Mysterious "Fire Bug" Sets Fire to Huntington Beach Oil Derrick With $5,000 Loss

ATTEMPT TO IGNITE TWO OTHER RIGS BLOCKED BY OIL WORKERS

The mysterious "fire bug" operated again in the Huntington Beach oil field Saturday night, setting fire to one oil derrick, with a $5,000 loss, and attempted to set fire to two others, but the attempt was frustrated by an employee of the Petroleum Midway Oil Co., who extinguished the flames with a hand sprayer.

Under the cover of the darkness, several hundred extra guards were on duty guarding the properties and huge reservoirs of oil. The Huntington Beach field is now producing about $50,000 of oil weekly.

The cause of the darkness, which broke out in the ordinarily brightly lighted oil fields, was the failure of the Huntington Beach electric company, which is a subsidiary of the Huntington Beach Oil Co., to supply power to the field.

The Huntington Beach Oil Co. is a subsidiary of the Huntington Beach Oil Co., which is a subsidiary of the Huntington Beach Oil Co.

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETED JOHNSON

"Puncher" Johnson, world famous prohibition campaigner, attracted an audience which filled the White Temple, held town today with S. T. Montgomery, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of So. Calif., would for La Jolla where Johnson spoke tonight at the Community Auditorium, and San Diego, where he will speak at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, closing his tour.

Montgomery announced that the league will take an active part in the coming campaign in "chartered counties" of So. Calif. He put his O.K. on both San Francisco and San Diego, and San Evans of Riverside, candidate for the State Senate.

In Los Angeles-co. he will throw his support to the candidate district attorney who is pro-prohibition.

Johnson in an interview, had some optimistic things to say about the spread of the dry movement.

For example—the making of beer and wine in homes is becoming a thing of the past, now that the novelty has worn off.

Liquor is becoming so bad that only people living for a drink will use it.

Charges that federal officers accept bribes and are "crooked" in other ways are much exaggerated.

Commissioner Haynes is an excellent official, but he is tied because of the lack of system among the enforcement agents.

Congress by a vote of approximately three to one passed a bill systematizing the work in a single bureau of the treasury department, and the senate is expected to pass this bill at its next session.

Los Angeles has much less drunkenness and fewer violations than San Francisco, where arrests for drunkenness in 1923 showed an increase over 1922.

Crime due to drink is steadily declining through the United States.

Johnson hadn't been in Anaheim for 10 or 12 years ago, and a new city had been created here, very different from the old. All the buildings on the main street appeared to have been created in the last 10 years.

Johnson will sail July 26 from New York for London, and will start next fall will speak at various points in Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Turkey and Egypt, spending two or three months.

He will return to America in January.

In his address last night, Johnson asserted he was in as good position now to determine prohibition sentiment throughout the world as he was in the United States 15 years ago. He gave it as his opinion that the world was nearer total abstinence now than the United States was 15 years ago.

Prohibition in the United States has stimulated interest in the movement there ever did, declared "Puncher" Johnson.

There are 600,000 non-Christians—Muslims, Hindus and others—who have been taught abstinence as a part of their religion.

Of 1000 Muslim newspapers, with out an exception, all are "dry" and would be dry now if it had complete control of its own government.

The liquor business in Egypt is almost exclusively in the hands of white men. The king of Egypt, who commanded "Puncher" to appear before him for a lengthy interview on prohibition in the United States, is "bone dry."

Johnson declared the chief danger to prohibition here was that the public might forget the corruption and blighting effect of the saloon. He said the worst element was now marshalling the largest fund ever collected for an attack on prohibition.

As proof of the effectiveness of prohibition, Johnson asserted that of 200 Keeley institutes and other liquor cures in the United States four and one half years ago, there now remained but 16.

Dr. L. A. Banks, of Rosenberg, Ore., in a preliminary address, following which subscriptions were taken for the anti-Saloon league and World League against Alcoholism, declared prohibition had been proved an unqualified success, that in four and one-half years more laboring had purchased homes than in any similar period in the history of the world.

That in the same time three billion dollars had been added to savings accounts.

