FILMS REFUTE 'FATTY'

NEW B. P. O. E. CLUBHOUSE MARVEL

First Meeting in Fine New Home of Local Lodge Planned for Dec. 14

The new clubhouse of local lodge No. 1345 of the Elks, at Sycamore and No. Los Angeles-sts, is rapidly approaching completion. The plan is to finish the building in time for the opening meeting on Dec. 14.

Architect Frank Benchley is in general charge of construction.

The unique feature of the building, aside from its fine proportions and up-to-date character, is the decorations, which with some variation are in Egyptian and Pompeian tones thruout.

The lobby, which measures 40x60 feet, is in strictly Pompeian colors over Pompeian mortar and Roman gold. The ceiling is in a Tiffany blend. A fine big fireplace in batchelder tile is perhaps the most conspicuous object in the room. A mezzanine balcony opens upon the lobby.

Adjoining are a good-sized writing room in putty grey stiple with cafeolait colored woodwork overglazed in old rose, and the ladies' room, also in cafeolait, but in blue with a delicate shade of lilac. An old rose rug and lavender hangings feature the color scheme of both rooms.

The lodge-room, on the second floor, which measures 60x80 feet, is in many respects the gem of all the rooms in the building. Blind windows, lighted from behind and composed of double plate glass, give a pleasantly homey effect. The ceiling is in an ivory shade graduated to an Egyptian grey with touches of pink. The walls are in an early Egyptian plaster effect finished with an overglaze of gold. The pilasters are also in a a stiple of a different sort. The colors so reflect the light that none of it is lost. According to Herman Stern, chairman of the building committee, there isn't a lodge room like this between here and Vancouver. The seats and upholstry will be in gold and brown.

The anteroom and cloak-room adjoining are in similar tones.

The big billiard room in putty grey enamel, with painted walls overglazed and billiard cloth green color will help the members while away their leisure hours.

In the basement is the banquet room, 60x80, with a stage 20x60. The procenium arch measures 26x 14 feet. Spanish stiple with Spanish mottled colorings and woodwork of cafeolait enamel overglazed with old rose and handlighted with gold is the decorative scheme.

The kitchen, which adjoins, is in white enamel.

In the basement also are the handball courts, measuring approximately 30x100, and next to them the buffet.

There are 15 bedrooms in the building, in single rooms with bath between and in suites. These bedrooms even now look nothing if not comfortable. The walls are papered.

Thomas Haverty Co. of Los Angeles are the heating contractors. The blast system is the one used, with a fan for cold and hot air in the basement and another one on the roof. These fans connect only with the lobby and banquet room, the other rooms being heated by direct radiation. Thermostats enable automatic control of the heating, which is by gas.

A roof garden, a big fountain in front and various other features complete what will be one of the most attractive and commodious clubrooms to be found in the state.

Exclusive Advertiser Makes Rapid Growth

In this issue of The Plain Dealer is a four-page advertisement for Sebastian Bros. department store. This is one of the largest amounts of merchandise advertising ever carried in one issue of an Anaheim newspaper.

Four years ago Sebastian Bros. opened up in Anaheim. Their aggressive methods soon forced them to move to a larger location which they now find none too large. As a big help in their expansion, they readily give credit to Plain Dealer advertising which they have used exclusively.

BIDS TOO HIGH FOR NEW COUNTY JAIL

County supervisors caught their breath and took under consideration for one week the proposition when they found the lowest bids opened today would run the cost up around $299,000.

There were six bidders on the proposed four-story concrete building, ranging from $99,900 to $121,000. This would not include heating and ventilating systems, 300 steel cells which would cost $70,000, elevator, plumbing and equipment and furnishings.

Supervisors had planned to spend about $130,000 at this time and may decide to erect only two stories now, making walls sufficient to carry more later.

Supervisors also took under consideration for one week bids on three miles of paving west of Garden Grove. Of the six bidders, W. O. Poter was lowest with $31,118.67 and E. S. Bruce next with $32,112.03. Responsibility of these two contractors will be investigated within the next week so award may be made next Tuesday.

It is proposed to widen the strip of highway to 18 feet, compared with 16 at present, and to increase the thickness of the pavement from its present four inches to six inches.

The finance committee of the Second Calif. Valencia Orange show was promised a subscription of $1500 from the county advertising fund, compared with $1000 for last year's show.

She was facing a jury on trial for the murder of Fred Miltmore, Chicago postoffice employe. The prosecution charged she killed him because he knew of an alleged shortage of $22,000.

