SEEK 'WHITE' KNIGHT GANG MEMBERS

Detectives Will Make Arrests of Kidnappers Who Flogged Youth.

(By International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Squads of detectives left the University police station today to make arrests of men alleged by the officers to be known as members of the "White King" gang, which early yesterday kidnaped and flogged Frank Sanceri, 21, after accusing him of attacking 13 year old Astrea Jolley.

The first two men the police sought to arrest have already been identified and named by Sanceri as having taken part in the flogging episode, the officers declared, and little difficulty was expected in finding them.

Meanwhile District Attorney Asa Keyes termed the kidnaping "distinctly un-American," and launched an extensive probe of the entire affair. He also stated that the county grand jury will probably be called upon to investigate the "White Knight" organization.

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Several suspects were being trailed today by the police in their investigation of the flogging yesterday of Frank Sanceri, 21, by a band of "White Knights" organized for the asserted purpose of avenging womanhood and arrests are expected, the officers revealed.

Sanceri, who was beaten on the top of Lookout Mountain, in Hollywood, was scheduled to be taken today to the home of Artesia Jolley, the 13-year [illegible] girl he was alleged to have attacked several weeks ago, to confront the girl's father, T. W. Jolly.

Sanceri said he could identify every one of the ten men who attacked him.

Altho Sanceri told the officers he recognized the Jolley girl's father as one of the "White Knights," Mr. Jolly declared he did not leave his home any time Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

It was stated today at the [illegible] home that the little girl, who was kidnaped and brutally mistreated by five men more than a month ago, is still in a serious condition and may never recover from the experience.

REPORT ON INDUSTRIES ACCEPTED

The report of the Holding Committee, representing the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Ass'n., was accepted at a meeting of local businessmen held last night at the C. of C. rooms under the auspices of the two organizations, and the committee was instructed to go ahead with its plans.

The report covered three schemes by which to aid industries coming to Anaheim. One was to help concerns by aiding in the sale of stock, another by giving them a bonus, a third by loaning money, to be repaid later, with which to purchase sites.

The two local organizations are cooperating and co-ordinating their efforts in the work of bringing industries to the city. The committee was appointed by President Roscoe Young and it will report again at the next meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Ass'n. to be held on the third Monday of this month, June 18.

C. J. Peeler, representing one of the concerns, was among those present. Peeler is trying to obtain John Cook's big tire factory building southwest of the city.

Several who already have been taken before have been released, but she has partly identified the photograph of one girl.

NO ARRESTS YET IN BOMBING OF CHURCH

SACRAMENTO, June 7.—No arrests had been made at an early hour today in connection with the abortive attempt made last night to bomb the United Brethren Church. Police indicated that they believed the bombing was the work of local high school students who were incensed over charges of alleged immoral conditions at the local high school brought by Rev. Oliver P. Harnish, pastor of the church.

The bomb, which was made of black powder, exploded in the street directly in front of the church. No damage resulted.

OUNTY'S HEALTH FINE, THANK YOU

The May report of Dr. W. Leland Mitchell, County Health officer, shows that new cases of illness in the county are represented largely by ciphers. There was plenty of work, however, to keep the new official busy.

There were, for example, 16 cases of diptheria, one of the reasons why Mitchell is trying to organize sanitary districts where there are none. The influenza "epidemic" appears to be over. No cases of it were reported in May, although since Mitchell took office last November, there were 109 cases. Measles, with 98 cases, making 523 since his fiscal year opened, was the worst disease. Only two cases of dog rabies was reported making three for the year so far.

Other cases reported were: Chicken pox, 14 in May, 22 to date; pneumonia, two and 16; scarlet fever nine and 35; small pox, none and six; typhoid one and five; whooping cough, none and three.

The road must be closed for about three weeks, and it is the only road leading out of Fullerton to the north. What can be done? William Record, city engineer, would like to know. He is trying to find some way out of the difficulty, and thinks it time that Fullerton had another gateway into her city from the north.

Pirates Active Off So. American Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—That a state of piracy bordering on that which existed off the African coast many years ago, is now existant off the west coast of South America was the claim made here today by J. W. Miller, purser of the Japanese freighter, Ryokai Maru.

Miller said pirate attacks had resulted in several fatalities on American, English, Italian and Japanese vessels.

The pirates he declared, hid in numerable small coves along the Chilean coast, swooping down at night in swift motor boats upon freighters anchored in the various harbors.

BANK IN S. F. SPRINGS IS THREATENED

Angered by the failure of a contractor to pay their wages promptly, a crowd of 50 Mexicans surrounded the bank at Santa Fe Springs today and threatened a demonstration.

Fearing serious developments, an emergency call was sent to the Los Angeles-co sheriff's office and two office and two officers were rushed to the bank to restore order.

The payments were delayed, according to reports, and the contractor promised to meet the laborers at the bank today and give them their money. When the employer failed to appear at the appointed time the workers began shouting threats and crowded closer to the bank.

CONFERENCE URGED UPON REPARATIONS

(By David M. Church)
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, June 7.—Germany's new reparations offer, delivered to the foreign office this afternoon, suggests a conference with the allies to fix the amount of reparations Germany must pay and the method of payment.

German embassy officials predicted that if the offer was unacceptable the Cuno government at Berlin will resign.

The note said if an international loan is impracticable, Germany is ready to substitute a system of annuities.

Germany offers to guarantee receipts from the railroads setting aside for the reparations account 500,000,000 gold marks annually beginning July 1, 1927.

The government promises to subject business, banking, industry, agriculture and traffic to a first mortgage levying a tax which will yield 500,000,000 gold marks annually.

Customs and excise duties (on goods not necessities) are pledged and it is estimated these will bring about 200,000,000 gold marks annually beginning July 1, 1927.

BELGIUM SET BACK BY FRENCH REFUSAL

(By Frank E. Mason)
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BRUSSELS, June 7.—Impression prevailed in Belgian parliamentary circles today that Belgium received a setback in the Franco-Belgian conference as Premier Poincare of France refused to discuss the details of the Belgian reparations plan at this time.

Belgian officials had hoped to canvass the plan thoroughly.

It is learned from Belgian sources that Premier Poincare holds that the English must bear "partial moral responsibility" for Ruhr disorders.

The French Premier was said to have told the Belgians that one word from London would be sufficient to cause the Germans to cease passive resistance in the Ruhr. So far the British government has refused to convey this hint to Berlin.

Premier Poincare is understood to have rejected Belgian suggestions for concessions to get the English into reparations discussions.

The Frenchman explain they see no practical advantage in sitting with the British in a reparations conference so long as Great Britain maintains the attitude she has held since January.

Premier Poincare and his French colleagues departed for Paris at 8:10 a. m.

LATEST OFFER WOULD FIX MAXIMUM

Newest Reparations Proposal Delivered to Washington Officials Today.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Germany's latest reparations offer, proposing to fix the maximum amount expected from her, and making far-reaching guarantees as regards annual payments, was delivered to the state department today by Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt, the German ambassador, "for the information of the American government."

