SECRETARY OF STATE HUGHES RETIRES MAR. 4

ENFORCEMENT OF DRY LAW TIGHTENS

Drys and Wets May Join To Make Prohibition Effective

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHNGTON, Jan. 10. — A tightening of dry law enforcement, through legislation giving prohibition officials greater powers in their war on bootleggers and rumrunners, was in prospect in congress today as the outcome of a series of investigations into activities of the prohibition bureau.

Two senate committees today studied declarations that prohibition could not be "properly" enforced under the present Volstead act. One, coming from Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the anti-Saloon League, won endorsement from "dry" leaders who previously opposed any tampering with the Volstead law.

The judiciary committee while closing its public hearings on the Cramton bill—which would create a separate prohibition bureau—gave consideration to Wheeler's statement that all the present "unsatisfactory situation in prohibition enforcement", was due to defects in the Volstead law. He urged legislation to stamp out illegal use of industrial alcohol, charging that "millions of barrels" were now being used by bootleggers with the government helpless to halt the illegal trade.

As a result of Wheeler's recommendations, there was a possibility that for the first time wets and drys in congress would unite to make prohibition enforcement real. The most prominent wets in congress—Senator Stanley, Democrat of Kentucky and Rep. Hill, Republican of Maryland—have urged stricter enforcement for years, contending that a bone dry rule would arouse so much popular disapproval as to bring about repeal of prohibition.

Dry leaders meanwhile pointed to the recent act of congress in appropriating $11,000,000 for the prohibition bureau—the largest sum given it since its creation—as demonstrating a purpose to provide bone dry regulation.

PREDICTS MOSES BILL WILL PASS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Prediction that the Moses postal pay and rate increase bill would be adopted by the senate, was made today at the White House by M. T. Finnan, secretary of the National Ass'n of Letter Carriers, who in company with Senator McKinley, Republican of Illinois conferred with President Coolidge.

The postal representative found Mr. Coolidge sympathetic with the new measure, he said, adding that it was entirely satisfactory to postal employes in that it afforded him the same wage increase provided in the bill vetoed by the president last year.

BODY VANISHES

REDWOOD CITY, Jan. 10.—Altho the mystery of the "vanished body" remained unsolved today, Sheriff McGovern announced after an investigation that no murder had been committed.

An autoist reported to the Burlingame police that he had found the body of a man lying by the roadside on the Bay Line blvd. He guided the police to the scene but the body was gone.

Sheriff McGovern said he believed the autoist had mistaken a sleeping man for a dead man.

PRICE EXCESSIVE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Ranchers of Owens Valley, who recently seized the Los Angeles aqueduct in a war over the valley's water rights, have asked the city of Los Angeles to pay $12,000,000 for the valley lands, it was declared today by a committee attempting to settle the water controversy. City officials said the price asked was excessive.

OPEN HORSE SHOW

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—More than 20,000 attended the opening of the Beverly Hills Horse Show today.

Kind to Dog; Heir to $10,000 Estate

LOS ANGELES, Jan., 10.—Roger O'Reilly was kind to a dog owned by May Priem Russell. Today he found himself heir to a $10,000 estate as a result.

Mrs. Russell's will, filed here today provided O'Reilly be given $5 a week for the care of her dog and after the dog's death that the bulk of her $10,000 estate be given O'Reilly.

COLD BOOSTS PRICES FOR FRUIT HERE

With the frost damage to the California orange crop as a whole now estimated at 25 percent, not counting another 25 per cent of the shipable remainder that will grade lower, the Anaheim district stands to benefit markedly again as in 1922 from the cold spell of two or three weeks ago.

The maximum estimate of damage here even by the most pessimistic forecasters is only 15 percent. Hence the district's proportion of total fruit shipped will be larger than before the cold period and higher prices are more likely to make up for the loss than at most other points.

New estimates of damage are of course more accurate than ever before, altho another week will see still more exact estimates.

Another encouraging features, to California at least, is that small sizes preponderate this year in Florida as they did in California last; so that, according to semi-official estimates today, the government's figure of 22,000,000 boxes of citrus fruit from the southeastern state must be cut to 18,500,000 boxes, of which 11,500,000 will be oranges and 7,000,000 grapefruit.

Prices were higher in the private markets the past week, but lower in the auction markets. Neither change was considerable. Private market sales almost always are larger than auction sales. Future prices in the auction markets will depend upon how Florida regulates shipments. She will control the January and February markets as usual.

During the week of Jan. 1-7 California shipped 719 cars of oranges and 70 cars of lemons. Since Nov. 1, she has moved 8273 of oranges and 1295 of lemons.

Florida in the same week moved 1209 cars of oranges and 560 of grapefruit, while her total for the season has been 11,011 cars of oranges and 6,628 of grapefruit.

There has been a good demand for California lemons in all markets. During the next 30 days there will be available 143 cars of foreign lemons against 30 cars at the corresponding date last year.

The maximum total loss on the lemon crop is put at 20 per cent, most of it occurring on lemons that would be shipped after Sept. 1 next—that is, the young fruit suffered worst. But the best prices of the year ordinarily are enjoyed in the warmest months.

In 1922 the lemons damage was 25 per cent.

WOMAN ARRESTED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Mabel Moore, also known as Mrs. Mabel Warner and Mrs. Mabel Perkinson, said to be a member of a prominent eastern family, was held here today on charge of selling $4000 worth of jewelry, purchased on credit in Baltimore. She was arrested at the request of Baltimore authorities who were expected to return her to the Maryland city for trial.

Mrs. Moore was living here at a fashionable hotel.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Police in Los Angeles today arrested "Mrs. Mabel Jackson," reported to be the daughter of a prominent Washington family from a Baltimore firm, according to advices received by the capital police today.

TRAIN KILLS BOY

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 10.—Wilbur Stebbens, 18, was killed near here today when the second section of the Twentieth Century limited struck a milk wagon he was driving. The engineer's view was obstructed by a dense fog. Stebbens death was the fourth railroad fatality in this vicinity this week.

KANSAS GOV. DENIES HE WAS PAID

Says Son Given $1250 In Hotel by Man Who Had Been Pardoned

TOPEPA, Kan., Jan. 10.—Tinkham Veale, prosecuting attorney of Shawnee-co. told International News Service this morning that he would take no action on charges in connection with charges of pardons, made by a Kansas City newspaper against Russell Davis, son of Gov. Jonathan M. Davis, until a complaint was made.

He said that no complaint had been made this morning.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 10.—"My son told me yesterday afternoon as we were ging to supper what happened in the hotel. He told me that he had been given some money by Fred W. Pollman, whom I had pardoned. He said that Pollman offered him the money. He never asked for it."

This was the statement this morning over the long distance telephone from Topeka, of Governor Jonathan M. Davis, accused in a copyrighted story in the Kansas City Journal-Post today, of having pardoned Pollman, convicted banker, after Pollman had given Russell Davis the governor's son, $1,250 in the National hotel at Topeka yesterday afternoon. If Pollman says that I received money for pardoning Glenn A. Davis," said the governor today, "he tells a direct lie."

The Journal-Post story said that money had been used in connection with the pardon of Glenn Davis, serving a life sentence, for complicity in a murder.

Governor Davis reiterated a statement made last night that the charges are a political frame up."

"I knew nothing about the thing until my son told me as we were going home yesterday evening," said the governor. "My son did not bring me any money yesterday."

"Did your son Russell get any money?" the governor was asked.

"Yes, he told me he did."

"It has been said that he solicited it. Did he asked for it?"

"He told me he was helping Pollman thru friendship. Pollman offered him the money, he said.

Gov. Davis said he did not know what steps he would take.

He said he would probably make a statement later in the day.

"Was Pollman a friend of yours?" he was asked. "Well, he was an acquaintance, he came from my section of the country."

Davis said Pollman had first approached him about a pardon last July and that the matter had gone thru the usual channels.

Russell Davis has made no statement so far. He is confined to his room this morning following his experience of yesterday. It is expected he will make a formal statement this afternoon.

TEAM RUNS AWAY WITH LIGHT CAR

A peculiar accident occurred this morning at the Kirby Service Station in Placentia, when a team of horses owned by the Ornivarli Construction Co., of Santa Ana ran away, tore the tongue from the wagon to which they were hitched, and caught it in the bumper of a Chevrolet car owned by Mrs. Olive Bailey of Placentia, turned the car around and dragged it for some distance. Mrs. Bailey had just stepped out of the car, and was standing beside it when the run-away occurred. The team was being used to haul materials in the construction of a sewer. The car was considegably damaged. No one was injured.

VOLCANO ERUPTS

TOKYO, Jan. 10.—Considerable crop damage has resulted from the eruption of Mount Aso volcano. Volcano ash has settled down over a large area surrounding the mountain and destroyed vegetation.

Keystone Woman Made Magistrate

Mrs. Violet E. Fahnestock, president of the Philadelphia county W. C. T. U., is Pennsylvania's first woman city magistrate. She was appointed by the governor.

WARREN NOW ATTORNEY GENERAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Charles Beecher Warren of Michigan, former ambassador to Japan and Mexico, was nominated this afternoon by Pres. Coolidge to succeed Harlan F. Stone as attorney general of the United States. Stone's appointment to the supreme court is awaiting the approval of the senate.

Warrens' selection has been expected ever since the promotion of Atty. Gen. Stone to the supreme court, altho at one time it appeared that the opposition of Michigan members of Congress might prevent his appointment. The Michigan delegation wanted Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck to get the job.

The president announced the appointment without waiting for the senate to confirm the Stone nomination—a somewhat unusual procedure.

Warren's selection definitely disposed of reports that Ambassador Frank B. Kellogg would be brought back from London to fill the post. There are still reports that Kellogg may retire, and Solicitor-General James M. Beck appointed in his stead.

Warren has long been prominent in Republican politics. He was prominently identified with the Harding campaign, and in the cabinet-picking days that preceded Harding's inauguration, was frequently mentioned for a post. It is understood he was offered several, but wanted only two, and not being able to obtain what he wanted preferred to stay out of the cabinet entirely.

Later Pres. Harding persuaded him to accept the ambassadorship to Tokyo.

BILLIARD CHAMP AND PRINCESS WED

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The carefully guarded secret marriage of Ralph Greenleaf, national pocket billiards champion, and the Princess Nai Pai Tai, also known as Amelia Ruth Parker, daughter of an English father and Chinese mother, became known here today. They eloped last Saturday to Elkton, Md.

Mrs. Greenleaf, her husband said, is thoroughly Americanized. She has been appearing in vaudeville.

The bride, who had been in Philadelphia, rejoined her husband last night after his victorious contest with Chas. Harmon. Greenleaf played one of the best games of his career when he defended his title yesterday, winning by 100 to 61.

GRANTED DECREE

Elsie Mabes of Brea late yesterday was granted a decree of divorce from George Mabes, whom she charged with cruelty, Judge Z. B. West making the order.

During a quarrel that ensued when Mabes was said to have accused his wife of "stepping out," according to her testimony, Mabes threatened her life and flourished a knife and a pistol.

INDICATIONS OF MIGHTY CAMPAIGN

Bulgin Revival Expected To Open with Bang Tomorrow Night

Everythink today indicated that the great Bulgin revival would open with a bang tomorrow evening at the tabernacle tent which has been erected at Wilhelmina and Claudina-sts. Interest is widespread.

Dr. Bulgin, who arrived yesterday from his winter home at Miami, Fla., spent today with a sister in Los Angeles where he was the guest of honor at a turkey dinner.

Roy Gourley, pianist and juvenile worker, will arrive this evening from his home in Illinois. Mr. Gourley, besides accompanying the chorus choir at revival service each evening, will conduct a religious chautauqua for juveniles immediately after school each Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons to which admission will be by tickets.

Mr. Gourley who is an unusually talented magician, has received flattering offers to appear on the chautauqua platform and vaudeville stage. However, he feels it his duty to follow the evangelistic calling and enlivens his hour among the children with some very entertaining slight-of-hand performances.

Dr. Bulgin will preach for the first time in Anaheim tomorrow at 11 a. m. in the First Christian church.

There was a large turnout last evening for the first rehearsal of the large choir under the direction of Alvin Carter, noted soloist and director. Another rehearsal will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight and a final one at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

There were singers present last night from all protestant churches of the city. Mr. Carter stated there was room for still more as the platform has been built to accommodate 300 and he would like to see 150 male and 150 female voices.

MYERS INVITED TO RIVERSIDE

In response to an invitation to address a mass meeting at Riverside, Rev. Leon Myers will go there tonight to tell of the efforts made to enforce the prohibition law here and the recent Orange-co. raids. A large gathering has been assured the militant minister.

Commenting on the refusal of the Santa Ana school board to permit the holding of a mass meeting in the high school there, Rev. Myers announced that petitions asking the school board to throw the high school auditorium open to the public for this purpose were being circulated in the county seat today and were being liberally signed.

"The refusal to let us have the Santa Ana high school auditorium was prompted by a fear of criticism for county officials," said the minister.

URGES GENERAL AIR COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The federal aeronautics commission would be created to control all government aviation—army, navy and postoffice—under a bill introduced in the senate this afternoon by Sen. King, Dem. of Utah. The commission would include the secretaries of war and navy, the postmaster general and one civilian to be named by the president. All aviation appropriation would be made to the commission in a lump sum and it would apportion funds to the various aircraft divisions.

The commission would be given $100,000 for expenses during its first year.

AMERICAN CLAIMS WILL BE PAID OFF

PARIS, Jan. 10.—The American war claims against Germany will be paid off by apportioning the United States a portion of the eight per cent allotted to Belgium at Spa, according to tentative plans reached today. They were drawn up by Chancellor of the Exchequer Churchill of England, Finance Minister Clementel of France, Signor I. Stefani, the Italian delegate, and Premier Theunis of Belgium, in a discussion at the French finance ministry which lasted until one o'clock this afternoon.

SAME EXERCISES AND MENU NEXT TWO DAYS

By DR. FRANK McCOY

ON Sunday and Monday you are to take the same exercises you have been taking, without any increase, and also take your one-half mile walk twice daily.

