Korean War Topic of Shipboard Discussions

By DON WHITEHEAD

ABOARD USS HELENA EN ROUTE TO HAWAII, Tuesday, Dec. 9 (AP)—Talks reportedly centered on the Korean war problem were shrouded in secrecy today as President-elect Eisenhower, four members of his future cabinet and close advisers conferred in shirt-sleeves for the second straight day. The conference which began Monday afternoon was resumed this morning as the cruiser Helena rode through the Pacific toward Pearl Harbor at a steady 25 knots.

No communiques were being issued on the meetings. What news has developed from the top-side conference was relayed through Eisenhower's press aides.

At the president-elect's side today were four men vital in the shaping of foreign and domestic policies after he takes office Jan. 20. They were the future secretary of state, the Treasury and the interior and the attorney general.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, made clear that even the subjects discussed would not be disclosed, at this time and probably not until after the new administration takes office Jan. 20.

However, one source close to Eisenhower squelched recurring reports that the general favored enlarging the Korean War.

"Nothing is definite yet," the source said.

Today Hagerty said flatly "we will make no statement on Korea."

The Helena was due in Pearl Harbor at the end of its 3300-mile trip from Guam at 9 a.m. Thursday, 11 a.m. PST. The Eisenhower party will hold additional meetings for perhaps three days.

Then the President-elect will fly back to his Commodore Hotel headquarters in New York City.

The high level talks began in earnest only two hours after a helicopter brought secretary of state designate John Foster Dulles aboard from Wake Island Sunday.

He had flown there from the United States under security wraps.

Also joining the general's party by helicopter were:

Gov. Douglas McKay of Oregon, next secretary of the interior; George M. Humphrey, Cleveland investment banker, and secretary of the treasury-designate Gen. Lucius Clay, former head of the allied occupation in Germany, an old friend; Joseph W. Dodge, Detroit banker who may be the next budget director.

Eisenhower's defense secretary, Charles E. Wilson, accompanied by Adm. Arthur Radford, commander in chief of the Pacific Fleet, left the Helena at Wake and sped on ahead to Pearl Harbor for separate military talks. They will confer with Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff and meet the Eisenhower party again on its arrival to report on their conference.

Carbon Canyon Work not Included In Flood Control Recommendation

SACRAMENTO, (UNS) — The state water resources board today received recommendation that it ask Congress to appropriate $78,976,000 for 1953-54 flood control projects within California.

The California Flood control Conference proposed the figure, recommending that $35,588,000 be spent on projects in the southern part of the state, and $43,048,000 in the north.

Conspicuously absent from the list of proposed works was the Carbon Canyon storm run-off control, which has been on the planning boards since the early 1930's, but which has never gotten beyond that stage. Pre-World War II plans to finance the Carbon Canyon flood control program partly with federal funds were interrupted by the war and were never re-instated again.

Since last January's heavy rains and the consequent flooding in Anaheim, the city has been unable to prod either the Orange County Flood Control district to which it has contributed more than $325,000 in taxes, nor the county supervisors into taking any definite action to relieve the situation.

After analysis and consideration at its next meeting, the board is expected to announce its formal recommendations to Congress.

Project appropriations advocated by the Conference were:

Terminus Reservoir, Kaweah River, $500,000; Success Reservoir, Thule River, $1,000,000; Isabella Dam, Kern River, $5,967,000; Pine Flat, Kings River, $8,978,000; New Melones, Stanislaus River, $1,000,000; Cherry Valley Project, Tuolumne River, $2,040,000.

San Joaquin levees, $1,000,000; Merced Stream group, $546,000; New Hogan Dam, $1,000,000; Sacramento River Project, $5,000,000; Folsom Dam, American River, $15,000,000; Sacramento River and tributaries, $3,500,000; Black Butte Dam, Sacramento River, $500,000; Coyote Creek Project, $368,000.

The Pine Flat and Isabella appropriations would complete those projects, it was noted.

Police Evacuate Europeans as Rioting Verges on Open Revolt in Casablanca

CASABLANCA, Morocco, Dec. 8 (AP)—Morocco's bloody two-day nationalist-led riots that have brought death to more than 50 persons verged on open armed rebellion tonight.

Police evacuated French citizens from one sector of Casablanca and planes circled Arab quarters dropping tear gas bombs to disperse mobs shouting for independence from France.

Troops and police laid siege to more than 2000 Moroccan union members barricaded in the downtown headquarters of the Moroccan General Labor Confederation (CGT). The riots erupted yesterday after a 24-hour general strike call by the union.

The call resulted from the unexplained assassination of Tunisian nationalist Farhat Hached, secretary-general of the Tunisian Labor Federation. He was slain Friday outside Tunis.

Police and troops in armored cars and light tanks patrolled key spots in Casablanca tonight. Other tanks helped to block off the 2000 union members in the CGT building.

Police began moving French and other European residents from danger zones. They were taken to a central point where arrangements were made for billeting them with French families in safer neighborhoods.

The encircled union members bombarded police lines with bricks torn from the walls of their building. As nightfall troops had apparently prevented the union demonstration from spilling over into other European quarters of the city.

Authorities said today's death toll included seven Europeans, three Moroccan soldiers and at least 40 Arab demonstrators. An undetermined number of Arabs were injured. Three Europeans were reported seriously injured.

One European victim, Louis Ribes, former mayor of Agadir, was dragged from his automobile and stoned to death by members of a mob of 6000 attempting to storm the French sector.

Earlier, an angry mob seized two Frenchmen in a disused stone quarry on the edge of Casablanca and cut off their arms and hands. A third Frenchman was stoned to death. All three bodies were put to the torch and burned beyond recognition.

Violence here and in neighboring Tunis came as the United Nations discussed the Tunisian question — under protest from the French government. In Paris tonight, small cabinet group including French Foreign Minister Vincent Auriol. France maintains that the uprisings in her North African protectorates are internal problems which she alone will handle.

After the three Frenchmen were killed and their bodies burned, the mob, then numbering about 600, began a frenzied march on the police station. Their numbers swelled to 5000 as they pushed on. Police opened fire and killed 20.

Later a crowd of more than 6000 Arabs carrying Moroccan independence flags and clubs began marching on the European section of the city. When police tried to turn them back, the demonstrators hurled stones. Police replied with gunfire, killing 18.

The French army divisional command at Casablanca took over control of security measures. A curfew from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. was clamped down and a gathering of more than 10 persons in one place was forbidden. French authorities banned two daily newspapers and two weeklies published by the pro-independence party.

County Accidents Hurt only Four

Only four traffic injuries were reported by the California highway patrol over the weekend in Orange county, no one being seriously hurt.

Mrs. Thelma Davenport, 37, Arlington, suffered minor injuries at Orangethorpe and Euclid ave., north of Anaheim Sunday, at 5:20 p.m. when a car driven by her husband, Harold V. Davenport, 40, collided with a car driven by Norman Lombard, 61, of Fullerton.

Injured in other accidents were Robert C. Lemke, 36, Hermosa Beach; Natividad Garcia, 25, Garden Grove, and Emma Louise Frederick, 37, of Tustin.

Emma Louise Frederick, 37, of 326 D st., Tustin, employed at Ruby's cafe inn, Tustin, received cuts and bruises when her car collided with a hit-run car at First and Sullivan streets, Santa Ana, Sunday at 10 p.m. The driver of the other car, which reportedly ran through a boulevard stop sign, was not learned. The Frederick car went out of control after the crash and struck a culvert.

Sheriff's Officers Search for Man Who Picked up Garden Grove Girl

Search by the sheriff's office for a stranger in a maroon-colored sedan who picked up a 6-year-old Garden Grove school girl at a Berrydale ave. school bus stop Friday and kept her in his car for nearly an hour and a half before releasing her, was pressed today but with admittedly small chance to locate the man.

Officers announced that a medical examination showed that the child had probably been mistreated but not sexually attacked.

She could give officers only a vague description of the stranger, that he was tall and dark haired, and could tell but little more about the car. She also was confused as to the location of the "pond in the hills" where she said she had been taken before being finally let out of the car at Santa Ana college campus.

Officers took the child and her parents on a hour drive to all bodies of water in the county, but she could not identify any of them.

License numbers of automobiles reported by telephone to the sheriff's office from various citizens are being traced. Deputy Sheriff Russell Campbell of the sheriff's juvenile bureau, said that investigation also is being made into the possibility that the man had some knowledge of the school bus service.

He had told the little girl that the school bus would not be running that morning so he would take her to school. Actually the bus had a breakdown and was delayed.

Polio Patients Owe Lives to RC Blood Bank

Three polio patients, critically ill in the Orange county hospital owe their lives to speedy delivery of blood plasma from the Red Cross regional supply center in Los Angeles Sunday evening, Dr. Edward Lee Russell, county health officer announced.

Within an hour after the call was sent forth for the blood plasma it was delivered at the hospital, he said. Los Angeles county deputy sheriffs brought the plasma to the Norwalk substation where Orange county deputy sheriffs picked it up and rushed it to the hospital.

It was administered immediately to Mrs. Florence Buchheim, young Santa Ana housewife, most critically ill of the three patients. She was admitted to the hospital last Friday with a severe bulbar type case, and is in a respirator.

