OBLONG VIEWS

(From an Egg-Shaped Head)

By WALDO PUNTER, P.S.B.

Dear Santa Claus:

How are you? I am fine. I have tried to be a very good boy. The only time I deviated was when I voted for Adlai Stevenson for president, but I got slapped back into line.

There are a few things I would like for Christmas, if you please.

First and foremost, bring me a shotgun to use to keep the blackbirds off my lawn and, incidentally, to apply to the bird next door who every Sunday yells across the way to ask, "did you hear that Eisenhower won?"

But then, I fall to thinking (or cogitating, as they used to say over home) and it strikes me that you should bring me the gift of tolerance, so that I may not bridle at the other man's beliefs or convictions but let him live with and enjoy the tenets of his choice.

By the way, we have a fireplace over here at our lean-to, and some fixtures for it would not be considered household encumbrances: something unextravagant and not too flamboyant, to place on the hearth just for effect. Such as, if I may be so bold as to suggest, andirons, a whisk broom, a pair of tongs, some old pine cones, or even Marilyn Monroe.

Also, please, I would like a garbage can that will paralyze a stray dog at 20 paces.

And some quick, painless cat poison.

Might be I could use a little dash of humility, too, but not necessarily the particular brand that Arthur Godfrey purports to espouse.

Please, too, bring me something that I can put in my car to stop it from going "clink-clink-clank" when I shift into second gear. I would even settle for something which would change that racket to "clink-clink-clunk."

While on the subject of automobiles, I think a Hillman-Minx would be nice, but if you can't arrange that, just any little old minx will do.

This next one probably will be a pretty big order (better I should ask for a B-36 bomber) but could you somehow bring me a gopher trap that will actually trap the blasted things?

We have one, but the gophers don't die in it. They frolic. And furthermore, they stuff it full of dirt and drag it up onto the back porch as a final gesture of defiance before sneaking back to their dens to romp and proliferate, or whatever the beastly things do while in residence. Our back lot looks like an old silver lode diggings that didn't pan out.

I also want you to bring me a good 5-cent cigar, something that this country needs. We had 'em in '03. Why not now? (pardon me while I snuff out this marijuana cigarette butt).

But enough of this asking for gifts for myself, Santa. Bring the whole world something. Bring it an antidote for hate, jealousy, greed, suspicion and duplicity.

Imbue the chancelleries of the world with the indisputable knowledge that to try to resolve differences between nations by resorting to bullets and bombs is to revert to the way of the Cave Man.

At Christmas time a lot of people ask you for a lot of things, I know. I saw you down at a department store the other day, and you already looked pretty haggard, what with the surging, grappling herd of Christmas shoppers and five or six brats plucking at you in an apparent attempt to divest you of your robes.

I hope I haven't asked you for too much. I wish you a Merry Christmas, a Happy New Year, and herewith cease and desist.

There's only one thing, though. About the fireplace fixtures I asked for: you really don't need to bring the andirons, whisk broom, tongs and pine cones, but as for that other thing . . .

Expansion of Robertshaw-Fulton Anaheim Plant Announced by Firm

The Anaheim Division is one of seven Robertshaw-Fulton manufacturing divisions, and is the only one devoted entirely to defense production. It is engaged in the manufacture of electronic, electro-mechanical, hydraulic and pneumatic components for aircraft, guided missiles and fire control systems.

According to President John A. Robertshaw, at the Robertshaw-Fulton Executive office at Greensburg, Pa., the expansion at Anaheim, "will provide facilities for additional scientists, physicists and researchers in electronics and dynamics to serve the increasing needs of the nation's defense program."

The new facilities will include two research and development laboratories, an auditorium, offices and an employee cafeteria seating 250.

O. K. Earl Construction Co., of Pasadena, expects to complete the addition early in 1954. The original building was erected in 1951.

MOD Record Near Miracle

In the late lamented valencia season most growers found only things to cry about and with volume proration again staring them in the face the future also held little balm. But one real performance, at least gives, perhaps, a little hope to the end man in the line, the grower.

