TOWN IN REVIEW

FOURTH of July casualty: Harry Sidman is one of those fellows when a circus comes along or it's Fourth of July, has to go to get and borrow some other folks' kids to celebrate properly.

ANOTHER Fourth of July casualty: H. P. Campbell of Buena Vista, formerly resident in Los Angeles, it got too thick for him there and he fled himself away from the mad-dog crowd to Anaheim.

STILL another Fourth of July casualty: Bill Knott was severely injured in the region of the pocketbook. He read somewhere that Gibbons wouldn't last four rounds. He knows better now. It cost $10.

HERE is one Jude who gets on the bench at 6 a. m. It's Justice J. B. Cox of Santa Ana, who is coming to Anaheim to preside over all appeals over 50 miles an hour. Independence Day was no exception to his working schedule.

IF anybody has any ring tail cats, muskrats etc. running around loose, they are invited to give their names and addresses to "Anaheim's General Store or Board of Trade". J. Henry Hight of New York City will pay $100 for each animal.

THREE UP-TO-DATE HINTS FOR MILADY'S WARDROBE

HEART-TO-HOME PROBLEMS

PRETTY, SECRET, ANNOUNCED ON PATRIOTIC DAY

MR. AND MRS. GUS Theodore entertained with a delightful Fourth of July dinner with covers laid for eighteen. The table was exquisitely decorated in the grand old colors, red, white and blue. Place cards were ornamented with roundels, and upon request of the hostess, the guests searched in the heart of the rose and found a little note.

This contained the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Nicholas Theodore and Miss Lucille Stevens, who recently moved to Anaheim from Los Angeles. The young man then placed a beautiful diamond, artistically set in platinum, upon the finger of the fair Miss Lucille. All then joined with the toast master, Mr. Leon Mats, in giving toasts for the success and happiness for the betrothed pair. A delicious dinner of finest cuisine was then served.

After the dinner, music was rolled back and a dance given in honor of the happy pair.

Ceremony Weds Sisters
Rev. Mildred Maxwell officiated at a double wedding in Alhambra Monday when two former Anaheim girls, the Misses Corbett, became brides. Miss Winifred Corbett was married to Mr. Larry Corbett and Miss Catherine Corbett to Mr. Roscoe E. Posey. The ceremony was performed at 5:30 in the afternoon.

The sisters, whose home was in La Habra until their removal to Alhambra, and who were connected with a local cafe, wore white and cream made alike and each had a filmy veil with orange blossoms. Their father, H. E. Corbett, served as best man, and the mother gave them away. The house was prettily decorated with pink rose buds and ferns. A luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony, after which the two couples left for a honeymoon at the beach.

The wedding was an elaborate one, the brides having several attendants. Six little flower girls strewn rose petals in the path of the bride and added an unusual touch of beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman and Mrs. G. Sherman, the latter the grandmother of the brides, all from Los Angeles, Ohio, were among the large company of guests.

Catch Limit of Fish
A delightful gathering Fourth was passed at Idyllwild by a small but congenial party, which fished and enjoyed the various pleasures of the mountains. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Schulz, Miss Louise Boyer, Mr. Morris Marquet and Mr. Alfred Schuch, who caught the limit of trout and today are enjoying fish dinners in their respective homes.

Mr. Joe Stroup and children, Marion and Joe, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Callahan and Mrs. E. S. Chapman have returned from an outing at the Stroup cottage at Newport.

Says Hokara Best For Sunburn and Freckles

KEPT FACE AND SKIN CLEAR—RIGHT AT SEASHORE.
"Please find money order for which please send me three bottles of Hokara. I use Hokara constantly and it has kept my face perfectly free from sunburn and freckles. This is quite remarkable as I have spent the summer at the seashore and my face has always been in terrible condition after a vacation on the ocean. My friends remarked this change and on hearing of Hokara wished to try it also, therefore this order." Signed B. L. Miller, Providence, R. I.
Hokara Cream gives new life to the skin imparting a velvety texture. It removes and prevents tan, sunburn, freckles and all skin blemishes. Hokara will not cause hair to grow on the face, nor will it soil or stain linen. Obtainable at Hering's Pharmacy.

To H. B. for Fourth

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ruick entertained with a dinner party last evening for Miss Irene Barnes and Jack Pierce. In the afternoon the quartet moved to Huntington Beach and enjoyed the amusements.

In the evening they were joined Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McNeill of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of Whittier.

