GOVERNMENT SUES SUGAR SPECULATORS

BIG INDUSTRY PROMISED ANAHEIM

In effect equalling the discovery of a vast new oil field, and constituting another great industrial institution for Anaheim, the United States Oil Well Heater Corporation has been formed with authorized capitalization of $1,000,000 to exploit the Warnick oil heater which promises to revolutionize old, declining and abandoned petroleum wells, it was announced today.

In brief, the Warnick heater thaws out the carbonated or paraffined formations in the oil sands and reopens the clogged up perforations in the casing.

The organization includes Joe Wagner, Anaheim, president; Atty. John C. Gillham, Los Angeles, secretary; Claude B. Andrews, Los Angeles, attorney and director; Wm. Goodwin, Fullerton, director; Roy L. Davidson, director; J. Warnick, inventor, Los Angeles, director.

But $16,000 stock will be offered the public, President Wagner stated today he expected it would be gobbled up within a very brief time.

Warnick, a young man, got the idea for the patent while crossing the Atlantic in war times. The fuel oil was cold and stiff. While living in So. Calif. he had heard of the use of steam to heat clogged up wells. This was tried out successfully on the vessel. He pursued the idea further with electrical apparatus and after several years endeavor and $40,000 expense, an electrical apparatus has been invented that does the work successfully. The chief difficulty was to get a proper heat resistant clay and to get the coils wound correctly. This was overcome after consultation with large electrical laboratories including that of the Sc. Cal. Edison Co.

"The oil well heater consists of an electrical heating unit encased in a highly insulated cylinder fitted to run into the well or tubing. Temperatures are controlled by a rheostadt and can be varied from zero to 200 degrees.

"The cost of operating is about 20 cents per hour for power excepting cases where it would be necessary to use portable generating plants."

In a telegram received from Roy L. Davidson, who is trying out the heater in the Oklahoma fields, he says:

"First heater test highly successful. Completed April 8 after 52 hours run on well No. 6, Roxana Petroleum Co.'s West Mayley lease, Cushing field, Oklahoma. Company report from headquarters at Tulsa states product increased from six barrels to 23, gas flow also increased about 50 per cent. Wonderful co-operation.

The corporation will not sell the heaters but will lease them on a royalty basis for half the increased production. It is believed two wells can be heated successfully in one week. It can readily be seen that in a brief time, the corporation would be receiving enormous royalties as there are thousands of abandoned wells.

In a letter, Van A. Mills, petroleum technologist of U. S. Bureau of Mines, says that by the usual methods of oil drilling, but about 20 per cent of the oil is brot out of the sands.

THIEVES GET $900 TOOLS AND TIRES

Muckenthaler Service Station Robbed 2nd Time in Few Months

A series of burglaries occurred last night in Anaheim in which carpenter's tools said to be valued at more than $900 were stolen. Victims were A. N. Ferguson, 414 Rose-st; Floyd Gilbert, 312 East Fifth-st, Santa Ana and J. H. Ray, 2113 No. Main-st, Santa Ana. The tools belonging to Ferguson and Gilbert were taken from Valencia square on So. Los Angeles-st, and the Ray tools from the new Benchley Packing house on East Center-st.

Both places were entered by picking the locks.

The Ray tools were valued at about $225, and the Ferguson and Gilbert tools at about $700.

Last night was the first night that no watchman had been on duty at the packing house, and last night was the first night that Mr. Ferguson had failed to take his tools home from work in Valencia square. He said to have started to take them and the others told him there was no use; the tools would be all right there. So he put a new kind of lock on the door and left them, saying that no one had a key for that lock but himself. Ferguson and Gilbert were employed by Ralph Mass, contractor.

Muckenthaler Brothers Service Station at Spadra-rd and Orangethorpe-ave was burglarized again last night, and the burglars escaping with several hundred dollars loot. This is the second time the place has been burglarized within a few months. The burglars got 12 Goodrich and Brunswick tires and several inner tubes, a small candy showcase, a canteen unit for running board, also pipes, cigarette holders, candy and cigarettes.

FRUIT BRINGS MORE THAN 2 YEARS AGO

California navels last week sold at an average price of 35 cents per box higher than two years ago and 38 cents higher than last week, Manager W. H. Schureman of the Anaheim Citrus Fruit Ass'n., said today. Schureman mentioned the fact to show that the orange market is in a decidedly healthy condition, which means that Valencias also will sell well.

The Anaheim Valencia season opens Saturday.

The figures given are based upon an exceedingly large block of fruit, says Schureman, large enough to make the conclusions trustworthy.

Compared with two years ago, the last comparable season, the difference in number of cars shipped was only 25 less.

With a steadily improving market, local managers put off picking, packing and shipping as long as possible. The embargo on the railways, due to storms, also was a factor, because fruit picked up and was not proportioned to demands as designed.

Prominent Business Men Back E. B. Segerstrom in Expansion Plans

Anaheim will have another $50,000 factory in the very near future according to plans now being completed by several prominent business men. For two years Mr. E. B. Segerstrom at 911 N. Los Angeles-st. has been manufacturing and selling Euca-Lemo products. This business has grown to such an extent that it is now necessary to enlarge the plant and put in aditional equipment. To do this a stock company is being formed incorporating for $50,000 and is backed by E. B. Segerstrom, O. H. Renner, J. Frederic Ahlborn, Gus Theodore, O. E. Hanson and others. The papers of incorporation are now in the hands of the attorney and as soon as completed it is the intention to place this stock on the market for sale at $1 a share.