That performance is told in the 1953 record of the Mutual Orange Distributors. They have shaken down to the job at hand and made a real record for themselves. They have: (1) strengthened their fresh fruit position; (2) paid market price, in cash, for products fruit delivered since August 1; (3) eliminated future revolving fund deductions for processing plant facilities; and (4) they have handled 20 per cent more fruit with 20 per cent less personnel.

Do you realize that these are not promises but are good hard facts? Read them over again. Realize what 20 percent more fruit handled with 20 percent less personnel would mean if this were the record of the whole industry.

Kwikset Rejects Unionists' Bid By Big Margin

Production and Maintenance employees of Kwikset Locks by a vote of 476 to 159 yesterday rejected unionization of the company by the International Association of Machinists. The balloting was supervised by the National Labor Relations Board.

The vote was the climax of several years campaigning by labor unions to unionize the Anaheim lockset manufacturing firm.

The I. A. M. carried out an extensive campaign which included a well-manned headquarters in Anaheim, thousands of printed leaflets and booklets, mass, meetings and parties, visits to homes of Kwikseiters, a free item of wearing apparel, and others.

Main emphasis of the I. A. M. campaign was directed toward union control of the employee benefits which Kwikset has provided its employees over the years, and cember 10.

attacks on the company's incentive plan which has provided employees almost $125,000 in extra wages during the past 10 months.

The company replied to the attacks by pointing out the irregularities in the statements of the union, their lack of responsibility for their statements, and emphasized the many benefits enjoyed by Kwikset employees.

Orange County Anti-Polio Campaigners Seeking $150,000 for Fight Against Disease in 1954

Orange County needs to raise $150,000 in the March of Dimes campaign during January, to meet the necessities of the fight against poliomyelitis in 1954.

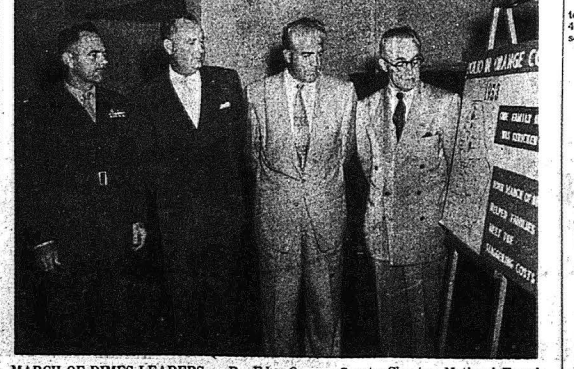

Chairman John McKittrick of the Orange County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, disclosed that goal to a gathering of more than 50 March of Dimes workers at a luncheon.

Heavy incidence of polio last year and this year, the record high years in Orange County's polio history, have laid this burden upon the county, which at one time this year had the highest polio incidence in the state, it was disclosed.

Sheriff James Musick, March of Dimes drive chairman, told community drive chairmen from various sections of the county that they face a real challenge in rescuing the Orange County Chapter from a serious financial situation.

The chapter, he said, would need to draw upon the National Foundation reserve for $65,000 to meet its outstanding obligations, unless the coming March of Dimes campaign raises the necessary funds.

Dr. Edward Lee Russell, county health officer, outlining the county's polio problem and how it is handled, reported that the 1952 total of 212 cases was highest in the county's history, and the 196 cases expected to comprise the 1953 total, which now is 183, is the next highest incidence.

Local School Taxes Remain At High Level

"Local school taxes this year did not go down in line with the big increase in state support of public schools voted in 1952," California Taxpayers' association reported today, following its study of general fund income budgets of 209 school districts for 1953-54, compared with last year.

The 209 districts, in 56 of the state's 58 counties, include 60 per cent of the attendance and 65 per cent of the taxable valuation of California.

