TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

VOL. XXVI—NO. 173

Anaheim, California, Friday, March 9, 1923

LARGE FRONTAGE ON LOS ANGELES STREET IS SOLD

Marking one of the largest sales of downtown realty in Anaheim's history, E. E. Beasley, wealthy Fullerton rancher, today purchased the Ruhman property at the northwest corner of Chartres and Los Angeles-sts.

However complete improvement, which Mr. Beasley is said to contemplate, may be delayed by a lease held by Herman Stern on the Pacific Implement Co. building. This is a five-year lease at $100 per month with two years to run.

Stern is said to have asked $5000 to relinquish.

Mrs. Helen Ruhman, widow of Fritz Ruhman, pioneer of the city, received $70,000 for the property, slightly less than $200 per front foot for the Los Angeles frontage.

It is the first time the property has changed hands in 35 years, outside of a deed from Mr. Ruhman to Mrs. Ruhman in 1908. This made the question of income tax a problem. As a basis, a 1913 price of $125 a front foot was adopted.

Mrs. Ruhman was represented by Atty. O. T. Callor.

Mr. Beasley owns 52 acres of citrus fruit between Fullerton and Placentia from which he is said to have taken a $40,000 crop last year.

Mrs. Ruhman, who has made her home in a small house on the property, has purchased a residence near St. Catherine's school.

KESTER HEN ROOST RAIDED

Mr. and Mrs. John Kester are reporting the loss of about three dozen choice Rhode Island Red hens, which they suspect were stolen. Altho the loss was not discovered for a day or two, they have pretty good evidence that the biddies did not deliberately stray away.

Woman to Hang Blames Gossipers

CHICAGO, March 9.—Back fence gossip of "catty" neighbors was blamed for her difficulties today by Mrs. Tillie Klimek, on trial charged with poisoning her third husband.

The accused woman, who faces the gallows for the alleged "arsenic parties" pointed to the first evidence presented by the state as proof of her claims that gossip was responsible for the charges.

In Broken English she declared the state's first group of witnesses, including her former landlady and three neighbors, held grudges against her.

But the state introduced today the first testimony intended to connect the husband's death with arsenic alleged to have been administered by the "female Bluebeard."

Chemists testified to the finding of "enough arsenic to kill three times" in vital organs of the husband's body.

CIVIC COMMITTEE TO SAVE PAVING

The civic planning committee of Fullerton C. of C. met last night at the California Hotel, called to order by J. W. Carmichael, chairman. G. A. Raymer, secretary of the C. of C. was also present.

An invitation had also been extended Albert Lauer, chairman of the city zoning committee, who was present.

What was accepted as a valuable suggestion was given by Captain Frank, to the effect that an ordinance should be drawn that owners of vacant lots should be required to make sewer and water connections before the proposed new pavings is laid, and that restrictions should be made whereby the paving could not be broken up for the installation of pipe lines for a period of five or ten years. Several new subdivisions were also discussed and difficulties ironed out in the way of the proper development of the Northam-rd. from Malvern-ave. west of Richman-ave. The matter of future subdivision plans was referred to the committee for review, and it was urged that the time of trustees be not taken up with the examination of such plats. Under this provision, subdivders would be required to submit their plans with the civic planning committee.

$5000 BAIL FIXED FOR DRIVING AUTO

F. L. Denning and J. Boyle were held under $5000 bail by Justice J. B. Cox today, charged with the felony of operating an auto without the owner's consent. The owner is Geo. Flores and the car is a 1923 Studebaker special six touring which the two confessed to having stolen from the Santa Ana Garage and partly wrecked. The car had been driven only 2930 miles, says Flores.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Heroin valued at $5000 and four men were seized in a raid early today on two rooms in the Morrison hotel in the heart of the "loop." The narcotic was in a package bearing a Kansas City, Mo., postmark. Two of the prisoners described themselves as Max Ducov, 28, of 2449 Wabash avenue, Kansas City, and Max T. PRINCESS RAHME HAIDER SPEAKS HERE WEDNES.

Princess Rahma Haider

SYRIAN PRINCESS TELLS OF NATIVE LAND AT PRES. CH.