At a meeting of directors held recently, it was decided to erect a building 50 feet by 60 feet on the present site, 911 N. Los Angeles-st., and this, with the two buildings now on the premises, will give the additional space needed for enlarged activities.

Euca-Lemo has been created to supply a long felt want. From experience everyone knows how difficult and unsatisfactory it is to remove grease, paint or any sticky or inky substances from the hands with ordinary soap. Mr. Segerstrom felt this need and began searching, for something which would act as a cleanser and yet not leave the skin in a rough and irritated condition. His experiments were many but he found that by combining just the right portortions of eucalyptus fibre and lemon with a dozen other ingredients, he got an article that works like a charm in dissolving and removing such substances as ordinarily resist the action of soaps now on the market.

Euca-Lemo is made in paste form in bars and in powder form of two grades, one for use of mechanics, oil workers, etc., and one for use in the home and offices. In addition to the soap, by using the same foundation there is manufactured the Euca-Lemo Cleanser for scouring kitchen utensils, bath tubs, sinks, etc. The latest triumph is the "Orange Sweep." The powder is scattered on the bare floor or on the carpet before sweeping and not only cleans but leaves a delightful odor thruout the house.

Euca-Lemo is now being used in the public schools of Anaheim, Garden Grove and Chino and orders are on file for the entire supply needed in the mechanical department of the Long Beach schools. It is used in the leading garages of Santa Ana, Orange, Garden Grove, Long Beach, Placentia, Brea, Yorba Linda and Anaheim.

Euca-Lemo was adopted as the name of this commodity to call attention to the two principal ingredients —eucalyptus and lemon. Practically nowhere else in the world could these two important components be secured in sufficient quantity or at a price which would make their use possible for such purposes. Hence So. Calif. again shows her resources to the world.

U.S. DEMANDS CLOSING OF EXCHANGE

Otherwise Exhorbitant Prices Will Be Exacted From Public

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Confident of the possession of wide and ample powers to control prices of household necessities and to prevent profiteering by speculation, the federal government struck a powerful blow at the sugar speculators today by asking the United States court at New York to put the New York Sugar and Coffee Exchange out of business for all time to come.

The government suit in equity—the preliminary in a legal campaign to fix responsibility and impose a punishment on those responsible for boosting sugar prices—was filed by district attorney William Haywood with the approval of President Harding and the cabinet.

Proceeding under the implied authority granted by the United States supreme court declaring the grain future trading act void, the government charged that the sugar exchange and the sugar clearing association exists only as a means of contracting and speculating and for the manipulation of the price of raw and refined sugar.

The maintenance and operations of defendants, the government told the court, would inevitably result in the establishment of raw and refined sugar prices which are wholly speculative and artificial without proper regard for the conditions which, but for said unlawful and uneconomic operations would control said prices.

The department of justice now has under consideration the question of beginning criminal proceedings against directors of the sugar exchange in addition to the equity suits.

Charges fictitious transactions that have caused an increase in the price of raw sugar, and increased prices since February 1, on an average of of refined sugar to the consumer more than $2 per hundred pounds.

The court is informed that unless the defendants are strained the sugar exchange will continue to continue to result not only in the continued enhancement of the price of raw sugar, but also in a diminished demand, thereby increasing the traffic in these commodities.

The government's petition today asked that writs of subpoena be issued to all officers, officers and managers of the sugar exchange ordering them to appear in court and answer the allegations of unlawful conduct.

"The transactions on the exchange during February, 1923, aggregate 1,515,050 tons as compared with 362,850 tons in January. During the month only 300 tons were actually delivered as a result of transactions on the exchange. During March, 1923, transactions purported to involve the purchase and sale of raw sugar were had on the exchange to the extent of 937,900 tons and deliveries amounted to only 1,250 tons.

"These paper transactions were said to have increased the average price of refined sugar more than $2 per hundredweight.

Under the sugar exchange is closed at once, the government declared, "exrobitant prices will be extorted", from consumers and "especially in that numerous essential use having to do with the canning and preservation of fruits and the manufacture of confections and other foodstuffs in which sugar is an essential ingredient, will be compelled to pay abnormally high prices to largely restrict their purchases of sugar in interstates and foreign commerce and thus injure our entire agriculture."

Attorney General Seymour intimated criminal action against the officers of the sugar exchange might be the next step.

Sugar prices on the New York sugar exchange broke 45 to 50 points today on receipt of news from Washington that the department of justice had filed suit to enjoin the exchange from dealing in sugar.

President Diericks of the exchange said the exchange was prepared to defend itself against any suits.

Traders became more evicted as the session advanced and prices dropped rapidly. At 12:20 o'clock sugar had dropped 77 points. Decline for the day up to that hour.

A playlet, "How Is It Done," was given by the young peoples society of the hostess church. Election of officers occupied the morning yesterday, and in the afternoon the convention heard an excellent address by the state president, Mrs. Eva Wheeler.

