Airplane Flights Over Large Part of So. Cal. Will Advertise Exposition

Airplane flights over a large part of the Southland north of San Diego have been decided upon by the management of the second annual California Valencia Orange Show, it was announced today. Paul Clausen will represent Malcolm A. Fraser.

The starts will be made from the Young flying field at Santa Ana, and five hours will be consumed on the trip, which will take place May 5, 29 and 21. C. L. Young will be pilot. A three-passenger plane will be used for the purposes, and Young, besides permitting the occupants to scatter literature over each community visited, will do stunts such as looping the loop and various dives in order to attract attention.

The plane will fly only 1,000 feet high, and from it will be suspended a big sign bearing a legend pertaining to the show. Stops on each trip will be made for lunch.

In addition to the principal communities of Orange and Los Angeles counties, most of the beach cities including Venice, where lunch will be eaten, will be covered on each trip. Burbank, Riverside and Colton are among the other cities to be covered.

The work of erecting the tents on the city park to be used by the show is progressing rapidly. Part of the tents already are up. Shavings have been scattered over a considerable part of what will be the interior areas.

Fifteen hundred posters have arrived, and the work of distributing them began today.

Other means of publicity include the Los Angeles newspapers, which are giving much more space to the show than last year.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Governors of the 12 federal reserve banks meeting in Washington today, are understood to have given approval to the informal suggestion from Europe that Benjamin Strong, governor of the New York bank, and probably one other banker, join in a worldlide conference on European problems. Strong would represent the reserve banks, however, and not the government of the United States. While the reserve board is a government body the reserve banks are privately owned.

LITTLE FROST DAMAGE FOUND

Not more than ten per cent at the very most, of the valencia oranges now being picked in the Anaheim district as frost-bitten, according to the managers of the four packing house associations here today.

Of the proportion that is frost-bitten, by far the largest part will be marketable. Only fruit that is being shipped as "Sunkist."

Manager G. W. Sandilands of the Anaheim Orange and Lemon Assn. said that as low as two per cent of the fruit in the association's groves to date have been found frost-bitten. He said that 90 per cent represented easily the maximum.

Manager J. H. Ritchie of the Anaheim Co-op. Assn. spoke to the same effect. He said that most of the fruit affected is marketable.

Placentia, Villa Park and one or two other districts suffered considerably more from wind damage than from frost. Villa Park is almost free from frost altho the damage from wind will amount to from 50 to 60 per cent.

The Anaheim Citrus Fruit Assn. confirmed the reports of the other organizations. W. H. Jonnston of the Steward Fruit Co., said that while none of his company's fruit had sold on auction but had all been placed on orders, all of their shipments had been accepted. And over the top of the pool on Mediterranean sweets just closed a net return of $3.85 per box to the growers will accrue. Johnston regarded this showing as extraordinary.

1000 FALL IN BIG CHINESE BATTLE

SHANGHAI, May 2.—Rushing artilery into position and mowing down the attacking forces, the defenders of Peking are reported turning movement of the Wu Pei Fu armies ,which have fallen back, leaving more than 1000 dead and wounded on the field of battle before Chang Sin Tien.

The fighting raged all of yesterday, but when daylight came this morning it was disclosed that the assault had been abandoned.

Japanese gun pointers directed the artillery fire of Gen. Chang's Manchurian forces and helped materially to drive back the assailants.

Had the turning movement undertaken by the attacking armies proved successful Chang would have been compelled to abandon Pekin, but the opportune arrival of the artillery and the accuracy of its fire turned what appeared to be a victory for the invaders into a costly reverse.

Mosley, deputy district attorney, denied this.

Both men have entered pleas of not guilty.

The two pursued Rodriguez to one of the barns at Twin Barns, and Castro shot their victim before the eyes of Rodriguez's 15-year-old daughter, who was rushing to his aid.

The two latter are prominent members of the Orange County Farm Bureau, which also will be represented by others, it is understood. Covell is a member of the water conservation committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce and of the special committee of three which will interview the Board of Supervisors regarding aid of $25,000 for work preliminary to the organization of a county-wide conservation and irrigation district.

This company and the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company furnished part of the $40,000 which has been spent in spreading waters of the river the past year. Both the man and his wife were arraigned before Judge Howard this afternoon, the man being charged with making whiskey, and the woman with selling whiskey. The man at first pleaded not guilty, then pleaded guilty, but when he was sentenced to 90 days in jail recalled his plea and pleaded not guilty, and requested a jury trial. This was granted, and the case was set for May 11. The woman pleaded not guilty, and her case set for May 11. Both were remanded to jail on a bail of $1000 each.