Descended of a long line of princesses of ancient Syria and proud of her pure semitic race, daughter of the people who spoke the ancient Syriac of Biblical days, Princess Rahme Haider, native of Damascus and one of the most interesting women in America today, comes to Anaheim to be heard at the 1st. Presbyterian church Wednesday night in her unique and inspiring message "Glimpses of Palestine." Her clear and forceful delineation of the manners and customs of Palestine which is embraced in the address has proven one of the most interesting subjects discussed in America in connection with the Orient for many years.

Princess Haider is now making Los Angeles her home recuperating somewhat after a most strenuous lecture tour of the U. S. and Anaheim is indeed fortunate to hear the princess and learn directly from one who knows of life in the Far East.

Princess Rahme was born at Boalbek, 40 miles from Damascus and is a direct descendant of ancient Syrian royalty. Her early education was received at the American college at Beirent and later at the girls seminary at Sidon. While there she conceived the idea of coming to the U. S. for a higher and broader educational training and has since taken her degrees from several of our best universities. She possesses a charming Oriental personality and dignity of manner that is so characteristic of those who are manor born.

The princess will appear in her native robes of her royal house of the Syrian purple. Miss Lucille Burgess who accompanies her, is a talented musician and interprets the Syrian music in connection with all lectures.

WIDEN PALM THRUOUT LENGTH

Council Inaugurates Move for Most Important Street Improvement

City council last night inaugurated the biggest street widening movement in Anaheim's history when plans were inaugurated for the widening of Palm-st thruout its entire length.

First discussion was the widening of Palm between Center and Cypress-sts, which will be included in the big paving program to be started at next council meeting. Council decided that there was no better time than the present to make the improvement uniform from the junction with the state highway on the north to the S. P. tracks at least, especially since it is known that the big majority of property-owners stand ready to follow a number who have already deeded a ten-foot strip for the widening plan.

Council feels that Palm-st is destined to be one of the principal streets of the city, both for business and residence, and that realty history will be made.

City Manager O. E. Steward was instructed to call the attention of the Cal. R. R. commission to the need of better safety devices at the Center-st crossing of the Santa Fe, which present a greater traffic hazard since a new packing house still further cuts off the view of autoists. The commission will be urged to order a switchman or gates at the crossing.

Supervisor Fred Jumacham will also be asked to take steps toward a wig-wag at the S. P. crossing on Lincoln-ave where there have been several accidents.

City Manager Steward, after conference with the public improvement committee, recommended that sewer service be extended at once to two-thirds of the Beverly tract and all of the Hess, California Square, Palomar, Cherry-st and Parson-alley tracts. This would cost $9000. The matter was referred to Finance Chairman Collins who said it would take some figuring to find the money since council two weeks ago ordered about $3000 worth of water pipe.

Council formally approved plat of St. Catherine's tract and informally approved 28-lot plat presented by Joe Steuckle and Jack Billings. The tract is bounded by Steuckle, Water, Lemon and Los Angeles-sts.

Council filed a petition signed by nearly all propertyowners on Center-st west of S. Pine, protesting against admission of business houses and garages facing Center-st and urging that such be confined to Lincoln-ave which seems to be the natural trend.

Council instructed City Manager Steward and the city improvement committee to plan a new garage zoning ordinance, following application of purchasers of Lee's Service Station at Center and Kroeger-sts for permission to erect a battery service station.

SUPERIOR CONCERT BY CHORUS ON AIR

The program given last evening by the Anaheim Community Choral Union, over the Santa Ana Register radiophone KPAY, was a decided hit, over the county, according to many messages received all today, and have made the townspeople even more proud of the organization which is doing so much for music.

The program was given under the auspices of the C. of C. and made the excellent musical numbers, color to an address by Mr. George E. Johnson on Anaheim and the Valencia Orange show which is a notable event of the 1923 season.

The chorus is planning to broadcast over the Los Angeles Times radio soon as a suitable arrangement of numbers may be made. The Anaheim Civic Anthem, composed by Louis Danz, with words by Mrs. Isabel Shepherd, was sung by the chorus, and is already on its way to fame.

In place of one of the programmed numbers omitted through illness of the performer, Mrs. Rose and Mr. Dolen sang the duet, "Absence" by Metcalf. As both singers are of unusual ability, as well as possessing voices of rare broadcasting quality, the number was thoroughly enjoyed.

GADDIE AND OKLAHOMA JOIN LEASING SCRAMBLE

Daily some new report comes in from the Cypress district regarding oil development in this field. It seems this locality is just now attracting the attention of the oil fraternity more than any other.