Officers chosen for the coming year are Mrs. Estella Harper, of Garden Grove; Mrs. L. Heil, Santa Ana, vice president; Mrs. Harry Lewis, cor. sec'y.; Mrs. Lea Warren, rec. sec'y.; Mrs. Alma J. Kellogg, treasurer; Mrs. Sarah Brown, ass't. treas.; and Mrs. W. B. Tedford, auditor.

Prior to the president's address, an L. T. L. demonstration was presented by several small girls from Placentia. Miss Bora Eshay, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Mrs. Ruby Treadwell, sang a solo, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Goodwin, sang a duet, by request.

Plans for coming activities were outlined and discussed which promise a very busy year, Anaheim W. C. T. U. was represented by Mrs. T. H. Walker, Mrs. H. H. Knox and Mrs. Warner.

Choral Director Speaks

Mr. Carl Rohles, director of the Anaheim Community Choral club, was the speaker of the day at the regular weekly Community Service luncheon Wednesday noon at the Elks clubhouse. He gave a graphic and beautiful description of the home life, as well as professional, of his many artist friends and acquaintances.

He has had the privilege of meeting and knowing such artists as Schumann Heink, Mary Garden, Florence Macbeth, Francis Ingram, Riccarde Martin, Charles Dalmores, Caruso, Galli Curci, Emma Eames and Anna Lippe of Metropolitan fame, Julia Clausen and others.

It was a privilege to hear his talk and learn of those artists as they really are, and of the big hearts they have—always ready to help and encourage others in the profession. Mr. Rohles spoke of the encouragement he received in his work from several of the artists he mentioned.

Miss Ethel Evans contributed to the musical numbers with two beautiful violin solos. Miss Evans plays with a great deal of charm and finish and promises to become an artist of great note.

Illinois Picnic

Thousands of loyal Illinoisans are waiting for the picnic to be held in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, all day, Saturday, April 28, 1923, with basket dinners at noon. Henry J. Brubaker will preside and lead the community songs.

Miss Mary Shaw is getting over the measles nicely.

Orange and Blue Party

Three tables of five hundred players passed the afternoon yesterday with Mrs. Lee Eicholtz, when she was hostess at a pretty spring party. Blue and orange were the pretty colors used in decorations, carried even into the prizes for scores. Flowers in the colors combined yellow daisies and stock.

Mrs. H. N. White and Mrs. Robert Wilson won high score and Mrs. Harris Newkirk received consolation. The high prizes were blue and orange bridge cloths.

Delicious luncheon was served after the games. The guests included several out-of-town friends of Mrs. Eicholtz's.

CONTINUANCE OF PASSION PLAY TALK AT DINNER

A continuation of the interesting talk on the Passion Play was given at the meeting today of the Business and Professional Women's club, by Mrs. H. C. Downs recently returned from a trip to European countries.

Announcement was made by chairman Ruth White that the next evening meeting would be held at Orange Co. Park when picnic lunch will be the feature. Cars will leave the library at 5:15 and another load will be ready to go at 6:00. All who cannot go are asked to notify Miss Philura Sparks or Ruth White.

Mrs. Downs talked of the incentive for the Passion Play and how it was first produced in the sixteenth century and has played regularly every decade but once since. She described the elaborate costumes of the cast. No one living outside the province of Oberammergau is allowed to take part in the production and all married women are also excluded. It takes eight hours to complete the performance which begins at 8 a. m. with two hours for dinner. The scenes are very impressive and leaves the spectator without a thought of doubt that the Bible is ever followed closely in every phrase.

COUNCIL OF STATE VOTED UPON TODAY

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—A council of state which would take over the legislative functions of the present state legislature and provide for lawmaking of the state on a plan used by cities under commission form of government, was proposed today in a constitutional amendment introduced in the lekislature by Senators Bennett and Rominger.

There would be fifty members of the council of state on the job continuously, receiving $5,000 each a year instead of the $1,000 stipend now paid the legislators.

Inasmuch as a two third vote is required in both houses there is little likelihood of the legislation placing the amendment on the ballot for a vote of the people.

The vote was 19 to 37 in favor of the amendment, and floor leader Henry E. Carter of Los Angeles immediately changed his vote from no to aye and gave notice of reconsideration.

Mrs. F. Yoshida of Anaheim is a patient at the local sanitarium.

In celebration of the first decade of existence of Fullerton Rebekah lodge, a big birthday party was given last evening in which about two hundred members of the order from various towns of the county joined.

An elaborate program of musical numbers, instrumental, vocal, violin, etc., was particularly good. Mrs. Fannie Lacy, who instituted the lodge 10 years ago, was present and gave an address of congratulation upon the progress and importance of the Fullerton lodge. Mrs. Lacy is lovingly called the "mother of the lodge". Mrs. May Glaze, president, also made a pleasing talk.

A farce, "The Order of the Golden Goose" which was a burlesque on secret order initiations, was thoroly funny. Each participant wore a mask and costume in imitation of a goose, and took some very bashful, frightened candidates through the gate, or base, of initiation.

Invited to the banquet room, all eyes feasted upon the beautiful big birthday cake adorned with ten candles. Ice cream was served with generous portions of the cake.

"WHIPPING BOSS" ON STAND IN PROBE

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 19.—Walter T. Higgenbotham, "whipping boss" under $10,000 bond after indictment for first degree murder in the death of Martin Tabort, today took the witness stand in the investigation of Tabort's death.

