GUN CLUB MEMBERS MAKING FIGHT ON WATER-SUPPLY BILL

SACRAMENTO, MAR. 7.—The Los Angeles members of gun clubs that have their shooting ponds in Orange County have opened a bombardment of Assemblyman Walter Edson's bill that proposes to protect the underground water supply of the state from depletion by unnecessary artesian flow.

"This measure is favored by the Orange County Farm Bureau. For years the farmers who have pumping plants in Orange County have found that the water level has been going down, a factor to get gun clubs and no small number of low-land ranchers to cut artesian wells when the water was not actually being used have failed. Gun clubs have frequently let their wells flow the year around."

The Edson bill proposes a process by which such practices can be stopped. It provides that water taken from underground reservoirs must be for some "useful purpose." Other usage of the water for water for water, it is this measure because a law may be declared a public nuisance and may be abated on an action by the district attorney.

The gun clubs are averted to the very depths of the gun boat. They have argued off the ends of their shotguns and are pouring buckshot into that bill. This is a preliminary artillery fire to be put over on March 10 when the bill comes up for hearing before the conservation committee of the assembly. The bill must be recommended as "do pass" by this committee before it can come up for consideration on the floor of the assembly.

FALKENSTEIN'S TO MAKE IMPROVEMENT

Falkenstein's department store is the latest business institution of Anaheim to feel the necessity of expansion. Mr. Kurt Epstein, advertising manager, announced yesterday that a large addition extending to the alley, about 25x25 feet, had been found necessary. Workmen are already busy on the improvement. This addition will make the store building 125 feet long.

The new addition will be used for stock and sample room in order to relieve the store proper. It is the plan now to greatly enlarge some of the departments and to add new ones.

Altho Falkenstein's have occupied their present location only a little over two years, they have already outgrown its original dimensions and have in view still other plans for additional accommodation of their steadily increasing patronage.

WOLVERINES RALLY
President Samuel Young calls all former Wolverines to meet under the auspices of the Michigan Association of Students for the annual reunion, all day, Saturday, March 16th, 1919, in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles. Come as early as you can and spend the day with friends. We will have county regimens and headquarters so you can find the old neighbors even with ten thousand present.

There will be a brief program opening about 2 o'clock, but the main purpose will be to have a good time. We want to see all the tourists and visitors from the old home state and a special invitation is extended to all the soldier boys and the men who were in any of our wars. Bring your baskets well filled. Coffee will be served free to all who buy the new badges.

EARLY MORN. CHASE
After a fast chase capped by several revolver shots, Anaheim officers yesterday chased a man, picked up a couple of men with a lot of pocket knives and watches in their possession. The men were arrested on suspicion and Sheriff Jackson was notified. The mail brought in a description of the property stolen at Oceanide and the sheriff notified this city's marshal, who in turn got in touch with the Oceanide authorities.

Goods described in the circular were found in the possession of the two men. The local police at Oceanide consisted of nickel and gold plated watches, thirty-six pocket knives, three razors and six nickel plated chains.

NEW BEACH SEWER
Frank Gillen, city engineer of Seal Beach, believes that construction work on the new sewer system will begin within the next two weeks. A bill was received aggregating about $45,000. An $10,000 of the bonds can be sold, there will have to be modifications that will bring the cost of construction within the available money.

City Engineer Gillen said he believed that this could be done without in any way injuring the efficiency of the plant.

BEANS BRING $10.15
The first carload of lima beans to be sold this season from the warehouse at Greenville, where is stored about one-half the entire crop of the associated members of the Greenville district, was shipped out the past week. Another carload has been contracted for this week. The last selling price was $10.15.

CABLES GOOD WISHES
Mrs. Samuel Dick of Twin Falls, Idaho, received a cablegram Monday from her son, Lieut. Sam Dick who is in Toul, France, and also a message from her son, William, of Wichita Falls, Texas, offering their congratulations on her birthday anniversary.

DISTRICT MGR. IS HERE
W. W. Powers, district manager for Orange-co of the Savage Tire Co., is conducting the business of McKee & Fisher while they are in San Diego on a trip to the Savage factory.

LOS ALAMITOS HAS ORGANIZED C. OF C.

A Chapter of Commanders has been organized at Los Alamitos and prospects are bright for a progressive organization. More than 100 persons were at the first meeting, at which plans were outlined that will benefit to the town.

B. C. Hamilton was elected president of the organization and R. B. Hamilton, secretary. The following were chosen directors: M. Regan, George Watts, E. F. O'Connor, E. C. Hamilton, R. B. Hamilton and W. C. Fox.

