STORES OPEN NEXT THREE EVENINGS

Santa Claus Unusually Busy in Anaheim This Week

Santa Claus is having a busy time these days in Anaheim's stores, and he'll have a busier time yet tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, when the stores will be open evenings. He is buying close to the homes he will visit, and practical articles are most in his favor.

The rainy period has helped trade here a good deal this year. It has deterred folks from going to Los Angeles and it has given growers from $25 to $50 more to spend—saved on irrigation—which in most cases is found worth considering. Local store owners declare that women have returned from Los Angeles exhausted with pushing thru the crowds and empty-handed, only to purchase here.

The number of new articles, particularly for feminine use, on sale this season is astonishing. Milady can purchase handsome fur-trimmed collars — Berthas — to put on her gown. Jet trimmings have come back after years of oblivion. Drop ear rings, instead of the tiny pearl bits, are in vogue. Vanity bags and purses, trimmed to match gowns, are in a more bewildering array than ever before; and the tiny electric lights in them are not so old as to be without their novelty. Brushed wool sweaters are here in force with scarfs and hats to match. Also milady has taken unto herself the colored handkerchief, long mere man's favorite. Big buckles for feminine shoes may be purchased, particularly for colonial pumps.

For Him, colors in hats and coats are lighter. Shirts are in neater, more conservative patterns and not too gaudy or loud, the next summer may tell a different story. Narrow instead of broad stripes prevail.

Scratch felts and velours are popular in hats. Belts are worn as much as ever. Silk shirts are in strong holiday demand.

Diagonal stripes and bigger sizes are the thing in ties. Silk and silk and wool mixed continue to attract trade.

Men's suits are less extreme, the form fitting feature is less pronounced and belts are part of the suit instead of in separate piece. Materials are excellent, far better than a year ago, and values are higher.

Shoes are being offered in greater variety than ever before, especially for the ladies, and styles appear to be making up for the change to lower skirts and more conservative hosiery. Many of these shoes are real works of art, and manufacturers of ladies' ready to wear have taken special pains to produce gowns in keeping.

Toys show the usual increase in variety over previous years. The toy auto, comparatively new, this year, is seen in brighter colors, if anything, with "accessories" and fixtures in not so evidence a year ago. Mechanical toys of all kinds are more ingenious than ever, and a lot more durable.

For the girl, dolls are as popular as ever and without being less beautiful, are made to withstand harder treatment. Picture books, dishes, blocks, doll buggies—they are all on hand and if possible prettier than ever.

The lines of musical instruments, particularly graphophones and piano appliances, never have been in more beautiful forms, more nearly adornments as well as sources of amusement for the home. And prices are much more reasonable than they have been in past years.

It is estimated that about 75 per cent of the holiday shopping has been done up to today. The percentage would have been greater, it is thought, had the weather last week been more generous to shoppers. The inclement weather last week has forced shopping into the present week with tremendous impetus. This condition prevails throughout So. Calif. A local merchant stated today that he was compelled to go to Los Angeles wholesale houses to replenish his stock Mon[illegible] the streets were so crowded it was impossible to park his car a block from the business center. He also stated that in the retail section, it was hardly possible to navigate through the streets and the stores were crowded to the maximum.

The holiday shopping in Anaheim this year has been greater than ever, according to the merchants, all of whom declare that the "shop early" slogan, so long disregarded, is beginning to reap results. With co-operation, by adding extra help, of the merchants, Anaheim and suburban shoppers have received excellent service.

The Mitchells, who own the valuable building at the southwest corner of Center and Los Angeles-sts. were so taken with the growth of Anaheim during their sojourn abroad that they announced to real estate men here they would no longer defer improvement of their property on the southside of Center-st between Lemon and Clementine-sts. They own 66 feet between the old and new Peck Hardware stores. A modern brick building is planned.

They stated they enjoyed very reasonable living conditions in Germany, the two of them being able to put up at a good hotel for 90 cents a day for room and meals, because of the difference in exchange.

WHAT SHALL SANTA CLAUS' GIRTH BE?

Community Xmas Tree Committee Must Know at Once

Wanted: Some one to tell the Community Christmas tree workers what Santa Claus is going to look like this year. For Santa has a way of showing different girths some years than others; and we have even heard it said he was taller some Christmases than others. The general committee must know in advance, and would like somebody to tell them.

Meanwhile Santa has enlisted the aid of a lot of ladies and gentlemen here. Miss Ruth Grimm, for instance, has set out to make or have made 1,000 stockings, ready for Santa and his helpers, headed by Mrs. H. H. Benjamin, to fill. The P.-T. A. has furnished 100 of them already.

The Business and Professional Women's club is popping corn to decorate the tree with—10 pounds already has been popped.

E. A. Beard, chairman of the finance committee, reports that donations have been coming in an encouraging manner.

The tree arrived today, and it's a beauty. There may be bigger trees in the northwest than this 30-foot Oregon pine, but never a prettier, we are positive. Anaheim post of the American Legion will plant it, the city will decorate it with colored electric lights, and apples, candy, oranges, etc. already have been donated in quantity to put upon it. H. C. Sampson is chairman of the Legion committee. The city gave many boxes of oranges from its own groves.

Mayor William Stark plans before another year rolls round to plant a tree and have it used permanently. A live Christmas tree!

Chairman T. L. DeCew of the general committee, in announcing a meeting of the committees tonight at his garage, 111-119 North Lemon st, said that he was trying to arrange a surprise novelty in the shape of an entertainment appropriate to the occasion. DeCew voiced his regret at the committee's being obliged to select a church meeting night, but said he hoped they would be pardoned in view of the fact that the greatest of the church festivals was to be observed.

Commenting on the way everybody was co-operating, DeCew said: "Everyone has worked so enthusiastically that it has been one continuous pleasure to be active on this committee. The Yuletide spirit has existed all along, and was only awaiting voice. The public has co-operated as spontaneously as have the actual workers."

