Taft Expects Harmony 'twixt Ike and Congress

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft talked with President-elect Eisenhower today and said he expected harmony between the White House and congress although he still thought the general's appointment of Martin Durkin as labor secretary was "incredible."

Taft and three GOP senatorial colleagues conferred with Eisenhower for two and a half hours, largely on a prospective legislative program, but also on procedure for job appointments in the new administration.

Taft told newsmen he felt a "general understanding" had been reached for "adequate consultation of senators" with respect to new appointments.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts said Eisenhower "indicated a desire to cooperate with congress in legislative matters, on appointments and all other matters."

It was the first meeting between Eisenhower and Taft since the Ohioan hung the "incredible" tag on the appointment of Durkin.

Taft told a news conference: "We didn't discuss Durkin but the method of appointments and the part of the senate in consulting on appointments."

"Do you still consider the appointment of Mr. Durkin as incredible?" a newsman asked.

"Yes," Taft shot back, sharply.

Immediately following the conference, Eisenhower announced the selection of two men for state department posts.

Rep. Thurston Ballard Morton, Kentucky Republican, was designated as assistant secretary of state, and Herman Phleger San Francisco attorney, was chosen as legal advisor to John Foster Dulles, secretary of state-designate.

Judge May Delay Rosenberg Deaths

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 (AP)—The judge who doomed the Rosenberg atom spy team indicated today he may delay executing to give them time for a White House appeal.

Julius Rosenberg and his wife, Ethel, are scheduled to die the week of Jan. 11 in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair for conspiring to betray atom secrets to Russia. They are the first Americans ever so condemned in a civil court.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman promised after a hearing today to carefully re-examine the evidence in the case which he climaxed 20 months ago by pronouncing the death penalty.

Unless the execution date is stayed, President Truman might be asked to grant clemency to the Rosenbergs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 (AP)—A House armed services subcommittee recommended today the use of Nationalist Chinese troops in the Korean fighting whenever U.S. military leaders believe they are fit for combat.

Rodney Brodie Receives Brain Covering Today in New Operation

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 (AP)—Rodney Dee Brodie, who was separated by surgery from his Siamese twin, underwent an operation today that provided a skin covering for most of his brain.

The new operation lasted two hours and 15 minutes.

It was undertaken to give the 15-month-old boy a start toward a normal life and to forestall a possible brain infection.

Rodney and his twin, Roger Lee, had been connected at the tops of their heads before they were divided Dec. 17 in a history-making 12 hour and 40 minute operation. The separation left the youngsters without natural caps for their heads.

The other twin, Roger Lee, has been in a coma since the major operation. Physicians said, his condition is too precarious for any plastic procedures at this time.

The plastic surgical procedure, today gave Rodney a skin top that covered approximately 75 per cent of his brain. The cap was formed of a strip of skin from Rodney's body that had been made ready in preliminary plastic procedures.

The rest of the child's brain is protected by the natural membraneous skin covering. Thus, his brain is entirely protected by a natural shield.

The boy was reported to have tolerated the new ordeal "fairly well." His condition was described as good as could be expected after the surgery.

Today's operation was the first of a series of plastic procedures aiming at removing Rodney from the critical list and making him well and whole.

Later a supporting structure—in the form of grafted bone or a plastic or metal substance—will be placed between the inner and outer brain coverings—the membraneous brain cover and the skin put in place today. That will give his brain the rigid protection it requires.

Governor Proposes Ten-Year Freeway Program

He Couldn't Take It With Him

BERKELEY, Dec. 30 (AP) — Unlike most other men, Harry Yool didn't go wild when he won $140,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes last year.

Instead the 59-year-old electrician banked the money and kept his job, figuring he'd have plenty of time to spend it after paying $87,000 in federal and state taxes.

Last March, Yool decided to retire. Using only the money he had saved earlier, he made a down payment on a small country home.

Yesterday, the last of four tax installments on the sweepstakes winnings was paid.

And last night Yool died in a hospital after an operation.

Dr. Condon Gets High Honor from Scientific Group

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30 (AP) — Dr. Edward U. Condon was installed as president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science by the organization's council ahead of schedule today in a precedent-breaking show of confidence.

Dr. Condon, who has been under fire by the House Committee on un-American Activities, was to have been inducted as the new head of the association Jan. 15 without ceremony.

But the policy-making council of 250 moved up the date and gave Dr. Condon a rousing ovation as he was handed the president's gavel by Dr. Detlev W. Bronk, president of Johns Hopkins University and the retiring AAAS president.

The House committee said in Washington Saturday that Dr. Condon was not qualified for any position involving the national security because of his "propensity" for associating with persons of questionable loyalty.

No Gazette Edition New Year's Day

Following its usual custom, the Anaheim Morning GAZETTE will not publish tomorrow, New Year's Day, so that its workers may enjoy the holiday with families and friends, or travel to Pasadena for the Rose Tournament and bowl game.

The next edition of the GAZETTE will be delivered Friday morning.

Predicts Increase in Gasoline Tax To Pay for Expanded Road Project

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30 (AP) — Construction of a system of multilane freeways the length and breadth of the state in the next 10 years was advocated by Gov. Warren today.

He said it would cost the average motorist 20 cents a week on top of the taxes he is now paying.

Unquestionably, the governor said, there would have to be an increase in the 4½ cent gasoline tax and other levies on highway users to finance the program.

Warren said he would urge that all state agencies concerned with water problems be brought under one administrative roof.

He also said he would seek another $750,000 to continue field work and surveys leading to development of the billion dollar Feather River Project. The FRP contemplates harnessing the Feather above Oroville and transporting water south as far as San Diego.

The main line freeway system presumably would include such arterials as north-south U.S. 99 and 101 and east-west U.S. 40, 50, 60, 66, 70 and 80.

Turning to water problems, Warren listed eight state agencies or boards which deal with water matters and said many of them operate in fields that overlap functionally and geographically.

He suggested that the creation of a single water department might be too complex a problem for one session of the legislature, but a start should be made at least.

Woman Killed in County Accident

SANTA ANA, Dec. 30 (AP) — A Valley woman was killed and a man critically injured today in a collision involving their automobile and a truck 10 miles south of here.

The California Highway Patrol identified the dead woman as Mrs. Pearl Gibbons, 61, of 234 Woodrow st., Vallejo, and the injured man, driver of the car, as Homer E. Anderson, 57.

Highway Patrolman H. E. Allen said a northbound truck-trailer driven by Paul A. Lininger, 47, of 2175 E. Lindsay st., Stockton, apparently went out of control on wet pavement on a curve and jack-knifed. The truck struck a bridge and the trailer broke loose and crushed Anderson's southbound car, he added.

Allen and others extricated Mrs. Gibbons and Anderson from the wreckage. She was pronounced dead on arrival at the Santa Ana Community hospital.

TAIREH, Formosa, Wednesday, Dec. 31. (AP)—A Chinese gunman hijacked a Philippines Air Lines plane in flight Tuesday.

Anaheim Looks Ahead

As this edition of the Anaheim Morning GAZETTE hits the streets, the year 1952 has entered well into the last 24 hours of its life.

Looking back, Anaheimers must realize that, in spite of its difficulties of one sort and another, 1952 has been a year of progress for this city. Great effort has been rewarded with great achievement in practically all lines of local endeavor.

Our population spurred on by the establishment of new industries, has risen upward. Leaders in the city's government, in the Chamber of Commerce, its service, social and fraternal and religious organizations have been alive to the problems of growth and have striven mightily to keep the stability and health of the community test[illegible] of their efforts.

[illegible] the Anaheim Morning GAZETTE our business and our life look back on 1952 as a year of mighty effort and achievement, too. The newspaper went through a reorganization, undertook a city-wide popularity contest for organizations and changed to morning publication within the space of four months.

The net result has been progress toward giving the people of Anaheim better newspaper service—getting the news to them while it is still news and while it can be of service to them.

With the lessons of 1952 behind us, we look forward to the new year, 1953 with the faith and hope that the city of Anaheim will continue to forge ahead and with the hope that we will be given the strength and wisdom to grow with it.

To all of you, A VERY HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR!

Construction to Begin Jan. 15 on New Placentia Villa Housing Subdivision

Construction is scheduled to begin Jan. 15 on Placentia Villa subdivision, Anaheim Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The new housing development, located in a quarter-mile square northeast of the intersection of Placentia ave. and Anaheim-Olive rd., will include 194 three-bedroom homes, to cost from $11,000 to $$11,500 depending on the lot and design.