KIWANIS ENDORSES CHAUTAUQUA PLANS

Endorsement of the Chautauqua, following the presentation of its plans by Charles Eygabroad, a guarantor; discussion of the Y. M. C. A. drive, which the club will aid with two speakers and the hearing of a speech on Orange show plans by Malcom Fraser, manager, occupied the Kiwanis club at its luncheon meeting today in the Elks' club.

The Chautauqua management did much for the cause of the show by its shifting of dates until before the Orange show, with which at first it coincided. An unusually good Chautauqua is promised.

The Kiwanis Club plans to unite with the Fullerton and Santa Ana clubs in a tri-city exhibit at the Orange Show, and its membership on the Tri-City Committee began work on the Frans Fullerton on the project for a general exhibit.

Frasse's speech dealt largely with the plans to advertise the Orange show, including airplane flights mentioned elsewhere in this issue.

"Age of Innocence" Styles For Men

CHICAGO, May 2.—An "age of innocence" in men's styles was forecast at the opening of the United National Clothiers' convention today. Among the conspicuous exhibits, which clothiers said would be much in demand, were:

Suspenders.

Shoes square-toed, flat-heeled, solidly built.

The only dash of color in the displays were the linings of the topcoats. No matter how conservative the outside shade ,the linings were of pale blue, vermillion, hectic pink or brilliant orange.

PEGGY JOYCE TRAGEDY PROBED

PARIS, May 2.—Peggy Joyce, the much loved "million dollar doll," who has been the centerpiece in romance, scandal, elopements and divorces on two continents, is being investigated by the Paris police today.

The authorities want to know whether the notorious beauty, ex-stage star and multiple sweetheart really had some connection with the killing of William Errazurix, Chilean millionaire, or whether her craze for the spotlight of notoriety has led her to tell a story of the tragedy which places her in the unenviable light of being the cause of Errazuris's suicide.

"Peggy" herself gave the alarms that a shot had been fired in his apartment. And when the door was broken down he was found dying with a bullet in his brain. He never revived enough to tell his own story of the affair.

While the parisian police are probing the truth or falsity of her version of the affair, which says that the Chilean begged her on his knees to give up her other male friends and marry him as soon as he could obtain a divorce, "Peggy" is protesting deep sorrow and love for the dead man.

"If only I had known that he loved me so," sighed the grass widow of Stanley Joyce, the American millionaire, as she received a correspondent in her room today.

She was attired in a fluffy negligee and sobbed bitterly, her pet pekinese poodle licking the tears from her pale cheeks.

"Billy kissed me good- night and went to his room," she said. "I thought he was just like all the others. I did not know that he loved me so desperately.

"I am utterly distracted and I feel today as though I am through with the Rivarals club. I'm sure I'll never be able to go inside a dance palace again.

"You see Billy and I had been out all night, dancing at the Paris cafes, and when we got back to our hotel he pleaded with me in the fervor of his love, falling on his knees and begging me to give up all other men and agree to marry him."

U. S. ACTION ASKED BY KING KLEAGLE BAKER

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—A demand for the arrest of Fidel Elduayen, whose home in Inglewood was raided by a mob of masked men, was made today by Nathan A. Baker, kleagle of the Ku Klux Klan, charged as an organization with responsibility for the raid, in a letter received by United States District Attorney Burke.

Baker, who confessed he acted as a leader of the raiders, offered to furnish Burke with "evidence" he said was obtained at the Elduayen place, consisting of "liquor purchased statements made to us, and marked money."

Burke replied immediately to Baker's letter. He informed the Klan kleagle that any evidence in his possession should be turned over to prohibition officers. Baker has charged that he obtained confessions during the raid that prohibition officers received "protection money" to tolerate a bootleg establishment at the Elduayen home.

"Being the officers who secured the evidence against and effected the arrests of the Elduayens Saturday night, April 22, we are ready, when requested, to turn over to the United States authorities evidence which we believe will result in the conviction of these men," Baker's letter said, in part. "The evidence consists of liquor purchased, statements made to us, and marked money which passed.

"This place is unsavory in character and we are anxious to assist federal officers in blotting it out."

In referring to himself as an "officer" Baker had reference to the fact that he was a special deputy sheriff at the time of the raid. His deputy sheriff badge has since been taken from him by order of Sheriff Traeger.

W. L. Bryson, formerly a deputy constable at Huntington Park, who was Baker's lieutenant in the raid on the Elduayen place, also signed the letter to the United States district attorney. Bryson's deputy constable badge was taken from him yesterday by order of Constable Harry Bosshard, who asserted that Bryson had "completely violated" his authority as an officer.

