Candidate Kefauver made some cracks recently about thought-control. He might have meant some local citizens. For some uncontrolled thought on the subject, see "School Books," Page 4.

Anaheim Optimists to Open New Youth Center Building Tomorrow

Anaheim's new Optimist Youth Center will be formally opened to the public on June 13, it was announced here this week by Harwood Larson, president of the Anaheim Optimist club.

The building, which will be officially dedicated by Roly P. Nall, president of Optimist International, will include an 1800 square foot auditorium, a modern game room and substantial kitchen facilities. Located at 115 W. Charles st., the facilities will be readily accessible to more than 400 neighborhood Anaheim boys.

The Recreation Center was described by Larson as "a monument to the public spirit and cooperative effort of all of the leading Anaheim civic groups." Larson asserted that "while the credit for providing the inspiration and idea of the youth center belongs to President Nall, the tremendous effort to collect funds, design the building and direct its erection, came directly from all of the civic minded people in Anaheim." Optimist club members, the local club president pointed out, were "proud to have associated with their friends and neighbors in the first development of its kind in Anaheim." Facilities of the project will house the Junior Optimist club, the local branch of the Boys' Clubs of America, and the executive committee of the Anaheim branch of the Boy Scouts of America. Local city officials, church leaders and others will be present at the dedication. Representing the Optimist clubs of the local area will be J. W. Stephen, Lt. Governor-elect.

Initial Plans for Hallowe'en Festival Laid at Council Meet

Plans for the 29th annual Hallowe'en Festival and parade were launched last evening at the first meeting of the general council held at Anaheim High school.

Adolf Schoepe, general chairman, outlined all phases of the program including the costume breakfast, kiddies parade, high jinks and the gigantic night parade. He announced the appointment of Mrs. Martha Schumacher and Mrs. Marguerite Coons as co-chairmen of the Miss Slick Chick contest and ball and the following parade division captains: Division 1, Storybook Tales, Captain Walter Swannberger; Division 2, Old Hallowe'en, Captain Doug Hankins; Division 3, Holidays, Captain Rex Coons; Division 4, Mardi Gras, Captain Oscar Schultz; Division 5, Grand Finale, Captain O. R. Hansen. No captain has been appointed for Division 4, Arizona Western. Several candidates are being considered.

MOST UNUSUAL feature of the Hallowe'en festival this year is that the principal events are scheduled over a two-day period. All kiddie activities including parade window art contest and show at the Greek theater will be held on Friday, October 31. The Hallowe'en costume breakfast will be held Saturday morning, November 1, followed by the downtown parade, kangaroo court and Opti-Kops. The parade will be held Saturday evening and will follow the same route as last year, ending in a magnificent spectacle at La Palma park stadium.

Theme of this year's celebration will be "American Indians." Robert Paulson, executive secretary of the Prescott, Arizona, chamber of commerce and representative of the Arizona Northland Chambers of Commerce, told the council of plans of Arizona Indians to participate in the festivities and parade. The "Indian" theme will be carried out in all phases of the celebration.

Abduction, Robbery Claimed by SA Man

Claiming that he was abducted and robbed by two men wearing U. S. Marine uniforms, Harrison Miller of Santa Ana, a Negro, appealed to sheriff's officers late last night to find his money and his shoes.

Miller claimed that he was accosted at Third and Spurgeon sts. by a man who simulated a gun in his pocket and said, "Come with me." He was taken to a parked car, he said, in which another man sat in the back seat and was driven to a lonely spot on Browning st., south of Tustin, and robbed of $25. The bandits, Miller claimed, ordered him to remove his shoes, thinking he might have had money hidden there. He broke away from them, he said, and escaped into an orange grove, leaving his wallet and shoes behind.

Boolen Death Probe Abandoned

Authorities today abandoned plans for inquesting the death of Mrs. Ellen Jo Boolen, 23, of Westminister, who jumped from a car driven by her husband, Earl, 27, Saturday midnight and succumbed Tuesday morning without regaining consciousness.

Officers said that their investigation disclosed that the young woman, mother of four small girls, had jumped from her husband's machine during a family argument.

