LOVERS ARE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Alhambra H.S. Students Enroute to Tia Juana In Fatal Crash

Two young sweethearts were dead today, the result of an accident on the road to Tia Juana near the Orange-co. line, where, early yesterday, the coupe in which they were riding with another couple leaped down a high embankment, the fatalities being almost instant.

Those kileld were Miss Nellie Spencer, 16, and her escort, Cecil Barrows, 19, both of Alhambra.

Riding with them about 2 a. m. when the little machine left the road on a corner and carried its human cargo in its perilous leap, were Miss Hazel Hamm and William Clayton, both 18, living at Alhambra.

The body of Barrows was taken to Oceanside, while Miss Spencer died while being taken to San Juan Capistrano. One inquest this afternoon is to be at Oceanside, the other at Smith and Tuthill's chapel at Santa Ana.

Barrows was the son of the captain of the Alhambra fire department. Miss Spencer was a high school student, as was her companion in death. The other two in the coupe, who were only slightly injured, attended the same school.

The two couples, all of prominent families, with their parents' sanction, left Alhambra at about midnight, planning on having the entire day to spend at Tia Juana before returning the next night, according to the story the grief-stricken parents told Coroner Charles D. Brown at Santa Ana.

The car, driven by Barrows, was going too fast at the corner, Clayton told officers, and its driver was unable to keep it on the road. It leaped over the embankment at a point 1000 yards below the county line, and was completely demolished.

Clayton and Miss Hamm, sitting nearest the door, were thrown out to safety, but the two victims were caught beneath the wreckage. Both sustained skull fractures that proved fatal.

MANY 'DRY' VOTES ARE REGISTERED

Registration for the recall election Feb. 3, which closed Saturday night, will be the heaviest in the history of the city.

Council campaign headquarters announced one deputy had registered 388 "dry" voters and stated that keenest enthusiasm was apparent for a big vote of confidence for the present four dry councilmen. Other registrars also handled many "dry" voters. After supper Saturday evening 48 were registered and it was necessary to get new registration books.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT LONG BEACH

The body of Malcolm Thompson, 62, of Orizaba-st, Long Beach, was brought to the Backs, Terry Campbell establishment following death which occurred early yesterday morning. Announcement of funeral services will be made upon receiving word from relatives in Canada.

Mr. Thompson is survived by his wife, Emily A. Thompson. He is a native of Ontario, Canada, and was a member of Virginia lodge, F. and A. M., in Halifax, Nova Scotia. A number of years ago he came to Anaheim to reside, but recently moved to Long Beach. He was a member of the Long Beach Calvary Presbyterian church.

REPORT FORMER LOCAL MEN KILLED

Word has been received here that Richard Walkup and son, who formerly lived in Anaheim, were killed Thursday in the Bakersfield oil fields. Death is said to have occurred when a well on which they were working blew up.

CITY WELLS UP

The level in the city wells has risen nearly two feet since Oct. 1, a report as of Jan. 1 from the city powerhouse today showed. The water was 90 feet and one inch below the ground on Thursday.

This figure also is eight inches better than on Dec. 1.

INCOME TAX MEN WILL VISIT CITY

Representatives of internal revenue collection will come to Anaheim, Fullerton and Orange, which are in the same district, about the middle of February, to remain four days. They will return three or four times on accasions after that, the same as last year. La Habra is in the same district as Whittier, but it will not be necessary for La Harbans to go to Whittier to make returns.

The minimum report for married men has been raised from $2000 to $2500.

RIOT IN REICHSTAG

BERLIN, Jan. 5. — Riotous scenes attended the opening of the reichstag today. During President Ebert's address, Communists interrupted the president with shouts of "amnesty, amnesty; free the prisoners."

President Ebert called the house to order but no sooner was quiet restored when a Communist deputy rose and started a speech in behalf of radical prisoners. Ebert peremptorily ordered the speech stopped.

F. F. MERRIAM RE-ELECTED SPEAKER

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5.—Assemblyman Frank F. Merriam of Long Beach was re-elected speaker of the assembly today over Isaac Jones of San Bernardino, the compromise candidate nominated by the Progressives.

The vote was: Merriam, 40; Jones, 39, with one member absent.

The election of Merriam is a distinct victory for Governor Richardson, who has been using every political resource of his arministration to attract voters for his candidate.

Jones, the defeated candidate, was selected by the Progressive opposition to the administration to make the run against Merriam, in place of Albert R. Rosenshine of San Francisco. Rosenshine withdrew from the contest as a concession to T. M. Wright of Santa Clara and others of a small group of "drys" in the assembly, who declined to vote for a wet.

Jones was placed in nomination at the opening session of the legislature today by Rosenshine in a brief speech in which he said that he did not believe that the people of the state of California were greatly concerned in what individual was chosen as speaker but that they were greatly concerned with carrying on the Progressive tradition in the California state government.

The election of Merriam was made possible by the defection at the last minute of two or three votes that the Progressives had counted on for Jones.

These include A. E. Brock of Redlands, the same county from which Jones comes; Frank Coombs of Napa, and Spaulding of Santa Clara.

The roll call vote was as follows: For Merriam—R. J. Anderson, Badham, Brock, Browne, Carter, Cleveland, Cloudman, Coombs, Davis, Dayton, Deuel, Dillinger, Dodge, Duvall, Easley, Ekwards, Foster, Graves, Hartranft, Johnson, Jost, Little, Lyons, McPherson, Melville, Merriam, Mixter, Murphy, Noyes, Pierce, Roberts, Schofield, Scudder, Sewell, Smith, Spalding, Walters, Weller, Wemple, S. V. Wright.

For Jones—Adams, D. P. Anderson, Bernard, Broughton, Burns, Byrne, Campbell, Crittenden, Croter, Dorris, Finney, Fry, Hawes, Heisinger, Hornblower, Jacobson, Jones, Levey, McDonough, McDowell, Eleaner Miller, J. A. Miller, Mitchell, Morrison, Mueller, Murray, Nielsen, Oliva, Reindollar, Roland, Rosenshine, Runner, Saylor, Schmidt, Spence, West, Williamson, T. M. Wright, Woodbridge.

Following the election of Merriam, Assemblyman Homer Spence of Oakland was chosen speaker pro tem of the assembly without opposition. Arthur H. Ohnimouse of San Francisco was elected chief clerk, also without opposition.

NAME STONE TO SUPREME BENCH

Attorney-General Moved Up in Few Hours After McKenna Retires

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—Harlan F. Stone, who came into the government service scarcely six months ago as attorney general in the Coolidge cabinet, was named to the U. S. supreme court this afternoon, succeeding Joseph McKenna, associate justice.

McKenna placed his resignation in the hands of President Coolidge only today. It was accepted and within a few hours of its acceptance the White House announced the promotion of Atty.-Gen. Stone—the whole transaction constituting one of the fastest shifts official Washington has ever known.

There was no indication from the White Houes as to who would succeed Atty.-Gen. Stone, but speculation included the names of Chas. B. Warren of Michigan, former ambassador to Japan and Mexico who is understood to be desirous of a cabinet post; Chief Justice Arthur Rugg of the Massachusetts supreme court and the present solicitor general of the United States, James M. Beck.

MASSES REMAIN BEHIND TROTZKY

(Widely conflicting reports of the condition of Leon Trotzky, soviet commissar for war, and the differences between him and President Zinoviev of the executive committee of the communist internationale, have filtered thru the soviet censors. This authoritative report was written especially for International News Service by Asaac Don Levine, author and world traveler, who recently returned from Russia.)

(Copyright, 1925, by I. N. S.)

BERLIN, Jan. 5.—Direct news I have just received enables me to state that Leon Trotzky, soviet war commissar, is actually sick. It can be stated on the authority of the president of one of the Caucasian republics that Trotzky is suffering from ulcer of the stomach and may die much sooner than is expected generally.

He is not a prisoner in the Kremlen, as has been reported, but is actually in a sanitarium in Sukhum Kale on the Black sea, about 70 kilometers from Batum.

The campaign against him is altogether "literary."

The Communist press daily spurts whole pages of abuse for him. However, this campaign has produced an unprecedented enthusiasm for him among the people. Trotzky at present unquestionably has the masses behind him.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS PASS 1700-MARK

Indicating the steady growth of Anaheim, registration in the grammar schools here today passed the 1700 mark for the first time, the highest level yet reached and larger by 80 students than last November.

The peak point of the school year still is to be reached, but never during 1923-24 was the 1700 total touched.

Registration at the High School also has gained over the holidays, but the figures won't be checked up until a little later in the week.

PLANS PROBE OF M'COY JURORS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—Dist. Atty. Asa Keyes today prepared to open a sweeping investigation of the work of the jury which last week found Kid McCoy guilty of manslaughter at the trial of the former pugilist for the murder of Mrs. Teresa Mors. Several persons, it was said, will be examined before the county grand jury tomorrow.