Senator Stokes, chairman of the joint investigation committee, admonished Higgenbotham that any statement he would make would be voluntary and might be used against him at his trial.

PLANE CARRIES FOOD TO STARVING PARTY

(By International News Service)

BAY CITY, Mich., April 19.—Lieutenant E. C. Whitehead, en route from Selfridge Field to Northport, Michigan, in an airplane, when he will pick up food for the starving party of nine men and a woman isolated on South Fox Island, near there, landed on the outskirts of this city at noon to replenish his gasoline supply. He will hop off early this afternoon.

SELFRIDGE FIELD, Mount Clemens, Mich., April 19.—First Lieut. Ennis C. Whitehead left here at 9:25 a.m. today in a Curtis airplane to fly 225 miles to South Fox Island, in ice-bound Lake Michigan, to take food to nine starving men and a woman.

He estimates his flying time will be three hours.

Lieutenant Whitehead's plane is to stop at Northport, Mich., 25 miles from Traverse City, fill his rear cockpit with food and other necessary supplies and then fly over Lake Michigan 18 miles to the island. He will have to land at Bay City to take on gasoline.

NORTH PORT, Mich., April 19.—An airplane form Selfridge field, Michigan, is expected to wing its way toward this city today, bent on an errand of Mercy. It will strive to reach Fox Island, 20 miles off shore, where nine men and a woman are said to be slowly starving.

These men and their nine companions went to the island last November to cut timber for some Northport crate manufacturers. They carried provisions for several months anticipating the ice floes would break up long before they did.

Three weeks ago they made their first attempt to reach the mainland. In the second attempt they were caught in a blizzard and wandered on the lake more than a day before they were able to get back to the island. Last Monday the trio started in a skiff and on the third day were blown nearer short. They were picked up by a motorist and brought here, where they were given medical attention.

OSKS DAMAGES IN BANK STOCK SALE

Damages of $2,250 with interest at seven per cent from Dec. 21 last, exemplary damages of $5,000 and costs are asked in a suit filed today by T. U. Lockett against J. Stewart Ross, J. K. Hermon and O. G. Horn. All three were of El Centro, and the suit arose through alleged misrepresentation in the sale by the plaintiff of 60 shares of stock of the Security Commercial & Savings Bank of the Imperial co. This stock subsequently, says the complaint, was sold to the Pacific Southwest & Savings Bank of Los Angeles.

Hermon is now cashier of the Santa Ana branch of the Los Angeles bank, formerly the California National Bank.

Lockett alleges that between 1914 and 1916 he purchased the stock which, on Dec. 21 last, he agreed to sell at $150 per share or $9,000. The defendants, he alleges, told him that the market price of the stock was $145, but that they were willing to pay $150, because of the alleged additional representative value of the stock.

He told them, he says in the complaint, that he did not know the real value of the stock and would depend upon their sincerity.

But previous to his agreement with them, he avers, they had already arranged with the Pacific Southwest & Savings to sell the stock at $187.50 or a total of $11,250, a difference of $2,250, on the 60 shares. Not until March 15 last did he know of this, he alleges.

IRVINE WILL PLAY ELKS HERE SUNDAY

Anaheim Elks have accepted a challenge from the fast Irvine club for a return game which will be played on Anaheim H. S. field next Sunday, Manager Pete Hax announced today.

Irvine will present a stronger lineup than the one Anaheim defeated several weeks ago. Rogers will play short and Hendrickson, brother of the Chicago White Sox star pitcher, will be on the mound.

Anaheim Elks will revamp the lineup, also, Ramage going back to first; Glenn Callan on second; Pendleton at short and Dory Bunh trying out the third base corner.

Arch Hawkins, Coffman and Schrott will be in the field. Salveson will probably start in the box as Howling Harry Hughes arm continues sore. Of course, Captain Buster Callan will receive.

A week from Sunday the Elks will try to show the Riverside Colorec Giants they had no license to vanquish the home folks last Sunday.

WARMER WEATHER COMING AT ONCE

DUST COMMISSIONER PAUL SCHARENBERG

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Governor Richardson announced the ousting of Paul Scharrenberg as a member of the immigration and housing commission shortly before noon in a letter to Secretary of State Frank C. Cordan.

The letter did not mention Simon J. Lubin, who is also believed to be slated for discharge.

The governor's letter to Secretary of State Jordan follows:

"This is to advise you that I have removed Paul Scharrenberg as a member of the immigration and housing commission, effective at once."

Scharrenberg, secretary of the state federation of labor and staunch Hiram Johnson supporter, has been a member of the immigration and housing commission since its foundation nine years ago. He was appointed to the housing board by Johnson.

Simon J. Lubin, President of the housing commission will also be decapitated, according to the reports. Lubin is said to have precipitated his discharge by rebuking the governor for his drastic cuts in the immigration and housing commission budget.

"In my message I called attention to the menace to good government due to the action of state employes and members of boards and commissions in exerting undue influence upon the members of the legislature and I promised to assist in checking objectionable lobbying. My attention has been called to the fact that Mr. Scharrenberg, as a member of the immigration and housing commission, has been using his position as a state official to influence legislation, and for that reason I am removing him from office. I particularly protest at his action in appearing before the legislature as a state official in an attempt to make building more expensive and burdensome upon the people. Mr. Scharrenberg may, if he so desires, continue to lobby as a private citizen but he will not be able to pose longer as a member of my official family."