The husband's story of the tragedy, which occurred on Garden Grove blvd. near Brookhurst rd., was substantiated by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Boolen, riding in the car at the time.

Funeral service for the young mother will be Friday at 3:30 p.m. Brown Colonial mortuary, Santa Ana. Interment will be in Westminster Memorial park.

Boys on Bicycle Hurt in Mishap

Two boys riding on one bicycle suffered major injuries at about 6:45 p.m. yesterday when hit by an automobile.

Convict Stabs Girl Hostage to Death as Frantic Mother Watches

CARMEL, N.Y. (AP)—An escaped convict, making a desperate effort to seize a getaway car, stabbed a nine-year-old girl hostage to death yesterday as police closed in on him.

Hit by three police bullets, the convict surrendered and was taken to a hospital.

His little victim, stabbed with a butcher knife as her mother looked on helplessly, died an hour later.

The slayer, Donald Snyder, 25, of Canastota, N.Y., gave warning of his desperation and cried:

"If you come near me, I'll stab the child."

Alex Williams, 45, school bus driver and a special policeman, tried to persuade Snyder to release the child, Betty Lou Arnold. As he talked, he sidled up closer and fired, hitting Snyder. The ex-convict then plunged the knife into the little girl's abdomen.

Williams fired two more shots, and Snyder gave up the fight. Williams was the driver of a school bus that brought Betty Lou home late yesterday.

THE LITTLE girl, daughter of a prosperous hardware merchant, was crossing the lawn to join her young sister and another child when Snyder emerged from behind a bush.

He walked up to the house and told Mrs. Snyder:

"I'm an escaped convict. The cops are after me. I'm not fooling. I want you to let me in here or I'll take your children."

The mother screamed to the children: "Run, run." Two of them ran, but Snyder seized Betty Lou. Williams, seeing Snyder grab the child, drove away to get his gun.

As Mrs. Arnold ran toward a phone, Snyder kicked open the house door, dragged Betty Lou into the kitchen and grabbed the butcher knife.

He told the woman: "I want you to drive me to New York"—more than 50 miles away.

As Snyder held the knife close to the child, her mother led them to the cellar garage and they got into the family car.

While Mrs. Arnold stalled for time, Williams arrived with his gun. He and State Trooper Raymond Scarrachio, summoned by neighbors, sought to rescue the child.

Snyder, who was serving a 2½-year term in Green Haven state prison for auto theft, had escaped Tuesday.

CARMEL, N.Y.—FLEEING CONVICT AFTER HOSTAGE SLAYING—Donald Snyder, 25, is removed from an ambulance at Mahopac, N. Y., hospital. An escaped convict, making a desperate effort to seize a getaway car, he stabbed a 9-year-old girl hostage to death as police closed in on him. The child, Betty Lou Arnold, died as her mother watched. Tragedy happened here yesterday.

Collins Says Manpower in Korea Not Enough to Hold POWs under Control at Koje

Taft and Ike Swing Battle To New York

By The Associated Press
Senator Robert Taft of Ohio at New York City (AP)—Sen. Taft today met with Republican convention delegates at New York City to discuss the campaign for the 1952 election.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower has been holding conferences all this week with state delegates to the 7th national convention. Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio, his chief rival for the GOP presidential nomination, arrived in New York last night for the same purpose.

Their paths crossed at the outset. The New Jersey bloc, now heavily pro-Eisenhower, meets with Taft at 9 a.m. (EST) and an hour and a half later confers with Eisenhower. The strategy on both sides, with all but 13 of the 1299 delegates chosen, the time has come to tighten favoring alignments and win over fence-sitters and those leaning the other way.

NEITHER TAFT nor Eisenhower now has the 694-vote majority needed for nomination. The Associated Press tabulation, based on approved and conceded preferences, lists 464 for Taft and 391 for Eisenhower, with 130 spread among others and 208 disputed or uncommitted.

The Democratic race, to be decided at the party's July 21 convention, was even more inconclusive. To date, 1058 of the 1230 delegates have been chosen, with Connecticut scheduled to add 16 more at a convention tomorrow.

