TWO BANDITS GET $3000 AT TUSTIN BANK

Anaheim Realtors Vote Today to Refuse to Pay New City Occupational License Tax

2 MEMBERS DISSENT TO ACTION

Claim it is Duplication Of State Realty Permit Tax

Refusal to pay the city occupational tax was voted today by the Anaheim Realty Board as realtors at their regular weekly luncheon in the Cherry Bistro. Only two members dissented. The action followed a long discussion of the ordinance, in the course of which Lorner Ely Attorney Hoover J. Ames was quoted as having declared that collection of the fee could not be enforced.

Almost a dozen members took the floor during the discussion, which was lively. One man declared the ordinance conflicted with the State statute; another denied this. A third asserted that the State statute provided for one license and payment of a city fee was a duplication. A fourth man said he had paid the fee only once in his life. Many members haven't paid and say they won't.

The treasurer reported $515.36 in the treasury.

Messrs Eyrabroad and Picher and A. A. Ambrose, the latter of Sidnam Bros., were elected to membership.

On motion of Former President A. E. Haigrove, the secretary was instructed to write to William E. Herren of the National Board of Real Estate Boards and get the facts on condition of membership in the National and State bodies.

President B. H. Sidnam on a question declared that the annual banquet at the Elks' clubhouse on Jan. 17 was open to the public.

It was practically the unanimous opinion, brought out in a long discussion, that a listing under the multiple listing system must be exclusive and the owner, if he is entitled to sell his property himself, must pay the commission. Romaine Berger suggested that the secretary write to the South West Realty Board and have various questions regarding the system and fees settled. The matter was brought up by W. J. Elliott. Bird V. Beebe said that the question mentioned was what had spoiled the operation of the system with other boards where it had failed.

James E. Stewart brought up the matter of extension of lighting facilities. He declared that cars night after night were parked in the dark near one of the motion picture theaters (the United was the one he had in mind) and no police were near, so that anybody could steal anything."

Stewart was told progress was being made in obtaining lighting standards for Los Angeles and Center streets.

W. B. Allen, on invitation from President G. H. Sidnam, will preside at the next meeting. Sidnam said that the board of directors thought it wise that each member preside in turn.

It was voted on motion of Bird V. Beebe that a bouquet be sent to Mrs. Glen D. Williamson, wife of the secretary of the state board. Mrs. Williamson is recovering from an operation.

WILLIAMS FUNERAL THURS.

Funeral of Mrs. Jessie P. Williams will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow from the chapel at Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles, Rev. Walter Thornton of Fullerton officiating. The body is at the McAulay funeral parlors in Fullerton.

CAPITAL RUM LIST DWINDLES AS HE TAKES UP PROBE

Peyton Gordon.

As Peyton Gordon, district attorney of Washington, D. C. takes up the work of investigating the much-talked-about list of supposed rum customers said to have been seized by police in a raid, capital officials declare that the story that the list contains the names of 1,400 notables is untrue; only 200 names are given, they say, and none of them are of prominent persons.

ASK $150,000 HIGH SCHOOL BOND VOTE

Voters will be asked to approve a $150,000 bond issue for Anaheim union high school at a special election Saturday of next week, Jan. 19, it was announced this afternoon.

Because of the encroachment of buildings onto the athletic field and need for still more building space, it is thot wise to buy more realty adjacent to the high school campus while it still may be acquired at a reasonable figure and before it is improved with buildings. It is planned to purchase ten acres with part of the $150,000 and use the remainder for construction of a six-room science building and additions to other buildings.

HOLD MAN ACCUSED OF 60 ROBBERIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Caught after a mad chase in which one auto was wrecked and many shots fired, Oscar Houston, 29, was accused of 60 oil station robberies in the bay cities by police today.

Houston was under guard at the hospital, having been wounded by Detective Martin Porter, of the shotgun squad.

After wrecking his own car, Houston commandeered a taxi, ordering the driver, at the point of a gun, to speed from the scene of the wrecked machine.

Police found a bag of money said to have been the proceeds from the robbery of three oil stations last night.

CONGRESS IS PEEVED AT LOBBIES

Turbulent Minorities May Plunge Session Into Many Probes

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I.N.S. Sta Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Torn by dissension, and filled with rampant minorities, the turbulent 68th congress stood today on the verge of plunging into an abyss of investigation whose depth is unplumbed.

Pending before the senate is a resolution fathered by Senator Reed, Dem. of Missouri, calling for an official investigation into the "lobbying" and "propaganda", which it is charged, members of congress are being subjected to in behalf of various pieces of pending legislation. Inquiry today among both Republican and Democrats developed the belief among senators that the resolution should pass.

If it does, the result will be a field day for airing all the grievances and counter grievances of all the factions in congress, with the possibility that the probe may uncover some political dynamite. Such seemingly innocent resolutions of inquiry in the past have sometimes produced astonishing results.

It is estimated by sponsors of the resolution that there are no less than 200 organizations and individuals in and around the Capitol, working for specific legislation, whose activities would come within the scope of the Reed resolution. Virtually every major industry in the country maintains a national organization here to "look out" for its interests.

The principal backers of the Reed resolution, however, are aiming at two specific inquiries —one into the organized drive by business interests against any changes being made in the Mellon tax reduction plan, and one into the campaign waged by church federations, peace societies, and womens' organizations in favor of the world court and the League of Nations.

The insurgent progressives, supported to a large extent by the Democrats, who have a fox bill of their own, are behind the inquiry into the alleged "Mellon propaganda". Democratic speakers on the floors of both senate and house have complained about the "pressure for the Mellon bill and no other."

Senator Brookhart, Republican of Iowa, one of the insurgents, indignantly put in the record today a specimen of what he termed "the Mellon propaganda". It consisted of a form letter sent out by Detroit appealing for "organization of a committee in your city to flood the mails of senators and congressmen asking them to support the Mellon federal tax reduction plan."

Mars Soon Reaches Period of Greatest Brilliance in Years

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
I.N.S. Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Science may leap over millions of miles of space to penetrate the veil of mystery surrounding the red-glowing planet of Mars this year, Dr. W. N. Coblentz of the U. S. Bureau of Standards and nationally known astronomer, declared today.

Mars will reach her period of greatest brilliance to half a century during the summer and astronomers from all parts of the country will flock to the observatories in the west and the southwest to make the most of an opportunity that will not present itself again until about 1975, according to Dr. Coblentz.

Dr. Coblentz will go to Lowell observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., to continue his study of heat radiations of Mars and other planets, studying heat radiation by use of a spectroscope.

Fifty years ago astronomers observed Mars at her periodical zenith of brilliance. In 1924, however, with astronomical instruments perfected to a remarkable degree, it is anticipated that important discoveries will be made.

"There are two schools of astronomy, one holding that there is animal life on Mars and the other that conditions are not conducive to life," Dr. Coblentz said.

Dr. Coblentz cannot believe that there is further life on Mars than that of plants such as are found around the world's polar region.

"My heat measurements indicate that when the sun is shining on the surface of Mars, the climate is warm enough for human life, but because of the rarified atmosphere when the sun goes down, the temperature falls far below zero," Dr. Coblentz said.

Seek Millions For Western Irrigation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Appropriations aggregating approximately $10,000,000 for the development of irrigation projects in western states, were contained in the 1924 interior department appropriation bill laid before the House today.

The bill carried a total of $261,727,965, as compared with $297,520,009 for the previous year. This is $10,341,360 less than the amount suggested by the budget bureau, and $35,792,044 less than the appropriation made last year.

CLEARED OF DESERTION CHARGES

Completely exonerated of charges of desertion, Harry Thorsos, 25, former joint owner of the Sanitary dairy in Santa Ana, today returned to his home there following 54 days imprisonment at Fort McArthur.

Military authorities, according to Attorney Otto Sasaker, declared "every statement made by Thorsos was borne out by the facts in the case presented before a military court martial. The court, after three minutes deliberation, ordered the immediate release of Thorsos from the federal prison near San Pedro."

Thorsos, who is married and bears an excellent reputation, today gave the following account of his unpleasant experience with the American government officers:

"At the time men were being enlisted for service in the World War, I was living in Alaska. I am a native of Norway. At that time I was about thirty years old.

"With other men living in that section I registered for service in Ruby, Alaska, April 14, 1918. I told the board officers I wanted to fight for the United States, because the fact that I was a naturalized citizen of this country. Several months passed.