NEED $100,000 TO PROTECT ORANGES

One hundred thousand dollars larger appropriation will be necessary in 1923 from the State properly to protect the citrus industry against the entrance of various pests from which it is now practically immune, A. A. Brock, county horticultural commissioner said today. So. Calif. citrus fruit crops are menaced by the Florida crops; Mexican orange maggot, Mexican bean beetle and Mediterranean fruit fly.

Lee A. Strong, head of the bureau of quarantine of the state department of agriculture, seeks the larger sum, and owing to Governor-elect Fredn W. Richardson's economy program, may have difficulty in getting it.

Fifteen inspectors are required because of the new Honolulu-Los Angeles steamship line alone, Brock said. Autos coming into the State thru points of entry in Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial and other counties are bringing various pests. Blythe, Daggett and Yuma are among the worst points of entry.

Last year the bureaus of pest control and standardization turned over considerable parts of their appropriations to have the work of the quarantine bureau properly carried on, said Brock.

While Orange co cannot legally make an appropriation for work outside the county, it is vitally interested in the State's providing a suitable fund, said Brock, to protect its agricultural industries.

BIG JUMP IN JUVENILE CASES

On the eve of his annual report, County Prohibition Officer R. R. Miller declared today that the number of juvenile wards whose cases have been looked after by the county this calendar year will show an increase of 33 1-2 per cent over last year. The county's jump in population is largely the cause, Miller added.

Roughly 355 new cases will have been handled this year compared with 291 last, Miller declared. Of this roughly 25 per cent are adults.

The juvenile committee will hold its annual meeting next Tuesday and make its recommendations to the Grand Jury and to the State legislators, respectively. The former will be shown the need of the new juvenile home and the latter the need of new laws or amendments to make its operation facile.

The new county home, to cost approximately $25.000, will really be the first the county will have had, said Miller. The present juvenile commissioner is a temporary clearing house, the Probation Officer explained, while the new one will contain "permanent" wards, who will be given ordinary schooling etc. At present more than 200 youngsters are in State institutions.

TRY TO LINK ALLEGED BANDITS WITH PHILLIPS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 220.—Two big robberies, by which they expected to steal at least $500,000, were planned by the Jenks Harris alleged bandit gang, arrested for the robbery of the Fillmore State bank at Piru, deputy sheriffs disclosed today.

The gang planned to rob the United States navy payrool when it was transferred from a Los Angeles bank to the naval headquarters at San Pedro today, and to hold up the Standard Oil payroll messengers at El Segundo, the deputies said.

According to information given out at the sheriff's office, the gang was to have divided into two squads and, after committing the two robberies, reassemble for flight into Mexico. The navy payroll amounts to several hundred thousand dollars.

Efforts to link the gang with a score of holdups during the past year, including two other bank "jobs" and with the sensational escape of Clara Phillips from the county jail were made by deputy sheriffs today.

Harris and the four men arrested with him were lined up for identification by 12 persons as the bandits who robbed the Walnut Park and Huntington Park banks and several street car crews.

The discovery that one of the gang is an aviator owning an airplane and the gang's spectacular way of committing crime, caused the deputy sheriffs to launch an investigation to ascertain if the men under arrest may have aided Mrs. Phillips to escape from jail. The plane, deputies said, may have been used to carry the "tiger woman" to Mexico.

The five men under arrest are:

Henry Loggins, Pacific Electric motorman.

G. H. Pruitt, who lived at Loggins' home.

F. H. Gillett, motion picture "extra," owner of the automobile used by the gang.

DELPHIAN STUDY INCLUDES TOPICS OLD AND RECENT

UNUSUAL enthusiasm and interest were displayed at yesterday's meeting of the Delphian society in their text report on Babylonia and Assyria. Acknowledging that these reports sometimes seem tedious, they mean the foundation of future study, and for that reason are important. The first year is considered the period of training which is essential to impress ideas of early civilization, the corner stone, as it were, for the coming study. The review of "Babbitt," by Mrs. Leo Sheridan, held the undivided attention of the club, as her comments and style ideas were splendidly presented. The play of the month, "Rur," as given by Mrs. R. W. Balch, was exhaustive in review. From the pen of a Bohemian author of unusual education and culture, the play is winning fame in New York where it is being presented in the Garrick theatre.

Current events were presented by the president, Mrs. H. H. Benjamin, who gave particular attention to the recent visit of George Clemenceau, reparations and national indebtedness action, pro and con comments on the defeated bonus bill, the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill and the discussed Cable Curtis bill pertaining to naturalization and citizenship of women.

Mrs. Schiller's able summary on Babylonia and Assyria concluded the program and gave an excellent completion to the text.

Mrs. C. E. Harbeson, who seemed at her best, sang "Silent Night, Holy Night," with Mrs. Ruth Seitz accompanying at the piano.

The society entertained two guests, Mrs. S. C. Hartranft, supervisor, and Mar. J. W. Newell, president, of the Fullerton Delphian society.

Four Year Tot's Party

Helen Ruth Tobin, was four years old yesterday and to make the event more happy she invited eight of her friends in for the afternoon. Guests of Miss Helen were the Misses Barbara Phillips, Barbara Jackman, Ruth Cathon Poore, Cecil Bee Sutton, Bernadette Tucker, Amy Fergus, Florence and Phyllis Archer. A number of mothers and friends accompanied the youngsters who were Mrs. Page Tucker, Mrs. N. Fergus, Mrs. N. M. Durkee and Mrs. Williams, and grandmother Tobin, passed the afternoon with Mrs. Tobin.

Cantata Sunday Night

The final rehearsal for the Sunday music which will feature the Presbyterial services, will be held Saturday evening in the church. The regular quartet is assisted by Mrs. Walter Ross and Mr. Donald Walker in singing the cantata, "The Holy Night," by Ashford, which occurs Sunday evening. Lighted only by the flickering glow of 14 cathedral candles, in tall gilded holders, the effect will be wonderously beautiful, furthered by the elaborate decorations of greenery, Christmas flowers and golden stars. The cantata is under the direction of Dale Hamilton Evans, who also is organist.

