ANAHEIM COMMENT

LET US DECIDE

Bob Shanks, superintendent of the Anaheim Elementary School District, continues to do a fine job.

But his statement board members whose school districts are within the boundaries of the Anaheim Union High School District are "very much against" unification is a little premature.

Six elementary school districts fall within the boundaries of the Anaheim Union High School District. They are Anaheim, Centralia, Savanah, Magnolia, Cypress and Los Alamitos. Unification would mean all of the districts unifying into one large district, or into several smaller ones.

The California State Legislature passed a law in 1959 which requires every county and every school district to study unification. A county committee must be set up to draw up a master plan for unification, whether the districts want it or not. The plan must be submitted to the State Department of Education by September 1963 for approval. If it is approved, then the citizens involved will vote on whether to have unification or not.

The Orange County committee has already started to study the matter. It has appointed a study committee to look into the problems of unification. The study committee is made of presidents of the seven school boards. To date a minimum number of meetings have been held.

Proponents of unification claim it will save money to have districts unified. Shanks has said this has not been proved true. He has said tax rates may even become higher as result of unification.

Since we are not experts on the matter, we do not profess to know. But the matter should be fully explored.

Down Garden Grove way residents hold a unification election this month. We understand a minimum amount of publicity has been given the matter. Proponents there claim

Budget for Anaheim Clerk's Office Viewed

(Editor's Note: As a community service, the Anaheim Gazette continues a series of articles designed to show residents how their tax money is expended. Each city department, as contained in the current city budget, will be analyzed.)

Little, if anything, is known about the City Clerk's office by most residents.

The duties of the city clerk comprise the recording and filing of all actions taken by the City Council. Also involved is filing of all documents or records relative to city business, the conducting of municipal elections, informing the public of actions taken by the council when requested to do so, responsibility for publishing city legal advertising and performing secretarial duties relative to city business.

The clerk's office is also responsible for annexation procedures.

Budget Hike

Allocated for the City Clerk's office for the current fiscal year is $84,510 as compared to an expenditure of $82,770 for the 1960-61 fiscal year.

Overall expansion of the clerk's office is primary reason for the increase.

The addition of one typist clerk is necessary to help carry

EDITORIAL SWING FROM GROUND

The readers of the newspaper are respectfully, but urgently, requested to join an honest-to-goodness grass-roots campaign to save America from going bankrupt.

Right now, a bi-partisan group of Representatives is doing its best to fight the Administration's free-spending, backdoor method of financing federal programs.

But the legislators say their best efforts aren't enough. It's up to us folks back home, they insist, to demand by voice or letter that the reckless practice of unnecessary government spending be stopped.

Backdoor spending is tricky even if you can get away with it—and the Administration is trying just that. It's a borrowing gimmick at best. It wrongfully bypasses the Appropriations committees and goes directly to the U.S. Treasury for financing. And if you think this is "alarmist" talk, consider the statement of Democratic Congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri:

"We have been shoveling money out through the backdoor at such a rate there is no way to estimate it."

In its first 150 days the Administration asked for 22-billion-dollars plus in backdoor spending! . . . billions for airport aid, foreign aid, housing, highways, depressed areas, direct veterans' loans, special milk program—on and on!

How about joining our grass-roots campaign against extravagance and waste? Help to keep this nation solvent by writing your Congressman or Senator that backdoor spending is an open door to bankruptcy.

And there's no law that says you can't send the same beef straight to the White House.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Many people have asked me what I intend to do now that Assemblyman Bruce Summer has decided not to be a candidate for re-election.

Most of them have encouraged me to run—and many have offered financial support.

All of them agree, as I do, that a candidate must be found to consolidate the interests and influences in the new 71st Assembly District. It embraces fast-growing cities, yet there are thousands of acres of farms and orchards whose productions of valued foodstuffs means so much to the country's economy. There are the favored coastal areas, still facing their greatest growth. Industrial development is unparalleled. An educational empire will crown this new district.

As each segment develops, so will problems. They will confound and confuse. They can be solved only by careful study, detailed planning and helpful cooperation.

Business is free enterprise, and government is public enterprise; both face the same need of charting a sound careful course.

I am both pleased and complimented that so many friends and acquaintances have faith that I could meet those challenges.

news items continue to be wishy-washy statements instead of intelligently interpreted facts. Where is the patriotic and aroused press that has historically come to the front in every national crisis?

Red Cross Board Members Meet

The Board of Directors of the Anaheim Red Cross held its first fall meeting in the chapter house with Robert Powell, chairman of the board, presiding. Mr. Charles Allee, director of the Anaheim and Western Communities United Fund, was guest speaker.