"Desiring to get into service if possible, I decided to go to Seattle. I so informed my draft board in Ruby. I left Ruby June 19 1918, telling my board where I was going.

"In Seattle, I tried to enlist in the marines, but was told they were no longer taking men in the division. I called at the Seattle board headquarters, told them where I was from, and asked them how to proceed.

"I was told by a member of the Seattle board that I should call at the cable office and keep in touch with my Alaskan draft board. Day after day I called, asking them if they had any notice for me. There was none.

"I worked for one of the largest dairy corporations in Seattle, and when I knew I was likely to be called for service. My companions knew it. I presented full and honest affidavits from my fellow workers showing I called at the cable office, looking for my orders. So far as I knew, they never came. But the government claims I was notified. I received no notice of any kind.

"Later, in February, 1922, I left Seattle and came to Southern California. In Santa Ana I entered the dairy business. I had married and wanted to become a citizen of this country. I went to Los Angeles to take out my first papers. I was told to report to Fort McArthur.

"Imagine my surprise, to learn there, that I was booked as a deserter from the U. S. army. I was told I was under arrest. I employed Attorney Sasaker, who sought to bring about my release on habeas corpus proceedings. This action failed. I was ordered imprisoned at Fort McArthur. I served 54 days when I was innocent as a child.

"Finally, after Representative Phil D. Swing had been appealed to by a Santa Ana paper my case came up for disposal by the military court at San Pedro. The hearing was over in thirty minutes. The court deliberated only three minutes. Then I was ordered released at once. I was informed by an officer at Fort McArthur that every statement I had made was completely borne out by the facts in the case.

"I harbor no ill feeling. I wanted to serve this country and I did everything in my power to do so. My friends will know I was unjustly accused."

WOOD FACING SPECIFIC CHARGES

Lodged With Congress Today by Independence Mission

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—For the first time since the fight for Philippine independence began, specific charges of bad administration were lodged with Congress against Major-General Leonard Wood today by the Philippine Independence mission.

In a lengthy statement signed by Manuel Roxas, speaker of the Philippine house, and Pedro Guevara and Isaro Gabaldon, resident commissioner, eight specific charges were made against the "reactionary and militaristic" rule of General Wood.

General Wood, the statement declared, "is injecting the autocracy of an irresponsible executive into a republican democracy." The eight charges a mal-administration follow:

"1. He has broken asunder the bond of concord that united Americans and Filipinos after the bloody struggle of 1899.

"2. He has placed himself over and above the laws passed by the Philippine legislature—laws that have never been declared null and void by the courts or by the American Congress.

"3. He has claimed for himself an unlimited executive responsibility that neither the existing laws nor the practices already established have recognized.

"4. He has deviated from the policy of the American government to give the Philippine people an ever-increasing self-government.

"5. He has abused the veto power, exercising it on the slightest pretext on matters of purely local concern that did not affect the sovereignty of the United States or its international obligations.

"6. He has disregarded the rights of the senate in his exercise of the appointing power.

"7. He has destroyed the budget system, the greatest achievement in the financial administration of our government.

"8. He has endeavored to defeat the economic policies duly laid down by the Philippine legislature for the protection of the rights and interests of the Philippine people in the development of the resources of the islands."

By his actions the Philippine independence mission charges Governor-General Wood has set at naught all understanding the Philippine people have had with the American government, and has ignored the assurance of freedom given them by the late President Harding.

DEMOCRAT HEADS I. C. COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The legislative deadlock in the senate over election of a chairman of the Interstate Commerce committee was broken this afternoon with dramatic suddenness by the election of Senator Ellison D. Smith, Dem. of South Carolina.

SON OF GENERAL WOOD AT MANILA MAKES $800,000 SPECULATING

Lieutenant Osborne Cutler Wood son and aide to Governor General Leonard Wood of the Philippine Islands has made a fortune that is said to be between seven and eight hundred thousand dollars by speculating in Wall St. His dealings were so remarkable and such large amounts of money were transferred through New York banks to Lieut. Wood's personal account that it created a great deal of comment in official circles in Washington. It is said that he was advised to cease his speculations. Lieut. Wood, it is thought, will resign in the near future from the Army and may at that time enter the Diplomatic Service. Photo of Lieut. Wood and Mrs. Wood, formerly Miss E. SOON WITHDRAW ILLINOIS MILITIA

MARION, ILL., Jan. 9—Immediate withdrawal of the state militia from Williamson co., was forecast today by S. Glenn Young prohibition agent under whose immediate supervision the recent sweeping liquor raids were conducted in Williamson co. which netted 275 arrests and the seizure of large stocks of wet goods.

"There is no necessity for the troops here," Young declared. "The whole trouble is that Sheriff George Galligan misrepresented facts to the governor in requesting that national guard units be sent here.

"I have been in communication with Governor Len Small and have assurances that the troops will be removed today," Young asserted.

According to Young, the first militia officer to reach Marion, Major W. P. Greatey, who commanded Company K of the 130th infantry of Cairo, Ills., declared that the country was "absolutely quiet, no excitement evident, and no necessity for calling of troops."

A canvass of International News Service early today of Marion's prominent citizens, which included two leading ministers, the school superintendent, and a railroad superintendent, showed that public sentiment was that no emergency existed for the ordering of troops to Marion.

PAIR ESCAPE IN AUTO TO SANTA ANA

Officers Patrol Roads Few Minutes After Holdup at Noon

The First National Bank of Tustin was held up at 11:50 a. m. today by two unmasked bandits who obtained between $2500 and $3500. The pair fled in a Dodge touring car toward Santa Ana.

Only two bank officials, C. A. Vance, cashier, and W. S. Linneberger, and a stranger were in the bank when the bandits entered.

At the point of revolvers, they forced the bank officials to open the safe and several drawers. The bandits shoveled money into a sack, overlooking $1000.

The whole affair took only a few seconds and the bandits were able to get away before a general alarm was sounded.

The sheriff's office and Orange-co. police authorities were notified and cordons of motorcycle officers and armed deputies in autos were patrolling all Orange-co. highways within a few minutes.

Mrs. Vance, wife of the cashier, said she noted the bandits speed away from the bank. The curtains were up, she saw two men in the rear seat in addition to the driver.

Linemen for the So. Cal. Edison Co., claimed to have seen a car leave the bank at full speed in the direction of Santa Ana, soon becoming lost in the traffic. They claim the car was a Buick.

Another report claimed the bandit car was a Reo.

Late this afternoon it was announced the bandits missed $1800 of new currency, direct from the government, which was in an envelope.

FIGHT CRIME AND PERIL OF TRAFFIC

Crime multiplies here in Orange co. Traffic perils multiply. Here are two forms of peril which this county should take cognizance of this year and combat with concentrated vigor.

The crime situation is deplorable beyond words. The most shocking offenses are being committed, culminating in murder and outrages against womanhood. These offenses are intolerable. But they will go on so long as the forces of law and order are not co-ordinated and directed, with singleness of purpose, against this menace. The first thing requisite is to stir up sentiment throughout the county for strict enforcement of law and for prompt arrest and vigorous prosecution of desperate criminals. The public should give peace officers the fullest co-operation in running down the criminals and in preventing crimes. With the people united in thought and purpose, in demanding suppression of shocking criminality here, ways and means would be found to suppress the outrageous criminality which has terrorized whole communities in this section.

Traffic becomes more dangerous. Deaths multiply. If ever reformative action were needed, it is needed now. The most careful of drivers no longer are safe on streets and highways. For of what avail is carefulness in one driver, if the next driver is reckless and runs down the careful one? There is but one safe way—drive the careless drivers from the driving field. Prosecute them criminally for criminal carelessness. Deny driving licenses to any and all who are incompetent or flagrantly careless.

LEAVE ANCIENT KING IN HIS TOMB

The world has been thrilled by the opening of the luxurious tomb of the ancient Egyptian king of the Pharaohs, Tut Ankh-Amen. An American is figuring prominently in the excavating.

It is to be hoped that the mummy of the Pharaoh, if found—and it probably will be—will be left to lie undisturbed in the tomb where his people laid him. It would be shocking to the sensibilities of the civilized world to take the mortal remnant of this ancient monarch and drag it about the world, away from the native land of the famous king. The British government, which will have final word, will hardly permit anything of this kind.

The strain sometimes is great on this Nation's government. But the greatest strain is survived in safety.

Politics will be another one of the national games vying with baseball for popularity this year.

