BIG BANNERS ADVERTISE FRUIT EXPO

Stepping Right Along With Preparations for Valencia Show

With street banners already suspended in Brea, Fullerton, Pomona and Hawaiian Gardens, the management of the California Valencia Orange Show is about to hang show banners also in Pasadena, Long Beach and Santa Ana.

According to Herman Stern, chairman of the executive committee and manager, these banners have never been used before in adjoining communities.

Today Division Engineer Spencer V. Cortelyou of the state highway commission called on Chairman Stern and gave him the official permission of the commission to hang these banners across the State highways.

"California Valencia Orange Show May 22-June 1" is the legend and tens of thousands of people will read it. The plan is that of Chairman Stern himself. On the bottom of the banner, of the town in question has an exhibit, appears something like this: "Visit the Pomona Exhibit at the Show."

Only some 22 spaces out of the 143 in the industrial tent remain unsold. Stern declared today.

While exhibits in the citrus tent are always a surety, Stern gave out today the names of several additional exhibitors—City of Pasadena, City of Los Angeles, So. Calif. Gladiola Assn. Calif. Avocado Assn., and Orange Co. Harbor C. of C.

A distinct and beautiful novelty in the way of decorative exhibits will be that of the Gladiola Assn., to consist of baskets, some of them of huge size, made up of actual oranges and filled with these magnificent flowers.

Other features in the citrus tent will consist of by-products exhibits.

On Monday, May 25, it is the intention of the entertainment committee to have all the radio artists of the day on KHJ appear in person in Anaheim and give a concert.

Harry Hammond Beall of Los Angeles is expected to handle the newspaper publicity. Negotiations are nearly complete.

On May 30 the Sciots of Calif. will be hosts at the grounds to all the Masonic bodies represented in Calif., from the Blue Lodge to the Shrine, for they are expected to attend the Shrine convention at Los Angeles early in June.

Uncle John, of KHJ is to make announcements of the show the first seven or eight days preceding its opening. Snappy statements in the form of news items will be the form used.

Work on the permanent entrance is steadily progressing today, and the stucco covering and artistic design are expected to add markedly to the attractiveness of the grounds.

Postponement of the Oxnard Lemon show to early in June so as not to conflict with the Orange show was announced by Chairman Stern.

Kaiser Still "His Imperial Majesty"

LONDON, April 14.—In one of the few direct communications to the outside world, authorized by the former German kaiser since his exile in Doorn, Wilhelm Hohenzollern today informed the United Press that he was not supporting the presidential aspirations of General Hindenburg and inferred that he had not released the former field marshal from his oath of allegiance to the throne.

This information came at first hand from Colonel Kleist, acting chief of the ex-kaiser's household, and it was noticeable that Wilhelm clung to his imperial title, referring to himself as "his imperial majesty."

DAM BREAKS, INUNDATES CITIES

FLAT ROCK, Mich., April 14—The breaking of the temporary part of a new dam being constructed by the Detroit Edison Co. near Ypsilanti yesterday has inundated several cities of the Hocking Valley, lying between the dam and Lake Erie. The Edison dam held a six mile artificial lake, which was rushed through a 150 break during the night.

Guards at the gate telephoned ample warning to state troopers who notified all residents of the valley. Only one small shack below the Edison dam is known to have been swept away. Several others are surrounded by water.

The Ford Motor Co.'s dam here opened its immense safety gates and permitted the flood waters to pass on towards Lake Erie, seven miles distant.

Except for sweeping a newly constructed road, no spectacular damage was done.

SEEK CLEWS ON WOMAN'S DEATH

CHICAGO, April 14—Galveston, Texas, is being searched for clews that may throw light on the death of Mrs. Emmo McClintock, it was revealed today by the state's attorney's office. Mrs. McClintock, who died 16 years ago, was taken ill in Bay View, Texas, while she was assisted by William D. Shepherd in building a summer home.

State's Atty. Robert E. Crowe hopes to receive a report of the analysis of the vital organs of Dr. Oscar Olson. Coroner Oscar Wolff already had reported that bichloride of mercury was found in Mrs. McClintock's body. Just as soon as a definite report is made on the examination of the doctor's body, the inquest into the death of Billy McClintock, "millionaire orphan," will be resumed.

Eating, and Not Drinking, is Curse of America, Says Depew

NEW YORK, April 14.—Eating and not drinking, is the curse of America.

This is the conclusion of Chauncey M. Depew, who reaches the age of 91 on April 26. Writing in Colliers Weekly, the veteran statesman says:

"Drinking was never really the curse of America. Eating was and is. I found that I ate too much when I was 60. One day I discovered that I felt unwell. On the principle of settling a present problem to take care of the future I revised my diet. For 30 years, the only meat I've eaten has been poultry."

At 65, Depew says, he had another bad day—so off went the cigar habit.

At 88 he had another bad day.

"This time," Depew writes, "analysis showed that alcohol was the trouble. I had made a habit of drinking a pint of champagne a day. But at 88 it interfered with health and efficiency. Reluctantly but decisively I cut out the wine. Now I take a glass when a cold threatens, but apart from that I'm a total abstainer."

BRIAND WILL NOT FORM CABINET

Painleve Again Invited To Attempt to Form Government

PARIS, April 14.—President Doumergue this evening invited M. Painleve, president of the Chamber of Deputies, to attempt formation of a new cabinet.

