Congress May Bar UN Funds To Enforce Adequate Security

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 11 (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) charged tonight the system worked out by the State Department and the United Nations for running down subversives in the U.N. is "hopelessly inadequate." He said the next Congress will consider barring funds for the U.N. and its agencies unless effective security is established quickly. Wiley issued a statement as a senator and not as a U.N. delegate. At the same time the U.N. disclosed Secretary General Trygve Lie has fired Irving Schiller, an American archivest employed at the U.N. office in Geneva.

State Department officials yesterday told the McCarran committee, investigating subversives in the U.N., that 2 out of 40 Americans judged to be bad security risks by the department were still on the U.N. payroll. They also told of a confidential arrangement worked out by the department and Lie in 1949 for the ouster of America communists or potential communists from the U.N.

Wiley blistered this arrangement in one of the strongest statements he has yet issued in the investigations of subversives here. He said Lie was specifically authorized to receive confidential information from the State Department, but that the department has failed to give such communications to back up estimates of individuals reported to Lie.

"I regret to say that the department's attitude appears to be one of willful blindness to the realities," Wiley said.

Wiley's comment coincided with complaints from the U.N. Secretariat officials that the U. S. government has refused to turn over detailed information to Lie.

Eisenhower Will Steer Clear of Fight Between Truman and Mac

By DON WHITEHEAD

HONOLULU, Dec. 11 (AP)—Two close advisers of President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower tonight said the general will steer clear of any fight between President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur over a peace plan for Korea.

They expressed their views a few hours after Eisenhower arrived in this Pacific beauty spot from a first hand look at the desolation of Korea. He is here to wind up talks with cabinet designates and others on future policy for Korea and the far east.

The advisers predicted Eisenhower would engage in no public controversy with Truman and that he would make no reply to Truman's statement that the Eisenhower journey to Korea was a "piece of political demagoguery."

One of Eisenhower's friends said:

"He is not going to get into any quarrel with Truman. He's going to see Gen. MacArthur, as he said he would, to get MacArthur's views on the best way to bring peace to the far east. He is not going to become involved in any fight over it.

Another told this reporter:

"He will stand on the sidelines in the Truman-MacArthur affair. Truman has said some harsh things about Ike — but it's my guess that he, Eisenhower, won't make a reply."

MacArthur has insulted he has a peace plan for Korea—and Truman has said if he does have one then he should come forward with it and put it before the present administration.

The Eisenhower position was disclosed shortly before part of the group taking part in policy discussions left here for the mainland.

Secrtary of defense designate, Charles E. Wilson, was in that group.

President Slams the Door On Proposals for Meeting

By ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 (AP)—President Truman today denounced President-elect Eisenhower's trip to Korea as a piece of demagoguery and said he doubts that Gen. MacArthur has any solution to end the Korean war.

Virtually slamming the door on proposals for a White House meeting with Eisenhower and MacArthur, the president told his news conference he believes such a conference would serve no useful purpose.

The proposals had been made by members of Congress. Truman said that as a matter of courtesy he would be glad to see Eisenhower and MacArthur at any time if they have anything to discuss. But he made it clear the initiative would have to come from them.

The president also made it plain that although he considers it MacArthur's duty as a soldier to come forward if he has any solution for the war—and to present it through military channels—Truman does not plan to force the general's hand.

It is a little late for that now, the president said.

In scornful tones, Truman said he doubts that MacArthur has anything new to offer beyond the proposals made last year and rejected by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

And he accused MacArthur of giving him what he termed a lot of mis-information about events in Korea when they met on Wake Island to discuss the Far East situation in Oct. 14, 1950.

As for Eisenhower's trip to the Korean War zone, Truman bluntly said the president-elect's announcement during the political campaign that he planned to go to Korea was demagoguery.

Webster's New International Dictionary defines a demagogue as "one skilled in arousing the prejudices and emotions of the populace by rhetoric, sensational charges, specious arguments, catch words, cajolery, etc.' . . . in order to gain political influence or office."

The president said that during the campaign he himself had been urged to announce that he would go to Korea and that the war would be over by Christmas. He turned the proposal down, he said.

Rammed Vessel Sinks in SF Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11 (AP)—A grinding collision in a heavy fog sent the 416-foot Norwegian Ms. Fernstream to the bottom of San Francisco Bay today.

The crew of 42 and 11 passengers, including four children, were picked up safely by the Coast Guard and by commercial craft just before the combination freight and passenger vessel sank stern first, about midway between Golden Gate Bridge and Alcatraz Island prison.

The Fernstream was rammed amidship, on the port side, by the Matson freighter, Hawaiian Rancher. The Rancher, not damaged vitally, proceeded under her own steam to a shipyard for survey. She carried five passengers and a cargo of 8000 tons of raw sugar and 2000 tons of molasses from Hawaii.

The accident occurred in a dense, murkey drizzle. The surface of the bay was quite smooth. The Fernstream was outbound for Manila, Hong Kong and Yokohama. The Hawaiian Rancher had just crossed under Golden Gate Bridge to enter the bay.

A DYING SHIP — San Francisco—Heeling over on its port side, the Norwegian motor ship Fernstream starts for the bottom of San Francisco bay after being involved in a collision with the freighter Hawaiian Rancher in San Francisco Bay today. The 54 persons aboard the Fernstream were saved. This picture was taken by Dr. Willard Strode of Tucson, Ariz., who was a passenger on the Hawaiian Rancher. (AP Wirephoto)

CIO Will Use Labor Dispute to Test Taft-Hartley Provisions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. (AP)—The CIO tonight seized on a labor union dispute involving the American Locomotive Co. as the means of trying for a quick supreme test of the Taft-Hartley's entire national emergency provisions.

Arthur S. Goldberg, CIO general counsel, told reporters that big labor organization has been waiting patiently for an opportunity to challege the T-H law's national emergency procedure and decide a case now developing offers the chance.

Goldberg's statement came after President Truman instructed the justice department to obtain an injuction to halt a strike at the Dunkirk, N. Y. plant of the American Locomotive Co.

The company produces materials which Truman said are vital to construction of atomic energy plants. It was for that reason the president is invoking the 80 - day injunction provided by the Taft-Hartley act which Truman had repeatedly denounced.

The struck plant has been shut down since Aug. 29 in a dispute over terms of a new work contract.

The justice department probably will apply for the "cooling-off" period injunction tomorrow at Buffalo.

If it is granted, Goldberg said the CIO will attack it on the ground that in writing the Taft-Hartley law congress did not declare strikes to be illegal, but merely attempted to confer upon a federal court the right to enjoin emergency strikes.

In the absence of any language denying a national emergency strike as a crime, Goldberg contends it is unconstitutional for such a strike to be enjoined by declaration of a federal court.

Search Party Finds 13 Dead In Wreckage

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 11. (AP)—All 13 men aboard a C-47 transport plane that crashed into 11,485-foot Mt. San Gorgonio Dec. 1 are dead, March air force base announced today.

A ground party returned from the scene and reported the three crewmen and 10 passengers on the Omaha to Riverside flight apparently died instantly when the craft hit the peak at the 10,000-foot level.

Condition of the bodies prevented immediate identification, so the scene was left as it was found.

Meanwhile, authorities at Norton AFB near San Bernardino announced that a second ground party will be sent to the scene, probably tomorrow, to arrange for removal of the dead.

Because of the forbidden terrain it took more than a week to reach the wreckage.