DAILY GREETING TO OUR READERS

WORLD FLIGHT MEETS GOOD FORTUNE

Intrepid American army aviators are succeeding well in their flight around the world. They are in the heart of India now, by the banks of the sacred Ganges. They are encountering perils in the air, but good fortune attends them. They rode out a monsoon by rising to high altitude.

Everywhere they go, in the Orient, these resourceful young Americans are greeted ovationally. The Eastern world is stirred to profound interest. The name of America and Americans is on more lips, on account of this feat, than perhaps ever before.

One of the inestimable benefits that is sure to be derived from the development of aeronomics is, better understanding between nations and peoples. The steamship and the telegraph have fostered better international understanding. Radio and the motion picture are helping out. The newspaper press has been and is a tremendous factor. And now comes the swiftest and most spectacular of all means of communication—the airship. This is going to help to bind nations more closely together in bonds of common understanding and common sympathies.

It is little less than criminal to be careless with fire in forest reserves this year.

GOLD OUTPUT EXCELS IN CALIFORNIA

California leads all the states of the Union in gold production and is the marvel of the world in sustained output of the precious metal from its mines. Even during the adverse year 1923, California produced $13,274,800 worth of gold, leading all other states. California, even in last year's comparative dullness produced 27 per cent of all gold mined in the United States. It confidently is predicted by experts that California will continue to lead in gold output for an indefinite period.

It is subject for gratification and pride for Californians to know that since 1848, this state has produced gold worth the grand total of $1,763,843,269, which represents 41.13 per cent of the total gold production of the United States for this period! This is truly phenomenal. It betokens mineral wealth that has added and is adding stupendously to the produced riches of this state. Gold is not obsolete, by any means. It is advancing. It has its ups and downs—its good years and its adverse years. But, on the whole, the industry is progressing.

There never is a reason to regret being careful with fire.

Peace sentiment should be implanted in the young, and cultivated.

The game of politics should be played without fouling or defouling. There is no incurrant or excuse for abuse.

DINNER STORIES

His companion bent over the dying man, to catch the last faint whispered words. The utterance came with pitiful feebleness, yet with sufficient clearness. "I am dying—yes, Joe, to Fannie. Tell her—died—with her name—on my lips, that I—loved her—her alone—always. And Jennie—tell Jennie—the same thing."

Mark Twain was subjected often to the importunities of young and aspiring authors who sought advice and, in some cases, asked him to read their manuscript. One of these had accompanied his request with an inquiry as to right diet for an author, asking if it was true, as Professor Agassiz said, that fish was good brain food.

Mary Twain replied as follows: "Yes, Agassiz does recommend authors to eat fish, because the philosophers eat fish, because the philosophers are correct. But I cannot help you to a decision about the amount you need to eat—at least not to a certainty. If the specimen composition you send me is about a fair average, I should judge that perhaps a couple of whales would be all you would want for the present. Not the largest kind, but simply good mid-dling-sized whales."

The child had been greatly impressed by her first experience in Sunday school. She pressed her hands to her breast, and said solemnly to her sister, two years older. "When you hear something wise here, it is conscience whispering to you."

"It's no such thing," the sister jeered. "That's just wind on your tummy."

WHOS WHO IN THE DANCE WORLD

When friends and supporters of Rep. William D. Upshaw of Georgia arrived in New York to constitute their support for him as a presidential possibility at the Democratic convention he stood in the unique position of having previously run for nomination for that office at one convention this year.

Upshaw stood second in the balloting for the vice presidential choice of the "American People" which met in Columbus early in June.

That organization, among other things, intends to co-operate with the Ku Klux Klan.

Upshaw has long been an active supporter of the Anti-Saloon league and the Women's Christian Temperance union. Is vice-president of the Southern Baptist convention and has become known to thousands of people during a career of 30 years on the lecture platform.

He has defeated the machine candidate in three elections in his district in Georgia.

Confederate Soldier's Son Upshaw, the son of a Confederate veteran, was born in Georgia. In one of his lectures he declared that his earliest ambition was to go to Congress, and that as a boy on his father's farm he was accustomed to make speeches to the neighbors.

After being bedridden and in almost constant pain for seven years, Upshaw recovered sufficiently first, to travel in a wheelchair, and later, to get about on crutches. For five or six years he made a living as a lecturer platform, and then, at 31, entered Mercer university at Macon, Ga.