A thoro probe, it was said, will be made of charges told to Superior Judge Charles Crail by Juror John Apffel during the McCoy trial that a person high in Los Angeles sporting life called him on the telephone and attempted to influence his verdict.

Apffel is one of the three persons to be questioned before the grand jury, it was reported.

CLAIM NEW EVIDENCE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—That a mysterious assailant fired upon and attempted to kill Mrs. Teresa Mors some days prior to her death August 12, 1924, in connection with which Kid McCoy was recently found guilty of manslaughter, was the story discussed here today as a probable factor in McCoy's defense at the second trial.

Motion for a new trial will be argued next Friday and should it be granted it was said an eyewitness to the reported attempt to kill Mrs. Mors will be a witness for McCoy.

Should the motion for a new trial be denied, defense attorneys said the case would be carried to appelate court, following the sentencing of McCoy from 1 to 10 years at San Quentin prison as provided in the manslaughter verdict.

On Feb. 14 the former pugilist will go on trial on assault and robbery charges an aftermath of Mrs. Mors' death, which arose from McCoy's outbreak at Mrs. Mors' antique shop the morning of Aug. 13, when he shot three persons and held up four others.

CHARGE FAILURE TO HELP FAMILY

Frank Bradshaw, formerly employed by an Anaheim newspaper, must answer in superior court to a charge he failed to support his wife, Mrs. Dora Bradshaw, properly, it was decided late yesterday in Justice K. E. Morrison's court at Santa Ana.

Mrs. Bradshaw told the court her husband had given her but $18 since Oct. 23, and that she has twin boys, a girl and an adopted child to support. She added that she was in destitute circumstances and that she had to rely on friends at Anaheim for assistance.

The prisoner was remanded to the county jail, where he has been

3 Killed, 3 Dying in L.A. Accidents

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—Three persons are dead and six others may die here today as a result of week-end automobile accidents.

The dead are: Mrs. Amelia Connelly, killed when her machine struck a street car, and Cecil K. Burrows and Miss Nellie Spencer, who met death when their car turned over.

Mrs. Frances E. Johnson and Mrs. Birdie Crawford were so seriously hurt they may die, and four other women were injured when a car driven by George E. Benz crashed into a group of women. Benz was arrested, charged with driving while intoxicated.

FIND LIQUOR WHERE BOYS WRECK CAR

Youths of High School Age Hit Sandpile on Yorba Linda Rd.

Alfonson Vejar of Pomona, a yout h carcely out of his teens, was brot to the Anaheim sanitarium last night suffering from painful cuts and bruises received in an accident near Yorba Linda. A Packard auto in which he was riding is said to have run into a sand-pile, and turned turtle.

The car was owned by Paul Nicolas, Fullerton, and was driven by Leon Boisserance, of Yorba who graduated last year from Fullerton H.S.

Deputy Sheriff McKee of Placentia went to the scene of the accident and found a quart of liquor, which was taken to the Fullerton police station. The ownership of the liquor had not been established today.

The boys, it is said, had the permission of Nicolas for the use of the car, but whether the liquor was in the car already is not known. The car was practically demolished. Vejar received cuts about the forehead, left eyelids, right hand and forearm, and left knee. Physicians said he would be able to be taken home this week. No one else was injured.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR INDUSTRY

The industrial committee of the C. of C. met this morning at the office of Manager Reich of the Chrystal Chemical Co.s factory, with Col. Hartz and others and discussed plans for making Orange-co one of the links and perhaps the factory headquarters of a commercial airplane concern. The big plan still is very much in embryo.

Last week Secretary Reid of the C. of C., Col. Hartz, Mr. Barr, his associate, Charles Myers, Charles H. Mann, Barney Hartfield and Bob White visited the factory of the Douglas Airplane Manufacturing Co. at Santa Monica.

They found much of interest. For example, they discovered that each plane requires 28 ribs and that each rib supports 1100 pounds, compared with 750 pounds formerly. The lightest kind of wood, a light mahogany, and tubular steel are used. The planes carry a chemical which can be scattered instantly to put out fires almost immediately. The chemical when thrown on the silk of the wings leaves only an ash and does no harm.

Realtor's Death Follows Operation

Arthur Shell, 51, prominent Fullerton realtor associated with Howard Irvin in the realty business and living at 721 North Spadra-rd, died Saturday afternoon at the Fullerton hospital following an operation for appendicitis. The body is at the McAulay Sutters funeral parlors, where funeral services have been announced for 1:30 o'clock tomorrow, Rev. Walter Thornton of the First Christian church officiating. Interment is to be in the Fairhaven cemetery, Santa Ana. Mr. Shell had been a resident of Fullerton only a few years, being a former resident of Idaho.

IF YOU'RE TOO FAT YOU EAT TOO MUCH

DR. FRANK McCOY

CORPULENCY is always caused by eating too large an amount of fat producing food. There are those born with good assimilative power who must learn to eat very sparingly in order to retain a normal weight. There are those, also, who stuff themselves with food far beyond the body's need and accumulate excess baggage in the shape of adipose tissue. Even those few with insufficient thyroid secretions may regulate their diet so as to be normal in weight and have a perfect figure. Excess of fat is a burden which shortens the life by overworking the heart, the assimilative organs and also the eliminative or excretory functions.

Obesity is a kind of disease, and perfect health is impossible for those who do not reduce their poundage to the normal.

Physical beauty of form is also to be considered as a valuable reason for becoming more slender. Did you ever see a statue that was made with a fat model for a subject? It would look ridiculous, and sculptors who have made reproductions of fat people have never dared to make more than the head and shoulders or they would have been laughed at for their efforts.

There are just two methods for permanent weight reduction. Regulated diet and proper exercise. Sweet baths, vibrating and electrical machines, massage and such physiotherapy measures are all harmless and productive of temporary benefit, but the results are not lasting and no more permanent than taking a bath. Of course, all durgs which have a reducing action are harmful and should never be used if you value your health.

Entire abstinence from all food will produce the quickest results, but one of the easiest ways is to take certain kinds of fruit for several days, followed

HUGO WETZEL LETHAL GAS VICTIM

Hugo Wetzel, 65, retired rancher, formerly near Placentia, was found dead in a room at the Hotel Allen, 236 East Second-st, Los Angeles, from the effects of what is thot to have been "sleeping sickness" caused by lethal gas.

A gas stove was going at full capacity, with the windows closed, when the lifeless body was found lying on the bed.

Wetzel had complained of being cold, and it is thot went to his room, lighted the gas stove, lay down on the bed and was overcome by gas fumes as he slept. His is the sixteenth death in Los Angeles from lethal gas poisoning this winter.

Wetzel will be remembered here from his having shot and killed Fred Ebert of Anaheim on the night of Aug. 31, 1921, when the latter is alleged to have participated in a raid on Wetzel's watermelon patch near Richfield. Wetzel was tried on the charge of manslaughter on Nov. 21 of the same year, resulting in a "hung jury," which stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal. The case was later dismissed.

Decedent is survived by two sons, Rudolph and Emil Wetzel of Torrance; a daughter, Miss Helen Wetzel of Los Angeles, and another daughter in San Francisco.

SEIZURE OF RUM BOAT UPHELD

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—Federal Judge Partridge in effect upheld the legality of the seizure of the Canadian rum runner Quadra in federal court this afternoon when he denied a motion of counsel for the owners of the vessel, the Consolidated Exports Co., of Vancouver, to suppress the evidence as represented by the vessel and its cargo. Counsel for Consolidated argued that it had been seized outside the 12 miles limit specified in the rum running treaty between the two countries.

Judge Partridge held that while it may have required more than an hour running time to bring the Quadra in, it was the time required by the Shawnee, revenue cutter, to go out to that point that would count and on this point the jurist accepted the statement of the commander of the cutter that the Quadra was within the 12-mile limit.

Attorneys for the Consolidated had hoped to free the vessel and its cargo and thus automatically remove the evidence against its commander and crew.

MANY NEW METERS

During the year ended Dec. 31 the city issued 149 permits for water connections and 345 for light connections, the record of V. W. Hannum, powerhouse superintendent, showed today.

SPOUTS OVER TOP OF BIG DERRICK

Hole Being Deepened When Gas Pressure Blew Off Cap

Bringing in what is reported to be a 4,000 or 5,000 barrel gusher, at Yorba Linda, the Union Oil Co. has created a sensation among oilmen.

Not since the Standard Oil Co. began drilling near Placentia-ave and Wagner-rd has the producing end of the industry in No. Orange-co received such a thrill.