Children's Church Party

The annual Junior party and mile box opening of the Kings Herald and Little Light Bearers of the White Temple church will be held at the church parlors at 2:30 tomorrow. A special program has been arranged and all mothers will be honored guests. All interested are given a cordial invitation to be present.

Visitor Recalls Incident

Mrs. J. H. Kelso, of Ft. Worth, Texas, is the guest of her friend Mrs. Sue King, of Lincoln-ave. The ladies have been close friends for many years and recently enjoying reminiscences of olden days.

Mrs. Kelso is a niece of ex-governor Hogg, whose refusal to don knee breeches to be presented to the king of England, gave him a reputation for a genuinely democratic American. He was at his reason for refusal that "the clothes of an American citizen are plenty good enough in which to meet any man in the universe."

Return from Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith have concluded a very delightful vacation which covered a distance of many miles and considerable time. They visited the Yellowstone National park for nine days. Although the scenery was gorgeous, the rains and a heavy snowfall gave the climate a great contrast to their own California.

However, with an altitude of 8000 feet, it was not unexpected. Mr. and Mrs. Smith passed several days upon their return at Glen ranch to rest from the fatigue of the former journey.

Of interest to the many friends whom they have made in Anaheim, will be news of the voyage on which Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allison, and daughter, the Misses Wilma and Vaughn, sailed yesterday on the Levantine, making her maiden trip as an American vessel. Mr. and Mrs. Smith entertained the travelers with a dinner party a short time ago in farewell. They plan to be absent until October.

Auxiliary Social Night

The Legion Auxiliary will enjoy a social evening Thursday, July 12, in the Legion club room in the city hall, to which the entire public is invited. Several good speakers have been secured, among them Mrs. Hall, executive secretary of the American Hat in Los Angeles. A good program has been arranged and the Auxiliary hopes it will have an unusually good attendance.

Family Picnic on Fourth

A "gathering of the clan" was enjoyed by the Goodrum yesterday when family dinner was served on the sands of Long Beach under the cliff from Bixby park. The kiddies, of whom there were several, played on the sands, dug wonderful wells and built pretty shells while their elders trooped in the surf at greater or lesser distances.

Composing the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Goodrum, Mr. and Mrs. John Goodrum, Betty and Mrs. John Goodrum and son, of Wickburg, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Braddock, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goodrum and Mr. and Mrs. William Goodrum and little daughter, Joan.

Choir Rehearsal

White Temple choir practice will be held this evening at 7:30 at the church. All members are requested to be on hand promptly.

Whether milady vacations at home or abroad she needs some new things and would prefer those things to be just a little different from the usual and very much up-to-date.

The three ideas embodied here are all of those things. The silk slipper sweater on the left is a particularly clever one. It has a square neck and is finished at the bottom and cuffs with a black and white checked design, applied as trimming. An unusual feature is the side of both chest and knickers is also trimmed with the checked material. A new design for the face under it. It is made of soft wool lace and is stiffened with broad blue ribbon and trimmed with roundels. For the woman who likes to insinuate a little coquetry into her morning greeting of her spouse nothing is so intriguing as a becoming cap.

Dear Mr. Thompson: I am a girl twenty years old and have been going steady with a boy for two years. He always says he loves me and that I am so different from other girls. All of a sudden he disappeared for two months. The he came back and said he did not know what got into his head. After that it seemed to me he did not care for me as he did before.

We both belong to the same religion only he goes twice as much as I do. I have only time to go once a week, but he keeps saying I don't try hard enough to do that. That hurts very much.

When I started to go with him I had a home and he used to come to see me at home. But for the last two months we have broken up house-keeping and I am working in a private home where not even girl friends can come to see me, much less boys. He asked me if he could come to the house and I told him he couldn't and explained how it was. He seemed to feel worse toward me since.

I have a girl friend who tells me I do not show my love and that I do not care for him as much as I should. I don't know what to do. I don't know if I should go back to him or not. I don't know if I should go back to him or not. I don't know if I should go back to him or not.

This girl friend takes girls and boys to the house where she works, but never has been able to take the boy she goes with steady to her own home. He says that any little thing they would have the family would know about. I am sure she loves her very much. Why do you think he does not want to go to her home?

