Anaheim Varsity and Bee Gagers Win at GG

Anaheim High school's cage team scored their winning ways today by defeating the Garden Grove varsity 56-32 and the GG Bee team 53-37 in games played at 8 o'clock this afternoon on the Garden Grove court.

Forward Bill Ames had a total of 24 points to become the high point scorer of the day. Right behind Ames was the Assn. star, Fred Hanushek, with 23 points.

Anaheim led most of the way in the varsity game but in the third quarter the Groves took over for what was a very short-lived lead. At the end of the third the Colonists had forged out a 38-36 edge for themselves and from then on they were never headed.

Coach Harry Hunsbeck didn't think his boys played up to their usual par yesterday, in spite of the fact that they won. He attributed the lack of sparkle to overconfidence on the part of both the team and the coach.

"The team seemed to have an easy time of it for themselves, said Hunsbeck, but it didn't turn out that way.

Hunsbeck, who injured his knee in a snow accident last weekend, was in the game for less than one quarter, but managed to score nine points. He couldn't keep his pace, however, and had to leave the game.

Anaheim's varsity made 16 free throws of 21 attempts at the free throw line. Garden Grove made 10 out of 29 free throw tries.

In the Bee game, Coach Clark Van Housbeck's crew managed to win in spite of looking shabby as a whole. Van said the Bees will have to start playing better ball if they are going to keep winning games.

Herrera was high point man for the Bees with 14 points and Beach ran his close second with 12. Robinson, of Garden Grove, was high Bee scorer of the day with 13 markers.

Anaheim Bees fouled 18 times to the Argonauts' 16 and made 11 of their free throws. The Groves made 13 of the free throw line.

The next game for the varsity will be at 8 o'clock before starting in the Colonist gym when they meet La Jolla. Bee cagers will take on Whittier at Whittier Friday afternoon, as will the Bee and Bee teams.

Pigeon Season Opens Dec. 17

The 13-day band failed pigeon season opens throughout the state Dec. 17, with hunting prospects the best in years, the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California said today.

Heavy populations of pigeons are reported throughout the high country where there have been crops of pinon nuts this year. Recommended areas for the best shooting are: Frazier, Sulphur, Santa Rosa, and Palomar mountains and the areas around Julian and Paso Robles, the Outing Bureau added.

The limit is six birds per day and in possession. Shooting time is from 8 o'clock before sunrise to sunset. Season closes Dec. 31.

1952 Goes Down as Year Defense Came into its Own

By RUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—So far as football is concerned, 1952 may go down as the year in which defense came into its own.

Swing toward better defensive play was noted as the leading trend in football during the past season by the sports writers and broadcasters, replying to the Associated-Press post-season questionnaire. The defensive players, particularly the linemen, received much more attention than before in game accounts.

And when the experts were asked to forecast the development of offense, 74 voted that it had while only 17 voted toward better offense.

A good many made it stronger, expressing opinions that defense was gaining or had even passed offense in development, but all hands agreed that there was no sign of a return to the football of the early 1930's when soccer-like rules were common.

Obviously offensive football still has the edge as a number of the experts pointed out. Scorer of the run of the mill games during the past season continued to be high. But when two teams met for a showdown it was something like 7-0 as in the Army-Navy struggle, 12-0 Southern California over UCLA, 7-3 for Georgia Tech's clash with Alabama.

Said Ted Bateman of the Baltimore Daily Enterprise: "Defense was not only kept up but is cutting offense down to size. Many coaches have gone with the idea of no offense and defense has paid off. Look at UCLA, USC, and Michigan."

Bill Holohan, San Pedro, Calif., News-Pilot: "After watching that Los Angeles contender, I'd say the defense has passed the offense out this way."

The dissenters picked two points to support their argument that defense still was falling behind. One was the continued high scoring. The other was that the forward pass, now a more dangerous weapon than ever when it is used from any part of the field in any situation, continued to catch defenders flat-footed. They also pointed out that the rules still give the edge to the offense.

Tulsa San Jose Take Honors as Top Grid Gainers

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Tulsa's football team successfully defended its major college title offense championship in 1952, a feat never before accomplished, and won the team rushing crown in the largest of college football games.

Making 466.6 yards a game in each of 10 contests, 321.5 of them by running, Coach John O. Broderick's Golden Hurricane topped San Jose State's 439.1 and Oklahoma's 392.6 official statistics. Tulsa's 1952 record, 10-1-1, was the only undefeated team in the Big Six conference.