Tri-County MWD Talks Set Today In San Bernardino

Officials of the Orange county Water District, which has an injunction suit on file in San Bernardino county to restrain the cities of San Bernardino, Redlands, Colton and Riverside from increasing their extraction of water from the Santa Ana river basin, have scheduled a luncheon meeting in San Bernardino today noon with Attorney James Kling, representing the upriver defendants cities.

Attorney H. Rodger Howell and Engineer Paul Bailey of the Orange county district will confer with King on progress of a movement in the two upriver counties toward annexing that territory to the Metropolitan Water District, so that the cities and rural territory there can import Colorado river water, as Orange county is doing.

The injunction suit, which, if successful, would cut back the use of local basin water by the four cities to the amount they were pumping five years ago, has been allowed to remain dormant while Orange county interests watch developments in Riverside and San Bernardino counties with respect to MWD annexation. Upriver interest have been advised that if the two counties join MWD, as Orange county has done, the injunction suit will not be pressed.

The suit was filed Oct. 1, 1951. Summons was served on the defendant cities just prior to Oct. 1, 1952, to prevent the action from being dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Local officials say that there is a strong movement, particularly in San Bernardino county, to join MWD and an organization has been formed to promote the project in both counties, but some objections have arisen in Riverside county, particularly from Corona interests.

Today's luncheon with King is expected to bring the Orange county officials up to date on the situation.

Houston Strip Votes to Annex

Residents of the Houston area annexation area yesterday balloted 21 to 5 in favor of annexing their territory to the city of Anaheim, City Clerk Charles Griffith reported last night.

The annexation should be completed by Feb. 15, according to Griffith, and will bring into the city an irregular strip of territory running along the north side of LaPalma ave., up to Houston ave., then to Magnolia and out Magnolia to Dale ave., which is Buena Park's proposed eastern boundary.

Truman Says He'll Have New WSB This Week—With Industry Members

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. (AP)—President Truman and his economic stabilizer said today they have licked the problem of getting business men back on the wage stabilization board.

Truman told a news conference he expects to have the crippled board back on its feet before the end of the week, with a whole new panel of industry representatives.

The board fell apart last Saturday when all seven of its industry members quit en masse with a bitter blast at Truman's intervention in the soft coal miners' wage case. They said Truman's overruling of a board decision in the case made the controls program a "mockery."

Pressure immediately began building up from business organizations and at least one big labor organization — the CIO — for a junking of controls.

But Truman said today he would have plenty of volunteers from industry's ranks for the vacant wage board seats before the week is out. Good men, too, he added. He said he also expects to have a new economic stabilization administrator when Roger Putnam steps out of that post on Jan. 1.

Putnam, who bowed to the president's action in the coal case although he was against it, followed up by telling reporters the problem of reconstructing the wage board "has been solved."

Putnam said at least half a dozen business men and industrialists, including "some quite big names," have telegraphed him that they disagreed with the action taken by the industry members who quit the wage board.

He said he has sent the names of seven or eight men who have agreed to serve on the board to the White House.

UC Requests Big Appropriation

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The University of California has requested $30,844,700 for capital outlay during the 1953-54 fiscal year, according to announcement made by the state department of finance.

Purpose of the program, the department was told during a budget hearing, is for the University to keep pace with its growth and replace certain temporary and obsolete structures.

The request covers all the campii operated by the university.

There are only about four billion acres of arable land left in the world today—not all of it good—which must feed a world population of about two billion.

New Road Ruling

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Highway Commission may construct a highway through a city and close or alter city streets without the consent of the city, Attorney General Edmund G. Brown ruled today.

He held, however, that the state could not change nor vacate city streets without the city's agreement.

Should a freeway in effect close a city street, Brown wrote, the interest of the state must prevail, since State highways are of statewide concern.

Angeleno Glad Citizens Bought Bonds for Ship

ABOARD USS LOS ANGELES IN KOREAN WATERS, Dec. 9—(Delayed) (AP) — A native of Los Angeles today was grateful that citizens of the California city bought enough war bonds to build the cruiser Los Angeles.

Ens. George E. Tompkins, who was born in Woodland Hills in the San Fernando valley, was plucked out of the Sea of Japan by a helicopter from the big cruiser. Tompkins, a fighter pilot off the carrier Essex, had to ditch his plane when enemy fire ruptured the oil line. He was in the water less than a minute. It was his first mishap in 42 missions.

"Sure didn't expect to get back to Los Angeles this quick," was the pilot's first comment when he was hauled aboard.

His wife, Mrs. Jerri King Tompkins, lives at North Crystal Village, Minn.

Badge of Honor

By REV. Wm. McKINLEY WALKER
Wesley Methodist Church

"So you are an Eagle Scout?" remarked Judge George W. Martin to Ray Scott. "Well, that's enough for me. I don't believe an Eagle Scout would commit robbery. I believe you are telling the truth, and I am going to dismiss the charge. Also, I'll get you a job as a sailor."

Thus the fact that Scott, a youth of 19, was an Eagle Scout saved him from prosecution and resulted in his securing a job, when he was brought before Judge Martin to answer a charge of burglary.

"I'm an Eagle Scout, your honor," said Scott, as he faced the judge. "I've never done anything to dishonor my standing as such," and as indicated by the United Press, the judge accepted the lad's statements, and immediately became interested in him. The sequel was related as follows:

Judge Martin went to the telephone, called the Seaman's Institute, and half an hour later Ray Scott was signed up for a voyage as a sailor."

While there is so much dishonesty in the world, it is refreshing to learn that there are still many young men and women who will not go back upon their Scout oath and will remain honest under all kinds of temptation.

The writer of the Book of Hebrews says, "Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly." (13:18)

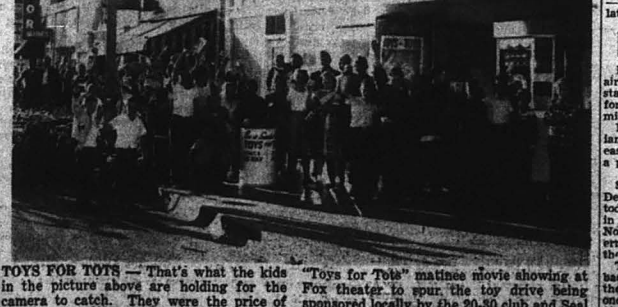

Let's make this our morning prayer today.

Pastor to Chart Bible Growth from Greek, Hebrew

In the 11 o'clock service at Wesley Methodist church Sunday, Rev. Walker plans to use charts in Hebrew and Greek, showing his congregation some of the difficulties the translators had in giving us the present Bible we so much enjoy.

Mr. Walker says that this is an innovation for him as he has never used charts and diagrams in his morning services, but feels that on this Bible Sunday, he will make an exception for the benefit of those who have imagined the Bible was always in the English language.

The choir, under the direction of Margaret Elliott, will sing Franz Gruber's anthem, "Silent Night" with soprano descant.

The Sunday school with Leota Nipp, superintendent, meets at the usual hour, 9:45, with classes for all ages.

Anaheimer Files Suit for Divorce

Seeking either annulment or divorce, Lawrence M. Vejar of Anaheim yesterday filed suit in superior court for a divorce from his bride of four months, Betty Jean Hopewell Vejar. He claimed that she never lived with him as his wife, and did not intend to at the time of their marriage in Anaheim last Aug. 16.

On that charge he asked annulment of the marriage on the grounds of fraud. As an alternative he asked for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. The couple separated Nov. 28, according to the complaint filed through Attorney Elmer R. Guy.