Lena Clarke said she doesn't know if she killed Miltmore. She admitted holding a gun over him on the fatal night. "Then everything went black."

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING IS NEED

Co. Supt. Mitchell Tells Kiwanis Club One Teacher Here Has 72 Pupils

Warning of the need of a new elementary school building was voiced today at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club in the high school by County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell. Anaheim faces the same problem as various other communities in the county, he said. In 1920 there was a twenty-five per cent increase in school attendance in the county, and 1921 would see a similar increase, he declared.

Already from an emergency appropriation, Superintendent Mitchell said, emergency teachers had been appointed at Chihuahus City, Harper, Fairview and elsewhere.

In Anaheim, he said, he found one teacher with 75 pupils,—altogether too many for one instructor. "The teacher is the school," said Mitchell. Anaheim schools have many competent teachers, he added.

Mitchell is here inspecting the elementary and other schools.

President Henry Adams made an appeal for a one hundred per cent Red Cross showing for the Kiwanis club.

Professor Judy, of Pomona College, in a few brief remarks, said that the college was to have three or four new buildings before long. A fine group of Anaheim men are attending the college this year, he said.

Official announcement was made of the reception of a notice from the State Railroad Commission regarding the hearing on an application to have the Santa Ana branch of the Union Pacific extended to Santa Ana. The hearing will be held Dec. 14, in Los Angeles.

The resignation of J. S. Howard was accepted, Howard is unable to attend the meetings.

The local club is officially urged to participate in the observance of a Canadian Day with the other clubs of the country. Canadian clubs similarly plan to observe a United States Day. The two observances are aimed at strengthening the good will that long has existed between the two countries.

A wireless graphophone concert was a feature of the meeting.

1ST BURCH WITNESS READY TO TESTIFY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29.—With the jury nearly completed when the case was resumed, County Autopsy Surgeon Wagner and the parents of the slain man were called to the courtroom today by District Attorney Woolwine as the first prosecution witness in the trial of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy.

Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, the grief-stricken mother of young Kennedy, was expected to make her first appearance in the courtroom before noon. Illness brot on by her son's tragic death has confined Mrs. Kennedy to her home, but she agreed to make a special effort to appear. Her husband has been in court every day since the trial began.

Woolwine planned to call Dr. Wagner as his first witness. Wagner was expected to describe the gunshot wound which killed Kennedy instantly and to show that it would have been impossible for Kennedy to have spoken after he was shot as Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, indicted with Burch for the murder, claims he did.

STATE ATTACKS ARBUCKLE EVIDENCE WITH PICTURES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—Motion pictures — the bringing of an animated Virginia Rappe back from beyond the grave to accuse Arbuckle—were part of the plan of the prosecution today in its fight to break down the bastions of the defense and discredit the admittedly strong barriers which Arbuckle's own story have built.

It was a part of the intention of the prosecution, according to report when court convened this morning, to project these pictures on the wall of the darkened courtroom and demonstrate by means of medical experts that certain actions shown in the pictures could not have been performed if Miss Rappe had been the victim of diseases from which the defense has contended that she suffered.

There was a question, however, whether the animated evidence would be admitted by the court and it was certain that the defense would fight determinedly against it, in view of the possible psychological effect on the jury of the motion pictures showing in all the charm of real life the beautiful girl whom Arbuckle is accused of having killed.

Wholly undaunted by the strong showing of the defense, the state this morning launched its renewed attack on Arbuckle, in whose bed room Miss Rappe received the injuries which caused her death.

There has been no contention on the part of the defense that Miss Rappe did not receive her fatal hurts while in Roscoe Arbuckle's room. That much is admitted, but the story told by the commedian himself when on the witness stand yesterday — and which the full batteries of cross-examination failed to shatter—asserts that those hurts were the results of the accident with which he had nothing at all to do and for which he was not in any way at fault..

The task which the state faced today was the refutation of this personal story of Arbuckle.

The defense had been so skilfully handled that there seemed only a remote chance that the host of rebuttal witnesses which the prosecution had gathered to tell of other wild parties at which Arbuckle had been host would be able to reach the witness chair.

Louise Glaum, famous film star summoned by the state, may not get a chance to testify.

STUDY WATER PROBLEM

The building or deep shafts lined with creosoted redwood to conserve water now running to waste was recommended by F. D. Collins of Orange, at a meeting of the general committee on water conservation appointed by the Associated Chambers of Commerce, held this afternoon at the Anaheim Union Water Co.'s offices.