The text of the German proposal follows:

"The German government after careful and conscientious examination expressed its sincere opinion as to what Germany is able to pay in reparations. The German government would not act honestly nor bring the problem nearer to its real solution, if it were to promise more than the German nation by exerting all of its powers, is in a position to fulfill.

"Germany's capacity to pay, however, is a question of facts about which various opinions are possible. Germany does not fail to recognize that it is exceedingly difficult to achieve a reliable estimate. For this reason the German government proposed to accept the verdict of an impartial international body as regards the amount and mode of payments to be made. A more convincing proof of Germany's will to do reparations is unthinkable.

"The German government is willing to prepare all material for a reliable judgment of Germany's state finances and to give all information desired on the economic resources.

"The German government has contemplated floating large loans in order to pay the creditor nations large amounts of capital. So long as the floating of loans in large amounts proves impracticable the German government is also willing to agree to a system of annuities instead of sums of capital.

"As the allied governments lay stress on receiving now already more detailed information as regards the choice and nature of guarantees contemplated by Germany, the German guarantees for the accomplishment of the final reparations plans:

"(A)—State owned railways with all their constructions and assets to be severed from the other capital of state and to be converted into a separate state, and to be placed under separate administration. The state railways to issue gold bonds to be entered as a first lien on the separate estate bearing five per cent interst as after July 1, 1927, thus guaranteeing an annuity of 500,000,000 gold marks.

"(B)—To guarantee a further annuity of 500,000,000 gold marks as after July 1, 1927, the German government will immediately call upon the entire German economic system i. e., the industries, banks, commerce traffic and agriculture to guarantee which, a firts lien amounting to ten billion gold marks will be entered in the industrial, urban, rural and forest real estate of Germany. The annuities of 500,000,000 gold marks will either be raised in directly by universal taxation, comprising also other property, or directly only by the mortgaged interests.

(C)—Duties on taxable luxuries, tobacco, beer, wine and sugar, as well as the proceeds of the monopoly for the sale of spirits, are to be pawned as a guarantee for the annuities.

The gross receipts of these taxes and duties amounting during the last years before the war to an average of approximately 800,000,000 marks have declined to one quarter of their value. But these receipts will, with the recuperation of German economies, rise automatically.

"Lastly, the German government considers itself bound to lay stress on the following:

"In such a large and complicated question decisive progress cannot be made except by oral intercourse at a conference. Germany's capacity to pay depends on the mode of solution of the entire problem. The methods of payment can only be agreed upon in direct conversation with those entitled to receive payment.

"Germany acknowledges her obligation to pay reparations. The German government reiterates its request to call a conference in order to agree upon the best mode to fulfill this obligation."

Compliment Leader

For the fraction of a moment yesterday Miss Kate Rea almost lost herself, when, in response to her mother's announcement that Miss Rea was wanted at the back door, she was greeted by 19 members of the history and travel section of the Anaheim Ebell. Miss Rea has been leader of this department of study the past winter, and to show their appreciation, the ladies planned a surprise luncheon.

DOUBLE OCTET ENJOY SURPRISE ON BOY FRIEND

A BIRTHDAY surprise was "handed" William P. Hall last evening when his mother, Mrs. L. L. Hall was assistant in planning an evening party, at the hall home, 609 North East-st.

The honoree had been requested to attend to an errand and during his absence the company gathered. Upon his return, he asked for a member of the family and was directed to "in the house somewhere." He went in and instantly a flod of light was switched on and a hearty greeting of "surprise" came from 16 throats. Congratulations and happy wishes over, games were proposed and the guests seated themselves about several tables. Successful players were Mrs. G. C. Beal, Yorba Linda, for the ladies and Howard Pannier for the boys, each firsts, and William Bruns, consolation.

Mrs. Hall had arranged three tables very prettily for the luncheon served in two courses, the largest table being centered with the birthday cake, surrounded by ferns and Cecil Bruners. The honoree blew out the candles according to tradition. Favors held fortunes which were read aloud and which no doubt will "all come true."

Guests included Miss Elca Bloch, whose anniversary is the same date as the honoree's and who shared in and good wishes. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Beal, Yorba Linda; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every Druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Card tables ewre arranged in the ladies parlor, where red roses lent their beauty and cheer to the room. WHY THIS DOCTOR ADVISES HOKARA

Says It Gives Instant Relief in Many Skin Troubles

It is not often that a doctor comes right out and endorses any preparation but when he does you may be sure it is somthing out of the ordinary. Read what Dr. Johnson, skin specialist, says about Hokara, the antiseptic, astringent, greaseless cream:

"For over twenty-five years in my practice I have used many kinds of preparations call "skin foods" but never until I found Hokara did I see such beautiful and satisfactory results. I use it on all my patients. It cleanses the skin and makes it soft and fresh looking producing firmness and giving power to the tissues. All those to whom I have recommended it are delighted with its use."

If you suffer with skin trouble so that the itching seems almost unbearable and the skin is so broken out that you are sensitive about your appearance, don't think it necessary to use some greasy vile smelling ointment or salve. Just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Hokara. It is sold on a positive guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Heying's Pharmacy Sells it.

NO DEMPSEY-WILLS BOUT IN PROSPECT

By DAVIS J. WALSH

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 7.—In spite of fevered statements to the contrary, there will be no Dempsey-Wills bout on Labor Day or any other.

That much is down in the books in red ink.

The New York state Athletic Commission, under the jursdiction of which the bout must be conducted, policy ignored the issue yesterday and will continue to ignore it until the annual flurry over the affair dies a natural dealth from malnutrition.

The commission's policy, dictated from sources not to be mentioned, is one of watchful waiting.

It knows the enterprise must be conducted during the present outdoor season, if at all. It knows promoters must have ample time in which to perpare for the fight. It knows it will be criticized alike if it sanctions or forbids the bout. And knowing all these things, it wisely does nothing.

The Dempsey-Wills match will never take place because opposition to it has concentrated, not only among the reformers, but also among many influential factors under one banner.

Tom O'Rourke, the promotor, has informed the writer that he is certain the bout can go on but Thomas has a frayed cuff in the family closet. The thing is as dead as last week's cabbage.

Wills is the victim of several misfortunes, paramount among which is the fact that he happened to be born a decided brunette. This prevented him from getting the Dempsey engagement while he, Wills, was in his prime. It will continue to do so, even toh the fact might be established that the negro has no chance to win.

WILL SIT TIGHT

Yosemite, Calif., June 7.—"A man who wants a pardon must show me what the judge, the prosecuting attorney and the individual jurors think of the case," declared Governor Richardson today in telling the district attorney's association in convention here the only basis on which he will consider pardoning criminals.

The convention applauded the governor enthusiastically when he assured them he was "no sob sister."

Attorney General Webb told the convention that a recent court decision compelled them to continue their work without an increase in help despite increased volume of work and urged them to do the best they could despite this handicap.

