MORE MONEY TO SPREAD WATER

Three Counties Will Each Appropriate $5000 For Conservation

Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties will appropriate $5,000 each for a first county water spreading fund next season, in the opinion of Col. S. H. Finley of Santa Ana, who said today that a fund of $15,000 would be sought. The only county of the three which has been rather disinclined to make appropriation is San Bernardino, which in the past has argued that the waters were within its own jurisdiction anyhow.

Last year, when this work was started, only $2,000 each was appropriated, but at least one prominent rancher of the Anaheim district declared privately, it can be announced now, that a larger sum will be asked.

Much good was accomplished, said Finley, but not as much water was spread as would have been possible, if the work had been started earlier.

The work of the three counties in a sense supplemented or was supplemented by that of the Water Conservation Association, made up of water and irrigation companies in the three counties, including the Anaheim Union Water Co.

Jazz Period Maybe Considered Artistic

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—America's hideous jazz period of today, with "flappers" leading the movement for a new freedom, a century hence will probably be considered the most artistic in the world's history.

Hugh Walpole, eminent English novelist, today in an interview made the foregoing statement, adding that Americans will be the center of the art renaissance of the world, in fact that this renaissance is commencing already.

In history, the arts have always followed wealth in England of Elizabeth times, in Florence, Venice, Athens, in all of the centers of culture of past days has been so.

The first stage, he said, is that transition from comparative poverty to wealth... When a nation becomes immensely wealthy, artists and writers leave their own lands for the new in hope of receiving adequate pay for their work. Then the influence of the newcomer has its effect on the people generally, resulting in the development of native artistic ability.

GERMANY VISIONS BEGINNING OF END

BY FRITZ EBERT, JR.

Written for International News Service.

The statesmanlike speech of Lord Cuson, British foreign secretary in the house of lords in London, pointed the way which European statesmen, Chancellor Cuno has declared in a speech that this may alter the present situation considerably.

The German government is ready to make reparations proposals.

Already serious preparations are under way. The offer may be made at any time.

Questions of reparations and of France's security play a predominant role. For German republicans there is no such question as security for France. We have learned too much from the war. Besides we are so thoroughly disarmed that we could not even imagine active resistence in the Ruhr much less an attack against France or any other neighbor state.

ONE OF FAIREST OF CITY'S GIRLS WEDDED TODAY

THE wedding of Miss Esther Annette Pember and Mr. John Frederick Kemper was solemnized at high noon today in the White Temple by Rev. R. W. Plannette of Moorpark, Calif., intimate friend of the Pember family, assisted by Rev. J. A. Geisinger.

The church was beautifully decorated in pink and white with greenery intertwining. The marriage vows were exchanged under an arch of white snowballs. The altar was banked with pink roses and baskets of the snow balls and to Mrs. W. C. Carle goes the credit of the effective motif.

Before noon, Mrs. H. O. Henderson very sweetly sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond and "Ballo" by Sanderson. Promptly at noon Mrs. Luna Wellman Quinton played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The groom was attended by his brother, Arthur Kemper. The brides maids, intimate friends of the bride, Miss Kathleen Owens, of Santa Ana, and Miss Vera O'Rourke of Anaheim, led the bridal party down the aisle opposite the ushers, Fritz Kemper, brother of the groom and Fred L. Hays, brother of the bride. Miss O'Rourke was very attractive in her dress of combined pink and orchid organdy. Her hat was of pink silk braid and lined in the two colors. She carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Miss Owens' dress was of corn color organdy and she wore a legborn hat and carried lavender sweet peas. White hose and pumps were worn by both attendants.

Mrs. Arthur Kemper, twin sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore her wedding dress, picture hat and carried white roses. Dainty Kathleen Eddy in the perky pink and white organdy strewed rose petals in the path of the bride. Miss Pember is a very attractive young lady, looked lovely in her gown of white Egyptian silk made in a girlish style. Her long veil was caught at her forehead with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a full shower bouquet. Louis Huntington, nephew of the groom, carried a gold circlet in a rose.

After the ceremony the happy couple went into the reception room where they received congratulations from more than two hundred guests who witnessed the ceremony.

A reception was held at the Pember home, N. West-st for the bridal party and relatives. Decorations there were similar to those at the church. Mrs. Pember was assisted with the entertaining by Mrs. M. P. Thaxton, Mrs. J. C. Osher and Mrs. Lloyd Shrode.