In its announcement, the chamber said the development is a result of the "Live in Anaheim" campaign jointly sponsored by the chamber and local realtors and builders. Fred C. Piepenbrink, realtor, succeeded in interesting a group of developers in the Curtis, Hessel and Ward properties involved and completed the land sale this week.

The leading spirit in acquiring the property and planning the development was H. W. Underhill, Los Angeles architect and member of the American Institute of Architects. He interested W. E. Clark of the Clark Construction Co. and C. L. Blanchard to join with him in incorporating the Placentia Villa Corp.

"The key to better living" is the slogan chosen by the developers for their subdivision and the "key" is to be the design and decoration of the homes.

Lots are to be gently sloping, many with at least one large orange tree on the lot. The homes are planned with large combination living-dining rooms on the rear opening through a wall of glass on a patio and garden for outdoor living. Kitchens will feature knotty pine wood cabinets with black iron hardware. Electrical equipment will include garbage disposals, exhaust fans and indirect lighting. All work tops will be glossy laminated formica. Bedrooms will feature corner light and ventilation and large

Soldiers Glum Over Rotation Point Boost

Wednesday, Dec. 30 (AP) — News of the latest slowdown in the U.S. armed forces rotation system was greeted by some soldiers on the West Korean front with gloomy comments.

"No one knows any more when he will have enough points to go home," said PFC Alma Blair, of Preston, O.

"This business of upping rotation points is getting to be a habit. "They've done it before. Now they do it again. No one can be sure that it won't happen again."

Blair's reaction was fairly typical. He was referring to the announcement Tuesday by Gen. Mark W. Clark's headquarters that rear area troops in Korea will need 40 instead of 38 points to qualify for rotation home.

There was no change in requirements for soldiers at the front. They get four points a month and qualify for rotation home with 36 points. Rear area troops are credited with two points per month and those near the front with three points.

LONDON, Dec. 30 (AP)—Dr. Alan Nunn May, the West's first atom spy, said today he still thinks he did right in slipping A-bomb secrets to the Russians in World War II. He hopes to get another scientific job to serve Britain and "my fellowmen."

Harry Bergh Is Planning Director

Harry Bergh, land planner in the county planning department, was appointed county planning director late yesterday by the board of supervisors, to succeed Charles Hays Diggs of Laguna Beach, who resigned.

Bergh, who resides at Corona del Mar, has been on the department staff since the spring of 1947. From 1943 to 1946 he had been land planning consultant for the Federal Housing Administration at Seattle, Wash., operating through the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, reviewing community plans for FHA.

Earlier he had served 17 years on the staff of the Los Angeles county Regional Planning commission, working on the planning of highways, recreation, land use and land subdivisions. He is a member of the American Institute of Planners, and editor of Calchapter News, official news letter of the California chapter of the institute.

Map of Sepulveda Freeway Route Thru County Filed

Tentative route of the proposed Sepulveda highway extension from Long Beach through Orange county was shown on a map filed with the county supervisors late yesterday by the state highway division, which offered to hold a hearing on the selection of a route, if the supervisors desire it.

The board referred the question to Harold Sringer, county highway superintendent.

As shown on the map, the portion of the route eastward from the Los Angeles river freeway skirts the south side of the Long Beach municipal airport, then turns southeast, skirting a corner of the Los Alamitos air station, following Garden Grove blvd., along the north side of the Seal Beach ammunition depot, and turning the corner of that installation at Bolsa Chica road to travel southeasterly again to Gisler ave., passing south of Westminster and Midway City and north of Talbert. At Gisler ave., the route turns east, passing north of the county airport and south of the Newport blvd.-S. Main st. crossing. Some distance east of the airport, it slants slightly southeast and strikes Highway 101 at a point about midway between Irvine and El Toro.

Rubbish Burning Likely to Stay

If the cities continue to use the county dump grounds, most cities having discontinued their own dumps when the county dumps were established, there will continue to be a nuisance from the burning of rubbish, County Highway Supt. Harold Sprenger advised the board of supervisors late yesterday, replying to a complaint from La Habra groups regarding the smoke from a county dump near that city.

Sprenger, who has supervision of county dumps, said that the alternative to burning of rubbish would be the cut and cover method, which could require maintenance of a bulldozer at every dump, for daily covering of refuse. This would mean an investment of $100,000 in equipment and an increase of personnel, he pointed out.

Further, he said, the elimination of burning would use up the dump areas three times as fast as when the rubbish is burned.

Churchill Talks With Eden over Proposals to US

LONDON, Dec. 30 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill spent two hours today discussing with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden the British proposals on Western defense and Anglo-American economic relations which he will lay before President-elect Eisenhower next week.

The session with Eden at No. 10 Downing street—Churchill's official residence—followed a cabinet meeting at which the 78-year-old prime minister gave his government colleagues a preview of the hand he will play when he meets Eisenhower in New York.

Responsible informants said the major topics Churchill plans to broach in his talks with Eisenhower fall into four broad categories, with Korea and Prime Minister Stalin's Christmastide olive branch well to the fore. They are:

1. British-American tactics in case Stalin makes peaceful gestures more convincing than his declaration of willingness to meet Eisenhower and seek a Korea solution.

2. Britain's desire to become a party to the ANZUS Australia, New Zealand, U.S. Pacific Defense Pact.

Bidault Gives up In French Crisis

PARIS, Dec. 30 (AP) — Former Premier George Bidault tonight gave up his attempt to form a government and dropped France's cabinet crisis back into the lap of President Vincent Auriol.

Bidault began his attempt yesterday. He failed because several leading parties in parliament refused to go along with his demand for wider powers in governing the country.

Bidault, 53, leader of the mainly Catholic Popular Republican Movement, was the third political leader whom Auriol had asked to try to form a government since Antoine Pinay resigned a week ago.

Anaheim Woman Sues for Divorce

Mrs. Betty A. Hernandez of Anaheim filed suit in Superior Court late yesterday through Attorney Roger Dutton, for a divorce from Ray O. Hernandez. She charged him with extreme cruelty.

Mrs. Hernandez asks custody of their four children and $30 per week for support, besides all community property, including a $4400 equity in their home at 216 N. Philadelphia st. Hernandez, she said, earns $92 per week from a steel company at Maywood.

The couple married at Yuma Oct. 21, 1938, and separated last Saturday, according to the divorce complaint.

B-29 Raiders Hit Ammunition Dump

SEOUL, Wednesday, Dec. 31 (AP)—B-29 Superforts smashed a big Communist ore processing plant and a sprawling munitions dump deep in North Korea last night in the face of heavy antiaircraft fire and Red jet night fighters.

Twenty-one big bombers dumped more than 400 tons of explosives on the huge Choak-tong ore processing plant just 25 miles south of the Yalu river and an 85-acre munitions dump northwest of Sinanju, the Fifth Air Force said.

Meanwhile a Communist propaganda broadcast beamed to Allied troops on the frigid Central Front Tuesday night declared the Reds would launch a "general offensive" on Sunday. The broadcast was made by a woman.

An Allied corps spokesman told about the Red propaganda offensive but declined to speculate on the threat. Only a week or so ago the Communists said they would be in Seoul by Christmas.

Reorganization Of Supervisors Set for Jan. 6

Bi-annual reorganization of the county board of supervisors scheduled for Jan. 6, as the new term of office begins for two supervisors, Ralph A. McFadden of the third district and C. M. Featherly of the first district, is expected to be nothing more than a formality.

Willis H. Warner, of the second district, who has been chairman of the board for 10 years, excluding 1947 to 1949, is said to be the only candidate for the post.

Former Chairman Willard Smith, of the fourth district, now president of the State Association of County Supervisors, and Heinz Kaiser, of the Fifth district, together with Chairman Warner, are holdover members of the board, with two more years remaining in their present terms.

In Smith's case, this is expected to be his last term after more than 25 years service on the board. Kaiser is serving his first term on the board.

Featherly, who was unopposed for reelection, and McFadden, who defeated the late Edward Faulkner of Stanton-Buena Park area in the primary last June, will be starting their second terms.

Chairman Warner is expected to announce committee assignments shortly after the reorganization.

Daily Living for Peace of Mind

Editor's note: This is one of a series of daily articles by Anaheim ministers and is published by the Gazette in the interest of the kind of daily living that leads to contentment and happiness in troubled times.