Collins explained the plan which he proposed at the previous meeting of the smaller committee. He said that more than three-fourths of the water underlying the Santa Ana valley now was being pumped out for irrigation and domestic purposes. He said that the next ten years probably would see a greater lowering of the water level of the valley than in the previous 20.

The level, which is now about 86 feet below the ground level on the average, is the lowest for the period for which there is data, about 25 years.

J. B. Neff of Los Angeles said that there had been times when in a single day of flood enough water ran to waste to the ocean to supply the county's needs thruout the entire year. He said there was no need to worry if prompt and effective conservation measures were taken, but it would be a different story years hence. Ten thousand inches of constant flow was coming out of the ground and used, he said.

Neff is a retired grower now living in Los Angeles and was the pioneer pumper of importance in the county.

The invited representatives of towns not already on the general committee were made members, as were several men appointed by the county farm bureau.

H. W. Lewis of Santa Ana was made acting secretary of the meeting. Fred Ahlborn, chairman, presided.

SOCIETY

LODGES ⋈ CLUBS ⋈ CHURCHES

POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN WEDDED LAST EVENING

ONE of the most beautiful weddings which has occurred in Anaheim in several years was that of last night at 8:30 o'clock in the Methodist White Temple, when Miss Valentine Hays Pember became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Shrode, Rev. Geissinger officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the chancel entwined with ferns, terminating in an arch in the center, and suspended from the arch was a white wedding bell. Great clusters of pink roses and ferns graced the pulpit and rostrum, and either side was banked with potted ferns.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Chas. E. Harbison sang "O, Promise Me," with Mr. D. Hamilton Evans at the organ. The bridal party entered the auditorium to the strains of the Lohengren wedding march, also played by Mr. Evans. Leading were the ushers, Mr. John Kemper and Mr. Arthur Kemper on the right aisle the bride's maids on the left aisle, followed by the matron of honor, the tiny attendants, ring bearer and flower girl, and Miss Pember.

The bride, one of the loveliest of girls, was unusually charming in her exquisite robe of ivory satin charmeuse, made with long waist and trimmed in pearl embroidered panel in front and on the short sleeves. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and was of round length. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia rose buds and Cecil Bruners, entwined with maidenhair fern, and tied with knotted streamers. White pumps and hose and long white gloves completed her costume, with which she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom some time ago.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur Kemper, wore geranium colored georgette over silver cloth, trimmed in narrow silver bands, with hat to match. Miss Esther Pember, first bride's maid, was attired in Harding blue georgette over silver; Miss Hazel Withee, also maid, had burnt orange georgette over silver, the three gowns of the attendants being made in same manner, and all wore corresponding hats. White gloves and white pumps and hose completed their effective costumes, and each one carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

The dainty little flower girl, Marguerite Shrode, niece of the groom, was a real little picture in her ruffly pink organdy, carrying a basket of pink flowers and ferns. Master Louis Huntington, ring bearer, looked the part of the small man he is, with his dignity of bearing, carrying the ring in the heart of a huge pink rose. He wore a pretty suit of white, with blue tie.

Entering with his best man, Mr. William Schumacher, the groom joined the bridal party at the altar, and beneath the symbolic white bell, the young couple took their vows. Directly after the ceremony an informal reception was held in the vestibule, Mr. Evans having played Mendelsohn's wedding march for the recessional. There Mr. and Mrs. Shrode received the hearty good wishes and congratulations of their friends.

A reception at the Pember home was given, at which only the immediate relatives of the two families were in attendance, and the bride's close friend, Miss Vera O'Rourke.

They left last evening for a several days honeymoon trip by auto. The going away gown of the bride was a dark brown embroidered tailleur, with brown pumps, and chic red hat with mercury wings.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Pember and has resided in Anaheim the past four years, coming here from Hecla, South Dakota. A girl of charming personality, her friends are legion. Mr. Shrode is also well known here and an exemplary young man. Upon their return they will reside in a pretty home on Chestnut-st., which now is ready for occupancy, and will be at home to their friends after the first of the year.

Starbuck Road Case Seen Behind Recall

The Starbuck road case, which has smouldered for the past six years, burst into active flame again when City Trustee L. P. Drake was threatened with recall.

In a letter to Drake which was read before city trustees, William Starbuck, prominent rancher, formerly manager of the Fullerton telephone company, and for many years in business, who has been the storm center of debate in the road case for a number of years, declared that arrangements to set into motion the recall machinery have been virtually completed.