ANXIOUS BROWN EYES

I would not advise you to show your boy friend how much you love him. He does not deserve to know unless he asks you to marry him. Let him go if he wants to. It seems to me that his interest is wavering and the harder you try to hold him, the less he will like you. As soon as you become difficult to get along with it is just as well to let him go. I can't imagine why the young man will not go to the home of your girl friend. His excuse seems to me flat, because it would not be necessary for him to quarrel openly even if his nature demanded a quarrel. Perhaps he thinks his character would not stand the test of the critical eyes of the girl's parents.

Dear Mr. Thompson: We are two girls fifteen and twenty-one. Will you please tell us how to make our hands flat and white? TEACHER AND PUPIL.

CHATEAU THERRY DISTRICT PROVEN

By HILMWOOD J. MUNGER
 The Chateau Thierry District in Long Beach is now a proven oil field. The honor of extending this beach field to a couple of miles northwest went to the Union Oil Co. with the bringing in of a new well. 1000-barrel well on the Kirby property. At the time the well was located about five months ago the location was considered pretty much of a mild location and very much of a great deal of consideration. Fifty No. 1 had to go close to $4000 for in order to get the production. The good results secured has fully warranted the deep drilling. The No. 1 started flowing last Friday afternoon, the well is flowing by heads and is believed it will get up and make a nice producer. The coming into production of the Union Oil Co. well makes the Northwest Extension well look very promising. At 4518 the Northwest has a very nice showing of oil and drilling. The well now at 4500 ft. it is thought that the drill is in the cap rock and that the Northwest will be making good in a week or two.
 The Regina Petroleum Corporation's well No. 1 has been in the line field for several months with its reports of showing and good indications. Something of a disappointment was met with a few days ago when a production test was made and the well yielded more than 1000 barrels. Regina well was drilled to 5150, and had several intermittent sands carrying oil and water. Many of the oil sands ran close to the water sands and made it difficult to shut off the water completely. The consensus of opinion that the Judd well can be fixed up and made a commercial producer.
 Among the independents who placed wells on production this past week at Long Beach mention should be made of the 1400-barrel well completed and put on production by the Acme Oil Company. The Acme producer was completed on the Dameron property at 4061 feet and is making a 28 gravity producer.
 The largest well in the independent list was that of the Patton Casing Organization. Patton Casing No. 1 finished at 4205, started off at 2500 barrels and looks like one of the good wells of the field. The gravity of this new producer is 23 and the oil is very clean. The showing in of such wells by the little operators has proven Long Beach again and again one of the greatest oil fields in the West for the small operator to get in, get a little producer, and not production in the short-time period.
 The biggest well of the week for the Long Beach field was put on production by the Shell Company of California. The Shell Company completed Wilbur No. 1 at a depth of 5173, a 26-barrel well making 28 gravity oil. The Shell Wilbur, like other deep wells, demonstrates that great productivity and the possibilities for the development of deep sand production on the West Coast. A little mechanical trouble has prevented the Shell Wilbur from going on production. This well, one of the deepest in the field, will be put on production. The deep record for the field is held by the General Petroleum, with a producer at 5430.

WILLARD TICKLED

BY GIBBONS' FIGHT

(By N. S. Staff Correspondent)
YONKERS, N. Y., July 5.—Most the happiest man in the world—Jens Willard, Kanam.

"And Tommy Gibbons took fifteen rounds!"

The sour-faced man of the prairie, Jens the uncommunicative—actually smiling this morning.

The former world's champion, in training here for his meeting July 12 with Luis Angel Firpo, told of the jump, scheduled for Boris's historic 29 acres over in Jersey, was back from three miles on the road long before the first commuter missed the first train.

"Let me tell the world something," Willard advised. "The fighter doesn't live who can lay off over a long stretch and not pay the price."

"Jim Jeffries and I are living examples, and Jack Dempsey will be the next."

"Whether anybody else believes it or not, Willard thinks he will knock the crown from the head of the king of fast money soon."

"Strength saved Dempsey," said Willard, who is now under the direction of Jack Skelly, ex-earn planner of battles.

"Let me tell you something," Willard said today. "I've been down to 238 ringside—the lightest he has ever weighed—he predicts."

Confidence has been restored to the mountain of muscle. He believes he can defeat any man in the world. But Willard is not making the mistake of Toledo. He is training. The road takes him in the morning. Then an hour in the gym. Fifteen rounds a day with sparring partners is his regular dish. He's going at top speed.

Willard today weighs 245. He'll be down to 238 ringside—the lightest he has ever weighed—he predicts.

