downing street. For half the globe it is from a political point of view the most important act since the war.
For some years many have thought of him as the man behind the British empire in the background. He was considered something good in Britain's past, like the Magna Carta or the island's "Times" history.
Many Britons find it comforting to think that Churchill connects with an age which no one doubted the empire's practice.
Many can't recall a time when he was not a dominating and often a controversial figure in national affairs. His presence continues. He has his first commission in the British army from Queen Victoria in 1895.
He was a rough rider in Cuba two years before President Theodore Roosevelt rode to triumph there in that island.
His military experience spanned the period between the cavalryman's saber and the atomic bomb.
In politics, he has held—just about every day—the British people could give him.
Virtually all of his adult life he has been a member of Parliament, since 1945 the leader of the opposition.
In World War II, for Eastern and African operations, he has many agonizing months, and Churchill never could persuade Allies to attack the "not unduly" of Europe. He wanted to bring into the Balkans, but was restrained by strategists.
But his overall management of

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
WASHINGTON—With Congress taking the rest of the year off, vacation-minded Congressmen have suddenly discovered "official business" in South America. The Pacific islands, the Mediterranean and other faraway places.
With winter approaching, the greatest Congressional interest seems to be in South America, as compared with Alaska in the summer. More than two dozen Congressmen have signed up for "tours" of a busy South America in November and December. However, other tours are also planned through Europe, the Middle East and around the world.
While some of these trips are pure junkies, this columnist is of the opinion that some make worthwhile additions to a Congressman's store of knowledge at the time when the American defense line extends from Korea to the Rhine. However, since the taxpayer pays for the "travel," the public is entitled to know the travel program and judge for itself. Here are the chief itineraries:
First to light out for a foreign vacation were Congressmen Monroe Hadden, North Carolina Democrat, and Fred Crawford, Michigan Republican. They represent the House Interior committee, chiefly concerned with domestic matters. However, the Congressman explained solemnly to the Air Force that they had to inspect the Pacific territories entrusted to us under the peace treaty and they then headed for the Pacific by way of Paris, Geneva, Cairo and Bangkok. This is a common way round. Crawford left in time to make another trip to the Virgin Islands in December.
Another expedition to the Pacific "tour" is scheduled for November by Congressman Ben Jensen of Iowa, Carl Anderson of Minnesota, Lowell Stockman of Oregon, George Schwabe of Wisconsin, and William Van Pelt of the House Appropriations committee.
The first junket to South America was scheduled November 7 by Congressman Anderson of New York Democrat, who is leading a 45-day tour for House Banking committee members. Presumably they will take a long-distance view of U.S. banking problems, as seen from South America.
House Commerce Committee member Robert C. Gray of Ohio has also made reservations with the Air Force for 18 of his committee members to make a 30-day tour of South America. They will be followed four days later by a delegation from the House Foreign Affairs committee, headed by Chairman James Richards of South Carolina. South America is very popular.
Those who have signed up for this South American trip are Congressman Tom Morgan of Pennsylvania, and one of the Democrats, with Robert C. Gray of Illinois and Don Jackson of California, Republicans.
Another House Foreign Affairs group will leave for Europe at the same time. The "senior" Representative, Zebulon B. Chandler of Wisconsin, A. C. Carnahan of Missouri and Edna Kelly of Brooklyn, N. Y. Democrats, and Jacob Javits of New York, Republican.
Congressman Robert Hardy, a Virginia Democrat, has scheduled a trip to Europe for the House Armed Services committee Nov. 7. A Joint Senate-House group is also planning to tour Europe, North Africa and the Middle East, beginning Nov. 6. This group includes Senators Theodore Green of Rhode Island, Brian McMahon of Connecticut, and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. Democrats, and Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Bourke Hickenlooper of Iowa, Republicans. Most of the above are members of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, so have a legitimate reason for taking the trip.
With them will also go Congressman Gene Cox of Georgia, Howard Smith of Virginia, Francis P. Bump of Ohio and Donald O'Toole of New York. Democrats, and Walter Judd of Minnesota, Harris Ellsworth of Oregon and Kenneth Keating of New York, Republicans.
Meanwhile, another Congressional delegation has already taken off for a leisurely, two-month, round-the-world tour.