Meetings are held in the Sugar company's new club house. A feature of the meetings will be that the men may bring their wives or lady friends who will visit in the social room during the business session. When this is concluded there will be a dance or other entertainment that will make the evening pass pleasantly.

B. OF T. TAKES UP SCHOOL PROBLEMS

The Board of Trade is going to look into the matter of increasing school facilities, relieving the present inadequate and over-crowded conditions, following the request of the P. T. A. to school trustees ask a district meeting. Secretary Whitaker of the Board of Trade stated today that the matter would be taken up at Monday's meeting.

It is urged that there be a large attendance at the Monday meeting, as it is for no other reason, that they may see the very fine exhibit of 50 varieties of citrus fruit placed on display by F. K. Greenwell.

AEROPLANE LANDING

"What are we going to do about getting a landing place in Santa Ana for aeroplanes?"

This is the question that H. J. Lowe, president of the Santa Ana & M. Association, shot at his associates on the board of directors at the meeting Tuesday night.

"The time is near at hand when such a station will have to be provided by cities that are able to their own interests," said Lowe. "We should not be caught napping and we should start now to make plans for a landing place in Santa Ana."

Lowe said that the Santa Ana & M. Association, shot at his associates on the board of directors at the meeting Tuesday night.

SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL

Recommending to the high school board of trustees the calling of a bond issue of $150,000, with which to build the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial, the committee and the high school board took action which, it is hoped, will result in the calling of the bond election the present month.

Outstanding features of the memorial plan are an auditorium with seating capacity of about 2000; a swimming pool; a kitchen and dining room; a pipe organ for the assembly auditorium, and a number of additional class rooms for the use of the school district.

M. E. CHURCH BUILDING CAMPAIGN FUND WITHIN $1225 OF $30,000 GOAL

The auditorium of the Anaheim First Methodist church was filled last night to hear Dr. Charles Edward Locke, eloquent pastor of the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, in his famous lecture, "Getting Along With Folks."

The event was the celebration of the practical completion of the campaign to raise $30,000 before starting on a big, modern church plant with site and pipe-organ, already provided for, and furnishings will represent an improvement worth $60,000.

Within $1225 of Goal
The audience was electrified when Rev. J. F. Humphrey, pastor, in introducing the speaker, announced that the finance committee was within $1225 of the $30,000 mark, that nothing could stop the project now and the school trustees would get busy within a few days. The pastor was certain the remaining $1225 would be forthcoming within a few days.

Frederick the public meeting, there was a very enthusiastic banquet by the finance committee at the Y. M. C. A. When they sat down at the table, they still lacked $1225. It was a good dinner and there were witty speakers, including Dr. Locke and Dr. Rasmus, superintendent of this district. When the banqueters got up, the $1225 shortage had been cut down by $2,000 through the generous subscriptions the team captains and their assistants already had made.

Businessmen Thanked
A vote of warmest appreciation was extended the membership of the church and also the businessmen of the vicinity who have made most generous contributions.

Commenting on the achievement, Dr. Rasmus pronounced this boost to the "Better Churches for Anaheim" idea one of the biggest things that has been accomplished in the conference of the Methodist church in years.

Much Credit Due Pastor
No little credit should go to Rev. Humphrey, who has worked long and hard for the project, reaching the goal after a struggle with many failures. Incidentally, Rev. Humphrey has a record for doing things. He has never yet fallen down on such a campaign.

The lecture by Dr. Locke was really most enthusiastically. Time and again the big audience broke forth with applause at his witcidities.

He complimented Anaheim on being a dry town now, said he had spoken feelingly upon the matter from his pulpit in Los Angeles when he heard the news.

"I had always heard that Anaheim was one town in the state where the bottom would fall out of things when you took away the booze," he said. "Now I find that everything here is more prosperous than ever before. It always happens that way."

Audience Elated
His theme, "Getting Along With Folks," left his audience, who were told that they had been at the announcement that their union of effort would make possible a fine, new church home. It was, in brief:

"Don't criticize; don't be cynical. 'I would rather have one Cecil B. DeMille play more than a whole war on land of American Beauties after I'm dead.'"

"A little praise now will do a lot more good than all the orations after death."

Feeling that a little laffy; that date epiphany."

There are many bargains offered in the classified columns of The Plain Dealer. Someone has something to sell that you want.