Allee said the goal for the United Fund this year is $298,000 and early indications of reaching that goal are good. He brought out the fact that these United Fund programs are a powerful force against increasing tax supported welfare services. He added that control of the United Fund is kept in the local community and the programs are directed by volunteers.

Allee said the "United Way" is a great benefit to voluntary agencies because their financial

that if the elementary districts unify, at least 20 cents per $100 of assessed valuation can be cut off current tax rates.

Shanks points out that if the high school district and six elementary districts were to unify into the present high school district, a real "monster" would be created. The high school district now runs to the city limits of Long Beach.

He believes if unification were to come, it would be in several districts and not one large one.

Shanks also is eager to point out the Anaheim Elementary School District is the only district in the state that is selling bonds to build new schools and does not have to borrow from the state. Unification would ruin this desirable situation, Shanks says.

Our feeling is that unification should be explored. It is natural for bond members to feel that unification would put many of them out of jobs. The same holds true for many administrators.

A passing thought would be for residents to consider the cost of school administration alone. It sometimes appears this item has gotten way out of hand.

If a cut in costs can be achieved by unification, then this matter should be fully considered.

Or if school officials believe it would be more expensive, or accomplish nothing, they should offer facts instead of opinions.

organizations would receive awards in the fifth annual Disneyland program.

In the past four years, 32 Orange County organizations have received grants through the Disneyland Community Service Awards. Records show many of the recipients have been small organizations.

Serving on the selection committee with Gen. Dawson are Mrs. Wesley Jones, Mrs. Allen Koch and Charles A. Pearson, all of Anaheim; Harry Barne, Fullerton, and Cliff Gill, Garden Grove.

Disneyland grants of $1,000 each will go to four organizations located in Anaheim and four additional organizations operating in Orange County, outside the city.

To one of the eight service groups selected, an additional $1,000 will be awarded for Outstanding Community Service. The committee reports.

To apply for participation, an organization may address a letter to: Recording Secretary, Community Service Awards, Disneyland, Anaheim, Calif. An application form and further information will be returned to the organization. All applications must be postmarked not later than Dec. 31, 1961, according to program rules.

Awards will be presented at a special luncheon in January, 1962. Representatives of each participating organization or group will be invited to attend this annual affair. No prior announcements of the award recipients will be made before that date.

lerton Junior College District. At present this district covers Fullerton, La Habra and Buena Park areas. The plan would add Anaheim, Brea-Olinda and Valencia.

It was explained that less than half the county is now included in three existing junior college districts. These "free area" districts paid a uniform county tax of 39 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. This year the tax rate is at 44.71 cents, with steady increases in yearly effect.

It was explained by uniting with an expanded junior college district the tax would be controlled.

Next step is for the junior colleges to call a meeting of the high schools in the alignments proposed under a county-wide study of junior college needs.

After public hearings, the county plan will be sent to State Board of Education for approval. This will be followed by elections within each high school district involved. A simple majority in each expanded JC district would affirm the change.

Anaheim Union High School District has voted to proceed with the plan.

BUDGET ...

the additional clerical load.

Normal salary adjustments and additional personal services are increased by $5,960.

One of the principal reasons for the hike is cost of conducting the 1962 municipal election. It is estimated in 1962 there will be 235 precincts and approximately 50,000 registered voters.

Election Cost - Cost of the election for the city has been estimated at $16,500.

The election means recruitment and training of approximately 440 election officers and arrangements for 110 polling places.

Another reason for increase in the budget this year is cost to update Municipal Code. This previously was charged to the City Attorney's budget.

Also provided in clerk's budget this year are capital items of $3,870. A major portion of this amount is for 50 collapsible election booths. Also included is office equipment for a new typist and new tape recorder.

Bill Introduced Denying Use Of Mail for Communist Propaganda

Congressman James B. Utt (R-Santa Ana) has introduced a bill denying the use of the United States postal service for the carriage of Communist political propaganda, according to word confirmed today by Robert A. Geier, local representative for the Congressman.

Now under consideration by the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, the enactment of "H. R. 9095 would counteract adverse usage of the mails, and reduce the domestic postal deficit by refusing the receipt, handling transportation or delivery by the United States Post Office Department of mail identified by the Attorney General as Communist political propaganda." The measure would also prevent processing and delivery of such mail financed or sponsored directly or indirectly by any Communist-controlled government, or by Communist groups within this country.