The Climate for Daily Living

By Rev. Wm. McKINLEY WALKER
Pastor, Wesley Methodist Church

Frank Boreham, the Australian preacher of note, a short time before his death, told the story of Captain Bennet in the early days of the aeroplane, when the flying machine was little more than a wooden crate covered with oiled canvas.

On his world tour Captain Bennet set his plane down at Ankara, Turkey, to take on fuel and provisions. After he had gotten up above the street noises, he heard the sickening sound of gnawing in the fuselage behind him. It dawned upon him that a rat must have come aboard for food. To try to land in that unfamiliar country might mean disaster. Then he concluded that a rat was created to live in or near the ground and possibly could not stand the rarified atmosphere of high altitude. He began to soar higher and higher and gradually the sound of gnawing ceased.

When he reached the next stop, he searched and sure enough, he found a large dead rat that might have caused his own death had he not sought the higher altitude.

You who read these lines were created to be the child of God, not to live in the debris of sin and squalor, but to live high above the sordid things of earth in the rarified atmosphere of His love and care. If you would have peace in your heart and mind, do not use the language of the gutter—profanity and abusive criticism—but learn the language of Heaven—love, service to humanity, kindliness throughout the year, every year, but a day at a time. Do this and the vermin of pride, arrogance, and kindred sins will die out in the rarified atmosphere in which you live.

Chelf Calls State Dept. Probe Of UN Workers 'Colossal Flop'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 (AP)—Angry House investigators today asked Secretary of State Acheson to testify tomorrow on what Rep. Frank Chelf (D-Ky.) called the State Department's "colossal flop" in dealing with disloyal Americans in the United Nations.

Acheson announced he would accept the invitation to appear. The request for Acheson to take the witness stand came right after the cabinet officer rejected a demand that he disclose the names of state department officials in charge of checking on the loyalty of American citizens on the UN payroll.

Acheson said he was acting "on instructions" from President Truman.

In other fast breaking developments, the state department announced to the house group:

1. That charges have been lodged against "four or five" state department employees assigned to evaluate the loyalty of Americans employed by the UN, and the department has started an investigation. No names were given.

2. That the federal bureau of investigation, for the first time, will make full scale inquiries into possible Communist backgrounds of all Americans employed in key UN posts.

Adrian Fisher, state department legal adviser, said President Truman is now preparing an executive order providing for the FBI investigations. Only minor employees will be exempt. The order is expected tomorrow.

Testifying before the house judiciary subcommittee, Fisher said the president's order would provide that at any stage of the FBI checkups, UN Secretary General Trygve Lie may be given "derogatory information" about American employees "as a basis for suspension . . . pending a final determination" by U. S. loyalty boards.

Fisher spoke out in defense of the state department after Rep. Chelf, chairman of the house group, hotly criticized the department's handling of UN loyalty cases.

"Up until now," Chelf shouted, "it's a colossal flop."

Fisher insisted, however, that until the new executive order goes into effect, the state department has had no responsibility for clearing Americans for employment to the UN.

He said the department merely relayed to the UN such adverse reports as came to it.

Earlier, Deputy U. S. Attorney General Ross Malone testified that the FBI had made adverse loyalty reports on 53 Americans employed on the UN staff. So far, only 27 have been fired.

The "adverse list" of 53 contained coded numbers, without names.

However, Robert Collier, subcommittee counsel, identified one of the 53 as David Weintraub, director of economic stabilization and development for the UN.

Collier said the FBI had submitted 43 separate adverse reports on Weintraub to the state department from Jan. 31, 1945, to Nov. 12, 1952.

"This man is still there?" asked Rep Keating (R-N.Y.)

"Not only is he still there," Chelf said, "he is still hiring other UN employees."

Quickly checking over the justice department's coded list, Chelf said that on the average the 53 American employes had been the targets of 10 to 12 adverse loyalty reports each, most of them covering a period of years.

"This is startling and most revealing—the best evidence yet of the laxity of conduct by the state department," Chelf commented.

Acheson's refusal to give the house committee the data it sought duplicated an earlier state department denial to disclose the information to a federal grand jury in New York.

The grand jury issued a stinging report early this month declaring that many disloyal Americans had infiltrated the United Nations and criticizing the state department's role in screening UN employees.

Acheson wrote the house group that American foreign policy would be "adversely affected if not seriously compromised" if he disclosed the names of those who evaluated loyalty cases and the information was made public.

Mexican Children See World for First Time Today

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 30 (AP)—The great world took form and color for the first time today for two Mexican children—their eyes cleared of blinding cataracts by Christmas Eve operations.

Ignacio Rodelo, 13, and his sister, Emma, 12, saw themselves in a mirror.

It returned their happy smiles.

That was not many minutes after doctors had removed bandages and the children could see.

Since birth, the cataracts had blotted out everything except a vague sense of light and shadow.

They were fitted with glasses to help them adjust their eyes to the new wonders, as they expressed their grateful happiness in many murmured "gracios"—translated into "thanks" by their father.

They examined their Christmas gifts—Ignacio his white and red boat, Emma her brightly-dressed doll.

They looked out of the hospital window. The trees were wonderfully green but, said Ignacio, not so big as he had imagined.

Their father, Ignacio Rodelo, Sr., 54, a Tecate, Mex., school teacher, translated for them:

"We can see automobiles. We can see the grass. We can see the trees. We can see our beds. Our father is not as big as we thought."

As they examined themselves in a mirror, they ran exploratory fingers over the shiny surface. It was the boy, surprisingly, who seemed more interested in self study.

Emma was still a little fearful as she cuddled her doll and exclaimed about its green, yellow and white clothes.

Ignacio boldly expressed a wish to get out of the hospital and explore the world for himself.

Their father's joy was increased by a promise of a similar operation for himself. His sight has been failing and he had recently lost his teaching job as a result.

The children were brought to Mercy hospital here after Mrs. Josephine Andazola, Free Methodist missionary, had arranged for the operations through the San Diego doctors.

Rival Coaches Predict Victory In Rose Bowl Contest

Intersectional Basketball Clashes Wreaking Havoc Among Top-Flight Teams

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 (AP)—Holiday tournaments, the current rage in intersectional basketball tests, are having the same effect as the barnstorming tours they have almost replaced. They've wrecked the hopes of the high-ranking teams.

La Salle of Philadelphia, winner of the National Invitation Tournament last spring and the No. 1 team in the first two Associated Press ranking polls, lost its first game in the New York Holiday Festival to De Paul of Chicago and lost its top ranking at the same time.

Illinois, beaten by Minnesota in regular Big Ten competition, dropped out of second place and Holy Cross, merely by remaining idle in preparation for the start of the Dixie Classic, skidded down two notches from its former fourth place. Louisiana State and North Carolina State fell clear out of the top ten.

The new rankings, based on results of games through last Saturday and established by the ballots of 101 sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly Associated Press poll, read like this:

1. Kansas State; 2. Seton Hall; 3. La Salle; 4. Illinois; 5. Washington; 6. Holy Cross; 7. Oklahoma A. and M.; 8. Tulsa; 9 Minnesota; 10. Western Kentucky.

In all, 47 different teams received mention on the 101 ballots and 17 of them rated first place votes. The Kansas State Wildcats, who made a strong impression last week through their 93-69 victory over Oklahoma, were listed first by only 11 voters but drew a total of 512 points as they jumped from fifth place to first.

Seton Hall, unbeaten in nine starts, drew 13 first-place votes and 507 points while ten voters still rated the La Salle Explorers tops despite their first defeat in 10 games.

Newcomers to the top ten were Tulsa, which vaulted into eighth place after handing Louisiana State its first defeat, and Minnesota, which took ninth on the strength of its win over Illinois.

Others receiving votes included UCLA, St. Mary's Calif., Brigham Young, and Southern California.

Marciano Set To Train for Walcott Fight

NEW YORK, Dec. 30. (AP)—Rocky Marciano returns to the training grind Monday at Grossingers, N. Y., to begin the job of whipping himself into shape for a return heavyweight championship bout with Jersey Joe Walcott, the 38-year-old ex-champ.

Although the definite date and site have not been set for the return, details will be ironed out next week when Jim Norris, International Boxing club president, returns from Miami.

"I have agreed to late March or early April," said Al Weill, the champ's manager. "But I'd prefer to go in June when we could draw a million dollar gate easy. However, I don't have all the say and we do have a return bout contract with Walcott. I'll be glad to get it all finished up.