The offertory solo in the morning will be sung by Mr. Waugh and in the evening by Donald Walker. In the morning, two choruses from "The Coming of the King," Dudley Buck, will feature the service.

Christmas Party for Six

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hamilton Evans extended the hospitality of their home last evening to the quartet choir of the Presbyterian church entertaining with a Christmas party. With music, both in conversation and execution, the evening was happily passed.

Later the guests were invited into the dining room where covers were laid at a prettily appointed table. Centered with poinsettias, hung with red and green garlands, from a suspended lighting fixture, and brightened with gold stars placed to advantage, the charm was complete. The guests included the Misses Alice Grim, Elizabeth Walker, and Messrs Maurice C. Waugh and William Askin, who, with the host and hostess made a jolly sextet.

OLIVE TEACHER IS GIVEN FORD SEDAN

A. W. Schmidt and family, of Olive, are happy indeed over the gift which they have already received, apparently from Santa Claus, for a nice new Ford sedan was mysteriously driven into the Schmidt drive and abandoned, the only identification being the disk showing the purchase had been made from a nearby Ford agency.

Investigation proved that friends of Mr. Schmidt, who is instructor of the lutheran parochial school in Olive, had presented the Ford as a mark of their appreciation. Rev. Theiss, pastor of the Olive Lutheran church, was similarly honored about two years ago by members of his congregation.

AD SANTEL STILL WRESTLING CHAMP

(By Sargum Sprout)

Ad Santel is still light heavyweight champion of the world, having won last night's match with Roy Mabee in two straightfalls.

Roy Mabee is still our pride. He went down to noble defeat. He lacked the difference in weight, the 11 or 12 pounds of muscle which represents considerable power and strength. Roy had the speed and was on top his man most of the time for the first hour and fifteen minutes.

Mabee started right after Santel, going to the mat in the first seconds and securing a half nelson that worried Santel considerable before the hold was broken. For the first 30 minutes Roy punished Ad time and again with double wrist locks and half nelsons.

Ad rolled Roy into a double arm scissors in the 33rd minute.

This particular hold is one of Ad's own pets and is very seldom broken. Roy broke it in less than two minutes. Pudillo was unable to break it at all. Roy broke another of the same holds in the 70th minute.

Roy's best chance for a full came at about the 60th minute when he clamped on a head scissors. Ad was barely able to break loose. Ad secured an arm key soon after Roy had escaped the last double arm scissors, which took Roy some time to break and which weakened him greatly. A few seconds later Ad secured another arm key which Roy was unable to break, the fall coming in 1 hr. 30 mi. 52 sec.

Some time in the first hour Roy had received a fracture to a rib and during the rest between falls this began to pain and become sore.

Roy came back game. His speed and wind was still good but his strength was ebbing. At that he led Ad a merry chase for 17 minutes and had the champion fighting for dear life. Roy had a body scissors and was working when, with a great effort Santel twisted free catching Roy in an awkward position. Santel was able to apply a cradle hold that brought one of the greatest wrestling matches to close. The last fall was gained in 17 min. 37 sec.

Santel has this to say: "Roy Mabee is the toughest man of his weight I ever wrestled. He is fighting all the time, you never know what he is going to do next. And I want to say that he is the cleanest wrestler I ever met and is a real gentleman. He would be foolish to quit the game just because I beat him. I am the best man in the world. It is gentlemen like Roy Mabee that we want in the game, to bring wrestling up to a high standard where it should be."

Roy has this to say: "I now know why Ad Santel is a champion. I did my best, that is all I could do."

Anyway, it was the best, cleanest match yet staged in Anaheim. Roy went down to glorious defeat, and we believe he is the greatest man of his weight of today.

Howard Hill and Chas. Quigley put on another whale of a preliminary, Quigley is just a little better than Hill and won in two straight falls. The first was the result of a body lock and toe hold in 28 minutes, the second fall came by a head scissors in 8 minutes 21 seconds.

ANCIENT CASABA ENEMIES MEET FRI.

Anaheim's first squad basketball shooters meet the fast Orange quintet in the local gym Friday evening. The other battle of the evening will be the midget scramble between Huntington Beach and Coach Ray Elliott's babes. The Anaheim fleaweights won them several nights ago and wish for the same luck again.

Last year, Anaheim was defeated by Orange to the tune of 29 to 12. Dopsters have it figured out the score should be reversed Friday night. Coach Elliott and Capt. Dana Newkirk have been constantly drilling the basket ball stars. Art Mann, one of the most dependable men on the team, will be out of the game this year, owing to an injured knee.

The probable line-ups:

Anaheim—Forwards, Ross and Pohlmann, center, Wallace; Guards, Hile and Newkirk and Kolb.

Orange—Forwards, Thompson and Smith; center, Thompson; Guards, Jones and Brubaker.

Anaheim 110-pound players: Jayne, Bastian and Lewis; sub, center, Utter; guards, Giss and Callor.

Giss was the speedy little demon of the football squad and is expected to do some brilliant work during the casaba season.

CHANGE PREAMBLE OF CONSTITUTION

The "Christian Amendment," Rev. J. H. Leeper, of Anaheim calls attention, changes the preamble of the constitution of the United States to acknowledge Almighty God, Jesus Christ and the Bible and has been memorialized to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church to meet in Buffalo in May, by the United Presbyterian Presbytery of Los Angeles, a subordinate court of the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church is requested to appoint a committee with instructions to ask congress to submit to a vote of the state legislatures an amendment changing the preamble of the constitution to read as follows:

"We the people of the United States, acknowledging Almighty God as the Source of all authority, the Lord Jesus Christ as Universal Ruler, and His inspired word, the Bible, as the basis of all just law."

Other church courts are invited to join in the movement.