Congressman Utt said that he introduced the bill to stop the flow of Communist propaganda into this country. "This mail is now being paid for by American taxpayers and directed at students, teachers, clergymen, colleges and universities. "Since March 17 of this year, the present administration has allowed thousands of tons of Communist propaganda to come into this country unchecked and to be distributed free of charge by the United States Postal System," he said.

Philharmonic Group Has Annual Lunch

The Orange County Philharmonic Society's annual "kick-off" luncheon to spark the sale of Concert Subscription Series tickets was held at Los Coyotes Country Club, Buena Park.

Included in the substantial attendance were chairmen and members of the Society's 27 women's committees, as well as many musically-minded men, who were present to lend their support to the large-scale plans for the forthcoming concert season.

Seated at the head table with Clifford Hales, Philharmonic president, were regular members of the board of directors: Miss Frieda Belinfante, musical director, and conductor of the Orange County Philharmonic Orchestra, and two newly-elected board members, J. Wray Murray and Edwin J. Steen of Balboa.

Hales welcomed the gathering. Mrs. William H. Mead, vice-president and county chairman of women's committees, presided at the microphone. "With the advance news of Mischa Elman, Jose Iturbi, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra appearing in our concert series this season, county-wide interest has been stimulated, even at this early date, to such an extent that checks are already being received at the Philharmonic office," she said.

This means that, with an extra concert added this year, at the low cost of five concerts for $10, and limited seating capacity, Subscription Series tickets will be in great demand.

Mrs. Mead presented members of the board as well as others who have contributed to the success of the Philharmonic. She thanked members of the Press for their fine cooperation, Jeanette Banocchi, owner of radio station KGGK-FM, who taped interviews before the meeting for broadcast at a later date, and Mrs. George Corey of Anaheim, luncheon chairman.

Miss Belinfante will conduct the full 60-piece Philharmonic Orchestra for the opening concert on Oct. 20. Featured soloists are Virginia Majewski, violinist, both members of the distinguished and exclusive Heifetz chamber music group who created such a sensation in Los Angeles last summer. The series will close under Miss Belinfante's baton on April 27 when Mariquita Moll, soprano, and Hernan Pelayo, baritone, will appear as guest soloists.

MY FAIR LADY—Mrs. Ralph Dix, left, and Mrs. Ralph Neff discuss the new section, My Fair Lady, which has been added to the Junior Ebell Club. Convening on the third Tuesday of each month, it will feature art, music, crafts, gourmet foods, sewing and gardening. Mrs. Dix is chairman.

Three Temples to Join for Services

Congregations of three Jewish temples joined together Sunday and held a public memorial service as part of the Jewish High Holy Day observances.

Temple Beth Shalom of Orange County, Temple Beth Emet of Anaheim, and the Woodruff Jewish Center Temple of Bellflower arranged the services at Mount Olive Memorial Park in Costa Mesa.

Rabbi Morton C. Friedman and Cantor Harvey Goldstein of Temple Beth Shalom, Rabbi Aaron Tofield and Cantor Philip Modell of Temple Beth Emet, and Rabbi Shimmel of Woodruff Jewish Center Temple conducted the services.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement for Jews throughout the world, was observed beginning at sundown Tuesday for one complete day.

At the new Temple Beth Shalom of Orange County, Yom Kippur services were conducted by Rabbi Fierman. Music and hymns were provided by Cantor Harvey Goldstein, the Temple Choir and Birdie Goldstein, organist.

Party to Feature Actor Don DeFore

Don DeFore, prominent television and movie personality and a past president of the Television Academy, will act as toastmaster for the Garden Grove Federated Republican Women's garden party slated for Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24, and will introduce the Honorable George Christopher, mayor of the city and county of San Francisco, who will be the guest speaker.

DeFore is currently co-starring with Shirley Booth in a new television series, "Hazel," scheduled to premiere Sept. 28.

St. Philip Sets Fiesta Plans

Plans are nearly complete for the third annual Fiesta to be held by St. Philip's Church Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1.

Featured along with the many booths, games and rides will be Dick Palombo and his Youth Band, according to Marty DeSmet, general chairman.

Station Dealers' Wives Honored

Wives of more than 100 Shell service station dealers in this area were honored at a luncheon yesterday at the Los Coyotes Country Club.

Speaking to the group was Arnold Holme, district sales manager for this area, and Miss Carol Lane, women's travel director for Shell Oil Company. Miss Lane's talk, entitled "Holiday on Wheels," touched on methods of planning and budgeting tours by car, travel with youngsters, packing a two-week wardrobe in a 26-inch suitcase, and other travel tips.