Whether this is destined to be our next big field or not will soon be proven, if contemplated development work is carried out.

The latest addition to this district is the Gaddie Oil Development Co., which has acquired leases in this field through the efforts of George C. and V. A. Porter, who have been for the last month quietly getting them together. The location of the first well by this company will be on the William Wicker property, just south of Cypress, and is to be started within the next thirty or forty days.

An Oklahoma oil corporation will also drill in the vicinity. J. E. Snavely of Buena Park announced today. He said:

"I have secured leases four miles due west of Anaheim near Harding on the high dome. My expert geologist says the biggest oil in So. Calif. will be found in this locality.

"As soon as I have secured a few more contracts the company will start work erecting a derrick and placing machinery for the first well. The company contracts call for drilling to begin the first of June.

"The entrance of this large company from Oklahoma will be a large asset to this part of the oil district. The company builds houses for employes near their work. The company plans to drill a number of wells in this vicinity.

Coming on the heels of the exclusive announcement in Tuesday's Plain Dealer that the Union, Amalgamated and Big Four were in a race for leases and that the Union had ordered material for a derrick, it would seem that a real test of the Cypress district is soon to be made.

SIX BOY SCOUTS ENTERTAIN LIONS

The six boys were Adolph Escovido, John Escovido, Jack McFadden, the leader; Joe Tectonius and Paul Fleming.

J. P. Sebastian and "Hans" Hansen were elected members, and told to explain where they got the "white mule" found upon them, but later were exonerated.

Rev. A. G. H. Bode, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, gave one of his short, interesting talks. A collection was taken for the Scouts at the conclusion of the meeting.

George Ennis was in charge of the program.

ROBBERY SUSPECTS, TWO EX-CANADIANS, HELD IN SANTA ANA

In the arrest of two young ex-Canadians, Roy Webb and Nelson Chaney, City Marshal Claude Rogers of Santa Ana believes he has the men who robbed at least two stores in the city and perhaps others. The men were taken on suspicion, when J. N. Harper, who keeps a grocery at 1025 West Fourth-st, became startled and called up police headquarters.

Two officers went out and took the two suspects into custody. On Webb was found a revolver which J. H. Hornaday, proprietor of a second hand furniture and hardware store at 418 North Sycamore-st, identified as one stolen from his place rec-ntly. A jimmy also was taken from Webb.

Searching the room of the two in a rooming house on North Main-st they found a wrist watch, a gold watch and another pistol, which Hornaday also identified as among the articles previously stolen.

On Webb also were found several White Owl cigars and he is suspected of having been among the visitors Wednesday night at Thurston morning at the store of H. G. Lyons at 803 North Main-st, when a quantity of tobacco and candy were taken.

The police now are looking for two pals of Webb and Chaney, who roomed in the same house.

There is strong suspicion that the four men are responsible for six or eight larger or smaller robberies in the city or on its outskirts.

BIG TURTLE WASHED ON CHILEAN COAST

TOKIO, March 9.—Professional which recently devastated parts of the coast of Chili cast upon the beach at the same time a strange denizen of the deep whose like has not been seen in these waters in many years.

It would appear to be a cross between a whale and a turtle.

Fishermen at Lurin, 25 miles from Lima, reported a huge catacean to be floundering in the shallow waters of the bay. Then they sent out word it was an unknown monster of the sea, and that they had killed it.

The director of the National History museum of the University of San Marcos and the official taxidermist made a trip to Lurin for the purpose of studying and classifying the strange visitor. They found an animal with the body of a whale, but with head and extremities like those of the turtle.

After examination they came to the conclusion that it belonged to the family of Balaenidae cateans, inhabiting the south sea waters. It is supposed that it was carried along by the Humbolt current and thrown up on the beach by the tremendous surfs following the tidal waves of the Chilean earthquake.

The specimen will be brought to Lima for mounting and will be preserved in the university museum.

The statistics also show that the saving of a brain worker is 8 per cent of his income, that of a manual laborer 7 per cent, and that of a brain worker spends 12 percent for his house rent and a manual laborer 11 per cent.

Surprise House Warming

A house warming which was of the 100 degree variety, if laughter was any indication, occurred last evening when 25 friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Eaton, of 817 South Main-st, Santa Ana, went to their pretty home to pass the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton had not been notified of the plan and when their guests walked in, one after another, their surprise was decidedly apparant.

