OBLONG VIEWS

(From an Egg-Shaped Head)

By WALDO HUNTER, F.S.B.

Rev. Robert R. Washer, pastor of the Garden Grove First Methodist church, recently wrote in his church bulletin an article which carries an important message at the Christmas season. It is herewith reprinted:

"All of us are perturbed; displeased by the sacrilegious way in which the Soviet propaganda agency has rewritten the story of the Birth of Christ to be circulated among children.

"The Soviet version reads: 'Once upon a time there was a couple so poor they had no roof over their heads. Wherever they asked for shelter the Capitalist lords drove them away. Their first son was born in a stall and they wrapped him in rags and placed him in a manger. Next day shepherds came to the new born babe with gifts and a message from Russia: In Russia children grow up in freedom because there is no starvation, privation or unemployment. Then Joseph, the unemployed worker asked the shepherds how they found them. Whereupon the shepherds answered that a red star led them to their assistance. Then the poverty stricken couple prepared for the road. The shepherds wrapped the baby in furs and they all set out for the Soviet paradise.'"

Rev. Washer gets his point across quite well, but I would have been tempted to add just one more twist to the story: "And the propaganda ministry said that when the Christ Child grew up his name was Stalin."

At this time it seems appropriate to accord a rising vote of thanks to that hard-working and ever welcome courier of glad tidings and misshapen packages: the mailman.

Neither snow nor storm nor snappish dogs nor illegible house numbers will stay him from his appointed rounds.

I have observed one, especially during the past two weeks. He started off the Christmas rush with legs that looked like this: | |. After a week, his burden of mail had caused his legs to look like this: ((And when I saw him yesterday toting a tidy little pouch of stuff, his legs looked like this: ( ). Merry Christmas and sympathy to you, long-suffering and unsung (and underpaid) toiler of the postal route who at this time each year serves as the final and all-important connecting link between distant friends and relatives. Just a word of warning: Don't linger so long at Wassail after this ordeal is over that you will come like this: / /.

●

Yes, postal service is showing quite a lot of improvement. We are just beginning to get some packages mailed last year.

●

At the risk of offending those who disapprove of Christmas libations and potables, I offer a recipe for a holiday punch to provide more joy and festivity at this season.

Elixir of Whooperee

1 fifth sloe gin.
½ pint sour cream.
3 eggs.
No cinnamon.
½ grated chestnut.
1 eviscerated dormouse.
1 gill dry vermouth.
2 dashes sarsparilla.
½ jeroboam cheap tokay, filtered through old coffee sack.
1 quart of Old Norwalk aged-in the woods whiskey.

Preparation: Mix this all up, let it stand in earthen jar for eight hours, throw the whole mess out and take the family to a drive-in theatre.

●

To all of you who have had the stern courage to read these rantings and ravings during the past year: a most joyous Christmas and a New Year.

Building Plans Told for Proposed St. Jude Hospital

The fund raising committee for the proposed St. Jude hospital which will serve northern Orange county, has outlined the floor plan of the $2,000,000 establishment.

The building will be T shaped of reinforced concrete. It will be fire and earthquake resistant.

Approximately 60,000 square feet of floor space will be contained in the four floors and a ground floor. Plans call for expansion to at least 200 beds as needs demand.

Surgery will be on the second story where 35 beds will be installed and three major operating rooms, one minor surgery room, a fracture room and facilities for storage and sterilization of supplies.

The maternity department, to be located on the third floor, will have at least 21 beds. The nursery will be divided into units containing not more than 12 bassinets each, with examination and treatment and nurses work rooms adjoining, but separate from the nurseries. A separate nursery will be for observation of the newborn when advisable. A premature baby unit will provide complete equipment necessary for the early arrivals: Three delivery rooms will be in the obstetrical area.

The fourth floor will have at least 34 beds for general medical care.

Features available will include air conditioned operating rooms, piped oxygen to all patients rooms, nurseries, operating and delivery rooms; emergency generator with automatic transfer in case of power failure, modern laboratory to serve the entire hospital, and the latest diagnostic and X-ray equipment.

The St. Jude fund raising committee has set a goal of $750,000 to be raised in communities of Northern Orange county. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Orangé, who operate St. Joseph hospital, have pledged another $750,000 and have applied for a grant of $500,000 from the Federal Hill-Burton fund.

The proposed hospital will be built on an 18-acre site in Sunny Hills, Fullerton.

Slayer of Girl to Appeal Court Ruling

An immediate appeal will be filed in the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals on behalf of William F. (Billy) Rupp, convicted slayer of a 15-year-old Yorba Linda baby sitter, who seeks to upset the death sentence pronounced for the Aug. 19, 1952 killing.