The well is Coyl Well No. 2 at Yorba Linda. It was being deepened and 1100 feet of new hole had been made when it tore loose with such violence that it blew off the top of the casing and spouted over the top of a 114-foot derrick. It was still flowing today at 4,000 or 5,000 barrels.

The policy of further developing these small fields has been going on quietly for some months, the Standard spudding in a brand new well on one lease.

The most common policy has been to deepen, clean out and improve the flow of existing wells.

It will be remembered that a well at Brea given up some 10 years ago was brought back a number of months ago in what was said to be a new sand never before tapped.

SENATE ELECTS BREED AS HEAD

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 5—Senator A. H. Breed, of Piedmont, was chosen president pro tem of the senate when that body organized today, defeating Senator Herbert C. Jones, anti-administration man. The vote was Breed, 29; Jones 10. Sen. L. L. Dennett, Modesto, was absent.

The vote follows: Breed — Allen, Baer, Canepa, Chamberlain, Christian, Creighton, Crowley, Evans, Gates, Gray, Handy, Hurley, Ingram, A. B. Johnson, Jones, Kline, Lyon, Nelson, Pedrotti, Powers, Rush, Sample, Sharkey, Slater, Swing, Taylor, Tubbs, West and Sanborn Young.

For Jones—Boggs, Breed, Fellom, Harris, Hollister, Inman, M. B. Johnson, Lewis, Maloney, Murphy.

This completed the capture by the administration, of the key positions in both houses, with the exception of that of presiding officer of the senate, Lieut.-Gov. C. C. Young. Several of Breed's votes, however, were cast by progressives, and his victory was not accepted by the progressives as indicating the real lineup in the senate.

HOUSE FIRED ON FOR SECOND TIME

Mysterious shooting of a bullet into the house at Costa Mesa of M. N. Bolinger last night, this occurrance being the second of the nature, was the subject of a sheriff's investigation today.

A .30 calibre bullet, fired thru the wall and barely missing Mr. Bolinger, was found on the floor by Bolinger, who turned the missive over to the investigators. He also informed the officers a bullet came sizzling through his house several weeks, but on this occasion he thought the lead came from a gun that has been discharged accidentally.

Bolinger insisted to the deputies who investigated that to his knowledge he had no enemies in the city where he lives.

Mrs. Bolinger was sitting in a chair in the living room, her husband declared, the bullet last night missing her head only by inches.

CORD FINED $500 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Charles B. Cord, arrested Saturday night by Fullerton police on the charge of transporting liquor, entered a plea of guilty before Judge French, and was fined $500, or sentenced to 500 days in the Orange-co jail.

Merritt Comstock, and Albert D. Comstock, were arrested on charges of suspicion of auto theft. Albert was released, and Merritt was held on bail of $50, pending investigation. It is said that his stories did not jibe concerning a car in his possession.

The girls are all living in the sorority's house at 1148 North Berendo, and are seniors in U. C. S. B.

The first three courses were served in Los Angeles at various locations, which was a real jolly stunt, but the climax was reached in the drive and cordial reception awaiting them at Miss Harriet's home. Her parents had added to its charm with pretty floral arrangements and a daintily appointed table.

Satin and Beads Fashion Gown

The straight, long lines, emphasizing height and slimness are used in developing this lovely evening gown. The white satin is scalloped deeply at the bottom of the skirt and ends of trailing panels. It is beaded in gold and silver beads.

Hand Painting, Spanish Shawl Effects Noted

Hand painting on gowns and costumes made from Spanish shawls is noted prominently in the season's fashions with the more common fur and embroidery embellishments. In the center a black and white manteau for evening is made out of a handsome shawl, while a pink chiffon frock for young girl (right) makes use of handpainted rose design for trimming. On the left is yet more practical frock of cocoa crepe roma trimmed with bands of infinisky and embroidery.

TODAY'S RECIPES

String Bean Salad—Take two quarts string beans, cut the ends off, then cut beans lengthwise in fine slices (each bean in three or four slices). Cook in salted water until tender. Now take one tablespoon bacon fryings, one tablespoon flour and brown well in a skillet, then add this brown flour to the salted water on the beans. It makes a nice rich gravy. Add one-half cup vinegar, one-half cup sugar, salt and pepper to taste. Take one cucumber that has been pared and sliced fine, let stand in salt water few minutes and add to the beans after the vinegar, etc., have been added. Bring to a scald and serve hot.

Egg Omelet—Take one-half slice of bread for each person, add sufficient milk to soak it up well. You may take a fork and mash it if you wish, then add one egg for each person and beat up well with the fork.

Pour it out in a hot skillet, greased well with butter, salt and cover. When nice and brown, turn and fry on the other side.

Here is a recipe for a wholesome Christmas sweet for children. Every normal human being has a sweet tooth and the mother's aim should be to satisfy this natural craving without disastrous results to the digestive organs.

Apricot candy: Three-fourth cup dried apricots, three-fourth cup shredded cocoanut, one-half cup chopped nut meats, one tablespoon lemon juice, one-half teaspoon grated orange rind, one-half teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Wash the apricots and steam them for five minutes. Put the first three ingredients thru a meat chopper. Add lemon juice and lemon and orange rind. Knead until well blended. If mixture accepts too much add a little orange juice. Roll out in a sheet one-quarter inch thick. Cut into small squares or diamonds or into other small and fancy shapes.

HEART to HOME PROBLEMS

by Elizabeth Thompson

CHASM.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: About two years ago I was married and after living with my husband a few months was divorced. A year ago the 18th of November I was married again. Then my first husband caused me some trouble about my divorce and the law said that my last husband and I had to part until January while I went thru another divorce case. When my second husband and I parted he told me I was single and to enjoy myself until the time came for us to be married again. A few nights ago I went to a dance with a couple of girl friends and he did not like it. I was not with a fellow as I expect to marry him again. The next morning he came to the house and would not speak to me. He left without saying good-bye or when he would be back. I thot he would leave town and so I have looked all over town for him and have failed to find him. Would you advise me to wait for him and to marry him when he does come back? Would you advise me to marry any one so jealous? I love the man and I know he loves me.

BROKEN HEARTED WOMAN.

The man you married last will always have to face the fact that you gave up your first husband for him, and therefore jealousy on his part will not be entirely without warrant. If he comes back, and he probably will, since he loves you, be tactful and kind so that his jealous fits will not be provoked and intensified. Under the circumstances it was hardly wise to attend the dance even in the company of girls.

LOVE AT THIRTEEN.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of thirteen. For two years I have cared very much for a boy four years my senior. He does not like girls older than I. He does not know that I care so much for him. At first we played together like children, but things have changed. I care for him more than as a friend now. I am nearly sure that he cares for me because when he is around me he acts like it. Can you advise me how to find out if he cares for me or not? Also tell me what to do to let him know that I care for him.

WAITING.

You will have to judge how much the young man cares for you by his actions. Both you and he are too young to talk of love and marriage. Do not try to make him tell you that he cares, and by no means confess your love for him. It is enough to let him know you value him as a friend.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl seventeen years of age and have been going with a boy one year my senior. About a month ago we had a quarrel and I thot I would give him the privilege of never coming back, and so I returned his letters. Now I am sorry I did so and he also acts differently. Is it my place to make up? If so, should I write or speak to him?

Do not make up with an apology. Simply speak as if nothing had happened when you meet, and if he is ready to be friendly again he will respond to you. After a few friendly meetings you will doubtless find yourself on your former footing.

LOSES BOY FRIEND

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of eighteen years of age. I am going with a boy the same age. We have been good friends until about two weeks ago when he asked as if he would have nothing to do with me. He gave me a picture nearly a year ago and the other day I decided to give it back. The next day I found it in my desk. I didn't want it any more so I gave it to him again and I think he will keep it for good now. Did I do right? I love this young man dearly and would like to win back his friendship.

SOFT-HEARTED SUE.

Your opportunity to win back the young man came when he returned the picture to you. At that time it was not necessary to show joy to think he gave it back, but you might have told him you would keep it because you preferred friends to enemies. Now, however you might just as well reconcile the fact that your friendship is a thing of the past and to forget him as quickly as possible.

INDIFFERENCE NEEDED

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have known a lot of boys, but none of them have been true to me. I have always treated them nicely and so have my parents. They are invited to dinners, house parties and a lot of meals. They always come, but they do not stay as my friend. I am true to them and they know it. I dress well, am considered good-looking, jolly and very decent, but not real distant. I work but I don't have to. I have not the best of health and am melancholy. I am nervous and quick but kind at heart. Men only like me a night or two and then it is all over. They say I am a good girl with a sweet disposition, but that is all. Many people have told me I was too good natured. But I was born that way. Please tell me some way out of my trouble.

BILLIE DALE.