Late in the afternon the couple left on a motor trip for the north where they will enjoy a honeymoon of about ten days. Mrs. Kemper wore a beige colored poiret twill suit with accessories to harmonize. After the return, they will reside on Philadelphia-st, where they will receive their wreeds in the pretty home the groom has provided for his bride.

TWO SURPRISES SPRUNG ON BEVY OF BANKERETTES

"TWO birds with one stone were killed" at the F. C. Westphal home on W. Chartres home last evening when the Bankerette club members were greeted with two surprises. The first surprise fell to Miss Dorothy Schellens, popular bride-elect, who was honored with a miscellaneous shower. Miss Marcia Westphal later announced her engagement to Mr. Ralph Gossard.

The girls went to club meeting prepared to pass the evening with their fancy work. As the hours progressed, Miss Schellens was asked to read a letter which was handed her. She was directed to a corner in a room where to her surprise was a prettily wrapped package. With the package was another card which told her to hunt for others. She continued the search until she had collected a group of pretty wrapped gifts that will adorn her future home.

After the excitement, Miss Westphal then brought out a number of packages and gave one to each guest as a souvenir. They contained miniature kitchen utensils.

Luncheon was announced and the girls sat down to a table prettily set. A large bowl of Ocell Brunner roses and greenery formed the centerpiece, surrounded by the dainty buds. At each cover was a pretty blue May basket of spring flowers.

The guests spied some irregular paper drawings and upon investigation found two Cupids. On each was a picture, one of Ralph and the other of Marcia. No definite date was announced but the wedding will probably occur in the early fall. The lucky man was then presented to the girls who immediately showered congratulations upon both. The pretty contents of the hope chest were revealed and the girls thought Miss Westphal very fortunate to possess so pretty a collection.

Included in the jolly surprises were Misses Wilhelmine Zitzmann, Murle Gossett, Thelma Strathman, Ethel Westphal, Ruth Owens, Evelyn Desgrye, Elsalie and Dorothy Schellens, Vera O'Rourke, Lucille Bastian, Phillura Sparks, Helen Weber; Mrs. C. B. Goodsell, Mrs. Welcome M. Ward, Mrs. Kenneth Peck, Mrs. George Vermelijon, Mrs. Harry Scheaue, house guest of the hostess, Mrs. F. C. Westphal and hostess, Miss Westphal.

Miss Westphal is one of the Anaheim's popular young ladies and is connected with the American Savings Bank. Mr. Gossard resides at Lemon Park and works in the oil fields. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gossard. Their marriage will be looked forward to with a great deal of interest and no doubt Miss Westphal will be recipient of many social courtesies.

NEW YORK LETTER
BY LUCY JEANNE PRICE

NEW YORK, April 25.—Equal rights may get us a place at the polling places, but they certainly don't help us much when it comes to a beauty show. At the first national exhibition ever devoted to the arcana of making women beautiful, much more beautiful than nature had made them, so many husky men jammed the entrances that we worthily ambitious women who really wanted to learn how to become beautiful couldn't get within ten feet of a booth. Whether they were interested in trying the blooms of youth and darkened eyes on themselves or whether they only wanted to discover our secretas, I don't know, but they surely were dogged in a determination of some kind.

Keep your shoulders straight if you would avoid soul slump. That's the edict of Gertrude Atherton, the famous novelist who has recently aroused the interest of women as never before by writing a story about one who was marvelously rejuvenated. It is the slackness in posture and walk of the present day flapper which makes her the deterioration of mental and spiritual qualities necessary for the welfare of the race, declares Mrs. Atherton. "There is a subtle connection between the physical, mental and spiritual," she said "and today we see it strikingly exemplified. The mental and spiritual laxness of the present is expressed in the slack physical posture of the flapper. Something necessaw to the strength of the race seems to have gone from her, not merely physical strength, but the high morale and idealism of this nation's founders. The flapper in the modern corset would cease to be a flapper. She would be compelled to walk and sit with a straight spine. And walking and sitting straighter, she will presently see and think straighter. A well-fitted corset is a good foundation for self respect. We will have made a beginning toward restoration the health and poise which makes narcotics and stimulant unnecessary when we restore straight spines.

The announcement that the present Mrs. Paul Draper has sued her husband for a divorce, has started New York reminiscing on the wedding breakfast his first wife, Muriell Sanders Draper, insisted upon giving for his and his new bride, the former Edith Williams, when they were married. Furthermore, she presented her successor with a bouquet of for-get-me-nots.

Once more cold cash is to be taken as a deciding factor in a matter of art. A hitherto unknown portrait of George Washington has turned up and experts pronounce it a work of John Trumbell, the important early American portraitist, but the interested parties decided to wait until the painting was offered at auction, and then if the experts back up their opinion with high bidding, their judgement will be accepted. Otherwise, the scepticism will remain.