Oklahoma, however, took scoring honors by a wide margin with 307 points in 10 games.

Tulsa's second straight title gave it the greatest number of major college attacking championships in the history of the sport. Tulsa was number six—total offense in 1944, 1951 and 1952, passing in 1942 and 1943.

Most of the other big players this season were familiar characters. Tulsa's top runner, Fred Hanushek, 195.2, and West Virginia, 263.9.

Scoring fell off with only four teams above the 30 points a game level, compared to 10 in 1951. These were Oklahoma, Michigan State with 34.7, Princeton with 33 and Tulsa with 32.2. Tulsa's top mark, Maryland's 39.2, will be below Oklahoma's 1952 figure of 40.7.

Aussie Tennis Hopes Brighter After Doubles

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 9. (AP)—The triumph of Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor in the doubles final of the Victorian Tennis Championships, combined with brightened Australia's badly tarnished Davis Cup hopes.

The top Australian duo smashed the younger team of Ken Rose and Lewis Hood into submission, 6-4, 10-8, 3-6, 6-3, in the final of the Victorian doubles tournament before the Cup matches.

It was a good performance with McGregor showing his top form, and the second time this winter these two had won a doubles team. But apart from this there wasn't much in the Victorian tournament to please the Australian fans.

Americans won three other major titles and shared in the fourth. Today a pair of teenage Californians, Maureen Connolly and Lew Hoad, won the Wimbledon girls' title, and the only other American to win a Wimbledon title, 6-2, 6-4. Miss Sampson then paired with Don Candy and Mrs. Margaret Maule to win the mixed doubles final, 6-8, 7-5.

Miss Connolly, the American and Wimbledon champion, had added the Victorian title to her collection of titles in the Victorian Davis Cup team captain, had beaten Sedgman for the men's singles title.

Branch Rickey with Stars Fred Haney

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 9. (AP)—Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, said tonight Fred Haney, manager of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, is coming here Thursday to discuss the possibility of his taking over as manager of the Pirates.

Rickey said Haney, who has been prominently mentioned as Billy Meyer's successor, is scheduled to leave Hollywood tomorrow morning by plane. Rickey added:

"I am going to talk to Mr. Haney about the Pirate managerial post. I can't honestly tell you whether I will name him manager or not. There are several things dependent on the decision, the main one being if he really wants to become the Pittsburgh manager."

Another factor concerns his health. He must decide whether he is well enough to tackle such a difficult job.

Haney has managed Hollywood for the past four years, and twice—in 1949 and 1952—piloted the stars to the Pacific Coast pennant.

Meyer resigned as Pirate manager at the end of the 1952 season after five years. He predicted the youthful Pirates, who finished a poor last in the National League, eventually will be a pennant contender. Meyer gave ill health as his reason for quitting.

Rickey said he wanted to emphasize that "Haney has not yet been picked as the Pirate manager." He added:

"As far as the fans are concerned, it may be rest assured that whatever decision or conclusion Fred Haney and I will be what we consider best for both of us and the Pittsburgh club."

Rice, SMU Cage Quintets Likely to Fight it Out for Court Honors

By HAROLD V. BÄTLER
AP Newswire

DALLAS. The Southwest conference lacks an outstanding basketball favorite. Rice and Southern Methodist appear the most likely to fight it out for the championship.

Rice topped because it has plenty of strength back from last season's team that could almost match step with anybody. Southern Methodist is placed high because Coach E. O. (Doc) Hayes thinks he has needed in the previous years he has had, as the Hilltop cagers.

Rice last season scored a record of 100 points in a game, missing the Owls were five-game basketballers who did not seem to be in a defensive mood. They finished last in the conference but usually put on a good show.

Back with the Owls is Gene Schweitzer, 6-foot-11 center who is a six-time winner in 301 points.

He was fifth high pointmaker in the conference and all four of the fellows who surpassed his total are gone. Rice has six lettermen, including Maurice Toussaint, a guard who ranked in 248 points.

Out at Southern Methodist are talking big things about a couple of giants—Bob Clayton, 6-5 forward who transferred from Northwestern, and Bill Davis, 6-6 center who transferred from Kansas. They supplement four lettermen, among whom is Jack Lanier, who finished 153 points last winter.

Arkansas is considered a serious threat mainly because Glen Rose returned to coach the Razorbacks. Rose is back after a 10-year absence. While at Arkansas he produced five champions in nine years. Glen Rose comes back to take up the threads of a team that was one of the most successful in the Southwest during the 1940's. Rose has nine lettermen but doesn't appear to have the material that goes with his shoot-and-put style of basketball—that is, all men who can shoot and take the ball off the backboards for another. Arkansas has been under a tight control.