"I haven't closed for any site yet. You can bank on that. Jim Norris wants Chicago because he owns the building. Chicago stadium. I like San Francisco where we can go outdoors in the spring.

"We have a $300,000 television offer, but it's only an offer. Nothing has been signed."

Injuries Plague COP's Rivals in Sun Bowl Clash

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 30 (AP)—Injuries and illness plagued Mississippi Southern today and sent College of Pacific's stock climbing in advance of the 18th annual Sun bowl football game.

Fullback Bucky McElroy, the "Mr. Inside" of Southern's two-pronged attack, pulled a leg muscle in a workout this afternoon. He'll be slowed from his normal speed, if not lost for Thursday's game.

Four other Southerners missed drills with attacks of a virus trouble which ealfer sent Billy Hugh Montgomery to the hospital. Chief casualties were Howard Lehman and Ed McDaniel, regular tackles.

Meanwhile, the Tigers of College of Pacific ran through what Coach Ernie Jorge called an "excellent workout" and left the genial mentor well satisfied with condition and spirit of his club.

Loyola Cagers Lose

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 30 (AP)—Billy Jenkins rolled up 22 points tonight to lead Lemoyne College to a 79-74 basketball victory over Loyola University of Los Angeles.

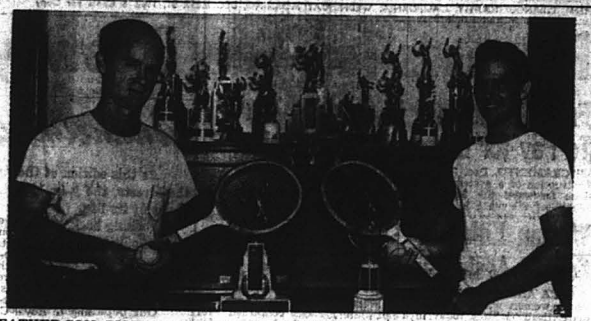

It was the fourth win in six starts for the Dolphins, and the fifth loss in 11 games for the traveling Lions.

The Land collection is believed to be the largest in the nation won by any pair of individuals. Gene, Big Seven singles and doubles champ, says his ambition is to be top-seeded Oklahoma tennis player. His father, 47, says he doesn't care about winning many trophies now, but he does enter state tournaments "just to be part of the competition."

DeSpirito Boots Home 389th Winner to Shatter Long-Standing World's Record

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 30 (AP)—Apprentice Jockey Tony DeSpirito smashed the world's riding record today when he brought in his 389th winner of the year to erase a mark set in 1906.

The 18-year-old jockey from Lawrence, Mass., rode four winners on the nine-race program at Tropical Park to break the old record of 388 set by Walter Miller and tied in 1950 by Joe Culmone and Willie Shoemaker.

The icy-nerved boy scored his record-breaking victory on King's Quest in the ninth and final race to climax a spine-tingling stretch duel with Apprentice Robert L. Stevenson, riding Joe E. Lewis.

King's Quest, always in contention in the mile and a sixteenth event for three-year-olds, swung into the lead at the head of the stretch and they battled neck and neck down the grandstand.

A crowd of 11,190 roared with excitement as the horses flashed past the finish line and burst into deafening applause when it was apparent that DeSpirito had established a record.

King's Quest, bay gelded son of By Jimminy out of Royal Venture, beat Joe E. Lewis to the wire by three fourths of a length and returned $4.80, $4.20 and $3.30. Joe E. Lewis paid $10.60 and $6.80, while Ala Flash ran third to return $6.50.

Racing Steward Marshall Cassidy, who also is assistant secretary of the jockey club, presented DeSpirito with a silver trophy after he set the new record.

DeSpirito has mounts in five races tomorrow and will attempt to run his score even higher before the old year ends.

Gaining followers among the big crowd as he pushed toward the new record, DeSpirito was a hot favorite in every race he rode.

He tied the record on Jantember in the fourth, a claiming race for two-year-olds at a mile and a sixteenth.

The swarthy little jockey rested during the fifth and sixth races.

DeSpirito rode again in the seventh but finished sixth.

Track authorities delayed flashing the "official" sign on the tote board for several minutes to control the crowd until Cassidy could present the trophy.

But everyone knew DeSpirito had broken the record and applause was deafening.

DeSpirito, grinning but boyishly shy, accepted the silver plate with simple thanks and hurried off to the jockey room to shed his riding togs.

He announced that he was sending the $50 jockey fee for winning the race to Walter Miller who is in a sanitarium in New York.

The crowd surged after DeSpirito en route to the jockey room and fellow riders extended their congratulations. Tony was a hero, modest but happy.

Horace Ashenfelter Named Winner Of Coveted Amateur Sports Award

NEW YORK, Dec. 30. (AP)—Horace Ashenfelter, the determined FBI man who became Olympic champion steeplechase runner almost overnight, was named today as the 1952 winner of the James E. Sullivan memorial trophy.

This award, one of the most coveted in amateur sports, is present annually by the Amateur Athletic Union to the "amateur athlete who, by performance, example and good influence, did most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship during the year."

Ashenfelter, a good college distance runner but untried in the steeplechase before this year, beat out nine other Olympic champions named as candidates for the award even more easily than he beat Russia's favored Vladimir Kasantsev for the Olympic title in the record time of 8:45.4.

The former Collegeville, Pa., farm boy, now a resident of Glen Ridge, N. J., was first choice on 154 of the 538 ballots cast by a nation wide tribunal of sports authorities. On a 5-3-1 count of first, second and third place votes, Ashenfelter polled 1112 points.

In second place with 102 first-place votes and 882 points was Maj. Sammy Lee, the little army doctor from Pasadena, Calif., who retained his Olympic platform diving championship at Helsinki. Third for the second straight year was Staff Sgt. Mal Whitfield of Columbus, O., a two time Olympic winner. He tallied 613 points with 61 first place votes.

Douglas F. Roby of Detroit, national president of the AAU, will present the trophy to Ashenfelter Feb. 15 at a luncheon at the New York Athletic club.

Arcaro Wins in Santa Anita Mud

ARCADIA, Dec. 30. (AP)—Eddie Arcaro brought Jennie Lee home a winner at Santa Anita today in the rain and fog, capturing the $7500 six furlong feature in 1:12 3/5.

Mab's Choice, a long shot, was second with Johnny Adams up, and Tut-Tut-Tootie, Pete Moreno aboard for the show. Jennie Lee paid $6.90, $4.60 and $3.50; Mab's Choice $14.10 and $7.30, and Tut-Tut-Tootie $6.30.

Jennie Lee had to engage Fair Regards in the first furlong to get a favored place and roused in the stretch, came through valiantly to stall off the desperate charge of Mab's Choice. Eight started.

Paul Goebel, who played with the Chicago Bears many years ago, is Mayor of Grand Rapids, Mich. The sheriff of the Grand Rapids area is also a former Bear, Hugh Blacklock.

Turner-Dykes Sign For Return Bout

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30. (AP)—Promoter Herman Taylor announced today that he has signed welterweights Gil Turner of Philadelphia and Bobby Dykes of Miami, Fla., for a return 10-rounder at the arena here Jan. 19.

In their previous match at Madison Square Garden, Dykes outpointed Turner in a bruising 10-round bout. Both failed to lift the division crown from Kid Gavilan's brow this year.

Red Hot Cotlers Trounce Ritz Cagers 61 to 29

A "red hot" Cotler's Clothiers basketball team last night trounced Ritz Cleaners 61-29 to win their first game from the Cleaners in five years of Recreation League play.

Led by Ira Weber who scored 16 points, Cotler's maintained a comparatively slim lead through the first three quarters. In the final stanza, they held Ritz to nine points while running up 22 points to win a decisive victory.

Bob Stuart was high man for the losers with six field goals and two free throws for a total of 14 points.

In a practice game between Kwikset of the Industrial League and the Optimists of the City League, the latter took a nip-and-tuck game in overtime play when O. Goodhart sunk one of three field goals he made during the contest.

The final regular period ended 37-37 with the Optimists coming out on the long end of a 39-37 score when the final whistle sounded in the overtime.

Rel Schmidt and Jim Wright played for Kwikset to bolster the squad.