Scharrenberg is attending the session of the legislature at Sacramento as official legislative representative of the state federation of labor and has acted in that capacity for many years.

After reading the governor's statement announcing his removal, Scharrenberg said:

"I have read the governor's statement and cheerfully plead guilty to the charge of lobbying for good housing laws. If that is a crime I want to be classed as a criminal. I am not now nor have I ever been on the state payroll. I am salaried representative of the California State Federation of Labor and hope to continue at my work during the present session just as I have done for the past five sessions."

BOOSTS FULLERTON

The regular monthly membership meeting of Fullerton Chamber of Commerce was held last night There was a large attendance. Dinner was served by McFarlane's Cafe. There was a short business session during which committee reports were received, and six new members admitted.

Then the speaker of the evening, E. C. Thomas, in charge of the P. E. Ry. executive service, was introduced. He said Fullerton was one of the finest cities of California, and especially lauded the school system, saying that he heard of the fame of Fullerton's schools in all parts of the state. He predicted a great future for the city.

Bandit's Story May Solve Bomb Mystery

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Reopening of the investigation of the Wall Street Bombing in New York City on September 16, 1920, which took a toll of 39 lives, will be made immediately, it was announced today by William J. Burns, head of the United States Secret Service Department, following a lengthy interview with Herbert Wilson, famous millionaire minister-bandit, held in jail here, and who claims he made the explosives used in the New York bomb.

If Wilson's' story is true, Burns said, it connects closely with information now in the hands of the government.

more gasoline mileage with Zerolene

Few motorists would willingly pay fancy prices for oil if they knew what we know about Zerolene, which sells for about half the price of many other oils.

Zerolene, made from selected Naphthenic-Base Crude and vacuum-distilled by our exclusive process, stands up better and gives better, continuous lubrication than any oil we have seen and tested or been able to produce.

One of the best proofs of this is, that a car lubricated with Zerolene averages 5% better in gasoline mileage than a car lubricated with other oils, as shown by repeated laboratory tests. Even more important, Zerolene will run a car from 25% to 50% farther before carbon-removing operations are required.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less. Consult our Correct Lubrication Chart to determine the correct oil for your car.

FORECASTS JUMP IN TIRE PRICES

Claiming to have information never before published, a prominent Ansheim tire dealer declared today that within six months at the outside even the large tire manufacturers would be compelled to pay 50 cents in New York for rubber. The result will of course be an unprecedented boost in prices of tires, casings and repair materials.

Recently crude rubber declined 3 1-2 cents to 38 1-2 cents per pound. This decline, however, was only temporary, says the local man, and due to the fact that holders of large stocks unloaded when it appeared that a group of important financial interests back of the manufacturers of rubber goods would succeed in practically cornering the rubber market. That attempt failed, although rubber has remained around 38 1-2 cents. America already uses 70 per cent of the British supply, and the plan was to corner the full 100 per cent and then sell back 30 per cent at higher figures.

Six months' supply is the largest that any member of the Big Five possesses, while more failures are taking place in the case of smaller concerns which did not protect themselves. For example, an apparently authentic report this week said that a well known Oakland tire concern had been taken over by the Goodyear Co. of Calif. because of the former's exhausted inventories of crude rubber.

The failure of six other companies including one of the largest of the concerns outside the Big Five is well-known.

The British interests have fixed prices at 42 cents in London, which means 60 cents in New York, says the Anaheimer. No crude rubber to speak of has been imported for three months. When imports on a scale are resumed, Americans will pay the equivalent of 60 cents per pound in New York.

Last October the price in New York was 14 cents. Since then, with few lapses, the price has been steadily going up.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—When consideration of Governor Richardson's budget was resumed in the assembly today amendments providing a total increase of $819,000 for salaries and support of the several state teachers' colleges were offered by various members.

It was understood that she would later offer an amendment asking $130,000 for the same purpose.

FIVE PERISH IN LYNN, MASS. FIRE

(By International News Service)

LYNN, Mass., April 19.—Five persons perished and a sixth is missing in a fire which early today destroyed the Essex Castle, a five-story brick apartment building. The victims were trapped with no chance of escape.

There were no fire escapes.

Many of the rescued and several of the rescuers were severely injured. So frantic were the tenants that some of them leaped from the upper story windows without waiting for the firemen to spread life nets. Some who did wait leaped and missed the nets. The fire was the worst in the history of the city.

Many spectators fainted when women and children clinging to window sills were forced by the flames to release their grip.

DE MILLE SCREENS FAMOUS "GRUMPY"

That delightful and popular stage play "Grumpy", familiar to the theater goes , has been brought to the screen and with such a cast as even the most optimistic admirers of the famous drama desired but hardly expected. William de Mille was the producer

The character of Grumpy is played by Theodore Roberts, whose "Uncle Josh" in "The Old Homestead" stands as one of the greatest characters ever established in the screen world. In "Grumpy", which will be at the California Theater for two days beginning tomorrow Mr. Roberts has a character none the less powerful—if anything even more adaptable to his acting ability.