OBLONG VIEWS
FROM AN EGG-SHAPED HEAD
By WILDO HUNTER

TRAVELOGUE... Southern California is replete with interesting spots beckoning the week-end motorist, but that over-ballyhooed community with the impractical name of "Twenty-nine Palms" is not one of them. It may be described as a cluster of real estate offices surrounded by a bleak and harsh desert which shows white-hot nine months out of the year and gets cold enough on winter nights to rob a brass monkey of its vivacity.
After a week end at the place, I can find no logical excuse for its existence. Despite the fact that the town was accorded a nationwide publicity some years back by a goofy ballad called "The Lady From Twenty-nine Palms," it is in no way distinct from any other desert village.
It is an established fact that desert villages are impossible unless you have the wherewithal to build an air-conditioned scorpion-proof mansion and are blessed with financial means to reduce the thought of working for a living to a mere unpleasant memory.
Yet the real estate men at Twenty-nine Palms offer you a scrubby, rocky, sage-choked acre for $10 down and $5 a month and talk blithely of the "beten life." Such trifles as electricity, gas, sewerage, and telephones are not mentioned, and when you ask about water, they look at you with such disdain that you are almost apologetic at having broached the subject of a thing so essential as water needed to support life.
This place of Twenty-nine Palms, much-heralded in song, is a trap for tourists (most of them Californians) who visit it merely because they think they should go to see a place named Twenty-nine Palms.
I am prepared to advise you that our own La Palma park contains more palms than Twenty-nine Palms ever dreamed of. There is a sort of dried-up swamp on the outskirts of the town, a sort of dried-up brush from which protrude about a dozen scraggly palm trees, but this is nothing to write songs about.
They include Congressman Herbert Bonner of North Carolina, Harold Dymally of New York, and Sidney Fine of New York. They also include Joan Shelley of California and William Lantoff of Florida. Democrats, together with Charles Brownson of Indiana, Thomas Curtis of Missouri, Cecil Harden of Indiana, Walt Horan of Washington and George Meade of Michigan. Their "official trip" is sponsored by the House Expenditures committee which has no round-the-world business, but is supposed to keep an eye on federal expenses.
It is interesting to note that not a single Congressman has asked to go to Korea, where the weather is growing bitter cold and accommodations aren't so comfortable.

TV-RADIOLOGIC
Special 'Halls of Ivy' Script Penned By the Star Himself, Ronald Coleman

By TOM S. DANSON
HOLLYWOOD—For the second time since the beginning of the award-winning "Hollywood Award, 1951" "Halls of Ivy" radio show, which stars Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Coleman, the star himself, has come up with scripts for the program. Coleman's original this time revolves around the Hollywood spirit, with reminiscences of early childhood gaps and tricks. Pranks played by English children during the Coleman era will be a featured highlight.
Although the script has actually been penned by Coleman, it will be dictated by the show's chief scripter, Don Quinn, originator of the series. This is necessary, so as to maintain the famous Quinn style of presentation, which has given "Ivy" such a highly rated reputation.
The special Coleman edition of "Halls of Ivy" will be presented over KFI and the National Broadcasting Co. network Wednesday evening, Nov. 7 at 6:30.
The first rough draft of a New York stage adaptation of the "Ivy" series has been recently completed with present plans to put the play onto Broadway early next year. At this writing, it is not known whether Ronald and Benita will do the starring roles in the stage version.
NEW BERGEN CHARACTER is seen in the final touches as the latest edition of his group of wooden characters, snuff-chewing Swedish fisherman, as yet unnamed, the dummy has been assembled and painted, and goes next to Max Factor, famous Hollywood cosmetics man, for his complexion and wig, which sounds pretty embarrassing for a snuff-chewing Swedish fisherman.
"His appeal is quite visual," Bergen told me, "and I'm not sure whether just to save him for television, or to give him a chance on the radio show." Bergen did indicate, however, that he may give the new character