WOMEN'S CLUB AND LIONS PLAY FRIDAY

Everybody is talking about the great baseball game tomorrow afternoon at the City Park between the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Lions Club. All who saw the girls several weeks ago know what they are made of and also know that the Lions are against a heavy and swift team.

Billy Knott, tall twister for the Lions Club, will put some pretty twists on the ball. Dorcas Jacques will be the girls' pitcher.

The game will be called at 5 o'clock and the battle will start with the first ball.

All those who miss this game are going to regret it. A small admission will be charged in order to secure money to buy equipment for the playground. Peanuts, candy and skis pie will be on sale, so it is advisable to bring along extra nickels.

INDOOR CHAMPIONS CONTEST TONIGHT

Preparations are being made to accommodate an especially large crowd at the Anaheim Y. M. C. A. this evening when the White Temple and Schneider's Market indoor baseball teams clash in the first of the final games for the city championship and possession of the silver trophy cup donated by the Y. M. C. A. Ten teams were entered by different organizations at the beginning of the season and two leagues were formed. The White Temple team won every game played in its league, as did the Schneider's Market team in the second league. Now these two 1,000 per cent teams meet in a two out of three series to decide the real champion.

The game this evening is called for 7:30 and the second game of the series will take place tomorrow evening at the same time. The third game, if necessary, will be played Monday evening after the longest which is to be given for all participants in the league games. The contest will take place at the Y. M. C. A. at 8:30 o'clock and is to be served by the ladies of the White Temple. A second game will be played this evening between the Home-Old team and the team from the Salem Evangelical church.

EXPECT TOUGH GAME WITH VENTURA SUN.

Captain Buster Callan and Manager Pete Ray will attempt to put the same winning combination that swamped Pasadena last Sunday in the field next Sunday against Ventura. Neither believes in tampering with the lineup as long as it is toping the others.

Ventura, rated as one of the strongest teams in the Elk State League, is expected to give Anaheim a real tussle. The scheduled Elk League game with Santa Barbara last Sunday was not played, but this outfit defeated Oxnard in an independent game yesterday.

The game Sunday will be played on the local high school field.

Yes, we have no bananas but we have some leftover hash from the Fourth of July celebration at Shady. We did not get this hash first hand, therefore we are not able to give you the exact table of contents. We had the dish all diagnosed, but we like a million or so others, found we did not know anything about Tom Gibbons and Jack Dempsey.

Jack Dempsey must not be half as good as we thought he was or Gibbons must be a regular "be-man."

The rules under which they fought, hitting in clinches and break away, anything, any way to get a blow over, gave Dempsey a very great advantage and yet he failed to put over a knockout or even a knockdown.

If Gibbons can stand 15 rounds of such fighting, he has a very good chance to win in a real honest-to-goodness boxing contest. Anyhow, Jack Dempsey is not so popular now as he was before this fight came up.

The financial equable that put the show on the rocks can be, in a very great measure, laid to Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. That has caused a loss of popularity and then the methods of fighting, Jack being the bigger and stronger man, has also detracted from the champion's popularity.

Americans like their champions to be great enough to be able to meet their opponents in a clean, straight, above-board manner. Not that there was anything crooked in this match. There was not, but the people will feel that Dempsey was unfair in employing rough-house methods to beat down a smaller and weaker man.

Next is the big Willard-Firpo go and then the winner-Dempsey go that will really prove whether the champ has slipped back or not.

Over across the waters our tennis stars are now leading the field in the men's singles. Little Bill Johnston and Francis Hunter have reached the finals and it looks as if they will have to settle the world champion.

SLEEDY THRU WITH FIGHT
PROMOTIONBy DAVID J. WALSH.
N. S. Sports Editor.

HEBELY, Mon., July 5.—It is the morning after the debacle, and Shelby, just one of a thousand towns in the prairie sage brush where yesterday was the focal point of a nation's interest, prepared today to live down the adduced misadventure of the Dempsey-Gibbons transaction for the heavyweight championship.

Its preparation was hurried but thorough. Long before the eastern sky-line had heralded the approach of another day, many of the transients had gone.

Gone too were the rascous, profiteering concessionaires, the temporary traffic guardians and the cots in hotel corridors. Gone was Jack Dempsey, the champion, taking with him a sum not less than $250,000, the total receipts of the enterprise. Gone also, was Shelby's further interest in affairs of the flat. The town, or to be made exact, several prominent citizens thereof, stand to lose about $200,000 for the privilege of having itself overrun by fighters, pickpockets, prominent bartenders and similar undesirable.