Starbuck's letter reads:

"I wish to give you a square deal (although I am sure you have not given me one) and tell you what I am doing.

"We are all sure this road matter could be settled, were it not for your leading the fight for it.

"I now have arrangements virtually complete for a recall.

"I am again going to put this up to the people and see if they will speak as plainly as they did before.

"This (and some other things) will be the issue.

"I am willing again to trust the people.

"Most respectfully,
"WILLIAM STARBUCK."

For many years disputes have marked the proposed opening of the Starbuck road, which joins Buena Park road. Ranchers recently took the matter out of the hands of city trustees when the latter appealed to the courts. The trustees retaliated by striking the petition off the calendar. Drake, who has been opposed to Starbuck, it is said, has insisted that the road case be replaced on the council calendar. This action, it is asserted, led to Starbuck's recall threat.

The green ones will not be shipped in their present state since, because of the frost, it might turn out that they would spoil instead of ripen. The mixed shipments are being sent to Los Angeles, since there is not enough to send by carload lots.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA IS BIG PRODUCER

Recently published figures on last year's crop reports for Southern California and the state as a whole are highly creditable to the eight southern counties for which the report was made, and, as the Riverside Press says, rather effectually refute the allegations of some northern jokesmiths that the tourist crop is the chief industry of the Southland.

In the eight southern counties are 4,827,390 farm acres out of the total of 29,365,667 for the entire state. This is 16.1 per cent of the whole. There are 1,022,706 irrigated acres in the South out of a total of 4,095,247 irrigated acres in the state, or 25 per cent. It will thus be seen that not less than 25 per cent of the farms of the state are in the eight southern counties.

These figures should be borne in mind in comparing values of farms and their products. The total value or all southern crops was $185,898,487 as compared with $587,600,391 for the entire state, of 31.12 per cent. The South produced 19,850,093 boxes of oranges, or 91.3 per cent of the total state crop, and 6,359,944 boxes or 97 per cent of all lemons. The walnut crop was 94 per cent of the whole or 48,801,574 pounds. The lead in sugar beets was 65.1 per cent, the total southern crop being 434,178 tons. The South produced $108,018,439 of the state's $270,910,689 of the state's $270,910,589 fruit and nut crop, 39,9 per cent.

The North leads in the production of cereals, hay, grains and seeds by large percentages, but the South produced practically a third of the vegetables, the output being a little over $15,000,000. The North leads in livestock, the South having 21 per cent of the whole.

BUTTERWORTH NO. 2 HAS 34.5 GRAVITY

Santa Fe Springs

At the present time there is no well in Southern California for its depth is producing the quantity and quality of oil that the A. O. Co's. Butterworth is producing. At 4682 this well is producing 297 barrels of oil running 34.5 gravity. Butterworth No. 2 is building rig. The Amalgamated added two new properties, the Guardio and Tsceppe to its holdings and will develop them in the near future.

The Chansler-Canfield Midway has a rig up and is about ready to start drilling. The well is located across from the Union's Bell and will be known as Santa Fe Springs No. 1.

The Central Oil Co. could not resist the excitement under way at Santa Fe Springs and is starting a well on its 6-acre tank farm. The rig is going up now.

The Nevada-Ventura Oil Co. struck hard drilling at 700 and at a 1000 feet is not out of the hard sand and boulders.

The Scientific Oil Co. had a streak of luck. The bit lost in the hole at 1450 has been pushed aside and drilling is now going on at 1490.

The Standard Oil Co. jumped in at Santa Fe Springs two weeks ago and is going strong. Drilling on the Brownrigg-Kellar is now close to 1,500. Los Angeles Trust and Savings No. 1 is built. Sanchez No. 1 is built. Pacific Clay Pipe No. 1 is built. The boilers have been set for Wolfskill No. 1 and a location made on the South Whittier Community.

The Union Oil's Bell No. 1 continues to perform wonders. This great well now unquestionably the greatest thing in the western petroleum world is flowing 2600 barrels of 32 gravity oil daily. The flow nipple was increased from 3-8 to 5-8 and the production almost doubled. On the Bell property the Union has No. 2, 3 and 4 buildin rig. Rigging up is about completed on the Flood. Alexander No. is building rig. Sanchez 1 is building rig, and the boilers are being set for Farwell No. 1.

On the Meyer lease No. 5 is close to 5000 feet and shows only a hard sand. Meyer No. 4 drilling at 4220 is also in hard sand.

