Explosive Protest May Foreshadow Battle Between Two Wings of GOP

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft, in an explosive protest which could foreshadow a great legislative struggle between two wings of the GOP, today labelled President-elect Eisenhower's choice of a secretary of labor as "incredible." The Ohio senator's blast over the selection of Martin P. Durkin shattered the outward show of harmony which prevailed between Eisenhower and the man he beat out for the Republican nomination.

In a statement from Cincinnati Taft described Durkin, 58-year-old head of the AFL Plumbers' union, as a "partisan Truman Democrat." He said the selection was an "affront" to labor voters who backed the GOP ticket and also to Democrats who jumped party lines.

And he brought the matter down to more immediate political cases by asserting that Herbert Brownell has been "the key man" in cabinet appointments.

Brownell, picked by Eisenhower to be attorney general, has been closely associated with the Hoover group around Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and was Dewey's campaign manager in 1948 when the New Yorker defeated Taft for the nomination. Taft's implication was that the Dewey wing has gained the ascendancy and perhaps a commanding position on policy issues.

Taft said he had talked to Brownell and made several recommendations" for appointments, adding:

"It was never even suggested that a man would be appointed who has always been a partisan Truman Democrat, who fought Gen. Eisenhower's election and advocated the repeal of the Taft-Hartley law."

He disclaimed any reflection on the "character or ability" of Durkin himself.

Taft's mention of the T-H labor law, and of the secretary-designate's stand on it, opened up the question of just how much of a fight Durkin's nomination can expect on legislative matters from the senators who usually follow the Ohioan's lead.

Durkin makes no bones about wanting some changes in the labor law than Taft is likely to accept willingly, and he already has suggested new powers for the labor department that Taft may not favor. Both words of a man's new selection he has criticized very roundly.

Walter Reuther Favored to Win CIO Battle

Labor Leaders Work to Heal Rift Caused by Choosing New President

ATLANTIC CITY, Dec. 2 (AP)—The CIO worked today to repair a deep rift in its ranks over choosing a new CIO president, a scrap not yet over, but apparently won by 48-year-old Walter Reuther. The dynamic, red-haired Reuther, president of the big CIO Auto Workers Union, was widely conceded as having whipped together enough votes to get the CIO presidency in any convention showdown. Top officials were trying to get forces backing CIO Executive Vice President Allan S. Haywood, a 64- year-old veteran union leader who came up from the coal mines, to back off and concede to Reuther.

But Haywood and his chief supporter, David J. McDonald, president of the big CIO Steelworkers Union, were still pledging a finish fight that could spill over on the convention floor. Selection of officers is due Thursday.

The Haywood forces held a wildly-applauded rally tonight at which Haywood, McDonald and Presidents Joseph A. Beirne of the Communications Workers and Michael J. Quill of the Transport Workers Union pledged a fight to the end in Haywood's behalf.

They adopted a resolution, supported by more than a score of smaller unions refusing any quarter in the fight and declaring Haywood's name will be put in nomination against Reuther.

Haywood made his speech remiscing on his 50-year record as a union leader and work in behalf of many CIO unions, and concluded by saying:

"As long as you stay in this fight, I stay—we'll slug it out. I don't go for this technique of deciding things in caucuses."

Quill held the rally to his ticket which brought the Reuther people to "come out in the open and stand up and be counted—they're just afraid to face the music."

The Haywood group was considering forcing a test on a proposal to change the CIO constitution so as to require the CIO presidency to be a full-time job. Approval of such a plan would mean Reuther couldn't fill the job as long as he retained the presidency of the Auto Workers.

A damage suit for $180,000 resulting from the death of Elbert Hatch last Oct. 4 was filed in superior court yesterday by the widow and daughter of the deceased, Mrs. Mable Hatch and Joanne Hatch, 14.

Flood Control Engineer Bradley Resigns Position

The Orange county flood control district is looking for a new engineer following the resignation yesterday of J. A. (Jack) Bradley, who retired from the position for reasons of health.

Bradley's letter of resignation to the board of supervisors said the load of flood control work was becoming increasingly heavy in the county and has contributed to injury to his health. His resignation is effective Jan. 2. Thereafter, he said, he plans to enter private consulting engineering.

Bradley joined the flood control district in 1929 and became assistant engineer in 1941 under A. A. Beard, who headed both the road and flood control departments of the county. Bradley was promoted to head of the department in 1946.

WHITTIER, Dec. 2 (AP)—A 43-year-old man who had locked himself in his home to prevent police from serving him with an assault warrant, fatally wounded himself tonight, officers said, as they used tear gas bombs to force him out.

When police entered the house, they found Ralph Burdette Dillon dead with a bullet wound in the head. A rifle lay beside him.

Officers said the warrant had been obtained by Dillon's estranged wife, Effie.

Weatherman Says 2nd Storm Coming

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2 (AP)—The weatherman says the storm's all over but the shouting—so go of that umbrella. There's another storm right on its heels.

The storm was scheduled to strap its calling card tonight on northern California and make itself at home over central California by this afternoon.

Snow was still falling in the Sierra Nevada today from the first storm—described as California's worst in 10 years. Twenty ats. inches was on the ground at Soda Springs.

County Deluged as Nation Hit by Storms, Snow, Cold

Yesterday morning's and Monday night's rainstorm deposited 1.66 inches of rain on Anaheim and deluged other parts of the county. Newport Beach was hardest hit of all with 1.09 inches recorded in 24 hours, but only 1.53 inches for the storm.

While no damage was recorded during the storm, trees were reported down in various localities, including Anaheim.

Rainfall figures for areas in this locality follow:

	Storm	Season	Last Year
Anaheim	1.66	4.74	2.21
Buena Park	1.30	3.99	1.57

Millions of Americans plodded and splashed through snow and slush Tuesday.

The slippery coating on streets and roads put the brakes on travel and resulted in a rash of motor vehicle accidents.

Big areas of snow or sleet or rain or fog were marked off on the weather map.

The weather, in one bad form or another, was blamed for 13 deaths.

Snow that ranged up to six inches pelted a huge section of the nation. It extended from Illinois to the Atlantic coast and from Washington, D. C., to New England.

Seven inches of snow, the first of the season and the heaviest since last December, piled up in Spokane, Wash.

The Pacific coast region was doused by rain. Rain also fell in much of the South.

A brief storm unroofed some houses in Los Angeles, and an inch and a half of rain temporarily flooded many streets.

Temperatures hovered around the freezing mark in most of the snow belt in the Midwest and East, and some of the snow melted.

Optimist Auction to Dispose of Many Desirable Items, Dec. 4, 5

With the Optimist's second annual country style auction slated to be held Dec. 4 and 5 in the Tex Middleton DeSoto showroom, Optimist club members are busy gathering together the many hundreds of desirable items. President Al Garey in a special trip into the Los Angeles manufacturing area yesterday contacted many of his wholesale distributors to obtain numerous expensive household appliances.

Definitely to go under the banner will be a grand new 18 cubic foot Crosley chest-type freezer big enough to hold an entire beef. A Kelvinator nine-foot refrigerator and a modern three piece living room suite are two more items that will go, subject to the auctioneer's chant.

"At this time," stated Bob Schooler, auction chairman, "the Optimists have collected over 500 items with many more to come. Merchandise of every description will be sold to the highest bidder."

All proceeds will again go towards furthering youth work in this community. Plans are underway to expand the old scout house that a full time supervised boys' work program may be carried out. High on the list of proposed activities will be instruction in hobby crafts including woodwork, ceramics, leather, radio and photography. The grounds will be laid out for outdoor activities.

The Optimist youth program, besides wholeheartedly sponsoring the Boy Scouts of America, include many individual projects carried on under the boys' work chairman, Marvin Mason. New projects this year by the Junior Optimist club organized at Fremont school with Carl Berneker and Kenneth Spencer acting as club counsellors; a Christian youth group composed of some 135 boys and girls known as the "Real Life Club;" a boxing class being organized under instructor Ralph Ring; a rifle club for teenagers in charge of Roy Kirk; a basketball team composed of high school age youth that is playing in the city league; a baseball team for youth of 18 years and older who aspire to make the grade into organized baseball, coached by a former San Diego pitcher, Danny Rowland.