She is the founder of the Carol Lane Award for Traffic Safety, the first national recognition offered women for outstanding contributions.

Beginning Bridge Class Offered

The Fullerton Recreation Department will conduct a beginning bridge class on Monday nights starting September 25 from 7:30 to 8:30 at the Amerige Senior Citizen Center located in Amerige Park. The fee is $4 for eight lessons.

Further information concerning this class can be obtained by calling LA 5-7171, Extension 217.

Expectant Parents' Classes Offered

The Orange County Health Department announced today the beginning of a new series of classes for expectant parents. These educational classes, conducted by public nurses, are held on Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m. in the Orange County Health Department building, 8th and North Ross Sts., Santa Ana. New members may enroll at any time during the series by attending on a Monday or Wednesday evening. The same course of instruction is repeated on both nights.

The classes are provided at no cost and are for prospective mothers and fathers interested in "preparing for parenthood." Sessions are kept small so that members may have an opportunity to discuss questions of pertinent concern. Interesting use of films, charts, demonstrations, slides and displays of essentials of baby's layette are included in the course of instruction. Booklets are also provided for the home library.

Mrs. Knight Enjoying Return to 'First Home'

MRS. GOODWIN J. KNIGHT

(Editor's Note—The following article is a reprint from the "Sacramento Bee." Governor Goodwin J. Knight and Mrs. Knight will be Anaheim visitors Saturday at the Disneyland Hotel where Governor Knight will deliver a major address. The article was written by Mrs. Ben Martin, Society Editor of the Sacramento Bee and a former well known Anaheim newspaper woman. The Knights were Sacramento visitors last week.)

By CARMELO T. MARTIN
A return to the city that was her first home as Mrs. Goodwin J. Knight was the highlight of a trip to Northern California by the former first lady of the state.

"Sacramento was our first home together and we will always love it. We have a warm spot in our hearts for the wonderful city and the lovely people who live here," Mrs. Virginia Knight said this morning. The former governor and his wife have spent the past two days in the bay area where Knight addressed numerous public groups. They met this morning with local Republican leaders at a breakfast in the Hotel Senator.

Mrs. Knight said that since leaving the capital city just before Christmas in 1958, they really have not had time to become "retired" because they both are kept busy with personal appearances, answering letters and furnishing their new Los Angeles home.

The charming former first lady said that she planned to walk through Capitol Park to visit the camellia grove prior to their return to Los Angeles today.

"I want to see how the Virginia Knight camellia is doing," she said.

Mrs. Knight was a driving force behind the planting of the numerous camellia bushes in the park.

She said that she really hasn't had too much time to do anything but establish a home for her husband.

"I have a cleaning woman that comes in twice a week and my cook, Ellen Seagren, who was with us up here and had been with my family since I was young, comes to help me cook every so often. Other than that, I have been doing the marketing and cooking."

"It has been so much fun shopping for furniture. We left Sacramento with many wonderful wedding presents and mementoes of the governor's office but no furniture."

"We had to buy a stove, refrigerator and washer and dryer first of all and now I have been filling out my decorating scheme with the lamps and small touches that time is needed to make a house a home."

"I hadn't even had time to buy any new hats for fall yet but when we were in Berkeley earlier this week I finally was able to shop," she commented. The attractive brunette has always been known for her stylish wardrobe, especially her hats.

"I still get requests from charitable organizations for my hats and I have given so many of them away that my closet really is empty. But I am so glad to do anything that I can do to help these organizations," she said.

In addition to working with her husband, Mrs. Knight also is active in work aiding the physically handicapped and is a trustee of the Braille Institute in Southern California.

News About Our Service Men

Serving in the Far East aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Bon Homme Richard, which recently visited Yokosuka, Japan, are Peter E. Bessa, airman, USN; son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Bessa of 11541 Mossler St.; John A. Maulding, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Myers of 219 Alate St.; and Howard D. Nelson, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Nelson of 600 Pandora St., all of Anaheim.

The "Bonnie Dick," as the 42,000-ton carrier is known to its crew, delivered more than 70,000 tons of clothing, medical supplies and other vital goods from the United States to needy areas of the Orient during its present cruise.

The deliveries, part of Operation Handclasp, were completed with the Yokosuka stop. The Bon Homme Richard also made visits offering handclasp materials to Subic Bay, Philippines, and Sasebo, Japan.

Army Pvt. Glen L. Gish, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Herbert, live at 612 Placentia Ave., Anaheim, is one of more than 1,700 troops recently assigned to the battle of the Bulge in the event of a Korean invasion. He is a member of the 1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kan., in its current build-up to combat strength.