This was the second time Painleve had been asked to accept the premiership. He refused the first time, saying he would not undertake the task unless the national interests were threatened by a prolonged ministerial crisis.

Briand this evening informed president Briand that he could not undertake the task of forming a cabinet.

Refusal of the Socialists to join a government with Briand as premier caused the latter to give up his attempts to form a ministry.

HELD FOR 32 CRIMES IN 6 YEARS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 14—Police today reopened investigation of 32 crimes committed over a period of six years while William Sheffey, 32, was held without bail in the county jail at London on a technical charge of criminal assault.

The crimes for which police believe he is guilty, include seven murders and a long list of shootings, homes entered and women inmates attacked.

Sheffey was held on evidence gathered by Ed Jones, a private detective. Similarity of circumstances in the crimes led Jones to believe they were committed by Sheffey, he informed the police.

One of the crimes Jones accuses Sheffey of committing is the attack upon Mrs. Clyde Poe last December. The husband was shot as he arose in bed. While he lay mortally wounded, the intruder attacked Mrs. Poe.

Another case almost similar is the shooting of Luther Wells and the attack on his wife a year ago at Marysville. Evidence which police claim connects Sheffey with the crimes is a series of anonymous letters received by J. C. McCampbell, former sheriff of Blount County.

The letters told the sheriff to tell "the women to scream so I can have an excuse to shoot and get some fun out of it."

Neighbors of Sheffey told the police they saw him leave the house frequently at midnight and return at dawn.

Detectives claim on these midnight excursions he wore a bullet proof vest under his coat.

KILL FRISCO ATTEMPT TO LAND ROAD

Ask $1,500,000 Included In Amendment to Breed Bill

SACRAMENTO, April 14.—San Francisco's attempt to amend the Bred bill to include an allocation of $1,500,000 for the bay shore highway failed in the senate today. Following the ballot on the amendment, introduced by Senator Victor Canepa of San Francisco, the senate recessed until 2:30 p.m., at which time debate on the breed gasoline tax increase of one cent will be resumed.

Canepa declared the members of the San Francisco delegation were attempting, through the amendment, to obtain aid on the road which originally had been promised them for their support of the Breed bill.

Opposition to the amendment was voiced not only by Breed, but by several other proponents of the tax increase. "Adopt the amendment and kill the gasoline tax increase," Senator Breed declared in his attack on the proposed change.

An interesting angle developed when Senator M. B. Johnson of Burlingame spoke against the amendment. Johnson declared that altho his district would be greatly affected through construction of the road, he felt it was unfair to attach the provision on the gas tax measure.

Prior to the introduction of the amendment Sen. Breed made the opening speech for the passage of his measure.

"There is no question but what additional highway funds will be necessary" Senator Breed asserted. "And I feel that the increased gasoline tax is the most equitable and easiest to deal with."

Attempt by opponents of the gasoline tax increase to obtain a postponement of the senate's consideration of the Breed bill until Thursday failed by an overwhelming viva voce vote.

"OLD HOME TOWN" ROMANCE ENDED

LOS ANGELES, April 14.—A romance which started years ago in the "old home town" back in Kansas, terminated abruptly today when Paul C. Cress was granted a divorce from Virginia May Cress.

According to Cress' testimony, the couple knew each other in Elmo, Kansas, but Mrs. Cress had been married, widowed and had two children when they met years later in Long Beach, California.

"She had told some of her friends that we were married" Cress testified, "and when we were both called as witnesses in court, she told me it would be embarrassing unless we really got married before the trial.

"We did, but about an hour later, she went back to her Long Beach home, and refused to live with me."

Democrats Banquet

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 14. Complete harmony prevailed at the Jefferson day dinners given here last night by the Jefferson Democratic club and the young men's democratic club and addressed by prominent party leaders from various parts of the country.

Reports that the dinners—one given by women democrats and the other by the young men of the party were to develop into factional scraps were proved false by the spirit of the "love feasts."

A total of 240 pounds, or enough spaghetti laid in a row to reach from San Diego to Portland, was consumed by the frenzied eaters.

Madalynne Field finished a close second to Guyris consuming 10 pounds and two ounces of the Sicilian cabbage in a space of 11 minutes.

Several contestants were disqualified for spilling more than the allowed quota of the slippery food on their shirt or waist fronts.

The gastronomic event was held in connection with the Los Angeles food show.

NEW YORK, April 14—The popularity of baseball was once more demonstrated today by the enormous crowds that turned out in eight major league parks to witness the opening games of the season.

According to estimates gathered by the United Press at game time, 295,000 fans were on hand at the outset of the American and National league pennant races.

"Play ball."

With this staccato cry of the umps echoing across eight major league diamonds today, the dismal winter that has barred hundreds of thousands of enthusiasts from viewing their favorite pastime, formally came to a close and spring came into being.

For two months the sixteen clubs which compose the top layer of balldom have been practicing their wares for edification of southerners and extreme westerners. But those earl diamond exploits faded into insignificance today when the teams lined up in a five and a half month struggle for championship buntings.

All eight of the scheduled encounters were permitted by the weatherman, a sign the Gods that watch over baseball are in good humor. Only four times in the past twelve years has fortune thus smiled upon the major leagues.