Don't forget to take the shower or sponge bath after your morning or evening exercises. Also take an enema of one quart of warm water.

Continue your diet instructions the same as today; that is, take eight ounces of orange juice every two hours with a small amount of water each time.

No, you will not starve, if you live only on orange juice, as it is one of the most nourishing foods it is possible for you to obtain. Eight ounces of orange juice contains as much food value as a whole quart of milk.

I have been commonly referred to as the "orange juice" doctor and have often been accused of having a financial interest in a fruit growers' association because of my zeal in prescribing these fruits; but I assure you the only interest I have is watching the wonderful effects produced by those who have learned how to use oranges intelligently. I have been so impressed with their value that I have spent a good deal of time in research work, with various laboratory tests of patients to better determine the chemical value of oranges from the standpoint of health and disease.

The orange is an exceptional fruit which may be used by anyone if not taken in improper combinations with other food. The organic vitamines in the orange are in the purest form nature has been able to produce. These vital principles are so combined in the orange that they are not incompatible and, therefore, we can use orange juice as a definite medicinal food, the action of which in the body is always the same and always beneficial.

(Look for Tuesday's instructions in this column on Monday.)

BIG INCREASE IN PACIFIC COAST MAIL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10—San Francisco and Los Angeles largely contributed in making the past December the greatest month in point of mail handled in the history of the postal service, according to receipts received today by Postmaster Gen. New.

The general increase for last month over December 1923 amounted to 8.92 per cent.

San Francisco reported receipts of $840,311 as against $777,518 in 1923, while Los Angeles led all Coast cities with receipts of $1,005,712 compared with $946,570 the preceding December.

It was the first time in history that Los Angeles jumped into the million dollar a month class, in which there are only five other cities.

SORORITY HELPS TO IDENTIFY GIRL

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The Chi Omega Sorority today took up the puzzle of identifying the "mystery girl" in a psychopathic hospital here. "I believe I am a member of Chi Omega," said the girl, who thinks her name may be Charlotte Norris, but has been unable to remember anything about herself since she was picked up unconscious in the Union Station on Nov. 20.

She described the Sorority pin minutely and said she faintly recalls a tiny gold letter "K" attached to it. This may indicate that she belongs to the Kappa Chapter of Chi Omega at the Univ. of Neb.

FULLERTON SHIPS 22 CARLOARDS FRUIT

Twenty-two cars of oranges and one of vegetables were shipped from Fullerton this week, it was reported today. The navel season is expected to open in earnest by next week, when the Santa Fe alone expects to ship about 40 cars.

KILLED BY AUTO

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Struck by an auto as he was about to step on a Geary street electric car, B. McCarthy was so badly injured that he died enroute to a hospital. Ray Scholberg, driver of the machine, failed to see the man in a low fog. Police said a technical charge of manslaughter would be filed pending full investigation.

MORALES FUNERAL

Funeral services were held yesterday morning from the St. Mary's Catholic church in Fullerton for Mrs. Irene Morales, 19, who died this week at Watts. Interment was in the Holy Cross cemetery near Anaheim, McAulay and Sutters, funeral directors.

R. G. Demmet of Bellflower is a patient today at the sanitarium.

ENLARGE FOREST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Pres. Coolidge today issued an executive order adding 1760 acres of public land to the Manti national forest, the tract being located in Carbon-co., Utah.

L.A. MOTORIST KILLED IN UPSET

The state highway between San Juan Capistrano and the county line was the scene of another fatal accident today, the life of William Beauchamp, 25, of Los Angeles being claimed shortly after midnight today when the automobile in which he was riding overturned.

Mrs. Beauchamp, the only other occupant of the car, suffered only slight bruises and cuts, but she was brought to the Santa Ana hospital by J. A. Duncan of Los Angeles, a passing motorist.

The driver apparently lost control of the car while the party was on its way to San Diego, according to Mrs. Beauchamp, who declared the machine was not going at an excessive speed. There was evidence, however, according to traffic officers who investigated that a rear wheel had gone off the pavement, and that the death car was overturned during efforts to bring the car again on the hard surface.

Arrangements for an inquest had not been made early today.

IGNORE HUSBAND

S. D. White, of Santa Ana, who had been married to Mrs. Julia A. White but a month before she died Dec. 31, is being ignored in the settlement of the estate by sons of the deceased, his petition to have letters of administration issued to him, intimated today. In his application to the superior court at Santa Ana he stated that his wife, before her death, stated she had a will in which her sons were made beneficiaries, but White declared that since the demise he had been unable to locate any will.

The sons came down from Merced-co, took possession of their mother's property, and made their new step-father feel unwelcome his petition stated.

WEATHER FORECAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The U. S. Weather Bureau today issued the following forecast for next week's weather:

"The outlook for California is for fair weather and normal temperature, both with a probability of occasional rains on the extreme north coast, and for Washington and Oregon mostly cloudy with occasional rains west and light snows or rains east of the Cascades with normal temperatures."

TRAIN LEAPS RAILS

DANVILLE, Ill., Jan. 10.—The engine and nine heavy cars of the Wabash flyer from Kansas City to Detroit left the track when the train, travelling at 60 miles an hour hit a six foot gap in the rails at Sidney, 21 miles west of here today. None was hurt.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—Two men were crushed to death and another man narrowly escaped a similar fate when a portion of the concrete flooring of the building under construction in West 20th-st collapsed today.

AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN SUCCESSOR

Resignation Tremendous Surprise to Members of Government

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Charles Evans Hughes will resign as secretary of state on the fourth of March next, and he will be succeeded by Frank B. Kellogg, now ambassador to Great Britain.

Official announcement of this was made at the White House at 5 o'clock this evening.

The announcement came as a tremendous surprise even to members of the government.

The White House announcement said:

"It was announced at the White House that Secy. of State Hughes would retire from the cabinet on the fourth of March, in accordance with a long cherished plan of his and that his place would be taken by Ambassador Kellogg, who is now the American Ambassador at London. The letter of resignation, and the reply of the president thereto were given at the same time.

Secy. Hughes' letter of resignation under date of January 5, follows:

"My Dear Mr. President:

"The period of service which was in contemplation when I took office is now drawing to a close and in accordance with the intention I have heretofore expressed I beg the leave to tender my resignation as secretary of state to take effect on March 4, 1925. It will then be 20 years since I undertook public work in New York and during that time, with the exception of a little more than two years after the armistice, I have been engaged almost continuously in the discharge of public duties. I feel that I must now ask to be relieved of official responsibility and to be permitted to return to private life. As foreign affairs are perennial I know of no more appropriate time to do this than at the end of the present administration.

"Permit me again to express my deep appreciation of the confidence you have reposed and of the privilege of serving under your leadership. I shall have an abiding memory of your unfailing kindness.

"Assuring you of my earnest support of your administration and my hope that altho out of office, I may still be able to be of service, I am, my dear Mr. President, with highest esteem,

"Faithfully yours,
"CHARLES E. HUGHES."

Under date of Jan. 10, the president replied:

"My Dear Secretary:

"Your favor of recent date advising me that you have irrevocably decided to adopt your long cherished intention of retiring on the fourth of March I have received with much regret. I can well appreciate that you are [illegible] entitled, after twenty years of public service to seek some of the satisfactions of private life. But I cannot refrain from expressing my feeling of personal loss at the prospect of your retirement, and to the loss that must inevitably ensue when one of your ability and experience goes out of office which he is so well qualified to fill. I realize, however, that this is in the nature of things, and so wish to put my emphasis on the appreciation I feel for your loyalty at all times to me, your many expressions by word and deed of a friendship on which could not be set too high a value and the exalted character and dis-interested nature of the important public service that has come so constantly under my observation. I trust you may have a well merited repose and the satisfaction which alone can come from a consciousness that the duties of this life have been well performed.

"With kindest regards, I am,
"Very cordially yours,
"CALVIN COOLIDGE."

YEARGAN GUILTY

J. C. Yeargan, a resident of Newport Beach before his arrest on a charge of possessing liquor before the recent county-wide dry raids, today was ordered to pay a fine of $500 or spend 500 days in jail by Justice K. E. Morrison at Santa Ana, a jury in his court having found Yeargan guilty of the charge late yesterday.

Attorneys for Yeargan indicated they would appeal the case to the superior court.

SOCIETY

NO INDICATION OF TRAINING IN THIS BANQUET

JUST about the nicest social event that has fallen to the lot of the girls first basket ball team of Anaheim Union high school, was the banquet and courtesy extended last night by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carner, who are among the staunchest basket ball fans of the south, and parents of two very high grade players.

The banquet was served at 6:30 and in four courses. The table was most effectively appointed in details appropriate to the guests. A clever representation of a basket ball court centered the table. The posts were of gold with blue ribbons; the miniature players looked in true form and tiny basket ball place cards marked each cover. From each plate a blue streamer lead to the electrolier, forming a canopy over the center, from which was suspended a basket ball, and when the girls were instructed to pull the ribbons, each found a pretty favor concealed in the lights above.

The effect was novel and charming. All about the tiny court fern formed a pretty border.

The pretty courtesy was in recognition of the excellent work of the team which has won victory after victory, as well as a special compliment to five girls who are leaving high school as graduates this year. Among them Miss Esther Hile has been on the team for four years, serving exactly the same time as Miss Jacques, the girls' coach. Others are the Misses Grace Holdsworth, captain, Florence Winters, Ted Beamish and Katherine Carner, daughter of the host and hostess.

As a pretty surprise feature, Miss Grace Holdsworth, on behalf of the team and the substitutes, presented Mrs. Carner with an enlarged picture of the girls in their uniforms.

Talking over coming games, congratulations to Miss Hile on her successful four years with the team, music and dancing, made a very full evening after dinner.

The party guests included the Misses Grace Holdsworth, Florence Winters, Ted Beamish Lydia Mohr, Loretta Sievek, Ember Herne, Mildred Latourette, Esther Hile, Madeline Tousson, Katherine and Cuba Carner, Miss Jacques, with Mr. and Mrs. Carner and made a jolly company.

Returns With Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Jones arrived in Anaheim Wednesday and have taken an apartment in the Biltmore to establish a home for the present. Miss Katherine Focht became the bride of Mr. Jones at the ceremony performed Sunday in Abeline, Kansas, with the pastor of the M. E. church there officiating. The honeymoon was the trip to Anaheim, which marks Mrs. Jones' advent into California, and already she is in love with her new home.

The young pair met several years ago when the groom was visiting his aunt in Abeline, and when he left Anaheim about the middle of last December, it was with the intention of bringing her home as Mrs. Jones.

The groom and his mother, Mrs. Jennie M. Jones, of South Helena, came to Anaheim from Topeka, Kan., three years ago. Mr. Jones is in a dental college in Los Angeles, where he will resume his work at once.

Section Postponed

The Home Art section of the Business and Professional Women's club is obliged to postpone its meeting, scheduled for Monday night, Jan. 2, for a week, on account of Mrs. Mabel Hathaway's absence from town on that date. The meeting will take place Monday evening, Jan. 19, in the Blue Bird shop. All members are asked to make mental note of the change and plan accordingly.

LOCALS

The Anaheim Insurance Exchange held its regular meeting last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schilling and Miss Opal, and Mrs. Burtt, of Monrovia, will be Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore, on North East-st.

Mrs. A. C. Eaton, of Santa Ana, was the guest yesterday of Mrs. O. T. Callor. The ladies passed a very pleasant summer as neighbors in Bear Valley and enjoy occasional visits to talk over the happy days.

F. C. Westphal is slowly improving from his illness of about a week. During his illness Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gossard are acting in his capacity at the Pickwick stage office during Mr. Westphal's regular hours.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs, who reside near Holloway's camp, Big Bear Valley, reports heavy snow fall with drifts in some places six feet deep.

Successful Dance

The committee, Mrs. D. S. Wetherbee, Mrs. C. L. Barnett and Mrs. Dora Fells, in whom power was vested to obtain a lawn about the school grounds, is rejoicing today over the receipts, $33.33, from the dance last night in the school building. Considerable expense was incurred in planting and irrigation of grass plot which will set the handsome building off to advantage, and the ladies are delighted that the response to their efforts in raising funds is met so heartily. The candy booth, punch, hot coffee and doughnuts added greatly to the pleasure of the dancers and considerably to the proceeds.

The music was donated, which prevented a big hole in the dance profits.

HAPPY EVENT OF YEARS AGO IS CELEBRATED

ANTICIPATING a most pleasant evening through hospitality extended by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lamb, of 1122 West Center-st., friends from Long Beach and Anaheim gathered, but quite "in the dark" as to the real import of the party. Cleverly concealing its purpose, Mrs. Lamb used only the seasonable flowers about her rooms.

Five hundred was the amusement of the evening five tables playing. Ladies prizes were awarded to Mrs. Beattie, first; Mrs. Loehr, second, and Mrs. Holmes, consolation. For the men, Glen Merrill claimed first, T. M. Edwards, second and E. A. Beattie, consolation.

After games a three course luncheon was served from the dining room, "announced" their marriage more than two dozen happy participants. When Mr. and Mrs. Lamb "announced" thei marriage —twenty-three years ago—there was a shower of congratulations and good wishes, but regrets that the company had not known of the anniversary, that the occasion might have been marked with a gift souvenir.

A nice feature of the evening was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill and Mrs. T. J. Brown, who guests at the ceremony performed in Grand Junction, Colo., Jan. 8, 1902, which transformed Miss Callie Moore into Mrs. C. C. Lamb. There are others in the Southland who were at the wedding, but were unable to reach here for the celebration.

Long Beach guests last night were the Messrs and Mesdames E. A. Beattie, Jack Reeder and Rodney Jay, and of Anaheim friends, the Messrs and Mesdames T. M. Edwards, T. J. Brown, W. M. Merrill, Herman Loehr, C. R. Harrison; Mrs. Irwin Holmes, Miss Marjorie Brown, John Greer, Glen Merrill, Lawrence Mills, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb were assisted by her two charming and vivacious daughters, the Misses Thelma and Patsy Lamb, in the pleasant duties of the evening.