Bond issues don't seem such formidable things as I thought they were. The Theater Guild has already sold $306,700 of the $500,000 for the financing of a new theater for its productions.

It's a strenuous world. Just when general comfort seemed to be coming into style and we have luxuriated in flat heeled shoes and all that goes with them, herecomes the selection of a girl five feet seven and weighing only 110 pounds as the ideal type of the twentieth century. Of course it is a fashion exhibition committee that has done it, and not an art committee, but then, what do we take more seriously than the decision of fashion experts? Martha Gonzales, of Brooklyn, is the chosen Venus who held first place since Greece was setting our standards in marble, and is a perfect "34". Her waist is 22 inches and her hips 34.

I came across a restaurant today which believes in letting its customers know the facts. I would dare eat Salamagundi stew there I believe. Half of the space is given over to a cafeteria. Half a dozen tables are set in the adjoining room, and this sign in large letters meets the customer's eye. "We do not pay our waitresses. They are here to serve you at your expense, if you care for service. Our charge except served at the tables is the same as our cafeteria charge But please pay the waitresses fifteen cents for her service if you don't want to wait on yourself."

(By International News Service)

Babe Ruth apparently performs only on special occasions. He hit home run No. 1 on opening day before the greatest crowd in baseball history. No. 2 came yesterday in the presence of President Harding and helped the Yankees to a 4 to 0 victory over the Senators.

Seven straight for the Cubs, behind the remarkable pitching of Vic Aldridge, who held the Cards to two hits, the Cubs won, 3 to 0. Hartnett obliged with another home run.

Proving that only the late Mr. Tennyson's brook can go on forever, the Indians suffered their first defeat of the season after winning six in a row. They lost to the Tigers, 8 to 7.

Coming under the head of a modern miracle, a member of the Browns staff pitching shutout baseball against the White Sox, St. Louis winning, 1 to 0. Vangilder was the man in question.

The Giants continued to make merry with the Dodgers, taking the final game, 6 to 4, and the series, 4 games to none.

Getting away running with five runs in the opening inning, the Athletics took a fall out of the Red Sox, 7 to 3.

RIVERSIDE GIANTS PLAY HERE SUNDAY

Anaheim Elks will play the fast Colored Giants of Riverside again Sunday on the local high school field. Three weeks ago the same boys trimmed the home folks 8 to 6. This will be the last game for the Riversiders before their entrance into the newly-formed Inland league composed of Pasadena, Norwalk, Colton, Riverside and San Bernardino teams. The Riversiders have won 24 out of their last 25 games, losing one to the Shell Oil Co. Their only lineup change from three weeks ago will be Milton Norich, fast Colton twirler. He pitched for the Colton team against the Anaheim Merchants last winter.

Manager Pete Hax contemplates no changes from last Sunday's hard hitting combination unless it is decided that Howling Harry Hughes' arm is still too sore for work and Salveson is started. Howling Harry flinging elbow has been giving him trouble all spring. Two years ago he experienced a similar difficulty but was brought out of the kinks by a couple of visits to Doc Spencer, famous bone setter of Los Angeles. Manager Hax is going to submit him to the same course of treatment in the next few days.

EXPECT BIG CROWD FOR RACE PROGRAM

SANTA ANA, April 25.—Indicative of the gigantic proportions to which the movement has grown, prominent men and women of Orange county met at the city hall here last night to work out plans to cooperate with the American Legion in staging a monster parade and other events in Santa Ana, Saturday, May 5.

Horace Fine, editor of the Santa Ana Register, in calling the meeting to order, gave a brief resume of the unique program and then called for nominations for permanent chairman. Upon motion of Captain Joseph A. Pleak representing the American Legion, R. B. Bixby, appearing as head of the entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce was named chairman of the meeting. Horace Fine was named secretary.

"Auto Resurrection Day," said Chairman Bixby, "has developed to such proportions that it is apparent to all who have had any experience with entertainment projects that Santa Ana is going to be called upon to take care of the one of the greatest crowds in the history of the city on Saturday, May 5.

After the Legion parade and racing program had been explained by Captain Pleak, Chairman Bixby asked the pleasure of the meeting. It was unanimously agreed that a representative executive committee be appointed by the chairman to co-operate in every possible way with the American Legion committees.