ARTHUR FLETCHER NOW MANAGER OF PHILLIES

Arthur Fletcher, shortstop, is now Arthur Fletcher, manager. Most of Fletcher's brilliant work was done for the New York Giants. He went to them from the Texas League, and made good at once. With Chatley Herzog, Tillie Shafer, and Larry Doyle, he made history in the Giant infield for almost a decade. He was the captain of McGraw's team for years, and played through four world's series before he was finally traded to Philadelphia for Dave Bancroft.

ONLY ONE WILD-CAT WELL LOOKS GOOD

(With Oil Operators)

Aside from one section of So. Calif. none of the dozen or more wild cat wells now drilling are looking encouraging. The showing the Cal-Petro Oil Producers Syndicate got at Bellflower seems to put this field at the head of the list for a future field. The Union Oil Co.'s Downey Community is now at 4600 feet drilling in conglomerate, the outlook not being at all promising. Drilling has been suspended by the Standard Oil Co. at Buena Park. While there is not official announcement that the well will be abandoned it is the general concession of opinion that there is nothing there. In the Bixby Hills the National Security has 4450 feet of hole drilled, and some recent showing are lending encouragement to production within the next 100 feet.

The Fairview Oil Company has decided to spend no more time fishing and will sidetrack the tools lost at 4088 and go ahead. The Fairview Oil company has had some very good showings and there is little doubt about this company presenting Southern California with a new field.

The chief concern in the field of wild cats now is the Seal Beach Oil Co. Drilling has passed the 4500 foot mark and aside from shale showings and gas there has been nothing very strong. Opinion is divided on the outcome of Seal Beach. The drilling is getting down to a point where something will be showing one way or the other pretty soon. The Seal Beach Oil company deserves a well for its pioneering work and may get its reward.

LADY ASTOR CLASHES WITH LABOR LEADER

LONDON, Dec. 20.—"Lloyd George won the war!" shouted Lady Nancy Astor, American-born member of parliament, when a Laborite in the house of commons accused the former premier of leading France to believe that she could recover the whole cost of war from Germany.

"It's a good thing he didn't win you," retorted the Laborite pointing his finger at Lady Astor.

Lloyd George previously stated he had approved of the reparations policy of Britain as outlined by Premier Bonar Law.

EASTERN "EXPERTS" PREDICT PENN WILL LOSE TO TROJANS

For the first time in the history of sectional football, the East is admitting the West may capture a gridiron struggle, for word from New York today was to the effect U. S. C. should score a victory over Penn State when the two clevens tangle at Pasadena, Jan. 1.

Critics from the East, following the departure of the Nittany Lions for the Pacific Coast last night, declared that Hugo Bezdek was taking his pigskinners a long way to receive a neat trimming.

Defeat of Pennsylvania, Ohio State and Brown in East vs. West affairs may have changed the minds of football followers in the East. But, it is the general opinion in So. Cal. football circles that statements to the effect the Trojans will win over the Nittany Lions are merely preliminaries to the old oil, "State didn't have the class to win."

When Penn State was defeated by Pittsburg in one of the closing struggles of the season word came West from Philadelphia to the effect Bezdek was foolish to take such a weak team to So. Cal. to face the assault of a machine which had held the wonder outfit of U. of C. to a 12 to 0 score.

But, it is evident that Bezdek knows his business and it would not be surprising if his squad would be one of the most powerful in the country when it takes the field against the Cardinal and Gold.

Inexperience probably kept the State squad from beating Pittsburg, Pennsylvania and the Navy. Since these defeats, the veteran mentor has remoulded his machine and if reports from the little Eastern college town may be taken into consideration the lineup shift has worked wonders.

West Virginia, one of the five undefeated elevens in the Far East this year, which will arrive in this section Friday for their contest against Gonzaga at San Diego on Christmas afternoon, is another aggregation which started from its home town with a wonderful record only to have reports come from other sections to the effect the team had been badly overrated during the season.

However, football records for the past season show the mountaineers to be one of the classiest scoring machines in the entire country. Any grid fan will admit it takes more than a reputation to win contests.

Gonzaga's true strength is unknown in this section, but those who have witnessed games in which the Washington outfit showed declare the team to be an exceptionally well balanced aggregation.

Statements to the effect the school would be easy pickings for West

SWAT PALACE DARK UNTIL AFTER XMAS

(By Sargum Sprout)

Manager Billy Darnley is going to leave the old swat palace dark this week so that everyone may attend the city Xmas tree. The fight emporium has not been paying dividens as it should and Darnley expects to make several changes in the management when it reopens after the holidays.

The night may be changed from Friday to Thursday. Darnley has been playing good talent but somehow Anaheimers have not been inoculated with the fight bug just right to make for a good and paying attendance.

DAILY GREETINGS TO OUR READERS

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?—George Eliot.

Worry kills tens of thousands where disease kills its thousands.

The busiest one in the hive these days, is the Presidential bee.

Obedience to law is the only course consistent with good citizenship.

Do not say "Merry Christmas!" to anyone unless you really mean it.

Lack of exercise in the open air shortens the life of many a person.

The busiest person in the United States today? Santa Claus, of course.

The United States has kept itself from moral bankruptcy, at all times.

The keynote of Christmas giving should be unselfishness, sincerity and good will.

About the only hope left to the baffled officers is that Clara Phillips will take a notion to break back into jail.

President Obregon is making an excellent record in Mexico which should be recognized on this side of the border.

The Astoria of five years hence will be a much better-built city than was the Astoria of a few weeks ago, before the big fire.

The best business methods should prevail in government. But sometimes it seems, in government circles, that the very worst business methods are pursued.

The pedestrian should be as careful in traffic as he or she expects the driver of an automobile to be. The Golden Rule should dominate both pedestrians and drivers.

The United States will be more disposed to help Europe when Europe lays aside its war-breeding intrigues and proceeds to help itself in the arts of peace, to the utmost of its abilities.

Modern life is too complex. These complexities break nervous systems and make wrecks of men and women. There would be more happiness—more real living—if men and women lived simply.

The United States should not and will not entangle itself in the domestic political broils of Europe. But it is ready to lend its moral influence to the pacification and tranquillization of Europe and to its economic rehabilitation.