The story of "Grumpy" deals with the love affairs of a young couple fostered by Grumpy, an irascible the lovable retired criminal lawyer. A valuable diamond is stolen. and its recovery is wholly due to the discovery of the identity of the robber by means of a gardenia, of which one each was worn by three of the leading characters. How Grumpy gets his clue and runs it down makes one of the most suspenseful picture stories ever screened.

Tonight will see the final performances of the big time vaudeville show and feature picture. The vaudeville program is headlined by that noted Jack Levey and the Four Crowell Sisters in a snappy musical offering. Other great acts are also featured, while the picture is "Woman, Wake Up", starring Florence Vidor supported by an exceptionally strong cast.

"One Million in Jewel" Big Story

Scene from One Million In Jewels"

"One Million in Jewels" comes to the United Theater tomorrow and presents those great favorites J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes, in an intensely interesting story of the Customs Service. . It deals with the most modern methods employed by gem smugglers and the equally advanced tactics of the government in preventing the entrance into this country of precious stones without the payment of duty, the particular case in the story involving certain highly celebrated jewels

J. P. McGowan plays the role of Burke of the Secret Service, whose assignment sends him to Cuba where the jewels are received by a group of desperate criminals and brought to the United States by way of Florida. At their head is Helen Morgan, outwardly a charming young woman of the world, but in reality an astonishingly clever crook. This is the part played by Helen Holmes.

"One Million in Jewels" 'is replete with moments of suspense in which you think you know what might happen next, but invariable you find that something entirely different has come to claim your attention. Thus the spectator is led from one crisis to another in the affairs of the principals never sure of what may overwhelm them next.

The big feature from the point of view of the United States will come in July, when the track and field athletic games will run for nine days, from July 5 to July 13. The 1928 games will be held in Amsterdam, Holland, and the 1932 games in Los Angeles, Calif.

"The "Big Bum" is now the "Big Bam" again. Stepping into one of Howard Ehmke's slow curves in the fourth inning, he crashed the ball into the right field bleachers, scoring Witt and Dugan in front of him, and in consequence the Yankees won the opening game from the Red Sox, 4 to 1.

Going into the ninth 4 runs to the bad; the Dodgers climbed aboard Head, Hubbel and Meadows for the winning runs before a man was retired and the Phillies lost six to five. Heine Sand smashed one over the right field wall.

The Indians came from behind in the ninth to score a six to five victory over the White Sox, hits by Wamby, Summa and Sewell gaining the decision.

The Tigers treated Urban Shocker very harshly in gaining a 9 to 6 verdict over the Browns, getting to him for six hits in the opening inning. The Browns started this season without George Sisler.

The 1924 model of national politics will be lively and spirited.

Gentlemanliness and clean sport should prevail at all times, in organized baseball.

—o—

The best way to teach the young respect for law is to set them the example by respecting the law.

—o—

Growth of California in population and its development in industry are consistent and durable. There is no element of fictitious booming in this growth and expansion.

—o—

Pride, and pride of a very foolish kind, leads many young persons into extravagance and wanton waste of their resources. The logical end of this course is bankruptcy and ruin.

—o—

Nothing under heaven is sweeter or more inspiring of the noblest emotions than a little child. Its innocence and its helplessness appeal alike to the chivalry of men, and to the tenderness and deep love of woman.

—o—

Popular songs should be clean and pure, free from vulgar suggestiveness. Melodies which are sung by the millions have tremendous influence upon the life of the nation. This influence should be for good. Improper songs should be suppressed.

No more sorrowful, tragic plight could befall Russia than for the religious faith of its people to be destroyed as the Bolsheviat leaders in that country are proposing. That would be a curse compared with which other curses would be mild.

A great merchant navy should be maintained perpetually under the American flag. Congress should take up this problem without political bias and should strive earnestly to devise ways and means to keep a great mercantile marine afloat under the Stars and Stripes.

Unemployment has lessened so, the country over, that it no longer is a big, threatening economic problem. Very few persons who actually want work are unable to find it. The number of men involuntarily idle is decreasing. The employment situation has improved vastly.

In trying to overthrow the Christian religion, Bolshevism is planting the seeds which ultimately will cause its own overthrow. No spectacle in modern history—unless it be that of France during the bloody baptism of its revolution—has been more startling than this onslaught upon religion by the leaders of the soviet regime.

More than 5,000,000 acres of land now in a state of aridity would be reclaimed, if all the irrigation projects which are under inquiry by the national government were consummated. All will be put through eventually, no doubt. And the material benefits therefrom, to this section could not be estimated, so huge would they be.

The importance of hastening and facilitating shipment of commodities as a means of keeping prices within reason hardly can be overestimated. Railroads have put on much new equipment and otherwise have bettered their facilities for keeping the country clear of freight traffic congestion. Shippers should do their best to the same end.

—o—

It is unfortunate that the relations which the United States bears toward a competition of nations for the fostering of just peace the world should be made an issue of politics in this country. This Nation should do a vast deal along this line, particularly as to the influence it exerts in behalf of peace. This potent and highly important influence should not be lost to the world.

CITIES PRODUCE GREAT HUMAN PROBLEMS

The problem of the cities is the concentrated problem of humanity. The best and the worst of humankind meet in the cities. It is there that crime does its worst. It is there that the great charitable, philanthropic and humanitarian movements are started. Magnificent temples of God are there, and near them oftimes are hovels and squalor indescribable.