The driving license should go into the hands only of the person who is competent to drive and who has common sense and conscience enough to drive carefully.

Science is achieving marvelous things. That these should be directed into channels of peace, for the betterment and uplift of the race, is the hope of every human person.

Farmers are reducing the acreage planted to wheat. This, evidently, is preliminary to greater diversifying of crops. By this method the farmer should better his plight.

Sleep is a wonderful restorer. It wooes away the weariness and leaves body and mind rested and refreshed. Small wonder that inability to sleep drives persons to desperation, sometimes to suicide.

Mexico seemingly is rapidly retrogressing, to the old-time chaos of bloody civil strife. There is no rhyme nor reason in this slaughter. There is no excuse for an armed insurrection in Mexico.

There is no functioning, under a free government, of greater importance than that of the teacher. The genius of the schoolroom has the child in plastic years. The opportunity is greatest then to make enduring impression upon the minds and hearts of the young.

Reclamation of arid lands is very important. But vastly more important is the reclaiming of human beings. Delinquents and defectives and those who have strayed from the path of rectitude but who are not inherently vicious or criminal—to reclaim these is beyond the reclaiming of land, in importance.

No man worthy of the term gentleman would sneer at that which is good, or humane, or for the uplift and betterment of the unfortunate.

Permanent world peace, founded upon justice, is the great desideratum of the age. The United States well may take prominent part in this.

Vote in every election—municipal, county, state, national. This is the part of good citizenship. If the good citizen neglects this important duty, who is to perform it?

Beautification of premises is an obligation each and every householder owes to the community. It should be one's pride to make one's premises as attractive as possible for one's own satisfaction, even aside from public spirit.

He coughs too much. Such men are dangerous.

We do as we please and the devil's to pay—
For questions of health are settled that way;
Then we follow the doctor forever and aye,
But we never get well—to our utter dismay.

Where ever food is handled for human consumption we find an occasional human typhoid incubator disseminating his deadly bacilli.

To graduate from a recognized medical college and to become a recognized practitioner of medicine, one must now have two years of pre-medical college work, four years of medical college work one year of hospital work.

Oh, we long for the country,
And the life on the farm;
But the shallow well water,
We view with alarm.

In malaria countries, when a man shows his spleen it's a sign he has chronic malaria.

EXAGGERATING FARMERS' PLIGHT—New York Evening Post

Two Iowans who are familiar with farm problems—Secretary Wallace and former Secretary Meredith—have delivered their opinions on the agricultural position, and sensible opinions they are. Mr. Meredith took direct issue with the reckless talk of Senator Brookhart, whom he is suing for thirty cents damages. Thirty cents is too much. Brookhart's statement that when Meredith was head of the Agricultural Department he sat in the Wall Street game and helped cause the greatest panic in farm prices in history could hurt nobody but Brookhart. But it is well to have Meredith's sanity contrasted with Brookhart's talk about the utter ruin of agriculture by the Wicked Interests, and his wild prescriptions for a cure. Secretary Wallace at the same time took direct issue with the men who are calling for Federal price fixing or Federal purchase and storage of wheat.

We all know the farmer is hard hit; we all sympathize with him and are aware that no problem is more urgent than that of his recovery. But a solution is not advanced by exaggerating the disaster. Brookhart talks of wholesale ruin and declares that the farmer in 1923 is worse off than in 1922. Secretary Wallace defines the situation more accurately. He says that thousands of specialized wheat farmers will be ruined and hundreds of thousands will be forced to practice a grinding economy. But he points out that in the diversified farming country, which means most of the Middle West, the hardship is not so serious. Mr. Meredith shows that, according to the Government index figure for prices of all agriculture products, the farmer is 15.5 per cent better off than a year ago and 25.2 per cent better off than two years ago. This is confirmed by Secretary Wallace: "In general, farm conditions are better than they were a year or two ago." In Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois from two-thirds to eleven-twelfths of the money borrowed by farmers from the War Finance Corporation has been repaid. Panicky talk injures the farmer by producing a bad psychological effect and by obscuring the real maladies.

Excitement and exaggeration lead to a quack radicalism that will be barren of any result except trouble. What we need is Secretary Wallace's calm facing of realities. An increase in diversified farming is one cure clearly implied in his statement. He emphasizes the hopefulness of the recent farm legislation. Rather vaguely, he talks of lowering the freight rates; he knows that no general reduction is possible while wages remain what they are. But, above all, he brushes roughly aside the impracticable scheme for throwing the Government into the wheat market to raise prices.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

FAILURES OF AN OPTIMIST

I have never seen a dead donkey.

Nobody has been able to explain to me why a dog barks at a passing vehicle, and the dog won't tell me.

I have spent years building the best mouse-trap in the world, but nobody has made a beaten path to my door.

Every time I buy the latest atlas somebody starts a new kingdom or grabs a new boundary line, and I can never catch up.

I never see a show when I can buy a good seat at the box office, for I have a suspicion then that the show doesn't amount to much.

* * *

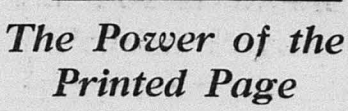

There are glad tidings in store, so be not down-hearted nor ill at ease. It will all be over in a short time. Taps will be sounded in 1933. Of course, it is a long time to wait, but we have the promise that the old world is going to do a flop in 1933 like a hooched gentleman falling off a scenic railroad.

The British Society of Astrologers has fixed it all up very nicely for us. They have wrapped up our fate and tied it with blue baby-ribbon and all we have to do is to accept it. The society has cast a horoscope which, this time, turns out to be a horroscope.

They don't say much about what is going to happen between now and 1926, and so we are left at liberty to expect anything, which lends an element of surprise to the situation.

From 1926 on, however, the world is going to shimmy itself into a state of nervous prostration such as it has never known before. The horoscope says:

"It will be a succession of plagues, famines, wars, riots, revolutions, floods, shipwrecks, earthquakes and failures. The planets Mars and Mercury will be in conjunction." Tough stuff, eh? The regular old stuff with "kick" and everything.

The Power of the Printed Page

EVERY day the press pours forth the printed pages. Motor trucks wait to receive them. Newsboys cry them on bustling street corners. News-stands sell them to a multitude. By train and mail-man and carrier they reach the fire-sides of city and country.

These pages are vital to the thought and action of the nation. The city without newspapers is a city paralyzed, hesitating in its trade, given over to rumor and uncertain in its social life. The nation without newspapers or magazines would be a nation in the dark. It would be easily stampeded. It would suspect its neighbors because it would be ignorant of them. To have confidence in the very mechanism of life, men must know what other men are doing. The printed page tells them.

On the printed page is felt the pulse of life in many lands. One day an earthquake sweeps a distant nation. On the next relief is promised through these pages. At home two men desire political office. The election of one of them seems certain, yet the printed page has power to detect the people's favor.

Here also men expect to find detailed and accurate descriptions of the merchandise they would purchase. By the printed page they are enabled to gauge the desirability of articles and to form their buying preferences. Here are determined the equipments of workshops and the decorative schemes for living-rooms, the make of the family's car and the contents of its market basket. Here are heralded the fashions of dress that are to hold sway this winter and next spring.

Twenty-five million American families buy twenty-nine million newspapers every day, not to mention the periodicals they receive by the week and the month. Out of magazines and newspapers they glean the ideas that are to rule their daily lives. They read the printed page with confidence. Its advertising carries conviction!

YOUNG FOLK "GET EVEN" WITH SLY BRIDAL PAIR

A MERRY party of serenaders motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swartzbaugh 5½ miles West of Anaheim, and gave them a jolly charivari. The guests had horns, cow bells and other noisy and appropriate articles. After they had aroused the neighborhood, the newlyweds invited their visitors into the house where the evening hours were pleasantly passed with conversation and games. Mrs. Swartzbaugh was formerly Miss Lenore Stewart, who, with her husband to be, Carl Swartzbaugh, slipped away from their many friends and went to San Francisco where they were married. The affair last evening was planned for a "get even" party. Light refreshments were served at a late hour.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dohm, Mr. and Mrs. George Betzold, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stein, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Corcoran, Misses Ethel Pickard and Fryett, Messrs Ray Bradfield, Fred Hein and Robert Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, father of Mrs. Swartzbaugh.

DANCE FROCK'S APTLY MADE OF AIRY "SEA-FOAM"

The euphonious name of "sea-foam" is most appropriate for a dance frock. This one is made of "sea-foam" chiffon and is trimmed with placques of shaded ecru valenciennes lace. Ribbon roses and a large bow at the left side form the girdle.