In Orange county, budgets of 10 districts were examined, 6 elementary, 2 high, 1 unified, and 1 junior college. The study of budget income of the Anaheim districts showed as follows:

Elementary District

Anaheim elementary district, state support up 65 per cent, from the $293,880 budgeted for 1952-53 to $485,548 for 1953-54. School taxes up 18 per cent, from last year's $268,528 to $317,556 this year.

High School District

Anaheim High School district, state support up 37 per cent, from the $157,805 budgeted for 1952-53 to $215,860 for 1953-54. School taxes up 1 per cent, from last year's $477,538 to $482,220 this year.

Budgets Examined

The 209 school budgets examined included 93 elementary, 59 high schools, 46 unified, and 11 junior college districts. Of the 209, only 11 show a drop in state support and only 35 indicate anf drop in property taxes.

All but one of the 93 elementary districts anticipated an increase in state support—89 of them an increase of 10 per cent or more. Forty-two expected a jump in state support of 30% or more. Only 11 of the 93 estimated a drop in local taxes—48 expected increases of 10 per cent or more.

Twenty-three of the 59 high school districts expected state support to increase by 30 per cent or more, 7 expected a drop in state support; only 11 budgeted for reduced property tax revenues.

Fifteen of the 46 unified school districts anticipated state support 30 per cent or more greater for 1953-54 than for 1952-53; two showed a drop in state support; only 11 expected a decrease in property taxes for schools.

Seven of the 11 junior college districts budgeted state support 30 per cent or more higher for 1953-54 than for 1952-53; only one expected a drop in state support; two budgeted for lower school taxes for this year than for last year.

"State support of public school districts throughout California this year is at the constitutional minimum of $180 per pupil, with every district guaranteed at least $120," the Taxpayers' association said. "Last year, state support averaged $247 per pupil, with each district guaranteed at least $90. On the basis of the 209 district budgets examined, the big increase in state support voted by the people in 1952 was not followed by much decrease in local school taxes," the Taxpayers' association observed.

Trio Held After Brutal Stabbing of Anaheim Man

Three men are being held and one has been released in the brutal stabbing of Farias T. Corona of Anaheim in front of a Santa Ana cafe early Sunday morning.

Judge Howard Cameron of the Santa Ana-Orange Municipal court yesterday ordered the release of Socorro M. Menchaca of Santa Ana who was being held on charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

Police arrested Menchaca as the "fourth man" in the stabbing when blood was discovered on his coat and what appeared to be traces of blood on a knife found in his possession.

Laboratory tests proved the blood to be that of Menchaca's sister who had suffered a nose bleed. The marks on the knife blade were not blood, technicians said.

The release of Menchaca launched a search for the fourth man who escaped after the stabbing that took place in front of a cafe at 1226 W. 2nd St., in Santa Ana.

The three suspects still held in county jail on charges of assault with a deadly weapon are John Estrado, 19, Samuel Valdez and John Reyes, 20, all of Santa Ana.

In an arraignment before Judge Cameron, all were ordered to appear for preliminary hearing Dec. 22. Bail was reduced to $2,000 each.

New Father Dies In Auto Crash

A 38-year-old father, who was returning his wife and newly-born daughter home from Hoag Presbyterian Hospital in Newport Beach, was killed Tuesday when his car collided head-on with a truck carrying Navy oil field machinery.

Dead is Arnold Justin Prigo of Laguna Beach who died instantly in the crash, police officers said. His wife Marjorie, 31 and the five-day-old infant, Ann Ruth, escaped with minor injuries. A son, Benjamin Robert, 5, and a baby-sitter, Mrs. Dora Howland, were also injured.

Investigating officers said the accident occurred at the junction of Coast Hwy. and MacArthur Blvd. when Bryon Brown Bowman, 33, Long Beach truck driver, swerved his truck to pass a car just after the traffic signal had turned green, and met the Prigo car head-on.

Four Anaheim Scouts Taking Rugged Training

Four Anaheim lads are among the 12 Explorer Scouts from the Northern Orange County Council who are taking an intensive week-long course in survival training at Stead Air Force Base, Reno, Nevada.