The average citizen was credited with a large share of the responsibility for the growth of crime by speakers at the opening session of the convention.

"So-called 'good citizens' who dodge jury service and leave that important work to professional hangers-on" declared Henry W. McGowen of Glenn county, "are doing all they can to encourage criminals. Sentimental persons who howl for convictions and then ask for pardons for notorious criminals are literally inviting these offenders to repeat their misdeeds."

ATTY.-GEN. MAY STOP JULY FOURTH BATTLE

(By International News Service)

HELENA, Mont., June 7.—There will be no world's heavyweight championship contest between Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons, July 4, at Shelby, Mont., unless authorities of that city instigate a cleanup that will rid the town of all undesirables, declared Attorney General Rankin here this morning.

Reports that Shelby was filling up with alleged plug-uglies, pick-pockets, rum-runners and riff-raff of the underworld of the larger cities is said to be responsible for Attorney General Rankin's action.

His message, a "hard boiled" one, issued this morning, reads in part:

"Shelby shall not be the rendezvous of thugs, yeggs, plug-uglies, pick-pockets, gamblers, rum-runners or any other class of anarchists who make their living by defying the law and the constitution.

"Therefore, if the local authorities at Shelby continue to indicate that they are either unable or unwilling to enforce the law, there shall be no match between Dempsey and Gibbons, thereon.

Tagging All the Bases

The Giants culled three very lonely hits from the delivery of Vic Aldridge and finished second to the Cubs, 6 to 1. Snyder's home run in the eighth saved the Giants from a shutout.

Dutch Reuther collapsed like an opera hat as the Pirates amassed six runs in the sixth and coasted home in front of the Dodgers 7 to 3.

The alleged pitching staff of the Red Sox was manhandled for 16 hits, the Indians winning 17 to 4. Connolly got a home run with the bases filled in the fourth.

Walter Johnson burned up the Tigers with his speed and pitched the Senators to a 5 to 1 decision, holding the Cobb entry to five hits.

Stepping out of character for the time being, the Phillies carried the Cards to 12 innings but finally lost, 7 to 6, on Bottomley's triple and Myers' sacrifice fly.

LEWIS TEST WELL ATTRACTS NOTICE

(By Ellwood J. Munger)

At Huntington Beach the attention of the oil world is directed to test for production E. G. Lewis is about to make on the old General Petroleum Community No. 1 well. The G. P. carried the drilling to 4400 and abandoned the well as a nonproducer. A few months ago L. G. Lewis came along and figured that the G. P. had not gone deep enough and that he would show an old line oil company something. Lewis carried the hole on down to 5112 feet and it is understood he has found showings sufficient to justify a try out. The production test will be watched with more interest perhaps than any other well drilled at Huntington Beach.

The Standard Oil Co. made the southeast central section of the Huntington Beach field look good with a 400 barrel well on the Talbert property. The Standard drilled Talbert No. 1 originally to 4935, later plugged back to 4772 and brought in a producer making 412 barrels of 21.6 gravity oil.

The Union Oil Co. completed a deep test well on the Copeland lease and brought in a nice well. Copeland No. 15 at 5083 is making 1200 barrels of 24 gravity oil. Soon after the well was put on production it started to increase its output and for a while flowed at the rate of 1700 barrels. of 24 gravity oil. Soon after the well was put on production it started to increase its output and for a while flowed at the rate of 1700 barrels. The Union's Brook No. 4 recently completed at 5100 is something of a disappointment in that it is only making about 50 barrels.

The new Torrance field picked up and showed some speed by increasing its production to more than 5000 barrels. The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Co., is responsible for the big increase with a 1100 barrel well on the Torrance property. Torrance No. 4 was completed at 3650 feet and started off at 1073 barrels, one of the largest wells the field has yet produced. On the Del Amo property the Chanslor-Canfield brought in a 150 barrel well at a depth of 3200 feet. The Shell Co. of Calif. has its first producer at Torrance a 165 barrel well on the Torrance lease. The Shell's Torrance was drilled to 3600 and is producing a 14 gravity oil. The Standard Oil Co. is going ahead with three wells, one on the Dominguez, one on the Torrance Community, and one on the Kirk property.

Backers of the La Habra Midway Oil Co. will be interested in knowing that their company is going ahead and will renew efforts to develop production. Drilling was stopped some six weeks ago at 5280. Additional capital was raised and now the drilling is at 5350. The formation is running in a sandy shale, streaked with grey sand. To date the showings have been of little importance. It is the intention to drill the 5500 before considering final abandonment.

In the Bandini district the Fullerton Oil Co.'s Brickyard well has reached a depth of 5000 feet where a string of 6 1-4 casing has been set and cemented. The brick yard well has had no showings of any particular importance and the outlook for a new oil field is rather slim. The Fullerton Oil Co. has made a very satisfatcory test thus far.

In the Bixby Hills the National Security Oil Co. drilling a well near Orange-co. Park report the finding of an oil sand at 4951 and will make a production test in a few days. The well was located by W. H. Stephens an oil locator of some prominence. Should the well prove a producer some credit will have to be given the man with the "witch stick." ....

In a few days the Seal Beach Oil Co. will be testing out its deep well and something will be known about the future of Seal Beach for oil. Seal Beach Oil Co. No. 1 was drilled to 5154 and a string of 6 1-4 set at 4516. From 4500 on the Seal Beach people claim good showings and the test will prove what these showings amount to. The Seal Beach Oil Co. has made a clean cut, straight forward attempt to get production and are deserving of a good oil well.

At 4180 the Palos Verdes test well got into a hard sand that was so hard that a foot every 24 hours is considered good time. The extra hard formation at this depth is very encouraging.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CALUMPIT CAMP

(By A Comrade.)

Last Tuesday night was a regular meeting of Calumpit Camp and Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, and the attendance was much better than it has been for some time.

Two additional members were elected to join the Camp and two were mustered into the Camp: Those elected were E. Canby, of Brea and Ralph Roberts, of Fullerton; the two mustered into Camp were Ernest I. Canby, of Brea and Austin R. House, of Santa Ana.

For Flag Day exercises on June 14, the Camp was invited to attend the exercises at Elks' Hall and decided to do so. They will assemble in front of the K. P. Hall, at 7:45 p. m. and march in a body to the Elk's Hall. They will be accompanied by the auxiliary who will also go in a body.

Calumpit Camp No. 26 has started a movement to have each Comrade of the Camp have a Flag to display at his residence on patriotic days and has instructed the adjutant to obtain prices and decide upon a uniform size. This will be a step in the right direction.

The Camp also passed a motion to purchase a Troop Flag to be presented to the Boy Scout Troop of Brea, whose Scoutmaster is Robt. H. Lee, a Comrade of this Camp. It is planned to present the flag at the next social meeting which will be held in the G. A. R. Hall, on June 19.

On Sunday, June 17, the Camp and Auxiliary are invited to attend Flag Day exercises at Pomona, given by Col. W. G. Schrieber Camp, of that place. They are to unveil a tablet in memory of the sinking of the Battleship Maine at 11:00 a. m. after which they will hold a basket lunch and picnic in Ganesba park.