Notable P-T.A's Here

With national, state, district, county and local officers of the Congress of Parent-Teacher Ass'n present at today's session of the Fourth district P.-T. A., a deeper interest is apparent than on any previous occasion. The business features of the morning brought several changes in the staff and a few departures from the past rule of conducting local meetings.

The luncheon at noon, with tables ladened with steaming viands provided by the hostess associations and the lighter dishes brought by the visiting ladies, a meal to tempt the most fastidious appetite was spread.

This afternoon will be given over to addresses, one from Mrs. Hugh Bradford, state president; Mrs. W. W. Wilson, national Child Welfare representative, and others of prominence.

Splendid Program

The evening of entertainment staged by the Garden Grove Parent-Teacher Ass'n last night, was decidedly successful, with the coffers swelled by $40. The large audience of pleased persons are recounting today the several hits of the evening, and not the least of these was the stunts put on by members of the women's gym class.

The fashion show with garments lent by one of the highest grade retailers in the county, hats by a fashionable shop gave a tone to the show beyond expectation. Mrs. Kelsey, as chairman, and her aids are receiving much praise for their efforts.

All are looking forward to the pot luck supper at 6:30 and evening of entertainment to be provided by the men and sons of the Garden Grove district Monday evening, when the women and daughters will be guests. J. O. Arkley, president of the high school trustees, is in charge of the program.

Good Cypress P-T.A.

The Cypress Parent-Teacher Ass'n meeting in Cypress grammar school yesterday, was a very interesting affair, with a program of real merit put on by the children of the school. Music generously dotted the numbers, over which Mrs. G. G. Priddy served as chairman. Light refreshments were served after the meeting.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued at Santa Ana today to F. Raleigh Taylor, 21, of Fullerton, and Hazel Pennington, 16, Santa Ana.

AT UNITED THEATRE SUNDAY

YOUNGER SET HAS INFORMAL EVENING AFFAIR

IT was a jolly company of young folk, Willing Workers of the Christian church and several invited guests, who responded to invitation for a social meeting in the reception hall of the beautiful new building.

A few moments were devoted to business, then attention was turned to the amusement features which were varied and many. The girls gave stunts and the boys, not to be outdone, did their best in the entertainment line. Piano music was enjoyed for a time. Among the games was "postoffice," which everyone knows is full of thrills in the good old-fashioned way, but the girls avow the game was played in a different manner altogether, and the boys are not one bit enthusiastic over their enjoyment of that particular game, as they recall the evening's pleasures.

Choice refreshments were served by Mrs. Morgan and Miss Frances Pickleseimer, assisted by Miss Letha Barr.

Participating were the Misses Eleanore Marsh, Cecile Sliger, Dorothy Hoxie, Roberta and Frances Pickleseimer, Letha Barr, Marion Utter, Louise Higgins, Ruth and Reva Potter, Marguerite Taylor, Mary Barley, Davina White, Elizabeth Mabee, Joyce Jordon, Laura Dean, Dorothy Hylton, Harriet Austin, and the Messrs Howard and Robert Cole, Lawrence Morgan, George Burroughs, Felix French, Merle Yearwood, Beltran Moseberger, Glenn Beat, Clarence Woodbury, James Sannea, Carol Sliger, Richard Dugdale, Alfred Robinson, Ralph Dougherty, Lambert Anderson, Herbert Lenz and the Mesdames Morgan and Barr.

JUBILEE SINGERS AT UNITED THEATER

Mason's Jubilee Singers will appear at the United Theater Sunday matinee and night, in characteristic southern songs and melodies. The peculiar charm of the quaint and plaintive Southern Melodies is not only indescribable but imperishable. As sung by these colored Jubilee Singers these rare old plantation songs take on new and more fascinating charm.

This attraction will appear in conjunction with the regular picture program. The regular prices prevail.

Baby Peggy the darling of the screen, and the favorite of all movie fans, will be shown in her latest comedy success, "Steppin' Some." This tiny starlet outshines herself in this production and if possible will wind herself even closer around your hearts.

DROPS PROSECUTION

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The criminal libel case of Helen Elwood Stokes against her divorced millionaire husband, W. E. D. Stokes, fell flat here today when the state's attorney's office received a letter from Mrs. Stokes announcing her intention of dropping the prosecution.

The letter virtually ends prosecution which has been dragged out since Stokes aired his sensational charges against the titian haired Helen in the divorce proceeding in New York.

The state's attorney's office said the trial, twice postponed here, would go on as a formality, but that it would come to nothing as a result of Mrs. Stokes' action.

AT THE ANTLERS' HOTEL

V. A. Anderson, San Francisco, E. A. Lynn, W. B. Watches, I. G. Rix and wife, A. E. Wesencraft, and Mrs. Laura Donoho, Los Angeles; Fred E. Dilg, Alhambra; C. M. Martin and wife, and G. W. Ingram, San Diego.

FULLERTON BRIEFS

Gus Hagenstein has returned from a trip east, where he and Mrs. Hagenstein were called by the death of her father. Mrs. Hagenstein is expected to return next week.

H. H. Williams, Fullerton agent of the P. E. and S. P., attended the banquet of the Placentia Orange Growers' Ass'n.

Mrs. G. L. Fisher who underwent an operation yesterday is reported improving today.

M. Colecchi left today over the Santa Fe for New York, and Mrs. C. O. Elliott leaves tonight over the S. P. for San Francisco.

F. J. Bay, freight traffic manager of the P. E., and F. C. Weeks, general agent, both of Los Angeles, were in Fullerton today, accompanied by their wives, to attend the annual meeting of the Placentia Orange Growers Assn.

SCORE FRIENDS IN SURPRISE ON WEDDED PAIR

HALF a decade of married life was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luchau, of Olive when a number of their friends dropped in for a surprise Thursday evening, thoughtfully taking along well filled baskets, that the enjoyment of an anniversary feast might not be overlooked. After greetings and congratulations and presentation of gifts appropriate to the occasion, card tables were produced and attention was centered for a time on five hundred. Then music at the piano set merry feet in motion and dancing was the pastime the remainder of the evening.

Those giving Mr. and Mrs. Luchau the courtesy of marking their "wooden wedding" were the Messrs and Mesdames Walter Timme and family, A. Schmidt and family; dGeorge Heineman an daughter; George Bachner and family; George Heineman an Billie, Bobbie and Russell Lee, of Yorba Linda; Fred Hamrath and son, Wilbur; August Mathews and daughter; Walter Leiffers and sons; Adolph Luchau and family; Henry Timken and sons; Arthur Paskall, Albert Wishnack, Otto Gunther and daughter; Ed Meyerhoff and daughter and Henry Luchau and daughter Josephine and sons, Howard and Charles.

As the guests departed their host and hostess expressed the hope that they would not wait another five years to pay an evening visit in so happy a manner.

LOCAL REALTORS BACK FULLERTON

The Anaheim Realty Board is squarely behind Fullerton in its fight to be made the site of the Southern Branch U. of C., and will remain so until the site actually has been chosen by the Board of Regents and the money appropriated by the State Legislature.

Reports that other sites have been selected haven't changed the attitude of the board any more than it has that of any other organization that is backing the Fullerton C. of C. in its efforts.

Following the report that the site committee had accepted an offer of 1,000 acres at Beverly Hills a report came out yesterday that offer of a site at Girard had been taken.

The site committee's action, it is understood, must be approved by the Board of Regents before becoming final.

MURDERS PORTER

OMAHA, Jan. 10.—When a missouri Pacific passenger train arrived here from Kansas City shortly before noon today Miss Mamie Madison, colored, of Omaha, alighted from a chair car and walked back alongside the train to where Elijah Washington, colored Pullman porter, was assisting passengers to alight.

Calling to Washington that "I want to see you," Miss Madison drew a revolver from under her coat and fired two bullets which crashed thru Washington's forehead, killing him almost instantly.

FINDS HIS WIFE

Mrs O. E. Kay, whose husband at Placentia reported to the sheriff's office at Santa Ana that she was missing from her home when he returned night before last, notified the authorities today that she had been located at the county hospital, where work had been sought.

Mr. Kay found a note at his home telling of Mrs. Kay's intention to leave and find work either at a home or a hospital.

ADDITIONAL JUDGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A bill authorizing the appointment of an additional federal judge for Northern California was introduced in the house today by Rep. Curry, Rep. of California.

INDIAN ROYALTY TO ASK FOR A NATIONAL HOLIDAY

INDIAN ROYALTY.

(By International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA—Indian royalty visited Philadelphia the other day while en route to Washington to ask Congress to consider the establishment of a national Indian Day, to be observed as a holiday throughout the United States. Gorgeously dressed in native costume, this trio—Chief Buffalo Bear, Chief Two Moon and Princess Buffalo Bear—survivors of a great tribe of vanished greatness, strode through downtown streets to the office of Mayor Freeland W. Kendrick, where they were formally received by the city's executive. Admiring and curious throngs followed the royal visitors throughout the city, but the dignified visitors gave them nary a tumble, as one urchin expressed it.

CALIF. THEATER, STARTING MONDAY

THIEF OF BAGDAD AT CALIF. MONDAY

Douglas Fairbanks in "The Thief of Bagdad" will have its presentation in this city at the California next Monday. It is significant that those interested in this new Fairbanks picture have not resorted to the use of adjectives that have become nauseating to moving picture devotees, such phrases as the "super-picture," "super-special," "classical masterpiece of filmdom," "superlative achievement of ultra-supremacy," "The world's first example of artistic perfection," and all that sort of a thing. Here is a picture that does not call for sesquipedalianism to describe it.

It is something so new and heretofore undreamed of in picture making that it requires no absurd overstatements. It is what was heretofore thought beyond the camera's capacity to realize. The moving picture here reaches its apex. Yet, one might well imagine that when the critics of such cities as have seen "The Thief of Bagdad," have come to write of it, they had first swallowed a [illegible] of alphabets and crammed down all the various books of synonyms on the market—so rhapsodical have they been in describing it.

And all this goes to prove that when a great picture comes along it is wise not to make too big a brag about it in advance; that is, give those who are invited to see and judge a chance to render an opinion. As to the substance of the story; it is a glorious fantasy [illegible] fanciful story of love and adventure, laid in an imaginary world of fancy and abounding in amazing happenings—or as one scribe has put it, "unbelievable wonders," such, for instance, as the Flying Carpet; the Winged Horse, that flies through the clouds, and numerous other [illegible] flabbergasting conceptions actually brought to life. And for its presentation in this city, "The Thief of Bagdad," will offer all the atmospheric effects—a symphony orchestra, trained by the composer of the music; full scenic and stage effects, a band of Arabian musicians with the instruments of their native country, as well as a Mohammedan Prayer Man.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

A MIDDLE COURSE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I went steady with a fellow for about six months. Then the girl he went with before me, who has been away working, came back for a few weeks' vacation. While she was here he went with her, which made me angry. I spoke my piece and we quit, but on speaking terms. I thought more of him than of anyone I ever went with, but I refuse to play second fiddle for any one. About a month passed while I went with several different boys. Then about a week ago I began going steady with another fellow. They know each other well. Last week the first boy accompanied me home one night and acted as he always did. He said he found he liked me better than the other girl. I was going with the latter the next evening and while we were away the first boy come for me to go with him. I think I still love him but I feel I shouldn't take him back because of the time he threw me down for those few weeks. What would you advise me to do? Should I take him back, believing that he wants me and not just some place to go, or should I keep on going with the one I am going with now and think a lot of?

SOPHIA.

You seem to want to go with the first young man again, and therefore I would advise you to give him another chance. Do not consider "steady company" again, because that would make him too sure of your regard for him. I can see no reason why you should want to keep steady company when you like two young men. Your position will be a little difficult now. I think, however, that you can keep both friends if you give them as much freedom as you expect for yourself. Let each boy feel that he is free to go with other girls, too. Until you are engaged you really have no right to ask a young man to give up other girl friends. Naturally you were hurt, however, when your first friend took back his former sweetheart just as soon as she came back to town.

* * *

INDIFFERENT LOVER

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 21 and have been going with a boy about three or four months. I like him real well. We got along fine until lately, but now he acts indifferent. I ask him what is wrong and he says, "Nothing." He hasn't been at my home for two or three weeks, but when he sees me he gets after me about being with other boys and pretends he doesn't go with other girls. Sometimes he will call and give me money to go to a show, but he doesn't take me. Do you think he is tired of me and has another girl?

G. E. S.

It is evident that the young man is tired of you, but of course I cannot say whether he has another girl. When he scolds you for going with other boys, he is merely teasing you and pretending that is what is wrong. Do not ask him why he does not come. The fact that he stays away is enough to show you he does not want to come. Also refuse to take his money to go to the show. Your pride ought to keep you from showing that you still care for him and also from accepting money.

* * *

TIME WILL TELL

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have a gentleman acquaintance whom I like very much. He has been at my home several times and we have played tennis and such games once or twice. He seems to enjoy my company and I am sure I do his. But as yet he has never asked me to go anywhere with him and that is what I want. How can I obtain my wish? Is there anything I can do to help this matter along? Would it be proper for me to invite him to my home for dinner some time?

THIRTEEN.

There is really nothing you can do to hasten the fulfillment of your wish. Probably if you let the young man take his own time and do not appear too eager he will invite you to go places of his own accord. I would not advise you to invite him to dinner until he has become a friend instead of an acquaintance.

RUSSIANS SHOW RESPECT FOR LAW

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—Generations of training to respect for the law are not so easily overcome by revolutions. In a village in East Prussia a tax collector had levied on a barn for delinquent taxes, closing the door with his official seal. The next day the villagers heard from within the wailing of a cat which had been shut in.

To break an official seal was a thing not to be thought of. So the cat had to endure imprisonment another day until the official summoned by telephone from Konigsberg, some 40 miles away, could arrive and release the captive.