Right at Los Niotos the Petroleum Midway is building a rig for what will be known as Community No. 1.

Letters From the People

Cypress, Nov. 29, 1921

The Plain Dealer:

In the getting back to normal after the meteoric flight into high finance, I, Sargum Sprout, a son of the soil, would like to remark:

The present so called hard times, and the past months of money tightening, the low price of products and the high cost of necessaries, can all be laid at the door of lack of organization. We hear so much of organization, of trusts and unions; when you sift the hear-says down, the real organizations are few, and the unions are not of the rock ribbed kind.

Take the grain business of Los Angeles. We country folk heard much of the big grain organization during the war. Much of the boosting of prices was laid to the combine, when the events of past years has proved that the big men were not organized in any way, shape or form.

If there had been real organization the market would have been stable, with the big houses taking a reasonable profit instead of operating at a loss. The big men have had as pretty a game of knifing each other as one would wish to see. If the brokers and big mills had been the only ones affected we could have enjoyed their game, but—

The producer, the grain grower, was the one to get bumped where it hurt. The big men while cutting at one another had to buy at the very lowest price possible, and the grower was forced to sell below the price of production. True, the growers were not organized and the weak sisters that had to have money, kept pulling the selling price down.

Now with the proper organization, the big men could have regulated the downward market so as to let all get out from under.

There was still another angle to reckon with, and that was the consumer. The consumer actually bought less than enough to fill his needs. That sounds unreasonable, but never the less it's a fact. The tumbling market kept the consumer scared stiff. He figured tomorrow the grain of which he was in need would be lower in price, so he purchased and fed only enough today to last over till tomorrow, always skimping till the bottom was reached.

So the lack of organization has injured produces, middleman and consumer in the grain business and most all other lines can be compared to the above. If the producers will not get together, and the big men refuse to, then its up to the consumer, and there is a big movement in that direction. We have the Southern Calif. Dairy Assn. that has a feed distributing branch, also the Poultrymen's Cooperative Association.

If the consumer and producer ever get on working terms, Mr. Big Man, your name is "Pants." Yours,

SORGUM SPROUT.

Wm. Trapp, Jr., Cement Pipe, 197-R-4

MORE PRE-COOLING FACILITIES NEEDED

Greater pre-cooling facilities are an outstanding need of the citrus industry. The present season has demonstrated that thru better distribution made possible by pre-cooling plants; thru better condition of pre-cooled fruit arriving on the markets; and thru ability to carry over fruit thru strikes and car shortages, the orange growers possessing pre-cooling advantages have made and saved many thousands of dollars.

This is the view of L. D. Palmer, manager of the Orange-co Fruit Exchange after a careful study of the pre-cooling question the last few years.

"Not only is pre-cooling of the highest value during strike and car shortages but we have had demonstrations of its efficiency in preventing decay and bringing the fruit to market with a minimum of deterioration," said Mr. Palmer today. "One of our local houses which trucked fruit to La Verne for pre-cooling found that in spite of the expense involved, the pre-cooled fruit, because it arrived in better condition, netted the house more than fruit shipped direct during the same period.

"The Santiago house has had its pre-cooling plant in operation for several years and has secured most satisfactory results. The advantages of this method of handling are now so well established that it seems to me the growers of this district should give serious consideration without delay to enlarging the pre-cooling facilities of the district. I believe that such an investment will return large dividends.

"The present situation is in point. Through the use of pre-cooling plants, during the period of the threatened strike, we were not only able to continue picking and packing, but were also able to maintain an even distribution to the markets of the country which is highly desirable to the trade as well as our shippers.

"After the threatened strike had been settled the pressure from the growers to immediately clean up the remainder of their crop, was very great, and it was only thru the use of pre-cooling plants, even though it was necessary to haul some of the fruit 40 miles, that we were able to accomplish this. We were then in a position to maintain the proper distribution and prevent an absolute famine of California oranges in the eastern markets which otherwise would have occurred from the time Valencias cleaned up to the arrival of northern navels and which is not desirable from the standpoint of our California citrus industry, as we believe the jobbing trade and consumers should be able to purchase Californai oranges every day in the year.

"Our results, we believe, have fully justified this action.

"This is not the first time this procedure has been followed by us, it having seemed desirable once or twice in previous seasons and it would seem to us that if it is found profitable to truck fruit 40 miles to place in pre-cooling plants in other districts it would be more profitable to have them in our own district."