But he found it to have quite a "kick", and he brushed another car and ran into a telephone pole, which resulted in the trio being arrested. Roach was released on his own recognizance, and Kenney and Kennedy on a bail of $25 each, for arraignment April 21.

J. A. Eubanks, arrested on a charge of breaking a bottle on the pavement, entered a plea of guilty, and paid $25. Police are said to have been chasing him on the charge of possession of liquor.

FINER FRUIT WITH NEW IRR. SYSTEM

An overhead irrigation system, the first in Anaheim district, has been installed by M. O. Robertson on his ranch two miles west of Anaheim on the West Button road, and Robertson invites ranchers to come and witness the first demonstration of the new system next Thursday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Orange Co. ranchers already have shown that better and larger fruit and larger crops are possible with this method.

Practically all the pipe is up. There is 13,000 feet of it on the ten acres, and the cost of the system was something over $2,500.

Other ranchers have been watching Robertson's improvement, and C. M. Hollingshead is preparing to install a similar one himself.

Robertson was obliged to put in a new pressure pump for the purpose. It has a capacity of 180 gallons a minute under 60 pounds pressure.

There is a pipe with top sprinkler every fourth tree, the sprinkler being from 13 to 15 feet high, according to the height of the tree.

Hereafter Robertson won't have have to prepare the ground for irrigation, altho theusual cultivation otherwise will be required. The irrigation ordinarily will be performed in the evening, starting around 5 o'clock.

At the pump the main is five inches in diameter and at its terminal three inches, while the laterals are an inch in diameter at the junction with the main and half an inch at the sprinkler tops.

HEAD OF PRISON BOARD IS SILENT

Back from San Francisco and the north yesterday, where the Anaheimer had a long interview with Pres. Wm Smith of the State Prison Board, George Varnum, local attorney, declared that official was "adamant in preserving the secrecy surrounding the proceedings subsequent to the public trial.

"It is still a mystery," says Varnum, "why the board released in six months when the average sentence is 13 years. I am quite convinced if the proceedings were open and above board as are the court proceedings in Orange co that such a thing could not occur and a board be able to survive public indignation."

Dr. Whitted is the former Santa Ana dentist convicted of a statutory offense.

ANAHEIM GETS '25 ARMISTICE PARADE

Orange County Council of the American Legion has definitely decided that Anaheim puts on the Armistice Day celebration this year. Most citizens know what a gorgeous spectacle was put on at Orange in 1923 when the historical pageant was first attempted and which was far excelled both in magnitude and beauty at Huntington Beach last year. This year the veterans expect to exceed all former parades. It is thru Anaheim efforts that this annual celebration originated five years ago.

This parade will be one of the features of Anaheim this year. Pictures of the parade will be sent to the American Legion Weekly for publication. There are approximately 900,000 members of the Legion, each of whom will receive a copy.

The parade committee of Anaheim Post has met and got under way plans for the parade and will be busy from now until Nov. 11.

Judge Morrison sentenced two other Mexicans to jail Saturday for six months, both being found guilty of stealing avocadoes.

Arrested by Ed. McClellen, chief criminal deputy sherriff, on charges of being drunk, Paul Lugo and Frank Palatoga of Delhi today had paid fines of $30 each in Justice Morrisons court at Santa Ana, where they pleaded guilty to the charges.

Hearts and Dollars

Two Statements—one of which has to do with Health and Welfare, the other with Financial Strength

AN OPEN LETTER

(Name on Request)

MR. HALEY FISKE, President
METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE CO.
NEW YORK CITY

My Dear Mr. Fiske:

Why don't you publish a Heart Statement along with the regular Financial Statement you put out each year?

Any company can publish impressive figures of financial strength, financial growth, etc. But figures don't stick. All I remember from your last year's Statement is that the Metropolitan has several million policyholders and is the biggest life insurance company in the world.

I've been following some of your magazine advertisements lately that tell of work you're doing to help people live longer. It isn't entirely clear in my mind just how you're doing it or why you do it, but since you are doing it, give us the facts and figures on that. Call it a Heart Statement or a Welfare Statement, or anything you like, but—give us the facts.

Perhaps other Metropolitan policyholders like myself would be interested in a Statement of that kind.

Very truly yours,
C. N. S——.

WE are indebted to Mr. S. for his suggestion. It is an excellent one. We publish an annual Business Statement of the Metropolitan, not because we think that the figures will be remembered, but because they offer conclusive evidence of unusual growth and strength to its 22,000,000 policyholders.

And it is this extraordinary financial strength that makes it possible for the Metropolitan to carry on a nation-wide campaign for better health and longer life.

People now live longer

Records kept by the Metropolitan show an extraordinary decrease in the death rate among its policyholders. Compared with 1911, for example, there were nearly 62,000 fewer deaths in 1924 among its Industrial Policyholders than there would have been if the 1911 death rate had prevailed.

While the average life span in the United States is 5¼ years greater than it was 12 years ago, the life span of the Industrial Policyholders of the Metropolitan increased nearly 8½ years—a betterment of three years over the general average—in the same interval.

These increases in longer life are due in large part to the Metropolitan's Health and Welfare Work among its policyholders.