Also receiving the blood plasma were Sheryl Smith, 6, daughter of Chaplain Rex Smith at El Toro marine base, who also has bulbar type case, and David Posze, 5, of Santa Ana, who suffered a spinal involvement.

Gazette Observes 2nd Thanksgiving

However, we received so many complimentary calls on the FIRST SUNDAY EDITION of the MORNING GAZETTE that we have to take the space to say, "This is our second Thanksgiving Day."

It was not all good, since we had five calls from people who didn't receive their paper—to these folks we apologize. We did send them their paper as soon as we found out they had not received it.

It's rugged on the carrier boys, getting up at 4 a.m. to deliver the paper before 6:30 a.m., but they have competition: we saw one cute little dog that got up as early as the carrier, took the paper from the home to which it was delivered and brought it home in time for coffee or whatever a dog has with his morning paper.

Woman 'Bookie' Arrested in SA

Because she drove her car through a red traffic signal and thereby attracted the attention of a police patrol car, Helen Norma Kalsey, 32, of 903 W. Bishop st., Santa Ana was, revealed as a woman "bookie" and today was in the county jail facing such a charge.

Following her arrest she admitted that she had been making books on the races in Santa Ana during the last year, taking bets in the 400 block of West Fourth st., or over her telephone at home. Booked at the jail, she listed her occupation as "book making."

Police officers stopped her after she had driven her car through the red flash signal at Fourth and Flower sts., at 2:20 a.m. Sunday. In her car they found a cigar box containing paraphernalia for book making including a $50 federal book making tax stamp.

New Terror Hits Czech Leaders

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Dec. 8. (AP)—Belgrade radio reported today "a new wave of arrests in Czechoslovakia" and said five top Communist leaders were among those being purged on order from Moscow.

The radio quoted the official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug as the source of its report but gave no indication how the information was received. There was no direct word from Prague, the Czech capital.

The purge list, as broadcast, included such noted figures as Gen. Ludwig Svoboo, former minister of defense; Stanislav Gregor, former minister of foreign trade; Eugene Erban, minister of labor and social security; Augustin Kliment, minister heavy machinery, and Vladimir Koprivs, former minister of national security.

The shadow of a new purge has hovered over Czechoslovakia since the recent big Prague trial in which Rudolf Slansky, former boss of the Czech Communist party, was condemned to hang with 10 others. The executions were carried out last week. Three others, also convicted as traitors to Stalinism, received life sentences.

Vienna reports said at least three of the six former ministers listed by Belgrade radio have been out of office and possibly under arrest for more than a year.

ENID, Okla., Dec. 4. (AP)—Rollin D. Drew of Oklahoma City pressed so hurriedly on his brake while approaching an changing traffic light today that he broke his leg.

Tax Deadline Is Wednesday

Deadline for payment of the first installment of 1952-53 county taxes falls at 5 p.m. Wednesday, County Tax Collector Don Mozley reminded taxpayers today.

Under a new ruling, payments made by mail must bear a postmark not later than 5 p.m. Dec. 10 in order for the payment to avoid delinquency penalty, Mozley said. The county counsel's office has so ruled.

Previously, mail bearing a postmark up to the deadline date were accepted.

Northern California Dries Out after Big Storm

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8. (AP)—Northern California life returned to normal today after a weekend pasting from a storm that snowed in motorists and farmers, halted trains and flooded lowlands.

Train service to Oregon was restored to normal after being halted 24 hours by a blizzard. Highways over the Sierra Nevada and the Siskiyous were reopened. Minor floods receded as rivers dropped. Basements dried out and utilities crews worked to restore storm smarled power and communications hookups.

Scattered showers of rain and snow fell today.

The weather bureau said there'd be more rain and snow tomorrow as the southern fringe of another North Pacific storm brushes across the state. But the forecaster indicated the new storm will be much less severe than the one Saturday and Sunday.

There were at least eight storm-caused deaths in California. Five perished when trees fell on their homes, a fisherman was lost on wind-whipped Humboldt bay, a lineman was electrocuted repairing a storm downed cable and a pedestrian was struck by a rain-blinded motorists.

The California highway department reported all major highways open, but with chains required and truck traffic restricted in some mountain areas.

Chains were necessary over stretches of U. S. highways 40, 50, 97, 99 and 395 and on state routes 36, 41 and 140. U. S. 101 and 199 to Oregon were open and clear.

There was 74 inches of roadside snow at Donner summit on U. S. 40, 54 inches at Echo summit on U. S. 50 and 66 inches at Soda Springs.

The Russian river continued to fall today after spilling over near Guernyville and Healdsburg. The Eel river dropped five feet today and was well below flood stage after inundating farmland in the Coyote valley and near Eureka.

Rescuers Reach C-124 Wreckage

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 8. (AP)—Four members of a ground party toiling up lofty Mt. Gannett radioed today they had reached the wreckage of a C-124 Globemaster which crashed at the 8,000 foot level Nov. 22, killing 52 military men aboard.

The Alaska air command, which reported receipt of word from the four climbers, said no other details were available because of communications difficulties.

The 12-man trail crew reached the base of the 9100 foot mountain, 60 miles east of here, nine days ago but has been hampered by bad weather and dangerous terrain in their ascent.

The C-124, largest U. S. military plane in service, struck Mt. Gannet near the end of a flight to Anchorage from McChord air force base, Washington.

Costa Mesa Baby Strangles in Bed Clothes

Strangling to death in his crib early Monday morning, Frank Schorle, six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schorle, 787 W. 19th st., Costa Mesa, was found by his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Schole, at 7:30 a.m.

The baby's body was in a sitting position on the floor, with his head caught between the mattress and lower bar of the side railing on his crib, which had worked loose. He apparently had slipped down between the opening between the mattres and crib railing.

His older sister, Nancy, 2½, who slept in a crib in the same room, had awakened and noticed that the baby was asleep at 6:50 a.m., 25 minutes before the mother found the child's body.

The body is at the Grauel mortuary, with an autopsy scheduled by the coroner's office to confirm the cause of death.

The Schorles have four other children.

Alamitos Names New School Head

Employment of Lewis Zeyen of Temple City as new superintendent of Alamitos school, succeeding Harold Boos, who recently resigned with a blast at two members of the school board, was expected to set off new fireworks in the school row that has culminated in an election Dec. 17 to recall Chairman Chester Lanier and Trustee Howard R. King.

The faction supporting Boos has demanded his re-employment, but Lanier has issued a statement declaring Boos was inacceptable and could not work with the school board.

Boos, when resigning, had declared that Lanier and King were not qualified for their board positions. The recall petition filed against them made similar charges.

Wisconsin Governor Says U.S. Road System Depleted by $1 Billion Loss

PHOENIX, Ariz. Dec. 8 (AP)—America's multi-billion dollar road system is being depleted by a loss of $1,260,000,000 in motor vehicles taxes that are not used for building highways, it was reported here today.

Gov. Walter J. Kohler of Wisconsin, addressing the Western Governors' Conference, said the federal government in the 1950-51 fiscal year returned to the states only $400,000,000 of the $1,660,000,000 it took from the motoring public.

His remarks were the high point of a panel discussion on the thorny issue of obtaining financing for needed roads.

Earlier in the day, the 10 governors attending the two-day meeting heard Reclamation Commissioner Michael Straus report that the 83rd Congress would receive a $2,100,000,000 blueprint for building reclamation projects during the next seven years. And they participated in a free-for-all verbal battle over federal vs state control of reclamation projects.

Kohler called on the federal government to abandon five fields of taxation he said rightfully belong to the state.

These are taxes on gasoline, distilled spirits, malted beverages, cigarettes and motor vehicle equipment.

Gov. Arthur Lanelle of Washington said that if the federal government didn't get out of some of the tax deals soon, states would have to go out of business.

"Thirty-five cents of every dollar is taken by taxes now and the federal government is getting three-fourths of that," he asserted.

Gov. Earl Warren of California pointed out that if the government did step out of the five fields of taxation, the problem of states entering these fields would still exist. State laws would have to be passed and some industries might fight against re-imposition of such taxes, he said.

"Would we get better highways?" he asked.

Santa Ana's Donn Moomaw Tabbed Lineman of Year

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Don Moomaw, a guy with double letters in his name who deals out double damage with his tackling, was the outstanding lineman in college football during the 1952 season, in the opinion of the nation's sports writers and broadcasters.

Moomaw, the all-America linebacker from UCLA and nearby Santa Ana, was chosen in the annual Associated Press post-season balloting over 35 rivals from every section of the country.

In a season during which defensive play was stressed by most of the major teams and linebackers received special attention, Moomaw was a standout in his department. He's a huge hunk of man, six feet four inches tall and weighing 222 pounds, and moves up to tackle runners with agility as well as force.

Moomaw's line backing was one big reason why only eight touchdowns were scored against UCLA in nine games during the 1952 season. And in spite of his fearsome reputation as a tackler, he never has been charged with undue roughness. He just doesn't let anyone get by.

Still Moomaw barely managed to beat out another big, rugged character, center Tom Catlin of Oklahoma in the balloting. Moomaw received 31 votes to Catlin's 23. Another linebacker, Dick Tamburo of Michigan State, was third with 16 votes.

Moomaw received a strong vote from the Pacific coast writers and broadcasters while those in the southwest section could see anyone but Catlin in the outstanding lineman. But the battle wasn't fought on sectional lines. Both the top stars had the opportunity to show off their ability on nationwide television in games that aroused keen interest. As a result, both received votes from every part of the country.