In another divorce action brought through Attorney Guy yesterday, Mrs Virgie Stone seeks a divorce from Homer Stone on grounds of cruelty and habitual intemperance. They were married July 9, 1930, and separated last Nov. 9.

Mrs. Stone asks custody of their son, 17, division of community property, listed as furniture and a car; $60 per month for support of the son and $50 per month for support of herself, besides costs and attorney fees; and a restraining order to prevent her husband from molesting her.

Need for a Vision Is Sermon Theme

Without the vision of an ideal, Leonardo da Vinci would not lift a brush to the canvas. It was especially so in his great masterpiece, "The Last Supper." For days he awaited the moment when the face of Christ would be revealed to him in a manner worthy to represent his matchless perfection. The vision came, and all after ages have been ennobled by its reproduction. Thus without a vision there would never have been a "Last Supper."

Sunday morning at Bethel Baptist church Rev. Bert Jacksteit will bring out the importance of a personal vision, when he speaks on the subject, "Where There is No Vision."

Pastor Jacksteit will be leading the 7:30 Family Sing Service. This service has been stream-lined to just one short hour; with the theme being, "What if You had Lived in Jerusalem."

Topic is 'God's Preserving Power'

Biblical illustrations of God's power and willingness to preserve and to heal those who trust in Him are included in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. The subject will be "God the Preserver of Man."

The Golden Text from Psalms (25.2.21.22) reads, "O my God I trust in thee: . . Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee. Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles."

A passage from The Acts (3:6-8) relates that Peter replied to the man, lame from birth, who asked alms at the gate of the temple, "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk . . . And immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping, and praising God."

First Presbyterian

"Something was Left Out" will be the topic of the Rev. Howard S. Congdon's discourse during the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday in First Presbyterian church, 310 W. Broadway.

Sunday school begins at 9:45 a.m.

PCC Will Invite Big Ten to Renew Pact

PASADENA, Dec. 11 (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference, which has been taking it on the chin from the Big Ten in the Rose Bowl year after year, obviously enjoys it.

It voted today to invite the Midwesterners to extend their agreement for three years after the present contract is up Jan. 1, 1954.

So far, in six meetings since the two conferences signed to send their champions to the Rose Bowl, the Big Ten has won every time. Southern California gets a chance to end the jinx against Wisconsin next New Year's Day.

The PCC's faculty representatives, who voted the bid, made it plain that the invitation won't be extended if the NCAA legislates against bowl games at its session in Washington, D.C., next month.

In Chicago, aides of Big Ten Commissioner Kenneth L. Tug Wilson said they would have no comment on the Coast Conference's action as the invitation would not be extended to the Big Ten until after the first of the year. Wilson himself was out of town.

Today's action by the Coast Conference refuted a statement made recently by Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State College, who criticized the Rose Bowl game and added that he believed most of his colleagues on the Coast felt the same way as he did.

The Rose Bowl agreement is a three-way deal between the two conferences and the Tournament of Roses Association of Pasadena. The Coast has until March 15, 1954, to renew its relations with the Tournament Association.

Conference Spokesman H. P. Everest, vice president of the University of Washington, made the announcement as the conference held the final sessions of its winter meeting.

The conference announced it is scrapping an earlier ruling which would have become effective in 1956 and would have limited schools to nine games per season, instead of the present 10. Effective in 1956 there will be a home and home round-robin schedule involving all of the teams with the exception of Idaho. This will mean that the schools must play seven conference opponents and three non-conference teams.

Jim Sears Wins Voit Grid Trophy

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11 (AP)—Jim Sears, see fullback of Rose Bowl-bound Trojans of Southern California, is the 1952 winner of the W. J. Voit Memorial Football Trophy, the Helms Athletic Foundation announced today.

Sears will be presented with a replica of the trophy at the Dec. 15 meeting of the Southern California Football Writers Association. He was chosen by a vote of Pacific Coast sports editors, conducted by the Helms organization.

The trophy was presented by Willard Voit, president of the W. J. Voit Rubber Corp. Stanford's Bill McColl won the award last year.

British Promoter Says Sugar Ray Will Meet Turpin

LONDON, Dec. 11 (AP)—British Promoter Jack Solomons kept the middleweight controversy going today by declaring that Sugar Ray Robinson has "definitely agreed" to defend his world middleweight crown against Randy Turpin on June 9 in either London or Dublin.

And to back up his statement, Solomons turned over to the British boxing board of control the signed contracts of Turpin and his manager, and a bunch of cablegrams from George Gainford, Robinson's manager.

That constitutes a binding agreement, said Ted Waltham, secretary of the BBBC. Onslow Fane, chairman of the BBBC, said that should be enough to convince the New York state athletic commission that Robinson "intended to defend his title against Turpin."

In New York, however, Chairman Bob Christenberry of the state athletic commission, said he wasn't impressed.

"I don't think we can wait until June," he said.

The New York commission vacated Robinson's title in the state last week, subject to review on Dec. 19.

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

Big 10 May Vote Against Renewal Of Gridiron Pact

CHICAGO, Dec. 11 (AP)—Midwest speculation is growing that the Big Ten will vote against renewal of the Rose Bowl pact with the Pacific Conference when the current football series expires with the 1954 New Year's Day game.

The Big Ten probably won't get around to polling its members on the question until the spring meeting in May, and the matter may be delayed until next December.

Pending official action, however, speculation persists that the vote will be 6-4 or 7-3 against renewal.

Some Big Ten officials insist that the series will be resumed if Southern California defeats Wisconsin Jan. 1 to give the PCC its first Rose Bowl victory since the series began.

There still is a considerable tug-o'-war behind the scenes to line up sides on the issue. This probably will become more intense after today's announcement from Pasadena that the PCC voted to invite the Big Ten to renew the pact for three more years.

HEAP BIG INDIANS — Two of the king-sized tackles who'll play for Bacone Junior College of Muskogee, Okla., in the Little Rose Bowl game Dec. 13 against Hartnell Junior College of Salinas, Calif., make it plain for photographers that the squad is made up mostly of Indians. The big boys, working out in Pasadena are David Horse (left), 240, and Fred Jones, 235. Both teams are undefeated.

Fred Haney Gets Big New Headache; Signs to Guide NL Cellar Team

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11. (AP) — Fred Haney, who won two pennants in four years as skipper of the high - flying Pacific Coast league Hollywood Stars, took on the biggest managerial headache of his baseball career today—pulling the luckless Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National league cellar.

Haney signed a one-year contract as Pirate manager to succeed Billy Meyer who resigned after the 1952 campaign. Meyer, bothered by stomach trouble, said he couldn't take another tough season at the helm of the rookie-dotted Bucs.

Neither the Pirates nor Haney disclosed how much money the new 54-year-old manager will draw for his second whirl in the major league field general department in 11 years. Haney piloted the St. Louis Browns from 1939 to June 4, 1951.

Signing of Haney surprised no one. But his one year contract surprised everybody. There had been considerable conjecture that Haney wanted more than a one-year pact, the kind General Manager Branch Rickey prefers to dish out.

But Haney flew here from the coast, talked a while with Rickey and the agreement was sealed.

Haney said he signed because Rickey wanted him to. The genial Dutch-Irishman said he felt obligated to Rickey for helping his Hollywood club. In Hollywood, executive vice president, Robert H. Cobb of the Stars said the club is elated over the appointment.

Ted Schroeder Heads for Australia In Attempt to Sign Tennis Players

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11. (AP)—Ted Schroeder, the former U. S. Davis cup star, planes out tonight for Australia, reportedly carrying along attractive offers for Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor to turn pro.