County Sewer Ordinance Due For Overhaul

Orange county supervisors yesterday overruled the county planning commission and granted Henry Cox permission to go ahead with a large residential subdivision in Garden Grove without connection to a sewer trunk.

Their action was one of several instances in which the county ordinance requiring the sewer hookup has been bypassed. County Counsel Jack E. Frost said the ordinance is too indefinite, leaving too much latitude for discretion, thus making it subject to overruling by the courts.

Enforcement of the ordinance would have required Cox to lay 3000 feet of sewer pipe to the nearest main. He told the supervisors he was perfectly willing to lay the pipe if it were understood that the Garden Grove sewer district would repay him later.

The supervisors ordered a new survey of the county sewer situation to be taken by the planning commission in cooperation with the county health department and the water pollution board. It was noted that the survey will be completed and can be expected to take some time.

Slain Bandit's Widow Sentenced To 30 Months

A woman whose husband was slain during an attempted holdup of the Tustin bank last June 20 was sentenced Monday to a three-month jail sentence as an accomplice in a $48,000 robbery at Solano Beach in 1951.

Mrs. Marvin Joseph Pratt received her sentence with hysterical screams in San Diego federal court. Sentenced for the same offenses were Alvin E. Yoder, 37, who received a ten year sentence, and his wife, Elizabeth, 33, who received a three-month sentence.

Mrs. Pratt's husband was shot and killed by Assistant Cashier G. O. Bixler of the Tustin bank as he attempted to escape with $2331. His wife told police later that she had staged more than 100 robberies in Southern California before his death.

Pratt is suspected of being the man who held up the Tustin bank in 1950 to the tune of $7200.

Miss Schnitcler is free on $1,500 bail while Mitman is being detained in the Orange county jail.

Western Bloc Beats Down Red Ceasefire Move

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 2, (AP)—The western bloc today soundly beat down Russia's stubborn drive in the UN political committee for an immediate Korean ceasefire, with negotiations to come later.

The committee, virtually exhausted after more than a month's argument, then suspended all talk on Korea until it hears Communist reaction to an Indian peace plan it approved last night.

Only the five Soviet bloc countries voted for the immediate ceasefire. Forty one, including the U.S., British, France and Nationalist China, opposed it. Twelve countries abstained. They were Afghanistan, Argentina, Burma, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Iran, Lebanon, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and Syria. Ecuador and Yemen were absent.

The general assembly was called to meet tomorrow afternoon to consider the peace plan. When it is approved, Secretary General Lester B. Pearson is expected to send it to Peiping and Pyongyang for consideration of the Chinese and North Koreans.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky apparently intended to put the neutrals, such as India and other Asian and Arab countries, on the spot with his motion for a cease fire now. They voted for the Indian peace plan approved by the committee yesterday but they abstained on Vishinsky when the plan was put to immediate vote.

Little hope is held here that Red China and North Korea will accept the peace proposals approved by the committee. Reporters have been told privately that they wanted to make the attempt regardless of almost certain rejection.

Orange County Rolled up 89% Vote Nov. 4, Final Tabulation Reveals

General election fever and numerous "get out the vote" campaigns seem to have had a desirable effect on Orange county voters, it was indicated yesterday by the report of County Clerk B. J. Smith, which showed that nearly 89 per cent of the county's voters went to the polls Nov. 4.

The vote, probably an all-time record, was disclosed at the close of the vote tabulation which showed that a total of 112,071 persons voted in the county. The exact percentage of the 127,347 persons registered who voted was 88.85.

Other interesting facts disclosed by the final tabulation included: the Ike-Nixon ticket ran up a total of 77,548 votes against 32,530 for the Stevenson-Sparkman combination: Stuart Hambien was next in the standings with 501 votes for his Prohibition Party ticket; IPP candidate Vincent Hallinan received 227 votes, MacArthur and Tenney had 86, and MacArthur and Vivien Kellems on the Constitutional Party ticket received seven.

Sen. William Knowland received the highest popular vote with 94,599 compared with 8317 for Reuben W. Borough, IPP candidate.

Other candidates and their final vote totals follow:

Congress — Utt 69,794; Van Deerlin, 35,108.

State Senate—Murdy, 88,847.

74th Assembly—Stanley, 34,383; Van Tatenhove, 21,611.

75th Assembly—Lyon, 40,353.

Judge Newport Beach Justice Court—Dodge, 7597; Phelps 7090.

Judge Huntington Beach-Seal Beach Justice Court—Young 6603; Hughes, 4584.

Truman Accepts Resignation of Philip Jessup

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—It was made official today that Dr. Philip C. Jessup, ambassador-at-large and prime target of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, goes out of government service the day before the Republican administration takes over.

President Truman accepted his resignation, effective Jan. 19, but at the same time called Jessup as an international troubleshooter and State Department adviser.

Jessup will go back to his faculty post at Columbia University, from which he has been on leave since 1948. There had been no doubt that he would get out of government with or before the change of administration.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, has called Jessup a pet peatedly in his campaign of charges that the State Department is influenced by Red sympathizers. He has accused the professor of having a "strange affinity for communist causes" and of having backed policies which fit into Red plans. Jessup has repeatedly denied the accusations.

Obviously with some of that in mind, Truman wrote the retiring diplomat:

"Your fellow Americans owe you a debt of gratitude for your willingness to interrupt your academic life for public service."

Navy Secretary Announces Budget Appropriation for Super Carrier

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP) — Secretary of Defense Lovett said today the new Defense Department budget would include money for the Navy to start construction of a third super aircraft carrier.

He made the statement in answering news conference questions about the prospects of beginning work on another 60,000 ton flattop. The budget includes the department's spending requests for the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

Lovett said inclusion of the new carrier item does not require the formal approval of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in which the Air Force had been opposed to the super-carrier program but only "advice" of the Joint Chiefs. He said he had that advice.

The Navy now has work underway on one giant carrier, the Forrestal, and the keel for a second, the Saratoga, is to be laid this month.

Lovett took issue with a statement by Undersecretary of Air Roswell Gilpatric in a recent speech that the U. S. now has "not one but four" Air Forces —the USAF, the Navy, the Marines and Army aviation.

Lovett, in reply to questions about duplication of effort by the armed forces, said he thought Gilpatric had expressed an opinion which was in controversy, and that his own Lovett's opinion happened to differ.

Then, obviously referring to the efforts of each service to get its share of the annual budget, he said that Gilpatric's speech was the type of thing you can look for annually at about this time.

As to talk about overlapping functions of the Air Force and the Navy's carrier planes, Lovett asserted that he did not think it made the slightest differences whether Plane A or Plane B delivers the required amount of explosives on the target. He said that the more methods there are of delivering the required explosives, the better.

Hearing Set in Lewd Photo Case

Preliminary hearing of the morals case involving blond Ingeborg Schnitcler, 26, German born ex-wife of an American soldier, and Robert Mitman, 36, photographer, resulted yesterday in the pair being held to answer in superior court in Santa Ana on Dec. 12.

Mitman and the model, who uses the name Inga Borg professionally, are charged with cooperating in the production of 72 lewd pictures in the Seafare lodge in Laguna Beach Sept. 20. One of the pictures was presented in evidence at the hearing before Justice C. C. Cravath of Laguna.

Miss Schnitcler is free on $1,500 bail while Mitman is being detained in the Orange county jail.

Orange County Surgical society has chosen Bennett R. Berkhauson, M. D., on the staff of Johnston-Gendel clinic, 117 N. Claudina, st., Anaheim, as its president for 1953.

Dr. Berkhausen, a graduate of Columbia university, New York, has practiced in Anaheim about four years. He is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and is certified by the American board of surgery.

Dr. Frederick T. Hunt of Santa Ana was named vice president and Dr. G. Wendell Olson of Fullerton secretary treasurer.

Southern California — Partly cloudy at times but considerable sunshine; slightly warmer this afternoon.