Defending champion, Texas Christian, lost everything. Nine lettermen, including all five starters, departed. TCU won't be a setup but it definitely can't be considered up to last season's standard. Four lettermen return, including Henry Oltner, 6-7 center who played well when he broke into the lineup. George McLeod did most of the playing at center.

Texas lost its stars, Jim Davies and Ted Price, but has five lettermen returning and is optimistic that it can be a contender in the championship race. Height is what Texas will need. It may have that in Fred Saunders, 6-1 junior college transfer. Bob Wagener, 6-7 transfer from Kentucky, and Jim Richardson, 6-10 junior college transfer, has not only kept up but is cutting offense down to size. Many coaches have gone with the idea of no offense and defense has paid off. Look at UCLA, USC, and Michigan."

Andy Gaspar is Shocked at His Low Link Score

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 9. (AP)—Andy Gaspar, C. Frank Pittsburg pro with little confidence in his ability to win big money golf tournaments, started himself today by shooting a fifty-two under par 65 to capture qualifying honors in the $10,000 Miami open.

Andy, who hasn't played in a major tournament for some months, and never expects to "make a buck" that way, didn't have any competitive golf experience in the class of the Miami open, for 86 top pros and amateurs were exempted from the qualifying round.

Defending champion Sam Snead is in Hollywood to make a picture, so a wide open battle is anticipated. Sam Snead has won the tournament five times and it has become known in recent years as "Snead's tournament."

Eight other former champions are back for a shot at the $2,000 first prize in one of the nation's oldest continuous tournaments.

Trojans Prove Championship Team Pays Off

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 9. (AP)—South California's Trojans proved that a championship football team pays off at the boxoffice this season.

Attendance figures released by the Pacific Coast Conference at its winter meeting today showed that USC replaced California as the leading attraction in the conference.

The Trojans played before 337,123 fans per game, averaging 56,187 fans per game in six contests. Last year USC in seven home games played to 353,927 for an average of 50,561.

California this year in six home games drew 308,000, averaging 51,333. Last year the Bears in six games drew 308,000, averaging 51,000.

The conference today voted more power to Commissioner Vester O. Schmidt. In the future he will be able to handle problems of a comparative minor nature without going through formal conference channels. He was said, will tend to bring about corrective measures at an institution immediately rather than awaiting tentative action by the conference at a later date.

The conference adopted a more liberal attitude toward scholarships which a donor has designated specifically for an athlete. The old policy made scholarships a purely competitive issue between athletes and non-athletes. Conference spokesmen emphasized, however, that this does not mean that scholarships for athletes will be handed out on a wholesale scale.

St. Agnes guild of St. Michael's church enjoyed their annual Christmas party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Kluetter, 827 N. Lemon.
Four new members, introduced by Mrs. C. R. Brandon and welcomed into the guild were, Mrs. Maud Snow, Mrs. W. P. Shira, Mrs. Dolly Schulte and Mrs. Ernest Rose. They were each presented with a camelia corsage.
Adding merriment to the meeting was a "white elephant" gift exchange, which followed the brief business session. Refreshments were served from a pretty Christmas decorated tea table.
Mrs. C. R. Brandon, Mrs. H. A. Browning and Miss Ada L. Wilson assisted as co-hostess, and Mrs. Virginia Stedronsky and Mrs. Fuller were guests.

EXPERT TIPS

STEP ONE — The secret of a pretty package is taking that extra minute to wrap it carefully, says Martha Page, professional gift wrap expert. After paper has been sized (two inches are left for overlap in middle box and fastened with tape) paper is trimmed so that extension at ends is about three-fourths the depth of the box. Ends are folded and edge is turned for smooth finish.

STEP TWO — Ribbon is put around box by placing one end on top of box, above center and holding it with thumb of left hand, leaving five or six inches of end free. Ribbon is wrapped around box with right hand. Bow is made by working ribbon back and forth, in form of figure-eight, twisting so that satin side is always up. Three loops form each side of box. Tiny gathers are used to pinch together.

Pat Nixon, wife of the vice-president-elect, will name the Cook of the Year 1932 and award her the $25.00 prize at the grand Awards Luncheon of Pillsbury Mills annual national bake-off, Dec. 9. She will hand out checks totalling $35,000.