A sports publicity man told a reporter that Schroeder will approach the two Aussie tennis stars after the upcoming Davis cup matches.

The Aussies would want to kill him if he tried to get the two to turn pro before the matches," the publicist added.

Schroeder readily admitted that he is going to Australia to cover the matches for Australian newspapers and radio stations.

When a reporter asked him if it were true that he would approach Sedgman and McGregor with offers to join Jack Kramer and Pancho Segsura on a world pro tour, Schroeder hesitated and replied:

"I'm trying to think of a congressman's answer to that question—you know, neither to affirm or deny it, use a lot of words and still say nothing."

Schroeder said he and Kramer have been friends and competitors for 20 years.

"You could say that there isn't much, short of murder, that I wouldn't do for Jack. Like Garcia, I could carry a message."

Schroeder, still an amateur, said he doesn't play tennis at all anymore.

"I'm too busy chasing dollars," quipped the refrigerator salesman.

Reports have been around for sometime that the two great Australian stars will turn pro.

Schroeder said his own amateur standing won't be affected by his Australian chores.

"As long as I don't bat any balls across that net, I remain pure as the driven snow."

Kramer could not be reached for comment.

Indian Tennis Players May Meet U.S. Team

BRISBANE, Australia, Dec. 11. (AP)—The surprising India Davis cup team was given a chance today of upsetting Italy and qualifying to meet the United States in the interzone finals after gaining an even break in the opening singles matches.

India's hopes depend largely on Sumar Isra, a tall tennis player with a fine service, who routed Italy's Rolando del Bello, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1 today after Fausto Gardini had beaten Naresh Kumar, 6-1, 5-7, 7-5, 6-2.

If Misra can carry his partner, Kumar, through against Del Bello and Gianni Cucelli in tomorrow's doubles, he will be favored to beat Gardini in Saturday's singles for the deciding point. And after seeing Misra wallop the ball today, Australian tennis experts had to concede that he might be able to do it, though the Indians will have a tough time with the experienced Italian pair.

The Italians appeared somewhat handicapped today by the hot sun, which beat down on the 2000 spectators, and the temperature of above 90 degrees.

Marciano Will Meet Walcott

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano will defend his title against Jersey Joe Walcott in late March or early April, promoter Jim Norris said today.

The president of the International Boxing club said five cities are being considered for the return bout and that a decision on the site would be made within a week. He said the places under consideration are New York, Chicago, Miami, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Racing Stewards Blast Jockey's Hopes for Record

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 11 (AP)—Tropical park's racing stewards blasted Tony Despirito's hopes for a new American winning record today by suspending the leading jockey for 10 days, and will decide tomorrow whether to extend the suspension for another faulty ride in today's sixth race.

The 17-year-old apprentice jockey—with 370 winners this year—was grounded until Christmas eve for allowing his mount to interfere with another horse in yesterday's fourth race. That virtually wiped out his chance of breaking the record of 388 winners in a year.

Despirito was allowed to ride out his mounts today. Three hours after the suspension was announced, he was disqualified in the sixth race for allowing his horse, Nightown, to interfere with Dom W., ridden by Freddie Ryan, about 70 yards from the finish line.

Nightown finished third but was disqualified and placed last in the field of 12 two-year-olds. Dom W. was out of the money.

It was Ryan who lodged a claim of foul against Despirito Wednesday which brought about his 10-day suspension.

TV Discussed

PASADENA, Dec. 11 (AP)—Athletic directors of the Pacific Coast Conference discussed the problem of live football television before today and were unable to reach a decision on a policy to be recommended to the NCAA convention Jan. 9 to 11 in Washington, D.C.

The meeting was adjourned to permit the directors to make their train and plane reservations but they will meet again in special session at the Cliff Hotel in San Francisco Sunday, Dec. 21.

EUREKA, Dec. 11. (AP)—Pasadena Nazarene college displayed a smooth working offense as it rang up a 90-72 basketball victory tonight over Humboldt State.

All 4 Colonist Cage Teams See Action

Bees, Cees, Dees Trek to Whittier

Although Coach Lloyd Paxton's mighty little Anaheim high Dee team has racked up five straight wins this season, they face their stiffest test this afternoon as they meet the always powerful Whittier Dees quad on the Cardinal's court.

The mighty midget cage squad is out to break a hex of long standing that has yet to see an Anaheim Dee team defeat a Whittier team in the history of mutual competition.

With Ken Harper, dead-eye forward pacing the attack, they may turn the trick. Harper, persistent high point man on the squad, bucketed 13 in their Garden Grove game Tuesday to score more points than all the rest of his teammates combined.

He gets strong support, however, from center Jack Trott, guards Jerry Tangney and Tommie Stagner, and forward George Dent.

Last year the Dee squad, composed almost exclusively of freshmen, took a third place in the league.

Their bigger brothers, Bill Hiett's Cee squad, will meet the Whittier team at the same time, looking for their second victory of the season after having finally broken into the win column Tuesday for the first time against Garden Grove.

Quarterbacks of Las Vegas Vote To Help Azzara

Dick May, end on the Las Vegas high school football team, has written to Sammy Azzara, of the Colonist eleven, that he will be in Anaheim to visit with Sam soon.

May and Azarra were both injured in the Anaheim-Las Vegas game, the former with a broken arm, the latter with a broken leg.

May enclosed a clipping from the Las Vegas Journal, in his letter which revealed that the executive committee of the Las Vegas Quarterback club had voted to help pay some of the heavy expenses incurred by Sammy's parents because of the injury.

The Quarterbacks went on record as saying they were "in favor of splitting any differences with the athletic department, after students of the high school have contributed to the fund.

Sam is learning to walk with the aid of crutches, now that his casts have been removed.

Anahi Varsity Meets La Jolla

In search of their sixth straight win, Anaheim high's varsity cage squad faces a powerful La Jolla team tonight in AUHS gym at 7:30 p.m.

Although La Jolla rates as strictly an unknown quality, Coach Bill Hunstock warns that the high school has a traditional "basketball" school always boasting a strong team.

One of the few night games carded for the AUHS gym this year, the tussel has been tabbed one of the "big" games of the practice season. An admission of 25 cents will be charged of students and townsfolk alike and such touches of refinement as game programs and an organized rooting section will also be provided.

Tall Dennis Ryan, on the strength of his showing in a practice set-to with Balmag's TV team Wednesday night, has probably won a berth on the starting five for the tilt tonight.

He's replacing hot shot George Bishop who suffered back injuries during a brief period of action in Tuesday's Garden Grove game. Gayle Herbel, out with toboggan injuries for several games prior to the Grove game, where he saw only limited action, will be back up front to pace the Colonist attack.

Starting lineup will probably see Ryan and either Herbel or Navarro at forward; Moody at center and Roberts and Ames at guard.

Anaheim's Bee squad has tentatively been slated for a curtain raiser on the same floor; while the JV Bees, Cees and Dees all head to Whittier. Both Cees and Dees are undefeated this season. The Cees won their first game of the season last Tuesday against Garden Grove.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 11. (AP)—Wisconsin football coach, Ivy Williamson put the emphasis on blocking today, directing his 44-man Rose bowl squad through a stiff session against dummies.