Burke, in his letter, informed Baker and Bryson that the United States district attorney's office does not conduct investigations of cases and that the "evidence" should be turned over to prohibition officers. He explained that the prohibition officers, if the evidence justifies it, would report to him and a complaint would be issued.

D. J. O'Leary, chief prohibition agent, conferred with Burke and Assistant United States District Attorney Mark Herron today relative to Baker's charges that Elduayen paid $1000 for protection as an alleged bootlegger. O'Leary requested that the United States grand jury investigate Baker's charges immediately. Prohibition officers have stated that they frequently investigated Elduayen's place, which was a bonded winery, but failed to find any evidence of violation of prohibition laws.

William S. Coburn, grand goblin of the Ku Klux Klan, stated today that he was busy rounding up members of the raiding party in preparation for the surrender of the raiders in a body.

EFKER WRITES TO DISTRICT ATTORNEY

District Attorney A. P. Nelson has received from Herman J. Efker, proprietor of the Anaheim Novelty Co., a letter the latter was sent on Ku Klux Klan stationery similar to the one received by James H. Clark, former proprietor of the Hotel Valencia. The letter makes various charges, in addition to the usual warning to close up business affairs and leave, but in the absence of Nelson from his office in Santa Ana the contents could not be disclosed in detail.

Deputy District Attorney D. G. Wentlin said that the man who was mentioned as a suspect in the sending of the letter was a member of the Klan, according to the roster in Nelson's possession received from District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles-co.

An attorney hers suspected of being a member of the Klan is also a member, according to this same roster.

Wentlin said that the attitude of the district attorney and his aides toward the Klan was unchanged, except that men mentioned in the roster could not be expected to receive passive protection indefinitely from the office, if they continued members. Nelson's view has been that various reputable men of many communities in the county joined the order because of sympathy with its objects not realising the methods the K used to carry them out.

LOCAL BANKS ARE BEING ENLARGED

Repair and alterations to two local bank buildings have been planned for the very near future, the Anaheim National and First National. The latter recently completed the work of adding a cage to the American Savings Bank's quarters and space on the second floor to its facilities. The improvements reflect the growth of the three institutions.

With the removal of the real estate offices of Eygabroad & Fisher from the space in the rear of the Anaheim National Bank building, the bank will occupy additional room amounting to approximately 12 by 25 feet. The space will be used to extend the directors' room and give more vault room. The work will begin as soon as an architect has finished satisfactory plans.

In addition, the bank will completely rearrange its interior, President W. A. Dolan said, increasing the cage space and moving the cages further to one side, so as to permit room for the president's office on one side. It is planned to have the offices all on one side and the cages on the other.

The proposed removal of the secretary department to the northwest corner of the First National Bank's office will permit the addition of another window to its quarters.

ROTARY OFFICERS ELECTED MONDAY

The annual election of officers for the coming year occurred at the meeting of the Rotary club yesterday. Harry D. Riley, presided. Cloyd Hartranft, vice president; Tom Walker, secretary; Will Dolan, treasurer, and Tom McFadden, sergeant at arms.

Postmaster Ahlborn addressed the club in behalf of the department. He noted the rapid growth of the postoffice and the amount of mail handled here in our city and suggested the slogan "Mail Early and Often" be adopted to facilitate the service.

The program for the day consisted of short addresses by several of the members each concerning the other fellow's business since each man is prone to think the other chap has the biggest snap in life. Carl Leonard enlightened Messrs. Benjamin, Dolan and the rest in regard to his view of the banking business. Horace Benjamin treated Hartranft and the other gentlemen ranchers in a discussion of the farmers' business. Doc Barnes gave away all the secrets of the medical profession and Charles Grim and Tom Walker and the rest what a snap the preacher really had.

Harry Riley was to have talked on the law business but stated he felt so strongly on the subject since his social visit with Judge Cox that he could not express himself adequately so Herbert Johnston was called upon to give a lawyer his due.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of "Americ".

EBELL NOW READY TO ACCEPT PLANS FOR CLUB HOUSE

WITH every inch of incorporation red tape neatly wound and carefully bound into a ball to be set rolling toward construction of the proposed club house, Ebell members met yesterday afternoon to hear the final reading of the reconstructed by-laws, necessitated by the recent incorporation, and immediately afterward voted to accept them. The committee on by-laws was composed of the Mesdames Ida Dutton, W. W. Manter, J. L. Van der Veer, C. C. Smith, Eva Boyd, C. E. Chamberlain and J. H. Garnett. With the last details of incorporation completed, there is no stumbling block in the way of immediate acceptance of plans and starting the dirt flying on the beautifully located lot on Clementine and Broadway, and visions of most happy meetings in the new home are in the minds of the women who have worked so energetically for this result.