Shelby is all over and done with so far as the promotion of prize fights is concerned and it can now turn to the matter of removing the final monument of its folly by demolishing the arena with its thousands of superfluous seats.

The exact extent of its casualties cannot be learned at this early date, owing to the fact that the hurried promoters decided half a dollar was better than none and cut rates with a lavish hand shortly before Dempsey and Gibbons came on. This raised the size of the crowd from seven to fifteen thousand and turned the office bookkeepers to semimadness. It will be all straightened out by the time Monday holds its next championship fight.

The best itself was only mildly advising, Gibbons, making a defensive battle, which is really another way of saying his activities were more or less uninteresting. He proved two things, however, namely: that his gameness is above reproach

Combine Vacation
With Hunt for Gold(By International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The lure of gold has lost none of its romantic glamour.

The good ship Fred J. Wood, a four-masted schooner, sets sail this afternoon for Alaska with a company of 105 men, women and children aboard to search for gold in Alaska.

A co-operative undertaking, the on board shipped for $250 each to outfit the schooner, and if they "make a million" they will share alike. If they fail to find gold, they will have had a pleasant summer vacation, they say, at nominal cost.

The women have charge of the kitchen galley and the men will man the ship under the watchful eye of experienced navigators.

An auto and an airplane are part of the expedition's equipment. They are headed for Nome, where they have a larger place than elsewhere.

The party is made up of Los Angeles and San Diego people, and will return from the north in October.

MORE FLORIDANS TO VISIT CALIFORNIA

Another party of Floridians is being organized to visit California. "The Orange Blossom Special" will bring the visitors, who plan to investigate the method of growing and packing citrus fruit in California.

Edward Cowles, newspaper man of Sarasota, Fla., is getting the party together.

INDUSTRIAL SPACE IN PAID SELLING FAST

Industrial space in the annual Orange-co. fair is selling rapidly, says Manager R. D. Flaherty, who predicts that farm products space will sell equally fast. C. M. Hollingshead is one of the board of directors of the show.

And that, given more advantageous conditions with the privilege of breaking clean, he can carry on with the best of them, big or little.

Lacking the height, weight and strength of Dempsey, he could do no less than retreat from the actual business of mixing with a champion who had even the rules of the state in his favor.

The bout proved something else, too: that Dempsey is other than a great overplayed individual or else has slipped back from the form he displayed against Willard, Fulton and Carpenter. His punching yesterday was severe without being actually unpleasant. He was not the man killer of Toledo and Jersey City, partly because Tom Gibbons happened to be an elusive target and partly because the champion's punches seemed to lack the downright sincerity of other and perhaps better days.

At that many thought he was favored unduly by Referee Jimmy Daugherty in breaking the men apart, official, however, interpreted the code under which the fight was held quite literally. The Marquis of Queensberry rules provide that a man must protect himself at all times and is forbidden to hit with paving blocks. They must have been framed originally by Jack Dempsey's grandfather, so favorable are they to the champion's style, yet he failed to hurt Gibbons seriously in fifteen rounds.

As a result it is presumed Dempsey will be beset by Willard, Tiro, Wills and Gibbons alike for bouts in the East, where money and sage are more plentiful. It was the first time since Dempsey came into prominence five years ago that he failed to finish his man before the prescribed limit of rounds. The champion came out of the fight with a quarter million and tarnished reputation; Gibbons without a buffalo nickel and greater prestige than he ever has known.

BIG ADDITION TO SPRINGS
PRODUCTION

By ELLWOOD J. MUNGER

Big production was a feature of the Santa Fe Springs field this past week. Some ten new wells were brought in and the daily output of the already famous high gravity oil field increased approximately $5,000 barrels. The Standard Oil Company led the procession with four producers running all the way to 8 thousand barrels. The Standard Oil's Koonz, completed at 4513, started off at 7000 barrels, 34 gravity, clean oil. Jordan No. 1 finished at 4600, made a pretty nice well when it started off at 6000 barrels, 34 gravity, clean oil. On the Walker property the Standard completed No. 5 and placed it on production at 2000 barrels. Pacific City Pipe No. 1A has been completed at 4635 and is being put on the pump. There is little doubt about it making a commercial producer. The Standard has quit making hole on Brownsville-Keller No. 3 at 4324, and it is understood a series of tests will be made before final abandonment.