FORMALLY NAMED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Theodore Douglas Robinson, who has been serving as assistant secretary of the navy under a recess appointment, was today formally nominated for the position by President Coolidge. His nomination was transmitted to the senate for confirmation.

'Tis a mark of great perfection to be [illegible] with the perfections of others.

BUSINESS VERY FINE, SAYS DANZ

Louis Danz, president of the Danz Piano Co., at 162 W. Center St., was all smiles today as he greeted the vast number of persons who took advantage of the special sale which is being conducted at his music store.

"Business certainly is booming," he said, as he displayed a check for a grand piano which he said was to be delivered to one of the most exclusive homes in Los Angeles. He continued:

"What pleases me most, tho, is this wonderful response of the buying public of Anaheim. I am certainly confident that Anaheim is a genuine merchandising center which attracts buyers from a large surrounding area. Our sales records are proof of this statement.

"We are selling pianos and players to many living out of town and also to a great many residents of Anaheim, this indicating that the citizens of this vicinity are enjoying prosperity. When we opened our sale we did not dream our high quality merchandise at such low prices would influence so vast an area of territory. Neither did we think so many pianos could be sold the first week.

"Yes, Anaheim's all right, and so is So. Calif. And business certainly is good. Mr. Harris, Mr. Brown, Mr. Thomas and I are kept on the jump to wait on the crowds, and even then some of the piano buyers are waiting on themselves."

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE CLOSED

The estate of the late Mrs. Rosalie Hart Luneberg, pioneer and wealthy Anaheim woman, today has been officially erased from court procedure, with the granting in Superior Judge R. Y. Williams court at Santa Ana yesterday of a decree of final distribution. At the time of death the estate was appraised at $281,000.

Various business blocks in Anaheim were owned by Mrs Luneberg, the estate originally consisting of twenty acres centering at Los Angeles and Center streets.

Some of the estate was heired to nieces and nephews; an old servant was remembered, and close friends were bequeathed a business block each.

Mr. Luneberg, the husband, however, had a life estate in all the property and final distribution proceedings were made necessary by his death a year ago.

Threatened litigation on the part of the heirs at law to break the will, so far as it applied to the bequests of friends, never developed.

"Tarnish" Is Every Woman's Love Story

Youth, love and romance are laid bare in "Tarnish," the George Fitzmaurice production which is being shown at the California for Sunday only. It is a First National picture, presented by Samuel Goldwyn.

"Tarnish," which is an adaptation of Gilbert Emery's famous stage play, is a drama of real life. The photodrama delves so deeply into the human fabric that one is forced to choke back the lump that rises in the throat.

Two young people are in love—fine, vigorous young people—but the past of the young man suddenly turns up to besmirch his happiness. The young girl is shaken, tested, illumined. What next? The hero and the heroine work in the same office. The manicurist who provides the hero with a past is also engaged in philandering the heroine's foolish father. To top all of this a gossipy neighbor who has been using the manicurist, sees the father entertain her and tells about it.

Thus the dramatic web is woven. And what a tangled web! Nevertheless, there are many delicious moments, moments of comedy, of pathos, of laughter and of tears. Withal, "Tarnish" is extremely delightful, well acted and sincerely directed by Mr. Fitzmaurice, and can rightfully be called "every woman's love story."

The prominent roles are in the capable hands of Marie Prevost, the vamping manicurist; May McAvoy, the charming heroine; Ronald Colman, the romantic youth, and such players as Norman Kerry, Harry Myers, Priscilla Bonner, Albert Gran and Mrs. Russ Whytall.

A Walter Hiers comedy and Pathe Review complete the program.

PERSISTENT RUMOR TROTZKY ARRESTED

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 10.—Despite contradictions it was being persistently reported here today that Leon Trotzky, soviet commissar for war, has been arrested by the political police. He was accused, the reports said, of intending to overthrow the three high commissars. In this he was to be aided by a part of the Moscow garrison, it was said. He was then, the reports said, to become dictator of Russia.

REALTORS ELECT

Installation of officers was held Board at its meeting at the Cali-Board at it smeeting at the California Hotel. The meeting was held following a banquet and reports for the year were received. Rev. Walter Thornton of the First Christian church was the principal speaker. Officers were elected at a meeting held at noon, and installed in the evening. They were Hugh Miller, president; W. J. Cadman, vice-president; Mason Crooke, secretary; and R. S. Gregory, treasurer.

MORE PRICE CUTS ARE MADE

Chrysler, Studebaker, and Peerless Join Long Procession This Week

Predictions of further price cuts, made in the Plain Dealer last Saturday, have been amply verified since.

The Chrysler, Peerless and Studebaker were reduced this week, while official announcements of cuts on other cars came out almost immediately.

The announcements were received with various feelings by the public, the trade and allied industries, according to benefit or "malefit" received. Owners of cars in question weren't happy in seeing values sliced off their old models, altho the Chrysler isn't affected in this way. It was reduced only $30 to $100.

Tire dealers, who don't benefit from the sale of new cars with new casings until the second year, repeated their assertion that all cars have been selling too high.

The car dealers themselves, in cases where they were protected and where the manufacturers stood the loss, were glad of the wider market opened by the cuts.

The car that hasn't been reduced in the past six months now is becoming quite the exception.

In the case of one of the highest-priced cars, which was cut as predicted "many hundreds of dollars"—$850 at the maximum—the cause was the bringing in of a new line of eights, which naturally displaces the sixes.

The Chevrolet, one of the cars that hasn't been cut, is out with a model practically new throughout, excepting the engine, and is not comparable. It is said that previous defects have been abolished, so that the car would be justified in selling higher.

HIGHER GAS TAX IS SAID UNNECESSARY

Opposition to a higher gas tax is unchanged on the part of the oil companies, particularly a 4-cent tax.

The Independent Petroleum Marketers' Ass'n will be represented at the legislative hearings and will try to show that the natural growth in traffic will take care of the larger revenue sought for road improvements. The average annual increase in the number of cars in the last 10 years has been 26.7 per cent, which means that the revenue from this source doubles every three years and 10 months, says Victor W. Killick, statistician of the association, whose members supply 75 per cent of the gas used in the state.

3,600,000 Cars 1925 Production

One million cars to new owners and 2,600,000 cars to replace those now in use will be manufactured by American automobile factories in 1925, according to predictions now being made.

The agricultural sections, which have been prospering again, and foreign countries, which have been importing more and more our cars, are expected to take a large proportion of the output. Last year 380,000 cars were sold to other countries, Canada and Australia being the largest consumers.

STRAIGHTEN OUT COAST ROAD

According to the touring department of the National Automobile Club, work will begin in the near future on the Coast Road to San Diego, with view of shortening it and eliminating the present "death curves." In order to lessen the possibility of accidents at the approaches to San Onofre and San Mateo Creek bridges in the North San Diego County, the present grade will be changed, a new survey made and the curves eliminated. This change will necessitate new bridges over each stream and the making of big cuts and long fills to maintain the proper grade.

The cost of this work is to be paid by the gasoline tax fund of the State Highway Department which will later be reimbursed by the county.

According to information received by department, the Arrowhead Hot Springs Hotel will soon be formally opened to the public. Complete alterations have been made and new furniture installed. The work being done on this well known resort is expected to be completed sometime the early part of this month.

The Waterman Canyon Road is still open, although the National Automobile Club advise those who are not experienced mountain drivers to take the desert road as the slippery condition of the Waterman grade makes it difficult to drive if not dangerous.

AUTO TRADE ASS'N PLAY

Feb. 5-6 have been selected as the dates of presentation of a comedy, "The Traveling Salesman," at Santa Ana under the auspices of the Orange Co. Auto Trade Ass'n. Grif Barnett of Anaheim will be director. A style show will be a feature.

DEATHS FROM ACCIDENTS DECLINE

L. A. County Reports Marked Cut in Proportion to Population

Although Los Angeles has been heralded as leading the country in motor vehicle fatalities during 1923, preliminary reports for the past year indicate that the death rate from this source was reduced materially in proportion to population, especially fatalities among school children.

The figures quoted are from records of the public safety department of the Auto Club of So. Calif., which has charge of the club's accident prevention work. In hundreds of schools, not only in Los Angeles-co but throughout the southern part of the state, accident prevention work was emphasized.

Deaths chargeable to the operation of motor vehicles in Los Angeles-co during 1924 totaled 467, a gain of 12 over 1923, or a fraction over 3 per cent. During this period the number of motor vehicles increased approximately 18 per cent and the population probably increased over 100,000, so that the figures indicate a considerable reduction in this class of fatalities.

The most significant progress in the opinion of the safety department of the club is in the cutting down of children's deaths from motor vehicles in the city by 25 per cent below the expectancy. This was accomplished in the face of an increase of some 18 per cent in the number of motor vehicles operating and a gain of 36,000 in school enrollment, or 21 per cent. The effectiveness of this safety work in the public schools is made clear in the analysis of children's deaths compared with the total fatalities. In total fatalities a reduction was made of from 25 per 100,000 population to 24 per 100,000 population. Fatalities among children of school age were reduced from 12 per 100,000 to 9 per 100,000 school population.

As usual, of the 467 deaths, the largest number may be attributed to crossing streets not at cross walks, crossing streets carelessly, and confusion in traffic by pedestrians—all coming under the colloquial classification of "jay walking." Failure to use cross walks at intersections cost 64 lives; carelessly crossing streets resulted in 41 deaths, and confused pedestrians increased the total by 42.

Other major causes of fatalities, included playing in the street by children and incompetent handling of cars. Speeding caused 40 deaths and right of way violation 18 more. Of the total for the year only 15 deaths were attributed to defective equipment of vehicles, leading to the conclusion that over 95 per cent of the fatalities were due to conditions that could have been controlled by human agencies.

Of the total deaths, 224 were due to collisions between motor vehicles and pedestrians. Of these only two were charged to motorcycles. Electric railway and motor vehicle collisions resulted in 37 deaths. A marked decrease was shown in steam railway and motor vehicle collision deaths, tals being reduced from 21 in 1923 to 8 in 1924.

The first check up of the reduction of fatalities among school children following the introduction of safety teaching in the public schools was made for the first six months of 1924. These figures showed a reduction of 15 per cent over a corresponding period the previous year. Comparison of the complete figures for 1923 and 1924 shows that for the whole year a reduction of 25 per cent was made, so that it is expected on this showing the board of education and the Auto Club of So. Calif. will press more vigorously the curriculum of safety in the public schools and amplify the work until it reaches every child in So. Calif.

CHRYSLER WRESTS BACK SPEED LEAD

Without a particle of mechanical or tire trouble, and without adding a drop of water, Ralph De Palma this week drove a Chrysler six stock touring car 1000 miles on the Culver City track, stopping only for gasoline and oil, at an average speed of 76.32 miles an hour.

The only change from stock equipment was in the 3.75 to 1 gear used.

At the end of the trip he declared he didn't feel a bit tired, because of the perfect way in which the car handled.

De Palma broke the record formerly held by Ralph Mulford in another make of stock car by 1 hour, 2 minutes, 25 3-5 seconds. He drove constantly from 4 a.m. to 5:06 p.m.

Hal Weller, A. A. A. contest board representative, did the timing, aided by Joe Nickrent.

TIRES CHEAPENED, MAGNATE SAYS

The General Tire & Rubber Co. again set the pace for the tire companies in 1924 as shown at the annual meeting, just held. The president's report showed a 50 per cent increase in sales, a 25 per cent increase in profits, and earnings equal to 75 per cent for the common stock.

"There is a special reason for our favorable showing," said President William O'Neil in his report to the stockholders. "We do not make any more on an individual sale than any competitor, perhaps, but our fixed investment is held so efficiently low that this year we had nearly a 15 time turnover of sales against fixed investment. It is not necessary for us as manufacturers to make a large percentage on each sale if we can repeat the sales against all our fixed investment better than once a month.

"Sales for the year were $13,152,000, and the profit amounts to $1,500,000. The company that comes nearest to us in efficiency has a fixed investment so large that its sales were turned but 3 times during the year, to our 14.

"During the year there appeared what seemed to be a price cut on the part of a number of manufacturers. As a matter of fact it was not a price cut at all, for we find that the tires affected were reduced to six ply. Six ply tires came down to five and four."

The officers were re-elected, as follows: M. O'Neil, chairman of the board; William O'Neil, president and general manager; W. E. Fouse and C. J. Jahant, vice-presidents; T. F. O'Neil, secretary; Charles Herberich, treasurer; W. J. Cahill, assistant secretary.

OPPOSE NEW OR ADDED TAXES

Truck, Stage and Other Interests Also Fight Class Discrimination

Further application of the principle repeatedly enunciated in the South as well as the North that costs of construction and maintenance of the state's highways should fall proportionately on all classes who benefit is seen in the program of the Automotive Protective League of California just organized at San Francisco.

The league, in which the Truck Owners' Ass'n. of So. Calif. is represented thru the California Truck Owners' Ass'n. declares among other things for the following:

"That, without conceding the principle involved and as a temporary expedient to meet the present emergency only, funds for the construction of state highways should be derived in just proportion from all enjoying the benefits by use thereof. That as soon as practicable a system by which all citizens of this state should contribute to the construction of trunk roads which are of proportional advantage and profit to all, should be effected."

Whether this means that the league has in mind other and new sources of revenue besides the gas tax and license fee is a question being asked here. In any case the league opposes "new or additional taxes in any form except upon a strict accounting of past expenditures."

The league declares also:

"That no hardship, undue burden or unreasonable restriction shall be worked upon any person, class, property or industry by multiferious legislation or statutory requirements or inhabitions under the guise of the executive or police powers of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

"That funds necessary for the maintenance and reconstruction of such roads already built as a matter of course, should be raised by a levy upon vehicles using such roads, as nearly as possible, in proportion to the use thereof."

At the organization meeting the following were named as members of the executive committee.