Tsojan Sailors Lose to Purdue

BALBOA, Dec. 30. (AP)—Purdue university's sailing team today won two of three sail-off races to beat Southern California's Trojans and capture the fourth annual Rose bowl regatta, 5 to 4.

Jim Powers, the Boilermakers' sailing team captain, won two of today's races, beating USC's Don Ayres, jr. and splitting two with Marianne Pearcy.

Mentors Announce Lineups For New Year's Day Game

By BOB MYERS

PASADENA, Dec. 30. (AP)—Rival coaches in the 39th Rose bowl football game differ slightly on the scoring possibilities when Wisconsin and Southern California hook up New Year's day, but either will be delighted, no matter what the total, as long as his team comes out on top.

Wisconsin's Ivy Williamson brought a lifted eyebrow or two when he said he believes his Badgers can win the game if they can score at least two touchdowns. He intimated he expects to see this happen. He added belief "that the team with the most out of 27 points would have it.

Coach Jess Hill of the coast conference champions said it would take 20 points or more to win. And in humorous reference to critics of the Trojan attack," he asked aloud: "How will our horse and buggy offense accomplish this?"

Williamson, whose team operates from a more diversified T-style of play, said he was fully aware that none of Southern Cal's 10 regular season foes was able to score more than one touchdown against the Trojans.

Was his two-touchdown hope praise for his own offense, or slight disregard for the vaunted USC defense?

He smiled and said he was not underestimating the enemy defense but he did have confidence in his own defense. And he added the significant thought that perhaps Wisconsin's defense will be better for this game than it has been at other times this year."

"We'll be ready, and I know Ivy's boys will be ready," Hill declared. "I look for a fine, aggressive, clean football game."

Lineups released by the schools today provided no surprises.

USC will lead off with its usual backfield foursome—Jim Sears at the key left halfback position in Hill's single wing play; Leon Sellers at full and George Bozanic at the quarter, or blocking back position.

Williamson is still indefinite at one backfield berth, right half, but it will be either regular Jerry Witt or Roger Dornburg, the latter nominally left linebacker on defense. Sophomore Jim Taluska at quarter back, Bill Hutchinson at left half and Alan the Horse Ameche at full round out the quartet.

Dornburg ran but two plays in one game, against Marquette, on offense, reeling off 44 yards on one pass and run for a touchdown. He played defense the rest of the time — he'd rather play defense — but has looked highly impressive with the attacking platoon in Rose bowl workouts.

His presence in the assaulting force bears out the belief that Williamson has concocted more than one surprise for USC.

Hill plans to use linemen Elmer Willhoite and Bob Peviani, his two fine guards, on both offense and defense — on offense for a time, any how.

Williamson very possibly will do the same with his all-America tackle, Dave Suminski. Suminski incidentally, is down on the weight chart at 198. Like Wendell Gutseth, a linebacker and punter who is down for 210 but admits to 230, Suminski appears to have been short weighted on the scales by 20 pounds or more.

Clearing Weather Is Forecast for Pasadena Classic

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 (AP) — A threat of moisture other than that provided by tearful coaches may dampen the New Year's day football bowl programs. But there was no indication today that there might be enough rain to diminish the size and enthusiasm of the crowds, expected to total more than 400,000.

Weather forecasts from the sites of the five major bowls indicated possible rain Thursday at New Orleans, where Georgia Tech and Mississippi will clash before 82,000 spectators in the Sugar Bowl and at Dallas, where the Cotton Bowl game between Tennessee and Texas is expected to attract 75,000.

From Pasadena came word that rain is due tomorrow but Thursday will bring clearing weather and the 103,000 spectators at the Rose Bowl will enjoy clear skies and comfortably cool temperatures.

"Partly cloudy and mild" was the forecast for both the Orange Bowl clash at Miami between Alabama and Syracuse and the Gator Bowl game between Florida and Tulsa at Jacksonville.

In addition to these five major bowl games expected to draw some 360,000 fans, three other bowl games Thursday will add about 45,000 to the attendance total.

They are the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., Mississippi Southern vs. College of the Pacific; Salad Bowl at Phoenix, Ariz., San Diego Naval Training Center vs. 101st Airborne Division; and Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., East Texas State vs. Tennessee Tech.

As the teams completed their preparations, the coaches, in the tearful tradition of their profession, attempted to award the victory to their rivals while pointing out the effects of injuries and, in some cases, the weather.

Actually, the injury list wasn't large. Wisconsin may not get much service from speedy halfback Harland Carl. His trick knee, which has troubled him all season, has been acting up again and Coach Ivy Williamson has listed Bill Hutchinson as the starter.

A number of Mississippi players suffered from slight colds or virus infections over the weekend but all are recovering and only likely absentee is freshman guard Franklin Brooks, who hurt his back. Doug Dickey, Florida's regular T quarterback, has been kept out of practice by a pulled leg muscle while three Tulsa defensive players, Ed Lach, Angelo Prassa and Gene Helwig, have been sidelined by injuries.

Only Coach Ben Schwartzwalder, whose Syracuse team from the frozen North has a number of two-way players, is worried about the weather. If it turns up hot at Miami Thursday, Ben is afraid those players will tire too quickly.

As for the protests of the favorites, here's the list of prevailing point margins: Alabama 13 over Syracuse; Florida 7 over Tulsa; Southern California 7 over Wisconsin; Georgia Tech 8 over Mississippi; Texas 1½ over Tennessee.

COP Football Future Doubtful

STOCKTON, Dec. 30. (AP)—The future of football at College of the Pacific "seems doubtful" unless the school can schedule a game for the 1953 season with a nearby opponent, the college's president said today.

COP was to have played Santa Clara next season in its homecoming game but the Jesuit school announced last night it was quitting football because of heavy losses the past two seasons.

Dr. Burns said COP's football program "would have a hard time surviving" unless a Pacific Coast conference team comes to its assistance by making room on its 1953 schedule for the Tigers.

St. Mary Cagers Fall to Illinois By 95-65 Score

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Dec. 30. (AP) Illinois, the nation's fourth ranking basketball team, ran up its fifth victory in six starts by trouncing St. Mary's of California 94-65 tonight.

The Illini used a dozen players with Irv Bemoras topping the scoring with 20 points and Center John Kerr adding 17.

Illinois jumped off to an 11-0 lead in the first three minutes and never missed a shot in that period. But after that, the Big Ten defending champions appeared somewhat listless. They ended up with 38 field goals and a shooting percentage of .402.

St. Mary's absorbing its third straight defeat after a string of seven victories, lagged 37-25 at halftime. Illinois really poured it on the last half, scoring 57 points. Bemoras and Kerr bagged most of their points in the final half.

George McLaughlin 6-4 center, topped St. Mary's with 18 points while Bill Bagley added 17. St. Mary's hit 23 field goals and had a shot percentage of .418.

Illinois' 94 points was its second night of the season, topped only by its 97 it rolled up against Michigan.

JOE J. LITTLEFIELD

J. J. Littlefield Feature of Junior Ebell Program

The Junior Ebell club of Anaheim, has an outstanding feature of interest on its agenda for the general meeting which is to be held Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 7:45, in the clubhouse.

Joe J. Littlefield, one of the Southland's foremost garden authorities will discuss roses and camellias, and gardening problems. Littlefield's methods are practical and down to earth, making his advice usable and understandable to the average "city lot" gardner.

He is widely known through his contributions to leading gardening magazines and periodicals, and the refreshing informality of his talks is spiced with his enthusiastic personality and wit.

After twenty-five years of "dirt-under-the-fingernails" gardening experience, he still maintains "there are no deep, dark secrets to good gardening! It's all a matter of simple, regular, periodic follow-through on a few important fundamentals."

The young matrons of Junior Ebell have again demonstrated their fine initiative in presenting this delightful program.

New Bedmaking Technique Saves Steps and Time

A speedy new method of bedmaking promises to save homemakers countless hours of drudgery. It permits the housewife to zip through her bedmaking chores in about one-third the usual time and with one-third the usual effort.

The new method, advanced by the National Cotton Council, substitutes a systematic plan of attack for the old haphazard approach. The basic idea is to start out with both sheets and the blanket in place and to perform all tucking operations in one continuous trip around the bed.