SPORTING EVENTS

ANOTHER FAST CARD AT ARENA FRIDAY

Jack Iman, the hardhitting local husky, will again figure in the weekly boxing show of the Anaheim Athletic club doings Friday. Athletic Manager Billy Darnley has selected, he believesc, another rough gent in the person of Hack Thomas, a Salinas boy, to give him battle. Thomas comes down from the northern city with quite a reputation as a willing two-handed performer, and they do say, he packs an ungodly wallop.

Iman is going strong now and it is going to take a good boy to beat him. In his setto with Mackey last Friday he exhibited a world of speed and cleverness that was a surprise to even his most ardent supporters. After being shaded in the first and second rounds, he came back strong in the third, and like a house afire, in the fourth, whipping his man almost to a standstill, thereby earning for himself a draw in which many thot he was entitled to the verdict.

If Thomas lives up to his advance notices, then, our Jack is in for another warm argument. The big boy is keeping himself fit by daily workouts and by Friday will be able to step at his usual fast pace.

Manager Billy Darnley is so certain of Johnny Golindo and Kid Rubio putting up up one of those sensational battles that occasionally make their appearance on the card that he has signed these two good boys up for the semiwindupj. Rubio is a cousin of Ad. Rubidoux., the bantamweight, who is the big noise around Los Angeles at present. Like his cousin, he is a demon in the ring for motion, and Johnny will have to step some to hold himself even. Golindo is the younger brother of the "Fighting Family" of that name. He has done some splendid work in the ring, having met and defeated some of the best boys of his weight on the coast. This gives every promise of being a regular go from start to finish. They meet at 33 pounds.

Three snappy prelims have also been lined up between willing mixers. Our old friend Jimmy Lloyd is making a comeback after an absence of several weeks. He draws a good boy in Arthur Espinosa, who, it will be remembered, put up a whale of a scrap against Jack Hale of Garden Grove, recently out at the old Fistic Farm. He is a clever performer and Jimmy will have to keep moving to put anything over on him.

Ernie Farren, the fast 118 pounder from Seattle, who gave Heller such a hard time of it at last week's show, is down on the bill with Teddy Cruz, from Long Beach, who is said to be a nifty workman in the ring.

The curtain raiser should be a 'Humdinger' from start to finish and promises to give the fans hereabouts the greatest kick they have had in some time. The young huskies from our fair city who have been issuing defies at each other for weeks past, have at last had their wish gratified and will settle once and for all their claims as to just who is the best man.

Two of Anaheim's finest, Officers Moody and Choate, are standing sponsors for these two gladiators and have signified their intention of enlarging out in big league style with the winner. Moody believes he has a world beater in Oyster Loaf Joe., who claims the championship of the Peart Divers Union of Orange county, while our good friend Tex says that while his battler holds no championship at present, he can lick a ring full of champions.

ANAHEIM TO PLAY LONG BEACH SUN.

Anaheim Elk baseballers will get into action a fling at the pastime in the winter season next Sunday at Commonwealth park, Fullerton. The opposition will be provided with the reorganized baseball team of Long Beach Elks.

The Anaheim Elks' management, headed by Billy Knott, believes several games can be arranged with other Elk teams. Santa Monica, Pomona and other lodges have expressed a desire to meet the Anaheim champions. Like Anaheim, they realize that if a fast team is to kept together for next summer's league race games must be played during the winter.

The Anaheim lineup will be much the same as played thru to the state cup at the annual convention last month.

CHAFFEE AND S. A. MEET AT FULLERTON

The semi-final football game between Santa Ana and Chaffee union high schools will be played at Fullerton next Thursday.

This was decided at Santa Ana high school yesterday afternoon when Principal Hill of the Ontario school announced that the Chaffee student body protested the plan, agreed upon last Friday evening, that Chaffee and Santa Ana play their game in Santa Ana.

The Chaffee folk were determined that the contest be staged on a neutral gridiron, Principal Hill stated. Accordingly he and Principal Hammond of the local school reached an agreement that the game be played at Fullerton.

CITY BRIEFS

CYPRESS, Nov. 29.—(Spl.) The school bond election held Nov. 26th, and which resulted in the carrying of the bonds 44 to 19, was the cause of more interest and enthusiasm than any other school election ever attained in the district. To best of our knowledge only one registered voter failed to vote and he was held in Los Angeles on business til the polls wers closed. The trustees of the district were very pleased to have the people sanction their endeavors. It has been much work and time spent on the part of the trustees, in circulating petitions, visiting school buildings for plans and to lay the plans before the architects. Dissenting voters admired the plans for the new building. Their objections were not bared on the underability of the building but in the tax raise necessary. Some were of the opinion that the price of materials would decrease, but the heavy eax rate was the big Buga-boo. The building is assured and the whole district is ready to aid in its construction.