Noted for its combat record in both World Wars, the "Big Red One" division was recently designated a Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit as part of the Army augmentation program. The division is now being armed, equipped and trained to be combat ready for deployment in the event of limited or general warfare anywhere in the world.

Assigned to Company A of the division's 28th Infantry, Gish entered the Army last June and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

The 17-year-old soldier attended Anaheim High School. Returning recently to Mayport, Fla., aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, were David G. Spencer, nuclear weaponsman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Spencer of 2652 Glenhurst Ave., and Julio Acosta, Jr., airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Acosta of 320 E. Valencia Ave., all of Anaheim.

During her 13th cruise with the Sixth Fleet, the carrier visited the ports of Tripoli, Athens, Greece, Naples, Palermo, Sicily, and Genoa, Italy, and the Mediterranean Sea for home.

An Anaheim midshipman participated in an annual summer training cruise aboard the destroyer USS Decatur, operating out of Newport, R.I.

Midshipman first class William C. Parker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Parker of 1912 Janette Lane, received the training with 27 other midshipmen from Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps units at colleges across the nation.

Middle class summer cruises to gain "at sea" experience in navigation, engineering, gunnery and seamanship. Upon successful completion of their college education, they will receive reserve commissions and be assigned to active duty.

Midshipman Parker is a member of the class of 1962 at Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass.

Undergoing training at the Naval Post-Flight School, Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., is Marine Aviation Cadet Robert T. Busch, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Chaffield of 1119 W. Vermont St., Anaheim.

While there, the youthful leaders of student government participated in a variety of school programs pertaining to school activities and interests. Some of the topics covered were: leadership philosophy, school and community relations, assemblies, legal and financial aspects, and common campus problems.

Those participating in the leadership workshop included Tim Ingram, Linda Fowler, Miller, Bob Yukhimo, Myr Muzikar, Charlene Sparkes, Lee Ann Phillips, and Jerry Finekrot (president of CASC, District 21).

It was indeed heartening to learn recently that there will be a sweeping probe of our welfare programs in California. Whether or not the investigation is politically inspired is immaterial at this point. I've thought the welfare programs should have been quizzed a long time ago.

There hasn't been a real good look at what social welfare is trying to accomplish in years. It's high time we determine the responsibility, direction, efficiency, goals and necessity of the system.

ATTRACTIVE ADDITION TO Pontiac's new Tempest series for 1962 is the superbly styled convertible pictured above with the LeMans option, which includes front bucket seats in beautiful shades of expanded Jewel-tone Morrokide and rich floor carpeting. Items Needed For Anti-Red County Auction

An appeal was directed today to "savvy" and "collectors" of miscellaneous items no longer in use which might be donated by counties to an Anti-Red Auction-Rally to be held at the Orange County Fair Grounds on Saturday, Sept. 30, and sponsored by the Orange County Freedom Forum.

A spokesman for the Freedom Forum reported that these items will be used in the fight against the Communist Conspiracy.

The event which is expected to include the participation of leading service clubs and citizens throughout the county will be formally hosted by the city of Anaheim.

Items to be donated for the Auction-Rally will be accepted in several designated areas, the most accessible of these being the former walnut-packing house at Chelinda and Santa Ana streets in Anaheim. The storage facility, now a warehouse for the Anaheim Truck and Transfer Company, was made available by that firm as a donor deposit terminal.

Information and direction calls are being channeled to Mr. Curtis of the Anaheim Truck and Transfer firm at KE 5-2863.

Speakers Offered

With the start of the fall semester, the Santa Ana College Speakers Bureau is available to provide programs for community groups, service clubs, women's clubs and other groups, particularly in central Orange County.

The entire faculty is included in the directory of program topics, with programs provided at no charge.

Requests in writing or by telephone can be made to the Speakers Bureau, SAC News Service.

An employee of Alpha Beta since 1954 when he began as a box boy, Entwistle enters SC shortly to begin his one-year graduate study. Entwistle worked for Alpha Beta during the time he attended Anaheim Union High School, and completed training at Fullerton Junior College and at Long Beach State College, graduating with a bachelor degree in psychology last January.

The scholarship is one of 40 awarded throughout the country to promising young employees under a program directed by the National Association of Food Chains. S&H is one of a number of companies to sponsor scholarships.

A spokesman for the Freedom Forum reported that these items will be used in the fight against the Communist Conspiracy.

The event which is expected to include the participation of leading service clubs and citizens throughout the county will be formally hosted by the city of Anaheim.