FUTURE OF MR. WILSON IS OF INTEREST

Dissolving of the law partnership between Woodrow Wilson and Bainbridge Colby, former Secretary of State, is of absorbing interest to the country and gives rise to much conjecture as to the future of the former president. Mr. Colby, in announcing the severance of partnership relations, said that Mr. Wilson "is turning his energies once more to subjects which have long invited him." Many construe this as meaning that Mr. Wilson is to re-enter politics actively and possibly seek the presidential nomination in 1924, or else be the Democratic Warwick to dominate the nomination for the presidency. Mr. Wilson's health has improved much of late, so that he walks about the streets of Washington supported only by his cane. He may feel that his physical recovery is sufficiently pronounced to admit of his re-entrance actively into the arena of politics.

But this political conjecture may be all wrong. The "subjects which long have invited" Mr. Wilson may be literary. He may be planning to set himself to the work of writing his memoirs, and other writings bearing upon the World War period and upon Mr. Wilson's services in the Presidency. Many of the admirers of Mr. Wilson hope that he is planning to write. For his memoirs would constitute an invaluable addition to historical literature.

VOLUME OF BUILDING IS ENORMOUS

The volume of building throughout the United States is enormous and is increasing. According to Bradstreet's, the total of building in 181 cities for November—a short month, with a holiday—was more than $205,000,000. This is but a fraction of the country's total, it should be remembered, as this covers only 181 cities, and not the whole United States. Perhaps a grand total of $300,000,000 is represented monthly in building construction in the United States. This means more than $3,000,000,000 annually expended in new building in this country.

The world has never witnessed such volume of construction as has been registered in the United States in the last three years. Besides the stupendous amount of building required normally to meet the needs of the constantly increasing population of the United States, there is the deficiency of construction of World War years to be met—a period when the shortage of housing in this country became very pronounced. It is evident that this dearth of housing has not been overcome wholly, even though there has been feverish activity in building all over the country for the last three years. Building will continue in huge volume for an indefinite period, from present indications.

UNDERPAID PROFESSORS
New York Evening Post

The proposal of Columbia's committee on education to create ten professional chairs at $10,000 a year and twenty-five at $7500 may find a place in future histories of university education beside the decision of President Harper, when Chicago University was opened, in the early '90s, to pay $6000 to some professors. Few college presidents in America have received $10,000. The General Education Board last year published a report covering 259 endowed colleges—and universities with 8540 the general salary level to be still deplorably low. It stated that only 92 teachers, or 1.1 per cent of the whole body, were receiving more than $6000. In fact, salaries above $5000 were so few that only 2.6 per cent rejoiced in them. So far as mere grinding hardship goes, it has not been the upper salary scales which needed attention All the many voices of academic complaint have agreed that the pinch is worst for the instructors and assistant professors, trying to found homes and rear families on incomes that are pitifully meager. But the situation as a whole just after the war was so bad that Mr. Rockefeller gave $50,000,000 in 1919 to the General Education Board, with a request that in using it special attention be paid to salary increases; and everywhere universities have been trying to increase the higher salaries a little and the lower salaries a great deal.

The return of the Speejacks, the smallest power yacht to have circumvigated the globe, calls attention to the great decline in ocean yachting during the past ten years. The largest yacht built this year was 180 feet and the building of any at all has fallen far below that of former years. The wellknown h.c.l. and high taxes partially account for this, and the development of "super-yachting" has been a factor. Great ships are being chartered by corporations and are sent on cruises of a luxury that the best of the private "floating palaces" could not equal. The cruise of the private yacht is limited to a small group besides the owner's family and there is almost too much responsibility upon the hosts for their complete enjoyment. The passenger list on a "superyaching" cruise reads like the Social Register, and other shoulders carry the burdens. Such a cruise will start from here in February on the big Mauretania, sailing to the Mediterranean, under the auspices of the American Express Company, in which all responsibility of the yachtman is eliminated. Specialists aid him at every point. He cruises in a floating palace filled with people like himself; without responsibility, and with every want foreseen. That's what modern days demand.

Down on Long Island is a touch of real Europe, Europe of the farms instead of its cosmopolitan cities. A truck farmer has rebuilt an old farm house, keeping part of it for himself and part for his horses. The nags, poking their heads out of the half doors of the stable, can reach into the kitchen for apples or a lump of sugar.

Theatrical producers are considering a plan of establishing a central distributing organization, with offices in various parts of the city, where tickets to all productions may be bought at a 30 per cent increase over the box office price. The plan is intended to give the same convenience to purchasers that the present ticket brokers do, without making possible ticket speculation.

"For to behold and for to see"—Kipling would have understood Mathew Fleming, Jr., aged nine, who left his home on West Fiftieth street the other day and took a 1000 mile journey all by himself, during the following three days. Mathew didn't get so very far from home, at that. He spent the entire time in L trains on Manhattan, all at the cost of one dollar—including peanuts bought for sustenance. His family was terribly alarmed, of course, and it was thru their search that his trip was ended. "I seen lots of things" was Mathew's explanation of the trip.

RECORD PRODUCTION FOR GREAT DEPTH

(With Oil Operators)

Huntington Beach stepped into the lime light last week when the Amalgamated Oil Co. brought in a well that for produtcion and depth has no equal anywhere in the world. The world record well was brought in at Miley-Keck No. 5 when a 4942 foot well came in at 2500 barrels, producing 27 gravity oil. This new wonder well of Southern California is flowing thru a 28-32 bean and is under a pressure of 650 pounds. In this well the longest oil string set inside of a water string was accomplished, and done without injury to the water string or encountering any difficulty. The first showings of oil were struck soon after the 8 1-4 was set at 3688, and continued with hardly a break to 4942 feet. It required 987 feet of slotted pipe to take care of the oil bearing sand. The big well is located the furthest out on the structure and proves up five other wells for the Amalgamated namely, Pearce 2, 3, 4, Fowler 5 and Dennison No. 2. This means that all the Amalgamated will have to do to get five more big wells is to run them down to the 5000 foot mark and bring them in.