Mystery Results From Charges of Rough Playing

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 8 (AP)—The biggest mystery at the Pacific Coast Conference meeting tonight concerned charges of the rough-ness of Southern California football games.

There were reports that Stanford brought the pictures here to be shown, presumably to the conference coaches. Stanford officials denied such a thing, however, and conference officials said it was news to them.

Stanford Coach Chuck Taylor denied one report that he had accused USC of rough playing, but he did say that there might be a question involved of officiating the game.

Frank McCormick, supervisor of PCC officials, said this was news to him, too, and that no one had questioned the officiating as far as he knew.

H. P. Everest of Washington, conference spokesman, promised to look into the matter on the urging of sports writers. Last year Everest brought movies to the conference meeting of the USC-Washington game, but only to demonstrate the need of a fifth official, he said.

The fifth official was added this year.

Badger Official Finds Rose Bowl Setup 'Ideal'

PASADENA, Dec. 8. (AP)—The University of Wisconsin's business manager, William Aspinwall, took an official look at the Rose bowl site today and pronounced it ideal.

Aspinwall was here to arrange for the invasion of the Badger forces for the New Year's day football game, the Big Ten co-champion team, the 55-piece school band and thousands of rooters from the midwest.

His visit was coincidental with the annual meeting here of the Pacific coast conference which concerned itself with numerous intercollegiate matters including the Rose bowl game.

Conference spokesman H. P. Everest of Washington said the faculty representatives discussed Rose bowl game details. But he said he doubted if anything of a concrete nature would be decided at this meeting about renewal of the conference contract with the Tournament of Roses association.

The conference has until March 15, 1954, to notify the Rose committee about renewing the contract. Operational details of the coming post season game were discussed by the conference bowl committee, headed by the host school's athletic director, Willis O. Hunter of Southern California, and Bill Nicholas and Lathrop K. Leishman of the tournament organization.

Everest did not say so, but it could be presumed that the conference might adopt some official policy on bowl games to be presented at the NCAA convention in Washington, D. C. in January.

Aspinwall, meanwhile, inspected the bowl itself, Brookside park, where the Wisconsin team will train after its arrival Dec. 17 and nearby Occidental college where the band will be quartered.

"I am very gratified with everything. It is ideal," Aspinwall said. Asked if he thought Coach Ivy Williamson would let the same way, he added in agreement.

"He's easy to please," Aspinwall added.

Wisconsin's team will stay at the Huntington hotel where the conference is in session. Aspinwall booked a flight back to Madison tonight.

Earlier today the faculty fathers of the PCC showed leniency in the cases of six out of nine athletes who had pleaded for relief from eligibility rules.

Action for Carter

OAKLAND, Dec. 8 (AP)—Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter swings back into action after a several months' layoff when he meets Charlie "Whitewater" Oakland here tomorrow night in a 10-round non-title fight. It will not be televised.

It will be Carter's first bout since he won back the title from Lauro Salas in Chicago. He will go into the ring a strong favorite to whip Whitewater. The latter is a powerful hitter with either hand and has won his last five matches. Whitewater's record also includes a win over champion Salas.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 (AP)—The navy escort carrier Windham Bay, doubling as a troopship, is scheduled to arrive tomorrow with 319 servicemen from the far east.

Old Pro Himself, Sammy Baugh, is Finally Retiring

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Sammy Baugh, possibly the greatest passer in football history, announced today he will retire after one more game.

Baugh will play against the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday, and then quit after 23 incredible years as a player. This is his 16th year in the National Football league. That's longer than any other player ever lasted.

The announcement concerned only Baugh the player. Baugh also is an assistant coach. It wasn't clear whether Baugh would return to help coach next year or whether he would stay on his ranch near Rotan, Tex.

As a pro, Baugh has gained more than 23,000 yards with his passes. That's more than 12 miles. He has thrown the most passes, led the league the most times, completed the most passes, gained the most yards, thrown the most touchdown passes and had the highest percentage of completions of any pro football player.

Twice he has thrown six touchdown passes in a game. Against the New York Yanks in 1945, his passes picked up 446 yards.

On six different occasions, in 1937, 1940, 1943, 1945, 1947 and 1949, the official statistics made him the league's top passer. For variety, he also has been the league's top punter and its leading pass intercepter.

Big Ten Officials Give Coach 'Deep Freeze' Treatment

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (AP)—In a disciplinary move disclosed today, the Big Ten has placed Iowa basketball coach Bucky O'Connor in a deep freeze by preventing him contact of any kind with prospective athletes for seven months.

K. L. Wilson, Big Ten commissioner, said that O'Connor violated conference recruiting principles last April 2 when he attended a private luncheon in a Quincy, Ill., restaurant and talked with Bruce Brothers about the possibility of enrolling at Iowa.

Afterwards, Wilson said, O'Connor visited the boy's parents. Brothers, a 6-5 center, won all-star honors as a prep at Quincy, Ill., and now is starring with the freshman basketball team at the University of Illinois.

Wilson disclosed that similar disciplinary action has been taken against another Big Ten coach. The coach will not be identified unless his school makes the announcement such as Iowa did today on O'Connor.

PE Slates Snow Train Service

Connecting service with special weekend roundtrip excursions to Snow valley is being provided by Pacific Electric railway Co. during the snow season.

Service to the San Bernardino mountain ski center began last weekend and will be operated Saturdays and Sundays until further notice.

Patrons leaving PE main st. station in Los Angeles at 7:50 a. m. transfer to Western Trail stages at San Bernardino PE station and arrive Snow valley at 11:15 a.m. Return trip leaves Snow valley at 4 p.m.

TO SACRAMENTO — Ray Dandridge (above), third baseman of the Minneapolis club of the American Association, has been purchased by Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League.

Weary Ballman's Five Nipped by Hawks, 70-64

Ballman's TVers wound up their weekend of basketball with another close decision. Again it was the TV'ers on the wrong end of the score.

The MCAF "Hawks" outran the tired TV'ers to come from behind and win 70-64.

Although they dropped three games, the TV'ers had a successful weekend. Their high-powered opposition, which included the AAU San Pedro Dolphins (74-71), Pepperdine college (72-70) and Saturday night's strong Air Force five (70-64), are all teams which practice everyday and are perfectly conditioned. The TV'ers do only one thing—"play." This week they played too often. Minus two of their stars—center Hugh Faulkner and Don Liebhart, the TV'ers were handicapped against the experienced fives. Faulkner sprained an ankle against San Pedro Thursday and missed both of the other games. Don Liebhart spent the weekend scouting the University of Hawaii against SC.

The TV'ers return to their league wars as they meet the Midway City five in a county league encounter Thursday at 8:15 at AUHS gym.

Bethel Baptist Wins Lopsided Cage Game, 42-11

Two high individual scores and one low team score were features of Church league basketball games played at the high school gym last night.

The Nazarene squad trimmed the Grace Lutheran 41-28. Church of Christ dropped Zion Lutheran 38-27, and First Baptist defeated Bethel Baptist by the lopsided score of 42-11.

Harold Bassett of the Nazarene quintet took high score honors for the night with 23 points; he was closely followed by Verne Granere of Church of Christ who racked up 22. Bassett scored his 23 on eight field goals and seven free throws, while Granere made all his tallies from the floor.

The Nazarene quintet missed 12 chances at the free throw line to lead in that department for the night. Bethel Baptist committed the most fouls of the evening with a total of 12.

Collins Decisions Salas in Boston

BOSTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Hard-hitting featherweight Tommy Collins of Boston bounced back from two first round knockdowns tonight to bang out an unanimous 10 round decision over ex-lightweight boxing champion Lauro Salas of Monterey, Mex., before a sellout Boston Garden throng of 13,909.

Salas weighed 131 to Collins' 128.

The tough little Mexican dumped Collins with a first round left hook and then—after Collins took the mandatory eight count on one knee—unleased a savage two fisted assault that left Collins helpless on the floor, only to be saved by the bell as the count reached seven.

The Boston battler was dragged to his corner by his handlers, but was strong enough to slug through on even terms in the second session and then begin a terrific comeback that gave him the fight by a large margin.

Colonist Cagers Meet Garden Grovers This Afternoon on Grove Hardwood

Tourney to Pit Artists-Anaheim

Anaheim high's roundball squad will face what well may be its toughest opponent in the first round of the 14th annual Huntington Beach tournament next week, pairings reveal.

Little Laguna Beach, the terrors of the "big" high school league this season despite their size, bump again into the Colonists in a rematch of last week's 47-45 Anaheim win. The remeeting will come in the opening game of the lower bracket pairings. The Artist-Colonist tilt is set for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

The potent Artists, undefeated in three games until Anaheim nudged them, had previously dropped two Sunset league squads, trouncing Newport 55-31 and Santa Ana, 51-37. Artist fans, furthermore, indicate that the Anaheimers "ain't seen nothing yet." At least six regular Laguna cagemen, including several talented, in pre-season dope as top players, had not even suited up yet when the Colonist defeated them. They were still footballing with Brawley in the CIF small schools playoffs.

Upper Bracket (Monday)

3 p.m.—Santa Ana vs Downey.
4 p.m.—Orange vs Garden Grove.
7 p.m.—Newport Beach vs Bellflower.
8 p.m.—Huntington Beach vs. Puente.