The Eatons have just completed entire renovation and remodling of their rome and it is a model of convenience and taste. Recovering from the surprise, Mrs. Eaton asked that her guests "start something," which was done and continued until a late hour. Refreshments were served after games, as the instigators of the affair had thoughtfully provided cakes and ice cream.

Attending from Anaheim were Mrs. Alberta Andrews, Mr. Sam Whitaker, relatives of Mrs. Eaton.

Compliments Bride Elect

A miscellaneous shower was bestowed upon Miss Ruth Vaughn, a bride of the very near future, when Mrs. D. C. Cowles, of Fullerton, invited several close friends of the honoree in for the afternoon yesterday. Miss Vaughn has been special nurse in the Fullerton hospital for the past four years and her efficiency and natural charm has made for her a wide circle of friends who will hasten to extend happy wishes.

A basket of prettily wrapped packages was presented Miss Vaughn and upon opening them she could sense their immediate use in her new home. Chatting and games were followed by a three-course luncheon excellent in menu and dainty in appointment. Covers were placed for Miss Lucy Wood, of Anaheim, and Miss Hilcher, Miss Esther Rasdum, Miss McMann, of Los Angeles, Miss Gasser, Miss Driscoll, Mrs. Robert Beach, Mrs. Mae Reeves and Mrs. J. R. Eberhardt, the groom-elect, who braved the feminine crowd like a junior and passed a portion of the afternoon at the party.

Tells Happy Secret

A pretty secret was revealed early in the week by Miss Vera O'Rourke when she was questioned concerning the appearance of an attractive diamond ring on a favored finger on her left hand. Miss O'Rourke does not tell the date of the approaching wedding. The young man in the case is Mr. Lotel Larsen popular young realtor of Anaheim.

The bride-elect is one of Anaheim's popular young maidens and her coming marriage is looked forward to with interest by her many friends.

The ladies energetically worked on their needlework and visited as well, until about 4:30 when they were invited into the dining room.

There again, St. Patrick's day decorations were apparant. The table was centered with an Irish hat filled with shamrock and place cards, favors and napkins furthered the motif. A luncheon in three courses was served.

It was with regret that the absence of the Mesdames Spencer, Sr., Skinner and Oddison was noted, each of them having severe colds. Mrs. Eugene Haggood was the guest of the club. "Hoot" Gibson Appears In Different Role

"The Lone Hand" will present Edward "Hoot" Gibson, the Universal star at the United Theater Saturday in a different type of western role. It is that of a leather-necked cowpuncher of means turned vacationist and bound for an exclusive summer hotel where the men go in for patent leather hair and ice cream pants. What an innovation a broncho buster should be for the lady guests!

The story was written by Ralph Cummins and Reaves Eason directed its filming.

Supporting the star is a cast of well known players. In the leading feminine role is Marjorie Daw playing the daughter of a miserly old miner. William Walsh plays the miner. Another popular member of the cast in Helen Holmes famous queen of railroad serials, in other important parts are Jack Pratt, Jim Corey, Hayden Stevenson and Robert Kortman.

Gibson is universally recognized as the foremost horseman of the screen and on more than one occasion in national contests he was judged the world's champion all-round cowboy. In addition to his many equestrian prizes, Gibson also annexed honors as a daring automobile racing driver.

In "The Lone Hand," is brought out the fact that "Hoot" is a swimmer of real ability.

U. C. COW MAKES RECORD

California Agnes Colantha, a Holstein cow in the herd at the University Farm Davis, set a record for cows bred on the farm completing record for the year just ended of 26,250 pounds of milk, containing 981 pounds of butterfat, equivalent to 1227 pounds of butter, according to official reports just released. This remarkable record places Agnes Colantha third among the cows owned by American universities and colleges.

Mermaider's Fern, a Jersey, is another cow to make records, having performed her duties for the University Farm for many years. She was born 13 years ago, has given the farm nine calves, eight heifers and one bull, and, during nine milking periods, has produced 10,000 gallons of milk and 7000 pounds of butterfat. Her milk products have brot in $1650 to the college.

FABLE OF A FLIVVER

Once upon a time a Flivver, having listened to the siren voice of its own rattle, developed a Superiority Complex.

At a certain time each afternoon a Freight Train was accustomed to flutter past, making a great uproar as it went.