Violent Climax Looms over NY Dock Strikers

NEW YORK (AP)—A violent climax to New York's vast waterfront union fight with non-striking AFL longshoremen over orders to "go through" or "over" picket lines.
As the wildcat walkout entered its third week, there were several signs that a break was imminent in the tie-up of the world's largest harbor. The dispute also has hit some other east coast ports.
John P. Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), sent President Truman a telegram yesterday promising that his followers will not be kept from work by picket lines.
Ryan belittledly added that his men would "never go around" the picket line, but through them.
At almost the same time, John A. (Gene) Sampson, leader of dissident ILA members, sent a telegram to the president urging creation of an "emergency impartial body" to review the strike.
Sampson said he would urge the men to return to work if Mr. Truman acted. But the wildcat leader maintained his opposition to the ILA and its dock employers.
There was no immediate reply from Washington to the two telegrams.

In Rev. Dr. Kellogg's garden on Los Angeles Street is a pear tree which bears a full crop of pears bi-annually. In the same garden is a plum tree which is now loaded with fruit—the second crop this year. The case of the pear tree, though rare, is not by any means the first that has been recorded as bearing two crops in one year, but we have never heard of a plum tree bearing with such prolific productivity. These frequent yields, however, can not but exhaust the vitality of the tree and it will probably be found that they will wither and die prematurely.

First Baptist To Conduct 11-Day Crusade

Dr. Harold L. This is part of an evangelistic effort being held simultaneously among Baptist churches belonging to the Santa Ana Valley Baptist Assn., according to Rev. Bob Kevorkian, pastor.

Dr. Fickett is one of the outstanding young preachers in America. Rev. Kevorkian said. He began preaching at the age of 19 while studying for the ministry at Baylor University in Texas. Later he took his graduate studies at Southern Baptist Theological seminary in Louisville, Ky., East-

Star Pitcher Rotary Guest

Jack Salvenson, genial pitcher for the Hollywood Stars, was the guest speaker at the Anaheim Rotary club this noon. Jack swapped baseball dope with the club. He said Casey Stengel, of the champion New York Yankees, "is a great guy, a great comedian, and as smart as they come. He has everybody for him at all times."

Salvenson explained the shortage of televised Stars baseball games by saying the club got the small share of the TV income in 1950 and wanted to put the deal on a better playing basis for the club in 1951. It was tough and go with the TV stations, however, and only 25 games were televised.

The pitcher advised kids to concentrate on pitching fast balls, curves, and change of pace and to leave the other pitches alone because they are arm wreckers.

Salvenson was introduced by Ben Stakemiller. During the meeting Hugh Bridgford, meat packer, and Dr. Al Behrendt, physician, were inducted into the club.

Dick Gay, president, managed the club from the first base coach's box.

Hot Debate Seen Over UMT Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lawmakers today predicted hot debate in Congress next year over a government commission's call for universal military training (UMT) as long range protection in the "moral struggle with Soviet communism."

The new National Security Training Commission's blueprint for UMT envisions eventual raising of 800,000 American youth annually at a cost which could run to more than $2,000,000,000 the first year.

The commission's recommendations to Congress, made public last night, were submitted under terms of a 1951 law which extended the draft and approved the broad idea of UMT. That law, enacted last June, requires further congressional action to put UMT into effect.

The commission urged that the implementing legislation recommended be approved "without delay" when Congress reconvenes next January. It added, however, that uncertain world conditions—notably the situation in Korea—make it impossible to forecast when the proposed training program could be started.

But a start at the earliest practicable time is imperative, the commission declared, because "the clear prospect is that the present generation must live in danger for many years."

happened in just that way. Early in the morning, Russell Swain Mate Orville Russell, 26, left his Richmond home to wake up the navy cooks at Treasure Island—his first duty of the day.

He drove onto the MacArthur boulevard distribution road at the intricate cloverleaf at the east end of the San Francisco-Oakland bridge across the bay—and for reasons still unexplained, his car struck a concrete dividing abutment. Two big pieces of concrete were knocked into the adjacent traffic lanes as his car swerved along for 114 feet and turned over, pinning him under the wreckage. He was injured critically.