SLOWED DOWN — Anthony Despirito,, shown above getting a rubdown, got bad news today from the stewards at Tropical Park. With a total of 370 winners booted home in his attempt to beat the world's record of 388 victories in one year, the little jock got the word that he has been suspended for 10 days for rough riding. He may get six more for a similar offense committed today. (AP Wirephoto)

Ole Miss Named Surprise Team of Year in AP Poll

By Hugh FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. (AP)—The football experts, who couldn't see the Mississippi Rebels at all when the 1952 football season started, conceded today that an undefeated season, a Sugar bowl invitation and the biggest upset of the season had made Ole Miss the surprise team of the year.

In picking the order of finish in the southeastern conference before the season started, the experts rightly gave Georgia Tech the call, but they weren't overly surprised when Tech finished with 11 straight victories.

But Ole Miss wasn't figured to do much and its rating didn't improve when it played tie games with Kentucky and Vanderbilt, neither of which was highly rated.

Then the Rebels, improving from week to week, began to roll. They beat Tulane, Arkansas, Louisiana State and Houston by convincing margins then topped it off with a 21-14 triumph over highly rated Maryland. That victory was tabbed as the season's biggest upset by the sports writers and broadcasters replying to the Associated Press post-season questionaire. Today the same group designated Mississippi as the most surprising team.

Ole Miss finished the season with eight victories and two ties and will meet Georgia Tech in the Sugar bowl Jan. 1. That was enough to satisfy 27 of the experts who participated in the balloting. Twenty-two chose Pittsburgh; 18 Yale and 16 Notre Dame.

Pitt was a surprise two ways. Coach Red Dawsons Panthers, after absorbing a beating from Oklahoma, bounced back to beat Notre Dame, 22-19, and Army, 22-14. Then they were the victims of a 16-0 upset at the hands of West Virginia. The final count was six victories and three defeats.

The Notre Dame team, short of manpower in Coach Frank Leahy's pre-season analysis, was tied by Pennsylvania and beaten by Pitt in its first three games. After that the Irish lost only to national champion Michigan State, numbering the champions of four major conferences among its seven victims.

Yale, which had a miserable 1951 season and did not have the benefit of spring practice, acquired a brand new head coach only three weeks before the start of practice.

Naturally not much was expected under such circumstances, but somehow the Elis under Jordan Olivar's coaching won seven of their nine games, losing only to Navy and Princeton, two of the top eastern powers.

Southern California, the Pacific coast conference champion which lost only to Notre Dame in its final game, was rated the No. 5 surprise by the experts. The Trojans received 12 votes. Then came Minnesota and Alabama with nine each.

In all, 28 colleges figured in the "surprise" listing, some of which were surprising in their failure to live up to pre-season ratings. Among these was Illinois, mentioned six times, Iowa, winner of only two games, got a pair of votes, one because "it showed up at all nine games and won two of them."

Others mentioned were Missouri and UCLA, 7 each; Mississippi State, Navy, 4; Army, California and West Virginia, 3 each; Houston, Syracuse and Vanderbilt, 2 each, and New Mexico, Penn State, Maryland, Kentucky, Villanova, Purdue, Florida, Georgia Tech and Wisconsin one each.

WINS NEIL AWARD — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano (above) was named the winner of the Edward J. LA Marital Odds Worse than Races'

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11 (AP)—Some of the odds at Santa Anita racetrack are better than the average Los Angeles man's chances of holding onto his wife, children, home and community property for 20 years after his marriage.

Jack Lincke, executive secretary of Children's Bill of Rights, Inc., an organization set up to study divorce and its effect on minor children, says there were 29,459 marriages here last year and 26,651 divorces, and that 12,015 minor children were involved in the breakup of the homes.

This year, Lincke says, the ratio of divorce to marriage will be even higher, based on figures for the first 10 months.

Lincke said a man marrying here today has a 71.2 per cent chance of losing his family and 75 per cent of his community property within two decades. Santa Anita will give you much better odds than that, Lincke observed.

Los Angeles Wholesale Beef Prices Reaches Lowest Point in Three Years

Beef prices on the Los Angeles wholesale market have reached the lowest mark in more than three years, continuing the downward trend started early this autumn, the November agricultural report of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce showed yesterday.

"And yet despite price drops, local livestock marketing continues heavy," said Chairman William C. Tesche of the Chamber's agricultural committee, "with cattle inventories higher this year than the record number of cattle of last year."

Lowered prices have caused many livestock operators to reduce their holdings of hogs, lambs, and sheep, he said, although some are holding onto their stock in the hope of "riding out" the present price slump.

Tesche reported that Southland winter specialty crops, currently rolling to eastern markets, are expected to show a substantial increase over last year's crop.

"Harvest of grapefruit, oranges, lemons, and lettuce is expected to exceed last year's output, although the avocado pack for the new season is estimated to be 20 per cent below last year's record crop."

Reviewing the summer crop season which ended late last month, Tesche said that walnut production topped early estimates by four per cent. He blamed recent heavy rains and frost for delay in harvest of the state's record cotton crop and damage to late fields of lettuce, alfalfa, lima beans, and flowers.

Some damage to market tomatoes by the rain has been reported, he said, although a good harvest of canning tomatoes has been completed desipte inclement weather conditions.

Stantonite Held On Reefer Charge

One defendant was convicted and one acquitted by the jury which heard charges of possession of marijuana against Macario Moses Carranza, 27, of Stanton, and Raul Padilla, 18, of Los Alamitos. Carranza, who was found guilty, applied for probation and will receive a hearing Dec. 29 before Superior Judge Kenneth E. Morrison.

Padilla was freed of the charge.

California Highway Patrolmen Paul Kelby and T. M. Blakemore, who arrested the two men after finding a pack of eight marijuana cigarettes and part of a freshly smoked "reefer" in their car, which the officers were giving a "shake-down" while investigating a robbery. Both defendants denied any knowledge of the cigarets which were found in the rear seat, where Carranza had been seated. Padilla was in the front seat.

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of public work today awarded an $87,832.35 contract to Justice-Dunn Company, Oakland, for roadside planting and installation of a watering system on the Santa Ana Freeway between Eastman and Tod aves.

GE Celebrates Five Accident-less Years of Operation at Banquet

A dinner celebrating five years of operation without a single lost-time accident was held last night at the Elk's club by all of the employees of the General Electric's Anaheim Chemical plant. J. E. "Pat" Patterson, west coast manager, and J. B. "Joe" Holmes, plant manager, acted as co-hosts to the 30 employees attending. Last Monday, Dec. 8, was the date marking the end of the five year accident-free period.

A continued alertness on the part of employees and supervisory personnel to precautionary measures and safety regulations is the reason this record has been established, Holmes said. He also pointed out that safety in operations is one of the subjects always on the agenda at monthly meetings attended by all employees.

If the Anaheim plant had kept pace with the national average for small chemical plants (under 250 employees) seven persons would have been seriously injured during the five year period just completed, Holmes stated. Further, he added, had his group just matched the average of General Electric's six other chemical plants around the nation, one employee would have been injured.

Congratulatory messages from the company's executives in eastern headquarters, a commemorating plaque, and complimentary lapel buttons for all employees were presented during the banquet ceremonies.

Recognition was recently given to this same plant group in the form of a Certificate of Commendation from the National Safety Council for having gone 287,265 man-hours without a disabling accident. This award was presented last Aug. 6 by L. W. VanAken, president of the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council.

The plant manufactures alkyd resin products used by the paint, plastic, and allied industries in the west coast area.

Phone Co. Pays Tax Installment

Pacific Telephone handed the county tax collector a check for $181,421.96 today as the first installment of its 1952-1953 property taxes.

Second installment of the company's taxes will be paid next April. It will amount to $181,423.87 for a fiscal-year total of $362,845.83.