PUC Hearing Considers PE Rate Increase

Pacific Electric Railway Co.'s request for an immediate rate increase of 5 cents in interurban fares went before the California public utilities commission yesterday.

PE is asking the immediate increase pending a study of requested permanent revisions to raise the interurban fare structure about 30 per cent.

Company officials say they lost nearly two million dollars on interurban passenger operations last year and $1,324,346 the first nine months of this year.

D. R. Lewis, presenting the company's case before the commission, said additional revenue will be necessary to continue operations. He emphasized that, although a public utility, PE is a privately operated business paying high taxes and receiving no government subsidy.

"Precise Route" For New Freeway Urged by Chamber

Development of a "precise route" for Sepulveda freeway in Orange county should be developed at once, directors of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce decided at their Monday night meeting.

Discussion of the freeway extension project was given primary attention at the meeting because development of the highway will help relieve beach traffic congestion and will tie Orange county with a fast and a direct route to Long Beach, the directors declared.

The directors also proposed improvement of several county roads, including Gardner Grove blvd., from Huntington Beach blvd. west to the Los Angeles county line, and improvement of Lincoln blvd., westward from Anaheim.

Darkness Halts Search for Missing AF Transport

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 2, (AP)—Darkness tonight halted search for an air force transport believed to have crashed last night in the San Bernardino mountains with 13 men aboard.

Capt. Howard E. Hoover of, March air force base said the 26 planes in the hunt would resume the search at daybreak. He said no lead was uncovered in the two-hour aerial search.

Air force and sheriff's rescue squadrons concentrated their search on the 8000-foot level near Big Bear lake, where a sheriff's deputy reported sighting a fire last night.

The plane, a C-47, was based at Offutt air force base, Omaha, Neb., and was en route to March AFB, Riverside, Calif., from Davis Monthan AFB, Tucson, Ariz. The plane was last heard from at 1:51 p.m. somewhere over the desert east of here.

Ground parties from March and George AFB at Victorville and sheriff's deputies slogged through snow filled canyons, but reported slow progress. Six inches of snow fell during the night to add to the two feet on the ground.

Poor visibility prevented search planes from spotting wreckage in the rugged mountains. March field had 12 planes in the air. Others came from Norton AFB here.

Air force officials theorized the pilot may have attempted to skirt the storm in the 10,805-foot Mt. San Jacinto area by heading north. The spot where the fire was sighted is well off the normal course from Tucson to Riverside.

Deputy Sheriff Loring Poleman of Victorville said he saw a big fire in the mountains, perhaps five miles from Big Bear lake, about 4 a.m. He said it was still smoking at daybreak, well above the snowline.

The strategic air command in Omaha said the plane carried a crew of four from Offutt AFB, plus nine military passengers from various stations.

Former Head of Revenue Bureau Is Indicted

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Joseph D. Nunan, Jr., the nation's former chief tax collector, was indicted today on charges of income tax evading amounting to $91,000.

He quit as head of the internal revenue bureau in 1946 and went back into private law practice. The tax indictment covers the years 1946 through 1950.

For nearly four years, before he left government job, Nunan was in charge of the agency which collected billions and engineered stern crackdowns on tax dodgers who withheld taxes.

Nunan's former top aide, Daniel A. Bacon, was indicted Sept. 21 on similar charges of evading $7,444 in taxes during the same 1946-1950 period. He has pleaded innocent and is awaiting trial.

Charges of a house subcommittee tax scandal probe earlier this year, Nunan faces a maximum of 25 years in prison and $25,000 in fines if convicted on all five counts of the federal indictment.

He was not available for comment. His office and his home both reported his whereabouts unknown.

Nunan, more or less forecast his own indictment last May when he refused to answer questions about his personal income. A house subcommittee lawyer asked him if he thought there were "any possible crimes for which you could be indicted."

"Yes, sir, I think there are," Nunan replied.

A Brooklyn grand jury, investigating his affairs at the time, borrow him out in today's indictment. The same grand jury also indicted Bolich.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 2 (AP)—The U. S. escort destroyer Lewis, which arrived here today from Korea service, reported that one communist shore battery shell wiped out its No. 1 engine room force of seven men in October.

Daily Living for Peace of Mind

Faith Can Be A Farce

Rev. BOB KEVORKIAN

"I believe that if a person is sincere in what he believes and has faith in this belief, he will find happiness and fulfillment to life." This seems to be a fad in modern thinking. It probably is very popular because it makes such a convenient rationalization by which to live.

"Think of it! I can believe anything, and if I believe hard enough it will come to pass. Why I can even make white man black!" Imagine an intelligent human being leading himself into such a naive intellectual trap.

Sincerity is no criterion for truth. One can be sincerely wrong. Faith is only meaningful when the object in which one puts his faith is valid. Some people are idolators. They put their faith in things. Blind fate is the only principle of such a belief, and the results always lead to disillusionment. The Bible says, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof is the way of death."

Faith in God is the only answer, for God alone has the power of the universe at His disposal. He is the power of the universe. More than that, He alone has power to forgive sin. His son, Jesus Christ, came into this world to reveal His interest in us. He loves us. He alone can meet our needs adequately.

PCC Also-Rans Finish Grid Season With Best Ground-Gaining Records

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2 (AP)—A couple of also-rans in Pacific Coast Conference football finished the season with the best records in conceding ground.

Final statistics from the conference commissioner's office today showed that fourth-place California led in both rushing and total offense while seventh-place Oregon was the No. 1 passing team.

Champion Southern California, as you might well expect was the champion also on defense, for the second straight year.

California averaged 281.4 yards a game in rushing, followed for the third straight year by Idaho next at 260.7 and Stanford third with 178.2 yards a game. California's total offense mark of 372.1 yards a game topped Washington's 339.1 and Stanford's 314.9.

Oregon copped the passing crown with 126 completions for an average of 172 yards a game. Washington, led by its great passing quarterback Don Heinrick, had that figure topped until its final game Saturday against Washington State when the Huskies got only 145 yards to finish with an average of 170.3 yards a game. Stanford was next with 136.7.

On defense the USC Trojans allowed only 177.6 yards a game, with UCLA next at 217 and California third at 265.5. The Trojans also had the best pass defense, allowing only 66.8 yards a game. UCLA again was second with 122.9 and Oregon third with 128 yards a game.

UCLA showed the best rushing defense, 94.3 yards to 110.8 for USC and 112.1 for Idaho.

UCLA intercepted the most passes, 34. Southern Cal ran back interceptions for 551 yards, a new PCC record.

In the kicking department, USC set a new team record for punting, averaging 41.2 yards, with Oregon State next with 39.7 yards. Each had one punt blocked. The Trojans set another PCC record by returning punts for 387 yards, averaging 13.8 yards, with California next at 10.4 yards. Three of the 60 Trojan punt returns went for touchdowns.

Idaho posted the best kickoff return average, 23.2 yards.

Vic Seixas Routs Ken Rosewall in Aussie Net Play

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 2 (AP)—Vic Seixas displayed some of the best tennis of his current trip today to rout young Ken Rosewall, 6-0, 6-2, 6-2, in the quarter finals of the Victorian tennis championships.

"If his form this afternoon, many of the Australian critics believe he will beat Ken McGregor, the No. 1 Aussie star, on Thursday and move in the finals to do battle against Frank Sedgman, Australia's world amateur king.

McGregor eliminated Rod Hartwig, 3-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2 and looked good in the process but Seixas was much the better.

Sedgman toyed with Jan Ayre while eliminating his young countryman, 6-0, 6-2, 6-2. He will meet Mervyn Rose, the No. 3 Australian, who subdued Ken Fraser Richardson of Baton Rouge, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3. Rose, a southpaw, had too much of everything for the 19-year-old Tulane freshman.

Meanwhile, the California duo of Maureen Connolly of San Diego and Julie Sampson of San Marino easily moved into the semifinal of women's singles. Maureen, the U. S. and Wimbledon champion, routed Pam Southcombe, 6-0, 6-2 and next will meet Mary Hawton. Miss Sampson defeated Beryl Penrose, 6-4, 6-2.