William F. Culberson of the Motor Car Dealers Association of San Francisco; Robert W. Martland of the California Automobile Trade Association; A. F. Lemberger of the National Motor Vehicle Conference; Arthur H. Samison of the Motor Carriers Association of California; Joseph F. Vizzard of the California Truck Owners Association; C. R. Stevens of the General Petroleum Corporation; W. E. Farr of the Motor Truck Divisiono f the San Francisco Motor Car Dealers Association; E. V. Weller of the National Automobile Club; C. P. Clark of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, and Capt. C. Thompson of the Draymen's Association of California.

GOOD BATTERY NO MERE CONVENIENCE

Because the Wizard battery isn't nationally advertised is no index of its quality, says Manager J. J. Hunt of the Anaheim branch Western Auto Supply, who points out that this battery can be offered cheaply because it comes directly from the factory.

The Western Auto takes the entire output of the Western Battery Co., so advertising by the latter is unnecessary.

These cold mornings a battery in good condition is more than a mere convenience, says Hunt.

Veedol oils and greases and motor robes to ward off the cold of these sharp mornings are also being featured this week.

Hunt reports that business continues to hold up extremely well—practically as well as during the holidays, when the turn in the tide of trade appeared.

A Class Ad is best little salesman.

WOULD DISTRICT ALL STATE'S ROADS

That new auto legislation is needed is attested by the fact that the state is practically without funds for completion of the state highway system already planned. Only about half the roads designated as state highways have been finished, says the A. C. S. C., discussing the proposed new laws.

To remedy this situation some of the counties in the northern part of the state have been urging an increase in the gasoline tax, the funds thus collected to be devoted to new highway construction. This program, however, met with a cold reception thruout So. Calif., due to the opinion that it was not fair to assess the motorists alone for building roads that benefited all; that 51 per cent of such tax would be paid by So. Calif. which would receive approximately only one-third of the roads to be built; and because of the expressed intention of some northern counties to have included purely local highways into the state system, thereby imposing the burden of their construction on the state at large.

The existing situation led the Auto Club of So. Calif., the Los Angeles C. of C. and other organizations to sound a warning to legislators that this section of the state is not in sympathy with any new highway program that does not contemplate an equitable distribution of the funds raised.

It is expected that a plan will be proposed to the legislators dividing the state into road districts under which each division of the state could act more or less independently in its highway program.

In motor vehicle legislation pressure is being brought to bear to have a law enacted that will eliminate physically and mentally incapacitated drivers, and set certain standards for all persons obtaining a driver's license.

Used Car Values Higher Than Ever

Better values in used cars are possible now than ever before says Bill Goodrum of the Motor Sales Co., Buick distributors in Northern Orange-co, following the opening of the new year and reduction on many models of cars.

Goodrum points out that owing to the many changes in the Buick over the old models its value is really higher than before.

A model of 1922 looks a lot older when 1925 is actually here, says Goodrum, than it did when the new year was still a few months off.

The local concern has an unusually good variety of cars to select from.

OAKLAND OWNERS' PROCESSION GROWS

George L. Pomeroy of Placentia purchased a touring car, Gratt Caulk of Anaheim a coach and Joseph N. Davis of Fullerton a used car this week of Harry L. Turton, Oakland distributor in northern Orange-co.

Sales of Oaklands have been boosted by the introduction of the new models.

Fullerton Man in Schanhals' Place

George N. Nolan, for seven years with Albert H. Sitton, Fullerton distributor of Willys-Knight and Overland cars, has succeeded Ray Schanhals in the Anaheim territory, with display rooms at 306 North Los Angeles street.

Schanhals has taken over the Santa Ana distribution.

A sharp reduction on Overlands is now in effect.

Nolan looks for a good business year in 1925. The south, he says, has survived about every conceivable thing, and is steadily getting on its feet again.

EXTEND "FOREIGN" PERMITS

A recent bulletin received by the National Automobile Club from W. H. Marsh, chief of the division of motor vehicles states that non-resident permits expiring Dec. 31, 1924, or later will be extended until Feb. 1. California registration at that time will be required on all non-resident cars not carrying the 1925 license of the state from which they are registered, except Michigan and two months extension has been granted all 1924 Michigan non-residents.

Whittier Kiddie's Resolution Wins

Although many kiddies in the Southland doubtless made good resolutions for the New Year, John Lewis of the eighth grade in the John Muir School, Whittier, is credited with voicing the best sentiment for children. His contribution is given the place of honor on the January poster distributed among the schools of this section by the public safety department of the Auto Club of So. Calif. Thousands of children submitted resolutions and the one winning the honor is as follows:

"It is resolved hereby,
That both you and I
Will keep the safety rule,
At home and at school."

SALES AUGUR GOOD JANUARY

Two new and two used Fords were sold by Sid McGraw on Thursday and one new car each on Tuesday and on Wednesday of this week.

January looks as if it were going to be a good sales month.

Sales on trade-ins the past few weeks have enabled McGraw to accumulate some exceptionally desirable used Fords, especially in the closed models.

Parts have been selling well, too, and the repair shop has been busy.

TRAFFIC MEN DUE HERE ANY DAY

More Lighting Devices Banned by Chief Will H. Marsh

The north half of the county may expect a visit any day now from "Pop" Warner and his motorcycle squad from Santa Ana, bent on coralling drivers who haven't legal lenses on their vehicles or whose lights have not been adjusted.

The squad has been tagging motorists right and left in Santa Ana and vicinity.

The authorized headlight testing station can disconnect the spotlight of any car-owner who refuses to permit its being tested and marked "disconnected" on the certificate after his examination has been made.

A. Bevillard of the Anaheim Ignition Depot was told so by the State Division of Motor Vehicles when he wrote them just recently for a ruling, after an owner had declined to allow the spotlight to be tested. Bevillard marked the spotlight "not legal."

All Ford owners who are operating their cars on magneto lights are warned that they are violating the law, as these devices have not met the requirements of the California Vehicle Act. Owners who do not wish to place proper electrical equipment on their machines may place acetylene headlamps thereon and comply with the law.

All Dodge owners that the Dodge stop signal, type B is legal for use in this state only when equipped with a red glass.

W. H. Marsh, chief of the division of motor vehicles, states that any vehicle equipped with homemade device which indicates clearly the direction in which the vehicle is about to turn will be considered legal provided the device used is not manufactured for sale.

Motorists having Guide Ray lens on their automobile are advised that these lens must be used complete with the Guide Ray Headlamp in order to be legal. Also, the HMiro Tilt lens must be used in connection with the Miro-Tilt Headlamp in order to be legal.

Many inquiries have been made regarding the legality of blue bulbs on automobiles. Blue bulbs may be used in this state providing they produce 21 candle-power and are so marked by the manufacturer on the base thereof.

NEW CHEVROLET MODELS ARRIVE

The new Chevrolet cars have arrived after a delay of a week. They are now to be seen at the showrooms of the A. B. Miner Co. in Placentia.

The new Chevrolet, according to all who have seen it, is without a doubt the greatest value the company has ever offered. Miner, who has handled the Crevrolet for the past four years, says the new car has complied with all of the wants of previous Chevrolet owners in the past years. The new car is equipped with speedometer, dash light, foot throttle, cowl lights, nickel plated radiator, disk clutch; also it has the lasting duco finish. It has new semi-epiletic springs, etc.

It has been said if orders continue to come in as fast as they have been they will be piled up as high as pre-war days, when one had to wait two or three months for a car.

Showrooms will be open until 10 o'clock tonight and all day Sunday.

TAKE CAR APART IN RECORD TIME

One of the most interesting features of the Air Circus recently held at Crissy Field was the contest between civilians and soldier mechanics in stripping army cars down to the bare frame and reassembling them.

The cars selected were two Dodge Brothers' cars, standard equipment in the U. S. army, built in 1917. The contest rules allowed 10 men on each team, but the winning civilian crew—from the service station of the J. E. French Co., the San Francisco Dodge Brothers' dealer—numbered only eight men and a foreman.

Each crew stripped its car right down to the bare frame. Engine, transmission, clutch, battery box, fuel tank, radiator, front axle, fenders, running boards, tires, springs and body were removed.

The civilian crew from the J. E. French Co. took the lead from the start, dismantling the car in 16½ minutes.

In reassembling, each crew put in a new engine, new rear axle, new front axle, new fenders and running boards, new tires and new springs. Cotter pins were installed wherever required and lockwashers were used on all other nuts. Inspectors watched each crew to see that every detail was performed in a workmanlike manner. Following the building up, each car was driven across the finish line 200 yards away to demonstrate that it was in running condition. The car of the winning team crossed the line 78 minutes after they started to disassemble it.

"They knew their job and they did it," is the way Fred Ehlers, jr., service manager for the San Francisco dealer expressed himself.

"The fact that a team made up of men from an approved service station won this test so easily," says Charles Mann, local Dodge Brothers' dealer, "is a clear demonstration of the advantage to owners of taking their cars to approved service stations.

"It is only natural that skilled workmen with labor saving tools and accustomed to servicing one make of car exclusively can be depended upon to make adjustments and repairs properly in less time than can mechanics outside of the approved service station."

WOULD COMPLETE ROAD TO CANYON

The legislatures of Nevada and Arizona will be asked by the governors of the two states, James G. Scrugham and G. W. P. Hunt, to appropriate $120,000 each to cover the cost of a 48-mile link of new road, connecting St. Thomas on the Arrowhead trail with the rim of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. This was decided after a conference on Wednesday between the two executives at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles.

A buried pueblo said to be 2000 years old has been discovered near St. Thomas, across the Muddy river, and in being unearthed by the Heye Foundation of New York and the Smithsonian Institute.

The Union Pacific is interested in the excavations and the new route.

MAY NAME WOMAN AS FEDERAL JUDGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The possibility that a woman will occupy a federal jdugeship arose at the White House today following a conference between Pres. Coolidge and Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general.

It is understood that the president is considering the appointment of Mrs. Willebrandt to the United States district judgeship for the northern district of California. The conference at the White House this morning was arranged at the request of the president.

DIET 15 DAYS, BE YOUNG AGAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—If you want to be young, quit eating for 15 days.

This is the advice of University of Chicago scientists, who have just completed a series of experiments on the ability of the body tissues to consume food and generate energy.

If the tissues are tired, as they're apt to be, a 15-day rest will restore them to the condition they were when you were 15.

"Metabolically speaking," declares Prof. A. J. Carlson, "abstention from food is a successful restorative of youth."

Fifteen days of fasting increases the "metabolic rate," or ability of the body tissues to consume the food, Prof. Carlson declares. He has submitted to the experiment himself.

The fast is not painful, he declares, the only great disadvantage being a gradual weakening. Hunger strikes are not the terrible ordeals they have been pictured, he says.

Moscow taxes visitors. Something like our winter resorts, doubtless.

Automobile Petting Parties Routed by Police Flashlights

California Town Opens War of Pitiless Light Upon Loving Couples Who Spoon Outdoors.

ALAS for human liberty! The police of Sawtelle, California, have opened a war with flashlights on automobile petting and necking parties.

Cosily entwined couples in flivvers and limousines, parked along dark roadways, have been dazzled, dismayed, disconcerted and detected in the pitiless beam of a flashlight while a gruff police voice has broken up the romance with a "Hey, cut it out, youse spooners, or I'll run you in."

Flappers are up in arms after being disclosed in arms other than their own. But Captain of Police H. L. Nicholson is adamant.

Petters, Avaunt!

"No spooning in Sawtelle," he says, and that goes also for the houris from Hollywood who motor out with favored sheiks for the quiet by-ways around Sawtelle.

Two hard-bitten family men form the police detail which enforces the mandate. They ride in a touring car, and probably have never heard of Venus or "flaming youth." They are ordered to see that petting ceases as a popular outdoor sport. The orders are strict: Allow no cars to stop in thinly populated sections, with side curtains drawn and lights out.

The flashlight beam does the trick. What chance for the neckers in an electric beam projected, if necessary, for several hundret feet into their love lairs? "Theirs not to make reply, theirs not to reason why, theirs but to faint and cry" while their escorts step on the gas and promise never to do it again.

Chrysler Is Hit At New York Show

W. P. Chrysler, manufacturer of the Chrysler line of motor cars today had telegraphed the following message, regarding the present New York automobile show, to Z. S. Follette, manager of the local Maxwell-Chrysler agency:

"I have inspected all new models at the New York show, and our verdict unquestionably is that the Chrysler remains the outstanding value in quality, appearance and performance. Some competition has imitated our appearance. No competition has duplicated our performance or quality. Price reduction by competitors indicates difficulty in moving their product against the quality and performance of the Chrysler.

"Please convey to the public through your salesmen the message that the maintenance of Chrysler standards of value does not now permit the reduction of prices, and that as between price and quality the Chrysler will always stand for quality.

"Please accept my best wishes for your continued success thru the coming season.

"W. P. CHRYSLER."

ASSEMBLY GETS BUDGET MONDAY

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10—In recess over the week-end California legislators will re-assemble Monday to receive Gov. Richardson's second biennial budget.

The governor is expected at that time to recommend at $100,000,000 budget for the next biennium. This is an increase over the $75,000,000 net budget submitted two years ago and the governor is expected in a message accompanying the budget to point out the jump is to increase in fixed charges including a considerable increase in the funds for education.

He is expected to reiterate his declaration that the expenditures of the state must be kept within its income.

He will explain the necessity of providing funds for the reimbursement of stock owners who lost in the battle on the hoof and mouth disease but a special appropriation bill is expected to carry this amount which will amount to more than $2,000,000.

According to Speaker Frank Merriam, the assembly standing committees may be ready for announcement Monday but in all probability will not be ready to make public until Tuesday. Lieut. Gov. Young likely will make the senate committee appointments public simultaneously.

"Don't move the other fellow's car in order to make room for parking," says a bulletin issued by the National Automobile club to its members. According to this dispatch any person who molests another person's car without proper permission to do so is guilty of a misdemeanor. This law at first thought may seem of little importance, but when one considers it in the light that it was passed with the view of protecting motor cars from thieves the wisdom of such legislation is apparent.

Permission has been granted the Pacific Electric Railway to purchase enough land at the Los Angeles Harbor to establish a new right-of-way and thereby eliminate two dangerous grade crossings over the Harbor Boulevard.