The Associated Press tally shows Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver ahead with 246 votes. Second is Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia with 161, followed by Mutual Security Administrator W. Averell Harriman with 85½.

Others have a total of 246, and 394 are not yet staked off.

These most active candidates for the Democratic nomination, which requires a majority vote of 616, either were campaigning or getting ready to Harriman was touring the west. Kefauver was in North Carolina, ready to swing into his home-state Tennessee tomorrow. Russell was poised in Washington to start a two-week tour of some 15 states.

After Eisenhower met yesterday with New York and Maryland GOP delegates, he was quoted as saying he favors a 40-billion-dollar tax cut over the next two or three years.

Federal levies are now about 80 billions, President Truman has requested an 85-million-dollar budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 and some Republican legislators have proposed a 10-billion-dollar tax reduction.

Sen. Russell Proposes Neutral Nations Visit Koje POW Camp

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army high command has told Congress there wasn't enough manpower in Korea to control communist rioters at the Koje Island prison camp. The Army officials said, too, they were not prepared for the outbreaks. This was disclosed today as the House made public a censored version of testimony given Monday by Army Secretary Pace and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, chief of staff. They appeared before a House Appropriations subcommittee.

House Group Strikes Down Seizure Rider

WASHINGTON, AP—A house committee voted down 15 to 10 today a proposal that President Truman be empowered to seize and operate the struck steel mills.

It was the first formal vote by any house group since Truman went before congress Tuesday and pleaded for this power.

The senate previously had reburied Truman by voting that he should use anti-strike of 650,000 steel workers. And today Senators favoring seizure power for the president abandoned their fight to write it into wage-price controls legislation. They said they would propose it again later in a separate bill.

The seizure question was raised in the House Banking committee by Rep. Bolling (D-MO) who proposed it as an amendment to legislation extending the economic control law.

Bolling's amendment was a duplicate of that offered in the senate Tuesday by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and rejected by that body.

Members reported nine Democrats and one Republican supported the seizure move in the house committee. Five Democrats and 10 Republicans were against it. One Democrat voted present and one Republican was absent.

The house group is working on its own version of a new wage-controls law to replace the present one which expires June 30.

The senate battling over seizure power has been in connection with the senate's version of controls legislation.

Taft Forces Take Advantage of Dewey Ruling

WASHINGTON, AP—Supporters of Sen. Robert A. Taft are laughing up their sleeves these days.

It's about a rule put through in the 1944 Republican national convention controlled by the forces of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, long a Taft rival. The rule stipulates that only seating contests affecting delegates-at-large may be presented to the convention for consideration.

The rule was not strictly adhered to in the 1948 convention which gave the New York governor a second presidential nomination. But Sen. Taft has indicated he will insist on its application at the coming convention in Chicago.

If he does, an upheaval in committee expected to be nominated by Taft supporters, the contests between him and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower over 77 delegates from five southern states would be reduced to embrace just 18 delegates—four each from Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi, and six from Texas.

Otherwise the scrap would take in the entire delegations from those states—Georgia 17, Louisiana 15 (correct), Mississippi five, and Texas 38—plus two district delegates from Virginia.

Pace said that at one time 125,000 communist prisoners on Koje were guarded by between 2300 and 2800 South Korean troops, under American supervision.

The American Eighth Army, he said, had to be prepared first "to meet and match twice its numbers in the communist horde fighting against it."

"We can ill spare the men to jobs other than this critical assignment and still provide a fair rotation of troops which the American people rightly demand," he said. The Americans were engaged in "a major war" in Korea.

THE TESTIMONY showed also that subcommittee officials supported a proposal, approved by President Truman, to invite military observers from five neutral nations to inspect the camp.

Sen. Russell (D-CA), originally suggested the idea, and the president forwarded the plan with enlargements to the defense department yesterday.

Koje Island was the scene of a series of violent disorders which led to the temporary capture of an American general and the detention of two generals who commanded the prison camp.

Collins told the subcommittee camp officials were not prepared for the defiance of 70,000 hard-core communists at Koje.

He said the camp was being run along lines of the last war. Then, as many as 5000 or 10,000 German and Japanese prisoners were controlled by only a few men.