This is Maureen's last tournament before he captains the U. S. Davis cup squad against either Italy or India in the interzone finals.

Even if he doesn't win the tournament, he at least squared an account with young Rosewall. The 19-year-old junior upset the wiry Philadelphian in the fourth round of the U.S. championships at Forest Hills in September.

Players Traded

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 2 (AP)—Seattle, San Francisco and San Diego got together a bit of player trading in the Pacific Coast Baseball League today.

Seattle, needing a catcher, obtained Ray Ortelz from San Francisco and sent outfielder Al Lyons, who hit .245, and first baseman George Vico to the Seals.

First Eleven Men Chosen for Shrine West Team

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2 (AP)—Orin Babe Hollingberry, chairman of the western team selection committee for the annual Shrine east-west football classic here Dec. 27 today announced the first 11 gridders selected to play.

The list, a star studded array of football talent, was:

Quarterback Don Heinrich, University of Washington; quarterback Ed Crowder, Oklahoma; halfback Bill Vessels, Oklahoma; fullback Johnny Olszewski, California; end Ed Barker, Washington State; end Bob Blair, Texas Christian; tackle Buck Baton, College of the Pacific tackle, J. D. Kimmel, University of Houston; guard Ed Hussman, Nebraska; guard Louis Yourkowski, Washington; and linebacker Tom Catlin, Oklahoma.

Hollingberry, former Washington State coach and now business manager of the Oregon western squad, said he would announce selections to complete the 25-man squad tomorrow or Thursday.

The east team to play in the charity game at Kezar stadium was announced yesterday.

At Portland, Ore., the newspaper Oregonian said Hollingberry had sent word that Sam Baker, Oregon State college fullback, also had been selected on the west squad.

Results of the opening week of pheasant hunting in the southland ranged from fair to good, the outing bureau of the Automobile club of Southern California announced today.

Areas producing the best results were: Imperial valley, Buena Vista lake district, Lancaster, Perris and the area from Independence to Bishop.

Chuck Dressen Signed to New One-Year Contract

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 2 (AP)—Chuck Dressen signed a third one-year contract to manage the Brooklyn Dodgers today at a reported $35,000 salary as the minor leagues continued their talent search in the draft sessions.

Ever since Dressen led the Dodgers to the National League pennant last September it was assumed he would return. This makes it official.

No salary was announced by E. J. Buzzy Bavasi, Dodger vice-president, who said the 54-year-old skipper had received a "substantial increase." It was reliably reported to be about $35,000.

Bavasi said the club is looking for a first-line starting pitcher, not necessarily lefthanded, and was ready to give up frontline players for the right man.

No names were mentioned but it is known the Brooks hope to land Warren Spahn from the Boston Braves and probably would toss first baseman Gil Hodges and outfielder Carl Furillo into the deal.

Talking about the kind of pitcher he wants, Dressen laughingly said "give me a guy who can win 20 and lose eight."

While the Dodgers were signing Dressen, the complicated draft machinery of the minor leagues shifted into gear. It appeared that the selection would follow the trend of this majors yesterday who drafted the only 11 men, a low since 1945.

The Pacific Coast League, given special rating as an open classification last winter, picked only four men for $23,500 from the lower leagues. They were not permitted to select from the two Triple A Class leagues—the International and American Association.

As the Coast League teams are not allowed to make working agreements or accept players on option from big league teams next season, the light draft was somewhat of a surprise.

Los Angeles picked up two men—outfielder Richard Smith from Denver, he hit .309 at Great Falls, Mont., in Class C and pitcher Joe Stanka, who had a 7-11 record on Brooklyn's Pueblo farm in the Class A Western League.

Seattle's new general manager, Leo Miller, drafted second baseman Joe Tozzi, a .246 hitter at Brooklyn's Fort Worth farm in the Texas League and pitcher Carlos Pascual, who had a 9-5 record with Havana in Class B.

Weather Forces Bowie Track to Close up Again

BOWIE, Md., Dec. 2 (AP)—The weather closed Bowie race track again today and the nation's leading rider, Tony Despirito, promptly took off for Florida where he can keep going after the world's record for most winners in a season.

Snow and sleet forced Larry MacPhail, track president, to call off the card. The track itself was reported suitable for racing, but MacPhail, fearing to be reconditioned plant were slippery. If the weather permits, racing will resume tomorrow.

The track has been beset by bad weather. Rain and fog postponed the opening one week until Nov. 24. The 18-day meeting, the first conducted by MacPhail, now is scheduled to end Dec. 31.

Despirito made his debut at Bowie yesterday, riding one winner out of eight. That leaves him 24 short of the record of 388 first in a season set by Walter Miller in 1908 and equaled in 1950 by Willie Shoemaker and Joe Culmone.

Banquet Held to Honor Gridders

Anaheim gridders will gather in the high school cafeteria at 6:30 o'clock tonight for the annual football banquet. Varsity letters and Bee and Cee emblems will be awarded following dinner.

Varsity and Cee gridders, who won Sunset League titles, will be honored during the evening.

Fullback Jim Roberts, chosen All-Sunset League first string back, will receive a replica of the Colonist Most Valuable Player blanket which is on display in the school trophy case. Roberts was chosen for the honor by the votes of his teammates.

Guest speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Hiram "Bing" Crosby of Lakewood.

More Fight Telecasts to Start in January

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—The American Broadcasting Co. said today it will start telecasting a weekly fight over its network on Saturday night, starting Jan. 24, thus giving boxing four live shows a week over various TV networks.

An ABC spokesman said Bayuk Cigars, Inc., had closed a deal in which a newly created outfit, Famous Sports Enterprises, Inc., will supply the bouts for various areas around the country.

Famous Sports Enterprises is headed by Ray Arcel noted trainer and manager and an official of the recently organized International Boxing guild.

Under the plan, it was learned, bouts will be staged in different cities, such as Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia. The promoters in these cities will co-promote the fights with the television sponsor supplying the big part of the bankroll.

The cities in which the bouts will be staged will be "blacked out."

The new organization will be in a good position to bid against the International Boxing club and the Eastern Parkway Arena for boxing talent.

The IBC promotes Wednesday and Friday night shows which are broadcast and telecast coast to coast.

Monday night fights from Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway arena are telecast over a dozen cities by the Dumont network.

Star Honored

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 2 (AP)—Carlos Bernier, fleet-footed Hollywood outfielder, today was named the Pacific Coast League "Rookie of the Year" by the PCL Baseball Writers Association.

Bernier, now the property of the Pittsburgh Pirates, led the league with 65 stolen bases and 105 runs scored.

Quail hunters found the shooting generally good in several local areas during the first days of the season, the outing bureau of the Automobile club of Southern California said today.

Best results were achieved by nimrods hunting the following areas: Kelso valley, Jawbone canyon, Coachella valley, Blythe, Imperial valley and the areas around Hemet, Mojave, Taft and Porterville.

Northrop, Optimist and Bob Williams' Quintets Win in City League Games

Northrop cagers beat El Toro 39-37, Optimists beat Cotler's by an identical 39-37 score and Bob William's beat Ritz Cleaners 40-31 in Anaheim City league basketball games played at the high school gym last night.

Ed Ochoa was high point man of the Northrop tilt, scoring 19 points for Northrop. In a hectic game of teammate Hugh Faulkner, with 16, for scoring honors. The two men accounted for all but five of Northrop's points.

John Boden and Gordon Henry scored 10 points apiece for the losers. There were only two points separating the teams at the end of each quarter, but Northrop held that edge all the way.

Ira Webber's 12 points weren't enough to give his Cotler team a win over Anaheim Optimists. Mark Vandervoort was high man for the winners, dropping in 11 points.

Joe Bruce was the high point man for the winning Bob William's quintet, hucksting five field goals for four free throws for a total of 14. Bob Stuart, with 10, led for the opposition.

Ritz Cleaners had the dubious distinction of leading in the foul department, running up a string of 36 miscues. Bob Williams was second in this department with 11.

Northrop led in missed free throws, failing on eight of their 15 attempts.