MODEL OF HARBOR

Thru the co-operation of trustees of Newport Beach, Orange-co. will shortly have on exhibit a model of the county and harbor at Newport Bay. This model is now under construction in Los Angeles by J. T. Edwards who made a national reputation years ago, by his construction of the wonderful Canadian Exhibits at the Worlds Fair in San Francisco in 1915. Mr. Edwards has recently completed the giant map of California, 600 feet long and built at a cost of over $100,000, which has been placed on display in the Ferry Building, San Francisco.

The map of Orange county and Orange-co's harbor will be on a convenient scale for handling and is being made in three sections. When completed the model will be 12 feet long by 8 feet deep. It will outline the important features of Orange-co. and main lines of communication between Orange county's principal centers of population—Anaheim, Fullerton, Orange, Santa Ana, Placentia, Olive, Tustin, Huntington Beach, Brea, La Habra and all the cities and towns will be in evidence and the completed model should enable anyone to secure a much better understanding of the important and vital part which Harbor Development will play in the near future. Rivers and main irrigation systems will be located. Also railroad connections will be shown and geographic features will be emphasized in order that by glancing at the model a real conception of the physical conditions may be appreciated and understood.

It is proposed to put the model on display in various parts of Orange-co. The map-model will be ready in about 20 days.

She will love tomorrow who loved not yesterday.

"Dependability—That's A Willard"

There is no substitute for dependability. In the operation of motor vehicles, either on land, afloat or in the air, the lives of the occupants frequently hang in a balance of dependability. If the mechanism fails the newspapers carry headlines above another tragedy the next day.

Where human life hangs in the balance, there is nothing that can take the place of dependability. That is why automobile racers, aviators, manufacturers of the better automobiles and marine men specify Willard batteries in their machines, according to A. Bevillard, Willard battery dealer.

"For years it has been noticeable that wherever a storage battery was needed on a hard job where absolute dependability meant the winning or losing of the stakes, Willard batteries have been the unanimous choice," he says.

Lubrication Questions Answered by

ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY
Staff of Automotive Engineers

Question: Why are more cases of burned out bearings reported in winter than in summer?

Answer: This condition is brot about principally by the habit many motorists have of racing their motors immediately upon starting in the morning, for the purpose of warming it up. This practice is most injurious, and any motor oil of a light or medium grade will be more or less sluggish on a cold morning, so will not flow freely, resulting in bearing failures. A correct grade of light oil will do much to help this condition, but better still is to run the engine slowly for a few minutes upon starting in the morning in order that the oil may become fluid.

Question: Fouled spark plugs are generally laid to poor lubricating oil. Is this true?

Answer: A poor grade of oil will have a tendency to deposit considerable carbon upon spark plugs, in this way short-circuiting them. The real reason, however, is generally found to be excessive use of lubricating oil. In other words, too much oil is getting into the combustion chamber. This is either caused by carrying the oil level in the motor too high, or else the engine is badly worn, rings are in poor condition, and an excessive amount of oil is finding its way to the combustion chamber.

Question: Many people talk of "base" in lubricating oil. What is the base, and does it affect lubricating value?

Answer: Base is an expression handed down in the oil industry and really means the crude from which the lubricating oil is made. Thus, paraffine base oil comes from crudes containing paraffine and asphalt base oils come from crude oils containing asphalt. These statements, however, have no bearing upon the lubricating value of the oil, as none of the by-products above mentioned remain in the oil after it is properly refined.

RANCHERS LOSE IN SYMPATHY GAG

Proving the Good Samaritan to one John Roberts, alias John Kelley, proved costly to three ranchers in the northwestern part of Orange-co., where a scheme hinging on an alleged broken truck netted the cunning visitor a total of $37, according to information on hand at the district attorney's office at Santa Ana today.

The scheme was to halt a wierd looking truck in front of a ranchers' house, walk in and plead with flowing tears that the victim is "broke," that if the sum of $12 or so is advanced him to repair the truck surely goodness and mercy will see to it the money is returned promptly when the victim returns to his home in Los Angeles, where he has plenty of money and more reputation. The fake concludes with the passing of the money and its complete disappearance with the man.

Down the road the "victim", already ahead $12 and repairs "made," stops at another farmhouse, and seeks a gullible audience. More money to the good, next jaunt, and so on.

Now Roberts or Kelley did this very thing, according to a complaint for his arrest charging obtaining money under false pretenses. Three such complaints of identical nature have been issued and those who are good and ready to take the stand if the "slicker" is caught are:

James B. Trapp, R.R.2, Anaheim, out $11.

W. H. Knapschafer, Buena Park, out $14.

Pete Anderson, Cypress, out $12.

NEED NEW LAWS

WASHINGTON Jan. 10.—The Couzens' senatorial committee's investigation into prohibition enforcement has revealed that the eighteenth amendment cannot be properly enforced under the existing laws, according to John S. Pyle, the committees chief counsel, in a statement made public today.

Pyle laid before the committee in secret session the results of a month's investigation into the records of the prohibition unit. He reported "serious friction" between enforcement agents and United States district attorneys mentioning specific instances in Salt Lake City and Pittsburgh.

LEGAL NOTICE

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
County of Orange, SS.
City of Anaheim.

Public notice is hereby given that default having been made in the payment of taxes due the City of Anaheim for the fiscal year 1924-1925 upon the property hereinbefore described,

I, W. B. MOODY, as Tax Collector in and for the said City of Anaheim, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by law, unless the taxes delinquent, together with the cost and percentages due thereon are paid, will on MONDAY, THE 26TH OF JANUARY, 1925.

At the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, commence to sell the real estate upon which said taxes are a lien, at PUBLIC AUCTION, for and on account of such delinquent taxes thereon, in front of the City Hall in the City of Anaheim, County of Orange, State of California, and that I will continue such sale from day to day (Sunday and legal holidays excepted), according to the adjournments, and between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m. of each day of sale, and at the same place, until the whole property hereinbefore set forth, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be sold; together with the sum of fifty (50) cents, provided by law for the certificate of sale, in duplicate in each and every yease.

NO PROPERTY IS EXEMPT

No property is exempt from seizure and sale for personal property taxes; even the homestead and house utensils are subject thereto. The law is imperative. The collector has no discretion and delinquents must suffer if they fail to pay.

All the property heretofore described is in the City of Anaheim, County of Orange, State of California.

Signed and dated at the said City of Anaheim, California, this 2nd day of January, 1925.

W. B. MOODY,
Tax Collector of the City of Anaheim, County of Orange, State of California.

GAMBLER KILLED IN BANDIT FIGHT

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 10.—Raymond Bishop, 30, was killed in his gambling establishment today when he "shot it out" with three bandits of whom he slew one and wounded another.

The wounded bandit and his remaining companion escaped. Their departing trail in the snow was marked with bloodstains.

Bishop lost his life to save $1000 the gaming receipts.

The dead bandit is yet unidentified. The $1000 was found on the floor beside Bishop.

WHOLE MARKET ADVANCES AGAIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—More prominence in the forward movement of prices today was given to the railroad, oil and motor stocks and high priced industrials which have held the center of the stage in the preceding sessions of the week.

Except for realizing sales in American Can and a few of the specialty stocks in the first period buying orders predominated in the early trading and the forward movements in many stocks simply resumed from last night's finishing point.

Impressive advances were staged by the mercantile stocks, including Sears Roebuck, Macy and Montgomery Ward, the motors under the leader ship of General Motors, which reached a new high for the movement at 67½; the Equipments, with American Locomotive at 110½ equivalent to 220 on the 1923 basis of the stock, the rails, with Missouri Pacific common and pfd., Rock Island and N. Y. Central active and buoyant; the oils, with Atlantic Refining making a new high on the movement at 110½, and the low priced oils like Simms, Independent, Shell, Union, Maryland, California Petroleum, (Invincible, Louisiana Oil and Transcontinental Oil for nearly a year the undesirables of the speculative market, forging to the front and commanding the best prices of the movement.

There was also an active market for the better grade of dividend oils. Sims petroleum replaced Invincible as the leader in the low price group, selling above 24 on a heavy turnover.

In point of activity, trading in the first hour today was fully up to the sensational market of last Saturday when the facilities of the exchange were clogged and tradere were practically unable to keep in touch with the movements of prices. There were some signs of heaviness in the second hou when industrial and railroad stocks were offered in large volume on week end profit taking and stocks like American Can, Frisco common, Radio, Reading, etc., which were leaders in the rally on Tuesday and Thursday, dropped back to lower levels. But strength in the general list showed that many traders were switching to other stocks, showing preference to the oils, in which the volume of trading expanded considerable.

The motor and oil stocks pushed upward with General Motors three points to above 69 and Simms up 2½ to 26, the leaders in the respective groups.

The bond market was strong and active with Liberty bonds and foreign government issues slightly higher. Standard Gas & Elec. Co., 6½s of 1933, convertible into stock made a further gain of 3½ points at 120, a rise of nearly 10 points from Friday's low.

Denver and Rio Grande 5s of 1955 sold u pto 64½; New York Central debenture 6s were active around 11; St. Paul 4s got back to 78½; Anaconda Copper Co. 7s sold in good volume at 103¼ and the new American Telephone & Telegraph Co. 5s at 95¾.

Stock sales today 1,164,900 shares; bonds $13,198,000.

Stock saels for the week ending Jan. 10, totalled 11,061,500 shares, bonds $96,508,000.

Recent advices received from H. W. Alexander, secretary of the C. of C. at Yuma, Ariz., are to the effect that the "atrocious detour" which has been in effect for so long about five miles west of Yuma has been eliminated and the road at that point is now in good condition. Excellent gravel road is now found between Yuma and the planked road, just east of Grey's Well.

FORBES SCORES

CHICAGO, Jan 10—The defense in the case of Col. Chas. R. Forbes, former veteran's bureau director, and John W. Thompson, St. Louis contractor, on trial in federal court on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in hospital contracts, scored again today when Wm. D. Pratt, Kansas City contractor, gave the lie to testimony of Elias H. Mortimer, principal government witness.

Pratt denied that he had contributed $5000 to a $15,000 fund of which $5000 was to be paid to Forbes in Chicago. Pratt had been associated with Thompson in the Colombian improvement syndicate, a $100,000,000 project. Organization of this great corporation was never completed.

RUSSO1JAPANESE PARLEY SUCCESS

TOKYO, Jan. 10.—Government circles were confident this afternoon that a virtual agreement has been reached in the Russo-Japanese parley now in progress in Peking.

It is understood here that the terms provide that Japan is to receive fifty per cent of the oil and coal production of Russia. Russia agrees to apologize, it was said, for the Nikolaievsk affair and discontinue propaganda in Japan.

Japan agrees to evacuate her troops from Russian soil as soon as physical conditions permit. Questions of debts and claims are to be left to future conferences.

REPORTS CONFLICT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Conflicting reports today failed to clear the mystery surrounding the fate of the three alleged rum runners said to have been lost with all on board more than week ago in a violent storm off So. Calif. Revenue officers today said two coast guard cutters have just finished a search for the Hakodate, the Vance and the Malahat without finding any trace of the vessels. Only two alleged liquor runners, the Coal Harbor and the Chief Skugado, are now lying off Los Angeles harbor, according to the officers.

At the same time it was reported that last night an unsuccessful attempt was made by a fishing boat to land 500 cases of liquor from the Malahat near Santa Barbara. The Malahat was one of the first ships reported lost.

DAILY GREETING TO OUR READERS

Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me.—Proverbs 30.8.

Our true knowledge is to know our own ignorance. Our true strength is to know our own weakness. Our true dignity is to confess that we have no dignity, and are nobody and nothing in ourselves, and to cast ourselves down before the dignity of God, under the shadow of whose wings, and in the smile of whose countenance, alone, is any created being safe. Let us cling to our Father in Heaven, as a child, walking in the night, clings to his father's hand.—Charles Kingsley.

PSYCHOLOGY GOOD FOR BUSINESS

No expert survey and no intelligent discussion of the business and industrial conditions throughout the United States would be complete and convincing without allusion to the favorable psychological status of the American people today. They are in cheerful, hopeful, confident, expectant mood with reference to economic conditions and prospects. This national state of mind is one of the most powerful of all influences which are tending toward continuance of prosperous conditions and augmentation of prosperity.

Too much stress cannot be placed upon the value and importance of a bright, confident psychologic status among the people. This is a tremendous factor in promoting business and industrial activity and financial comfortableness. When the people are cheerful and confident, they buy liberally. This promotes business and industry. When business and industry thrive, there is more employment, larger payrolls, more persons able to buy in great quantities, more money in banks and in circulation. When the people are confident, they put their money in bank—and this makes for financial stability and for abundance of money for loans for developmental purposes.

Psychology is the handmaiden of prosperity and progress.

Time was, when the king on his throne was the most secure person in the world. But the security of kingly thrones is past.

WYOMING HAS WOMAN GOVERNOR NOW

Wyoming has the distinction of being the first state in the Union to induct a woman into office as Governor. Texas has a woman Governor-elect, but Wyoming had its inauguration ahead of the Lone Star State. Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, widow of the late Governor Ross, becomes Governor. She is a woman of ability and the people of Wyoming have no misgivings with the powers and prerogatives of the governorship in her hands.

Women holding high political office is no experiment, in this country. It has passed the experimental stage. Women have held offices of responsibility, where ability and tact are required, and they have made excellent showing—in some instances, brilliant. Nor has this holding of political office had the coarsening effect upon women that was predicted lugubriously, years ago, by opponents of equal suffrage. Women have adapted themselves to changed conditions. They have accepted the franchise with intelligence and with due appreciation of its importance and its significance.

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

MAJ. GEN. JAMES G. HARBORD

As President of the Radio Corporation of America Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord is playing a leading role in the expansion of radio and its establishment on a firm basis. Major Gen. Harbord was hale enough when he retired after 34 years' service in the U. S. army to accept the presidency of the Radio Corporation of America. His genius as an organizer and executive made his services more valuable in "service with troops." For example after having a brief opportunity to demonstrate his capacity in the field by leading the Marine Brigade to undying fame at Chateau-Thierry and later directing the successful operations of the famous Second Division in the Soissons offensive, General Harbord was appointed commander of the service of supply of the A. E. F., a post that enabled him to prove his capacity as an organizer.