The big well of the field was brought in by one of the smallest oil wells in the field. The San Francisco syndicate drilled its Grohs No. 3 to 4770 and brought in a 5000-barrel well producing 25.5 gravity oil. The Twin Bell high gravity producer gives the field a line on what the deep Meyer sands has for the producers who have exhausted their production in the Bell zone.

Geo. P. Getty completed a new producer when he brought in his No. 10, a 4500-barrel well producing 34 gravity oil. No. 10 was completed at 4702 feet and is making 25 gravity oil. C. C. Julian added to the production of the field with his No. 3 starting off at 5090 barrels. On account of storage and facilities the production of the field with his No. 3 starting off at 5090 barrels. On account of storage and facilities the production of the field with his No. 3 starting off at 5090 barrels.

The L. B. Chase Oil Co. was the cause of a surprise with a pronounced showing of oil and gas at 1826-28. The two feet of sand made the well look like it was going to come in and get into the gutter class at once. Drilling is now proceeding at 2000 feet. The Standard Drilling Co. made up of field executives formerly with the Standard, Petroleum Midway and Shell Co., has the contract for the Chase well and these men seem to be out for a drilling production record.

Oscar Howard will boost the Santa Fe Springs production in a few days when he puts two wells on, Hathaway 1 and 2. The Hathaway wells were both completed at 4700 feet and both have several hundred feet of rich oil sand to produce from. On the Bell property Howard has started the drilling of No. 2.

The Standard lease of the Universal Oil Company is in the big production belt was proven a few days ago with the bringing in of No. 3, a 7250-barrel well. No. 3 was drilled to 4533 feet and is making 24.3 gravity oil. This is the biggest well the Universal Oil Co. has yet completed in the Springs field. The Union Oil Co. it seems will make something out of the Farwell property yet. A 1200-barrel well

WYOMING COWGIRLS GREET MRS. HARDING

President Harding with the only one to receive attention during his jaunt through the west. Cowgirls called on him, but the cowgirls, not to be outdone, called on Mrs. Harding and presented her with a huge bouquet. They invited her for a ride, but the train schedule and other things prevented acceptance, to Mrs. Harding's great regret.

was completed on No. 3 at 4711. The new Farwell producer, the best of the northwest section of the field, is making 34.6 gravity oil. The Union's prize well, Alexander No. 2, continues to make better than 7000 barrels daily.

The extreme west side of the field, better known as the Springs West Extension, set its first real encouragement when the M. & H. Oil Co. found the top of the Bell sand at 3300 feet. Core samples taken at 3300 and 3305 feet showed a nice oil sand and M. & H. officials seem to think they have found what they have been looking for. A string of 8 1/2 well b is set at 3300 feet and the well given a production try-out in about two weeks.

4 BURN TO DEATH,
7 OTHERS INJURED(By International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 5.—Four persons were burned to death and seven others injured, three seriously, in a fire of undetermined origin in the old city of Chicago. The fire broke out in the French hotel, the Hotel de France, at the corner of La Salle and La Salle streets.

The flames, starting in the kitchen, spread through the building and great rapidly trapping occupants on the upper floors in their rooms.

Panic within and without the hotel followed. While policemen rescued women and children, screams from other occupants, caught on the upper floors, could be heard a block away.

Two men and a woman who are dead, have not been identified, John O'Hara, 5, is the fourth.

The seriously injured are Ben Coleman, 26, William Keenan, 45, Matthew Kratz and Stanley Stockman. Just as the building burst into flames, Miss Minnie Werry, night head nurse at the McKeesport Hospital, came to look out of a hospital window. She rushed an ambulance and interceded to the scene. The fire victims were taken to the hospital. One man jumped from an upper floor and died in a few minutes. Police officers assisted Tony

RECEIPTS INCREASE

During the fiscal year ended June 30, the receipts of the Anaheim Post-Office were $44,032.29, compared with $36,559.14 in the previous fiscal year. Postmaster J. F. Ahlborn reported today.

Ahlborn added: "The fiscal year of 1923-24 will bring about several improvements in the postal service at this office. Two additional clerks were added July 1, and it is expected that the three additional city carriers requested will also be granted in the near future. This will mean the extension of the present city delivery district, embracing the Elk Park Tract, N. Clemente-st., Extension of Zeyn Tract, Diamond and Pearl-st. Tract, Nut Grove, Rose and Bush-sts, Cherry-st. and West Broadway, beyond Walnut-st. The contemplated extension will add 44.9 miles to the present city delivery territory.