Food and Music Features of Ike Barbecue

Food, music, magic and free gifts will be some of the things featured tomorrow night at the barbecue to be held by Anaheim chapter of Izaak Walton League at 7 o'clock in the Olive Civic center.

Ikes will be serenaded by a musical quintet headed by John Winther, during the evening and amazed by the wizardry of Magician Johnnie Fassel. Wayne Held has arranged for the talent to appear to enliven the festivities.

Two turkeys and a ham, donated by Ike members for the ladies, will be three of the door prizes drawn for during the evening. Following the dinner and entertainment Ikes and their guests will return to the local clubhouse for dancing.

Kids will be welcome at the annual family affair, and if they are under 12 years old they can get in for just $1. Tickets can be purchased from any league member.

Time Difference Not too Serious

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 2 (AP)—President Brick Laws of the Oakland Baseball club will never depend on Brooklyn Manager Chuck Dressen from now on for the time of day.

Laws arrived at the player draft meeting this morning in what he thought was plenty of time. The only trouble was that he was going on the time supplied by his old friend Dressen, and Dressen's watch was set for Pacific standard time instead of Phoenix's mountain time, an hour ahead of the coast.

It didn't matter in the draft, however. Laws intended to draft pitcher William Clune from Fort Worth, but Seattle had its chance just ahead of Oakland and closed out the Fort Worth draft call by taking infielder Joe Torpey.

Johnny Lattner Trophy Recipient

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2 (AP)—Notre Dame's two platoon halfback, John Lattner, today was named the outstanding college football player of 1953 by the Maxwell Memorial Football club.

The 6-foot-1, 190 pound ace of the upset minded Irish will receive his award Jan. 13 at the annual Maxwell club dinner.

Lattner played practically 60 minutes of every game in Notre Dame's schedule in which the Irish won seven, lost two and tied one.

Lattner is the second Notre Dame player to be honored by the Maxwell club since the award was started in 1937. The club was organized in memory of Robert Tiny Maxwell, a former football official who was killed in an automobile accident. The other Notre Dame winner was big Leon Hart, who now plays for the Detroit Lions in the National Football league.

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of motor vehicles announced suspension of the driver's license held by Moses Peralta, 12261 Ball rd., Anaheim, after receiving evidence of his recent conviction for drunken driving.

TV'ers Travel To San Pedro, Los Angeles

Ballman's TVers, one of Anaheim's best basketball teams in years, will continue their cage warfare this Thursday and Friday night against out of town opponents.

On Thursday night the TVers will journey to San Pedro to take on the port city Pepperdine team at 8 o'clock and the following night they meet Kirby shoe quintet, 16 a two point win last week.

Then on Friday, Ballman's boys will travel to Los Angeles to tackle the 2C2A basketball champs of the past three years, Pepperdine.

This game will feature some interesting switching of loyalties. Don Liebhart, one of the TV regulars, is coaching the Pepperdine casaba team this year, so, after playing for Ballman's Thursday night, he will be mentoring their opponents the next.

In addition to this bit of drama, the Wave game will bring together the two Faulkner brothers for the first time this year. Big Hugh works at the center spot for Ballman's. This should add some interesting battle between the two that will add an extra dash of excitement to the contest.

Game time for the Friday night match is 7:45 at the Pepperdine gym just west of Vermont on 72th st.

UCLA, HUSKIES WILL BE CAGE POWERS

By MOB MYERS
AP Newsfeatures

LOS ANGELES.—The Pacific Coast basketball campaign shapes up as a repeat struggle between UCLA and the University of Washington.

Coach Johnny Wooden's Uclans won the southern division title for the fourth straight year and the seventh in eight at Washington, the northern division champion, is the playoff for the league title.

Most critics pick the Bruins of UCLA to be practically as strong as last season, with California the potential challenger and both Stanford and Southern California battling for third position.

Washington, too has much the same outfit, and the biggest threats probably will come from a seasoned Idaho team and Oregon State college. Oregon and Washington State have only fair prospects.

Wooden, who has won two conference championships and is starting his fifth year at UCLA, has such returnees as Don Bragg (6-4) and Ron Livingston (5-10). Dick Bidgway (6-4), 1951 all-coast forward, is eligible again, and probably will team with Ron Drew (6-2). The center job will be split by Mike Hibler (6-7) and John Moore (6-5½).

Once again the fast breaking Bruins will emphasize defense.

Washington lost Frank Guiss through graduation, but Coach Tippy Dye has hopes that Dean Parsons will fill the vacancy. Parsons, a bit awkward as a freshman, has improved. He towers 6-8.

Dye probably will start with Mike McCutchen, Charlie Koon, guards; Joe Chesaro, tanky Bob Houbregs (6-6), all center and Doug McClarey (6-4), forward.

Dye's main problem may be reserve strength.

California followers expect the Bears to give UCLA a real race. Coach Nibs Price will field veterans at most positions, headed by Kenny Wegner are on hand to form a nucleus with Keith Farnam, Wayne Johnson and Barney Holland. The latter two will report late because of football.

DON BRAGG
6-4 UCLA Veteran

CHARLIE KOON
Washington Guard

The regulars are Capt. Ken Flower and Ed Simpson. Sophomore Hack Findley (6-4), has been a consistent scorer in practice at forward, and Roy Irvin, one of several fine looking prospects from the junior college ranks, has shown well at center. Al Luedeke (6-4) may nab a starting forward spot.

Stanford is thin on experience and short on reserves. Ron Tomsic (6-10) and Oleg Suzdaleff (5-10) are the only regulars back. Dave Epperson (6-6) center; Fritz Fenster (6-0), and Don Carlson Fenster (6-0) and Don Carlson (6-4) probably will round out the first team. Carlson, a sophomore, is expected to be Coach Bob Burnett's chief threat. He was an all-around high school star in San Francisco.

Chuck Finley, starting his sixth year at Idaho, has 10 lettermen, including the team's four top scorers.

Hartley Kruger (6-7), Dwight Morrison (6-8), Bruce McIntosh (6-5), and Hiseland Melton (6-2), are the four Kruger led with 377 points, Melton was fourth with 176. Two other lettermen who scored more than 100 points apiece, Tom Flynn and Bill Mather, also are back.

Oregon State has 10 lettermen, headed by hookshot expert Tony Vlastelica, who has starred at Aberdeen, Wash., high and later with a U.S. marine team. Jim Sugrue scholastically ineligible last year is back with Danny Johnny Johnston and Bill Toole.

Oregon lost four good players, Ron Rattler, who went into pro baseball; Bob Peterson, who neglected to take his final exams, and Mel Streeter and Ken Hunt, via graduation. Chet Nice and twins John and Rupe, each 6-3, at forward.

Bob McKeen, freshman sensation last season, who stands 6-7 and scored 291 points, should add strength at center. At guard, Price has Bob Matheny, an all-conference player in 1948-50, who has been sick the past two years, and Tom Greenleaf, who was first-string until declared ineligible.

Coach Forrest Twogood at USC says, "We won't hurt anyone, at least early in the season. We lost all but two regulars and this is a building year."

How About Parties For Teen Agers During Holidays?

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

What are you going to serve the young set during the holidays? After skating outings, pep rallies, platter parties, and just plain get-togethers, they'll want some sweet treats.

Here are two suggestions: The superb Date and Pecan Logs may be made ahead and chilled, then sliced just before serving. Holiday Doughnuts are prepared the easy way, from pancake ready-mix and flavored with grated rind. Serve them with mugs of hot spiced cider with cinnamon sticks for stirring and fun.

DATE AND PECAN LOGS

2½ cups granulated sugar
1 cup evaporated milk
1½ cups chopped dates
2 cups coarsely chopped pecans
⅓ cup maple or light corn syrup
½ cup finely chopped pecans

Mix sugar and milk in heavy saucepan. Cook over medium heat to a soft ball stage (236F.), stirring constantly. Add dates. Cook again to a soft ball stage (236F.), stirring all the while to blend the dates. Remove from heat. Stir in coarsely chopped pecans. Turn into buttered pan and spread mixture to cool. When cool enough to handle knead until creamy and stiff. Divide mixture into four parts and shape each into a roll. Pour syrup into a pie pan. Spread finely chopped pecans on a piece of waxed paper. Working with one roll in syrup to coat, then in chopped pecans to coat evenly. Wrap each roll in waxed paper or aluminum foil. Let rolls stand at room temperature for about 2 hours. Chill until ready to use, then slice. Makes 1½ pounds.