Before beginning, stack the bedding on a chair placed near the center of one side of the bed. Put the pillows at the bottom, followed by the bedspread, blankets, and with the sheets on top, so that each item will come off the pile in its proper sequence. Then:

Steps to Follow

1. Standing next to the chair, at the center of one side of the bed, throw bottom sheet across the bed. It will take a little experience to get it centered properly, with the crease running down the middle. This little trick helps: throw sheet so that one corner catches the far corner of the mattress at the foot of the bed first; then draw the sheet up toward the head. Next, throw the top sheet the same way. Have the wide hem toward the head, with the smooth side of the hem facing down. Allow for about 12 inches to be turned back later over the blanket to make the fold. Now, still standing in the original position, throw the blanket across the bed.

Fold Top Sheet Back

2. Step over to the corner of the head of the bed. Fold top sheet back over the blanket, making the fold as far across the bed as you can reach, but don't tuck it in. Tuck bottom sheet under mattress at the head, miter the corner, and tuck in sheet as far as you can reach down the side of the bed. Now tuck in the top sheet and blanket, including the fold, as far as you can reach. All these operations can be performed while standing in one spot near the head of the bed.

3. Walk around to the head of the bed on the opposite side—straightening out any wrinkles as you go by the foot and repeat the operation: finish the top sheet fold and let it hang loose momentarily, tuck in the fold, top sheet, and blanket. (At this point the bedding is anchored at the head of the bed, and the fold is completed. From here on, you merely tuck in sheets and blanket together as you move back around the bed.)

4. Tuck down to the foot of the bed, tucking in sheets and blanket simultaneously. Miter the corner. Tuck in the foot.

Miter Final Corner

5. Miter the final corner and tuck back up the side of the bed. When you finish tucking, presto—you are standing at the same point from which you started, next to the chair.

6. Pick up the spread and throw it in place across the bed. Arrange the fold, place the pillow on the fold and pull the spread over the pillow. In time, even with a double bed, you can learn to flip the spread evenly over the pillow and finish the job all from one side.

If you are giving a party, the delicatessen department of local food markets are made to order for you. Some of the unusual assortment of tinned meats, imported and domestic cheese, the endless variety of pickles and fish are just the things to have on hand for holiday callers.

• • •

SARDINE CANAPES

Spread mayonnaise lightly over triangular slices of buttered pumpernickel. Arrange two Norway sardines on each slice and top with one half slice of cucumber with rind. Decorate with a small strip of pimiento.

Or top a strip of toast with a sardine and a slice of hard cooked egg. Decorate with a small dab of red caviar and a sprig of parsley.

Elegant, yet readily prepared are canapes made from finely-chopped lobster mixed with mayonnaise. Spread on crackers or rye bread and top each canape with a whole sardine and serve with a thin slice of lemon.

• • •

HORS D'OUVRES

A whole tray full of hors d'oeuvres can be made in a few minutes using the new pastes and spreads that are handily packed in small tubes. These are as easy to use as toothpaste but the similarity stops here. The flavors are choice with blue spread, garlic flavor and old spice fast becoming favorites.

Cut the ends from dill pickles and hollow out the pickles with an apple corer. Stuff them with a well seasoned mixture of ground meat, or cheese, and chill. Cut in crosswise slices and serve with the canapes.

As you make up your hors d'oeuvres tray, you might like to split one of those little fresh pineapples just in from Hawaii. Lay it cut side down on your tray and stud it with toothpicked snacks. A grapefruit will serve the same way as will a big red apple.

• • •

LIKE SHRIMP?

Like shrimp? To serve cold shrimp effectively, hollow out a small cabbage and fill it with mayonnaise. Set it firmly on a platter and surround the cabbage with some of the nicest outer leaves. Arrange shrimp on toothpicks and place on the cabbage leaves.

Do try those tiny cocktail franks that hail from New England. Fry quickly to heat through and serve post haste on toothpicks. Don't forget some mustard flavored mayonnaise to dip them in.

• • •

CHEESE DIP

And speaking of dips, have you tried softening Roquefort or cream cheese with cream seasoned Worcestershire sauce and paprika? When you have beaten it to the consistency of whipped cream, spoon it into a fancy bowl and surround it with potato chips. Your guests will do the rest.

You can do a great deal with canned chicken or turkey. Use it right from the can on small toast pieces cut in interesting shapes or mix it with pickle relish, crisp bacon chips or chopped walnuts for a surprise crunchy texture.

• • •

SALT FISH

Many people are partial to the taste of salt fish. Favor them with anchovies and herring. The herring comes spiced, pickled, smoked or packaged in our cream. A sprinkling of caviar will do wonders for any hors d'oeuvres tray. Not as expensive as you might think.

• • •

SPARKLING PUNCH

An inexpensive sparkling punch can be quickly made with one bottle of orange soda mixed with one of strawberry and the addition of one can of pineapple juice. The punch has the lovely color of pink lemonade, but is much livelier. You will enjoy its lip smacking flavor.

• • •

ANAHEIM WASSAIL BOWL

1 cup sugar
½ cup water
12 whole cloves
2 sticks cinnamon
1 quart cider
1 quart fresh or frozen orange juice
2 cups grapefruit juice
½ cup lemon juice.

Simmer sugar, water and spices together in a sauce pan for about ten minutes. Strain and combine with other ingredients. Serve hot in a large punch bowl garnished with slices of orange and lemon studded with cloves.

• • •

LAST CHANCE

This is probably the last chance to treat the family to turkey at present very reasonable prices. There is no waste to the modern broad breasted, oven-ready birds, you know. You pay only for the actual weight of the turkey as it is ready for the oven. Many, many servings on these tender birds.

Tenderized ham is currently a good buy. This is one of the reasons why baked ham, resplendant with while cloves and slices of pineapple will be the center of many attractive buffets. Besides presenting a pretty picture, it costs less per pound than hamburger, keeps for ages, and is good to the last sliver.

To bake the ham, set the oven control at 325 degrees. For a 10 to 12 pound whole ham, roast it 18 to 20 minutes per pound, uncovered on a rack if possible. For a smaller piece, say from six to eight pounds, increase the cooking time to 25 minutes per pound.

Solons Name Smith To Coaches Post

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30. (UP)—The Sacramento Solons tonight announced the appointment of Catcher Vinnie Smith as coach for the Pacific Coast league club replacing Merv Shea, who has been ill since August.

General Manager Charles Graham said Smith will be signed to a non-playing coach's contract and will not be carried on the active player list.

But Graham added this doesn't necessarily mean Smith's playing days are over. If the club needs a catcher, he said, Smith can be shifted on to the active list quickly.

Former Phil Chief Out of Baseball

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30 (UP)—Eddie Sawyer, one of two managers ever to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a National League pennant, said today he is retiring from baseball to enter private business.

Sawyer, a former Ithaca, N. Y., college professor, was fired as manager of the Phils last June 27 as his team continued to nose dive into the second division. He had led the club to a pennant in 1950 but the Phillies finished in fifth place the next year and when they couldn't pick up steam in 1952 Bob Carpenter, the owner, dumped Sawyer in favor of Steve O'Neill.

Indians Organize To Buy Lotion

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30. (UP)—A promise of help was made by the U. S. bureau of Indian affairs today to 22 young Modoc county Indians who are in a lather, claiming they are denied the right to buy shaving lotion.

The young braves, all veterans of Korean and World war II service, met in Alturas yesterday to from an organization in protest.

Erin Forest, their spokesman, complained they have been refused the right to buy shaving lotion, flavor extracts, nail polish and other similar items because they contain alcohol.

The local office of the Indian affairs bureau said federal law prohibits sale of alcoholic beverages to Indians who are wards of the U. S., but makes no prohibition against lotion, extracts and nail polish.

Device Warns 57 Cities of Air Raid

Simultaneous Warnings Sent By Spin of Dial

Only one swift spin of a special four-color dial now is needed to flash an air raid alert simultaneously to the 57 cities of Los Angeles and Orange counties.

Activation on Dec. 29 of the new warning system, known as "Bell and Lights," was announced by Ernest S. Dixon, regional coordinator for the State Office of Civil Defense. The system has been installed and will be maintained by the Office of Civil Defense, Dixon said.

Developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories at the request of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, "Bell and Lights" takes the place of the slower private telephone-line alerting procedure used during World War II.

A four-color dial kept under lock and key to prevent accidental flashing of an alert, has been placed at Civil Defense control dial headquarters in this region. It is connected by one-way telephone circuits with all of the regional Civil Defense organizations.