But, he added, "we are dealing with a group of people here that are utterly different."

Russell's proposal got a mixed reaction in Congress.

Knowland, Nixon Anti-Housing Bill Defeated

WASHINGTON, AP—Sen. Knowland and Nixon, California Republicans, lost today in an attempt to put into the senate economic controls bill a ban against going ahead with a controversial low-rent, public housing project at Los Angeles.

Vice President Barkley ruled the amendment was out of order and his ruling was upheld by a senate vote of 44 to 32.

The Knowland-Nixon amendment stated that the public housing administration could not proceed with any such projects when local approval is rescinded by the city council or by vote of the people before construction actually begins.

The South Carolinian said the contracts already had been let for the housing projects and that the California supreme court had ruled they could not be violated. He said the Los Angeles city council twice approved them but reversed itself by a one-vote margin.

The California attorney general ruled that the referendum on the subject had no effect. Maybank added.

OBLONG VIEWS

FROM AN EGG-SHAPED MEAL
By WALDO HUNTER

THIS COMING FRIDAY would be just another normal week-day were it not for a lot of stupid notions spawned in antiquity and carefully nurtured down through the ages by persons of childish minds who have insisted that "13" is an unlucky number. On that day there will be the usual childish rituals by the superstitious and reserved, and those incantations, weird rites and meaningless actions more appropriate to the Middle Ages than to the supposedly enlightened Twentieth Century.

Some persons, on Friday, the 13th will stay in bed all day. Some will lock up all the salt shakers. Some will spend the day knocking on wood.

It is peculiar the way this voodoo of the 13 has fastened itself upon us. No ship is ever launched on Friday, the 13th. They don't recognize the 13th floor in hotels.

They have yet to come out with a 13-cylinder automobile, and they won't put 13 players on a baseball team, although sometimes it looks like the Pacific Coast League is going to have to resort to such a practice, to stay above water.

And hitchhikers have steadfastly refused to put 13 frankfurters in the package when you ask for a dozen.

It is considered tantamount to placing a dire hex and blight on a married couple to invite 13 persons to a wedding feast. Anybody having 13 offspring is considered unlucky. (The chair will, at this point, entertain discussion from the floor).

NOBODY EVER went over Niagara Falls in a paper sack on a Friday, the 13th.

Once in more carefree days I put 13 dollars on an extremely lightly considered nag at a quarter-horse race, on Friday, the 13th, and pocketed enough moola to finance a 13-day tour. This is unlucky.

Years and years ago, someone straddled a ladder (probably on a Tuesday, the 13th) and a plummeting piece of masonry walloped him on the hawke, warping his outlook on life.

Word finally got around that this man was back by the ladder on a FRIDAY, the 13th. So today dear children, we must not walk under ladders.

This same man, incidentally, later ran for Congress on the Republican ticket.

ALSO MANY years ago, (once upon a time) someone stopped at a busy intersection to admire a black cat which was ambling across the street in front of him, and he was struck down from behind by a beer wagon. From that day to this, black cats have been considered omens of dire evil. And rightly, too. Three hundred gallons of good beer was upset and spilled all because of that black cat.

The pedestrian, incidentally, died.

The left hind foot of a rabbit carried on your person is considered a harbinger of good fortune. This theory would be strongly questioned, however, from the point of view of the rabbit.

Yes, in some of our thought processes we are still but slightly removed from medieval times. Up until a scant 200 years ago in the New England states, we turned the old women to the stake as witches because they mumbled in their dosage.

And even today, when we see an older going down the street muttering to himself we wink and say, "the old boy's slightly off his rocker."

The believers in the mystic and awful curse of the number 13 forget its fearful implication in only one case, as far as I have been able to figure out.

Hand your superstitious friend $12,000 and it is to be doubted that he would try to ward it off with the protecting sign of the wooden.

WASHINGTON

MERRY GO ROUND

IN CITY CENTER

WASHINGTON—President Truman wrote another personal letter the other day, this one to Amos Carter, No. 1 citizen of Fort Worth, Tex. However, he didn't mail it—at least, not the original draft.