OWENS PLANS CHOW HOUSE LIKE ARMY'S

An idea of how they hand out the grub wholesale in the army is contained in the following interesting letter received from her son, Fred, by Mrs. E. J. Owen, of Kroeger-st., The letter, written at St. Nazaire, Feb. 6, follows in part:

"Am now working in the kitchen at this camp and like the job well. Have a real government position, eight hours on and 16 off. The disadvantage is that we work every day and never know what day of the week it is."

"Largest Kitchen in France"

are now only feeding between four and eight thousand a meal but that is just a part of the capacity. They feed 15,000 one dinner here without a whole lot of trouble. The food is cooked in boilers and cans, most of the cooking is done on a stove which is built in the floor so that the top of the stove is level with the floor and cans are set off on it. The food comes in 16, 18 and 20 cases by a bench which has the food on it and serves it out. If everything goes right, about 7500 can be put in an hour which isn't slow any way.

Must Start One at Home

Have been thinking about starting a job house on this same principle when I get home. Don't know whether it would go or not unless I could get some means of forcing them. You see here they can take their choice between eating this way or going hungry. They usually eat.

The only thing I don't like about it is the possibility of getting stuck here for the rest of the A. E. F. life. I'm going to try and bring home a dog from over here if I can get hold of a good one. Wedd, bon nuit. Your loving son, FRED.

WIND BLOWS AWAY

RAINS AT CYPRESS

CYPRESS, Mar. 7.—Special.—About the time we think the people of Europe have decided to stop fighting a new war breaks out. Like-wise, about the time we think the elements have settled down for a good old California rain alone comes a new wind. We have had more good rains puffed away by the wind, but this season than ever before in the history of our section. Amos Bradley says that there is lots of time for rain yet. We hope Amos knows.

He and Mrs. J. Dugan gave a farewell dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Miller made many friends during the three months they visited here and it was with sincere well wishes that the Cypress folk bid them good-bye on their homeward journey. The Millers will long remember the rural good time had by them Saturday evening. Mrs. Dugan's entertaining ability is well known through our section and it will suffice to say that that was a most pleasurable evening for all those present.

Jack Fiquay has recovered from his injury of last week to the extent of walking about. The injured hand still forbids him from doing anything but dignified.

Mrs. E. John has purchased the E. P. Fay place located just east of Cypress. Mrs. John intends to establish an up-to-date poultry ranch.

WILL BE HOME SOON

Sergt. Giltman L. Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Camp of the country, who has been stationed at Camp Lewis in the Military Department, O. S. C., has left for Camp Kearny, where he expects to be mustered out very soon and return home.

SCHILLER

THE name Schiller on a piano means a great deal more than merely a "good" piano. There are several "good" pianos, but the painstaking effort, close application and personal supervision coupled with the artcraft of a family of piano builders who know how to produce a tone quality so different from the regular run of "good" pianos that you will be immediately impressed by its mellowness and wonderful depth of tone. We have been appointed exclusive representatives for Orange Co. and have a complete showing of these magnificent instruments on display at our warerooms. A liberal allowance for your old piano.

The Schiller costs more but its worth it—call and be convinced.

AMERICA IN BEST CONDITION OF ANY NATION IN WORLD

Anahem national bank's monthly bulletin letter for February says:

"The closing weeks of the first three months following the signing of the armistice finds trade more or less in the throes of uncertainty. Wholesale jobbing and retail trade are working on the quick 'turn-over' basis, each providing overstocking and for the first time reports come that collections are beginning to drag.

When we consider that during the nineteen months that the United States was actively engaged in war, she drew 4,000,000 of the flower of her manhood from industry, transformed more than 10,000 industrial establishments from pursuits of peace to the work of war, stripped and curtailed thousands of other enterprises engaged in lines considered non-essentials to the winning of the war, built up with emergency measures a guaranteed food supply to meet the promise of a prolonged struggle and then was greeted with an unexpected peace. Where is the ground for complaint or criticism when general business pulls the grade with so comparatively little friction?

America in Best Shape
No country of the world is in as good condition as America. None has better prospects and none a better people. We have fared in a world struggle as the chosen of Jehovah. What would have been our plight if Germany had won? The hours seem to demand of us all that we buckle down to unselfish effort and with cheerfulness, thoughtfulness, sincerity and gratitude finish the job of getting wrong things right.

More than a million men at home and from beyond the sea have thus far been demobilized, and through wild claims are made that more than that number are unemployed, authentic reports disclose that but a few more than a quarter of a million—a little over one-quarter of one percent of our total population—are to be found in the unemployed classification.