The dial's four-colors are yellow, to indicate the approach of unidentified air craft; red, to signal an imminent attack; white, to denote all clear, and blue, which is reserved for possible later use if another alerting signal become necessary. Each city in the system is equipped with a Bell and Lights signal box which will indicate both visually and audibly the flashing of an alert or an all clear signal.

The system will be tested daily, so that Civil Defense officials in every city and at the regional control center on Mt. Lee will know whether Bell and Lights are in working order.

If the "real thing" ever occurs, the alert will be received at control dial headquarters from the Air Defense Command and will go forth instantaneously to all Bell and Lights users.

The warning system is available to schools, utilities, hospitals, industry and government agencies.

Prior to the scheduled cut in of the system, it was officially inspected by Orville R. Caldwell, deputy director of California's Office of Civil Defense; Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, regional chief of Civil Defense law enforcement; Regional O.C.O. Coordinator Dixon; Chief M. D. Benesch, head of communications for the sheriff's office; James S. Cantlen, general comercial manager for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company; Carl von Hake, general plant superintendent of the Associated Telephone company, and Ralph Dutro, district manager of the California Water and Telephone company.

Los Angeles and Orange county cities now receiving protection from the Bell and Lights warning system are:

Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pasadena, Santa Ana, Glendale, Burbank, Santa Monica, Alhambra, Anaheim, Arcadia, Azusa, Bell, Beverly Hills, Brea, Claremont, Compton, Covina, Culver City, El Monte, El Segundo, Fullerton, Gardena, Glendora, Hawthorne, Hermosa Beach, Huntington Beach, Huntington Park, Inglewood, Laguna Beach, La Habra, La Verne, Lynwood, Manhattan Beach, Maywood, Monrovia, Montebello, Monterey Park, Newport Beach, Orange, Palos Verdes Estates, Placentia, Pomona, Redondo, San Clemente, San Fernando, San Gabriel, San Marino, Seal Beach, Sierra Madre, Signal Hill, South Gate, South Pasadena, Torrance, Tustin, Vernon, West Covina and Whittier.

County Water Men Breathe Easier As Glenn Allen Retains MWD Jobs

By GEORGE S. HART

Water circles of Orange county were uneasy when it was announced that Glenn P. Allen of Orange, president of Orange county municipal water district, and its representative on the board of directors of Metropolitan water district, had resigned as secretary and superintendent of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co., to become secretary of the Orange Building and Loan association.

It was feared that this might mean the severance of his connection with water affairs, and that would be bad news, indeed, at this critical juncture, in Orange county's struggle to replenish its depleted water stores underground, and assure an adequate future supply.

But breathing comes easier now. The bad news applies only to the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co. Mr. Allen will remain as a director of Orange county municipal water district, and presumably the Metropolitan water district.

He has just been elected to a four-year term on the board of the former district and probably will be reelected as its president Jan. 12, when the bi-ennial reorganization of the board takes place; also reappointed representative on the MWD board.

His worth to Orange county county in these positions is such that water leaders were deeply concerned until they were assured that his change of private jobs would not mean the termination of his public services.

Anyone holding his positions as head of the largest MWD unit in Orange county and member of the MWD board would be just about the most important water figure, potentially, in the county, since the importing of Colorado river water is at this time the most important project before the county. But Glenn Allen, because of his exceptional ability, knowledge and experience, and his high standing in MWD and other water circles, has brought the potential of his official positions to their peak.

While he was mayor of Orange, he headed the county-wide committee that sponsored the formation of the Orange county municipal water district and its annexation to the Metropolitan water district, bringing Colorado river water rights to the bulk of Orange county territory, including six cities. Currently, he is leading the program to bring realization of the big objective—delivery of Colorado river water to Orange county in sufficient volume to refill the nearly empty reservoir below ground.

There is still much to be done and many delicate problems to be solved. This would be an extremely bad time for the Orange county team to lose its quarterback.

role in community service.

The Anaheimer of 1952, cannot be readily identified. He might be your father, your husband, your son, or the kid next door. The Anaheimer of 1952 could be —and—is Anaheim's GI fighting on the frozen Korean front.

The Anaheimer in Korea is not only performing a community service, but is serving all mankind.

His contribution to society is far greater than that of any individual on the homefront. His is not an undertaking of glory. His is a gamble—a gamble where the stakes come high.

The Anaheimer of 1952 risks his life and limb in a war for which he has no enthusiasm — a war where he is restricted and cannot win—a war he has to fight and in which he may possibly die because someone else is calling the plays.

Though handicapped, the Anaheimer of 1952 is doing a sterling job. He deserves what little honor the homefolks can bestow. His service is far beyond the call of duty.

The Anaheimer of 1952 is the GI on that frozen Korean outpost of democracy. You know him. He may be your father, or your son; he might be your husband or sweetheart; or he might be the boy next door. He's the Anaheimer of 1952.

• • •

PERSONALITIES — Vice-President-elect Richard M. Nixon won't be the only Orange county personality in the Tournament of Roses Parade. Not as long as William Wallop can ride a hoss. He's in the fourth division behind the Sierra Madre float: "Abdul, El Bul Bul Ameer." But they've got him fixed up so Andy Devine will steal his thunder. . . . Of course, somewhere during the course of the parade, you'll see Jo Ann Burdick, the ugly Anaheim Miss, whom you don't want to miss when she twirls her baton. . . . Leo Carrillo, likewise, will flash his famous smile. He's on the program as a whole equestrian unit. That he is, too.

• • •

PEOPLE — Names make news, and a columnist is supposed to know what names will make news in 1953. . . . Adolf Schoepe, of course, will continue to be one of Anaheim's top personalities. . . . Mayor Charlie Pearson will continue to guide the city government on an even keel. . . . Earnie Moeller will work quietly behind the scenes and "sell" Anaheim to industrialists. At least three "big name outfits" will come to Anaheim in 1953. . . . Anaheim's Senator, Tommy Kuchel, will get his share of the national limelight. He's a go-getter, well oriented in parliamentarian procedure and a conscientious champion of his constituents. With Kuchel on the people's side the government landgrab of the tidelands and the Fallbrook water rights won't be easy. . . . City Administrator Keith Murdoch's name, likewise, will figure in 1953 news as Anaheim moves forward to become the industrial heart of Orange county.

County in Throes of Polio Epidemic; March of Dimes Drive Kicks off Friday

Fund Campaign To Run from Jan. 2 to 31

Kickoff of the 1953 March of Dimes campaign begins Friday as Orange county is reported by Dr. Edward Lee Russell, county health officer, to be in the throes of the most severe polio epidemic in its history.

"We needn't kid ourselves," Dr. Russell declared. This county has itself a real epidemic with almost twice as many cases as ever before in county history."

Pointing up the seriousness of the polio outbreak, Dr. Russell gave figures to substantiate his statement. He said a total of 849 cases have been recorded in the county since 1922. Of the total, 491 (58 per cent) have occurred since 1947. And 203 (24 per cent) have occurred this year.

"An epidemic, with relation to poliomyelitis, is considered in existence when the incidence rate is 38 stricken in 100,000. The attack rate in Orange county at the present time is 80 in 100,000," the county physician declared.

He added that seven per cent of the total deaths have taken place this year. And in the serious bulbar-type polio, 41 (21 per cent) have been stricken during this epidemic.

Dr. Russell said that with the cases numbering more than 200 now in the county the case load may easily surpass that of 1948 when 106 cases were recorded.

As plans for the Jan. 2 to Jan. 31 fund drive are placed into effect, Stanley Bates, county fund chairman, said it will be the objective of the campaign to contact as many people personally in the county as possible.

Chairmen have been appointed from virtually every community in the county with many civic organizations backing the drive by active participation and planned activities.

In explaining the county chapter activity with relation to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Bates said, "In the county chapter, as is the case with virtually every chapter in the county, overhead expenses are kept to an absolute minimum with administrative costs virtually nil. It has always been the objective of each local chapter to recruit volunteer help and to devote the maximum in funds to scientific research and to care for patients on the local level.

Explaining fund use further, Bates said, "Half the money collected on the local level is turned over to the National Foundation for research, through which the new gamma globulin has been developed and vaccines are being sought.

"Even though half the funds are turned over to National, many times, such as in Orange county this year, the county has more money returned to it out of National epidemic funds than was originally sent. Orange county got back $40,000 this year even though only $23,000 was sent. This means that people in other parts of the country are supplying money to aid the victims stricken with polio in this county during the present epidemic."