Among those who contributed Resurrection Day ideas at last nights meeting were:

J. A. Cranston, city superintendent of schools; S. J. Mustol director of music in Santa Ana schools; S. H. Finley, county supervisor; H. Elliot H. Rowland, former president of the Lions Club; F. C. WIND CARRIES PIANO

(By International News Service)

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., April 25.—With the death of Mrs. Clyde Brunsback this noon, the toll of lives exacted by the tornado which swept So. Gage co., was increased to two.

Mrs. Brunsback died of internal injuries she sustained when the Brunsback home was turned topsyturvy. Here three year old daughter, Evelyn, was crushed to death when she and the piano were blown out of the house. The piano was carried 25 yards by the wind and crashed to earth upon the little girl who was mangled beyond recognition.

Physicians from across the Kansas line have been rushed in to care for the injured, two of whom, Mr. Brunhart and another infant daughter, are not expected to live.

NOTICE

NEW SUB-DIVISION AT CYPRESS KNOWN AS LAHOMA TRACT

Priddy & Sconce office at Cypress are preparing a new sub-division at Cypress. This tract is on the boulevard 2 blocks from Cypress P. E. Station. Nice grammar school and stores, Anaheim high school bus.

This sub-division will have graded and graveled streets, gas, lights and water pressure going in all lots, boulevard lots $800.00 up—just off boulevard $600.00 up, half acre and acre tracts can be had ⅓ down balance monthly.

Also bear in mind Cypress is expecting some oil developments, if it comes it would be good to own some land there—but if Cypress don't prove to have oil, we have a splendid property in a good location where it will have a good resale value.

FACTS TO CONSIDER

You have an oil belt, and Cypress is the center of 4 of the greatest oil fields in the United States, street car and bus conveniens, and people that want near street car service to Los Angeles are going to come on down the line, for high prices around Compton and other towns only means people are selling and coming farther out, you can't go wrong to buy where the facilities will mean a good resale value.

Now follow there will be only 54 parcels of land on this tract to sell and they won't last long and with land going higher, we don't expect to be able to secure another tract with like location—with improvements in, to sell at these prices.

We expect to have improvements completed in about 10 days but if you want to make your selections early, you can do so by paying a small deposit down, which will be held with the trust company pending your option, when all improvements are in

HOLD BANDIT FOR ILL. OFFICERS

(By International News Service)

BELLINGHAM, April 25.—Suspected as a member of the gang implicated in the $20,500 payroll robbery at Springfield, Mo., last May and as one of the Denver mint bandits, C. C. Thompson is being held here today on telegraphic orders from Springfield.

Thompson was arrested with three other men last Friday near Sumas following an unsuccessful attempt of safe crackers to blow the vault of the Bank of Commerce at Abbotsford, B. S.

Sampsey stated that Thompson's silver prints are identical with those of Ver Hollywood, alleged leader of the payroll robbers.

QUIZ FORMER CULT GIRL MEMBERS

(By International News Service)

ST. JOSEPH, April 25.—Compelled to abandon further questioning into the block marriage ceremony at the House of David last week, because of apparent coached testimony, members of the cult who have since left its bewhiskered portals have been called.

The first was Helen Margaret Couch, of Benton Harbor, who testified she had been subjected to immoral experiences while she lived at Shiloh, King Ben's alleged "chicken coop."

The witness referred to the place as a "harem" and declared Benjamin was always attended by thirty or forty girls.

FILM SHOWS LOCAL FOLKS EMBARKING

Moving pictures showing Anaheim people boarding the Steamship Corinto were shown last evening at the office of the L. G. Kellogg Co., 216 East Center-st. They were bound for Agricola, Guatemala, where they own land which is being developed in the production of pineapples and cocoanuts.

Among those seen in the movies were Dr. W. W. Adams, L. A. Evans, Richard C. Speers and Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg. The pictures were taken at San Pedro a week ago, just before the steamship sailed.

By this time there Anaheim people will have arrived at the port of Champerico, Guatemala, from which point they take the train to Agricola, about ten miles inland.

Last evening pictures were also shown off scenes in Guatemala. Meetings are held at the office of the Kellogg Co. every Tuesday evening and pictures are thrown on the screen illustrating the development of the American colony of pineapple and coconut growers at Agricola.

Over 300 people in So. Calif. have bought land at Agricola. Many of them are Anaheim people, and all are firm believers in the future of the pineapple and coconut industry on the land which they have bought.

INCREASE SERVICE

The Crown Stage line will increase service to Long Beach by running a car out of Fullerton at 7 a. m. and leaving Anaheim at 7:10, effective May 1.