Huntington Signal, a company that started at Huntington Beach in the boom days, is now the possessor of a 2000-bbl well. The Huntington Signal's well at 3500 proved a small producer making considerable water. The drilling of the well to 4392 resulted in something worth while and illustrates again the possibilities the Huntington Beach field has for deep sand production.

R. W. Edens and the Orange County Frilling Co. is coming back to the place from which they started. Last week R. W. Edens closed a deal for the properties and holdings of the Hurst Oil Syndicate. The deal carries with it extensive holdings and puts the Orange County Drilling Co. in a position to get some of the deep production of the field that is making Huntington Beach famous.

E. G. Lewis is doing a unique piece of work at Huntington Beach. The Palos Verdes manager has taken over the lease formerly held by the General Petroleum known as Community No. 1, has a rig erected over the old hole drilled to 4400 feet and is about ready to start drilling. Mr. Lewis believes the General Petroleum stopped a few hundred feet from the top of the sand and his work will be watched with more than passing interest.

POLITE PIG DOESN'T FEED UNTIL ORDERED

YORK, S. C., Dec. 19.—"Piggy Boy," a 300-pound pig, is a pet of John S. Hafiness, a banker, living at Sharon, a small town near here.

"Piggy Boy" is different from most pigs in that he doesn't attempt to put his nose into the bucket when he sees his master approaching with food. He runs to his pen and is ready for the food when it is poured into the trough. "Piggy Boy's" best chum among the animals in the Hartness barnyard is a cow. He sleeps every night with the cow, whose sides serves him as a pillow.

GAINT SWITCH RACK IN KATELLA PLANT

The second largest switch rack in So. Cal. now is being constructed at the Katella sub-station, to be in operation by Jan. 1. It will have a capacity of 60,000 volts, compared with the present 10,000 volts, and will be surpassed only by the monstrous new sub-station of Laguna-Bell now being built. The latter is the principal transformer for the Eagle Rock hydro-electric producing plant.

These racks are constructed out of doors for safety's sake.

The indoor current will be accomodated on a switch bus.

Much of the work of connecting up the sub-station with the station of Laguna-Bell is completed, and plans now are being considered of doubling the capacity of the former copper cables, in addition to stringing the new lines.

The service furnished by the South California Edison Company to Anaheim and most of Orange County as far as Capistrano, will be much im-

DISAVOWS PRESIDENTIAL BEE

Samuel M. Ralston, Democratic Senator-elect from Indiana who defeated Albert J. Beveridge in the November election, arriving in the Capital disavows any Presidential aspirations. There has been a great deal of talk in political circles recently over the availability of Governor Ralston in 1924. "I'm not a candidate for President nor am I intending to be one," said Governor Ralston. $300 FINES FOR ARRESTS IN RAID

Fines of $300 each were bestowed by City Recorder W. W. Heathman on those caught in Saturday-night's raids in Santa Ana and Newport Beach and found guilty of selling liquor. The Pitts brothers of both cities were the principal victims. The others were accused of vagrancy and other misdemeanors.

ELOPING GIRL ASKS ANNULMENT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19—How she eluded her parents and eloped to Santa Ana with a sailor and was married, only to be met on the street by her partner as she stepped from the train in this city with her youthful husband, was told today on the witness stand by Juanita May Evans, a dainty blonde, who sought an annulment of her marriage to Robert Turner Evans in Judge Summerfield's court. The case was taken under advisement.

FIVE SIGNAL HILL PRODUCERS CEASE

WITH OIL OPERATORS

The Long Beach field was presented with a problem last week when five of the leading and old time producers either quit altogether or dropped below commercial production. The Bush Oil Co., lost its 600 barrel well when its Best No. 3 ceased flowing. This well has been producing at 3250 feet. The General Petroleum's S. C. O. C. O. C. stopped flowing, the well was making 500 barrels and was producing at a depth of 3500 feet. The Hager-Dennison Co. was the third to lose a well. No. 7 on the Owens property at 1040 barrel well at 3400 quit off short. The Henderson Petroleum's Dodge No. 7 a 1700 barrel well was the largest producer of the group that suddenly ceased producing. The sudden stopping of production of these wells is something of a mystery. It is believed by some sand or water or possibly a combination of both is to blame for the sudden stopping of production of the wells.

A. K. Jenkins Union No. 2 is becoming noted for the depth of hard oil sand that has been drilled thru since the 01-in. casing was set. At 2527 the ten inch was plated and from this depth on to 3600 feet the formation has been a very hard oil sand, the sand has been heavily saturated and everything points to another big well for the Jergins Syndicate.

The heaviest loser in last week's catastrophie of oil wells quitting producing at Long Beach was the Marine Oil Corporation. Their No. 4 a 1900 barrel well stopped flowing. The well was completed several months ago at 3620 and has been one of the field's consistent producers.

The Petroleum Midway is making a determined effort to shut off water in Field No. 1 and prove up the north line of the Long Beach field. There seems to be little doubt about the production, but the water has been giving some difficulties. Fields No. 1, 2 and 3 are very deep and it is here that the water is giving the difficulty. Faith in this section of the field is evidenced by the fact that the Petroleum Midway has Fields No. 2 drilling.

The Rice Ranch is about to bring in another nice producer. On a production test well No. 3 at 3534 flowed at the rate of 100 barrels. Rice Ranch No. 1 is cleaning out and some more will probably be made before the well is put on production again. It was tried out at 3665 feet.

The Shell Company added a nice producer to the Long Beach field when Patton-Wilson No. 1 at 3600 feet started off at 1200 barrels. The new producer is making 22 gravity oil.

The Superior Oil Company's Kline No. 1, took on a new complexion when a nice showing of oil was struck at 4500 feet. Up to within a few days ago the well had not exhibited any very promising signs and the good showing relives a lot of anxiety.