James G. Harbord served nearly three years as a doughboy after his enlistment in the Fourth United States Infantry in 1889. The fact that he was appointed quartermaster sergeant of his regiment while still a recruit was a forecast of the executive ability which eventually won him two stars and since his retirement from the army has placed him at the helm of a large corporation.

This distinguished ex-private's array of decorations rivals that of General Pershing. They include the D. S. M. of both army and navy (U. S. A.); commander, Legion of Honor of France; Croix de Guerre with two palms (France); knight commander, St. Mochael and St. George (British); grand officer, Order of the Crown (Belian); commander, St. Maurice and St. Lazarus (Italian); Order of Prince Danilo (Montenegrin); Order of La Solidarid (Panaman) and Masonic (thirty-second degree, K. T.).

HEALTH & DIET ADVICE

By Dr. Frank McCoy
Author of "THE FAST WAY TO HEALTH"

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION—Mr. R. O. P. writes: "I am suffering with stomach, abdomen being quite sore and frequently there is a rumbling sound as if water were racing through the bowels. I take goat's milk with an egg for breakfast. For dinner, well toasted cracked wheat bread, bacon and eggs or boiled beef, lettuce and cabbage salad. For supper, goat's milk and toast. I also eat some raisins every day. Is this the proper diet for me?"

ANSWER—The rumbling sound is undoubtedly caused by flatulence or gas. Your present diet is incorrect and would advise a fruit juice fast, followed by a suitable diet of proteid food and non-starchy and salad vegatables. Watch this column for right food combinations.

QUESTION—H. S. writes: "Could you please tell me how to clear up my complexion and a general blotchy skin? I do not think it is Acne but think something is wrong in my diet as my face breaks out more when I eat sweets. I take one cake of yeast daily. Is this good? Any suggestions very much appreciated."

ANSWER—You are suffering from a form of Acne which is caused by an impure blood stream from improper food combinations. You are eating too much carbohydrate food and would advise instead, plenty of fruit and non-starchy vegetables. Constipation must also exist in your case, which should be corrected before condition of your skin can be helped. I do not recommend yeast.

QUESTION—Mrs. L. W. writes: "I find baking soda a good laxative and take one teaspoonful in one-half pint water every night and morning. Is this harmful if constantly used?"

ANSWER—Soda is very harmful because the reaction of stomach juices are acid, while the soda is alkaline, which changes this reaction. By all means discontinue taking soda twice daily. I do not advise its use.

THE BEST OF ADVICE

TREAD-MILL PROGRESS

It is a wondrous age in which we live. An inventor announces that he has perfected a device that makes "seeing" by radio possible and practical, and the world accepts the statement without scepticism, for it is an era when seemingly nothing is impossible.

But with all the striking external evidence of progress, is Society advancing?

Emerson contended that Society never advances. "It recedes as fast on one side as it gains on the other. Its progress is only apparent, like the workers of a treadmill. It undergoes continual changes; it is barbarous, it is civilized, it is christianized, it is rich, it is scientific; but this change is not amelioration. For everything that is given, something is taken. Society acquires new arts and loses old instincts."

* * *

As Emerson opined, "The civilized man has built a coach, but has lost the use of his feet. He is supported on crutches, but loses so much support of the muscle. He has a fine Swiss watch, but he has lost the skill to tell the hour by the sun. A Greenwich nautical almanac he has, and so being sure of the information when he wants it, the man in the street does not know a star in the sky. The solstice he does not observe; the equinox he knows as little; and the whole bright calendar of the year is without a dial in his mind. His notebooks impair his memory; his libraries overload his wit; the insurance office increases his carelessness; and it may be a question whether machinery does not encumber; whether we have not lost by refinement some energy, by a christianity entrenched in establishments and forms, some vigor of wild virtue. For every stoicism there was a stoic; but in Christendom where is the Christian?"

* * *

No greater men are now than ever were.

Emerson observed that a singular equality may be seen between the great men of the first and of the last ages. "Nor can all the science, art, religion and philosophy of this century avail to educate men than Plutarch's heroes, three or four and twenty centuries ago.

The arts and inventions of each period are only its costume, and do not invigorate men, he averred.

Hudson and Behring accomplished so much in Arctic exploration in their fishing boats as to astonish Parry and Franklin, whose equipment exhausted the resources of science and art of their time. Galileo, with an opera glass, discovered a more splendid series of facts about the world than any one since.

We reckoned the improvements of the art of war among the triumphs of science, and yet Napoleon conquered Europe by the bivouac, which consisted of falling back on necked valor, and disencumbering it of all aids.

* * *

Emerson compared society to a wave. The wave moves onward but the water of which it is composed does not. Its unity is only phenomenal. The persons who make up the nation today, next may die, and their experience with them.

What Editors Are Saying

AMERICA'S WEALTH STUPENDOUS—Santa Ana Register

The census bureau is engaged in adding up total wealth of the United States. Unofficial guests give from $300,000,000,000 to $400,000,000,000. The official estimate will probably be somewhere between those limits.

Suppose it is $350,000,000,000—or, to put it in more understandable words, 350 billions, which is 350 thousand millions. That is a fine, big sum to roll off the tongue. It is just about twice the estimated wealth of the country's lands, mines, forests, buildings, railroads, etc., back in 1912.

Not that the wealth of the country has really doubled in a decade. Most of this increase is the result of higher prices and the lower purchasing power of the dollar which does the measuring. A cheaper dollar makes the wealth look bigger in figures than it is actually. But there has been a large intrinsic gain, in spite of the war losses. And at the present time the riches of this blessed land are rolling up with unprecedented rapidity.

America is worth as much now, in the open market, as almost the whole of Europe, and probably more than Asia and Africa together.

This fact in itself shows some interesting things about wealth. Wealth, it appears, is not a matter of area, nor of population, nor even of material resources. If it were area alone, Canada would be as rich, instead of less than one-tenth as rich. If population alone, Asia would be far richer. If resources alone, Africa would be richer.

Population is essential; also land. After that, national wealth depends on the kind of people that make the nation. It is a product of brains, character and energy, using the earth and its contents merely as materials and instruments.

Our real wealth is our inhabitants. Put the American people on another continent, and there would soon be a new America.

MURDER AS A FINE ART—Sacramento Bee

Writing in the current issue of Harper's Magazine, Henry A. Bunn says:

"The steady increase of our murder and suicide rates has continued; and it is peculiarly gratifying to note the marked improvement in the artistic qualities of our murders. Murder, of course, is our national art, and we are fast becoming a nation of artists. We are producing more and better murders every year."

There is more truth than fiction in that.

If we continue at our present rate, America may become as famous for the number and variety of its homicides as fifteenth century Italy was for its great artistic achievements or Elizabethan England for its great literature.

And juries, such as served in the recent McCoy case, are of great aid in pushing us toward such a glorious pinacle.

Gleanings From the Book Five

By Clark Kinnaird

THE "BEST BOOKS"

"What are the ten best books?"

This, in effect, is the impossible to answer question asked by a reader of this column. He sends a list headed "The World's Best Books," containing a hundred titles, with the explanation, "Books are hard to get in my locality, and I haven't the money to buy or the time to read all these. Would you mark those you think the best and return the list to me?"

While it is idle to attempt to name the "best books," it is still possible to mention some of the works with which every cultivated man should be familiar.

Shakespeare. No particular book can be specified. Forget that everybody says he is the greatest of the great, read him for the beauty of his poetry, and use your imagination.

Balzac. Again no particular book can be specified. He is surely one of the master writers of all time. Recommended: Cousin Pons, Lost Illusions, Humane Comedy, Pere Goriot.

Spoon River Anthology, by Edgar Lee Masters.

L'Abbe Jerome Coignard, Le Livre de mon Ami, by Anatol France, the greatest literary artist of our time.

Horace's Odes.

La Rochefoucauld's Maxims.

Goethe's Faust.

Ibsen's "The Wild Duck", an introduction.

* * * * *

Henry Esmond.

Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass. The complete, unexpurgated edition.

Don Quixote, by Cervantes. Skip the tedious passages.

Moby Dick, by Herman Melville.

Toilers of the Sea, by Victor Hugo.

Thackeray. Take your pick: Vanity Fair; The History of Henry Esmond.

Charles Dickens. Almost any of his novels.

A Shropshire Lad, poems by A. E. Housman.

Joseph Conrad. Under Western Eyes, The Secret Agent.

On and after Jan. 11, 1925, we will be located at 162 West Center St., Anaheim, and at our Santa Ana office, 602 No. Main St.

Your Cross Word Puzzle

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS WORD PUZZLE

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram.

Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown in the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterruptedly.

Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the white spaces remain uninterruptedly.

53 p.c. OF FUNDS TO SO. COUNTIES

Heeding the southland's claim that the major share of state monies spent by the state Highway commission should be used on roads of the 13 southern counties, because of the larger gas and other taxes collected, the commission announced this week that 53 per cent of the gas money or $2,500,000 would be used on the 4918 miles of state highway in the south.

Nelson T. Edwards of Orange, a member of the commission and former supervisor, made the announcement.

Work this year will be pushed on the Serra-Laguna Beach link of the coast highway.

The total estimated income from the gas tax and motor vehicle fund is put at $9,750,000, from which $1,000,000 is subtracted for overhead and "work orders," while another $390,000 is kept for emergencies, such as slides blocking the roads. The total amount available for major construction will be $4,771,850.

McGUGAN ADMITS $15,000 PAYMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Harold McGugan, attorney for Mrs. Anna Barnett, admitted before the house Indian affairs committee today that M. L. Mott of Tulsa, Okla., a former Creek Nation attorney, received payment from Mrs. Barnett for his "advice" in arranging the settlement of the $1,100,000 estate of Jackson Barnett, aged Indian millionaire.

McGugan declared that Mott gave him "advice and counsel" regarding the settlement and that when he found his advice helpful he told Mott "he would see that Mrs. Barnett would pay him a fee and pay him handsomely."

The attorney denied that he went to Mott because "he represented himself as a man who could get things done around the interior department."

McGugan said the sum paid Mott by Mrs. Barnett was $15,000 after Chairman Sinnott declared he must tell the amount when questioned by Congressman Hastings.

The witness declared he knew two or three county clerks in Oklahoma had refused to marry Mrs. Barnett to the Indian.

During cross-examination McGugan heatedly denied that he knew A. J. Ward, Creek Nation attorney, who represented "Crazy Jack" as Barnett was known at the settlement was employed in Mott's office while he (Mott) was attorney for the tribe. The witness however stated that he could not recall when he first met Mott except that it was on one of his numerous visits to Washington.

"I never agreed to pay him any compensation until the last time I was here when I told him I had followed his advice and found it most helpful.

"Then a day or two after the settlement I wrote out a little memorandum on hotel stationery saying that on consummation of the transaction I agreed to pay him a certain sum of money."

The "advice" he received, McGugan said, which he found so helpful, was Mott's suggestion that Mrs. Barnett should get as much money under the settlement as she would if Barnett were dead.

"I got an additional $150,000 for my client as a result of the suggestion," said McGugan.

NEGOTIATIONS MOVE ON NORMAL LINES

PARIS, Jan. 10.—"We have reached no agreement. However, negotiations are pursuing their normal course," Col. Logan, American observer on the reparations committee, told International News Service today.

His statement was in answer to persistent rumors emanating from French official circles and published in this morning's Le Matin, stating that Col. Logan and Winston Churchill had reached a full agreement regarding American reparations and occupational claims.

The French finance ministry studied the question of Belgium's share in the reparations receipts under the Dawes plan until an early hour today. The final Belgium settlement will be determined in the council of finance ministers.

ANNUAL MEETING OF PLACENTIA ASS'N

The annual meeting of the Placentia Orange Growers Ass'n was held this morning at Fullerton H. S. auditorium, followed by a banquet at the Masonic Temple at noon today. Election of officers was scheduled for this afternoon. The annual report of J. A. Prizer, secretary, showed that 1,556 cars of oranges had been shipped by the association the last year, 1,357 of which were valencias. Approximately $1,666,000 in cash has been returned to the growers from the crop, he said. He said that the average return was $2.82 net to the growers per box.

The association has two plants, one at Placentia, and the other at Fullerton, with a pre-cooling plant at each place, which has been operated successfully the last year, he said.

NEW STAR COMES TO UNITED THEATER

Bob Custer, new western star who is heralded as one of the coming attractions of the motion picture year, is strutting his hard-riding, straight-shooting stuff at the United theater Sunday and Monday, where "Trigger Fingers" is packing in enthusiastic crowds anxious to get a glimpse of the work of this real live, he-man cowboy from the Texas plains who rode right into the movies with the froth still on his pony's bit. The story is a thrilling frontier tale, as crammed with action as a tin can is of sardines. Director Reeves Eason has handled his characters and the dramatic incidents of his plot brilliantly, and bids fair to direct his new star into the front rank of box-office attractions. Margaret Landis, sister of Cullen Landis, has an appealing role opposite Mr. Custer.

CAMPBELL MISSING

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Officers today were unable to locate Wilbur Campbell, Los Angeles auto salesman, named in an indictment returned by the county grand jury which investigated charges of tampering with the jury which tried Kid McCoy for the murder of Mrs. Teresa Mors after a hunt of more than 24 hours.

"What do you think of your indictment?" a newspaperman asked Campbell over the phone early yesterday and since then Campbell has been missing, according to the district attorney. He was believed to have fled from the state.

Campbell was asserted to have called John J. Apffel, a member of a McCoy jury on the phone while the former ring idol's trial was in progress and offered him "big money" to vote for a verdict as instructed. That Campbell was connected with a gambling ring which intended to get a huge sum on the outcome of the trial, was charged during the grand jury investigation it was said.