The appeal will be filed over the ruling by Dist. Judge George B. Harris who denied a writ of habeas corpus to Rupp. A. J. Zirpoli of San Francisco, who was appointed in federal court to represent Rupp in the current action, said he would decide what course to follow in connection with the California Supreme Court.

Judge Harris, who issued a stay of execution to save Rupp from the gas chamber last month, ruled this week that Rupp had exhausted all his remedies in the state courts. His ruling set forth:

"This processing should not be regarded as an intrusive attempt on the part of the U. S. District Court to review mere asserted errors of law or irregularities committed by the state court . . . . Rather, the basic problem is: Was petitioner Rupp afforded the fundamental fairness essential to the very concept of justice?

"At this stage of processing, however, it appears that petitioner has available to him an adequate state remedy on habeas corpus which has not been exhausted."

Rupp's sole defense to the admitted fatal shooting of the baby sitter was that he had a damaged brain condition which prevented him from forming an intent to commit murder.

He was convicted and found sane in Superior Court after confessing that he shot the girl to death as she was fleeing from his advances after he hit her over the head with a hammer. Rupp's family failed in an appeal to Gov. Goodwin Knight for a stay of execution or commutation of sentence, but Judge Harris set aside the scheduled death in the gas chamber to hear the motion for a writ of habeas corpus.

Anaheim Jaycees Schedule Dances For Teenagers

Starting New Year's Eve, the Anaheim Junior Chamber of Commerce is inaugurating a teen-age dance to be held weekly at 135½ W. Center. Proceeds from these dances will be used to promote youth activities in Anaheim.

Highlight of the opening dance will be the Northrop 10-piece orchestra which ranks with many professional bands in quality.

Hours for this opening dance will be from 9 p.m., to 1 a.m. A police matron has been secured in compliance with city ordinances.

Admission will be 50 cents per person. Soft drinks and food will be available at the snack bar—a feature considered indispensable among the teen-agers.

The dances will be open only to local high school students with one guest per student permissible. The dance hall will be available for regular school dances during the year and dances have been scheduled so as not to conflict with any school activities on or off campus.

State's Polio Aid Country's Largest

SACRAMENTO—California has received more emergency polio aid than any other state in the nation, according to a study revealed today by the state office of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Since the formation of the National Foundation in 1938, $6,404,-890 in emergency aid has gone to California chapters with Minnesota second highest, receiving $5,-741,640 in emergency aid. These figures do not include money spent on patient, research or education.

Twenty-six More in '54

National figures compiled by the Foundation indicate that by the end of 1953, the March of Dimes will be in debt in excess of six million dollars through providing patient care for victims of current and previous polio epidemics.

In addition, the polio prevention project to be launched in 1954 will require an additional twenty-six million dollars. The combined needs of patient care, research, education and polio prevention is estimated to cost seventy-five million dollars in the coming year.

Ocean Outfall Line Nearing Completion

With all but 100 feet of line laid on the 7,000-foot ocean outfall for Orange county, the job may be completed this week, according to General Manager Lee Nelson of the Orange County Sanitation Districts.

A special 78-inch pipe for the remaining 100 feet is being manufactured and delivery is expected this week.

The Healy-Tibbs Construction Co., of San Francisco, contractors on the marine section of the project, completed laying 5,250 feet of offshore pipe from barges some time back and only last week completed nearly 1,600 feet of inshore line from an especially constructed dock. Nelson said the work of pipe-laying was halted with about 100 feet remaining and measurements were taken of the line to form the final connection units. He said if weather permits, it is hoped that the laying of the line will be finished as a "Christmas present."

Covering of the line with rock and cleanup of the site will continue for some time after the final pipe is laid, Nelson explained.

He said final testing of the offshore line had been completed and that the testing was made easily by a process of pre-testing each joint as laid, which he said had been worked out by Healy-Tibbitts and the firm of Herrison and Woolley, engineers on the project.

The new line may not be placed in operation before the middle of 1954, when the new treatment plant is expected to be ready. Contractors on the treatment plant upstream from the mouth of the Santa Ana river are making progress, Nelson said, and have indicated they expect to meet ther-completion date late in the spring. A Bushard St. trunk line to bring up-country sewerage to the plant is also near completion.

The works are the major parts of the county-wide $8,308,000 project that were voted by the people of seven sanitation districts nearly five years ago.