You are the gainer

You and all the other 22,000,000 policyholders—one out of every six people in the United States and Canada—reap the benefit through better health and decreased cost of insurance.

The wealth of the Metropolitan belongs to you and to no one else. The Metropolitan has no stock and no stockholders. It is owned solely by its policyholders. You, as one of the policyholders, share in the ownership of all its investments; in its railroad bonds, its real-estate mortgages, its loans to farmers, loans to states, cities and towns for public improvements and similar enterprises.

You, as a part-owner of over $1,600,000,000, should read the two statements on the left with a feeling of pride in what your company has achieved.

The efforts as well as the assets of the Metropolitan are dedicated to protection against future want—to greater happiness, better health and longer life.

Haley Fiske.
President

THREE YEAR OLD ROBERT HEIN HAS PARTY

THREE fleeting years have gone since Master Robert Hein, jr., came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hein, of West Center-st., and as the young chap is now old enough to realize the fun in a birthday party, his mother invited in a company of his best friends to help make it a real success. Orange was the chosen color for decoration used in flowers, favors and place cards.

An egg hunt resulted in each guest finding a good supply, then games and music had their places in the afternoon. Refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream, candies were served later. The cake was a pretty one which gladdened the eyes of the other little folk as well as Robert. It was white and three sturdy orange candles winked and nodded at each other of their pride in serving on so happy an occasion.

The happy group was composed of Martha Eisner, Anna Clara Mauerhan, Lillian and Verna Gaus, Calvin and Fay Whitmer, Pearl Zimmerman, Fern Hein, Frances Hein, Evelyn Hartfield, Grace Mauerhan, Margaret Hein and the youthful host.

Robert received many presents and was a very happy, if tired little chap after everyone had said goodbye. Several snapshots were taken of the jolly crowd.

Gym Class Grows

The Women's Gym class, organized less than two weeks ago, had a large number of new members present last evening at the regular meeting held in the high school. The class had 50 the first night and 65 last evening. The program was followed as outlined and for from being wearied when the stipulated time was up, the ladies clamoured for more, so Miss Jacques quickly organized two basket ball teams which put up a peppy game.

The ladies looked very nifty in their regulation bloomers, middies or smocks, according to individual choice and went through the calisthenics with fervor. The folk dances, too, were popular.

That Miss Jacques has struck a responsive chord in launching gymnasium work for women is well attested and she has received assurance of a yet larger class for next Monday night.

Entertain at Breakfast

Twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bobst were their guests Easter morning when they entertained at a delicious breakfast in their pretty home at Harding. The dining room was at its loveliest as the sunshine filled room was enhanced with yellow and white flowers, bunnies, chickens and Easter eggs furthered the motif.

A menu of ham and eggs, hot cross buns, hot biscuits, jam and jelly and steaming coffee were served. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bobst and son, Raydel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Green and children, Wilda, Alta and Donalda; Harry Foster and Miss Arline Bobst, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Edna Bobst and Lillian, Mabel and Irvine, of Bellflower; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, and the host and hostess. Mrs. Bobst was assisted by Mrs. Don Green and Mrs. Harry Allen. Mrs. Bobst will be remembered as Miss Evelyn Samis before her marriage.

History Section Wed.

At the meeting of the history section with Mrs. F. G. Peck, 114 South Illinois-st., Wednesday, everyone is asked to come prepared to tell something of the Aztecs and their civilization. Mrs. C. C. Smith and Mrs. John Kellenberger will have papers and a discussion will close the program.

At Anaheim sanitarium, Billie Calahan, Anaheim; and Miss Evelyn Snodgrass, Huntington Beach.

Diatitian at P-T.A.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Garden Grove Union high school P.-T. A., Mrs. J. V. Kelser, president, a very interesting program was given with Dr. Frank McCoy, noted diet specialist of Los Angeles, as the honor guest.

Prof. M. R. Sprinkle gave credit to the pupils of the domestic science classes who attended Dr. McCoy's lecture and took notes of the proper combination of foods, correct physical culture exercises etc., advocated by Dr. McCoy.

A copy of "The Fast Way to Health," by Dr. McCoy, was presented to the high school library by Mrs. Soula Cook, Dr. McCoy's personal representative.

The program opened with four cantos from the cantata, "Mondah-min," an American Indian legend by Paul Bliss, excellently sung by the Garden Grove high school girls' Glee club. Katherine Kirvin played a violin solo after Dr. McCoy's address.

Whooping It Up

Whoopee! Mrs. H. C. Rulck has the whoopingcough! Ordinarily Mrs. Ruick is not one bit childish, and probably did not plan this demonstration, but she is taking an enforced vacation from all social duties, in which she is very active, and puts in her time merrily enjoying the sad sea waves which lash the shore of her home city, Redondo.

Mrs. Ruick's physician has warned her to have no contact with children. But the disease is not so contagious to grownups, so if her adult friends care to take a little risk she will welcome them heartily. Mrs. Ruick says she is "miserable" in a note to a friend, having taken a little cold with her illness. Messages of sympath "telepathed" to her from Anaheim friends will surely prove beneficial.

Easter Egg Hunt

There was a jolly little crowd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hawkins on Park-ave Buena Park Saturday afternoon, the occasoln being an Easter egg hunt given in honor of their daughter, Elsie. Pink carnations and white roses were the decorations.