Another important matter transacted yesterday was election of delegates to represent the club at the State Federation of clubs, which opens in Bovard hall, U. S. C., tomorrow morning and continues until Friday evening. Headquarters have been established at Rossiyn hotel, where the representatives, Mrs. G. H. Goodale and Mrs. C. C. Smith will remain. Mrs. J. P. Brastad and Mrs. Eva Byrd were appointed alternates, and likely will attend some of the sessions. Mrs. G. M. Simpson was chosen yesterday to represent Anaheim club at the Reciprocity day meeting of Placentia Round Table, which is an event of tomorrow afternoon.

A pleasing program was given by the Donnelly sisters, the vocal solo by Miss Rose Donnelly being accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Elizabeth, and Miss Elizabeth's violin solo was accompanied by Miss Rose on the piano. Both numbers were delightfully rendered and happily received. Mrs. Arnold R. Enearl was in charge of the program.

BRIDE HONORED WITH SHOWER AT PARENTAL HOME

The guests gathered at a corner near the McCleester home and went in a body to the scene of the entertainment, taking the honoree completely by surprise.

The shower gifts were very cleverly presented to Mrs. McCleester. A pole was erected in the center of the dining room table and from the top were hung streamers of pink and white. At the end of each streamer a package wrapped in pink and white paper was tied. As the streamers were intertwined around the pole the gifts fell to the table. Much delight was given when the honoree opened the packages and found many pretty and useful presents.

Games of different kinds were played and to those winning the prizes they were rewarded with a May basket made of white and pink paper and filled with flowers.

The entire color scheme was carried out in the two colors and at the close of the delightful evening dainty refreshments were served. These also were in the predominating colors of the evening.

Guests of the Misses Withee and Mrs. Sherman who spent such a delightful evening with Mrs. McCleester were the Mesdames Martin, Wells and Eager, all sisters of the honoree, Welcome M. SANTA ANA EBELL TO BUILD

The Santa Ana Ebell club is looking eagerly forward to completion of plans for their proposed new club house, and on May 29, the next meeting, details will be discussed to that end.

The club will expend about $15,000 in their new home, which will be most convenient and modern. While many favor a large auditorium with graduated floor, others are desirous of more smaller rooms wherein all sections, of which there are seventeen, could hold the meetings.

Although no definite plans are in mind, it is probable that a two-story structure will be built, either brick or stucco, with kitchen, dining room, auditorium, etc.

SURE TO HELP SICK WOMEN

Lebanon, Indiana.—"I was completely run down from women's troubles and stomach troubles and for a long time was hardly able to do my work. I had some friends who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me about it. I know what it has done for me and I recommend it to others, as I am sure it will be a great help to all sick women. It is a wonderful medicine, and I give you permission to use my testimonial and my photograph." — Mrs. EMMA BAKER, 310 S. East St., Lebanon, Indiana.

These letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subject.

Mrs. Baker calls it "a wonderful medicine." If you are suffering from troubles women often have, or feel all run down, without any ambition or energy for your regular work, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a natural restorative and should help you as it has Mrs. Baker and many, many other women.

1921 WAS BANNER YEAR FOR CYCLES

That Amateur bicycle racing has grown in popularity the last five years, is revealed in a report released recently by the Cycle Trades of America, Inc., of New York, the central headquarters of the bicycle industry. This organization, among its other functions, presents prizes for road and track races where no admission fee is charged to the general public to witness the events.

The report says, more races were run, more riders participated and more spectators witnessed the events in 1921, than in any previous year. An outstanding feature is the fact that less prizes were given than in 1920. Especially noteworthy was the number of race meets run by newspapers, Y. M. C. A.'s, Boy Scout organizations, schools and social clubs. The interest of people, not in the bicycle trade in bicycle racing as a sport, indicates sound development making for the continued welfare of this activity in the future.

In 1916, when the organization was first formed, prizes were supplied for 77 race meets. An indication of how the sport took hold, is evidenced by the fact that the following year showed a total of 167 races, with 210 for 1918. The season of 1919 showed 305 as the figures, while 1920 totalled 371. So successful were the previous race meets that in 1921 the number of races leaped to 429.

A number of promoters did not give full particulars when reporting results of the events to headquarters, but the individual entries in the races in 1921 that were properly reported, showed a total of 22,239, double the figures of the previous year.

The number of spectators witnessing the races last year is estimated at 1,000,000. These figures, however, do not include attendance at professional tracks.