At the base, which is the Air Force's regular survival training school, the boys are receiving training in snow shelters and arctic survival, orienteering by day and night, survival hunting, use of traps—method of skinning deer, survival communications, mountaineering, marksmanship and how to live off the land.

Because of the ruggedness of the course, it is open only to Explorer Scouts or boys more than 14 years of age.

Participants from other county communities are:

Gerald Patterson and Taka Tanaka, Cypress; Rocky Wylis, Fullerton; Jerry Holland, Buena Park; Ronnie Severson, Placentia; Richard Pike, Stanton; James Payan, Olive, and Roy Acker, La Habra.

Capt. Bowman lost his life when he crashed near Halstead, Kan., while on a cross-country navigational training flight. He was a member of the Headquarters Squadron, Air Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, at El Toro where he had been stationed since January.

Capt. Bowman, a bachelor, was flying an F2H-4 Banshee jet when it crashed about 10 p.m. Monday from unknown causes.

U.S. Electrical Motors Start New Defense Products Plant on Anaheim Annexed Territory

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Defense Products Division of U. S. Electrical Motors Inc., will be held on the company's 87-acre site on Santa Ana Freeway at the intersection of Magnolia Avenue, Friday, Dec. 18, at 11:00 a.m. with approximately 75 leading Orange county civic and industrial leaders attending. Lunch will follow at Knott's Berry Farm where President Pfleger will reveal plans for the construction of the plant involving an investment of several million dollars.

Marking the beginning of one of Orange county's largest industrial projects it eventually will give employment to thousands of workers residing within commuting distance.

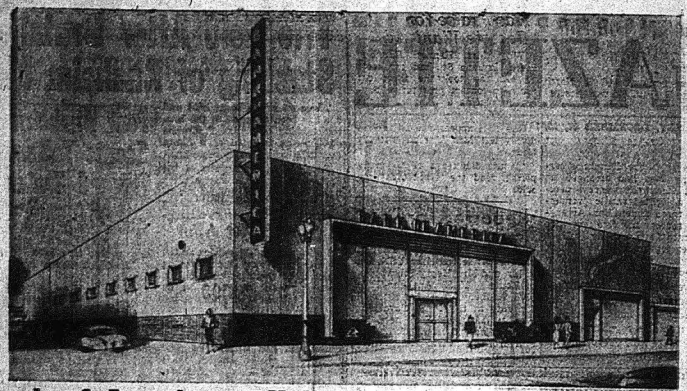

The new plant will be in the shoestring strip recently annexed by the City of Anaheim on the southside of the Southern Pacific Railroadroad about 3 miles east of Buena Park.

Local Officials To Speak

Mayor Charles Pearson of Anaheim, Richard Gay, President of Anaheim Chamber of Commerce, and Charles E. Wilson, retired official of Worthington Pump Co., will present felicitations on the project. Clyde Cromer will be toastmaster. The newest product of U. S. Motors, a NEMA specification motor requiring an expenditure of a million dollars for complete tooling to produce, will be given its premier showing at the luncheon.

U. S. Electrical Motors Inc., was established in Los Angeles in 1908 and the Los Angeles plant occupies the entire city block at 200 East Slauson Avenue, with two auxiliary plants nearby. A large eastern plant is located at Milford, Connecticut and distributing outlets are located in 300 areas throughout the country.

Bank of America to Hold Open House December 18

The public will get a preview of Bank of America's beautiful new branch Friday evening of this week (Dec. 18), it was announced today by Manager O. E. Hanson. Open house will be held from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., and the entire personnel staff will be on hand to show visitors through the modern design banking premises. Light refreshments will be served all evening.

The new building is at the southwest corner of Center and Claudina Streets and is directly across from the present branch of the bank, which it will replace when it opens for business next Monday morning.

Twice as large as the old branch, it has exactly double the number of teller windows as the old. Two of the 28 windows will be for handling large deposits, freeing the remaining windows for faster service on normal transactions.