FIREMEN FIGHT WIND — Anaheim firemen used their power extension ladder for three hours Monday night and Tuesday morning to hold in place the Bank of America sign which high winds had cracked. Anaheim police heard the sound in the nearby police station when the sign let go and called firemen to the scene. Bank employees interrupted their Christmas party in the South Seas cafe to stand by until an emergency sign crew came from Los Angeles. Gazette Photo

High Winds Lash County

A destructive wind, with gusts as high as 60 miles per hour battered Orange county Monday night and Tuesday, damaging crops, uprooting trees and disrupting communications and electrical power.

In Anaheim a new $2,000 sign was severely damaged at the Bank of America building at Claudina and Center sts.

Other damage reported in Anaheim included street decorations in the 300 block on W. Center st., and in the 100 block on E. Center st., tree limbs and power wires blown down, twisted television antennas and damage to a sign at the Paint store, 120 N. Los Angeles street.

Elsewhere trees were toppled by the gale and store windows were blown out.

Crop damage was believed lighter than it normally would have been due to the fact that most crops have been harvested.

However, in Yorba Linda, workers picked up hundreds of pounds of avocados blown from trees. Much of the fruit remaining on the teres was badly bruised and further losses are expected.

Seven limbs were ripped off trees on the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Casper, 6352 Orchard dr. Casper said about 200 pounds of fruit was blown from one row of 35 trees.

Citrus and walnut ranchers also suffered from the gale, with young fruit blown from trees and limbs ripped away.

Entire sections of the county were blacked out as winds tore power poles from their moorings and lines were ripped by falling limbs and trees.

Fullerton took some punishment but damage was not serious. Christmas street decorations suffered some harm and may be out of commission for the balance of the holiday season. The entire system was turned off Monday night due to the many shorts in the wires. At Fullerton two aircraft were torn loose from their mooring ropes but were not damaged.

Power lines in Costa Mesa went down in the 1900 block of Newport Blvd., and police, firemen and Edison Co. workers hastily put up flares to protect motorists and pedestrians.

U.S. Motors Building 8 Million Dollar Plant

Marking the beginning of an $8,000,000 industrial development for Orange County, ground was broken Friday morning on the 89-acre site of U. S. Electrical Motors Inc. on Santa Ana Freeway.

More than 100 top officials of Orange County cities and industries gathered on the plant site at 11:00 to witness lifting of the first shovel-full of earth by George T. Pfleger, president, assisted by Mayor Charles Pearson of Anaheim and Thomas G. Myers, vice-president of U. S. Motors.

Crews of workmen were on hand to start excavations for the first unit of the giant project to be the Defense Products Division which should be completed by next June, according to Mr. Pfleger. This first unit, he stated, will employ about 500 skilled workers, but when the entire plant is eventually completed, upwards of 4,000 workers will be employed and from seven to eight million dollars will have been invested.

At the luncheon, Clyde Cromer of Anaheim was Toastmaster, introduced by Richard Gay, president of Anaheim Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Pearson welcomed U. S. Motors to Orange County, expressing the good wishes of all civic and county departments and assuring closest cooperation.

Chas. E. Wilson, retired vice-president of Worthington Pump and Machinery Company, spoke of the high standing of U. S. Motors, revealing that the concern is considered one of the four leading electrical motor builders in America.

Favored Orange County Site

"After surveying many locations we are very well pleased with our selection of Orange County for our third major plant," stated Pfleger.

"Aircraft motors will be the first products turned out in Orange County, used in large aircraft.

"We will manufacture in Orange County, when final buildings are erected, a complete line of AC motors up to 500 horsepower. We are the leading manufacturer of motors for water development for irrigation and municipal water works. Included Varidrives for variable speeds. Syncro gears which are infernally-geared for low slow speeds, explosion-proof types, as well as holloshaft gear drives for irrigation pumps in non-electrical locations and Autostart buffers.

Buying-Employing Locally

"I believe you will be interested to know that it is U. S. Motors' policy, whenever possible, to purchase and employ from the communities or areas in which our factories are located. Our company has been in business for 46 years, and during this time we have never had a major layoff," Mr. Pfleger concluded.

Santa Claus appeared at the luncheon and unveiled a magnificent plaque model of the Orange County plant, nine feet square, presenting the plant for U. S. Motors as a "Christmas Gift" to the Country.

Guests were presented with a colorful 200-page bound brochure revealing all of the U. S. Motors products, and were also given plastic replicas of a U. S. motor. Displays of the actuall motors caught the intense interest of the guests.

Hospital Fund Receives Check As Memorial

Edward S. Hawkins, as chairman of the St. Jude Hospital Fund Campaign Committee for Anaheim, expressed his gratitude today for a donation of $150.36. The sum, while not large compared to many of the gifts being received in the Anaheim campaign headquarters, was one of the most warmly appreciated, in the light of the story behind it.