The city is the fertile breeding place of vice. It is the nursery of crime. Which is not to say that all criminals are in cities or that all crimes are committed there. But crime is rife there. And it is in dealing with criminality in great cities that one of the greatest problems of life arises. It is in cities that criminals have hiding places. It is to cities they flee after committing grave crimes in smaller places. It is in cities that hardened criminals take tender youths and debauch them and turn them into lives of crime and vice. In a word, it is the big city which harbors the worst criminality. Therefore, it is a very serious problem for the constituted authorities to deal successfully with the crime which hides its face in the dark corners of the metropolis.

If the fate of civilization and of virtue rested solely with the cities, it would be doubtful if the best that mankind has achieved would survive. Which is not to say that all is bad in the cities and all is good beyond the cities. But the bad in cities must be neutralized by the good which lies outside of cities.

NEW PREMIER FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Rumors recur to the effect that Andrew Bonar Law, Premier of Great Britain, will resign soon because of failing health. This has been accepted as almost inevitable, because Mr. Bonar Law was in delicate health when he accepted the post. With his quitting this high post, which has been discounted in frequent rumors, interest centers in the identity of his successor.

It is estimated that Lord Curzon will get the Premiership. But there is often a slip between rumor and consummation. That there is prospect of new leadership in British politics is indicated. There may be an entirely new departure in the realm of politics in the mother country.

New faces and figures may come to the front. Indeed, the next year or two may effect remarkable changes in personnel of leading in governmental affairs in London.

The future of Mr. Lloyd George is problematic. Whether or not a political tempest in Parliament would carry the former Premier back to leadership on a crest wave, would have to be demonstrated by the event.

Prosperity is general, from coast to coast, say the experts—and the latest expert to say this is Charles Ringling of circus fame. Who is better prepared to testify as to the prosperity than the showman? In times of depression the circus plays to lighter business. But when the country thrives, the circus tents are full to overflowing.

NEW YORK LETTER

BY LUCY JEANNE PRICE

NEW YORK, April 19.—There are odd little signposts of former decades and generations tucked in all parts of this rushing city, where we think of landmarks as being hastily destroyed to make way for material progress. On the Times Building, for instance, right in the Broadway and Forty-second street, is the name of a florist, cut deep into the stone doorway. There is no florist in that building and the passerby who ever notice it at all wonder at its presence there. Just another piece of New York sentiment! This florist had his shop on that corner, when a less ambitious building filled the space. More than that, he owned the building. When he was urged to sell it, in order that the skyscraper could take its place, he finally agreed upon one condition—that his own name be carved into the new building, as a reminder of the old days. And so there it is.

The Prince and Princess Anastasia have sailed from New York after a busy winter here, but another noble couple arrived on the day of their departure, and as in the other cases, this Princess, too, was an American girl. Morover, she was a New York girl, Elizabeth Rogers. Now she is Princess Christian of Hesse, and with the Prince and their three children, is here to spend a few months at the Plaza and enjoy Gotham's cordial hospitality.

There aren't a great many horses left in the streets of New York, but we certainly do protect the feelings of those that are. Our city horses, it seems, are even yet afraid of locomotives. So the engines used on the New York Central's freight tracks in the down town district and along the water front are "dressed up" like box cars. The horses aren't supposed to be afraid of box cars, so the engines are boarded up and are painted red to fool the faithful horses still pulling trucks around the tracks.

Why should this country worry about any war taking place in Europe or Asia or any other spot on the warlike globe? Right down here in a little Greek restaurant the other night, we showed what we could do in the way of a war of our own. A Turk got into a row with an American waiter. The Greek proprietor sided in with his employee. One German and two Irish policemen rushed to the spot to make arrests and two French hospital surgeons patched up the belligerents. Among the other diners at the time, who got into the scrap to a less or greater degree, were a Pole an Armenian, and some Spaniards.

They are not very sociable in our East Orange suburb, I would say. In a safety deposit box of a trust company there, repposes a bottle of champagne, immune from the ruthless hands of revenge and prohibition enforcement agents. Each year for many years to come certain privileged mortals will be permitted to gaze at the container of fine old wine. After this single gaze, the bottle will be returned to its place of safety for another year. There will be two uncorking of it until the far-off time when only one of the two hundred members of the Veterans' Association of East Orange remains living. That last of the veterans is to use the entire bottle then by himself in drinking a toast to his dead comrades.

HYGIENE and PLUMBING

AT no time in the world's history, have we given so much thought to HYGIENE. This fact is reflected in everything about us. The food we eat; the clothes we wear; the games we play; the houses we live in; in fact in everything in life today.

Man takes better care of himself than he did in the past. He watches his diet; takes care of his body; preserves his energy. He keeps fit. He golfs, he exercises, he motors in the fresh air. He lives more in the outdoors. He thinks of his health.

To be healthy, happy and successful think first of the PLUMBING in your home. Select it YOURSELF. Buy it direct. Do business only with a member of the Sanitary Development League. It is composed of over 200 modern successful plumbers in Southern California. They know their business and will treat you fairly. The League is behind them and their work.

BELGIUM ASKS OPEN GERMAN FRONT LINE

BY FRANK E. MASON

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

PARIS, April 19—Former war minister Louis Barthou of France, chairman of the inter-allied reparations commission, and M. Delacroix, are working out a schedule to show the minimum amount of reparations that France and Belgium will accept from Germany.