Lower Bracket (Tuesday)

3 p.m.—Anaheim vs Laguna.
4 p.m.—Excelsior vs Valencia.
7 p.m.—Garden Grove vs Tustin.
8 p.m.—Fullerton vs Capistrano.

Bad Back Forces Cancellation of Heavyweight Bout

LONDON, Dec. 8. (AP)—Jack Hurley, usually a happy, gabby, fight manager, sat dejectedly in his hotel room tonight talking about the ailing back of his heavyweight Harry Kid Matthews and "the loss of one of the biggest purses ever offered us."

Matthews had been cancelled his Wednesday fight with British heavyweight champion Johnny Williams when a five-day-old injury to his lower back failed to heal.

"Why, the boy hardly could get off a punch," Hurley said in describing a short, unsuccessful, unhappy workout Matthews took to determine if he was fit to meet Williams. Matthews' ailment was called a pulled muscle.

Jack Solomons, London fight promoter, watched Matthews for a moment during the workout and called the Seattle, Wash., heavy out of the ring.

"Come out Harry," Solomons said, "there's no point in killing yourself."

After announcing Matthews could not fight, Solomon said he would substitute Werner Wiegand, champion of Luxembourg, in the card at Harringay arena.

Rapp to Padres

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP) — The Washington Senators today announced the sale of outfielder Earl Rapp to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League.

Rapp, 31 years old, was obtained by the Senators on June 10 from the St. Louis Browns. A utility outfielder, Rapp ended the 1952 season with a .224 batting average.

U.S. Davis Cup Captain Upsets Frank Sedgman

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 8 (AP)—Vic Seixas, the American Davis Cup captain, handed Frank Sedgman and the confidence of Australian tennis fans a severe jolt today by defeating the Australian ace, 8-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, to win the Victorian singles championship.

Seixas' triumph came three weeks before the Davis Cup challenge round, which will be played at Adelaide, Dec. 29, 30, 31, and convinced the spectators that Australia's "sure thing" no longer is sure.

Before today's final began at Kooyong, there were plenty of admirers around the courts prepared to lay 3 to 1 on Sedgman's winning his third successive Victorian title. Now they're not so certain that Australia can be sure of two matches in the Davis Cup final—Sedgman's two singles.

As soon as the match was over Seixas and Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., prepared to leave by plane for Sydney, where they were to join teammates Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and Straight Clark of Pasadena, and begin serious preparation for the cup matches.

The Americans are scheduled to play either Italy or India in the interzone final at Sydney, Dec. 18, 19, 20. Trabert and Clark arrived there Saturday and American Davis Cup Manager Alric Man went to meet them, missing today's final.

Richardson and Maureen Connolly of San Diego, defaulted their mixed doubles and semi-final at match point in order that Ham's departure would not be delayed! They were leading Don Candy and Mrs. Mary Hawthon, 6-4, 6-5, 40-30, with Maureen serving, when they defaulted.

Earlier today Miss Connolly became the third American to win the Victorian women's singles title, beating Julie Sampson of San Marino, Calif., 6-2, 6-3, on courts that still were slippery from three days of rain. Previous American winners were Dorothy Bundy in 1937 and Doris Hart in 1948.

Locals Seeking Fifth Straight

Anaheim's Colonist cage squad, one of the two Sunset League teams still boasting an undefeated record go in search of their fifth straight win this afternoon as they tangle with Garden Grove on the Grove hardwood.

The front-running Anaheim high team, who so far share an unmarred record with the defending league champs from Huntington Beach, will probably not yet be at full strength with Gayle Herbel still nursing a banged up knee and George Blahop a sore hip. Navarro and Roberts will probably round out starting quintet with Philpott, Ames, and Moody, Coach Bill Hunstock has indicated.

Anaheim's undefeated Bee team, clean victors in five earlier games, tackle the Grove squad in a 3 p.m. preliminary. The Cee and Dee squads of both teams clash on the Anaheim high floor at the same time—the mighty midget Dees defending a three win-no loss record.

Won't be Traded

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (AP)—Jackie Robinson and Gil Hodges won't be traded or sold, said Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley as he arrived today by plane from the winter baseball meetings in Phoenix.

"Any talk of their being traded is ridiculous," said the Dodger boss.

He said the Dodgers had hoped to get a good pitcher at the meetings "but not a single deal was worth while for Brooklyn."

The names of second baseman Robinson and first baseman Hodges were prominent in the rumors passed around at the baseball meetings.

Illinois Choice to Repeat as Big Ten Basketball Champ

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
AP Newsfeatures

CHICAGO — Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota selections of coaches to be picked winners of the Big Ten basketball title grind through an expanded 18 game schedule.

Illinois has lost only two of its first 10 men on last season's championship outfit and is a unanimous choice to repeat for the crown.

Indiana and Minnesota are ranked the closest contenders, and Northwestern possibly the No. 1 darkhorse.

With the addition of four more conference games, each team will get two cracks at each other on a home and home basis. Coaches agree that this will make the race more wide open and provide a "true champion."

16-4 Could Win Title

"The 18 game schedule definitely could be a levelling factor," says coach Harry Combes of Illinois. "Most teams go in streaks and the addition of four more league games, two of which must be on the road, might wreck the chances of any club. No team is likely to go unbeaten and a record of 14-4 could be good enough for the title."

Coach Bud Foster of Wisconsin agrees with Combes.

"The new schedule enables us to get away from top teams playing each other only once and getting the best breaks in arranging home games," says Foster. "We probably will have our first hom-e to break into an otherwise vetera-n starting five. The newcomer is Ed Makovsky, 6-5 guard from Cicero, a Chicago suburb. He will team with Capt. John Breckar, 6-10 senior, on the back line.

At center is John Kerr, 6-10 junior. Two seniors are at forward slots, Clive Follmer, 6-4, and Irv Bemorus, 6-3½.

Two Are Sophomores

So packed is Illinois with seasoned talent, only two sophomores are listed among seven reserves. They are Jim Dutcher, 6-3 forward from Downers Grove, Ill., and Elmer Plew, 6-0 guard, Paris, Ill.

Minnesota is geared by Ed Kalafat, junior center from Anaconda, Mont., and Chuck Mencel, sophomore guard from Eau Claire, Wis. They averaged 14.8 and 13.7 points, respectively, to top the Gophers scoring season.

Two 1951-52 reserves, Chuck Bennett and Earl Johnson, are teamed at guard with sharpshooter Mencel. Capt. Bob Gelle is a senior forward who has overcome a foot ailment and is assisted at that spot by Dave Weiss and Glenn Reed, both lettermen.

Getting first class replacements for guard Jerry Mitchell and forward Dick Means is Coach Ozzie Cowles main problem. He figures he will have a strong rugged rebounding team but will be at a great disadvantage in height. Kalafat and his center substitute, John Fallerius are the tallest at 6-6½.

Two of the loftiest players in the Big Ten are at Indiana. Center Don Schlundt is 6-9 and his understudy, Lou Scott, is 6-10. Loss of Bob Masters by graduation and play maker Sammy Esposito, who signed a baseball contract with the Chicago White Sox, leaves gaps at guard to be filled.

Bob Leonard, a pot shot artist, will take Masters' place and sophomore Burke Scott probably will get first call at Esposito's old spot.

Of seven lettermen returning to the Hoosiers, only Leonard, forward Dick Farley and Schlundt were considered regulars last season. Chuck Kraak, 6-5 speedster, is ticketed to pair with Farley.

The towering Schlundt is only 19 and a sophomore. As a freshman he smashed nearly every Indiana scoring record with a 17.1 average and was the fourth highest scorer in the Big Ten.

The other teams shape up this way:

NORTHWESTERN — Waldo Fisher, one of Northwestern's all-time athletic greats, moves up from assistant to head coach, succeeding Harold Olsen who resigned because of ill health. The Wildcats will open their new fieldhouse with a veteran squad of nine lettermen topped by Frank Petrancek, 6-8 center, who pumped great disadvantage in height. Kalafat and his center substitute, John Fallerius are the tallest at 6-6½.

WISCONSIN—Lost all-conference guard Ab Nicholas but has a veteran starting lineup of forwards Tony Stracka and Dick Cable; center Paul Morrow, and guards Chuck Siefert, and Bonnie Wiesner.

OHIO STATE—Seven lettermen back but no height. Led by Paul Ebert who poured in 443 points in 22 games for second best in the Big Ten. Tom Williams hubs the defense.

MICHIGAN STATE—Two sophomores probably will be starters, Bob Armstrong, 6-7 center from Holland, Mich., and Al Ferrari, 6-3, guard from New York. The player to watch will be Hickey Ayala, 5-6 junior from Brooklyn who is a circus type ball handler.

MICHIGAN — Bill Perigo of western Michigan has taken over as head coach, succeeding Ernie McCoy. He will overhaul the attack from a deliberate style to the fast break and junk most of McCoy's lineup. Milt Mead, 6-7 junior, is being shifted from center to forward to pair up with sophomores John Codwell, 6-3, from Houston, and Paul Groffskey, Maplewood, N. J. Groffskey is rated a top prospect.

IOWA—Lost more starters than any team in the league, including all-America Chuck Darling. Two choice prospects, Bill Steger of Davenport and Harlan Fritz of Fremont, Ill., are out of school. Deacon Davis, Herb Thompson, Chuck Jarnagin and Kenny Buckles form a nucleus of four major letter winners.