And the Beasts of the Field and the Motor Cars of the Road stood aside as it passed, registering great respect.

"Where does it get that Noise?" murmered the Flivver, being consumed with envy.

And one day the Flivver, being in particularly good voice and all hopped up with pride, said: "I will show that big stiff where he gets off at."

Whereupon he stepped up to the Crossing and slapped the Freight train on the nose.

That's all.—Los Angeles Examiner.

EVEN FIND STYLES IN TOMB

If we are to believe the powers that be in the dress and furniture world, we stand at a new style epoch. The contents of the tomb of an Egyptian monarch, dead over three thousand years are being brot to light, and the fashions of a world at the edge of history will have their influence in the dress and furnishings of homes in modern times.

Style changes are not mere caprices. Rather they bear the imprint of a period in a nation's history and thru them the progress of history may be traced. This is being illustrated in the reported mad rush designers and milliners are making to get the first designs from the new found relics of an early age in the world's history.

Coach Jacques has put her girls thru some tough practice frays this week getting them into shape and now they are the best ever. The teams chose a neutral court.

It has not been decided just who Anaheim will have to play for the finals.

Anaheimers who will start in the line-up are Evelyn Cordes and Helen Daly, forwards; Ella Cook, running center; Frances Adams, jumping center; Esther Hills and Irma Young, guards. Mae Requarth and Viola Lensing will be on hand to sub as guard and forward.

Hemet has no lightweight team so the Anaheim babes will not figure in any battle this week.

GARDEN GROVE

Friday afternoon Mrs. Kapp of Los Angeles gave an interesting address before the Women's Civic Club on interior and exterior decorating touching on the influence of the home and child. She also gave several readings of her own composition, one which was particularly enojyed being etitled "The Porch Back Home." Mrs. Kapp is an interesting speaker of strong personality and her talk was greatly enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Kapp came here thru the courtesy of Barker Bros.

RED MATHEWS WILL ATTEMPT COMEBACK

Young Leo and Young Otto, light-heavyweights, will mingle in the feature at the local club's weekly "swat-fest" Tuesday night. Otto will be remembered as the husky lad from Santa Fe Springs who put up such a good fight against Sailor Lee several weeks ago. Leo has a two-round K. O. over Jack Moore to his credit.

The semi-windup should bring out the crowd. Red Mathews (Eddie Mattis), attempting "comeback," will meet Lee Reece, El Modena lightweight. Red has not fought in the ring for two years now but has been keeping himself in shape by daily workouts.

A snappy special event, and three rattling good preliminaries are also booked.

For choice Orange groves, see J. E. Schumacher Co., 212 W. Center.

DAILY GREETINGS TO OUR READERS

The silence of the soul, where all is at rest, all silent before God, can not last long in this life; but let us at least, having spoken to God, listen for His voice.

—Jacques B. Bossuet.

Congress rests. Likewise the country.

California climate remains in the superlative degree, year after year.

All those who delight to pay income tax please say "aye." Why this deep silence?

Strict obedience to law is the course which true patriotism and good citizenship dictate.

Is this an economical Legislature? The legislative course at Sacramento soon will answer.

They are laying the wires for the Presidential campaign of 1924. When will politics become wireless?

Italy seems about to enfranchise its women. The light of the new freedom is breaking in every civilized land.

The atmosphere is tortured by what they are saying by radio. There is no such thing as tranquility in the air, any more.

Take romance out of life and it is as though the sweetness were taken out of honey and the fragrance out of the flower.

The world needs more daylight, sunbright diplomacy. The dark, mysterious, intriguing brand should be relegated.

In remembering the farmer, to aid him, do not forget the consumer. He should be considered sympathetically, too.

California has many charming nooks where the President of the United States could find delightful rest and relaxation.

Things will be better everywhere when nations and peoples find their chief delight is doing good, instead of finding good.

The United States surely should colaborate with the rest of the world in promoting the cause of just and permanent peace. This Nation should not hold aloof from a movement of such universal importance as this.

DEMOCRACY SPREADING ALL OVER EARTH

The last ten years has been a sorry decade for absolute monarchs. This period will rank in history among the most notable for the overthrow of absolutism in government and for the expansion of democracy. Some of the oldest and most famous dynasties in the world have been overthrown—the Hohenzollerns in Germany, the Hapsburgs in Austria-Hungry, the Romanoffs in Russia. In Turkey the Sultan practically has been deposed. China has become a republic. In Japan the government has been liberalized. In Italy, Greece and Portugal the democratizing of government has proceeded notably.