MOTHER FAINTS ON WITNESS STAND

Lasaro Chairez, 23, charged with child stealing, was given a hearing before G. B. Brown, justice of the peace, yesterday afternoon and his case taken under advisement. He is alleged to have seduced a 13-year old girl, taking her to Montebello. The girl's mother fainted while on the witness stand.

F. B. Ghata, a Japanese charged with giving a no-fund check, was dismissed. The man had an account with the Golden State Bank and the check was a Golden State Bank check which had been changed to the Citizen's Bank of Garden Grove. He said that it was changed after it left his hands, and that he does not know who changed it.

Sam Lund, charged with getting in front of the car of Dean Hasen, assistant fire chief, when the latter was going to a fire, and refusing to give him the right of way on the proper signal, pleaded guilty, and was fined $25 when brought before Judge Brown this morning. Judge Brown says that the law which says that cars must keep 300 feet behind the fire truck, and give way to other cars making the proper signal, to be rigidly enforced; the second offense may mean a jail sentence.

ADMIT ORANGE TO OUTFALL PROJECT

A resolution was passed last night by Fullerton trustees admitting Orange to a share in the joint outfall sewer being built by Fullerton, Anaheim and Santa Ana. The fourth estimate of Fullerton's share in the work already under way, was received.

It was $2,396.54.

A communication was received from the League of the Southwest announcing a meeting at Santa Barbarr June 7-9. It announced that the seven southwestern states would discuss the Colorado river project and Indian affairs.

Assurances were received from the U. P. and Santa Fe that the city would be permitted to place the outfall sewer under their tracks. A 20-foot driveway from the U. P. was accepted.

The So. Cal. Edison Co. notified the trustees they would install the required lights on No. Nicolas-ave.

Final approval was given the Weston Subdivision.

The Anaheim Union Water Co. notified the trustees they would abandon the open ditch on East Chapman-ave. from Raymond-ave.

An ordinance for enlarging certain fire districts was passed over till the next meeting.

CHARGES CRUELTIES

In a suit for divorce, Louise Gordon, making John C. Gordon defendant, charges prestistent cruelties.

In September, 1924, the defendant sold all the furniture in Michigan with consulting her, she avers, and they drove to California. On the trip, she charges, he said that if he could find a place where he wouldn't be discovered he would choke her.

When they arrived she packed oranges in LaHabra to help pay expenses. The defendant pitched a tent on property of the railway, she says, and they lived in the tent all last summer. He objected to renting a house, she declares.

They were married in Niagara Falls May 10, 1911 and separated Sept. 5, 1911. There is no community property and no children. Leonard Evans is her attorney.

KNOX HAS TWO JOBS

E. Stephenson succeed G. W. Minter, Mrs. J. H. Rankin and J. G. Quick, Mrs. W. L. Grubb and F. V. S. Pomeroy are the other members of the board.

REPAINTS POPCORN WAGON

M. W. Sawdey is improving the appearance of one of the city's street corners, without putting in a bill for it. There are many ways of doing this, but the one chosen by Sawdey was to re-paint, redecorate, refurbish and otherwise improve his popcorn wagon at the corner of Lemon and Center-sts.

Critics Call "Driven" Hit of the Decade

Accorded unstinted praise by cinema critics noted for their failure to enthuse greatly over most feature productions, "Driven" has justified to the fullest measure the faith that Carl Leammle, president of the Universal Pictures Corporation had in it when he broke a precedent of six years' standing and purchased a production made outside of Universal City.

In an epic of life in the Blue Ridge Mountains, a cross-section of a phase of American life that one knows exists, but scarcely can imagine. It is the story of a mother who forgets everything, even family and tribal loyalty, and sells out her husband and three sons to insure happiness for one human being in the brood—a timid, shy lad, who longs for the better things of life and who by some freak of fate, was born into this strange family.

"Driven" opens an engagement of 3 days at the United theater tonight. Manager Murray is confident that it will meet with the same success here as it has in other cities where it has been shown.

EXTEND PAVING CONTRACT

An extension of 60 days was given today by supervisors to Wells & Breiler, contractors, on a mile of highway near San Juan Capistrano. The contract amounts to approximately $20,000.

Chairman Tom Talbert of the board was authorized to accept bonds on six different tracts.

VETERANS GOING PAST

That there were 3080 made widows through the death of Civil war veterans during March and 2882 in February, is the notation made by Rev. A. B. Markle, himself a veteran. The "boys in blue" are passing on rapidly as shown each year by the thinning ranks at G. A. R. conventions and reports.

When in need, advertise in the Plain Dealer.