He slept on it, finally tore the original draft up.

But the inside fact is that when the president sounded off on the tide-lands oil at the Americans for Democratic Action dinner two weeks ago, a letter from Amos Carter was the cause of it.

Carter, famed for his efforts to keep the city of Fort Worth ahead of its rival Dallas, also famous for handling a 10-gallon hat to every prominent visitor, happened to be on friendly terms with President Truman. The president likes and respects him.

However, just as the tide-lands oil bill was passed by Congress and sent to the White House, Carter wrote the president a letter arguing that the school children of Texas would be robbed of oil royalties if the bill were vetoed.

It was at this point that the president drafted a hot reply to Amos, then thought better of it, consulted with aides, and tore his letter up. Instead, he made a speech before the ADA, calling the tide-lands oil bill "robbery in broad daylight."

FERGUSON'S JUNKIE—Michigan's ever-vigilant Sen. Homer Ferguson was full of righteous wrath the other day against government-paid junkies for newspapermen. But when his own globe-trotting at the taxpayers' expense came under fire, he manually censored the objectionable information out of the public record.

All last week and most of this week, a large group of the major film companies have huddled in meetings for the purpose of deciding what their future would be relative to television and the production of films for television. In this medium, it is expected, that with the Columbia picture announcement, most of the other majors, who have been reluctant in the past, will also "stoop to conquer."

The contract with Columbia calls for the immediate start of production of 39 half-hour plays, to be presented for 39 consecutive weeks commencing Thursday, Oct. 2, over 31 NBC television outlets.

This new series will replace the "The Senator from Michigan" (Ferguson) was flying all over the Far East in a government airplane. I am sure that I heard no objections to that.

"It was not in a government airplane," sputter Ferguson. "It might not have been a government airplane, but I am sure it was at the government's expense," drawled Connally.

"The Senator from Rhode Island, Mr. Green, was along, too," was Ferguson's only defense.

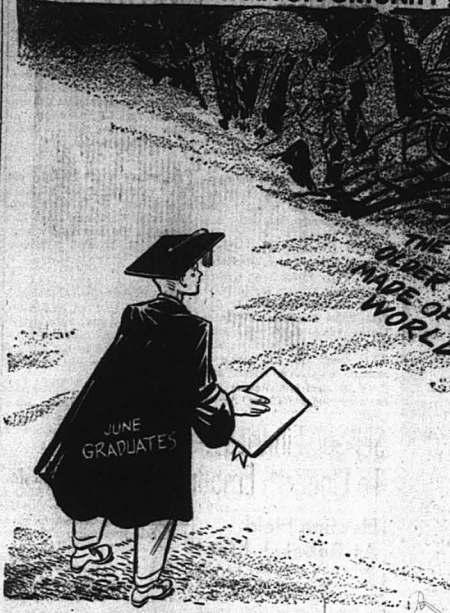

It is the privilege of a Senator, in case he sticks his foot in his mouth, to edit and alter his remarks on the Senate floor before the official record is published.

Ferguson took advantage of this privilege to keep the public from reading about his travels. But this column obtained a copy of the Senate transcript, in case the public might be interested in what Ferguson didn't want them to read.

CAPITAL NEWS CAPSULE—Maine primary—Senator Brewster of Maine rushed back to Washington in the middle of his campaign last week to try to stop an investigation of himself. The Senate elections committee had sent an investigator to Maine to check on testimony that Brewster offered $25,000 to a liquor dealer in order to influence his opponent, Governor Payne. Brewster was furious when he learned about the investigation. He caught the first plane back to the Senate and slipped around to see the committee members. The Spanish government's hired lobbyist, Charles Patrick Clark, also got busy lobbying, trying to persuade the committee to call off the dogs.

DREAM BECOMES FACT—OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., (AP)—Mrs. Johnnie Carter awakened her husband before dawn and sent him to check their safe after dreaming it was burglarized, police reported. Carter found thieves had taken $75 and 200 packages of cigarettes.