Anaheim Manager R. J. Rossherr, who reported the payment in behalf of the telephone company, said that telephone taxes have steadily increased. "The company is now paying property taxes averaging $5.64 per telephone in Orange county," he said. "Total taxes, excluding excise taxes collected for the federal government, paid by the telephone company during the 1951-1952 fiscal year will amount to an estimated $19.86 per telephone. This compares with $8.76 for the years 1935 to 1939."

The company now serves more than 64,000 telephones in the 34 Orange county exchanges.

Cal-Vet Bonds To be Sold to Highest Bidder

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson today announced $100,000,000 in California Veterans Bonds will be sold under sealed bids in the state capitol Feb. 3.

The bonds, he said, will be sold to the bidder whose terms result in the lowest net interest cost to the state.

The $100,000,000 issue is a part of a $150,000,000 fund authorized by California voters in the general election Nov. 4.

Sale of the bonds was authorized earlier by the Veterans Finance committee, headed by Governor Earl Warren. The committee acted on a request by the state department of veterans affairs, which invests the funds in farms and homes for California war veterans.

Johnson said proceeds from next February's sale will be used in part to finance such purchases through 1953, and in part to repay money borrowed from the state's general fund after a previous veterans bond issue was exhausted last spring.

The legislature in March authorized a $55,000,000 interim fund to continue veteran financing, pending action by the voters of the state on a new bond issue.

A formal notice of the $100,000,000 bond sale will be sent to Bond houses and financial institutions throughout the nation, Johnson stated.

Limbless South African Helped By Secretary

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11 (AP)—Mrs. Audrey McRann, secretary in a termite-control company, has a sympathetic heart. Last August she opened by mistake a letter to the artificial-limb concern that formerly occupied her firm's address.

Eric Schultz, 28, in Johannesburg, South Africa, had written that his motorcycle collided with a train when he was 23, and—

"... Both of my legs are amputated below the knees, my left arm at the wrist, and my right arm at the elbow ..."

Mrs. McRann, the mother of two youths herself, read on:

"The limbs with which I was fitted have proved most unsatisfactory as they were made on a trial and error basis by a factory having little experience in limbs which operate."

He asked for a catalogue of artificial limbs. Mrs. McRann got him much more that. She phoned and wrote to dozens of experts on artificial limbs. One was Tonnes Dennison, director of case study in a UCLA department that specializes in the subject.

The upshot is that Eric will enter that university here Jan. 9 and be given a new set of arms. An instructor who is armless himself will show him how to use them, Dennison promised. "In six weeks Eric will be in a position to teach others."

Afterward Eric will go to the Naval Hospital in San Francisco, where experts from the University of California, Berkeley, will equip him with new legs.

Mrs. McRann's employer offered to pay Eric's plane fare here. But Eric wrote that an international service club in Johannesburg is taking care of that. A member of the club will meet him at every stop on the way here. He'll stay at the home of Mrs. McRann and her husband, Roy 44.

Nelson Will Probate Asked

Alex P. Nelson, former district attorney of Orange county, has petitioned superior court to probate the last will of his wife, the late Mrs. Frances R. Nelson, who died Oct. 31.

A copy of the will was filed with the petition, naming her husband as heir to the estate, consisting of residence property at 808 N. Parton st., Santa Ana, and personal property worth $2500, the estate having an annual income estimated at $480.

The original will was mislaid during confusion at the time of Mrs. Nelson's death, the petition stated.

Suceeding Mrs. Dorothy Kalndic, who recently resigned, Mrs. Johnson will reach Orange county soon after Jan. 1 to assume her duties, it was stated.

She is a graduate of Passavant Memorial hospital nursing school at Jacksonville, Ill., holds a BS degree from McMurray college at Jacksonville and a MA degree in nursing education from Colorado State college, Greeley.

Her professional experience includes supervisory positions at the Illinois school for the deaf, Cook county (Ill.) hospital, Mercy hospital of Kansas City; Kern general hospital at Bakersfield, and the Good Samaritan hospital at Dayton, O. The first executive board meeting of the Fourth District Parent-Teachers Association was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beaman at Katella. Miss E. Kate Rae, chairman of school education for the fourth district reported that there is no juvenile delinquency in Anaheim and attributed this condition to the efficient supervision of the play ground in the City park. Mrs. Fay Spangler reporting for Santa Ana said the decrease from 32 to 14 per cent was because of the supervision of the summer play ground. The meeting was for all day and a basket lunch was enjoyed at noon, the hostess serving coffee and salad.

Babies haven't any hair;
Old men's heads are just as bare—
Between the cradle and the grave
Lies a haircut and a shave.
—Samuel Hoffenstein.

• • •

INSPIRATIONAL—When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.—I Cor. 8:11.

• • •

NAMES—What's in a name? Reckon as how there's quite a bit to a name. Kids in school used to snicker when teacher called mine . . . And that gracious lady from Olive has a distinctive name —she's Mrs. Anna Heim. Actually, many of the pioneer Anaheimers spelled this community's name Annaheim . . . Herman Schacht, likewise, is the possessor of a proud name made famous one of his shirt-tail relatives, a financial genius . . . Know anyone whose names rhyme? Like Wayne Payne, f'instance.

• • •

NOTES—The 18 or 20,000 hogs in Orange county are for the most part are a byproduct of city life. They are garbage fed and serve a two-fold purpose. The commercial porkers have been the solution to the garbage disposal of Orange county communities. Now that County Health Officer Edward Lee Russell, and Dr. John Bower have discovered garbage-fed hogs to be disease infected, city administrators may have to find a new means of garbage disposal. Hog farms would also disappear from the scene, sterilizing garbage would be too expensive for feed. Raw garbage usually sells for $2.40 a ton.

• • •

HISTORY — Back in 1932 an outbreak VE—vesicular exanthema—was discovered in the Buena Park-Fullerton area where hogs were fed raw garbage. It was believed that the swine were suffering from hoof and mouth disease and were exterminated. Anaheimers still remember the slaughter of the pigs and how they were buried in lime-filled trenches.

• • •

PASSING—Warren Ashleigh is always a distinguished figure when he promenades along the main stem. The able Anaheimer is always on the alert to improve the old home town. You wouldn't know it by looking at him, but he was one of Anaheim's better athletes in his day . . . Herman Hiltscher who had the misfortune of losing both his mother and father within the year will be Fullerton's city administrator . . . Carlton Andrews recently completed an ambitious trip to the North American continent—18 states and Canada. . . . Everett Hoglund whom many Anaheimers remember as the bandmaster at the Balboa pavilion is now Mexico City restrauteur . . . Lloyd Lichteswalker is the able Anaheimer who runs a hep-yourself gastelon on the Intra-city strip, but he doesn't know any more about what's going to happen to that property across the street (Spad's - Orangethorpe - Lemon) . . . Walt Arrowood is an Anaheimer who knows his soap business.

• • •

QUIZZICALLY—Why did Anaheim's pioneer newspaperman leave town? George Barter was requested to leave Anaheim by a committee who disagreed with his editorial policy. He bought The Daily (LA Star) from Henry Hamilton as a subsequent move . . . Is it true that Northrop will enlarge its Anaheim plant? Yes, a new government contract will make it necessary for the concern to expand . . . Who was Orange county's first woman doctor? Alice Boyle Hixcins (No. 954) came to Anaheim in 1869 . . . Where was the old Colonial hotel located? The Colonial hotel, long Anaheim's social center, was located where the Valencia hotel now stands. The Valencia hotel was built in 1916-17 and was owned by John Zeigler. The pioneer Kroeger family were the owners of the Colonial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11. (AP) —Bobby Aragon, an airman from Parks air force base, won the flyweight senior class title in the Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament tonight when he scored a three round decision over Augie Angeles of Mountain View.