The public lobby is three times as large as the old one, safe deposit facilities have been increased, lending officers' section doubled, the special deposits window are a night depository and a large paved parking lot for the bank's customers.

Many features add beauty as well as utility, Hanson pointed out. The slimline fluorescent lighting has been sunken into a sound-absorbing ceiling, improving lighting and reducing noise. The decoration scheme is in soft modern tones. Air-conditioning serves the entire building.

On the mezzanine are supply and storage vaults and a large staff room, completely furnished for the comfort of employees.

The front of the modern structure features much glass and white metal.

"Our entire staff joins with me in inviting all our friends and customers to the opening," says Hanson. "We will take a great deal of pleasure and pride in showing the people of Anaheim what their patronage has enabled us to do here. The new building will be a pleasant surprise to them. And we feel that the bank's expenditure of some $325,000 for land, building and parking lot shows what our top management feels about the future of this area and the opportunities for further growth."

IN THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

From the Files of Anaheim Gazette

By MRS. HENRY KUCHEL

75 Years Ago

Thirteen tons of coal from the Black Star coal mine in Silverado, were brought to Anaheim yesterday for Bert Dreyfus and Co. The dumps are now full, the teams now employed being unable to haul away the coal as fast as it is taken out.

Mr. Patey brought down five tons of gold and silver ore from the Florentine mine, Santa Rosa district, Silverado, for Taylor & Co., of Anaheim. He will bring down another load next Wednesday making a carload for San Francisco.

A half interest in the Thanksgiving mine (Silverado) was traded last week for 2000 acres of land in Tennessee said to be worth $10,000. That is not so much; not long ago we were offered five hundred acres of land in Georgia for $50 worth of advertising.

Messrs. Mappa and Gay have been awarded the contract for furnishing the stone for the Wilmington breakwater. Light stone is furnished for $2 per ton and heavy for $2.50 a ton.

A track walker in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad, named O'Brien, was drowned at Dos Palmos, on the desert in a wash caused by a cloud burst.

We examined yesterday the ladders manufactured by Mr. T. S. Grimshaw for the Anaheim Fire department. They are light and durable and admirably fitted for the purpose for which they are intended. The extension ladders are of simple and ingenious construction.

A quite lively shower of rain fell last night. The rain gauge of Mr. Saxton recorded a fall of about one-quarter of an inch. Thus far, enough rain has fallen to insure grass in the foothills. Stockmen are encouraged and hope for a wet winter.

Mr. W. M. Bandy left Anaheim this morning for the San Joaquin Valley. He will return early in the spring.

Parties shipping freight by way of Anaheim Landing will do well to read the advertisement of Mr. George Hull in this morning's issue. Mr. Hull has purchased the teams of Louis Hoberstadt & Co., and is now prepared to carry freight between Anaheim and Anaheim Landing. He will be able to haul wine and other freight at very low prices. Orders left at Langenberger's store will receive prompt attention.

Public notice is directed to the card of M. O. Warling, Anaheim's favorite saddle and harness maker. Mr. Warling enjoys a fine business, which he deserves, being a conscientious, able business man, and a firstclass workman. He keeps a stock which would be creditable in a town six times the size of Anaheim.

A large lot of groceries for San Juan Capistrano were shipped yesterday from the wholesale department of P. Davis & Bro.

50 Years Ago

Charley Fleming came down from Los Angeles on Monday to install an engine and pumping plant for Wm. Miles, south of town.

The young son of R. D. Curtis, who was badly hurt by falling off a horse on Saturday, is in a fair way to recover.

Vehicle Transfers

California law requires that persons who apply for transfers of vehicle registration between Dec. 1 and February 4 must pay the full year's registration renewal fees for 1954 at the time they report the transfer.

A. J. Veglia, registrar of vehicles, said the law, which was enacted in 1951, is most frequently applicable to December purchasers of used cars which have been registered in the State by previous owners. He urged used car sellers to remind buyers that the full year fees for 1954 must be paid when they apply for transfer of registration.