Major Film Studios Reported Softening Toward Television

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD — Calling Dr. Kildare! Calling Dr. Kildare! The word is about to become filled with independent film producers who up until now have held the reins on the TV (moving) boom! A precedent-shattering contract—the first ever signed between a national advertiser and a major film studio for the production of motion pictures specifically for television—was announced by Columbia Pictures, Inc.

IN THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

From the Files of Anaheim Gazette

By MRS. HENRY KUCHEL

75 Years Ago

June 1877

Montgomery Queen's Grand Circle has arrived and performed in Los Angeles last night. Save your dances boys, you will not have much longer to wait. And remember, that no crawling under the tent will be allowed.

There has been filed in the office of the Secretary of State, notices of incorporation of the Los Angeles Free Dispensary Association, organized to furnish medicine, medical services, etc., free of charge to all sick and poor who may apply. It has no capital stock. Directors, A. W. Potts, John R. Brierley, Frank A. Gibson, W. D. Gould, D. Mayer, J. W. Stump, A. J. Hamilton, C. W. Gibson, James H. Blanchard, Chas. H. Dinmore and H. S. Biasel.

Just a Sacramento paper we learn that the Rev. J. M. Allis preached in the Westminster Presbyterian church at Sacramento last Sunday. (This Mr. Allis was a former pastor of the Anaheim Presbyterian church.—Ed.)

The form of the fourth page of the Gazette was "piled" by a companion yesterday morning. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to his funeral services at the grave. (The unlikely companion mentioned above was a well-known Henry Kuchel, who years later became editor and publisher of the Gazette. Mr. Kuchel gave the paper through fair weather and foul for forty-eight years until his death some years ago.—Ed.)

50 Years Ago

Chas. S. Rogers visited with his parents during the week. In the suit of his wife for separate maintenance and support, which was tried in the Los Angeles courts some days ago, verdict was rendered for Mr. Rogers. He will now begin an action for divorce against the lady.

Henry Wagner is boring two wells on his place east of town to supply water for irrigation purposes. He has purchased a 35 horse power gasoline engine to operate the pump.

Sydney Raso was over from his Fresno orange plantation a day or two ago.

Richard Krebs was in town this week attending Masonic lodge and meeting old-time friends. Richard came to Anaheim in 1877, and was for a number of years one of the leading citizens of the community. He is now raising the blue ribbon oranges on his ranch at Azusa.

Mrs. Harriet L. Wortman died at her home, 124 N. Olive st., Saturday at the age of 82. She had been a resident of Anaheim for 20 years, coming here from Kansas where she was born. She was a sister of Jack Warwick of the Toledo Blade, a former partner of President Harding in the newspaper business. She leaves one son, W. E. Wortman, who resided with her. Deceased was buried in Lonia Vista cemetery. Rev. B. S. Haywood conducted the services.

School Finance Session Likely To Unearth Embarrassing Question

SACRAMENTO (CSN)—Decision of Governor Earl Warren to call a special session of the legislature to give California's solons another opportunity for action on the question of more state money for distressed school districts, presages re-opening of the issue on how the first $250 million was spent.

The legislature wound up its 1952 session unresolved as to a new school bond issue, first proposed for $250 million, and reduced $50 million by the state senate.

Meanwhile, the need for additional state money for distressed school districts continued to grow. Legislators and other organizations pressured the governor for a special session to submit a bond issue to the people next November.

Warren apparently now is convinced that the principal differences between the assembly and senate during the last session can be worked out and the bond issue submitted at a special election, which would be consolidated with the 1952 general election in November. Primarily, the differences involved the reluctance of the assembly to write into the constitution restrictive provisions regarding the spending of the money. The restrictive provisions were inserted in the senate side as a result of what some senators considered wasteful spending of the first bond issue, for such things as tile based flagpoles and fishponds.

IT IS ALMOST a certainty that the senate will not recede greatly from its original restrictive provisions, either specified in the constitution, or in laws spelling out the manner in which the emergency money will be spent. Members of both houses expressed themselves as thoroughly disgusted with some of the expenditures listed by various school districts, and are determined to see that no such repetition occurs.