HOLIDAY DOUGHNUTS

3 cups pancake ready-mix
⅔ cup sugar
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
2 eggs (beaten)
¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening (melted)

Mix together pancake ready-mix, sugar and orange rind. Combine beaten eggs and milk and add to dry ingredients; fold in melted shortening. (If dough seems too stiff, add a little more milk.) Roll dough to ¾-inch thickness on lightly floured board; cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep hot fat (375F.) until brown. Drain on absorbent paper. If desired, fry doughnut "holes" and glaze with frosting made by combining ½ cup confectioners' sugar and 1 tablespoon orange juice.

"The Devil and Miss Appleby" tells the story of a retired school teacher who has inherited a sizeable fortune. Until this time, Miss Appleby and the Devil have had no opportunity to become acquainted, but now that she possesses money he thinks it high time to make her acquaintance.

Making use of tempting bait, he gives her a merry romp on and their meetings are wholly amusing and interesting.

For an evening's enjoyment a light but hilarious comedy, this little skit is highly recommended.

An ice cream social will follow the play and a free-will offering is to be taken, the money thus received going to the missionary fund of the guild. The public is cordially invited to attend.

TURKEY SOUP

What's left of the bird in the way of bones, bits of skin and odds and ends of dressing makes soup stock that is really delicious.

This tasty, nourishing broth can be the basis of cream of turkey soup, vegetable soup or clear bouillon made especially with noodles or rice.

To get the last bit of meat from the bird, break up the carcass so that it will fit into a large kettle. Add several stalks of celery or a handful of celery leaves, a carrot or two cut in pieces and some onion. Cover with cold water, add salt and simmer slowly for several hours. Toward the end of the cooking period, increase the flavor and nutritive value by putting in the soup pot any likely leftover edibles. By this we mean the carrot sticks or celery left over from the holiday relish plate, dabs of cooked vegetables, potato parings, the outer leaves of lettuce, turkey gravy, liquid from cooked vegetables.

Simmer together for a half hour and strain the stock through a sieve or cloth.

To make cream of turkey soup, season with poultry seasoning or a pinch each of sage and thyme. Thicken with flour and add a drop or two of yellow coloring.

Add diced raw vegetables to the clear broth and simmer until the vegetables are tender for hearty vegetable soup. Or cook rice or noodles in the stock until done.

MAILBOX

Well, it's time now to get out of the kitchen and turn our attention to important business at hand. After all, the Christmas season is nearly upon us even if there is nary a sign of snow and the sunshine is as bright and warm as ever. That's Anaheim for you—poinsettias and palms and red berries on the pyracantha bushes while less fortunate folks in the east and mid west shiver in biting winds and swirling snow.

If you need to be put in the Christmas mood, read over the message that came to your mail box with the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association's seals. Send your remittance post haste and start using the seals in the letters you write.

The early bird is catching the worm as far as Christmas shopping goes. Anaheim stores are bursting with wonderful gift assortments now—assortments that have a way of thinning out as Dec. 25 nears. It's maddening to finally make up one's mind about a gift item and then find the wanted size or color gone. Early shoppers are spared this headache.

More homemakers than ever before are shopping in Anaheim this year because parking is no problem, the merchandise (priced for every pocketbook) is displayed within walking distance of a few blocks, there are plenty of courteous clerks to give good service, and when the items have to be exchanged, that part is easy if they were purchased in Anaheim. No city sales tax tacked on to the selling price and purchases made in the home town helps everyone who lives here.

GIFT LIST

Excellent suggestions are to be found daily on the pages of the Anaheim Gazette where the advertisements are expressly written with Anaheim folks in mind. A leisurely window shopping expedition on Anaheim's main stem will reveal gift selections that are specially current and choice this year.

Once your mind is made up and your gift list is fairly complete, don comfortable shoes, clutch your pocketbook, firmly, park the children with a neighbor or friend husband, and get to that shopping. Don't forget gift wrappings, twine and wrappings for parcel post, Christmas cards, tree decorations and bright red candles to greet the season.

FIREPLACE

Before TV the fireplace used to be the center of interest in the living room. Nothing like a few chilly evenings and the coming of Christmas to help regain its lost importance. Flues need to be cleaned out to prevent chimney fires. Besides that we wouldn't want Santa to get his suit dirty, would we?

A new possibility for fireplace fuel are the simulated logs made of pressed sawdust. We hear that once you get them started, they burn a long time and throw out a lot of heat.

Orangewood and eucalyptus are prime favorites. Nothing like a bright fire, crackling merrily to make young and old at peace with the world. Peace is somehow interrupted if the fire has to be replenished too often. The slow-burning woods invited marshmallow toasters, apple roasters and those that like their hot dogs grilled on a long handled fork.

Charcoal grilling is easily done in the fireplace with the aid of a special grate to hold the charcoal. Gift suggestions for fireplace owners: charcoal grate, poker and broom set, container for logs, fireplace crystals to produce brilliant colors while the wood burns.

RIVERSIDE (AP) Dec. 2—Sentence of three to 18-years was imposed today on Patricia Hawley, 25, daughter of Ray Hawley, Banning justice of the peace, on her guilty plea of selling and furnishing marijuana.

Miss Hawley pleaded innocent to a charge of using and employing a minor in the sale of narcotics and was acquitted.

Altar Society To Make New Altar Cloths

The St. Boniface Altar society will meet at 1:30 p.m., Thursday to make new altar cloths with Mrs. M. G. Kannard in charge.

Cub Scout dens 1 and 4 are having a hot dog sale at noon Dec. 4 and will be assisted by Mmes. Vincent G. Probst and Leo F. Osdick.

The sixth grade mothers will have Mrs. H. Mack as their chairman for the first Friday breakfast that will be served after the 8 o'clock mass.

Milk money will be 45 cents for the month. Dec. 8 the Feast of the Immaculate Conception will be a school holiday. Eye examinations will be given Dec. 9, 10 and 16 and 17. Dental tests will be the 10th.

Mrs. Arnold E. Pape will sponsor a hot dog sale for Cub Scout den 6 on Dec. 11. Dec. 18 will be the PTA meeting and Christmas party starting with dessert and coffee served by the sixth grade mothers at 1:30 p.m., followed by a gift exchange. Mothers bringing pre-school tots are asked to bring a gift for them.

School closes Dec. 18 after the Christmas party in the auditorium at 1 p.m. The children will be dismissed at 2 o'clock to vacation until Jan. 5, according to Mrs. Robert L. Merrick, PTA president.

EUREKA (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for William Crone, 71, pioneer of Humboldt county and early-day sea captain.

Clothes for Leisure Have Their 'Niche'

Leisure has nothing haphazard about it these days; it's something to count on, something to plan for, as a perfectly reasonable part of today's living.

After thoroughly reviewing the clothes that manufacturers are showing for the coming resort season, the fashion editors note that there is a feeling of more in the sportswear picture for resort and cruise, and just plain staying at home, for 1962.

They find that there are more types of separates to mix into your wardrobe; much more variety in sundresses, plus variety in coverups for bare shoulders.

No, there's nothing haphazard about clothes for today's leisure. Functional, yes, but not so you notice it.

Cypress P-TA Board Plan Entertainment

The executive board of the Cypress PTA met recently to make plans for entertaining pupils in the individual rooms on Friday, Dec. 19.

It was decided that a movie would be shown in the auditorium and the Mmes. C. E. Denney, Charles Thomas, Jeff Davis, and Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, school superintendent, were appointed as a committee to make the selection.

At the close of the evening's entertainment, the Mmes. Robert Miels, James Bollinger and Ivan Mahaffie will serve refreshments.