County Executives Meet

With almost every club in the district represented by its president and all chairmen of departments in attendance, the Huntington Beach meeting of club federation executives was unusually interesting yesterday. Anaheim Ebell was represented by Mrs. Neille Terry, and Mrs. C. C. Smith.

Mrs. W. W. Crosier, who has but recently returned from a journey east which covered many interesting cities, reported on her trip. She visited the office which has been established by club women in the nation's capital city and briefly outlined her observations there. The March meeting has several important features to discuss and will likely draw a large attendance.

The shrine that contains the manger and the babe was beautifully made. Fixures of wood and wax, made by the camp artist, Senor Espania, were shown in life poses. Elephants, donkeys, sheep, dogs and men, all truly beautiful, showed a degree of artistry. ROUND TABLE FEATURES P. T. A. JAN. MEETING

THE monthly Parent-Teacher association meeting developed into a round table yesterday afternoon in which the mothers and teachers freely participated. A series of questions were submitted among them being how often the child may attend a moving picture show.

Opinions brought several solutions of the weeknight show problem. One father desiring to teach thrift, told his child that for every cent he saved rather than spending it on pictures, between a stipulated day and his birthday, he would contribute a cent and with the amount they would buy a game or desired toy. Another suggested parental censorship of every picture before the child might attend.

Another problem is that of home study, which was talked over both from the point of toe much and too few. How the parent may keep the confidence of the child interested the teachers quite as much and all entered in the general discussion as to matter of spending money for candy received much consideration.

The association had hoped to hear from Miss Dye, Anaheim school nurse, a report on the success of serving milk at school in the mid morning, but she was unavoidably absent from the meeting.

Delegates to attend the fourth district Parent-Teacher association meeting in Huntington Beach Saturday, January 16, were named in order are the Mesdames Ida Hughes, Carrie Mawe, David Beat, Robert Beat, C. J. Dunham, D. H. Van Meter, Dudley Brier, C. E. Smith, A. C. H. Bede, G. H. Goodale, and Miss Vesta Wawe and Mae Carney.

Mrs. Howard offered the room with the largest representation of parents went to the second grade Broadway school and another to Broadway kindergarten.

Mrs. A. L. Cook of Fullerton also returned Monday over the S. P. from San Francisco and vicinity, where she spent the holiday season.

Successful Meeting

With several "new" mothers out at the Katella Parent-Teacher association yesterday, the attendance was most gratifying and the baby clinic for an hour presiding the meeting was well patronized. The picture of the late President Harding, which goes about from room to room, according to the representation of parents, will adorn the walls of Mrs. Perozzi's room during January, and until the next meeting, Feb. 5. This meeting, by the way, will be held in the evening, that the fathers may also attend.

A New Year's greeting was presented by the president, Mrs. J. Roy Williams and interesting reports included the invitation to Huntington Beach for the fourth district meeting next Saturday. Katella association will be represented by Mrs. Ida J. Hughes, Mrs. J. E. Wilburn, Mrs. L. E. Beacon, Mrs. John Blair, Mrs. Roy J. Williams, Mrs. J. B. Eaton and Mrs. Swindler. Everybody is welcome, however, and it is likely many others will be there.

The February meeting will be in charge of the Mesdames L. E. Benson, John Blair, J. Claureen and Miss Kate Claes.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

"MAKE ANAHEIM A CITY OF FIFTH CLASS" LOCAL REALTOR URGE

SEWER WON'T BE FINISHED FEB. 1ST

Delay Likely, Says City Manager; Tank Farm's Future Uncertain

Anaheim will have 30 acres of oranges near Garden Grove road still on its hands when the new outfall sewer is finished, and disposal of the land has not yet been discussed. The sewer line, which lies in the center of the grove, within a few weeks will be unnecessary. According to City Manager O. E. Steward the grove will be maintained as before.

Completion of the sewer will be delayed beyond the earlier date anticipated, which was Feb. 1, because of the difficulties encountered at the ocean section, where Santa Ana is busy. There the sand has had to be pumped out, with the contractors using sheet piling to keep the water back, and the pipes have had to be laid on the piling.

Anaheim, Fullerton and Orange have 6000 feet of work to do before Garden Grove. Operations on this section steadily are progressing.

Last week along the big stretch of the sewer parallel with Garden Grove road a shallow trench was dug in the earth above the sewer already laid and the ditch filled with water to bring down the level to normal. The sizable ridge that ranchers have had to cross, if they had to cut through it, is now disappearing.

ITINERARY OF BARBOUR IS OUT

Officials of the California Real Estate Ass'n. and National Ass'n. of Real Estate Boards started Monday on a state-wide tour of realty boards, according to announcement by the state association news department.

Beginning with the Orange County Realty Ass'n. banquet at Fullerton Saturday night, President Henry P. Barbour began his third monthly swing around to address the realty boards of the state. He will be in Anaheim on Jan. 17. He is accompanied by Wm. E. Herren, the field secretary of the National Ass'n. of Real Estate Boards, and by various state vice-presidents and the state secretary. Their talks will deal with the part the realtor and the realty boards are taking in the development of their local communities and the state of California. President Barbour's talk on "The Duty of the Realtor" is one of the most inspiring addresses ever made to realty men. Multiple listing, appraisals by realty boards and the nation-wide ramifications of the national association will be presented to the boards by Mr. Herren.

The state secretary's itinerary for January includes 17 meetings, starting with a state directors' meeting at Los Angeles on Jan. 5 and continuing as follows:

Alhambra, Jan. 8; Venice, Jan. 9, Long Beach, Jan. 10; Los Angeles, Jan. 12; Anaheim, Jan. 15; Anaheim, Jan. 17; Lankershim, Jan. 18; West Hollywood, Jan. 21; S. W. Board, Jan. 22; Monrovia, Jan. 23; Fresno Land Conference, Fresno, Jan 26.

On Jan. 19 there will be a state association real estate committee meeting at the Elite Cafe in Los Angeles. Chairman Harrison Lewis will preside at this meeting, which is preliminary to the educational conference to be held at a later date.

During the latter part of this month and the first half of February, the realty officers will be visiting boards in the central and northern parts of the state.

In addition to sharing in the regular itinerary of the state officers, Mr. Herren will have a large number of additional meetings, luncheons and visits with national boards in California. .

Start Soon Two $15,000 Buildings

Operations in preparation for the erection of two $15,000 buildings on South Los Angeles-st. began today. Excavations were started by Ridenour Bros. for a garage on the east side of the street adjoining the Dubin Garage, for the Cadillac Garage Co., and contractors for the Dixie filling station began the erection of a temporary office at Broadway opposite the library for an elaborate station, erection of which will start next week.

The Cadillac Garage Co. building will be of re-inforced concrete and steel and measure approximately 45 feet on Los Angeles street, extending back some 105 feet. The structure will be the last word in garages and will have a big showroom with plenty of service space.

The filling station will occupy the entire corner of Broadway, 92 feet on Los Angeles and 112 on the other street. The station itself will measure only 26 by 24 feet, but accommodations will be provided for greasing and oiling, washing and battery service, while tires and accessories will furnish tires and accessories will furnish lawn will be laid out.

QUIET WEEK AT SANTA FE SPGS.

Santa Fe Springs passed a quiet week. The only thing of interest was supplied by the Shell Co. in completing and putting on production two small wells. The completions were made on the G. H. N. lease, No. 1 coming in a 200-barrel well, and Slusher No. 11 finished at 4600, a 100-barrel well.

The Standard Oil Company's Houghton No. 1 on which the hope of extending the west side of the field has been placed, has passed the 5200 mark and does not look at all encouraging.

The Union Oil Co. is about to put the famous Bell well back on production. This time Bell No. 1 will produce from the Meyer sand. In the upper, or Bell sand, this discovery well produced over a million barrels.

Huntington Beach was not as quiet as would expect. The old field staged three new producers this past week. The Southern California Drilling Co. completed a 500-barrel well for the Federal Consolidated. The Globe Petroleum Co. put on a 150-barrel well at No. 6, and the Amalgamated Oil Co. put a small producer on the pump at Miley-Keck No. 14 Huntington Beach daily. Production is now around 60,000 barrels.

With the striking of a deep sand below the 4800 mark, the Compton field has been given a new production by the General Petroleum Corp.