The donation was made by Mrs. Charles Schubert, Director of Defence and Powdered Metal Operations at Kwikset Locks, Inc., Anaheim. Mr. Schubert's wife, Virginia, passed away December 5 and the money was collected by his fellow-employees for flowers. It was Mr. Schubert's feeling that the money should go to the St. Jude Hospital Fund as a living memorial.

Meanwhile, Mr. Hawkins announced, the campaign committee is shaping up nicely with about 70 campaign workers on the job. Workers will solicit in teams of two or more with each team headed by a "captain." The list of team captains to date includes: Barney W. Jordon, Al Fernandez, Tom Quayle, Clyde Nickle, Glenn E. Casto, John Steffy, Judge John Shea, Ray Link, Art Chambers, Al Raymond, Stephen F. Gallagher, John Kirsch, Joe Huarte, Carl Karcher, Ed Dailey, and John Ganahl.

County Taxes Hit New High, 1953

Property subject to local taxes in Orange county is at a new high this year, California Taxpayers' association reported today.

Assessed value of taxable property in the county this year is $534,822,280, 22 per cent greater than the $439,154,190 valuation of property in the county for 1949-50, the first year of this decade.

Real Gold Sells Anaheim Plant

REDLANDS, Calif.—Sale of the Real Gold Citrus Products citrus processing plant in Anaheim at a price that will protect the investment of its grower-members is announced by J. A. Baker, president of Mutual Orange Distributors, parent company of Real Gold Citrus Products, following a special meeting of the Board of directors. The plant and equipment was sold to Packers Cold Storage, Inc., of Anaheim.

T. A. Henry, president of the purchasing organization, stated that the citrus processing facilities of the plant have already been leased to Ventura Processors, of Ventura, and Glenco Citrus Products, Inc., of Glendora. Extensive alterations to the cold storage plant are planned to increase the available low temperature storage facilities in order to service the greatly increased demand for this type of storage.

The sale of the Real Gold plant and facilities culminates a series of negotiations carried on over the past year, whereby Mutual Orange Distributors no longer operates its products plant but, at the same time, has protected the property interests of its grower-members in the disposition of both the inventory of processed products and the products handling equipment.

Through a contract signed with Ventura Processors and Glenco Citrus Products, Inc., MOD has already assured growers of cash payments for their products fruit at market value. The sale of the Real Gold plant now assures members of the return of their investment, at the same time guaranteeing the most advantageous use of the processing plant facilities.

Native Daughters Sewing Group Meet

Mrs. Allen Bartshe, 111 N. Placentia ave., was hostess recently to a sewing group, members of Native Daughters of the Golden West, Grace Parlor.

During the morning, finishing touches were put on 21 bed jackets made by members during the past year. These were then wrapped as Christmas gifts to be taken to the womens' wards of the Orange County hospital on the Wednesday before Christmas.

The A. B. Paul Social Club met Dec. 17th in the home of Ella Mae Baurers, 419 S. Ohio st., for a dessert luncheon, Christmas party

Riner-McCarthy Wedding Rites

Wearing a ballerina length gown of rose lace accented with a corsage of orchids, Mrs. Vera L. Riner of Anaheim became the bride of Arthur E. McCarthy, also of Anaheim, in an evening ceremony on December 12 in Webb Temple Methodist church. The Rev. Frank E. Butterworth officiated.

In the sanctuary decorated with bronze-toned chrysanthemums, the bride was attended by her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Hilbers, as matron of honor. Mrs. Hilbers was gowned in blue taffeta and wore a white orchid at the waist.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, George McCarthy. Ushers were Julius H. Hilbers, the bride's son-in-law, and George McCarthy, Jr., nephew of the groom.

At the organ was Betty Fackiner Rees, and soloist was William Fackiner.

Two hundred guests signed the guest book at the reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Woodward, 330 S. Ohio St. The newly-weds made the first cut in a beautiful three tiered wedding cake.

Presiding at the punch bowls were Addie Belle Hunt, Vera Baum, Eunice Scheffler, and Arline Foster. Assisting with the serving were Mabel Abbott, Elva Andrews, Martha Bircher, Bessie McCarthy, Esther Kemper, Clarice Beckley, Viola Knapp, Floreine Knapp, Edith Hauswald and Maude Sanderson, Jean Knapp, Nellie Harpster and Eduthe Skeen.

Mrs. Hilbers presided at the guest book.