You make things too easy for the young men who take an interest in you. A little more indifference on your part and the part of your parents would be better than to invite your friends to dinner, meals, house parties, etc. Let the young men ask permission to come and never urge the matter yourself. Your opportunities are not over and in the future you will be able to profit from past mistakes. Also remember it is better to be too distant than too free.

Youth Celebrates

Clarence, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Rousseau, of West Broadway, celerated his "dozenth" birthday yesterday with a company of relatives as dinner guests.

The meal was served at 4 p. m., and topped off with a gorgeous big cake carrying the required number of candles, and inscribed with the initial of the nickname which his family only claims the right to use. As the young man was so recently presented with an array of Christmas gifts, it occurred to his guests that silver was the better birthday gift, so he received a purse filled with silver coins to add to his savings account.

Maybe monoxide gas did it.

Sixteen deaths have been caused in Los Angeles by gas poisoning in the last few weeks. Some two years ago an Anaheimer was poisoned to death by the gas to or from his heater, after he had lain down to sleep with all the windows and doors closed.

J. C. Hayden, local manager of the Southern Counties Gas Co., was asked how about it this morning.

Here, in substance, is his views:

Most monoxide gas poisoning is caused by water heaters burning in a room which is shut up and without ventilation. The copper coil is responsible.

Every gas burner, stove, heater or what not, should have an air mixer, properly adjusted, and the room should be kept ventilated. A pan of water on a stove or heater not only furnishes moisture by steam to the air, but prevents the too rapid consumption of the oxygen in the air by the stove. The fumes should be carried to the exterior by pipe, the same as smoke is from a coat or wood stove.

Many deaths and much harm are caused, not by monoxide gas, but by the gas which has escaped before being burned. Defective pipes or connections are to blame.

Soma advice circulated in Los Angeles includes the following:

Keep stove clean and free from dirt.

Don't leave gas burning at night or when nobody is present.

Keep at least one window open three or four inches at the top and bottom, regardless of weather conditions.

Ventilators of heaters should be connected with the out-of-doors air.

All gas burning stoves, heaters, etc., should be inspected regularly to make sure that they are not clogged or defective. The Southern Counties Gas Co. makes these adjustments free of charge.

Many at Federation

Two long tables and another but a little bit shorter was surrounded by women of the W. R. C. Federation which includes corps from Huntington Beach, Whittier, Santa Ana, Fullerton, Anaheim and Orange, today at the regular monthly gathering was held in Odd Fellows hall. The morning session was devoted to installing officers.

A delicious menu of roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, peas, creamed turnips, gravy, salad, cranberry sauce, hot apple pie and coffee were served. The tables were centered from end to end with lengths of ferns dotted with red berries. At the birthday table, all having birthdays in January were seated and a special treat of a beautiful big cake, cut by federation president, Mrs. A. Kuenzli, also is president of the Fullerton corps, was enjoyed. Quite a number of comrades also were taking part in the meeting.

A short business meeting and a program were arranged for the afternoon. Large delegations from every corps in the district were present.

What the Neurocalometer Is —What It Does

The Neurocalometer is a very delicate, sensitive instrument which, when placed upon the spine:

Verifies the proper places for adjustments.

It measures the specific degree of vertebral pressure on the nerves.

It measures the specific degree of interference to transmission of mental impulses as a result of that vertebral pressure.

It proves the exact intervertebral foramina that contains bone pressure upon the nerves.

Which the X-ray cannot do.

It proves when that pressure has been released upon nerves at a specific place.

It proves how much pressure was released, if any.

It verifies the differences between cord pressure or spinal nerves pressure cases.

It establishes which cases we can take and which we should leave alone.

It proves by an established record which you can see, thereby eliminating all guesswork on diagnoses.

It establishes, from day to day and week to week, whether you are getting well or not.

It removes all doubt as to what we are doing for you.

You get well in a much shorter time under the Neurocalometer Health service.

It will establish all these things to your entire satisfaction.

ITALY MAY SEE CONFLICT SOON

LONDON, Jan. 5.—Private advices from Italy today said that the internal situation there was extremely serious, with both Fascists and anti-Fascists in the smaller towns aroused to a high pitch.

Conflicts are likely to break out at any moment and the police do not know what course to follow, these advices said. Large numbers of police stood by and watched the Fascisti wreck the Nuova Oltrarno, a newspaper of Florence, fearing to take a stand against the mob.

It is reported Mussolini plans a stand against the mob.

It is reported Mussolini plans to create a directory of three—himself and two generals—and impose martial law as a means of bringing order to Italy, but this is believed unlikely, at least at present.

There were evidences in London today that the heavy censorship in Italy is being maintained, if not tightened. News of the troubles there is subject to long delays in transmission.

ROME, Jan. 5.—Premier Benito Mussolini today stood in the position of a man who has staked all on one throw of the dice.

With a strong show of Fascist force and a continued campaign of suppression and confiscation of the opposition press, he was attempting to "clear the situation in 48 hours" as he promised, using the identical methods which swept Fascism into power in 1922.

To his friends, to the Fascist press, and to independent newspapers his action was the only alternative or a great leader who had done his best to conciliate his enemies and had met with continued rancor.

To his enemies, the partial mobilization of the black shirts and the ruthless confiscation of opposition newspapers were a final dramatic gesture of a leader whose popularity was waning.

There was little doubt that the position of the Fascist administration was considerably weakened and the demonstration of power somewhat bedimmed by the resignation of Gino Sarrocchi, minister of public works, and Senator Casati, minister of education, who with the ministers of war and navy, were the sole remaining members of the cabinet who were not Fascists.

But the Fascist premier met this with immediately appointment of two other liberal deputies to the cabinet.

The secession from the black shirt party of former Premier Salandra also came at an opportune time for Mussolini.

"I have lost faith in Fascism," Salandra said. "My work for the past two years to insert Fascism into the normal life of the country has been destroyed."

To offset these adverse terms however, Mussolini today had the delirious approval of the Fascist newspapers, who pleaded with him to continue the renewal of force against the administration's enemies and consider the steps taken so far as only the preliminaries in the "restoration of tranquility to Italy."

It was believed a decree would be forthcoming soon, declaring that all deputies who do not attend sessions of parliament would be deprived of their seats. The boycott had been the weapon of opposition deputies and their means of showing their disapproval of Mussolini despotism.

Mussolini practically has placed Italy on a basis of modified martial law, with the strictest orders for suppression of anti-Fascisti organizations, special militia guarding the railway stations and the Fascist prefects authorized to mobilize the black shirt militia.

Fascisti claim the opposition had planned to create a state of anarchy by disorganizing the railways. They claim a plot was discovered to burn the railway stations and any attempts to carry this out were made in some parts of the country.

The government has ordered the dissolution of the Italia Libere Ass'n, composed of former soldiers who are opposed to Fascism.

Sent, if there were no strangers on whom would people practice good manners?

TRIPS FOR BOYS

Educational trips for boys are a feature of the Y. M. C. A. work being pushed in Orange co this winter. On Dec. 30, a party of 125 boys and their leaders from the Santa Ana district made a trip to Los Angeles, visiting the stockyards and packing houses, the museum at Exposition park, and the Selig zoo. The animals at the zoo put on a special performance for the boys.

Anaheim boys and their leaders are to make a similar trip Jan. 17, visiting Bichop's candy factory, ostrich farm and Pasadena Y. M. C. A. A little later, trips will take the boys to Los Angeles harbor, and will probably include a visit to one of the battleships in the harbor.

FRENCH PROPOSAL EMPTY GESTURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—France's much heralded "proposition" for the funding of her $4,000,000,000 war debt to the United States, was officially revealed today as only an empty gesture, which for the present does not afford a suitable basis on which serious funding negotiations can be begun.

The communication which Ambassador Herrick forwarded to the state department over the weekend was not addressed to the American government nor did it come from the French government, but was a "personal memorandum" from Finance Minister Clementel which contained no definite or concrete suggestions for payment.

"Y" BUILDING OPEN

Residents of Orange co are invited by the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. to make use of the fine building which the association maintains at Church and Sycamore-sts. This building is always open, and is a convenient place for visitors to the county seat to rest a spell, time. It faces the new Hall of Records on Church-st.

Visitors are always welcome in the lobby, and in the gymnasium gallery except at certain times. The rest rooms, toilet facilities and restricted to members. Land other accommodations are open to all friends of the work, and not restricted to members. Land restroom provided for their convenience.

According to Col. S. H. Finley, president of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A., the organization is known to contribute to the comfort and convenience of visitors to Santa Ana, and all are invited to visit the building.

"SUCCESS WEEK"

"Success Week" is announced by the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. for Jan. 12 to 16. This is to consist of a series of lectures for business men and women, particularly the younger ones, on the elements of success in life, and is put on as a piece of service to the whole community.