The formulation of plans for the National Amateur Championship races are now under way, according to the officials of the Amateur Bicycle League of America, Inc. and it will be a toss as to whether Chicago or Atlantic City will be the scene of the affair.

ST. LOUIS HOTELS "NEED THE MON"

Relatives of Mrs. J. A. Chitty are in receipt of a letter from her telling "how it is done in St. Louis," and done to the advantage of the hotels, rather than the guests.

Mrs. Chitty and 13-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, who is an invalid, are in St. Louis, where the little girl will be given a course of treatment in the MacLean Orthepedic hospital. In making reservations at the hotel where they will remain, Mrs. Chitty was obliged to pay ten weeks in advance on their quarters at the rate of $17.50 per week, before she could secure the room. St. Louis hotel men are apparently in the business for the money and will see that they get it in advance.

DAILY GREETINGS TO OUR READERS

PRANK OF ROWERS CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

Two bright and promising California boys went rowing in a canoe in Westlake Park. They came alongside a boat in which were two girls. Pleasantries were exchanged. Then one of the girls did what no boy or girl ever should do in such circumstances—she took an oar and tipped the canoe. The boys lost control, were plunged into the water and both were drowned. The girl, of course, was innocent of intention to cause a tragedy. But she will carry with her through life unspeakable regret that she did what she did.

"Rocking the boat" is a dangerous prank, as foolish as it is dangerous. It is directly inviting disaster. Every sensible boy and girl should discourage this kind of foolhardiness; also the reckless risks in mountain-climbing by going too near the edge of precipices, or prankishly pushing any one near to the edge.

EUROPE IS IN CRISIS OF VAST IMPORT

The Christian people of Europe should be on their knees praying heaven to guide their statesmen assembled at Genoa. Christian America well might join in the prayers. For if wisdom and justice and love of peace do not prevail in that tempestuous conference, then farewell to hope of sustained peace in Europe. The crisis is so ominous—so full of terrible possibilities, that super-statesmanship is required to bridge the yawning chasm which portends another bloody baptism for Europe — possibly for the whole world.

It would be foolishly dogmatic and presumptuous for far-away American observers to say with bigoted finality: "This should be done"; or "that should be done." Practical statesmanship in a crucial situation like that at Genoa cannot deal with dogma. When a house is on fire, the experienced, efficient fireman does not stop to experiment with untried ideas or appliances. Get to the fire and put it out by the best method and the most trustworthy appliances available—this is the way to quench a fire.

If the smouldering embers of warfare are to be controlled and quenched in Europe, there must be no dallying and no reckless experimenting at Genoa or anywhere else in Europe. Nations must co-operate candidly and in good faith. There must be an end to secret intrigues and suspicion-breeding alliances. Europe must find itself, heed the lessons of the World War and set its face toward peace and security, or else invite upon itself a deluge of blood and ruin that would engulf and destroy Christian civilization and throw a large part of the world now civilized, back into barbarism.

Spade Lugs For All Makes of Tractors

A Group of Some of Our Lugs

We can furnish lugs at one-half this price if you want something cheap, but we would rather not.

4x4-in. semi steel-chilled . . .85c
5x5-in. plain gray iron . . .65c
5x5-in. plain steel . . .$1.00
5x5-in. semi steel-chilled . . .85c
5x5-in. plain gray iron . . .85c
6x6-in. semi steel-chilled . . .$1.00
2½x5½-in. for 2 bolts plain steel
2½x5½-in. for 2 bolts chilled . . .60c

The holes in all our spade lugs are for ⅝ bolts, except the 2½x5½ which take two ½-in bolts. One hole on each side.

We furnish free with each lug a plate for the inside of the rim to keep the bolt head from pulling through. We furnish bolts and spring washers when desired at market prices plus small charge for handling.

We are pioneers in the manufacture of spade lugs, and have done a great deal of experimenting in this line, and believe that the shape and material we are using cannot be surpassed.

The length of the lug required is determined by the nature of your soil. The 4-in. length being best adapted for light or sandy soil, and if used on heavy soil will not allow the rim to rest on the ground, increasing your speed and causing vibration. Therefore in the darker soil the 5½-in. length is proper. Our lugs are made of a mixture of gray iron and steel, and are chilled to make the hardest, toughest and long-life spade lug that is possible to make. We have never known one to break.

These lugs are adapted for use on Fordson, Sampson, Case, Moline, International and numerous other tractors.

Prices subject to changes without notice. All prices are f. o. b. Santa Ana, California.