Great improvement is expected in the ritualistic work of the Auxiliary in the near future. At their Tuesday evening meeting they decided to form a drill team, uniform them procure a Hall to drill in at least one night per week. Comrade Chas. W. Kineaid has agreed to assist the team in the capacity of drill master.

Lon Chaney Known As "Man Of Many Faces"

A screen actor, who has probably played more varied and difficult character roles than any other one person, is Lon Chaney. He has earned the title of "The man of many facts." And in the Maurice Tourneur production, "While Paris Sleeps," which comes to the United Theatre tonight, he will be seen in another new character.

Chaney first broke into the pictures as a comedian, but his great versatility and adaptability for character work was soon discovered, and after his wonderful interpretation of "The Frog" in "The Miracle Man." he has been playing character parts ever since. His services are in constant demand and he rarely has an idle moment. In "The Penalty," he was seen as a king of the underworld, and in "Shadows' he appeared as a Chinaman.

His role, however, in "While Paris Sleeps" is entirely different from anything that he has portrayed heretofore. In the role of Henri Santados, a sculptor who is dominated by love for his beautiful model, he appears as a suave and finished man of the world. Although the part entails a certain amount of character work, it is a radical departure from anything he has done before. He is seen in many tense and dramatic situations, and experts agree that in the character of the unscrupulous sculptor, Mr. Chaney does the best work of his career.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl past eighteen. My mother died four years ago and I have kept house since. When I go out I try to act just as nice and lady-like as I can But somehow or other I never get the fellow I would care for. I am considered fair-looking.

About two years ago I saw a fellow that I fell in love with just by seeing him, but being so young I tried to get him out of my mind. Later on I became better acquainted and the better I knew him the more I liked him. I really love him now and I can't get him out of my mind. It is getting so that I can't eat or sleep.

He has been going with another girl for about three years.. They don't seem to get along somehow. His family don't want him to marry her. They always part, but they always make up. Do you think there is a chance for me? How could I win him? I often see him and he treats me nicely and shows respect.

BROKEN-HEARTED.

Yours is a very natural case for a girl of eighteen. So often a girl of that age loves deeply but her love is unrequited. Perhaps it is better that she is not loved in return because the time is not right for her to have her love dream answered.

Don't become discouraged; keep on loving, but try not to let your thoughts control you. Also force yourself to take an interest in other young people. It may be two or three years, or even longer, but some time you will love and your love will be returned. Then you will be only too thankful that you did not have your way in this matter. The right man will come to you, whether it is the one you love or some one else. Only have faith that matters will work out naturally and for the best.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two good friends and there is another girl who tries hard to break up our friendship. At times she talks real nice to us and then she doesn't look at us or speak to us. She has often told my friend that I talked about her and I never have. We are in doubt about what to do. Knidly advise us.

JUST GOOD FRIENDS.

Probably the most satisfactory thing to do would be to try to overlook the "catty" things that are said. If, however, the sting remains and ill-feeling creeps in, the matter should be talked over, so that the accused party will have an opportunity to square herself. Speak to the girl who has such an unfortunate disposition and be friendly, but be guarded in what you say to her so that she will not be able to stretch the truth and cause trouble.

Soulless: You are defeating your own end by trying to prevent the man you love from seeing the other girl. No wonder you are torn with jealousy, under the circumstances. But my advice is to stop worrying about her. In fact when she comes to town, tell him that you have thought the matter over and you want him to see her if he cares to. Say that you do not want to stand in the way. Force a belief in his love and do not let him see that you doubt his loyalty to you. You cannot make the man faithful by force; but if he has freedom to do as he pleases there is far more chance that he will please to love you more than any one else. No matter what you do, do not let him see that you are afraid of losing him. A man hates to have a woman fuss and worry and show fear that love will not last.

26TH YEAR NO. 250.

Anaheim, Calif., Thursday, June 7th, 1923.

PAYS 110,000 FOR 20-ACRE ORCHARD

The Edgar Hartung ranch of 20 acres of valencias on Sunkist-ave east of Anaheim has been sold for $110,000, it was announced today by Howard O. Williams, realtor of Orange.

The buyer is Wm. N. Gregg, living temporarily at 1922 No. Broadway, Santa Ana, a citrus grower of 30 years' experience, owning his first grove on Prospect-ave, Orange.

He has owned 55 acres east of Anaheim for ten years, so the transaction may be said to have been made with a qualified buyer knowing exactly what he was doing. Mr. Gregg has a 25-acre ranch on Rio Vista-ave and 20 acres on Wagner-rd. All of the 75 acres he now owns east of Anaheim is in full bearing and may be said to be some of the finest citrus property to be found anywhere.

Mr. Hartung, formerly cashier of the First National bank, startled the citrus world when, upon return from army service, not desiring to go back to inside work, he paid the unheard of price of $62,000 to Wm. Trapp for 20 acres of land. Never before in history had such a sum been paid for land altho it was developed to the highest type of horticulture. The wisdom of his investment was demonstrated long ago for it is a well-known fact that the four crops he took off the 20 acres has far more than paid for the land and all expenses.

Ill health is understood to prompt Mr. Hartung's decision to part with the ranch now, even at the $110,000 price. He is moving to Los Angeles and will enter a hospital. Mr. Gregg is moving into the ranch home today.

"It was a cash deal," said Mr. Williams, "Mr. Hartung not finding it necessary to take in any land in Louisiana, Nebraska, Los Angelos or even in Anaheim."

JUNE BREAKS ALL MARRIAGE RECORDS

By JACK CERBERRY

NEW YORK, June 7.—June—the bride's own month—held promise today of breaking all records for number of weddings.

Dr. Randolph Ray, new, handsome, youthful pastor of historic "marrying church"—the Little Church Around the Corner,—is authority for the statement.

Between rapid fire weddings today, Dr. Ray, successor to the late Dr. George C. Houghton, gave his views on "how to be happy tho wed."

First—be sure love exists, Dr. Ray said. "Mere Physical attraction, or mental attraction alone is not sufficient. Real love requires a combination of both.

Second—remember love is a partnership and marriage is a democracy. The husband is no longer 'king of the home'.

Third—have a financial understanding, keeping a joint checking account. The old custom of putting the wife on an allowance is just another way of saying she is on the salary list.

Fourth—be prepared to sacrifice. Marriage means giving up of much.

"Marriage has withstood all the attacks of the experimentalists. Marriage is about as popular today as ever in history."

The Little Church Around the Corner has adopted a new policy. Under Dr. Ray there will be no secret marriages. Run-aways cannot find sanctuary there.

"Many modern marriages are entered into too hastily," Dr. Ray asserted. "Investigation will prove the majority of divorces are directly tracable to this. It is my hope that every 'Little Church' marriage will be a lasting one."

Yet in spite of this ban, Dr. Ray has been kept constantly busy the first week of June. It is literally true he can scarcely step out of his study door without meeting a blushing couple.