His Congress Wets The most dramatic incident in Upshaw's Congressional career was his "12-minute speech" in December, 1912, in which he charged that violations of the prohibition law were so common in official Washington that there was actually an "official House of Representatives bootlegger."

Upshaw is killed in his campaign literature as the "moral leader of political America." In his own statement he points to the assurance from every part of the country that, irrespective of party lines, my name on the ticket would make a strong appeal to the forces of that righteousness which exalted a nation.

The Psychology of Newspaper Advertising

By John Hamilton Curtis

ARTICLE NO. 5

THE LAW OF BREVITY

THIS is an article of keen commercial competition. There is no law of business that does not have many competitors—hence the competition in the field of advertising. It is then obvious that the advertisement which is read or noticed, and is most effective, is one that is brief in its nature and requires but little time to read. Brevity, as all other phases of advertising, should be weighed and balanced with space, and the message which the advertisement is intended to convey.

Thus, the advertisement of a bargain sale, which should give a large list of low priced articles, cannot be brief in its nature, yet it should be properly spaced to give it the appearance of brevity, compared with the news section of the paper. The very appearance of brevity, will attract attention and cause the advertisement to be read.

In other forms of advertising the law of brevity can be followed to a much greater extent. In most cases, the same advertisement, when given twice the space, is more than doubly effective, partially because of the additional space used, but primarily because of the greater appearance of brevity. A generous supply of white space thrown around the reading material of an ad further brings out this same appearance.

Brevity is also greatly accentuated by the use of slogans, mottoes, etc., which enables the whole advertisement, read at a glance, to make the same advertisement again and again, it has the same effect upon him as meeting a familiar fact. It is far better to put these words in as large a space as possible. Following this law compels attention, interest and appeal, and leads to conviction in advertising.

The next article on the Psychology of Newspaper Advertising will appear in tomorrow's issue of this paper, and will deal with unity in advertising.

John Hamilton Curtis, Business Consultant, will deliver a series of Free Public Lectures on Practical Psychology at the Fullerton High School Auditorium, evenings, from June 30th to July 12th.

What Editors Are Saying

WEEDING OUT "JAZZ" IN COLLEGES—San Bernardino Sun

An educational authority in Washington says that only the serious-minded student is likely to be admitted into colleges and universities in the future. He says that all such institutions are now beginning to realize that in making their selections they will not take all who are able to present the necessary educational requirements, and then close the door on the remainder, but will add other requirements of character and scholarship.

The student who wants to attend university to have a good time and only do enough work to get by will be passed by in favor of the one who wants an education more than he does fun or even athletics. In determining desirability a showing must be made by the applicant that he is of good habits, industrious and has respect for law and propriety values. Attendance at church will be one of the evidences of this.

It is a correct prognosis of the future of our great institutions of learning, then, there is reasonable hope that the present jazz age will be a short one. That there is a good start already made in this reform is shown by a survey of universities which already are applying these additional tests to the fundamental one of scholarship and acquisition of points for matriculation. Among these are the University of Chicago, Harvard, Stanford and Oberlin.

This is a good start, and if it is in fact the head of a long procession of colleges, it is a matter of national congratulation.

For a number of years the large universities have been looked upon as "rich men's colleges," and first life and athletics of more importance than scholarship. This has not been entirely true. Undue publicity given to athletics and the general and indiscriminate use of college life as a social life has been the cause of the things predominated and absorbed the attention of the student body.

This is not true, yet there has been too much that detracts from instead of aiding good scholarship in the larger universities. Modification of this will be an excellent advance over present conditions. How much of this tightening of the lips can be drawn in universities supported at public expense is a question, yet even this might draw the character line somewhat more sharply than at present.

EXECUTIVES IN FINAL MEETING HEAR OF CAMP

The executive board of the Orange County Federation of Women's clubs held the monthly meeting at Huntington Beach Friday with its club presidents and officers attending the number forty who enjoyed the excellent luncheon in the Huntington Beach M. E. church.