The autocrat in government has been banished from the earth, it is to be hoped forever. Intelligent self-rule is being established by all civilized peoples. "Government of the people, by the people, for the people" has not "perished from the earth," but, on the contrary, is flourishing everywhere. Democracy is adding to its triumphs all over the globe.

TELEPHONE GROWTH IS MARVEL OF AGE

Growth and expansion of telephone service in the United States, is one of the marvels of this age of marvels. One company—the Bell—has more than 14,000,000 subscribers. The gain in users during the last year was more than 1,000,000. This denotes widespread prosperity. More families can afford to install the service.

The telephone is an indispensable factor in modern business. Its evolution has kept pace with the expansion of trade and industry and the social life of the nation. One does not realize how important the telephone is in everyday affairs, until one is cut off from the service for a few hours. Billions of calls are given, in the course of a year, and business transactions of great pith and moment hang upon the use of the telephone.

The Sixty-seventh Congress broke all records for length of time in session. But it did not break all records as to the quality of its work.

There is yet ground to hope for peace ein Europe. The pendulum may swing peaceward with gratifying swiftness erelong.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon left public life anything but the grim "Czar" they once called him, when he was Speaker of the House. Time has mellowed the once pugnacious statesman and the bitter partisan wrangles of other days are forgotten. In one respect Congress has improved—there is not the bitterness and asperity in partisan debate there once was.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS
WHAT EDITORS ARE SAYING

GRAND MARCH OF ORATORY

(New York Evening Post)

Lamentations over the death blow inflicted upon the spoken word by the written word are again proved to be premature. Was Lincoln's birthday made the occasion for a flood of pamplets or political verse? Let the headlines answer: "Edison at Seventy-six Talks;" "Harding Says"; "Pepper Warns"; "Beveridge Assails"; "Foss Asserts"; "Coolidge, Speaking"; "Admiral Plunkett Favors Navy Limit"; "Should Hold Ruhr, Says General Edwards"; "Representative Yates Says." There may have been little genuine oratory in all this speechifying, but then there is little genuine excellence of any kind in the vast mass of written words.

What Lincoln's birthday showed and what Jackson Day a few weeks earlier always shows and what Washington's birthday showed is that man is still a talking animal. He may never have been the purely economic creature which the Adam Smiths pictured or the merely political animal of Aristotle or the 100 per cent sex monster of the Freudists, but from the day when the serpent talked to Eve and Eve talked to Adam, and God said something to both of them man, not to say woman, had been a talker.

Carlyle made a plausible point when he called man a laughing animal, but man talks more than he laughs. What is stranger, he fails to laugh at much of his talk. The more obvious a speaker's remarks the more solemnly his audience looks at him instead of bursting into a roar as it ought to do. If audiences would only keep a straight face at a speaker's poor wit and laugh at his platitudes, there might be fewer speakers, but the standard of public speaking would rise to surprising heights.

BABY

The most interesting news from Europe for several weeks is the rumor that ex-Kaiser Bill expects another heir. If true, and if it's a boy, the birth may be tremendously historic.

For, when the boy reaches manhood, about 1944, it is conceivable that the Germans might be ready for another emperor and the boy's older brothers all dead. The odds are against that. WEBBER DISCUSSES JUNE DROP CAUSES

Causes of June drop of citrus fruits and suggested methods of control are discussed by Dr. H. J. Webber, director of the Citrus Experiment Station, Riverside, in the March issue of Citrus Leaves. More interest centers about this problem today than any other single factor in citrus production. Dr. Webber carefully analyses both the physical and bacteriological factors of the disease and suggests several methods of control. Among other things, he points out that the Washington navel, which is more greatly affected by the disease than other types, is an abnormal species and susceptible to June drop. He advocates experimentation to discover a more hardy fruit to replace the Washington navel.

GOLDWYN BRINGS FILM UP-TO-DATE

Is a story with a great theme bound to any period?

This question was answered in the negative by the Goldwyn editorial board and Director Maurice Tourneur during the preparation for filming Sir Hall Caine's novel "The Christian," which will be screened at the California theater for four days, beginning Sunday. Producers are reluctant to burden their photodramas with out-of-date styles in garb.