Believe Bogus Stock Selling Ring Found

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Three suspected ringleaders of a gigantic bogus stock selling ring were arrested and the ring unwittingly unearthed today when deputy sheriffs seized the trio for questioning in connection with the attempted $120,000 robbery of the Standard Oil Co. payroll from William J. Black, U. S. mail truck driver, near Elsegundo Tuesday night.

The suspects are held in the county jail on suspician of forgery. They gave their names as Emery J. Arnold, Roy Oates and Harry Brackett.

As Arnold was taken into custody he is said to have torn up a certificate. It revealed that stock had been sold by an agent for the C. C. Julian Oil Co. No record of a salesman of the name upon the receipt was found.

SHRINE ENDS WITH RECORD CARNIVAL

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The greatest carnival that Shrinedom has held will come to an end here tonight with the greatest dance ever staged in the United States. It is called "The Dance of the States."

One hundred thousand people, perhaps more, will participate, and staid old Pennsylvania Avenue, whose history is replete with marches of pomp and power and dignity, will furnish the dance floor.

The historic avenue, from the White House to the Capitol will present a mile of dancing Shriners and their guests. The music will be furnished by two bands, the Tripoli Temple Band of Milwaukee and the Alcazar Temple Band of Denver.

Furthermore, according to those in charge of the arrangements, California, Iowans, New Yorkers, Floridans and people all over the country may participate if they wish. Radio will carry the strains of the music to the farthermost limits of the country.

The dance will come to a close around midnight when the music stops and the mile long avenue of merrymakers will join in singing "America."

The Garden of Allah the court of Shrinedom in front of the White House, will be reserved for dancers from Ohio, the home state of President Harding.

Today the last of the shrine convention, saw another great spectacle—a single band of approximately 6000 pieces, playing patriotic airs.

The 110 bands which accompanied the various delegations to Washington amalgamated under the leadership of John Philip Sousa in the American League Ball Park for a concert. The sound of the music swelled over the capital like a strong wind.

DENY APPLICATIONS FOR 8 NEW TEMPLES

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Shrine's imperial council, in its closing business session today rejected eight applications for new temples.

Declaring there was no present need for the proposed new temples, the council voted down applications from Cumberland, Md.; Akron, Ohio; Kansas City, Kan.; Council Bluffs, Iowa; Otumwa, Iowa; Danville Ill.; Johnstown, Pa., and Fort Dodge, Idaho.

The council however, awarded a formal charter to Ben Ali Temple of Sacramento, Calif., which was given a "dispensation" last year.

START AND FINISH OF AUTO CLASSIC WHICH MILTON WON

Above, the start. Milton, in his white car, is at right. Below, Milton is flashing across finish line. The car behind Milton still has several laps to go before finishing the 500-mile grind.

Tommy Milton distributed fame with a big smile Decoration Day when he won the annual 500-mile auto classic at Indianapolis. He brought more fame to the name of Milton, scored a triumph for the H. C. S. Stutz car he drove, won more glory for American drivers and machines over foreign makes and drivers, and proved the endurance and speed of the smallest and lightest cars ever to figure in the race. Milton drove a car the engine of which has a piston displacement of only 122 cubic inches, about two thirds as large as the smallest motor used in touring cars. Milton won the 1921 race. Jimmy Murphy, 1922 winner, was third.

PLAN BONUS BILL FROM NEW ANGLE

(By William K. Hutchinson)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Predicting enactment of a $1,200,000,000 adjusted compensation bill by the next congress, Senator Holm. O. Bursom, Rep. New Mex., chairman of the senate pension committee, today announced the bonus fight in behalf of America's 4,000,000 world war veterans would be waged from a new angle—that of legality.

The government, Senator Bursom said, had contracted a "legal obligation" by forcing its soldiers to pay their own insurance, and in enforcing allotments during the war. He cited state compensation acts, affecting peace time employment to emphasize the government's obligation.

Furthermore, Bursom declared, the bonus bill when passed, will be signed by President Harding. If not he said, there are enough votes to pass it over his veto.

Bursum announced he would introduce the bonus bill as soon as congress reconvened and was prepared to lead the fight for its enactment. The new Bursum bill, he said, will be modeled after the one introduced in the last congress with certain changes.

The bill will pay a minimum of $32 a month to the veterans, thru the following principal provisions.

1. Refunding of all insurance payments, averaging $7 a month per man.

2. Repayment of all enforced allotments ranging from $5 to $15 a month, and,

3. Payment of a "retroactive" wage increase of $20 a month for service during the war (equal to the increase given civilian employes during the war.)

Bursum declared his bill would "contain no gratuity."

STREET CAR RIOTS

SCOUT TROOP HAS $150 IN TREASURY

Troop 2, Boy Scouts, awarded tenderfoot badges to several boys last night. Points in the efficiency contest were announced as follows: Eagle, 50½; Cougar, 27½; Rattlesnake, 13½ and Beaver, 12. The winning patrol will be permitted to hold a steak bake either the coming Saturday or a week later.

Report of the treasurer gave the gratifying information that $152.10 is in the treasury, much of the amount being earned from the auto park conducted during the orange show, and the boys are loud in their appreciation of C. J. Nenno, C. H. Ennis, A. H. Rothaermal, Mr. Bruce and S. Kistler for their aid and donations during the time.

A portion of the money will go to pay expenses of the boys who cannot pay their own at Camp Rokill, in Big Bear, which is made possible by the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs. Ten boys, Martin Babich, Joseph Babich, Routy Muraves, Louis Muraves, William O'Heron, Henry Brobst, Alex Martinez, Lupia Yabarra, Jack and Billie MacFadden, will pass much of the summer at this camp.

AUCTION IN CHICAGO IS PLANNED

One of the most far reaching steps to market fruit taken by the California Fruit Growers Exchange perhaps in years was decided upon yesterday by the directors, who voted to establish an auction market in Chicago. There are at present only four such markets,—at New York, Baltimore, St. Louis and Cleveland.

The market will not entirely replace the f. o. b. method of fruit selling, but will enable the exchange to ship any grade of fruit it likes under its brands and sell to the highest bidder. The exchange will not be obliged as now to seek out its purchaser and obtain an order for fruit.

A car sold at auction in Chicago can be re-shipped to any point in the district for hundreds of miles around.

Sales in and about Chicago have been so large that the directors of the exchange felt the new move was warranted. Business is expected now to grow still further.

MINER'S HEAD FACED BY SERIOUS CHARGE

PITTSBURGH, June 7.—Alexander Howat, of Pittsburgh, Kan., former president of Kansas district, United Mine Workers of America, today was held for court under $1000 bail on a serious charge by Magistrate Tensard DeWolfe, in Morals court.

Howat protested his innocence, declaring he was the victim of an alleged "frame up."

Howat was arrested in a downtown hotel, where he had been stopping a week, on a warrant sworn out by Police Commissioner John J. Ford of the headquarters district.