ONE THING HE OVERLOOKED

A club reporter was very anxious to make good, and though assigned to the "gloom" run, did his best to locate a sparkling feature in stories gleaned from the morgue. One day he turned in the following "copy" to the city editor:

"It had always been the ambition of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Smith that they might die together. One-half of this wish came true last night when Mr. Smith died at his home on north Greeley avenue."

When the C. E. saw it, he called the cub to his desk, and said sternly:

"My boy, you've overlooked a most startling coincidence in this story."

"What could that be, sir? groaned the reporter. "I thought I had covered everything."

"They were married on the same day," returned the editor, and resumed his copy reading.—Clipping Contributed.

New York Letter

By Lucy Jamison Price

NEW YORK, May 2. — Whether Greenwich Village, that semi-mystical region around Washington Square, is to stand forth and insist upon being considered "respectable" in a conventional, substantially commercial sense of the term, or whether it is to remain tinged with the Bohemianism of art, temperament, and instability is being fought out right there upon the local field of battle. Uptowners have scorned or adorned that district of meandering streets, studios made out of barns, and bobbed-haired maidens, and have disputed its worth among themselves and with the "villagers." But now the dispute is raging between the villagers themselves. First there came the Greenwich Village Chamber of Commerce, with announced intention of "making better business and raising the commercial standard of the village, and of making uptowners realize that the wild stories of New York's Latin Quartier were figments of the imagination." They even invited Fifth avenue business men down to address their meeting. The 100 per cent villagers revolted. Led by Harvey P. Vaughn, literateur, they formed a second organization, the Greenwich Village Board of Trade, "to protect us from the machinations of the over-respectable and commercialized chamber of commerce and to make the village more interesting."

It was without any tears at all that we saw 68 men and women sail out of New York Harbor the other day on their way to join "Big Bill" Haywood in Russia and become miners in one of the soviet mining enterprises in the Ural Mountains. It was said aboard ship that the frustrating travelers had given over all their possessions to the Soviet Central government and kept only $6 each for incidentals on the long journey to Big Bill. There were 64 men and four energetic women.

One of the most interesting and hopeful tendencies in American art, I insist, is the urge shown this past year for making beautiful things aside from pictures and sculpture, and the space given those "things" at our art exhibitions. At the annual exhibition of the Whitney Studio Club (Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney's) now being held, is one of the most loveliest little gems of art I have seen in a long time. It isn't a painting or a statue. It's a ship. It is called" the "Caravel of Illum," the extravagant." Illume, who is a Persian beauty, a development, like the ship, from the brains of the artist, Donald Conley, is supposed to sail the seas in this wonderful little craft, with a cargo of silks, of which she is the sole occupant, at one end, and a temple at the other. Marvelous things have gone into the mechanism of the little craft, a cross of Spanish gold, and worked in ivory, metal and glass. The bellying sails are covered with gold.

A strictly scientific laboratory has been founded in this city for the exclusive study of all sorts of physical and odd physical phenomena. Researches will be undertaken there into the great unknown, into that borderland of spirit and matter which so fascinates the human mind. It measures one's aura, demonstrates the power of the mere presence of a living creature by magnetic currents, and does all sorts of things which may throw bombs into the strongholds of spiritism, or may give them support, according to the results achieved. But the method of working is, as I said, to be rigorously and honestly scientific. William Russell, an electrical engineer is in charge of the experiment.

The radio boom has reached the downtown office boys, many of whom are now active on a new "exchange" which is operated on Fulton street, west of Greenwich street. Everyday the boys congregate there and exchange the parts of radio apparatus they don't want for others they do. The state of the market sometimes makes it necessary for the police to take a hand.

The success of the dream-pirate, "Captain Applejack," made a real pirate play inevitable. Sydney Shields, a New Orleans girl, seems to be the first one to reach the market with one. She has written a play around the notorious John Lafitte, whose base of operations was in New Orleans. It is said to be as full of thrills as the idea deserves, for Lafitte was a past master of the art of the plank-walking, cutlass-slashing fraternity of his time.

Power soon will be transmitted by radio, says a great scientist. Don't be incredulous about asguries of the scientists—not even though they say that soon the cows will be milked, the wood chopped and the eggs gathered by radio.

BALL FOR DISABLED VETS IS SAT., 5TH

assist in raising funds for a royal civic welcome and reception for the many thousands of wounded and disabled American heroes of the great war who will be San Francisco's guests of honor, for the second annual national convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, the last week in June, the Mayor's Citizens' Committee is to sponsor a monster entertainment; pageant and ball, at the Civic Auditorium here, next Friday evening, May 5. The entire proceeds of the big affair will be tendered to the citizens' convention fund, to provide a royal welcome for the visiting thousands who will come here from all parts of the United States, for the Disabled American Veterans' national convention, June 26 to 30.