SCOTT TRACT ON MARKET SOON

Harry E. Scott reports a pronounced increase in business through his office the past week. His new Fullerton subdivision is making satisfactory progress and will soon be on the market, the official details being rapidly worked out. This will be a high class residential, fully improved home addition.

Mr. Scott has also secured a reservation for Anaheim people of a choice block of Big Bear lots through which an Anaheim community can be established in that beautiful summer resort section. The increasing difficulty in securing even camping places in the summer indicates the wisdom of acquiring mountain cabin sites for summer use before prices have gone beyond reason.

Any one intending to be in the mountains at all should become the owner of their own vacation ground, and this affords an opportunity of locating with your own neighbors.

The concrete boulevard is now completed to Big Bear lake, and when construction is completed the full length of the lake, which is expected to be done this year, it will then be kept open winter and summer. No place on this easy grade will be over a six per cent grade, making it available for winter sports as well as summer vacations.

47 P. C. JUMP IN LICENSES ISSUED

1923 Real Estate Market Record One In Activity: Keiser

In the January issue of the California Real Estate Magazine, State Real Estate Commissioner Edwin T. Keiser issued the following statement:

"To all real estate brokers and salesmen:

"The year 1925 has been a wonderful real estate year. Never in the history of any state has there been such an active real estate market. Never in this state has there been so many people engaged in the real estate business as real estate brokers and salesmen as there have been during the past year.

"There has been an increase in the number of licenses issued of 47 per cent over last year. While there has been an active interest upon the part of people attempting to sell real estate, never has there been a time when people engaged in the selling have been more in earnest in their attempt to so qualify themselves that they might render a better service to their clients. The real estate men of the state of California are to be commended upon the steps that they have taken toward making their business a profession. They are subjecting themselves to discipline and training in order that their services may be of the highest order and a credit to the members of the profession and to the state of California.

"The department has been wonderful. Your co-operation with this department in an attempt to so qualify themselves that your organization has attained during 1923, I predict still greater things for the year 1924.

"Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

"Sincerely yours,
EDWIN T. KEISER.

AND CONFERENCE AT FRESNO JAN. 26

The second California farm land conference under auspices of the California Real Estate Ass'n, Third Regional District, Vice President Thomas W. McManus, presiding, has been called for Fresno, Saturday, Jan. 26. It will be held at the Hotel Californian upon invitation of the Fresno Realty Board by D. Richard Allsly, president.

The program will be arranged by the State Ass'n with the co-operation of the California Approved Land Settlement Ass'n.

Invitations to participate in this farm district discussion will be extended to all real estate brokers and salesmen, property owners, financier, civic and county officers, and in general to the entire public.

The move back to the land is fast assuming pre-eminent shape, and a big swing of the pendulum to the neglected country districts may be expected as a result of a steadily increasing desire by people to invest in approved productive marketable crop lands, association officials declare.

L. A. Chamber Gives Orange Co. Boost

Under the title, "The Lure of Orange County," Frank V. Stump, editor of So. Calif. Business, the organ of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, gives Anaheim and other cities of the county some mighty valuable publicity in the January issue of that magazine. One of the illustrations is that of the Elks' clubhouse, one of the city's principal value producers from the standpoint of residence selling. Fullerton is represented by a picture of the California hotel.

McADOO FAVORS TAX REDUCTION

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—In an address given over the radio from a local broadcasting station last night, Wm. G. McAdoo, bidder for the Democratic presidential nomination, mentioned proposed tax reduction, and said:

"The Democratic party is for tax reduction. It has consistently fought for tax reduction since the armistice, but demands that along with tax reduction there be tax redistribution so that more even justice shall be done to those who earn small and moderate incomes, and who need relief most."

108,000 FARMERS LOSE THEIR LAND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—More than 108,000 farmers lost their farms by foreclosure or bankruptcy between 1920 and the spring of 1923, the department of agriculture estimated today.

The estimate was based on reports from 15 corn and wheat-producing states, and by applying the results to the number of farms of the country.

NOTABLES AT EXCHANGE MEETING

County Branch Installs at Largest Gathering in Past Year

Gathering in the most largely attended meeting since the opening one of a year ago, the Orange County branch of the Los Angeles Builders' Exchange last last night at St. Ann's Inn, Santa Ana, installed officers and threshed out the State lien law.

Ninety-one attended, including four visitors from Los Angeles, including Secretary-Manager C. C. Casselman of the Los Angeles Exchange, including Secretary-Manager Ludwig. A. M. Morris, field secretary and commissioner at large of the National Builders' Exchange was a notable guest.

The speaker of the evening was G. F. Hoff, secretary and attorney of the Material Men's Ass'n of San Diego, who explained the lien law and answered many queries.

Hoff's elucidation had to do especially with the law from the point of view of the materials men and property owners.

Secretary Louis Allen of the County branch, referring today to Hoff's speech, said that many builders don't understand the law. They suppose that the contractor assumes responsibilities when he takes hold. The contractor doesn't, and the builders should protect themselves by bonds.

A synopsis of the law soon will be published, said Allen.

Secretary Slone of the Materials Men's Ass'n explained the working of his organization, credits for the materials men and contractor, and how to get ratings on men who buy or are going to do work.

The Choral Union gave selections from Robin Hood.

These officers and directors were installed: George R. Wells of Santa Ana, president; Roscoe and gravel contractors.

More New Boards To Join State Ass'n.

There are now nearly 100 active realty boards in California, according to the state ass'n., and 34 of these are in Los Angeles county. All are affiliated with the state ass'n.

During 1923, over 65,000 real estate licenses were issued in this state, and the county year it is believed this total will be eclipsed. Last year there were less than 40,000 licenses.

The organization of new boards in the state is continuing, State Vice-President Guthrie having approved the applications of the Bell, Lynwood and Downey boards for state membership.

Other cities are asking for boards, among them Elsinore, La Jolla in the eight district, presided over by Vice-President Everett A. White.

FULLERTON PAYS ANAHEIM $43,000

Fullerton trustees last night voted to pay Anaheim a sum slightly in excess of $43,000 for Fullerton's part of Sections 2 and 3 of the outfall sewer. This was the estimate for three months' work done Anaheim and the screening plant, it is said.

The board also accepted 10 acres from the Stern Realty Co. for park and public school purposes in the northern part of the city.

An early adjournment was taken.

CITY NOW IN STANTON'S CLASS

Double Population Necessary; G. W. Hamler Starts Something

Why doesn't Anaheim, whose population long since qualified it become a fifth class city, instead of sixth class? Why continue to drift along in the same class with Stanton, Seal Beach, etc., communities only a fraction as large?

This question is raised by Geo. W. Hamler, of Ryzalvad & Fisher, prominent local realtors.

Fifth class cities contain over 6,000 people and not more than 20,000; sixth or lowest class cities 6,000 or less.

If the City Recorder and other officers were put into office by vote of the people, and could be ousted by vote similarly, the latter would have only themselves to blame if officials didn't suit them, said Hamler.

Hamler declared himself particularly for the commission form of government, by which each of five men becomes head of a department.

Attorney William P. Webb, Jr., without committing himself for or against the change, said that the question whether such city or first be threshed out.

The law outlines the following procedure for a city to change its class:

"The council, board of trustees or other legislative body of any municipal corporation, may at any time cause an enumeration of the inhabitants thereof to be made end in such manner and under such regulations as such body may by ordinance direct. If upon such enumeration it shall appear that such municipal corporation contains a sufficient number of inhabitants to entitle it to reorganize under a higher or lower class, the common council, trustees, or other legislative body, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one fifth of the qualified electors thereof, submit to the electors of such city or town, at the next general election to be held therein, the question whether such city or town shall reorganize under the laws relating to municipal corporations of the class to which such city or town may belong."

The elective officers in cities of the fifth class are five trustees, five members of the board of education, five library trustees if necessary, recorder, treasurer, clerk, attorney, marshal and assessor. But offices may be consolidated so that the city marshal, for example, shall be also ex-officio superintendent of streets and health officer; city clerk ex-officio recorder and assessor; city treas-

Six Permits Per Day Feature Month's Building Activities

Permits so far in January are being issued at the rate of about six per day. Not counting today's permits 36 had been issued, representing a valuation of $112,337. That is in six days and one half of actual business.