In any event, the California taxpayer will be faced with a big education bill, next November, when he casts his ballot to determine whether or not he wants to pay. Assuming that the legislature makes provision for another $250,000,000 bond issue, this quarter of a billion dollars, if approved, would be added to the state's indebtedness for a total of a half billion for schools alone.

IN ADDITION, the initiative sponsored by the California Teachers Association, would add an approximate $130 million to the operations cost of the schools, annually, a figure which would increase year by year as the number of students in California schools increased. The association denies its initiative would run to as high as $130, stating a portion of that sum already is going to the schools through action of legislature. However, the money comes out of the taxpayers pocket in any case, and the schools have first lien on any moneys in the general fund of the state.

The association also has claimed the additional cost involved in the initiative "can be financed without an increase in taxes," but Governor Warren at a recent press conference said there is no surplus. Consequently, any large increase in expenditures would have to be met with an increase in taxes of some kind, or a new tax, if the state continues to operate on a balanced budget. And Governor Warren never has indicated he is in favor of deficit financing, a situation he has avoided scrupulously during his terms as governor.

Perhaps never before has every job done by the men and women on the telephone team been so important to our country. In countless ways, our nation is using the telephone to get things done faster—in defense plans, among our armed forces, on the everyday jobs of all Americans. One of the reasons why we can outproduce any other country is that we have more telephone service, and better telephone service. This service would be impossible without the skill and devotion of the people who work to provide it.

Re-routing Long Distance circuits is one of the many interesting telephone jobs for women. . . 48,000 women in the West. And that they like their jobs is demonstrated by the length of time they have stayed in telephone work—longer than seven years, on the average. Among telephone men, the average length of service is now nearly twelve years. Together, telephone men and women account for more than two-thirds of our total operating expenses (in wages, benefits and provision for service pensions). We do all we can to make telephone jobs good jobs . . . the kind that attract and keep the capable people so important to good telephone service.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

In 1951, our total wage costs came to more than a quarter of a billion dollars—nearly four times that of ten years ago. Yet in spite of higher wages, higher taxes, higher costs of everything we need to provide service, we've kept telephone rates one of the best buys in your budget today.

FUHS Representatives Selected for Boys' and Girls' State June 18-28

Eight juniors from Fullerton Union High school have been selected to represent the school at Sacramento sessions of Boys' and Girls' State this summer, between June 18 and 28. The principal's office announced recently. Teen-agers from all parts of the state take part in actual government sessions each year, in order to acquaint future leaders with political science in California.

Representing Yorba Linda, and sponsored by Yorba Linda members of Anaheim Legion, will be Dee Brown and Eugene Carl. La Habra Legionnaires will send Bob Field, it was revealed.

Dee Brown, born in Bell, Calif., is majoring in industrial arts at FUHS. He lived some time in Washington state before moving to Yorba Linda where he assists

FUHS-FJC Summer School Ready For Registration

Registration for summer school at Fullerton Union High school and Fullerton Junior college will take place June 16-20 in the administration building office on the high school campus, with classes holding first sessions Monday, June 22, it was announced by school officials.

Secondary and college credit can be earned between June 23 and August 13 in both required and elective courses in order to lighten school year loads or make up work. A maximum of eight college credits or ten semester credits of high school work may be carried, it was stated.

Work taken at Fullerton Junior college has been accepted by all universities and colleges on the west coast, and no tuition or fee is required except for purchase of equipment or payment on books. Identical courses to those of the regular school year will be offered, but they are packed into six or eight week periods, requiring more concentrated study and at least 90 per cent attendance, it was pointed out.

Among college credit courses listed are accounting, stenography, English, public speaking, Spanish, anatomy, botany, zoology, trigonometry, and other math courses.

Also offered on the college level were chemistry, physics, U. S. history, U. S. government, California history, sociology, psychology, and drawing.

High school courses open during the summer include shorthand, typing, English, civics, U. S. history, story of nations, algebra, general math, geometry, botany, chemistry, health, science, and driver training (the last for FUHS students only).

Marvin E. Autry, 32, and Erwin L. Ball, 31, both of Long Beach, accused as auto-thefters of a Buick Park Avenue, will stand preliminary hearing June 18 at 2 p.m. at Santa Ana township court.