The Food Index number of the Annualist of New York, showing the average wholesale price of twenty-five commodities selected and arranged to represent a theoretical family's food budget, reveals an astonishing drop that will interest the housewife. The curve of the fluctuation of this group of commodities over a period of 23 months and at its present point the index number registered less than a year ago.

This a Democracy
Can it be possible that Americans are so obsessed with the counsel of fear and selfishness that they cannot reason rightly? From what source does the influence come that is striving to misdefine freedom and hide the fact that the United States Government is a Democracy—a Government immortally defined as one "Of the people, by the people and for the people," and never designed to give quarters, grant favors or share its power with any particular portion, class or element of the people? The United States today is a democracy under the menace of an element unfriendly to peace, progress and equal rights.

Armed with the venom of class prejudice, this element is striving to teach Labor to battle Capital for a larger measure of independent freedom than is possible for any one division of society to possess under the Constitution of the United States. Great and vital as Capital and Labor are to the growth of the nation, neither can rule with a power that affects the independent freedom of the third great force of our Government, which is the people—the Government itself.

Today, Labor has a great opportunity. If lies along the line of a nobler understanding of social and economic problems as they relate to all of the people and not to personal or class interests. It should not be difficult for the people of this country to approach in the proper temper the right angle of this subject for its reasoning does not run opposite to their sober passions and better judgment and to grasp its fundamentals requires but the ability of distinguishing the right one of two possible methods of action.

In the one instance, and acting under the leadership of radicalism—an entirely selfish and foreign-born influence—Labor can say, we are organized. We are powerful. We can paralyze industry in order to obtain our end. If Capital does not meet our demands, we will harm and inconvenience even our loved ones and others who are innocent of any hand in the grievances we feel.

No "Class Consciousness"
In the other instance, and under the leadership of the true spirit of American democracy, which has no "class consciousness," Labor can say we understand that in the process of business reconstruction from the inflated basis of strife to the natural and firmer footing of peace, that arbitrary losses will fall upon arbitrary groups and classes of activity. We appreciate that any attempt to sustain labor costs above sound, normal, economic levels, will react to a disadvantage to ourselves and our fellows. We recognize the fact that we are laboring in an interval when the purchasing power of the dollar is low and that it requires the close, friendly co-operation of Capital, Labor and Government to restore it to normal. We feel that it is of consequence to the largest portion of American people that a normal business footing be speedily and harmoniously returned and we stand ready with our co-partner, Capital, to peacefully do our right part in this readjustment.

Germany Stopped
Does the world believe that the war is over? Does Christendom think that because Germany as an armed enemy of civilization has been stopped, stripped and policed by those she intended to crush that she is subdued and regrets her actions? Germany is still a peril. She is unrepentant and unreformed. We will be wise if we do not hastily release this criminal nation, waiting until there is more tangible evidence than now exists that she is safe to be allowed to act without restraint. Germany's bold, arrogant song of militarism has been changed to a seductive mental lullaby and she as a "peril" will grow it through the cadence of her soporific we are rendered forgetful of the overwhelming evidence of her criminal guilt. Read Edmund Hamilton Abbott's article, "Have the Germans Won the War?" in the January 15th Outlook, of New York, and the situation will be better appreciated.

PIONEER SUCCUMBS

A message was received yesterday by Frank Dyer of the death of his uncle, S. H. Dyer of Berthoud, Colorado. Mr. Dyer was one of the pioneer settlers of Anaheim and when a resident here owned the A. 50TH ANNIVERSARY

A very interesting meeting was held Thursday afternoon at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. R. Zurbuchen of the German Methodist church, when there was a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. There was an interesting presentation of the life and works of Isabella Thoburn, the first missionary of the society, going to India. When Mrs. Zurbuchen served refreshments, it was found that they included rice and curry, the chief dish of India, with which Mrs. Zurbuchen became familiar in Hawaii. Another feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a paper on continued need of food conservation by Mrs. John Eymann.

TRIP OF CHEVROLET CHANGES NAME OF ARIZONA MOUNTAIN

No Man's mountain, in Southern Arizona, is no more. The name has been changed to Chevrolet Hill.

Last week Dick Hollingsworth, well known in Pacific Coast automobile circles, drove a stock Chevrolet by the famous roadless butte on its own power. The change in name was the result.

Accompanying Hollingsworth on the trip up the mountain was Edward Banks of Douglas, Ariz. The car was parked on the top of the mountain for two days and nights. At night the lights were turned on and the machine could be seen for miles across the desert and from the city of

Gen. J. D. L. Hartman, commanding the Arizona district, United States army, rode up the mountain on horse back, and was keenly interested in the feat of the little 490 model Chevrolet.