OBLONG VIEWS

(From an Egg-Shaped Head)
By WALDO HUNTER

Good Morning!

Well, the Gazette has hurdled most of the obstacles attending an abrupt transition from evening to morning publication with no casualties excepting isolated borderline cases of neurasthenia among members of the staff.

But once we have become accustomed to the strange new routine, even these skitterish staffers will fall into the rhythm of the thing and will become used to eating breakfast at high noon, "lunch" at 5:30 p.m. and "dinner" at 10:30 p.m.

If you would like to get an idea of how this new schedule has affected us down here at the Gazette, p'cture a housewife vacuuming the front room carpet at 2:30 a.m., or getting the kids off to school at 3:30 a.m.

Night work has its compensations. . . and its shortcomings. There is satisfaction in the knowledge that you are free from the jangling of the alarm clock at 6 a.m. But on the other hand one must summon up no small amount of fortitude to tear himself away from the fireside on these chill and sometimes rainy winter evenings to creep down to work.

The night worker has sleep problems, too. He wants to sleep most just at that time of morning when the household is at its noisiest. The acuteness of one's hearing, even though he is bundled under piles of blankets and barricaded behind a closed bedroom door, seems to be multiplied a hundred-fold when he is in quest of sleep after working all night.

The normally soothing tick-tock of the old mantel clock in the living room penetrates even unto the boudoir and sounds like a 1928 Whippet in need of new connecting rods. The confusion of getting the kid ready for the school bus sounds something like a platoon of Royal Dragoons executing a sabre-charge against a battalion of thoroughly entrenched yeomen, and when the lady in the kitchen accidentally drops a tablespoon to the floor you would swear Roey were laying the keel for a minesweeper.

But, anyway, we find it fun to provide for you a morning newspaper of real value, and hope that you enjoy it to the full.

As for us miserable, carping ink-stained wretches who are wont to complain about working nights, there is one small shred of satisfaction.

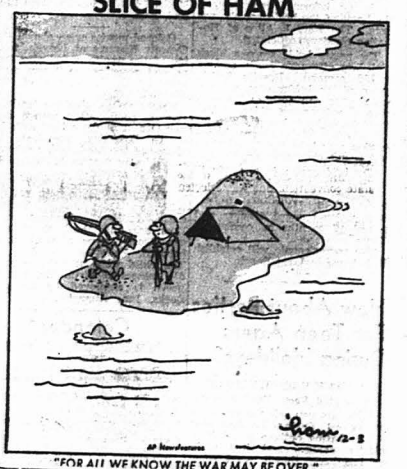

We COULD be putting out a morning paper up in Greenland, where they tell me the nights are six months long.

Local Schools Join in State Clothing Drive

Child war victims in Korea, in war devastated countries in Europe, as well as Indian children of the Navajo and Papago tribes here in America, will benefit from a State wide "Save the Children" clothing collection which is being held this week in our Anaheim city schools.

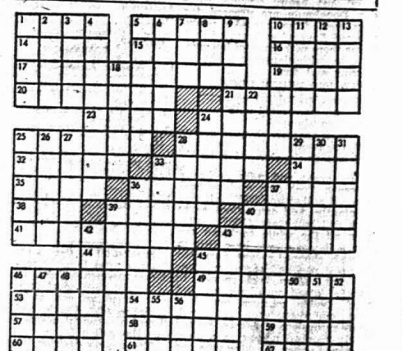

Children in all grades are being asked to bring warm, clean clothing and serviceable shoes to their schools this week. It is hoped that over a ton of serviceable clothing may be gathered for the unfortunate children of other parts of the world.

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

'Is He, or Ain't He' is Question Of County Politicos about Kuchel

By GEORGE E. HART

Political circles of the county are running in circles. They start with wondering whether Tommy Kuchel of Anaheim, the state controller, and prime favorite of Gov. Warren, will get the Earl's appointment to the U.S. senate. Then they wonder who Tommy will appoint as inheritance tax appraiser in Orange county, to fill the vacancy left by the election of Tax Appraiser Jimmy Utt to congress. Then they wonder if Tommy will appoint anyone at all as inheritance tax appraiser, if Tommy himself is appointed to the senate.

Sources reasonably close to Gov. Warren believe that his statement that he would name his senate appointee by Dec. 10, means that he will not act earlier than that. The governor is usually pretty deliberate in such matters, they say, and is likely to hold back to the last.

It may be Kuchel, or it may be Gordon X. Richmond of Orange, or it may be any one of several others, including Lieut. Gov. Goodwin Knight, so far as the wisheheimers of politics have been able to tell. The top man is being cagey, and it has them stopped if anybody else knows the coming choice, it is a close-held secret.

Tommy Kuchel reportedly doesn't know it, if he is the one to be named. He is said to have indicated that if he is appointed senator, or lieutenant governor in the event Knight is named senator, he will not make the appointment of an inheritance tax appraiser here. He feels that in such case the appointment should be left to his successor in the state controller's office, who would have to work with the appointee and who also should have opportunity to select someone who could best help him politically in keeping the controller's office. Patronage, of course, is an elemental part of practical politics. You appoint the man who can do the most good in his community.

But if Kuchel remains in the controller's office, whom will he appoint as inheritance tax appraiser? Like the governor, he is being cagey about it. Nobody hereabouts seems to have any inside information. One report is that it might be Leland Finley, Santa Ana accountant, who is a brother-in-law of the present appraiser, Congressman-elect Jimmy Utt.

There are reputedly a number of applicants because fees appurtenant to the job give it pretty good financial rating. Incidentally, there is now debate over the contention in some quarters that the job should be held by an attorney since there are sometimes legal questions involved. The opponents of that contention insist that the job calls more for the qualifications of an appraiser than for a lawyer, since it is primarily an appraising operation—the fixing of value of assets of an estate, in order to determine the inheritance tax due.

Besides, they point out correctly or not, that every estate has an attorney to handle it, and he can supply any legal advice needed.

Practical political value, however, is still the top qualification for this or any other political appointment.

Directors of Good Shepherd Home Take First Steps Toward Building

Initial planning for the actual building of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Home of the West, a home and school for backward children, was undertaken last night in the home of Paul Yorde, 9002 Loara ave., Anaheim, by the corporation's board of directors.

Fred Gerdes of Terra Bella, Calif., was appointed chairman of a building committee, with Harold Rainwater of Visalia, secretary-manager of Tulare county chamber of commerce, named his assistant.

The building committee was instructed by the board to present tentative plans at the regular bi-monthly meeting, Feb. 2 at Terra Bella. The capacity of the home was set at 100 children, initially, and is to include an infirmary, kitchen, dining room, occupational therapy room, workers quarters, school rooms, and sleeping rooms for from four to six children (dormitories will not be used). No estimate on the initial cost of the project was given.

A film showing the same type of work being done at the Watertown, Wis., Lutheran home for backward children was shown to the directors, and at the conclusion of it A. J. Schutte, president of the association, presented a $300 check for the purchase of the film. It will be used for publicity and educational purposes.

The board voted to undertake a program of recording the progress of the Good Shepherd home on colored slides and sound-motion pictures.

The entire board, including A. J. Schutte, the Rev. P. H. Pflug, Emmett Engstrom, Mrs. Cora Ulrich and Paul Yorde, all of Anaheim, and Rainwater, Mrs. Marie Mueller, Fred Gerdes, the Rev. A. F. Volmer and the Rev. M. Bitter, all of northern California, and the Rev. Victor Behnken of Orange, will act as a committee to raise funds for the building program, and its related activities.

The resignation of Mrs. Ulrich as secretary of the association was accepted and Emmett Engstrom was hired as corresponding secretary for the association. He also serves as treasurer. Mrs. Ulrich will continue as recording secretary for the board of directors.

Erwin Engebrecht of Fresno was named as a new member of the board of directors.

CTA Lobby Expects 'Windfall' to Finance Proposition 2 Program

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The powerful California Teachers association lobby has added a new wrinkle to state financing in its drive for constantly increasing sums of money for the schools.