Aside from the permits for 10 houses in the Beverly Tract to rent $57,000, the principal permits so far this month were those of the Anaheim Citrus Fruit Assn's packing house on East Center-st to cost $39,500 and the Dixie filling station at Broadway and South Los Angeles, $11,000.

Houses, houses and more houses tell the story of the building inspector's office.

At the present rate January will be the biggest month in the past year in point of valuation and by far the biggest in point of number of permits issued.

The pleasant weather has also permitted numerous small alterations and repair jobs.

Tax Burden is Worst Barrier to Prosperity

The tax burden—particularly the federal one—is scored by T. R. Preston of Chattanooga, one of the bigbugs in the American Bankers' Assn. in an article in the National Real Estate Journal on "What the Tax Burden Means."

Says Preston in part:

"In a discussion of the matter of taxes we must not forget that paying taxes is absolutely necessary. We could not live in peace in our homes or enjoy the benefits of government without them, but anyone who will even casually study our tax proposition as a whole, must come to the conclusion that they are overlooking what we receive and the tendency constantly for higher taxes and no returns.

"The greatest barrier to real prosperity in this country today is the item of taxes. Men are slow to undertake new enterprises when they know a considerable percentage of what they earn is to be taken from them in the shape of taxes.

"The rate of taxation on incomes by the federal government is now as high as 58 per cent; at one time it was 73 per cent. This, when coupled with the state, county and city taxes, and often special taxes, made the highest rate of taxes ever levied by any government in the history of the world.

"As an illustration of the burden of special taxes or licenses, a druggist in some of the states of the Union must have 27 kinds of permits or licenses in order to do business.

"Over two billion per annum is now taken from the people in the shape of taxes and ought to go into industries and new homes. If we had a real reduction in taxes this country would go forward by leaps and bounds and we could adequately assist in developing and uplifting the entire world.

"In eight years all kinds of taxes have gone from two billion two hundred million, to eight billion and a half of dollars per annum, or an increase of 390 per cent. Much of this increase, so far as our federal government is concerned, is due to the war, but much that is excused on account of the war could be greatly reduced or entirely eliminated. Strange as it may seem, state, county and city taxes have been increased in about the same proportion.

"Census figures show that the cost of government of the 48 states in 1913 was at the rate of three hundred and eighty-two millions dollars per annum. Nine years later, or in 1922, the rate was four billion four hundred and forty-three million dollars per annum, or an increase of 406 per cent.

"From 13 per cent to 22 per cent of our living cost is made up of taxes. 14 per cent of our transportation is taxes; also so on thru every activity. Our federal taxes for the fiscal year 1924, six years after the war will be 400 per cent more than they were in 1914, when our last war expenditures were at their crest, and 100 per cent more than they were 20 years ago. We all now work one day out of every week to pay our taxes.

"The Department of Commerce in Washington has just issued a bulletin on the increase of taxes in Tennessee. This includes taxes levied for state as well as county and city purposes. From 1912 to 1922, a period of ten years, taxes on real estate in Tennessee increased 166 per cent. Licenses and permits increased 100 per cent. Special taxes levied almost exclusively upon the business enterprises of the state have in that same period increased 168 per cent. One of the last of the special taxes levied by the state was what is known as our Excise tax. No more unfair tax was ever levied upon any people than this. It does not touch co-partnerships nor individuals, but corporations doing exactly the same class of business in the same community are subject to the tax. Corporations chartered by the federal government escape this tax, while those chartered by the state, our own institutions, are subject to this levy. This is nothing but class legislation of the most burdensome and indefensible kind. It is now limited to 5 per cent of net incomes; if can be made 50 per cent. The same principle applies whether the rate is low or high.

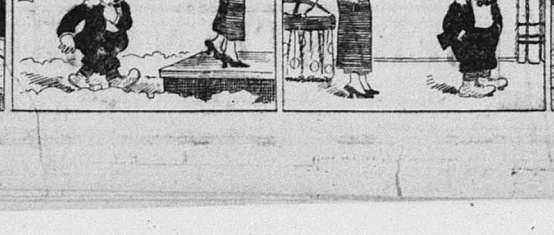

"The Industrial Conference Board of New York has estimated that besides pensioners, we have two million seven hundred thousand employees on our national, state and municipal payrolls, at a salary cost of a little less than four billion dollars per annum, or almost 50 per cent of all taxes now levied go for salaries. More than fifteen million people are supported by our various governments. If this increase continues it will not be long until one-half our people will be working for the government and the other half struggling to support them. A few specific examples of how taxes are consumed can be given:

"For instance, our government in all the states has created 99 bureaus and commissions to regulate the railroads in this country and they have regulated them almost to destruction and at tremendous cost to the taxpayers. The Interstate Commerce Commission heads the list. This commission originally had 14 employees; it now has 1591.

PARK COMMITTEE INSPECTS POOL

City Council's park committee yesterday inspected the park buildings preparatory to acceptance of the work. The grand stand is finished, the plunge practically so and other minor structures are either completed or will be very shortly.

The plunge could not be accepted because it is still unfinished, but the grandstand was.

The plunge will be open to whites only every day except Monday from 9:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. On Mondays others than whites will be admitted during the same hour, except that holidays are reserved to whites. These regulations are said to be exactly the same as those at the big open air plunge in Colton.

For admission to the plunge 10 cents will be charged, minors of 14 or under and 15 cents to adults, in that case lockers are used, and the free dressing room will cost 10 cents, towel five cents and suit 10 cents. These prices are subject to change, if necessary.

The pool measures 50 by 150 feet and the enclosure is approximately 65 by 200.

There are 55 dressing rooms and six showers for men and 70 dressing rooms and five showers for women. Inclusion of a big outdoor sun "parlor" on the women's side is a feature.

Lockers are not yet in, the dressing rooms are. The latter are painted inside and out and are well in keeping with the high quality of the building as a whole.

The filter plant and water system belong to another contract and will not be inspected today.

The inspection is for the purpose of seeing that contractors have complied with the plans and specifications.

TO QUIZ McLEAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.— Not satisfied with the explanation given in writing by Edward B. McLean, millionaire Washington newspaper publisher, of the $100,000 unsecured loan he made to former secretary of the interior Albert B. Fall, in 1921, the Senate public lands committee decided today to send a sub-committee to Palm Beach, Fla., to interrogate McLean, who is said to be too ill to come here.

"ACREAGE AND OIL"

We have several pieces of land, some in trees, improved and unimproved, adjoining active drilling operations in the Anaheim field. Most of these are favorably leased with experimental to responsible oil companies. Priced at what the places are actually worth as acreage or groves. If oil is found in this territory, and many responsible and experienced oil men believe it will be, it would take a bank roll as big as a bale of hay to even talk of buying these parcels of land. Why not talk business now while they can be bought right.

MARINE CLEANS UP PHILADELPHIA

By JACK CARBERRY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—"A leather neck turned copper," and today Philadelphia's nationally-famous tenderloin is closed. Speak-easies are locked; brothels have moved out; bookmakers have sought other climes.

Vice has capitulated.

When Brig.-Gen. Smedley D. Butler of the U. S. marines, Philadelphia's new director of police safety, loaned by President Coolidge for one year for an attack on the city's vice and crime, "turned in" at daybreak today, the city was cleaner than it has been for years.

The exodus of crime was in full swing at daylight. Two of the city's most notorious ramblers caught a boat for Havana during the night. Scores of "booze joints" displayed "for rent" signs for the first time in years. The old "fright was gone. The famous song and story, was practically deserted.

"Now I have only started," General Butler declared, as he retired to the army cot he had ordered placed in his office at city hall. "Philadelphia, like Rome, can't be cleaned in a day."

The marine copper declared real war today.

"I have given the bootlegger, the harlot and the drug peddler 48 hours to get out of town," General Butler said. "After that night will be the zero hour. After that, any squads will batter down doors and the patrol wagon will run its wheels off in search."

During the night General Butler's squads made but 21 arrests, the majority women. General Butler had turned down a $100,000 bribe; defied a threat of death, and had become "one of the boys" playing a game of pitch in a station house back room.

"This guy Butler means business" policemen informed those who hesitated to "beat it" on instructions. "You bet I mean business," General Butler declared, punctuating his remarks with a choice line of marine oaths at station houses he called on.

2 DIE, 2 FATALLY HURT IN ACCIDENT

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 9.—Two are dead and physicians held little hope today for the recovery of two others, injured when Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger trains Nos. 23 and 36 crashed in a head-on collision at Rifflendahl switch, near here, late last night.