Items to be donated for the Auction-Rally will be accepted in several designated areas, the most accessible of these being the former walnut-packing house at Chelinda and Santa Ana streets in Anaheim. The storage facility, now a warehouse for the Anaheim Truck and Transfer Company, was made available by that firm as a donor deposit terminal.

SNAKES UPSET POST OFFICE

Snakes and post office employees have a tough time getting along.

This was particularly evident last week when two of the writhing things appeared at the Anaheim Post Office unexpectedly. This nearly caused a mass exodus of clerks. When the third snake was found, things almost got out of hand.

A search revealed a crushed parcel, allowing a whole box of snakes to make their escape.

Order was restored when the snakes were taken to be a harmless yes.

Library Bid

A bid of $137,171 was accepted by the Anaheim City Council for a new branch library to be constructed at 2650 W. Broadway.

MANY ACTIVITIES OFFERED

United Fund Aids Anaheim YMCA

A nine-year-old boy looks up in awe at the towering pine light.

Perhaps for the first time, he tree allousted by the moon-catches a glimmering of nature's splendor.

It's a clean, wonderful world here at the 7,000-ft. level in the San Bernardino mountains. The exhilaration of the community sing around a campfire has captured him and he whistles a tune as he turns in.

Soon he is fast asleep, for the schedule of swimming, hiking, crafts and study at Camp Ocoeca leaves an energetic nine-year-old ready to recharge his batteries when bedtime comes.

The boy has something in common with more than 1,800 other youngsters in Anaheim, Cypress, Dairyland, Los Alamitos, Rossmore and Stanton who participated this summer in the Anaheim YMCA camping program.

And the YMCA, in turn has something in common with 14 other agencies supported by the Anaheim-Western Communities

United Fund drive now in progress.

All 15 United Fund agencies are dependent on generous contributions to the current drive that will finance services like giving the nine-year-old camper an environment where delinquency doesn't sprout.

The Anaheim YMCA is bustling with a wide-range of activities in which more than 1,000 persons are participating. Notwithstanding its name, the Young Men's Christian Assn. now offers programs for girls and adults as well as boys.

Building strong bodies is traditionally one of the YMCA's responsibilities. The organization, founded in 1844 and established in Anaheim in the early 20s, gave the nation the sports of basketball and volleyball.

In addition to this emphasis on physical fitness, however, one purpose dominates all YMCA activity: building character.

The boy or girl at camp or in club meetings is encouraged to grapple with such questions as "What are my major problems in getting along with others?" He writes answers to questions like this and then discusses them with his parents.

"We feel you have to do more than provide a playground to solve juvenile delinquency," says William C. Poirier, YMCA general secretary.

More than 1,000 boys and girls' six to eleven years old participated this summer in the "Y" day camp; 700 youngsters from nine up attended Camp Ocoeca sessions, and there were caravan trips to San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and Yosemite. Another highlight was the High Sierra pack trip for boys 14 to 17.

Churches, schools and homes are the meeting sites for most of the YMCA's extensive club activities.

From Anaheim to Rossmore, the "Y" Indian Guide program has become highly popular. Boys 6 through 8 and their dads work on projects following the motto, "Pals Forever." Major attention is also given

Appointed

Delmar Pethley has been appointed to the Anaheim City School Board to fill the unexpired two-year term which was vacated Aug. 8.

He replaces Floyd Boyer, who was forced to resign due to a job transfer.

the Gra-Y Clubs, for boys 6 to 8; Junior Hi-Y, 11 to 14; Hi-Y, 14 to 17, and the girls counterpart, Junior Tri-Hi-Y, 11 to 14, and Tri-Hi-Y, 14 to 17. Adult activities include Y's Men's Club, Industrial Management Club, Y-Wives and the Great Books Classes.

Facilities at the YMCA headquarters 121 S. Citron St. are attractive but limited in size. They are used principally for leadership training, storage of supplies, planning and adult activities. Four acres have been purchased at Broadway and Loara St. for eventual expansion to meet the mushrooming needs.