Gaming and egg hunts claimed attention until all were invited into the dining room where dainty refreshments were served.

Those who enjoyed the hunt with Elsie and her little sister, Eloise were Ethelyne Lucas, Virginia Robeson, Evelyn Nuttall, Dorothy and Virginia Worley, Louise Spohn, Donna Morriety and Polly Upshaw.

Easter on S. P. Trains

Children traveling on Southern Pacific limited trains were all presented with baskets of Easter eggs Easter morning, as hundreds of candy bunnies and eggs were distributed aboard the company's trains. Easter egg hunts were staged on the trains, according to a letter written aboard by a mother en route east to an Anaheim friend, and special Easter menus were served to the diners.

Delicious Sunday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Don Green, of Harding, entertained several freinds at dinner Sunday, which, on account of the excellent 10 o'clock breakfast at the home of their friends, the Bobsts, was set for 3 p.m. Covers were marked with appropriate cards for eight, including Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, Miss Arline Bobst and Harry Foster, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Don Green and children, Wilda, Alta and Donalda.

The dinner included roast pork and the many good things that add to a tasty menu.

R. N.'s Card Party

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN PULPIT INSPIRES PARTY

BESIDES the many rewards received during his quarter century of activities as a minister, the Rev G. G. Schmid, pastor of Anaheim Evangelical church received one of the very best last evening when he was made guest of honor at a surprise party.

Rev. Schmid has rounded out his twenty-five years of service in the ministry in various communities. He began in a church in Highland Park, Ill., and has been particularly successful all through the years. Coming to Anaheim two years ago, he at once seemed to fill every need of the position, and became a general favorite with all ages, from eldest to youngest.

The meeting was a regular rehearsal of the choir, so Rev. Schmid thought, and joined in the songs, for ministers love to sing as well as to preach. But when 150 members of the congregation filed into the bungalow, Rev. Schmid was certainly taken by surprise and required several seconds to "come back." The pastor was presented with a wonderously beautiful bouquet, and in expressing his thanks likened friendships to the lovely blooms, colorful, beautiful, fragrant, and though sometimes fading in time, growing sweeter with age. He then changed to open the envelope which he thought contained the names of the doners, perhaps, and found enclosed the neat little sum of one hundred dollars. He was again taken off his guard and all pretty speeches deserted him for the moment.

Rev. J. Behrens a close friend of Rev. Schmid's, was master of ceremonies.

Rev. Langford, of Fullerton, who has been associated with Rev. Schmid in religious work in Sacramento, told of their friendship and his gain in the co-operation.

L. Perry Mathis, a collegemate of Rev. Schmid's in Naperville, Ill., was present with a message of congratulation and many a good work. A prayer and a song concluded the program.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the young ladies of the congregation and a happy hour of informality and visiting brought the pleasant event to a close.

Librarian to Speak

The regular Orangethorpe P.-T. A. meeting is on Friday, April 17, beginning at 2:30. Election of officers is a schedule important business matter. A circulating library was recently established in the school through the cooperation of the P.-T. A. and the district. Miss Livingston, librarian, will be present with a talk on books.

The teachers will be in charge of the program and it is urged that all parents of the school make this meeting a school visiting day.

Party for Boys

Boys of the junior department in the Sherwood School of Music, who are pupils of Miss Stella E. Schwentker, and who won in the April points contest between the boys and girls, were treated to an Easter party in the studio Saturday.

An egg hunt followed a short music program then games and a lively frolic. Refreshments appropriate to the Easter season were served.

A prize was awarded to Walter Larsen for making the best progress during the month. Boo participating in the party were Marshall Beebe, Walter and Henry Larsen, Winston and Stanley Porter, Elmer Thill, Bobby Wallis, Allen Wallace, Roderick Royer, Bobbie Clapp and Rosser Williams.

W. Harding Club Meets

The West Harding club met with Mrs. E. A. Hubbard and the ladies devoted their time to the homely but helpful task of mending for the hostess. They were rewarded with dainty refreshments of jello coffee and cake besides the pleasure of lending a helping hand and jolly visiting in the meantime.

Members present were the Mesdames Robert Stephens, C. P. Poole, Raymond Bobst, Harry Allen, Don Green, Vernon Bobst and the hostess.

Missionary Lunch Day

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will serve a special luncheon at 12:30 Thursday in the church dining room and all their friends are asked to join with them. A price of unusual small figure has been set, the object being more for the pleasure of lunching together than for the financial return. All wishing to participate are asked to phone Mrs. Gobbs, 407, and be sure of "plenty of elbow room."

The program after luncheon will be very fine as a returned missionary from India will relate her experiences and several special musical numbers are scheduled.

Week at Mountain Home

DAILY GREETING TO OUR READERS

He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.—Proverbs 11.26.

One small life in God's great plan,
How futile it seems as the ages roll,
Do what it may, or strive how it can,
To alter the sweep of the infinite whole!
A single stitch in an endless web,
A drop in the oceans flow and ebb!
But the pattern is rent where the stitch is lost,
Or marred where the tangled threads are crossed;
And each life that fails of its true intent
Mars the perfect plan that its Master meant.
—Susan Coolidge.