Assistance League Christmas Tea Set For Thursday

The Anaheim Assistance league will give its annual Christmas tea Thursday, Dec. 11. Mrs. John Wilson will be the hostess in her lovely home at 721 No. Helena st.

This is definitely a highlight and one of the most outstanding events of the entire year for the Assistance league, inasmuch as it is given in honor of all the sustaining members.

Mrs. John Larson is chairman for the tea, and she will be assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. William Stehly.

Church Group Presents Pageant

The Women's Missionary society of Bethel Baptist church held a joint meeting of all circles, with circle four in charge of the Christmas program and Mrs. Fred Pieper as chairman.

Mrs. Berthold Jacksteit, president, presided at the business session, and Mrs. Dayton Smith was in charge of the song service.

Mrs. Fred Pieper wrote and directed a pageant which featured a musical trio, Mrs. Bob Quast, Mrs. Ralph Cornelius and Miss Myra Friese, accompanied by Mrs. Jim Smith.

Others appearing on the program were Mrs. Jacksteit and Bobbie Jacksteit who each sang a solo.

Those taking part in the pageant were: Mrs. Art Mabs, Mrs. Ralph Klemm, Mrs. Ewald Dargatz, Mrs. Howard Green, Mrs. Millie Remland, the Misses Betty Klemm, Darlis Bohen, Marylin Litz, Martie Stedman and Bobbie Litz.

Also, Mrs. Louisa Fuerst, Mrs. August Litz, Mrs. Alex Ristan, Mrs. Walt Paulus, Mrs. Ed Fuerst, Mrs. Harry Urbigheit, Mrs. Leonard Dargatz, Mrs. John Krenzler, Mrs. Al Brockman, Mrs. Fred Meyers and Mrs. Duesterhoeft.

Refreshments were arranged by circles two and three with Mrs Dayton Smith and Mrs. Joe Quast as chairman.

Fuchsia Society's Christmas to be Given Friday

The Orange county branch of the National Fuchsia society will have its Christmas dinner party and meeting Wednesday, Dec. 10 at 6:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall, 336 N. Lemon st. The dinner will be a potluck with the guests and members asked to bring a covered dish, salad or dessert.

The incoming officers for the new year will be installed followed by a delightful program presented by the Richards-Martin dance academy. At the close of the program there will be a gift exchange and drawing for the Christmas doll which has been dressed with $25 in bills and coins.

Bridge Luncheon Given at Greenbrier

One of the most charming parties of the holiday season was the one given recently by Mrs. James Tuffree of Balboa island and Mrs. Percy Rust of Corona del Mar.

Approximately 100 guests were bidden to a bridge luncheon in the Greenbrier in Garden Grove. Soft candlelight and sprigs of wintergreen gave the exquisitely appointed luncheon tables a gay little note of the Christmas season.

The door prize went to Mrs. Leo Sheridan of Anaheim, first prize in bridge to Mrs. A. V. Smith of Tustin, Miss Laura Porter of Balboa island won second, and Mrs. A. A. Newland, Corona del Mar won third. Mrs. A. W. Elmer of Fullerton won first prize in canasta.

Mrs. Vearl Royer Feted at Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. Vearl Royer, 617 S. Dickel st., was honored by her son, Charles, with a surprise party Sunday evening in observance of her birthday anniversary.

Various games, television and pictures provided the evening's entertainment. Cakes, baked by two of the guests, Mrs. Roy Jennings and Mrs. Myrell Royer, were served with ice cream and coffee.

Honoring Mrs. Royer were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne of Artesia, Mr. and Mrs. George Giekoe, Mr. and Mrs. Jonnie Gulick of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Myrell Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Switzer, all of Anaheim and the Vearl Royer family.

CHRISTMAS PUDDINGS

Fruit cake or puddings to be used at home or given away as gifts will keep fresh longer if wrapped in aluminum foil. Tie a bright red ribbon around it.

PACKAGE ORNAMENTS

Three dimensional ornaments constructed of paper, fabric, yarn, foam rubber and ther materials include cut-outs of a miniature hobby horse, jack in the box and Santa Clauses. These are suitable as attachments to gifts or for hanging from the Christmas tree.

YMCA Committee Honors New Members

The new members of the women's advisory committee of the YMCA were honored at a luncheon held in the beautifully decorated home of Mrs. Frank Kellogg. Mrs. Elwood Cordes, Mrs. E. F. Powell, Mrs. Dave Schwemmer, and Mrs. Clarence Mauerhan were welcomed to the group.

Mrs. Harry Nutt presided over the meeting following the luncheon. To open the Christmas season the beloved story of the nativity was read by Mrs. Al Casebeer.

Mrs. Nan Moore, girls' work director, reported on Tri-Hi-Y activities, telling of the recent area congress at Asilomar. One hundred and forty seven dollars was raised at the benefit dinner the Anaheim delegates put on to help pay expenses. Tuesday evening the combined YMCA Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs of Orange county will meet in Anaheim at a "post-Asilomar congress" to inform all the students of the recommendations adopted at Asilomar.

Members present at the luncheon were Mrs. Al Casebeer, Mrs. Charles Pannier, Mrs. William Lewellyn, Mrs. Harry Nutt, Mrs. O. G. Thomason, Mrs. Alice Schmid, Mrs. George Kohlenberger, Mrs. Everett Cone, Mrs. H. Kirchman, Mrs. Walt Taylor, Mrs. Willard Olding, Mrs. Marion Fort, Mrs. Harwood Larsen.

AUHS ANGLES

By JOANN FAUST

In spite of "old man rain" and icy wind blowing down its neck, the AUHS Colonist band marched the long and tiresome line of march last Saturday night in the famed, "All Western Band Review."

There were five placement trophies and the Colonist band was edged out of fifth place by a quarter of a point.

The band travels to Huntington Beach Dec. 5, seeking their fourth consecutive win in the salute to Santa Claus parade.

Winter wonderland was the setting for the Girls league assembly Wednesday when a fashion show was presented by the S. Q. R. store.

The clothes were modeled by connies of the AUHS and showed a variety of clothes from lounging to evening attire.

A beautiful ballet was performed by Betty Jane Murray, and her little Jack Frost was played by Sue Ann Cumberlidge.

The a cappella choir of AUHS under direction of Sheldon Disrud will appear at the Altrusa club to sing a group of selective numbers.

Featured will be Delores Giardino, popular Anaheim soprano, and Andy Devine, tenor.

The newly organized swing band of 13 members under the direction of Bill Cook, were featured for the first time this year at the Quill and Scroll dance last Wednesday in the AUHS study hall.

The new swing band has among its selections jazz, popular, ballads and novelties, with specialities by Mike Gerber on his sax, Harold Andrews on his trombone, and Clyde Nickel on his drums.

The Junior Red Cross of AUHS was in cheerful spirits this week when the club president, May Young, thanked the entire student body for their generous contributions which totaled $77.16.

A sparse handful of parents accepted the invitation this week to visit AUHS classrooms during the official PTA visitation week.

Very few parents showed up during classes or during Girls' league assembly. The administrative characterized the turn out as "disappointing."

As the world rotates steadily, so does the ever improving AUHS. At colonistville we have music to listen to while we lunch ourselves, all sorts of malts, fruit juices, fresh pasteries, and just recently [illegible] new fruit-o-matic. This new invention has fresh fruit in a [illegible] a nickel or a dime is dropped in the slot, fresh fruit is automatically dispensed.

The '53 Colonist yearbook is steadily nearing completion; with the administration section, the football section and most of the art work completed.

The annual is said to be entirely different, and the theme has never been used in Orange county and most of Los Angeles county.

Without the reliable and helpful Howard Hall the finishing of the yearbook could not be possible and a lot of credit is due here.

The junior assembly could not be reached be presented this week, due to the colds of many of the students, and one boy broke his foot, causing the group to call it off until another current date.

Paul David Home From Venezuela

Happiness knew no bounds at the Paul A. David home, 511 N. Clementine, Friday afternoon when word was received that Paul David, husband and father, would land at the international airport that night from Venezuela.

Hopes were high, but nothing certain, that David, who has been in South America since last May, would return in time for the holidays, then the message came, and spirits soared.

Mrs. David called friends of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirkman of Lakewood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hickok and son, Billy, and the Lawrence Weidens, all of Anaheim, to make the trip to the airport with her and the children, Sherryl and Jerrold.

Olive Notes

Cpl. J. Dee Coon, U.S. Army, stationed in Okinawa, returned home a week ago on an emergency leave because of the critical illness of his father, Frank C. Coon, who died Friday at his home, 16713 Main st., in Olive.

Cpl. Coon and his wife, who flew here from her home in Tulsa, Okla., when he returned to the States, will remain in Olive for two weeks with his mother before leaving for Fort Sill, Okla., where he will receive his discharge from the army.

• • •

Mrs. William F. Paulus and Mrs. Dorothy Luchau, Olive residents have just returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in the Mid-west. Traveling by Santa Fe through Albuquerque to St. Louis. Mrs. Lauchau visited with relatives, the Earl Reed family in that city while Mrs. Paulus went to Union, Mo. to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Duerr. Mr. Duerr, now finishing his theological studies at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He served St. Paul's Lutheran church, Olive, as temporary pastor last year.