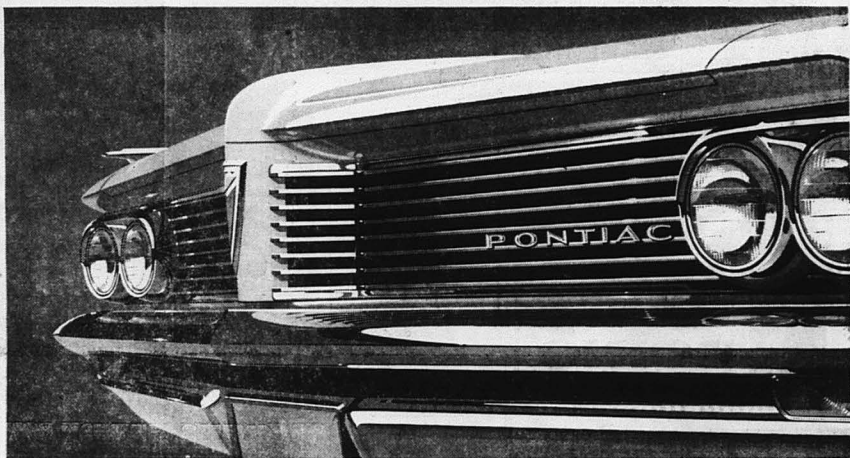

Full authority to guide local policies and programs rests with the 36-member board of directors. Officers are Richard W. Gay, president; James W. Abrecht and Clifford T. Haskell, vice presidents; Mrs. Al Casebeer, recording secretary, and Russell H. Hess, treasurer.

Dog Obedience Classes Offered

The Fullerton Recreation Department announced today that beginning yesterday and every Wednesday for the next ten weeks, a Dog Obedience Class will be offered at Harvard Park located on the grounds of Maple School. The fee for this class is $15 for 15 hours of training. All dogs must be on leashes. The person accompanying the dog during this training must be at least 12 years old. The dog must be a minimum of 6 months old.

Nicholas Kay will be the instructor for this class. This will be the fourth class offered by the Recreation Department and to date over 80 dogs have graduated from this fine training program.

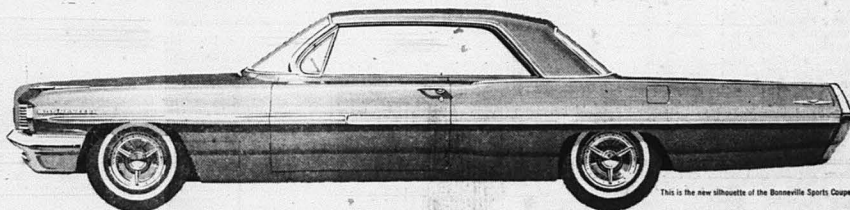

activities. Other United Fund agencies are: Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Catholic Welfare, Children's Hospital, Family Service Assn., Orthopedic Hospital, Release Time Education, Visiting Nurses Assn., Campfire Girls, Crippled Children's Relief Assn., U.S.O. and St. Anna's Maternity Hospital.

When a car is this beautiful, you know Pontiac built it!

Who else but the builder of those front-running Wide-Track Pontiacs could bring out a car so freshly and finely styled! It's longer, with a crisp, low silhouette. It's distinctly Pontiac, with a new twin-scoop grille you can recognize a block away. Powered by the potent Trophy V-8, with 215 to 348 h.p. Beautifully poised on Pontiac's famous Wide-Track stance. We've even cut the turning radius as much as 3½ feet to make handling easier. The result is a pride-pleasing new version of America's Number One Road Car. Come on in—and let a Pontiac show you its stuff while it's showing you off!

The 1962 Lincoln Continental's classic styling is enhanced by a redesigned front bumper, new front grille and repositioned headlamps. Many customer conveniences have been added to the car. Engineering refinements provide greater reliability, smoother and quieter riding, and less need for car maintenance. Each Lincoln Continental undergoes a 12-mile road test. Two models of the luxury car are available this year. The four-door sedan is shown above. The four-door convertible has been improved in appearance to simulate the look of a sedan when the top is up.

School Personnel Back Anaheim United Fund

Teachers and other personnel at Lincoln School have provided the Anaheim-United Fund drive with a pace-setting momentum by signing up for 100 per cent participation. Robert Shanks, chairman of the drive's elementary school division, announced today.

The achievement at Lincoln, first of 20 elementary schools to complete its drive, is particularly encouraging because the 100 per cent sign-up conforms to new standards of contribution established by Anaheim Elementary Teachers Assn., Shanks said.

Under the formula the standard pledge for classified personnel is $1 a month; for teachers, $2 a month; for administrators, $4 a month.

The pledges are fulfilled through a payroll deduction plan.

This year's United Fund goal for 670 employees in the school district is $11,200, an increase of $3,500 over last year.

Shanks, district superintendent, said he hopes all other elementary schools will complete their drives before a final report for this division is made next Friday (Sept. 15).

Spearheading the drive at Lincoln were Robert Roberts, principal, who is also president of the Teachers' Assn.; sixth grade teacher Arlene Nakashian, and Miss Irma Frank, secretary.