The arrest was made on complaint of Inga Sorensen, Chicago, father of a five-year-old boy.

The boy told his story to Magistrate DeWolfe, but Howat emphatically denied it.

"I will be able to prove my innocence when I go before a jury of 12 men and they hear my story. I am positive I will be vindicated."

Howat said he had engaged an attorney in this city and also had wired his attorney in Pittsburgh, Kan., to come and defend him when the case comes to trial.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Blakemore of Brea have moved to N. Olive-st., Anaheim.

MANILA, June 7.—The Philippine government had a $14,000,000 deficit the first quarter, the insular auditor reported today. SOUTHWEST LEAGUE AT SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, June 7.—The conference of the league of the southwest was called to order here today by Postmaster James B. Rickard, of Santa Marbara, who introduced permanent chairman Harry H. Merrick.

The meeting was held in the beautiful recreation center in the heart of the city.

Mayor James B. Sloan welcomed the delegates and visitors to the city.

A memorial paper in honor of the late John S. Akerman of San Diego, known as the "Godfather of the League of the Southwest," was responded to by E. A. Hornbeck, representing the board of supervisors of San Diego county.

The conference proper was opened by Dr. Horace Porter, former mayor of Riverside, Calif., who spoke on "The Genius of the Colorado River Movement."

Dr. Porter traced the beginning of the present campaign for the utilization of the big river and protection of the Imperial Valley.

The morning session closed with an address by Robert Sibley, who illustrated his talk with lantern slides and a technical, econmic and political summary of the Colorado River project to date.

Dr. Sibley not only spoke on the various propositions now under consideration, but gave an interpretation of the present status of the river development in the light of the failure of the Arizona legislature to ratify the pact formulated by the Colorado River Commission.

The afternoon session comprised a "comprehensive exposition of Colorado river projects" by W. G. Clark, a student of the Colorado River for 22 years.

He was one of the first men to oppose the dam at Boulder Canyon. Other addresses were made at the afternoon session also.

LONDON, June 7.—Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the American steel magnate, reported upon her arrival from Paris today that she had been robbed of a pearl necklace worth $100,000.

MAY INDICT 20 AS LIQUOR SMUGGLERS

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Indictments against nearly a score of defendants of the Long Beach liquor smuggling case, involving the investigation of a coast-wide ring, were prepared today by U. S. district attorney's office for presentation to the federal grand jury tomorrow.

In addition to the preparation of the indictments against defendants already named in the Long Beach case, which include three officials of the Curtis Fish Canning Corp., indictments were also prepared for several persons whose names have not been mentioned by agents from prohibition agent in charge Dolley's office.

The Hollywood liquor case, involving the name of Jack Pickford, picture actor, will also be taken up by the grand jury, it was learned, altho no action is expected at this time, as the investigation of this case has not yet been completed.

SEARCH FOR YOUNG MAN WHO LURED GIRL

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Officers from the police department and the sheriff's office today searched for a young man who, after luring pretty Mrs. Lily Chort, 18, into his automobile drove her to a deserted place near Union Pacific Manor where he attacked her at the point of a gun.

A good description of the man and the auto he used was furnished the officers by Mrs. Chort and members of the sheriff's flying squadron kept a sharp lookout in outlying districts.

MODJESKA'S LIFE HISTORY

—By reason of the wide-spread interest and inquiries which have developed pertaining to Madame Modjeska's home in the Forest of Arden, Orange County's only mountain attraction, there is being developed an inquiry for Madame Modjeska's autobiography, a book, which it is regretable to state, is now out of print.

—Madame Modjeska was one of Orange County's most enthusiastic property owners and residents. For over 25 years the famous Modjeska ranch, "Forest of Arden" was her place of residence between theatrical seasons, and she devoted a considerable space in her book to Orange County and her connection with it. It would seem that this book would be of inestimable value to Orange County, so much so that perhaps it is a matter that should be brought to the attention of Commercial Clubs, Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade, Board of Supervisors, City Councils, Town Trustees, Rotary Clubs and all clubs and organizations composed of public spirited members.

—A plan could easily be worked out at a very slight expense to procure the copyright and plates of this book and to have an edition printed, a copy of which could be placed in every public library in Southern California and copies placed on sale in all the book stores in So. California. The returns from these sales would not only repay every subscriber to this fund the amount of his original investment but the profit therefrom could be kept to increase its sale, to the widest possible degree.

—Apart from every other consideration, this book would be of great advertising value to Orange County and would more widely extend its fame among a discerning class of people.

—All that is needed to accomplish this is for some person, club or organization to bring it to the attention of every organiaztion, which is public spirited enough to realize that this is, apart from every other consideration, of the best pieces of publicity that Orange County could get.

—There is, of course, a higher and better consideration—the respect and homage that would be shown to the memory of Madame Modjeska for her selection of Orange County as her place of residence as early as 1878, and her continued love for it for a period of 30 years.

—The olive grove adjacent to the Home Grounds has been subdivided into mountain home sites which are now being offered at very low prices on easy terms. A number of selections have already been made, several houses are now in the course of construction, and there is considerable activity in the immediate vicinity. These homesites are offered at the very low prices of $200 to $300 each on very reasonable terms.

—You are cordially invited to visit Madame Modjeska's Home at your early convenience and to become familiar with the new plan pertaining to the home, and, if interested, to look over the property now being offered for mountain homes. Agent on the property every day. We will be glad to send you booklet and further information on request.

SPEEDY HUMOR FOR NEW KEATON FARCE

Fast moving farcical humor flashes all through "Neighbors" the fourth of the Buster Keaton comedies which comes to the United Theater, commencing tomorrow.

In this howling two reels of merriment, the slender, young funmaker whose serious countenance never loses its sombre look, is given many opportunities to arouse amusement by the ridiculous situations which pack "Neighbors." There is a wealth of furious action with the slapstick not hindered by an excess of subtlety.

As the successor of Fatty Arbuckle in the field of rough and ready comedy, Buster Keaton proves that he is thoroughly capable of handling the slapstick of screen comics with just as great effectiveness as his rotund predecessor.

In this latest of his laughtivities, Buster centers his career of jovial trouble about the rough and tumble belligerence of two families whose adjoining backyards form a sort of no man's land of constant irritation. In his efforts to win the girl of his love both families have an active and aggressive time with Buster put to many acrobatic absurdities before the wedding day arrives. But just when everything seems about to be settled happily, the family fracas flares forth gaily and the lovers find that trying to get married is just as exciting as trying to live peacefully with peace-hating neighbors.

On the same program will be the "Lions Den" eaturing Bert Lytell and Alice Lake and International News.

DAILY GREETINGS TO OUR READERS

TALK ABOUT CHANGING TIMES! They're started an aeroplane line to take folks from Washington to Mount Vernon, where visitors see Washington's home from the air only. It may be more thrilling, but it's not our idea of a quiet pilgrimage to pay reverence to the Father of his country.