Christian Science Lesson Discusses

Divine creation appearing thru the light of spiritual understanding will be considered in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. The question, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject.

The Golden Text from Hebrews (1:10) reads, "Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands."

A Scriptural selection from Genesis (1:1-4) declares, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy says in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The rays of infinite Truth, when gathered into focus of ideas, bring light instantaneously, whereas a thousand years of human doctrines, hypotheses, and vague conjectures emit no such effulgence" (p. 504).

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Plegel celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary by inviting children and grandchildren to a dinner party at their home at 7552 Dowling ave.

Mrs. Plegel wore her wedding dress, a sentimental custom that she has observed on each of the 45 anniversaries.

Members of the family who gathered to honor the couple, were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Plegel and children of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Plegel and children of Fullerton, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Plegel and family of Buena Park.

County Ag, Conservation Program Handbook Ready

The Agricultural Conservation Program for 1954 has been developed, and is now available to Orange county farmers, announced Glenn A. Harris of La Habra, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee. Copies of the 1954 Handbook are available upon request to the county office, 622 N. Main st., Santa Ana, Harris said.

The program differs in some respects from the present one, said Harris, in that cooperation will not only be voluntary on the part of the farmers — as in the past — but must be initiated by the farmers themselves. Harris explained this means no personal contact procedure will be followed this year to acquaint the farmers with the program, therefore, each one will contact the county office and make application to the County Committee for such conservation practices as are required for the best interests of his particular farm.

These requests will be considered by the county committee, and if approved, handled as in the past: that is, a tentative approval will be issued to the farmer pending determination of desirability and feasibility as a result of inspection and consideration by the Soil Conservation Service, or a county committee representative.

Second Change

A second important change in the coming program, Harris said, is that farmers who, for some reason, failed to make application by Dec. 11, 1953, for their needed conservation practices for the year will not be excluded from participation as the committee will make revisions of approved farm allotments by quarters. He explained that this means that a farmer making application for conservation practices after Dec. 11th will have his application filed until the end of the first quarter of 1954, and if approvable then, will be accepted for performance in the second — or a later quarter, according to the needs of the case and availability of funds. Harris added that the responsibility for taking the initiative is placed upon the individual farmer under the 1954 program.

Koch, Dandoy Trojan Standouts for 1953

Des Koch, called by Grantland Rice "the greatest punter in collegiate football history" established that fact on the record books by completing his college career with a new national three-year punting record of 43.6 yards per kick on 103 punts.

The big Trojan tailback boosted his 1953 season average to 44.6 with three long kicks against Notre Dame in SC's final game. Koch averaged 43.3 as a sophomore finishing second in the nation, and setting a PCC record. Last fall he won the national title with a 43.4 figure. This season he did not kick often enough to retain his title, but his average is higher than that of the national leader.

Aramis Dandoy, the fleet Trojan junior who shared the tailback duties with Koch, was the other standout in the 1953 season statistics released today. Dandoy gained 578 yards rushing for a 5.1-yard average, he completed 44% of his passes for 242 more yards, he punted 25 times for a 40-yard average, as well as leading the team in interceptions, punt returns, kickoff returns, and scoring. In all, Dandoy participated in 220 offensive plays and gained 1281 yards on all types of plays.

Program Slated

The Women's Society for Christian Service of White Temple Methodist Church has scheduled a musical program for today's general meeting.

Entitled "Gracious Gifts Are Given," the program will begin at 1 p.m. and will feature a string trio whose members are Mrs. Donald Reese, Mrs. Walter Meade and Mrs. Ben Klaumann.

This special Christmas program will be preceded by a noon luncheon in the church dining room, served by the Vinding Circle, and a prayer meeting in Wesley Hall at 11:15 a.m.

Kwikset Man

Bill Grey, Personnel Manager of Kwikset locks, headed a lively open discussion on the subject "Induction of New Employees," at the semi-monthly meeting of the Orange County Personnel and Industrial Relations Group. Thirty-five of Orange county's leading professional personnel people attended the meeting at Knott's Berry Farm last Wednesday.