Belgium believes her economic life requires an open frontier between Belgium and Germany, but officials are afraid of possible consequences if French troops are thrown into this district. Both Belgium and Germany are anxious that Great Britain retain her army of occupation at Cologne.

Recent reports from Germany are disquieting to the French. French and Belgium politicians feel they require absolute victory for home opinion. They have definitely announced that Germany must give in before Paris and Brussels will be satisfied.

SPANISH WAR VETS. RAP PENSION BOARD

The attitude of the Santa Ana Pension Board in refusing applications for aid from Spanish American war veterans was criticised sharply by Scoutmaster Robert H. Lee at Brea, where the Boy Scouts entertained Calumpit Camp and Auxiliary. Lee conducted a drill with the Scouts, a tug of war and the setting up exercises of the Army and then put the camp and auxiliary through the exercises.

Other speakers included Superintendent Fanning of the Brea schools, a veteran of the Spanish American war; Glenn Brookins, editor of the Brea Progress, and M. C. Cooper, officer of the day. Cooper was elected as an additional delegate to the department at Riverside and Comrade D. J. Donnelly of Anaheim as alternate. An equal standard for veterans of all wars was the topic of a speech by the Junior Vice Commander, who referred to the work of the legislative committee at Washington, headed by the Commander-in-Chief.

In his speech on the pension matter, Lee voiced his belief that few if any of the men of 1898 are 90 per cent as good physically as when they enlisted. The pension law referred to provides for a pension for Vets 10 percent disabled from doing manual labor, but the attitude of the local Pension Board seems to be that if a man is working all the time he is not entitled to be pensioned. Dr. Seager, President of the Los Angeles Pension Board and Surgeon General of the U. S. W. V., speaking at Long Beach recently, said that his board had examined over 2500 applicants for pensions, under the above law, and had only turned down one and that 83 per cent of those examined had been granted pensions. Comrade Lee contrasted those statements with the results of being examined by the local board where but two, so far as he could find out, had been granted pensions out of the many examined here.

SELIG ANIMALS AT ORANGE SHOW

Lions, panthers, tigers and members of that interesting family from which man is believed by some to have sprung, will be in a huge cage in the Amusement Department of the Third Annual California Valencia Orange Show to be held May 22-30 inclusive.

These valuable quadrupeds are the property of Colonel W. N. Selig and have been used in motion pictures ever since the time Kathlyn Williams' earlier appearance in 1911 when she repeatedly tracked down in the jungles of East Los Angeles by several of these lords of the desert.

The value of these animals can be imagined when it is stated Colonel Selig has received as much as $300,000 in rentals and profits for their use. They will constitute a great show in the midway among the other attractive offers.

Escondido Chamber of Commerce is coming into the show with some exhibits of their finest Valencias and lemons. A visit there Tuesday afternoon by Malcolm A. Fraser resulted in this decision. It was at first thought by the Escondido Board of Directors that they would compete in the feature classes but the fact that they had never perpared a large feature exhibit and the further fact that the fourteen feature spaces have nearly all been engaged already, has changed their plans.

Escondido is the center of a constantly increasing acreage of Valencias and lemons, the former being splendid specimens in comparison with the best fruit of more widely known districts. It takes two packing houses to ship the product of the Escondido Valley.

GIVEN CERTIFICATES

Fourteen Anaheim H. S. students were given certificates showing that they belonged to O. O. A. which means, "Order of Oregon Artists", upon recommendation of their teacher, Mrs. Alice Bergen. The honored ones were Stella Bastian, Mabel Bercot, Ruth Klemm, Della Slaback, Helen Campbell, Christine Berghofer, John Daugherty, Selma Heine, Mildred Henry, Emma Hunton, Alice Zahl, Marie Sipple, Bernardine Schlosser, and Aileen Terry.

A RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: In the school election recently held in this city, there was shown the temper of sectarian intolerance to a degree seldom seen and

WHEREAS: Some of this evil spirit was aroused by the false charge that the Knights of Columbus were responsible for a certain circular letter, sent to voters which was signed by the citizens as secretary for the committee

THEREFORE: Be it known, that the active members of this council had no previous knowledge of said circular letter, and but very few, if any of its members received it or had knowledge of its existence until after the election.

RESOLVED: That we offer this statement to the several papers of the city for publication and vouch for its truth and sincerity, to our neighbors and the public in general.

The beauty of a linen carpeted floor

This office shows the handsome effect of spaciousness which all-over carpeting is capable of giving to a room. Even in small rooms, it imparts a dignity and roominess quite distinctive. Its deep-padded quiet and the fact that it is so easy to keep clean, with no labor and expense of finishing floors, are advantages of which decorators are taking serious account.

And a Klearflax carpeted floor has special beauty and practical value. For Klearflax has all the unique qualities of linen. It has the rare linen color values in single tones and Picwick mixtures. It has the wonderful wearing ability of linen in its heavy, thick, flat lying body. And again like linen, its new roughness becomes softer and silkier with use.

Because a Klearflax carpeted room is very practical as well as beautiful, Klearflax is being chosen everywhere for use in homes, offices and public buildings. It is economical too. Come in and let us show you our selection of Klearflax colors in both rugs and carpetings.