Big Brothers Opens Drive

Fifty-six Big Brothers for 56 fatherless Orange county boys, several of them residents of Anaheim, is the goal of a two-month, September-October membership drive launched this week by Big Brothers of Orange County.

The long range goal: sympathetic help for thousands of lonely and troubled boys in the county.

Big Brothers is primarily a lay organization, each of whose members spend a few hours a week to set an example of character and industry for a troubled boy.

The guiding principle of their work is the prevention of juvenile delinquency and anti-social habits before they are firmly engrained in the boy's personality.

To that purpose most of their work is with boys from 5 to 18 years of age, on a One Man-One Boy basis.

"The need for more Big Brothers is urgent," says Executive Director Holdberg from Big Brothers of Orange County headquarters at 515 North Main Street, Santa Ana.

Associated Chambers Commerce Acts on Pacific Coast Freeway

The Board of Directors of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County has gone on record opposing any plan by the California State Division of Highways to convert the Pacific Coast Highway into a freeway. Instead, it recommends that the principle objective is to move through traffic, the proposed Pacific Coast Freeway should be constructed a reasonable distance inland.

After study and upon recommendation of the Transportation Executive Committee, the Board of Directors of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County has approved the strongly worded resolution to be forwarded to members of the California State Highway Commission.

The resolution points out (1) investigation has failed to reveal any person in Orange County who is in favor of converting the present Coast Highway into a freeway; (2) the right to the enjoyment of the Coastal Areas rests in all the people and the arbitrary attitude of the Division of Highways appears this right; (3) the Coastal Beach Areas or Orange County are one of the most favored recreational areas in the world; (4) it is felt to be unfair, unreasonable and unjust for those in a position of public trust to arbitrarily ignore the wishes of the people by impairing the beaches as a visitor attraction.

Nursery School Has Openings

Registrations Chairman Mrs. Doris Glasser announces that there are still a few openings for the Temple Beth Emeth Nursery School held at 400 N. Emory St., Anaheim, which opened yesterday. Mrs. Kathryn Tuman, formerly teacher-director of the Garden Grove Community Cooperative Nursery, will supervise and guide the preschool children through a rich and varied program of activities assisted by Mrs. Shirley Storch.

In its third year of operation, Temple Beth Emeth Nursery is a non-profit organization and open to children of all faiths. There are two daily morning sessions and an afternoon session for children from two years and nine months through kindergarten age. Each session can accommodate 14 children.

Film Series Scheduled

An International Film Series of "Neglected Masterpieces," five programs of motion pictures, representing a wide variety of the world's film production, will be shown in Orange County by University of California Extension, beginning Oct. 10 at the Grove Theatre in Garden Grove.

On the premise that "the history of motion picture making has witnessed an unending spectacle of excellent films which have, because of improper handling and public indifference, never reached the audiences which they deserve," University Extension officials state "the series will be devoted to films which have been artistic successes, but box-office failures."

Phonics Workshop Held at Centralia

Approximately 63 Centralia School District teachers attended a workshop on the Economy phonetic method held at the Chrysler Training Center in Anaheim August 28 and 29. Representatives of the Economy Company instructed the teachers on the use of Economy workbooks and intricacies of phonic instruction for beginning readers.

In addition to the instruction materials which the District has used in the past years, phonics workbooks have been placed in all third grade classrooms. Myrl Ruppel, assistant superintendent, education, remarked that "Centralia District has always been noted for its strong program of beginning reading and teachers will continue using the phonics method as a part of good basic reading instruction."

WHAT'S DOING

Bob Gresham, your Telephone Manager in Anaheim

ing a communications satellite of a new, more advanced type. They hope to see the new one launched sometime early next year.

This is just one of the ways telephone people are working to provide better communication links between the U.S. and countries overseas.

A new kind of phone system is now getting its first field test by the Bell System. It's an experimental Electronic Central Office designed to give you even faster, more versatile telephone service.

For example, if you were going out for the evening, you could have calls to your home transferred to wherever you're going.

Phone numbers you call frequently could be given abbreviated code numbers so you could reach them by dialing just two numbers.

This experimental Electronic Central Office is another example of the continuing search to make your telephone service still better in the years to come.

Meet Maxine Barrett, a Service Representative in our Anaheim Business Office. She makes a call each month that she wishes she didn't need to make, reminding her subscribers that their bill has not been paid. She pleasantly tells them that good credit is an asset and a fine payment record is insurance in hard times. Did you know that your bill is due upon presentation and becomes delinquent in 15 days? If you have a good payment record we are much more justified in extending time for payment should the need arise.