The top prize in the Junior section of the contest will be given to the home-maker's fool—Arthur Godfrey.
The greatest number of people ever to send in recipes in the contest this year swelled the mail to 1,100,000 more than ever before. California, which has placed the top winner two times out of three and which always has tremendous representation, again leads the state list with eleven entries. It pulled eleven into second place with ten winners, knocking Michigan into third with 8, Wisconsin and Ohio, usually near the top of the list, followed with 3 and 2.

Home-Baron
The Orange County Extension Service has a great deal to offer you as an Anaheim homemaker. There are county wide meetings and local meetings here in town that you are cordially invited to attend whether you are a member or not.
As a parent, a grandparent or a neighbor of children, you would have enjoyed the meeting at the Community Center club house at 1104 W. 8th st. in Santa Ana on Monday. The Costa Mesa Home-makers put on a lively play about parent-child relationships called "Scattered Showers." This play by the way, would make an excellent P.T.A. program (Call the Extension Office, if interested.)

Ruby Harris, Youth Guidance Specialist of the University of California Extension Service discussed "Our Children" and answered many questions from the audience.
Books for parents of young, middle aged and adolescent children were exhibited by the Orange county Free Library. Child care was provided during the meeting at a nominal fee.

When Harriet Heinicke of the Euclid Young Homemakers was hostess for her group at her home at 274 North Palm st. Home Advisor, Marjorie Frontist, presented a demonstration on Christmas foods that particularly use foods from Orange county as basic ingredients. The recipes are well worth having since they offer sweets with some food value as well as calories. The following recipe for uncooked fruit candy is an example.

Uncooked Fruit Candy
2 egg whites
2 cups powdered sugar
3/4 cups powdered milk
1 cup chopped dried fruit
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Beat egg whites thoroughly until light. Blend sugar and milk and carefully stir into the egg whites. Mix fruits and nuts together and add to the first mixture. Flavor with vanilla. When thoroughly blended, pour on to waxed paper or an oiled pan to harden. When firm, cut in squares. Bed Jackets

Service is an important part of the work of the groups that gather for these home demonstration meetings. Anaheim women have just finished "Operation Bottles," in which they collected empty bottles of every description to turn in for salvage. The proceeds will feed and clothe a needy family at Christmas.

At a county committee meeting Dec. 8 several groups will have the bed-jackets, lap robes, etc., that they have been making for the older women at the Orange County hospital. The groups also rotate the opportunity for taking birthday cakes to patients at the hospital.

House Plants
How is your indoor garden growing?
Did you know that there are special plants for sunny windows, others for partial sun and a special group for shade? Some like warm rooms while others prefer a cool atmosphere. If you select a plant to suit the conditions in your home, you will be rewarded with bright flowers, lush green foliage or both.

A healthy plant needs enough water but not too much. Probably more plants are killed by over-watering than by anything else. They also need fresh air, but of course should be shielded from killing-cold air currents to grow in and feed is very small indeed so that during the growth period, frequent applications of a complete plant food are advisable. Directions on the package of fertilizer is best guided for use.

House plants have periods of rest as well as of growth. When the plant stops blooming and new growth stops, this usually signals the rest period. Then fertilizing, watering is reduced and dead blossoms and undesirable growth should be pruned off.
If your indoor garden suffers from the conspicuous absence of a green thumb, try your luck with the cast iron plant (aspidistra)—the snake plant. Both need only indirect light and are practically indestructible. Aspidistra has long glossy dark green leaves which are wonderful foliage for cut flower arrangements. The snake plant has the stiff, variegated thick leaves which grow tall and erect. Blends well with modern settings and needs practically no care.

LAPEL ORNAMENT
Children enjoy making things from inexpensive materials that are easily available. The following is directions for making a lapel pin that any little girl would adore wearing and should have no trouble making for herself or her friends.
Scraps of fairly heavy knitting yarn and a safety pin are all that is needed in order to make one. It may be used or contrasting colors such as the bright Christmas colors or pink and blue or two shades of brown. Cut and tie in the right places, the resulting figure resembles a perky little doll.
Cut eight strands of wool into strips six inches long. Cut five contrasting strands four inches long. Fold the long strands at the center over the short strands so that the cluster of wool resembles the doll's body with arms sticking straight out on either side.
Now tie the six inch strands with a scrap of wool at a point one half inch from the loop and to form the head. Tie again at the very center of the waist. Then separate the two parts into portions of eight strands each, and tie securely with scrap wool one half inch from the end or, at the "ankles."
Hands are formed by tying the four inch strands one half from each end or at the "wrists." Pin to the lapel with a small safety pin or use as decoration on Christmas packages.