A special guest was the bride's mother, Melissa Hauswald, who was lovely in a crepe dress of silver and gray. She wore a corsage of pink camellas.

After the honeymoon in Palm Springs, the new Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy are now making their home at 1922 Willow ave.

Engagement Told

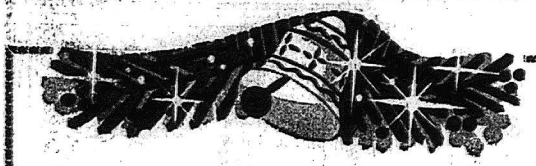

Mr. and Mrs. R. Emmett Furr of 829 N. Helena st. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marlene, to Edward John Evers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wingett of Cypress.

The bride-elect is a senior student at Anaheim Union High School. Her fiance is associated with the Taylor Machine shop in town.

Combining reverence and beauty the Charles W. Bowers' Memorial museum, 2002 N. Main, Santa Ana, presents its Fourth Annual Madonna Festival, the outstanding feature of the year's program.

Just as Christmas is observed throughout the world, the varied collections of Madonnas in the rare display represents the art and worship of at least 14 foreign countries.

Admission to the Museum is free, the opening hours being 10:00 to 4:30, Tuesday through Saturday; 7:00 to 9:00, Thursday evening; and 1:00 to 5:00 Sunday. The exhibit extends through January 10th.

Good Health

It is particularly appropriate to consider our fellow man at Christmas time.

Northern Orange County needs a large, Class A Hospital. This Hospital should come from the hearts and purses of us all.

All Northern Orange County communities right now are participating in the drive for funds to construct the St. Jude Hospital so that the Hospital may begin as soon as possible to fill the urgent need now existing in our area.

We are sure your contribution to the fund not only will alleviate the suffering of our fellow citizens, but . . .

It also will be a wonderful Christmas gift from you—to yourself and your family.

St. Jude will provide better hospital services than we have ever had in this area — and will provide these services for a long time to come.

The address of the St. Jude Hospital Fund Drive is 103 W. Valencia Mesa Drive, P.O. Box 94, Fullerton.

IN THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

50 Years Ago

(Week of December 24)—

Mayor Julius Schneider drove up to Helmsen's store on Sunday afternoon to make a purchase. He alighted from his buggy leaving his wife and little child therein. He had entered Mr. Helmsen's store, closing the door behind him, when his attention was attracted by his horse rearing up and starting to run-away. He ran to the assistance of his wife and child and reaching the door mistook it for a swinging door and plunged his hand and head through the heavy plate glass, sustaining severe cuts about the head and face.

He extricated himself speedily and ran after the horse which was some distance away. It had taken fright at one of the many passing rigs. Mr. Schneider bled profusely from the several cuts. He was taken to Dr. Johnston's office where his injuries were attended to, several stitches being necessary in cuts on his arm and face.

Pat Seale is home from Los Angeles for a short stay. Pat is now one of the head switchboard men in the employ of the Sunset Telephone company.

Fred Mickel was a visitor in town this week. He has been in charge of tree shipments from Tim Carroll's Centralia plantation and reports a brisk demand for all kinds of ornamental trees and shrubbery.

Week of December 24—

At the last meeting of the Anaheim Water company the maps and profile for the ditch to connect the Anaheim and Cajon company's ditches was exhibited. An estimate by the Engineer, Mr. Knox, places the cost of constructing the ditch at between $3500 and $4000. Messrs. Reiser and Rimpau were appointed a committee to provide right-of-way from owners of land through which the connecting ditches will pass. An assessment of $1 per share was levied, payable before February 4. This is the first time in ten years that the assessment has exceeded fifty cents per share.

One hundred and twenty-five shares of stock were represented at the meeting of the Cajon Irrigation company on Saturday. Messrs. Mcradden, Gilwicks and Hunter were appointed a committee to meet in Anaheim to revise the by-laws and discuss plans to liquidate the company. The agreement with the Anaheim Water company in regard to the sale of the half-interest in the ditch was unanimously ratified as was also the purchase by the Cajon company of all the water rights and ditches of the North Anaheim Canal company. Action upon the communication from the Anaheim Water company was postponed until Jan. 28 to which date the meeting was adjourned.

An immense business is being done at the depot. The imports and exports are both large. Among the shipments yesterday were two carloads of wine by A. Langenberger and in the imports were two carloads of merchandise (483 packages) for P. Davis & Bro.

The Episcopal church bell fund now amounts to $126. They propose to wait until the fund is swelled to $200, and then purchase a bell of almost 600 pounds weight. The school bell weighs 300 pounds.