MEXICO EAGER TO RENEW DISCUSSIONS

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 10.—Mexico is eager to renew discussions with the United States regarding the division of the waters of the Colorado river, it was announced today. The foreign office will forward official acceptance of the United States proposals that the discussions halted by the revolution in 1912, be renewed.

Names of the Mexican commissioners for the parleys will be made public within a few days.

LOCAL CAFE MEN PREFERS CHARGE

A charge of robbery, preferred by W. E. Brown, Anaheim cafe man, today was placed against Elroy Morris and Donald Cameron, two of four youths arrested in Santa Ana as suspects in numerous hold-ups. At the time of the hold-up of Brown in Anaheim, $95 in cash and other valuables were secured, according to the complaint, the second of the same nature to be placed against the two. The other is being pressed by Santa Ana police on behalf of S. M. Patterson, service station employe who was robbed.

Brown previously had identified Cameron as his assailant.

Russell Van Bibber and G. A. Heither, others taken in an apartment with Morris and Cameron, have been released.

L. A. MOTORIST IN COUNTY JAIL

WM. LANE BUYS VERNON TIGERS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10—While Ed Maier, owner of the Vernon club of the Pacific coast league, denied late today he had sold his interests to H. William Lane of Salt Lake City, officers of the Vernon club said they understood the sale had positively been made and will be announced here Monday at a meeting of the league directors.

Maier admitted he had discussed the sale of the club with Lane. Lane has made no statement.

In partial confirmation, however, of the report that he had purchased the Vernon club, Lane announced he received a telegram this afternoon from Salt Lake stating his terms for the sale of the Salt Lake club had been met. The figures and the name of the purchaser, said to be a Chicago merchant, were not made known.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—William Lane, Salt Lake mining millionaire, has purchased the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast Baseball League from Ed. Maier, it was learned exclusively here today by International News Service. Announcement of the purchase will be made Monday at a meeting of Pacific Coast League.

Walter Johnson, Washington American's star pitcher, who came here to purchase the Vernon club, is not involved in the deal, it was said.

When announcement of Lane's purchase of Vernon is made the name of the new owner of the Salt Lake club of the coast circuit will also become known. Satl Lake, owned by Lane was sold recently to a Chicago business man with extensive interests in the Utah city.

The new Salt Lake owner was said to be closely identified with Wm. Wrigley, millionaire baseball magnate of Chicago.

Lane has been Wrigley's guest for several days at Catalina Island near here where the deal for the Vernon club purchase was made.

The price paid by Lane was not learned but was said to have been about $250,000.

Maier, the former Vernon owner, has been in coast baseball since 1909, when the Tigers were organized.

Purchase of the Vernon club by Lane will settle an impending war in the coast league, it was declared today, as Lane will be in harmony with Wrigley, owner of the Los Angeles club, and both Vernon and the Angels may be playing in the new Los Angeles park here before the end of the 1925 season.

Bill Essick, manager of the Tigers, will continue under Lane.

With Lane owning the Vernon club, it was said Salt Lake will open at home and not play for two weeks in California cities, as was planned.

Business to come before the league directors at their meeting here Monday will include consideration of 1925 playing schedule; the plan to limit the coast league clubs to 18 veterans and seven players who have not had more than two years of experience in the professional ranks, and the question of forbidding Coast League players from taking part in winter league games.

KEINHOLZ QUITS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Eddie Keinholz has resigned as football coach of Santa Clara University it was learned on the highest authority here today.

Adam Walsh captain and center of the Notre Dame football team and Charles Erb, former University of California player and 1924 coach of Nevada University, were under consideration to succeed Keinholz and it was said Walsh would probably be named.

LEONARD BETTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Benny Leonard, light weight boxing champion, ill at his home since his collapse on the stage last week, was greatly improved this afternoon. The champion's mother said Benny was sitting up in bed and was expected to be up and about in a few days. Altho physicians are still taking all precautions, Benny is felt to be past the danger line.

"COZY" DOLAN HAS DAZED MEMORY

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—A. J. "Cozy" Dolan, banished coach of the New York Giants baseball team, has a hazy memory, and three days following the alleged offering of $500 to J. H. Sand, shortstop of the Philadelphia National League tetam, to "ease up" could not recall that he had ever talked with anybody on the subject. This was shown by the verbatim report of the testimony taken in the hearing conducted by Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, following reports just before the world series of 1924, that such an offer had been made. The report was given out today from Judge Landis' office.

Judge Landis was not in his office when the transcript was given out and it was handed to newspapermen without comment.

The testimony reveals no hint of fresh scandal and actually develops little that has not already become public thru rumor.

It shows that, in the presence of James O'Connell, giant outfielder, also banished from the national pastime in connection with the affair and Sand, Dolan said in answer to questions that he could not remember O'Connell telling him that Sand had refused to listen to the alleged offer.

"Do you remember whether you had any conversation relative to the offering of a sum of money?" Landis asked Dolan.

"I cannot recall," Dolan answered.

"This is Tuesday. This conversation which I am asking about between you and O'Connell, O'Connell says took place in the clubhouse at the Polo Grounds last Saturday. That is three days. The conversation you say you do not remember, did you ask O'Connell if he knew Sand?" The commissioner questioned.

"Did I ask him?" Dolan asked.

"Did you talk to O'Connell about Sand last Saturday?"

"In reference to what?"

"About knowing Sand."

"I don't remember," Dolan replied.

The report shows other Giant players questioned at the hearing testified they knew nothing of the supposed bribery offer. Ross Young, Giant outfielder, and Frank Frisch, captain of the Giants, both denied any knowledge of the affair.

PREPARE BILL TO BRING BACK RACING

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—A bill was in preparation today to bring back the racing game in California via the pari mutuel betting system.

Assemblyman Fred C. Hawes will sponsor the measure expected to be ready for presentation when the legislature reconvenes Monday. According to the author, the bill will be drawn so as to eliminate past evils of horse racing which resulted in its being banned.

The bill will permit betting on races only by means of the pari mutuel machines and the racing managements will be permitted to take a percentage not exceeding ten percent, half of which would go to the state as a tax to be placed in the general fund.

A battle is expected over the measure but its backers were said to be confident they can muster enough strength to pass it altho the attitude of Governor Richardson is unknown.

GREB BEATS SAGE

DETROIT, Jan. 10.—Harry Greb, middleweight champion of the world, was awarded the decision over Bob Sage, Detroit, at the end of their ten round bout last night. Sage took the first two rounds by boring in but Greb held the edge from the third round on.

Greb was aided by a weight advantage of approximately ten pounds and as permitted to hit and hold at the same time by Referee Al Foss of Pittsburgh. Billy Peterson, Detroit middleweight knocked out Frankie Brennan in the fifth round; Joe McKean easily defeated Bobby Swarts.

MAY BE SUSPENDED

NEW YORK Jan 10.—Cannonball Eddie Martin, world's bantamweight champion fades suspension as a result of his unsatisfactory showing against Augie Pisano of Brooklyn in a bout there Wednesday night, it was reported today. The boxing commission has summoned both fighters to appear for a hearing next Tuesday. Referee Jas. Crowley stopped the Martin-Pisano fight, the first in which the former engaged as a champion, in the third round, calling it, "no contest."

FINE COLT RETIRED

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Ordinance, $150,000 colt owned by the estate of Major August Belmont, late chairman of the Jockey Club, has been sold to Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and will be retired to stud, it was learned today. The price was not disclosed.

NURMI BITES OFF LARGE MOUTHFUL

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—While the general excitement is at its height and the question of the hour is whether the gentleman in question eats fish for breakfast and keeps that schoolgirl complexion with shinola, it might be mentioned that Paavo Nurmi may be riding for a fall. He has allowed himself to be inveigled into accepting invitations by the carloads, and somewhere along the general right of way, it is quite possible than an American crowd will watch him run second behind some worthy young man, present identity unknown.

This stunning event may happen no later than a week or ten days from this moment. On Thursday night next, he will go to the post at Madison Square Garden against a plausible field in a 3000 meter run. The distance has been shortened from two miles at Nurmi's request, altho it is fact, not fancy, that he can run any distance from a quarter mile to ten faster than any man the world has known. It might appear from this that Nurmi sees something coming.

Two days later he is to step out in a special mile and a quarter race at the Illinois A. C. games in Chicago. The distance was increased the extra two furlongs, also at Nurmi's request. He evidently has no intention of trying to repeat his Olympic program, in which he ran and won races at 1500, 3000, 5000 and 10000 meters, with heats, in the space of one week. The distances he will run at the two meets are not markedly dissimilar.

The reason is not far to seek. Nurmi has realized within the last 48 hours that he has bitten off a lumberjack's mouthful in agreeing to run a hard race here on Thursday night, climb aboard an outgoing train, and compete again in Chicago within 48 hours.

BILLY WELLS WINS FROM 'CHICK' ROACH

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Conducting a relentless attack at colse quarters, "Bermondsey" Billy Wells, British welterweight champion last night easily defeated "Chick" Roach of Vallejo and gave fight fans a boxing lesson in eight rounds. Opening his attack in the first round, the British champion hammered the head and body of the coast fighter from that on. Roach was game but was unable to put up an effective defense against Wells' attack. When the referee raised the glove of the victor at the end of the eighth, Roach had cuts under both eyes, his face was cut to ribbons and his body plainly showed the persistence of Wells' hammering. Roach placed some nice blows and was always trying.

California Joe Lynch won the six round bout with Al Irish and Sammy Compagne got the decision in six slashing rounds with Bobby Ertle.

LEWIS MAY BE LAME

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 10.—Possibility that Ed (Strangler) Lewis, former world heavy weight wrestling champion, who suffered severe sprains and injuries about the base of his spine when hurled from the ring by Wayne (Big) Munn, new champion, may be lame the rest of his life, was expressed today by Lewis physicians.

It is too early to say definitely whether Lewis is injured permanently" said Dr. Terry Lilly who heads the staff of physicians attending the former champion. "More than a week may pass before we ascertain the exact extent of Lewis' hurts. Altho it is possible Lewis' conditions may suddenly turn for the worse, we do not expect the crisis for several days."

The former champion spent a restful night at St. Lukes hospital, where he was taken in an ambulance following the match Thursday night. No complications have developed thus far, physician say.

PROCEED RAPIDLY WITH GOLF COURSE

December rains have made it possible to proceed more rapidly with the work of the golf course of Parkridge Country club, located in the vicinity of Riverside and Corona, John Duncan Dunn, golf architect, who is under contract to construct the course, announces that the rough work and grading of the first seven holes has been completed. Seeding will be done immediately following the completion of the water system, which is now under way. It is expected that the first nine holes will be ready for playing in the spring.

Parkridge Country club is the new Community Country club which will immediately serve the counties of Orange and Riverside, as well as cater to many Los Angeles and Long Beach golfers who will be attracted to the club because of its comfortable and superior golfing facilities. The club is sponsored by Dan Gilkey, capitalist, who has been termed "The Henry Ford of Golf" because of his activities in putting the game within reach of the average citizen.

FAIRBANKS FILM DIRECTOR DEAD

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10—Motion picture circles throughout southern California were stunned today by the announcement of the death of Irvin J. Martin, art director of the Douglas Fairbanks studio, who succumbed to a lingering attack of illness last night at the Tu Junga sanitarium and rest home at Sunland.

Martin's death came shortly after it was believed he had passed the crisis of a serious illness. Partially recovering from the attack, the director retired to a sanitarium a week ago to convalesce. Yesterday, he suffered a relapse which ended in his death.

Martin was one of the best known art directors in the profession. Many of the striking effects now in general use in the film world were originated and developed by him. As a builder of motion picture sets Martin was declared to be without a peer from the standpoint of artistry.

The director is survived by his father, a resident of New Rochelle, N.Y.

GIFT NITE GIVES GREAT PROMISE

Again has that popular weekly event at the California Theater rolled around, gift night, and this evening more than $100 worth of gifts will be distributed. As the list is made up of worth while articles, Saturday night is one of the most popular of the week, and pictures to please a critical audience will be shown. The "Flaming Forties," is a picturization of Bret Harte's story, "Tennessee's Pardner" in which Harry Carey has the leading role, and to which he is so well suited. Jaqueline Gadson is leading woman for Carey, with William Norton Bailey, James Mason, Frank Norcross and Wilbur Higby and other important roles.

A Go-Getter comedy gives spice to the program, an Aesop's fable and "Into the Net" serial makes up a diversified entertainment for the evening.

NOVELTY MUSICAL AT CALIFORNIA

For Sunday only the California has booked a big Novelty Musical in the "Queen Tut Trio."

SPORTS DONE BROWN

BY NORMAN E. BROWN

The Yankee manager faces the task of filling the shoes of Everett Scott, veteran shortstop, before another season rolls around. Scott insists that he has another big year left in his legs. He may have in his heart but Huggins realizes the earnest one cannot pound the infield turf many more years at his old speed.

And the man Huggins is much interested in at this time in connection with the shortfield problem is Hal Rhyne, scintillating shortstop of the San Francisco team last season.

Rhyne's fielding was superb. His hitting seemed of big league caliber. Scouts who reported on him said that he should be able to hit around .300 in the big show his first season.

The stumbling block in negotiations for the youngster is the price. Blind to the signs of the times the Frisco club is demanding a fancy price for Rhyne. Huggins, with a row of "buts" floating before his mind's eye, hesitates to call on the New Year treasury for $75,000 or $100,000 for another gamble. He is watching the "market" however.

STILL PAY 1812 WAR PENSIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The federal government is still paying pensions on account of the war of 1812, which ended more than a century ago, according to Pension Bureau records.

With the longer lives assured by modern health conditions, the government may be expected to be still paying insurance growing out of the recent word war in the year 2030.

None of the actual veterans of the war of 1812 are still alive, but the Pension Bureau is paying pensions to 29 widows of veterans of that war. The oldest pensioner on the rolls is Mahala Huff of Louisa, Ky., widow of James Huff, a private in the Virginia militia in the war of 1812. She is 105 years old and until she dies will draw $30 a month from the government.