SWANK LUNCH BOX
A small attractive handbag or shoulder strap bag of wool plaid and synthetic leather has insulated fiberglas lining and is equipped with a thermos bottle. The bag is available in two sizes, the larger contains space for three sandwiches, two pieces of fruit, a piece of cake and the thermos bottle. The smaller bag holds two sandwiches and a thermos.
FOR A CHRISTMAS HOSTESS
A new hostess glassware pattern called "curi" will appeal to lovers of antiques in particular. The glasses are decorated with collectors' items. Black, white and gold designs.

Informer Provides Police with New Lead in Brutal Slaying of Grocer

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9 (AP)—Police said today an informant has provided them with a new lead in the brutal slaying of a Plumas county grocer and three children near Chester last October.

Captain of Inspectors James L. English said the information came from a trusted informant who said he was asked by two men last May to take part in the robbery "of a man named Young."

English said the informant, whose name he withheld, told police he was approached in a Mission district bowling alley by a man who became known to him as Ooley. They went to an east bay cardroom where they met a man who was beaten to death on a lonely logging road near Chester Oct. 10. Young was robbed of $712.

The source said the two men asked him to take a driver in the holdup of "a man named Young."

4-H foods leaders will meet Monday, Dec. 15, in the Edison building, Santa Ana, at 10:30 a. m. to receive training for their 4-H club meetings.

Miss Marydella J. Barker, home advisor for the University of California, reports that these women are all volunteer leaders who have 4-H clubs in communities throughout Orange county.

The foods project is a fairly new 4-H project in California, only being in existence three years. The first year members enroll they study the breakfast unit, the second year luncheon and supper unit and the third year dinner unit. The boys and girls learn to prepare foods as well as to plan nutritious meals.

4-H foods leaders are Mrs. Dorothy Koerner, Mrs. Laurie Spaulding, Mrs. E. G. Gruber, Mrs. E. G. Irvine, Mrs. J. H. The informant told police he refused to take part in the scheme. After the story of the slaying broke, the informant told police he attempted on two occasions to discuss the case with Hall, who refused to talk.

English said the man then decided to tell police what he knew. Plumas county Sheriff Mel Schaefer and Dist. Atty. Bert Jones questioned the informant here Dec. 2, English said.

Check Drivers' Licenses Now DMV Advises

"Check your Drivers' license now" was the admonition of Senior Drivers' License Examiner Roy Hemworth of the Orange County Office of the Department of Motor Vehicles. If your license has expired or if it will expire within the next month or two, Hemworth urges that it be renewed during the month of December.

Beginning Jan. 2 the Department of Motor Vehicles will place practically all of its manpower to the gigantic task of renewing the registration of the more than five million California vehicles and the original registration of the hundreds of thousands of out of state vehicles now in California.

Drivers' License renewal may be applied for at the Orange county office of the Department of Motor Vehicles—2520 North Main St., Santa Ana, each Monday through Friday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. The fact that immediate service can be given applicants at the opening hour of 8 each morning, was stressed by Hemworth.

In addition to the above, Driver's License services is available Tuesdays at Newport Beach, City Hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and on 8th Fridays at Laguna Beach, City Hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on 2nd and 4th Fridays at Huntington Beach, City Hall.

U.N. Receives Check for $3979

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Dec. 9 (AP)—The U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund, UNICEF, today received a check for $3979 from the estate of a California spinster after four years of legal controversy.

UNICEF is supported entirely by voluntary contributions. It previously had received funds by will, but this is the first time it had gone to court to claim a bequest.

The money represents the entire estate of the late Minnie Strohhorn of Los Angeles, awarded to UNICEF by the California superior court.

Miss Strohhorn, who died in 1938, stated in her will that her estate should go to the "National Commission for Children in Wartime" of the U.N. Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, UNRRA. The designated commission never existed and by the time of Miss Strohhorn's death the assets of UNRRA had been assigned to UNICEF.

U.N. attorneys contended the money should go to UNICEF on the grounds it was the organization most similar in purpose and design to the commission described by Miss Strohhorn.

Toasters Host Irish Visitor, Plan Big Party

The guest, Bill Bittles, a former native of Ireland is now a resident of Anaheim. The Christmas party is to be held at Lum's restaurant, across from La Finca park, next Monday evening, Dec. 15, and will be ladies' night with other guests invited.