The "headliner" attraction at the civic show and ball next Friday evening will be the personal appearance of Rudolph Valentino, probably the most popular motion picture star in the world today, who will come here by special train to take a prominent part in the monster program being arranged. Valentino will stage several exhibition dances, including the sensational dance numbers from "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Twenty pretty San Francisco girls will be his dance partners. He is also to participate in the ball that will follow the entertainment numbers, which will include twenty high-class attractions from the leading theaters and cafes of San Francisco. Eugene and Willie Howard and the entire "Passing Show" company will appear, also Fanchon and Marco, Harry Marquard's Revue and numerous other stellar acts.

Music for the public ball which will follow the entertainment will be furnished by a massed band of 200 pieces, volunteered by members of the Musicians' Union. This great band will be let alternately by prominent musical directors and orchestra leaders of this city, including Art Hickman, Paul Ash, Clarence McCarthy, Herb Meyerink, Ulderico Marcelli, Herman Heller, Gino Severi, William Pryor, Ellison Ames, Henry Payson, Phil Sapiro and others.

LOCAL FRESHMEN LOSE TO FULLERTON

The local Freshmen lost to the Fullerton Freshmen last evening in a field and track meet on the neighborhood oval, to the tune of 62 to 32. With Howe and Holden absent, Anaheim did not have much of a chance to win the meet. The local team took five firsts. The local boys made some good records and another year of practice should develop some stars.

Barnett proved to be the mainstay of the meet, taking first in both the low and high hurdles, first in the discus, and third in the 440. He is cut out for a star and great things are to be expected from him in his third and fourth year.

Dahlman proved to be a winning man, as he took first in the high jump and first in the pole vault.

STREAMS TOO FULL FOR TROUT FISHING

There is yet to be heard any roseate reports of successful trout fishing trips on the opening of the season yesterday. The trouble is too much water in all streams as a result of the heavy snowfall and late spring.

Charles Eygabroad reported that of more than 100 anglers on the San Antonio not a strike was reported. The stream was running bankful and was churned and muddy in marked contrast to the usual clear mountain water that usually greets the opening of the trout season.

MORE BURGLARIES REPORTED HERE

The Gatti Meat Co. and the East Side Grocery were entered last night thru the skylight by a burglar who stole $42 and a ham, it was stated today. The money was taken from the cash register of the Grocery, and the ham of meat from the other place. It is not known how he got out with his spoils. The case was reported to the police, who as yet have been unable to find either the burglar, the money or the meat.

W. J. Heinz reported to the police today that a big Mexican had robbed his house at 525 So. West-street yesterday afternoon in broad daylight, getting away with quite a lot of jewelry as spoils. The things taken included a cameo ring, a cameo necklace, an agate ring, an Elk's pin, with a small diamond and platinum-washed rim; a sorority pin, with "'A." and name "Louise Denton" on the back; a pocket-book and a peri-handled pen knife.

Two of the smaller purses which were in the larger purse stolen from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Narath on No. Lemon-st in the burglary Sunday night were found in the yard of Oscar Conklin, where the burglar had evidently thrown them. They contained the trunk keys. The tickets to Denver belonging to Mr. Narath's mother were not found.

MORE STREETS ARE OILED THIS YEAR

The growth of the city is seen in the larger areas of streets being oiled and sanded this year against dust than last, according to city officials. Many of the side streets off Center and Los Angeles streets are receiving a coat of the light grade road oil. One coat as a rule is being applied, because most of these thorofares were oiled within the past six months. The nature of the pavement and the soil and extent of usage determine whether one coat or two is applied.

HEAVY VOTING IN HOOSIER ELECTION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 2.—Rain threatened over Indiana today as the final mad scramble for votes begin in the most spectacular primary battle in Hoosier history.

A half million voters went to the polls to decide whether a vote of confidence should be given President Harding by renominating his close friend and loyal supporter, Harry S. New, as Republican candidate for U. S. senator.

Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, chairman of the Progressive convention in Chicago, and always identified with the progressive element in Indiana politics, is seeking the toga of Senator New.

Red and his Angels have not been setting the world afire in the art of baseball, so they jumped on the umpire to create some notoriety.

Umpires are human, and are subject to making mistakes, but what good does it do for a ball player to raise a rumpus over a decision.

An umpire will not change his decision on balls and strikes and very seldom on other plays, yet some players will haggle and kick on every close decision. And there is a certain rough neck element in every gathering of fans that will join in and enjoy the poor sportsmanship of umpire baiting.