Engineer Ed DeRossett and Fireman Edward Sullivan of No. 23 were instantly killed. The crew of the other train, Leo Thomason, engineer, and Charles Deckhart, fireman, were believed fatally injured.

Both trains operated between Galveston and St. Louis. The engines, a baggage car and two mail cars were demolished.

Confusion of orders was responsible, it was said.

OFFERED $1,000,000 FOR POWER PLANT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—An offer of $1,000,000 for the government's water power and nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Ala., has been received from a group of Southern power companies operating in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, the federal power commission today advised Congress in a letter to Rep. Harry C. Ransley, Iowa, a member of the House military affairs committee, which is considering Muscle Shoals legislation.

Country Store Night At United Thursday

Tomorrow night is Country Store night at the United Theater again with the inimitable Rube Miller as Master of ceremonies. This time he is giving away, as a capital prize, a lovely mahogany smoking stand which will be a pleasure and a necessity for any home. There are also listed among his presents for tomorrof night two hams, two sacks of flour and many other useful things for the home.

And on the screen will be shown a wonderful mystery story, "At the Sign of the Jack O'Lantern." It is the story of a young married couple who went to live in a house the groom had inherited from his Uncle Ebenezer, and who little realized that they would soon be the unwilling hosts of a score of hungry relatives. But in less than a week they were there, hog and baggage, and a few uninvited guests. And then things began to happen. There were strange sounds at night. A black cat made the house his headquarters, and a shadowy figure floated through the halls at night. There is mystery in this story and a climax that will fairly make your hair stand on end, and through it all there is a vein of comedy that will make your sides ache from laughing.

There will also be shown "His Royal Slyness," one of Harold Lloyds famous comedies and one that is guaranteed to keep you laughing from start to finish.

ORANGE-CO. CHIROS MEET IN ANAHEIM

Chiropractors of Orange co met at the offices of Drs. Sue Amark and Harry C. Vogt, 217 No. Los Angeles st, last evening. Various business matters were brought up at the meeting. Dr. Frank Pyott, secretary of the state association, was present and gave an efficient phase of legislative matters, concerning chiropractic and chiropractors. He stated that the efficient chiros of Los Angeles were doing a bigger and better business today than ever before the election.

Drs. Hughes and Handcock of Santa Ana were present and united with the association. They had primarily come as guests, but decided to become members. Everybody enjoyed the meeting to the fullest extent and especially the delicious luncheon prepared by Dr. Amark and Mrs. Vogt.

Dr. J. W. Yost with wife, of Nebraska City, Nebr., brother of Dr. Vogt, has come to Anaheim for a several months' visit. They were also guests of the association.

Dr. Pyott outlined the plans for the big convention to be held in Los Angeles Feb. 1 to 3 at which B. J. Palmer, president of the Palmer school of Chiropractic at Davenport, Iowa, will be present. The Davenport school is the largest and best known.

Mr. Palmer plans to talk to several clubs in Anaheim during his visit in California.

FILIPINOS HOLD SCHOOL TEACHERS

MANILA, Jan. 9.—Seventeen constabularymen and policemen were killed and two school teachers abducted by an armed band of 2000 "Colorums" on the islands of Ducas and Surigao, north of Mindanao.

A company of constabulary from Manila will proceed to Surigao tonight.

The "colorums" are a fanatical Christian religious sect, given to weird and often immoral rites, and are usually found in remote regions of the archipelago, where they have gained considerable following among the most ignorant Filipinos. Branches are located in the San Cristobal mountains of Luzon and in the mountains of Negros province.

The provincial commander of constabulary in Surigao province is pursuing the fanatics.

MANY FLEE FIRE IN SCANTY ATTIRE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Many persons scantily clad, fled to the street early today when a fire of undetermined origin broke out in the Garden court building in Hollywood blvd., and did damage estimated at $50,000.

A cafe, tailor shop, beauty parlor and notion store were destroyed, according to police reports. Scores of actors and actresses have lived in the structure.

DEMPSEY-GIBBONS FIGHT IN GOTHAM

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Jack Dempsey and Tom Gibbons will meet in a New York ring, 15 rounds to a decision, for the world's heavyweight championship, some time during the final week in May.

That much is in the bag. Slight details, such as Dempsey's share of the purse, the site of the bout, and the possibility of the political discountenance of all things pugilistic in the meantime, must be cleared up, but it is almost certain that Tex Rickard will be the promoter.

Gibbons is to be the opening number on Dempsey's calling list next summer, Luis Firpo and Harry Wills the other two. Firpo will be met on or about July 4, and Wills on Labor day, if at all. That is the program now.

Rickard, however, still must be won over to Gibbons as an opponent for the champion, and a few adolescent steps in this direction will be Tommy's scheduled bout with Funny Fred Fulton and extravagant rumors of a Dempsey-Gibbons match in St. Louis, Cleveland, Louisville, and all points west. Both fighters are keen on New York as the scene of the bout for obvious reasons.

Most of the sap money is here. Talk of holding the fight in the west will only serve to garnish the newspaper headlines and make the project more desirable in the eyes of New York ticket tomers. Nothing is valuable here until someone else wants it.

BOWLING GOSSIP

Fanning Candy Co. will go to Los Angeles Thursday evening to bowl the Crystal Grill. This reopens the So. Calif. Bowling League, after a three weeks' vacation for the holidays.

Six teams have been lined up for the city league, as follows: Cypress Garage, Smith, captain; Jewel Box, Hansen; Chandler-Cleveland, Heffron; Anaheim Bakery, Gambod; Whittier No. 1, Morago.

It is hoped that two more teams can be corralled before the league opens next Tuesday and Wednesday.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

NEW YORK—Abe Goldstein of New York won a decision over Wilbur Cohen, New York, 10 rounds. Frankie Fasano, New York, won decision over Kid Lee, Hartford, Conn., 10 rounds.

IN SOCIETY

COMMUNITY CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

MRS. G. G. PRIDDY and Mrs. W. J. Rennie were hostesses of the Cypress-Hansen Community club yesterday at the Priddy home. Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. T. W. Clarke, president, Mrs. C. F. Hutterlocker, vice president, Mrs. Dora Fels, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Vincent K. Chandler, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. T. W. Clarke reported upon the needy family consisting of the mother and eight children, the oldest of which was 17, with the father under treatment for insanity. The Christmas response from the members was very good, and the response from the Dyan's in the papers had been wonderful. The Alamitos school which the children attended had given a donation of $10 for the family.

A program consisted of two readings by Mrs Wm. Applenalp entitled "A New Year" and "Do Your Best"—three-year-old Reba Frances Priddy sang two clever little songs followed by two readings by Mrs. Mary Sutherland, Mrs. Jack Dugan of Long Beach sang "Marcheta," and two piano numbers.

In a guessing contest Mrs. Jack Dugan won first prize, a pretty clock. Each hunted a slip of instructions and when carried out caused much merriment.

Delicious refreshments were served of fruit salad, sandwiches, cheese straws, a variety of cakes and coffee. Those assisting in serving were Miss Mae Priddy, Mrs. Earl Smith and Mrs. Edna Rennie. It was decided to have the next regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Sutherland of Cypress, who will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. John Kester of Santa Ana.

Members present were Mesdames Wm. Applenalp, Vincent K. Chandler, T. W. Clarke, Irene Couts, E. Cutter, M. M. Carpenter, W. J. Cole, Jack Dugan of Long Beach, Dora Fels, Jack Fuerth, W. H. Hammond, C. F. Hutterlocker, C. R. John, John Kester, W. B. Patterson, J. S. Scott, Eva J. Shirley, W. R. Strance, Orpha Sutherland, George Trefeth, Thos. Walker. New members included Mrs. W. R. Martin, Mrs. W. A. Pebo and Mrs. H. J. Blythe, and other visitors were Mrs. M. E. Butcher of Cypress and Miss Cora Elliston of Los Angeles.

MARSHALL PLAYS GOV'T PATERNALISM

DENVER, Jan. 9.—Former vice-president, Thomas R. Marshall, in opening the 1924 political campaign in Colorado, at a Jackson day dinner, here denounced emphatically governmental paternalism of any kind and objected to socialists running the party.

Marshall declared there were too many who were not Democrats trying to run the Democratic party. He also objected to "wild-eyed reformers" spending of public money for "general welfare," and to modernists in politics. The former vice-president declared he was not a gold-bug, but he did object to these uplifters spying.