CONTROLLING THE WORLD

The suggestion of General Lord Thomas, who was secretary of aeronautics in the late labor ministry in England, that the United States and Great Britain co-operate in aviation and thus practically control the whole world, since the territorial possessions of the two powers encircle the globe, comes as a surprise from a man who is an earnest advocate of the League of Nations, for the plan, if carried out, would be a most flagrant violation of the principles of the covenant.

We are interested in the development of American aviation for commercial advancement and for national defense, but America has no desire to unite with any country for the purpose of controlling the world.

Bronze is an alloy of copper and tin, but some of the bronzed washers on the beach seem to be almost wholly brass.

WATER SUPPLY PLENTY FOR SUMMER

Recent rains, with snows in mountains, assure plenty of water for the domestic, irrigation and power needs of Southern California, particularly for this county. Even though there should be no more precipitation before the normal dry season begins, this section will fare well as to water supply. But there is likelihood of additional showers in April and May. So there is no reason for apprehension on this score.

With the truth back of them, residents of Southern California well may bombard the East with letters and facts about the water supply here and about conditions here in general. It might be well to anticipate another onslaught against this state by unfair falsifying critics. Let the rest of the country know the truth about California. Make it impossible for falsehoods to gain ground by anticipating them with indisputable facts.

California must protect itself systematically against misrepresentations. There are shrewd interests and subtle forces at work, in Eastern states, to divert tourist and homeseeker travel from California. This state must protect itself against this insidious campaign of detraction.

Test a man in his honesty and if he stands the test he can be trusted implicitly.

California, as a state, is 5 years old. But it doesn't look to be a year over "sweet 16."

A ROOF measured in years!

THE final cost of roof can be measured in terms of years only. The maintenance cost, for the entire life of the roof, plus the initial cost is what counts.

Because Pioneer Yosemite Asphalt Shingles go right over the old roof and because they do give years of trouble-free service their final cost is amazingly low. Crushed stone, from Yosemite, in red, green, blue and golden brown, laid over asphalt, endows these shingles with enduring beauty, unyielding flexibility and final economy. They are sold by all lumber, hardware and building material dealers for both new homes and re-roofing.

COMMENTS of the PRESS
What Editors Are Saying

EUROPE'S CORRIDOR OF WAR—Chicago Tribune

The Danzig corridor is causing another flareup in Europe. It gives Poland free access to the sea through the free port of Danzig and it divides the people of East Prussia from the rest of Germany by a broad strip of territory under allen control.

It is virtually as if the Hudson ran to Montreal and the United States had been forced, as the result of defeat in war, to accept an allenation of its territory, providing the English, French, or whoever might have Canada, a waterway to the free port of New York, splitting New England off from the rest of the country. The cradle of the Nation in the North would be cut off from the rest of the land, a great port taken away, and an allen strip driven through the heart of the East.

That is what the treaty makers did to the eastern part of Prussia. It is such a thing as makes wars, but it is not a thing which endures unless the defeated nation has forever lost its strength. The victors decided that Poland must have a port and that there must be an open route by which Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, and Roumania could be supported, reinforced and supplied in case Russia attacked. That would have to be either across Germaan territory which the Germans resist, or by the sea to Danzig.

Germany naturally wants to re-unite to it the separated part of East Prussia, the New England of the country. The Poles are prepared to use force to keep the corridor, and even to seize the free town of Danzig.

We used to say "The Mississippi shall flow unvexed to the sea." The mouth of it could not be French or Spanish. Its banks could not have French or Spanish posts of garrisons. A vexed river will cause wars. If a vexed river had New England cut off from the rest of us there would be a war here, sooner or later, to drive the invader out.

HEALTH AND DIET ADVICE
By Dr. Frank McCoy
Author of "THE PAST WAY TO HEALTH"

LETTUCE is the most commonly used salad vegetable, but from several standpoints, it is not the best. Lettuce contains a larger amount of water than any of the other salad vegetables, and less of the organic minerals. In order to supply enough of these minerals, a large amount must be eaten at one time. Now, lettuce contains a certain hypnotic agent, called hyoscymine, which has a deadening effect upon the nerves of the stomach if used in large quantities. If a large supply of lettuce is taken at any one meal, the hypnotic effect of this chemical will manifest itself by a drowsiness that will become apparent shortly after the meal is eaten. Digestion will be retarded, and because of this and other food used will ferment more easily, and it may safely be said that those whose digestive powers are weakened in any way will be well advised to content themselves with very small amounts of lettuce. However, this ill effect does not appear to be at all pronounced if only a small quantity of lettuce is eaten at any one time, and it may be used quite often as a garnish for the rest of the salad. I do not know of any other dietitian who has brought out this point about lettuce, but I assure you that I have checked up sufficiently on the truth of it, so that if you are "a walking gas factory" you had better set a strict limit to your ration of lettuce.

NASTURTIUM LEAVES AND FLOWERS may be added to a salad and used as a garnish. Both the leaves and the flowers may be eaten, and they impart an agreeable flavor to any salad.

ENDIVES are a very good leafy salad vegetable, and should be used in preference to lettuce as a succulent vegetable wherever it is possible to secure them.

PROMINENT LOCAL WOMAN DECEASES

The many friends of Mrs. Helen Hatfield will be saddened to hear of her death which occurred Saturday at 8 p. m. at the home of her brother-in-law, Joseph H. Hatfield and Mrs. Hatfield, at Wilmer station, near Alhambra, where she had received their loving care for several weeks, following her removal from the hospital.