In a letter to all members and members-elect of the state legislature, which claims in the face of statements from the governor, the state controller, department of finance and legislative auditor that proposition No. 2 can be financed without additional taxes, the teachers' lobby points out California may receive a "windfall."

The "windfall," the lobby claims is $26,000,000, not half enough to support the No. 2 program for a year, which would be returned to the state's general fund in the event of the federal government withdraws its claims to state revenue from tideland oil.

The circular letter also says "while that sum is in the nature of a windfall which cannot be expected to recur as a source of revenue, about $9,000,000 a year would be made available to the general fund as a continuing revenue through settlement of the (tidelands) dispute.

While the total income from tidelands revenue amounts roughly to $9,000,000 annually, the teachers' lobby neglects to mention that the state's general fund gets only 62 per cent or $2,700,000 of this total revenue. The state legislature set aside 70 per cent of the annual revenue from oil for the acquisition of state beaches and parks. Consequently, unless the state law is changed (and some observers indicated this may be what the lobby has in mind) the continuing revenue to the general fund from this source would amount only to $2,700,000 instead of the $9,000,000 claimed by the association.

In addition the state controller's office points out that while about $26,000,000 would be returned to the general fund that at least $12,000,000 of the sum is a repayment of appropriations made for state beach and park acquisition which have been voted since the federal government started impounding the oil revenues.

So actually the oil revenue would 'net' the general fund only $15,000,000, or 30 per cent of the fifty million impounded by the federal government pending settlement of the dispute.

State officials take a dim view of waiting a year to propose a tax increase to finance the additional amounts the people voted for the state's schools, sum which will range between $72,000,000 annually and $130,000,000.

They point out that the people voted the proposition by more than a million majority in the face of statements at the effect that a tax increase would be necessary, and that the statements were from responsible sources, rather than from a powerful lobby seeking the self-interests of its association members, the most responsible source being the governor of the state.

They point also that as long as a raise is inevitable, is is sounder financing to assess the increased tax immediately, even if the state would not become insolvent if it were put off for a year. The needs of other state functions, officials say, have grown along with the added income being received from various sources, and the annual budget has increased to astronomical figures.

Insurance Claims Climbing Upward

Kwikset Sponsors Lock Contest at NAHB Convention

Kwikset Locks, Inc., Anaheim, California, recently announced plans for a lock installation contest to be held during the NAHB Convention, Jan. 18-22, 1953, at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago.

Kwikset will offer a $1000 Defense Bond as first prize to the contestant who installs a Kwikset lock in the fastest time during the four day convention. In addition, 500 beautiful pen stands will be awarded to contestants who install a lock in record time. Everyone who enters the contest will receive a Paper Mate pen. Monticello Dam Problems Emphasize Confusion in State Water Affairs

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The recent hearings held in Sacramento by three United States Senators on problems affecting the construction of Monticello Dam on Putah Creek, served primarily to emphasize the confused state of affairs which confronts the public insofar as the water situation in this state is concerned.

The senators, directed by the committees on appropriations and insular and interior affairs to hold the hearings under a requirement of law, at least obtained first hand information on the bitter battle between Napa and Solano counties over the waters of Putah Creek. The information was given the three, Senators William F. Knowland of California, Dennis Chavez of New Mexico and Guy Gordon, of Oregon, by the parties affected, which included municipalities, farmers, engineers, and others involved in the tangled web of water rights vs. water needs, that features the Monticello controversy.

As some observers see it, the Putah Creek battle is only a prophecy insofar as the events to come in the conservation of California's rapidly becoming priceless water are concerned.

And if each unit now contemplated by engineers is held up from five to 10 years while opposing forces quarrel over water rights and need, the day will only approach more rapidly when the drying up of the state becomes factual rather than an anticipated event which won't happen anyhow in this generation, so the optimists say.

It was almost 30 years ago when some far-seeing legislators started talking about a state water conservation plan, and around 20 years ago when California adopted the Central Valleys Project. In the middle of depression, the state was unable or unwilling to finance the project, and it fell into the hands of the federal government. Now, the state contemplates buying it back from the United States.

Whether such action would result in further delays in construction work, or whether the state could step up the operation and complete the conservation project faster than the federal government remains to be seen.

But whoever has the responsibility for the actual construction of dams and distribution systems must, if the needs of the people are to be met, recognize the fact that time is running out. In other words, the need for water is far in advance of the government's (state or federal) ability to provide for such need.

This situation, which appears to be a general statement, is brought directly into focus with regard to the Monticello situation. Solano county has demonstrated the need for more water, but the long series of arguments over Monticello Dam have prevented government from proceeding to furnish a supply to the county. Arguments on both sides of the question as to whether or not to construct the dam have merit, and the unfortunate thing is that there is no way to settle the arguments quickly and amicably.

Creation of a central state water agency, while it would not magically settle all the problems, might, however, help speed up the procedures which must be followed at the present time before accomplishment in the realm of conservation can result. There has been talk for some time among legislators that such action is becoming necessary, and the Monticello hearings may heighten the desire for such an agency.

Polio Cases Hit 180 for Week

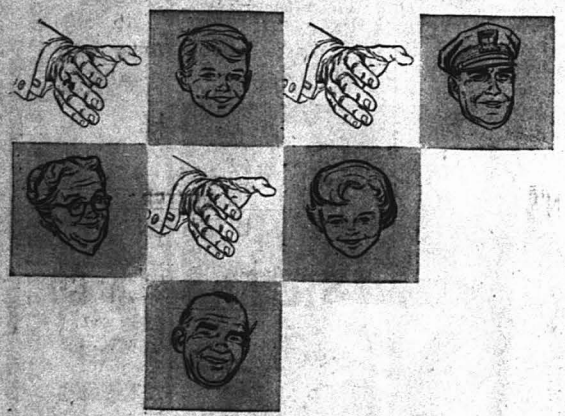

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of public health today announced it received reports of 180 cases of polio in California for the week ending Nov. 22.

Mumps swelled the list of reported communicable disease cases with 586 recorded during the week, while chicken pox of which there were 334 cases, ran second as the most common illness, the department stated.

Other diseases listed by the department were 133 cases of measles, whooping cough 57 and encephalitis 13.

"I'd like to shake your hand"

says John Wayne

I'VE ALWAYS ADMIRED the kind of people who are real, down-to-earth practical people. Like the men and women who are doing something about their own future and the future of their country—by investing in Defense Bonds. People like you!

Of course, I'm a Defense Bond buyer just as you are. And you know, we aren't the only ones who think Defense Bonds are a good buy. For right now while you read this, you and I and millions of our friends and neighbors all over America own more than 49 billion dollars worth of our country's interest-earning Bonds. The greatest success story of its kind the world has ever known!

I think we have a right to be proud of what we're doing. And it ought to make us proud to be Americans, too. For where else in the world today can you buy real security and peace of mind, and at the same time make an investment in your future and the peaceful future of your country—as you can by buying Defense Bonds?

That's the way I feel about it. And I hope you see things the same way. If you do, then why don't you do as I'm doing and tell all your friends what a good buy U. S. Defense Bonds really are.

If you will, here are just a few of the things you can tell them:

FIRST—Thanks to new Treasury regulations, every Series E Bond we buy begins earning interest after only 6 months. It earns 3% interest compounded semiannually when held to maturity. It reaches full maturity value earlier (9 years 8 months) and the interest it pays is now bigger at the start.

SECOND—Every Series E Bond we own can now go on earning interest for 10 more years after it reaches the original maturity date—without our lifting a finger!

THIRD—During the 10-year extension period, every unmatured bond earns at the new, higher interest rate (average 3% compounded semiannually). Our original $18.75 can now pay us back $33.67. $37.50 pays back $67.34. And so on.

U. S. Defense Bonds are one of the easiest, most convenient forms of saving ever invented. For through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, you can buy bonds on a time payment plan. Just specify the payments, as large or as small as you like, and they will be automatically set aside from your salary. This way you save the money before you spend it. And millions of people have found this is one sure way to save.

Peace is for the strong . . . for peace and prosperity
save with U. S. Defense Bonds!