CONFESSES DEATH IN DESERT BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Police today awaited word from Blythe authorities, after having communicated a confession made by Eddie Hamill, 22, former soldier, that in a camp fight on the desert, five miles northwest of the Riverside county town, Nov. 22, he killed a cavalry companion.

Hamill said he was unable to stand the strain of the terrible memories of the killing. He offered to accompany police to the desert grave, in which he said he placed the body of the slain man.

The man attempted to rob him at night, Hamill said.

INJURED AUTOIST GOES HOME TODAY

E. A. Poe, injured yesterday in a crash with a U. P. truck at the Orangethorpe avenue crossing and who was treated at the local sanitarium, was able to go home this morning. He said that he couldn't quite realize yet just how it all happened. He said that he remembered hearing the train whistle and that he must have applied his brakes and skidded onto the track, but that he is not just certain how it happened. He thinks himself lucky that he was not killed, and escaped with no broken bones.

CLAIM 5 OUTLAWS KILLED BY POSSE

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 9.—Entrenched behind a barricade, a band of alleged outlaws were today holding at bay a posse of over 100 officers and men at Fruiter, near Selerno, Fla.

According to reports reaching Deputy Sheriff Baker, five of the outlaws already have been killed in the battle, which is still raging.

TAKE BODY EAST

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—The body of Harry Brolaski, soldier of fortune, who died yesterday following months of lingering illness, will be buried beside his father, Captain Brolaski, in St. Louis.

Arrangements were being completed today to take the body east. Mrs. M. Brolaski, 80, mother of the deceased, will accompany it.

Six days before he died, Brolaski was pardoned for having conspired to violate liquor laws.

OBREGON VISITS WESTERN FRONT

By ARTHUR CONSTANTINE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 9.—President Alvaro Obregon may be a personal observer of the decisive battle with the rebel troops on the Jalisco front, it was learned from the war office today.

The president has gone to the western front to inspect the federals, who will go into action on receipt of arms and munitions purchased from the U. S. government.

The fighting near Leon has died down and troops are moving closer to the Jalisco border, making it more likely that a decisive battle will soon be fought there.

While Obregon is in the west, the movements of federal troops on the southern front will be supervised by War Minister Serrano with headquarters at San Marcos.

Two offensives against the rebels at the same time are planned on the southeastern and western fronts.

Obregon has about 40,000 well-drilled and equipped troops in the field. Airplanes purchased from the United States will move in advance of the troops.

General Joaquin Amaro will be in active command of the federals upon the eastern front. General Eugenio Martinez will command the federals moving upon Vera Cruz.

Federal generals fear that some of the mountain tunnels on the road to Vera Cruz have been mined, and that it will be unsafe to use them. There are long and dangerous tunnels on both the Inter-Oceanic and Mexican Raillines leading to Vera Cruz.

FORDS COLLIDE

Stewart Jayne, son of Harry S. Jayne of N. Olive st., was slightly injured this morning about 7 o'clock at Chartres and Lemon sts., when his Ford and that of a Mexican collided. The Mexican was going north on Lemon at, and Jayne coming east on Chartres st., it is said, the former going to work and the latter returning from his newspaper route. The windshield on the Jayne car was destroyed and the steering wheel broken. The axle was bent on the Mexican's car. Jayne's lower limbs were slightly bruised. Both machines were taken to the Myers' garage, a few doors away.

C. OF C. MEMBERS VISIT PROSPECTS

Each of a score of members of the Chamber of C. has taken it upon himself to visit two prospects for membership each three weeks, Hamlin Hall, secretary of the chamber reported today. He will refer Miss Nelson, office assistant, to them. Miss Nelson is signing up new members.

This action follows a meeting of the attendance committee yesterday, when a new list of 35 to 40 prospects was made up.

ARREST 40 MEN AFTER EXPLOSION

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Jan. 9.—Forty men were held for investigation in the county jail here following the bomb explosion which partially wrecked the Columbia Hotel at Montpelier, north of here today.

Strikebreakers employed by the National Steel Casting Co., and the Montpelier Mfg. Co., were quartered in the hotel and the bombing was the culmination of a series of minor troubles in the past few weeks.

Immediately after the explosion which tore out the hotel front, local authorities and Sheriff George Goodrich began a roundup of strikers, who have picketed the hotel since the beginning of efforts by the manufacturing plants to break the strike.

The dispute at Montpelier was over wages.

Deputy Sheriff Clark, night guard at the hotel, had stepped to the rear of the lobby shortly before the crash. He saw a flash just before the explosion. Seventy-five men were in the hotel at the time. All windows in the business houses for three blocks up the street were broken.

The Blackford County grand jury will convene here Monday to probe the affair.

DOCTOR HELD ON FRAUD CHARGE

EVERETT, Wash., Jan. 9.—Dr. M. Coon, 60-year-old osteopath, was being held today on $5,000 bonds for Omaha authorities, on a federal grand jury indictment charging fraudulent use of the mails in connection with the sale of "auto blood" a purported anti-freezing compound for motor cars.

He was arrested yesterday at his home in Arlington, near here, by a deputy U. S. marshal on a fugitive warrant.

The American Autoblood Co. of Omaha, with which Dr. Coon is said to have been connected, is reported to have enjoyed a flourishing business a few years ago. Purchasers of the compound were assured, according to federal officials, that the coldest weather would not freeze their motors if the radiator was filled with the "auto blood."

These allegations, however, were false, and the compound failed upon test to fulfill the promises made in its behalf, according to the findings of the grand jury.

The indictment, which was returned in Omaha, was based upon a letter said to have been written by Dr. Coon to G. A. Clark of Cromwell, Minn., advertising the remarkable results accomplished by the "blood."

L. A. FIRE CAUSES BAD TRAFFIC JAM

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Thousands of early morning workers were trapped in a downtown traffic jam today, when a spectacular fire swept through the Pacific Coast Candy plant at 1100 E. Broadway, and threatened the destruction of several large buildings.

An unidentified man, who was sleeping in the place, narrowly escaped death by the fire, it was claimed. Police and firemen broke down the doors of the establishment and rescued him.

Police were unable to determine the cause of the fire, which did damage estimated at $5000.

GALES IN ATLANTIC

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 9.—Terrific gales are raging over the north Atlantic and fears were felt here that the American schooner W. M. Nicholson with all on board is lost. The vessel sailed from Port Au Basque for Curling ten days ago and has not been heard from since.

2 CHILDREN BURN IN HOUSE FIRE

STOCKTON, Jan. 9. — Coroner Pope and Fire Chief Murphy today started a rigid investigation of the fire which last night destroyed the cottage home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Worth and burned to death their two sons, Albert, 5, and Lee, 7.

The parents were down town at the time of the fire and, according to neighbors, the children were locked in the cottage by their parents.

One charred body was recovered today from the ruins last night and the other was discovered today.

Due to the fact that the Worth home is in a more or less isolated section, the fire was not discovered until it had gained considerable headway.

The father was said today to have been located at a lodge meeting while the mother was reported attending a motion picture show. The officials were investigating statements of neighbors that it was a practice of the Worths to lock the two children in the house evenings while they went down town.

CALL JURY VENIRE

According to plans, 32 names will be submitted from each supervisorial district.

George Ade Comedy Attracts Attention

Appearing in one of the most delightful picture comedies that has been shown in Anaheim this season, Thomas Meighan, who many consider the most popular star in pictures—closes his engagement at the California theatre tonight in his latest effort named "Woman-Proof". This story, the same as several other of recent Meighan picture stories was written by the famous humorist George Ade, and to judge from the manner in which the large Anaheim audiences which attended the beautiful California last night received "Woman-Proof" there is no doubt of the popularity of the star and of George Ade stories. Plans are being made today by Manager Tom Ingram to care for an even increased attendance over yesterday. Thursday is Vaudeville day at the California, and judging by the crowds that have been attending the theatre on this particular day, Thursday is being considered by many as the red letter day of the week. Manager Ingram has arranged an exceptional bill for this week's showing, and from the line up of acts it would seem that this particular bill will eclipse all others for popularity.

THE PLAN IN BRIEF

Proposes

I. That the United States shall immediately enter the Permanent Court of International Justice, under the conditions stated by Secretary Hughes and President Harding in February, 1923.

II. That without becoming a member of the League of Nations as at present constituted, the United States shall offer to extend its present cooperation with the League and participate in the work of the League in a body of mutual counsel under conditions which