Her illness has covered a period of several years, and she had many times expressed the wish that she might pass on by Easter. Only within the few days previous to her death was it discovered she suffered with cancer in addition to other complications. Her children and grandchildren were all at her bedside during her last moments, and very beautifully and very happily she passed on.

Mrs. Hatfield is survived by two children, Mrs. Alta Parrett and Mr. Norton Hatfield, both having homes here. The husband passed away seven years ago. She was a very ardent member of the Presbyterian church and enjoyed her church life to the utmost. She much enjoyed her many dear friends who sent her flowers and comforting messages.

Mrs. Hatfield was born in Cottonville, Iowa, Oct. 18, 1860. Her early married life was devoted to caring for the sick and lending a helping hand wherever one was needed. The family lived on a ranch northwest of town for many years after coming to Anaheim in 1885, and later built a home on North Clementine-st., where they have since resided.

Funeral services were held today in the Backs, Terry & Campbell chapel at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Thomas H. Walker officiating. Interment was in Loma Vista.

Certain glands preside over certain physiological functions. Disease of these glands may alter or destroy these functions. Administering extracts of the glands may restore the lost functions — partially, but rejuvenation of the need by gland transplantation is just pure bunk.

Your Cross Word Puzzle

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS WORD PUZZLE

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram.

Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown on the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterruptedly.

Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the spaces remain uninterruptedly.

CAPTURE $450,000 WORTH OF LIQUOR

NEW YORK, April 14—Captured after a thrilling 12 hour chase, during which shots were fired, the British three-masted schooner Madeline Adams, with $450,000 worth of liquor on board, was brot into this port today.

This latest dent in rum row was made after, it is alleged, the commander of the Madeline Adams had attempted to land 500 cases of whiskey by bribing the crew of a coast guard cutter.

The Madeline Adams, with 9000 cases of liquor aboard is now at anchor off the statue of Liberty awaiting arraignment of its commander on a bribery charge.

GREAT MELODRAMA AT UNITED THEATRE

"On the Stroke of Three" tht startling melodrama that is the talk of the country will be featured picture attraction at the United Theatre tonight and tomorrow night. Madge Bellamy, Kenneth Harlan and Mary Carr play the principal roles and they are supported in fine style by John Milgan, Dorothy Dahn, Edward Davis and Eddie Phillips.

The story is a powerful tale with the scene laid in the rugged mountain country where the people are simple rural folks, and in the giddy whirl of New York's richest and most fashionable set. Across this background is thrown in delicate light and shadow the love story of Judson Forrest, big, square-shouldered young mountaineer, and Mary Waverley Jordan, daughter of Wall Street's most formidable financier. Young Forrest saves the life of the wealthy heiress, does not know her real status in life; which adds material to the tense situations, with which the story is filled. You will have thrills to your hearts content in this splendid picture.

"Hal'O The Hills" Great Comedy Success

The Keogh players opened a two day engagement at the United Theatre last night to a large audience, who thoroughly appreciated the snappy three-act comedy drama "Hal 'o the Hills." It has been a long time since such a clever story has been presented on the spoken stage of this city. Last night's performance demonstrated to the people of this city what a splendid organization the Keogh Players are composed of. It can well be seen after last night's enthusiastic reception that the Keogh Players have already won popularity with the people of Anaheim. Tonight will be the last time to see "Hal 'O the Hills" so don't fail to give yourself a real treat.

PORTER RELATES AIMS OF KIWANIS

"We Build Men of Character."
"We Cement Friendships."

These are the main objects of Kiwanis, Arthur Porter, local banker, told Kiwanians at their luncheon today, in the course of a discussion led by Porter and Dr. C. S. O'Toole on ways of improving the club's programs.

Few members appreciated the difficulties of the officers, according to Porter. Members should aid their chiefs in every way possible.

Dr. O'Toole thought the club was lacking in maintaining good attendance and in respect for speakers who addressed the members.

The feature of the luncheon was a skit, also put on by the educational committee, representing a court scene in the "district court of Kiwanis, "Homer Ames was judge; Tom McFadden district attorney; A. W. Franzen, bailiff; Harry Horn clerk.

McFadden filed a felony complaint against Dave Jesserun, whom he accused of murdering John Barleycorn. A. B. McCord acted as Jesserun's attorney. Examination of four of 12 possible jurors was featured. Ernest Gielow as Mr. Goodcitizen couldn't serve because he had a game of golf to play; Fred Backs, as Mr. Busy Businessman was too busy to act; F. B. Harden, as Mr. Riffraff, was accepted because he wanted the cash; and Art Cohen as Miss Flapper was also accepted.

Ames moved that the case be dismissed because of the jury's poor quality and the judge threw it out of court. The trial carried the lesson, said Ames, that citizens should not shirk their duties as jurors.

Charley Mann, president, was appointed alternate to the international convention at St. Paul. Election of an alternate to serve with or in place of Roscoe B. Young had been overlooked at the previous Kiwanis meeting.

A note of acknowledgement for sympathy in his recent bereavement was received from Homer Lewis, whose mother died recently.