Bates emphasized that the county chapter at present is in a bankrupt state and through the terrific load brought on by the epidemic, need for funds is greater than any time in county history to battle the crippling disease.

POLIO CHILD — Little blonde Michael Hoover, who contracted polio when he was three months old, has been named Orange county polio child of the year for the 1953 March of Dimes drive which begins Friday and runs through Jan. 31. The child is with Mrs. Kae Mossman, physical therapist, who, through the March of Dimes, is helping Michael back on his feet. The boy, who is the youngest county polio victim, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Hoover of 2331½ East First st., La Habra. Michael's father was in Korea fighting when the lad was stricken.

LA Man Tries to Get Papers for Brother Marooned on Ferry Boat

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30. (AP)—A Los Angeles school custodian said today that Michael P. O'Brien, who has been riding a ferry boat between Macao and Hong Kong since Sept. 18 because he has no passport, is his brother.

Joseph Ragan, 52, said O'Brien was born Steve Ragan in 1905 in Tacoma, Wash. He said he recognized O'Brien as his brother from news pictures and to make sure, talked with him on the telephone last Saturday.

"I asked him two or more questions that nobody but Steve Ragan could answer correctly," Joseph Ragan said. "He gave the right answers—about our running away once and about the time I almost drowned in the Puyallup river."

He said he has asked Pierce county authorities in Tacoma to send him his brother's birth certificate and requested his brother to send his fingerprints and other vital statistics.

When I get the birth certificate and the other information, I'll go to the state department with them," he added. "I'm going to do all I can to get him off that boat."

Joseph Ragan said he last saw his brother in 1926 or 1927. "The last I heard of him previously he was working for the Standard Oil Co. in Hong Kong."

O'Brien or Ragan said he was captured by the Japanese in Shanghai in the early 30's and held as a prisoner during World war II... He said the Japanese seized his passport.

Tulane Psychologist Educates Rat

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30. (AP)—Meet a rat that draws money from a bank, and runs to a store to buy cheese.

Given a choice of a quarter, dime or nickel, he chooses the quarter, which buys five pieces of cheese. The dime or nickel buys only one.

The rat does this in the laboratory of Dr. Loh Seng Tsai, professor of psychology at Tulane university.

The test shows that rats have a sense of value, Dr. Tsai told the American Association for the Advancement of Science. The rats also learn to use tools as well as coin, all indicating a high rate of intelligence.

It's the first time, he says, that rats have been shown to be able to use tools and tokens. It's been done with apes and chimpanzees —and other psychologists have trained chimps to use slot machines.

Now rats which are cheaper and can be bred to be all alike, can be used for studies of mental processes and behavior in animals, which in turn can help toward a better understanding of the ways and wherefores of the human mind.

Council to Talk Over 4-H Junior Leader Project

The junior leader project for 4-H club members will be the topic for discussion at the Jan. 5 meeting of the Orange county 4-H club council.

This project is the number one project for high school age 4-H members, says Farm Advisor W. A. Humphrey for the University of California agricultural extension service. By assuming specific leadership responsibilities they measurably assist the local adult 4-H club leader. The junior leader supervises certain younger 4-H club members on their home projects.

Enrolled in this project to date are nearly 40 Orange county boys and girls. They are: Ocean View club, Janice Honda, Santa Ana; Jack Place, David Matthew, Katheryn Tornavacca, Jo Ann Hays, Fred Verala and Trudy Leedke, Huntington Beach; Jane Curtis and Melvin Bartz, jr., Midway City; La Habra Tip-Toppers, Wanda Berry and Barbara Rubottom, La Habra.

Driver-Vigilantes Formed in Eureka

EUREKA, Dec. 30. (AP)—A modern day version of the vigilantes has been created here.

Calling themselves "Drivers Alert," a group of prominent county leaders decided to establish a voluntary citizens' organization aimed at clearing dangerous drivers from Humboldt county highways.

Drivers Alert is to function as an aid to the law and is designed merely to inform authorities of dangerous acts on the highways.

Specific rules for operation of the citizen-drivers organization will be drawn up next Friday at the first meeting of the committee selected last night to act as a planning board for Drivers Alert.

The general idea is that membership in the organization will require a driver to report serious traffic violations by phone to police authorities. Minor violations are to be reported by members to local D. A. committees which will maintain a file of complaints thus made against drivers in the county.

Roy Gustafson, prominent businessman, and president of the Eureka Rotary club was named chairman of the committee of 21.

"This organization is a rebellion by drivers against unsafe drivers," Gustafson said.

"Soon the slogan in our county will be 'Drive carefully, there's a D. A. behind you,'" he added.

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan's first four students seeking higher education in Arabic departed recently for Cairo. They have been awarded fellowships by Al-Azhar University. They will study Islamic law and Arabic literature.

Reno Cops Offer Driver Service to New Year Drunks

RENO, Nev., Dec. 30. (AP)—When New Year's eve celebrants here have had more than their fill, all they've got to do to get home safely is call a cop.

Chief of Police L. E. Greeson and Sheriff George Lothrop issued instructions to their officers today to furnish transportation home to anyone who thinks he is unfit to drive.

The lawmen will even drive partying motorists' cars home for them.

The program is designed to keep the mixture of gasoline and alcohol as weak as possible over the holiday.

Motor Fuel Tax Hits $15,815,088

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 29 (AP)—California's 4½ cent a gallon tax on gasoline and other high test motor fuels brought in gross revenues of $15,815,088 during October, the State Board of Equalization reported today.

The amount was collected on the distribution of about 351 million gallons.

The board explained $1,416,219 of the gross tax collection was refunded to those who purchased fuel for non-highway use, leaving net revenues of $14,398,869.

More than three and one-third billion gallons of taxable high test motor fuels have been distributed in the state during the first 10 months of 1952, the board reported.

Queen Elizabeth II Named 'Woman Of the Year' by Time Magazine

NEW YORK, Dec. 30—Queen Elizabeth II of England is Time's "Woman of the Year for 1952," the newsmagazine's editors announced today.

A full-color portrait of the 26-year-old ruler, and mother of two, graces the cover of Time's issue out tomorrow. Cover artist Boris Chaliapin's portrait depicts the smiling young Queen against a background of a rose in full bloom.

Elizabeth is the first mother to be named in Time's annual choice for newsworthiness. She is the third woman to be chosen. Previously selected were the present Duchess of Windsor (1936), "the woman I love," for whom Elizabeth's Uncle David left England's throne; and Madame Chiang Kai-shek, selected jointly with the Generalissimo (1937) for their leadership of an invaded China.

Time's editors call Elizabeth "... a fresh young blossom on roots that had weathered many a season of wintry doubt."

The newsmagazine's story on Elizabeth's selection quotes Elizabeth in the Royal Family's annual Christmas message:

"Many grave problems and difficulties confront us all," Elizabeth told her subjects, "but with a new faith in the old and splendid beliefs given us by our forefathers, and the strength to venture beyond the safeties of the past, I know we shall be worthy of our duty. Above all, we must keep alive that courageous spirit of adventure that is the finest quality of youth."

Queen Elizabeth is Time's 26th annual selection. In a cover story on Feb. 15, 1952, on the occasion of her accession to the throne upon her father's death, Time said of her, "The crown remains, the symbol lives."

Traditionally the editors have chosen each year figures who "dominated the news of that year and left an indelible mark—for good or ill—on history." Time's annual selections began in 1927, when at year's end the editors found themselves without a suitable candidate for the weekly cover feature. They decided that while no man was suitable for the weekly honor, that one man, Charles A. Lindbergh, who had spanned the Atlantic solo in the "Spirit of St. Louis," was truly "Man of the Year."

In succeeding years the following were named:

Walter P. Chrysler, 1928; Owen D. Young, 1929; Mohandas K. Gandhi, 1930; Pierre Laval, 1931; Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1932 and 1934 and 1941; Hugh S. Johnson, 1933; Haile Selassie, 1935; Wallis Warfield Simpson (Duchess of Windsor), 1936; Gen. and Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, 1937; Adolf Hitler, 1938; Joseph Stalin, 1939 and 1942; Winston Churchill, 1940 and 1949 (as Man of the Half Century); General George C. Marshall, 1943 and 1947; Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower, 1944; President Harry S. Truman in 1945 and 1948; James J. Byrnes, 1946; the "U.S. Fighting Man," 1950, and Iran's Mohammed Mossadegh, 1951.