The report of the tuberculosis prevention committee was very interesting and promising. A camp site in Trabuco canyon has been chosen and with financial assistance a summer camp will be maintained, where the twenty leaders will reside in the county will be entertained. Mrs. C. C. Violett is chairman of the committee and the supervisors have granted $1,000 to carry on the work. Other assistance is necessary, however, and the committee is working on plans for further financing the camp.

A pleasant hour of reminiscence of the biennial meeting of the general federation in Los Angeles early this month presided over by Mrs. W. W. Crozier, 311 Island Ave., East Newport. A pot luck luncheon will be served at the next meeting.

Club Postponed

On account of the absence from town of several of the members, the meeting of the Saturday afternoon bridge club, scheduled to when Mrs. E. L. Debra was indefinitely postponed. Meetings will probably not be resumed until after vacation.

Off to Summer School

Miss Katherine Steward has come to Los Angeles where she will attend the summer session of the school of music in S. C. W. of the theological college. She will study piano under Miss Skeele.

Miss Olive Martin, a sorority sister, will be leaving with the same ladies with the committee. Miss Martin will be remembered here as having been a member of the Elks' Rhodes retreat in the Hotel Anglin in the Orange recently.

Bunnies Dodge Hunters

A rabbit hunt of more or less success was had by Mrs. C. E. Carmack, Lawrence Carmack, Miss Irma Steadman and Miss Debra on their journey to Santa Ana canyon to get much of the lively little cottontails for a treat. They came home with four, which was only one-third of the number they had hoped to bag.

Banquet and Business

Notice has been issued for the formal banquet and installation of officers of the Young Ladies Institute at their regular meeting Tuesday, July 1. The banquet will be served at the Elks club at 6 o'clock and the business session will be held in St. Doniface hall.

Mrs. M. P. Andrade returned today from a visit to Redondo Beach.

New patients at sanitarium: H. T. Brandt, Mrs. M. B. Brandt, Baby Martin, Joseph Gregory, Anaheim; and Baby Francis Shira, Huntington Beach.

GIRL KNOCKS MAN SENSELESS TO SAVE HIM FROM WATERS

At a successful and enjoyable picnic outing was the theme when members of the Catholic church at Orange County gathered at Huntington Beach, Newport. They were taken by the families and lemonade and coffee served by the committee.

Games for the young folk was a great delight and many awards were distributed.

Guests were also included in the program of events.

Prizes in the children's games were awarded Pauline, Nemo, Nellie Quanton, Louise Buchanan, Helen Kloss, Frieda Lottin, Tom Volgren, Joe Munoz, Albert Every, Charles Knipe.

Musical Treat

Miss Pearl Fay was presented in piano recital Friday evening at the Pay country home on Nursery.

By Mrs. C. A. McCullah. Her program was decidedly attractive and was rendered in artistic manner.

German Price sang a group of three songs: "Song of India," "Rimsky," "Afar in the Woods," "Keweenaw," "I Packed By Your Window," "Brake." Mr. Price is a great favorite among the Anaheim younger set and his numbers were enthusiastically received. He has a voice of beautiful timbre which he uses with taste and skill.

The program opened with a group of songs sweetly sung by Margaret Fay, a winsome little miss with whom the audience immediately fell in love. Another pleasing attraction was the saxophone solo group ably played by Lucie Fay.

In all the numbers Miss Pearl showed herself an admirable accompanist. The piano program consisted of: Narcissus, Nemo; Wurland Echoes, Fritz; Rustle of Spring, Sidding; Gopak, Musorgsky.

A most delightful social hour was enjoyed after the program.

Music Study Class

Mrs. Ruth Seitz was hostess to a number of the music study class at her home Saturday at 3 p. m. when the pupils gathered for an hour in studying the history of music.

A recital was then held, a program of rare quality being presented with the following names and performers:

Carol Peiding.....Gaynor
The Indian.....Holler
The Avalanche.....Holler

Wed at Parsonage Here

Miss Thelma Hartford and Mr. Wilbur Prud were married Friday at 2 p. m. in the Christian parsonage, Rev. L. J. Myers officiating. The young people were accompanied by Miss Lucille Bowen of the groom, and Cyrus Melvin Young.

Miss Hartford, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hartford of Brea, is a Fullerton high school student. Mr. Young is an oil company engineer when he is in the city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Prout of that city.