"TODAY"

Is the last day that you can purchase "LIGHTNING" gasoline at 18½ cents a gallon, because tomorrow morning we dish it out at 21½ cents.

If you have already tried it once, we are not afraid of losing your business.

If you have not tried "LIGHTNING" yet, you are not doing yourself or your motor justice.

Just bear this in mind, that "LIGHTNING" is the result of nearly a year and a half of experimental work by one of the cleverest petroleum engineers of the world, in an attempt to produce a motor fuel superior to any gasoline ever marketed up to this time, "and he has."

While the process used in producing "LIGHTNING" is much more costly to us than ordinary gasoline, and while we must charge you a slight increase over the price of old method gas, we are working on the theory that the best in any product is none too good for the American people, and that you will patronize "SUPERIOR QUALITY" if you can be shown.

We are as sure as we are sure of our own name, that "LIGHTNING" will give you 35% more value than any other gasoline you have ever used, and on top of that, will save you many a garage bill on your motor.

"All we ask you to do is try it once and you be the judge."

SILVIA DIES OF PISTOL WOUND

Jesus Silvia, 40, of Stanton, died at his home this morning from a pistol wound alleged by authorities to have been inflicted early Friday morning at Stanton by P. H. Martinez, rival real estate operator, who is being held in the county jail on a charge of murder.

Silvia was taken to the county hospital for treatment, but upon showing signs of improvement was removed to his home yesterday.

An inquest is to be held at 4 p.m. at the mortuary in Anaheim of Backs, Terry and Campbell, Coroner Charles D. Brown announced.

Information in the hands of the officials is to the effect that Martinez, who appeared at the jail to give himself up and who received knife wounds, shot in self defense when Silvia attacked him with a long stillette. Enmity is said to have arisen between the two real estate agents because a Mexican circus located on Martinez' property, to the chagrin of Silvia.

—FINAL TIMES TONIGHT—
Norma Talmadge in "THE LADY"
DUDE MARTIN and His "Orange County Jazz Orchestra"

FINAL HOWING OF NORMA TALMADGE

Tonight is the final showing of Miss Norma Talmadge in her greatest achievement, "The Lady" is a story of the wild unreasoning passion of a wife who sees her husband stolen from her irretrievely; the uncontrollable grief of a mother whose baby is torn from her breast because she is deemed "unfit" to rear the child and reveals Norma Talmadge at her best in the role of a girl of the English Music Halls of 25 years ago.

It's a new Norma that you see in this masterpiece, a Norma who plumbs the heights and depths of human happiness and despair.

For laughing purposes or Harry Yangdon, the prince of comedians, is seen in his latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Feet of Mud." An International News completes the picture program.

"Dude" Martin and his Orangeco Jazz Orchestra" is the special added stage attraction and these nine young chaps, all from Anaheim and vicinity, have been making a tremendous big hit with the capacity crowds.

A beautiful scenic in and around Clear Lake, where the homesite that will be given away Thursday night is located, is also being shown.

Review March Sports

Various upsets featured March baseball. Ed Roush, world's most famous holdout, was signed and in training camp at an early date; hardly a manager complained of adverse training conditions; and the Phillies actually won an exhibition game.

The rookies in the South were like the weather in the North they came in the training camp like lions and passed out of the picture like lambs. Moses searching for the promised land had cinch compared to bushers trying to break into big leagues.

March casualty list was smaller than usual. Cincinnati outfielder sustained a broken arm while trying to talk his wife out of buying a Spring suit; Boston rookie slit his tongue trying to eat with a knife and fork at the same time, and owner of Philadelphia club fainted when he received his training table bill. At the Yankee camp an alligator, whose name was not learned, broke four of his teeth in attempting to feast on the skull of a recruit outfielder.

Paavo Nurmi was finally beaten by a restaurant chef. Flying Finn collapsed on running track after dining on veal pot pie.

Leading question in boxing world was whether Dempsey would fight or film. Jack made seventeen statements to the effect that he would fight and sixteen that he would not, which leaves little room for doubt.

"GIFT NIGHT" AT CALIF. WEDNESDAY

There are over $100 in real useful gifts to be distributed at the California Theatre on Wednesday night.

"Salome of the Tenements", Sidneys Olcott's new production for Paramount from the novel of New York life by Anzia Yezierska, which is showing at the California Wednesday and Thursday, brings to the screen a wide range and variety of players new to motion pictures, in addition to Jetta Goudal and Jose Ruben who have featured roles.

Godfrey Tearle, an actor prominent in British theatrical circles (yes, he's Conway's brother), makes his American debut in this picture, featured with Miss Goudal and Ruben in the leading roles. Tearle came to this country from London where he scored a big hit in the stage play "The Fake," a Frederick Lonsdale play which he brought to New York for a prolonged run.

Lazar Freed, Elihu Tenenholtz, Irma Lerner, Sonya Nodell and others, all prominent with the vast audiences of the Yiddish theatres in New York and other cities, have prominent parts in this latest Olcott production made at Paramount's Long Island studio.

"Salome of the Tenements" marks the initial flight of these players from the footlights to the screen. As the story concerns the denizens of New York's lower East side, their choice for the interpretation of these characters was peculiarly apt.

A Christie Comedy "Tootsie Wootsie" and a late issue of International News complete the program.