Penney Employees To Get Yule Bonus

Employees of Anaheim's J. C. Penney Co. branch received a welcome Christmas present yesterday at the store's first annual Christmas breakfast, held in the upstairs junchroom.

Store Manager George Stewart announced to the assembled employees that the directors of the parent organization have authorized a special year-end payment for more than 50,000 associates in the company's 1629 stores.

The year-end bonus will equal two weeks' pay for all fulltime employees who have been with the company for the full length of 1952. Proportionate amounts will be paid extra and part-time associates and those employed less than a year.

SAN QUENTIN, Dec. 11 (AP)—The swaggering little ball man who killed six persons in an aimless spree of kidnaping and murder across the Southwest two years ago spent what may be his last full day on earth today in morose silence.

William E. "Billy" Cook, who is scheduled to die in the San Quentin Penitentiary gas chamber at 10 a.m. Friday, has been a "sullen, solitary" figure ever since he entered death row a year ago, said Warden Harley O. Teets.

Solid food and interminable hours of "sack time" have made him fat and torpid.

Angry Moroccans Rush French Colonial Police

By JOHN RODERICK

RABAT, French Morocco, Dec. 11. (AP)—French Colonial police and soldiers today beat back 2,-000 angry Moroccan demonstrators marching on the European quarter here today and jailed 300 of them.

The mob charged, throwing stones, but the police scattered them with clubs. It was the major outbreak of a fifth day of riots and demonstrations, apparently protesting the wholesale arrest of nationalist leaders by the French.

Riotous demonstrators centering in Casablanca already have led to the deaths of seven or eight Europeans and many Moroccans this week.

French officials, trying to break the back of the demonstrations, today banned the Communist and Moroccan Independence parties. The ban followed by only a few hours of midnight roundup of 26 top level Independence party leaders.

Moroccan Communists were rounded up, hustled into planes and flown to France, while the Arab Nationalists were confined in police guarded quarters in Morocco's southern desert.

Among those flown to France was a citizen of Russia, Madame Tamara Ouss, who has been working for the Moroccan railway.

Armored cars patrolled streets, light planes flew overhead, and French Foreign Legion troops patrolled near Casablanca's central quarry, the scene of bloody rioting which took at least 200 lives Sunday and Monday.

French officials followed today's arrests with an imposing display of military force in Casablanca.

The action came on the eve of the Moslem Friday Sabbath. The Independence leaders had previously called for a day of mourning tomorrow when Moslems go to their mosques for prayer.

State Division of Beaches and Parks Awaits Outcome of Tideland Dispute

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state division of beaches and parks is looking with somewhat anxious eyes on the outcome of the controversy over the state's tidelands. It is expected that when the Republican administration succeeds to the White House that the paramount rights claimed by the federal government will be recalled, and that California once again will enjoy income from the oil royalties resulting from tideland production.

Since the federal government moved in several years ago, the state has impounded this revenue pending final settlement of the matter. The amount which has accrued to the credit of the division of beaches and parks totals about $27 million. The legislature set aside 70 per cent of the total revenue for this state activity.

Although the source of income was cut off, the state nevertheless has not been niggardly with the division. Some $11 million has been appropriated for operations and acquisition during the interim period, and this amount will be returned to the general fund when and if the tideland funds are released to the state.

Newton B. Drury, chief of the division, has been asked innumerable questions as to what the state plans to do with the money. He says:

"Out of this fund, the current expenditures for beaches and parks will be met, including both operations and capital outlay. More adequate development of campgrounds, picnic areas and other recreational facilities, now overtaxed, will be made possible. Also out of the funds, provision may be made for special projects in which the legislature has interested itself, such as the proposal for highway waysides and the preservation of the remaining privately owned groves of Sequoias.

"These and other programs which have had legislative approval such as the riding and hiking trails, will be rendered possible if completion of the tideland funds are restored, and if the legislature chooses to appropriate the money for these projects.

"At the same time the comprehensive plan for acquisition of ocean beaches, before it is too late, will be possible of ultimate fulfillment. The encroachment of private developments on the shoreline of California throughout its length, makes it more and more difficult to purchase for public use either ocean beach or upland. This is a resource of which there never will be any more and the best of it is rapidly going beyond our reach either through development or enhancement of prices."

Drury also pointed out there are possible developments in the central valleys on the Colorado, Sacramento, San Joaquin and other rivers that will be made possible if oil royalty funds are returned to the state. He said there are important projects on Lake Tahoe, as well as sites and buildings of historic importance to be acquired and restored.

Undoubtedly beaches, and parks can find sufficient places to expend the money, and additional money if it could be found, but the question is now whether the legislature will let the law stand as it is in the face of growing demands for money on all fronts.

The California Teacher association lobby has suggested that some of the money might well be diverted for educational purposes, in view of the increased allocation for schools which must be met by the next legislature, probably with increased taxes.

In any event, it looks like there will be many suggestions during the 1953 session for disposal of the funds.

Back Salary Paid To School Head

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Back salary of more than $7000 has been granted to Emmett C. Copeland, former superintendent of the Oakland school for the Adult Blind.

Copeland was dismissed Aug. 31, 1951, on charges of incompetency, inefficiency and misuse of state property. The board reduced his dismissal to a three-month suspension.

Meanwhile, the school was reorganized and Copeland chose to take a lesser job. He was appointed manager of the production center for the blind in Oakland at $550 per month.

A. Alan Post, legislative auditor, last week told a legislative interim committee that Copeland's appeals cost the state some $50,-000, and this figure was held "too low" by James H. Phillips, Copeland's attorney, who testified at the same hearing.

College Alumni Hold Meeting

Combining its December meeting with a Christmas party the Cris College Alumni association met at the college in Anaheim on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11. A pot luck dinner was served with Violet Tschann, Alice Smith, Eleanor Daggle and Dorothy Morrison acting as hostesses.

Pat Miles, guest of Mary Ellen Stein, showed colored slides of a recent trip to Honolulu. Gifts were exchanged through the medium of scrambled pasages from Christmas carols and a gift was presented from the association to their sponsor, Mrs. Agnes Criss.

As the climax of the evening, a box of chocolates was passed among the group announcing the bethrothal of Elsie Bradley to Don Price.

He was transferred to Germany after fighting in Korea with the 45th infantry division.

Crowell spent 16 months in the U. S. army before entering the army in 1945.

Fremont P-TA

Mrs. Leonard Kliever was hostess to the Fremont P-TA executive board, Dec. 10, at her home, 743 N. Olive. Snow men and candy canes decorating the refreshment table forecast the spirit of the Christmas season.

Business included discussion of regular monthly meetings. Careful and thoughtful planning makes these programs interesting to parents and it is felt that good attendance stimulates the morale of pupils and teachers. Parents are invited to attend whenever possible.

Announcement was made of a series of parent-education classes at Horace Mann school auditorium, Jan. 6-13-20, at 9:30 a.m. Classes are open to parents.

A few of the subjects covered will be, "When Illness Strikes," "Sex Education in the Home," and "When Junior Has His Problems." Dec. 18, 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium, Fremont school pupils under direction of Miss Harriet Schadewald and A. E. Bourne will present, "Christmas Music at School," a program which will draw much interest.