The travelers were joined by Mrs. Duerr for a visit in Friestadt, Wis., with the Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Wiechmann and family and with them went sightseeing in Milwaukee. They also were guests of the Fred Hohls of West Allis, another suburb of Milwaukee.

Many interesting sights were viewed in and around St. Louis, including the Mississippi river by the Westerners who enjoyed the mild sunny weather throughout their stay, although they had hoped to experience a mid-western snow storm. The first snow they saw was from the train windows in Wyoming on their return trip via Union Pacific, they said.

Members of the Fourth and Fifth grades of Olive Elementary school accompanied by their teacher, Leo Seedaker and Mrs. Otto Henning, visited the Indian Stone Age museum owned by H. F. Strandt, 1025 E. Broadway, Anaheim, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Strandt showed the children his collection of arrow heads, explained how they were made and used, how they made and used their tools and utensils, and told them many interesting Indian customs and explained their money, or "wampum" as it was called.

Of special interest to the classes was the large rock collection which they examined carefully to compare with the collection they are making at school.

Those taking the trip which was made by school bus, were Dickie Plansett, Jerome Bowen, Paul Cully, Fred Meyers, Vernon Buzick, Juanita Arriola, Doris Botkins, Connie Kozina, Betty Saucedo, Arthur Alejandere, Donnie Blansett, Larry Hardis, Brace Hartwell, John Plescer, Diamond Ryan, Joyce Bottoms, Judy Brubaker, Roxie Caples, Carol Cully, Patsy Henning, Jean Plescer, Pauline Yorba, Marelaine Resnick and Janice Wolfe.

Mrs. Joe Thompson Honored with Housewarming

Mrs. Joe Thompson, president of the Anaheim Ebell club, was delightfully surprised one day recently when she opened her door to find a house warming party on her doorstep. The Ebell executive board and section leaders had gathered to "warm" the lovely new Thompson home at 725 N. Clementine st.

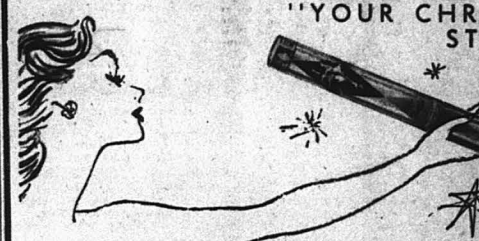

The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. Harry Pearson winning first prize. The guests then presented Mrs. Thompson with a beautiful silver sugar bowl and creamer to grace her new home.

Wives of Orange County Physicians Mobilize for Anti-Tuberculosis Fight

Orange county doctors' wives are among the many volunteer workers who have offered to help in the 1952 Christmas seal sale, it was disclosed today by George Tobias, chairman of the Orange County Tuberculosis and Health association.

Although the wives of the medicos are not in front lines, so to speak, as their husbands are in the fight against tuberculosis, they are lending much needed support mas seal sale proceeds are: doctors' wives, Mmes. Thomas Clark, Clarence Donaldson, Carl Pearlman, Joseph Root, Robert Peelor, Samuel Weaver, Fred Hansen, Ralph White, John Renshaw, William Conway, Jr., Frederick Mears, Jos. G. Tirico, A. N. Donaldson, Samuel Gendel, president of the auxiliary, and Raymond Brandt, chairman of the project and community service committee.

as shock troops behind the lines, working in the tuberculosis association headquarters, Tobias said.

All members of the Orange County Medical association auxiliary, the doctors' wives are giving the mornings from their busy days in the fight against TB. The women are volunteering their time tabulating Christmas seal sale proceeds which are beginning to roll into the association headquarters with the approach of Christmas.

Mrs. Raymond Brandt, wife of Dr. Raymond Brandt of Santa Ana, and chairman of the auxiliary's project and community service committee, said:

"As doctors' wives, we are very conscious of the importance of the fight against TB. It is a communicable disease which plays no favorites. It can attack young or old, rich or poor, on the farm and in the city.

"As a group, we are confident that the response to the Christmas seal sale will be better than ever this year. When we all, as residents of Orange county support the Christmas seal sale, we contribute to our good health and that of the community as a whole," she said.

County Scout Leader Discusses 1953 Jamboree at Rotary Meeting

Bill Spurgeon, Jr., of Santa Ana, a leader in the Orange county Boy Scout movement, yesterday addressed the combined meeting of the Anaheim and Fullerton Rotary clubs at the Elks club, Anaheim. He discussed next summer's Third National Boy Scout Jamboree, which will be held on the bluffs above Newport.

The meal was "on" the Fullerton club who lost an attendance contest to the Anaheimers during November. Arch Baker of the Anaheim club presided; Tex Middleton, of Anaheim, introduced the speaker.

Spurgeon said the Jamboree will bring 50,000 Scouts from across the nation and 3000 from foreign countries to the 3000 acre camp site on the east side of the Upper Bay. Dates are July 17 to 23, but Scouts will move in during a period four days before July 17 and will be departing in the four days following July 23. 110 special trains will converge on this part of Southern California delivering the boys.

The youths will represent the "cream of boys" throughout the United States, Spurgeon said. He pointed out that one of the important factors derived from the Jamboree will be that boys from various parts of the United States will find the new friends they meet at the Jamboree are just the same as the boys back home. In addition, the trip and the Jamboree give boys an "idea of the greatness of this country," he said.

One of the important pastimes of the lads will be "swapping," the speaker said. Badges, souvenirs, etc., will be in great demand as swap items. At the last Jamboree at Valley Forge, bottles of Pacific Ocean water from California and horned toads from Texas were in high demand.

The Orange county Scouts will offer bits of wood salvaged from the mahogany, ironwood, and camphor timbers of the 200 year old Chinese pirate junk, Nhe Fo, now submerged off Catalina harbor. Orange county Sea Explorers brought to the surface planks of the old craft. 70,000 blocks will be made from the wood which will be swapped by the Orange countians for badges from other Scouts the world around.

A history of the vessel which was built in China in 1753 and was in service 162 years as a pirate craft will be included in the swap. The vessel came to the New World to visit the Pan-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

Speaking of the supplies necessary to accommodate the Scouts, Spurgeon said 44 carlonds of charcoal will be necessary for fuel, a stack of pancakes equivalen to the height of the Empire State building will be necessary for one breakfast, and 35.6 miles of hot dogs would make one meal. A road system 10 miles in length is being constructed at the camp site. An arena which will accommodate 100,000 persons will be laid out with a stage the size of two football fields. Patriotic pageants and other presentations will be made from the stage.

Parents and other visitors who will come with the boys will be accommodated in the cities surrounding the camp site. More than 150,000 persons a day are expected to be in the Jamboree area.

The Scouting program emphasizes citizenship and patriotism, Spurgeon said. It teachers a boy to take care of himself at all times, get along with other boys in a productive program, and to know and recognize the differences between right and wrong.

Among New Automotive Devices to Be Offered is Air Conditioning

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT, Dec. 9 (AP)—A major engineering advance in 1953 automobiles will be an optional item—refrigerated air conditioning.

And at around $800 extra it apparently will be pretty much of a luxury item. Nevertheless it will be offered in several Chrysler and General Motors models for next year.

With their own divisions devoted exclusively to air conditioning equipment, these two major automotive corporations have devoted years to experimental work an auequipment, these two major automobile air conditioning. Racing each other in the effort to be first to announce the new device, Chrysler and GM came out about even in disclosing they would have it ready for 1953 model installation.

Chrysler was ahead of GM in announcing power steering something more than a year ago.

Of course, power steering and refrigerated air conditioning are not entirely new, although their latest application is substantially different from earlier experimentation. Power steering has been used in heavy vehicles for several years. It required considerable refinement before it successfully could be applied to the convential type passenger auto.

Air conditioning devices were tried out by one car manufacturer some 15 years ago. The effort was abandoned because of high production costs and not wholly satisfactory operating results.

Power steering has been one of the most popular optional equipment item developed in the auto industry for many years. Most car makers now offering it say the demand is greater than the supply even at an added cost of around $200.

The price, they say, eventually may be halved and bring the device into even greater popularity. This probably is more of a hope than an immediate expectation. A greatly increased output of power steering units will be needed before production costs can be reduced. Most of the car makers are convinced the demand will increase.

Latest of the car makers to announce power steering as an optional item is Pontiac which introduced three new lines of cars this week.

Another somewhat costly optional item being widely offered in the 1953 model lines is chrome plated wire wheels. They can add about $300 to the price tag of your car. With painted spokes, wire wheel installations are lower in price but they do not have the eye appeal of the chrome plated type.

Even lower in price than the painted spoke-type are the wheel "inserts" that give the appearance of wire wheels. One industry observer comments that in addition to being much lower in price the "simulated" wire wheel inserts have the added virtue of being easier to keep clean.

For fullest effect, of course, the wire wheels need white sidewall tires. This is true of the painted spoke type as well as the chrome-plated wheels.

Lobby Proposed To Support State Tidelands Title

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—A proposal that California, Texas, Louisiana, Plaquemines parish and the city of Long Beach joint in forming a committee to promote state ownership of submerged tidelands was presented today to the state lands commission.

Robert L. Irvin, a Long Beach public relations counsel, said in a written memorandum that a "states' submerged lands committee," composed of members from the three states and other interested governmental agencies, should establish a Washington, D. C., office and hand out national news releases encouraging public support of state ownership.