Passing motorists were trying to free Russell when the bus bore down on the scene three minutes later. Scurrying in its path lay one of the concrete blocks, a chunk nearly four feet long and a foot and a half thick.

Highway patrolmen said driver Ebbert apparently tried to straddle the concrete block, but it was too high. The left front tire blew out. As the massive bus careened, it tore out 40 feet of heavy iron pipe railing before going off the ramp.

It struck heavily in the Key system rail yards 40 feet below, pancaking the bus top and pinning all of the passengers in the battered wreckage.

The engine continued to run as the bus lay on its broken top. Charles B. Taylor, one of the first to rush to the scene, crawled in and switched off the motor, reducing the danger that it would ignite the vehicle's fuel.

Some of the injured—once they gathered their consciousness—were able to climb out afterward

Taft, McMahon Have Heated Debate Over TV

CINCINNATI (AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) declared here yesterday the Kefauver-Bicameralism act is an utter failure as a means of preventing aggression."

The Ohio Senator, a candidate for the Republican nomination for president, made the statement in a television (NBC's Forum of the Air) debate with Senator Brian McMahon (D-Conn.).

Their arguments became heated and loud at times as they debated the source of Russia's present strength.

Taft said the Democratic administration built up Russia. McMahon called Taft's statement "absurd" and added that "the strength of Russia comes from inside Russia itself."

McMahon asserted Taft's bid for the Republican presidential nomination is based on an isolationist policy. The Ohioan countered with the statement that his policy is one of preventing a war "unless it is to protect the liberty of the United States."

Grant W. Harshbarger of Reno, 16, said the accident occurred at 5:22 a.m. (PST).

"I was awake and sitting a few seats back of the driver," the boy explained. "And I had a stopwatch. I felt the bus hit something and then I felt as if a tire had blown. I said to myself that I wanted to make sure that the time was known because of this."

"It happened so fast that I didn't know we were going through the air or anything. Next thing I knew I found myself on my back with people on top of me. I squeezed through a window and a cop helped me out."

Salvation Army Asks Donation Of Winter Clothes

Requests for winter clothing are piling up at the Salvation Army Social Service Center which serves this area, Brigadier Ransom D. Gifford, manager, reported this week.

The Salvation Army leader said the center currently needs 100,000 garments of all kinds and sizes for men, women and children.

In addition to winter clothing, the center needs discarded furniture, home appliances, radios, bedding, dishes, newspapers, magazines and odds and ends to continue its social rehabilitation program.

Reconditioning of castoff articles in the center's workshops provided 235,000 hours of work therapy, 55,158 wholesale meals, 20,145 warm, comfortable beds and substantial financial aid to many hundreds of needy and handicapped men during the past 12 months, Brigadier Gifford said.

The only possible way in which we can carry on this very practical rehabilitation program is for Anaheim residents to continue giving us their discarded materials regularly," Brigadier Gifford said.

He urged local residents to call 4621 to bring a Red Shield truck to home or office.

Two Ships Smash In Dense Bay Fog With No Injuries

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two ships collided in dense fog outside the Golden Gate yesterday, without injury to crewmen. Both vessels limped into port on their own power.

The collision occurred a few miles off the gate at 1:15 a.m. (PST) when the Pope & Talbot Line freighter Pere Marquette, in bound from Los Angeles, and the Tide Water Associated tanker Associated, from Seattle came together at reduced speed.

Both ships sustained considerable hull damage. A member of the crew of the Pere Marquette said the vessel struck the Associated on the port side just about the bridge.

The tanker was losing large quantities of oil from her midships compartments as she docked. The Pere Marquette had a jagged rip in her starboard bow about two feet above the water line.

A Pope & Talbot official said the Pere Marquette would require dry docking for repairs. Tide Water Associated officials withheld comment, but the tanker appeared the more seriously damaged of the two ships.

The Pere Marquette is a 4,383-ton Liberty ship.