Mr. A. S. Feagan who recently moved to Los Angeles to be near his physician was reported last Friday to be much weaker and his condition is very serious.

Realtor Carpenter is the busy man these days. He reports the sale of a two acre lot of the Kester tract to W. E. Lanier of Orange. Mr. Lanier has contracted to have a water well drilled and will erect a five-room dwelling and buildings for a small poultry ranch.

Carpenter reports another sale of a like lot of land to Wm. Huhn who will also erect a residence and poultry equipment.

Business may be on the bum but Carpenter has not had time to find it out. He says Cypress property sells its self. Mr. Carpenter has done much to put Cypress on the map in the short time he has been operating as a realtor.

G. G. Priddy Earl Smith, Ted Thornton and M. H. La Rue form a hunting party to the Salton Sea country last week. They bagged 31 ducks and one wild goose.

The Gillisons are moving to the Sconce house vacated by the A. S. Feagans. The move is just temporary as the Gillisons are undecided as to their future plans and wish a few weeks to look around in.

The Doddsons who recently purchased the Gillison place, will move in as soon as the Gilisons vacate.

Don Grindley has turned Ford doctor. He has a very complicated case in his own flivver. At present there are three lungs missing, the heart action is very weak, and a few other minor parts are out of kilter, but Dr. Don has hopes of reviving the wreck.

ATWOOD, Nov. 29.—(Spl.) Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Stanbro and four sons and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green and Mr. R. Piercey motored to Lytle Creek canyon Thanksgiving day. A big lunch was enjoyed by all and a three mile hike. A few cripples were the results.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bilbro had dinner at the Mission Inn at Riverside Sunday.

FOR SALE

20 acres (1744 trees) which unquestionably stands unchallenged as the best orange grove in this section. A grove with a record, a grove with a future. There is not one weak feature attachd to this offering. Upon inspection one becomes impressed with the size of the trees, their vigor, health and thrifty condition. The soil is of the finest, setting indicates that it will be one of the heaviest producing 20 acres in Orange-co. This is a grove which has received not only the best of care, but all work has been done by the owners themselves. Its location is ideal, situated in city limits, 3 blocks from the new postoffice, with frontage on 3 streets. The only reason this splendid grove is on the market is due to one of the owners being desirous of returning east. It is offered for sale at a ridiculously low figure, and we are prepared to produce figures which will show an income of 22 per cent. This is your one big opportunity to purchase a grove which is now increasing in value. Don't wait until the fruit colors up. Don't wait until the owners change their minds but buy now.

5 aces of 5-year-old Valencias that would do your heart good to see. The trees have an exceptionally heavy setting for next year, with every indication of sizing up well. Soil conditions fine. This grove is all piped. There is a nice home, all modern, with garage, which makes this proposition exceptionally attractive. We doubt if there is another 5 acres which can compare with this. Anyone purchasing this beautiful grove will feel greatly satisfied especially when the fruit colors up. Better look into this before it is too late.

10 acres 8-year-old Valencias, setting and soil A-1. Grove all piped. This grove can be purchased at your own figure.

5 acres 2-year-old Valencias, all piped, soil exceptionally good. Priced at $1,600 per acre.

HUDSON AND ESSEX MEET WITH FAVOR

"The Hudson and Essex products are meeting with merited favor in the Anaheim territory," states H. R. Grove, local manager for Townsend and Medberry, dealers for Anaheim and Santa Ana.

"In fact," adds Mr. Grove, "we first procured salesrooms at 129 No. Los Angeles street, thinking that this location offered ample space to meet our needs for some months..

"Only a few weeks have passed since our advent into the selling market of Anaheim's automobile world, and now we have found it necessary to move to larger, more roomy quarters.

"The Hudson and Essex firm is now located at 226 South Los Angeles street. Here adequate space is provided to display the several models of these famed four and six cylinder cars.

"Hudson and Essex owners are our best salesmen, for they have learned of their sterling qualities and are the first to sing their praises." A recent transcontinental trip made in an Essex is given as proof of this statement:

Three punctures constituted the sum total of inconveniences for W. D. Waterman who, with his wife and two sons, Floyd and Raymond, recently chose Santa Ana as his home after a 2600 mile trip from Freeport, Illinois.