AFTER THEY DIE

Speaking of Abraham Lincoln, one of the leading New York newspapers said editorially in its issue of May 19, 1860:

"The Republican convention at Chicago has nominated Abraham Lincoln of Illinois for President of the United States—a third rate Western lawyer, poorer than Pierce. The conduct of the Republican party in this matter is a remarkable indication of a small intellect growing smaller. They passed over Seward, Chase and Banks, who are statesmen and able men, and they take a fourth rate lecturer who cannot speak good grammar and who to raise the wind, delivers his hackneyed, illiterate compositions, at $200 apiece. Our readers will recollect that this peripatetic politician visited New York two or three months ago on his financial tour, when, in return for the most unmitigated trash, interlarded with coarse and clumsy jokes, filled his empty pockets with dollars coined out of Republican fanaticism."

Five days later a leading Philadelphia newspaper said of Lincoln: "There is not in all history of his life any exhibition of intellectual ability and attainment fitting him for the high and responsible post for which he has been nominated. His coarse language, his illiterate style and his vulgar and vituperative personality in debate contrast very strongly with the elegance and classical oratory of the eminent senator from New York."

In wilder moments some of the leading papers and political haranguers called Lincoln a "freak," a "baboon who had escaped from the morass of Illinois," a "vulgar clown" and a "low-bred village politician."

Lincoln, when he ran for the presidency, stood about as much ridicule and unmerited slander as any political candidate in our history. However, he looms greater and greater with the passing of years. His greatness lives on while most of the newspapers that vituperated him have died of dry rot.

You contrast Lincoln's standing in history with the things they said about him when he was alive. There never was a better illustration that the importance and historical worth of a man cannot be judged by the generation in which he lives.

It takes death and the perspective of time to "place" him properly. Most of the prominent people who rank highly now will be gone and forgotten within half a century. And the ones who survive time's shifting process and emerge truly great will be, in many cases, individuals who are underrated today.

The ultimate position of Woodrow Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt in history, for instance, will not be known for at least 50 years.

Although the world court is only a dream so far, Bill Borah says it "is controlled by manipulation." Bill must be a crystal-gazer for fair.

SERVICE IS THE THING

The president of the American Railway Association says the railways, from January 1 to May 12, this year, handled 17,029,946 cars of revenue as against 14,278,847 cars in the same period last year—a freight gain of 2,751,099 cars.

Further, he says there is now no car shortage, but there is a shortage of labor.

Millions on millions have been added to wages by various roads.

Looks good. Apparently, the roads have decided to cease their attempts to talk government ownership to death. Service, they rightly opine, is a better weapon to use. It should have been used long, long ago. It would have been more effective.

"More News of Byrun", reads a newspaper headline. Has that man been defeated again?

—o—

WINS BY A PUSH

In Toledo, Ohio, a bright woman manages a cafeteria. She caters not only to the physical palates of her patrons, but to their mental appetites as well. The mental food is purveyed free of cost, in carefully prepared and displayed placards. She dished this up the other day:

"Wheelbarrows have done more for mankind than automobiles."

Pretty good. And true, too. No man ever mortgaged his home, and went broke otherwise, in order that he might own a wheelbarrow. No woman ever bartered her reputation and her soul for a joy-ride in a wheelbarrow.

The good, old one-wheel utensil has been a pusher from the beginning, but it never was the vehicle of affluence, armours, arrogance or assininity. Pretty generally it has delved in dirt, but its reputation has remained unsoiled.

But getting down to the meat of the cafeteria lady's assertion, we find that, in our early days—the days when we, as a country, were trying to develop, the wheelbarrow was on the job and making tracks that spelled progress. It was, outside its side kick, the homely spade, the chief vehicle in the construction of the Erie canal. Through the latters agency, the waters of the Great Lakes were made to flow into the Atlantic, and Chicago and the central west were put in commercial touch with Europe. Railways, then, were largely a dream, but later they came, and the wheelbarrow led the way for them clear across, and up and down the continent. It still is serving in all kinds of construction work, although much of its former employment has been shifted to more modern, more speedy and more powerful inventions.

That fellow Stillman certainly lived up to his name for a long time, but listen to the noise now, will you!

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

EDITORS ARE SAYING

UP THE GOLDEN STAIR—San Diego Sun

America has joined the League of Nations, the United States Senate nevertheless and notwithstanding.

J. P. Morgan and associated American bankers—who get their money from the American people—are joining the league of powers—Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Czeko-Slavia, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Spain and Switzerland—in the task of saving Austria.

"This is the first step in the rehabilitation of Central Europe," says Morgan, as he prepared to chip in $25,000,000 of a $120,000,000 loan to the stricken nation.

Now there's no kick against America helping rehabilitate Central Europe. The collapse of Austria would precipitate another dangerous crisis in a Europe which already menaces the world with another war. Anything which lessens the danger of war and promotes world peace we are for.

But if we can work with the league to save Austria, why can't we work with the league to save the world, including ourselves? Why the holler when President Harding suggests our joining the world court?

Does Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator from Nahant, Mass, raise his voice against this manner of joining the league? Loud silence from Nahant. Not a Cabotian whisker stirs. Not a protesting gurgle. Not even a reservation.

Joining the league to make money and joining the league to make the world safe from war are obviously different things. In the one case the profit is in dollars and cents and goes to Wall Street. In the other the profit is in tranquil hearthstones, peace and security, and goes to plain folks everywhere.

Anyway we're joining the league—not by the back door, and not by the side door, and not through the cellar—but up the golden stairs.

BLOOD MAY FLOW IN SQUATTERS' RENT WAR

Give up the homes in which, as squatters, they have lived for years? Absolutely not. That's the reason Pavla Bozki, who migrated to the great northwest from Jugo-Slavia a year ago, and Mrs. Susie Sabako, eighty years old, originally from the same country, are guarding their gate in the Little Bohemia of Minneapolis.

The dispute has taken on the proportions of a war with the people of Little Bohemia on one side claiming squatters' rights and the police and a crowd of lawyers and landlords on the other demanding ejectment of the payment of rents.

They defied officers of the law when the latter demanded they vacate the squatter homes by obtaining an injunction in the county court to prevent the police from ejecting them and their baggage. This after the lawyers in behalf of landlords had obtained ejectment demands from the police.

Little Bohemia is in the river bottoms where each spring the Mississippi flood forces the people to seek refuge in the upper floors of a few buildings. They are used to battling for their homes.

NEW YORK LETTER

(By LUCY JEANNE PRICE)

Now we have to wear spectacles to match our clothes, unless we prefer to have them match our eyes—or our earrings. Ordinary tortoises are quite out of fashion and amber, white, pearly, gray, yellow, black or some other shade must be donned to suit one's own coloring or that of the costume. Imagine the complications when we want to wear our rose-colored dress some day, but have to be satisfied with our yellow sport suit, because our rose-colored glasses have just been broken.