Next board meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Leigh, 600 S. Dickel, Jan. 14, 1953.

Educational Use Of Television up For Discussion

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The pattern for Governor Warren's state television conference was announced here today. The conference will commence Monday morning, and continue through Tuesday.

It was called to determine the attitude of the state toward issues of television channels allotted to California for educational purposes. Unless the channels are utilized by June they are scheduled to revert to private television enterprises.

Paul A. Walker, chairman of the federal communications commission, will address the opening general session, which will be held in Sacramento's Memorial auditorium. His speech will follow addresses by Governor Warren and Roy H. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction.

Julian A. McPhee, president of the California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo, will act as general chairman of the conference. Approximately 1500 persons are scheduled to attend.

Following the major addresses, the group will form in sections to discuss various phases of the educational television system.

In addition to Walker, several national consultants have been called in to discuss the program, on behalf of the joint committee on educational television.

Seven sections have been set up, and each will have recommendations. These include over-all state policies, school use of television, non-classroom instruction, use of TV in the public interest, orgnization, financing and programming.

Fund Request for Capitol Repairs Put in Budget

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Request for $277,500 for painting and repairing the old state capitol building was presented to the department of finance for the inclusion in the governor's budget.

Justin G. Child, chief of the state division of buildings and grounds, told the committee expenditure of this sum would bring the 90 year old building into conformity with the new $8,000,000 wing added to the capitol building.

The work the division proposed would include $75,000 for reroofing the building; $69,000 for repairs to the dome; $98,000 for cleaning and painting and $35,500 for lighting the dome.

Child told the committee that the old building has been painted and repainted so much that in some places, the paint is an inch and a half thick, pointing out it must be scraped down to the surface before a new coat is added.

Another proposal that the old printing plant at 11th and O sts., be remodeled for the department of veterans affairs was made by the building and grounds supervisor.

The department took the suggestions under advisement for possible inclusion in the budget.

OBLONG VIEWS

(From an Egg-Shaped Head)

By WALDO HUNTER

Yes, Virginia, there IS a Santa Claus.

You see him around the house every day after he drags himself home from work. He is a highly important part of the mechanism of the home, but in too many cases he is just taken for granted, like an old monkey wrench or a lawn mower. Although at times arguments to the contrary may be brought forth, he is conscientious, loyal and reliable, hard-working and responsible.

He doesn't wear a beard, or a red suit, and he probably doesn't fit the description of the roly-poly little man with the big belly, but he is Santa Claus nonetheless, and don't you ever forget it.

Often he is the object of scorn and ridicule, but these abuses he takes with a fine sense of resignation and understanding. Yes, even nobility. Other members of the family might question his sanity when he drags out his fishing gear and makes the comparatively simple rite of cleaning it take on the electric drama of a famous surgeon clearing the decks for a television appendectomy.

Chances are he is addicted to pipes, too, and you may stand aghast at his devotion to these odoriferous roots which make the house smell like an old gymnasium. But right here I'll give you a darn good tip: If he is gone on pipes, get him one for Christmas. Even Santa Claus likes to receive, you know.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus, and at this time he fearfully ponders March 15, when the heavy hand of the feds will exact their toll of the fruits of his past year's labor. But no matter how heavy that demand may be, you will have your Christmas — you can bank on that even if Santa has to go without a new suit next year.

Santa Claus has other problems, too, but we won't burden your young mind with them. Just try to understand the next time he warms your nether regions with a shingle after you have in some vague way violated the peculiar and silly laws of the grown-ups.

No, don't let them ever tell you there isn't a Santa Claus.

You've got one, all right.

He will stand by you and he will love and protect you.

He will even fight and die for you.

Take good care of him. There's only one to a customer, you know.

LEGAL LOCKS—The Adjutant General of the Army says it is all right for Pvt. Walter Israel Nehalsingh to wear his hair 37 inches long. He is a member of the Sikhs, a warrior tribe originally of Northern India. Although he is a full blooded Indian he was born and reared in Boston where his father completed studies at Harvard. Pvt. NeHalsing, stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., wrote President Truman for permission to wear his hair long as required by his religion.

Knights of Pythias Sponsor Highway Safety Public Speaking Contest

Death on the highways and how to stop or curtail such tragedies provides the theme of a public speaking contest now before all the high schools in California sponsored by the Knights of Pythias. The Topic is Highway Safety and How to Attain It, with awards totaling $2500 in scholarships to any university or college of the student's choice, states Harry T. Thayer, Santa Barbara, State Contest Chairman of the Pythian Order.

The contest is open to all students of all high schools, parochial schools and preparatory schools of high school rank and without entry fee. Entries will close next February 21 and early entrants will receive a brief on accident statistics and suggestions as to how to prevent them.

Competitive contests will start March 1 and continue on through the month in all parts of the state, with district contests determining district winners who will compete in April in three Major District Contests for three winners competing for State Honors on May 17. Full travel expenses will be advanced district winners to the next contest, states chairman Thayer.

With contest supervision over Anaheim high, Fullerton high and other high schools in the immediate area, is Mr. Ellery M. Harris, 1349 S. Magnolia, Santa Ana. Mr. Harris, as District Deputy Grand Chancellor, District No. 37, Knights of Pythias, will also have charge of the district contest to be held in March, 1953.

The International Finals between six contestants from various sections of the United States and Canada, will be in St. Louis on Aug. 11, 1953 and Scholarship Awards of $1000 for first; $500 for second and $250 to each of the other four will be presented.

The Youth Commission of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias and the Tenth Foundation of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan "the sunshine boys" of the Pythian Order, are jointly sponsoring the contest.

In California, the Youth Welfare Commission of Grand Lodge have appointed Harry A. Thayer, 2425 Bath street, Santa Barbara as Contest Chairman and entries are to go to him for coordinating and assignment to the nearest contest location.

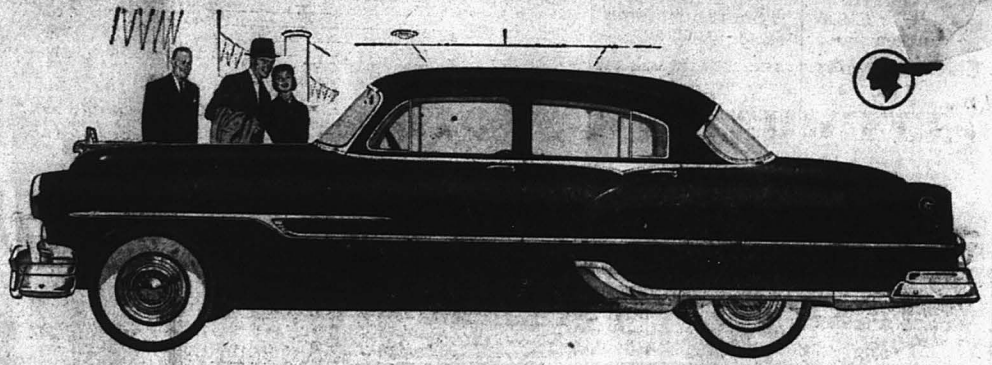

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Notary public commissions have been issued to Don Herring, 321 N. Los Angeles st., and Fred C. Piepenbrink, 124 W. Broadway, both of Anaheim, the secretary of state announced today.

WHERE PLANES STRIKE — Plane symbols and pointers locate four big communist rail and supply centers (underlined) on the doorstep of Manchuria struck by U.S. Navy warplanes in the biggest seaborne raid of the Korean war.