M. R. Carlson, for years a director of the Knox Schools of Salesmanship of Cleveland, Ohio, is to conduct this "institute" for success. He will open on Monday evening, Jan. 12, with his lecture on "Success or Failure—Why," and will follow with four others on the successive evenings. The subjects are "Character Analysis," "Leadership," "Salesmanship" and "Management."

These lecures will be given in the Y. M. C. A. classrooms at 7:30 each evening. They will be illustrated with stereopticon views and with charts, and will be highly instructive.

Men and women of Orange co who are interested in improving themselves along the line of business and professional methods are invited by the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. These tickets are given out free to all who are interested enough to call for them.

FULLNESS OF GOD SERMON SUBJECT

The Necessity of not only being justified, but also of being sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost was emphasized Sunday afternoon at the Undenominational Church of the Lord (Holiness) 911 No. Olive-st. by Rev. Jesse N Blakeley, pastor.

Rev. Blakeley preached from Ephesians 3:19: "That ye might be filled with all the fullness of God."

He said that the fullness of God means the indwelling of the Holy Ghost in the human soul with all His gifts and graces, after that soul has been justified and cleansed from sin. He brot out that a soul is not a candidate for the Holy Ghost until he was clear witness that his sins are forgiven, and then that the Spirit must be pointed out the carnal natures one by one and that soul must be thoroughly cleansed before he can exercise faith to receive the Spirit into his soul.

He said that a soul which is sanctified and must receive the filling of the Spirit, that to receive the Holy Ghost you must have asked the Father for Him, and must exercise faith to receive Him (Luke 11:13; John 6:24).

The morning sermon was preached by Miss Eleanor Heaghan, assistant pastor, from II Cor. 4:13, on the Spirit of faith.

DAILY GREETING TO OUR READERS

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.—Psalm 121.8.

IS SENSE OF HUMOR ON ITS DEATHBED ?

A professor of philosophy in New York University holds that laughter is on its deathbed. This savant has made "exhaustive researches," the news dispatches say, and these have lead to the inevitable conclusion: People laugh at what they do not understand. Civilization promotes understanding. Therefore, by all the rules of logic, the more civilized men become, the less they will laugh.

This is lame logic. Lame in premise, lame in conclusion. People do not necessarily laugh at what they do not understand. Decidedly not. Go into a theater, or to a humorous lecture, and note the things that get the heartiest laughs of all. Are they things that the people do not understand? Decidedly not. It is the simple, homely jokes that get the most laughs, even from the ultra-intelligent. And slapstick comedies on stage or screen put intelligent folk to laughing.

Intellectualism does not necessarily mean the loss of all sense of humor. Quite the contrary. Those of keen intellect oftentimes appreciate most keenly little sallies of humor. There are many very profound men and women who know how to laugh heartily, and who appreciate the homely jokes, even though they understand them thoroughly. Indeed, thorough understanding, in many instances, makes enjoyment of humor more intense.

There will continue to be laughter, no matter how highly civilized men may become.

Chicago has more than 3,000,000 population now. And the lake metropolis is not so excessively modest as to try to conceal the fact.

BEGGING IS AN ABUSED PRIVILEGE

A "millionaire beggar" is a new development in this state. It has been charged, for some time, that a band of swindling beggars have been making their headquarters in Los Angeles and going to Ventura, Santa Barbara and other Southland cities to ply their nefarious alms-asking operations. These "beggars" are said to be of independent means, living luxuriously and driving about in fine cars.

One instance of this humbuggery, has been disclosed in Santa Barbara, where a cripple from Los Angeles operated, begging on the streets and abusing those who refused to give to him. He was arrested and it was found that he was wealthy; that he has money, property and stocks running into hundreds of thousands.

Impositions of this kind are outrageous. The generous impulses of the public are preyed upon by unscrupulous persons who do not need alms, while those who do need assistance thus are deprived of what generous folk would give them. There is little or no excuse for begging on the streets of cities. There are charity organizations, welfare bureaus and agencies for aiding those who are disabled and who are actually needy. There should be rigid excluding from the streets of those who have abundant means and whose begging is a fraud upon the public.

Who defies the laws of health may also defy his doctor's skill.

It's easier to keep warm on the ice than to keep cool by the stove.

From ancient east
To modern west;
Abandoned hope's
In the turkey's breast.

A falling barometer and a rising blood pressure.

A little water on the stove beats a lot of coal in it.

Weathy is he who is healthy.

Better inspect foods than infected foods.

Vaccination makes isolation and fumigation unnecessary.

With germs galore, upon the floor,
It's useless disinfection
To sprinkle lime from time to time—
It offers false protection.

DINNER STORIES

Jennie, the colored maid, arrived one morning with her head swathed in bandages—the result of an argument with her hot-tempered spouse.

"Jennie," said her mistress, "your husband treats you outrageously. Why don't you leave him?"

"Well, I don't 'zactly wants to leave him."

"Hasn't he dragged you the length of the room by your hair?" demanded her mistress.

"Yas-m he has done dat."

"Hasn't he choked you into insensibility?"

"Yas-m, he sho has choked me."

"And now doesn't he threaten to split your head with an ax?"

"Yas'm, he has done all dat," agreed Jennie, "but he ain't done nothin' yet so bad I couldn't live wid him."

The student had been spending somewhat too freely, and was short. It was near the holidays and he hated to write home for money. As a last resort he pawned his dress suit.

When the time came to leave for home, the suit was still unredeemed. He hurriedly scraped up cash enough to get it back, packed it in the grip and was off.

His mother was helping him unpack.

"Henry," she asked, "what is this ticket on your coat for?"

"Why, mother," he replied, "I went to a dance the other evening and had my coat checked."

She continued putting away his garments. Finally she lifted the trousers. They, too, were ticketed.

"Henry!" she exclaimed, "what kind of a dance was that?"

One of Rudyard Kipling's trees was injured by a bus, the driver of which was also landlord of an inn. Kipling wrote the man a letter of complaint, which the recipient sold to one of his guests for ten shillings. Again the angry author wrote, this time a more violent letter, which immediately fetched one pound.

A few days later Kipling called on the landlord and demanded to know why he had received no answer to his letters.

"Why, I was hoping you would send me a fresh one every day," was the cool reply. "They pay a great deal better than bus driving."

Their first conversation betrayed the fact that she was not fastidious.

AT a distance she had appeared unusually neat, immaculate. But upon their first face-to-face meeting he discovered that her teeth were not clean. And he soon lost interest.

Notice today how you, yourself, watch another person's teeth when he or she is talking. If the teeth are not well kept they at once become a liability.

Listerine Tooth Paste cleans teeth a new way. At last our chemists have discovered a polishing ingredient that really cleans without scratching the enamel—a difficult problem finally solved.

TIMELY VIEWS

"Put Industrial Athletics on Plane With Collegiate," Sport Body Head Urges.

"What I want to see is the same interest in athletics in industries, that is taken in our colleges and schools." Such is the hope of Murray Hulbert, new president of the Amateur Athletic Union, controlling body of amateur sport in the U. S. He has been a life-long sport enthusiasm. "As it is now, a boy who, because of his circumstances, has to quit school and go into industry, has no opportunity to develop himself in athletics. Many of these boys and girls too, are just as good athletic material as can be found in any educational institution," says Hulbert.

"I am trying to interest the heads of large industries in the idea of providing athletic facilities for their employes, just as schools and colleges do. Not only would this ba a benefit to the employes but it would be a great benefit to the industry. Industries today are carried on very largely with the aid of machinery. That has shortened hours and may shorten them yet more. Employes have more leisure than they used to have. Then, too, their employment is likely to be more monotonous, even tho for shorter hours, and they do not get from it the physical exercise they need. Athletic associations, co-ordinated with the work of all the other associations would rouse interest, promote physical and mental health and result in better work. What is more, it would do wonders for the morale of the employes. The competitors in the events would not be the only gainers; the others would soon be rooting for their organizations and there would be an inevitable increase in enthusiasm and loyalty.

Industries Interested

"My idea is that if the plan takes hold well, many of the big industries will establish athletic fields in connection with their plants, organize associations, affiliate with the Amateur Athletic Union, offer prizes and build up a real system of athletics such as now exists in the schools and colleges. The stadium and athletic field idea is spreading over the country. Chicago, Baltimore and San Francisco are building them, Philadelphia has one in prospect. Almost all the universities are doing so.

"An industry that would do the same thing would be in line with a big movement and not only would be giving its employes an opportunity, but would be in a way taking them into partnership and creating a spirit that would go far toward doing away with the restlessness that exists in America today and is constantly cropping out in all kinds of isms.