The shake-up of Europe is going to add to the musical history of the world, according to Alexander Savine, opera instructor at the Institute of Musical Art here. Dr. Savins, who is as Roumanian, declares that Jugo-Slavia, that group of former little countries most of them belonging to Austria in the past, is for the first time having an opportunity to put forward and develop her antive music, and that the world will be the richer because of it. There are geniuses writing music there, he tells us and before long the world will recognize Jugo-Slavian music as they do that of Poland, or Russia, or Germany.

Thirty-six lives to his credit is the record of "Buck" O'Neill, dockmaster at the Battery. He added the thirty-sixth when he pulled Chief Steward William Halleck from the water the other day although the Chief weighed 250 pounds. and "Buck" is past fifty years of age now. The only thing that bothered him was having his wife hear about it; for Mrs. O'Neill is definitely opposed to her husband's jumping off the Battery so often just to save somebody's life.

Psychology long ago intruded into the business world. Now it has gripped the farmers. A fruit-grower from upstate inserted this ad in a New York City paper the other day: "WANTED: Girls with peaches and cream complexion, for picking berries and fruit on Ulster County farms." One inquiring person has a more than academic interest in such complexions himself, but hadn't connected them with advantages of labor for fruit-gathering, got hold of the farmer to learn his reasons. Psychology! That's what directed him. That and a seemilgly experienced knowledge of feminine vanity. "If a girl has a good fresh skin, she wants to keep it," he said. "She wouldn't take the risk of eating all the strawberries and huckleberries on the place. Maybe a man can work harder and pick more fruit, but he eats most of it, so I'll gamble on a pretty girl to have more to show at the end of a day.

If Manhattan seems to lose its head occassionally and cut up a bit wilder than some of our sister cities, blame it on youth. It is an actual fact that we are younger here by several years than either Chicago or Philadelphia. More than half of us are under thirty, and that's pretty young nowadays and more than one-third of us under twenty. The new census proves it. Of every 1000 New Yorker 274 have not yet reached twenty, and 573, are not yet in the thirties.

Two problems which the women of the country ought to concern themselves with at the present time, according to Mrs. Philip North Moore, President of the National Council of Women, are motion pictures and land settlement for soldiers. Mrs. Moore is in New York just now enroute from Washington, where the Board meeting of the National Council has just been held, to London, where there will be a gathering of the officers of the International Council. It is inactivity that is important just now as concerns the motion picture, she says. "Club women have been hearing speeches and passing resolutions on the film industry", she said. "But now the U. S. government is investigating it, and until the Federal Trade Commission has completed its hearings and returned a verdict (it is most important for the club women to take no further action. It is important, however, that they give time and attention to the recent land settlement project for veterans of the World War. A national organization, the U. S. Veterans' Land Settlement Association, is working to provide land and homes for ex-service men who want to go in for agriculture, and the club women of every community ought to give their aid to the movement. It would mean productive occupation for the soldiers and the much needed increase in the country's agricultural development."

PARAGRAPHS

No man ever lives to be as old as he feels at twenty-one.

The first essential to success is labor; the second is spotlight.

The church a man belongs to is the one he goes the fartherest from for his Sunday outing.

Work will minimize the worries of all people except those who worry because they have to work.

As we understand Mr. Johnson, the two present needs of America are isolation and Mr. Johnson.

These "epic" movies are getting to be little more than interesting sub-titles, with illustrations.

A man never realizes how inadequate his vocabulary is until he steps on a marble at 3 p. m.

A nation's aversion to a world court is in direct proportion to its ability to lick its neighbors.

You can tell the approach to Easy Street by the easy marks that lie trimmed at the side of the road.

Good manners alone will take you to many places, including the tail end of the line at the box office.

The difference between a swimming suit and a bathing suit is that the water dosen't spoil a swimming suit.

Almost any modern would have been hailed as a great man centuries ago if he hadn't been hanged for heresy.

America's appreciation of art isn't waning. It's just that moderns have too little time to make that kind of sofa pillows.

Under the blessings of civilization and learning, man has become reconciled to almost everything except man.

The man who is "good for it, but mighty slow pay" is just a dead-beat without the courage of his convictions.

DINNER STORIES

A landlord in a certain town found it no easy matter to collect his rent with unfailing regularity recites London Ideas.

One woman was particularly trying in this respect, and he thought himself lucky if he received part of the rent due.

One morning when he called at her house she offered him a half dollar.

"Is that all you've got for me?" he inquired with a scowl. "You're so much in arrears."

"Go on now and be satisfied," was the reply. "You wouldn't have that if my old man had not sold the back door."

A farmer in the middle west conceived the idea that onions would be profitable to raise, and on strength of it he produced a big crop for the east side New York market, says the Los Angeles Examiner. When asked how much money he made he shrugged his shoulders and remarked disgustedly.

"De ducks got 'em" That sounded interesting and he was asked to explain.

"Well, it was like this. Esther was much interested in fashions and continually pored over the fashion magazines. When she was to have a new dress she had remarkable clear ideas how she wanted it made, says the Los Angeles Examiner.

One day a friend said to her: "Why Esther, can you make your own clothes?"

"No," she answered thoughtfully. "I can make up their looks, but I never sew on them.

I do not need the lilacs to recall
That age-old time, for ever in my thoughts
Their fragrance lies;
Remembering is such an easy thing
When nights of spring sing silent songs of love;
Those days have gone, but when the springtime lifts
Again her petaled hands to softly strew
Sweet fragrance o'er the morn, my lips repeat
Old memories—our memories.—

The honeymoon is over when he begins to borrow from her household money to complete the payments on the engagement ring.

Men are creatures who cut down great trees to make room for a city, and then plant little saplings to make it beautiful.

People disrespect laws for the same reason that a kid dosen't care much for any particular toy if he has too darned many.

STUDEBAKER
LIGHT-SIX
TOURING CAR
$1190

More Cars Shake Themselves to Pieces Than Ever Wear Out

Charge that up to vibration.

Vibration causes cars to grow old prematurely by racking their chassis, destroying the "metal life" of vital parts, loosening up their bodies and causing squeaks and rattles. Frequent, costly repairs are the result.

The Studebaker Light-Six is freer from vibration than any car of its approximate size or weight yet produced.

This has been accomplished largely by a complete machining of the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces—a practice used by Studebaker exclusively on cars at this price and found only on a very few other cars whose selling prices are from three to ten times as high as the Light-Six.

There are 61 precision operations in the manufacture of the crankshaft alone, 40 of which range in accuracy from one-quarter thousandth to one thousandth of an inch.

The Light-Six motor embodies the most advanced design known to automobile construction. And no chassis at any price is built to more exacting standards of materials and workmanship.

Aside from its mechanical excellence and its consequent long life, the Light-Six is handsome in design, extremely comfortable, sturdy, and we believe the most economical car to buy and operate ever offered at $975 or anywhere near this figure.

Its substantial all-steel body, one-piece, rain-proof windshield, ten-inch cushions upholstered in genuine leather, cowl lamps—these are among many features heretofore to be had only in higher-priced cars.

For 71 years the name Studebaker has stood for integrity, quality and value.