Lewis Boys, vice president of the club presided at last night's meeting and Toastmaster Paul Von Kleben introduced the speakers on the program, who were: Chaucer Stilson, "Eliminating Pet Fevers"; Walter Knott, "Discovery of a New Variety"; and Hal Johnson, "Peace on Earth."

Toastmaster Knott was awarded the weekly cup for the best speech of the evening.

Record Number of Puppies Will be Christmas Gifts

The number of puppies that will be given as gifts this Christmas will likely set an all-time record, it is predicted by Harry Miller, director of the Gaines dog search Center, New York, a leading source of dog information.

Of the estimated 500,000 homes that will acquire a puppy this Yuletide, a substantial number will be right in this area, he states.

Mr. Miller has compiled a list of "pitfalls to be avoided" in adding a puppy to the family circle this Christmas. There is a dog for every purpose, one to suit the age and temperament of any owner, and with a little careful planning each can be sure of getting exactly what is needed or wanted, he suggests.

1. If undecided as to where a variety of breeds are on exhibit, should prove helpful. If no dog show is being held in the vicinity, visits to local kennels of different breeds will help make up your mind.

2. Don't get a puppy too young—under 10 or 12 weeks. The younger the puppy the more care it requires.

3. If you are not sure the puppy is healthy, insist on a veterinary statement before purchase.

4. If you want to be sure the pup is purebred, request a registration certificate, which should also show a transfer to you as the new owner.

Conclaves Bring Millions in Trade To Los Angeles

More than $17,000,000 worth of "extra" trade will have been brought to Los Angeles this year because of spending by 134,825 delegates having attended 307 conventions here, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce reported today.

"This dollar volume," said Chairman Alton H. Jeffries of the Chamber's convention and visitors bureau, "certainly indicates that conventions are big business for the entire community."

"Service industries—one of the principal beneficiaries of convention spending—have come to realize that group business brought by conclaves means more profit than returns from a comparable number of transients.

"For example: A given hotel with an 80 per cent occupancy throughout the year of which 20 per cent consists of convention business will have made a greater profit than a comparative hotel which has a straight 80 per cent occupancy of transients," Jeffries said.

At the end of November, 204 meetings had been held, with another three scheduled for the remainder of the year. During last month, 13 future meetings were booked.

Convention activity in the next few years is expected to continue heavy, Jeffries reported. At the end of November, 146 conclaves had been scheduled for next year, 34 for 1954, 13 for 1955, and one for 1956.

"Wonder Metal" May be Used in F-89 Construction

The possibilities of fabricating Scorpion F-89D rocket firing wing tip pods from titanium—the new "wonder metal"—are being explored by Northrop Aircraft, Inc., under a special engineering design contract awarded by the U.S. Air Force.

Terms of the contract call for the redesign of a F-89D tip pod to determine fabrication techniques and obtain engineering design data necessary for use of titanium. Laboratory research now being performed in the tip pod redesign is furnishing considerable basic metallurgical, physical and structural data on commercial pure titanium and some of the alloys now available.

The F-89D tip pod was chosen for this project because its design and construction involve the greatest variety of forming, machining, welding and other airframe fabrication techniques of any composite unit of comparable size.

Current Scorpion production models carry large quantities of "metal 217" folded in air-frame rockets in wing tip pods, fabricated from conventional aircraft metals, making the F-89D America's most heavily armed "missile type aircraft."

Germ Warfare is No Superweapon GE Scientist Says

The types of toxins or germs that could possibly be used in biological warfare are well known, and so are those of the methods of attack. So this kind of warfare is not a secret superweapon, according to Ted L. Galbraith, bacteriologist for General Electric at Hanford Works, Richland, Wash. He expressed this opinion in a recent talk to the Pasco Lions club.

The scientist said there are three types of biological warfare: germs, toxins, and artificial hormones or "growth regulators." Galbraith suggested that people forget about new "mystery" germs and poisons. He said science-talk has circulated about some germs so powerful that a thimbleful could kill millions of people. As an example, he discussed a toxin called botulinus.

Galbraith said it is a fairly well established fact that about 7 cases of this food poisoning could destroy the entire human race. However, he pointed out that it would be impossible to distribute 7 ounces to even a handful of the two billion peoples occupying the earth, and botulinus being a poison and not a germ can not reproduce itself.

"The important thing is that we know about these poisons and germs," he said, "and we have inoculations and preventative medicines for them. We even have an inoculation for botulinus."

The bacteriologist also discussed the methods Public Health, Civil Defense, and other organizations use every day in testing water and milk supplies, checking the air, and fighting mosquitoes and rodents.