Among ladies looked very charming, the bride in a pretty summer dress of blue silk trimmed in lace with white ribbons and accessories. Her attendant wore a pale pink dress, also with white ribbons and accessories. They will be seen in the future plans although they will probably locate in a house in vicinity of the groom's occupation.

Big Church Frolic

A most successful and enjoyable picnic outing was the theme when members of the Catholic church at Orange County gathered at Huntington Beach, Newport. They were taken by the families and lemonade and coffee served by the committee.

Games for the young folk was a great delight and many awards were distributed.

Guests were also included in the program of events.

Thousands Have 'Tobacco Stomach'

The excessive use of tobacco is one of the most common causes of indigestion and stomach inflammation. Whether you smoke or chew makes little difference. The highly irritating juice of the weed is swallowed with the saliva often feeding up an acute inflammation of the stomach which may end in gastritis or chronic stomach inflammation.

Tobacco stomach produces a number of distressing symptoms—first a loss of appetite, then an occasional attack of indigestion. Perhaps your food sours at times and you notice a peculiar burning in your stomach. These attacks occur with greater frequency as time goes on. Finally, if neglected, the condition becomes chronic, resulting in loss of flesh and general poor health.

Smith Bros. M. A. C. Stomach Tonic has proven wonderfully successful in all forms of digestive trouble. It is sold on a post—the first bottle fails to relieve stomach inflammation or dyspepsia. The very first dose should convince. Nothing on earth like it. You can get a large bottle for $1.25. Healy's Pharmacy will supply you. (Mail order accepted.)

SCHOOL CHUMS ARE BRIDES IN DOUBLE RITES

A DOUBLE wedding at which the close relatives of the two couples were guests, occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Evelyn Grace Olson and Mr. Marlin Lester Swift and Miss Capitola Hamilton and Mr. Albert N. Drake were married by the Rev. H. C. Zarly, pastor of the La Habra Baptist church, the rites being performed in the parsonage.

The two young couples have been inseparable chums and their friendship will not be interrupted, for both will reside in Huntington Park and will be neighbors.

Miss Olson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Olson, and is a graduate of Fullerton high school class of '21. She came with her parents from Seattle about a year ago. Mr. Swift is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swift of La Habra and is well known over the community. Miss Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, has resided in La Habra the greater part of her life and is a popular girl of the town. She is also a member of the Fullerton 24 graduating class. Mr. N. Drake is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Noble, also of La Habra.

Both brides looked very dainty and lovely in their pretty dresses of the former wearing coral de chine of velvet material, while her chine was of similar material in harmonizing blue. Each wore accessories to match.

The young husbands are both employed by the General Petroleum Oil company. The honeymoon home of the bride is in the city for a few weeks as it is not possible for the young men to leave their positions at present.

Returning to the Olson home, refreshments were served and an informal reception held.

Couple Surprises Friends

Miss Edith Meiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. G. Meiser of Spadra-nd, Fullerton, and Mr. Morris Young of La Habra, slipped away from their friends Thursday at 3 p. m. and were married by the Rev. Knott of Los Angeles.

They were unannounced. They returned to the Meiser home to enjoy a champagne dinner on Friday and left soon afterward for Big Bear where they will remain for two weeks. Both young people are graduates of Fullerton high school and the bride attended junior college one year.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Young of La Habra, and is connected with the oil industry near Redondo Beach, where the new home will be established upon their return.

'Square' Store Picnic

Preparations for a stunt program and an evening of happy recreation are under way for the annual picnic of the S. Q. R. store co-workers which will be held tomorrow evening. The store will close at 5 o'clock and the thirty-two employees and their families will journey to Balboa where a chicken dinner, under the direction of Miss Goodrum, Mrs. Howard and Mr. A. Burnes will be served. The picnic will be a most enjoyable one, and the co-workers will be glad to see their friends.

It is estimated there will be about sixty-five at the big dinner and a July time is assumed for this is one of the best bunch in Anaheim and everyone will be very glad to see their friends. That is often the case with people who say they will write. I think she will find him as good a friend as ever when he does come back.