Has Been Tried

"It has been tried by some individual industries and they report it is the best investment they have ever made. But it would be still better if it were co-ordinated by membership in the Amateur Athletic Union, so that the work would be carried on under the standard rules and regulations. One of the best things that organized athletics teach is the principle of obedience. If a man doesn't comply with the rules he can't compete."

What Editors Are Saying

HEALTH ADVICE FROM FRANCE—Berkeley Gazette

Americans are inclined to think of themselves as the original fresh air fiends, advocates of outdoor exercise and proponents of sensible diet. Not that all Americans live up to the best rules in regard to these things, but they do read and write and talk about them a good deal. The other day, however, in a lecture delivered to American students at the Sorbonne in Paris, crtain French health rules were expounded. They are somewhat familiar, but are as well worth listening to and heeding on one side of the Atlantic as the other.

First, the French professor urged his American pupils to ventilate every room they occupy, because man is not a house animal. He urged the wearing of light, porous garments and the removal of outer layers when the atmosphere becomes too warm. eWhenever possible the whole body should be given an air and sun bath.

A suggestion which makes the modern American smile is: "Breathe night air at night time. Open bedroom windows. Have no fires in bedrooms."

Another suggestion which sounds strangely from a French speaker is: "Get back to nature in the matter of foods. The original food products are grains, milk, fruit, nuts eggs and water. Select the diet from the natural food products, and get a certain part fresh every day—not canned, boxed or bottled." Americans usually think of the French as addicted to foods deliciously prepared and disguised, palatable beyond the dreams of cooks of other lands, but far from the natural state.

One final bit of advice which Americans really need to take to heart has been heard many times, but is too frequently forgotten in the rush of American life.

"The secret of great personal power is work, play, rest and sleep in moderation. Never permit a piece of work, or stress or strain of any kind to run along without frequent interruption in the nature of relaxations. Keep serene, no matter what happens."

HEALTH & DIET ADVICE

By Dr. Frank McCoy
Author of "THE FAST WAY TO HEALTH"

CHILDREN'S DIET (Continued)

Care should be taken to see that no other food is on the table when the child is eating its own selected foods, and to get very best results it seems advisable to feed the child by itself unless those who are eating at the same time are willing to use the same food. No food should be given during the afternoon, and if the child should happen to ask for some, it will be found that a drink of water will generally satisfy it until time for the evening meal when the following combinations should be used:

Small piece of lean beef, mutton, chicken or rabbit.

Choice of as many as desired of the non-starchy vegetables.

Dessert of stewed fruit or jello with cream or whipped cream.

The meat and vegetables used at this meal should also be cut up fine, and the baby should be given no "tastes" of any other food or it will become dissatisfied and want every food in sight. It is a good plan to feed the baby by itself, before the rest of the family, as in this way it can be given exactly what food it needs without being tempted by other things, and the mother will enjoy her own dinner better, not having the child to look after at the same time. This is not the plan usually adopted in most households, but if you will commence this method, you will find it will work out well.

After a time the child will become dissatisfied with milk alone in the early part of the day, and after the age of three or four years, change to a three-meal plan. The feeding of baby at this time should be about the same as for an adult who is doing hard muscular labor, excepting that the quantities should be smaller. The growing child can use a large amount of carbohydrates (sugars and starches) than after reaching maturity, but there will always be present the dangers in connection with the use of starch in baby's diet that are to be guarded against by the adult who is using more starch and sugar than the body needs for heat and energy.

MISFORTUNE NEED NOT MASTER YOU

It should never be forgotten, Schopenhauer advises, that misfortune, be it great or small, is the element in which we live.

Our aim should be to look well about us, ward off misfortune by going to meet it, to attain such perfection and refinement in averting the disagreeable things of life—whether they come from our fellow men or from the physical world—that, like a clever fox, we may slip out of the way of every mishap, great or small.

Remember that a mishap is generally our own awkwardness in disguise.

* * * *

The main reason why misfortune falls less heavily upon us, if we have looked upon its occurrence as not impossible, and, as the saying is, prepared ourselves for it, may be this: if, before the misfortune comes, we have quietly thought over it as something which may or may not happen, the whole of its extent and range is known to us, and we can, at least, determine how far it will affect us. Then, if it really arrives, it does not depress us unduly—its weight is not felt to be greater than it actually is.

But if no preparation has been made to meet it, and it comes unexpectedly, the mind is in a state of terror for the moment and unable to measure the full extent of the calamity; and its range is exaggerated.

In the same way, darkness and uncertainty always increase the sense of danger.

And, of course, if we have thot over the possibility of misfortune, we have also at the same time considered the sources to which we shall look for help and consolation; or, at any rate, we have accustomed ourselves to the idea of it.

* * * *

It seemed to Schopenhauer that there is nothing that better fits us to endure the misfortunes of life with composure than to know for certain that everything that happens—from the samllest up to the greatest facts of existence—happens of necessity.

A man soon accommodates himself to the inevitable—to something that must be ;and if he knows that nothing can happen except of necessity, he will see that things cannot be other than they are, and that even the strangest chances in the world are just as much a product of necessity as phenomena which obey well-known rules and turn out exactly in accordance with expectation.

"If a man is steeped in the knowledge of this truth, he will, first of all, do what he can, and then readily endure what he must."

Style Hints

PARIS, Jan. 2.—That clothes play a very important role in the life of French children can be seen on a stroll through any of the delightful Parisian gardens. The little French girl, from the very beginning, is taught to be coquettish, so that it is no wonder she grows up to have the smartest air of any woman in the world.

Fashions in children's dress change almost as often as those for mother, except for the length of the tiny skirt. It is always short, finishing well above the knees and exposing a good length of chubby bare legs. For even when snow falls little mademoiselle contines wearing her short socks, and seems none the worse off for it.

There are certain chic establishments devoted to children's wear where the designers make the tiny article practical as well as beautiful. This season frocks for tiny tots tend to flare from the shoulders to the hem in smart modern fashion. Dresses and coats for older girls are modeled on the straight lines which dominate their mamas' gowns. Ensembles of coat and hat are very much worn. One attractive model comes in green velours de laine, with quaint trimming of white bone buttons and five tiny pockets placed one below the other down the right side front while the coat closes on the left. A cap of green velours, turned sharply back from the face, has the same trimming of bone buttons. For a small tot there is a charming coat of rose crepe satin warmly lined and banded with squirrel. The little hat is of shirred silk and trimmed with the same fur.

Frocks for girls of school age come with the popular tunic blouse and high collars and pleated skirts. They are in blue serge, with a tiny line of bright color. Velvet and soft silks are used for the little party dresses.

"I can get you out of here for one hundred dollars," said the lawyer to the prisoner, after he had sized up the man as one who could possibly raise that amount by pawning his watch and mortgaging his furniture.

"I din't want out," said the prisoner sadly, with a far-away look in his eye. "I'm in here for bigamy."

If a man says Uncle Sam was hard on Persia and Britain on Egypt, try kicking his dog.

MAIDENS SEEK GOLDEN [illegible]

The fair sex, entitled to and during 1924 privileged to pose marriage long as the year was in effect, arose to the opportunity and set a record [illegible] Orange-co.

In 1924 the clerk's office issued marriage licenses to 4600 couples. Last year only 4369 exercised their rights.

Compared with divorce court records, it was a glorious year for Dan Cupid, for only 325 obtained divorces, or were victorious in annulment or separate maintenance proceedings. The ratio of weddings to divorces was approximately 14 to 1 in Orange-co, as compared to 4 to 1 in the nation at large.

Young Jack eyed the new arrival critically for a few moments, then looked up and asked

"So you're my grandmother, are you?"

"Yes, dear, on your father's side," replied the old lady with a smile.

"Well, you're on the wrong side; you'll find that out quick enough," remarked Jack, without shifting his gaze.

ROSENSHINE WILL NOMINATE JONES

why it should not be left in the sepulchral quietude where it belongs.

Nevertheless, however, it is the dry issue that is going to determine who is to be elected speaker of the assembly at the opening session of the 46th legislature today.

That issue has forced the retirement of Albert O. Rosenshine of San Francisco as a candidate for the speakership, sacrificing personal ambitions as a matter of "progressive harmony," and the substitution of Assemblyman Isaac Jones of San Bernardino as the candidate of the Progressives.

Rosenshine announced today that he would himself nominate Jones, a dry, against Assemblyman Frank F. Merriam of Long Beach, Governor Richardson's candidate, for presiding officer of the assembly. The Progressives assert that Jones' election is certain and that if it is accomplished it will be as much a defeat of the administration as would the election of Rosenshine since it would clinch control of the legislature by the Progressives.

Assemblyman T. M. Wright of Santa Clara, and the small flock of dry votes for which he is the bell wether, are responsible for the switch in the plans of the Progressives.