"Rural Extensions are also contemplated, comprising upward of 10 miles additional territory to be served.

"Both rural and city delivery extensions are now pending and it is confidently expected that all of these contemplated improvements will be granted at an early date."

CHALLENGER FAILS FOR THIRD TIME

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 5.—Rear Commodore Ben Weston and Angela, the B-class challenger of the So. Calif. Yacht Club for the Islerwood championship trophy, failed for the third time in succession to lift the trophy, now held by the Seattle Yacht Club.

The challenger, now held by the Seattle Yacht Club, made a better showing in the first leg of the yesterday and leeward, 8-mile race yesterday than she had in any of the two previous races of the series, but after that she dropped behind as the wind lightened and the Seattle team won by a margin of 44 seconds.

Patricia, captain R. M. Maitland of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, was second, and the Angela finished two minutes and 56 seconds behind.

OPTIMISM KEYNOTE OF PRESIDENT

President Harding on his tour of the West, in speaking with pronounced optimism. He concedes that in some things, there are grave problems and some perils. But he proclaims his faith in the ultimate solving of the problems confronting the country. For some of the reasons, as he sees them, he offers reasons which he considers will be efficacious.

It is reassuring to the Nation and to the world to have the President—the highest official of the land—give words of hope and good cheer to his countrymen. Coming from a source as exalted, these words give comfort to the country and bolster up its confidence.

There is reason for confidence and cheer on the part of all. The country is on solid ground economically. It has its perils. It is true. But it always has had and always will have perils. These are inevitable. There is reassurance, however, in the fact that there is abundance of red blood in American life and that there is resourcefulness beyond measure stored up in reserve, with the people.

Berlin offers thirty billion marks in payment of the reparations bill. That's $3.65. Fair enough.

INCREASE IN EXPORTS OF CANADA

Canada's agricultural production is proceeding with marked increase in volume of production. Particularly in exports of flour is Canada making great progress. Canada's exportations of flour have increased 107 per cent as compared with the year average. In this expansion of her flour trade Canada has developed almost to the magnitude of the flour exports of the United States.

Progress of the Dominion of Canada is remarkable. Its agricultural and commercial interests are huge, and steadily advancing. It has timber and mineral resources of great volume, which are yet to be developed. The spirit of its people is progressive. They are of a sturdy type, for the worst part. Their achievements in conquering the wilderness are epochal. Much of the Dominion has a rigorous climate. But energy and courage have triumphed over the elements.

Ninety-eight per cent of the people in this country aim to obey the laws, but some of them are poor marksmen.

WOMEN GIVEN PLACE IN PARTY AFFAIRS

Women are to be given important place in the political councils of the Nation. In every state the national organizations of the Republicans and Democrats are planning to bring women into advisory capacity in national committee work. In other ways women are to have active and prominent part in party effort.

No more is the Sialia law to be invoked in politics in this country. Women are not to be excluded from political effort. Enfranchisement of women has demonstrated that there is no longer any doubt as to the ability of the female sex to grasp political questions and to cope with them intelligently and with abilities equal to—if not superior to, in many instances—the male elector. Women in other words, are in no wise inferior to men in political judgment and acuteness of perception and clarity of vision.

There seems to be no set quota as to the Scotch coming into the country.

AMERICA AND BRITAIN IN PEACE PACT

That the former treaty of arbitration between the United States and Great Britain should be renewed by the two governments for a period of five years, is source for gratification. It is provided in the new agreement that should the United States give its assent to President Harding's proposal for participation by this Nation in the permanent Court of International Justice, the two governments would consider making an agreement to submit disputes of the character described in the arbitration treaty to the permanent court for adjudication.

It is inspiring to Americans, Britons and all mankind that the two great English-speaking countries of the world should bind themselves together voluntarily in a compact of this nature, which promises so much for the promotion of the cause of universal peace. Here is an example that is encouraging to the world.

AUTHORS AND MOTION PICTURES—New York Evening Post

Yesterday's session of the writers, producers and others interested in the motion pictures left the movie industry looking like one of its own targets for cut-throat play. Basil King, telling how one of his novels was butchered for the screen suggested that conscientious authors might about as well begot the business. W. B. Maxwell thought that the movies are going from bad to worse. While Clayton Hamilton appealed to scenario writers to stop drawing so much material from gross fiction and suggested national themes, a French visitor despairingly asserted that many historic films are infamous as history and unspeakable in their effect on international relations.