At the same time Irvin submitted a $70,000 budget to finance such a committee's activities for a four month period following the convening of the 83rd congress. Each of the states would contribute $18,000, and Long Beach and Plaquemines parish $8000 each.

Commission members decided to file the proposal for study, but their comments indicated the plan will not be accepted.

"We never should get into the business where we have professional promoters," said James S. Dean, state finance director and chairman of the commission.

Lt. Gov. Goodwin L. Knight, member of the commission who conveyed Irvin's proposal, stated the idea was to repudiate publicity coming out of Washington which was said to be mostly against tidelands going to the states.

Long Beach has conducted a public relations program in favor of state ownership, but can no longer appropriate enough funds for the purpose, it was reported.

"We've never felt we could appropriate for public relations counsel," Knight said, commenting on state policy.

Suit Filed for Crash Damages

Collision of two automobiles on Carson blvd. near the intersection of Lincoln and Hansen avenues, Cypress, Dec. 17, 1951, formed the basis for two damage suits aggregating $51,195.29, on file in Superior court at Santa Ana against Ray D. Trotter, one of the drivers.

Plaintiffs, both of whom were passengers in the other car, are Wilfred G. Todd, who asks $51,-322.30 for permanent facial scars, a spine injury and concussion which required an operation on his head to remove pressure; and Herbert Earl Brandon, who demands $873.00 for his injuries, consisting of cuts, bruises and dislocations.

Woolens Sent Abroad in CARE Packages

Warm woolen suiting materials are in the CARE Christmas packages many Americans are sending overseas this year, O. F. Thomason, local CARE chairman, said today.

"CARE is making it possible for Americans to remember their friends and relatives abroad with just about the most welcome gift Santa Claus could take them, fine materials for suits or coats," Mr. Thomason said.

"Only those who have seen the actual conditions can understand how these people long for these comfortable materials which give them protection from the cold, durability and a sense of well being. They have been deprived of so much so long that they regard these soft suitings as the perfect holiday remembrance."

According to Mr. Thomason, these fabric packages range in price from $11 to $17.50. All contain three and a half yards of goods, enough for a man's suit or a woman's coat and skirt. The more expensive parcels contain findings also.

Countries to which the suiting material packages may be sent, Mr. Thomason said, are Finland, Malta, Japan, Okinawa, Norway, Pakistan, Austria, Belgium, France, East and West Germany and Berlin, Greece, Italy and Yugoslavia.

Orders for CARE suiting material packages for any CARE food or textile package or contributions in any amount may be sent to CARE, 855 S. Broadway, Los Angeles.

Our Peanut Production

The states of Georgia, Alabama, Texas and North Carolina, in the order named, are the four largest peanut-growing states in the Union, with Georgia leading all others by a large margin. Virginia and Oklahoma also rank high in their production.

Famous Photog To Judge at Fotoguild Meet

The combination Color, Black and White and Sterio section meeting of the Fotoguild of Orange county will feature a pot luck dinner to be held in Santa Ana college cafeteria at 6:30 p.m., Dec. 11.

Judge for the photographic competitions in two-dimension color, three-dimension color and black and white prints will be Boris Dobro, head of the Pictorial division of the Brooks Institute of Photography at Santa Barbara.

Dobro, a consistently successful exhibitor in national and international photo exhibitions was recently awarded a fellowship in the Photographic Society of America in recognition of his outstanding service to hobby photography. Dobro is the originator of the PSA Town Meetings of Photography which have recently been held in Santa Barbara, San Diego and Fresno. These meetings were designed to help amateur photographers and were very popular.

Anaheim Gas Consumers to Pay Recently-Allowed Rate Increase

Customers of Southern Counties Gas Company in Anaheim can expect an average increase in their monthly bills of about 11 cents as a result of the general "off-set" rate boost authorized by the Public Utilities Commission on Dec. 2, it was learned today from Justin M. Kennedy, gas company division manager. The new rate becomes effective on Jan. 1, 1953.

Under the Commission's order, the company will be allowed to add 1.6 cents per thousand cubic feet to the rate schedules of all classes of customer, including domestic, commercial and industrial users, Kennedy said. The increase, which is designed to yield an additional $1,120,000 annually in gross revenues, will cover the higher price the company must pay for out-of-state gas after the first of the year.

Due to competition for natural gas from mid-continent fields to supply other metropolitan centers over the nation, the El Paso Natural Gas Company, which wholesales gas to California gas companies has had to pay higher prices for additional gas needed to meet the ever growing demands of California users, Kennedy explained. This situation has made it necessary for the El Paso company to boost the price it charges California distributors, the new rate becoming effective Jan. 1, 1953.

The California distributing companies, being unable to absorb the additional cost, are in turn forced to increase their rates. However, the new price charged by the El Paso company is subject to review by the Federal Power Commission. If the federal regulatory body should deny all or part of the increase, the El Paso company would be required to refund the difference to the California companies, which would pass the refund on to their customers.

Kennedy stated that Southern Counties Gas Company has a request before the Public Utilities Commission for an additional $4,852,000 in annual gross revenues to cover the general increase in wages, taxes, and other costs. The present "offset" increase will not affect this other application, on which the commission will hold hearings in January.

Stanton Suit Filed in Court

Claiming that the defendants have failed to make payments due on the purchase of property at 10961 Western ave., at Western and Katella aves., near Stanton, Dorothy and John Czinger have brought suit in superior court to eject the buyers, Delos and Wanda Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Czinger state in their complaint that the sale agreement was made last Aug. 6, when the defendants took possession. Payments of $72 each due on Oct. 10 and Nov. 10 have not been made, they claim. They served notice of default and demand for possession on the Wilsons Nov. 4, they said.

Member of Acheson's Policy Planning Board Guilty of Security Violation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8. (AP) — The state department said today Foy D. Kohler, 44, former head of the "Voice of America," violated security regulations in carrying secret documents to a weekend drinking party in nearby Virginia.

The department declined to say what disciplinary action might be taken.

Officials said the documents dealt with the political situation in French Morocco, scene of bloody riots in the last few days, and affairs in Tunisia. Both are trouble spots in the turbulent Middle East.

The state department said Kohler, a member of Secretary of State Acheson's policy planning board, had two secret papers in his possession when he was arrested by police in Arlington, Va., at 2 a.m. Saturday on charges of intoxication. With his wife, Phyllis, 40, he had been attending a party in Arlington.

Police quoted Mrs. Kohler as saying she picked up her husband at the state department and drove him to the party across the Potomac river from Washington.

Kohler paid a fine of $8.25 for public intoxication. Mrs. Kohler, appearing in Arlington county court today won a 10-day postponement of her trial on charges of drunken driving. She was released on $500 bond.

Michael McDermott, state department press officer, said Kohler violated security regulations by failing to safeguard the secret documents "in a manner commensurate with their classification."

However, McDermott insisted that Kohler kept a tight grip on the documents throughout the episode so that no one else was permitted to see them.

McDermott told newsmen that Kohler, a career diplomat of 21 years' experience, had "an excellent performance and security record."

McDermott explained that regulations forbid officials to remove secret documents from the department, "except where official conferences or consultations are involved." In such cases, written approval must be obtained from top officials and filed with the "secret control officer."

However, officials said privately it is not unusual for classified documents to be taken home for study and in such event the person taking them acts at his own risk.

SEATTLE, Dec. 4 (AP)—Waterfront employers went to court today in an effort to halt picketing in the longshore foreman's dispute—which has tied up the Seattle waterfront 24 days. A hearing was ordered for Monday.

The employers filed a complaint in Superior Court against 27 unions and individuals, nearly 250 defendants in all.

Soot-Laden Fog Spreads over South England

LONDON, Dec. 8. (AP)—A freak soot-laden fog that has crippled London for four days spread over southeastern England tonight in a crazy quilt pattern.

Millions of homeward bound commuters were stranded as a dense pall settled again over the capital after lifting only long enough during the afternoon to give Londoners a glimpse of the sun.

Swirling fog banks surrounded the city early in the evening just before the height of the rush hour and buses that started for outlying districts in comparatively clear weather ran into fog banks, forcing some vehicles to a standstill.

Gale warnings off the west coast of England, however, brought hope of clearing weather tomorrow.

Officials estimated that the worst fog in London's history already has cost about four million pounds (11,200,000) in smoke damage, loss of business and accidents. Criminals have had a field day of muggings and robberies.

WILLIAM BONNEY (In "Who's Who")

William Bonney Named in Student 'Who's Who'

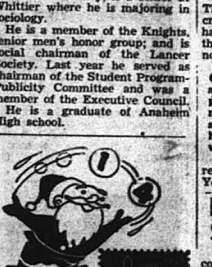

William W. Bonney, 826 S. Lemon, Anaheim, is one of 18 Whittier college students selected for inclusion in the 1952-53 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," according to an announcement from editors of the publication.

Outstanding students from throughout the nation are selected for the honor publication on the basis of scholarship; leadership and participation in extra-curricular and academic activities; citizenship and service to school and promise of future usefulness in business and society.

Bonney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert H. Bonney, is a senior at Whittier where he is majoring in sociology.

He is a member of the Knights, senior men's honor group; and is social chairman of the Lancer Society. Last year he served as chairman of the Student Program-Publicity Committee and was a member of the Executive Council.