Sixty three hundred feet of hole with the rotary is the record the Standard Oil Company has made at Torrance Estate No. 1. Tap is top of the deepest test well ever drilled in So. Calif., and prove up pretty conclusively the entire district between Long Beach and Huntington Beach. Drilling is still going ahead and an exhaustive test will be made before the Standard abandons.

McKEON DRILLING HAMILTON OFF-SET

WITH OIL OPERATORS

On account of the proximity of one of the Santa Fe Springs Syndicate Parkford wells to Hamilton No. 5 at Santa Fe Springs the impression was gained that Hamilton No. 5 had been taken over and would be drilled by the Packford interests. Parkford and the Santa Fe Springs Syndicate have no interest in or connection with Hamilton No. 5. The offset to the famous Hamilton No. 4 will be drilled by the McKeon Drilling Co., the drilling company that made one of the most wonderful records that has ever been made in So. Salif. The financing of Hamilton No. 5 is the hands of the H. L. Bentley Co., a company that has made a reputation for handling and putting on clean and straight deals. The drilling of Hamilton No. 5 will be watched with great interest as there is already speculation as to its becoming the wonder oil producer of the south side section of Santa Fe Springs.

BASTANCHURY CO. PLANS NEW AVENUE

Fullerton trustees last night canvassed returns of the sewer bond election and declared it pased by more than a two-third vote.

A communication was received from the Bastanchurry Ranch Co., relative to a proposed highway parallel to Spadra-rd, running north and south. Trustees will take a tramp over the hills with the city engineer to look things over.

William Reord, city engineer, reported having investigated a culvert under Magnolia-ave., about 1000 feet south of the Buena Park-rd., and pronounced it sufficient when all obstructions are removed.

A resolution was introduced to abandon two alleys and part of Magnolia-ave., between Highland-ave. and Spadra-rd, to eliminate possibilities of accidents when the new railroad is opened.

BUSINESS WOMEN ENJOY XMAS TREE

Fullerton Business Women's Club met last night in the parsonage of the First Christian Church, with 22 present. There was a Christmas tree and one of the ladies impersonated "Santa Claus." The girls gave gifts to each other, and filled candy sacks and apples for the community Christmas tree. Refreshments were served. A constitution was adopted.

FULLERTON MOTOR THIEVERY COMMON

Fullerton police have been unable to find any clue to thieves who ransacked the Frank P. Taggart garage and several tires, wheels, spotlights and fixtures taken. This seems to be a follow up to thefts occuring recently when cars were ransacked near the Masonic Temple.

Such thievery is getting to be a common occurrence in Fullerton and it is thot possible that a band of organized thieves may be at work.

GEN. PET. BRINGS IN 5400-BARREL WELL

WITH OIL OPERATORS

The General Petroleum seems to have no difficulty in bringing the 5000-barrel wells at Santa Fe Springs. The G. P.'s latest success, Santa Fe No. 6, completed at 4650, is making 5400 barrels, 34 gravity oil. On the Springs lease the General Petroleum has completed No. 2 at 3972 and a good producer is looked for. Pipe and mechanical troubles prevented Springs No. 1 from showing its best, and No. 2 will give a real line on the property. In addition to having a daily production in excess of thirty thousand barrels, the General Petroleum has at Santa Fe 7, the greatest oil producer in the West.

The Cecilia Petroluem Company headed by Jack Doyle is to begin the redrilling an deepening of its No. 1. This well was completed some months ago at 3800 feet and has been making approximately 400 barrels. If Mr. Doyle's intention to put the well down to the Meyer sand and get some of big production at Santa Fe Springs.

Your Xmas Seals Help Kiddies Like These

While adult patients infected in childhood are making their fight against Tuberculosis in the Sanatorium, another group far-sighted enough to realize that prevention is better than cure, are making their fight by cheating the grim spectre of tuberculosis. All over California, from San Diego to Marin county, the Christmas seals have supplied the munitions for this fight. These little girls from various sections of the state are preventing their tuberculosis infection from becoming active by the care they are receiving at the Sunshine Preventorium maintained by the California Tuberculosis Association. All of the work in the prevention of tuberculosis is made possible by the sale of Christmas seals.

120 ENJOY KIWANIS CHRISTMAS DINNER

Over 120 Kiwanians and their ladies and guests at the Elks club last night enjoyed an Xmas entertainment and banquet. The program started at 6:30, and for nearly three hours the irons of mirth were kept in the fire.

Pres. Wm. T. Wallop called upon the audience to sing America, and this was followed by an invocation by Rev. Arnold G. H. Bode, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, one of the guests of President Wallop then turned the gavel over to Oscar T. Conklin, who acted as chairman during the program.

Installation of officers, under the direction of Malcolm A. Fraser, was one of the pleasing numbers. The officers who were picked upon for this were President-elect Arthur Beldon McCord, Fred R. Backs, Vice-president elect, H. N. White, director-elect and Homer G. Ames, director-elect.

A continued story by Frank Edmiston was a huge success, and the singing of the male quartet, composed of Wm. Falkenstein, Wm. Sieman, Frank Edmiston and Frank N. Gibbs, led by Roscoe B. Young, was given generous applause.

The star performers of the evening were Eugene M. Durfee and Carl Rohles, whose vocal numbers were wonderfully presented. Such vocal selections are seldom heard in Anaheim. Mr. Durfee was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Hitchcock at the piano, and Mr. Hitchcock, the violin. Mr. Rohles played his accompaniments, and proved that his ability at the piano is almost equal to his wonderful tenor voice.

J. Fred Ahlborn arrived rather late, but received intense attention for a few moments because of his attire. Unlike other Kiwanians, Mr. Ahlborn 'dolled up' in a Prince Albert, cane, monocle and all the added attractions.

Dr. C. S. O'Toole proposed the toast to the ladies, and welcomed them in behalf of the Kiwanians. Dr. O'Toole's effort showed that great thought and intense study had been given the subject. The chair called for a volunteer from among the ladies to respond to the toast, whereupon Mrs. O'Toole finally arose, when it seemed that Dr. O'Toole's efforts were to be "love's labor lost" and cleverly presented the women's point of view.