It is not surprising that occasionally the fact is overlooked that producers of pictures cannot tell in advance what will be a popular success but that by previous non-successes they have fairly reliable grounds for believing they can tell what will not be a success. Costume plays, particularly where the action is laid in foreign countries, have seldom received a warm welcome from the American public.

The Goldwyn editorial board and Tourneur were prompt and unanimous in deciding that "The Christian" would portray life of the present and not of a quarter century ago when Hall Caine first published the novel. The stage play, it will be remembered, first was produced in London about ten years ago, while two film versions, one in England and one in the United States, were released at about the same time.

Other reasons than avoiding the costume problem, however, actuated those in charge of the enterprise. Goldwyn editorial board and Tourneur agreed at once in the preliminary discussions that aside from the costume question, "The Christian" would have more force with present-day audiences if John Storm, as "The Christian," should be confronted with present-day temptations readily understood by the present day public, and also that as the story is predominantly an ecclesiastical study, nothing would be gained by hampering it with the clothing of its original period.

"A story with a great theme," said Mr. Tourneur in discussing their decision, "is not bound to any one period."

So, "The Christian," in this screen version is a man of this hour, living his devoted life under the conditions which now prevail, and meeting obstacles which we of today know.

HEAVY DEMAND FOR PHILHARMONIC SEATS

A new and improved seating arrangement has been completed at the Fullerton H. S. auditorium for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra which comes Wednesday evening, March 28, under the auspices of the Fullerton Junior College.

Hugh Hampton, student publicity manager, has divided the house into eight sections, selling from 50c to $1.50. Any seat in a given section is as good as the next.

The ushers will be instructed to fill the sections in solid blocks, thus avoiding the usual confusion of late comers, having to find their way through the crowded seats.

Even at this early date, much interest and enthusiasm is being shown.

SHERWOOD SEEKS DOWNTOWN LOCATION

The local branch of the Sherwood Music School of Chicago is seeking downtown quarters in order to take care of the rapid growth. The school, under the able direction of Miss Stella A. Schwentker and Miss Edna L. Hochuli, has meant a great deal to the musical life of Anaheim and several new teachers have been added to the faculty. In the future, every department of musical instruction will be represented.

Mr. Bert Rawlinson, manager of the 200 branches of this great school that are located in So. Calif., has been in Anaheim looking for a location. Altho available studios which would exactly meet the needs of this growing school are hard to find he feels sure that in a few days he will be able to give definite information on the new location.

PHOTOGRAPHED HUMAN VOICE PROVES BAFFLING TO IT HEARERS

Chas. A. Hoxie of the General Electric Co., has introduced a new device known as the Pallophotophone, which photographs sound on a motion picture film, the voice or sound actuating a diaphragm. This in turn causes a corresponding vibration of a tiny mirror fastened firmly upon a steel shaft between two sets of jewels. The Diaphragm, shaft and mirror together is but one twelfth the weight of an ordinary pin. The voice vibrations are thus recorded in a series of up and down markings of varying frequency and amplified. After the film has been developed and dried, it can be made so as to reproduce the speech that was used in making it. John A. Heydler, President of the National Baseball League, having a film made of a baseball talk which will later be broadcasted via radio. The inventor is directing the recording.

H. S. SENIORS MAKE WHIRLWIND DRIVE

This morning, promptly at 8:30 o'clock the senior class of Anaheim H. S. assembled at the New Auditorium, eager to start the campaign to raise $800 for curtains in the auditorium.

After roll call, final instructions were issued and all were ready to go. There are 20 teams of 4 members each, making a total of 80 workers. Each team is under the leadership of a captain. The territory has all been carefully assigned. However, it will be impossible to cover the entire territory very thoroughly, and it is therefore requested that all those who desire to either subscribe or renew their subscription to the Literary Digest, do so by sending a check of $4 to the Anaheim Union High School, carefully giving correct name and address. This will be very much appreciated by the Senior class and due credit will be given.

Eight hundred subscribers are wanted to put it over. The campaign may have to be extended for several days in order to give all those who desire to help the Senior Class in its effort to furnish the auditorium with curtains.

The Literary Digest has extended very favorable terms to the school and now is the opportunity, for everyone to join in the campaign for better reading in the home. So, if you are not now a subscriber to the Literary Digest, become one without delay by subscribing through the High school.