Members of the organization expressed their gratification at being able to get together with other personnel people to discuss problems pertinent to their jobs.

Official Praises AUHS Students

Several days ago Anaheim High school principal, Paul Demaree, received a letter the contents of which warmed his heart as it will the hearts of parents whose young people attend AUHS. Even the city fathers, whose children long since have joined the ranks of AUHS Alumni, will strut with pride!

The letter to Principal Demaree is from J. L. Hastings, Supt. of of Special Service of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway company, Los Angeles and follows:

"Dear Sir:

Train Rider L. L. Yarnell, the Officer from our Special Service Department assigned to accompany the Anaheim Football Special, Anaheim to San Diego and return, on Dec. 4th, has reported that the students on this special were the finest behaved group of young people it has ever been his pleasure to accompany, that they conducted themselves in an exceptionally creditable manner.

To Parents and Teachers

"In these days when there is so much discouraging news in official reports and the daily press about the lawlessness of the younger generation, it gives us law-enforcement officers quite a lift to learn of a group who reflected so much credit not only on themselves, but on their parents and teachers, as did the students of the Anaheim Union High School..

"May your good work spread to other neighboring communities."

Very sincerely yours,

J. L. Hastings, Superintendent, Special Service, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Co.

Program Slated

On Monday, at 7 p.m. the First Presbyterian church school Christmas program will be held in the church sanctuary and will be followed by a fellowship hour in the social hall.

Vets' Insurance

Assuming that 120 days are exactly the same as four months is a mistake that has cost many newly discharged veterans their opportunity to take out or resume national Service Life Insurance, asserted Ben Lieberman, Orange County Veterans Service Officer.

Veterans have 120 days under the law, he says, to signup for Government insurance after they leave the armed forces. Their automatic indemnity protection also expires after 120 days.

Many veterans have taken it for granted that they would be within the deadline if application for the GI term insurance was made within four months after date they left the service. This assumption can trip them up.

120 Days Not 4 Months

Since some months have 31 days, the 120-day period can expire in less time than four months. Veterans who put off the question of government insurance to the very last moment may deprive themselves of valuable protection for their loved ones.

Government term insurance for veterans is written at possibly the lowest rates available anywhere. It is offered in several forms, with an unlicited choice of beneficiaries. Disabilities caused by military service are not charged against a veteran in determining his eligibility for insurance protection.

To learn more about the insurance available to them, to apply for a policy, or to talk over other problems, veterans may contact any Veterans Administration Office or Veterans Service Office.

BACK FROM VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Seekins of 118 N. Palm st. returned to their home on Wednesday from a week's visit in San Jose with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith. The family held a pre-Christmas celebration and also visited San Francisco.

During this event demonstrations of the new 1954 Hoffman and its revolutionary Trio-Phonic High Fidelity sound will be conducted by a Hoffman factory representative. All during the event wonderful prizes will be awarded! The grand prize is a three day vacation for two at the fabuous White Sun Guest Ranch in Palm Springs.

Also included in the giant array of prizes are a beautiful selection of Cal-Dak Snack Trays and Ekco-ware kitchen sets. Free Beany balloons and the exciting new Hoffman Hi-Fi games will be given to all children accompanied by their parents. Free orchids for all the ladies! Everyone will be served Bire-ley's delicious soft drinks at the snack bar.

Banquet Honors Club Graduates

The atmosphere of the "gay nineties" was re-created for members of the Two by Two club of Zion Lutheran church when a banquet was held in honor of three couples who graduate from the club this year. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clasen, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Jacobsen and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horst.

As master of ceremonies, Ralph Spencer introduced a barbershop quartet which included Gene Hill, Hal Johnsen, Leonard Kreidt and Bill Schrank. Club President, Ray Grimm, gave the welcome.

A gay nineties theme was used in decorating the banquet tables, with miniature models of antique cars and large bouquets of chrysanthemums to carry out the motif. Place cards were figures of men and women of the era.