In the entire trip the Essex, which Waterman was driving, never failed once, and with the exception of the three instances of tire trouble mentioned, nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the journey, he said. Waterman is emphatic in his praise of the Essex.

Upon his arriva l he washed his car, and says that it now looks and runs as if it had never been off the boulevard.

Mechanics at Townsend and Medbery, Essex agency, inspected the car upon its arrival here and pronounced it in perfect mechanical condition despite the hardships which it had undergone.

DUNTON SELLS 39 FORDS THIS MONTH

George Dunton, Ford and Fordson dealer, reports he is winding up the month with very satisfactory business. He reports sales of new cars for November up to today total 39, compared with 31 last month. Thirteen were sold last week, which for the third consecutive time showed an increase over the preceding week.

Of the 39 sales, 12 were coupes and three sedans, making a record for the number and proportion of enclosed models.

Today he unloaded a carload from Frisco, containing ten tourings and one runabout.

From Nov. 1 last year to Nov. 1 this year, Dunton reports sales of new cars totaled 388, an average of better than 30 per month.

FRASER REPORTS NORTH PROSPEROUS

Conditions in North California are fine, according to Secretary Malcom Fraser, of Anaheim C. of C., who arrived this morning from a three days trip through that section. San Francisco and the Bay region is enjoying a great stimulus in its building program. In San Francisco, everybody is talking about the startling growth of Los Angeles and Southern California.

The local secretary was a visitor at the Sacramento and San Francisco C. of C's. and spent a day at the No. Calif. Orange and Olive Show, held at Oroville almost yearly since 1887. This is the only orange show in the northern part of the State, which is called Superior California, to distinguish it from the San Joaquin Valley country. The Northern Show concluded its most successful year Sunday night, having had an attendance of nearly 30,000 during the week, which was somewhat narrowed by a two day's steady downpour, thus carrying out the experience of other such festivals.

Fraser finds that the feeling in the north is most kindly to So. Calif. Up there, they are thoroughly sold to the plans of Southern California's boosters, and they are beginning to emulate the example of the brothers in the sub-tropical region. San Francisco hotels are making a bid for the tourist travelers, and the constant improvement in the condition of the northern state highways is making for a great stream of tourist travel into California through the Oregon and Nevada gateways. In other words, they believe that people will soon be coming into California in thousands from the North and East instead of from the Arizona points of ingress.

Eureka, the northern coast metropolis of California, in order to take her share of this increased travel, is building a $250,000 hotel of 100 rooms, to be called Eureka Inn, and to be presided over by Manager Liebenbaum, of the Hotel Wiltshire, San Francisco. From Eureka is reached the most enticing summer camping country in the State.

The northerners have some of the finest navels grown in America. The fruit is firm, of excellent color, with fine flavor, somewhat resembling that of Salt River, Arizona, navals and, this year's output ran over 700 cars, all of which are now shipped. The first movement of oranges in California begins at Oroville November 5, and several of the growers have already been advised of the sale of their product at profits averaging net about $5. An irrigation district of over 30,000 acres is being formed and great impetus to the orange industry is expected.

STANLEY ENTHUSED ABOUT BUSINESS

Harry W. Stanley is enthusiastic over the way business has begun looking up since he repurchased his former stand on Lemon-st., Stanley's Buick Repair Station.

"We have been glad to greet scores of former friends, since again taking over the garage," says Stanley. "We have assured them that we would continue with our former policy of guaranteeing every job turned out of this garage.

"We have employed as foreman, George Bremer, an expert mechanic, of 1[illegible] years experience in the auto repair business, and whom I have been acquainted with for two years. We have also employed Will Richter, another high-class mechanic recently from Pocatello, Idaho. Both these men will stand behind their work.

"We will install a very complete line of auto accessories of all kinds within a few days, having also gained possession of the auto salesrooms."

COURT HOLDS BOYS' PARENTS TO BLAME

PITTSBURG, Nov. 29. — When young men who have good homes and respectable parents "go wrong" the parents are morally to blame, declared Judge Stephen Stone in criminal court here when he was called to sentence three young men who had been adjudged guilty of stealing 13 automobiles.

GEORGE BREMER, shop foreman, eleven years experience. Have known him for two years — he certainly can deliver the goods.

Both of these are high-priced men and offer to stand behind their own work.