Though classed as Progressives and definitely opposed to the policies of Richardson, the Wright following declined to support Rosenshine—"a San Francisco wet." That meant a division of the Progressive vote and the election of Merriam unless a compromise candidate could be agreed upon.

Following Wright's arrival in Sacramento, a caucus of the Progressives was held late last night and Jones was selected as the "compromise" at Rosenshine's suggestion. There is not the slightest likelihood that the present legislature is going to take any stand, one way or the other, so far as present prohibition enforcement or the eighteenth amendment are concerned. But the ancient antagonisms, holding over from the days when national prohibition was being promoted, prevented the coalition of a majority in support of Rosenshine.

The anti-saloon leaguers and others of the dry persuasion, conspicuously among them Franklin Hichborn, who was formerly campaign manager for the prohibitionists—have been actively at work for months to keep Wright and the handful of confirmed dry members away from the Rosenshine camp.

It had been represented to them that it would be politically fatal in their home districts for Wright and others to support a "wet" for speaker.

The San Francisco delegation, backing Rosenshine, countered by recalling a precedent. San Francisco wet assembly men a few sessions ago, when "wet or dry" was still a live issue, voted for Henry W. Wright for speaker as a Progressive, though he was no less a dry than T. M. Wright himself, and no San Francisco legislator was politically decapitated for punishment in consequence. But it did not avail. The drys stood firm against Rosenshine.

The Progressives appear to believe that they can hold their "wet" strength for Jones along with the drys and that he will go over by 42 or 43 votes, the necessary majority being 41. The administration forces assert that the last minute switch has strengthened Merriam's chances. The final tale will be told on the roll call, which comes this afternoon.

PLEA FOR PRIVATE MERCHANT MARINE MADE BY ADMIRALTY LAWYER

A plea for the establishment of a permanent merchant marine in foreign trade under private ownership and a warning that the present service will entirely disappear if the United States government undertakes to own and operate ships was made recently by Ira A. Campbell, admiralty lawyer.

"Until the politicians, and by that I mean those who think in terms of politics and not of business, awaken to the fact that American shipping cannot be successfully sovietized and realize that if there is to be permanency in its maintenance of growth, it must come thru the individual initiative of the American business man and not thru Government ownership and operation, we are doomed to failure on the seas in foreign trade," said Mr. Campbell.

Government Ownership

There continues to be a concerted effort to involve the government in permanent ownership and operation.

"For example take the new designations of operators of the government ships. With but few exceptions, excluding the passenger service to South America and the Orient, the operators of the government ship are not the owners of ships.

"Only recently the fact that a prominent shipping man, amply financed, seeking to retain one of the Government services he had built up, was planning to purchase from the board in the near future the necessary tonnage to maintain the service apparently made no appeal to the dominant commissioners in the assignment of the service for Government operation. Notwithstanding that negotiations had already been initiated with Admiral Palmer for the purchase of ships, this man's connections with the service were peremptorily ended, after a hearing that was a mere farce.

"No progress can be made towards inducing the American business man to put his money into ships in foreign trade unless and until this menace of Government ownership is ended. But how can this attempt to involve the Government permanently in the shipping business be stopped? By a full disclosure of the financial results of Government operation.

"By disclosure I do not mean the kind of reports heretofore emanating from those in authority. But I do mean such public accounting as will actually and fully disclose the true results of the operations."

MONTGOMERY AND WARD FACE JURY

Regarded as the most important witnesses called to tell of liquor conditions in Orange-co. and their enforcement, Dr. S. T. Montgomery, head of the Anti-Saloon league; E. S. Ward, his chief investigator, and W. A. Weymouth, U.S. dry agent chief, are scheduled to testify tomorrow before the grand jury at Santa Ana. In addition, Louis Plummer, Fullerton H.S. principal, and Thomas Askin, Fullerton real estate agent, have been summoned to tell their story.

DAUGHTER BORN TO NOTED DANCER

CHICAGO, Jan. 5—"It's a girl," both getting along nicely."

This was the word today from the Michael Reese hospital here, where Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin, formerly Irene Castle of dancing fame, is starring in a new role.

Her daughter, who it is said will be named for the mother, weighed seven pounds. It is Mrs. McLaughlin's first child, altho she has been married three times, first to Vernon Castle, dancer and British aviation ace killed in Texas while instructing American flyers, and then to Captain Robert Tremain, whom she divorced in Paris. She married McLaughlin Thanksgiving eve 1923.

DRAIN WAS SICK

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 5.—National Commander Jas. A. Drain of the American Legion became so ill after his address last night in the ballroom of the Hotel Utah that it was necessary to assist him to his room. Dr. C. H. Baldwin was called to attend him.

While his condition last night caused great uneasiness among members of the Legion here, it was said that treatment had greatly relieved Col. Drain and that his condition was not serious.

After treatment by Dr. Baldwin, Col. Drain was strong enough to go to the Union Pacific depot and take a train for Indianapolis.

"DON'T MARRY FOR MONEY" AT UNITED

"Don't Marry for Money," one of the season's best pictures, can boast of a cast that is seldom seen on the screen, such artists as House Peters, Rutye De Remer, Cyril Chadwick, Christine Mayo, George Nichols, Hank Mann and Charles Wellesley. This picture will be shown at the United theatre Tuesday.

A picture with such a cast gives definite assurance to those who know who's who on the screen than such artists can do naught but deliver a series of artistic performances, and under the gifted direction of Clarence L. Brown, these Mosaics of characterization form a pattern, which in very truth is a pattern of a picture for other directors, less gifted, to imitate in a hopeless endeavor to emulate.

"Don't Marry for Money" sounds a warning, as its title would indicate to the credulous and the unworldly who are innocent and unsophisticated enough to believe that the possession of wealth is a panacea for the cure of all the ills that flesh is heir to.

A poor girl marries a man for his money. He gives her gifts beyond the dreams of avarice. She tries to make herself believe that she pays in full by a perfunctory performance of her matrimonial obligations, but there's the devil to pay, too,—through her guilty conscience, which makes her an easy prey to a coterie of clever crooks who take advantage of the fears which her conscience plagues her with.

Enmeshed in a social scandal thru her reckless disregard of her husband, careless of his opinion because she has married him for his money too late she realizes his sterling worth, too late; she realizes it is he, not his money, she loves.

How she wins him back with the world against her makes "Don't Marry for Money" a picture one really cannot afford to miss. Always a good show at the United.

RADITCH ARRESTED

LONDON, Jan. 5.—M. Raditch, leader of the Jugo-Slavia peasant movement, has been arrested, according to a Central News dispatch from Belgrade. His arrest, as part of the Bulgarian and Jugo-Slav movement against radicalism, had been expected.

The peasant leader was arrested at Agram, and was the final leader taken in the government roundup of radicals. The government has decided on criminal proceedings against the Communist and Bolshevik leaders.

CAUGHT ON PICKET

Armand Trujillo, 21, of Santa Ana, was back in the county jail today pending his trial on a charge of driving while drunk after a chase from one end of Santa Ana to the other ended when Trujillo, leaving his auto tried to leap a picket fence, but failed, his coat catching in the pickets. He previously had won probation in the superior court on the same charge, after his arrest at Orange.

In an initial chase, Trujillo evaded downtown police at Santa Ana. To continue his "joke," he phoned the police telling of a fight. On their way out the police again cited their quarry.

STOCK MARKET RESUMES CLIMB

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—After a lot of early irregularity in which profit—taking in the industrial and specialty stocks was fairly heavy, the stock market resumed its forward price movement today. After the oil stocks had apparently exhausted themselves, the railroad shares took their place at the head of the advancing ranks in the stock market and some of the prominent rail shares surpassed the best records made by them in the bull movement of 1924. New York Central was the star performer, moving up to around 123 for a gain of 2½ points.

Speculative industrial and specialty stocks met with a heavy volume of selling orders which impeded further progress to higher price level. This selling was well absorbed, however, and no trace of extreme weakness was to be seen in any part of the list. Buyers took large blocks of stocks at concessions of a point or two from Saturday's closing prices and in many cases the opening prices were the lowest of the day.

Sterling exchange bettered its opening quotation of 476¼ for demand sterling. Call money opened at 4½ per cent but was marked down to 3½ per cent shortly after noon, and outside loans were reported at 3 per cent. Good reports were submitted by the transportation companies and steel mills reported additional furnaces being blown in.

More than 1,000,000 shares of stock changed hands in the first two hours, after which the pace of the market slackened somewhat.

New York Central was the leader in a brisk forward movement in the railroad stocks in the third hour. By selling at 122⅞ Central shattered all of its previous price records since 1920 when it sold at 128. It was rumored that officials of the company were heavy buyers in the open market for stocks to distribute to employes of the company. Upward price movements were also made by Atcheson, B. and O. Erie common and Pfd. Southern Railway and Big Four, the last mentioned rising to 157 on a small volume of sales.