Members of the host committee were Messrs. and Mmes. Howard Guerin, Hal Johnsen, Gerhard Clasen, Rudi Dittl and Walter Knigge. The steak dinner was prepared by members of the Christian Life Guild of the church.

Harvey L. Knowles

Residing in Anaheim for eight years, Harvey L. Knowles, 48, of 2228 Underhill st., passed away December 10. He was born in Lima, Ohio.

He is survived by his wife Velma E. Knowles, Anaheim; his mother, Mrs. Eva Knowles and two brothers, Earl and Arthur Knowles, all of Long Beach.

Services were held Monday at 2 o'clock in the chapel of Backs, Campbell and Kaulbars, with Rev. A. J. Caseberr officiating. Interment was in Sunnyside cemetery, Long Beach.

Oviedo-Daniels Marriage Vows Exchanged in Los Alamitos Church

Miss Marie Heen Oviedo was a lovely December bride when she repeated marriage vows with Harold Daniels in St. Isadore's Catholic church in Los Alamitos.

The bride was 1952 homecoming queen at Anaheim Union High school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuentes of Los Alamitos. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Daniels, 600 E. Cypress st. Anaheim.

When given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of satin and lace with a long sweeping train. A tiara of pearls and sequins held an illusion veil, and the bridal bouquet was of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Attending Miss Oviedo were the matron of honor, Mrs. Eva Rodriguez of Anaheim and bridesmaids Miss Eleanor Hernandez of Buena Park and Miss Gloria Reynoza of Anaheim. Their ensembles were of turquoise and pink.

As flower girl the bride's sister Cherryl Fuentes wore a pink frock and carried a basket of turquoise carnations. The bridegroom's nephew, Peter Peralta, was ring bearer.

Leonard Reynoza of Anaheim, was best man and ushers were Angel Mata and Albert Oviedo, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Oscar Watte was at the organ and the bride's uncle, Ray Vasquez, sang the wedding solos.

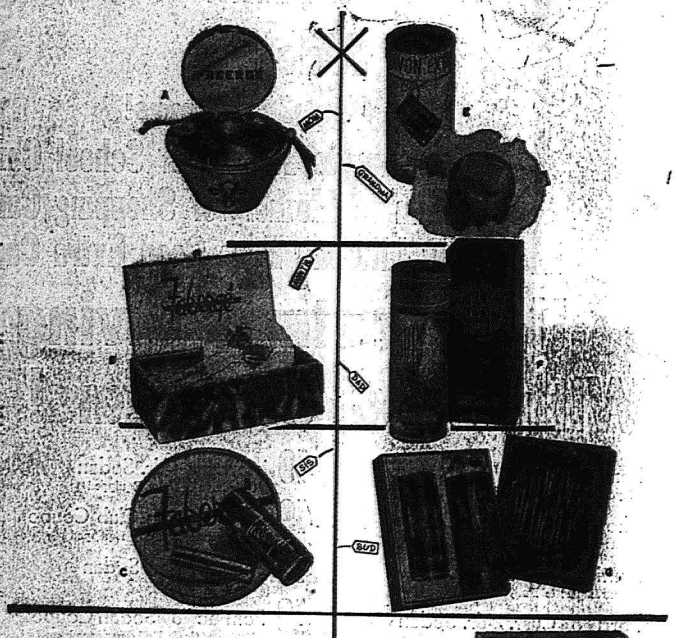

After the nuptial rites, a reception was held in the church social hall. Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Thomas Aguilar. Assisting with serving were Mrs. Dorothy Peralta, Mrs. Aurora Salcido and Mrs. Manuel Rodriguez.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Daniels are honeymooning at Laguna Beach and upon their return will live in Artesia, convenient to the Long Beach Naval Air Field where the bridegroom is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Loudon, 755 N. Pine st., became the parents of an 8 lb., 2 oz son in St. Joseph hospital Dec. 9.