Here, in fact, we have two great groups which for want of adequate agencies of communication are regarding each other with growing ill-temper. There are instances of $25,000 and even $50,000 being paid for the rights to a story; and while the average sale is estimated to range around $500, many are made at $2500 or $5000. Obviously, the movies are a potentially important support of literature. The Author's League has conducted a campaign to induce writers to reserve their movie rights. When they sell manuscripts to magazines, and it has a house to protect uncopyrighted scenarios. But the feeling of the better authors—and it is among the better authors that the elevation of the movies largely depends—is still largely one of irritation. They cannot trust the movies to deal artistically with their work.

For an author to expect that a screen version of a story will preserve its exact value would be fatuous. Only action can be represented on the screen, and for the most part, it must be action reduced to a newspaper style. But the author does have a right to expect that his more obvious values will be retained, and to hope that new values may be substituted for those which are lost. D. W. Griffith's "Broken Blossom" was a very different creation from the story in "Limousine Nights," on which it was based. But Thomas Burke would have agreed with critics that it preserved the spirit of his story, and added some special beauties of its own. So with "The Covered Wagon." So with a considerable list of other productions. Why cannot this be done more frequently? Not because the authors cannot be taught to write good scenarios, or because producers cannot hire competent scenario writers. It is because some producers are frankly out for the money, and many put the law in contempt on the public taste.

THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

THE TRAIN HAD
Somewhere in Pennsylvania
I began to look like a holy roller
And I asked the porter if
There was a barber on the train.
He said, "No, there was.
But did not advise me to try him.
The porter didn't want to lose
The prospect of a good tip.
The chair in the train shop.
Was already reserved by one
That they have up in Sing Sing.
Only there were no straps.
But a man can't tell out if the Barber holds him in with his elbow.
The road was rough and the train
Seemed undecided what route to take.
The engineer was steering badly.
The mirror was badly cracked.
"Customer did that with his head,"
Said the barber. "Train stopped quick."
The train lurched and the latter brash
Parked itself in our mouth and again
It nestled down under our collar.
Then he began to shave me.
"Ever cut a customer," I asked.
"Not yet," he said. "No, not yet.
I just started this morning and
You are the first man I ever shaved
On a train. I am just substituting
For the regular barber. He's sick.
I'll try not to cut you very bad."
"Once over is enough," I gasped.
After eight years the job was done.
"Fifty cents," snarled the barber.
It was worth $20 to get back to life.
The next time they will grow.

Scientists have found a petrified man thousands of years old. Probably he did business with one of the ancient bootleggers.

The communists in Russia have arrived at the inevitable conclusion that there is no successful substitute for work.

A genius in Pennsylvania has invented the only known non-puncturable automobile tire. It is made of cast iron.

Correct this sentence: "I really enjoy swimming," said the wife, "and I don't mind the heat in the least." Americans won't be keen about a rapist of the world at Geneva while the scandal of the world is in America.

As we make futile effort to stretch it a little further, we can't help wondering what dumb-bell first called it the long green.

Slow the immortals must write in spirit when a movie chap with great muscles and willingness to risk his neck is called an "actor."

Another way to economize is to tell the wife how wonderful she looked in that frock she bought last year. In a little while our colleges may be so expensive as to keep out everybody but sons of labor officials, and football players.

Charlie Myers

By Mysterious Cowboy

Once in a while you come across a garage whose response to a call for help is like that of a fire department. Charlie Myers' big red service car has the reputation of being on the job as early after a crash as that of any garage in Orange County. A telephone call to the big red brick garage at 129 North Lemon street is like a button releasing a spring to Myers and his men, and regardless of the direction, distance or roads, they are on their way toward the unfortunate.

This is only one example of the super-service which Myers offers to the public, Anaheimers and others. Open day and night and all day Sunday, the stricken autoist finds in Myers a friend indeed in his need, as he carries a complete line of replacement parts for all makes from Fords to Packards.

The garage is modern and well-equipped, and conscientious and efficient service is rendered at all times by the force. Country marks the Myers service, regardless of whether the car is a Rolls-Royce or a humble Ford, or the bill one of several hundreds of dollars or of only a few dollars.

Myers also carries a fine line of accessories and parts, including United States and other tires.

Myers is as prompt in making a replacement in case goods are unsatisfactory, as he is in responding to a call for aid.

Call on Myers when in trouble or when you need quality automobile merchandise.