He is a graduate of Anaheim High school.

Sing Sing Prison Pictured as Hiring Hall for Soft New York Waterfront Jobs, Crime Probers Learn

NEW YORK, Dec. 8. (AP)—Grim Sing Sing prison was pictured today as a sort of hiring hall where hardened convicts were recruited for soft jobs on the New York waterfront.

The startling testimony before the state crime commission came from a slender ex-convict, Anthony Tischon, who spent 11 of his 53 years behind bars for robbery.

Not only did he describe waterfront jobs as available to ex-convicts, but Tischon added:

"I think they were preferred. The worse record you had, the easier it was to get a job."

Tischon's blunt, explosive testimony made him a possible target of waterfront vengeance and the crime commission moved to give him what protection it can. He no longer works on the waterfront.

Tischon said he was recruited in prison by a fellow convict, a shop steward of the AFL International Association of I.L.A. He went to work as soon as he was released, Tischon added, but he added, but he spent most of his working time "playing cards and looking to steel something."

The witness gave the commission a longshoreman's peek into the thievery racket which bevills the great port of New York to the tune of thousands of dollars every year.

The crime commission moved through a fourth day of sensational hearings into the rackets-ridden waterfront, a vast jungle of criminals, shakedown artists and muscle men apparently terrified honest dockers.

The commission is exposing a 350 million dollar a year loss—including thievery — that plagues the seven billion dollar shipping industry of the world's greatest port.

The crime commission also heard the head of a big steamship firm blame fire slashing and other strong arm devices for driving private loaders off the piers.

Testimony also was introduced on a 1949 Jersey City pier strike in which it was said dock workers shook down importers or brokers whose perishable cargoes were stranded on the pier.

The striking ILA's demands, one witness claimed, were backed by Mayor James V. Kenny of Jersey City and his corporation counsel.

Red Skelton Ill

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 8. (AP)—Comedian Red Skelton went to the hospital today for possible physical repairs.

Dr. Stanley Immerman ordered Skelton to St. Johns hospital and said the comic was suffering from a diaphragmatic hernia upside down stomach, first incurred a year ago. Dr. Immerman said he won't decide for 48 hours whether to operate. Red will pose for the cameras x-ray tomorrow.

In the meanwhile, Skelton was reported resting comfortably.

Liberty Ship Runs Aground in Heavy Seas off Gray's Harbor, Washington

ABERDEEN, Wash., Dec. 8 (AP)—The Coast Guard said tonight the crew of a 7000-ton liberty ship hard aground in heavy seas off the north Grays Harbor jetty had no plans to abandon the vessel.

The ship, Calmar Steamship Corporation's Yorkmar, listed aground early this afternoon approximately one and one-half mile north of the north jetty and one-half mile offshore. The harbor mouth is 24 miles due west of here.

The Coast Guard said a message received from the master of the Yorkmar, whose name was not immediately known, said the ship was in "no special danger."

It was not determined how many men were aboard the Yorkmar, but the Coast Guard said a liberty ship normally carries a crew of 33 or 34. The vessel was en route from San Francisco, in ballast, to Gray's Harbor.

The Coast Guard said heavy seas would forestall any rescue attempts tonight, although strong south winds which had forfeited the coastline all day were moderating.

The commercial salvage tug Salvage Chief of Astoria, described by the Coast Guard as one of the larger salvage boats on the West Coast, was en route to the scene.

A Coast Guard motor lifeboat from Westport, south of the harbor mouth, tried to come alongside the Yorkmar shortly after the distress signal was received, but was driven back by towering seas also prevented use of the Yorkmar's own lifeboats.

The Coast Guard cutter Balsam of Astoria, Ore., was en route to the Yorkmar and the cutter McLane of Neqiuam, Wash., was standing by inside the harbor mouth, unable to get through heavy seas breaking over the bar.

Escaped Prisoner Still at Large

Donald B. Snider, 24, serving a county jail sentence for burglary, was still at large today after making his escape from a county work gang last Friday.

Snider leaped from a truck carrying the work gang to Irvine park. He made the break on E. Chapman ave. near McPherson, and disappeared in nearby orange groves.

State Sales Tax Claim Against County Reduced

Reduction of a claim for sales taxes made against the county by the state board of equalization cutting the demand from $6034.37 down to $1130.10, is expected to end a two-year-dispute over the claim, with the county now willing to pay the smaller amount.

County Counsel Joel E. Ogle had been instructed by the county supervisors to contest the claim of $6034.37, which covered sales made by the county between 1935 and Dec. 31, 1951. Ogle contended that many of the items sold had been in the category of "casual sales," or were products not subject to sales tax. He demanded a re-audit.

When this was made, a hearing officer for the state board slashed the claim to $1130.10. The supervisors have indicated their willingness to settle for that sum.

Everyone Agrees: She's A Queen; But Hardly Any Agree on Elizabeth's Title

By MICHAEL NEWMARCH

LONDON (AP)—Member nations of the British Commonwealth, comprising scores of different races and systems of government, are united in wanting at least one thing in common—a title for their queen.

It sounds an easy thing to settle. Actually it is one of the trickiest constitutional problems now facing this group of nations.

During the next weeks, Prime Minister Winston Churchill will be taking his fellow Commonwealth chiefs on a side in an effort to work out an agreement while they are here for the Commonwealth Economic Conference.

At the moment, if you ask a lawyer to define the title of Queen Elizabeth II, you might get several answers.

When her father died last February, she was proclaimed in London as "Elizabeth the Second, by the grace of God queen of this realm and of all her other realms and territories, head of the Commonwealth, defender of the faith."

At Ottawa, on the other hand, Canada proclaimed her as "Elizabeth the Second, by the grace of God, of Great Britian, Northern Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the seas, queen, defender of the faith, supreme leige lady in and over Canada."

Several other versions were used for the royal proclamation in other Commonwealth cities.

They can't all be correct, constitutional experts argued. Since there is only one queen, she can only have one set of titles.

What is more, the 1927 Statute of Westminster—which defines the status of self-governing dominions—says clearly the sovereign's titles can be changed only if the alteration is agreed to by all the governments of the Commonwealth, and the necessary legislation has been passed through their respective parliaments.

So there were raised eyebrows when the queen was proclaimed in so many different styles last February.

"What is the official style of her majesty?" Several questioners asked Churchill in the House of Commons.

Churchill warily declined to answer—but promised to get in touch with other Commonwealth leaders when they came to London.

Since the styles of George VI were settled, the British Commonwealth has undergone several big changes, notably the granting of Republican status to India.

There are many different viewpoints inside the Commonwealth about what the changed title ought to be.

The word "dominion" for a self-governing territory looked pretty broad-minded to territories which were used to being called colonies half or quarter of a century ago. But it is not nearly so popular today.

Canada, for instance, now wants to be called a kingdom, like Britain herself, according to some reports here. South Africa's ruling Nationalist party has strong republican leanings.

The Commonwealth prime ministers won't be too worried about making changes when they talk to Churchill. The hardest job probably will be choosing the phrases that will be passed through the dominions' parliaments without too much argument.

Canada and perhaps some other nations may get a special mention—and the words "United Kingdom and Northern Ireland" are likely to be put back. The newest expression, "head of the Commonwealth," is bound to be retained for the sake of India, on whose behalf the title was invented.

A Bond in the hand... means more money for you!

New law says:

Defense Bonds can earn interest for 10 more years—at 3%!

Do YOU OWN U. S. Series E Defense Bonds that are maturing now? Then here's wonderful news: You can hold those bonds for ten more years, while they continue to earn interest at a rate of 3% compounded semi-annually!

Think what this means: The bond you invested in at $18.75 can now pay you back $33.67 . . . a $37.50 bond can pay you back $67.34 . . . and so on.

Yes, the new Bond Law makes it possible for you to get this extra profit (as much as 80% on your original investment!), with no extra effort on your part. Just hold your bonds.

The ten-year extra earning privilege applies to all bonds. What's more, every bond you get now starts earning interest sooner and matures earlier—at 3%. Of course, you may still cash any Series E Bond two months after purchase. But you'll be smart to hold your bonds—let them keep earning interest for you!

Strengthen your own future and the future of your country.
Join the Payroll Savings Plan!

If you're not already among the wise Americans who are investing in a secure future, why not start now? Invest in Defense Bonds regularly . . . through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Seven million Americans have found it's one sure way to save, because it saves something out of every paycheck before you're tempted to spend it! 3 new money-making opportunities for you!
New Series H, J, and K Defense Bonds pay 2.76% to 3%!

If you want to get the interest on your bonds in the form of current income, or if you want to invest more than the annual limit for E Bonds, ask at your bank for descriptive folders about these new bonds:

SERIES H. A new current income bond, available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Sold at par. Matures in 9 years 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semi-annually by Treasury check. Annual limit, $20,000 maturity value.

SERIES J. A new 12-year appreciation bond, available in denominations of $25 to $100,000. Sold at 72% of par value. Pays 2.76% compounded semiannually if held to maturity. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series K Bonds.

SERIES K. A new 12-year current-income bond in denominations of $500 to $100,000. Pays interest semiannually by Treasury check at the rate of 2.76% per annum. Sold at par. Annual limit, $200,000 issue price jointly with Series J Bonds.

Now even better! Invest more in Defense Bonds!