Motor to Mountain Resort

A merry party of Anaheimers motored to Forest Home Sunday where they passed the day. In the group were the Messers, Medames J. M. Casey, C. Chapler, Carl Martin, Mrs. Emma Seely, Mrs. L. H. Deane, Mrs. J. H. Stough and granddaughter Beverly. Mrs. Lowe and daughter Mildred and Dorothy.

HEARTY HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I AM a senior, who I admire very much. I met him while he was visiting relatives here. About one week after he was gone he wrote me a letter saying that he hoped we might become better friends and asked if his writing to me was all right. We kept up this correspondence but he mother objected because she did not want him to go with bobbed haired girls. He also asked me to address his letters to one of his boy friends who could be trusted because his mother did not want him to correspond with a girl. No doubt his relatives have been saying things about me because they never did like me and didn't want him to go with me. He told her to tell me to write him. He said he was going to write me. Prepare for Ceremony

Elaborate arrangements for the wedding tonight of Miss Sophia Kohlenberger to Mr. Ralph Eby are in progress today. The ceremony will be performed this evening at 8 o'clock in West Broadway M. E. church, with Rev. F. W. Elger officiating. A large number of relatives and friends will witness the pretty rites.

The bride couple will be attended by several friends and will be housed at a reception to be given at the Kohlenberger home. A very happy occasion was the arrival this morning of William Kohlenberger from Northwestern University, to be present at the marriage of his sister.

Pupils Have Party

Several pupils of the Sherwood Music school met in usual session Friday for a recital and party. Those taking part were Winifred Blakeley, Bernice Minder, Oliver Campbell, Ruth Huntington Anna and Sarah Abraham, vocal soloists. Piano solos and duets made the program varied and interesting.

Games and a purely social time with refreshments followed the recital.

GREAT AMERICAN TYPEFES ELKDOM

"The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is a distinctly American, advancing and supporting the Constitution and flag of our country," so states in a formal resolution adopted by the Grand Lodge in annual session at Victor, Idaho, in 1919, the play chosen by the local lodge for presentation as a benefit for the Anaheim Elks, called "The Greater American," is particularly appropriate as the main character for the drama is Abraham Lincoln, pre-eminently the man of his nation to exemplify the Elks' motto—"Charity, Justice, Fraternity." SPECIAL GUARDS AT U. S. EMBASSY

TOKIO, June 30.—After the police today predicted that calmness would characterize the monster anti-exclusion mass meeting to be held in Tokyo tomorrow, they today assigned 40 special guards to the American embassy and ten to the United States consulate.

In addition to these precautions 200 policemen were assigned to duty on Sandai Hill and the Zenshi temple grounds where the anti-exclusion demonstrations are to be held.

Private thrusts the empire were praying all day today for the development of nationalist patriotism and crowds of people were to be seen at every shrine.

Scores have given up their time to passing out tens of thousands of patriotic handbills.

"LITTLE FURTHER DECLINE IN AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS ANTICIPATED," SAYS ILLINOIS

"Expressing the belief that there will be little if any further decline in agricultural products, President Mevin A. Taylor of the Illinois Bankers' Assn. recently discussed the general economic conditions of the U. S."

"Our most pressing problems are those of agriculture, labor, taxation, extravagance and legislation," he said. "The chief trouble in agriculture is production in excess of demand."

There will be increasing diversification, more businesslike methods of production, more political participation in the shape of legislative nostrums.

"The American manufacturer had little competition in the markets of the world. When the European enterprise resume activity they will produce cheaper and sell at prices far below the present level of American manufactures."

Then the American manufacturer must adjust cost and selling price, but this cannot be done until a reduction in the cost of labor is made.

"This may not be anticipated without a bitter struggle, and the next battle for legislative protection is more likely to be from organized labor than from the farmer."

"If the liquidation that comes out of living is reduced, as it will be, labor will not materially suffer. But when this crisis comes there will be a choice of meeting the situation with fairness and equity or paralyzing industry and causing idleness and privation."

"Whenever industrial liquidation comes about, the farmer will continue to sell at perhaps present levels and will buy in a market as thoroughly liquidated as that in which he sells."

"Higher prices are not necessary to agricultural prosperity, but there should and will be speedy adjustment of the purchasing power to the level of the buying power of products of other industries."