Mrs. Charles A. Mann was the happy recipient of a beautiful boquet, presented by Joe Collings accompanied by an impressive ceremony before the audience, with variations by Dr. James A. Geissinger. The weekly club gift was won by Roscoe B. Young and presented by Harry Turton, and delayed present was given Mr. Turton by Joseph E. Stroup. This gift, beautifully wrapped in a holiday box was a spring chicken dressed for the occasion.

The serious address on the program was given by Dr. James A. Geissinger, who gave a four-minute talk on the meaning of Kiwanis. The portion of his address rendered before the bell called him to his seat was enjoyed. Rev. Arnold G. H. Bode followed with a short story, which it was brought out, resembled to some degree, the endurance of his sermons.

The concluding number on the program was the grand promenade, when the Anaheim Union High School orchestra accompanied the promenaders and who gave a num- ...of very fine musical selections ...ing the evening.

ORPHEUM TOPLINERS AT THE CALIFORNIA

Anaheimers who are searching for entertaining features which are different are advised to be sure and be on hand at the California theater tomorrow afternoon or evening when one of the finest combination vaudeville and photodrama programs ever brought to this city will be shown for one day only.

A number of exceptionally clever acts stand out strongly on the vaudeville end of the bill. Toplining all of these is the Famous Four Girton Girls, one of the best known Orpheum circuit acts now showing today. These maidens have a very splendid offering, and will undoubtedly prove a big attraction here.

Jack and Viola Gilbert have a riot comedy act entitled "Hokum Corners." Fun runs rampat thruout, and it is a scream. Al Barnes and company have a comedy illusion offering that is entirely different. This act is packed with laughs also, and a pleasure to behold.

Billy Smith, known as "the bear upon the ivories" keeps his audience in a hysterical mood throughout. No doubt Billy will "knock 'em dead" here also as in other places. "The Vagabond Violinist" complete a very excellent vaudeville program.

The screen feature will be Mary Miles Minter in her newest drama "The Heart Specialist." It is one of those lovable stories that fits Miss Minter so splendidly.

This evening will see the farewell performances of Reginald Denny in his wonderful drama "The Kentucky Derby." It's a "hit" from start to finish, and packed with thrills galore. Also a dandy romance is entwined about the action of this picture. Included upon the program is another of those brilliant stage presentations by Jack Retlaw and featuring Dainty Yvonne Parr, the popular diminutive soprano.

YORBA LINDA

YORBA LINDA, Dec. 20.—(Spl.)—Mrs. R. C. Coheran entertained delightfully at the club house on Saturday afternoon for the members of the local bridge club. A large table was set for the dozen guests and was very attractive with a color scheme of red and green and other suggestive Xmas ideas. The centerpiece was of red roses, while poinsettas were used in other bouquets. Place cards and nut cups carried out the idea and a delicious luncheon was served by a few club members, as caterers. The afternoon was spent at their favorite game, and high scores were won by Mrs. Chas. Paine and Mrs. H. R. Brown, and consolation by Mrs. Gailerd Page of Garden Grove. Guests of Mrs. Cochran for the day were: Mrs. C. H. Eichler, Mrs. C. Paine, Mrs. H. R. Brown, Mrs. Gailerd Page, Mrs. B. M. Sclover, Mrs. S. W. Tutton, Mrs. Warrick Murray, Mrs. Grover Beale, Mrs. Harry Hoben, Mrs. Harry Marsh of Brea and Miss Martha Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Knight and family spent the week-end at Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Julia Sclover spent the week-end with relatives here. On Monday, Mrs. H. R. Brown and Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster motored with her to her home in Orchardale.

Some of the young people sponsored a dance which was held in Ley Hall on Friday evening. There was a good enough attendance to warrant them planning another which will be held in two weeks.

Mrs. T. Hennesy has returned from a few days stay with Brea friends.

The lemon grove which Mr. Davidson purchased some time ago at the corner of Valley View and El Cajon avenue, is being budded to oranges. Mr. White was the former owner.

Mr. Howard Buckmaster moved his family this week to Long Beach where they are erecting a home of their own. Mr. Buckmaster is employed in the oil fields there.

Mrs. Harry Marsh of Brea spent Saturday in town. She attended her bridge club luncheon and spent a short time with Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Marsh.

BRUNSWICK FINE FOR XMAS PRESENT

The Brunswick makes a handsome Christmas gift and every home should enjoy the delights of this popular musical instrument. Demonstrations may be heard any time, every day at Schmidt's Music store, 177 W. Center. The Brunswick oval tone amplifier, or tone chamber, banishes the "tinney" sound so common in the old type phonograph.

One of the god selling points of the Brunswick is that the machine will play all kinds of records without changing parts. To hear one of them is to be convinced of its superior quality, and as a suggestion for a Christmas gift which all the family may enjoy, there is none better.—(Advertisement).

COULD YOU PASS FOR ANOTHER MAN?

There have been countless examples in history of "doubles."

Men of such likeness that their immediate relatives could not tell them apart have come together, and by their interchange of positions caused innumerable complications in the normal schedule of events.

Can a wife or sweetheart tell the difference between a man and his impersonator?

This is the point where authorities disagree. Incidents that are well authenticated seem to support the contention that a man can deceive even the wife or fiance of the man he is doubling for.

This mysterious and intriguing phase of life is pictured in 'Another Man's Shoes," the Universal attraction that will be shown at the United Theater Thursday and Friday, starring Herbert Rawlinson, with Barbara Bedford, Una Trevelyn, Lillian Langdon, Josef Swickard, Nick de Ruis and other famous players in support, the film version of a novel by Victor Bridges offers a combination of a satisfactory elements.

Tonight at the United, the first annual Santa Claus Fund Benefit performance will be given. The local Kiwanis club will take charge of the entire gross receipts and distribute them among poor children. A special did program will be given including Colleen Moore in 'The Wall Flower," Billy West in "Wedding Dumbells" and a royalty in nature study, "Nature's Wild Babies."