The men, facing burglary charges after two alert sheriff's officers nabbed them minutes after the lumber company's safe was hoisted of $2813 in cash and checks, may waive their preliminary trial before Justice Howard Cameron. Each is held under $10,000 bail.

State Collects Sales Tax on $13,489,551,000

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state board of equalization today announced taxable sales figures for the year 1951, starting Californians spent $13,489,551,000 during the year on which the state collected a sales and use tax.

At the same time, the board said the sales for the first quarter of 1952 were three per cent below the 1951 first quarter figure.

Total sales for the year 1951 in Orange county, on which taxes were collected, were $227,609,000, according to the board's report.

The board blamed the drop for the first quarter of this year on weakness in the sales of consumers' durable goods and construction materials, in pointing out sales dropped from $175,000,000 to $173,078,000.

Demand for new housing, the board said, has been substantially satisfied at current prices, and many consumers stocked up on such durable items as automobiles, appliances and furniture, either before the time of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, or after the intervention of the Chinese six months later.

Installment credit restrictions were another factor, the board said, many anticipated shortages have not materialized and prices have been high. These conditions, it was stated, led to cautious consumer spending and a higher rate of personal savings.

'Balleters' To Appear in El Toro Swim Show

The El Toro Marine Corps Air Station will be the scene of a huge Navy Relief Revue featuring over 30 girls from Orange county this Friday night.

The 90-minute show, featuring swimming and dancing routines, will be held at the station swimming pool, beginning at 8:30 p.m. The Anaheim Aqua-Balleters, a group of students from Anaheim High school, and the Irene Brown dancers, a group of Orange county telephone operators, will share the spotlight in the show sponsored for the Navy Relief Organization's annual drive for funds.

This is the second appearance of Tom Hoag's Aqua-Balleters at El Toro. The girls starred in last year's Armed Forces Day "Open House" swimming show. Hoag was formerly an underwater demolition man with the Navy.

Master Sergeant Keith Keller, Marine Air Group 25, will be the master of ceremonies with the El Toro dance band furnishing the music for the entire show.

Realty Board Hears Talk by City Official

W. F. Friday, assistant city administrator of Anaheim, was the principal speaker this morning at a meeting of the Anaheim Realty Board. He gave a comprehensive outline of the planning task ahead because of the tremendous growth of this area.

Friday disclosed that subdivisions now planned will call for the building of more than 1000 homes. He said three annexation applications per week are being received by the city, many more than in other districts in the locality. By 1958, Friday estimated, the city of Anaheim will include an area of 16 square miles.

Realtors voted unanimously to send a letter of commendation to the A.U.H.S. board of trustees for banning the textbook "Our Changing Social Order" in the school.

L. P. Nichols was named chairman of a committee to investigate the possibility of printing an up to date map of Anaheim showing utilities and proposed subdivisions.

Olive Notes

A story hour for children will be held this summer, beginning on Thursday, June 19 at 2 p.m. in the Olive branch of the Orange Co. Free library located in the Civic Center and every two weeks thereafter during the summer vacation.

The stories will be told by Mrs. Leone Kennedy of the Santa Ana branch of the Orange County Free library. All children are welcome.

A Summer Reading club will be conducted by the Olive Branch of the Orange County Free library, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Alice Maxwell, librarian. It will be called the "Pirate Club," and any child may join. When he joins he will be given a pirate with his name on the hat and will pin it on the island.

For each book read, he may color one part of the pirate, such as his sail, gun, hat, sleeves, during which Allied war planes splashed flaming jellies gasoline across the Chinese position.

In another fierce action about a mile to the west, Allied troops crushed dug-in Chinese from their bunkers with flame-throwers.

Some tanks rumbling into action in support of the infantry ran into red minefields and were disabled. Retriever tanks pulled them back to safety, a front line officer said.

boots, pants, vest, buttons, tie, and sword. When 60 books have been read the child will be given a pirate and one small gun. Another gun may be given for each additional 10 books read. The child reading the most books during the summer will receive the Treasure Chest and a reading certificate. All children are invited to join the club.