Radio Corp. was one of the most active stocks on the board. It recovered sharply from its opening price of 68⅛ and sold in large volume above 70. The tobacco stocks were strong with American Tobacco up 3⅛ points to 89⅛; Tobacco Products up two. Savage Arms at 90 surpassed its best price for 1924 White Motors, Studebaker and Mack Truck led the motor stocks. Accessories lost ground today on profit taking. Steel stocks were in good demand and independent steel shares fractionally higher. The decline of buying demand from the terrified shorts which featured Saturday's sensational rise in speculative leaders, accounted for the drop in prices from the peak of the former session.

Stock sales today 2,408,600 shares; bonds $14,639,000.

GOTHAM EAGER TO HAIL FASTEST MAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—Not since the days of the Dorando-Johnny Hayes match races of happy memory, has New York become so exercised as it has over the impending American debut of Paavo Nurmi, world's greatest runner, at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night Nurmi will start in a special mile and a five thousand meter run at the Finnish-American A. C. games and his appearance will mark a revival in track and field athletics such as followed the 1908 Olympics at London, where Dorando was carried across the line in the marathon, and Hayes, finishing second, subsequently declared the winner. That incident made for arch rivalry and the present instance has much in common with it. After being beaten four times by Nurmi at Paris, the American runner who would not give his windpipe for a victory over the Finn, is an American runner without the ambition of a second foot man. Joie Ray, Lloyd Hahn, Walter Higgins and Jimmy Connolly are some of the entries who will essay to take issue with Nurmi over the mile distance.

Evidences of bad blood between Nurmi and Willie Ritola, Americanised fellow countryman, also has had its popular appeal.

They will meet tomorrow night at 5,000 metres, and Nurmi, unfamiliar with board floor running, and having finished a hard mile earlier in the evening, will be at something of a disadvantage. But he is a better runner than Ritola, the best day the latter every knew, and the writer, for one, entertains but slight doubt of Nurmis ultimate victory.

BAR O'CONNELL FROM HOOP GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5 — Jimmy O'Connell was today barred from playing basketball in the California professional basketball ass'n by Pres. Daniel P. Maher.

"President Heydler of the National League need have no concern over O'Connell appearing with or against other baseball stars in this league as I have the personal assurance of the management of the Adam and Eve club that O'Connell will not participate," he said. "All professional ball players in the league will be protected."

Maher took action after Heydler had declared automatic suspension would follow if National League players participated in games in which the barred Giant player took part.

LOSES FIGHT TO OBTAIN FREEDOM

Frank Moors of Huntington Beach, arrested in the recent dry raids, lost his fight to gain freedom on a writ of habeas corpus, sought on the plea that he could be prosecuted when he purchased liquor for an investigator, claiming that in this connection he was acting merely as an agent and was no more liable than the investigator himself.

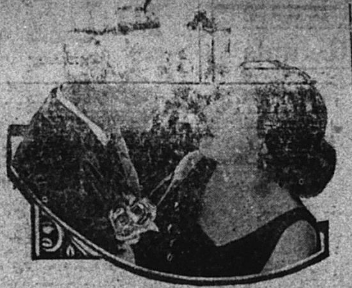

This line of argument failed to impress Superior Judge Z. B. West at Santa Ana, who refused the writ. The action then was taken to the appellate court at Los Angeles, and Judge West's ruling has been sustained, according to information received today. A transcript of the opinion handed down in the superior court, however, had not reached Santa Ana.

BRITISH CABINET CONSIDERS NOTE

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The British cabinet took under consideration today America's note which, it is understood, states frankly that the United States has a legal right "for payment of its war claims thru the Dawes reparation plan."

The note was received by the foreign office today and sent immediately to the cabinet. The American note was a reply to the British note of last Wednesday.

Out of the cabinet meeting was expected to come a definite statement of policy, not only on America's war claim, but also on the Franco-American debt and war debts in general.

The specific purpose of the cabinet meeting, it was announced, is to give Chancellor of the Exchequer Churchill final instructions governing his appearance at the allied financial conference in Paris this week. Britain will not, it was said, accept the terms which France has made in informal memoranda to the United States for payment of the Franco-American debt. These terms specify a 10-year moratorium and 80 years to discharge the debt.

It appears likely, diplomats conceded, that the financial conference in Paris will break down. An effort then will be made by Great Britain to bring about an inter-allied debt conference, diplomats heard. This conference would take up the question of the participation of the United States in the reparations payments.

DECLINES ARBITRATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. — The United States refused to submit the question of American participation in the German annuities under the Dawes plan of arbitration at The Haugue in the note which has just been delivered to the British foreign office by Ambassador Kellogg, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

IRISH CRIPPLES IMPROVING TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—The three members of Notre Dame's famous football team injured in the New Year's game with Stanford at Pasadena were reported much improved today.

Jim Crowley, one of the hard riding horsemen who helped trounce Stanford 27 to 10, and who was removed to the St. Francis hospital yesterday suffering from a general collapse as a result of the hard battle, was said to be feeling much better today and fully capable of continuing the trip home with his teammates. The squad is scheduled to leave here this morning.

Harry Stuhldreher, the all-American quarterback, who sustained a broken ankle in the Stanford game, is still on crutches but is rapidly improving, it was learned.

Cerney, the big fullback, and Bach, the tackle, were still wearing bandages to protect a couple of ribs broken in the New Year's contest.

CALL TO LEADERS

PEKING, Jan. 5.—A general call to the provincial, civil and military authorities of China to attend a reorganizaion conference scheduled to begin in Peking Feb. 1 was issued from here today by Provincial President Tuan Chijui.

Especially included among those asked to attend are Chang Tso Lin, the Manchurian war lord; Sun Yat Sen, the dictator of Canton; Feng Yu Hsiang, the "Christian general" of China, and several of President Tuan's colleagues in his recent coup which resulted in the ousting of the Chihli party from control of the government of China.

"SAINTED DEVIL" AT CALIFORNIA

"A Sainted Devil," a Joseph Henabery Prdouction for Paramount, starring Rudolph Vanlentino, will be the feature at the California Theatre for today and Tuesday. The story is an adaptation by Forrest Halsey of the popular magazine serial, "Rope's End," by Rex Beach. Nita Naldi, Helen D'Algy, Louise Lagrange, Dagmar Godowsky, Raphael Bongini, Geaorge Siegman and Jean De Val have prominent supporting roles.

The story is one of a handsome young South American of wealthy parents whose bride is stolen from him on his wedding day. Don Alonzo (Valentino) swears revenge on the bandits.

After a two year search Don Alonzo frequents a dive in Buenos Aires where he is known as "the mysterioun stranger!" He cares for no one—just seeking one man and waiting and hoping for some word from his bride.

And when at last the culprit does turn up There's enough fast-moving action in these scenes for a dozen pictures. You've seen Rudy handle the rapier in "Beaucaire," now see him as a past-master in the gentle art of the dirk, reeking his vengeance on anyone who dares to oppose him.

Gorgeous gowns and beautiful sets You said it! No Valentino picture would be complete without them. And Rudy does the Argentine Tango in "A Sainted Devil." That ought to be enough for anyone.

RACING ASS'N TO SCHEDULE SERIES

CLEVELAND, Jan. 5—Schedules for racing on grand circuit tracks thruout the United States will be drawn up by stewards of the association at the annual meeting convening here today.

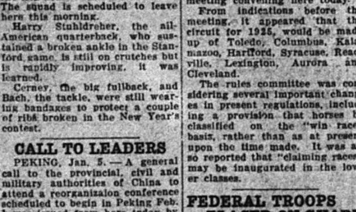

From indications before the meeting, it appeared that the circuit for 1925, would be made up of Toledo, Columbus, Kalamazoo, Hartford, Syracuse, Readville, Lexington, Aurora and Cleveland.

The rules committee was considering several important changes in present regulations, including a provision that horses be classified on the "win race" basis, rather than as at present upon the time made. It was also reported that "claiming races" may be inaugurated in the lower classes.

"The Only Woman" will be shown at the California theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. Eugene O'Brien is Norma's leading man. The picture is proclaimed one of Norma's best screen efforts.

COOPERATIVE FARM MARKETING LAUDED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A generation of farmers trained in cooperation will provide the agricultural salvation of the nation, Pres. Coolidge declared today in an address to the national conference on agricultural marketing co-operation.

The president lauded the principle of co-operative marketing as one of the soundest proposals advanced for the aid of the American farmer, but coupled with it a warning that even co-operative marketing would not prove a cure-all for alleviating agricultural distress.