In other walks of life we find the same class, knockers and kickers on every decision that does not especially favor them. Any cheap skate can criticize but it takes a man to take an adverse decision and make the better of it.

We like to see a ball team or any one stand up for a square deal, but we also love to watch a man big enough to not fuss and fume over things that are not just to his liking.

As ever—SARGUM SPROUT.

NEWS OF FULLERTON

VACATIONS WILL BE PULPIT THEME

Rev. J. T. Houser announced before the Bible Class at the Rialto theatre Sunday morning, and also at the church, that he had arranged a series of four Sunday evenings in which various vocational callings are to be represented. This program is for the benefit of the junior college and high school students. He said that so many boys and girls were wondering, especially at this time, which vocation to choose and follow in life, and it is his purpose to help them in this decision by having the leading business and professional men state briefly the challenge of each vocation. On Sunday night he has arranged for the presentment of medicine, nursing, and civil engineering. On the following Sunday evening, dentistry, architectural drawing and ranching is to be presented. The third night, the legal profession, business and teaching will have its innings. The fourth night will be the challenge of the ministry. It is expected that hundreds of students, together with interested fathers and mothers will be present at all of these sessions.

HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. Warren Douglas of East Union-ave was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon on Saturday afternoon. The guests were invited to surprise Miss Gladys Julian on her birthday, and the surprise was complete. The table was beautifully decorated in May day attire, with a large May day basket filled with spring flowers in the center of the table from which ran ribbon streams in the pastel shades, to minature May day baskets filled with flowers in like shades attached to the guests plates. It seems there was to be more than one surprise in store for the guests; for a secret was revealed in a nut shell hid in the birthday cake which announced the engagement of Miss Beulah M. Todd to John C. Kryder, Miss Todd is a well-known and much loved young lady whose home is in Selma, who has been teaching in the west side grammar school in Fullerton during the past year. The program will consist of quartettes, trios, duets and solos. The Boys' Glee club of Anaheim will sing several selections.

BIG PIANO MAKERS ANAHEIM VISITORS

The heads o the biggest manufacturers of pianos in the country, President E. H. Story and Vice President F. F. Story of the Story & Clark Piano Co., with headquarters in Chicago, were here today on an auual trip.

Incidentally they received an order for four carloads of pianos from the Dana Piano Co., an order which would be considerable, as E. H. Story said, for a store in any city.

The father of the two men is H. L. Story of Altadena, who with E. S. Babcock, another pioneer, bought the rights of way for the Santa Fe railway and built the Hotel del Coronado. They sold a large portion of their land to Claus Spreckels, sugar magnate and leading San Diegan. H. L. Story has made his home in So. Calif. for the last 40 years.

President Story remarked on the progres sof Anaheim since his visit of a year ago, particularly on West Center-st west of Lemon. He said he could hardly believe his eyes, when he noticed the growth of the city.

The piano company's business on the Pacific slope, particularly in So. Calif. has reflected business conditions here very clearly, said the concern's head. Depressed conditions in the East found no parallel out here, and even in the last few months a different atmosphere has been evident here.

The company is steadily increasing its output and forces. This year from 18,000 to 20,000 pianos, upright and grand, player pianos and reproducing pianos will be turned out by the concern's 1600 employes. Large additions are being made to the company's big factory on Lake Michigan opposite Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDavid entertained with a family dinner on Sunday which was served cafeteria style and much enjoyed. Guests included Mrs. McDavid's mother, Mrs. Barton, of Los Angeles, and son, Burke, Mrs. T. T. Thomson, son and daughter, Mr. A. W. Klinger all of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Ireland of Baldwin Park. Mrs. Ireland and Mrs. Thomson are sisters of Mrs. McDavid and Mr. Klinger is an uncle. All enjoyed very much inspecting the beautiful presents of Mr. and Mrs. McDavid's daughter, Ruth, whose wedding to Donald Munger was an event of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conley spent Sunday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Anna Hennessy spent Sunday with her sister in the Angel City.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Allman was held Saturday morning at the Methodist church in Fullerton. The mass of wonderful flowers was a mute testimony of the love her friends bore her. Of a quiet retiring nature Mrs. Allman had resided here more than ten years and had made but a few friends who were very close to her. Dr. and Mrs. Allman came to California from the lakes of Wisconsin for the former's health. Three years later Dr. Allman passed away leaving the widow and a son, and the latter died ten years ago. Mrs. Allman was slightly past 70 years of age but here mind remained youthful and she was so in sympathy with young people that she counted a great number among her friends who deeply feel her loss.

Cremation services were held in Los Angeles. A sister, Mrs. Burns, of Persia, Iowa, arrived with Mr. Burns in time for the funeral services.
